reverence their conscience as their king, 366a
reverenced and obeyed, 401b reverenced his conscience as his
king, 364a
some certain dregs of conscience, 318b supporting Govt. against his conscience, 130a
tender-hearted conscience, 52b that I were as happy as my conscience is clear, 667b that undying serpent, 324b the oracle of God, 58b the pulse of reason, 88a the voice of the soul, 696b unsafe and imprudent to act against, 453b very stuff o' the conscience, 300b void of offence, 426b wakened in a fever, 38a wakes Despair that slumbered, 218b
was strong, 337a what better bed than conscience good, 375a what conscience dictates to be done, 250b
who has no conscience has nothing, 778a
who has no shame has no con-
science, 778a
who loses conscience has nothing left, 378a
women full of, 80a Consecration, the, and the poet's dream, 400b
Consent, blushed a sweet, 49a I sealed my hard, 290a not deemed so, if given under a mistake, 505a whispering I will ne'er, 62a Consenting passions move, 255b Consequences, logical, scarecrows of fools, 176a of actions, 50b Conservatism, a barren thing, 117a defends coercive arrangements, 338b
port hymns to his, 213b Conservative, a little, 146b came-over-with-the-Conquerortype, 381a Government an organised hypocrisy, 118a Conservatives after dinner, they are,
133a

Conservator and Innovator, 72a

Consider it not so deeply, 304a man that cries, 137a

CONSIDERATION

a matter for, 490a examined enterprise goes on bravely, 735a first consider, then begin, 805a like an angel, came, 316a See Deliberation

Con-si-de-ra-tion, for a, 274b

CONSTANCY

a great task to be always the
same man, 570a
is a jewel, 825b still wuz a part of his plan, 201b

CONSOLATION

of the damned, 449b this shall comfort you, you fall by the hand of Æneas, 544b words and maxims to alleviate this affliction, 666a words of no use, but deeds helpful, 501a

Consoler, Death the, 198b

Conspicuous by its absence, 268a through not being seen, 522a

Conspiracies, curst fate of all, 128a Constable, a night-watch, 277a governs the Parish, 275b

CONSTANCY

a constancy words nor affronts can shake, 212a
a great task to be always the
same man, 570a
a useless constancy, 88a alone is strange, 264a and obstinacy, 28b constant as the northern star, 286a
Constancy, Fidelity, Bounty, 29a Constant in inconstancy, 17a infernial constancy of women who love me, 323a lives in realms above, 87a tax on, 347b the foundation of virtues, 13a
'tis religion to be true, 328a to a bad, ugly woman, 60b to be constant one must be immortal, 697a
to love one maiden only, 366a to one thing constant never, 284b were man constant he were perfect, 281b when change itself can give no more, 275a
woman's constancy is all my eye, 263b wouldst thou approve thy constancy, 221a

Constantia, excidit omnis, 673a

Constantine I, motto, 551b

Constellation set, that, 96b

Constellations, happy, 220b

Constituents a henry, 202a

CONSTITUTION

a higher law than the, 275b governs us all, 22a nobody planned the confounded,
384b
of a constitution so general, 28b philosopher's stone of a constitution, 338b talk of constitutions, 68b Constraint: mastiff grows fiercer for being tied up, 726a rich bounties of, 396a Consule Plancio, 597a Consultation, too much, confounds,
862b Consumed, Lord's mercies that we are not, 418b

H H

Consummation, a, devoutly to be wished, 293b quiet, have, 309b Consummatus est, 505b Contagion spread, foul, 226b of the world's slow stain, 326b one sickly spread infects the flock, 382b spreads still further, 564a to this world, 295a Contagious blastments, 291a Contemplate and admire, 226b from far, that which we would, 402a Contemplation, for, he and valour formed, 219a the Cherub, 224b Contemplation's sober eye, 155a Contemporary exposition is weighty in law, 505b events diminish a man's fame, 577b CONTEMPT and anger of his lip, 298a few can bear, 807b he that all despiseth, all displeaseth, 633b is the real death, 714a keep your ain fish-guts to your ain seamaws, 798b scorning is catching, 831b those who are despised return the favour, 660a too high for contempt, 94a what our contempts do often hurl from us, 307a you turn up your nose at men unknown, 677b CONTENT
 a few paternal acres, 254b a mind content, 156a cheerful acquiesce, 46b Englishmen ne'er contented long, 108a enjoy your lot, 678a farewell, content, 302a for one rich man content a hundred are not, 763a greatest and surest of riches, 634b happiest if ye seek no happier state, 219b happiness belongs to the contented, 472a he is a king who desires nothing, 646a he is rich that is satisfied, 774b he is rich who desires no more property than he has, 517a he that studies his content wants it, 781b he who wants content cannot find an easy chair, 783b his wealth, content, 82b in whatsoever state, therewith to be content, 429b is better than riches, 749a let me have what I have, or even less, 659a let us draw upon content, 150b money, means, and content, 287a none content with their own lot, 632a not found in honour, 107a poor and content, is rich, 302a range with humble livers in content, 319b shut up in measureless content, 304a that all might be contented, 76a the all-in-all of life, 68a the most certain wealth of all, 597b the true philosopher's stone, 749a

Content—contd.
 thinks it luxury, 1b
 thoughts that savour of content, 155b what better fare than well content, 375a where our desire is got without content, 304b which is the calmest life, 220a whom little will not content, nothing will, 481b wish to be what you are, 641b with a little, 22a you will live wisely, contented with your lot, 563b Contenteur tout le monde et son père, 704b

CONTENTION

Content, the longer we, 51b hence contentions and battles of the tongue, 524a let the long contention cease, 4b man who is contentious never lacks words, 177b not an inch of love in a hundred ells of, 792b not hate but glory made these chiefs contend, 256b

CONTEST

arbitrer in this mirthful contest, 491b bumper of liquor will end contest, 328a great contest follows, 100a mighty contests rise from trivial things, 247b of their vain contest appeared no end, 221b your own good blades must win the rest, 271a Context: malice quotes text and not context, 558b read the whole if you wish to understand, 564b words to be understood according to context, 680b

Continent, the whole boundless, 275b

Contra bonos mores, 505b

Contract, time the essence of the, 670a

Contracts, things introduced into, to remove doubt, 627b

CONTRADICTION

a hopeless case, 97b all a contradiction, 268b dear spirit of, 22a devil of contradiction hard to cast out, 871a man a bundle of contradictions, 91a never annoying but always contradicting, 710b thou spirit of, 211b unnatural, and full of contradictions, 171a where you wish them to do a thing, they will not, 674b who alleges things contradictory is not to be heard, 488a woman's at best a contradiction, 251a

we must first disbelieve and dispute with a truth, 454a

Contrairy, everything goes, 114a

Contraries cured by contraries, 506a evils cured by, 177b

Contrite heart, sighing of a, 432a

Contrition, snivelling signs of, 203b

Contrivance better than force, 825a

Contrivances, woman can discover many, 477b Controversial pen, fears the, 103a

CONTROVERSY

a man not converted because silenced, 235a celestial hate, 256b delect in devynite as dogges doth bones, 195a heat in proportion to want of knowledge, 343a Jurists are bad Christians, 798a no combatants are stiffer, 101b opposite religious views reconciled by some higher truth, 263b shepherds wrangle when the wolf is nigh, 274b to tarre them to controversy, 293a vaine, controversies, 341a while the dogs snarl at each other, the wolf devours the sheep, 874a Contumely, proud man's, 293b Convenience snug, 45a Convenient season, when I have a, 426b Convective, arrests for being at a, 242b heard at, 99b Conventional, the, or "coming together," 133a Convert's but a fly, 52b CONVERSATION
 a gift, 97b
 a table-talker rich in sense, 212b age increasing desire for, 539b an exhausted stock, 90b as e'er my conversation coped withal, 294b beguile the time with, 600a boldness holds sway, 162b completes a gentleman, 754b confidence more important than wit, 666b despising such conversation, 130a do not flee conversation, 586b Englishmen talk of the weather, 180b genius of, eliciting it from others, 666a he that converses not knows nothing, 777a let all thy converse be sincere, 188a love and conversation, 134a makes one what he is, 749a no conversation with him, 112b now is the time for converse, 503b often speaks but never talks, 168a one may be confuted yet not convinced, 822a secret, converse with the Mighty Dead, 264b, 370a silence and modesty valuable in, 700b so sweet and voluble in his discourse, 277a speak with the vulgar, 878a teaches more than meditation, 749a they converse as those knowing that God hears, 506b twelve-person power of conversation, 64b note when you stick on conversation's burrs, 167b wit the bane of, 260a with Mighty Dead, 370a with thee conversing, 142b with thee conversing forget all time, 219a Converso pollice, 506a
 "Convey" the wise it call, 287b Conviction the Conscience of the Mind, 378b one may be confuted yet not convinced, 822a

Convincing, oh, too, 57a

Conviwiality, taper of, 173a

COOKS and COOKERY

a bad cook licks his fingers, 717a a cook is known by his knife, 719a a cook must please by cleanliness, 188b a cook who seasons his dishes cunningly, 542b all Frenchwomen know a little cookery, 708b cognisance of cooking, 38a colliers, cooks, carters and, 203b cooks not to be taught in their own kitchen, 749a courses to please guests and not the cooks, 503b eggs, 685 ways to cook, 233a note God sends meat; the devil sends cooks, 767a

Home-made dishes, 173b hunger finds no fault with the cookery, 786b possessed with thoughts of the kitchen, 663a son, cook's, 190a

the animal who cooks, 177a the science of the cook-shop, 649b they had with them a cook, 76b too many cooks spoil the broth, 862a

Coombe, Mr., 41a

Cophetua loved the beggar maid, 278b

CO-OPERATION

good men forbidden to co-operate with bad, 558a many hands make light work, 807b mutual confidence and mutual aid, 257a mutual help is the law of nature, 813a one hand washes another, 821b three helping one another bear the burden of six, 858b work shortened by being shared, 517b

Copiousness always false eloquence, 229a

Copper, trust nothing but common, 72b

Copy and book that fashioned others, 315a leave the world no, 297b

Nature, not to, 263a note

Coral made, of his bones, 310b true, needs no painter, 863a

Coram non judice, 506a

Corbies and clergy are kittle shot, 749a

Cord, a threefold, not easily broken, 415b be loosed, the silver, 416a breaketh at last, 842a the triple, 42a

Cordelia, stay a little, 307a

Cordial, too much, will destroy, 862b

Core, there ain't going to be no, 84b

Corin was her only joy, 436a

Corinth, not given to every man to go to, 596b

Corinthian, a, a lad of mettle, 313b capital of society, 41b

Cork, rebels in, 232a

Cormorant, sat like a, 218b

CORN

a deeper yellow on the corn, 166a corn and horn go together, 749a corn him well, he'll work the better, 749a flies o'er the unbending corn, 247a in Egypt, 409a

in good years is hay, 749a

Corn—contd.

in May and in June, 804b in much corn there is some cockle, 792b is hay in good years, 792b like as a shock of corn, 411a much corn lies unseen under the straw, 812b newe corn from yeer to yere, 79b no corn without chaff, 815b not sent for rich only, 308a raise the price of corn, 61a ripens by night after Lammas, 732a sow in clay, 836b

the weeds o'ergaes the corn, 852b whoever could make grow two ears of corn, 347a you measure everyone's corn by your own bushel, 879b

Cornelle compared with Shakespear, 180b

Corner, not born for one, 601a of a foreign field, some, 26a take time in turning a, 839a the head stone of the, 413a this thing was not done in a, 426b

Corners, three, of the world, 312a Cornishmen, known by Ire, Pol, and Pen, 746b twenty thousand, 457a

Corns, shooting, presage a shower, 348a

Cornwall, I love thee, 140b in Cornwall are the best gentlemen, 749a squab-pie, 188b

Coromandel, blackman fought on the, 206a

Coronation days, kings upon their, 124a

Coronatus, homo, 545b

Coronets, kind hearts are more than, 357b

Corporations have no souls, 85b, 460a

Corps, good wishes to the, 18a he'd make a lovely, 113b

Corpus delicti, 506b

Corpus inanime, 506b

Correct old time, 248b

thing, always do and say the, 324a Corrected copies the least correct, 8a

Correcteth, whom the Lord loveth, he, 413b

Correction: rub out often with your pen, 647b stilo inverso, 663a

Correggio, corrigiosity of, 22b, 73b, 342b

Correspondence. See Letters

Correspondent to command, 310b

Corridors of Time, 198a

Corroboration: opinion and conviction gain by a second mind's adoption, 454a

CORRUPTION

all offices are greasy, 716a

all things can corrupt perverted minds, 611b an itching palm, 286b

an ox has trodden on my tongue, 469a authority led by the nose with gold, 310b every man has his price, 458b freemen, corrupted, 142a

-gendered swarm of state, 335a glory obtained without corruption, 592a hoarseness caused by swallowing gold and silver, 452a

Corruption—contd.

influence (corrupt) spring of prodigality, 40b justice sold at a price, 624a lends corruption lighter wing, 251a meed is strong, 809b nothing but is corrupted with continuance of time, 432a no liberty among a corrupt people, 40b of the best is the worst, 506b

place and power, 232a

soldiers, if not corrupt, should be made so, 450b symptom of liberty, 144a the consul stains the honours he sells, and those he bears, 617a the strength of kings, 5b to fish with a golden hook, 494b unbribing and unbribed, 335a venale pecus, 679b watchword of corruption, 455a we have taught them to accept money, 618a wins not more than honesty, 320a Corsair's name, he left a, 57b

Corse, a slovenly, unhandsome, 313a

Cortes, to the, for everything, 733b

Cortez, like stout, 184b

COSMOPOLITANISM

an equal portion dealt to all mankind, 147b every soil his country, to a valiant man, 211b

Socrates a citizen of the world, 659b the universe one commonwealth, 675b the whole world is my native land, 601a the wise man is at home, 131b

to a resolved mind, 138b who seeks for truth should be of no country, 450a Cosmopolite, polite to every country but your own, 170b

COST

dearer the cheaper, for I shall buy less, 842a grievous to me to put you to so great cost, 671a meat is wholesomest at another's cost, 852b the more cost, the more honour, 848a things dearest to us which have cost us most, 701b what costs little is lightly esteemed, 812a, 867b

Cot-folk, poor, 45a

Cots and lodges of the hind, 76b

Cotswold barley, 749b

COTTAGES

a cottage was near, 233b forbidden without land, 141a forlorn, lowly cottages, 336b note formerly cottages, 569b great man often comes from a cottage, 520b had been princes' palaces, 282a homes (cottage) of England, 161b light sleep does not disdain cottages, 660b love lives in cottages, 805b nest like a dove's (a cottage), 393a no stronger castle than a poor man's cottage, 725b of gentility, 87a, 336a silly cottages, 161a the cottage suffers for errors of court, 90b taught by cottage dames, 187a with a double coach-house, 87a

Cotton-spinners all, we are not, 361b Cotton-spinning, even, noble, 73a Cottle, Oh, Amos, 60a
 Couch, his virtuous, 27b Cough, dry, is trumpeter of death, 720a

he is a representative of Bark-shire, 773b love and a, cannot be hid, 805a ready made cough, 82a

Coughing drowns the parson's saw, 277b

COUNCILS,

beware of, 109b

free speech in councils, 257a great in the council, 256b

(councils) increase evils, 504b

Scipio the soul of the council, 448b then was called a council, 35b

Council-room, do not go before you are called, 484b

COUNSELLORS

a most profane and liberal counsellor, 301a

first advised the ill, 123b multitude of counsellors, 413b safety in many, 648a

COUNSEL

base, to men of discretion, 505a breaks not the head, 749a come not to, uncalled, 748b darkeneth, 412a detestable, in beginning and ending, 534a

easier than endurance, 478a evil counsel which cannot be altered, 573a

evil counsel worst for him who gives it, 573a

fool may give a wise man counsel, 720b

forsook the old men's counsel,
 410b

from divine sources, 505a help of good, 10b how many sweet counsels, 46a if this counsel or work be of men, 426a

in wine seldom prosper, 749a is no command, 749a keep the counsel you would have another keep, 842a more effective than anger, 505a of no avail after the event, 623a

(counsels) of perfection, 454a perplex and dash maturest counsels, 217a

pillar of government, 10a rich men have seldom good counsel, 570b

safety where there are many,
 648a

shall guard thee, 505a specially needed when a man finds many counsels, 545a take counsel sometimes, 247b take counsel before beginning a

 thing, 491a

three may keep, if two be away, 858b

two may keep, when third's away, 276a

we took sweet counsel together, 412b

when the enemy is under the walls, 503b

which will not be followed, 59b

See Advice.

Count five-and-twenty, 115b

COUNTENANCE

disinheriting, 328b

in which did meet sweet records,
 393a

Countenance—contd.

is like spring, 568a more in sorrow, 290b picturesque, 327b

that countenance cannot lie, 267a,

341b

worthy to shine in lasting gold, 614a

Counterfeit presentment, 295b

Counterpart, abject, of what they are, 403a

Countersign, grant us grace to give the, 121b

Counting, oft, makes good friends,
 819a

Country a kind of healthy grave,
 333a

COUNTRY (Rural Life)

anybody can be good in the country, 388a

chickens are the country and the city eats them, 841b gentlewomen of the country not in fashion, 242b

God made the, 99a, 766b he likes the country, 98b how blest is he who leads a country life, 125a

I have no relish for the country, 333a

I loathe the country, 92a

I praise country life, 25a in the country you praise the town, 646b

nothing good to be had in the country, 159b

people in the country hate each other, 159b

poetical lies about the country, 333a

stronger Tory in the country, 2b to fly to the country as from chains, 526b

vivere luce volo, 686a walking, a country diversion, 92a

COUNTRY (Land or Territory) all countries are a wise man's home, 52a

come from a far countree, 86b every land a father-land to a lucky man, 535b father of his country, 453a first, best country ever is at home, 147b

for country, for children, altars, hearths, 625a for the good of my, I should be abroad, 134a

he does not change his country who always sees the sun, 792b he who loves not his country, 59b honourable to die for country, 519a

how I leave my country, 245a how I love my, 245a note humdrum, laws with country, 65a

I have everywhere remembered my country, 674b

I hope to find my country in the right, 107b note

left out, for our country's good,
 18a

love of, a preventive of crime, 24a love of, its own reward, 489b love of, will be victorious, 683a loved my country and hated him, 61a

made all countries his own, 122a might have lived to do his country service, 138a

my country is where it is well with me, 674a

Country (Land or Territory)—contd.

my country, 'tis of thee, 331b no hope of seeing country or children, 587a

no one can discard his native
 country, 589a

none love their country but, who love home, 88a not for himself but for his country, 600b

Oh save my country, 251a one drop of blood from thy country's bosom, 317a our country's welfare our first concern, 158b

our country to be cherished in all our hearts, 390b

our country right or wrong, 107b polite to every country but your

 own, 170b

save my bleeding country, 66a shameful to be ignorant of one's

 country, 593a

she is my country still, 82b so vile that will not love his

 country, 286a

praises every country but his own, 146b preferreth all countries before his

 own, 240b

so many countries, so many customs, 835a

stood for his country's glory, 269a strange countries for to see, 435b

their country's wishes, 23a

the undiscovered, 293b they've undone his country, 1b thy country's thy God's, and truth's, 320a ungrateful country, you shall not have my bones, 556a

what bosom beats not in his country's cause, 255a

when shall I see thee, 607b who loves his country, 82b whose hand hath done his country service, 354a

with many a fear for my dear
 country, 396b

your country's cause calls, 144b Country, the force of a (posse comi- tatus), 622b

the country God, 359b

Couple, newly-married, complacency of, 192a

Couplets, her golden, 297a

Coups d'épingle, 459a

COURAGE

a valiant man's look more than a coward's sword, 729a against Fortune, 24b all goes if courage goes, 176b brave actions never want a trumpet, 745b

breaks ill luck, 768a brows of dauntless courage, 216b brutal thing called courage, 20b consists in bearing calamity boldly, 211b

courage lost, all lost, 716b note courage lost, much lost, 716b courageous man never wanted weapon, 729b

Fortune cannot take away our courage, 535a fortune favours the brave, 763b fortune helps the brave, 534b good fortune the companion of valour, 684b

he left no bolder heart behind, 273a

he is a king who fears nothing, 646a

Courage—contd.

in your own (trouble), 151b leads the way, 142a live as brave men, 630b many impious, intemperate and ignorant are valorous, 448b may do much in doubtful matters, 792b mounteth with occasion, 311a necessity makes the timid brave, 814a now there is need of valour and a stout heart, 604b often caused by fear, 749a put off your armour and then show your courage, 828b raised their faintest courage, 216b recall your courage, 646a renew your courage, 645a respects courage, 344b screw your courage to the sticking-place, 304a shown by him who endures to live in adversity, 643b some have been thought brave because afraid to run away, 835b the bad man's, 88a
the braver the man, the more fortunate, 668b the less careful they were in battle the safer, 630b the more wit, the less courage, 848b the one hope of deliverance, 675a the weak in courage, 23b they retain courage almost after life, 490b to do and suffer bravely, 524b true, scorns to vent itself in words, 333b true valour half way between cowardice and rashness, 449a true valour is fire, 863a unbounded courage, 2b unmatched for courage, breath and speed, 270b Vanity bids her sons be brave, 343b whistling and singing to keep up courage, 128b who has not courage should have legs, 875a

Courage, I have finished my, 430b of true love, the, 280b they love, the, 96a

COURTS

and camps, 80a (court) affords much food for satire, 404a and cities she had seen, 271a antagonisms of court, 93b boldness does the deed in court, 76a camp or court, 2b city, camp and court attacking, 348a court-life does not make us happy, but prevents us being so elsewhere, 697a far from court, far from care, 760a four ways to succeed in, 6b (courts) have no almanacs, 749b her court was pure, 356b hiest in court, next the widdie, 813b I was not born for courts, 252b incense of court, 670b full of men, empty of friends, 545a let him depart from the court who wishes to be honest, 527b leave the court ere the court leave thee, 800a old courts, 179b

Court's—contd.

so many men in court, so many strangers, 835a universities, the sea, and the court, 854a whipped out of the court, 310a who has seen court has seen the world, 706b who would live turmoiled in the court, 317b See Courtier.
Court holy water (Courtesy), 749b Court her in the conqueror's style, 211a Court (of law), you may come to the, 483b Courteous action, with what, 291b all-, out of self-respect, 266a though coy, 103a

COURTESY

a man may strain, 279a all doors open to, 732b always room for, 133a and mildness, nothing more valuable to a man, 643a be not a beast in, 162b blossom of good-sense, 404b costs nothing, 749a cumbersome to him that kens it not, 749b full of courtesy, full of craft, 736b give place to your betters, 765b he that asketh a courtesy promiseth a kindness, 776a in commanding, 855a in discourse conciliates, 504b kynde without cortesie, 741a less of your courtesies and more of your purse, 800a manhood is melted into courtesies, 285a mirror of all courtesy, 77b on one side lasts not long, 749b phrase of gentlest courtesy, 270b princes of courtesy, 238a put your hand quickly to your hat and slowly to your purse, 828b rude and scant of courtesy, 722b the greater man, the greater courtesy, 365b thy sweet obligingness, 239b the very pink of courtesy, 279a to say harsh things soothingly, 478b too much, is discourtesy, 862b what a candy deal of courtesy, 313b wins woman, 365b words of glozing courtesy, 225a your unexpected courtesies, 212b Courtier all my days, a, 255b careless, young, an old beggar, 731a near the heel of the, 297a soldier's, scholar's, eye, tongue, sword, 294a Courting, weather usually fine, 343b Courtied and jilted, better be, 69a Courting. See Wooing, 343b Courtly once, was, 33a

COUSINS

call me cousin, but cozen me not, 746b everything is my cousin, 132a she was first cousin to Lady Jones, 445a his cousins and his aunts, 145a Coutts, Miss Anja-ly, 156 Coventry, sent to, 454a Cover what it could not hide, to, 133b

Covert yield, what the open, what the, 248a

COVETOUSNESS

all covet, all lose, 732b becomes no one, and least of all an old man, 495b breaks the bag, 749b brings nothing home, 749b covetous man does nothing well till he dies, 719a excessive wealth causes, 208a hoards itself poor, 747b is young when all sins grow old, 869b not what men covet is best, 341a of others' property covetous, profuse with his own, 487b poor man wants some things, covetous man wants all, 726b riches makes more men covetous than covetousness makes rich, 830a starves other vices, 749b the covetous always wants, 661b the covetous spends more than the liberal, 842a the man who covets is always poor, 652b to avoid covetousness is to conquer a kingdom, 521a vice of old age, 660b who covets deservedly loses, 489b wisdom surrenders to desire of gain, 468a

Coveys, the wounded, 45b

COWS

are my passion, 115a call a cow to the ha', she'll run to the byre, 746b collier's (or poor man's) cow always well fed, 719a consider good cow, consider, 446a cow knows not worth of her tail till it is lost, 842b curst cow hath short horns, 719b far-off cows have long horns, 760a good cow may have an ill calf, 721b growing down (or backward) like a cow's tail, 770a if you sell the cow you sell her milk too, 790b, 878b ill-willie cow should have short horns, 735b like cow, like calf, 802b many a good cow hath a bad calf, 807b milk the cow which is near, 479a must browse where she is tied, 842a only one cow's tail to reach the sky, 788b quey caufs are dear veal, 829a take a cow by her horn, 838b thank you, pretty cow, 355b the old cow thinks she was never a calf, 849a the old woman said, who kissed her cow, 441a, 757b three acres and a cow, 459a tune the old cow died of, 446a what should a cow do with a nutmeg, 868b will be well looked after, 757b you cannot sell the cow and have the milk, 878b

COWARDS and COWARDICE

a plague on all cowards, 313b all men cowards if they dare, 102b, 264a are cruel, 143b (cowardice) as universal as sea-sickness, 323b

Cowards and Cowardice—contd.

aversion to danger (cowardice), 20b bravest often fall before weapons of cowards, 592b castle, coward's, 76a conscience doth make cowards of us all, 293b cowardly dog barks more than he bites, 500a death follows any coward, 521a (cowards) die many times, 285b evil men and cowards, 670b he that longer fears to live is cowardly, 140a I am an arrant coward, 137b (cowards) in scarlet, 153a lions in peace, in battle stags, 552b mother of cruelty (cowardice), 749b note (coward) never forgave, 343b no herb of help to heal a coward, 353b pale cold cowardice, 312a plenty and peace breed cowards, 309a the coward sneaks to death, 275b the timid never set up a trophy, 671a to the strong a coward, 325b true-bred cowards, 313a upon instinct a coward, 314a very talkative and fierce with their tongues, 548a whom 'twere gross flattery to name a coward, 372a where's the coward would not dare, 270a Cowl, I like a, 131a Cows adrift, turned the, 358a Cowley, A., 2a
 Cowslip, a country wench, 171b Cowslip's bell, in a, 311a Cowslips wan, 226b
 Coxcombs, some made, 246b Coy looks, bought with heart-sore sighs, 281a she was, and would not believe, 435b there's none more, 260b Crab cannot be made to walk straight, 477a if like a, you could go backward, 292b Crabbed, not harsh and, 225a Cracked-up, we must be, 113b Cradle, hand that rocks the, 376b learnt in the, lasts to the tomb, 868a of the deep, 238b, 390a our, stands in the grave, 156b rock the cradle till they bruise child, 102b rocking a grown man in the cradle, 40b Cradles rock us nearer to the tomb, 406b Cradled into poetry by wrong, 326b Craft against craft makes no living, 749b and credulity, between, 40b bringeth nothing home, 749b maun hæ claes; truth goes naked, 749b she is such a smart little, 146a Craftiness taketh the wise in their own, 411a CRAFTSMANSHIP
 no one is born an artificer, 589a the craft so long to lerne, 79b Crafts: of all crafts, Downright is the best, 819a Crafty man and a half, to a crafty man, 859b men deal in generalities, 749b Craggy throne, on a, 378b Crambe repetita, 507a

 Crams and blasphemers the feeder, 225b Crane's neck, wished for a, 695a note Crank, a little thing that makes revolutions, 441b Cranny, every, but the right, 102b Cras ingens iterabimus æquor, 606a Cras tibi, 544b
 Crash of whole stellar and solar systems, 72b of worlds, 2a Crawling between heaven and earth, 294a Cream-faced loon, 305a Cream of others' books, skim the, 234a Creampot love, 750a CREATION
 all things were created by him, 429b blot (creation's), creation's blank, 144b such as creation's dawn beheld, 56a heir of, 147b Creative Art, 394b
 Creator, remember now thy, 416a Creature, every, of God is good, 430a not too bright and good, 393a served the, more than the Creator, 427a shall the clay say, what makest thou? 417b Creatures ours, call these delicate, 302a Creature's at his dirty work again, 252a Credat Judæus Apella, 507a CREDIBILITY
 according to fear or to hope, 488b credible because irrational, 502b note let your talk be worthy of belief, 659a CREDIT
 blest paper-, 251a by distrust I gained credit, 477b destroyed (comcussa fides), 543b good faith the foundation of justice, 537a imaginary riches of paper, 241b keeps the crown o' the causey, 749b kingdom insecure without good faith, 674a let the credit go, 135b man's nature not wealth makes him trustworthy, 472a men of business must not break their word twice, 810a no man loses credit except he who has it not, 532b private credit is wealth, 184a public credit, 85a
 social intercourse of men depends on maintenance of credit, 532a take heed of credit decayd and people who have nothing, 744b their credit is naught, 374b touched the dead corpse of Public Credit, 384a we live by trust in others, 686b who has lost credit is dead to the world, 778b who loses, can lose nothing further, 532b your surety wants a surety, 880b

Creditors a superstitious set, great observers of days and times, 749b a thousand ways of cheating, 677b CREDULITY
 a craving, 118a a credulous man is a deceiver, 7a against experience willing to believe, 259b an error to believe all men, 678b belief in witches, 28b craft and credulity, 40b credula simplicitas, 507a credulous hope is kind, 507a do not believe hastily, 586a he that believes all misseth, 776a I believe it because incredible, 507a if ye believe a' ye hear, ye may eat a' ye see, 790a let Apella, the Jew, believe that, 507a love is a credulous thing, 507a noblest natures most credulous, 75b, 364b O too credulous people, 607a obscure things more easily believed, 509b of women, 529a once I guessed right, 439b positive men most credulous, 350a quick believers need broad shoulders, 829a rumour fostered by credulity, 647a speak long enough, and get believers, 344b those old credulities, 397b we talk of a credulous vulgar, 27b we welcome fond, 269b wise sceptic credulous as regards himself, 507a youth the season of, 245a Credulous, like simple noble creatures, 364b man, a deceiver, 7a noblest natures most, 75b Creech, the very words of, 104b note CREEDS a comfortable creed, 62b a little less creed, 443b all, I view with toleration, 170a altar, priest, and, 381a Athanasian creed, 635b creeds and opinions, result or chance and temperament, 329a creed and test vanish, 398b creed be taught, whatever, 58b creeds and philosophies change, 378b churches and creeds, 89b commandments have made as many martyrs as the creed, 847b falls for his creed, 376b fuse their respective creeds, 32a if our creeds agree, 231a life of truth from rot of creeds, 387a more faith in doubt than in half the creeds, 362b no narrow creed, 335b our earliest creed, 167b outworn creed, suckled in, 394b out-worn creeds, dust of, 325b sapping a solemn creed, 55a the deed and not the creed, 190b the Spirit behind all creeds, 193b truth never contained in any one creed, 378b we have a Calvinistic creed, 245a who keeps the keys of all the creeds, 362a

Creep before ye gang, 749b they that, and they that fly, 155a CREMATION
 whether corruption resolves bodies, or the funeral pile, matters not, 667a Creon's daughter, 236a Crescent of a hair's-breadth, 33b Crescit amor nummi, 507b Cressets, fiery shapes of burning,
 314a
 Crest, so many a meaner, 53b Cretans, accused, 480a always lears, 473b Crib, his master's, 416b CRICKET
 a bumping pitch, 238a casting a ball at three straight sticks, 190a flannelled fools at the wicket, 190b most trying to the temper, 171a recovering the ashes, 456b Crickets, merry as, 313b shall not hear it, 310a Crier cried O Yes, 16b Crime qui fait la honte, 690a CRIME absent from our inclination, 530a accomplices regarded as accusers, 573a action harmless to you, may by others be deemed a crime, 639b and a thousand crimes, 57b and intention of crime are equal, 615b assessment of past crime not increased by subsequent happening, 486b consecrate a crime, 53a contagion of crime, 450a debt mother of crime, 116b degraded his fluent voice with crime, 614a
 drunkenness aggravates crime, 609b equalises those it corrupts, 507b, 529b, 779a
 from one example judge them all, 507b
 has its heroes, 699a he has done the crime who profits by it, 508b his hand on the throttle-valve of crime, 268b
 his own crime besets every man, 667a history a record of crimes, 696a impossible to enumerate all forms
 of, 599a
 its joys and crimes, 36b knaves' success entices many to
 crime, 665a
 madden to crime, 56b make the punishment fit the
 crime, 146b
 may be safe, but cannot be secure from anxiety, 673b men whose joys are mixed with
 crime, 607a
 ministers to his crime, 577b no one becomes thoroughly bad suddenly, 589b
 no one lives without a crime, 589b none founded on reason, 604a not against forms, 42b number of malefactors authorizes not the crime, 848b on a larger scale, 529b one crime must be covered up by another, 649b
 one criminal bears a cross, another a diadem, 504a

Crime—contd.
 one of these days you will try something baser, 534a our fears are crimes, 109b premeditation as bad as guilt, 584a prosperous crime is called virtue, 626b punishment of, is in the crime, 649b punishment, with lame foot, tracks the criminal, 643a reach the dignity of crimes, 234a some dared crimes, many were inclined to, all permitted, 560a spotted with all crimes, 100a successful crimes alone are justified, 123b the greater the man the greater the crime, 844a
 the multitude of offenders is their protection, 848b
 the safe way to crime is through
 crime, 618b
 the shame of punishment, 108b they can't commit his crimes, 108b they gain fierceness and courage by their crime, 591b they that most impute a crime, 365a united by crimes, 692a virtues so mingled with his crimes, 128a
 what man is contented with one crime only, 638b who overlooks crime invites guilt, 559a
 who protects the guilty encourages crime, 595a
 worse than a crime, a blunder, 453b, 600a
 Cripple, no halting before a, 816a to beat a, with his own crutches, 141b Cripples, go it, ye, 464a he that mocks a cripple ought to be whole, 780b who lives with, learns to limp, 780a
CRISIS called upon to face some awful moment, 399b crisis is onto us, 27b on the razor's edge, 471b res in cardine est, 645b the very crisis of your fate, 128a things come to a crisis, 645a times that try men's souls, 241a Crispinus, again, behold this, 521a CRITICS AND CRITICISM a critic, nay, a night-watch constable, 277a a musical critic, 121b absence of humility in critics, 160b aim of criticism, 355a air-bell of the critic, 32a all are critics ready made, 60a an honest critic, 509a (critics), appalled I venture, 47b (critics) are like brushers of noble-men's clothes, 749b attacking court, city, camp, 348a avoid unnecessary criticism, 160b censure a tax paid for eminence, 350a
 court not the critic's smile, 273a different thing to act and to talk, 160b Dryden father of English criticism, 180a each line shall stab, 349a easier to be critical than correct, 118a

Critics and Criticism—contd.
 (criticism) easy, wit is difficult,
 697a every critic runs the minor poet down, 237a
 he is praised by these, blamed by those, 564b his biting is immortal, 307b I am nothing if not critical, 301a I shall be praised abundantly if the reader does not loathe me, 564b
 I will dispraise a little, 211a (critics) in rust, 2a in writing or in judging ill, 246a it is easier to ridicule than to command, 795a le mauvais métier que celui de censeur, 699b men who have failed (critics), 117b musical critic (soprano, etc.), 58a not even critics criticise, 100a of silence, criticism, 160b prettiness, criticism of, out of season, 344a pin faith on a critic's sleeve, 81b poets, God's most candid critics, 262b
 Pope on criticism, 246a, b, 247a, b raptured with defect (critics), 391a rod of criticism, 118b (critics) should do what they advise to others, 656b the censure of the judicious, 294b the criticising elves, 81b the "crux" of the critics, 508a the science of criticism, 39a these things are bad, but you do no better, 540b they condemn what they do not understand, 579a
 they make blunders, he (the looker-on) makes none, 442b to cry it up or run it down, 348a
 to spare the persons but to publish the crimes, 615a to stop criticism one must die, 449b too nicely knew the critic's part, 90a ultracrepidarian critics, 586a note when I did well, I heard it never,
 870a who have stamped out poet's hope (critics), 30a who themselves are sore, 60a who works in the public square will have many advisers, 776b Zoilus remembered only as a pedantic assailant of Homer, 555b
 See Reviewers, 89a
 Croak into your ears, shall I, 38a Croaking defeat, always, 206a Crockery, marks on, 84a Crockett, David, 457b Crocks, do not put all your, on one shelf, 752b Crocodile, the encased, 184b Crocodiles, wisdom of the, 16b CROCUS, anemone, violet, 361b CROMWELL, OLIVER, 122a and religion, 41b Cromwell's dead, 387a damned to everlasting fame, 250a portrait of, 105a some guiltless, 154a Waller on Cromwell, 376b Crony, trusty, drouthy, 46a Crooked by nature never made straight by education, 749b

Crooked log makes straight fire, 749b stick cannot be made straight, 475a stick will have crooked shadow, 719a strive to set the crooked straight, 236a

Crop, after a bad, sow, 623a has belied our hope, 661a more abundantly in others' lands, 532a

watering last year's, 130b Crosiers : curved end draws, sharp end repels, 510a

Cross as nine highways, 783a

CROSS AND CROSSES

a bloodie cross he bore, 339a a sparkling cross, she bore, 247b best events brought forth by crosses, 165a

(crosses), care, and grief, 312b devil lurks behind the cross, 842b each cross has its inscription, 754a

e'en though it be a cross, 1a every man must carry his own, 757b every one thinks his own the heaviest, 758b

he that had no cross, 242a note he that had no cross, deserved no crown, 261a

in the cross, safety, 551b in this sign thou shalt conquer, 551b

ladders to heaven, 749b last at His cross, 17b make a crutch of your cross, 806b no burden, but support, 387a note no cross, no crown, 242a, 816a no house but has its cross, 816a no man hath a velvet cross, 816a

nothing unless in the cross, 594a on the bitter cross, 313a salvation from the, 482a the dear remembrance of his dying Lord, 339a the way of the cross the way of light, 682a

trust in the cross, 507b where none else will, the devil must bear the cross, 873a

Cross of gold (St. Paul's, London),
361a

Cross of Legion of Honour, 84a Cross-legged, it is good to go, 795b Crochets in thy head, 287b

Crouching at home, cruel abroad, 122a

CROWS

a bad crow, a bad egg, 473a crows bewail the sheep and eat them, 747a, 750a, 842a do not pick out crows' eyes, 750a each crow thinks her own bird fairest, 756a, 842a

it is ill killing crows with an empty sling, 797b

never the whiter for washing, 719b, 750a

no carrion will kill a crow, 815b one crow does not make a winter, 822b

one crow unlucky, etc., 463a report makes the crows blacker than they are, 842b to pluck a crow with you, 719b Crow, neither, nor croak, 814b Crowing, little bantams great at,

803b
Crows'-feet under your eyes, 79a

CROWDS

a great crowd, accompanying,
570a

and not feel the crowd, 100a far from the madding crowd, 154a hate the uncultivated crowd, 609a he will pass in a crowd, 783b note is not company, 10b, 719b moderation displeases the crowd, 13b

of common men, 329a of vulgar men, 57a

sea of upturned faces, 274a ten constitute a crowd, 582a the hum, the shock of men, 54a the low-born crowd, 548a the low-born crowd rage in their minds, 648a

this crowded loneliness, 186b we go with the crowd, 602a we met, 'twas in a crowd, 18b who does not mix with the crowd knows nothing, 874b wiser because just as wise as it need be (the crowd), 621b without company, 144b

CROWNS

a corruptible crown, 428a a crown, or else a glorious tomb, 317b

a crown, golden in show, 222b crown and justice [never] yoked together, 354a

crowns are empty things, 108a crown by Freedom shaped, 402a crown that doth the cowl obey, 398a every noble crown a crown of thorns, 73a gains withal a brighter crown, 398a how sweet a thing it is to wear a crown, 317b

if it hurts us, 14a no cross no crown, 242a no cure for headache, 719b of life, 431b polished perturbation, golden care, 315b

through a crown's disguise, 3a uneasy lies the head that wears a crown, 315b

upon my head they put a fruitless crown, 304b
wear a golden sorrow, 319b when the joyful crown is given,

342b

Crowner's-quest law, 296b Cruce salus, in, 482a note Crucified, till his Lord is, 201b

CRUELTY

a man of cruelty is God's enemy, 725a
a tyrant, 750a

Barbara Allen's cruelty, 436b cruel as a schoolboy, 358a cruel as death, 370a cruel heart ill-suits a manly mind, 256b cruel only to be kind, 296a clemency the remedy of cruelty, 493b impotent cruelty, 43a

let me be cruel, 295a miserable to be so cruel, 29b more cruel if we defer the pain, 750a

of English well known, 701b she is pleased if thou lament, 436b

vice of ancient world, 230a when abroad, cruel, 122a you cruel men of Rome, 285a

your cruelty is our glory, 508a

Cruellest she alive, 297b foe, the, 18b

Cruise, all on our last, 344a

Crumbs are also bread, 750a which fall from their masters' tables, 423a

Crusaders sent from some infernal clime, 167b

Crust of bread and liberty, 255b

Crutch, clawed me with his, 376a shouldered his, 148a

Crutches, hours have, in absence
83a

went on, before he was born, 309b

Cry, a most outrageous dreadful yelling, 340a

have a good, 170b

the bubbling, 62b

is still, they come, 305b it up or run it down, 348a much cry, little wood, 812b one, common to them all, 687b with no language but a cry, 362b you mercy killed my cat, 747a

CUCKOO, 37a

and nightingale come in on April 3, 851b

bird, or but a wandering voice, 393a heard in September, a thing to remember, 463b

heard in October, you're not sober, 463b

in April come he will, etc., 463b its twin notes inseparably paired,

395a

like a cuckoo, you have only one song, 878b

loude sing cuckoo, 434a nightingale and, sitting both in one month, 849a

to fence in the cuckoo, 860b turn your money when you hear the cuckoo, 846a

when the cuckoo comes to the bare thorn, 463a when the cuckoo comes to the full bit, 463a

Cuckoo-buds of yellow hue, 277b

Cucumber, that confounded, 17a

Cucumbers, sunbeams out of, 347b

Cui bono, 508a note

Cui malo, 508a

Cuique suum, 508b

Cuisses on his thighs, 314b

CULTURE

all may be reclaimed by, 559a evil seed and lack of culture, 74b great law of, 71a of mind a kind of food, 490b passion for sweetness and light, 6a

softens the manners, 556a to know the best, 6a want of in many mortals, 582b

Cum grano salis, 485b, 509a

Cum tacet clamant, 509a

Cumberland, to be driven to, 781b

Cunctando restitui rem, 509a, 676a

CUNNING

a crafty knave needs no broker
719a

a cunning man may outwit another, but not all the others 704b

a weak and sluggish cunning, 8b and strength united, 510a courage and, 23b in fence, 298a

is no burden, 750a knowledge apart from justice 649b

lawyer's, 583b

Cunning—contd.

lion's skin to be eked out with fox's, 451*b*
man, a cunning, 14*b* men pass for wise, 10*b* overcomes might, 834*b* people who are too sharp cut their fingers, 825*a* so cunning and so young, 319*a* so cunning-simple, 356*b* surest way to be cheated is to think ourselves cleverer than others, 701*a* surpasses strength, 825*a* the greatest, is to have none, 845*b*
the wary man was caught, 501*b* to a crafty man a crafty and a half, 859*b*
what cunning can express, 110*a* wiles help weak folk, 876*a* Cup, every inordinate, 310*b* go round, he bids the ruddy, 273*a* is fullest, when the, bear it evenest, 871*a*
it is hard to carry a full, 795*b* stay at the third, 162*b* Cupar, he that will to, 782*b* Cupboard love, 750*a* Cupboards, inmost, of her heart,
367*a*
Cupola or minaret, 270*b*

CUPID

a blind gunner, 134*a* boy of a hundred tricks, 502*a* crafty arrow of, 284*b* Curse of, 242*a* giant-dwarf, Dan Cupid, 277*a* hath clapped him on the shoulder, 289*b*
is a downy cove, 245*a* is a knavish lad, 280*b* kills some with arrows, some with traps, 284*b* little god of talking cowards, 404*a* painted blind, 280*b* qui que tu sois, voici ton maître, 706*b*
rentroll Cupid of our rainy isles, 358*a* silent note which Cupid strikes, 28*b* Cupidinum, mater sava, 274*a* Cups, flowing, run swiftly round, 200*b*
in their flowing, 316*b* that cheer but not inebriate, 100*a*
Cur urceus exit, 489*b* Cura ut valeas, 509*b* Curæ leves loquuntur, 509*b* Curate, a pale young, 146*a* fatter than his cure, 358*a* name of, excites compassion, 331*b* the mildest going, 145*a* when the curate licks the knife, 871*b*
Curb, rusty, of old father Antic, 313*a*

CURE

better at commencement than at end, 649*a*
cesse cause, ay cesseth maladye, 664*b* note
precaution better than, 623*b* the disease, 10*b* evil whose cause we know half-cured, 82*b* what can't be cured must be endured, 867*b* Curfew tolls the knell, 153*a* Curia advisare vult, 510*a* Curl, that winter, 167*b*

Curls, Hyperion's, 295*b*

Curiosa felicitas, 510*a*

CURIOSITY and CURIOSITIES a cause of anger, 601*b* an age more curious than devout, 408*a*

avoid a person who asks questions; he is a talker, 618*b* born of jealousy, 667*a* enquire not too curiously, 465*b* Envy begot curiosity, 755*a* hell fashioned for the inquisitive, 510*a* note
in unnecessary matters, curious, 420*a*
much curiousness, a perpetual wooing, 162*b* no inquisitive person who is not ill-natured, 510*a* prizest things curious and unfamiliar, 165*a* quid nunc? 637*a* seek not the wherefore, 74*b* too much curiosity lost Paradise, 862*b*
Curiously, they note each other,
260*b*
to consider too, 297*a* Current, that with gentle murmur glides, 281*b* when it serves, we must take the,
287*a*
Currente calamo, 510*a* Curs mouth a bone, as, 81*a* of low degree, 149*b* too, shall tame each other, 298*b* you common cry of, 308*a*

CURSING

curse and be cursed, 138*a* curse of Scotland, 750*a* cursed is he that curseth thee, 409*b*
cuss-word an' the swear, 376*b* fall a-cursing, like a very drab, 293*b*
he whom thou curseth, 409*b* hired an artist to curse, 84*a* I called thee to curse, 409*b* like children's curses come home to roost, 750*a* like processions, curses return whence they started, 750*a* never was heard such a terrible curse, 15*b* not loud but deep (curses), 305*b* rigged with curses dark, 226*a* shall be on thee for ever and ever, 337*a*
the bad man's charity (cursing), 137*a*
the causeless curse, 8*b* the primal eldest curse, 295*a* the spot is cursed, 393*b* wrongfully cursing retorneth, 79*a* you shall keep its curses only,
244*a*
Curtain, draw the, the farce is played, 694*b*, note draws the dark, close, 407*a* Curtains close, draw the, 317*b* tape-tied, 251*b* Curtsey, a mutilated, 150*b* while you are thinking, 119*b* Cushion and soft dean, 251*b* them as never had a, 130*b* Cushions, softest, 50*a* the soft easy, 240*a* Cuss-word an' the swear, poet of,
376*b*
Custard, heat the oven twice for a, 769*b*
of the day, 253*b* Custodes, quis custodiet ipsos, 622*a*

CUSTOM and CUSTOMS

a cask and an ill custom must be broken, 718*b* a tyrant, 676*b*
according to custom outside, at home as we please, 534*a* act according to custom, 13*a* all things presumed to be in accordance with, 611*b* another nature, 505*a*, 505*b* antiquity of custom regarded as law, 681*b*
authority of custom very weighty, 539*a* bad customs are better broken than kept, 740*a* bad customs like a good cake, 717*a*
becomes law, 750*a* best interpreter of law, 505*b* Branksome Hall (custom of), 271*b* cake and a bad custom should be broken, 740*a*
can never conquer nature, 605*a* command of custom is great, 770*b* customs are lost for want of use, 750*a*
deadliest foe to love, 204*b* degenerate customs grow apace, 579*b*
despotism of custom, 215*a* do as most men do and all will speak well of thee, 752*a* every country has its custom, 756*a*
evil customs will grow up plenteously, 580*a* good customs surer than law, 480*a* great is the power of custom, 505*a* guide of the ignorant, 750*a* hath endeared (what custom), 14*b* I have known this age and its customs, 602*a*
idiot sway of, 98*a* if bad, to be abolished, 573*a* in place of law, 580*b* is another nature, 770*b* is before all law, 106*a* is held as law, 505*b* is not a small thing, 448*a* keep the common road and thou'rt safe, 798*b* laws of conscience born of custom, 702*a*
laws subservient to custom, 565*a* live in the manner of the place when abroad, 869*b*
makes all things easy, 826*b* more honoured in the breach, 291*b* more things done through habit than reason, 621*a* nice customs curtesy to great kings, 317*a* no argument with poets, 157*a* nothing greater than custom, 593*a*
old custom is old error, 750*a* old customs are best, 820*a* old customs, habits, superstitions, 386*b*
once does not make a custom, 820*b*
once in use and ever after a custom, 820*b* one good custom should corrupt the world, 358*a* plague of wise men, idoi of fools, 750*a* powerful master of all things, 676*b* reconciles us, 39*a* Rome stands by its ancient
customs, 580*a*
rules the law, 750*a*

Custom and Customs—contd.

so many countries, so many customs, 835*a* such dupes are men to custom, 100*b* that monster custom, 296*a* that unwritten law, 106*b* the coward's plea, 82*b* the great guide, 175*a* the rut of custom, 570*b* the tyrant custom, 301*a* the world's great idol, 246*a* to change a custom as bad as death, 860*b* to hammer the anvil out of custom, 860*b* ubi homines, modi sunt, 674*a* Ulysses an observer of men's customs, 582*b* use almost can change the stamp of nature, 295*b* ut mos est, 677*a* we are strong in custom, 308*b* when tyrant custom had not shackled man, 369*b* with customs we live well; laws undo us, 877*a* Custos morum, 510*a* Cut and come again, 102*b* each other's throats for pay, 149*b* short, often a wrong cut, 728*a* the most unkindest, of all, 286*a* your throat for your own sake, 137*b* Cutpurse, a sure trade, 719*b* of the empire, 205*b* Cuttlefish, doth, like the, hide himself in his own ink, 263*a* the discharge of the black, 543*a* Cycle and epicycle, orb in orb, 220*b* Cycles, a law of, in all things, 643*b* Cyclopeda, a living, 212*b* Cyclops with one eye, a, 89*b* Cymbal, a tinkling, 428*a* CYNICS and CYNICISM a cynic knows price of everything, value of nothing, 388*b* cynical view most likely to be the true one, 323*b* cynic frown, 93*a* greatest offence against virtue is to speak ill of it, 159*b* I hate cynicism worse than the devil, 344*a* is intellectual dandyism, 213*b* Cynsure of neighb'ring eyes, 224*a* Cynthia, another, her new journey runs, 254*a* regent of the night, 214*b* note the, of this minute, 251*a* Cypress, a city like a, 681*b* and myrtle, 56*b* funeral, 339*b* tree, under that, 165*a* Cyrus, epitaph, 450*b* Cytherea's breath, 310*a*

D

D, I never use a big, big, 145*a* D—ing, Seeing would have led to, 171*b* Dacian mother, 55*b*
 Dad, called my brother's father, 311*b* Daffodils, dances with the, 393*a* that come before the swallow, 310*a* Dagger into me, thou stick'st, 282*b* of the mind, 304*a* which I see, is this, 304*a* Daggers, I will speak, 295*a* Dainties unbought, 510*b* See Delicacies

DAINTINESS

dainty appetite tastes many dishes, 530*b* let not plenty make you dainty, 800*b* the dainty are unfortunate, nothing satisfies them, 701*b* and buttercups gladdened my sight, 69*a* by its shadow the daisy protects the dew-drop, 402*a* beauty of its star-shaped shadow, 399*a* meadows trim with daisies pied, 224*a* myriads of daisies have shone forth in flower, 402*b* pied and violets blue, 277*b* sheets of daisies, 46*b* smell-less daisies, 139*a* spring has come when you can place your foot on three daisies, 837*a* such as men callen daisies, 79*b* the dayeseye, or elles the eye of day, 80*a* the poet's darling, 392*b* to a Mountain Daisy, 45*a* turned up to the daisies, 16*b* Dalhousy, the great God of War, 258*a* Dalliance, primrose path of, 291*a* Dame that loves to rove, 269*a* Damn, like a parson's, 157*a* with faint praise, 252*a*, 403*b* note Damnata quod non intelligunt, 510*b* Damnation, glass of distilled, 156*b* preach long, loud and, 275*b* round the land, deal, 250*b* the deep damnation of his taking off, 303*b* wet damnation, 372*b* Damnations, twenty-nine distinct, 36*b* Damned endure, what do the, 92*b* the consolation of the, 449*b* to fame, 254*a* Damning, I see no hint of, 368*a* Damnosa hereditas, 510*b* Damns us, we love a man that, 275*b* Damnnum absque injuria, 510*b* Damsel lay deploring, a, 143*b* Danaos, timeo, et dona ferentes, 638*a* Dance attendance on their lordships' pleasures, 320*b* of plastic circumstance, 34*b*

DAISIES

DANCING
 a barbarian exercise, 43*b* a dancing shape, 393*a* a measured pace, 8*a* all are not merry that dance lightly, 732*b* be gaily drest, dance and sing, 357*a* child of Music, 107*b* consolation of the dances, 118*b* curled minion, dancer, 4*b* everyone who dances is not happy, 758*b* good dancers have mostly better heels than heads, 768*a* in a fiddler's house all are dancers, 792*a* in the chequered shade, 224*a* light is the dance, 257*a* like an angel dances, 3*a* Muse of the many-twinkling feet, 60*b* my dancing days are past, 211*b* no longer pipe, no longer dance, 816*a* now is the time for dancing, 604*b*

Dancing—contd.

on the sands, 320*b* on with the dance, 54*b* piped unto you and ye have not danced, 422*b* such a way, she dances, 346*a* that Claribel may dance, 7*a*
 "the better the worse," 12*a* the devil first taught women to dance, 797*a* the greater the fool the better the dancer, 174*a* the poetry of the foot, 127*b* those move easiest who have learned to dance, 253*b* tipsy dance and Jollity, 225*a* to every tune, he'll not dance, 88*a* to play and dance better than necessary in an honest woman, 627*a* to sing, to dance, to dress, 222*a* upon a jig to heaven, 251*b* when you dance I wish you a wave of the sea, 310*a* who have learned to dance, 247*a* with heavy shoes, 8*a* with the daffodils, 393*a* would not join the dance, 119*b* you may dance on the ropes without reading Euclid, 879*b* you will neither dance nor hold the candle, 880*a* Dandysim: jewelled mass of millinery, 363*b*

DANGER

a scorpion beneath every stone, 664*b* absent danger appears greater, 106*a* all is not lost that is in danger, 733*a* aversion to, 20*b* best remedy for danger, 877*a* breed fears, dangers, 18*b* caution too late in midst of dangers, 653*b* certain danger for a doubtful prize, 246*a* clamour makes the wolf bigger than he is, 842*b* close at hand dangers feared less acutely, 566*a* comes more quickly when despised, 503*a* common danger produces agreement, 504*a* dared at last, 273*a* days of danger, nights of waking, 271*a* delight and danger grow on one stock, 750*b* despised dangers grow great, 42*b* deviseth shifts, 321*a* first in danger, first in fame, 256*b* foes become friends in face of danger, 370*b* foreseen is half avoided, 719*b* fruit sweeter after dangers, 513*a* get me out of danger; deliver your harangue after, 692*b* Hannibal is at the gates, 541*a* he that is not in the wars is not out of danger, 779*b* he who dares dangers overcome them before he incurs them, 619*a* I had passed, she loved me for the dangers, 301*a* in acting well, 83*a* in the deed, 7*a* increases pleasure of things, 613*a* is nothing, 210*b*

Danger—contd.

leaders and rulers in more danger than small folk, 631a levels man and brute, 58b made cautious by others' dangers, 531b men's minds mistrust ensuing danger, 319a nature shrinks from, 14b never overcome without danger, 605a, 750b no dangers fright him, 178a not slight if it seems so, 13b o'er, both are alike required, 261b
note of others, to grow wise by the dangers, 531a of sea, and greater by land, 607b on the utmost edge of hazard, 222a on the deep, 18b one common danger, one source of safety, 639b out of this nettle danger, 313b past, and saint cheated, 750b past, God forgotten, 750b pleased with the danger, 122b put not your hand 'twixt rind and tree, 828b put your finger in the fire and say it was your misfortune, 828b remove danger and all restraint is gone, 671a Scylla and Charybdis, 554b
shepherds wrangle when the wolf is nigh, 274b spur of great minds, 75b start not aside at every danger, 242a sweet is the danger, 519a swift to encounter dangers, 535a take example from other people's, 619b the less of fear the more of danger, 630b there's danger, 22a timid see dangers which do not exist, 619a Ucalegon's house is burning, 626b valour greedy of, 495b well past, remembered, 346b when a neighbour's house is on fire, 626b when in danger it is too late to seek advice, 653b without danger the game grows cold, 658b, 877a without danger we cannot get beyond danger, 877a worse dangers remain, 539a you are dealing with a hazardous work, 619a Dangerous, have I in me something, 297a —thing, a little learning is a, 246b Dangle in air, suspended I'll, 263b Daniel, a, come to judgment, 283b Dante, who loved well, 33b Danube, his rude hut by the, 55b Dare fatis vela, 501b DARING
all this I can do, because I dare, 376a daring of the human race, 493b daring serves as a wall, 493b I dare do all that may become a man, 304a letting "I dare not" wait upon "I would," 303b the soul to dare, 270b what men dare do, 284b what man dare, I dare, 304b

Daring—contd.

what he greatly thought he nobly dared, 257a who dares must risk a fall, 334a who nobly dares, 26b Darien, silent upon a peak in, 184b DARKNESS
a coat of, 180a
a dark soul and foul thoughts, 225a a great leap in the dark, 457a after that the dark, 366b all colours agree in the dark, 9b and the shadow of death, 411a as good be in the dark as without light, 797b blackness of darkness, 431b cast off the works of darkness, 427b clearer through darkness, 503a counter-changed with darkness, 365a dark at Dover, dark all the world over, 870a dark, dark, dark, O, 223b darker grows the night, 149b darkest day will pass, 102a darkest hour is nearest dawn, 842a darkness again and silence, 199b dawn on our darkness, 160a deem they darkness light, 19b each face grew dark, 69a encounter darkness as a bride, 299b enough darkness for those who do not wish to see, 693b from true light, strikes darkness, 74b honest men fear neither light nor dark, 785b how great is the darkness, 630a how profound, 404b in darkness and in storm, 19a into outer darkness, 423a irrecoverably dark, 223b it is ill to drive black hogs in the dark, 795b it is sure to be dark if you shut your eyes, 796b light your lamp before it becomes dark, 802a like a wall, 235b loved darkness rather than light, 425b mind nourished by silence and darkness, 658a night's cloak to hide me, 278b of the land, 363a on the parting soul, 66b our guide, 109b, 127a note peering, deep into that darkness, 245b productive of sublime ideas, 39a the darkness deepens, 203b the fear, the dark, 6b there (darkness) and nothing more, 245b there's husbandry in heaven, 304a those days of darkness, 191b universal darkness buries all, 254a visible darkness, 215b what in me is dark illumine, 215b which may be felt, 409b who gropes in darkness finds that he would not, 777b who runs in the dark may well stumble, 781a (dark) with excessive bright, 218a See Cecily
Darkest hour is nearest dawn, 842a Darkling down the torrent, 178a in a world of tears, 47b

Darling, better an old man's, than a young man's slave, 742a nothing like mamma's, 117a of bath auld and young, 262b Darlings, wealthy curled, 300b Darn, an honest, better than debt, 735b Dart, a wayward, to throw, 392b shook a dreadful, 217b Darwin, Erasmus, 60a note Dash and through with it, 88a through thick and thin, 98b Dashing nature, a, 555b Dasselbe in grün, 834a Dat census honores, 510a, 553a Date, draw their dayes unto the utmost, 340b Date obolum Belisaris, 511a Dates, in two measures of, one measure of stones, 793a Daubing, there is craft in, 855a DAUGHTERS
all the daughters of my father's house, 298a are fragile ware, 750b cannot take too much care of their father, 605a choose a good mother's daughter, 809a "Daughter, hold thy tongue," 647a diamond daughter turns to glass as wife, 719b empty and fine, 851a I have ta'en away this old man's daughter, 300b if the mother had not been in the oven she had never sought her daughter there, 789b like mother like daughter, 802a marry your daughters betimes, 809a more beautiful daughter of a beautiful mother, 607a my daughter's my daughter for all her life, 813a (daughter) of all the implacable ages, 379b of earth and water, 326b of the Earth and Sun, 262b of the gods, 357b one daughter and no mo', 434b petted daughters make slovenly wives, 750b preaching down a daughter's heart, 358b she spins a good thread that brings up her daughter well, 833a sole daughter of my house, 54a stern daughter of the voice of God, 400a still harping on my daughter, 292b the bailiff's daughter, 435b the last best, like to gude wives' daughters, 847a two daughters and a back door are three thieves, 726a what a plague is an obstinate daughter, 328a who would win daughter must begin with the mother, 783a Daughter-in-law, a bad, worse than a thousand devils, 787a David, St., loves leeks and toasted cheese, 438a on feast of, put oats and barley in the clay, 865a David's sow, drunk as, 738a Davus sum, non Œdipus, 511a Daw's not reckoned a religious bird, 170a DAWN
a Lachante, 380b

Dawn—contd.

a grey dawn breaking, 209b day's sweetest moments at dawn, 387b exhalations of the dawn, 89a in that dawn, to be alive, 393b the poet of the dawn, 199b the purple mystery of dawn, 237a

DAY and DAYS

à beau jour beau retour, 821b a day always of sorrow, always to be honoured, 515a a lucky (or unlucky) day, 515a a lucky day and we'll do good deeds, 310a
 a perverse and contrary day, 521a abridge my doleful days, 315a after the fair, 447a all comes out even at end of the day, 843b
 an artificial day, 515a and moments, days, 75a as thy days so shall thy strength be, 410a, 657b note at the close of the day, 19b because the, are evil, 429b believe every day to be your last,
 557b best of all ways to lengthen our days, 231b
 better the day, better the deed, 841a breathers of an ampler day, 363a day brought back my night, 227b day buries day, month, month, 408b day can failen, 79b day has eyne, the night has ears, 842a
 each day a life, 405a each day as if it were thy last,
 121b each day is like a year, 389b each present day thy last esteem
 188a each day the conflux of two eternities, 71b each day the pupil of its predecessor, 516b eight hours to read and pray, eight to business, eight to rule his realm, 754b note eight hours' work, eight play, eight sleep, 754b even the street-dog has his lucky days, 756a
 every day brings its work, 756a every day hath its night, 756a every day is Doomsday, 132a every one has his allotted day, 662b
 every day the best in the year, 132a every day the confluence of two eternities, 72a every man has his ill day, 757a fairest day must end in night, 196b fateful day is at hand, 561b fell upon a day, 17b few and evil, 409a for this good day new born, 166a former days better than these,
 415b full of days, riches, and honour, 411a gaudy, blabbing, and remorseful
 day, 317b
 give for every day some good account, 382a great, th' important day, 1a have their day and cease to be,
 362a

Day and Days—contd.

he never broke his hour that kept his day, 775b heaven with its new day, 32a I have lost a day, 489a innocent brightness of a newborn day, 401a ill fated or ever to be honoured, 561b is at hand, 427b, 515a is cold and dark and dreary, 197b is done, the day, 198a is pushed out by day, 672a it is day while the sun shines, 795a it is our opening day, 14b jocund day stands tiptoe, 279b lank and long, the days seem, 145b (days) lengthen, as, the cold strengthens, 739a lessens grief, 515a live laborious days, 226a long to be remembered day, 606b longed-for day is at hand, 528a love reckons days for years, 129a lucky and unlucky days, 530b made every day a preparative, 52b make each day a critic on the last, 247b marked by the goddess with a whiter stone, 631a mirth, thou art a day of, 163b most calm, most bright, 163b mourn for the expiring day, 74b neither fear your last day nor desire it, 665b never a bad day that hath a good night, 796a no day without some grief, 756a not to me returns day, 218a now's the day, 49a O day and night, 292a of all the days that's in the week, 70a of punishment, 676a of salvation, now is the day, 429a of small things, 419b on a good day good things are to be spoken, 841a on evil days and evil tongues, 220a on this happy day happy words are to be said, 626b one of these days is none of these
 days, 822b
 one of those heavenly days that cannot die, 393a one day shall be the ruin of us both, 549a one short day followed by everlasting night, 660a one whose better day is over, 236a our days on the earth as a shadow, 410b
 (day) passes more pleasantly to the people, 568a Phosphor bring us back the day,
 620a praise day at night, and life at the
 end, 827a
 rubric, day to be enrolled in, 20a runs through the roughest day, 303b seemed to have known a better
 day, 271b
 seize the day, 519b, 648b shineth more and more into the perfect day, 413b sine die, 658a slow be the approach of that day, 668b soon, that day should be so, 351b so teach us to number our days, 413a

Day and Dawn—contd.

solvit ad diem, 660b spirit walks of every day deceased, 405a
 sufficient unto the day, 421b sunny days more frequent than cloudy, 655b
 sweep into the younger day, 359a sweet childish days, 392a sweet day, so cool, so calm, so bright, 163b
 teaches day, 515a tender grace of a day that is dead, 359b that are no more, days, 335b, 360b that are over, 351a that fatal day, 127a the darkest day will pass, 102a
 "The Day," foretold by yours and you, 275a the grievous hour and hostile day, 509a the immortal spirit of one happy
 day, 394b
 the longest day must have an end, 847b the prosperous day dawns, 626b the sorrow of such days, 102a the supreme day has come, 680a then, if ever, come perfect days, 201b there is no day for me to look upon, 281b these degenerate days, 256b they wear out day and night, 595a this day, a holiday, shall banish gloomy cares, 542b though the day be never so long, 158b three whole days to wait, 542b to a diviner day, 326a To the Day, three words only,
 444b unknown, days when I was all, 365a
 what a day may bring forth, 415a what one day gives another takes away, 868b
 while the sun shines it is day, 874a white chalk mark, the day with,
 507b, 606a
 wrath, that day of, 272b your first and your last day, 541a Daylight, consult as to gems, colour, and the face, 505b only, that makes sin, 225a sick, but the, 284a we burn, 287b will peep through a small hole, 750b
 Day-star, so sinks the, 226b son of the morning, 417a Daze the world, 356a Dazzles to blind, 19b Dazzling, perplexing, in its eccentric course, 265a De die in diem, 511a
De facto, 511a
De heretico comburendo, 511a De jure, 511b
De Lyra, 253b note
De mediæetate linguæ, 511b De minimis non curat lex, 511b De mortuis, 511b
De motu proprio, 511b
De omni re scibilia, 511b De profundis, 511b
De propaganda fide, 511b Dea certe, 512a
 Deacon swear, enough to make a, 202a

DEAD, THE (See also Death) after life is over malice rests, 616a are the best advisers, 613b note are where the unborn are, 628b as a door-nail, 194a, 738a ask counsel of the dead (books), 739b ask me not whether friend or foe, 258b beating the dead, 580b come not, when I am dead, 359a consult the dead on things that were, 199a converse with the Mighty Dead, 264b do not speak evil of, 479b England mourns her dead, 22b envy doth not bite the dead, 200b every one is wont to praise the dead, 479b

fading honours of the dead, 272a famous, calm and dead, 32b for a ducat, dead, 295b gone before, 191b good fame their rightful property, 497b grassy barrows of the happier
dead, 358b
hast finished joy and moan, 309b have a world of their own, 375a he (Virginius) lives and ever will live, 686b
he mourns the dead who lives as they desire, 405a he paints the dead, 775b he shall be loved dead, 528b honour with remembrance, not tears, 479b
I fain would have thee dead, 351a I saw a dead man's finer part,
157b if you slander a dead man, 790b ill waiting for dead men's shoes, 795b in his harness, 421b is he then dead, 92b it is base to tear a dead lion's beard off, 793b let the dead bury their dead, 422a little birds may pick a dead lion, 803b make little weeping for the dead, 420b man not completely born, till
dead, 140b
(dead) men bite not, 750b note (dead) men in a dream, 207b (dead) men open the eyes of the living, 750b
(dead) men rise up never, 352a (dead) men tell no tales, 751a mindful of the unhonoured dead, 154a mocked the dead bones, 318b my days among the dead are passed, 336a no more notable shade in the Stygian abode, 597b no one to be called happy before dead and buried, 514b nor wound the dead, 50a not dead but gone before, 265a not dead but sleepeth, 422b nothing dead but that which wished to die, 407a nothing dead but wretchedness and pain, 407a of no family and akin to none (the
dead), 750b
one must have pity on the dead, 693a one owes truth only to the dead, 704a

Dead (The)—contd.

only the dead never return, 693b only the dead should do nothing, 842a over the rich dead, 26a peace to the mighty dead, 69a praise allotted to the dead, 2b praise and blame fall on his ear alike, 265a
quand on est mort, c'est pour longtemps, 706a quite, quite, for ever dead, 92b rejoice not over thy greatest enemy dead, 420a respect for dead, when just dead, is wonderful, 268a rest her soul, she's dead, 296b sea gave up its dead, 431b silent cities of the dead, 61a sleep on, thou dead, 203b Solon's law forbidding to speak evil of, 450b speak not of a dead man at table, 856b
the dead are hopeless, 471a the pure enfranchised dead, 26b the spirit that's gone, 391b the tribes that slumber, 37a their lives remembered, 685a they are all gone into the world of light, 376a they sleep in Old England's heart, 383b Time takes them home that we loved, 352b
to leave the dead so alone, so wretched, 209b to physic the dead, 475a to wait for dead men's shoes, 156a to weep for excessively is to affront the living, 862a travel fast, 441b tribute to the corpse, 18a unnoted and for ever dead, 257a vile is vengeance on ashes cold, 340a we have been dead these two years, 80b
we leave more to do when we die than we have done, 866b weep ye not for the dead; 418b when I am dead let the earth be dissolved in fire, 471a wherefore I praised the dead more than the living, 415b whether corruption or the funeral pile matters not, 667a who was alive and is dead, 445b wilt thou find passion, pain, or pride, 357a wonderful but dead, 235b worthiest of the mind's regard,
402a would not the dead, 448a Dead-head, a, 500a Dead Sea fruits, like, 232b DEAFNESS deaf and loud, London's ebb and flow, 327a deaf are quick-eyed and mistrustful, 751a deaf men go away with the blame, 751a none so deaf as those that will not hear, 818a the deaf gains the injury, 842a Dealings, whose own hard, teach them to suspect, 282a Dean, the cushion and soft, 251b humility may clothe a, 96a Deans, dowagers for, 360a Dearie, arms about my, 47b thinking on my, 48b

Dear as is thy form to me, 48b as the light, 155a as the ruddy drops, 155a as the vital warmth, 240a he is, never let him know how,

192b Patriots dear to God, 228a to all the country dear, 148a to me as are the ruddy drops, 285b too dear for my possessing, 322a DEARNESS (in cost)
all that is rare is dear, 609b consider what is of little value as dear, 641b
dear is cheap, cheap is dear, 741b
too dear for my possessing, 322a Dearth, to make, one's garner, 794b DEATH (See also Dead) a covenant with death, 417b a debt we must all pay, 460b a fair death honours life, 720a a fearful thing to see death, 58a a fortunate man dies before he calls on death, 580a a gentle waiting to immortal life, 222a
a great leap in the dark, 457a a living death, 223b a living death with a continued torture, 212a a longer sleep, 140a a matter for honour and rejoicing, 584a a power is passing from the earth, 400b a Reaper whose name is Death, 197b a remedy for everything except death, 854b
a thousand approaches open to,
577a
a thousand doors to let out life, 210b a tranquil life or a happy death, 472b
a way from all sides to lower world, 675a
ad patres, to (our) forefathers, 485a after death all men receive their right, 200b
after death the doctor, 731b after life does greatly please, 339b aims with fouler spite at fairer marks, 261b all deaths are too few, sharpest too easy, 310b all hastening to the same goal, 670a all seasons for thine own, 161b all the brighter that he died, 209b all things threatened instant death, 558a
and back resounded death, 217b and Birth, through, to a diviner day, 326a
and dice level distinctions, 140a and drouth come sindle together, 751a
and marriage make term day, 751a and forgetfulness, 337b and marriage settle debts, 751a and the sun not to be looked on with steady eye, 751a Angel of Death abroad, 25b armed against death's endeavour, 26a as death approaches, joys of life sweeter, 230b as one that had been studied in his death, 303b at last, a tragedy, 66

Death—contd.

be not fearful, come away, 136b be thou faithful unto death, 431b behind the Veil, 136a better one should die for many, than many for one, 582b bitter to a man in prosperity or in much business, 751a blaze forth the death of princes, 285b borders upon our birth, 156b broke at once the vital chain, 178a brought death into the world, 215b call no man happy before his death, 450b calls all to obey its laws, 670a calls ye to the crowd, 329a came with friendly care, 85b can this be death, 254b certain death makes me certain as to my course, 574b cometh soon or late, 206a common to every age, 610b consents to death, 55b contrivers of death should perish by their own contrivance, 590a deliverance from miseries, 472b delivered from all his troubles, 451a denied, e'en fools would wish to die, 406a denied, to live would not be life, 406a devours lambs as well as sheep, 751a die for fear of death, 109b disgraceful in flight, glorious in victory, 551b does not end all things, 565b double death to drown in ken of shore, 321b doubly-dead, in that she died so young, 245b dread of something after death, 293b dreamless sleep, 61a drop into thy mother's lap, 221b dull cold ear of death, 153b dying is as natural as living, 754a early death removed Achilles, 483b either has been or it will be, 495a eloquent, just and mighty death, 262a
 encounter darkness as a bride, 299b end of labour, entry into rest, 345a endless parting, 139b entrenched, preparing his assault, 406b equalised by death, 170a every door may be shut but death's, 756a exile worse than death, 279b exodus of death, 200a expectation more painful than actual death, 495a fear of death a wonder, 85b fear of death is worse than death, 671a feared as children fear dark, 9b fearful mind wishes for death, 671a feels a thousand deaths in fearing one, 406a fine death is little consolation to those who die, 701a follows any coward, 521a folly to die of fear of death, 622a
note
 for any pains of death, 433a

Death—contd.

foreseen (deaths) come not, 751a fortunate to infant, bitter to the young, too late to the old, 580a free from restraint of Fortune, 566a free thyself from fear of death, 566b from an inn I pass, 109b, 527b game of death never played more nobly, 138a gate of death (janua lethi), 561b gathered, not harshly plucked, 221b gentle death, the ebb of care, 436b gives us more than was in Eden lost, 406a glorious death, a sunset, 59b gods conceal the happiness of death, 682b going West, 456b
 gone, and never must return, 226a greedy Acheron, 531b grim death, 210b, 217b grinned horrible a ghastly smile, 217b had he seen by sudden blow, 272b has often run away from a man, 580a has taken off the mask, 242a hath a thousand doors to let out life, 212b hath moulded into calm completeness, 386b hath ten thousand several doors, 384a have left the greatest void in death, 193a he alone fortunate who has died happily, 473b he hath not lived that lives not after death, 773b he is greedy of life who does not wish to die as others do, 685b he is miserable that dieth not before he desires to, 774a he never will come again, 296b he passed forth patientliche, 194b he seemed to depart from one home to another, 677a he that dies pays all debts, 777a he that is once born, once must die, 724b he was, as we say, no more, 72a he who has died when he wished to die, 496b he who is most like the dead dies with most regret, 700a heaven gives its favourites early death, 55b hero's scorn of death, 68b his appearance was of a man resting, rather than dead, 540a his means of death, 296b Hobbes' voyage, 457a honourable death better than a disgraceful life, 546a how gladly would I meet mortality, 221b how wonderful is death, 324b I am what thou wilt be, 665a
 I a'n't dead, but speechless, 334a I could not die by a nobler fate, 600a I depart from life as from an inn, 527b I die in death, 687a
 I die unconquered, 649a I have found the haven, 558b I know of none that has a mind to die this year, 787a
 I only died last night, 3b
 I shall not altogether die, 599b

Death—contd.

I would fain die—a dry death, 310b I would hate that death bandaged my eyes, 34b if aught but death part thee and me, 410a (Dead!) Impossible, it cannot be, 70b in darkness and in the shadow of death, 424a in Life, the days that are no more, 360b in my bitterness I cried for death, 191b in that sleep of death, 293b in the pot, 410b, 751a in the scale with everlasting death, 109b in their deaths had not divided been, 67a in their deaths they were not divided, 410a in very many shapes, 507b inexorable hand of, 407a invincible death, 521b into the jaws of death, 361b is a doom sufficient, 97a is deaf, 751a is it so terrible to die, 676b is living, 173b is much traduced, 406a is nothing, and nothing is after death, 623a is the crown of life, 406a is the port, 345a is the veil which those who live call life, 326a is the market place, 139b it is a trouble to die, 584b it is but death who comes at last, 269b it is folly to die of fear of death, 760b joins us to the great majority, 408b judge none blessed before death, 420a keeps no kalendar, 751a king of terrors, 411b knew all his shapes and scorned them all, 272b knocking at death's door, 268a knocks with impartial foot, 615a late may you return to the skies, 653b lays his icy hand on kings, 329a lead him to death, 264a least of all evils, 12b least of all things that are feared, 345b let me die his death, 406b let me die the death of the righteous, 409b let us hob-and-nob with death, 359a, 359b lies on her, like an untimely frost, 280a life and death not to be shunned nor sought, 345a life perfected in death, 30b like the best bower anchor, 334a little matter as long as I do not die for ill deeds, 519b live mindful of death, 686a like to die mends not the kirkyard, 803a long for death, but it cometh not, 411a loves a shining mark, 407a makes equal the high and low, 165b makes men weep, 65b

Death—contd.

man begins to die before he is born, 739a man can have but one death, 33a man can only die once, 724b man goeth to his long home, 416a man makes a death Nature never made, 406a
man outdoes Nature in arts of,
323b
many ways to let out life, 210a may I die with even and well-prepared mind, 486b meets us everywhere, 751a men must endure their going hence, 307a mind undaunted by, 576a mode of death sadder than death, 672a more deaths than one must die, 389b more readily faced than pain, 634a morituri morituros salutant, 580a nature's lie, 383a
neither fear your last day, nor wish it, 641b, 665b never won stake with greater toil, 124a no death, what seems so is transition, 199a
no dispensation from the pope against, 589a note no herb against, 506a no life has truly longed for death, 357a
no man to be considered happy till end of life, 476b, 674b no means to escape from, 590b no one can escape death, 580b no one dies miserably who has lived well, 587a no pinch in death sharper than this, 309a
no pleasure after death, 623a no sure thing in life but death, 195b none knows but that death is the greatest blessing, 448a nor all of death to die, 229b not afraid to die for friends and native land, 598b not terrible, but dying, 135b nothing call our own but death, 312b nothing in his life became him like the leaving of it, 303b now that I am satisfied I rest, 585b
O, gently come, 69b O greatest of days, when I shall depart from this crowd, 607a of his saints, 413a old men go to death, it comes to young men, 12a, 820a on bâille, on sort, et c'est la mort, 704a one can survive anything but
death, 388a
one cannot die twice, 821a one event happeneth to them all, 415b one night awaits us all, 610b only binds us fast, 186b only thing that terrifies me, 388a opens gate of Fame, 343a opens the gate to good fame, 9b or victory, in one hour, 546b our egress from the world, 199b our eternal exile, 610a pabulum Acheruntis (food of Acheron), 614b pale flag, death's, 280a passed from death unto life, 425b

Death—contd.

pays all debts, 751a peace, rest, and sleep, 354a period of all pain, not of joy, 406a physician has no power over Time's hourglass, 244b
Pluto the grisly god, 256b pomp of death alarms us more than death, 622a praise and blame, they heed it not, 236b
prisoners of death, 5b pursues the man who flees, 580a put to rest by the casting of a little dust, 542b quotidie morimur, 642b race is run by one and one, 189b remedy for everything but death, 449a render Him with patience what He lent, 227b resignation in death, 58a rest from labours and miseries, 580a reveals insignificance of men's bodies, 580a rides on every passing breeze, 160a rigour of cruel death, 613b river of death (irremeabilis unda), 560a ruling passion strong in death, 251a save something for the man that rides on the white horse, 831a sense of death most in apprehension, 209b
she never did wrong except in dying, 593a sleep counterfeited death, 258b sleep that knows not breaking,
271a sleep that no pain shall wake, 266a so espoused to death, 316b sowed the wind of death, 244a speak me fair in death, 283b still draws nearer, never seeming near, 249a still working like a mole, 163b stroke of death as a lover's pinch, 307b such a death is Immortality, 241a such ebb and flow must ever be,
400b sudden death less bitter perchance, 151b
suffering ended with the day, 3b sun and death not to be looked at without flinching, 700b sweet wise death of old men, 353a swift death rushes upon us, 502b takes no excuse, 472b takes toll of all but truth, 209a that Dun of all the duns, 169b that fatal sergeant, 345b that makes life live, 35a the angel death, 87b the body of this death, 427a the broad sweet bosom of death, 352b the common treasury, 40b the consoler, 198b the cruel death he died, 102a the debt which cancels all, 91a the earth opened alike for poor and for princes, 486b the end of miseries, 580b the everlasting night of sleep, 660a the final goal (the last line), 580a the folly of the farce is done, 437b the gate of life, 222a, 580a the grisly terror, 217b the journey's end, 126b

Death—contd.

the last best friend am I, 338a the noblest, men can die, 241a the only cure of life, 260a the only healer of deadly ills, 475a the only mercy that I crave, 337b the poor man's dearest friend, 44a the prince of peace, 406a the sevenfold death (jealousy), 408b the slender debt to Nature, 261a the soldier's fiery death, 57b the Sun is from the Dial gone, 437b the sure physician, 309b the ten pains of death (Italian), 714a the way of all the earth, 410a the way whence none returns, 633b the way to dusty, 305b the worst friend and enemy, 26a the worst is death, 312b their chief good and final hope, 221b these have not the hope of death, 715b these things are escaped by death, 540b they practise nothing but to die, 476b they will not live and know not how to die, 686a this earthly load of death, 227a this fell sergeant, 297b those dark gates across the wild, 361a thou and nature can so gently part, 307b
thou best of thieves, 128b throw away life as 'twere a careless trifle, 303b thy death not without honour among the peoples, 590a
'tis all the proud shall be, 254b to die is landing on some silent shore, 142a
to go where Numa and Ancus have gone, 560a to the happy terrible, 335a triumphant death his dart shook,
221b
true comforter, friend of all, 335a uncertainty of its whereabouts, 554b unknown the manner of his death, 272b untimely death, 5b valley of the shadow of death, 412a vulgar deaths unknown to fame, 257a wanting in fear of death, 534b we and our works a debt due to
death, 512a
we have hated death, 236b we owe a death, 315b we perish in our own pain, 368b we suffer deaths ere we die, 197a Welcome, friend, 104a welcome to me comes death, 76b well-done outlives death, 867b what may quiet us in a death so noble, 224a what new thing is it for a man to die, 636a
what should it know of death, 392a when I die may I be taken in midst of work, 642b when the long trick's over, 209b when you despise death you have conquered fear, 580b where is thy sting, 254b, 428b

Death—contd.

wherever I look, nothing but death, 640a which destroys evils of life, 497b which immortality follows, is not to be lamented, 596b who fears death lives not, 777b who has despised death has escaped, 621a who has learnt to die has unlearned slavery, 632b who has learnt to die is beyond all power, 632b who sets all free, 224a whom the gods love die young, 476a will have his day, 312b will make us immortal, 823b will take us in tow, 110b with black wings, 654a worse things waiting for man than death, 351a worst life a paradise to what we fear of death, 300a you who are about to depart, why torment your soul, 483a young men may die; old men must, 880b See Die, Dead, Dying Death-bed a detector of the heart, 405b one step to the, 441a

DEATH (Premature)

fair flower, untimely plucked, 322b glory of his mid-career, 161b he died before his day, 631b precocity a sign of early death, 653a who dies in youth, 257a whom the Gods love die young, 876a

DEBATE

Bob Sturdy's way in, 180b brief and bitter the debate, 35b cavil in debate, 52a destroys despatch, 190b hazard which admits no long debate, 222a he would not waken old debate, 272b never received so much pleasure from a debate, 180b no debate in company, 78a reason rather than authorities to be looked for, 597a strive mightily but eat and drink as friends, 276b your rater and debater, 35b Debauch, a whiff of stale, 100b

DEBT and DEBTS

a debt, an' a flag, 202b a man in debt is caught in a net, 724b a nation can never pay debts, 85a a pound of care won't pay an ounce of debt, 726b a small sum makes a debtor, a large sum an enemy, 486b an honest darn better than debt, 735b an immense favour to repay debt, 623b banish from your mind care and debt, 521b belong to the next heir, 751a better go to bed supperless than rise in debt, 743a better old debts than old sores, 743b cartloads of anxiety will not pay debt, 726b could only be brought by force to discharge debts, 366b Debt and Debts—contd.

debt and gratitude two things, 517a debt and lies generally mixed, 691b debtors are liars, 751a due to-day, if no day is fixed, 515a everyone has more debts than he knows, 776b first comes owing and then lying, 761b Goldsmith's debts, 179a grievous bondage to an honourable man, 487b happy he who owes nothing, 531b he is rich enough who owes nothing, 774b he that dies pays all debts, 311a, 777a I pay my debts, 252b imprisonment for debt, 97a is an evil conscience, 751a is the worst poverty, 751a little debt makes a debtor, a great debt an enemy, 724a living on trust the way to pay double, 804b loans and debts make worries and frets, 804b (debts) make promises, 828a make slaves, 478b mother of folly and crime, 116b National Debt a National blessing, 383b no gentleman ought to pay debts, 180a no man's debtor, 255b (debts) of honour, not honourable debts, 263a of all debtors men take oaths, 810b out of debt out of danger, 823b pay what you owe and what you're worth you'll know, 824b produce their debt instead of their discharge, 404a sins and debts always more than we think, 834b speak not of my debts unless you mean to pay them, 836b taxes paid least willingly of all debts, 133a thrush paid for better than a turkey owing for, 729a to his profession a debtor, 12b we all have more debts than we know, 855a (debt) which cancels all others, 91a who has a hundred-and-one, and owes a hundred-and-two, 778a who owes a hundred, and has a hundred and one, fears nobody, 778a who oweth is all in the wrong, 783b words pay no debts, 298b

DECADENCE

Bede's sayings, 434a growing downward like a cow's, 770a Decalogue, hear the, and feel no self-reproach, 400b

DECAY

all human things subject to decay, 124b all our chants but chaplet some, decay, 368b beauteous in decay, 46a cold gradations of decay, 178a I am not what I formerly was, 601a it sank from sight before it set, 387a

Decay—contd.

of strength oftener due to youth than age, 512b steal myself from life by slow decays, 258a this muddy vesture of decay, 283b unperceived decay, 148a, 178a Deceased, he first, 403a

DECEIT

a known deceiver is not believed when he speaks truth, 635a an office which the false man does easy, 304b deceiving a deceiver is no knavery, 751a felicity of being deceived, 348b first appearance deceives many, 600b he that once deceives is ever suspected, 780b he who can pretend what he never saw, 483a heart is deceitful above all things, 418b hug the dear deceit, 94a hypocritical deceit a grievous wrong, 671b if a man deceive me twice shame on me, 788a is in haste, 751a
 it is vile to say one thing and think another, 673a let him be deceived who wishes to be, 634b maidens do not often deceive, 647b men find pleasure to be deceived, 197a men often deceive, 647b men were deceivers ever, 284b mine is all the deceit, 575a no one has ever deceived all men, 658b nor my tongue utter deceit, 411b not glorious to deceive a trusting girl, 530a nothing commoner than to deceive and be deceived, 710a (deceits) of the world, the flesh and the devil, 432a prophesy deceits, 417b she deceiving, I believing, 275a splendide mendax, 662a note swear anything, so they may deceive, 210b that deceit should dwell in such a gorgeous palace, 279b the deceitful have no friends, 780b the face often deceives but speech more often, 536a the people wish to be deceived, 622b the world wishes to be deceived, 583a to deceive the deceivers, 530a under friendship's name deceit common and safe, 673b weeping, deceit, spinning, 77b when first we practise to deceive, 270a wish to be imposed on, 95b you may take in others, to me you are known, 512a Deceived, felicity of being, 348b her father, and may thee, 301a was I, 225a

DECEMBER

naked in December's snow, 83a the mirth of its December, 258b to employ the liberty of December, 487a when they wed, December, 289b Decencies, content to dwell in, 251a those thousand, 221a Decency, emblem right meet of,

327b
want of, is want of sense, 115b Decent, "bourgeois" applied by aristocracy to what is, 159a I should die if I heard my family called, 242a means poor, 242a Decently and in order, 428b

DECISION

comes the moment to decide,
201a
danger of hasty decision, 480b sleep over it and you will come to a decision, 834b the balance will decide, 840b Deck, the burning, 161b Declaration of Independence, 133b
note

Decorum, cant about, 44b limping, 59b

Decrease, a mighty state's, 362b

DEDICATION

that my book may not be without so great a name, 609b to matrons, boys and maidens, 574a

Dee, lived on the river, 22a

DEEDS

a friend helps in difficulty by deeds, 591a
a man is not good or bad for one action, 725a above heroic deeds, 222a actions speak louder than words, 731b are males, words females, 751a as he pronounces lastly on each deed, 226a because their deeds were evil, 425b begin to supplement your promises with deeds, 554b best of the sport is to do the deed, 840b
better not do the deed than weep it done, 259a
better the day, better the deed, 841a blessings wait on virtuous deeds, 93a
clear deeds, 29a consciousness of a splendid action is enough, 649a dreadful deeds might have ensued, 219b everlasting deeds (preferring) to burning words, 398a feeble deeds vainer than words, 116b
for one good deed a hundred ill should be overlooked, 763a foul deeds will rise, 291a great deeds are for great men, 760b great deeds cannot die, 360b (the deed) has gone; the memorial remains, 530a hell far deeds well done, 76a his deeds differ from his words, 516b his deeds do not agree with his words, 529b
honest deeds against dishonest
words, 228b
I sing of the thrice-famous deeds,
206b if one good deed in all my life, 276a il pensare non importa ma il fare, 715a

Deeds—contd.

ill deed cannot bring honour, 735b (the deed) is just, 69a it is not my deed, 597b just deed the best answer, 228a leave word and take the deed, 203a let deeds correspond with words, 515a
let escape deeds never to be done, 31a let us do what is immediately upon us, 640b
"means well" useless without deeds, 589b mortal deeds never deceive the gods, 580a
noble deeds debased by an unworthy poem, 531b nor think the intention sanctifies the deed, 179b not words, 529b not years but deeds fill his life, 484a of derring do, 146b of dreadful note, 304b of kindness, 240a one good deed, dying tongueless, 309b our deeds travel with us, 130b overlook our deeds, 530a Say well is good, Do well is better, 831a shame his word with your deeds, 387a sight of means to do ill deeds, 312a some deed of name, 238b sublime deeds, 89b that should not pass away, 55a the deed above the deep intent, 121b
the deed and not the creed, 109b the deed is all; the fame nothing, 712a the deed proves the man, 731b the matchless deed's achieved, 330a the octave 'twixt the dream and
deed, 195b
the result gives deeds their title, 711a
the shortest answer is doing, 851a the silent doer of the deed, 244a there may be danger in the deed,
7a to do the gentile dedes, 77b to extend fame by deeds, 530b, 662b to extend renown by deeds, 524b to make heaven weep, 302a to write and act great deeds, 122b too high to be spoken, 25a trust on the deed and not in gay speeches, 203b vain deeds and vainer thoughts, 122b waits on deathless deeds, 353b we leave more to do when we die
than we have done, 866b we live in deeds, 14a well done, soon done, 867b well done, twice done, 867b which have no form, 327a who does what he can does what he ought, 777a
whose deeds partake of heaven, 335b without a name, a deed, 305a will show, words will pass away, 751a
years of noble deeds, 366a

Deep calleth unto deep, 412b down, down, beneath the deep, 203b her home is on the deep, 67b in terms too deep for me, 147a in the lowest, a lower deep, 218b not so deep as a well, 279b poet sees not deep, 5a the slimy bottom of the deep, 318b the unruffled deep, 53b the vasty deep, 514a under every deep a lower deep, 132b yet clear, 109a Deeper I devyne, the darker me thynketh it, 194b than e'er plummet sounded, 311a than flower and fruit, 213a Deer, a chasing the wild, 48a go weep, let the, 295a my own stricken, 231b Defamation of high personages,
649b Defaming and defacing, 365a DEFEAT
betrayed not conquered, 671b croaking defeat in midst of triumphs, 206a don't strike a man when he is down, 814b
foiled but fighting evermore, 380b give losers leave to speak, 765b he that is thrown would ever wrestle, 779b man learns much from defeat, 807a never to have known defeat, 174b not you, but Fate, has vanquished me, 272a
plenty of words when the cause is lost, 765b silence after grievous things is
good, 353a
vanquished by so great a man, 570a vanquished have no friends, 335b victors in, 152a you fall by the hand of Æneas, 544b
Defect, fine by, 251a raptured with, 391a the cause of this, 292b Defects, natural, no one finds fault with, 479b
of great men, 118b
of his qualities, 453b your defects to know, 246b

DEFENCE

having wrongly left my buckler behind, 644b
here is the point of your defence, 542b
never make defence or apology, 76a
not defiance, 459a of a just cause is easy, 562b that animal is vicious; when attacked it defends itself, 690b who guards himself, God will guard him, 766b Defend, against your judgment,
125a this defends and that conquers, 583a to, stoutly what he loves, 531b

DEFERENCE

by deference you shall prevail, 608a if you bow at all, bow low, 790a my advice, but still under correction, 212a pace tanti viri (with the leave of so great a man), 614b

Deference—contd.

put your hand quickly to your hat and slowly to your purse, 828b

to others obtains friends, 608a

Defiance in their eye, 147b

Deficiency: an inch too short is as bad as an ell, 726a

Defenda me Dñs de mry, 716a

DEFINITIONS

every definition is dangerous, 612b

I hate definitions, 116a no great opinion of a definition, 39a Deformed, none, but the unkind, 298a persons, 13a unfinished, sent before my time, 318a mighty minds in a stunted body, 555b Defy power, to, 326a

Dégagé, or half so, 95a

DEGREES (University)

a graduated dunce, 99b lost my degrees, 4a

M.A. for women, 237b

Degrees, scorning the base, by which he did ascend, 285b what wound ever healed but by, 301b Delity, pity makes a, 20b ridiculous notions of, 89b

Deities, were held, after death, 126b

Dejected, a man, is a sight as mean, 407b air, brother with, 2a

Dejection, in our, do we sink as low, 393a

Déjeuner fait bonne mémoire, 699a

DELAY

a thousand delays in law, 673a abyde nat ne delaye it, 443a after delay comes a let, 731b allow time and moderate delay, 510b amorous delay, 257a best speed, 31b brings danger, 516a by delay restored our affairs, 509a, 676a dangerous in war, 128b delays are dangerous, 751a

Dun is in the mire, 754a ever injurious, 671a evil cannot brook delay, 386b gives strength, 583b

God has His own delays, 539b has cured what reason could not, 641a hateful delay, but it causes wisdom, 579b he loses thanks who promises and delays, 775b however fools delay, the day does not, 739a

I know he'll come by his long tarrying, 787a in law are hateful, 516a in the evening the idle man begins to be busy, 793a

(delays) increase and sometimes extinguish desires, 751b is cowardice, 386a

is dangerous, 645a

John Wesley on delay, 443a law's delay, 293b

let me not defer or neglect it, 442b let there be no delay in carrying out my bidding, 585b Delay—contd.

lingering lubbers lose many a penny, 374b

loth to make an end, 194a

Nay, stay, quoth Stringer, when his head was in the halter, 813b neither delay nor inactivity, 587a nothing more galling than a tardy friend, 669a of justice is injustice, 192b

Rome deliberates, Saguntum perishes, 513a safest delay to deliberate about useful things, 513a sweet reluctant amorous delay, 219a tarry-long brings little home, 839a tear thyself from delay, 522b thanks not given for belated service, 538b the man that cries "Consider," 137a

Thursday come, and the week gone, 859a to delay what we dare not refuse, 273b tolle moras, 671a truth thrives on delay, 681a victory obtained by deliberation, 505a we hate delay, yet it makes us wise, 866b while the grass grows, the steed starves, 874a woman is born of delay, 581a your tardy son to chide, 295b

See Deliberation

Delegate cannot delegate, 512b government, 160b

Delegated power cannot be delegated, 512b

Delenda est Carthago, 108a, 512b note

DELIBERATION

deep on his front engraven, 217a delay the greatest remedy for anger, 574b deliberating is not delaying, 751b examined enterprise goes on bravely, 735a first weigh, then attempt, 712b measure thrice before you cut once, 809b prudent pauses forward business, 747a sleep over it, 834b

solvitur ambulando, 660b stay awhile, that we may make an end the quicker, 812a, 837b time is the best counsellor, 859a too much consultation confounds, 862b truth to be explored lest judgment should be perverted, 619b

victory obtained by deliberation, 505a

who deals in the world wants four sieves, 777a

Delicacies sought among all the elements, 558a

Delicious things, in dead years had done, 350b

DELIGHT and DELIGHTS

a phantom of delight, 393a all delights are vain, 276a all for your delight, 281a an overpayment of, 337a anguish still succeeds delight, 196b as high as we have mounted in delight, 393a Delight and Delights—contd.

delighting all my undelightful hours, 209a endorsement of supreme delight, 163b flies, because they give her chase, 380a king of intimate delights, 100a never too late for delight, 231b she's my delight, all mankind's wonder, 264a that consumes the desire, 351b that unrest which men miscall delight, 326b the rootless flower, 351b thy heaven of lost delight, 67a to delight at once and lash the age, 256a to scorn delights, 226a, 661b turn delight into a sacrifice, 162a violent delights have violent ends, 279b weighing delight and dole, 290a which (delights) to achieve, danger is nothing, 210b Delinquency, unpunished, 339a

Delirant reges, 513a

Delivery, with good round, 614a

Deluded by him, Heaven to be, 195b Deluge, after the (P.D.), 623a proves that all the wicked are water-drinkers, 708a

Deluge, après nous le, 689b note

DELUSION

a delusion, a mockery and a snare, 109b harmless delusions which make us more happy, 150b he gains enough that loses a vain hope, 772b hence, dear delusion, 331a hugs it to the last, 322b

let him be deceived who wishes to be, 634b

most delightful error of the mind, 622a my people love to have it so, 418a plays with men in different ways, 549b the earth hath bubbles, 303a

the people wish to be deceived, 622b

the world wishes to be deceived, 583b you dance in a net and think no one sees you, 879a

DEMAGOUES

as great as Gogs, 172b great men that have flattered the people, 308a like winds, 8a

never want favourable hearers, 174a to please the throng, 127b vilest specimens found amongst demagogues, 207a Demand, I neither desire nor, 590b

Demeanour, of mild, 63a

Demition bow-wows, the, 113a

DEMOCRACY

a shameless thing, 41b bludgeoning the people by the people, 389b dreags of a democracy, 123a every man a right to be his own oppressor, 202b it is not good that few be governed by many, 476b loudest complainers are democrats, 39b

(democrats) never want favourable hearers, 174a Democrat—contd.

poets are democrats, 30a tends to liberty, 622b wielded at will that fierce democratie, 223a Democritus, the laughing philosopher, 654b Demon, behold your work, 115a caught the foul, 15b of the night, 56a thou art sold to the, 337a Demons, air is full of, to the timorous, 862a world will make us, 407b Demonstrandum, quod erat (Q.E.D.), 640a

DENIAL better be denied than deceived, 742b comes too near, that comes to be denied, 229a, 240b dangerous to begin with denial, 71b dead with a denial, 1b he teaches to deny, 261b if it be but half-denied, 52a room to deny ourselves, 185b (denial) vain and coy excuse, 226a what I have spoke, deny, 278b would fain deny, but dare not,

305b

Denmark, rotten in the state of,
291b

Dennis, St., was for France, 438a

Dental [pain] is transcendental,
172a

Dentist, lying like a, 806b

Deo favente, 513a

Deo gratias, 513a

Deo, ignoto, 548b

Deo optimo maximo, 513a

Deo volente (D.V.), 513a

DEPARTURE and DEPARTED

all but he departed, 233a gone, and never must return, 226a

I am ready to depart, 192b it is time for you to depart, 569a lettest thou thy servant depart in peace, 424b must I thus leave thee, Paradise, 221b

often took leave but was loth to depart, 259b

shores never to return to their sight, 567b

"tu autem," 672a

vade in pace, 678b

when the great and good depart, 400b

when you rise we will all rise, 509a will not depart when mortal voices bid, 400a

DEPENDENCE

involves protection, 626b is but a poor trade, 751b like mice we eat the food of
others, 631a

none sure but self-dependence, 144a to live at another person's board, 487b

who is fed at another's hand may stay long ere he be full, 779a wretched to live on another's suffrance, 578b

Dépit amoureux, 699a

Déplaire est mon plaisir, 691b

Deplore thee, we will not, 160a Depravity: a man once bad is assumed to be always bad, 652a Depreciation, self-, absurd, 448b

DEPRESSION

all elated or depressed by circumstances, 612b of all men living I am most beaten
down, 608b
the wave subsiding we descend to lowest depths, 671a

Depressus extollor, 513a

Depth, but far beyond my, 320a profounder still, 100b

Depths and his shallows, his, 45b

Descant, her amorous, 219a

Descent, easy is the, 529b laugh at the claims of long, 357b only 'good part of him underground, 437a

smooth the, 127a

Descents, three, seldom continue good, 126b

DESCRIBE and DESCRIPTION

Describe the indescribable, 55b

Description is my forte, 63b

I cannot describe, but only feel it, 590b

it beggared all description, 307b little happy if I could say how much, 284a

paragons description and wild fame, 301a

Desdemona seriously incline, would,
300b

DESERT (deserving) build on your own deserts, 212a idle, 300b

diffidence goes with, 31b how known soe'er, long delayed, 124b

may make a sergeant to a colonel, 211a

may prevent a soldier rising, 211a may the gods give you all you deserve, 514b

use every man after his, 293a

DESERT (a waste space) in the desert air, 82b of the mind, 56b shall rejoice and blossom as the rose, 417b

they make a, and call it peace, 660a were my dwelling, oh that the, 56m

Deserted thing, sorrowful, 169b

Deserve, less they, the more merit in your bounty, 293a not more than others, I, 382a others say thou dost, 284b to have, that know the strongest way, 313a

Deserving, some favour to the, without honour, 75b

DESERTION

a deserter in doubtful fortune, 643b maliginity towards those he had deserted, 206b

the rascal leaves me under the knife, 536b will pack when it begins to rain, 306a

Design, when any great, thou dost intend, 109b

Designment was his own, the fair, 122a

Desipere in loco, 578a

DESIRE and DESIRES

bloom of young desire, 154a buy not what you want but what you need, 522a deep desire hath no bounds, 320b desire doth bear the sway, 107b flatter our desires, 121a

Desire and Desires—contd.

he begins to die who quits his desires, 772a

he is a king who desires nothing, 646a

his own desire leads every man, 676a

I neither desire, nor demand, nor express an opinion, 590b inordinate desires, 219b like desires and dislikes make friendship, 548a

man of moderate desires is disturbed by nothing, 513b miserable to have few things to desire, 10b

no desire for what is unknown, 548b
(desires) nourished by delays, 751b

of the moth for the star, 327a shall fail, 416a that outruns the delight, 351b the more you have, the more you want, 848b

they that desire few things can be crossed in few, 857a things we desire and believe we imagine so to others, 628b what the eye does not admire the heart does not desire, 868b what the wretched wish for they believe, 641a

who desires nothing is not in want, 596b

Desk, a votary of the, 191b o'er his lamplit, 25b

Desk's dead wood, 191b

Desks, stick close to your, 145a Desolate, no one so utterly, 198b none are so, 54a

Desolation of gauls and gallowses, 309b

DESPAIR

a cry goes up of great despair, 260a a great nation should not despair, 184a aggravates misery and weakness, 699a

an evil counsellor, 273b and confidence banish fear, 345b bid me despair, 165a black despair, 93a brooding over putrid eggs of hope, 141a

Conscience wakes despair, 218b depth of some divine despair, 360b doubles our force, 751b forlorn despair, 142a gallantest feats done by, 52a Giant Despair, 38b give not thy heart to despair, 5b

gives courage to a coward, 751b has often gained battles, 449b he is desperate that thinks himself so, 773b

he who has nothing to hope need not despair, 633a hurried question of despair, 56b I recklessly despair, 87b last and best defence, 52a never say die, 815a no vulture like despair, 152b not penitence but despair, 160a nothing is to be despaired of, 818b now fiercer by despair, 217a our final hope is flat despair, 217a our leader was, 109b, 127a

Poverty and Despair, two gods on our side, 447b

Despair—contd.

racked with deep despair, 216a rash-embraced despair, 283a resolution from despair, 216a sad ledger of despair, 73a some fond despair, 55b sweeter for thee despairing, 49b that refuge of despair (suicide), 107a
 the message of despair, 66b the shadow of a starless night, 326b the Warder is Despair, 389b this corpse-like bride, 32b twin-born of devotion, 351b wasting in despair, 390b what do the damned endure, but to despair, 92b where despair most sits, 299a where he with joy believed, despair, 380b

DESPATCH

Cecil's despatch of business, 330b Prudence useless without despatch, 13a requisite in business, 2a, 80b
 note
 swift of despatch, 123a the soul of business, 80b
 See Celerity
 Desperate step, beware of, 102a strait, driven into a, 211a man, tempt not a, 280a Despire, a world I, 59b me, ay do, 22a them most, who know them best,
 47b
 Despised, and we esteemed him not,
 418a
 I likes to be, 22a to be, worse to folly than chastise-ment, 505b
 Despiseth small things, he that,
 420a Despoilers, profane, 395a Despond, the Slough of, 38b Despondence, assumed, 272b Despondency and madness, 393b of all men living I am most beaten
 down, 608b

DESPOTISM

is new, liberty is ancient, 697b of custom, 215a tempered by assassination, 699b
 note
 truth makes despots tremble, 201a what cleaves the despot's chain, 18b whatever crushes individualism, 215a

DESTINY

be blind as to destiny, 659a God permits, but not for ever, 767a how much of destiny does this small board carry, 542b in time comes he (or she) whom God sends, 793a
 it happens in an hour that comes not in seven years, 793b leads the willing, drags the unwilling, 751b or Fate fashions our wills, 200b shady leaves of, 104a tarries long, 245b thou can'st not to thy place by accident, 372b to know the destiny of man, 396b when destiny proves kind, 122a will find a way, 531a See Fate, Nemesis, Retribution Destroy in one minute, 92a strong only to, 100b

Destroy, whom God will, He drives mad, 876a
 Destroying others, by himself destroyed, 249a

DESTRUCTION

an hour may destroy what an age was building, 735b by destruction dwell in doubtful joy, 304b it is easier to pull down than to build, 795a time destroys all things, 859a what hands have built hands can pull down, 714a, 868b

Desunt cetera, 513b

Desunt nonnulla, 513b

Desuper, omnia, 610b

Detached gentlemen, 39b

Detachment: that which we would contemplate from far, 402a See Aloofness

DETECTION

he is honest who is not discovered, 75a it is grievous to be caught, 513a knave discovered is a great fool, 723b sin is not in the doing but in being found out, 851a spying all, seems nought to spy, 273a
 the talk and not the intrigue, 153a thou shalt not be found out, 851a 'tis daylight only that makes sin, 225a
 to be taken is a crime, 138a

Deteriora sequor, 682b

DETERIORATION

all things deteriorate, 657b how has he changed from what he used to be, 541b times change and men deteriorate, 669b

DETERMINATION

all things overcome by, 610b determined, dared, and done, 330b it's dogged as does it, 373a put your foot down where you mean to stand, 828b they can because they believe they can, 546b they can because they think they can, 622b
 what we do determine oft we break, 295a

DETRACTION

and spite eagerly listened to, 608a at your heels, 298a he who fears odium does not know how to rule, 609a of him that speaks evil, consider the life, 819b there is no wool so white but a dyer can make it black, 856a will find faults, 212a See Calumny.

Detur digniori, 513b

Detur pulchriori, 513b

Deucalion and Pyrrha, 601b

Deuil, après tout, boit on, 731b

Deus avertat, 513b

Deus det (Grace after meat), 513b

Deus ex machina, 514a

Deus id vult, 514a

Deus misereatur nobis, 514a

Deutschland über alles, 711b

Devices, confound their, 432a

DEVIL

a busy bishop in his diocese, 842b a railer, the devil's bagpipe, 719b a sin to lie on the devil, 794b a spice of, 84b able and as wicked as the, 46a

Devil—contd.

always builds a chapel there, 107b an ill procession where the devil holds the candle, 797b and all his works, renounce the,
 433a
 and you the blacker devil, 303a better keep the deil out than hae to turn him out, 743a between the devil and the deep sea, 744a call not the devil; he will come fast enough, 746b can cite scripture, 282a couldna skaithe thee, 48b damn thee black, 305a devil's meal goes half to bran, 842b did grin, 87a divides the world between atheism and superstition, 842a dreamed of the devil, 4a education without religion makes clever devils, 384a few may play with the devil and win, 761a
 first taught women to dance and asses to bray, 797a give the devil his due, 313a, 765b goes nutting on Holy Rood day, 842a half devil and half child, 190a happy the child whose father goes to the devil, 771a
 has a care of his footmen, 214b has his part in marriage and
 death, 809a
 hath not in all his quiver's choice, 65b hath power to assume a pleasing shape, 293b hath some good in him, 163b he must have a long spoon that sups with, 775b he must have fingers of iron that will flay the devil, 775b he must needs go, that the devil drives, 299a, 775b, 814a how the devil they got there, 252a I am black, but not the devil, 787a I can't congratulate the devil, 458a is an ass, 842b is ae gude to beginners, 842b is good to his own, 842b is not always at one door, 842b it's lang ere the deil dee by the dyke-side, 797b let ae deil ding another, 800a let the devil never find thee unemployed, 513a let the devil wear black, 294b let us call thee devil, 301b like the devil's valet, does more than he is told, 774a lurks behind the cross, 842b makes hell bigger when war comes,
 872a man is fire, woman tow, the devil sets them in a blaze, 807a martyr, the devil's, 875b may get in by the keyhole but the door won't let him out, 842b may take the hindmost, 337a more devils than vast hell can hold, 281a
 more like the devil than to St.
 Lawrence, 812b must be driven out with devils, 751b must bear the cross where none else will, 873a must puzzle the devil, 45b

Devil—contd.

never hold a candle to the devil, 814b not so black as painted, 842b open not the door when the devil knocks, 823a pull devil, pull baker, 828b note raise no more devils than you can lay, 829a resist the devil and he will flee, 431a sick, a monk would be, 842b sinners must with devils dwell, 382a so the miracle be wrought, what matter if the devil did it, 835b sooner raised than laid, 142a take the hindmost, 751b, 757a talk of, and he'll appear, 839a tempt not us, 'tis we tempt him, 842b note tempts other men, but idle men tempt the devil, 842b that the devil may always find you employed, 529b the author of confusion, 350b the devil dances when the flatterer pipes, 871a the devil's gold ring, 765b the first rebel, 52b the ingredient is a devil, 301b the logic of the devil, 151b 'thou wouldst do little for God if the devil were dead, 857b, 880a though black, I am not the devil, 858a throwing crumbs on the fire is feeding the devil, 790b to disappoint the devil, 87b truth may come out of the devil's mouth, 864a turned precisian, 211b virtue of the devil is in the loins, 514b was handsome when young, 842b we do sugar o'er the devil himself, 293b we paint the devil foul, 163b we'll face the, 46a what is got over the devil's back is spent under his belly, 868a when he purports evil, first perverts the mind, 876a when respectable, 30a when the devil dies he never lacks a chief mourner, 871a who has shipped the devil must make the best of him, 778b who has the devil on his neck must give him work, 779a who is embarked with the devil, 778b whoops as he whooped of old, 189b will have his chapel where God hath his church, 872b will soon set an idle man to work, 788a with devil damned firm concord holds, 217b would have brooked the eternal devil, 285b Devon land, the good, 238a white-pot, 188b

DEVOTION

at my devotion, 28a cherished on simplicity or ignorance, 9a despair, twin-born of, 351b enough to do our small devotion (on Sabbath day), 341a every grace, devotion's, 44b fired by too much zeal, 93b Devotion—contd.

has mastered the hard way, 682a if you are unmoved by such devotion, 656a mother of obedience, 105b needs not Art, 69b sharp stomach makes short devotion, 727b, 833a (devotion's) visage and pious action, 293b Devour, seeking whom he may, 628b Devourer, thou sly, 80a Devout manner, do it in a, 70b yet cheerful, 264a

DEW

as morning dew she sparkled, 406b as the sun the morning dew, 125b dews of heaven fall thick in blessings, 320b dews of the evening, 80a dewdrop from the lion's mane, 298b dewdrops which the sun impearls, 220a fades awa' like morning dew, 439a he lived upon dew, 647a ilka blade o' grass keeps its ain dew, 791b ne'er from the heath-flower dashed the dew, 270b on the mountain, 271a shall weep thy fall to-night, 163b that diamond dew, 271a the dewdrop reflects the vast sky, 697a washed with morning dew, 271a

Dextro tempore, 514a

Dia, [lectica] vera docet, 538a

Diadem stole, the precious, 295b

Dial from his poke, drive a, 288b to the sun, true as the, 24a, 52a

Dialect, Babylonish, 51a he had the dialect and different skill, 322b words, marks of the beast, 157a

Diamond, a fine, may be ill set, 720a blazing in the mine, 186a cut diamond, 751b note with a flaw better than a pebble without, 741b

Diamonded with panes, 185a

Diana, no one worships, 613b of the Ephesians, 426b

Diana's foresters, 313a

Dian's kiss, 198a

Diapason closing full in Man, 125b

Diaries be brought into use, let, 10a

Dice, blasphemed his gods, the, 253b if Hercules and Lichas play at, 282b level distinctions, 140a of God always loaded, 475b to throw the, a gentlemanly game, 389b were human bones, 61a

Dicenda bono sunt bona verba die, 626a

Dicers' oaths, 295b

Dick, Mr., 114a

Dickens his name is, what the, 287b

Dictionary, walking, 76a

Diddest thou, thus, 296b

Dido dumb, and was, 258a

DIE

a man can die but once, 315b as erring man should die, 58a a time to die, 415b all alone we die, 186b all that live must die, 290a and fear'st to die, 280a and she'll adore you, 251a better die than live in continual terror, 469a

Die—contd.

bid me die and I will dare, 163a e'en now we die, 104b every moment dies a man, 359a fear not to die, but to die poorly, 137b fittest place where man can die, 18b for men, a man that died, 159a for one's country, to, 519a for thou must die, 163b give light and let us die, 186a glad did I live and gladly die, 344b half-dead to know that I shall die, 362a happy men that have the power to die, 358b he died fearing God, 320b he dies and makes no sign, 317a he that begins to live begins to die, 261b he that died o' Wednesday, 314b how bravely a man can die, 38a how can man die better, 206b how soon he dies, 179b
I am waiting to die, 195b
I die, but first I have possessed, 56b I change, but I cannot die, 326b
I only died last night, 3b
I would not die out, 522a if I must die I will encounter darkness, 299b if I should die, 26a if these poor limbs die, 26a if we die we live, 353b in a great cause, who die, 59a infamy to die and not be missed, 387b it is not difficult to die, 59a it was sure to die, 323b let us die to make men free, 174b live and die, but which is best, 64a longing and yet afraid to die, 198b loth to die, 351b madness to die lest you should die, 543a men have died and worms have eaten them, 289b must of woman die, 172a never say die, 16a, 815a not made to die, 362a nothing dies, 129a nothing will die, 356b out of pure, pure grief, died, 435b should not willingly let it die, 228b she vanished, we can scarcely say she died, 125b still harder lesson how to die, 258a taught us how to die, 372a that which never is to die, 94b the good die early, 108a theirs but to do and die, 361b those about to die salute thee, 495b those that die of it seldom recover, 307b 'tis horrible to die, 169b to die an awfully big adventure, 17b to die and go we know not where, 300a to die as natural as to be born, 9b to die is gain, 429b to die is to begin to live, 139b to sounds of delicious music, 453a to die, to sleep: no more, 293b to-morrow we shall die, 417a to win a lasting name, 121b too much our own ever to die, 161b

Die—contd.

two months ago, 294b upon the hand I love, 280b vague wish that they might not die, 235b virtue's cause, died in, 276a we shall not all die unavenged, 492b when that he is best of name, 77a when a great man dies, 200a when we die we reap our sowing, 129a where his father died, 38a who bravely die, 254b who would wish to die, 24b with harness on our back, 305b without Thee I dare not die, 186a See Dying
Dies artificialis, 515a Dies faustus (infaustus), 515a Dies datus, 515a
Dies iræ, 515a
Dies naturalis, 515a Dies non, 515a
Dies, sit sine life, 659a Dies solemnes, 515b Dies, stat sua cuique, 662b Die (dice) : let the die be cast, 561a straight as a die, 21a the die is cast, 453a

DIET

a little with quiet is the only diet, 724b an equal, 470a cures more than the lancet, 716b, 751b, 840b eat and drink measurely and defy the mediciners, 754a feed sparingly and defy the physician, 760b he that eats but as dish seldom needs the doctor, 477a sober in your diet, 229a See Eating and Food
Dieta, mas cura la, 716b Dieu et mon droit, 692a Dieu garde le demourant, 751b

DIFFERENCE AND DIFFERENCES adjust your differences, 689a note men vary little in spite of all their pains, 708a men excel by different methods, 83a not the difference of a feather, 621a Oh, the difference to me, 392a says his say with a difference, 36a (different) senses different objects strike, 249a the difference of men's talk, 242a though all things differ all agree, 254a

DIFFICULTY

a friend helps in difficulty by deeds, 591a a severe instructor, 41b all things are difficult before easy, 734a best things are most difficult, 841a brave and resolute mind not disquieted by, 534b everything seems difficult if done unwillingly, 602b good things are difficult, 480b hard things compassed off by easy means, 212a he would sow some difficulty, 78b illustrates one difficulty by raising another, 593a made by the teaching, 515b makes desire, 752a

Difficulty—contd.

making difficulty : seeking a knot in a bulrush, 553a, 595a nothing difficult to a well willed man, 818b nothing difficult to a brave and faithful man, 534b nothing so difficult but cleverness may overcome it, 594a nothing so difficult but search may find it out, 594a pleasant to watch the difficulties of others, 664a rashness counts as judgment in difficulty, 660a there's danger, there's difficulty, 22a things hardly attained are long retained, 857a tirer le diable par la queue, 828b (difficult) to please, 43b to snatch the lamb from the wolf, 569a what a sea of melting ice I walk on, 211b when winds blow every hand would go below, 368b with difficulty and labour hard, 218a yields to the enterprising, 167a Diffidence, wife of Giant Despair, 38b the right eye of prudence, 752a Diffident, modest, and shy, 146a of wisdom, be not, 220b

DIGESTION

ate and can't digest, 17a bred, from pure digestion, 219b digest me no digestions, 436b good digestion wait on appetite, 304b quick digestion wait on you, 128b the great secret of life, 333a Digging : Adam's profession, 296b Digitio monstrari, et dici, Hic est, 493a Dignities, not afraid to speak evil of, 431a

DIGNITY

begins where boasting ends, 407b grows more easily than it begins, 529b I hate dignity, 43b joyless dignity to starve, 334a modest dignity and calm content, 264b the most honourable thing, 654a when kirk desires na dignity, 203b

DIGRESSIONS

continual zig-zags, 98a delay you with long digressions, 586a do mightily delight, 49b full thoughts cause long parentheses, 764b the sunshine of reading, 342b Dis penates, 516a

DILEMMA

I hold a wolf by the ears, 494b in front a precipice, behind a wolf, 482a Scylla and Charybdis, 554b

Dilettante, the snowy-banded, 363b Dilettantism double-barrelled, 73a

DILIGENCE

a diligent man is prepared for all things, 545b a great teacher, 752a is everything, 474a
 the best of me is diligence, 306a See Industry.

Dimissum quod nescitur, 516a

Din, Nature's elemental, 67b

Diner-out, philosophic, 34a

Dines, where I, I sleeps, 442a

Dining-room of Christendom, 215a

DINNER

a friend's dinner is soon dight, 721a a good dinner and company that pleased me mightily, 243a a simple dinner in a humble dwelling, 582b after a good dinner one can forgive anybody, 388b after dinner is after dinner, 350a after dinner sit awhile, 732a after dinner sleep awhile, 732a after dinner stand or walk a thousand paces, 732a and feasting reconciles everybody, 243a at dinner my man appears, 739b
 after dinner sleep awhile, 732a best company consists of five, 188b note diminish your dinner, 196a dine lightly : sup more plentifully 801b, 802a English would manage to meet and dine somewhere, 177b five guests at a dinner, or six for a king ; more being an assembly, 638a good company and good, 242b he cadges for a dinner, 615a he is all there when the bell rings, 773b hunger makes dinners, 786b I have dined as well as my Lord Mayor, 787a I have dined to-day, 332a is this a cause why one should not dine, 544a let us have a talk in my house and a dinner in yours, 801a lubricates business, 274b man seldom thinks of anything with more earnestness, 181a Napoleon could not dine twice, 703a no dinner goes off well without Apollo, 176a no politics in boiled and roast, 332b number of guests not less than three nor more than nine, 590a number not more than seven, 188b number should be five, 188b note of herbs, where love is, 414a others stay dinner, then depart full fed, 446b spes cenatica, 661b table attracts more than the mind, 621a ten of us to, 441b the dinner-bell, 63b the hope of dining well, 661b the Mahogany Tree, 368a to dine somewhere among the rubbish, 177b walk after dinner, 623a warmed up never worth anything, 709a was made for eatin', not talkin', 368a while they thought of dining, 149a who saveth his dinner will have more for supper, 781a Diogenes and Alexander, 451b DIPLOMACY
 sharp mind in velvet sheath, 130b
 to say harsh things soothingly, 478b

Diplomacy—contd.

words to be tried before resort to arms, 611*b*

Dips, none of your rascally, 16*a*

DIRECTION

steer not after every mariner's, 837*a*

what is the use of running when on the wrong road, 868*a* which thou canst not see, 248*b*

Director, dubs, and secures his soul,
251*b*

Dirge for her the doubly-dead, 245*b* is sung, their, 23*a*, 90*a* Dirt, every man eats a peck of, before he dies, 757*b* flinging dirt, 258*a* half the little soul is dirt, 363*a* parts good company, 752*a* the more dirt the less hurt, 848*a* who falls into dirt the longer he stays the fouler he is, 777*o* who makes himself dirt, 780*a* Dirty linen : he is mourning for his washerwoman, 774*a*

Dis aliter visum, 516*b*

Dis ce que tu dois, 705*a* Dis krambe thanalos, 470*a*

DISAFFECTION

take away fuel and you take away fire, 838*b*

those who consult together are disaffected, 631*b*

Disagreeable man, such a, 145*b*

DISAGREEMENT

fools bite one another, 762*b* he is a fool that thinks what others think not, 773*b*

men only disagree, 217*b*

the offspring of things ill-mated, 590*a*

two cats and a mouse, two wives in a house, 864*b*

two dogs over one bone, 864*b*

See Dispute.

DISAPPOINTMENT

and discontent, 180*a* blessed are they that expect nothing, 745*a*

disappointed ambition, 39*b* faction, disappointment's child, 177*a*

I can't abide to disappoint myself, 150*a*

it brought forth wild grapes, 417*a* lessened by prompt denial, 577*b* lest disappointment follow, 403*b* oft expectation fails, 299*a*

the expected approbation not in accord with their merits, 621*a*

183*a*

Disarmed, not good polity to go,

DISASTERS

a highway to valour through disasters, 541*b*

man's extremity is God's opportunity, 807*b*

memory of, is another disaster, 622*b*

rebuke in, worse than the disaster, 608*a*

spread throughout country and people, 544*a*

sudden, are lighter than those produced designedly, 565*b*

See Calamity.

Disbelieve, bolder still to, 406*a* has not heart to, 352*a*

Disce, doce, dilige Deum, 516*b*

DISCERNMENT

a great matter that I have pleased you, who distinguish, 571*a* a nose not given to all, 596*b*

Discernment—contd.

he knows which way, the wind blows, 775*a*

See Discrimination.

Disciple whom Jesus loved, 426*a*

Disciples, by this shall all men know that ye are My, 426*a*

DISCIPLINE

all inclinations to be subdued by,
603*b*

must be maintained, 114*b* strengthens the mind, 518*a* Discomforts : each man should bear his own, 666*b*

Discommendeth others, who, 29*a* Disconsolate, stood, 232*b*

DISCONTENT

a large and liberal, 381*b* contented sort of, 185*a* discontented man cannot sit easy, 719*b*

enough to discontent us, 88*a* every one that was discontented, 25*b*

example of (Mrs. Bennet), 6*b* first step in progress, 388*b* he is unhappy whom no man pleases, 578*b*

Impious discontent, 250*b* is a man's worst evil, 725*b* is from comparison, 239*a* men are prone to, 165*a* men dissatisfied with their own lot and attracted by that of others, 632*a*

progress springs from discontent of man, 387*b*

railed on Lady Fortune, 288*b* soil for discontent, 96*b* splendid discontent of God, 387*b* the winter of our discontent, 318*a* worth an age of splendid discontent, 229*b*

DISCORD

all discord, harmony not understood, 248*b*

brayed horrible discord, 220*a* by discord greatest things go to pieces, 504*b*

civil discord, 2*a* dissonant chords beget harmonies, 235*a*

oft in music makes the sweeter lay, 340*a* seemed to clap her sooty wings, 334*a* note

straining harsh discords, 280*a* sweetest airs made by discords, 52*a* 340*a*

the Demon of discord, 334*a* the whole concord of the world consists in discords, 671*b* their discords sting, 167*b* whither has dissension led the citizens, 522*a*

with a thousand various mouths, 218*a*

Discourse, bid me, 320*b* hang cold, 137*a*

his, sounds big, 240*b* into some frame, put your, 295*a* made us with such large, 296*a* of the elders, miss not, 420*a* of the wise, despise not the, 420*a* showers of sweet, 104*a* so sweet and voluble is his, 277*a* sweet, makes short days, 838*a* sweeter banquet of the mind, 257*b*

the banquet of the mind, 126*b* wine gives a pleasant flavour to,

246*a*

Discourses, general, 2*b* too high to give light, 8*b*

DISCOVERY and DISCOVERIES great discoveries, 257*a* "Heurêka," 472*a*

ill discoverers that think there is no land, 8*a*

I was the first to discover this way, 544*b*

if I had not lifted up the stone, 788*b*

in the arts, 558*b*

Nature hides her treasures less and less, 395*a*

nothing comes fairer to light than what has been long hidden,
818*a* time the great discoverer, 859*b* what gain there is in this, is common property, 551*a* who never made mistake, never made discovery, 330*b* you have found what was never lost, 870*b*

DISCRETION

an ounce of, better than a pound of wit, 736*b* and valour, twins of honour, 138*b* better part of valour, 315*a*, 752*a* fought with nature, 290*a* let your own discretion be your tutor, 294*b*

not to outspout discretion, 301*a* therefore use thy discretion, 288*a*

DISCRIMINATION

do not accept all things of all people, or everywhere, 477*a* he does not fall who walks with discrimination, 596*b* vero distinguere falsum, 681*a*

See Discernment

Discussion settles questions, 205*a* Disdain as much as thou, 70*a* from sense of injured merit, 216*a* my dear lady, 284*a* therefore I'll not, 310*b*

DISEASES

a new troop of fevers, 569*a* a whole flock perishes by disease of one, 539*a* and old age creep on us, 613*b* cure disease and kill the patient, 10*b*

desperate grown diseases, 296*a* desperate, have desperate remedies, 751*b* each season has its own, 160*a* few see their own disease ; all love it, 617*a*

folly the chief disease, 762*a* hereditary diseases as possessions, 532*b*

his favourite disease, 135*a* incurable diseases, the reproach of physicians, 613*b* meet the approaching disease, 680*a*

most serious which proceeds from the head, 678*a* music expels diseases, 4*a* not the same thing to feel and to remove, 596*b* one wide disease, 36*b* pale disease, 17*a* pale disease and sad Old Age, 615*a* seeds of dark disease, 370*a* the interests of pleasures, 752*a* the young disease that must subdue at length, 249*a* to hide is fatal, 608*b* to know the disease is half the cure, 719*b*, 861*a* when the cause is discovered, the cure is, 575*a*

Disertum, quem non fecere, 531*a* Disfigure them to make them pass for their own, 328

DISGRACE

a wise and good man can suffer no, 452b fears disgrace worse than death, 600a in the crime not the punishment, 449b like cherries, one disgrace draws another, 752a
other people's deters us, 487b others' disgrace frightens minds from vice, 670a rather bad luck than a disgraceful victory, 572b shame is worse than death, 833a what a man has deserved to suffer is alone a disgrace, 547b what matter if no one knows, if you yourself know, 656b Disguise, 'tis manly to disdain, 407b Disguises, these troublesome, which we wear, 219b

Dish, many a fine, hath nothing on
it, 807b
no, to please all palates, 816a two hands in a, one in a purse, 864b

Dishes, all her, are chafing dishes, 733a new, beget new appetites, 737b so many strange, 284a

DISHONESTY

as honest man as any in the cards when the kings are out, 738b he that prigs what isn't his'n, 442a he that steals for others will be hanged for himself, 781b he that will steal a pin, 782b lucky dishonesty a misfortune, 531a meum and tuum, 191b no one shall be thief with me as helper, 574b the exact degree of dishonesty, 195a who knows what may be gained in a day never steals, 779b

Dishonour of his house, last to know the, 512a past all, 169a

DISILLUSION

Fancy's fairy frostwork melts
away, 264b
learn that all is vain, 266b many statues must come down, 384a the morn and cold indifference came, 266b things which I have seen I now can see no more, 400b what Youth deemed crystal, 36b Disinheriting countenance, 328b

Dissecta membra, 516b

DISLIKE

hesitate dislike, 252a I have not hated the man but his faults, 545a the gentleman is not in your books, 284a
when a man's not liked everything he does is amiss, 869a See Aversion

Dismal Science, the, 71a, 73a

Disobedience: better is childe unbore than disobedient, 744a Disobedience, of Man's first, 215b Disorder: Dover-Court, all speakers and no hearers, 753b will produce order, 689a with most admired, 304b

DISPARAGEMENT

envy disparages Homer, 555b of self, 94a peche qui de luy mal pense, 705a smiles of slow, 366a Dispassionate and cold, 356b Display, what you, I, unbelieving, hate, 642a

Displeased, his only pleasure to be,
98a

DISPOSITION

a bond of union between kindred dispositions, 649b a man's nature, not wealth, makes him trustworthy, 472a different dispositions to be treated differently, 577a difficult to change disposition, 515b enjoyment of wealth dependent on disposition, 582a everything is as you take it, 758b good dispositions corrupted by evil communications, 480b less difficult disposition, 43b similarity of, makes friendship, 548a sweetness of, charms the soul, 666b will depends on disposition, 484a Dispraise a little, for once I will,
211a blasphemous to, 211a horrible, 74a of others is self-praise, 29a trophies from other men's, 109a Dispraised, of whom to be, 223a

DISPUTE

a dispute the devil won't let them make an end of, 857a about divinity (disputes), 195a brothers quarrel inside a house but not outside, 745b could we forbear dispute and practise love, 377b doubtful disputations, 427b downa be disputed, 45a itch of disputation, 379a he would dispute, 50b in too much dispute truth is lost, 793a many get into a dispute well that cannot get out well, 807b
men only disagree, 217b not for us to settle such great disputes, 599b
number [of councillors] makes
disputes, 109b
passion unprofitable in disputes, 28b spread the table and contention will cease, 837a
the itch of disputing is the scab of the church, 403a, 516b, 847a to contend with a superior is a mad thing, 509a truth is lost in too much dispute, 594b when I strive with filth I am stained, 544b

when much dispute has past, 251a wranglers never want words, 878a Yes and No the cause of all disputes, 878b

Disputants, young fire-eyed, 232b

Dissect, creatures you, 250b

Dissemble your love, right to, 187b

DISSENSION

between hearts that love, 233a dissensions gather as they run, 142a

Dissension—contd.

farewell to those who wish dissension, 679a minds so divided, 138a mother of, less than a gnat, 848b See Discord, Disunion Dissent, not satisfied with toleration, 42b
the dissidence of, 40a Disseuters, an unconquerable aversion to, 181b saved England, 181b

DISSIMULATION

a weak cunning, 8b brings forth errors, 517a be seeming otherwise, 301a drops her mask, 405b equivocation, 20a Face gives tongue leave to speak, 9b false face must hide what false heart knows, 304a few hearts that are not double,
761a foil a pretended friend by pretending likewise, 634b hateful to me as the gates of Hades, 472a invites dissimulation, 13b language to conceal the mind, 404a
look like the innocent flower, 303b man cannot live without, 242b not my talent, 1b O, hardness to dissemble, 302a politics of the East, 116a Pompey's insincerity, 673a note pretence of folly is sometimes wisdom, 663b
speech given to conceal the mind, 150a, 334b
subtle, cruel and dissembling, 240a the carl spake on thing, 78a the coward's virtue, 449b the science of kings, 707a to show an unfeigned sorrow, 304b to speak false things as true, 473a
trust to nature for dissembling, 92a
who knows not to dissemble knows not how to reign (or to live), 242b, 633a worldly wisdom to conceal the
mind, 583a
Dissipation without pleasure, 144b Dissolute Man, think of it, 169a Dissonance, filled the air with barbarous, 255b life's, 386b of Bacchus, barbarous, 220a Distaff rules, there is discord where,
794b tow on one's, 860b

DISTANCE

best remedy against an ill man is much ground between, 840b distant things please us the more, 627b dull prophet of a distant good, 124b exaggerated because reported from afar, 627b far awa' fowls hae fine feathers, 760a far from Jove, far from his thunder, 625b
far-off cows have long horns, 760a few things wonderful unless distant, 71b lends enchantment, 66a like Flanders mares, fairest afar off, 802b note

Distance—contd.

made more sweet by distance, 90a makes them stars, 210a no distance breaks the tie of blood, 186b
 respect greater from a distance, 571a sometimes endears friendship, 175a sympathy cold to distant misery, 144b the distant mien, 57a they are not friends who dwell far away, 601a we admire things which deceive us from a distance, 577b we eagerly pursue distant things, 626b what at a distance charmed, 105a who is far from his gear is near his skaith, 779a
 you always desire what is absent,
 652b

Distinction: he is only bright who shines by himself, 774b of place 'tween high and low, 309b Distinguish and divide, 50b Distract: thus I distract my mind, 657a
 to wait me from, 55a

DISTRESS

deep distress hath humanized my soul, 400b drudgery and distress, 96b in all distresses of our friends, 347b no distress should reduce a great nation to despair, 184a something to please us in friends' distresses, 347b note

DISTRUST

be sober and remember to distrust, 475a behind thee leave distrust, 74a believe nothing and be on my guard against all things, 593a by distrust I gained, 477b distrust mankind, 404b distrust yourself, 4a do weel and doubt nae man; do ill and doubt a' men, 753a man who tells you to distrust, 387b more shameful to distrust friends than to be deceived by them, 693a once to distrust is never to deserve, 268b remember to distrust, 863a they no more entrusted gold to you than to a jackdaw, 599b Trust was a good man, but Trust-not was a better, 863b when distrust enters in at the foregate, 175a Disturbance, a fool may make, which forty wise men cannot quiet, 720b
 Disturber of mankind (France), 370a Disuse, rights are lost by, 526b

DISUNION
 a house divided against itself, 424a
 no greater advantage than disaffection amongst the enemy, 592a whither has dissension led the
 citizens, 522a
 Ditchers and gravemakers, gardeners, 296b
 Ditto to Mr. Burke, 459a Ditty, a vagrant, 37b an ancient, long since mute, 185a

Divia potens rerum (money), 508a Dive into the bottom of the deep,
 313b Diver, the adventure of the, 31a Divide and rule, 712a Divide et impera, 517b note Divide, more studious to, 249a Divided power, discord waits upon, 255b
 we fall, 235a Dividends, an incarnation of fat,
 342a
 Divine, may kill a sound, 102a Divination, Apollo has given me the art of, 635a he could not, by his divination, ward off death, 646a rests on a divine law, 88b Divinations and soothsayings, 420b Divine, lovely or, 49b things, triflers or low-minded cannot attempt, 591a Divinity, deal with, as dogs with bones, 195a doth hedge a king, 296b dry bodies of, 253b that shapes our ends, 297a Division: here is the place where the way divides, 543a Divitia, improba, crescunt, 550b

DIVORCE

a vinculo matrimonii, 482b the sacrament of adultery, 690b Dizzy 'tis, how fearful and, 306b Do, all may, what has by man been done, 407a
 as I say, not as I do, 275b without him, cannot, 451b ye also unto them, 422a it (Hoc age), 544a note it, how not to, 115a if to, were as easy as to know, 282a or die, let us, 67a not what is already done, 484a nothing and get something, 118b other men, for they will do you, 113b it, pat, now might I, 295b things, the commonplace people, 195a to, to do without, and to depart, 234b or say, what she wills to, 220b whatsoever ye, do it heartily, 430a unto you, whatsoever ye would that men should, 432b Do ut des, 517b Doit, beggarly last, 100b

DOCTORS

among the people Scoggin's a doctor, 734b death will seize the doctor, 309b did not find M.D.'s worth one D—M, 170b dismissing the doctor don't always succeed, 90b doomed to go in company with Pain, 399b
 fee the doctor for a nauseous draught, 125a full of phrase and fame, 5a God and the doctor we alike adore, 261b note his wise, rare smile, 161b of both laws, doctor, 562b shook his head, 143b slam the door on the doctor's nose, 200a to be a doctor and live by men's diseases, 159a unwise to make the doctor heir, 572a

Doctors—contd.

when doctors disagree, who shall decide, 251a (doctor) who knows his art but not his trade, 349b See Physicians

Doctor utriusque legis, 518a

DOCTRINE

English habit to sniff for doctrine, 181b every blast of vain doctrine, 432b every wind of doctrine, 429b false doctrine, heresy, and schism, 432a fashioned to the varying hour, 148a loved the doctrine for the teacher's sake, 108a no other doctrine needs, 223a of Wickliffe, 141b what makes all doctrines plain,
 52a
 Document, a, does not blush, 502b Documents humains, 455b Documents, human, 455b Documentum, nocumentum, 595a Dodger, the Artful, 112b Dodgers, dodgerest of all the, 115a

DOGS

a bitten child fears the dog, 718b a dog drinks hastily from the Nile, 676b a fat lap dog, 167a a good dog deserves a good bone, 722a a living dog is better than a dead lion, 724b a man may cause his own dog to bite him, 725a admitted to that equal sky, 248a an ill hound comes limping home, 735b an old dog biteth sore, 736a any stick to beat a dog, 737a are fine in the field, 753a as a dog returneth to his vomit, 414b, 431a
 as courteous as a dog in a kitchen, 738a at open doors the dogs come in,
 739b bad dogs cannot find a place to bite, 717a bad dog never sees the wolf, 717a bark at me, as I halt by them, 318a barking dogs seldom bite, 740a beat the dog before the lion, 740b better a dog fawn nor bark on you, 741b between dog and wolf, 557b, 744a beware of a silent dog, 501b, 740a, 744b beware of the dog, 501b (dogs) birds, arms, and loves for one pleasure a thousand pains, 866a bite in every country, 792b bound not with bawty lest he bite you, 745b brabbling curs never want sore ears, 745b
 Brag a good dog, Holdfast a better, 745b
 cowardly dog barks more than bites, 500a curst cur must be tied short, 719b dainty dogs may eat dirty puddings, 750b delicate ears, superfine nose, distinguished tail, 381a do not keep a dog and bark yourself, 752b

Dogs—contd.

does Diana care about the dog barking at her, 564a dog does not eat dog, 753a dumb dogs are dangerous, 753b, 837b eat of the crumbs, 423a eloquence dog-like, 500a every dog has his day, 756a every dog is a lion at home, 756a fiddlers' dogs come to feasts unasked, 761a fierce in the woods, gentle at home, 658a flower of Collie aristocracy, 381a folly to take unwilling dogs to hunt, 663b foremost dog catches the hare, 844b give a dog an ill name, and hang him, 765a gnaw bones because they cannot swallow them, 753a, 843a good bone never comes to good dog, 722a good bone often falls to bad dog, 793a good dog does not always get the best bone, 722a good dog does not bark without cause, 722a good dog never barks about a bone, 722a good whelp will not come of bad dog, 722b hair of the dog that bit you, 723a he sleeps as dogs do when wives talk, 776a he that strikes my dog would strike me, 806a hindmost dog may catch the hare, 844b his Highness's dog at Kew, 256a horses and dogs, 114a hungry dogs will eat dirty puddings, 787a I do honour the very flea of his, 183a I will never keep a dog to bite me, 787b if the old dog barks he gives counsel, 789b in the kitchen desires no company, 719b in the manger, 500a is obeyed in office, 306b is thy servant a dog, 410b is turned to his own vomit, 431a it is a good dog that can catch anything, 794a it is a poor dog that is not worth the whistling, 794a it is an ill dog that deserves not a crust, 794a it is natural to a greyhound to have a long tail, 796a keen-scented power of, 609a keep running after the dog and he will bite you, 762a keep the dogs near when you sup with the wolf, 798b lame dogs over stiles, 189a lean dog shames its master, 723b let dogs delight to bark and bite, 382a let people talk and dogs bite, 800b let sleeping dogs lie, 801a let slip the dogs of war, 286a let no dog bark, 282a life (or fight) in the old dog yet, 855a like a dog he hunts in dreams, 358b

Dogs—contd.

little dogs start the hare, the great get her, 803b living dog better than a dead lion, 415b look not for musk in a dog's kennel, 805a love me, love my dog, 806a Ludlam's dog that leaned against the wall to bark, 738b mad dog bites his master, 847b mad dogs cannot live long, 806b make a dog howl in rhyme, 138b mastiff grows fiercer for being tied up, 726a mastiff may love a puppy, 366b men and dogs shall drink him, 251b mine enemy's dog, though he had bit me, 307a modest dogs miss much meat, 811a more ways to kill a dog than hanging, 854a must eat, 308a my hand will miss the insinuating nose, 380a never go into mourning when a horse dies, 753a no dog so sad but he will wag his tail, 855b not one word to throw at a dog, 288a of black St. Hubert's breed, 270b old dog cannot alter his way of barking, 736a old dog does not bark for nothing, 735a (dog) on his own dunghill is bold, 756a one barking dog makes another bark, 564a one barking dog sets the street barking, 820b one dog can drive a flock of sheep, 821a one growls when another goes into the kitchen, 820b one house does not keep two, 675a quarrelsome, get dirty coats, 828b rather be a, and bay the moon, 286b run when drinking from Nile, 500a sagacious of his quarry from afar, 221b scalded dog fears cold water, 727b silly dogs more angry with the stone than the thrower, 834b soft blandishments and humble joy, 334b something better than his, 358b that dog barks more out of custom, 839b (dog) that fetches will carry, 843a that hunt foulest, hit off most faults, 753b (dog) that licks ashes trust not with a meal, 843a that put up many hares, kill none, 753b (dog) that trots about finds a bone, 843a (dog) that's dead will never bite, 750b the demnition bow-wows, 113a the dog in life the firmest friend, 61a the dog it was that died, 149b the last whelp of a litter is the best, 844b the little dogs, and all, bark at me, 306b

Dogs—contd.

the mastiff is quiet while curs yelp, 848a the moon does not trouble about the dogs, 767a the more I see of men the more I admire dogs, 705b note the more I see of the representatives of the people the more I admire my dogs, 705b note the wool of a blue dog, 853a their love of mutton beat their love of sheep, 202b there be dogs as many, 149b they are all dumb dogs, 418a this dog smarts, for what that dog has done, 134b though the mastiff be gentle bite him not on the lip, 858a to gain his private ends, 149b to whip a dog say he ate the frying-pan, 737a toiling dog comes halting home, 729a two, over one bone, seldom agree, 864b two strive for a bone and a third runs away with it, 864b unable to feed yourself, you feed dogs, 669a unmissed but by his dog, 95b we hounds killed the hare, quoth the lap dog, 866b we may not expect good whelp from a bad dog, 802a weel-bred dog goes oot when they are preparing to kick him oot, 729a what servant more attached than a dog, 638b what delight in the barking or howling of dogs, 234a what has a dog to do with a bath, 479a when a dog comes, a stone cannot be found, 871a when a dog followeth a hare, 234a when a dog is drowning all offer him water, 869a which bark much, never good at hunting, 740a
 while the dogs snarl at each other, the wolf devours the sheep, 874a while the hound gnaws bone, companions would he none, 238a who lies with dogs rises with fleas, 780a who would hang his dog gives out that he is mad, 782b whole towns worship the dog, 613b whose dogs are you, 256a whose loveth me loveth my hound, 234b why puppies are blind, 500a (dog) will not cry if you beat him with a bone, 719b woman, a dog, and a walnut tree, 730a women and dogs set men by the ears, 877b you cannot teach old dogs new tricks, 879a See Watchdog
 Dog-days, the dogged, 356a Dog-like eloquence, 500a Dogged, it's, as does it, 373a Dogma, fundamental principle of religion, 238b Dogmas, truths turn into, 81a Dogmatism, out of affectation by, 343b

Dogmatism, puppyism come to full growth, 177a Doing and saying, a delightful harmony, 690a never done, still be, 51a one can only do by, 878b what is worth, is worth doing well, 868a Dolce far niente, 714b
DOLES
 government should not support people, 84b happy man be his dole, 287b treats and doles the ruin of Roman people, 448b Doll in the world, the prettiest, 189a Dollar, the Almighty, 176a note th' eagle on the back iv a, 129b Dolorem, infandum renovare, 555a Dolores, sanguine and subtle, 351b Dolphins play, pleased to see the 155b Domain, grasps the whole, 148a Dome, him of the western, 123b most magnificent and costly, 408b of the golden cross, 361a Domestic happiness, 99b fireside happiness and hours of ease, 264b Domina, emax, 522a
Domine, dirige nos, 518a Dominion not his design, 122a Dominions, Foreign: rule of a foreign country by no means stable, 487b Dominus illuminatio mea, 518a Dominus solus dux, 518a Dominus vobiscum, 518a Domitian, cruelty of, 493b Domus procerum, 518b
 Don Quixote (praise of), 181a Donatio mortis causa, 518b Done and not have spoke on't, this thou should'st have, 307b as soon as said, 515a cannot be undone, 305a, 530a from what has been to what may be, 482b if it were, when 'tis done, 303b knowing when to have, 71a so little, such things to be, 363b what's, can't be undone, 868a Donkey, a dead, 112b twopence more, and up goes the, 464z who stole the, 464a Donna, la, è mobile, 1715a Donum exiiale, 518b Doom, darkling to their, 59a of Heaven, mild be the, 66b regardless of their, 154b to the crack of, 305a Doomsday, all one at, 797a every day is, 132a grand as, and as grave, 360a then is doomsday near, 292b Doornail, dead as a, 738a DOOR and DOORS
 all name and door, 195b as many more crowd round the door, 173a as the door on his hinges, 382b at her open door, 125b at open door the dogs come in, 739b back of one is the face of another, 840a by the same door wherein I went, 136a devil not always at one door, 842b

Door and Doors—contd.
 everyone should sweep before his own, 758b God never shuts one door but He opens another, 767a gold opens every door, 767b good clothes open all doors, 768a he delights not in open doors but in forcing them open, 601a I will lay a stone at your door, 787b if one door shut, another will open, 789a let the doors be shut upon him, 294a let not your door always be shut, 586b lock your door and keep your neighbours honest, 804b must be shut or open, 150b never bolt your door with a boiled carrot, 814b noble housekeepers need no doors, 817b open door may tempt a saint, 736b open not the door when the devil knocks, 823a shut the door after you, 129b sweep before your own, 838a the groundsel speaks not save what it heard at the hinges, 846a the last shuts the door or leaves it open, 777a to explore the door in meditated flight, 273a to shut the stable-door when the horse is stolen, 796b to which I found no key, 136a when one closes, a hundred open, 870a when one closes, a thousand open, 870b when one closes, another opens, 716a, 870a with closed doors, 561b Dorian mood, the, 216b Dos moi pou sto kai ten gen kinese, 470b Dos ti, hai labe ti, 470a Dotage, the streams of, 178a Dote not too much, 99b Dotes, yet doubts, 302a Double blessing, a, 291a life, I hope you have not been leading a, 389a sense, palter with us with a, 305b surely you'll grow, 399a -charging will break even a cannon, 753b DOUBTENESS
 two faces under one hood, 864b beware alway of doubtfulness, 203a if you run after two hares you will catch neither, 790b my name is Twyford; I know nothing of the matter, 813a nae man can baith sup and blaw at once, 813b See Dualism DOUBT
 a greater mischief than despair, 109b anguish and doubt and fear, 216b assailed him, 69a benefit of doubt to be given to defendant, 642b by doubting we come to truth, 519a doubts are traitors, 299b doubts end in certainties, 7b Dubius, 97b

Doubt—contd.
 falsehood thrives on uncertainty, 681a from doubt to doubt, 269b grows up with knowledge, 713b halt ye between two opinions, 410b he sowed doubtful speeches, 192a he that nothing questioneth nothing learneth, 780b heavy burden of a doubtful mind, 261b horrors, doubts, superstitious fears, 272b I have lived in doubt, 687a I love the doubt, 6b I only learned to doubt at last, 230b in doubtful matters liberty, 552b in doubtful matters the more merciful view is to be taken, 551b in his abject spirit, doubting, 201b interpret all this doubt and strife, 331a is despair, 386a is devil-born, 362b it is dangerous to believe and not to believe, 619b man that feareth to, 207b men will doubt of Rome, 63b modest doubt the beacon of the wise, 298b never try to prove what nobody doubts, 815a no hinge, or loop to hang a doubt on, 302a only if fenced round with doubt, 174b past is the fear of future doubt, 437b Phil Gentle's method in debate, 180b philosophical doubt, 89b philosophy is doubt, 705b road to resolution lies by doubt, 261a slow-consenting Academic doubt, 370b ten thousand doubts arise, 107a the outcome is doubtful, 528a there is no doubt in this book, 465a there lives more faith in honest doubt, 362b they sigh and doubt, 26a to be once in doubt, 302a to doubt is to decide, 460a to doubt safer than to be secure, 212a to scatter doubtful reports, 661a to seek to know is to seek to doubt, 779b truth to be a liar, 292b uncertainties not to be made certain, 554a uncured by doubt, 167b
 we must first disbelieve and dispute with a truth, 454a when fortune is doubtful do not fail me, 519a when mind is in doubt it is easily influenced, 519b where doubt is there truth is, 14a who knows most doubts most, 35b who never doubted never half believed, 14a who read to doubt, 274a ye spectre-doubts, 66b Doubting-Dastle, 38b Douglas, degenerate, 395b like, conquer, 169a

Douglas, tender and true, 167a in his hall, the, 270a Dover, dark at Dover, dark all the world over, 870a and Calais meet, when, 866b Dover-Court, all speakers and no hearers, 753b Dove, as gently as any sucking-, 280b mild as a, 322b sighings of a, 537b the female, 297a Doves, harmless as, 422b in immemorial elms, 361a mourn sore like, 418a Down, he that is, 39a (and not), 51a he that's, down with him, 783a nothing, nothing up, 818a quite, quite, 294a Downhearted, are we, 460a Downhill, when a man is going, everyone gives him a push,
 869a
 Downright is the best craft, 819a Downs, all in the, 142b DOWRY
 a great dowry is a bed full of brambles, 780b a tocherless dame sits lang at hame, 729a beauty carries its dower, 740b bring something, less, along with thee, 745b
 good principles sufficient dowry, 520a hey for the lass wi' a tocher, 49b I have accepted a dowry and lost an empire, 518b I have sold my authority for a dowry, 492a
 I have sold myself for a dowry, 678b lang-tochered Nancy, 48a lass that has acres o' charms, 49b my dowry is purity, modesty, and quiet desire, 597a often a cause of offence, 647a £700 and possibilities is good gifts, 287a
 strife is a wife's dowry, 518b such a mournful dower, 237a the best bred have the best portion, 840b veniant a dote sagittæ, 680a who wives for dower resigns his own power, 780b
 Doze, did I hear it half in a, 363b Dozen, preparing to tap a fresh,
 172b Drachenfels, crag of, 54b Drag, put on the, 332a Dragon among the chamber-maids, 334a and his wrath, 305b he has been a, 138a serpent will not become dragon unless it eats a serpent, 653b
note Dragon's crest is to be feared, 576b Dragons, then we'll fight like, 211a Drains, now they talk of, 378b Drain-pipe, I tell you we're in a blessed, 384b
 Drake he's in his hammock, 238a Drake's strong stroke, 383a DRAMA
 Drama's laws, drama's patrons give,
 178a
 farce a dear delight to Britons, 253a
 fired that the house reject him, 252a let not Medea slaughter her Drama—contd.

 children before the audience,
 587a to hold a mirror up to nature, 294b
 Tragedy the noblest production, 25 what are the plays of to-day, 347a what the devil does the plot signify, 376a who goes to an American play, 333a
 Drank as a Lady ought not to, 15b Drapers, the whole generation of woollen-, 180a Drapery Trade: you've got to stick to cribs, 384b DRAUGHT (of air) air of a window like the shot of a cross-bow, 840a back to draught is face to grave, 740a take heed of wind that comes in at a hole, 838b
 Draught on Aldgate pump, 455b Draughts, shallow, 246b Draw, never meant to, 251b we all draw a little, 114b Drawl, his weekly, 97a Dread, nothing did he, but ever was ydrad, 339a of all who wrong, 386b of something after death, 293b Dreadful, all things less, than they seem, 398a
DREAMS
 a hideous dream, 285b a night-long Present of the Past, 362b a sight to dream of, 86b a waking dream, 259 note after a dream of a wedding comes a corpse, 731b all night dream without a stir, 185a all the wild trash of sleep, 407b all this is but a, 278b and predictions, 11a and the light imaginings of men, 325b as in a dream a man dares not flee, 235b books, dreams, are each a world, 394a children of an idle brain, 278a come not by dreaming, 50b day-dreams of melancholy men, 127b did not dream it was a dream, 357a do lovely things, not dream them, 189a dream after dream ensues, 99b dream not of other worlds, 220b dream of a dream, 404a dream on, there's nothing but illusion true, 168a dream you are dead, you will be free from care, 580b dreamer of dreams, born out of my due time, 236a fairy dreams of bliss, 57a fault of dreamers, to fear fate, 243b foolish men have foolish dreams, 762a fragment from the life of dreams, 87a Friday night's, told on Saturday, sure to come true, 463a full of fearful dreams of ugly sights, 318b

Dreams—contd.
 glory and the freshness of a dream, 400b
 go by contraries, 201a golden dreams make men wake hungry, 768a grow holy, put in action, 260b he dreams awake, 543b hence babbling dreams, 83a holy dreams and hopes attend us, 385b hunt half a day for a forgotten
 dream, 393b
 I am telling you your dream, 674a I am that very dream, 157b I saw a new world in my dream, 263a in cleaving to the dream, 157b is it some dreams, 28a lies down to pleasant dreams, 37a like dead men in a dream, 207b love all a dream, 45a man's best dreams, 31a massacre a million dreams, 121b morning dreams, 37a morning dreams are true, 263b note, 584b my dreaming in the day, 170b my dreams presage some joyful news, 280a no mortal ever dared to dream 245b not all a dream, 61a nothing else but dreams, 171a of doing good, 29b of perfect bliss, 18b perchance to dream, 293b pleasing dreams, and slumbers light, 270b
 relics of the day, 95a sick man's vain dreaming, 486a sleep brings back the day's wishes, 611b soothsayings and dreams are vain, 420b
 spirit of my dream, 60b such stuff as dreams are made on,
 311a sweet dreams of other days, 231a terrify me, 660b that are done, 351a that bring us little comfort, 203b that insane dream, 32b that wave before the half-shut eye, 370b
 that's passed away (dream), 68b the ass dreams of thistles, 840a the fierce vexation of a dream, 281a
 the glory and the dream, 400b the journals of the night, 103a
 the octave 'twixt the dream and
 deed, 195b
 the old men's dream, 123a the shadow of a dream, 293a, 360a they had dreamed a dream, 35b this dreamer cometh, 409a thought in Fancy's maze runs mad, 405b to forget the dream, 322b true after midnight, 623a we wake in a dream, 38b were it not that I have bad dreams, 293a what dare I dream of, 36a what dreams may come, 293b when we dream that we dream, 454a whither now are fled those dreams of greatness, 370a within a dream, a dream, 245b

Dreams—contd.

you tread on my dreams, 404a your old men shall dream dreams, 419a, 426a
Dreaming head and the steering hand, 353b
Dregs, extract of, of all mankind, 329a

DRESS

a silk suit which cost much money, 242b a sweet disorder in the dress, 164b adorning thee with so much art, 94b alike every day makes a clout on Sunday, 732a apparel oft proclaims the man, 291a auld claes, 44a be plain in dress, 229a beauty's sauces, spice, and sippets, 172a better go to heaven in rags than to hell in embroidery, 743a carelessness as to dress becoming to men, 534a costly thy habit as thy purse can buy, 281a dance and sing, be gaily dressed, 357a enough for modesty, 38a every bird is known by its feathers, 755b fashion wears out more apparel than the man, 284b fine woman can do without fine clothes, 720a flies, worms, and flowers exceed me, 382b
fond of dress and change and praise, 266b
garments, though new-fangled, ill, 322a
good clothes open all doors, 768a gown often worn is held in scorn, 724b great men seldom scrupulous about, 111a handsome woman is soon dressed, 723a honest mean habiliments, 276b if she is beautiful she is overdressed, 655b
in all his trim, dressed, 322a in gems and wanton dress, 222a inflamed by the love of your dress, 676a let me be dressed fine as I will,
382b magnificence of dress beyond their means, 543a neat and trimly dressed, 313a O fair undress, best dress, 371a one that hath two gowns, 285a ragged coat may cover an honest man, 727a
royal heart often under a torn cloak, 727a rustling in unpaid-for silk, 309a ship sooner rigged than a gentlewoman, 436a
silks and satins put out the fire, 834b note
skill in dressing, 347b (dress) slowly when in a hurry, 753b so bedecked, ornate, and gay, 223b
so wild in their attire, 303a stay not for th' other pin, 163a that beauty should go beautifully, 364b

Dre's—contd.

that is the best gowth that goes up and down the house, 839b the body is more dressed than the soul, 841a those who make dress a principal part of themselves, 159b
to sing, to dance, to dress, 222a two hours in dressing for the day, 96b ugly women, finely dressed, are the uglier, 865a
we are captivated by dress, 494a we shift and bedeck and bedrape us, 351b
world dresses so very soberly now, 177a

Drift as bad as unthrift, 753b

DRINK and DRINKING

a bumper of good liquor, 328a a long drink empties the cups, 499a as a preventive of thirst better than cure, 242b as deep drinketh the goose as the gander, 738a
at an inn, 209a at somebody else's expense, 196a at third cup wine drinks man, 739b Bacchus and his revellers, 220a Bacchus hath drowned more than Neptune, 740a
Bacchus scatters devouring cares,
517a better belly burst than good drink lost, 742b better good sale nor good ale, 743a confession of a drinker, 576b distilled damnation, 156b drink and no be drunk, 47b drink by measure, 745b drink deep or taste not the Pierian spring, 246b drink deep, we'll teach you to,
290b drink does not break a fast, 623a drink nothing without seeing it, 753b drink till all is blue, 753b drink ye to her, 69a eat a bit before you drink, 754a effects of drink, 637a ever drink, ever dry, 755b evermore the prologue to his sleep, 301b fair fa' good drink, 759b fill the bumper fair, 232a fill what you will, and drink what you fill, 761a first human principle,—foreswear thin potations, 315b five reasons why men drink, 3b food and drink to be limited to what is necessary, 668b for you know not why you go, 136b
God be merciful to this drinker, 576b he drinks no wine, 315b he has a hole under his nose, 773a he hath been in the sun to-day, 773a he that goes to bed thirsty rises healthy, 801b, 802a he was hanged that left his drink behind, 783a healths, to drink, 109a his drink the running stream, 268a
I could drink hot blood, 295a I do not drink more than a sponge, 695a

Drink and Drinking—contd.

I wasna fou, 43b
if sack and sugar be a fault, 314a if you make Bacchus your God, 790b (drink) is a Christian diversion, 92a is the soldier's pleasure, 125b laith to the drink and laith fra it, 799a
largely (drinking) sobers us again, 246b
let a soldier drink, 301b let him drink or begone, 577a let us drink, to-morrow we die, 506a like a templar, 694b long quaffing maketh short life, 203a
makes men hungry, 390a man wants but little drink, 167b (drink) more like a Trojan, 336a more men die of drink than of thirst, 812b
much drinking little thinking, 350a
no good man will insist on another drinking, 179a nor any drop to drink, 86b now is the time for drink, 604b or depart, 472b, 494b our fathers washed their throats first, 823b potations pottle deep, 301a potent in potting, 301b pretty creature, drink, 392a Quo me, Bacche, rapis, 639a rule of drinking at Greek feasts, 577a Southron taxed her drink, 237b still I think that I can drink, 345a strong drink a brawler, 414a strong or not at all, drink, 445b that they may follow strong drink, 417a the flowing goblets make eloquent, 531a the green mantle of the pool, 306a there's nothing like drinking, 110b they never taste who always drink, 259b this intolerable deal of sack, 314a till all look blue, 140a third glass, drink not the, 162a though strong, gone astray, 417b to me only with thine eyes, 182b to the lass, 328b to thee with all my heart, 461a two reasons for drinking, to cure or to prevent thirst, 241b venite apotemus, 680a well, who sleeps well, 438b wet damnation, 372b
when ye're drucken to, 837a who likes not the drink is deprived of bread, 875a why should every creature drink,
94b with impunity, they drink, 28a with me, and drink as I, 239b with Me, saying, 188a you cannot make an ass drink when he does not wish, 822a See Drunkenness
Drivel, ropy, of rheumatic brains,
145a Drives, safer and warmer too than he that, 259a
Driveth furiously, 410b Driving of Jehu, 410b Droit de guerre, 692a

Drollery, that fatal, 117a Drone, a cloistered, 204a a glorious lazy, 210b Drones and cowards, peace, nurse of, 211a the, a slothful pack, 548a Drop, the, hollows the stone, 539b we sprinkle, every, 232a Dropping, a continual, 415a Dropping-down-deadness, 331b Drops, big, mingling with the milk he drew, 193b of water, little, 240a these are gracious, 286b these foolish, 282b Dropsy: aquosus languor, 491b the dreadful, 507b those swollen with, 657b DROUGHT
 death and drouth come sind'e together, 751a
 fontes ipsi sitiunt, 534a never bred dearth in England, 753b DROWNING fishes will sooner die on the land, 172a happiness, drowning would be, 111b he goes a long voyage that goes to the bottom of the sea, 772b he that is born to be hanged shall not be drowned, 771a, 779a if you like not hanging, drown yourself, 212a incontinently drown myself, 301a it's best to let saut water tak its ain gate, 806a let wave and withy haud their ain, 806a luck can never come of a half-drowned man, 806a man drowning will catch at a straw, 719b man drowning will catch at razors, 719b no drowning mark on him, 310b to save a drowning man drown not thyself, 753b to drown in ken of shore, 321b what pain it was to drown, 318b Drowsiness shall clothe a man with rags, 414b Drowsy-head, a pleasant land of, 370b Drowsy syrups of the world, 302a Drudgery at the desk's dead wood, 191b divine, makes, 164a inured to, 96b
 Drugs of which he knows little, 450a Druid lies, in yonder grave, 90a Drum, be still, 277a good, does not need hard striking, 722a not a drum was heard, 391b paints the muffled, 110b rum-tum-tum of the military, 145b rumble of a distant, 135b still the, 196a the hoarse dull, 53b the muffled, 63b the noisy drum hath nothing but air in it, 849a the spirit-stirring, 302a Drums, beat the, 195b like muffled, 197b of war, 344b
 note
 speak, where laws are dumb, 872b Drumming is not the way to catch a hare, 878b

DRUNKENNESS

a branch of the sin of, 176b a drunkard's purse is a bottle, 720a a hair of the same dog, 723a aggravates every crime, 609b (drunk) and drought come seldom together, 753b
 as drunk as a beggar (or tinkler), 738a as drunk as a lord, 738a as drunk as a wheelbarrow, 738a as was the custom of the country, drunk, 84a days when it is necessary to "drink drunk," 705b doth aggravate a hurt, 85b drunkard clasp his teeth, 372b drunkards beget drunkards, 521a drunk as an Englishman, 707b drunk as David's sow, 738a drunken, but not with wine, 417b drunken folk speak the truth, 747b drunken man is not at home, 720a drunken night makes a cloudy morning, 720a
 ever drunk, ever dry, 755b favourite of hell, 108a gloriously drunk, 100b God is kind to drunk folk and bairns, 766b he has come home late with staggering foot, 653b he that is drunk is as great as a king, 438b
 I can do nothing when sober, 622b ingratitude more hateful than drunkenness, 298a is verray sepulture, 78b is voluntarius demon, 85a kills more than the sword, 621a let the drunkard alone, he will fall, 801a looses secrets, 637a majestically drunk, 251a malt is above the water, 847b man being reasonable must get drunk, 62b man (drunken) like a madman, 594a man that's drunk's a lord, 48b more old drunkards than old physicians, 694a one should get drunk at least once a month, 705b our pleasure to be drunk, 134b partly she was drunk, 44b reveals what soberness conceals, 868a the half-drunk lean over the half-dressed, 6b
 the meeting is drunk, 112a what sober man conceals a drunken man reveals, 640b who contends with a drunken man injures the absent, 483a who offends drunk pays when sober, 633b
 Dry as Summer dust, hearts, 401a death, would fain die a, 310b getting mighty, 16a Dryden, copious, 253a father of English criticism, 180a far above the great, 154b never felt real enthusiasm, 187a the full resounding line of, 253a DUALISM AND DUALITY
 I cannot be here and also there at the same time, 658a man not truly one but truly two,
 344b two sets of manners could the youth put on, 402a

Dualism and Duality—contd.

two several souls within his frame, 402a two souls inhabit my breast, 714b twy-natured is no nature, 359b See Doubtleness.
 Dubius, such a scrupulous good man,
 97b Dublin, the capital o' the finest nation, 196b Ducats are clipped, pennies are not,
 753b
 Duck, dying, in a thunderstorm,
 802a who shot the, 464a with French nods, 318b Ducks and drakes, I deem it all but,
 436b instead of which you go about stealing, 461a lay eggs, geese lay wagers, 753b Dudgeon, civil, 50b Dudley, Governor Thomas, epitaph, 446a
DUELS can nought but blood our feud atone, 271b
 must have life for a blow, 363b Dues, render therefore to all their,
 427b
 Duke-and-a-Duchess's daughter, 15b Duke, everybody praised the, 337a gently damned beside a, 233b is in the giving vein, 211a who knows a, 101b Duke's son, cook's son, 190a Dulce est desipere in loco, 519a Dulce et decorum est, 519a Dulcia sunt (poemata), 600b Dull, not bred so, but she can learn, 283a would he be of soul, 395a DULNESS
 a little sleep allowable in a long work, 681b
 a life both dull and dignified, 270a apes discretion, 101b dull and muddy-mettled rascal, 293b dull as a Dutch commentator, 177a dull as a fat lapdog, 167a dull as an alderman, 167a dull ass will not mend his pace, 296b gentle dulness ever loves a joke, 254a if dull there is a design in it, 342a in great danger of being dull, 91b next step to being dull, 2a not bred so dull but she can learn, 283a of dull-hued days, dullest, 157a portion of the truly blest (dulness)
 47b prudent dulness, 81b sacred in a sound divine, 254a so smoothly dull, 254a so dull, so dead in look, 315a spectator forgives everything except dulness, 693a the dulness of our blinded sight,
 437a the dulness of the fool, whetstone of wits, 288a thus I am never dull, 141b to be dull construed as to be
 good, 247b
 too dull for laughter, 256a two dull lines by Stanhope's pencil writ, 408b we should have shone at a wake,
 83b

Dullness—con'd.

whenever dull there was a design in it, 135a
without a single absurdity, dull, 150b
without one pleasure, or pain, 359b worth an age of dull and common life, 274a note Dum memor ipse mei, 587a Dum se bene gesserit, 519b Dum spiro spero, 520a Dum vivimus vivamus, 119a note,
520a

Dumb, a beggar that is, 262b as a drum with a hole in it, 111b folks get no lands, 753b man holds all, 720a more, than a fish, 569b shows and noise, 294a Tumble winna lee, 753b
Dumb's a sly dog, 83b Dumplings : apple blossoms beautiful, dumplings better, 737b he cannot have a pure mind who refuses apple-dumpling, 192a Dumps, as one in doleful, 435a Dumpy woman, I hate a, 62a woman, she was a, 172a
Dun is in the mire, 754a that, of all the duns, 169b Dunce, a graduated, 99b laughter from a, 65b sent to roam, 96a the puff of a, 149a with wits, 254a your son a sot or, 107b Dundee, a single hour of that, 395b Duncheon, deepest, beneath the castle moat, 113a himself his own, 225a Dunhill, everyone's, smells well to himself, 756a Dunkel, Little, what a parish is,
439b
Dunmow fitch, 740a, 772a Dunno, 'e, where 'e are, 464b Dupe, on commence par être, 704a Durance vile, 46b, 188a Durante beneplacito, 520a Dusk, in the, with a light behind her, 146a

DUST

a heap of, alone remains of thee, 254b all things are, 611a an hour may lay it in the, 54a and shadow, we are, 627a and silence of the upper shelf, 205a blown in your face, not worth the,
306b denied the charity of, 405b do I raise, what a, 116b from your feet, shake the, 424b goes before the broom, 843a half, half deity, 59a he that blows in, fills his eyes with it, 776a his enemies shall lick the, 412b in the balance, 417b not without, 600b of Alexander, 297a of the workman at rest, 244a our little all of, 169b raised by sheep does not choke the wolf, 843a return to the earth, then shall the, 416a returneth to dust again, 151b sacred is the, 405b subdued by the casting of a little,
542b

Dust—con'd.

that rises up, 359b the precious, 70a the vile, from whence he sprung, 272b this quintessence of, 293a thou art, 409a to dust, 433a to dust, concludes earth's noblest song, 406a vex the unhappy dust, 359a we reap in, 330a we write a good turn in, 234b what a dust have I raised, 867b wrote them in the, 207b ye tread on their dust, 55b Dust, darning, drudging, 333b Dutch commentator, a, 177a the fault of the, 69b Dutchmen, that waterland of, 64b

DUTY

a light of, shines on every day, 402a a path all may tread, 235b act well your part ; there all the honour lies, 249a an honour to be mindful of duty, 590b basis of duty, humanity, 24a duty, must be done, 146a England expects every man to do his, 457a (duty) faith, love, ever green, 242a faithful, below, he did his duty, 110b
first duty of man is to speak, 344a found that life was duty, 174a gives from a sense of, 201b glory in plain path of, 205b God never imposes a duty without giving time to do it, 267b he that doth what he should shall not feel what he would not, 777a he'd seen his duty a dead-sure
thing, 159a
I do perceive here a divided duty, 301a
I will perform a useless duty, 537a intrepid liegeman, duty's, 397a it is my duty, and I will, 145a let the most difficult be the most sacred duty, 713a life alone in duty done, 387a mocks at the duty you taught her, 328a must is a hard nut but has a sweet kernel, 813a my duty in that state of life, 433a no part of life free from duty, 603b not praiseworthy, but free from blame, 655b
of a Christian to tell a man [when he is ruined], 134b of States, 338a our special duty is to help others, 544b
owe him little duty, less love, 317a path of duty is near at hand, 849a path of, leads to happiness, 338a path of, was the way to glory, 361b
peace which follows painful duty, 337b
picture of filial duty, 617a simplicity and duty, 281a stern daughter of the voice of God, 400a
straight is the line of duty, 443b that lies nearest, the, 72b the modesty of fearful duty, 281a the primal duties shine aloft like stars, 402a

Duty—con'd.

the whole duty of man (men), 416b thy Bondman (duty) let me live, 400a to do what one ought, not what one may, 547b treachery under pretence of duty, 603b underrated duty of being happy, 344a unprofitable servants ; we have done that which was our duty, 425a when love and duty clash, 360a when service sweat for duty, 288b where I cannot love, a duty, 20a whispers low, Thou must, 131b who does what he can does what
he ought, 777a
wise men should attend to their duty, 622a with zealous humble duty, 341a you would not think any duty small, 207a Dwarf on a giant's shoulder sees furthest, 720a small even on a mountain, 616a Dwarfs, what, men are, 546a Dwelling of an ancient friend, 547a one, on earth that she loves, 393a Dwellings were open as day, 198a Dwells, wherever a man, there will be a thorn-bush near his door, 874a
Dyer's hand, like the, 322a Dyes, contracts, inverts, and gives ten thousand, 250b DYING
all hope of never, 104a doubly, shall go down to the vile dust, 272b farewells to the, 199a man (dying) can do nothing easy, 439a man to dying men, 18b tongues of dying men, 312a truth on lips of dying men, 4b victory in dying well, 68a when she slept dying, 171b young man, I think y'are dying, 436b
See Death, Dead.
Dyot Street, Bloomsbury Square,
263b

E

E pluribus unum, 520b note

EAGLES

an eagle flight, bold and forth on 308a
and eagles eat the same, 382b catch nae flees, 754a, 843a do not bring forth doves, 586b eagle's fate and mine are one, 377a for wings an eagle, for notes a dove, 353b hawk at eagles, with a dove, 163b hooded eagle among blinking owls, 327a killed with arrow, 60a note like an eagle in a dove-cote, 308a like the eagle, will renew her age, 68b mewing her mighty youth, 228a old age of eagle, 467a perched on the eagle's wing, 83a pouncing on a wren, 96b stretched upon the plain, 60a teaching an eagle to fly, 491b the eagle am I, 33a

Eagles—contd.

the eagle he was lord above, 395b the eagle suffers little birds to sing, 276a the old age of an eagle, 491b there will the eagles be gathered together, 423b
upon my eagle wings I bore this wren, 128a

Earl by right, by courtesy a man,
6b

Ears that dated from early years, 173a

Earldom, insignificancy and an, 80b

Early (airy) you've gut to git up, 201b bright, transient, 406b

death, 55b

go to bed, 105a ideas not usually true, 338b in the morning, that rise up, 417a start makes easy stages, 754a wake and call me, 357b

EARLY-RISING

argues a distempered head, 279a early to bed and early to rise, 754a early up and never the nearer, 754a get a name for, and you may lie all day, 765a, 789a getting up not so easy as lying,

170b

God gives help to early-risers,
766b

God's help better than early-rising, 767b

he lives longest that is awake most hours, 775b

he rises over early that is hangit or noon, 776a, 784a he that riseth betimes hath something in his head, 781a he that will thrive must rise at five, 782b

however early you rise the day does not dawn sooner, 786b makes one healthy, virtuous, and rich, 754a

never see ye Natur with her hair in papers, 390a rise with the lark, 766a that rise up early in the morning, 417a the early bird catcheth the worm, 843a

who has a name for, may lie in bed, 780a

Earnest, all must be, 24a of the things that they shall do, 358b wouldst thou be thought in, 1b

Earsight, do me eyes deceive me, 28a

EARS

a reasonable good ear, 281a an Ethiope's ear, 278a ass is known by his ears, 526b can endure an injury better than the eyes, 556b did not your ears tingle, 604b ears believe other people, the eyes believe themselves, 843b evidence of ears less convincing than that of the eyes, 481b,

652a

give every man thine ear, 291a he that hath ears to hear, 424a his delicate ears, 381a

I was all ears, 225b

I will enchant thine ear, 320b in at one ear and out at the other, 792b

lend me your ears, 286a

Ears—contd.

less trustworthy than the eye, 481b let the ear despise nothing, and believe nothing, 594a like a mildewed ear, 295b listen to him who has four ears, 526b

little pitchers have long ears, 804a look with thine, 306b make thine ears glow, 79a men and asses must be held by the ears, 810a mine ear is pained, 99a more is meant than meets the ear, 224b

my heart stands armed in mine ear, 321a

nature has given us two ears, 117a of flesh and blood, 291b of the groundlings, 294a one ear heard, at the other out it went, 79a

one pair of ears draws dry a hundred tongues, 822b one who has four ears, 467b polite, ears, 251b pitchers have ears, 276b pricked up, 492b soporific on the listless ears, 95b the dull ear of a drowsy man, 311b the ear is not filled with hearing, 415a the ear is the road to the heart, 666b

the hearing ear and the seeing eye, 414b

the tickled ears, 44b their trembling ears retained the deep vibrations, 370b to no grave harmonies inclined, to sleep on either ear, 554a was never ear did hear that tongue, 267a

381b

when the ear heard me, 411b who has ears to hear, let him stuff them with cotton wool, 367a who offend the ear, 142a

EARTH

all that we behold from this green earth, 394a

all ye know on earth, 185b and the fulness thereof, 115b be light upon him (or thee) 473b, 565b, 659a note bitter leaven of earth, 395b cast the earth behind, 380a could not hold us both, 337b earth, earth, hear the word of the Lord, 418b

envy me not the little earth, 450b felt the wound, 221a fragrant the fertile earth, 219a give true hearts but earth and sky, 186a

had loved him more than me, 383b has not anything to show more fair, 395a

hath no sorrow Heaven cannot heal, 232a

he that loves but half of earth, 262a

he who has looked upon earth, 213a

Heaven-assumed majestic robe of earth, 405b

heaven tries earth, if it be in tune, 201b

in earth or sky, 186a in love with this green earth, 191b is all the home I have, 7a Earth—contd.

is crammed with heaven, 30a is less fragrant now, 380a is the best shelter, 754a is the Lord's, 428a lacking root in homely earth, 381b lay her i' the earth, 297a lean not on earth, 405b lie heavy on him, earth, 445b

659a

look not like inhabitants of earth 303a

making all earth a fane, 170a must have a touch of earth, 365b noblest thing (earth's) a woman perfected, 201a not grey, but rosy, 36a of the earth earthy, 428b on the earth, the broken arcs, 34b opened alike to poor and princes, 486b

put a girdle round the earth, 280b reverting still to things of earth, 74b

sad old earth, 387b scarce of earth, nor all divin

357a

shakes beneath them, 96a so full of dreary noises, 30b son of the earth, 533a splendid vision of earth and sk 187b takes everything it has broug forth, 566a

the common growth of Moth Earth, 394a

the dear green earth, 394a the indifferent children of t earth, 292b

the listening earth, 3a they whose course on earth o'er, 237b

this dim spot which men ca
earth, 224b

this goodly frame the earth, 29b to earth, 433a to earth and light and life, 92b to leaven earth with heaven, 31b two paces of the vilest earth, 31b we are on the earth, 312b was made so various, 99a what changes thou hast seen, 36b what's the earth, 34a whole earth, a sepulchre famous men, 468a with her thousand voices, 86a

Earths well stopped and fo plenty, 461b

Earthen vessel, holding treasu
32b

Earthquake, if an, were to eng England, 177a

ills for, 3a

that had the honour to be notio
130a

and eclipse, the gloom of, 326b

Earthy tabernacle, 419b

EASE

and honour seldom bedfello 754a counselled ignoble ease, 217a done with so much ease, 122b everything endurable except, 7b gentlemen who wrote with ea 253a

his trembling hand had lost ease, 271b

in writing, 253b

in writing comes from art, 24b it is not life unless you are at ea

127a, 801b

laborious ease, 100a life of ease, difficult, 98b

Ease—contd.

like a coy maiden, 99a live at ease, and not be bound to think, 123b lost in slothful ease, 139b mine ease in mine inn, 314b note pennyworth of ease worth a penny, 726b pursuits of inglorious ease, 663a put to hazard his ease, 41a studious of ease, 243b take thine ease, eat, drink, and be merry, 424b
think of ease, but work on, 857b who live at home at ease, 241a write with ease, to show your breeding, 328b Easier said than done, 754a Easiest way, live the, 220b Easily foremost, 529a

EAST

east wind bad for man and beast, 871b east wind held for evil in Britain, 871b (see 3a) even from the east to the west, 302b hold the gorgeous East in fee, 396b is East, 180b
I've wandered east, 237a light from the East, law from the West, 527a politics in the East, 116a the golden window of the east, 277b the gorgeous East, 217a the rich east to boot, 305a wise men came from the east, 333b

EASTER and EASTER DAY rain on Easter Day, 829a sun upon an Easter Day, 346a the Sun of other days, 186b when Easter falls on our Lady's lap (March 25), 463a when Pasch comes, grace comes, butter, milk and eggs, 873a Easterly wind, melancholy conveyed in, 3a

Easy as lying, 295a

Easy, be, 342a nothing is, to the negligent, 818b -minded soul, an, 141a
-hearted man, the, 225a

EATING

behaviour in eating, 524a eat exceedingly and prophesy, 183b eat less, chew more, 811a note eat measureless and defy the mediciners, 760b eat well's drink well's brother, 754b eat well, drink well, sleep well, 236b eat what you like but pocket none, 754b
eaten me out of house and home, 315a eaten meat is good to pay, 754b eater of beef, 297b eating teaches drinking, 754b English heavy eaters, 160a he that eats while he lasts will be the waur when he die, 777b I eat, therefore I exist, 521a let us eat and drink, 417a, 428b, 480a
live not to eat but eat to live, 804b my mind is in the dishes, 490b never be ashamed to eat your meat, 814b

Eating—contd.

often and little makes a man fat, 819b plenty of spoons after eating, 732a quick at meat, quick at work, 829a she that is ashamed to eat at table eats in private, 833a slowly eat, 262b slow at meat, slow at work, 829a they live to eat, Socrates eats to
live, 475b
'tis substantial happiness to eat, 256a to eat and to drink and to be merry, 415b
(eat) to live, do not live to eat, 521a, 754b
what shall we do for to eat, 446a whether ye eat or drink, do all to the glory of God, 428a you may know a carpenter by his chips, 879b See Food and Diet.

Eau bénite du cour, 749b

Ebb and flow, such, must ever be,
400b

Ecce homo, 521a

Ecce iterum Crispinus, 521a

ECCENTRICITY

a fool always finds a greater fool to admire him, 709b dazzling in its eccentric course, 265a few now dare to be eccentric, 215a genius, eccentricities of, 112a men of power have peculiarities, 90a satiety induces a taste for the singular, 696a the trick of singularity, 298a thou hast some crotchets in thy head, 287b

Ecclesiastic tyranny, 108a

Ecclesiastical writers, heat of, 144a value, 679a

Ecclesiastics, see Clergy.

Ecclesiasticus, valor, 679a

ECHO

affrights me with its echoes, 92b answers Where? 56b Fontarban Echoes, 270b leaves but a dying echo, 335b of the world's applause, echoes, 408a set the wild echoes flying, 360b the cave where echo lies, 278b true as the echo to the sound, 264b to the very echo, that should applaud again, 305b Eclipse, a huge, of sun and moon, 303a built in th', 226a earthquake and, 326b in dim, 216b like, darkening the world, 364a when the sun is eclipsed all consider him, 871b Eclipsed by brighter orbs, 67a the gaiety of nations, 179b

ECONOMY

a slave because he cannot utilise small means, 654a no such gain as to be sparing, 604b parsimony the worst profusion, 205b
Political, the dismal science, 71a See Thrift
Ecrasez l'infâme, 692a Ecstasy, blasted with, 294a of love, the very, 292b Ecstasies, dissolve me into, 224b so sweet, 25a Eddication, his, not over nice, 38b

Eden never grew, flowers such as,

15a
make our earth an, 240a river (Eden) will run as it ran, 801a thus other, demi-Paradise, 312b through Eden took their solitary way, 222a
with loss of, 215b Edicta Manliana, 573b Edified, who e'er was, 99b Edifying, good to use of, 429b Edith, in the lovely name of, 198b Edinburgh, hot-bed of genius, 334b motto of, 594b throned on crags, 401b Edinburgh Review, motto for, 333a Editto princeps, 521a Edition, a fair, 70a in a new, he comes forth, 391b new and more beautiful, 140b Editiones expurgate, 521a Editor, dull duty of an, 258a every able, 72b

Editors : the thorn in the cushion of,
367b

the true preachers, 72a

EDUCATION

a diligent scholar and the master's paid, 719b a possession which cannot be taken away, 468a an educated people is most easily governed, 712a Athenians object only to wisdom being communicated, 448b begins a gentleman, 754b better build schoolrooms, 93b better unborn than untaught, 744a better untaught than ill-taught, 744a by education most have been misled, 124b
crooked by nature never made
straight by education, 749b forms the common mind, 250b gude bairns are eith to lear, 770b ill-fed brains cannot supply mental power, 339a instruction awakens the innate force, 518a kindness destroys vigour of mind and body, 579a learning spoils a nation, 260a let us as patriots push forward the pursuit of wisdom, 544b makes the man, 75a my foolish parents taught me to read and write, 574b nature more powerful than education, 116a note object of, the formation of character, 338b of so much importance is early training, 485b public instruction the first object of government, 450a
silly bairn is eith to learn, 728b, 834b soap and education, 84a the foundation of every state, 469a the mind needs cultivation like a field, 676b to cultivate the mind with honourable arts, 586b to love her, a liberal education, 342a note
train while minds are pliant, 682a un peu de chaque chose, et rien d'i-tout, 709b vase is not fashioned unless (the clay is well pounded, 569a

Education—contd.

well fed, ill taught, 773b well may the bairn bless him (that set him to read), 194b what better gift to the state than to teach and train youth, 640a why should we learn with pale faces and sad expressions, 544a without religion, 384a women only distinguished by education, 108a

Educate your masters, 459a

Educated man's tribunal, 35a

Edward's power, proud, 49a

Eel by the tail, you hold an, 490a, 878b

of science, holds the, 253b in a sandbag (or a sack), 773b, 878b

Eels of Melun, which cry out before skinned, 860b

used to it as, 63b

Effect, the cause of this, 292b

Effects, no (nulla bona), 602b

EFFEMINACY

he does not please me whom the dandies praise, 599b none but men of courage can afford to be effeminate, 205a

EFFICIENCY and inefficiency, only two qualities in the world, 323a one who never undertakes anything ineffectually, 633a

See Thoroughness.

EFFORT

after a bad crop sow, 623a

Hercules be his speed, 288a hopeless labour and sweat in the attempt, 656b

not without dust, 600b nothing which effort cannot overcome, 591b

nut must be cracked to have the kernel, 631a

one by whom all effort seems forgotten, 400b

Poverty begets Effort; Effort begets Success, 434b put your own shoulder to the wheel, 828b smallest, is not lost, 207b the prize not without dust, 613a unguisbus et rostro, 675b

Effusiveness: not your good words but your charity, 601b

Effest way, that's the, 285a

Egbert, doing nothing since, 359b

EGGS

a bad egg from a bad crow, 473a an egg and go to bed, 735a an egg will be in three bellies in 24 hours, 735a

as full as an egg is of meat, 279b, 738b as good be an addled egg as an idle bird, 738a better an egg to-day than a hen (or chickens) to-morrow, 485a, 742a

do not put all in one basket, 752b half an egg better than an empty shell, 770b

he that buys eggs buys many shells, 776b

he that steals an egg will steal an ox, 782b

it is very hard to shave an egg, 797a more the eggs, the worse the hatch, 173b

now for the eggs and the ham, 140a

Eggs—contd.

send not for a hatchet to break open an egg, 832b set a house on fire to roast eggs, 10b

there's reason in roasting of eggs, 856b they quarrel about an egg and let the hen fly, 798b vulgar boil an egg, the learned roast, 253b

ways (685) to dress eggs, 233a who would have eggs must bear with cackling, 782b you may eat an egg after a slut, 735a

your eggs have two yolks, 734a

Eggshell, it is hard to sail in an,
 797b

world hollow as an, 14a

Eglantine, and with, 280b

Eglinton, Earl of, alleged prayer, 766b

EGOTISM

a little less "I," 444a

Ego et rex meus, 521b note

I am writing with a Peacock's quill—all eyes, 787b

Egypt, a new king over, 409b corn in, 409a rail against all the first-born in,

 288b

this bruised reed, 410b

Egypt's dark sea, 232a

Egyptians, spoiled the, 409b

Eheu fugaces, 17a, 521b

Eight hours' work, eight hours' play, 754b note

Eights, the four, 754b note

Einmal ist keinmal, 820b

Elbow-grease the best polish, 754b

Elder soldier, an, not a better, 286b

ELATION

all elated or depressed by events, 612b

minds lifted up must be humbled, 522a

undue, followed by extreme alarm, 631a

Elect, to seduce the very, 424a

ELECTIONS

abstain from beans, 483b constitutions air heny, 202a

English only free during a general election, 700a

I'm just a candidate, 202a right of election, essence of constitution, 184a

the election-hustings, 73a the sacrifice septennial, 335a the suffrages of the inconstant multitude, 597a

Electric sparks, the fierce, 35b Electricity: Knowledge hath clipped the lightning's wings, 373b

Eleemon, 337a

Elegant but not ostentatious, 180a

Elegance not a manly ornament, 598a

Elegantiae arbitri, 491b note

Elegiacs, 87b

Elemental strife, 248b

Elements, all the, had gone to wrack, 219b

all things return dissolved into their, 541b

the, so mixed in him, 287a the war of, 2a

weak and beggarly, 429a

Elephants endorsed with towers, 223a

place, for want of towns, 348a

Eleven, second-, sort of chap, 18a

Elijah, spirit of, doth rest on Elisha, 410b

Elizabeth, Queen, 46a note motto, 652b

no scandal about, 328b sayings of, 11b, 12a spacious times of, 357b

Elizabeth's dead, Queen, 350a, 828b

Elizabethan age the smoking era
 18a

Elm, the pilier, 79b star-proof, branching, 224b the vine-prop, 339b

Elms, immemorial, 361a

ELOQUENCE and ELOQUENT

a pleasing sorcery, 217b a poor pleader may do in a plain cause, 726b

admiration of one who speaks fluently and wisely, 570a anyone may be eloquent in an easy case, 551a

apt and gracious words, 277a cannot be pretended, 620a charms the soul, 217b copiousness always false eloquence, 229a

dumb eloquence (of the eyes)
 105b

every one eloquent in his own cause, 626a

fit words and heavenly eloquence,
 123b flowing goblets make all eloquent 531a fluency a sign of despicable nature, 677b

fluency fatal to many, 671b foster-child of licence, 522a full-celled honeycomb of eloquence, 358a

he is eloquent enough for whom truth speaks, 649a

he is eloquent enough who speaks for an innocent man, 634a he never misses to grow eloquent, 441b heart listened when he pleading spoke, 371b

in proportion to insincerity, 691b innocence better than eloquence,

 651a

intoxicated with my own eloquence, 116a

love and business teach eloquence, 805b loves makes eloquent, 208a many are the friends of the golden tongue, 807b men are more eloquent than women, 262b

mistress of all arts, 613a nothing more eloquent than ready money, 829a

nothing more useful than clearness, 678a

now with entreaty, and now with bitter words, 604b pity one that can speak so well should be so ill, 210b plenty of eloquence, but little wisdom, 649a

saucy and audacious eloquence,
 281a

soul-moving sense of religious eloquence, 397b

speak clearly, 167b state-wielding magic of his tongue, 370b

such was his force of, 109a that old man eloquent, 226b the child of knowledge, 116a

Eloquence and Eloquent

the curse of this country (eloquent men), 132a the heart makes men eloquent, 618a Ulysses not beautiful but eloquent, 598a we are not allowed to be so eloquent, 595a whose eloquence has power to clear the house, 177a without wisdom, 41b words plentiful when the subject is well-understood, 642b your words, they rob the Hybla bees, 287a Eloquent music, 295a Elsinore, 67b
Elysian, suburb of the life, 199a Elysians, for, sun seems always to have just set, 116b Elysium, and lap it in, 225a on earth, if there be an, 233a within whose circuit is, 317b Emancipation, white as well as blackee, 172a Embarras de richesse, 692a Embellishments, lop off pretentious, 489a true coral needs no painter, 863a Ember eves, 308b Embers, glowing, through the room, 224b in our, is something that doth live, 401a Embrace, arms, take your last, 280a Embraced, what cannot be eschewed, must be, 288a Embroidery, sad, wears, 226b eminence, raised to that bad, 217a though fancied, turns the brain, 407b eminent men in their way, 243a in shape and gesture proudly, 216b Emma, wo, 464b
Emmet, Robt., 335b note Emoluit mores, 556a emotion, not thought, the sphere of music, 158b you cannot demonstrate an, 234b Enou thanontos gaia michtheto puri, 471a Emperor for diet, 296a Emperor should die standing, 512a Emphatically, do nothing, 115b Empire of himself, man must rule, 327a EMPIRE a cutpurse of the, 295b and Liberty, 118b note and Victory, 326a
British, 189b
British : India knelt at her feet, 353b British : on which the sun never sets, 390a changing empires wane and wax, 274a dissolve and peoples disappear 381b ever-widening empire, 366b every staff of empire curved at top, 14a first step to empire, 42b great empire and little minds, 40a has not an empire a right to be proud, 354b hatching vain empires, 217a increase of empire increased cares, 211a l'empire, c'est la paix, 696a mysteries of empires, 491b

Empire—contd.

not maintained by cowardice, 597a power in trust, 123a rod of empire might have swayed, 153b semper Augustus, 652b survey our empire, 57a the course of empire, 22a the rise of empires, 24b unimagined empires drew, 190a what are empire, power, 92b where now the mighty empire, 398a whose game was empires, 61a EMPLOYMENT
chase brave employments, 162b great employments great burthens, 210b hand of little employment, 296b he is idle that might be better employed, 774a in suing for employment, luck is everything, 716b is enjoyment, 754b pleasantness of, does not evince propriety, 6b some employment, meriting no praise, 445a various his employments, called idle, 100a who brings up his son to nothing breeds a thief, 776b See Trade.
Empress of flowers (daisy), 80a Emprize, bent on bold, 371b EMPTINESS and EMPTY at the heart of all things, 397a empty bag will not stand, 735a empty chambers make foolish maids, 754b empty, swept, and garnished, 422b in affairs of men, 606a many a fine dish hath nothing on it, 807b or fond impertinence, 220b perpetual emptiness, increasing change, 397a vessels never give so much sound as when empty, 177b, 754b EMULATION difficult to preserve justice when you are trying to excel others, 619a envy is emulation in the learned, 249a envy is emulation in the brave, 249a is a virtue, 755a more effective than legal pains and penalties, 486a produces emulation, 486a whetstone of wits, 555b See Rivalry
En touto nika, 471b Enamoured, hung over her, 219b Enchantment, sweet, hence, 331a Encouragement : raised their faintest courage, 216b the Gods give hope, 236b Encourager les autres, pour, 691b, 705b ENDEAVOUR
a noble aim is as a noble deed, 397b bent on bold emprize, 371b do the likeliest, God will do the rest, 753a God helps him who strives hard, 766b he that stays in the valley shall not get over the hill, 781b Endeavour—contd.

on him and on his high endeavour, 399a passionate bright endeavour, 37b the heart riven with vain endeavour, 395b who would have what he hath not should do what he doth not, 783a whose high endeavours are an inward light, 399b END and ENDINGS
'a made a finer end, 316a and found no, in wandering mazes lost, 217b as the dénouement of a play, 677a a swan-like, 283a at game's end we shall see who gains, 739b attribute every beginning and ending as from Heaven, 543b better never begin than never make end, 743b better the end of a thing than the beginning, 415b consider the end of a long life, 479a do not forsake me in the end, 116a end-all, the be-all and the, 303b end crowns all, 299a end crowns us, not the fight, 165a end good, all good, 843a end is come of pleasant places, 351b everything hath an end, and a pudding (or sausage) two, 758b fear of all was lest he should make an end, 184a gie o'er when the play is gude, 765a good to begin well, better to end well, 768b hasten to a close, 97b he made a good, 296b here is my journey's end, 303a I see land, 469b
if you cannot see the bottom, don't wade, 790b in view, one, 33a long is it to the ending of the day, 236b look to the end of a long life, 476a looked to find sharp ending to their bliss, 235b make me to know mine end, 412b manlike end myself, 359b manum de tabula ! 573b matters be ended as they be friended, 25b note motion swifter at end of descent, 580b must justify the means, 259b, 843a Nature gives us no knowledge of the end of things, 645a never ending, but always descending, 336a of life not knowledge but action, 176a office deteriorates at its end, 556b our ending depends from our beginning, 584b our tedious song should here have ending, 227b regard the end, 533a remember always your end, 575b remember the (or thy) end, 447a, 480a

End and Endings—contd.

remember the (or thy) last end, 420a, 420b remember thy end and let enmity cease, 420b reserve the master-blow, 829b so do our minutes hasten to their end, 321b still to live loth, 371a tender words and faces, end of, 351b the ceasing of exquisite music, 198a the end crowns the work, 843a the end is hard to reach, 533a the end is not yet, 423b the end of all, the popped sleep, 351b the end of this day's business, 287a the end justifies the means, 843a the end of things at hand, 533a the end praises the life, 843b the evening praises the day, 843b the means, the manner, and the end, 109b the sting is in the tail, 851b note the true beginning of our end, 281a there is of every dede, an end, 77a there's a divinity that shapes our ends, 297a to these also God will give an end, 510b unlawful to know the end assigned us, 672b we have reached the port, 505b we know not yet their end, 352b what advantage to ask of the Gods the issue, 666b what comes latest often seems to have accomplished a matter, 652b who desires the end desires the means, 843a Ends, a divinity that shapes our, 297a the best, by the best means, 175b thou aim'st at be thy country's, 320a when a man obtains worthy, 9b Endless work, what an, have I in hand, 340b Endow, with all my worldly goods I thee, 433a ENDURANCE
 all fortune overcome by bearing it, 638a all our endurance failed, 673a bear, do not blame, what cannot be changed, 531b bear it with an honest heart, 368a bear what is hurtful, 531b bear whatever To-day may bring, 195b better suffer ill than do ill, 743b endure and be ready for good fortune, 520b endure and persist, 619a endure this evil lest a worse come, 544b every lot to be overcome by, 613a grin and bear it, 770a he is worth na weil that may not bide wae, 774b he that can stay, obtains, 758b he that eats the hard shall eat the ripe, 777a he that endures is not overcome, 777b he who suffers conquers, 633b

Endurance—contd.

ill-fortune subdued by endurance, 535a more able to endure, 399b our torments may become our elements, 217a patient endurance is godlike, 187b proved by your death, 548a the greatest evil is not to be able to bear evils, 604a to endure to the end is a heavy thing, 565b we must bear what the Gods choose, 470a what can't be mended, endure, 383a what is hard is made lighter by endurance, 520b with moderation (endurance) the last resource, 526b wonder is he hath endured so long, 307a ENEMIES
 a bridge of gold (or silver) for a flying enemy, 806b note a courageous foe better than a cowardly friend, 719a a friend may be made out of an, 527a a thing devised of the, 83a note, 319b a very wretched fortune that has no enemies, 578a a wise enemy better than an ignorant friend, 707a among enemies choose the least, 819b an enemy does not sleep, 735a an enemy hath done this, 422b better harsh foes than seeming friends, 624a cannot be too careful in choice of enemies, 388a conversion to his enemies, 461a despise not a humble enemy, 751b despise not your enemy, 751b enmities hidden are more to be feared, 667a every man is his own enemy, 757a note every one has more enemies than he knows, 763b, 855a fear an enemy, however insignificant, 556a finding their enemy to be so cursed, 321a giving his enemies the slip for ever, 342b good enemies, 138b greatest enemy to man, 49b greatest enmity better than uncertain friendship, 736b gunshot of his enemies, 39a he is wise that can make friend of foe, 774b he makes no friend that never made a foe, 365b he who has one enemy, 131b his enemies shall lick the dust, 412b how goes the enemy, 263a invented by the enemy, 83a note it is evil to trust the enemy, 639b little enemies not to be despised, 803b love your enemies, 421b make my enemies very ridiculous, 449a may serve as witnesses, 755a naked to mine enemies, 320a Enemies—contd.

no enemy to match a friend (predicting evil), 347b no man is without enemies, 81a no worse pestilence than a familiar foe, 856a nobody's enemy but his own, 817b of all their enemies, themselves the most fatal, 367a one enemy can do more hurt than ten friends can do good, 821a one enemy is too much, 821a one Heaven cannot contain my and me, 337b open enemy better than a false friend, 736b our friend the enemy, 455a our enemies will tell the rest with pleasure, 439a put an enemy in their mouths, 301b rather have such men my friends than enemies, 287a rejoice not over thy greatest enemy dead, 420a safer to reconcile an enemy than to conquer, 796b speak nothing of your enemy, 837a sufficient not to have all my enemies, 610a take heed of enemies reconciled, 838b that sweet enemy, France, 330b the enemy is at hand, 531b the enemy that lies in a man's own breast, 539a the war is not done while my enemy lives, 852b there is no little enemy, 821a think, but do not speak ill of an enemy, 511b though bound to love your enemy, you need not put a sword in his hand, 858a to crush out the enemy, 653b note to forgive our enemies their virtues, 703a we all have more enemies than we know, 855a we are bound to forgive, but not to trust enemies, 790a weak invention of the enemy, 83a well to be taught by an enemy, 559b when the enemy is down the battle ends, 506b, 627a who has no enemy has no friend, 633a who troubles about valour or fraud in an enemy, 518a wise man dreads his enemy, 751b wise men learn from their foes, 468b with more enemies you would have been better, 790b you are running on enemies, trying to avoid your foe, 639b See Enmity.
ENERGY
 a man upright and energetic, 535b and perseverance found among the wretched, 621b divine energy, 253a England having saved herself by her energy, 245a note genius useless without grit, 590b

Energy—contd.

he delights not in open doors but in forcing them open, 601a the inactive hate the energetic 608b Enfant terrible, 692a Engendered, I have't, it is, 301a Engine, steam-, in trousers, 333b that two-handed, 226b Engine's clack, sing to the, 32a Engines, you mortal, 302a Engineer, the, hoist with his own petard, 296a

ENGLAND

a fen of stagnant waters, 396b a noble and puissant nation, 228a a shop-keeping nation, 709b note be England what she will, 82b bind fast her home-born foes, 351a bliss to tread the grass of, 396b bound in with the triumphant sea, 312b coldness of summers in, 332b commercial prosperity, England's,
87a did England help me, 36a Dissenters saved England, 181b drought never bred dearth in,
753b epidemic terror peculiar to, 150b expects every officer and man to do his duty, 457a tamine in England begins at horse-manger, 720a folies grow in, 82a full of sin, but most of sloth, 162b further off from England, 119b garden of Liberty's tree, 69a green and pleasant land, 23b has saved herself by her exertions, 245a have courage (England) even to forgive, 196a
he [Nelson] England is, 213b hell for horses, 755a her precedence of teaching nations how to live, 228a her women fair, 67a his knowledge of England, 43a history of England, history of progress, 205b homes of England, 161b how can I help England, 36a if England drive us forth, 191a if head and heart of England were one, 119a inordinately proud of England and abused her incessantly, 385a is the one land, 26a is windy; when not windy, pestilent, 490a keep our noble England whole, 361b
law of, very expensive and dilatory, 460a
live on England's happy ground, 355b mariners of England, 67b men of England, 41b meteor flag of, 67b motto of, "Something will turn up," 116b mourns her dead, 22b my England, 161b Navy of England, 23a never shall lie at the foot of a proud conqueror, 312a no interregnum in England, 551a not governed by logic, 755a oaken-hearted mood of, 355b Oh, to be in England, 36a England—contd.

on thy knees to-night, England, 238a our noble England's praise, 206b Paradise of women, 755a purgatory (or prison) for men, 755a roast beef of Old England, 134b safety of, dependent on middle-class, 367b she's all that's honest, honnable, an' fair, 202a slaves cannot breathe in, 99a some love England and her honour yet, 361b strength of, in her industry, 193a sword in hand for England's
right, 270b
that is for ever England, 26a the girdle of England, 397b the land of sects, 449b the land we from our fathers had in trust, 397a the last of England, 20b the mother of Parliaments, 25b the weary Titan, 5b the workshop of the world, 118a they sleep in Old England's heart, 383b
this blessed spot, this earth, this realm, this England, 312b thus did England fight, 383a titles in England, 114b to itself do rest but true, 312a true men (England's) are we, 383a unrivalled for sporting and politics, 117a victory to our England, 210a Warwickshire the heart of, 121a we have one foe and one alone—England, 444a
what love I bore to thee, 392a what should they know of England, 186b what village parson in England would not be a pope, 449b what will they say in England, 457b when the vartoo died they made her heir, 202a who dies if England live? 190b with all thy faults, 99a ye gentlemen of England, 241a yet shall stand, 353b young is she yet, her world-task but begun, 380a

ENGLISH and ENGLISHMEN a dumb people, 73a a happy English child, 355a a nation of shopkeepers, 454b a people who defend themselves, 701b a perfect Englishman, buying modern antiques at great cost, 705a abusing of the King's English, 287b act better than Frenchmen, 21a Act of Parliament everything to Englishmen, 449b ale the true drink of Englishmen, 24b all restraint despise, 108a Allah created the English mad, 190a an Englishman does not travel to see Englishmen, 343b arrogate to themselves empire of the sea, 701a as thorough an Englishman as ever coveted, 188b best at weeping, worst at laughing, 456b

English and Englishmen—contd.

between English earth and sky, 162a broad-shouldered, genial English-
man, 361a
cool and quite English, 65a do everything on principle, 323a do not understand indexing, 385a English as she is spoke, 455a Englishman knows not when a thing is well, 727a false English, 80b favourite topic of Englishmen, adverse criticism of things British, 384b
feet on English ground, 383b fickleness attributed to English as islanders, 228b flag (English) was flown, 189b flattered, an Englishman is a lamb, 75b
free to do what Government and public opinion allow, 323b froth at top, dregs at bottom, but the middle excellent, 456b Gentleman, English, 29a gloomy Englishman wants to reason even in his loves, 700b Goddam! moi j'aime les Anglais,
706b gratitude, English, 108a great meat-eaters, and therefore cruel, 701b habit of Englishman, to sniff for doctrine, 181b hard to make them acknowledge they are happy, 367a have false ideas about reverence, 267a have no common sense, 323a he in English-making was the best, 203a
he remains an Englishman, 145b hearts made of English oak, 273b Hearts of Oak, so much renowned,
454b his English is ungrammatical, 32b house is his castle, 725b, 735a I'm an Englishman, 93b I do not know that Englishman alive, 319a
I love English boldness; I love people who say what they think, 706a in blood and tongue our brothers, 387a inventors, English, 161a kept themselves to themselves—the English ideal, 384b Liberty, the idol of the English,
75a little indeed inferior to the Scots, 390a love law, 449b make a good thing too common,
315a ne'er contented long, 108a never in the wrong, 323a never so happy as when told they are ruined, 237a
never wants his own good word, 108a not to love nor favour an Englishman, 24a
nothing so good or bad but you will find them doing it, 323a of all men stands firmest, 133a one equal to three Frenchmen, 316b only free during a general election, 700a
only the English use ocean as their abode, 377b

English and Englishmen—contd.

our English Classics, 25b peculiarity in countenance of Englishman, 24a pernicketty about what they eat, 390a prone to weeping, 456b public (English) never forgives youth, power, and enthusiasm, 389a rather a foul-mouthed nation, 159b rights of, depend on liberty of press, 184a sou comme un Anglois, 707b sprung of earth's first blood, 397a stables the real centre of English household, 324a stupidest in speech, 73a sweet as English air could make her, 360a take their pleasures sadly, 456a talent for silence, 73a talk of the weather, 180b that vain, ill-natured thing, an Englishman, 108a the absurd nature of Englishmen, 242b the comprehensive English energy, 115b the English sweating-sickness (sudor Anglicus), 665a the Englishman weeps, 843a the last great Englishman is low, 361a thinks he is moral when he is only uncomfortable, 523b true men (England's) are we, 383a unacquainted with England, 24a we Englishmen, trim, correct, 266a with our English dead, 316b wisest in action, 73a, 456b word of an Englishman is his bond, 735b wut's good's all English, 202a you Englishmen will always be fools, 460b Enigmas, a body of, 28b Enjoy, contented if he might, 400a thyself, the one commandment, 408b Enjoyed, when nothing is, what greater waste, 371a Enjoying, think, O think it, worth, 126a Enjoyment, a limit to, 373b before enjoyment's gale, 47a possess what the gods will give you, 656a the rose of enjoyment, 231a Enlargements, all who heard it made, 255a Enmities mortal, friendships eternal, 580a Enmity, cease from, 420b I am proof against their, 278b
 'tis death to me to be at, 319a Ennius, epitaph of, 687a ENOUGH
 first cries, Hold, enough, 305b he has nothing who has not, 774b if not too much, 755a is a feast, too much a vanity, 755a is a plenty, too much is a pride, 375a is as good as a feast, 22a, 755a is better than too much, 755a is more than a sackful, 755a not enough if there is nothing over, 856b of enough men leaves, 810b there is now enough, 609a

Enough—contd.

'tis enough, 'twill serve, 279b who has enough of no more has need, 162a See Sufficiency.
 Enquire wisely, thou dost not, 415b Enquiring too curiously, 297a note Enquiry, the cold, 336a Ensample, this noble, 77a Ensign, her tattered, 167a the imperial, 216b
 Ensky'd and sainted, 299b Enter, but this warning hear, 74b for here too are gods, 558b now, ye cannot, 366a ENTERPRISE
 difficulty yields to the enterprising, 167a enterprise that hath a stomach in it, 290a great enterprises, 2a hazard in the glorious enterprise, 216a O Goddess (Enterprise) in thy favourite Isle, 396a of great pith and moment, 294a the very life-blood of our enterprise, 314b wisdom hath one foot on land, one on sea, 876b Entertainment, do not dull thy palm with, 291a one of the principal features of my, 27b ENTHUSIASM
 an enthusiast regenerates or ruins a state, 204b English public never forgives, 389a enthusiasts seldom speak truth, 14b martyr to mild enthusiasm, 32a nothing great achieved without enthusiasm, 133a put down enthusiasm, 378b regenerates or ruins a state, 204b science antidote to poison of, 330b the genius of sincerity, 205a to see too much in everything, 81a Entrances, their exits and their, 288b Entreat me, he did, past all saying nay, 283a Entwined himself, he, 57b Envious, no state is, 213a ENVY
 a brave or a fortunate man can bear, 559a a coal from Hell, 14a a kind of praise, 143b a woman's envy, 153a above all envy, and all pride, 157a an enemy to honour, 547a and calumny and hate and pain, 326b and wrath shorten life, 420b begets War, 434b better worth having than pity, 468a, 742b companion of glory, 523b, 558b dashes its teeth on what is solid, 535b death extinguishes envy, 9b disparages Homer, 555b does not enter an empty house, 755a doth not bite the dead, 200b eldest-born of Hell, 438b endeavour not to be envious, but to be envied, 559a envious man grows thin at another's prosperity, 559a envious men look askance on others' good fortune, 567b Envy—contd.

fame decays by envy, 255a fortunate man has no small share of envy, 472a frown, envy's, 19a good fame brings envy, 732b greatest sign of being well-born is being born without envy, 700a greed is envy's eldest brither, 770a has no holidays, 13a, 755a hatred and malice, 432a he that is below envieth him that riseth, 436b he will never be happy whom it torments to see a happier, 602 I do not envy, but wonder, 597b I do not honour envy, but would fain be envied, 480b I envy no mortal, 70b ill-rejoicing envy, 131a is blind, and can only disparage the good, 499a is proud weakness, 9a it is misery to be envious, 574a it never hurts me that this man is richer or more learned, 593b many owe their fortunes to their enviers, 808a married idleness and begot curiosity, 755a more irreconcilable than hate, 696a most odious and anti-social of passions, 215a natural to look with sick eyes on other's good fortune, 557a natural to the wretched, 523b never dies, 755a never enriched any man, 755a no worse torment invented, 559a nothing sharpens sight like envy, 818b of less happier lands, 312b one dog growls when another goes into the kitchen, 820b one may be wise without envy, 566b pity cureth envy, 825b rather my enemies envy me, 574a seeks the highest things, 665b so shameful that no one has courage to own it, 755a such men as he be never at heart's ease, 285b the discharge of the black cuttlefish, 543a the greater the glory, the nearer to envy, 639a the honest man must endure envy, 713a the ignoble mind a slave to envy, 249a there is no rest to envy, 755a thinks nae gude, 806a to appease envy by abandoning virtue, 559a to silence envious tongues, 320a too low for envy, 94a too much my pride to awake my envy, 14b vice of republics, 198a who envies is inferior, 632b will merit, as its shade, pursue, 247a will not last to posterity, 485a withers at another's joy, 369a would not let you rest in Paradise, 384a Epea pteroenta, 471b Ephebis, excessit ex, 527b Ephesian dome, fired the, 83a Ephesus, beasts at, 93b Epic, scraps of thund'rous, 360a

Epicharmus on survival after death,

522a

Epictetus, Tully, Plato, 99

EPICURES

a pig of Epicurus's flock, 522b delicacies sought regardless of price, 558a

epicure puts his purse in his belly, 843b fattest hog in Epicurus's sty, 209b in the stomach of the judicious epicure, 192a

owen sone, of Epicurus, 76b reason for living in their palate

only, 634b

were I an epicure, I could bate swearing, 162b

what will not Luxury taste, 142b

Epicturean maxim, 623a or the Stoic severe, 223a

Epicturus, 104a

genius of, 537b

golden sayings of, 533b has searched the infinite by his genius, 686b

Epigrams: the sting is in the tail,

85b note

Epilogue, a good play needs no,

286b

Epistle, nothing like a she, 65b

EPITAPHS (See pp. 444-446).

Alberys's, 3b

believe a woman or an epitaph,

60a

better have a bad epitaph, 293a

I am what thou wilt be, 665a let no one write my epitaph, 335b long epitaphs, 256b man not on his oath in epitaphs,

179a no man can write my epitaph,

335b, note

of heroes of Thermopylae, 481a on Hawkins, 17a

one-half will never be believed,

256b

talking of epitaphs, 15b worms and epitaphs, 312b

Epur si muove, 715a

EQUAL and EQUALITY

all are born equal, and only distinguished by virtue, 610a all men are created, 176b all equal within the Church's gate, 163a

equal as the waves, 6b equal to all the others, 557b equal division of unequal earnings, 131a

first among equals, 624b law powerless to equalise men in defiance of nature, 697b no equality in servants' hall,

18a

now we are even, quoth Stephen,

819a

one man as good as another—and a great deal better, 367b play with your peers, 825b some are and must be greater than the rest, 249b though men be of same metal, they are not cast in same mould, 858a

EQUANIMITY

a mind unmoved in prosperous or doubtful times, 523a bear with equanimity what fortune offers, 641b

neither crow nor croak, 814b the medicine for disaster, 575a to preserve an even mind in adversity, 486b

Equanimity—contd.

what is our own fault to be borne with equanimity, 664a

Equator, heard Jeffrey speak disrespectfully of, 333a quarrellin' wi' the, 390b

EQUITY

a roguish thing, 275b

and law, 475a

and utility, foundations of law,

42a

follows the law, 486b in all things, but most in law,

552b

law cannot be made contrary to equity, 166b shines by her own light, 486b Equivocation and mental reservation, 20a

of the fiend, 305b

of words, 8a

will undo us, 297a

Ercles' vein, this is, 280b

Erebus, dark as, 284a

Erect himself above himself, 105b

Erecting new, there, 208b

Erin, exile of, 68a

Erin-go-bragh, 68b, and note Erin go bragh! Erin go bread and cheese, 332a

Erin's honour and Erin's pride, 231a

Eripuit Jovi fulmen, 660b

Ernst ist das Leben, 712a

Eros, unarm, 307b

Erratas, free from, 70a without, 391b

ERROR

a double error sets us right, 14a a hardy plant, 373b

all his life he has been in the wrong, 264a

all liable to error, many tempted by it, 197a

best may err, 2a blind unbelief is sure to err, 95b (error) by his own arms is best evinced, 223a

caused by general and abstract ideas, 702a

dampnable error, 167a deceit lurks in generalities, 536a delightful error of the mind taken

away, 622a

devilish to remain in, 508b note duty a rod to check the erring, error has its martyrs, 699a error is always in haste, 755a error is endless, 755b errors in first concoction not mended in second, 755b every age confutes old and begets new, 755b

400a

every error not to be called folly,

599b

giant error, darkly grand, 265a happy in their error, 531a hateful error, melancholy's child,

287a

he is wise who is not foolish for

long, 582b

he that stumbles and falls not mends his pace, 781b

he who errs quickly, 13a in endless error hurled, 248b

I would rather err with Plato,

523a

if an error, the causes were honourable, 654b

if belief in immortality is an error,

654b if he had not done wrong, he would have done less, 655a

Error—contd.

if things were to be done twice, all would be wise, 790a if you have not found fault with my misdoing, you are yourself to blame, 656a

in a night of error, 349b in the brain, 96a is immense, 268b is prolific, 531a it is human to err, 522b, 547a labyrinths and wilds of error,

101a

learned man errs with learned error, 360a note

let him who has mistakenly rejected things revoke his error,

634a

life a tragedy of errors, 380a like straws, upon the surface,

126a

lives ere Reason can be born,

92b

man is the child of error, 807a many an error, by the same example, 283b

nature of every man to err, 508b nature of man to err, of fool to persevere in error, 545a nature of fool to persist in error,

508b

no one commits error for himself alone, 589a

no vehement error can exist long,

141a

none so well shod but they may slip, 817b

O think not of his errors, 88b of head, not heart, 233b of opinion may be tolerated, 176b of which we feel ashamed, 204b one goes to left, another to right; both have the same delusion,

549b

only defended by error, 177b poisoned springs of error, 239a prosperity through other men's errors, 653b, note reasoned errors, 176a

scab of error, 379a

self-conceit the mother of false opinions, 693b

she errs, but her own grand way,

360a

some female errors, 247b the common people sometimes err, 558a

the last error shall be worse than the first, 424a

the most may err, 123a the shortest mistakes are the best, 702b, note the troops of error, 28a the vulgar keep no account of your hits, but of your misses, the wisest of the wise may err,

852b

853a

they defend their errors, 40b to err is human, 247a note to err once, is to be undone for ever, 215a

to show a man he is in error, 197a unus utriusque error, 549a very error of the moon, 303a when all are wrong all are right,

706a

wounded error writhes, 37a

Erroris nebula, remota, 612a

Eruption to our state, 290a

Esau, the hands of, 409a

Esau's hands and Jacob's voice,

123b

ESCAPE

better a fair pair of heels than a halter, 741b he has given leg-bail, 773a he has not quite escaped who drags his chain, 846b I gave you the vessel by which you escaped, 645a it is a hard battle where none escapes, 797b nor is there hope of escape, 587b prendre la clef des champs, 860b, note Eschewed, what cannot be, 288a, 867b Espoused, my, my fairest, 219b Esprit d'escalier, 696a Esquire: S.P., Esq., of which I was not a little proud, 242a Esse quam videri, 523a Essence, his glassy, 299b pure, their, 216a

ESSENTIALS

in things not essential, liberty, 552b, note still there is one thing needful, 622b Established, not to disturb things, 662b Estate, condescend to men of low, 427a the fourth, 456a Estates of the realm, 456a praise great, cultivate small, 187b Esteem, what takes our heart must merit our, 259a Esterhazy, to see, 15b Estimating others, we are fond of, 704a Esio perpetua, 524b Etat, l', c'est moi, 696a Et cetera, heaven preserve us from a lawyer's, 784b Eternal punishment, the most frightful idea, 234b Eternal, things, better than things transitory, 623b with th' to be deemed equal, 217a

ETERNITY

blessed eternity or eternal blessedness, 495b confluence of two eternities, 72a conflux of two eternities, 71b for bubbles, eternity, 100a image of, 56a is not, as men believe, 237a is written in the skies, 408a make the mighty ages of eternity, 240a moment parted from eternity, 234a sells eternity to get a toy, 321a some shadows of eternity, 375b soul of eternity, thought through his eyes, 175b sub specie aeternitatis, 664b the palace of, 224b thou pleasing dreadful thought, 22 thoughts that wander through eternity, 217a time part of eternity, 670a time within eternity, 106b too short to speak thy praise, 3a, 406a through nature to eternity, 290a two eternities, the past the future, 232b wanderers o'er eternity, 55a white radiance of eternity, 326b who can speak of eternity, 28b

Ether, an ampler, 396a Ethiopian change his skin, can the, 418b Ethnology, what not? 33b Etiquette: they had not been introduced, 145a Etna, leapt into burning, 491b Etymology: canis a non canendo, 500a lucus a non lucendo, 568b Euclid, you may dance on the ropes without reading, 879b Eulogy, honest, 97a Euphelia serves to grace my measure, 259b

EUPHEMISMS

going west, 456b
 terminological inexactitude, 460a Euphrasy and rue, purged with, 221b

EUROPE

better fifty years of 359a England will save Europe by her example, 245a error of universities of Europe, 9a glory of Europe extinguished, 41a history of Europe, 150b of which all Europe rings, 227b sauntered Europe round, 254a the one voice in Europe, 361b Eve, a child of our grandmother, 277a fairest of her daughters, 219a Eve's family, one of, 169a Even, now we are, quoth Stephen, 819a Even or morn, sweet approach of, 218a

EVENING

cool to a glorious evening and expire, 376a come in the evening, come in the morning, 444a comes at length with its song, 630b crowns the day, 843b fairer than the evening air, 208b in life's cool evening, 252b mild, grateful evening, 219a now came still evening on, 219a pensive evening, 395a red and morning grey, 755a shades of evening prevail, 3a the grey-hooded, 225a the hour when daylight dies, 231a they never had an ill day that had a good evening, 857a what evening may bring forth, 637b Evensong at length cometh, 847b Eventide, many a thing may hap ere, 236b

EVENTS

all things are as you make them, 663a always the unreadable that occurs, 388a Athenians never consulted till after the event, 876b causes more interesting than the events, 652b chance contrives better than we, 479a coming events, 67b footsteps, of chief events 651b great businesses turn on a little pin, 769b great events seem vain and hollow, 397a greatest events often produced by accidents, 480b happy issue makes some crimes honourable, 546a have controlled me, 196b

Events—contd.

leave the event, in holy hope to Heaven, 337a man proposes, God disposes, 807a note never in power of man, 165a not an event, a piece of news, 690a nothing that happens is evil to a good man, 448a now the event calls us to action 494a one far-off divine event, 363a schoolmaster of fools, event is the, 525b spirits of great events, 89a the discordant concord of events, 637b the mockery of human affairs in all transactions, 630a unhappy events wherein I was a chief participator, 628b what has happened even the fool knows, 478a which are, have been, or may be, 628a wise after the event, 876b you do not value it highly because it has happened, 599a See Happenings.
 Ever, I go on for, 359b Everybody, what belongs to, 867b Everybody's business, nobody's business, 378a Everything by starts, 123a good for something, 128a is nought, 331a you ought to be, you're, 145b Everywhere, out of the, 207a

EVIDENCE

circumstantial, trout in the milk 372a enemies may serve as witnesses, 755a eye more trustworthy than the ear, 481b, 621a, 652a, 843b give me six lines in writing by an honest man, I will find material to hang him, 705b give me yours in exchange for mine, 510a madman and fool no great witnesses, 724b my No as good as your Yes, 813a of things not seen, 430b one eye-witness better than ten hearsay, 621a oral evidence (ore tenus), 614a out of thine own mouth will I judge thee, 425a testimonies to be weighed not counted, 622a

EVIL and EVILS

a bad thing never dies, 759a abhor that which is evil, 427a a child may impel, a giant cannot stop, 372b a necessary evil, 473a after the evil will not a good time come, 731b a gulf and whirlpool of, 573a ah me! we believe in evil, 151b all spirits enslaved which serve things evil, 325b authors of great evils know how to remove them, 832b avoid evil and it will avoid thee, 739b be not overcome of evil, 427b be thou my good, 218b bear with evil and expect good, 740b
 better suffer ill than do ill, 743b

Evil and Evils—contd.

blazon evil deeds, 53a call evil good, 417a cannot brook delay, 386b comes of omission as well as commission, 467a compromise with evil, 267b correct your own evil qualities by another's, 527b cured by contempt, 835b cured by their contraries, 177b desperate evils, desperate remedies, 528b
 diseases of mind, hateful and numerous, 579b do evil and look for it again, 752a doing evil to avoid an evil, 88b do not disturb an evil well buried, 573a do not yield to evils, 672b earth contains the evil and the cure, 324b earth maintains evil men, 670b easily stifled at birth, 609b endure this evil lest a worse
 come, 544b
 fallen on evil days, 220a fame (evil) deserved, 12b from seeming evil still educing
 good, 370a
 fronted, ceases to be evil, 71a generous heart can surmount all but shame, 694a good and evil grow together, 228a gotten, evil, evil spent, 791b half-cured, whose cause we know, 82b have their comfort, 792b he prepares evil for himself who prepares it for another, 656b he who wishes to do evil never wants a cause, 572a I would rather be ignorant of evils than wise, 795a if thou do na ill, do na ill like,
 790a ill-doers are ill-thinkers, 791b in rather doing ill than well, Brother Lubin did excel, 705b is soon believed, 759a is thine eye evil, 423a is wrought by want of Thought, 171b it costs more to do ill than well, 793b it is a good ill that comes alone, 794a let us do evil that good may come, 427a
 man creates the evil he endures, 336b manners (evil) live in brass, 320b minds (evil) change good to their own nature, 325b minor evils, 330a more imaginary than real, 621a must come of evil, 336b no event is evil to a good man, 448a no evil without compensation, 604b of evils the most evil, 481a of one ill comes many, 819b of our own making, 621a often a great good is born of a great evil, 794b of two choose the least, 79a, 511a, 819b of two evils choose neither, 819b one evil arises from another, 488a one that feared God and eschewed evil, 411a

Evil and Evils—contd.

on itself shall back recoil, 225b on the evil and on the good, 429b out of our evil seek to bring forth
 good, 216a
 partial evil, universal good, 248b patient continuance in evil, 373b perpetually tends to disappear, 338b resistance to evil, 267b resolution to avoid an evil, 157a seeks through evil, good, 386b sit procul omne nefas, 659a slight pretext suffices for doing evil, 474b
 small evil is a great good, 474b that men do lives after them, 286a that never arrived, 131b the brief sum-total of our evils, 540a the greatest not be able to bear evils, 604a
 their feet run to evil, 418a the least of many evils, 520b the mind fears unknown evils, 653a the pleasure passes, the disgrace remains, 655b the Power of Evil, 100b note the twelve Evils of the Age, 827b,
 note things evil are mixed with good, 665b things evil begun in the Lord's name, 552b
 things evil come spontaneously, 572a things, evil, neighbours to good, 525a to do evil to men is injustice, 448a we embrace evils for blessings, 645b when evil is advantageous, 509a which I would not, that I do, 427a
 while the evil days come not, 416a who sees longest sees much evil, 857a worst of evil persons, 481a EVIL-THINKING responsibility for evil thoughts, 89b they imagined the worst, 20b who thinks amiss concludes worse, 782a
EVIL-SPEAKING
 for a bad tongue the scissors, 762b it is a gude heart that says nae ill, a better that thinks nane, 797b let no one speak evil, 474b lying and slandering, 433a of him that speaks ill consider the life more than the words, 819b sign of an evil mind, 567a vous savez railler sans médire, 710b EVOLUTION
 every time serves for matter born
 in it, 307a
 evil tends to disappear, 338b not a cause but a law, 235a of British Constitution, 384b "Probably Arboreal" the common ancestor, 344a through the ages one increasing purpose, 358b
 Ewes breed not, 322b Ewig-Weibliche, das, 453b Ewigkeit, afey in de, 196b Ex parte, 527a
Ex post facto, 327a
Ex tempore, 527a

Exactability, I do not express myself with, 323b Exactitude in law destroys exact-ness, 594b
EXAGGERATION
 a multiplying eye, 157a exaggerated because coming from afar, 627b Fancy loves excess, 407a greatest wits have a touch of extravagance, 451b
 I lay myself out to exaggerate, 371b interesting but tough, 84b nothing written to excite wonder, 592b perpetual hyperbole, 9b the quirks of blazoning pens, 301a things he stretched, 84b travellers' tales of prodigies, 677b we speak not what we mean, 299b we weaken all that we exaggerate, 704a what some invent the rest enlarge, 347b
 Exalt himself, whosoever shall, 423b Examinations, formidable to best-prepared, 91a EXAMPLE a lesson all can read, 385b as the old cock crows, the young learns, 739a do not the things which you blame, 627b
 does more harm than the sin itself, 621b
 does the whole, 88b examples draw, 260a, 623b evil examples in the household, corrupt us more rapidly, 657a go and do thou likewise, 424b good example the best sermon, 722a greatest of all seducers, 696a he was the mark and glass, 315a his name a great example, 122a must allure, 345b precept begins, example accomplishes, 826b the censor of morals should set examples, 656b the road by example is short and effective, 545a the school of mankind, 42a transact in exemplum, 672a we live more by example than by reason, 527b where old age sins, youth learns amiss, 674b who reproves the lame, 105b EXCELLENCE
 all things that excel are rare, 611b always to excel, 467b for the sake of excelling, 479b hates the, it cannot reach, 369a in bad things, 29b men excel by different methods, 83a no crime so great as daring to excel, 83a
 slow the growth of what is excellent, 99a the things that are more excellent, 381b the quirks of blazoning pens, excels, 301a to excel useless, where none admire, 204a what I see excellent in good or four, 222b Excelsior, 198a Exception confirms (or proves) the rule, 527b, 843b

Exceptions, nature's rules have no, 338b Excepted, what should be excepted, 527b

EXCESS

all excess turns into vice, 609b best things carried to excess, 81b body and intellect depressed by excesses, 506b he that is too much in anything, 11b he will burn his house to warm his hands, 783b immoderate things are short-lived, 549b in nothing, highest principle in life, 547b in excess nectar poisons, 792b is condemned in law, 527b moderation even in excess, 116a no excess that reaches blame, 218b nothing in excess, 474b of prodigality and of meanness, 679b often he who does too much, does too little, 862b opposed to nature, 477a overdone is worse than underdone, 824a reform carried to excess, 89a soon hot, soon cold, 836a the archer who overshoots misses, 840a too much breaks the bag, 862b too much is not healthy, 862b too much of one thing is good for nothing, 862b too too will in two, 862b wasteful and ridiculous excess, 311b what has exceeded due bounds is unsafe, 635a what is violent is not lasting, 640b whatever you love, desire that it may not please you too much, 550a you may have too much of a good thing, 879b you never do it without overdoing it, 880a youthful excesses, 91a Exchange is no robbery, 759a Exchequer of the poor, thanks, 312b Excise, a hateful tax, 181b Exciting to be pleasant, too, 111b Excitement: when the heart's afire, sparks will fly out at the mouth, 871a Excommunicated person eats bread very well, 858b Excommunication, ban of, 171a for jesting or humour, 656a Latin form of, 614a Excursions in my own mind, 89a EXCUSES accusing the times is excusing ourselves, 731a an excuse is a lie guarded, 350a an ill paymaster never wants excuse, 735b bad excuse better than none, 717a bad excuses are worse than none, 740a came prologue, excuse, 221a coy excuse, 226a do it and make excuses, 529a excusing of a fault, 311b friendship and company a bad excuse, 764a he that excuses accuses, 777b how pitiable he who cannot excuse himself, 629a Excuses—contd.

I have a good cloak, but it is in France, 787a idle folks need no excuses, 787b losing horse blames the saddle, 838a poor men's reasons are not heard, 826a some excuse for this revulsion, 145a strife and friendship allow of no excuse, 467a the fault of the horse is put on the saddle, 844a when you would excuse you accuse, 519b wolf finds a reason for taking the lamb, 853a Executing, in, puzzled lame and lost, 92b Execution, one that rode to his, 309a Executive, danger of legislative power in, 144a Executors be covetous, 436b let's choose, 312b Exempli gratia (e.g.), 527b EXERCISE and temperance preserve strength, 623a healthy by temperance and, 252b on exercise the wise for cure depend, 125a use legs and have legs, 865b Exhalation, fled like some frail, 325a like a bright, 320a rose like an, 216b Exhaled, he was, 125b so was she soon, 125b was, and went to Heaven, 406b Exhibition Motto, 1851, 517a EXILE
 a kiss long as my exile, 308a an exile anxious for his native home, 234a bind your sons to exile, 190a by foreign hands thy dying eyes were closed, 254b exiles do not escape from themselves, 616b hath more terror, 279b he suffers, who denies himself to his country, 528a hopeless word of never to return, 312a I die in exile because I have loved justice, 516a land, home, and pleasant wife left behind, 567a my home, city, and familiar places pass before my eyes, 491a no hope of seeing country or children, 587a of Erin, 68a they change their homes and pleasant thresholds, 528a unutterable woe of exiles, 7a weep sore for him that goeth away, 418b EXISTENCE
 a luxury to be, 86a
 I am, therefore all things are, 521b I do not exist for you, 601a je pense, donc je suis, 695a let us contemplate existence, 113b march of existence, 55a sint ut sint aut non sint, 658b we count our existence an offence, 602a note who the man is I know not, nor whether he was ever born, 638b Exits, they have their, 288b
 Exodus of death, 200a

Expectancy and rose of the fair state, 294a

EXPECTATION

a good expectation better than a mean possession, 742a alas, three whole days to wait, 542b better bettered expectation, 276a blessed is he who expects nothing, 745a cultivate the faculty of patient expectation, 460a folly to expect men to do all they may be expected to, 385b hoping for good things, I am tormented by present circumstances, 537a in the air, 316a long expected comes at last, 804b makes a blessing dear, 346a, 377a oft expectation fails, 299a pleasing expectation, 369a worthy ends and expectations, 9b wronged by my over great expectations, 242b EXPEDIENCY gods give what is fitting, rather than pleasant things, 584a all things are not expedient, 428a the expedient differs utterly from right, 531a Expedition is the soul of business, 759a sat cito si sat bene (or sat tuto), 649a EXPENDITURE
 great spenders are bad lenders, 770a in spending lies the advantage, 793a let not your, exceed your income, 665b nineteen, nineteen, six, 114a not to be fond of buying is a revenue, 597b (public), King cannot be served as cheaply as others, 242b who has but four, and spends five, needs no purse, 778a who seeks gain must incur expense, 588a you buy all things; you will have to sell, 610b EXPERIENCE a jewel, 287b
 a precious gift, only given when a man's hair is gone, 759a bought is good, if not too dear, 759a bought wit is best, 745b bought with sorrow, teaches, 522a comes with ripe years, 653a costly wisdom bought by experience, 6b ever teaches something new about life, 605a half-experience, that half-wisdom, 400a impossibilities recede before experience, 161a insight sometimes worth experience, 168b keeps a dear school, 140b knowledge cannot go beyond experience, 196b learning teaches more than experience, 6b let him who knows the instrument, play on it, 800b made him sage, 143b man's experience in an hour, 344a mistress of fools, 759a

Experience—contd.

must be bought, 759a name men give to their mistakes, 388a, 388b old experience, 224b old age and experience hand in hand, 264a philosophy teaching by experience, 268a note profit by the world's experience, 450b science without, does not bring confidence, 707a seek information from the experienced, 618b slow preceptress, 100a suffering brings experience, 759a that excellent master, experience, 581a the child of Thought, 116a the dirty nurse, 365b the true wisdom of nations, 450b to make me sad, 289b we find a short way by experience, 6b who live longest see most, 857a wise by experience, 13a wit once bought is worth twice taught, 877a you shall know by experience, 528a Experiment, crucial, 528a on a workless body, 532a Experiments in politics, 116b Experimental, youth is wholly, 344b Experimentum in corpore vili, 532a Experto credite (believe one who knows), 528b EXPLANATION
explain a thing till all men doubt it, 254a explain his explanation, 61b only spoil it by trying to explain it, 328a I loathe explanations, 18a plenty of words when the cause is lost, 765b Exploded, none but bad men wish, 100b Exploits of his life, the noble, 88b EXPLORATION
all lands open to brave men, 642a what shore without our blood, 627b Expounding, explaining, more of, 36a Express thee unblamed, may I, 218a what I can ne'er, 51a what others feel more fitly can, 167b Expressed, but ne'er so well, 246b, note things may be prejudicial, 528b Expression, ah me, that my power of is so inferior to your deserts, 541b Expressions, grant me some wild, 134a EXPRESSION (of face) a silent face often has voice and words, 647b a stern look but a gentle heart, 317b difficult not to betray crime by the face, 515b he counterfeits hope in his features, 661a her silent looks loudly reproached me, 652a his was the subtle look and sly, 273a nor destroy the effect of thy words by thy expression, 588a sweet expression of that face, 265a

Expression (of face)—contd.

that expression of villainy we all have, 84a that goose look, 305a Expurgatorius, index, 554b Exquisite and leaves one unsatisfied, 388a yet more, when past, 229b Extenuate nothing, 303a Extinctus amabitur idem, 528b, 676b EXTRAVAGANCE
a lady with a passion for buying, 522a and corruption, 40b and luck, 43b army makes the generous prodigal, 449a by always taking out the bottom is reached, 746a delicacies please the more, the more they cost, 558a excess of extravagance, 679b far-sought and dear-bought is good for ladies, 760a greatest wits have a touch of extravagance, 451b he that buys what he wants not must sell what he wants, 776b he that regards not a penny will lavish a pound, 838b
he will burn his house to warm his hands, 783b I love fruit when it is expensive, 244a let the dollars spin, 209a one would shun extravagance, 52b the way to Beggar's Bush, 839b things delight more because more costly, 569b wanting money in the midst of wealth, 551b masters are bad givers, 618b what is not required is dear at a farthing, 641a who more than he is worth doth spend, 875b woman by nature generally extravagant, 470b you buy all things; you will have to sell, 610b EXTREMES are dangerous, 759a avoid extremes, 247a bitter change of fierce extremes, 217b ever in extremes, 265a everything in excess opposed to nature, 477a excess is condemned in law, 527b extremes in man, 251b extremes meet, 759a extremes meet, as the whiting said, 170b into the contrary extreme, 52b keep between either extreme, 558a of fortune, 105a
of joy and depression, 512a often occupy the same place, 759a the falsehood of, 357b the fate of all extremes, 250b too much spoileth; too little is nothing, 862b when you abandon a thing, beware of its opposite, 759a Extremity, in man's most dark, 273b man's, is God's opportunity, 807b EXULTATION
do not cry "Hi" till you are on the bridge, 752b not long shalt thou exult, 599a Exultation—contd.

thy friends are exultations, agonies, 396b undue exultation, followed by extreme alarm, 631a unholy is the voice of loud thanksgiving over slaughtered men, 102b EYES
a drapple in our ee, 48a a small hurt in the eye is a great one, 728a affectionate and glad eyes, 67a affliction called a multiplying eye, 157a agin the Secesher's fist, my left eye, 27b all my eye and Betty Martin, 457a an eye full of gentle salutations, 343a an eye like Mars', 295b an eye to the mayne, 203a an old ape hath an old eye, 736a an unforgiving eye, 328b are the informers of the mind, 549b beauty doth persuade the eyes of men, 321a believe themselves, the ears believe other people, 843b better be half blind than have both eyes out, 725b black eyes and lemonade, 232a blind, when mind is pre-occupied, 499a blue eyes go to the skies; grey to Paradise, 462a can speak, 76a cannot see if thoughts are elsewhere, 107a closed his eyes in endless night, 154b conversation, eyes all made up of, 171b crows' feet under eyes, 79a dark lustre of thine eyes, 273b deceive me earsight, 28a delighting each eye, 110b dim was that eye, 68a dress her beauty at your eyes, 106b drink to me only with thine eyes, 182b eloquence of eyes, 257a everywhere about him, 545b evidence of eyes more convincing than that of the ear, 652a eye for eye, 409b, 410a eye that mocketh at his father, 382b note eye, will mark our coming, 62a eyes, ears, mouth of me, 34a eyne of burning coal, 308b faculties of eyes and ears, 293b favours to allure his eye, 322b fields have eyes, 374b for an eye, and a tooth for a tooth, 421a four eyes see more than two, 763b glittering eye, 86a green eyes go to hell; black to purgatory, 462a harmony in her bright eye, 200b (eye) hath not seen, nor ear heard, 427b have one language everywhere, 843b heart's letter is read in the eyes, 846a Heaven in her eye, 2200 heaven's soft azure in her eye, 159a

Eyes—contd.

heavenly rhetoric of thine eye, 277b her dark eyes, how eloquent, 264b her eyes are homes of silent prayer, 362a his eye begets occasion for his wit, 277a his eye was not dim, 410a his large sloe-black eyes, 334b his smiling eyes with simple truth were stored, 341b his soul seemed hovering in his eyes, 325b how little can a moment show of an eye, 402b I saw it with these eyes, 97b in Huncamunca's eyes, 134b in my mind's eye, 290b
 is thine eye evil, 423a
 it is sure to be dark if you shut your eyes, 796b jest not with the eye, 798a kept him as the apple of his eye, 410a knew you by your eyes, 25a lack-lustre dead blue eye, 356b large blue eyes, 53a large musing eyes, 30b laughs with her cast-down eyes, 646b Lesbia hath a beaming eye, 231b let every eye negotiate for itself, 284a light that lies in woman's eyes, 231b like sentinels' eyes, hold the highest place, 608b little troubles the eye, 804a look your last, eyes, 280a love allured by gentle eyes, 504a love-darting eyes, 225b love doth to her eyes repair, 281b love looks not with the eyes, 280b love's tongue in the eyes, 140a made quiet by the power of harmony, 393b master's eye fattens the horse, 476b master's eye ripens the fruit, 640a men trust more to eyes than ears, 481b, 545a, 621a men's eyes were made to look, 279b microscopic eye for defect, 241a mild and magnificent eye, 36a Mr. Squeers had but one eye, 112b most have eyes, 82a my eyes make pictures, 87a my ravished eyes, 2a my right eye twitches (a presentiment), 608b never touch your eye but with your elbow, 880a neither eyes on letters nor hands in coffers, 814b no speculation in those eyes, 304b nor brighter was his eye, 32b not satisfied with seeing, 415a of most unholly blue, 231b of others not to be relied on, 600b one eye of the master does more than both hands, 821a
 one eye-witness better than ten hearsay, 621a optics sharp it needs, I ween, 373a peep through their eyes and laugh, 281b Persia's eyes full and fawn-like, 232b pierce like gimlets, 113a pity-pleading eyes, 321a

Eyes—contd.

play the woman with mine eyes, 305a please to the eye, 576b poet's eye in a fine frenzy, 281a proud heart flashing through the eyes, 395b purged with euphrasy and rue the visual nerve, 221b purging thick amber, 292b quaint, enamelled eyes, 226b ravens shall pick out his eyes, 382b rhetoric of persuading eyes, 105b silent wonder of still-gazing eyes, 321a soul within her eyes, 58b speech of her alluring eyes, 107b stabbed with a white wench's black eye, 279a sublime eyes, 30a such beauty as a woman's eye, 277a suddenly closed his eyes, 18a sweeter than the lids of Juno's eyes, 310a sweetest soul that ever looked with human eyes, 362b that inward eye, 393a that would not look on me, 368a the apple of the eye, 412a the big lip and watery eye, 259b the eye is bigger than the belly, 843b the eye is blind if the mind is troubled, 843b the eye is harder to please than the stomach, 843b the eye is the mirror of the soul, 843b the eye is traitor of the heart, 403b the eye lets in love, 843b the eye that sees all things, sees not itself, 843b the eye will have his part, 843b the fringed curtains of thine eyes, 311a the greenest of things blue, 352a the harvest of a quiet eye, 400a the holy water from her heavenly eyes, 306b the jaundiced eye, 247b the learned, still the loving eye, 35b the little listening eyes, 353a the many eyes, the diverse things they see, 213b the meek brown eyes, 108a the sparkle of his swarthy eye, 273a the very eyes of me, 165a there lies more peril in thine eye, 274a there you go with your eye out, 464a those are pearls that were his eyes, 310b those dove's eyes, 308a thou who hast given me eyes to see, 186a through her expressive eyes, 204a thy rapt soul sitting in thy eyes, 224b tir'd eyelids upon tir'd eyes, 357b to a diseased eye the light is annoying, 847a to glad me with its soft black eye, 238b to initiate eyes, 37a to ope their golden eyes, 309a to see and ears to hear, 121b to the blind, 411b too expressive to be blue, 5a

Eyes—contd.

troll the tongue and roll the eye, 222a troubled eyes have no clear sight, 847b two see better than one, 864b two starry eyes hung in the gloom of thought, 325a turned to coals of fire, 15b war and physic governed by the eye, 866a we neglect things under our eyes, 521a what hurts the eye you remove, but not what hurts the soul, 628a what the eye does not admire, heart does not desire, 868b what the eye has seen the hand may do, 868a what the eye sees not the heart grieves not, 868b when the eye saw me, 411b when the eye sees what it never saw, 871a where the eye sees it saw not, 873a where thought seems to come and go, 357a which burn through smiles, 325b while with admiring eye we gaze, 393a who has but one is always wiping it, 875a whose bright eyes rain influence, 224a whose thoughts are legible in the eye, 267a, 341b why did you swear mine eyes were bright, 208a with his half-shut eyes, 248a with large grey eyes, 392a with unlighted eyes, 402b wins the eye but not the mind, 273a witchcraft of a woman's eyes, 138a women's eyes, 277a wonder-waiting eyes, 336b yes, I have a pair of eyes, 112a your eyes drop mill-stones, 138b your eyes were not silent, 599b Eyelids heavy and red, 171a Eyesight, the precious treasure of his 277b

F

F's the three, Fair rent, Fixity of tenure, Freedom of sale, 459a Fabellas, ex re, 537b Fabius Cunctator, 509a Fable, daylight faith's a, 68a love's world, 88b naught but, 15a related to an ass, 476a to wrap up truth in, 473a Fables and endless genealogies, 430a evaded libel by using humorous, 499b yet have feigned worse than, 217b Fabric, baseless, of this vision, 311a huge, rose like an exhalation, 216b it seemed of diamond and of gold, 401b the mystic, sprung, 160a Fabrication, a paltry an' base, 202a Fac bona dum vivis, 606a Face me, give me them that will, 313b FACE a bargaining and saving face, 137a a fair enchanting face, 257b

Face—contd.

a fair face is half a portion, 720a a fair face may hide a foul heart, 720a a good face needs no band, 722a a picturesque countenance, 327b
 a silent face often has voice and words, 647b a singing face, 138a a face that makes simplicity a grace, 182b and shall I see his face again, 214b all love that look in her face, 77b an open brow indicates an open heart, 712a beauty carries its dower in its face, 740b better a red face than a black heart, 741b blushing apparitions start into her face, 284b breathing from her face, 56b comely face a silent recommendation, 722b continual comfort in a face, 267a difficult not to betray crime by the face, 515b
 each face grew dark, 69a face and brow the entrance to the mind, 688b faces but a gallery of pictures, 10b faces from the floor to the roof, 100b false face must hide, 304a fyr-reed cherubines face, 77a garden in her face, 3b, 69b gives tongue leave to speak, 9b gleaned from many faces, 373a God gave man a countenance exalted, 614a God hath given you one face, 294a good fame better than good face, 722a he hides a smiling face, 95b he'd look into thy bonny face, 48b her angel's face, 339b his face was of the doubtful kind, 273a his face that two hours since hath died, 357a human face divine, 218a human faces smile and weep in sympathy, 677b index of the mind, 688b index to joy and sadness, 536a in her face excuse came prologue, 221a is the index of the mind, 688b, 843b just such a face, 33a like the milky way, 346b look in her face and you'll forget them all, 247b music of her face, 240b no art to find the mind's construction in the face, 303b o'er which a thousand shadows go, 402b of finer form or lovelier face, 270b of this tall pile, 92b often deceives us, 536a oh, call it fair, not pale, 86b our faces madden men, 243b pardoned all except her face, 64a pleases, when the disposition is friendly, 555b saw the manners in the face, 179b say they have faces, 281b sea of upturned faces, 274a
 so musically fair, 37b
 some can judge ability by the face, 637b

Face—contd.

sonsie, baws'nt face, 45a strange faces, other minds, 366a
 sweet expression of that face, 265a tartness of face sours ripe grapes, 308a that launched a thousand ships, 208a the countenance is the portrait of the mind, 549b the day's disasters in his morning face, 148b the favour of her face, 110a the old familiar faces, 191b the tablet of unutterable thoughts, 60b the true face returns, 680b trust not too much to that enchanting face, 127a turn me upon my face, 14b
 two faces under one hood, 864b visit her face too roughly, 290b was never eye did see that face, 267a what a face, worthy of what a picture, 607a what is face, 94a will be spoilt by years, 560b with how wan a face, 329b your face a book, 303b your countenance open, your thoughts free, 880b your face shows your age, 529a your sweet faces make good fellows fools, 364b

Facendum, quod erat (Q.E.F.), 640a

Facilis descensus, 127a note

Facilis descensus Averno, 529b note

FACTS

alone are wanted, 115a are chieles, 45a are facts, 334b are facts and flinch not, 35a are stubborn things, 759b cannot alter by romances, 121b first, then distort 'em, 84b from fact to law, no deduction, 482a garner of facts and fancies, 373b golden fancies and iron truths, 380a I will sing facts, though some will say I invent, 529b indebted to his imagination for his facts, 328b judges of fact, 260b nothing so false as facts, except figures, 761a plain, plump fact, 34a the life of all things (fact), 73b what ought not to have been done holds good when done, 640b

FACTION

as we wax hot in, 206b canvasses and factions, 10b disappointment's child, 177a not swaying to this faction, 364a not the cause of faction or party, 184a religious factions, 42b you bridle faction and our hearts command, 376b what faction has set wrong, 96b Factious deeds, 340b peevish and perverse spirits, souls wearied into peace, 122a they grow factious, 222a Fade, all that's bright must, 233a as a leaf, we do, 418a away, all things, 386a how soon they, 337b into the light of common day, 401a

Face—contd.

nothing of him that doth, 310b though thou, 385b Faded, he, 58a slowly she, 386a
 Fading in music, 283a
 Fail, if this, the firmament is rottenness, 255b no such word as fail, 204b not for sorrow, 50b we'll not fail, 304a Fails for love of God, who, 183a See Failure

FAILINGS

confess the failings as we must, 241a every man has his weak side, 757a his failings leaned to virtue's side, 148a of other men accuse us of frailty, 843b she had one failing, 47b when you know a man's failing, you can please him, 706a

FAILURE

a good general does not talk of, 447b all fails that fools think, 732b all fails where faith fails, 732b all is amiss, 322b all the rest forgot for which he toiled, 321b arise from pulling in one's horse, 157b born to fail, 238a brought forth discord, 645a he failed in great and daring attempts, 570b he is gude that failed never, 774a he rides sicker that fell never, 776a human power and failure, 37b I have been all things and it has not availed, 611a if we must fail, let us face the hazard, 654a illustriously he fails, 257b in the world who cannot swim goes to the bottom, 793a my name is Might-have-been, 266b no fiercer hell than failure, 184b one learns by failing, 759b teaches success, 759b the many fail, the one succeeds, 359a the pot boils badly, 609a the work perishes fruitlessly, 613a though strength fails, boldness is praiseworthy, 641b to go away without having accomplished the business, 643a undone but for our undoing, 447b what I aspired to be, 34b we have left undone those things we ought to have done, 432a we learn wisdom from failure, 330b who does not advance fails, 818a who fails in one particular loses the whole action, 631b Faint, so, so spiritless, 315a

FAINT-HEARTEDNESS

faint heart ne'er won fair lady, 139b, 341b, 759b folly to entrust a great deed to a faint heart, 663a faint heart ne'er wan, 47a half heart is no heart, 770b men faint-hearted never raised a trophy, 468a no one attains high position by faint-heartedness, 589b

Faint-heartedness—contd.

one look of Fortune, 24b shall the poor gnat, 19b trouble never dead to the faint-hearted, 236b
 where hert is failed shall no castel be assailed, 759b who asks faint-heartedly teases how to refuse, 634b who has no heart ought to have heels, 778a woe unto him that is faint-hearted, 419b woovers ne'er speed well with faint
 heart, 375b

Faintly prays, he teaches to deny that, 261b

Fair, a, where thousands meet, 176b men speak of, as things went with them there, 810a

the day after the, 447a three women, three geese, and three frogs make a fair, 859a

Fair, all's, in love and war, 734a Fair and softly wins the race, 759b Fair and softly, as lawyers go to heaven, 759b

Fair play is a jewel, 825b

FAIRE (Beautiful)

all her care but to be fair, 381b and foolish, 462a and sluttish, 759b and not fond, 110a could not slay a thing so fair, 58a die because a woman's fair, 390b divinely fair, fit love for Gods, 221a earth has not anything to show more fair, 395a fair enough if good enough, 759b fair women and brave men, 54b fair folk are aye foolishness, 759b her brow was fair but very pale,

 260b

I am not fair, therefore I pray the gods make me honest, 289b if she be not so to me, 390b in the cradle and foul in the saddle, 759b

is foul and foul is fair, 303a is not fair, but that which pleaseth, 759b

is she not passing fair, 281b most divinely fair, 357b no more fair to me, 369a not so fair as fickle, 322b outward be fair, 81b many a fair thing is full false, 855a

 so musically fair, 37b

spit on all things fair, 76a thus wondrous fair, Thyself how wondrous then, 219b too fair to worship, 215b what is not fair often seems to be,

 477b

Fairer sight perchance than when it frowned in power, 337b than the evening air, 208b way is not much about, 8b

Fairest of her daughters, Eve, 219a Fairness, to doubt her, were to want an eye, 365b

FAIRIES

a fairy tale read but in youth, 93a belief in, 17b by fairy hands, 23a, 90a castles, fairy, 93a coachmakers, fairies', 278a farewell rewards and fairies, 440b in fairy lands forlorn, 185b like a fairy trip upon the green, 320b

Fairies—contd.

she is the fairies' midwife, 278a sights which fairies do behold, 392a

'tis almost fairy time, 281a true as the fairy tales, 151a ye fairies, from all evil keep her, 394a

Fais ce que dois, advienne que pourra, 753a

Fais ce que voudras, 692b

Faites comme si je ne le savois pas, 692b

FAITH

a hopeless faith, 186a a man of antique faith, 491a a necessary fraud, 82b a passionate intuition, 401b a scientific faith, 32b a sound rule of faith, 185^h all fails where faith fails, 732b all that faith creates, 325b all undisproved faith, 30b alone is sufficient, 659b among the Turks, 368a and fire within us, what of the,

 157b and Hope, in the world will disagree, 249b

and impossibilities in Religion, 28a

and love, which parted from thee never, 227a and morals which Milton held, 397a articles of faith become fables, 691a

banished by gold, 494b beautiful faith surrendering unto Time, 243b

believe because it is expedient, 528a

believe you have it, and you have
 it, 507a

bloody faith, the foulest birth of time, 325a

call no faith false, 235a careless looseners of the faith, 366a deem their swords, on points of faith, 232b

easy to shake a man's faith in himself, 323a

faith, hope, charity, 428b faith, love, ever green, 242a fanatic Faith, 232b for modes of faith let graceless zealots fight, 249b give to faith what belongs to faith, 510a

God provides for him that trusteth, 767a

guided by faith, 227a haggard as Fear, 353b he does not believe that does not live according to his belief, 772a

herself is half confounded, 175b his faith, but as the fashion of his hat, 284a

holier and more reverent to believe than to know, 648a

I have kept the faith, 430b

I hear the message but want the
 faith, 711b

I know in whom I have believed,
 650a if ye break faith with us who die, 207a

in God and Nature, 199a in some nice tenets, 94a infinite pathos of human trust, 381b

Faith—contd.

is what you do not see, 636b note just shall live by faith, 426b knowledge of divine things lost through want of faith, 451a lapses from knowledge to faith, 385a love asks faith, and faith firmness, 805b

melts into blood, 284a men put more faith in things they do not understand, 571b must be kept, 532b

my faith is torn, 33b no merit in faith where reason supplies proof, 532b no storm hurts a man who believes, 507a

no tricks in plain and simple
 faith, 286b

O belief, how much you block our way, 703b

O thou of little faith, 579a of ancient times, 542b

of childish days, kept the, 387a old faith and fancies new, 387a once plighted, hold dearer than life or gold, 340b only faith beholds that all is well, 203b onward in faith, 336a our airy faith, 124a our daylight faith's a fable, 68a pin their easy faith, 81b pointed with her golden rod, 227a prayer against firearms useless, as I have no faith in it, 692a pure-eyed faith, 225a puts me from my faith, 314a requires impossibilities, 28b sees by the ears, 759b shield of faith, 429b some faith's about to die, 33b substance of things hoped for,

 430b

tell faith it's fled the city, 262a that stands on authority, not

 faith, 132b

that something would turn up, 117a

the coal-heavers' faith, 532b the enormous faith of many, 249b

'tis a point of faith, 103b to believe what you do not see, 636a

too much faith and none, 233b transcendent dower, faith's, 399a triumphant over our fears, 198b trumpetry of vulgar faith, 69a unfaith clamouring to be coined to faith, 213a

unfaithful kept him falsely true, 365b watchfires and stars that shone, 352a

we walk by faith, 429a which from his fathers he received, 380b

whose faith has centre everywhere, 362a without works, 194a without works is dead, 430b woman's faith traced on sand, 7a

See Belief.

Faiths are wafer-cakes, 316a pious nursery, 88b

the old, loosen and fall, 351a

Faithful and just to me, 286a found among the faithless, 220a to God and thee, 166a ugly and fierce, qualifications of a good servant, 677b

Faithfulness an empty name, 595b and sincerity the highest things, 760a Faithless as the winds and seas, 273a be not, but believing, 426a Falcon, our, on our glove, 269a soar her swing, let the wild, 269a Falconer's voice, O for a, 278b FALL
a great villain a great fall, 747b a lowly man cannot have a heavy fall, 547a a rider must know how to fall, 796a abasement of the exalted, 679a all that shakes falls not, 733b all things risen will fall, 611a an he fall he hath noon help, 79a better sit still than rise and fa', 743b between two stools, 744b brave man may fall but cannot yield, 534b buildings creak before they fall, 669b cave ne titubet, 678b dinna lift me before I fall, 752a every slip is not a fall, 758a everyone gathers, wood at fall of an oak, 470b fain would I climb yet fear I to fall, 262a fear to fall, 403a free to fall, 218a from what a height of hope, 678b great men are overthrown by small things, 165a greatest favourites in most danger of, 845b great was the fall of it, 422a hasty climbers have sudden falls, 777b he does not fall who walks with discrimination, 596b he that climbs highest has greatest fall, 372b he that is fallen cannot help him that is down, 779a I have not fallen so low as to be beneath you, 596a if fall they must, 396b if he fall help hath he none, 167a in a dying, dying fall, 254b it had a dying fall, 297b like a bright exhalation in the evening, 320a look high and fall low, 805a love virtue while they fall, 233a more dangerous from a height, 610a motion swifter at end of fall, 580b need fear no fall, 39a neither rejoice in the fall of other, 50a oaks may fall when reeds stand 819a O, what a fall was there, 286b one may sooner fall than rise, 8, 22a one wrong step may bring a great fall, 821a or fighting fall, 57b pride must have a fall, 827b sometimes risk a fall, 334a still delayed his fall, 57b take heed lest he fall, 428a that has survived the Fall, 99b the higher up the greater fall, 846b things of worth fall with sudden crash, 612a tree is no sooner down than everyone runs for his hatchet, 852b Fall—contd.

we fall to rise, 36b what Fortune raises she throws down, 635a when he falls he falls like Lucifer, 320a who has lost high position becomes a jest, 635a who is on the ground is not in danger of fall, 673b who lies on the ground has no chance of falling, 632b who never climbed never fell, 875b See Fallen and Falling Fallax historias monet, 617b Fallen at length that tower of strength, 361a Babylon is, 417a Babylon the great is, 431b from heaven, how art thou, 417a from his high estate, 125b great though fallen, 54a how are the mighty fallen, 410a how fallen, how changed, 216a in the cause of the free, 22b nature of mortals to kick the fallen, 469a or be for ever fallen, 216a war not with the fallen, 448a Fallible, all, even the youngest, 442a judgment of men is fallible, 545a Falling, greatly, with a falling state, 255a man, cruelty to load a, 320b man, press not a, 320a man, stretch out right hand to, 499a off was there, what a, 291b out, blessings on the, 360a Fallow, it is well to lie, 373b FALSE and FALSEHOOD a mind inclined to falsehood rejects better things, 483b all is not false which seems at first a lie, 336b all things false fade quickly, 680b all was false and hollow, 217a among innumerable false, unmoved, 220a as air, water, wind, 298b as Cressid, 298b as dicers' oaths, 295b as step-dame to her son, 298b as water, she was, 303a but still dear, 619a false folk should ha' many wittnesses, 760a false in one particular, false in all, 530a false rules pranked in reason's garb, 225b false things brought low, 157a false things may be imagined but only truth can be invented, 267b false vow can break a heart, 204b false with the heart, 88b falsehood and fraud, 2a falsehood cannot be invented, 267b falsehood hath no right against truth, 203a falsehood flies, truth limps, 348b False [wit] blame the, 247a fires (false) that others may be lost, 400a for how can that be false, 107b framed to make women false, 301a haste, falsehood thrives on, 681a he neither uttered nor could endure falsehood, 576a

False and Falsehood—contd.
hurt, falsehood will; truth will profit, 760a in his looks (falsehood), 47b in truth, 31b kill, falsehood will, 864a little better than false knaves, 285a man all on fire for falsehoods, 696a mingles (falsehood) with all truth, 199a my heart stands armed in mine ear, 321a never made a fair hinder end, 760a no falsehood can endure touch of celestial temper, 219b no false teaching but has some admixture of truth, 602b one falsehood makes way for another, 530a O, what a goodly outside falsehood hath, 282a perennial falsehood, 39b poets, falsehood of the, 679a powerful in working injury, 576a Punic faith or honour, 627a recognition of falsehood, the first step to wisdom, 624b ring out the false, 363a silence and sufferance under falsehood, 228b silence or falsehood violate truth, 681a splendide mendax, 662a note spurned to-day (falsehoods), truths of long ago, 386a suggestion of what is false, 666b sweet and acceptable to fools, 479b taking false for true, 364b terminological inexactitude, 460a
the nimblest footman is a false tale, 849a things said false, 52b to eschew falsehood and guile, 19a to represent falsehood as truth, 583a to stick the heart of falsehood, 298b to unmask falsehood, 321b under saintly show, falsehood, 218b war-time falsehoods, 180b we know how to speak false things as true, 473a wedded fast to some dear falsehood, 232b who dares think one thing and another tell, 256b who would dare to call the sun false, 660a wouldst not play false, yet wouldst wrongly win, 303b your bait of falsehood, 292a Falsification: the reward nowadays is to those who make right appear wrong, 544a Falsity, to have done with, 70b Falstaff sweats to death, 313b Falter not for sin, 50b FAME
a notable way, 20a a poor traditional fame, 91b above all Greek all Roman fame, 253a added fame to fame by his very concealment, 559b all dangerous; good brings envy—bad, shame, 732b all fame foreign, but of true desert, 250a an empty bubble, 152b

Fame—contd.

an honest fame or none, 255a application increased by love of, 663a at best an unperforming cheat, 256a bears up lighter things, 373a blush to find it fame, 253b but a hollow echo, 262b careless of her sister's fame, 97a cold the dull reward of future fame, 229a common fame hath a blister on its tongue, 748b contempt of fame, 183b
 damned to everlasting fame, 250a dearer than gold, 340b death opens door to good fame, 9b death opens gate of fame, 343a deaths unknown to fame, 257a demi-gods of fame, 66b desire for fame, last desire to be laid aside, 262a desire of, the last weakness, 212b dicitur, "hic est," 665a disasters form a highway for fame, 541b does not endure trifling with, 708a dragged them into fame, 101a everlasting fame is my object, 580a evil fame, what more heavy than, 12b Fame's eternall bead-roll (or Calendar), 340b note fatal issue to his fame, 100b fired with love of approaching fame, 554a fixed as a star, 397b folly, unless we do what is useful, 595a foolish fame shouts louder year by year, 236a footsteps of fame, 646a fortune even in fame, 64a good and bad alike are fond of fame, 255a great heir of fame, 227b great in report, greater by deeds, 606a grows like a tree, 507b grows whiter with age, 95a grudged to the present, 265b guilty, martial fame, 68b happy those who in the after-days shall live, 335a hardly known to, 327a he died known to all but himself, 693b he lives in fame, 276a he spreads his name through the world, 595b hides her head in the clouds, 500a honour among the peoples of the earth, 590a how partial is the voice of fame, 260a if glory will but come after my death, 655b impatient of extremes, 255a in danger is not easily rescued, 530b indifference to fame, 255a infamous men fond of fame, 82b is fame, a breath, 195b is a magnifying glass, 760a is air; without air there is no life, 193a is love disguised, 326b is no plant that grows on mortal soil, 226a is the spur, 226a

Fame—contd.

is the thirst of youth, 55a known men greater than noble-men, 602a like a river, 11b literary, the only lasting fame, 338a lives ever, 17a longings after fame, 370a loud impertinence of fame, 380b loudest trump of fame a dying echo, 335b love of, 356a lucre of renown, 230a man dreams of fame, 365a many ways to, 854a martyrdom of fame, 60b men hidden by an obscure fame, 582a more of honest fame, 64a my fame in the world, 33a nations unborn your mighty names shall sound, 246b no cormorant of fame, 391a not till the fire is dying in the grate, 213a not won on downy plumes, 74a nothing can cover his high fame, 137b nothing less selfish than desire of, 193a obscured through age, 530b of so much fame in Heaven, 226a on Fame's eternall bead-roll, 340b others fond of Fame, Fame of you, 404a passion for fame, 40a perilous in excess, 245b perpetuity of fame, 55a (posthumous) Glory comes too late to our ashes, 502b (posthumous) seldom comes Glory till a man be dead, 165a (posthumous) those glories come too late, 437b present (contemporary) events diminish a man's fame, 577b preserve a broad approach of fame, 361a procured by blood, 595b proud temple of fame, 19a prouder of his fame, 127a rather use than fame, 365a regardless whether good or evil fame, 222a rightful property of the dead, 497b secured by knavery, 678a serious work for fame, 37b she comes unlooked for, 255a sinking in virtue as you rise in fame, 406b so fame shall be achieved, 222a so truly circular, 122a sought by distinguished action or honourable art, 560a tempts minds even nobly inclined, 226a note the death-bed of fame, 67b the happy portion of the few, 444b the muse forbids that a great man shall die, 516a the whole earth a sepulchre for famous men, 468a thirst for fame greater than for virtue, 668b to barke at sleeping fame, 340a to be hitched into a rhyme, 270a to be pointed at, and spoken of "That is he," 493a to extend fame by deeds, 530b, 662b to have it purgatory, to want it hell, 204b

Fame—contd.

to hover about the lips of men, 670b to live in the mouths of men, 687a to patch up his fame, 81b too greedy of fame when old, 522b unemulous of fame, 106b wafted to eternal fame, 232b walks earth, but her head is in the clouds, 556a what is fame but half-disfame, 365a what is everlasting fame but vanity, 479a what is more is fame, 220b what is the end of fame, 62a what so foolish as chase of fame, 404a when his light is extinguished he will still be loved, 676b when trumpet of fame has sounded, farewell to repose, 449a who foremost shall be damned to fame, 254a will of itself turn whiter too, 342a wisdom source of fame, 386a youth that means to be of note begins betimes, 307b See Famous
Fames, malesuada, 615a Fame-smith, the, 161b FAMILIARITY
 age ill-discerned through being beheld too close, 30a be thou familiar, but by no means vulgar, 291a begets coldness, 208b breeding appreciation, 25b breeds contempt, 760a do not effusively offer your hand to everyone, 585b gie a clown your finger and he will take your whole hand, 765a hails you Tom or Jack, 102a he loves me best that calls me Tom, 166a near acquaintance diminishes reverent fear, 329b terrible gift of familiarity, 692a upon familiarity will grow more contempt, 287a FAMILY and FAMILIES a holy family, 199a a noble family, all the brothers valiant and sisters virtuous, 444b be good to yourself and your family, 747b better be the best of a bad family, than worst of a good, 473b feuds, family, 532a good families generally worse than others, 159a great families of yesterday, 108a he will never be dull to strangers who sports with his own family, 605a her family was high, 172a his own family is dear to every man, 576b if I could find an affectionate family, 117b it is easier to rule a kingdom than a family, 795a kill a man's family, 64b men of position should bring up children worthily, 548b no tenth transmitter of a foolish face, 268b one of your antediluvian families, 92a

Family and Families—contd.

pretend your family is young,
250a State and the family at war, 230b stel fortuna domus, 662b the fortune of the house endures, 537b
when children of one family, 382b who loves the tree loves the branch, 780a
wife and children are bills of charges, 876a
Famous, calm, and dead, 32b found myself famous, 66a men, let us now praise, 421a to all ages, 228a

FAMINE

all's good in a, 734b begins at the horse-manger, 720a famine, pestilence and war, destruction of a people, 530b his famine should be filled, 217b is in thy cheeks, 280a our stern foe had made a league with famine, 335a persuading to evil, 615a speculation over famine, 704b the belly hath no ears, 840b note

FANATICISM

earth's fanatics, 29b fanatic fools, 194a fanatics have their dreams, 185a graceless zealots fight, 249b hated all for love of Jesus Christ, 266a

spirit of proselytism, 41b

Fanciful among thy servants, 420a

FANCY AND FANCIES

a wayward dart to throw, fancy off is pleased, 392b all my fancy painted her, 213a beam of fancy enlarges, multiplies, 250b but not expressed in fancy, 291a chewing the food of sweet and bitter fancy, 289b do we then affect sad fancies, 400a everyone to his fancy, 757b fairy frost-work (fancy's), 264b fairy hands (fancy's), 67a (fancy) kills and fancy cures, 760a fondness (fancy's) for the child she bears, 96a for a companion (fancy), 179a golden fancies and iron truths, 380a lay your earthly fancies down, 361b lightly turn to thoughts of love, 358b loves excess, 407a makes fancy tame, 98b meteor-ray of fancy, 44b more imaginary evils than real, 621a of most excellent fancy, 297a our fancies are more giddy, 297b over reason (fancy), a degree of insanity, 178b pale fancies and chimeras huge,
370a play of fancy, 95a read my fancies, 38b sick man's fancies, 486a so bright, fancies, 45b surpasses beauty, fancy, 760a the age of godlike fancy is departed, 710b
the friend of woe, 209b the heart promised what the fancy drew, 264a

Fancy and Fancies—contd.

the maid who fancies every man, 263b the realms of gold, 184b too weak for boys, 310a Truth and Fancy agree, 395a where is fancy bred, 283a See Fantasy.
Fanny, Lord, spins a thousand such,
252b
Fanny's way, pretty, 241b Fantastic as a woman's mood, 271b tricks, plays such, 299b Fantasy, something more than, 290a begot of nothing but vain, 278a Far be it from me (longe absit), 568a Far-fetched and little worth, 99a Far awa', him that's, 48b Far off his coming shone, 220a Far, too, too far, 119b Farce est joude, 694b note folly of the, is done, 437b what dear delight to Britons 253 Farces, jests from obsolete, 180b Fardels bear, who would, 293b Fare, fac (Speak, do), 530b fare, hard is my, 106b ransacked for the bill of, 142b fare, why should ae man better, 47a
FAREWELL
a word that must be, 56a air is full of farewells, 199a breathing stern farewells, 54b but not for ever, 500a, 60b death seems in that word farewell, 68b delightful gatherings, farewell, 503b faint now as farewells, 170a fare thee well, and if for ever, 60b fare thee well, great heart, 314b for ever and for ever, 287a goes out sighing, 298b for ever, hail and farewell, 552b happy fields, farewell, 216a I did not know thy worth, farewell, 171b
I only feel farewell, 61a kiss me and part, 7a like the farewell of ghosts, 325b may there be no sadness of farewell, 366b
my trim-built wherry, farewell, 110b once more farewell, 2a that fatal word, farewell, 57a the last farewell, 666b to all my greatness, 320a uncivil man, farewell, 211b vade, vale, 678b Farina, omnia ejusdem, 610b Farinas, quid ad, 635b

FARM, FARMING and FARMERS a disappointing farm, 513b a very inferior farmer, 84a ancestral farm with house just large enough, 647b dainties unbought (farm or garden produce), 510b farm folk delight in aphorisms, 187b farmers fatten when famine reigns, 142a farmers flourish and complain, 103a

keep a farm and carters, 292b praise the large farm, cultivate the small, 564b no farmer says his garner is full,
818a

Farm, Farming and Farmers—contd.

raving of sterile farms, 273b the embattled farmers, 131b the farmer's care makes the field bear, 859b the smoke from the farm-house, 525a the wheel-stockit farms, 49b to farm well, first receipt to be rich, 332b
See Agriculture.
Farrago libelli, nostri est, 635a Farrago of absurd conceits, 204b Farther, go, and fare worse, 766a Farthing less, for a, 2a take a, from a thousand pounds, 150b the uttermost, 421a Fas est et ab hoste doceri, 559b Fas, per, et nefas, 618b Fasces of the main, 122a, 124a FASHION and FASHIONS after the high Roman fashion, 307b arbitrator of right, 342b architecture incapable of modes and, 403a are for fools, 120a as weel be oot o' the world as oot o' fashion, 739b copy and book that fashioned
others, 315a
do as most men do and all will
speak well of thee, 752a ever a wayward child (fashion), 209b every fashionable gale, 40b fetched from Paris, 456b feminine, and so has whims, 711b fine clothes wear soonest out of fashion, 761a fools invent fashions, wise men follow, 762b for fashion's sake, as dogs go to church, 762b formerly vices, 627b good fashion and presence, 12a great happiness in being in the fashion, 242b guides us still, 378b in plays, 127b it is in vain to dislike the current
fashion, 795b
lady's head-dress, 2b leader of a chattering train, 98a of our forefathers, 544a of these times, 288b of this world passeth away, 428a old, please me best, 276b opinions like fashions beautiful when new, ugly when discarded, 823a rules the wisest, 103a tailors and writers must mind the fashion, 838b
the glass of, 294a the present, is always handsome,
850a these fashion-mongers, 279a though Folly's child, 103a we live according to, instead of reason, 548a
wears out more apparel, 284b what has been the fashion once will be again, 818b wild vicissitudes of Taste, 178a words, phrases and fashions, 18b Fashionable topics, 151a FAST and FASTING
drink does not break a fast, 623a is this a fast, to keep the larder lean, 165b

Fast and Fasting—contd.

must fast and be clement, 78a thank heaven fasting for a good man's love, 289b
 that oft with Gods doth diet, 224b to fast from strife, 165b to preach fasting with a full stomach, 729a
 Fast bind, fast find, 760b and furious, grew, 46a over fast, over loose, 824a we live too fast, 5a Faster than a stage-coach, 150a will you walk a little, 119b Fat is in the fire, 733b, 844a

FAT and FATNESS and five and fifty, 139a and merry, 462a, 759b as tame things, 309b belly does not produce fine sense, 620b bodies, lean brains, 139a eating often and little makes fat, 819b everyone basteth the fat hog,

 758a fat man knows not what the lean thinketh, 844a gross belly does not produce refined mind, 760b he has more guts than brains, 773a hens (fat) are aye ill layers, 760b jewels make women fat, 18a let me have men about me that are fat, 285b oily man of God, 371a paunches have lean pates, 276b, 760b the fat was so white, 148b Fatness of these pury times, 296a

FATALITY

cast your life upon the deep and sleep, 346a
 he came safe from East Indies and was drowned in Thames, 772a
 I think there is a fatality in it, 343b it will be all the same a hundred years hence, 797a the fated will happen, 844a tie up your camel and leave it to Providence, 766b what God writes on thy forehead thou wilt come to, 844a Fatal man, I am a, 367a

FATE

a heart for every fate, 61b a man who can live in spite of any fate, 549a
 a name for God, 585b all are architects of, 199 and destinies and such odd sayings, 282b best of men cannot suspend fate, 108a big with the fate of Rome, 240a blackest ink of, 376a brave man struggling in the storms of, 255a bumper filled by, 23a cannot harm me, I have dined today, 332a
 conciliate the fates, 531a cropped him short, 263b damned his fate, 253b destiny will find a way, 531a drew me on, 597b everyone maker of his own, 758b fears his fate too much, 230a fixed, free will, 217b

Fate—contd.

flying from fate a man rushes into
 it, 531b
 following the fate assigned him, 511a had conquered fate, 4b hanging breathless on thy fate, 198b hides the book of fate, 248a holds the strings, 153a how wayward the decrees of, 368a I am in, and must go on, 210a I am the master of my fate, 161b inexorable fate, 531b let us go wheresoever the fates impel, 639a little to inflict, nothing to bestow, 258b master of his fate, 364b masters of their fates, 285b may fate a milder aspect show, 257b mind of men ignorant of, 590b my fate cries out, 291b no armour against, 329a no one is so accused by fate, 198a
 not you but fate has vanquished
 me, 272a
 O fate of fools, 92b of Cato, and of Rome, 1a on his wretched fate, 44b prepared for either fate, 485b, 554a sad realities of, 67a says No, 227b scorn of, 330a sic erat in fatis, 657a step-dame buffetings of, 68a the day of fate is at hand, 561b the fates call, 531a the fates stand in the way, 530b the Moving Finger writes, 136b the sisters three, 282b the torrent of his fate, 178a
 'tis my fate to write, 239b to conquer our fate, 68b to give the sails to fate, 510b we are all compelled by the same force, 610a
 what shall be the maiden's fate, 272a when fate summons, 124b where God and hard fortune call, let us follow, 639a where the fates call, 674a who can control his fate, 303a whose even thread the fates spin, 182b why should they know their fate, 154b

FATHERS

a buffoon will never make a good father, 634a
 a father is a banker given by
 nature, 709b
 a slight submission for a sin sufficient in a father's eyes, 625a a wise father that knows his own child, 282b alas for the son whose father goes to heaven, 771a ask my mother if my father be a thief, 739b authority lost by bad example, 675a being so fathered, 285b but calls thee father, 88a child's first service is to make his father look foolish, 844b daughters cannot take too much care of, 605a duty of a father to accustom his Fathers—contd.

son to act rightly of his own accord, 544b for the ashes of his father, 206b glory to his father, 420a had it been his father I had much rather, 445b
 happy the child whose father goes
 to the devil, 771a
 harsh judges of all young men, 629a hath deceived her father, 301a have we not all one father, 419b he is father whom marriage indicates, 524a
 he follows his father with unequal steps, 653a
 he leaned not on his fathers, 359b he that honoureth his father, 419b he who lies to his father will attempt the same with others, 632b he whose father is judge goes safe to trial, 783b how's your father, 464b if you rate your worth by your father's, 249b it is a wise child that knows its
 own, 794b
 mocketh at his father, 382b note my true-begotten father, 282b no father's guardian hand, 268b no love to a father's, 816a no more like my father, 290b not all a father's heart could wish 14b not an angry father, 69a of a family, 184a of all, 250a of his country, 453a, 616b, 653b of your country, 687b one father more than a hundred schoolmasters, 821a
 one father supports ten children better than ten children one father, 821a
 one may govern a hundred sons, but a hundred sons cannot govern a father, 821a our fathers bought for us, 190a raw dads make fat lads, 829a reverence, father and mother ask, 69b should be virtuous who desire their sons to be more so, 625a some features of my father's face, 58a the general Father's throne, 32a there died my father, 255b father to the bough, the son to the plough, 844a to God himself we cannot give a holier name, 402b to me thou art, 186b urged me sair, 17a we had rather it had been his father, 445b we think our fathers fools, 247a who will not obey father will have to obey stepfather, 782a who would be a father, 300b whom should he bear with if not his father, 631a would be known the father of our
 people, 211a
 Fatherland focuses a people, 408b Fathom five thy father lies, 310b

FAULTS

a friendly eye could never see such, 286b a keen scent for, 522a all men have their, 150a

Faults—contd.

all fault who hath no fault, 365a all his faults observed, 286b and follies of most men, 374a applause due in spite of trivial faults, 246b are thick when love is thin, 760b be to her faults a little blind, 259b best men are moulded out of, 300a better a diamond with a flaw than pebble without, 741b chief fault of man that he has so many small ones, 711a condemn the fault and not the actor of it, 299b confessed, a new virtue, 191a detraction will find faults, 212a do you overlook your friends' faults, 584b each fault hidden in the nearest good quality, 525a each man should bear what results from his own, 664a each person carries his own faults behind, and in front a heavy wallet full of other people's, 618b easier to pick holes than to mend them, 758a escaping one we are led into some other, 554a every man has his faults, honesty is his, 308b everyone puts his faults on the times, 758b everyone's not written in their foreheads, 758b excusing oft makes worse, 311b folly sees the faults of others, 523b forget others', by remembering your own, 763a full of faults, 152a fairer the paper, the fouler the blot, 843b fault confessed is half redressed, 720a fault within and without Troy, 548b faults of ignorance excusable when ignorance is, 760b few see their own disease; all love it, 617a glorious fault of angels and gods, 254b God send me a friend that will tell me of my faults, 767a gods give some, to make a man, 307b good author may have some, but not many, 449b grows two (by a lie), 162b handsome in three hundred pounds a year, 287b he abounds in sweet faults, 483b he had two faults, 45b he has no fault except that he has none, 592a he is best who has least, 584b he is lifeless that is faultless, 774a he stands not surely that never slips, 776a he that lies to hide a fault makes it two, 382b his faults brought their own excuse, 260a how justly to proportion punishment to, 324b I have hated not the man but his faults, 545a I will not take exception to a few spots, 681b

Faults—contd.

I write not to excuse, but to prevent others imitating, 695a
if sack and sugar be a fault, 314a
if we had none, we should not notice them in others with such pleasure, 707b ill behoves us to find any fault, 443a in a leopard spots are not observed, 792a in every fault is folly, 792b in the life, 96a just hint a fault, 252a let no one ever look at his own faults, 677a kills for faults of his own liking, 300a lie gently on him, 320b lifeless, faultless, 804b love your friend with his faults, 760b men do not suspect faults which they do not commit, 178b men have many faults, 438b men's, seldom to themselves appear, 321a nobody but has his faults, 287b no man free from, 476a no one born without, 584b
no one lives without a crime, 589b none prevented by their own from pointing out others', 603b not in our stars, but in ourselves, 285b of a friend made your own if borne with, 489a once denied, twice committed, 720a only great men may have great faults, 603b pardon much to others, nothing to yourself, 548b pardon the fault, 510b patience worn out by your faults, 581a point not at others' spots with a foul finger, 825b proud to find, 391a rich men have no faults, 830a rich men's spots are covered with money, 844b say nothing of mine and I will say nothing of yours, 705a show me a man without spot and I will show you a maid without fault, 834a small, let in greater, 835a tell me all me faults, 323a the blemishes produced by carelessness, 569b the failings of other men accuse us of frailty, 843b the fault is as great as he that is faulty, 844a the fault is not of the man but of the place, 598b the faulty stands on his guard, 844a the first are theirs who commit, the second theirs who permit, 844b the two wallets, 677a they that level at my abuses, 322a thou hast no, 85a to hide the fault I see, 250b to maintain a fault, 177b to mend, 36b to proclaim, but to spare the persons, 566b unless you bear a friend's you betray your own, 489a

Faults—contd.

vain to avoid one and turn to another, 536b we allow for, in case of large fortune, 535b when love cools, our faults are seen, 870a when you have done a fault be pert and insolent, 350b where no fault is there needs no pardon, 873a where there is no love, all are faults, 870a which we desire to overlook, 665b who commits, thinks everyone speaks of it, 777a wild beasts spare those of kindred spots, 615b wink at small faults, 876b wise men correct their own by others', 746b with all her faults, 82b with all thy faults I love thee still, 99a with greatest beauties joined, 81b women have but two, 438b your main fault is you are good for nothing, 880b See Blemishes, 307b, Foibles, 327b

FAULT-FINDERS
a customary railer is the Devil's bagpipe, 719b any silly soul easily can pick a hole, 737a everyone can find fault, 758a fault-mender better than fault-finder, 720a many find fault without end, 807b miss their own, 507b nothing is safe from, 818b the file grates other things but wears itself out, 844a the colander says to the needle, "You have a hole in you" (other provs. to like effect), 850a they first condemn, 123b they were never fain that shrugged, 857a who finds fault means to buy, 874b who laughs at crooked men should walk straight, 780b who only seek faults find nothing else, 857a every fool can find faults, 755a this promiscuous blaming, 385a Faultless piece to see, whoever thinks, 246b to a fault, 35a Favete linguis, 609a

FAVOURS
a favour to a bad man is sowing seed in sea, 474b an ounce of favour worth a pound of justice, 736b are but like the wind, 7a benefits please like flowers, while fresh, 741b benefits pleasing when capable of requital, 496b benefits twofold if given quickly, 556b bread made of stone, 488b note buying is cheaper than asking, 746a danger of misdirected partiality, 624a expected favours, 538b ill-placed favours is great waste, 720a fools refuse favours, 762b Favours—contd.

great, expected from great folks, 449a he has received a favour who has granted one, 497a he is a scoundrel who knows how to accept but not to return, 550b
 he that asketh a courtesy promiseth a kindness, 776a he wants a favour and is polite, 532a ill-placed are injuries, 496b it is fraud to accept what you cannot repay, 536a it is nothing to have conferred a favour, 612a let the bestower be silent, the receiver proclaim them, 631b lost to a bad man, 573a (favour) not to men of skill, 416a, 737b one favour qualifies for another, 821a poor folk must say, Thank-ye for a little, 826a reminder of, becomes an offence, 709a secret, sweet, and precious, 46a should be remembered by recipient; forgotten by donor, 497a steeped in favours, 309b
 thanks not given for belated service, 538b to allure his eye, 322b to accept a benefit is to sell liberty, 496b to be slow in granting denotes unwillingness, 669a to confer frequently teaches how to return, 497a unused, are favours abused, 760b when a man offers, look for the motive, 872b when excessive, returned by hatred, 496b which sticks too long in donor's hands, 556a who does not know how to grant, has no right to seek, 497a who says he has granted seeks a favour, 497a will as surely perish as life, 760b Favourite has no friend, 154b pity the artist who is a popular, 453b the general, 178a
Favourites, the greatest, are in most danger of falling, 845b Favouritism governed kissage, 189b preferment goes by letter and affection, 300a Fawn, to, to crouch, to wait, 341b unskillful he to, 148a Fawning greyhound, this, 313b where thrift may follow, 294b Fay ton faict, et te cognoy, 692b Fays and talismans and spirits, 88b FEAR and FEARS Fear a bad preserver of constancy, 573a a fearful mind wishes for death, 671a a hindrance to all virtues, 685a adored through fear, 100b agitated with recent, 643b all the arms in England will not arm fear, 733b an imperious thing, 645b and dread, walk in, 86b and Guilt the same, 109b antidote to, 132a argues ignoble minds, 512b

Fear and Fears—contd.

as long as they fear, let them hate, 608b note being a cause of fear to many, beware of many, 582a best safety lies in, 291a better die than live in continual terror, 469a bring more dangers, 18b champion human, 59a concealed under great daring, 494a concessions of fear, 40a coward's fear can make a coward valiant, 719a despair and confidence both banish fear, 345b fear everything if you would fear nothing, 655a feared even by those who are feared, 542b fearing even what is safe, 673b fears are divided in the midst, 760b first in the world made gods, 183b, 624a first put on arms, 797a follows crime, 449b foolish to fear the inevitable, 663b foundation of all our fears, 50b gave wings to his feet, 618a grows by holding back, 494a has many eyes, 449a has nothing to fear, 2a hath a hundred eyes, 398b has urged men into dangers, 582b he is a King who fears nothing, 646a (fear) Him, and you have nothing else to fear, 140a I do not wish to be feared, 595b impedes speech, 471a in politics what begins in fear, 89b interest and fear, 450a is an ague, 51a keeps the garden better than the gardener, 760b kills more than disease, 760b lay aside this gloomy fearfulness, 646a listening and dumb amazement, 369b made her daring, 493b many things to fear, 10b mind which knows how to, knows how to go safely, 490b mother of safety, 42b no hope who never had fear, 96a no man was ever scared into heaven, 816b no remedy for, 353b no lite timere (Fear not), 595b nothing did he dread, but ever was ydrad, 339a nothing so rash as, 42a nothing terrible but, 13a of life baser than fear of death, 406b of the Lord the beginning of wisdom, 560b our fears do make us traitors, 305a our fears our hopes belied, 171b present fears less than horrible imaginings, 303b restrains the wicked, 576b shakes the pencil, 407a Shame's friend, 350b that is akin to Death, 350b the beadle of the law, 760b
 the less of fear the more of danger, 639b
 &
 heir mother hearts beset with fears, 265b

Fear and Fears—contd.

there is nae medicine for, 855a there was one fear but differently expressed, 671a time to, when tyrants seem to kiss, 308b to become old through, 521b twenty times was Peter feared, 394a what is there we fear with reason, 636a what we fear in time we hate, 307a where fear is wisdom cannot be, 674b who fears to suffer, suffers from fear, 874b who terrifies others is more afraid himself, 634b whom a man fears he wishes to perish, 631a whom many fear, should fear many, 582b why, I know not, but I fear all things, 637b wit waits on fear, 321a would not dare to fear, 96b wretched to fear without hope, 578b yields with trembling fears, 20b Fear'd, he is to be, who fears the gods, 470a rather than loved; those are wretched who prefer to be, 559a Fearful, be not, come away, 136b hearts, woe be to, 419b man, thou, 279b Fearfully and wonderfully made, 413b Fearless man his own salvation, 25a FEASTS
 a feast not profuse but elegant, 596a a table without subtle refinements, 658a a very valiant trencher-man, 284a after the feast, 473b and dance, 222a and revelry, 224a bare imagination of a feast, 312a bashfulness unbecoming at table, 681a better be at end of, than at beginning of a fray, 742a courses to please guests, not the cooks, 503b feast is not made of mushrooms only, 720a feasting makes no friendship, 760b fools make feasts, wise men eat them, 762b good, until the reck'ning come, 261b he that is angry at a feast is rude, 779a here let us feast, 257b his wine and beasts supplied our feasts, 241b if gentle Abra had not decked the feast, 259a light and choice, of Attic taste, 227a little odds between a feast an' a fu' wame, 804a love the chief places at, 423b many dejected after, 532a master of the feast, 491b merry the feast till we come to the reckoning, 810b ne'er looks to heaven amidst his gorgeous, 225b now that I no longer need I can get full many a feed, 721a Feasts—contd.

of fat things, 417*b* of Lucullus, 452*b* of the Lapithæ, 452*b* our joyfull'st feast, 390*b* perpetual feast of nectared sweets, 225*a* proper at a Sheriff's feast, 92*b* note proud men become fools in their feasts, 666*a*
spread the table and contention
will cease, 837*a* Sybaritica mensa, 667*a* the beginning of a feast, 314*b* the cause is gude and the word's as Fa' on, 841*b*
the company makes the feast, 841*b* note
the day after the feast, 447*a* the fewer feasts the better cheer, 848*b*
the hope of dining well deceives
you, 661*b*
the shearers' feast, 226*b* there is no great banquet but some fares ill, 855*b*
'tis substantial happiness to eat, 256*a*
Toasts at, 461*a* and b to arrive after the feast, 623*a* to starve at an unreal, 234*a* true essentials, fun and feed, 167*b* unbought feasts, 644*b* your drunken banquets tell your vileness, 590*b* Feasting, the house of, 415*b* Feather by feather, the goose is plucked, 760*b* espied a, of his own, 377*a* for each wind, 310*a* in hand better than bird in air, 718*a*
it matters not a, 621*a* on the fatal dart, his own, 60*a* the last feather breaks the horse's back, 847*a* the multitude like a, 317*b* whence the pen was shaped, 398*b* won with a, 784*a* Feathers, fine, make fine birds, 761*a* Features, incisive, bound in parchment, 214*a*
not different but not the same, 529*a*
that else had vanished, 398*b* FEBRUARY
all the months curse a fair Februer, 733*b* Februer doth cut and shear, 760*b* fill dyke, 374*b*, 760*b* makes a bridge; March breaks
it, 760*b*
rain in, as good as manure, 760*b* reckon right and February hath one-and-thirty days, 829*a* the short, worst month of all, 760*b* Fed, better, than nurtured, 773*b* highly, and lowly taught, 299*a* worse, than your hogs, 188*b* Federation of the world, 358*b* Feeble deeds vainer than words,
116*b*
hearts that feared their heritage, 238*a*
most forcible, 315*b* not enough to help up the, 308*a* Feed, fun and, 167*b* on this fair mountain, leave to,
295*b*
sleep and, 296*a* Feeders, gross, great sleepers, 139*a* Feeding: See Food Feeding, insolent with, 59*b*

Feeding like one, forty, 393*a* on other's toil, 210*b*

FEELING AND FEELINGS

a feeling and a love, 393*b* bad form to feel, 346*b* feelings and emanations, 392*b* deeper than thought, 103*b* hath no fellow, 761*a* how many precious feelings, 5*a* it as a man, I must also feel,
305*a*
it more than other people, 114*a* must feel themselves, 81*b* petrifies the feeling, 47*a* power of, exists in all, 596*b* slaves free to exercise human feelings, 493*a*
their feelings are strong, 116*b* think and feel if we would know, 397*b*
time cannot benumb, 55*a* unemployed feelings, 56*b* we live in feelings, 14*a* when we love to feel, 95*a* with less of earth in them than heaven, 271*a*

FEES

flowing fees, 228*a* no law for restitution of fees,
212*b*
no one wishes to pay the fee, 602*a* ri- toric of a silver fee, 142*b* take, O boatman, twice thy fee, 453*a*
taking a fee with a grin on my face, 146*b*

FEET and FOOT

a foul foot makes a full weam, 720*b*
a ganging fit is aye getting, 721*b* are light where the will is ready, 874*a*
are slow when the head wears snow, 844*a* better a bare foot than none, 741*b*
better to go on foot than ride and fall, 214*b*
crossed in rest (feet), 103*b* glance their many-twinkling feet, 154*a*
head and feet keep warm, 846*a* her feet beneath her petticoat, 346*a*
her pretty feet like snails did creep, 165*a* his foot went up with a terrible thwack, 15*b* his very foot has music in't, 214*b* how's your poor feet, 464*b* if ever god-like foot trod these fields, 352*a* little wit in head makes much work for feet, 804*a* more light, a step more true, 270*b* muse of the many-twinkling feet, 60*b*
O, so light a foot, 279*b* of Gamaliel, at the, 426*b* one foot better than two crutches, 821*a* ply your heavenward feet, 186*a*
put your foot down where you
mean to stand, 828*b*
save something for a sore foot, 831*a* standing with reluctant feet, 198*a* stood a spell on one foot, 202*a* the many-twinkling feet, 59*a*
the poetry of the foot, 127*b* they hadn't any feet, 119*b* they sit at the feet, 190*b* to the foe, his feet, 67*b*

Feet and Foot—contd.

walked those blessed feet, 313*a* wash seldom, 866*b* went on three feet, 268*a* with unwashed feet and hands, 549*b*
Feet, six, shall serve for all thy store, 156*a*
Feigning like froth shall go, 157*a* Felawe, many a good, 313*b* note Felicity awhile, absent thee from,
207*b*
our own, we make, 147*b*, 178*b* Fell as he was in act and mind, 273*a* Fell, here, obedient to her words, we,
445*a* like stars, they, 229*b* out, it so, they all fell in, 446*a* who ran to help me when I, 355*b* Fell, Dr., I do not love thee, 27*a* Fellow, a, by the hand of nature marked, 312*a* many a good tall, had destroyed,
313*b*
she's left the guid, 49*a* with the best king, 317*a* Fellows as you and I, such, 294*a* of the baser sort, 426*b* Fellow-farer true through life, 344*b* Fellow-feeling makes us wondrous kind, 142*a* Fellowship in pain divides not smart, 222*b*
is heaven, 236*b* out upon this half-faced, 313*b* right hands of, 429*a* Felo de se, 531*b*
Female of the species, 190*b* of sex it seems, 223*b* passions in excess are, 59*b* side, verging fast towards the,
96*a*
Females mad, thus to make poor, 280*b*
Feminine, the eternal, 453*b* vanity, a divine gift, 117*a* Féminin, l'éternel, 453*b* Femininely meaneath furiously, 59*b* Fen of stagnant waters, 396*b* Fens, reek of the rotten, 308*a* Fence, sittin' on a, 202*b* so cunning in, 298*a* taught her dazling, 225*b* Ferrea vox, 599*a* Fervour: he that burns most shines most, 776*b*
Fervent in spirit, 427*a* Festina lente, 532*a* Festivals, sung at, 308*b* Fête passée, adieu le saint, 750*b* Fetters, loves his, though they were of gold, 340*b* no man loveth his, 816*b* FEUDS
an old feud soon becomes new,
820*a*
and feeble hates, 4*b* can nought but blood this feud atone, 271*b*
descending from father or mother, 532*a*
how they mar this little life, 359*b* was of the house, not of the heart, 337*b*
Fever burns, when a raging, 383*a* life's fitful, 304*b* reproach of the physicians, 228*b* starve a, 760*b* Fever, a new troop of, 569*a* Few, fit audience find, though, 220*a* things, what can be done by help
of, 536*a*
we, we happy few, 316*b*

Fewer men, the greater share of honour, 316b Fezziwig, in came Mrs., 114a Fib or sophistry, destroy his, 525a Fichte, philosophy of, 71b Fickle as a changeful dream, 271b more, than the restless sea, 235b nature made thee, 61a not so fair as, 322b who does not hate thee, 638b Fickleness attributed to Englishmen, 228b of the woman I love, 323a FICTION
 a necessity, 81a by fairy fiction drest, 155a condemn it as an improbable fiction, 298a himself a fiction too, 274a humanity has need of the untruth which flatters it, 694a I will sing facts, though some will say I invent, 529b is not falsehood, 160b making fun with tales of, 532a meant to please should be very near truth, 532a only truth can be invented, 267b partakes of lying, 72a the death of all things, 73b Fiddle-de-dee, to shirk the task were, 146a Fiddle or gay sautrye, 76b to play the second, well, 797a Fiddler, a, and consequently a rogue, 350b in house of, all fiddle, 792a Fidel commissum, 532b Fidelis ad urnam, 532b Fides, incorrupta, 627a Fides, fronti nulla, 536a Fides, quid est, 636b Fie, foh, and fum, 306b FIELD and FIELDS are not all fruitful, 487a babble of green fields, 316a beauty vain of field and grove, 393a farewell, happy fields, 216a Godlike Nature gave us fields, 517b have eyes, 199b, 761a, 374b if fields are prisons, 24a in those holy fields, 313a invested with purpleal gleams, 396a kept getting more select, 170b lay field to field, 417a let us beat this ample field, 248a little field may grow good corn, 724a of others, you water, your own being dry, 487b or flowers, what are the, 241b out of old fields, 79b peopling the harmless fields with signs of woe, 392b poetic fields, 2a through fields and woods, 86a without a flower, 99b Field be lost, what though thee, 216a Field open to open, 543a Field-mates, the feathered, 45b Fielding and inns, 22b Fielding, Borrow on, 24a Fiend, a frightful, 86b angelical, 279b himself his due, give thee, 361b hyperbolic, 298b made the fiend to fly, 39a take heed o' the foul, 306a

Fiend, that shall eat with a, 78a the avenging fiend that follows us behind, 266b Fiends, juggling, 305b Pierce as ten Furies, 217b Piercest Spirit that fought, 217a Pierceness makes error a fault, 163a Fieri curavit (F.C.), 532b Fieri facias, 532b Fiery floods, to bathe in, 300a mind, outbreak of a, 292a Fiesole, drifted over, 33b Fife, plaintive, 110b snap the, 196a the ear-piercing, 302a the wry-necked, 282b Fifty, an Adonis of, 175b at, chides his infamous delay, 405a fool at, 94a times, I've told you, 62a who is not wise at, never will be, 779b years, all that lies buried under, 386b Fig, he covets a, 532a peel a, for your friend, a peach for your enemy, 824b tree, and under his, 410a tree, train up a, 115a Figs, calling, figs; and a skiff of, 478b, 746b in the name of the Prophet, 331a Figment, a, and a dream, 379b FIGHT and FIGHTING a feeble affair when you have only one hand, 474b a first-class fightin' man, 189b and no be slain, 47b as much by Mars as by Minerva, 667b as well qualified for, as for business, 167b bade the rest keep fighting, 440b brutal thing called fighting, 20b cease from mental fight, 23b fight on, my men, 435a fight separately, conquered collectively, 519b fight ye, my merry men, 435a fighting fail, 57b fighting-time was come, 238a fighting with their hands and praying with their hearts, 766b finished when foe is down, 506b for God and Right and Liberty, 241a for if they won't fight us, 142a for our lives and laws, 421b for peace, 110a good at a fight, better at a play, 233b he that flies may fight again, 12a he that would conquer Heaven must fight, 261a he who fights and runs away, 150a he who returns the first blow begins the quarrel, 850b I have fought a good fight, 430b in a worthy fight or no, 258b in a wrong fight fell a good knight, 174b knows what he fights for, 104b like dragons, we'll fight, 211a like devils for conciliation, 196b live to fight another day, 435b men fight not as they fought, 206b not as one that beateth the air, 428a now we are even—six blows for one, 819a on painting and fighting look afar off, 820b

Fight and Fighting—contd.
 one more fight, 34b so much he longed to see the fight, 272a show you're up to fightin', 202a sparrows fight for corn not their own, 836b the battle ends when the enemy is down, 627a the end crowns us, not the fight, 165a the good fight of faith, 430a
 the less careful they were in battle the safer, 630b the second blow makes the fray, 797a, 850b the wounded gladiator forswears fighting, 649b then I'll rise and fight again, 435a those who dare not, 110a too proud to fight, 460b twisted in inextricable fight, 326a we don't want to fight, 458a well hast thou fought the better fight, 220a what can ennoble fight, 68b where one on his side fights, 312b while you are fighting I will pray, like Captain Moses, 705a without fighting, within were fears, 429a Fighter, a dull, and a keen guest, 314b I lay by my profession as, 543b I was ever a, 34b Figure, a foolish, 92b
 the strangest, 32b Figures, nothing so false as facts except, 761a on a dial, 14a strange and quaint, 86b will prove anything, 761a you may prove anything by, 458b, 879b File grates other things, but wears itself out, 844a Filial humbings, 367a love, thy, 66a Fils de St. Louis, monter au ciel, 692b Filth, when I strive with, I am stained, 544b Fin contre fin, 751b Fin de siècle, 692b
 Final note prolong, why then a, 270b Finance, plain high-road of, 39b stocks and subscriptions, 251b Financial detail, a, 129b Find, how can we, 26a Findings are keepings, 761a Fine, all is, that is fit, 733a as fiveness, 738a by degrees, 259a quite a disgrace to be, 355b who makes a thing too, breaks it, 780a Finger, better a, aff, as aye wagging, 742b gie a clown your, and he will take your hand, 765a his slow unmoving, 302b I would not stretch out a, 573b my little, thicker than my father's loins, 410b of a maid, pricked from the lazy, 278a writes, the Moving, 136b Fingers and nails, as well as he knows his, 668a made before forks, 761a never burn your, to snuff another man's candle, 814b weary and worn, 171a

Fingers' ends, I sucked not this out of my, 787b Finger-nails, lines on cutting. Cut them on Monday, etc., 463b Finger-posts, point like, the way, 233b Finger tips, gracious tyrannies of her, 379b Finis itself comes to an end, 367b Finish, merit of knowing when to, 71a something, do, 31a too much care weakens a work, 594b what I begin, 387b
 See Endings
 Finland, Thomas in, 392b Fir, the saying, 70b trees dark and high, 171b FIRE
 a clear fire, a clean hearth, 191b a fair fire makes a room gay, 720a a good servant, a bad master, 761a a little wind kindles; much puts out, 803b and faggot, I do not prescribe, 108a and furies, they rush on, 551b and People, good servants ill masters, 156a ash when green, is fire for a queen, 770a be fire with fire, 312a beds of raging fire, 217b better a little, that warms nor a meikle that burns, 742a burn not your house to fright away mice, 746a casten all the gravel in the fire, 733b child says only what it heard by the fire, 841b closest kept, burns most, 281a come near this fire, you will soon be warm enough, 483b comes from fire, 482b do not add fire to fire, 474b fat's in the fire, 733b, 844a fed and put out by wind, 605b foul water will quench, 763b full of, and greedy hardiment, 339b gazes on a faded, 365b give me a fire and I will give you a light, 831b given, even by enemies, 511a great, rages in vain, 571a green wood makes a hot fire, 770a he is a poor smith who fears sparks, 773b he that burns his house warms himself for once, 776b he that can make a fire well can end a quarrel, 776b heaping logs on the fire, 517a how great a matter a little fire kindleth, 430b huge fires abide, 321a I recognise traces of the ancient fire, 487a if there are two fires in the room both will smoke, 790a in the coldest flint, 793a in the flint shows not till struck, 844a is dying in the grate, not till the, 213a is everywhere, it nourishes all things, 548a is not quenched, 424a is put out by flames, 554a

Fire—contd.
 kindle not a fire that you cannot put out, 799a kindled a fire which will burn, 71b kinds on the coast false fires, 400a little chips light great fires, 803b little fire burns up much corn, 803b little, quickly trodden out, 318a making a fire requires discretion, 878a man so shod with, 381a men of concealed fire, 2a neglected is apt to gain power, 584a no fire without some smoke, 873b now stir the fire, 100a of God fills him, 365a one fire burns out another's burning, 278a one fire does not put out another, 821a overlaid with treacherous ashes, 619a put your finger in the fire, 828b rise of this prodigious fire, 122b sea, woman, and fire—three evils, 472b set a house on fire, to roast eggs, 10b silks and satins put out the kitchen fire, 834a note slow fire makes sweet malt, 728a, 835a subsidies, sprinkled with a little water, 533b take away fuel and you take away fire, 838b take out the heat of a burn, 844a the great master of arts, 706a the more it is covered the more it burns, 642a the true Promethean, 277a there is no fire without smoke, 855b there is no smoke without fire, 855b thickest fire announced most foes, 64a timely buyer hath cheaper his fire, 374b to cast oil in the fire, 733b, 844a to make a fire doth care and skill require, 867b to seek food from the fire, 520b two kitchen fires burn not on one hearth, 864b warm yourself while the fire burns, 807a warmest clad sit nearest, 852b water far off will not quench, 866b well may he smell of, whose gown burns, 867b when a neighbour's house is on, your own is in danger, 626b where two raging fires do meet, 276b which does not warm me shall not scorch me, 844a which seems extinguished often slumbers in the ashes, 699b while I was musing the fire burned, 412b who can hold fire in his hand, 312a who live longest must fetch fire (or wood) furthest, 857a without light is zeal without knowledge, 880b you can hide de fire, but not de smoke, 158a

Firebrand plucked out of the burning, 419a Firebrands flame lawless through the void, 249a Fireside clime, a happy, 47a enjoyments, 100a happiness, 264b
Fireworks inferior for seeing with, 70b we'll speak, 137a Firm by temperament, 693a indissolubly, 220a Firmament on of high, spacious, 3a spacious, of time, 397b the pillared, 225b this brave o'erhanging, 293a First come, first served, 761b dish pleaseth all, 844b ever daring to be, 57b glance, 624b
 I am not, and shall not be the last, 878a in all things, some wish to be, 523b in time has advantage in right, 634a not the, nor the last, 624b shall be last, 423a still to be near, but never to be, 127a that ever burst, 86b the, is most right, 826a to the hall sits where he will, 777a you are not the, and will not be last, 710a First-born, because I was thy, 353a courtesy of nations and the, 288a in Egypt, rail against all the, 288b Firste vertu is to kepe the tonge, 79a FISH
 a fish out of water, 773b a sly old fish, 103a adores the bait, 844b all's, that comes to the net, 734b, 374b as good in the sea as ever came out, 853b dinna gae your, till you get them, 752a dry shoes won't catch, 753b fisherman could be bought for price of, 623a fishes follow the bait, 761b go early to the fish-market, 766a great fish are caught in great waters, 769b he's an honest man and eats no fish, 784a note it is not fish, it is man you devour, 598a it is not necessary to teach a fish to swim, 796a little fish are fish, 803b little fish are sweet, 803b little fishes should not spout at whales, 803b live in the sea, how, 308b lives o' men, 237b makes no broth, 761b more dumb than a fish, 569b more the fish the worse the catch, 173b no choice among stinking fish, 815b no human being ever so free as a fish, 267b no man cries stinking fish, 816a no more land, say fish, 26a nor flesh, nor good red herring, 814b not to be caught with a bird-call, 761b of one and flesh of another, 787b Fish—contd.

old, preferable, 820a once injured by hook, suspects all food, 634a other fish to fry, 823b ought to swim thrice, 761b sauce is better than the fish, 850b silly fish that is caught twice with same bait, 794b small fish are better than none, 835a still fisheth he that catcheth one, 837b struggling in the net, hampers itself the more, 844b teaching a fish to swim, 620b that once was caught, 339b that tittle in the deep, 200b the best swim near the bottom, 840b to fish with a cross bow, 796a trick of catching fishes, 355b venture a small and catch a great, 865b weavers' beef (sprats) 867a welcomes little fishes in, 19a who wants, must put up with a wetting, 878b will soon be caught that nibbles at every bait, 839b will sooner die on the land, 172a young flesh and old fish are best, 880a

Fisher, saintly, 398a

Fisherman when stung goes wise, 620b

Fishers went sailing, three, 189a

Pishified, how thou art, 279a

FISHING

before the net, is not good, 777b best, in deepest water, 793a effects of the various winds, 462b good, in drumbling waters, 795b no fishing to fishing in the sea, 816a none of our employments can compare with, 437b one most cruel trick of his, 355b See Angling

Fishmonger, I would you were so honest a man, 292b you are a, 292b

Fishpond, that great, the sea, 109a Fist, agin the Seresher's, 27b be ever ready, his, 145b his energetic, 145a keep your hurry in your, 798b to make a wedge with one's, 773b

Fit will work on him, the, 297a

Fit's upon me now, the, 137a

FITNESS

all things not equally fitting to all men, 611a fit as a fritter for a friar's mouth, 738a formerly fit (nuper idoneus), 605b nothing is fine but what is fit, 818b things well fitted abide, 857b survival of the fittest, 338b what is fitting is honourable, 640a

Five are, to know how many, 775a

Five per cent, natural interest, 205a

Five per Cents, those martyred saints, 65a

Fixed figure, to make me a, 302b nothing, except some stars, 349a

Flagitium timet, 600a

Flagrant delicto, 533b

FLAGS

a moth-eaten rag, 442b

Flags—contd.

a war an' a debt, an' a flag, 202b all the world's flags flying, 209a an English flag, 180b banners flout the sky, 303a death's pale flag, 280a hang out our banners on the outward walls, 305b her holy flag, 167a her tattered ensign, 167a love of banners, 624b meteor of the ocean air, 167a meteor flag of England, 67b of the free heart's hope, 120b of our Union, 235a one flag, one land, one heart, 168b shone like a meteor, streaming to the wind, 216b that waves o'er every sea, 93b the bloom in' old rag, 189b the imperial ensign, 216b the old flag flyin', 238a the scaried bark, 282b the star-spangled banner, 188a were all a-flutter, 238a whose flag has braved, 67b

Flail, no fence against a, 816a

Flam, a most notorious, 51b

Flame, Chloe is my real, 259b cannot quench the, 57b feed his sacred, 85b in the standing corn, 533b its holy, for ever burneth, 337a softer, 45b

upon flame, you pour, 551b very near to smoke, 533b

Flames covered by treacherous ashes, 554a

will remove errors, 581b

Flanders Fields, the poppies grow in, 207a mares, fairest afar off, 802b note our armies worse terribly in, 342b

Flannelled fools, 190b

Flare up, and join the Union, 464a

Flash and outbreak of a fiery mind, 292a

Flashes on the surface are not he, 360b

Flat, a very dangerous, and fatal, 282b and unprofitable, 290b scenery, to disparage, 81a

Flat-irons, flavour o' warm, 112b

FLATTERY

a flattering speech contains its poison, 539b

a fool is fulsome, 720b a honeyed poison, 575b

a man would have little pleasure if he never flattered himself, 774a and praise, commend, extol their graces, 281b

and rudeness, 523b note attendant of great fortune, 570a believe no man who is profuse with flattery, 588b beware of giving ear to flatterers,

501b beware of soft and flattering sayings, 653b

brings friends, 761b coin most current, 841b corrupts, 41a

cover treachery (flatteries), 539b

Englishman flattered, 75b face-flatterer and backbiter are the same, 365a

flatterer like a friend as a wolf is like dog, 737b

Flattery—contd.

flatterers live at the expense of those who listen, 708b flatterers look like friends, 75b flatterers praise the discourse of the unlearned, 486a he cannot flatter, 306a he is rich enough that needeth not flatter, 774b he that loves to be flattered, 308a he that rewards flattery begs it, 781a how like to friendship, 486a I can stand anything but flattery, 323a I cannot flatter and speak fair, 318b if we did not flatter ourselves, none would, 790a in your own heart, flatterer, 404 is our daily bread, 134a laugh, lie, flatter, 6b lies of, 497b like a bad coin, impoverishes the receiver, 697a man gained by, 80b man that flattereth spreadeth a net, 415a (flatterer) may risk anything with great persons, 709a mean to borrow aught from, 266b monstrous in a friend, 140a natural in friends, 489a ne'er lost on poet's ear, 272a nay, do not think I flatter, 294b no remedy against the bite of a flatterer, 598a of all tame beasts a flatterer, 183b once a vice, now a custom, 686a pleasing flattery to like what other men like, 275b possible to be below flattery, 207a self-love the greatest of flatterers, 695b shall win us best, 77b sits in the parlour, 761b so much bird-lime, 685a soft and tender, 309a soft flatteries, delightful to the ear, 497b that flattering unction, 296a the arch-flatterer, 9b, 11b the bellows that blows up sin, 308b the food of fools, 347b the nurse of crimes, 143b the poison of flattery and fawning, 486a they that have good store of butter, 857a throat of flatterer an open sepulchre, 720a note to lather an ass's head is waste of soap, 861a to tout for flattery, 89b too coy to flatter, 334a too flattering-sweet to be substantial, 278b turnpike road to Fortune's door, 391a undue flatterer will censure unjustly, 744b we think we hate flattery, but we only hate the manner of it, 704a well lathered is half shaved, 717b, 867b well-timed artful flattery, 196b what you cannot obtain by virtue you can by flattery, 684b

Flattery—contd.

what flatters a man is that you think him worth flattering, 323a when the flatterer pipes the devil dances, 871a whether your flattery is worth having, 181a when I tell him he hates flatterers, 285b who flatters me to my face will speak ill behind my back, 874b who speaks me fair and loves me not, 781b with delicacy, 6b woman gained by, 80b would not flatter Neptune, 308a you cannot err on flattery's side, 348a you flatter a man so grossly, 181a Flax, smoking, shall he not quench, 417b Flea in his ear, a, 203a hath smaller fleas, 348a Fleas, great, have little fleas, 439b nothing in haste but catching, 818a the hungry, 142b Fleed in light away, she, 44b whence all but he had, 161b the shades of night, with him, 219b Flee and she follows, 260b from, yet dares not, 235b Fleece, Jason was the man brought home the Golden, 438a of a year more profitable than two or three in a year, 720a Fleeces so clean and so white, 382b Fleet, assume the command of the Channel, 332a by our bold, confined, 377a how could you doubt our, 385a Fleets, ten thousand, 56a Fleeting as 'tis fair, 160a FLESH
 all, is not venison, 732b and blood so cheap, 171a creep, I want to make you, 111b her fair and unpolluted, 297a in my, his spirit doth flow, 381a in my, shall I see God, 411b is heir to, that, 293b is weak, 662a take off, and sit in my bones, 333b tell, it is but dust, 262a the freile (man's worst foe), 152b the pound of, 283a they twain shall be one, 423a they two shall be one, 429b this too, too solid, 290b young, and old fish are best, 880a Flesh-pots, when we sat by the, 409b Flexible by consideration, 693a FLIES AND FLY busiest about lean horses, 761b busy, curious thirsty fly, 239b come to feasts unasked, 761a dead, cause the ointment to stink, 416a eagle does not catch, 843a easier caught with honey than vinegar, 761b even a fly has its spleen, 755b, 863a even the lion must defend itself against flies, 755b fills the butchers' shops with large blue, 331a flies fly not to a boiling pot, 859b

Flies and Fly—contd.

lesser flies quickly ta'en, 25a like a blue-bottle, 16a on the axle-tree, 11b that horrid fly is put to hide, 355b that turns about, 52b the blind eat many a fly, 841a these strange flies, 279a these summer flies, 277b to kill two, with one flap, 798b, 861a what a dust have I raised quoth the fly on the coach, 867b (flies), worms, and flowers exceed me still, 382b you must lose a fly to catch a trout, 865b FLIGHT
 by flight we often rush into fate, 536b flee so as not to be too far from your abode, 560b from afar to view the fly at, 259b he fled full soon on the first of June, 440b he that flies may fight again, 12a, 468b I will join thy flight, 92b in meditated flight, 273a or foul retreat, 216b we ran and they ran, 440a well fight that well fight, 866b when the crawl flees her tail follows, 871a who flees judgment confesses, 531a who retires does not fly, 875b See Fly, p. 986
 Flimnap, the treasure, 347a Fling, let him tak' his, 800b Flint bears fire, as the, 286b ne'er wear out the everlasting, 279b snore upon the, 309a Flinty and steel couch of war, 301a Flirted like a true good woman, 60a Flock, a tainted wether of the, 283a silly, where the ewe bears the bell, 704b Flocks feed not, 322b Flogging, Latin lines on, 501a FLOOD AND FLOODS
 no higher than their fountains flow, 126b that are deepest, 436a thorough flood, thorough fire, 280b into this angry flood, 285a make the dam before the flood comes, 797a summer's flood never boded good, 876b taken at the flood, 287a weak, washy, everlasting flood, 232a Floor, fell upon the sanded, 232b
 note of heaven, the, 283b the nicely-sanded, 148b Florence, brute-force shall not rule, 31b the City of, 199b Florum, tantus amor, 668b Flour, benign, 79b
 Flour, give not the flour to the devil and the bran to God, 872b of the same, 522a richness of the, will scarce appear, 391a Flourish, easier to, than to fight, 124b of his arm, Mr. Podsnap's, 115a Flourished, long she, 240b

Flourishing like a green bay tree, 433b

Flow like thee, O could I, 109a Flows, everything, 477a

FLOWERS

a collection of other people's, 691a a lovelier on earth was never sown, 393a and all that loven flowers, 80a and weeds of glorious feature, 341b anew returning, 243b appear on the earth, 416b are lovely, 87a are sacred to the poor, 394b at shut of evening flowers, 221a beautiful flowers are soon picked, 740b bees' love of flowers, 668b born to blush unseen, 153b chalcid flowers, 309a crimson-tipped flower, 45a cut down like a flower, 433a death lurks in every flower, 160a every flower enjoys the air it breathes, 390b every flower that sad embroidery wears, 226b eloquence stored from all flowers, 358a fair flower untimely plucked, 322b fairest flower that ever saw the light, 105b fields without a flower, 99b first flower of the earth, 232a gather flowers before they wither, 105b gather, while the morning shines, 519b handsomest flower is not the sweetest, 846a heart soonest awake to the flowers, 231a I am all dazed with flowers, 243b in the mead, 79b it is a bad soil where no flowers grow, 793b lightly, like a flower, 363a
 look like the innocent flower, 303b lovelier than their names, 359b may prove a beauteous flower, 278b mignonette, 100b most can raise the flowers now, 361b mysteries that cups of flowers unfold, 392a no such flower in any land, 354b nobody is fond of fading flowers, 817b O fairest flower, 227b of all hue, 218b of remarkable size, 15a of rhetoric like flowers in corn, 350a of speech, truth needs no, 104b
 note
 of sweetest smell is shy and lowly, 394b of the field, as a flower, 413a of wifely patience, 78a one flower makes no garland, 821a pleasure like the midnight flower, 230b pluck the flower, 602a pretty daughters of the Earth and Sun, 262b priests, sermons, shrines, 330b purple all the ground with vernal, 226b quaint, enamelled eyes, 226b sculptured flower, 37a

Flowers—contd.

searches for the flowers, 37a snakes among sweet flowers, 804b
note
some flowers to bloom and die, 186a stars in earth's firmament, 197a sweet will be the flower, 95b sweetest flower for scent, 326a sweetest flower that decked, 49a sweetest flower of all the field, 280a that bloom in the spring, 146b that decked, sweetest flower, 49a that once has blown, 136a that smiles to-day, 164b that their gay wardrobe wear, 226a that this day is fresher, 164b note the bright consummate flower, 220a the fairest flowers, 57b the little celandine, 392b the meanest, that blows, 401a the old sweet flowers, 352b the only amaranthine flower, 100a the pleasure which they give, 399a the Rose the Queen of, 164a the sweetest garland to the sweetest maid, 372a these beautiful and peaceful tribes, 193a to paint the laughing soil, 160a treasures of silver and gold, 69a unassuming commonplace of
Nature, 392b
what is recalled by faded flowers, 192b when offered in the bud, 382b white flower of a blameless life, 364a who gathered this flower, 444b you seize the flower, 46a Floweret of the vale, the meanest,
155b
Flowerets of Eden, some, 232b Fluctuat nec mergitur, 618b Flucy, despicable and ridiculous people always fluent, 677b fatal to many, 671b of tongue, 96a Flummoxed, reg'larly, 112a Flunky, each can make one non-
73a Flurried, most confoundedly, 15b Flute, soft, complaining, 125b what is gained by the, goes by the drum, 802a Fidēs, ajuster vos, 689a note Flutes and soft recorders, 216b Fluttered your Voiscians in Corioli, 308a
Flux of mortal things, 5b Fly betimes, then, 70a he would fain, but wants feathers, 784a
I can, or I can run, 225b if you must, fly well, 790b may fight again, those that, 52a not yet, 230b them, when we, they pursue,
143a those that run away and, 51a ye cannot, from me (love), 151b Fly (insect), see Flies Flying hedge, no, nor tarrying here, 305b horse, something in a, 394a what pursues, 287b FOE and FOES an open foe may prove a curse, 143b

Foe and Foes—contd.

a man's foes they of his own household, 422b base insulting foe, 102b bind fast her home-born foes, 351a each brave foe was in his soul a friend, 256b
fought for revenge, 335a fouls his hands with dirty foes, 51b his foes, the Devil had suborned them, 439b
I fear no foe with Thee at hand,
203b
I love to hear of worthy foes, 271a I ne'er shall find a nobler foe, 272b in heaven, would I had seen my dearest foe, 290b in the forum, in the field were friends, 370b
long inveterate, saluted, 124a ne'er ~~was~~ our foes but we wish them to stay, 141b neither seeks nor shuns a foe, 122a refuge with our direst foe, 191a so spake those wary foes, 235b tends to make one worthy man my foe, 252b the breast of a foe, 54a the erect, the manly foe, 69b the softened thought of foes, 202b they come, they come, the foe,
54b thrice he routed all his foes, 125b thus then, my noble foe I greet,
273b to honour the foe, 237b to let in the foe, 223b where breathes the foe, but falls before us, 120b who dares not praise a foe, 128b whom he laughs at sincerely, 336a Foeman's life, which spills the foremost, 271a Foemen worthy of their steel, 271b FOGS
a London particular, 114b a fog cannot be d'spelled with a fan, 720b of the good man's mind, 31b whose conquering ray may chase these fogs, 261a Foggy, is not their climate, 316b Foibles, man finds out his own in strangers, 327b
Foiled but fighting evermore, 380b Fold, climb into the, 226b Folio of four pages, 100a Folk, fluttered, and wild, 190a nought so queer as, 854a Follow, a rum one to, 387b all have the same inclination to,
576a be it your care to, 659a he will never, anything, 285b
me, 422a
thee, go on, I'll, 291b thee, I'll, and make of heaven a hell, 280b
thee, my lord, throughout the world, 278b
those before, 623a Followers: men follow quickly what is irksome to begin, 557a Follows another, one sheep, 822b but for form, 306a what, I flee, 641b
FOLLY
all my joys to this are, 49b all they've taught me (folly's), 231b and Innocence alike, 95b

Folly—contd.

and learning often dwell in same person, 762a and holiness, 23b and vice, whirled into, 363b as it flies, shoot, 248a at full-length, 81a begotten of greed, 376b brood of, without father bred, 224b concealed by silence, 663b fathomless abyss of, 100b Fortune makes a man a fool whom she would ruin, 663b Fortune's peculiar care, 81b good to profit by wrong-headedness of others, 613b grows without watering, 762a happy he who knows his follies in his youth, 771a he hath great need of a fool that plays it himself, 773a I exceed in folly all fools that are, have been, or shall be, 635b if folly were grief, every house would weep, 788b if the fool would persist in folly, 23b in a mean man, wisdom in your majesty, 211b in age is madness, 106a in youth is sin, 106a is a bonny dog, 762a is always beginning to live, 557b it is sweet on occasion to play the fool, 578a
leads to mortals' destruction, 663b long a doing, 162b loves the martyrdom of Fame, 60b
man whose youth has no follies, 90a miscalled the crimes of Fate, 257a moves me more than folly ought,
98a most incurable of diseases, 762a natural bad, enough, but learned folly intolerable, 813b of others, 150b
of the town (follies), 150a of the wise (follies), 178a of the world confounds its
wisdom, 168b
one man's folly, another's fortune, 13a oppressed by loathing of itself, 613a pretence of, sometimes highest
wisdom, 663b
Queen Regent of the world, 762a revived, 5b shielding man from effects of,
339a
short follies are best, 833b should be a man's greatest secret, 725b suffering more from, than fate, 407b the chief disease that reigns this year, 762a the pretty follies they themselves commit, 282b the reward of my folly, 624a the shortest follies are the best, 702b note
thoughtless follies laid him low, 45b wealth sanctions folly, 663b where follies naturally grow, 82a who hath not a dram of folly, 192a who lives without, is not so wise as he thinks, 853a

Folly—contd.

would folly e'er be taught, 192b Fond and not too wise, 168a as pitch, 110b I am too, 278b than she, none more, 260b Fondness for the child she bears, 96a honest, 244b

FOOD

a little kitchen makes a large house, 724a
 all day long they ate, 345a an over-filled belly will not study, 550a
 better fed than taught, 742b bread and butter are glad to eat, 857a convenient for me, feed me with food, 415a eat and welcome; fast and heartily welcome, 754b eat at pleasure, drink by measure, 754b eating and drinking take away one's stomach, 754b Englishers pernicketty about,
 390a enquire not what's in another's pot, 755a feed a pig and you'll have a hog,
 760b flavour not the greatest enjoyment, 598b
 for powder, 314b for some is poison for others, 640a for the gods (poison), 469b for the soul, 605b full belly neither fights nor flees weel, 721a God never sends mouths but he sends meat, 767a good kail is half a meal, 768b good pastures make fat sheep, 768b he will spend a whole year's rent at one meal, 784a highly fed and lowly taught, 743a homely was their food, 142b human nature's daily food, 993a if it were not for the belly the back might wear gold, 789a in their palate their only reason
 of life, 634b
 learn how little is necessary to sustain life, 516b little and good fills the trencher, 803b, 847b
 man is what he eats, 711a many a feed I no longer need, 721a meat and matins hinder no journey, 809b
 minds not always craving for food, 103b more people die by food than famine, 812a no love sincerer than love of food, 323a over-feeding has destroyed more than hunger, 582b pined and wanted food, 402b possessed with thoughts of the kitchen, 663a
 reason for living in their palate
 only, 634b
 seasoned by love will please, 674a sufficient for restoring our powers, 668b sweeter when hunted for, 664a tell me what you eat, I will tell you what you are, 692a that which maintains me I esteem as a god, 479b

Food—contd.

the table attracts more than the
 mind, 621a
 the tables move me with disgust, 614a there is much meat in God's store-
 house, 855a
 two hours daily to meals, 654a what the gauntlet gains the gorget takes, 690b when one has a good table one is always right, 706a
 when the belly is full the bones would have rest, 870b who eats and puts something by, spreads the table twice, 726b See Eating and Diet

FOOLS

a bigger fool than you look, 624a a cap and bell for fools, 96a a fool and his money, 720b a fool and his words soon parted, 327b a fool always finds a greater to admire him, 709b a fool among knaves, 343b a fool, for he would needs be virtuous, 319b a fool that will endanger his body for a girl, 281b a learned fool worse than an ignorant fool, 800a a tool knaves work with, 50b afraid of what the knaves invent, 275a
 all fails that fools think, 732b all fools are slaves, 663a almost all men are fools, 557a and knave, 46a and knave, none so busy as, 123b answer [not] a fool according to his folly, 414b are fain of right nought, 762a are my theme, 60a are not to be numbered, 663a are pleased with their own blunders, 762a are wise men in the affairs of
 women, 762b
 as the fool thinks the bell clinks, 739a at forty a fool indeed, 404a between fool and sage, 65a bite one another, 762b bolt is soon shot, 720b born fool is never cured, 783b bray a fool in a mortar, 415a by reason a mere fool, 97a call me not fool till heaven hath sent me fortune, 288b daffing does naething, 750b demands much, a greater fool gives it, 720b dull moral fool, 20b easy fool is a knave's tool, 735a every fool is a slave, 475a every fool is pleased with his own folly, 755a
 everyone hath a fool in his sleeve, 758a Fashion guide of fools, 103a fool for an hour, a dear, 163a fool not, 162b foolish men make rich lawyers, 762a fortune favours fools, 763b go in crowds, 762b God Almighty's fool, 126a God help the fool, quoth Pedley,
 766a God helps fools, 766b grow without watering, 792a hath said in his heart, 412a

Fools—contd.

hated by fools, 349a have still an itching to deride, 246b he hated a fool, 181a he is a fool who expects sense from a fool, 774a he is the fool who deals with the
 fool, 774a
 he that sends a fool expects one, 781a he that sends a fool means to follow, 781a how to discern, send naked among
 strangers, 578b
 human bodies are sic fools, 45a I hate a fool, 115a if all had baubles we should want fuel, 788a if all had white caps we should seem a flock of geese, 788a if fools went not to market, 788b if never a fool never a wise man, 367a if the fool would persist, 23b if there were no fools there would be no knaves, 789b
 if there were no fools, there would be no wise men, 790a in love, 93b (fools) in town on our side, 84b (fool) is fulsome, 720b joyous Paradise of fools, 104b knows more in his own house, 720b lade out the water, wise men take the fish, 762b let for trust, 762b maketh wise men fools, 236a may ask more than wisest can answer, 91a
 may throw a stone into a well, 720b
 (fool) me to the top of my bent,
 295a men may live fools, but fools they cannot die, 406b more fools than wise in all companies, 792b more of fool than of wise in human nature, 10a
 my coxcomb for a fool, 319b
note
 make my fool my purse, 301a nae man can play the fule sae weel as the wise man, 813b never so near playing the fool, 229a no fool like an old fool, 816a none is fool always, everyone sometimes, 817b not altogether a fool, 308b now and then right, 97b nurse of fools to stock the continent, 404b
 O, these deliberate fools, 282b of all fools, stultus stultorum, 436a of Gotham, 679b of our own woes, 5b one fool in every married couple, 135b one fool makes many, 821a only fool in the world, 34a paradise, a fool's, 90a, 103a play the fool nowhere but in 's own house, 294a prefer to be the fool—even as a matter of business, 460b rush in where angels fear to tread, 247b self-made fools, 101b

Fools—cont'd.

send a fool to market and a fool he'll return, 832a set stools, 720b shall not enter heaven, 23b should have no chappin' sticks, 762b Sir Condy has been a fool all his
days, 130a
sit on binks for fault o' wise men, 762b
sweet now and then to play the,
519a that calls his brother fool, 382b (fool) that will forget himself, 79b the game which knaves pursue, 144a the Mother of God appears to fools, 810b
the number endless, 663b the pious fool that raised it, 83a the right to be a cussed fool, 202b there are more fools than Firk, 854a there is a greatest fool, 72a think benefits to be bestowed, 496b this great stage of fools, 307a tie knots, wise men loose them, 762b to make me merry, 289b to reason with a fool, a fool, 365b to suckle fools, 301a to talking ever prone, 143b twenty-seven millions mostly fools, 73b
two in one house is over many,
864b vous êtes un sot, en trois lettres, 710a what fools these mortals be, 280b who at fifty is a fool, 94a who came to scoff, 148a wise enough to play the fool, 298a wise man knows the fool, fool does not know the wise man, 812b wise men learn by fools, 12a, 448b (fool) with judges, 98a world made up of fools and knaves, 324b, 376b you will always be fools; we shall never be gentlemen, 460b zeal found mostly in fools, 880b Foolery, as much as I have, thou lackest wit, 308b what a little, governs the world, 275b, 458b
Fooling thee, she is, 200a Foolish thing, who never says a, 264a
to do a thing already done, 663b wit, better a witty fool than a, 297b Foolishness, a man that hideth his,
421a penalty we pay, someone else suffers, 346b Foolometer, precaution of a, 332a Foolscap uniform, 58b Foot: See "Feet and Foot" Foot and hand go cold, 345a FOOTBALL
all are fellows at, 732a, b muddled oafs at the goals, 190b two-and-twenty hirelings, 275a two to one is long odds at football, 865a Footfalls, sound of tiny, 38a Footing, give me a, I will find elbow room, 765b no, seen, 320b

Foot-licker, for aye thy, 311a cannot swear like a lord, 350a Footprints on the sands of time, 197b soil has felt the, 68a Footsteps, terrifying, none returning, 681b
Footway, the rule of the, is clear as the light, 440a Fop, six-foot column of, 173a the solemn, 98a Fops help nature's work, 126a Roman, chowers of tooth picks, 565b a pretty man is a paltry man, 631b Foppery atones for folly, 100b youth over-occupied about the outward man, 551b
For Ever, that vast, 189a note Forebearance, by, you are borne with, 532a ceases to be a virtue, 39b Forbid the sea for to obey the moon, 310a
us thing, 77b Forbidden fires, an altar for, 255a food, so great a hunger for, 675a wares, 109a we strive for what is, 595a FORCE a nation so right that it does not need force, 460b a way is made by, 533b argumentum baculum, 492a authority by, less enduring than authority by goodwill, 523a because persuasion fails, 35b blind force less effective than reason, 621b
blind wildbeast of, 360b brute-force shall not rule Florence, 31b by force Freedom ne'er overcome, 370b destitute of counsel force fails, 685a
Force n'est pas droit, 810b Gods hate force which incites to crime, 685a
he delights in forcing doors open, 601a is not a remedy, 25b makes by force his merit known, 362b neither force shall check nor time abate, 395a no argument but, 29a no force but argument, 29b no force can bend me, 255b no force can strain a cord absolutely straight, 385b nor his natural force abated, 410a of arms, he claims all by, 562b patience will achieve more than force, 41b
prayers backed by arms, 624a the battle is not to the strong, 416a vi et armis, 681b we may repel force with force, 683a what force cannot effect, 103b where force hath failed, 82a who gives blows is master, 783a who overcomes by, 216b without counsel fails, 752a why such force should fight such strength, 209b works on servile natures, 183a your force move us to gentleness, 288b Forced on anyone, she cannot be,
520b
Forcibly if we must, 262a note

Ford, praise not, till you are safe over, 827a praise the, as you find it, 836b Forecast is better than work-hard,
763a Forefathers, in the manner of our,
544a Forehead, right in the middle of her, 447a
Foreheads villainous low, 311a FOREIGN AND FOREIGN LANDS a slow poison, foreign air, 59b by foreign hands thy dying eyes were closed, 254b countries, the more I saw of, the more I admired my own, 705b dominion by no means stable, 487b gore, streams of, 317a manners, foreign vices, 144b policy and ways, keeps his praise for, 368b when abroad live in the manner of the place, 869b Foreigners spell better, 83b See Strangers
Foreknowledge absolute, 217b nothing can be desired without,
594b Foremost leads the flock (or herd), 889, 714a
man of all this world, 286b were none who would be, 206b Forensic war, champion in, 96b FORESIGHT
a manly quality, 473a avysment is good before the nede, 876b candle before lights better than candle behind, 841a foreseen, the blow comes more lightly, 624a gude foresight furthers the work, 770b he is wise who looks ahead, 648b I have anticipated all things, 611b if people take no care for future they will have to sorrow for the present, 789a look before you leap, 804b note look before you, or you will have to look behind, 805a make the dam before the flood comes, 797a measure thrice before you cut once, 809b to foresee—that is the fine thing, 861b who lives well sees afar off, 780a who looks not before finds himself behind, 780a
wisdom consists in, 560b wise man on his guard against what is to come, 640b Forest below London Bridge, 267b charms, grace of, 396a primeval, 198a some go through a, and see no firewood, 836a Forests have ears, 199b See Woods
Foresters, Diana's, 313a
Forestall his date of grief, 225a Forethought better than repentance,
473b
Forever, Man has, 33a
Forewarned is fore-armed, 623b,
763a Forewarnings: buildings creak before they fall, 669b Forgery: a draught on Aldgate pump, 455b what none can prove a, 100b

FORGETTING, FORGOT, etc.

all earth forgot, 231b all the rest for which he toiled forgot, 321b and if thou wilt forget, 266a as a dream dies, 382a better forget and smile than remember and be sad, 266a death and forgetfulness, 337b dream that I forget, 351b endless striving to forget, 330a forget me not, 240a forget-me-nots of the angels, 198b forgetful of your own people, 542b forgotten of all men altogether, 351a
fool that will forget himself, 79b heart that has truly loved never forgets, 231a his toils, his wants, were all forgot, 271b I cannot forget what I wish to forget, 575b
I never can forget the charm, 196a in the night-time I shall not forget, 351b
knew we should both forget, 352a lest we forget, 189b on which to write forget me not,
443a
the blue significant forget me not,
170a no need to say forget, 193b no such thing as ultimate forgetting, 110a not in entire forgetfulness, 401a (forget) not, nor think shame, 353a sometimes it is expedient to, 526a sweet forgetfulness, 607b sweets of forgetfulness, 19b teach me the art of forgetting 447b the best sometimes forget, 301b the hardest science to forget, 255a the world forgetting, 255a to dumb forgetfulness a prey, 154a to fall forgotten, 137b to find forgetfulness in thine, 57a two months ago and not forgotten yet, 294b we felt we should forget them, 394b we forget so much, 107a we have forgot more than we remember, 866b
were it not better to forget, 192b when we forgot (God), 381a who loves well is slow to forget, 706b

FORGIVENESS

a powerful man who forgives is more powerful, 581a brave only know how to forgive, 343b delighteth to forgive, 43b forgetting wrong is a mild revenge, 763a forgive any sooner than thyself, 763a forgive that you may be forgiven, 676b forgive them, they know not what they do, 425a forgiving the unrepentant is like pictures on water, 763a have courage even to forgive, 196a he that sharply chides pardons most readily, 781a he who asks forgiveness should grant, 486b
I forgive you, and you can't help yourself, 114b
is beautiful, 683a

Forgiveness—contd.

it is human to forgive, 547a man's forgiveness give—and take,
136b our lot gives you occasion for forgiveness, 651b pardon much to others, nothing to yourself, 548b
the best of what we do and are forgive, 395b the noblest revenge, 849a the sweetness of forgiving, 387a to forgive divine, 247a note to forgive everyone is cruelty, 626a to, is good, 352a to forgive our enemies their virtues is the greater miracle, 703a to the injured doth belong, 128b to understand is to forgive, 691a
note
we are bound to forgive an enemy, not to trust him, 790a where no fault is there needs no pardon, 873a wrongs darker than death (to forgive), 326a
Forlorn, full sorely is my heart, 327a glimpses that would make me less, 394b
no purpose to look so, 136b Form, bad, to think, feel, or have an idea, 346b fain would I dwell on, 278b most awful, 86a of life and light, 56b of sound words, 430b
that unmatched, 294a the mould of, 294a this Heaven-laboured, 405b what is, 94a was of the manliest beauty, 110b Forma pauperis, in, 551b Forms, two hurrying, 3b Formality : all things are preserved in legal form, 611b Former things are passed away,
432a Formosissimus annus, 604b Formulas, chants and, 70b completely cased with, 73a Forsake me in the end, do not, 116a Forsaken, when he is, 171a Forsworn, so sweetly were, 300a Fort, hold the ; I am coming, 457b of life, deliver up our, 212a Forth, the mazy, 395b Forties, the roaring, 455b Fortiori, a, 482a
Fortitude, matchless, 227a Fortress, built by nature, 312b Fortuna, deam, nos facimus, 579b Fortuna miserrima tuta est, 673b Fortuna non mutat genus, 566b Fortunate alone are the wise, 844b man has no small share of envy, 472a persons are deprived of common sense, 634b
to be, is more than a God, 479b worship the, 531a FORTUNE and FORTUNES a good man's, may grow out at
heels, 306a
a name for God, 585b
a pipe for Fortune's finger, 294b a son of fortune, 535b a very poor fortune is a safe one,
535a a wise man makes his own, 648b a woman, fortune, 161a abides not long in one place, 616b

Fortune and Fortunes—contd.

adverse, wont to reveal genius,
555b all my fortunes at thy foot I'll lay, 278b
alters with change of conduct, 535b although my hap be hard, 345a always favours fools, 144a an ounce of, worth a pound of Forecast, 736b and hope, adieu, 50a and Hope, farewell, 214a and Love favour the bold, 494a as you bear good fortune, we shall esteem you, 678a be not elated by, 472a blast, the more secure from fortune's, 19b breaks down the counsels of the learned, 502a buffets and rewards of, 294b came smiling, 128a can only take what she gave,
763a carried on the wheel of, 595a champion of, 311b comes to meet us, 599a commandress of the world, 95b confidence misplaced when the gods are adverse, 542b (conform to) the wheels of, 8b cruelty of, 535b dangers of great fortune, 570a delights to sport with human affairs, 542b
divides rewards unequally, 606b do not try her too often, 474b does not alter birth, 566b dropped on Fortune's hill, 191a each hath his fortune in his breast, 341a
eternal war with, 19a even nature discarded in pursuit of fortune, 668b even in fame, 64a every man maker of his own, 342a, 528b every man's manners fashion his fortune, 665a
everyone author of his own good, 758b evils have their comforts, good none can support, 792b extremes of, wisdom's test, 105a favours fools, 763b favours the brave, 763b fears occasioned by good fortune, 452b fickleness of, 317a follows the more worthy, 535a footsteps of fortune are slippery, 568a fortune's fool, O, I am, 279b found himself in losing, 330b found more easily than retained, 535b founder of his own, 138b furious fickle wheel of, 316b giddy round of fortune's wheel, 321b giddy wheel of, 240b gifts of, 78a gives too much to many but enough to none, 535a, 763b good and bad necessary to make a man capable, 696b good fortune companion of valour, 684b good fortune forgets father and mother, 716b
good fortune is never good till it is lost, 768a

Fortune and Fortunes—contd.

good or bad, does not last for ever, 763*b* good, though wicked were their mind, 340*b* good: venis secundis, 680*a* good, which is unnoticed, 529*b*
note
 great, a great bondage, 535*a*, 570*a*, 722*b* great, brings with it great misfortune, 769*b* greatest height of, mount to, 345*b* had not the method of making a fortune, 155*b* harder to find a man who bears good fortune well, 470*a* has exhausted her powers against me, 552*a* has no reason, 763*b* hath no name in Scripture, 29*a* he dances well to whom fortune pipes, 772*a* he owes his fortune to himself, 656*b* he that gets gear, before wit, is but a short time master of it, 777*b* he's a good man whom fortune makes better, 784*a* helps the brave, 534*b* helps the dazing, 494*a* her humorous ladyship, 31*rb* his fortune has perished, 686*b* hostages to fortune, 9*b* I praise Fortune while she lasts, 564*b* fill fortune an incentive to genius, 555*b* in moderate, fewer dangers, 527*a* inconstancy of, 17*a* is glass, broken when brightest, 535*b* is like a widow won, 334*b* keeps faith with none, 687*a* knocks but fools do not answer, 763*b* learn to bear a great fortune well, 496*b* let us follow, and turn our course where she bids, 587*a* like a mill-wheel; now you are at top, then at bottom, 763*b* makes Folly her care, 81*b* makes fools of her favourites, 535*a* may fortune be restored to the wretched and depart from the proud, 644*a* more by fortune than by merit, 308*b* my present blessings exceed any apprehension, 571*b* no beauty without fortune, 134*a* no less sensitive to good than to evil, 652*a* no one is loved unless fortune favours him, 516*a* not a worthy end of being, 8*b* not the very button on fortune's cap, 292*b* not satisfied with one injury, 535*a* nothing avails against, 841*a* of war, 455*a* one look of, 24*b* one man's folly another's fortune, 13*a* our good fortune flees of its own accord, 602*a* out-frown fortune's frown, 307*a* outrageous, 293*b* overcome by bearing it, 638*a* Pepys on his fortune, 243*a* polar frost of, 47*b*

Fortune and Fortunes—contd.

railed on Lady Fortune, 288*b* raises people as a joke, 527*a* rules all, 212*b* rules life, 685*b* sells what we think she gives, 818*a* sharp adversity of, 79*a* shows herself more kind herein, 283*b* spares many for future punishment, 535*a* taken at the flood leads on to fortune, 287*a* the amiable fortune, 80*a*
 the braver the man the more fortunate, 668*b* the care of great fortune is wretchedness, 578*a* the contrarie fortune, 80*a* thee, Fortune, I follow, 669*a* their private fortune small, 625*a* those who attribute all to, 666*a* threatens when meaning good, 31*rb* till heaven hath sent me fortune, 288*b* to be conquered by endurance, 683*a* to carry one's fortune upon one's body, 638*b* to fortune and to fame unknown, 154*a* too much good fortune is bad, 862*b* tumbling (fortunes) into some men's laps, 8*b* unrelenting foe to love, 37*rb* we are corrupted by good fortune, 531*a* we make Fortune a goddess, 579*b* weary to carry the same person always, 763*b* what fortune has made yours is not yours, 598*a* what fortune has raised she has raised to throw down, 635*a* when fortunate beware of adversity, 509*a* when fortune favours, 126*a* when Fortune knocks, open the door, 869*a* when Fortune smiles, embrace her, 869*b* when Fortune smiles, take advantage, 869*b* who can trust stability of, 631*b* who has muckle would aye have mair, 778*a* who has no ill-luck gets tired of good, 778*b* who has not known ill fortune, 371*b* who lets slip, 95*a* wise man out of reach of, 730*a* with a fortunate man all things are fortunate, 471*a* wont to change suddenly, 484*b* worst fortune safe because nothing worse can befall, 673*b* would have made his fortune in any land, 552*a* wretched estate of men by fortune blest, 76*a* you will find that sunny days have been more frequent, 656*b* your bread is buttered on both sides, 880*b* your fortune will be at your tail, 761*b* See Luck
 Fortune-hunter, no character so contemptible, 151*a* Fortune-teller, a threadbare juggler and a, 276*a* Fortune-telling: for the past she knew, 193*b*

Forty, a fool at, 404*a* at, man knows he is a fool, 405*a* every man at, is a fool or physician, 757*a* feeding like one, 393*a* judgment reigns at, 153*a* who is not rich at, never will be, 779*b* years on, growing older and older, 441*a* Forward, each gentleman and knight, 273*b* forward let us range, 359*a* looking mind, 402*a* not permanent, 291*a*

those behind cried, 206*b* view, the rapture of the, 213*b* when we move not, we go backward, 211*a*

Fou for weeks thegither, 46*a*

I wasna, 43*b*

we are na, 48*a*

Fought, a cause to be, not pleaded, 212*b* and lost, better to have, 85*a* each other for, what they, 336*b* with us side by side, 383*b*

See Fighting

Foul as Vulcan's stithy, 294*b* deeds will rise, 291*a*

I thank the gods I am, 289*b* strange, and unnatural, 291*b* to fair, better hap to worse, 338*a* Foulest wares, show our, 298*b*

Fouls, small, singis on the spray, 120*b*

Fouls his hands with dirty foes, 51*b*

Found, he has not been, 598*a* so lately, and so abruptly gone, 222*b*

Foundation against the time to come, 430*b*

Fount of evils, 534*a*

Fountain, Eternal, of that heavenly Beauty, 341*a* is clearest at its source, 844*b*

Fountain-head, for clear water go to the, 844*b*

Fountains mingle with the river, 327*a* of justice in nature, 8*b* seek in the evening, 573*b* silvery column, 87*b* themselves are athirst, 534*a* Fourscore and upward, 307*a* Fourth estate, the, 205*b*, 456*a* Foutra for the world, and worldlings, 316*a* Fowl, tame villatic, 224*a*

Fowls maken melodye, 76*b*

Fowler caught in his own snares, 512*a*

Fowler's pipe sounds sweetly, 533*a*

Fox, Charles (Burns on), 45*b* eloquence of, 245*a* tribute to, 41*a*

Fox, Henry, 206*a*

FOXES

an old fox hardly caught in a snare, 721*a*

an old fox needs not to be taught tricks, 736*a*

as long runs the fox as he feet hath, 738*b*

at last the fox is brought to the furrier, 755*a*

at length the fox turns monk, 739*b*

Brer Fox, he lay low, 157*b*

Foxes—contd.

choose to be the tail of lions rather than head of foxes, 742b don't sell the skin till you've caught the fox, 747a every fox looks after his own skin, 755a every fox must pay his own skin, 755a fox fares best when most cursed, 844b fox knew much, but the cat knew one great thing, 581b, 845a fox knows much, but he that catches him more, 844b fox's wiles will never enter the lion's head, 845a foxes have holes, 422a has many resources, the hedgehog one, 492b it is ill to make a hunting horn of a fox's tail, 819a, 879a knows not a fox from a fernbush, 793b let each fox take care of his own brush, 800b like a fox, grey before he is good, 784a lion's skin to be eked out with fox's, 451b little foxes that spoil the vines, 416b never dies in his own ditch, 721a not taken twice in same snare, 721a nothing falls into mouth of sleeping fox, 793b skin of, sewn to lion's, 510a sleeping fox catches no poultry, 851a the fox changes his skin but not his habits, 844b note though the fox run, the chicken has wings, 858a what the lion cannot do, the fox can, 834b when the fox preaches, take care of the geese, 871a who hath a fox for mate needs a net at his girdle, 778a who would deceive the fox must rise betimes, 782a you cannot make a hunting-horn of a fox's tail, 879a Fox-follower, a mere, never reclaimed, 98a Fraction, thou wretched, 71a Fragments, gather up the, 425b Fragrance rise, from thy dead leaves let, 385b Frailties, draw him, from their dread abode, 154a too, he has, 99b Frailty as of faith, as full of, 137b one of the tempted, not one of the strong, 244b some might suspect the nymph not over-good, 404b thy name is woman, 290b wink at human frailty, 2a Frame, Thine this universal, 219b whatever stirs this mortal, 85b Framers of my nobler being, 88a FRANCE
 a meadow that cuts thrice a year, 763b an absolute monarchy, tempered by ballads, 697a Britain and Rome (and France), 703b faithless France, vain disturber of mankind, 370a famed in arts, 4b

France—contd.

foaming grape of eastern France, 363a gay sprightly land, 147b King of, went up the hill, 446b la grande nation, 697b land that has taught us 685 ways to dress eggs, 233a lilled fields of France, 67a long a despotism tempered by epigrams, 699b note que mon nom soit filétri; que la France soit libre, 706a send a fool to France and he'll come a fool back, 832a that sweet enemy, 330a they in France most select' (in apparel), 291a they order this matter better in, 343a threatening France, 122a un peu de chaque chose, et rien du tout, à la française, 790b who would France win must with Scotland begin, 782a with all her vines, 99b See French
 Franchise, will, feed you, 354b Frankfort, went to, and got drunk, 258a Franklin, B., inscription on, 522b note epitaph of, 140b FRANKNESS
 a man should think so that anyone might inspect his mind, 657a "Frank and explicit," 116a frank, haughty, rash, 204b no wisdom like, 116b these things by reason of friendship I have not concealed, 540b FRATERNITY
 or death, 692b soyons frères ou je t'assomme, 708a FRAUD deals in generalities, 518a evil men incited to fraud by very small gain, 498a evil peculiar to man and the more hateful to God, 715b none can bring an action on his own fraud, 589a not committed on those who know and assent, 536a not frauds, unless deliberate, 518a pious fraud, 369a, 620a note pious fraud of amorous charity, 255a pious fraud transparent grown, 386b pious frauds, well stored with, 39b safe in no hiding-place, 604a secret frauds, 14b shall devise fraud, 103b that leaves a sting, 74a to conceal fraud is fraud, 536a Fray, by decision more embroils the, 218a eager for the, 83a latter end of a, 314b no, shall be without him, 143b they hate to mingle in the filthy, 370b Freak of nature (lusus naturæ), 569a Freckled fair, thou, 100a Fred, here lies, 445b Frederick II, stupor mundi, 664a Frederick the Great, Macaulay on, 206a last words of, 697b FREE
 as mountain winds, 311a

Free—contd.

be wise and you will be, 188b discussion (free) settles questions, 205a he is not, who draws his chain, 774a he is, who lives as he chooses, 471a if thou wilt, be, 351b in soul, 364a inferior, who is free, 221a is any free but he who may lead the life he wishes, 490a land of the free, 69a life no charm for him not free, 231a lives and lips (free), 353a man is free the moment he wishes, 449b may speak free, 227b no one perfectly free till all are free, 338b or die, we must be, 397a say I am free, 522b souls, we that have, 295a speech, happiness of times when speech was free, 642b to hoe free from the yoke, 525a very free of another man's pottage, 878b we seem so free, 33a who would be free, 54a whom the truth makes free, 101a yearning to be free, 379b Free-thought, from superstition to, 25a Free Trade not a principle, 118a one of the greatest blessings, 205a unpopular, 205a
FREEDOM
 all we have of, 190a an English subject's prerogative, 124a and arts, 254b and curteisye, 76b
 balanced between licence and slavish order, 398b bad in excess, good when moderate, 448b banner (freedom's) streaming o'er us, 120b battle, freedom's, 56a bounds of, wider yet, 356b cause of, 24b classic line (Freedom's), 68b dying well for freedom, 68a everything subject to, 40b false, bonds of, 122a from her mountain height, 120b fought and bled in Freedom's cause, 174a hand in hand with labour, 387a he sighs for, 259a impregnable redoubt (freedom's), 396a is a noble thing, 15a is on the mountains, 710a law alone can give, 710b less freedom, more hero-worship, 338b lion-banner (freedom's), 69a love not freedom, but licence, 228a man is free the moment he wishes to be, 449b necessary to genius, 215a necessity, plea for infringement of freedom, 245a no true, without virtue, 188b none can love freedom but good men, 228a not a freedom where all command, 208b of state caused by self-government, 503a

Freedom—contd.

once thy flame has fled, 231*a* our pain, 123*b* pray you use your freedom, 210*a* raised her beautiful bold brow, 356*b*
 regained my freedom with a sigh, 58*a*
 shrieked, 66*a* slowly broadens down, 357*b* sober-suited, 357*b* that sober, 361*b* the seed of freedom's tree, 68*a* this unchartered freedom tires, 400*a*
 thy banner torn, 55*b* to transmit, to their children, 158*b* to worship God, 161*b* white-mancipation, 172*a* who stands if Freedom fall, 190*b* See Free

Freely, the lady shall say her mind, 293*a*

Freeman, casting with unpurchased
 hand, 167*b*
 whom the truth makes free, 101*a* Freeman's right to speak his thought, 257*a*

Freemen, corrupted, 142*a*

who rules o'er, 179*b*

Free-thinkers pests of society, 268*a* Freeze the blood, to, 393*b*

FRENCH

actors and English compared, 21*a* all Frenchwomen know a little cookery, 708*b* are too serious, 343*b* authors, 115*b* distribute medals, 230*a* duck with French nods, 318*b* guanoed her mind with French novels, 117*a*

I praise the Frenchman, 98*b* impossible is not French, 694*a* Jack would be a gentleman if he could speak French, 798*a* language of insincerity, 346*b* of Paris, 76*b*

she spak ful faire, 76*b* speak in French when you cannot think of the English, 119*b* that's French, I fancy, for a hat, 16*b*

the brilliant Frenchman, 96*a* the Frenchman's darling, 100*b* three Frenchmen upon one pair of English legs, 316*b* tongue, the speech of the clear, 234*b*

wine, some are fond of, 209*a* wise after the deed, 846*b* wiser than they seem, 10*b*

Frenzy, demonic, 221*b*

Fresh, a free, a friendly man, 152*a* Freshness, the eternal youth of admiration, 396*a*

Fret, it is a folly to, 794*a* me, though you can, 295*a*

Fretful, so, you cannot live long,
 314*a*

Friar of orders grey, 243*a* preached against stealing, 845*a*

Friars, eremites and, 218*b* white, black, grey, with all their trumpery, 218*b*

Friday, finest or foulest day of the week, 764*a*

on a Friday fell all this meschance, 78*b*

the wicked that eat fish a Fryday, 784*a note*

who sings on Friday will weep on Sunday, 779*b*

Fridays in the week are never alike, 763*b*

on Fridays now it shineth, now it raineth, 763*b*

FRIENDS and FRIENDSHIP

a certain friend recognised in an uncertain business, 489*a* a friend in the market, 721*a* a friend is a second self, 489*a* a friendly man, 152*a* a friend's frown better than a fool's smile, 721*a* a good friend, but bad acquaintance, 63*a*

a good friend is my nearest relation, 722*a* a hundred are too few, 821*a* a loving friend better than admiring foes, 207*a* a man is known by his friends, 724*b*

a man may see his friend need, but not bleed, 725*a*

a man who is his own friend will be a friend to all men, 634*b* (friendship) a name, 595*b* a new friend is as new wine, 820*a* a pretended friend, 143*b* (friendship) a prodigal, love a miser, 695*b*

(friendship) a sheltering tree, 87*a* a friend should bear his friend's infirmities, 286*b* a soul remembering my good

 friends, 312*b*

a true friend is another self, 681*b* a true friend is nowhere to be found, 681*b*

a true, openeth the heart, 10*b* a true, the greatest blessing, 210*b* a woman friend, 139*a* absence sweeteneth friendship, 175*a*

admonish friends in private ;

praise in public, 651*a* after friend departs, 229*a* all are not, that speak fair, 732*b* all things are in common with friends with, 473*b*, 489*a*, 504*a* an empty name (friendship), made to deceive, 373*a* an old friend in a new house, 736*a* and company a bad excuse, 764*a* (friends) and fortune quite disown, 44*b* and love intertwined, 231*a* and truth, a moment cut off from thy, 165*b*

(friendships) are all monsters,
 350*b*

are like fiddlestrings and must not be screwed too tight, 764*a* as a man is friended, 25*b*, 737*b* as year by year we lose friends, 187*a*

be slow in choosing, slower in changing, 740*b*

better a stranger made friend than a friend made stranger, 742*a*

better be friends at distance, 742*b* better harsh foes than seeming friends, 624*a*

best of, fall out, 172*a* best of, must part, 840*b* best way to keep friends is never to lend or borrow, 699*b* between two friends two words, 744*a*

blunt man, that love my friend, 286*b*

bound by similarity of studies and disposition, 650*b*

Friends and Friendship—contd.

broken friendships may be sowthered but never sound, 745*b*

call you that backing of your friends, 313*b*

cast off, as a huntsman his pack, 149*a* conceal what causes shame to a friend, 641*a* constant in all but love, 284*a* constant whilst wealth endures, 676*b*

could not see my friend, 16*b* courageous foe better than cowardly friend, 719*a* dangerous as enemies, 110*a* dear friends shall meet once more, 197*a* dearest friends must part, 404*a* deceit under friendship's name common and safe, 673*b* defend your departed friend, 125*a* delightful to go mad over a friend restored, 643*b*

difficult to have all men friends, 610*a*

difficult to replace true friends, 681*a*

disappear in misfortune, 670*a* disappear with the dregs of empty wine casks, 516*a* do not change your friends, 691*a* do not have a swallow (a summer friend) under your roof, 543*b* (friendship) does not consist in saying "What news?" 764*a* dwelling of an ancient friend, 547*a*

each friend snatched from us, a plume plucked, 405*b* easier lost than found, 721*a* eat a bushel of salt with a man before making him a friend, 741*a*

(friendship) esteem, and fair regard, 273*a* eternal, friendship, enmities mortal, 580*a*

even to the altars, 489*b* ever serviceable, 489*a* every sacred name in one, 258*a* everybody's friend is nobody's, 758*a*

everywhere friend-making, friend-finding soul, 31*b* excels relationship, 623*b* eye (friendly) could never see such faults, 286*b*

faint friends, cruel foemen, 340*b* faint neutrality the best we can hope for, 373*a* faithful are the wounds of a

 friend, 415*a*

faithful friend the medicine of life, 420*a*

faithful friend, true image of Deity, 450*a* faithful friends hard to find, 17*b* faithless in sharing the yoke, 516*a* false and friendly, 200*a* false friends waur than bitter enemies, 760*a* few friends and books many, 94*b* fewer friends and more enemies and you would have been better, 790*b*

flattery like to friendship, 486*a* flattery natural in friendship, 489*a*

flee a poor man, 77*b* forbade you (a king) to have a

 friend, 184*a*

forsake not an old friend, 420*a* ends and Friendship—contd.

friend in court makes the process short, 721a friend in court worth a penny in purse, 721a friend in need a friend indeed, 721a friend's meat is soon ready, 721a friends of the unfortunate are far off, 684a friendship gone if good will is taken away, 664b friendship is but a name, 143b, 149b friendship is but a word, 212a friendship that flames goes out in a flash, 764a friendship valued according to usefulness, 673a
 full of men, empty of friends, 545a gained, 'twas all he wished, a friend, 154a generous friendship no cold medium knows, 257a genial friendship, 168a give up time to friends, 643b go up the ladder to choose a friend, 809a good friend, for 'Jesus' sake forbear, 446a grapple time to thy soul, 291a grow not thick on every bough, 405b happy he whose friends were born before him, 771a have few friends, though much acquaintance, 771b he cannot be fervent in love who is not a little cold in friendship, 772a he does good to himself who does good to his friend, 656a he dreads friends more than foes, 81b he is a table-friend, 523a he is my friend that grinds at my mill, 774a he overcomes who yields to friends, 601b he quits his place well that leaves his friend here, 776a he was my friend, faithful and just to me, 286a he who betrays his friend, 348a he who has a thousand friends, 131b Heaven protect me from a blundering friend, 368b hedge between keeps friendship green, 723a her dear five hundred friends, 99b his friends as Angels I received 'em, 439b his best friends hear no more of him, 327a how often the oldest friend is the best, 629b I am my only friend, of all my friends, 470b I am the only one left of my friends, 521b I had rather have such men my friends, 287a I have chid away my friend, 311b I love my friends well, but myself better, 787b if I had a friend that loved her, 301a if I have done my duty as a friend I do not deserve praise, but am merely free from blame, 655b

Friends and Friendship—contd.

if thou require a soothing friend, 240a if you bear with faults of, you make them your own, 489a in danger if woman interferes, 375b in every mess I find a friend, 110b in every place, 45a in my retreat, grant me a, 98b in need, 17b in youth, they had been friends, 86b is another self, 488a is it not right to prefer friends to relatives, 629a it is good to have friends in heaven and hell, 795b it is not tint that is done to friends, 796b it's poor friendship that needs to be constantly bought, 797b keep friendship in constant repair, 179b keep thy tongue and keep thy friend, 79a, 798b know a friend's customs, but do not dislike them, 579b last while fortune lasts, 509a law of friendship, neither to ask nor do anything dishonourable, 540b les amis de mes amis sont mes amis, 701a let not the grass grow in the path of friendship, 800b let our friends perish if our enemies perish with them, 619a let us swear an eternal friendship, 141a life is to be fortified by friendship, 332b life without a friend is death, 801b like desires and dislikes make friendship, 548a like mushrooms, spring unexpected, 764a like that of Theseus and Perithous, 670b little friendship between equals, 111b long absence changes a friend, 804b long and faithful friendship, 620b loss of friendship the greatest of injuries, 489a lost by calling often and calling seldom, 764a love refined, 75a love the life of friendship, 175a love the marrow of friendship, 175a love without his wings, 59b, 764a makes no friend who never made a foe, 365b man that hath friends must show himself friendly, 414a man's character depends on whether his friends are good or bad, 724b many friends, few helpers, 807b many friends as long as you are prosperous, 518b many friendships lost by silence, 581b many in general, one in special, 771b may be made of an enemy, 527a may God make them not so happy as to forget us, 809b may meet but mountains never, 764a

Friends and Friendship—contd.

may the wing of friendship never moult a feather, 113a mine own familiar friend, 433b money spent on a friend and comrade is gained, 552a more shameful to distrust than to be deceived by friends, 693a most friendship is feigning, 289a my never-failing friends are they, 336a mysterious cement, 23a nae friend like the penny, 813b nae man can be happy without a friend, nor sure of him till unhappy, 813b name of friend is common; faith in friendship rare, 688a nature teaches beasts to know friends, 308a no enemy to match a friend (in predicting evil), 347b no friend for a friend, 481b note no friend at hand to console me, 600a no life without, 658a no such thing on earth, 373a no true friendships, 13b none dearer than after war and wreck, 195a note none, where there can be no freedom, 854b nor a friend to know me, 344b nor every friend unrotten at the core, 405b not a friend to close his eyes, 125b not bought at a fair (friendship), 764a not so easily made as kept, 269a not the multitude, but the worth and choice, 183b nothing better can be purchased, 489a nothing better than a friendly man who is really a friend, 582a nothing dearer than a serviceable friend, 592a nothing more gallant than a tardy friend, 669a nothing preferable to a pleasant friend, 593b nothing so dangerous as an ignorant friend, 707a number and choice of friends, 94a O friends, there is no friend, 481b of every friendless name the friend, 178a of him who has no friend, 229b of itself a holy tie, 124b of man (friend), 47b of many friends there are few on which a man can rely, 617a of many friends scarce two or three are left, 687a of my better days, 156b of my youth, 56b note of the unfriended poor, 326b old friends are best, 820a old friends burn dim, 87a on my list of friends, 101a one damned good natured friend or another, 328b one had need be very much his friend, 102a only a wise man is a friend, 660b (friendship) only between equals, 76b, 167a only in name, 420b only made in wine, 364b only way to have a friend, 132b our friend of friends lies full of rest, 266a

Friends and Friendship—contd.

our long web of friendship I'll untwist, 211*b* path of social advancement strewn with broken friendships, 384*b* pious frauds of friendship, 135*b* pot friendship, 609*a* powerful men's friendship undesirable, 519*b* prosperity has many friends, 531*a* proved like gold in the fire, 650*a* purse-strings the most common tie of friendship, 850*a* reconciled friend a double enemy, 727*a* (friendship) redoubleth joys, 10*b* regard your friend as one who may become your enemy, 489*a*, 560*b* (friends), Romans, countrymen, 286*a* sacred and venerable name of friendship, 549*b* save me from my friends, 831*a* save me from the Candid Friend, 60*b* should be few and good, 745*b* should not be all on one side, 764*a* similarity of manner the surest tie, 484*b* similarity the mother of friendship, 475*b* so assured a friendship that we could be silent, 160*b* some friends, whom he loves dearly, 336*a* something left to treat my friends, 208*a* something not displeasing in the adversity of our best friends, 691*b* speak to thee in friendship's name, 233*b* speak well of your friend, and of your enemy nothing, 837*a* stately, kindly, lordly friend, 353*b* stronger than kindred, 764*a* such miracles below (friends), 405*a* sudden friendship, sure repentance, 838*a* sudden friendship usually followed by repentance, 664*b* suitable friends, 567*a* summer friendship, 211*b* summer friends, flies of estate, 164*a* sunshine of the world, 660*a* sure friend known in a doubtful matter, 721*a* swallows, types of false friendship, 543*b* table friendship soon changes, 838*b* thanks to my friends for their care in my breeding, 382*b* that sticketh closer than a brother, 414*a* that well-recorded friend, 6*a* that wisdom knits not, 298*b* the best elixir, a friend, 334*b* the best friends are in the purse, 840*b* the best mirror is an old friend, 840*b* the great chain of human society, 175*a* the number of his friends was fatal, 513*a*

Friends and Friendship—contd.

the original friends o' the nation, 202*a*
 the pot boils, friendship lives, 532*a* the privilege of private men (friendship), 355*a* the real safeguards of a kingdom, 598*a* the rich knows not who is his friend, 850*b* the wine of life, 405*b*
 the worst friend and enemy, 26*a* there is scarcity of friendship, but not of friends, 854*b* they are not friends who dwell far away, 601*a* thieves of time (friends), 489*a* though grieved at defection of my friend I praise him, 629*b* thread of life dark without friendship, 231*a* three firm friends, 87*b* thy friend hath a friend, and his friend hath a friend, 859*a* (friends) tie their purses with spider's thread, 806*a* to advise and to be advised (friendship), 525*a* to everybody is friend to nobody, 721*a* to my life, 252*a* to reprove a friend justly, an action without reward, 583*b* to the friendless, 85*b* treasures, always friends, 87*b* troops of friends, 305*b* true friendship rare among public men, 680*b* twins of friendship, 138*a* usque ad aras, 676*b* want of friends, 25*a* waver if property totters, 656*a* way of friendship gone, 163*a* we can live without friends but not without neighbours, 866*b* we must love as looking one day to hate, 866*b* weary of friends, 350*b* what a thing friendship is, 32*b* what is friendship but a name, 149*b* what trusty treasure can counter-vail a friend, 156*a* when fails our dearest friend, 191*a* when friends meet, hearts warm, 869*b* when making new friendships cultivate the old, 602*a* when two friends have a common purse, 872*a* who finds himself without, is like body without soul, 874*b* who lost no friend, 252*a* will be packing when good cheer is lacking, 870*a* will sacrifice a friend for a laugh, 534*a* worth all hazards, 405*b* wounded in the house of my friends, 419*b* you regard your friend's trouble as your own, 564*b* you will have many if rich, few if poor, 470*b* Friesic saying, 769*a* Frieze, nothing wear but, 225*b* Fritter, fit as a, 738*a* Fritters, best, that ever I ate, 242*b* Frivolity, gay without, 5*a* irresponsible, 118*b*

Frog, no p'int about that, 83*b* thinks the well a fine stretch water, 845*a* Frog's croak betrays him, 845*a* Frogs, eagle does not war against, 843*a* to give water to, 660*a* Frolics, a youth of, 251*a* Front, his fair large, 219*a* of Jove himself, 295*b* Fronti credere, 595*b*

FROST

a killing frost, 320*a* and snow together, sit by the fire, 463*b* autumnal frosts enchant the pool, 344*b* first and last frosts are the worst, 844*a* frosty but kindly, 288*b* hurts not weeds, 845*a* in frost walk slow, 463*b* on window-panes, 152*a* then it friz and then it thaws, 443*b* thou bitter-biting frost, 44*b* Froth is not beer, 764*b* FROWN and FROWNING a casual frown, 23*b* convey a libel in a frown, 347*b* dismal tidings when he frowned, 148*b* frowns, words, and threats, 317*b* gathering blackness of the frown of God, 381*a* hell itself grew darker at their frown, 217*b* her frowns are fairer than others' smiles, 85*b* men's frown or smile, 55*a* must not repel a lover, 320*b* nor dread his frown, 273*a* when he frowns, 403*b* with cynic frown, 93*a*

FRUGAL and FRUGALITY

a frugal swain, 169*a* includes the other virtues, 644*b* is an estate, 764*b* she had a frugal mind, 98*b* the science of avoiding needless expense, 615*b* without frugality none can be rich, 180*b*

Fruges consumere nati, 601*b*

FRUIT

a little fruit a little while is ours, 353*a* best fruits slowest in ripening, 841*a* born to consume fruits, 601*b* boughs that bear most hang lowest, 841*a* cannot eat fruit while tree is in blossom, 116*a* eyes of master ripen the fruit, 640*a* forbidden fruit is sweetest, 763*a* give them fruit for their songs, 3*a* greater relish for rare, 642*b* I should have known what fruit, 55*a* is seed, 764*b* Italy parent of fruits, 648*a* judge a tree by fruit, not by leaves, 536*a* kindly fruits of the earth, 432*a* late fruit keeps well, 799*b* like ripe fruit thou drop, 221*b* little wood, much fruit, 804*a* much fruit little fruit, 812*b* neighboured by fruit of baser quality, 316*a* fruit—contd.

 none worse than fruit that never ripens, 856a one ripe fruit between two green, 727b
 pluck at the fruit which passes, 627b plucked from tree, more pleasant than taken from a dish, 525a ripens not so well in the shade, 764b ripest first falls, 312b September blow soft till the fruit's in the loft, 832b sweeter after dangers, 519a that can fall without shaking,
 229a when all fruit fails, welcome haws, 869a when all the fruit is gone, 130a when it is expensive, 244a who would have the fruit must climb the tree, 782b ye shall know them by their fruits, 422a rumenty-kettle, simpers like a, 833a rying-pan, out of, into the fire, 823b says to the kettle "Avaunt, black-brows," 850a udge, Mr. Burchell would cry out 151a uel, adding to the flame, 223b, 609a easier to build two chimneys than to keep one in fuel, 795a ugitive, the mighty bliss is, 127a uji, even, without beauty to one hungry and cold, 755b ull as an egg of meat, 738a cup is hard to carry, 721a heart lied never, 721a length, folly's at, 81a none says his garner is full, 818a when the belly is, the bones would have rest, 870b without o'erflowing, 109a uller's Worthies, 398b umber's hall, free of, 784a uncus officii, 537a undus mendax, 513b FUNERALS
 a very poor funeral after all, 130a after the funeral a feast, 731b baked meats, funeral, 290b fancy to see my own funeral, 130a grief (funeral) loathes words, 108b griefless as a rich man's funeral, 119a happy the corpse the rain rains on, 771a
 his obscure funeral, 296b I'd appoint your funeral tomorrow, 27b mirth in funeral, 290a no noble rite, no formal ostentation, 296b
 not a funeral note, 391b of rich and poor, 509a pomp of funerals more for vanity of the living than honour of the dead, 698a rather a consolation to living than any service to the dead, 509b sermon (funeral), lying sermon, 764b tears from different causes rise, 406b Funny as I can, never dare to write as, 167b

Furies, the, mean well, 116b Furnace, heat not a, for your foe so hot, 319b Furor arma ministrat, 537a Furor leuconicus, 537a Furrow, the lonely, 460a through the long, 89b Further, hitherto shalt thou come, but no, 412a off the more desired, 346b speak; I'll go no further, 291b we go, the further behind, 845a Fury boiled, his, 127a full of sound and, 305b in your words, I understand a, 302b of a patient man, 123b the blind, 226a Fussy, benevolent people apt to be,
 160b
 Fust in us unused, to, 296a FUTILITY
 a child pursuing a flying bird, 470a it is no good planting boiled potatoes, 796a it's ill killing a crow with an empty sling, 797b never bolt your door with a boiled carrot, 814b no use pumping a dry well, 797b shoeing the goose, 764b, note thou hast dived deep and brought up a potsherd, 812b to teach a fish to swim, 796a FUTURE
 a day to come shows longer than a year gone, 719b avoid enquiry about, 637a all its hopes of future years, 198b build for the future, 50b dipt into the future, 358b dulness of men who do not look to futurity, 606b fill to the future, 172b giant mass of things to come, 298b Gods have laid futurity out of our reach, 275a he plants trees serviceable in future ages, 653b, note his to make, not share the morrow, 383b hope, doubtful of the future, 662a if any distant age will credit such a work, 655b
 If people take no care for the future, they will sorrow, 789a ignorance of future ills better than knowledge, 502b in the distance, 14b interests me more than present, 117b is dark, 325b it is of no avail to know what shall be, 586a learn the future by the past, 66a leave the future to divine Providence, 8a
 let the mind of man be blind as to the future, 659a light-minded and careless of the future, 665b mind anxious about future is miserable, 499b never-ending flight of future days, 217a
 not careless of the future, 616a she knew the future, for the past she knew, 193b

Future—contd.
 sorrows to come seek wisely to prevent, 384a spin thy future with a whiter clue, 257b sure, 396a that a man might know the end of this day's business, 287a that promised land, the future, 177a the indefinite future (paulo post futurum), 617a the possible is immense, 700b the sweet air of future, 402a the wise god conceals the future, 626b there is a good time coming, 854b time to come no more ours than time past, 852a trust no future, 197b unlawful for man to know what the morrow may bring, 635b unlawful for us to know, 672b venerable to future ages, 42a we know not what we may be,
 296a what advantage to ask of the gods the issue, 666b wise man is on his guard against what is to come, 640b
FUTURE LIFE, 50b
 a land of souls, 53b another world for all that live and move, 335b expatiates in a life to come, 248a is there no bright reversion in the sky, 254b
 it is an old belief, 197a many of us with very gloomy thoughts about our hereafter, 160b nescio quo vado, 687a
 souls can never die, 107a
 ten thousand doubts arise, 107a the dead are where the unborn are, 628b
 the undiscovered country, 293b we feel that we have ever been,
 356a what shall become of man so wise, when he dies, 275a Futuri improvidus, 565b Futurity: Infinite Morning, the, 1a futurity shift for itself, 334a Fuzzy-Wuzzy, 'ere's to you, 189b

G

Gab-machine, the two-legged, 202b Gabriel John, it's all one to, 445b Gad, a troop cometh, 409a Gaiety of nations, eclipsed the, 179b without eclipse, 356b GAIN and GAINS an itch and disease for gain, 649b cannot be made without someone's loss, 568a everyone fastens where there is gain, 758a
 evil gains, 511b evil, are ruin, 473a evil, equivalent to losses, 474a fettered to the oar of gain, 133b forgotten pains, when follow gains, 763a God bless all our gains, 30a good is the smell of gain, 568a gotten by a lie will burn one's fingers, 764b
 growing old with love of gain, 550a hard got, soon gone, 771b I grudge not at another's gain,
 436a

Gain and Gains—contd.

ill-gotten gains work evil, 478b ill-gotten is as bad as a loss, 568a ill-gotten will be ill spent, 572a intent on worldly gains, 335a light gains, 11b light gains, heavy purses, 801b lust of gain, 363b moderate gains fill the purse, 803b multitude grasp at gain, 475b no gains without pains, 816a not all useful to man, 597a small and frequent gains better than large and seldom, 801b some make gain a fountain, 97a subverts another's gain, 362b (gain) the whole world and lose his own soul, 423a they seek to spend, and then regain to spend again, 628b while a man gets he never can lose, 874a
 who has muckle would aye have mair, 778a
 who seeks gain must incur expense, 588a with ill report gain is loss, 510b unbribed by gain, 345b

Gait, fashion his, according to calling, 139a forced, of a shuffling nag, 314a goddess known by her, 554b laxer in their, 331a of Christian, 294b

Gaiters, lax in their, 331a

Galabad clean, nor, 365a

Galatians, text in, 36b

Galba, words of, on his beheadal, 655a

Gale, the lightning and the, 167a

Galée (or galère) vogue la, 709b, note

Galère, en vogant la, 709b, note

Galère, que diable alloit-il faire dans celle, 706a

Galilean, thou hast conquered, O, 456a thou hast conquered, O pale, 351a Galileo, blind to, 33b the starry, 55b

"Yet it does move," 715a

Gall, a dash of, 165b enough in thy ink, 293a lack, to make oppression bitter, 293b little, spoils much honey, 724a of bitterness, in the, 426a of gentle souls, 29b

Gallantly great, 242b

Gallantry atones for every vice, 100b Galled horse, touch a, 862b jade wince, let the, 295a

Galligaskins, my, 243b

Gallio cared for none of these things, 426b

Gallop apace, you fiery-footed steeds, 279b to, and to trot the ground, 121a

Gallows, his complexion is perfect, 310b

Galumphing back, went, 112b

Gamaliel, at the feet of, 426b

GAMBLING and GAMING and lying go together, 764b and wine, sinfulness greater than their use, 565a blasphemed his gods, the dice, 253b child of avarice, parent of despair, 764b devil is as gude to beginners, 842b dice level distinctions, 140a felon of his wealth, 94a

Gambling and Gaming—contd.

gamesters and racehorses never last long, 764b gaming, mother of lies and perjuries, 764b gaming, women, and wine, make men pine, 764b he that plays his money ought not to value it, 780b inherent in human nature, 40b man is a gaming animal, 192a one begins by being a dupe, and ends as a rascal, 704a play, women and wine undo men, 825b the better the gambler, the worse he is, 487b the devil invented dicing, 487b the gambler continues losing lest he should lose, 657a young gambler an old beggar, 731a

See Betting, Play

GAME (Birds, etc.) cheaper in market than in fields and woods, 764b preservers, idlers, 73b waste men's lives for game, 188b

GAME and GAMES a silly game where nobody wins, 791b at the game's end we shall see who gains, 739b every way makes my game, 302b grows cold without danger, 877a he will play a small game rather than stand out, 784a he's up to these grand games, 53a little pleasure of the game, 259b lookers-on see most of the game, 805a moved by an unseen hand, 363b no game so desperate, 356a no game worth a rap (without danger), 151a not shameful, but it is shameful not to have left off, 586b not worth the candle, 845a of state, 52a one false move may lose, 821a play the game, 238a the rigour of the game, 191b who never actually played the game, 275a

Gammon and spinnage, 114a

Gaol, all that we know who be in, 389b

Gaolers and gallowses, 309b

Gape long enough, you may, ere a bird fall into your mouth, 879b

Garb, but not their clothes, did wear, 109a

Garde meurt et ne se rend pas, 697a

GARDENS, GARDENERS and GARDENING a man and a woman in a garden, 388b a piece of ground with a garden, 544a a terrace-walk, 255b Adonis' gardens, that one day bloomed, and fruitful were the next, 317a and groves, 395a as is the garden such is the gardener, 738b charges of making are unknown, 746a Cheapside (or the market) is the best garden, 848a come into the garden, Maud, 363b cultivate your garden, 449a, 690b fear keeps the garden better than the gardener, 760b Gardens, Gardeners and Gardening—contd.

full of flowers, 193b full of leaves and flowers, 78a full of weeds, 446b God first planted a garden, 11b, 94a God in gardens, 27a in her face, 3b, 69b [242b] in trin gardens takes his pleasure, is a lovesome thing, 27a more grows in the garden than the gardener has sown, 812a nearer God's Heart in a, 156a no ancient gentlemen but gardeners, 290b she went into the garden, 440b small house and large garden, 94b spacious garden full of flowering weeds, 357a summerhouse in the back-garden, 111b the first men in the world were a gardener, ploughman and grazier, 844b the grand old gardener, 357b, note this rule of gardening ne'er forget, sow dry and set wet, 857b 'tis an unweeded garden, 290b we must cultivate our garden, 690b who loves a garden loves a green-house, 100a valued more for birds than fruit, 3a

Garfield, President, 241a, note

Garland and singing-robcs, 228b of the war, 307b sweetest, to the sweetest maid, 372a

Garlands are not for every brow, 764b

Garments, by the soul laid by, 199a look at her, 169a stuffs out his vacant, 311b though new-fangled ill, 322a

Garret, born in the, 60b

Garrick, David, 149a Garrick's death, Johnson on, 179b

Garter, familiar as his, 316a mine host of the, 287a

Garth did not write his own Dispensary, 247b

Gas-meters, lying like, 455b

Gate, Anguish keeps the heavy, 389b at one, to make defence, 223b of death (janua leti), 561b of Eden, a Peri at the, 232b of Hades open night and day, 529b this gate hangs high, 440a

Gates are past, 232b of a wealthy man speak, 606a of light, unbarred the, 220a those dark, across the wild, 361a

Gath, tell it not in, 410a

Gathered, not harshly plucked, 221b when two or three were, 123a

Gathering where thou hast not strawed, 424a

Gaudia, interpone, 558a

Gaudy, rich, not, 291a

Gaul, insulting, 370a

Gaunt was he as a wolf, 169b

Gauntlet gains, what the, the gorget takes, 690b

Gave, Lord, and the Lord hath taken away, 411a what we, we have, 444a

Gay, but with dignity, 543b I would not, if I could, be, 265a innocent as, 405b to see all nature, 269b

Gaze and gape, one, 34a let them, 279b ze, O let me, of gazing there's no

end, 408a
azed on it so long I see its truth, 395a azelle, I never nursed a dear, 232b azing at him, everybody, 112a ben ist Sache des Reichen, 712b denke zu leben, 454a GESE and GOOSE a goose among the melodious swans, 492a, 666a are swans, 4b, 734a
as deep drinketh the goose as the
gander, 738a
every goose lays before St. Chad, 741a every man has a goose that lays golden eggs, 798b gae shoe the geese, 764b, note goose, gander, gosling, one thing, 769a goose goes to the kitchen so often she is at last fastened to the spit, 849b goslings lead the geese, 769a he cannot say boh to a goose, 348a, 772a
he that eats the king's goose, 777a it is a sorry goose that will not baste herself, 794b muckle hid meat in a goose eye, 855a no goose but finds an honest gander, 255b
sauce for the goose, sauce for the
gander, 868a
shall the goslings teach the goose to swim, 839b steal the goose and give the giblets in alms, 837a steals the goose from off the common, 439b stuffing is good for geese, 838a that lays the golden eggs, 798b to cry bo to a goose, 348a where you should be foxes you are geese, 307b wild goose at play, 98b winking like a goose in the rain, 802a wished for a goose's neck, 695a,
note
lebt und geliebet, ich habe, 713a em of purest ray, 153b of the sea, first, 232a ms, consult daylight as to, 505b gay in, and wanton dress, 222a rich and rare were the, 231a mitus columbe, 537b, note nealogies, endless, 430a GENERALITIES
crafty men deal in, 749b deceit lurks in, 536a fraud deals in, 518a general and abstract ideas cause of greatest errors, 702a general discourses, 2b general notions generally wrong, 229a generalising age, theories of a, 117a glittering generalities, 133b glittering and sounding, 133b, note
nothing so useless as a general maxim, 205b spacious liberty of, 8a thousands equally were meant, 348a wholesale judgments are loose and imperfect, 709a

GENERALS

a general should have clean hands, 451a greatest, behave extravagantly in prosperity, 643b greatest, he who makes fewest mistakes, 243b, note I made all my generals out of mud,
450b our only General, 457b Generation, every, needs regeneration, 755a
GENEROSITY
a generous action is its own reward, 378a
a generous man has his companion still, 264b be just before you are generous,
740b easy to be generous with other people's property, 529a essential in love, 20b generous as well-bred, 98b give and spend and God will send,
765b giving is dead and restoring very sick, 765b immoderate, leads to ruin, 555a liberal with another man's leather, 511a men are generous with what costs them nothing, 810a poor and liberal, rich and covetous, 826a
some make gain a fountain, 97a
the hand that gives, gathers, 765b the more he cast away the more he had, 39a they who give have all things, 765b truly generous is truly wise, 169a vanity bids her sons be generous,
343b we love people for the good we have done them, 438a who opens it (his hand), 163b Genesis, set you square with, 33b Genitum se credere mundo, 587b GENIUS
a great aptitude for patience, 73b, note, 699b, note a mind of diviner pattern, 555b a secret to itself, 72a all of genius that can perish, 60b bright and base genius, 407a can only breathe in atmosphere of freedom, 215a creates genius, 839a deathless honour waits on, 555b does what it must, 205a eccentricities of, 112a Edinburgh a hotbed of, 334b every man maker of his own, 528b excites, talent convinces, 205a first and last requirement of, is love of truth, 110b fostered by industry, 555b great geniuses generally melancholy, 451b
has somewhat of the infantine, 35a
he made other men appear dark, 537b
ill fortune an incentive to, 555b in reverend gown, keeps its owner
down, 349a
industry will improve genius; industry will supply, 263b invents, wit only discovers, 711a is capacity for taking trouble, 764b is intuitive talent for labour, 764b is patience, 764b

Genius—contd.

is sublime folly without taste,
707a mainly an affair of energy, 765a married to science, 339a memory of, is immortal, 550a no great genius without madness, 451b, 604a
nothing but labour and diligence, 765a of no country, 81a often hidden in obscurity, 677b one part inspiration, three parts perspiration, 765a prosperity wont to conceal, 555b punishment of men of ability, 627b rejects custom, 570b rules and models destroy, 159b sees too far in advance, 263a the few whom genius gave to shine, 154b the power of lighting one's own fire, 765a
the transcendent capacity of taking trouble, 73b the true genius a mind of large general powers, 180a under a rough exterior, 493a unless a genius, best to aim at being intelligible, 159a useless without grit, and a patron, 590a
when respectable? 30a
Genius loci, 537b
Gentle in personage, 70b Gentil, he is, that doth gentil dedis,
78a
man, the grettest, 77b Gentil-women, confusion of, 80a GENTILITY
cottage of, 87a nor stand so much on your, 183a nothing but ancient riches, 765a stand upon your gentility, 183a to boast of, 50a without ability is waur than begging, 765a GENTLE and GENTLENESS a gentle heart is tied with easy thread, 721b a gentle tongue is a tree of life, 567a
and low, her voice was ever soft, 307a
blood will gentle manners breed, 341a
gently goes far, 759b let gentle blood show generous might, 273b mind by gentle deeds is known, 340b of speech and manners, 664b power of gentleness, 35b shall force (gentleness), 288b some power in gentleness, 243b spirit bestows rank on women, 244b though gentle yet not dull, 109a to others gentle, to himself severe, 264b to please the gentle and the good, 397b too gentle in your nature, 542b GENTLEMAN and GENTLEMAN a gentleman myself one of these
days, 111b
a kinder gentleman treads not the
earth, 282b
a nation of gentlemen (Scotland), 441b ain't a man, 323b and scholar, 45a

Gentleman and Gentlemen—contd.
 bears him like a portly gentleman, 278a bears not alive so stout a gentleman, 314b from top to toe, 65a God Almighty's gentlemen, 123a God rest you, merry gentlemen, 438b grand old name of gentleman, 363a gude breeding and sillier mak our sons gentlemen, 770b he is a gentleman, 17a it is not the coat makes the gentleman, 796a Jack will never make a gentleman, 798a king cannot make a gentleman, 42a like two single gentlemen, 90b manners and money make a gentleman, 807b merchant the best gentleman, 108b Nature had written gentleman, 64b necessity imposed upon, not to disgrace their kindred, 817b of an old Worshipful gentleman, 438a prince of darkness is a gentleman, 306b, 346b since every Jack became a gentleman, 318b spoiled iⁿ the breeding, 25b stainless gentleman, 365a such true breeding of a gentleman, 63a that which you call a gentleman, 104b the first true gentleman, 108b the gentlemen were not seamen, 207a true heroic English gentleman, 29a we shall never be gentlemen, 460b wealth makes gentlemen of rakes, 108a well-born, well-dressed and moderately learned, 496b what's a gentleman but his pleasure, 868b when you have said gentleman, 105a who lives ill is a monster in nature, 709a who was then the gentleman, 252b, note, 869a who would be a gentleman let him storm a town, 876a without living is like a pudding without suet, 721b written by, for gentlemen, 367a written legibly on his brow, 90b Gentlemanliness, another word for intense humanity, 267b Gentlewoman deeply wronged, 365a
Gently, goes far, 759b
 Time hath laid his hand, 199a down hill; put on the drag, 332a Genus irritabile vatum, 581a Geographers in Afric maps, 348a Geology, ethnology, 33b Geometria ponderat, 538b Geometric scale, by, 51a Geometrician, God is a, 475b Geometry: let none but a geometer enter, 467a no royal road to, 856a the only science, 166b George the Third was king, when, 62a

George IV, handsomest prince, 367b George Dandin, vous l'avez voulu, 710a George do it, let, 800b George, laissez faire à, 800b George, St., he was for England, 438a the dragon he hath killed, 438a GERMANS
Deutschland über alles, 711b
 Kaiser (German), 275a
 let them re-learn the Law, 191a life too short to learn German, 241b man who first tried German sausage, 783a, note no little German state, 361b say ve for we, 170b the German's wit is in his fingers, 845a understand nothing of spirit of man, 385a we (Germans) shall never be gentlemen, 460b wee German Lairdie, 440a wise in the deed, 846b German to the matter, 297a Gesture, in every, dignity and love, 220b is too emphatic, 32b Gestures, he entreats her by, 541a Get, the strongest, surest way to, 313a to live, 162b what he may not, 79b Getting and spending more than he deserves, 344b and spending, we lay waste our powers, 304b Getting-on, Gospel of, 323a Getting-up not so easy as lying, 170b GHOSTS
 an ill-used ghost, 23a applaud the hollow ghost, 4b each frustrate ghost, 35b it is an honest ghost, 292a (ghost), kelpie, wraith, 69a Margaret's grimly ghost, 435b never speak till spoke to, 15b of dead renown, 408a only come to those who look for them, 712b pale ghosts that darkling roam, 186a there needs no ghost come from the grave, 292a to move among a world of ghosts, 360a vex not his ghost, 307a what beckoning ghost, 254b Ghouls, they are, 246a Giant mass, baby figure of the, 298b GIANTS
 a pang as great as when a giant dies, 299b excellent to have a giant's strength, 299b fling but a stone, the giant dies, 155b great giants work great wrongs, 169b in the earth, 409a the giant (Sleep) is very gentleman, 374a there are giants to slay, 213b Triskaidekapechus (13 cubits high), 480a Gibes and flouts and jeers, master of, 118b now, where be your, 297a Giddy, he that is, thinks the world turns, 276b

Giddy-paced times, brisk and, 297b GIFTS and GIVING a gift both rare and dear, 470a a little given seasonably excuses a great gift, 724a a long expected gift is sold, not given, 772b a man's gift makes room for him, 725b a new year's, 287b a poor gift, poor thanks, 682b a sinful soul possessed of many gifts, 357a a small token of no small friendship, 616a a wife is the gift of heaven, 255a adore my gifts instead of me, 164a all strive to give to the rich man, 733b are often losses, 870a are sometimes losses, 765a as a precious stone in the eyes of him that hath it, 414a base to receive and not give, 133a be careful to whom you give, 508a better give the wool than the sheep, 743a bis dat qui cito dat, 772b, note blesteth him that gives and him that takes, 283b blind the wise and pervert the righteous, 870a break a rock, 765a captivate men and gods, 583a charitable bequests seem to be ambition, not charity, 540b charitable man considers the cause of giving, 497a covet earnestly the best gifts, 428a crying, Give, give, 415a desire earnestly the greater gifts, 428a do not accept all gifts, 477a doubly acceptable if spontaneous, 497b each man worthy of regard according to what he brings, 630b enhance the gift with words, 583a enter without a wimble, 765a every bestowal of office makes a hundred discontented and one ungrateful, 708b every good, and every perfect gift, 430b evil is the gift which takes away our liberty, 870a gave a greater gift than thou, 258b generous man pays for nothing so much as gifts, 845a gift-gaff a good man, but soon weary, 765a gift-gaff makes gude friends, 765a gift for which I thank thee not, 58a gift, from God descended, 32a gift much expected is paid, not given, 775b gifts from a kindly hand better than from a full hand, 488a gifts from chance, 4b give a thing and take again, 765b give all thou canst, 399a give and forgive, 186b give and it shall be given you, 511a give and spend and God will send, 765b give and take, 470a give money to a grateful man, 859b gives from a sense of duty, 201b gives what's oft refused, 104a

Gifts and Giving—contd.

giving is an honour, asking is a pain, 765b God loveth a cheerful giver, 429a God's gifts, 31a grants construed against the giver, 628b great gifts are from great men, 769b great gifts sent out as bait, 583a heaven's best gifts soonest bereft, 401a, note he gives honour who gives gifts, 765a he gives twice who gives quickly, 497a he giveth twice that gives in a trice, 772b he that gives me small gifts would have me live, 777b he that gives thee a capon give him the leg and wing, 777b he that's long a-giving knows not how to give, 783a he who has given to-day, may take it away to-morrow, 631b he would give at once, lest he should seem to refuse, 662b how much blacker those who have not given, 201a I fear the Greeks when bearing gifts, 638a in prospect of death, 518b it is a clever thing to know how to give, 507a it is not right to take away gifts, 765b
 keep your ain fish-guts to your ain seamaws, 798b let the wish of the donor be observed, 687a liberty of more value than many gifts, 870a love given unsought is better, 298a men give like gods, 299b make their way, 765a make us love your goodly gifts, 308b men endowed with highest gifts, 401a money is a beautiful gift, 627a more blessed to give than to receive, 426b never look a gift horse in the mouth, 814b no one gives what he has not, 588b none more precious than good advice, 768a (give) not by halves, 212b nothing costs so much as what is given us, 818a of enemies, are not gifts, 472a
 of fortune, 78a
 of that which is not to be given, 397a of the gods, not yet understood, 607a one gift well given recovereth many losses, 821a one take this better than two I will give, 822b par don on a pardon, 705a persuade the gods, 470b (give) plentifully, 432b presents endear Absents, 192a presents keep friendship warm, 827b promises engage more effectually, 828a ready to give, glad to distribute, 432b

Gifts and Giving—contd.

retained too long not thankfully received, 556a rich gifts wax poor, 294a scorned where givers are despised, 124b steal the goose and give the giblets in alms, 837a thankless gifts of fools and prodigals, 625b the best is the intention of giver, 583a the deadly gift of Minerva, 518b the hard gives no more than he that hath nothing, 846a the petition of an empty hand is hazardous, 877a the vesture of Syloson, 667a their evil, would harm us, 265b there are diversities of gifts, 428a they add charm to gifts by words, 496b they are gude that gies, 857a they are welcome that brings, 857a they gave and took great gifts, 235b they have the gift to know it, 288b thy perfect gift, 221b to give and have doth a wise brain crave, 860b to make two friends with one gift, 799a, 861a 'twas all he had to give, 264a value of gifts must vary as the givers, 365b we do not quite forgive a giver, 133a what better gift than to the poor, 375a what is bought is cheaper than a gift, 746a, 870a what shall I give, 636a what shall I give in return for such a song, 628b when givers prove unkind, 294a when the pig's proffered, 871b when they give you a heifer make haste with the halter, 871b which the author has made precious, 483b who gives quickly gives twice, 556b who gives to all denies all, 874b wicked man's gift hath a touch of his master, 729b win her with gifts, 281b with a hook concealed in them, 664a worthy of Apollo, 583a See Giving
 Gifted, divinely-, man, 362b Gittie gie us, the, 45a Giggler is a milkmaid, 163a Gigmania, 454a
 Gigmens and men, 72b one of the four classes of Society, 454a Gild refined gold, 311b Gilly-flower sweet, and so are you, 462b Gilpin, John, 98b
 Ginger shall be hot i' the mouth, 297b Gingerbread, it takes the gift off the, 797a Giotto's tower, 199b Gipsies, as, do stolen children, 81b, 328b we own the right of roaming, 267a Gipsy politics, 24a Girdle, love below the, 817b round the earth, 280b

GIRLS

a credit to any good girl to be neat, 355b a good wench needs no land, 722a a maiden is a tender thing, 364b a thousand, do not charm me, 599a an unlesioned girl, unschooled, unpractised, 283a and glass always in danger, 730a courted in your girls, 93b fair maidens wear (need) nae purses, 760a feeble in mind, as in body, 676b first a girl and then a boy, 447a fitted for girls; a ladies' man, 627a for a girl that loves him not, 281b gentle maidens do not often deceive, 647b girl I left behind me, 455b learn (love of money) before their alphabet, 544a maidens must be meek until married, 806b maidens must be seen and not heard, 806b maids want nothing but husbands, 806b might flout and scout me, 266a not glorious to deceive a girl, 530a of Rome as numerous as the stars, 642a one of those little prating girls, 127b sweet girl graduates, 360a take heed of a young wench, 838b the girl herself is the least part of herself, 615b there was a little girl, and she had a little curl, 447a too green and idle for girls of nine, 310a we all love a pretty girl, 22a when she was a girl, 168b will be girls, 159a you speak like a green girl, 291b Give and Givers: See Gifts Giving, a little more, a little less greed, 443b Godlike in, 233b luxury of, 130b much to the poor enriches a man's store, 734b too little, 69b, note vein, I am not in the, 319a vein, the duke is in the, 211a Gizzard, asked him for, 15b
 Glad did I live and gladly die, 344b even to draw their breath, 236a nae wish but to be, 44b of yore, we have been, 400a Gladiator lie, I see before me the, 55b taking counsel in the arena, 538a when wounded, forswears fighting, 649b Gladiators' salutation, 495b Gladness, in our youth begin in, 393b of her gladness, 18a Gladstone, W. E., Carlyle on, 70b hope of stern and unbending Tories, 205b Glance, he had that merry, 270a his, was stern and high, 206b that, but for the street, a clinging kiss, 364b Glances, small half shut, 232b stolen, 62a Glass, an excuse for the, 328b but she made mouths in a, 306a drink not the third, 162a honest man may like a, 47a houses, those who live in, 859b

Glass, in the church, 162b o' the invariable, 112a of fashion, 204a we see through a, darkly, 428b Glass's edge, over the, 33b Gleam, the visionary, 401b Glean, thou shouldst but, 172a Gleba ascriptus, 538a Glee of martial breast, 269b Glimmering, mere, and decays, 376a Glimpses that would make me less forlorn, 394b Glitter, awhile they, 24b Gloaming is, what the, 66a Globe, all that tread the, 37a itself, the great, 311a of death, the hissing, 57b Gloom of the grave, illumines the, 59b teach light to counterfeit a, 224b weather is beautiful, "but we shall suffer for this, by-and-by," 333a
 Glooms, welcome kindred, 370a Gloria in excelsis, 538a Gloria mundi, sic transit, 657b, note Glorious by my pen, I'll make thee, 230a humanely, 68b Tam was, 46a uncertainty of the law, 207b GLORY
 a loud sound of braying, 840b all incited to study by desire of,
 546b all thy goodly glory, 353a and empire tempting to women, 105a
 and fame to be renounced for public advantage, 538a and honour as goads, 13a and the nothing of a name, 61b and the scandal of the age, 239b brighter orbs in glory's sky, 67a built on selfishness, 96a (glories) but pleasing dreams, 140a desire for glory will prevail, 683a desire of, laid aside by the wise in old age, 522b dies not, 37b do all to the glory of God, 428a drags both humble and high-born, 651a eternal weight of glory, 428b field of, a field for all, 254a fill thy breast with glory, 162b follows virtue like a shadow, 538a follow glory and it will flee, 762a for a woman, a splendid mourning for lost happiness, 697a go where glory calls, 153a go where glory waits thee, 230b has a boundless stimulus, 549b he will have, who despises, 538a his descending glory, 40a how difficult the safe-keeping of glory, 542b
 how quickly passes the glory of the world, 607b how shall we rank thee upon glory's page, 230b I am in no haste, if glory will but come after my death, 655b I cared not for glory's rose, 352a in plain path of duty, 205b into glory peep, 375b is the sodger's prize, 49b it is not mine to glory, 538a left him alone with his glory, 391b let others write for glory or reward, 240b
 like a circle in the water, 317a (glories), like glow-worms, afar off shine bright, 384a

GLORY—contd.
 low in glory's lap, 229b lust of glory, 226a, note may thus be the height of your glory, 514a measured by glory his life was
 long, 620b
 morning gate of, 3b
 my glory like a shooting star, 312b
 no path of flowers leads to glory, 689b not slight, though the matter is,
 553b nothing so expensive as glory, 333a obtained without bribes, 592a of Homer, Cæsar and Napoleon, 66a of our blood and state, 329a of their times, 421a or the grave, 68a our aim is glory, 210b path of duty, way to glory, 361b paths of glory lead but to the grave, 153b seldom comes, till a man be dead, 165a shows the way, 195b so doth the greater glory dim the less, 284a
 so great is their love of glory, 668b so he ought to enter into his glory, 560b so much glory and so much shame, 205b so passes the glory of the world, 657b, note
 sudden glory soon goes out, 838a taxes, the inevitable consequences of glory, 333a that full meridian of my glory, 320a that shall be revealed, 432a the excess of glory obscured, 216b the fierce wretchedness that glory brings, 308b
 the glory and the dream, 400b
 the glory of the coming, 174b the glory of the deed shall remain, 156a the heaven of glory, 23b the reward that sole excites glory, 222b there hath passed away a glory from the earth, 400b this many summers, in a sea of
 glory, 320a
 those glories come too late, 437b to form a nation's glory, 58b to them that die, 68a true glory strikes roots and spreads, 680b uncertain glory of an April day, 281a up the mount of glory, 229b victory always glorious, whether due to chance or skill, 715a walked in glory and in joy, 393b walking in an air of glory, 376a way to glory by miscarriage foul, 100a what is right inseparable from
 glory, 512a
 when can their glory fade, 361b when shall the world forget thy glory, 380b
 who pants for glory, 253a years quench not thirst of glory, 222b Glove, iron hand in velvet, 453a upon that hand, that I were a, 278b

Gloves, gowns and, 172a of steel, with, 271b Glow, a glorious, 64b felt the friendly, 45b the self-approving, 49a Glow-worms, glories like, 384a on a summer's night, 398b Glück macht Mut, 712b GLUTTONS and GLUTTONY
 a pig of Epicurus's flock, 522b cunning in devising glutton luxuries, 555b gluttons, slow-bellies, 469b hence deaths and intestate old age, 543b
 kills more than the sword, 539a, 766a
 over-feeding has destroyed more
 than hunger, 582b
 reason for living in their palate
 only, 634b
 swinish gluttony, 225b the belly, the vilest of beasts, 481b
 who hastens a glutton chokes
 him, 875a
 whole boars served up for an individual, 630a you dig your grave with your teeth, 879a
 See Greediness
 Gnat, strain at a, 423b the poor, 19b
 tiny-trumpeting, 365a Gnothi seauton, 469b
 Go and do thou likewise, 424b and he goeth, 422a do not say, but gaw, 752b have been there and still would,
 382b in peace, 483a if, I'm going to, 53a not send, if you want a thing done, 791a on; I'll follow thee, 291b Goads, to beat, with your fists, 656a words of the wise as, 416b Goal, all hastening to the same, 670a earth no, 35a near his mortal, 58a one far-set, 5b set his heart on, not on the prize, 380b Goat, an old, not more reverend for his beard, 736a must browse where he is tied, 842a Goats are not sold at every fair, 766a Goat's wool, about, 511b Goblins, tale of sprites and, 310a GOD and GODS
 a God all mercy is a God unjust, 406a a god from the mechanism, 472b a greater Power than we can contradict, 280a a spectacle for gods, 331b, note a god whom no one knows, 381b accept him, Christ receive him, 361b
 act of God does no injury (in law), 484a all God's workings see, 331a all the gods for chorus, 90a alone can comprehend a God, 408a an unutterable sigh in men's souls, 712b and parents never requited, 766a and shun God's work, 170a and sinners reconciled, 385a as if some lesser god had made the
 world, 366a
 ascribing ordinary effects to working of God, 9a

God and Gods—contd.

ask of God and not of the rich, 739b aspiring to similitude of God, 86 assumes the god, 125b behind them, comes, 34a best known in not knowing Him, 514a, note
better trust in God than His saints, 744a breathed and they are dispersed, 487a but for the grace of God, 456a but little lower than God, 412a by remembering God, 381a by the God we both adore, 245b can change lowest to highest, 679a canst thou by searching find out
God, 411a
comes to see without a bell, 766a comes when we think Him farthest, 766a complains not, but doth what is fitting, 766a cost of God's service grudged, 373a defend the Right, 238a dishonouring belief in Gods, 13a disposes, 807a, note dispraising the high Gods, 353a do all to the glory of God, 428a does not measure men by riches, 766a dred God, 80a drives mad whom he wishes to ruin, 631a each man a copy of God, 527b of you want to take in God, 201b enquiring too curiously about God, 297a, note every herb reveals God, 623b every one as God has made him, 449a fear first made Gods, 183b, 624b fear God and keep His commandments, 416b fear God and offend not the Prince, 374a fear God and withdraw from evil, 671a fear God; honour the king, 431a first and foremost reverence the Gods, 550b
for we also are his offspring, 480a for we are thy offspring, 471a forbid, God, 474a forsake not God till you find a better master, 763a from a beautiful necessity God is Love, 374a
from the mechanism, 514a from God, who is our home, 401a fulfils Himself in many ways, 358a gave the increase, 427b gift descended from God, 32a gifts persuade the gods, 470b gives His wrath by weight, His mercy without weight, 766a Gods are we, 4b grace of God to man, 175b guard him who is left, 751b habitation of the earth, the sea, the air, and heaven, 524b had I but served my God, 320a has a few of us, 34b has given me more, 382a has His dwelling in each good man, 553b
has His own times and delays, 539b has not said all you have said, 766a

God and Gods—contd.

hath part in him, no man doth well but, 353a have their feet swathed in wool, 516a
he died fearing God, 320b he is a God by the gospel, 194a he is poor that God hates, 774b he is rich indeed whom God loves, 774b he is to be feared who fears the
gods, 470a
he loveth nothing that loveth not God, 775b
he shall be to me always as a God, 584b he was wise who originated the idea of God, 478b heals, the physician hath the thanks, 766a
hear God and God will hear you, 784b
hears and sees what we do, 524a helping (Juvante Deo), 563a helps those who help themselves, 766b Hi, you there, what is your opinion about Jupiter, 542b homage refused to a God fully understood, 373b honour first the immortal gods, 467b
I bless God I do find I am worth more than ever, 243a I have not sinned against the God of love, 152a
I, to comfort him, bid him a should not think of God, 316a if God did not exist it would be necessary to invent Him, 449b
707b if God give, the devil daurna reave, 788b if God is for us, who shall be against us, 654b if God is not in us, He never existed, 707b in apprehension how like a God, 293a in babe's disguise, 33b in gardens, 27a in His heaven, 31a in God is our trust, 188a in the bush, 131b is a geometrician, 475b is a Spirit, 425b is generally for the big squadrons, 692a is in heaven and thou on earth, 415b is love, man is hate, 387a is more there than thou, 163a is seen God, 36b is the judge, 413a is the only King, 385a is thy law, thou mine, 219a is whatsoever you see, 524b it is an attribute to God Himself, 283b it is expedient there should be
gods, 528a
it is God's blessing that makes the pot boil, 795b it is not good to sport with the
gods, 597b
it is otherwise decreed by the Gods, 516b
je n'avais besoin de cet hypothèse, 707b just are the ways of God, 223b justify the ways of God to man, 215b

God and Gods—contd.

kingdom of, only entered by man becoming as a child, 9a Knight (God's), 351a learn not to despise the gods, 516b learn thou thy God, 373b leave the rest to the gods, 619b let that which has pleased God please man, 620b let us worship God, 44a lost in the greatness of God, 380b love God and thine enemy, 516b love lost, but upon God, 129a made him, let him pass for a man, 282a made thee to love Him, not to understand Him, 692a made us, we admire ourselves, 716b make not my path offensive to the gods, 245b
(gods) make sport with men, 578a (God) may emerge at last, 381a
men give like gods, 299b men might live like gods, 109a men more godlike when the gods were more human, 710b moderates all at His pleasure, 767b more truly imagined than expressed, 688a moves in a mysterious way, 95b natural and easy to despise the
gods, 667b
needeth not work of human skill, 392a no God but God, 465a no fear of God before their eyes, 427a no one against God but God Himself, 588b
none can read God aright, 261b not God above gets all men's love, 818a nothing is void of God, 591a nothing which God cannot effect, 591b not profane to deny the gods of the common people, 596b of my idolatry, 278b of talking cowards (Cupid), 404a one God, one law, one element, 363a one that could circumvent God, 296b only God doth all in all, 375a only God may be had for the asking, 201b our conjectures as to His works, 263a our God and soldier we alike adore, 261b our safest eloquence about God is silence, 514a, note paltered with Eternal God, 361b permits, but not for ever, 767a plans of God unfold like lilies, 331b praise God from whom all blessings flow, 188a presume not God to scan, 248b providence (God's) seeming estranged, 169a remains, creeds change, 378b removed from God and light of
heaven, 215b
render unto God the things that are God's, 423b revealing Himself to man, 68b reverence God, serve the king, 513b ruler of all, 644a

God and Gods—contd.

safer to believe than to know the deeds of the gods, 648a salvation in God, 553b save the king, 70b (and note) sees all, Himself unseen, 478b sell things at a fair price, 845a sendeth and giveth mouth and meat, 374a set God before your eyes, 626a so commanded, 221a so live as if God saw you, as He does, 657b so sure of God, 29b Sole Deo salus, 660a
splendid discontent of God, 387b strikes with His finger and not with all His arm, 767a surely like a God, 352a take God from Nature, nothing great is left, 408a takes in the heart of God, 203a taught us, and not fear, 872a tempers the wind to the shorn lamb, 767a
the best deviser of stratagems, 465a the best layer of plots, 465a the best Poet, 31a the cure effected by God, 598b the dear God who loveth us, 86b the exceeding grace of highest God, 340a
the God I know of I shall ne'er know, 380b
the God of love, a! benedicite, 79a the god of love beareth his wings, 78a the gods are just, 307a the gods be gentle to all these,
351b
the gods care about great things and overlook small, 570a the gods, though absent, are witnesses, 513a the gods, teachers of religion, 20b the grace of God is gear enough, 845a the kisses of the lips of God, 237a the perfect poet, 31a the gods see everywhere, 199a the sureness of a god, 681a the world a living statue of God, 583a there is a God within us, 523a, 523b there is no God, 30b these, as they change, are but the varied God, 370a they converse as knowing that God hears, 560b think and thank God, 857b those who fancy the world governed by no supreme ruler, 666a thou wouldst do little for God if the devil were dead, 857b thy God, my God, 410a to God, thy country, and thy friend be true, 376a to make the service greater than the god, 298b to pack and label men for God, 369a to the greater glory of God, 485a to the unknown God, 426b, 513a, 548b to Thee we tend, 180a to God should tend the soul, 170a utterance of the early gods 185a vindicate the ways of God, 148a way to God is by ourselves, 140a ways of, seem dark, 386b

God and Gods—contd.

we are God's stewards, 76b we do nothing but by leave of
God, 593b
what better thought than think on God, 375a what God doth He doth anon, 867b what God hath joined together, 423a what will you have, quoth God, pay for it and take it, 869a when God dawns he dawns for all, 784b
where God and hard fortune call,
let us follow, 639a
where God hath a temple, the devil hath a chapel, 872b where there is peace, God is, 873b while God is marching on, 174b who has known God reverences Him, 513b
who hopes to escape God's notice is in error, 470b who worship God shall find Him, 408a whom God steers sails safely, 783b whom God will help nae man can hinder, 876a whom God teaches not, man cannot, 876a
whom the gods love dies young, 63b, 476a, 631a, 876a whom the gods wish to destroy,
151a will not love thee less, because men love thee more, 374a will not serve God if the devil bid, 300b will perchance restore matters, 514a willing (Deo volente), 687a with God be the rest, 34b with God's name make wanton play, 381b
works of, convince atheism, 10a worship the gods, 450b worthy to shine if he had praised our God, 614a ye be found even to fight against God, 426a
yield to God, 502a zeal of (for) God, but not according to knowledge, 427a Zeus does not ratify all designs of men, 468a
God's Acre, the burial place, 198a Goddess known by her gait, 554b reeling, with zoneless waist, 99b she moves a, 256b without a doubt, 512a Godfathers, earthly, of heaven's lights, 276b Godliness is great riches, 432b pretence to piety and, 52b Goethe, last words, 713b motto, Ohne Hast, aber ohne Rast, 713b wide and luminous view of, 5a Going hence, men must endure their, 307a stand not upon the order of your,
304b
to and fro in the earth, 411a Going-to-do, life of, 3b GOLD
a man may buy gold too dear, 725a a shining transient trouble, 152b accursed hunger for, 637a all hangs on, 710a all is not, 78b (and note) all is not, that glisters, 733a

Gold—contd.

all men now worship, 494b almighty gold, 176a, note an unseen tyrant, 480b as good as twenty orators, 319a ass laden with gold climbs to the castle top, 735a ass laden with, is an ass, 735a balance distinguishes not gold and lead, 840b but little gold in cofre, 76b calyxes of gold, 331b can do much, beauty more, 210a coveted gold above renown, 238a cursed lust of, 23a easy to give lustre to gold and ivory, 529a
every door is barred with gold, 358b fetch the age of gold, 227b fettors of gold, 340b fire proves gold, adversity proves men, 548a, 767b from a dunghill, 494b gold refined gold, 63a give fools their gold, 387b gives nothing but worthless gold, 201b goes in at any gate, except Heaven's, 767b gold, gold, bright and yellow, 173b gold is guid only in the hand of virtue, 769b
has been the ruin of many, 830a he loved gold in special, 77a heaping the fairy gold that withers, 375a highest honour comes by means
of, 494a
I hate gold, a persuader of evil, 608b in phisik, 77a is almighty, 770a is irresistible, 713b is proved by touch, 767b is tested by fire; man by gold, 767b less valuable than virtue, 682b love of gold meanest of amours, 406a men's touchstone, 12a more burdensome than gravel, 722b old women's gold is not ugly, 820a opens all locks, 767b Philip's gold took the cities of Greece, 451b
pluck a gown o' gold and you may get a sleeve o't, 825b poison drunk out of gold, 679b put to use more gold gets, 321a refused the gold, but not so rudely as before, 337a saint-seducing gold, 277b sovereign of all sovereigns, 767b the ancient age of gold, 639a the famous stone that turneth all to gold, 164a the narrowing lust of gold, 363a the rocks pure gold, 281b thing that shyneth as gold, 78b thou gaudy gold, 283a thrice their weight in gold, 134b turning the dust of opportunity to gold, 397b what female heart can despise gold, 154b what gold could never buy, 177b when gold speaks you can hold your tongue, 870a who shuts his hand, hath lost his gold, 163b
why in the sacred temple? 514b will not buy everything, 767b Golde, am, hängt doch alles, 713b GOLDEN AGE, 534a

 now is the Golden Age, 494a the age when gold did not rule, 695b
 the Golden Age returns, 561a Golden bullet beats it down, 322b care (a crown), 315b dart kills where it pleases, 721b fool, the, 308b hook, to fish with a, 494b keys, opens but to, 358b lads and girls, 309b numbers, to add to, 108b opinions from all sorts of people 303b shield is a great defence, 721b shower, no Muse proof against a, 142a
Goldfish, no one eats, 817a Goldsmith (Oliver), epitaph on, 604a Johnson on, 179a
GOLF
 a form of moral effort, 195a may be played on Sunday, 195a they mingled grasses and words not harmless, 578a
Gondola of London, 117b
Gone, and never must return, 226a
 not dead, but gone before, 265a he is, and we cast away moan, 296b he is gone indeed, 307a thou art, and for ever, 271a Gone-by, for me the, 195b GOOD AND GOODNESS
 a good man can do no more harm than a sheep, 722a a good man struggling with adversity, 151a a good thing is quickly snatched up, 722b
 a lover of good men, 430b a real goodness, not a studied
 name, 345b
 a vain and doubtful good, 322b (good) afar off better than evil at hand, 743a
 all good comes to an end, except the goodness of God, 733a all is good that God sends us, 733a all men's good each man's rule, 358a all presumed good till found at fault, 732b
 all that is comprised in good, 126b all their luxury was doing good, 142b all things becoming to good men, 610b all things seek their own good, 610b all things work together for good, 427a and bad, never separate but always mixed, 477a (good) and evil grow together,
 228a
 (good) and godly ones, 209a (Good) are better made by ill, 264b (good) are so harsh to the clever,
 442b are you good men and true, 284b as you are good, here's to you, 461a bad to be accustomed even to good things, 526a be good and leave the rest to Heaven, 91b
 be good, sweet maid, 189a best portion of a good man's life, 393b

Good and Goodness—contd.
 better is the enemy of good, 743a call good evil, 417a can well afford to wait, 386b captive good attending captain ill, 322a
Cato preferred being good to seeming, 501a chases airy good, 177b cleave to that which is good, 427a commanding what is good, prohibiting evil, 523b (goodness) delighteth to forgive, 43b do all the good you can, 443a do good and never mind to whom,
 753a do good and then do it again, 275a do good whilst thou livest, 606a doing good one of the professions that are full, 372a easy to be good when what prevents is far off, 523a felt how awful goodness is, 219b few can distinguish good and evil, 612a few know their own good, 127a (good) finds good, 768a (good) for us to be here, 423a God pardon all good men, 30a good and quickly seldom meet, 812a good grows to better and better to bad, 768b good is no good but if it be spent,
 341a
 good me no goods, 137b good men are a public good, 768b good men are rare, 643a good men forbidden to co-operate with bad, 558a good men less so than they seem,
 89b good men suspected by kings, 644a
 good things are difficult, 480b good things are mixed with evil, 665b good things are worth repetition, 470a
 good things are wrapped in small parcels, 768b good things befall the good, 497b good things come to some when they are asleep, 768b good things will strive to dwell with 't, 311a goodness is never fearful, 300a goodness thinks no ill where no ill seems, 218b greatness and goodness, 87b heaviness foreruns the good event, 315b he is a good man who is a man of goods, 811b he is so good no one can be better, 523a he is too good who has nothing of
 evil, 594b
 he was very good to me, 114b her goodness doth disdain comparison, 210a hidden, but never destroyed, 498b hold fast that which is good, 430a hold that which is good, 610b hold thou the good, 362b how far beneath the good, 154b how happy are the good, 67b how good they were then, 168b I find so much of goodness still,
 443a
 I never did repent for doing good,
 283a

Good and Goodness—contd.
 I thank the goodness and the grace, 955a
 if goodness lead him not, 164a if you wish for good seek it from yourself, 471a
 ignorance of bad and good a great drawback, 548b in doing good we are cold, 40b (good) in everything, 288a (good) is beauty put into practice, 694a (good) is good, but better carries
 it, 768b
 is there any good without mixture of evil, 490a it is always time to do good, 794b it is not, nor it cannot come to
 good, 290b
le mieux est ennemi du bien, 768b learn to be good, 138a let them be good that love me, 183b luxury of doing good, 147a Mary hath chosen the good part,
 424b (good) mind, good find, 768b must be something good in you, 274b none can be good too soon, 817b none that doeth good, 412a not enough to do good, 234b nothing good or bad, but thinking makes it so, 293a nothing so bad in which there is not some good, 794b nought so good but strained from that fair use, 279a of good things none are good enough, 395b
 one cannot have too much of a good thing, 879b one that confounds good and evil, 42b only way to make men speak good of us is to do it, 449a opposite to every good, 317b out of evil, good, 87b out of good still to find means of evil, 216a
 (good) people are scarce, 768b (good) people live far apart, 768b (good) people's very scarce, 111a princes should cherish goodness, 210b proclaim him good and great, 2b seek to be good, 204a set good against evil, 833a she was good as she was fair, 264b silent are the good, 193a so much good in the worst of us, 443a some might suspect the nymph not over-good, 404b some said it might do good, 38b some soul of goodness in things evil, 316b
 somehow good will be the final goal of ill, 362b that's my good that does me good, 839a the good that I would do I do not,
 427a
 the good die early, 108a the good die first, 401a the good live longer, 265b the good is oft interred with their bones, 286a
 the good man never dies, 229b the good that I can do, 14b the good that I can do, let me do it now, 442b

Good and Goodness—contd.

the good time only comes once, 855a the good you can do, do not defer it, 443a the good you do is not lost though you forget it, 845a the highest good at which we attain, 498b the more communicated, 219b the nearer you associate yourself with good the better, 629a the sovereign good, to love and be beloved, 345b the supreme good, 479a the good, the bad, two nations, 208b the vacillating, inconsistent good, 407b
 there is a good time coming, 854b though good be good, better carries it, 857b through evil, seeks good, 386b Time's rude hand defies goodness, 385b to be good enough you must be too good, 860a to be good with good men no great matter for praise, 498a to do aught good never will be our task, 216a to do good and to distribute, 432b to know but this that thou art good, 250b too much of a good thing, 289b (Good) touched up with evil, 84b two goods seldom meet, 864b unlooked-for streams of good, 395a (goodness) vile to the vile, 306b (good) was never very abundant, 768b we love people for the good we have done them, 438a we rarely prize the good we never miss, 98b what good came of it at last, 337a what so good which some harm may not bring, 345a when she was good she was very, very good, 447a where there is no good in, no good comes out, 854b (good) which we dared not hope for, 398b who hopes not for good fears not evil, 779a wiser being good than bad, 34a with bad, good, 261a without effort, good, 56a without pretence, good, 255b would rather be called good than happy, 498a
 you may have too much of a good thing, 879b zealously affected in a good thing, 429a Good-breeding, blossom of good-sense, 404b Good-bye, no word to say but this, 193b proud world, 131b we reap our sowing, and so, 129a Good cheer not always where the chimney smokes, 856a when good cheer is lacking, friends will be packing, 870a

GOOD DEEDS
 a kind of good deed, to say well, 320a always do some good deed that the devil find thee not idle, 788a

Good Deeds—contd.

dignity and form of a good deed, 651b do all the good to all the people in all the ways you can, 443a do weel and have weel, 753a everything passes away except what is well done, 759a for one good deed a hundred ill should be overlooked, 763a he that doth well wearieth not himself, 777a let us not be weary in well-doing, 429b man produced to do good deeds, 475a reward of a good deed to have done it, 643b so shines a good deed, 284a some that speak no ill do no good to any, 836a the labour of good deeds passes, the honour remains, 655b
 well-done outlives death, 867b what is done well for the good never perishes, 498a when we commend good deeds we make them partly our own, 872a

Good faith usually less than estimated, 714b Good felawe, he was a, 77a Good-fellow and recluse, betwixt, 387a

GOOD-FELLOWSHIP and noise, 98a mingle severity with, 677a Good-for-nothing people, 505b Good for nothing, your main fault is you are, 880b Good for something, all things, 734a Good Friday, rain on, 829a Good morning, bid me, 15a Good nature is a great misfortune without prudence, 768b off the fool's defence, 328a Good news baits, 223b Good night, bid the world, 164b God send you a, 174a say not, 15a say, till it be morrow, 279a the stern'st, 304a to each and all a fair, 270b to Marmion, 270a
 Good old ways, loved the, 387a Good tidings, feet of him that bringeth, 417b

GOOD TURNS
 a good turn, 50a a good turn, we write in dust, 234b one deserves another, 821b one never loseth by doing, 822b there is as much greatness in owning a good turn as doing it, 855a

GOODWILL and affection main pleasure of life, 500b desire to see a' the world shaken hauns, 390b essential between good men, 498a feigned friendship under cloak of, 374a is lasting for ever, 573a should be taken in part of payment, 769a when good will is gone, friendship is gone, 664b

GOOD WORDS and no deeds, 769a cannot maintain a man, 17b cool more than cold water, 769a

Good Words—contd.

cost nought, 749a
 I think, were best, 312a say well, or be still, 831a without deeds are rushes and reeds, 769a Goods worth over £5 (bona notabilia), 497b are theirs that enjoy them, 769a ill got, third heir enjoyeth not, 819b

Goodwin Sands, let him set up shop on, 800b Goodwins, the, I think they call the place, 282b Goody-goody, stuffs all they have to say full of, 378b Goose (see Geese)
 Goose look, where gott'st thou that, 305a Goose-pen is above the roast, 845a Goose pen, though thou write with a, 298a Gorboduc, niece of King, 298a, note Gordons know what the Gordons dare, 238a Gore, gareth them that seek his, 172a I hope it mayn't be human gore, 113a Gorging Jack and guzzling Jimmy, 368a Gorgons and Hydras, 217b Gormed, I'm, 114b
 Gory locks, never shake thy, 304b Goslings lead the geese to water, 769a Gospel books, the lineaments of, 267a colours, under, 47a glozing the, 194a groan, a real, 47a light first dawned from Bullen's eyes, 155a music of the, 133b of Getting On, 323a of war and damnation, 354b preach the, and put down enthusiasm, 378b truths, zeal for, 52b whose gospel is their maw, 227a Gossamer flying, the air is drying, 872b Gossamers, a lover may bestride the, 279b

GOSSIP and lying go hand-in-hand, 769a avoid, 647a beware to whom and what you speak concerning another, 635b gadding gossips shall dine on the pot-lid, 764b gossips, like frogs, drink and talk, 769b gossips quarrel and tell the truth, 870b he shall be the gossip of the town, 533b hearsay is half lies, 784b in the land of gossips stray, 345a it's ill living where everybody knows everybody, 797b rustic cackle of your bourg, 363b scandal and spite, 363b seek a stranger to tell it to, 628b small people love to talk of great, 835a speaks ill of all, and all of her, 722b the nurse's tongue is privileged, 849a Got, ill, ill spent, 791b Gotham, I came to, 679l

Gothic architecture, 187*a* ignorance, 135*a* Gott mit uns, 712*b* Gott-trunkener Mensch, 712*b* Gotten, what is, is somewhere lost, 10*a* GOUT and glory, 34*a* drink wine and have gout; drink none and have it too, 753*b* had taken him in toe, 169*b* he that hath one foot in the straw hath the other in the spittle, 778*b* medicine cannot cure, 671*a* pangs arthritic, 99*a* patience good for, 824*b* without gout or stone, 258*a* GOVERNMENT and GOVERNMENTS a contrivance, 41*a* a land of settled government, 357*b* a machine, 71*b* a satire on government, 133*a* a sober prince's government, 124*b* absurd for one who cannot govern himself, 483*b* all would steer in fine weather, 368*b* an educated people is most easily governed, 712*a* and Honours List, 21*a* and party, 39*b* and so are Governments to some, 52*a* by the people, for the people, 196*b*, 52*a* calmness more effectually carries out masterful edicts, 618*b* change to be suspected in government, 9*a* chiefs mortal; the commonwealth immortal, 624*b* church mixing two governments, 74*b* colleagues in government not to be trusted, 603*a* danger of, representative government, 160*b* depositary of power always unpopular, 117*a* desire to rule the most vehement of passions, 509*b* disease worst which proceeds from the head, 678*a* divine right of government, 117*b* easier to praise a form of, than to bring it about, 644*b* easy to govern the good, 529*a* endeavours itself to play the god, 338*b* England governed by Acts of Parliament, not logic, 755*a* every country has the government it deserves, 708*b* existence depends on restraints enforced on others, 215*a* fall of governments, 210*b* first duty of a government, 21*a* for forms of government let fools contest, 249*b* four pillars of, 10*a* founded on compromise, 40*a* govern by obeying, 550*a* great bodies move slowly, 769*b* hated governments never hold out long, 559*a* how little wit in government, 20*a* ill-begotten, ill-retained, and ill-administered, 608*a* in change of government, poor only change the name of their master, 553*a*

Government and Governments—
contd.
 it is easier to ridicule than to command, 795*a* least wise govern, 192*b* made by themselves, 1*a* men weak for government may be wise, 8*b* might everywhere extend its eye and arm, 337*b* none safe unless buttressed by goodwill, 604*a* not good that few be governed by many, 476*b* not so well governed as they ought to be, 174*a* obedience makes government, 40*a* of a nation, 89*b* of statesmen or clerks, 117*a* paper government, 40*a* paternal government, galling, 205*a* patriarchal rule the best, 373*b* people the true legislator in government, 42*a* petticoat government, 455*a* Power should be always distrusted, 182*a* prudent man directs; enthusiast regenerates, 204*b* quacks of government, 52*a* Reason shall govern realms, 194*a* representative government, that fatal drollery, 117*a* rule will prove the man, 469*a* sceptre one thing, lute-playing another, 487*b* should not support people, 84*b* (governments) sink into police, 117*b* subjects still loathe the present government, 165*a* syllables govern the world, 275*b* temperate rule endures, 683*b* the body politic begins to die from birth, 699*a* the most powerful is lost by bad government, 572*a* the sweets of sovereign rule, 255*b* things refuse to be managed badly for long, 645*b* those who think must govern, 147*b* to safeguard the citizens, 653*b* unjust rule never endures, 556*a* violent, is not long maintained, 683*b* what a little Foolery governs the world, 275*b* what is a free government, 40*b* wise men propose, fools dispose, 807*a* wise government, the general friend, 337*b* with how little wisdom men are governed, 275*b*, 458*b*, 490*a*, 629*b*, 741*b* within a government, 550*a* world is governed too much, 458*b* would have been considered more capable of government if he had not governed, 571*b* you can only govern men by serving them, 704*b* Governor for me, kept a, 33*a* not trained in battles, 396*b* Gown decreed, for the, 82*b* is his that wears it, 845*a*, note plucked his, 148*a* Gowns and gloves, 172*a* one that hath two, 285*a* GRACE (at Meals) after meat (ancient), 513*b*, note

Grace (at Meals)—contd.
 asked him for gizzard but not for grace, 15*b* (before meat) the cause is gude and the word's Fa' on, 841*b* Hodge's, 441*b*
 Latin form of, 496*b* Selkirk, 47*b*, note
GRACE and GRACES a sweet attractive kind of grace, 267*a* all other graces, 53*a* divine, was never slow, 752*a* extol their graces, 281*b* grace orders whatsoever she does, 549*a* graces, hovering, like a banner, 64*b* her graceful, graceless Grace, 65*b* he does it with a better grace, 297*b* heavenly grace doth him uphold, 330*b* in space comes grace, 792*b* is a gyfte of God, 194*b* is given of God, 85*a* inward and spiritual grace, 433*a* Lord, I ascribe it to Thy grace 382*a* makes a man irresistible, 711*b* My grace is sufficient for thee, 429*a*, 665*a* never did mortal eye behold such heavenly grace, 339*b* patriarchal grace, 44*a* powerful grace that lies in herbs, 279*a* preventive grace, 221*b* sacrifice to the Graces, 80*b*, 448*a*, 472*b* shot forth peculiar graces, 219*b* sprinkles another's laughing face, 193*a* sweet attractive grace, 219*a* the exceeding grace of highest God, 340*a* that won who saw to wish her stay, 220*b* the Graces joined with the Nymphs, 562*a* the power of grace, 66*b* the purity of grace, 56*b* the grace, the bloom of things, 388*a* was in all her steps, 220*b* what a grace was seated on his brow, 295*b* Graceful port, 2*b* Graciousness, the infinite, 80*a* Gradation, the old, 300*a* Graduated dunce, a, 99*b* Grain will grow, which, 303*a* Gram. loquitur, 538*a* GRAMMAR
 a heretic in, 541*a* Cæsar not an authority over, 499*a* dominates even kings, 607*a* even grammar is subservient to success, 708*b* false, does not vitiate a document, 530*a* heedless of grammar, 15*b* king of Rome and therefore above grammar, 521*b* Priscian a little scratched, 277*b* that ground is of alle grammar, 194*b* the art of grammar, 8*a* the English is ungrammatical, 32*b* the grammarians are at variance, 538*a* to break the head of Priscian, 624*b* why care for grammar, 28*a* Grammar—contd.

women whose verbs and nouns do more agree, 158b world's troubles due to questions of grammar, 698a

Grammar school, corrupted youth by a, 317b Grammarians, rhetorician, painter, rope-dancer, 538a

Grammarians give way, 502a

Grammercy on his soul, 296b

Gramplan hills, on the, 169a

Grand and comfortable, cannot expect to be, 17b as doomsday and as grave, 360a

Grand monarque, 699b

Grand Tour, 433b, note

Grandam, in a sad ostent, to please his, 282b

"Grande passion," a, 65a Grandeur, so high to, 131b what is, what is power, 154b

Grandmother's correction makes no impression, 845a

Grandsire cut in alabaster, his, 282a

Granta, sweet Granta, 4a

Grantham's steeple, height makes it all awry, 795b

Gran'ther's rule, my, 202a

Gran'ther's they knew sunthin' tu, 202b

Grants in law preserved inclusive, 508b

Grape, fathers have eaten a sour, 418b foaming, of eastern France, 363a sour, winter, 158a takes colour from grape, 678b, note

Grapes are sour, 845b bunch of, ripened by another, 469a do not ripen in moonlight, 568b earth's, are sour, 188b it brought forth wild, 417a sour, never made sweet wine, 836a

Grapple them to thy soul, 291a Grasp all, lose all, 769b do not, at what has not been given, 595a no more than thy hand will hold, 769b not at much, 163b should exceed his, 33a

the world, you sought to, 244a the world, they who, 243b

Grasping: stretch your arm no further than your sleeve will reach, 837b the marring of, 236a

GRASS

all flesh is, 417b

all flesh is as, 431a does not grow in the market, 769b grows not on the highway, 769b grows, while the, the steed starves, 874a, note his days are as grass, 413a

I have need of the grass, 443b ilka blade o', keeps its ain drap o' dew, 791b

make grow two blades of grass, 374a may grow in winter weather, 325a soon grass, soon hay, 836a the green grass, the cool grass, 209a you eat up that grass which I meant to make hay of, 879b you must look for, on the top of an oak tree, 880a

Grasshopper, after the manner of a 647a

Grasshopper, shall be a burden, 416a

Grasshoppers, half a dozen, 41a leaps of, 184b

the wings of, 278a

Grate, ponderous, and massy bar, 271b

GRATITUDE

a burden, and so to be shaken off, 698a a lively sense of future favours, 377b excessive benefits provoke hatred, 496b for good deeds, lighter than a feather, 655b grateful gratitude of power, 232b grateful mind by owing, owes not, 218b is expensive, 144a of men hath left me mourning 399b poor folks must say, Thank-ye for a little, 826a receive gratefully whatever hour God gives you, 672b silence is the gratitude of true affection, 328b the least of virtues, 769b the still small voice of gratitude, 154b the word is poor, 213a to a grateful man give money, 859b when lasting and when transient, 538b

Grave and reverend signiors, 300b to gay, 250a

GRAVE and GRAVES

a glorious life or grave, 162b a little, little grave, 312b a quiet passage to a welcome grave, 378a all things ripen towards the grave, 357b an obscure grave, 312b and renowned be thy grave, 309b and wish I were but in my grave, 355a approach thy grave, 37a but she is in her grave, 392a by foreign hands adorned, 254b cold comfort of the grave, 215b dig the grave and let me die, 344b digs thy grave at each remove, 163b dread the grave as little as my bed, 188a dropped into the grave, 19a earliest at his grave, 17b emblems of untimely graves, 100b evening sunshine gently on my grave, 19b from the grave their voice is heard, 269b gently slope our passage to the grave, 406b he that would assail thee in thy grave, 265a his vast and wandering grave, 362a if there be no meeting past the grave, 445a in the grave is rest, 713a in the grave where a Briton has laid him, 391b let my grave be unscribed, 335b let's talk of graves, 312b low laid in my grave, 311b may lay my grave peace and quiet ever have, 227b my shade shall descend illustrious to the grave, 687a Grave and Graves—contd.

no conversation in the silent grave, 139b no work, device, knowledge, nor wisdom in, 415b (graves) of those that cannot die, 56a on my grave as now my bed, 29a on that grave fell not a tear, 30b pompous in the grave, 29a possession of a peaceful grave, 257b sinks a hero in his grave, 231a six feet shall serve, 156a sleeping enough in the grave, 856a, note take them, O grave, 109a the grave where Laura lay, 262a the house appointed for all living, 411b the shadows of the grave, 406b the withering knowledge of the grave, 325b thou art gone to the grave, 160a threshold of eternity, 335a thy root is ever in the grave, 163b to find ourselves dishonourable graves, 285b two grass-green graves, 357a where is thy victory, 254b, 428b who's a prince or beggar in the grave, 240b winds of Heaven o'er their grave, 67b with sorrow to the grave, 409a without a grave, 56a

Graver had a strife with Nature, 182b

Graver's memory, like the, 98a

Gravemakers hold up Adam's procession, 296b

Graveyard: where all mankind are equalised, 170a

Graviora tulisti, 619a

Gravitation, law of, 265a, note

Gravy, asked him for, 15b

Grazier, Ploughman and Gardener, 844b

Grease, fry in his own, 77b, 800b stew in their own, 455a

GREAT, GREAT DEEDS, etc.

Great aim not to be, 204a and fair, no longing for things, 238b and little have need of one another, 845b businesses (great) turn on a little pin, 769b cares not to be great, 361b

(great) deeds cannot die, 360b ere fortune made him so great, 122a even the shade of that which once was great, 396b

far above the great, 154b

fish (great) eat up the little ones, 308b folly to entrust a great deed to faint heart, 663a

great bodies move slowly, 769b great deeds need great preparations, 478b great, glorious and free, 232a how indigent the great, 155a

I find nothing great, 397a impotently great, 255a in act be great, 312a let me call him great, for he conquered me, 408b minds by nature great, 266b none completely wretched but the great, 26b

Great, Great Deeds, etc.—contd.
 none think the great unhappy, 404a
 O weakness of the great, 398a or bright infers not excellence, 220b pompous misery of being great,
 26b rightly to be great, 296a some men are born great, 298a that he is grown so great, 285b that which is great is not beautiful, 598b the large thing to do, 460b the simple great ones gone, 363b the happy only are the truly great, 404b
 the poor man loved the great,
 206b the theme too great, 260a there's a great spirit gone, 307a those little creatures we call great, 269a to be great be wise, 259a to be great is to be misunderstood, 132a to be mistaken great, 195b truly great are truly good, 76a unmoved by glory of great deeds, 65a
 very great in small matters, 574b without a foe, 56a

GREAT MEN
 a flatterer may risk anything with,
 709a
 a great man's memory, 294b companionship with the powerful not to be trusted, 605a every great man is unique, 132b great deeds are reserved for great men, 769b
 guide-posts, 40a he that stands high should not stir too quickly, 781b hell paled in with bones of great men, 785a
 I have lived with great persons,
 668a if great men would have care of little, 788b
 interesting to know how great men affected women, 234b judgment on great men to be pronounced with diffidence, 579a little cannot be great unless he devour many, 847b no great man without inspiration, 589b no great ones, if no little, 854b, 856a not the least praise to have pleased great men, 624b (great men) of his stamp not to be classified, 234b offences of, outweigh merits, 819b only great men may have great
 faults, 693b
 self-on over-scrupulous in attire, 111a seem mere common earth, 210a service of the great is no inheritance, 832b should beware of their inferiors, 629b small people love to talk of great, 835a such rancour in the hearts of mighty men, 341b the great would have none great,
 845b th; greater the man the greater
 the crime, 844a

Great Men—contd.
 the more one approaches great men, the more one finds they are men, 705b
 when a great man dies, 200a who can be independent of the multitude, 342a
 women love great men, 33a world knows nothing of its greatest men, 356a

GREATNESS
 a long farewell to all my, 320a and goodness ends, not means,
 87b as we cannot attain it let us abuse
 it, 705b
 be not afraid of, 298a desire of, a godlike sin, 123a dreams of, 370a easy greatness, 2b eternal substance of his greatness, 137b far off touch of greatness to know I am not great, 365a he could not want greatness, 184a he doth bestride the world like a Colossus, 285a his greatness and his sweetness, 386b his greatness, not his littleness, 381a his very greatness impedes him, 559b in me there dwells no greatness, 365a is to me a curse, 210b man and his greatness survive, 380b neither sought nor shunned, 205b
 nothing but many small littles, 591b nothing unless lasting, 450b pride, solemn vice of greatness, 182a purple greatness, 128a remember his greatness, 88b say where greatness lies, 250a sense of, keeps a nation great 379b some achieve greatness, 298a some have greatness thrust upon them, 298a
 thinks his greatness is a ripening, 320a touched the highest point of all my greatness, 320a wretched greatness knows not
 friendship, 355a

GREAT THINGS
 low-minded or triflers cannot attempt, 591a made of little, 34a seekest thou great things for thyself, 418b
 shun great things, 336b the gods care about great things, 570a to compare, with small, 218a Greater if he had been willing to be less great, 571a he is greater who is better, 502b prey upon the less, 155b than Fortune can injure, 571b than herself, smacks of something, 310a
 than the rest, some are and must be, 249b
 than themselves, whilst they behold a, 285b to the lesser, drawing the, 358a we are, than we know, 399a Greatest may need help of weaker

 hand, 340a
 number of greatest ideas, 267a works, he that is finisher of, 299a Greece. See Greeks

GREED
 by subduing a grasping disposition you will reign more extensively, 564a he is poor that desireth much, 774b he will never have enough till his mouth is full of mould, 783b is envy's eldest brother, 770a qui trop embrasse, peu étreint, 769b resolute greed of brutes, 345a rather for having than for giving,
 716b the more men have the more they want, 545a
 who grasps at too much secures nothing, 732b
 who takes too much, retains too little, 769b

GREEDINESS
 closed Paradise, 539a God hates a greedy man, 723a greedy folk have long arms, 770a is rich, 523a not to be greedy is money, 597b stomachs don't get tired, 158a they were never fud that licket dishes, 857a to the greedy all nature is insufficient, 495b wished for a neck like a goose's, to enjoy food longer, 695a, note

GREEK, GREEKS, GREECE a laudation in Greek of marvellous efficacy on a title-page, 709b above all Greek, all Roman fame, 253a all things have to be in Greek,
 611a artists like the Greek gods, 389a Grecian artist gleaned from many faces, 373a Grecian bend, a, 116a Grecian chisel, 270b Greece, 56a, note Greece captured her captor and spread her arts to Latium, 538a Greek and Latin books, 25b Greek and Latin, to learn well, 586b
 Greek and Latin, wisdom does not always speak, 876b Greeks broken by bondage and misery, 538a
 Greek endings, 33b Greeks entered Troy by trying,
 471b Greeks that never were, 34a he could speak Greek, 50b I fear Greeks even when bearing gifts, 638a
 I think this is Greek, 285b, note immortal influence of Athens, 205a in early Greece she sung, 90a Kalends, Greek, 485a
 last of the Greeks, 452b many who do not altogether like Greek, 467 most Greek among the Greeks, 557b
 no Greek ever an old man, 469b quoting Greek desirable when in difficulty, 467
 read, day and night, the Greek authors, 595a rule at Greek feasts, 577a

Greek, Greeks, Greece—contd.

sad relic of departed worth (Greece), 54a small Latin and less Greek, 183a still less (skill) in Greek, 101b talk more like a Greek, 336a the glory that was Greece, 245b the isles of Greece, 63a to me it was Greek, 285b want of good faith in Greek race, 577b when Greeks joined Greeks, 195b words obtain currency if distorted from Greek, 525b versatility of the hungry Greekling, 538a Green as emerald, 86b Green-dense and dim-delicious, 34b Green earth, in love with this, 191b Green-eyed monster, the, 301b Green for change and doubleness, 462a in judgment, 307a in Kendal, 313b in my eye, do you see any, 464a is forsaken, 462a means fickleness, 462b never had earth appeared so, 365b the same in, 834a Greenhouse, who loves a garden loves a, 100a Greenland's icy mountains, 160a Green Sleeves, thunder to the tune of, 287b Green Sleeves, to the tune of, 287b Greensleaves, who but Lady, 436a Greenwich Fair, 111a Greeting: they that know one another salute afar off, 857a Greetings where no kindness is, 394a Gregory VII, deathbed saying, 516a Gregory's, great doings at, 769b Grenadier, a Hampshire, 445b Grenville, Macaulay on, 206a Grew together, so we, 280b Grey and green make the worst medley, 770a costs thy life, my gallant, 270b hair is grey, but not with years, 58a hairs, these, 84b turn those amber locks to, 121a Greyhound in our hand, we hold our, 269a natural to a, to have a long tail, 796a Greyhounds in the slips, like, 316b GRIEF
 a grief I'll ne'er impart, 328b a pleasure in indulging grief, 854b acquainted with, 418a all griefs with bread are less, 733a and hope, 69b and joy and hope and fear, 437a and willow-tree, 436b antheming a lonely grief, 185a (griefs) are silent, 103b, note best pleased with grief's society, 321b claimed his right, 271a companion of pleasure, 560b decreases where it has nothing to increase it, 518a divided is lighter, 770a easily borne if slight; if severe, of brief duration, 612b every heart knows its own bitterness, 755a every one can master a grief, 284b fills the room up of my absent child, 311b finds some ease by him that like doth bear, 341b

Grief—contd.

for so dear a person, 638a forestall his date of grief, 225a forms, moods, shows of grief, 290a friendship cutteth griefs, 10b great griefs silent, 208b grief's no comfort, 794a has her ebbings, 67b hath two tongues, 321a he emptied the cup of grief, 668a he finds medicine who imparts his grief, 339b he grieves sore who grieves alone 770a he grieves too much who grieves too soon, 621b he laments truly who laments when none is by, 549a in her countenance, 554a indulge thy grief, 95a itself a medicine, 97a Lady Nancy she died out of pure, pure grief, 435b led him astray, 339b let Love clasp Grief, 362a lies onward, 321b little griefs are loud, great are silent, 803b little griefs make us tender; great ones make us hard, 702b loathes words, 108b makes one hour ten, 312a mourned in silence, 258a my particular grief of so floodgate nature, 300b never mended no broken bones, 111a new grief awakens old, 815b no closer bond than fellowship in grief, 335a no greater grief than to remember, 74a no grief can ever die, 236b none which time does not soften, 604b not made less by baldness, 663b not to be expressed, 137a nothing speaks grief so well as nothing, 103b occupies confines of gladness, 528b once told, 236a one grief brings forth twain, 121a or gave his father grief, but when he died, 255b our joy attends, 196b patch grief with proverbs, 285a remembered, and pleasure forgotten, 508a should not be excessive, 622a silent manliness of, 148b smiling at grief, 298a some griefs are med'cinable, 309a suages grief, 207b that does not speak, 305a the fellowship of grief, 229b the grief is past, 37b the instruction of the wise, 59a the most detestable thing, 486a the unhappy charter of our sex, 386a time and thinking tame grief, 839a time makes all grief decay, 260b 'tis unmanly grief, 290b to learn by the pain of another, 531b to reopen unspeakable grief, 555a to resist grief, 518a torments of grief, 131b treads on heels of pleasure, 92a we should conceal our griefs, 867a what private griefs they have, 286b

Grief—contd.

which can resolve is light, 565b without community, 173b women who grieve least lament most, 561a words are thorns to grief, 353a See Sorrow (also Grieve) Grievance, a good, is worth more than bad pay, 722a it's ill healing an old sore, 797b Grieve down, what does not man, 89a men are we and must, 396b people pretend to, more than they do, 350b Grin, a sin for me to sit and, 167a and bear it, 770a at a brother's shame, 363b every, so merry, 391a how cheerfully he seems to, 119a relaxed into a universal, 100b vanquish Berkeley with a, 26b when he laughs, 403b Grind, life one demd horrid, 113a Grinders cease because they are few, 416a Grist to your mill, all bring, 732b Grizzle to Grey, the road to, 336a Grizzled here and there, 269a Groan, he gave a, and then another, 394a o'er his untimely lot, not a, 58a so in perpetuity, he had rather, 309b where men sit and hear each other, 185a with bubbling, 56a Groans, scorn bought with, 281a Groaning for love, better than, 279a Groat, chop or change a, 17a Groat's house, Johnnie, 829a Grocer died, born a man, a, 6b Grog, sailor's sheet anchor is, 110b Groom, unmissed but by his, 95b Grossness (vice), losing its, 41a Ground, a little patch of, 296a all the place is, 357a flew up, the, 27b haunted, holy, 54a her feet did kiss, 107a lay him 't the cold, 296a let us sit upon the, 312b lodging is on the cold, 106b may the, not be heavy on your ashes, 614b 'tis holy, 154b to a more removed, 291b to throw that on the, 162a tread on classic, 2a wandering on enchanted, 186a Groundlings, to split the ears of the, 294a Groundsel speaks only what it heard at the hinges, 846a Grouse-shooting, 444a Grovelled before a great man, 366b Groves: O! a good grove of chimneys for me, 235a seek, at midday, 573b were God's first temples, 37a Grown, I 'spect I, 346a Growling won't make the kettle boil, 770b Grown so monstrous now, 172a Grows with his growth, 249a Growth of what is excellent, 99a rapid, but decay also rapid, 506b Grub, old, the joiner squirrel or, 278a Grudge, I will feed 'at the ancient, 282a Grudging, mischief of, 236a

GRUMBLE and GRUMBLING better to forget troubles than to speak of them, 796a country-folk are best weeping, 647a itch of grumbling, 499a makes the loaf no larger, 770b

neither crow nor croak, 814b never to grumble till they come to pay, 108a nothing whatever to grumble at, 145b pigs grunt about everything and nothing, 825a See Complaint, 770b Grundy, Mrs., 236b
Grundy, Mrs., keeps us from having our way, 368b Grunt and sweat, to, 293b Gryll be Gryll, let, 340a, note Guard, each upon his, 271a Guards, up, and at 'em, 457b upright; prepare for battle, 457b Guardian, constitutional, 146b Naiad of the strand, 270b of the public peace, 402a Guardians, who shall guard the, 622b Guerdon of a noble deed, 97a the fair, 226a Guerre aux châteaux, 692b Guessed right, once I, 439b Guesser, public a bad, 110a Guessing: he is best diviner who conjectures well, 474a GUESTS
a constant guest is never welcome, 719a a keen guest, 314b a pretty woman is a welcome guest, 58a all-approving guest, 57b and fish smell at three days old, 761b bashfulness unbecoming at table, 681a came a nobler guest, 372a five guests at a dinner, 638a he that comes unbidden goes unthanked, 777a it is an ill guest that never drinks to his hostess (or host), 794b leave a welcome behind you, 800a let an ill man lie in thy straw, 800b long stay changes friendship, 764a more disgraceful to eject a stranger than to refuse him admission, 673b rise like a thankful guest, 104b room for more uninvited guests, 567b satiated with life, 509b some poor high-related guest, 87a that come by daylight are best received, 770b the goodlier guests are past away, 365b the host is happy when his guest is gone, 846b unbidden guests know not where to sit, 865a unbidden guests, welcomest when gone, 317a unwelcome after three days, 547a welcome the coming guest, 257b who comes unbidden sits unserved, 777a See Dinner
Gueux, les, sont les gens heureux, 702a Guidance: thou marshall'st me the way, 304a

Guidance, vessel that will not obey her helm will have to obey the rocks, 852b Guide, come, unsavoury, 280a left a trusty, 394a no other, I seek, 222a path, motive, 180a philosopher, and friend, 250a Guide-posts, great men are, 40a Guides which neither lead nor tell, 91b ye blind, 423b Guildhall (yeldhalle) sitten in a, 76b Guile, in whom there is no, 425b Phoenicians complaining of, 448b urban, squat, and full of, 26a Guilelessness, astute, 567a the first of virtues, 467b GUILT and GUILTY
a great comfort to be free from guilt, 678b a loss of time to enquire who was guilty, 672a a sinful heart makes feeble hand, 270a absent, where there has been no power of judgment, 576a and Fear the same, 109b and shame, 231b at a loss to find his guilt, 108b be thou my pilot, 210a blind counsels of the guilty, 605b counted us for guilt, 190b fear follows crime and is its punishment, 449b foolish make a mock at guilt, 414a gods as witnesses of guilt, 667b greatest punishment of doing injuries is the fact of doing them, 574a grievous to the author, 527b he that knows no guilt can know no fear, 211a he threatens the innocent who spares the guilty, 577a how near to, without actual guilt, 629b human guilt and human woe, 273a I fear many things because I have done many things shamelessly, 581a I have done it; turn your sword against me, 574b is always jealous, 770b like a guilty thing, 290a make mad the guilty, 293b men, guilt, not wise, 43a
mine is all the deceit, 575a misery yoked to guilt, 37a my sin, my sin, 575a my stronger guilt, 595b never rational, 42b no one guilty, acquitted by his own conscience, 527b nothing more wretched than guilt, 591b power obtained by guilt, 589a premeditation of a crime is guilt, 584a terror haunts the guilty mind, 195b the avenging fiend, 266b
the faulty stands on his guard, 844a the guilty flourishing, 651b the only art her guilt to cover, 149b to be conscious of no guilt, 543a to turn white at no fault laid to our charge, 543a those who fear not guilt, 82b was my grim chamberlain, 172b

Guilt and Guilty—contd.

what heavy guilt upon him lies, 382b when the guilty is acquitted, the judge is condemned, 561b who flees judgment confesses guilt, 531a who protects the guilty prepares a crime, 595a wicked flee when no man pursueth, 475a Guiltless death, a, I die, 303a Guinea, rather have a, than a one-pound note, 441a stamp, 49a the jingling of the, 358b Guineas, nice yellow, 49b Guinea-pigs cheered, one of the, 119b Guitar, troubadour touched his, 19a Gulf fixed, a great, 425a profound, a, 217b Gullet, should have a hook in his, 65b Gull's way, to the, 209b Gum, their medicinal, 303a Gums, whose rich trees wept odorous, 218b Gummidge, Mrs., 114a Gun, pike and, 51a sure as a, 739a what things we see when we don't have a, 868b Guns are heard on every side, 45b but for these vile, 313b of, and drums, and wounds, 313b that go boom-boom, 145b Gunpowder, printing and Protestant religion, 71b this villainous saltpetre, 313b Gurges vitiorum, 573a, note Gurnet, a soused, 314b Gutter Lane, all goeth down, 732b Guy against Robert, 787b Gwynne, Nell, 242b

H

Habeas corpus, 539b
Habeas Corpus Act, 207a Habit, costly thy, as thy purse can buy, 291a holy, cleanseth not a foul soul, 723a HABIT
an old passion difficult to discard, 515b bad to be accustomed even to good things, 526a causes love, 505a every man's manners fashion his fortune, 665a evil to be accustomed to good things, 498a fixed as a habit, 239b great is the force of habit, 570b habits at first cobwebs, at last cables, 770b how use doth breed a habit, 281b is overcome by habit, 503a, 505b is second nature, 770b is ten times nature, 384a, 770b Jonathan Wild and the Count, 135a learn a bad habit, and ca' it a custom, 799b long continued, is character, 479b love taught by habit, 558b man is a bundle of habits, 807a may reach the dignity of crimes, 234a more things done through habit than reason, 621a pursuits become habits, 483a

Habit—cont'd.

rules the unreflecting herd, 398a will betray you again, 505a Habitation, local, and a name, 281a Hackney mistress, hackney maid, 770b Hackneyed in business, 98a Had I wist, beware of, 744b

HADES

a way from all sides to the lower
world, 675a
domus exilis Plutonia, 685b each has his punishment in Hades, 639a

I will move Hades, 533b Hæc te victoria perdet, 637b Haggard, if I do prove her, 302a Haggards, the, ride no more, 442a Haggis will run down hill, 755b Hags, secret, black, and midnight,
305a
Hail and farewell, for ever, 552b Hail brings frost in the tail, 770b rain, rain, rattle-stanes, dinna rain on me, 829a one grain of pepper is worth a cartload of hail, 821b

HAIR

a hair has its shadow, 526a, 679b a sable silvered, 290b all are not maidens that wear fair hair, 732b and hair makes the earle's head bare, 770b became curlier, 89b coal-black and grizzled here and there, 260a
divide a hair, 50b draw you to her with a single hair, 247b, note
draws us with a single hair, 175a,
note foolish to tear one's hair, 663b get your hair cut, 464b golden locks turned to silver, 242a had all his hairs been lives, 302b he is false who has a black head and red beard, 773b his tresses grey, 271b how ill white hairs become a fool and jester, 316a hyacinthine locks, 219a Hyperion's curls, 295b keep your hair on, 464b long hair, short wit, 804b Madonna-wise on either side, 356b one hair of a woman, 175a of your head all numbered, 422b red-gold cataract of her hair, 243a stood on end, 608a tangles of Neera's hair, 226a thy amber-dropping hair, 225b the floral hair, 353a there's hair, 464b those who have white heads should be wise, 648b to comb your noddle, 276b treachery lurks under fairest hair, 199b tresses like the Morn, 225b waved her golden hair, 90a white hair, sign of age, not of
wisdom, 477b
with his hair on end, 100a with his human hair, 32a with long dishevelled hair, 320b with your love-locks flowing, 266a woman's locks long, but her wits short, 804b Hairbreadth 'scapes, 300b Halcyon days, 317a Half-a-crown, spends, out of sixpence a day, 239a

Half an egg better than empty shell,
743a
Half-dressed, lean over the, 6b Half enough is half fill, 770b image of myself and dearer half, 219b is better than the whole, 477b is greater than the whole, 452b, 516a
never do things by halves, 814b will never be believed, 256b Halifax and Hell, 356a Hall binks are sliddery, 770b fair in, where beards wag all, 795a the ornament of the house, 681b Halls and colleges (Oxford), 191b marble, 38b sweep through her marble, 197b Halloo, do not, until you are out of the wood, 752b Hallow, to, all we find, 185b Hallowed down to earth's profound,
68b so, and so gracious is the time, 290a
Halos, the stock of, would give out,
244a Halter draw, no man e'r felt the,
373a made of silk, 83a mention not, in house of him that was hanged, 813b now fitted the halter, 259b Hamlet begins to disgust, 133b Hamlet, forefathers of the, 153b Hammer and anvil, between, 744a and anvil, noise of, 420b when a, strike your fill, 872b Hammers fell, no, 160a Hamptden, John, 176a Macaulay on, 205b some village, 154a Hams, together with, most weak,
292b
HAND AND HANDS
a cold hand, a warm heart, 719a a hand open as day for charity, 315b a hand to bless, 81b a hand to execute, 184a adore the hand that gives the blow, 246a against every man his, 409a and here's a hand, 48a another hand the standard wave, 37a as small as a man's hand, 410b do not effusively offer to everyone, 585b folding of the hands to sleep, 413b for hand, foot for foot, 410a gied him my hand, 17a gods hear men's hands before their lips, 353a had you stretched your hand, 351a hands not hearts, 302a hard hand, sign of a brave mind, 317b hard with labour, her, 240b his red right hand, 217a his trembling hand had lost the ease, 271b
how hands so vile could conquer, 231b
I can scarce keep my hands off
you, 686b
I see a hand you cannot see, 372a in resignation pressed, 399a just raised to shed his blood, 248a laid upon a person without violence, 579b

Hand and Hands—cont'd.

let my right hand forget her cunning, 413b let not thy left hand know what thy right hand doeth, 421b let this pressure of the hand express the inexpressible, 713a little hands never made to tear each other's eyes, 382a many hands light work, 807b my hand, with my heart in it, 311a not only clean hands but clean minds, 600b
O for the touch of a vanished
hand, 359b
of little employment, 296b one hand is enough in a purse, 821b
one hand washes another, 480b, 821b one of his hands wrought, and the other held a weapon, 411a our hands have met, 170b rubbed his hands and smiled aloud, 173a rubs hand, 573b shake hands for ever, 121a that rocks the cradle, 376b that made us, 3a the finest hand of any woman, 342a the wise hand doth not all the foolish mouth speaks, 853a there is a hand that guides, 361a these hands are not more like,
290b thine hands have made me and fashioned me, 411a to die upon the hand I love so well, 280b
to holy hands and humble hearts, 103b to join hands, 562a two in a dish, one in a purse, 864b warned both hands before the fire of Life, 192b wash the hands often, the feet seldom, 866b washing his hands with invisible soap, 173a waved her lily hand, 143a were made for honest labour, 383a were joined where hearts agree, 153a what man's hand has made man's hand can destroy, 868b whatsoever thy hand findeth to do, 415b
who shuts his hand hath lost his
gold, 163b
will not sweeten this little hand, 305a with clean hands, 568a you have made a hand of it like a foot, 879b
Hand, reef and steer, how to, 110b Hände, was, bauen, können Hände stürzen, 714a Handel and Bononcini, 53a sings wisdom, 132a Handel's sake, Messiah's eulogy for,
101a Handicraft, be not ashamed of your,
740b Handicrafts: without these cannot a city be inhabited, 420b Handkerchief, he had no little, 16b Handsome, everything, about him, 285a in appearance but without brain, 607b is that handsome does, 770b

Handsome people often the worst,

534a she that is born, is born married, 833a wretched for a man to be over-594b Hang a man twice for one offence,
814b a man, when he says he'll, 145b first hang and then hear the case, 806b, note
him anyhow, 83b the man over again, 16a wrong fier, far better, 114b ye, 'tis in our powers to, 139a yourself, go and, 527b

Hanged, drawn and quartered, 242b for very honest rhymes, 252b thief is sorry that he is to be, 851b to order anyone to be, 573a younger than you have been, 838b

Hanging and wiving go by destiny,
771a

and wooing go by destiny, 282b better than wedding, 771a if you like not, drown yourself, 212a is stretching; mocking's catching, 831b

is too good for him, 38b like London bells, they want nothing but hanging, 856b mention not a halter in the house of him that was hanged, 813b more ways to kill a dog than, 854a Nay, stay, quoth Stringer when his head was in the halter, 813b unlucky to save a half-hanged

man, 806a
worst use a man could be put to,
403a

Hangman when it comes home to
him, 113b

Hannah, in tongue a, 444a Hannibal at the gates, 541a knew not how to use victory, 683a

Hap and a halfpenny, 771a Hap, harder, did never two kind hearts disserve, 434b

HAPPENINGS
God gives in a moment what has been long denied, 511a

it happens in an hour that comes
not in seven years, 793b

it will happen in its time, it will go in its time, 854b none knows what may happen to him before sunset, 817b take things as you find them, 838b

that may happen to all which can to one, 509b the event is schoolmaster of fools, 526b when what you wish does not happen, wish for what does, 872a

where things can happen, 263a Happier, I am, than I know, 220b lot, no, can I wish thee, 335b Happiest if ye seek no happier state, 219b

of men, that Adam called the, 65b HAPPINESS
a disposition to, 234b a good man happy, 75b a happiness which makes the heart afraid, 170b alas, too happy, 531a an elysium on earth, 233a and misery go to those who have most, 698b

belongs to the contented, 472a

Happiness—contd.

beware, ye happy, 661b beware what earth calls happiness, 405a

born a twin, 62b but little happy if I could say how much, 284a

by compulsion, 86a by report, 9b
domestic happiness, 99b duty of being happy, underrated, 344a

even to be happy is a dangerous
thing, 345a

every weal hath its woe, 756a excess of too familiar happiness, 400a

fixed to no spot, 249b for the greatest numbers, 175b happy are the good, 67b happy as a lover, 399b happy except that you were absent, 527b

happy heart better than wealth, 749a

happy hours together, 233b happy is he born and taught,
403a

happy is he who has well employed his time, 531a

happy is he who serveth the happy, 771a

hard to make Englishman acknowledge he is happy, 367a he alone fortunate who has died happily, 473b

he is happy who thinks himself so, 774a

he is happy who wisely uses God's gifts, 600a

Heaven wills our happiness, 407a house a great source of happiness, 333a

how happy could I be with either, 143a how sad a sight is human happiness, 405a

hunting after happiness, 170b I have known happiness; I have lived and loved, 713a

I hope she is happy, 27b if less wise, more happy, 58b if you can be well without health, you can be happy without virtue, 790a

in nothing else so happy, 312b is added Life, 339a is no laughing matter, 385b is transient, 475b

it is better to be happy than wise, 795a joyfulness, mother of all virtues, 711b learn to grasp happiness, 714b make men happy and to keep them so, 253a mankind happier always for having been happy, 332b many struggling against fortune are happy, 582b mind maketh happiness, 341a mind that would be happy must be great, 408a

my soul had slumbered in happiness, 335a

Nature gives every man the power of being happy, 584b

Nature has given happiness to
all, 686b

never to be bought, 249b no evil man happy, 589a

no man to be considered happy till dead, 476b

Happiness—contd.

no one can be perfectly happy till all are, 338b no one to be called, before dead and buried, 514b

none can be happy without virtue, 589a none happy but the wise and

good, 591a

nothing is blessed in every particular, 563b not in great possessions, 600a not in pleasure, 127b not in the multitude of friends, 183b nowhere to be found or everywhere, 249b

O happy human race, if love ruled you, 606a

O make us happy, 35a of the greatest number, 22a of the wicked, disperses like a stream, 698b

only happy are the truly great,
404b

our being's end and aim, 249b our own felicity we make, 147b passes everyone in life once, 855a

people never so happy or unhappy as they suppose, 704a

Reason the veray straight line to happiness, 166b seems made to be shared, 698b sighed for independent happiness, 401b

Solon thought no one should be called happy whilst alive, 588b something always to choke us in our delights, 557b spirit of one happy day, 394b takes no account of time, 771a that he knows no more (happy), 249a the happiness 'twill bring, 66a the pursuit of happiness, 176b the soul's calm sunshine, 249a there is an hour wherein a man might be happy all his life, 855a thrice happy those united in lasting love, 531a time short in proportion to its

happiness, 668b

'tis the happy who have called thee so, 337a to agathon, 479a to be worthy of happiness, 523a to look into, through another man's eyes, 289b to live happily makes human felicity, 689a

to make men happy, 104b to wonder at nothing keeps a man
happy, 593a

too swiftly flies, 155a two are happy where one is wise, 873a

unexpected happiness, 558a virtue alone is happiness, 250a virtue and happiness mother and daughter, 866a

vita præcepta beatæ, 685b vives joyeux, 700b

we should publish our joys, 867a we're born to be happy, 346b what gift more desirable than a happy hour, 635b

what makes a nation happy, 223a what world of happiness, 245b where in the end we find our happiness, 393b

whether produced by riches or virtue, 678b

Happiness—contd.

who talks much of his happiness summons grief, 782a why should he who is happy desire to be happier, 496a wisdom does not trouble about happiness, 472b would you be never sad? live rightly, 685a wretched the bliss of mortal affairs, 580b Harangue, the clear, 95b Harbour after so many shipwrecks, 623a bar be moaning, through the, 189a so you win the Golden, 444b Harbours open, bid, 251b Hard and hard do not make a wall, 520b, 771b everything, is softened with difficulty, 477a heart against hard lap, 833a it is to find, how, 68a no lap so, but may in fine amend, 338a nothing so, but search will find it out, 165a, 300b things compassed by easy means, 212a Harder nor hungrier, none, 194a Hardness: durum et durum non faciunt murum, 771b Hardness ever mother of hardness, 309a Hardy as the Nemean lion's nerve, 291b Hare, a sleeping, 473b first catch, and then cook it, 761b has first rank as food, 557b run after two, and catch neither, 790b the, starts when a man least expects, 846a to rouse a lion, than to start a, 313b when a dog followeth a, 234a where we least think there goeth the hare away, 874a you cannot catch a hare with a tabret, 878b Hares, he who chases two, 520a Hare's head against the goose's giblets, 833a Harlot, a, was thy nurse, 352b Harm him as little as possible that he may live the longer, 378a I mean no, 181a to win us to our, 303b watch, harm catch, 771b Harmer, Alderman, 15b
 Harmes two of, 79a Harmless as doves or as lambs, 382b, 422b in one may be harmful in another, 520a Harmonious numbers, 218a sisters, Voice and Verse, 227b Harmonist, sweet, 405b HARMONY and HARMONIES among these wheels, 74b by the power of harmony, 393b by harmony the world was made, 152b dissonant chords beget harmonies, 235a divine (harmonies), yet ever new, 326a from harmony this universal frame began, 125b nowadays for harmony, 29a sentimentally disposed to harmony, 192a seraph-haunted queen of, 398a

Harmony and Harmonies—contd.

such harmony is in immortal souls, 283b the hidden soul of harmony, 224b the touches of sweet harmony, 283b Harness, dead in his, 421b him that girdeth on his, 410b on our back, die with, 305b Harp a king had loved to hear, 271b I never learned how to tune a, 447b if his weak, 24b of thousand strings, 383a on the frayed string, 236a set my, to notes of saddest woe, 227b take thy, 171b that once through Tara's halls, 230b the sole companion, 19a Harps, to, preferring swords, 398a Harper, as a, lays his open palm, 199a Harpeth on a matter, he that, 414a Harping on my daughter, 292b Harpocrates, god of silence, 524a, 664b Harris, Mrs., 113b
 Harrison, Major-General, executed, 242b Harrow School song, 441a Harrow up thy soul, would, 291b Harry, bluff, broke into the spence, 358a Harsh cadence of a rugged line, 125a not, nor grating, 394a out of tune and, 294a Harshness and flattery, 523b, note culture keeps manners free from, 556a Hart pantheth after the water brooks, 412b Harumfrodite, a giddy, 190a HARVEST
 a stubble land at harvest home, 313a good harvests make men prodigal, bad provident, 768b harvest folk should make good cheer in the hall, 374b he that regardeth the clouds shall not reap, 416a in August and vintage no Sundays or Saints days, 792a is past and we are not saved, 418a joy in harvest, 417a
 lingering lubbers lose many a penny, 374b live within your harvest, 576b make speedy carriage for fear of rain, 374b mar so fair a harvest, 169a of a quiet eye, 400a share my harvest, 172a she laughs with a harvest, 177a truly is plentiful, 422b white already to harvest, 425b who has a good harvest may be content with some thistles, 778b Hash of men's buzzums, to make, 28a Hast, ohne, aber ohne Rast, 713b HASTE
 a rushed cause is not a just one, 598b administers all things badly, 510b anger and haste hinder good counsel, 737a as hasty as Hopkins that came to jail overnight, 738b aye in a hurry, and aye ahint, 739b

Haste—contd.

comes not alone, 771b deliberation better than haste, 10b dress slowly when in a hurry, 753b error is always in haste, 755a falsehood thrives on haste, 681a fiery red with haste, 312b good and quickly seldom meet, 768a great haste makes great waste, 760b hasty climbers have sudden falls, 771b hasty counsels rarely prosper, 623b hasty men never want woe, 737a he sows hurry, 344a he speeds to repentance who judges hastily, 485a hurry is slow, 532a hurry only good for catching fleas, 818b ill-considered undertakings languish, 611a impulse manages things badly, 572a in giving judgment is criminal, 552a is of the devil, 771b, note is prodigal, 771b keep your hurry in your fist, 798b makes waste, and waste want, and want strife, 876a maketh waste, 771b man is created of hastiness, 465b mischiefs ensue his heedless, 339b more haste less speed, 812a, note mounting in hot haste, 54b nothing done well in haste but running from the plague, 818b Oh, make haste, 136a one shoe off and one on, 822b quick enough, if good enough, 836a quick in deciding are in danger of mistake, 480b quick steps are best over miry ground, 829a race is not to the swift, 416a rien ne sert de courir; il faut partir à point, 707a softly to make haste, 200b the slow catches up the swift, 679b they stumble that run fast, 279a tires betimes who spurs too fast, 312a trips up its own heels, 771b what is quickly accomplished quickly perishes, 640a Hasten deliberately, 478b slowly, 532a Hasteth well that can abide, 78b Hastings and Hotspurs, none of the, 878b Hasty spark, shows a, and straight is cold again, 286b HATS
 a hat is going round, 167b a hat is not made for one shower, 723a all round my hat, 464a all your fortune lies beneath your hat, 239b but as the fashion of his hat, 284a he brushes his hat o' mornings, 284b he wears a broad-brimmed hat, 537a her hat was a beaver, 143 I live by pulling off the hat, 155b in a broad-brimmed hat, 24b Hais—contd.

it's the life of an auld hat to be weel cockit, 797b ne'er pull your hat upon your brows, 305a not much the worse for wear, 98b pass the hat for your credit's sake, 190a pull down your hat on the wind's side, 828b
such a pot must have such a lid, 838a that hat without a crown, 171a the man in the white hat, 464a the old three-cornered hat, 167a though their hats be very ugly, I love the English, 706b what a shocking hat, 464a what, the same old hat, 464a where did you get that hat, 464b who has a head will not want a hat, 778b who hath no head needs no hat, 875a, note
Hatchet, to throw handle after, 455a Hatching vain empires, 217a Hatchment, no trophy sword or,
296b

HATE and HATRED

a hate found only on the stage, 63b a stalled ox, and hatred, 414a a true man hates no one, 450a add'st but fuel to my hate, 271b an undying hatred, 550a and a shower of weapons, 675b and mistrust, children of blindness, 379b
as soon as hate in me, 325a as though you would have to love, 451a, 488b
at first sight, 132a (hate) cannot wish thee worse, 231b cherish those hearts that hate thee, 320a deceit and treachery lodge with hatred, 373b delicious to hate you, 230b detests him as the gates of hell, 256b dissembled hate, 124a dowered with the hate of hate, 356b do not go further with your hatred, 674b
enough religion to make us hate one another, 350a extinction of unhappy hates, 5a fanned by folly, begotten of greed, 376b feeble hates, 4b folks never understand the folks they hate, 202a fools to hate, 345a forgot were hatred, wrongs, and fears, 270a
German Song of Hate, 444a greatest hate springs from greatest love, 845b
hate all that don't love me, 134a hated all, but most the best, 256b hated a fool and a rogue, 181a hated all for love of Jesus Christ, 266a
hated with the gall of gentle souls, 29b hating each other for the love of God, 196b
hated openly expressed less dangerous, 559b
he did but feign to hate, 380a he is not safe whom all hate, 674a

Hate and Hatred—contd.

he loves me for little that hates me for nought, 775b he was a very good hater, 181a he was void of rancorous hate, 272b his frown of hatred, 57a how hot are Love and Hate, 381a I am satiated with seeing thee live, 351a
I do not hate him as much as I ought, 70b
I hate and I love, 608b if I can I will hate, 608b if you hate a man, let him live, 790b immortal hate, 216a ire and hate opposite ire and hate, 214b Juno's unrelenting hate, 127a let out hate, 330a let them hate as long as they fear, 608b, note
love lights more than hate extinguishes, 387b love or hate not in our power, 208a loved well because he hated, 33b man is hate, 387a men hate those they have hurt, 810a natural to hate him whom you have injured, 626a never man can less hide his hate, 212b next to love, hate the sweetest thing, 198b
no good result when hatred is returned for hatred, 710a no reason for your hate or love, 212b not with misanthropic hate, 53b obligingness could supple hate, 239b of Wrong, 235b oppressed with vulgar hate, 127a our hate too choice for careless lavishing, 382a people love and hate without
reason, 704a
planting hatreds of long duration in his mind, 609a rather be hated than laughed at,
332b repaid their hate with cheerful glee, 325b roughness breedeth hate, 10a ruling principle of hate, 61b smile to those who hate, 61b sourest and most deadly hate, 312b storing up hate, 609a the false love turns to hate, 365a the hate of those below, 54b the honest man must endure hatred and envy, 713a the slave of Love and Hate, 265a the unloven hatred of his heart, 57b
they hated Me without a cause, 426a to be hated, needs but to be seen, 249a to escape hatred is to triumph, 609a to fast from hate, 165b to hate the hand which doth oblige, 108a truth brings forth hate, 681a truths that soften hatred, 398b unequivocal hatred, 192a unlearned the power to hate, 239b we can hardly hate anyone we
know, 159b

Hate and Hatred—contd.

we have all but a single hate, 444a we hate that which we often fear, 307a what so dreadful as celestial hate, 256b what will be your hatred, your love being so cruel, 636b where I hate I dare proclaim it, 212a who cannot hate can love not,
352a
who love too much, hate, 257b with heaps of hate shall be oppressed, 262b woman wronged can cherish hate, 386a you shall not vanquish me by your hatred, 605b Hateful alike to God and to his foes, 166a, 714a
Hath, unto every one that, shall be given, 424a
Hatter, who's your, 464a Hatton, Sir Christopher, 155b, note Haunt of Gods, fit, 221b to, to startle, to waylay, 393a Haunted me, the morning long, 357a the place is, 171a Hautboys breath, give the, 125b Have been, I am not what I, 169a Have, he that would, what he hath not, 783a rail because other folks, 135a to, what we would have, 299b Haven, I have found the, 558b, note Haven's found, mine, 50a Havoc and spoil and ruin, 218a cry, and let slip the dogs of war, 286a Havocs, what noble, he had made,
169b
HAWKS and HAWKING a carrion kite will never make good hawk, 718b a goshawk beats not at a bunting, 722b
between hawk and buzzard, 744a by hawk and hound small profit is found, 746b for one joy in hawking a hundred displeasures, 866a
hawk and kite, which do us injury, 600b high-flying hawks are fit for princes, 785a hold fast, the first point in hawking, 785b, 844b
I know a hawk from a handsaw,
293a of more delight than hawks or horses, 322a our ancestors grew not great by hawking and hunting, 823b pursues the trembling doves, 678a some glory in hawks and hounds, 322a sparrow, flying behind, thinks the hawk is fleeing, 851b the gentle hawk half mans herself, 845a
'tis royal sport, 212a to hawk at eagles with a dove, 163b we hate the hawk because he lives in arms, 609a whiles the hawk has, and whiles he hunger has, 874a with empty hand no man should hawks allure, 877a you cannot make a sparrow-hawk out of a buzzard, 879a Hawkins, epitaph on, 17a

Hawkins, Sir Jonn, 178b Hawthorn in the dale, under the, 224a Hawthorn-time, in, the heart grows light, 354a Hay, be sure of, till end of May, 740b make hay while the sun shines, 807a making hay in fine weather, 173a rarely smells the new-mown hay, 356b Hazard, as great a share of, 217b let us face the, 654a of the die, I will stand the, 319b which admits no long debate, 222a HEAD a head fantastically carved with a knife, 315b a good head cannot lie, 722a and as gently lay my head, 29a and front of my offending, 300b cut off head and tail and throw the rest away, 750b better be head of dog than tail of lion, 742b better be head of yeomanry than tail of gentry, 742b big head, little brains, 717b disease worst which proceeds from the head, 678a, note error of head, not heart, 233b good grey head, which all men knew, 361a grown grey in vain, 326b hath not where to lay his head, 422a
 head and feet keep warm, 846a head cool and feet warm, 846a heaven upon earth to the weary head, 173a hide their diminished heads, 218b hoary head is a crown of glory, 414a if England's head and heart were one, 119a if the head is afflicted, all the limbs grow weak, 654a incessantly stand on your head, 119a I pity the head of him, 32b is not more native to the heart, 290a it argues a distempered head, 279a it begins to stink from the head, 473a keeps turnin' back for counsel to the tail, 202b less beloved head, 56a like a concertina, 189b little heads may contain much learning, 803b little wit in head makes much work for feet, 804a little wood, much fruit, 804a muckle head, little art, 717b neither head nor feet, 586a off with his head, 83a off with her head, 119b one head given for many, 675b one good head better than a hundred good hands, 821b one good head better than a hundred strong arms, 821b old heads on young shoulders, 880a one head cannot hold all wisdom, 821b one small head could carry all he knew, 148b peaceful, flourishing head, 104b

Head—contd.
 plays round the head, but comes not near the heart, 250a repairs his drooping head, 226b scabby head fears the comb, 721b scald man's head soon broken, 727b shake his sapient head, 5a silvered o'er with age, 143b snow upon thy reverend head, 94b so many heads, so many wits, 835a swelled head, 188a that have no wit at all, 835a that sacred head of thine, 226a that wears a crown, 315b the subtle, contriving head, 5b the whole head is sick, 416b they put four heads in one hood, 864b thy poor head almost turns, 4b to be let, 51a to contrive, 176a two heads better than one, 864b wash your head never, 866b what is good for the back is bad for the head, 840a when the head aches all the body is worse, 871a who has a head will not lack a hat, 778b who has no head needs no hat, 778b who has not a head should have legs, 875a who hath a head of glass should not throw stones, 857b who hath no head needs no heart, 875a, note who strikes with tongue must ward with head, 852a witless head makes weary feet, 730a with a good tongue worth double, 723a without head or tail, 87b you could not tell which was the head, 25b you must scratch your head with your own nails, 880a your nut is ready cracked for you, 880b Head-dress, lady's, 2b
 Head-work, for, choose a man with long nose, 450a Headstrong as an allegory, 328a Heavy not strong, 254a Healed, one is not so soon, as hurt, 822a HEALTH
 a deity presiding over men's affairs, 623b and a good conscience, 333a and high fortune till we meet, 273b and intellect the two blessings, 480a and money go far, 784a and sickness men's double enemies, 784a be careful of health, 509b better keep weel than make weel, 743a better than wealth, 784a blessed health, without thee none is happy, 605b chief box of health is time, 841b consists with temperance, 249b every breeze bears health, 177b fatal issue to his health, 100b grant me but health, 343b hunt in fields for health unbought, 125a

Health—contd.
 if you can be well without health, you can be happy without virtue, 790a in health we easily advise the sick, 529a keep well while you are well, 798b life is not to be alive but to be well, 598a life not life without health, 480b look to your health, 378a men approach gods in giving health to men, 545a mirth causeth health, 375b much interested in her own health, 389a not valued till sickness comes, 784b of people the supreme law, 648a of the people, 118b or liberty, which is greatest weal, 379a peace and health, 155b peace and competence, 249b prodigal of health, 106b safety and the health of the whole state, 291a some men employ their, 98a surest road to health, 81b the second blessing, 378a value health next to a good conscience, 378a water, air, cleanliness, 450b we wish him health, 187a well has that well is, 867b who has health is rich and does not know it, 784b who would be well needs not go from his own house, 782b who would be well old must be old betimes, 782b willingness to be cured a sign of health, 615b with health, royal wealth can add nothing, 617a without money is half an ague, 784b See Healthy, infra
HEALTHS (Toasts) (See p. 461) and draughts go free, 200b drank Sir Condy's health till we could stand no longer, 130a drink one another's, spoil our own, 177a drink healths is to drink sickness, 109a drinking healths and amplifying diseases, 177a, note five fathom deep, 278a give our friends a title to our blood, 376b here's a health to you and yours, 461b (a health) to all those that we love, 461a warm our brains with half-a-dozen healths, 137a Healthy body the soul's guest-chamber, 13a by temperance, 252b know not their health, 72a Heap, a great, formed of many things, 511b Hear all men speak, 164b all parties, 784b every man upon his favourite theme, 345a me, time will come when you will, 118a see, and be silent, 494a still they seemed to, 257b swift to, and slow to speak, 430b, 806b

Hear the other side, 494*a*, note these things to hear, 300*b* what signifies me hear, 22*a* who will not hear must be made to feel, 875*b*

Heard, admired but not, 129*a* it, but he heeded not, 55*b* of thee by the hearing of the ear, 412*a*

Hearer, a willing and prepared, 344*b* the charmed, thought it was his
own, 371*b*

Hearers could not cough or look aside, 184*a*

Hearer's mind, around the, 57*b*

Heareth, he that, and understandeth not, 738*a*

Hearing a hundred times, not so good as seeing once, 843*b* ill, makes wrong rehearsing, 792*a* it is not well to see and hear everything, 598*a*
on the prudent side, no, 96*a* zealous in, 663*a*

Hearsay goes everywhere, 830*b* only wounds by, 284*b*

Hearse, underneath this sable, 182*b*

HEART and HEARTS a good heart better than all the heads, 204*b*

a good heart the best remedy against ill fortune, 841*a* a heart as soft, a heart as kind, 164*b*

a man's heart deviseth his way, 414*a*

a noble heart is immovable, 506*a* a heart so manly and so kind, 260*b*

all that mighty heart (London), 395*a*

as he is disposed in his heart, 432*b*

as vibrates my fond heart, 62*a* at leisure from itself, 378*b* beat in my brain, 290*b* beating of my own heart, 215*b* beats in every breast the same, 5*a* beneath the tartan plaid, 7*a* blind hearts, 607*a* brave, and clean, 364*b* brave impetuous heart, 5*b* broken hearts die slow, 67*b* build on the human heart, 31*a* came into my heart and whelmed it like a flood, 266*a* distrusting, asks if this be joy, 148*b*

do not eat your heart, 506*a* doth need a language, 88*b* drops that visit my sad heart, 285*b*

each with its own heart and mind, 93*b*

ensanguined hearts, 100*b* every grace except the heart, 44*b* feeling hearts, touch them but rightly, 264*b*

floor paved with broken hearts, 200*b*

for falsehood framed, 328*a* give me back my heart, 61*a*, 152*b* good heart's worth gold, 315*a* Greensleeves was my heart of, gold, 436*a*

grown cold, a head grown grey, 326*b*

had removed the stony from their hearts, 221*b*

half heart is no heart, 770*b* hard heart worse than a bloody
hand, 327*a*

has ears, 846*a*

Heart and Hearts—contd.

has reasons of which reason has no knowledge, 699*a* have we not hearts to love, 388*a* have won a passage to thy heart, 395*a*

heart, not opinion, an honour to a man, 710*b*

heart's letter is read in the eyes, 846*a*

hearts we leave behind, 68*b* hearts was her favourite suit 192*a*

her heart soft with pity, 240*b* heresy of heart, 387*a* his heart is like the sea, 383*b* his heart seemed dying away, 337*a*

I feel my heart new opened, 320*a* I praise the heart, 32*b*

I proffered my heart, 32*a* I should have found in him a greater heart, 365*a*

I've heard of hearts unkind, 399*b* if thy heart fails thee, 262*a* if wrong our hearts, our heads are right in vain, 407*a* improvident, indecent hearts, 29*b* in his heart my heart is locked, 266*a*

in my heart's core, 294*b* in my heart of heart, 294*b* in the heart or in the head, 283*a* is deceitful above all things, 418*b* is high, although my hap be hard, 345*b*

is the mirror, 70*a* it is a poor heart that never rejoices, 794*a*

(hearts) just as pure and fair, 146*b* knoweth its own bitterness, 414*a* lack of heart, the sore no man healeth, 152*a* laying his hand upon many a heart, 198*b*

leaps up, 392*b* let me wring your heart, 295*b* lift up your hearts, 666*b* listened when he pleading spoke,

37*b*

look then into thine heart, 197*b* made their hearts as an adamant stone, 419*b* maiden's hearts, 37*b* may touch the heart, 46*b* measurement round the heart, 809*b*

men with Splendid Hearts, 26*a* must rule, 107*b*

my heart feels ice, 33*b* my heart is idly stirred, 400*a* my heart moved more than with a trumpet, 329*b*

nearest the heart nearest the mouth, 813*b*

never care or pain shall reach her innocent heart, 233*a* no union here of hearts, 229*a* nor bate a jot of heart or hope, 227*a*

(heart) not brain, attains to the highest, 198*b*

not mind, argues in women, 5*b* nought greater than an honest humble heart, 407*b*

now cracks a noble heart, 277*b* O you hard hearts, 285*a* of a maiden is stolen, 231*a* (hearts) of all yearn after it, 74*b* of oak, 141*b*, 454*b* of the wise should reflect like a mirror, 846*a*

one of them, more hard of heart, 435*b*

Heart and Hearts—contd.

open my heart, 36*a* open not thine heart to every man, 420*a*

other lips and other hearts, 38*b* our hoard is little but out hearts are great, 364*b*

out of the abundance of the heart, 422*b*

put a stout heart to a steep brae, 828*b*

runs away with his head, 90*b* sacrifice not thy heart on every altar, 830*b*

sees further than the head, 846*a* set all, to what tune pleased his ear, 310*b*

some heart did break, 362*a* some heart responds, 198*a* sovereign masters of all hearts, 186*b*

sphere of woman's glories, 233*b* stout heart and open hand, 269*a*

strike mine eyes but not mine
heart, 182*b*

subject to injury from Cupid's arrows, 579*a*

that bides its time, 34*b* that heart which others bleed for, that hideous sight, a naked human heart, 405*b*
92*a*

that music cannot melt, 19*b* that never has ached with a heart, 351*b*

that was humble might hope for it here, 233*b*

the hearts of men which fondly here admire, 341*a* the o'erfraught heart, 305*a* the very sickness in my heart, 296*b*

the whole heart faint, 416*b* then burst his mighty heart, 286*b* then hearts were hard, 127*a* to conceive, 184*a* to find out Thee, 186*a* to probe his heart, 57*a* to resolve, a head to contrive, 144*a*

to steal away your hearts, 286*b* two hearts that beat as one, 200*b* two fond hearts, 15*a* undermine the heart by whispering in the ear, 346*b* union of hearts, not hands, 166*a* untainted heart, what stronger breastplate, 317*a* untravelling, fondly turns to thee, 147*a*

upon my sleeve, 300*b* virtuous heart and resolute mind are free, 337*b*

was formed for softness, 57*b* was kind and soft, 110*b* was like to break, 17*a* was not within him, 199*b* what cometh from the heart will go to the heart, 840*a* what hearts have men, 365*a* when hearts are of each other sure, 186*a*

when the heart is afire, sparks will fly out at the mouth, 871*a* when the little heart is big, 16*b* (hearts) which lapse of years make slow to feel, 400*a* while his heart doth ache, 39*a* whose heart knew no disguise, 264*a*

will think what it never thought, 871*a*

Heart and Hearts—contd.

willing hearts turned quick to clay, 174*b* with thy heart commune and be still, 270*b*
work of their own hearts, 326*b* Heart-ache, end the, 293*b* humility a cure for, 160*b* Heart-break, chiding better than,
287*b*
full of hope and yet of heartbreak, 199*a*
Heart-stain away, ne'er carried a, 233*b*
Heart-throbs, count time by, 14*a* Heart-whole, I'll warrant him, 289*b* Hearth, a genial, a hospitable board, 398*b*
gladden our domestic, 75*a* of your own worth gold, 722*b* Hearth-stane, clean, 262*b* Hearth-stone, going to my own, 131*b*

HEAT

after greet hete cometh cold, 731*b* breaks no bones, 771*b*, 784*b* had to take off my flesh and sit in my bones, 333*b* in inverse proportion to knowledge, 228*b* in proposition to want of knowledge, 343*a* light and not heat needed, 460*b* neither heat nor cold remains always, 876*b*
soon hot, soon cold, 836*a* who in heat of blood was ever wise, 404*b*

Heath, wild warm air of the, 330*a* wind on the, 24*b*

Heathen and a Publican, 433*b*

Heathen in his blindness, 191*a* machine for converting the, 71*b* no blinkard, 351*a* not a, or a Jew, 382*a*

Heather on fire, to set the, 861*b*

Heaton timorumenos, 470*b*

HEAVEN

a cheap purchase, 784*b* a little heaven below, 382*b* a new heaven and a new earth, 431*b* all I ask, the heaven above, 344*b* all heaven around us, 231*b* all heaven its dome, 170*a* all of heaven we have below, 2*b* all the happier that he's there, 209*b*
all we know is that they sing and
love, 377*b*
alone that is given away, 201*b* an humbler heaven, 248*a* as anybody's rotten borough, 170*a* as near by sea as by land, 784*b* beholding heaven and feeling hell, 232*b*
blissful soul was in heaven, 4*a* breathe in heaven secure, 380*a* bring all heaven before mine eyes, 224*b*
candidate of heaven, 125*a* cannot be heaven without good society, 784*b*
conveyed to, 85*b* crawling between heaven and earth, 294*a*
eternal year, heaven's, 125*a* from heaven it came, to heaven returneth, 337*a* (God) placed heaven from earth so far, 220*b* God's in His heaven, 31*a* great the rest in heaven, 570*a* Heaven—contd.

harbingers to heaven, 141*a* heaven's peculiar care (Britain), 334*b*
her early heaven, her happy views, 362*a* how near heaven's own heart, 354*b*
I will shortly send thy soul to
heaven, 318*a*
in flows heaven, 32*a* in hope to merit heaven, 53*b* invites, Hell threatens, 405*a* is above all, 784*b* is far, world is high, 152*a* is for thee too high, 220*b* is love, 272*a* is overflowing, 86*a* is there care in heaven, 340*a* it swells to heaven, 295*a* knocking at heaven with thy brow, 163*b*
leave her to heaven, 292*a* leave the rest to heaven, 336*a* less of earth in them than heaven, 271*a*
light from heaven, 44*b* loss of, greatest pain in hell, 373*a* make a heaven of hell, 216*a* more sweet, 380*a* more than all in heaven, 57*a* not grim but fair, 36*a* not on such easy terms with
heaven, 381*b*
not scorned in heaven, 102*a* now at heaven's gates, 110*a* on earth, 218*b* our heart is in heaven, 160*a* pale populace of heaven, 35*a* rail at heaven to be thought wise, 677*b*
sets right other matters, 32*b* should heaven refuse to hear, 19*b* should heaven turn hell, 76*a* steep and thorny way to heaven, 291*a*
sub Jove frigido, 664*b* sword of heaven not in haste, 75*a* that frowns on me, looks sadly upon him, 319*b*
the unlearned seize heaven itself, 666*b*
there are more things in heaven and earth, 292*a* there is no going to heaven in a sedan chair, 855*b* those who win heaven, 36*a* though she saw all heaven in flower, 351*a* to know I'm further off from
heaven, 171*b*
to reach heaven their own strange road, 104*b*
'twas whispered in heaven, 422*a* was in him before he was in heaven, 378*a*
we strive to reach heaven in our folly, 594*a*
wearisome to watch constantly the arch of heaven, 667*b* were not heaven, if we knew what it were, 346*a*, 377*a* where imperfection ceaseth, 14*a* whether he goes to heaven or hell, 275*a* which we ascribe to heaven, 299*a* who may enter the kingdom of heaven, 9*a*
who mope for heaven, 188*b* women differ as heaven and hell, 365*a*

HEAVENS

declare the glory of God, 412*a* Heavens—contd.

God never meant that man should scale the heavens, 100*a* heard the heavens fill with shouting, 358*b* let the heavens fall; thy will be
done, 647*a* my wide roof-tree, 7*a* so tranquil in the heavens above, 160*a* spangled heavens, 3*a* suit the tastes of all, 232*b* what if the heavens should fall, 637*a*
will attempt to journey to the heavens, 646*a* Heavenly hope is all serene, 160*a* things and human affairs, 611*b* Heaviness that's gone, 311*a* Heavy, a little, 63*a* heir bears a humble tongue, 277*b* Hebrides, we in dreams behold the,
441*a*
Hector, how changed from that,
541*b*
who would know of, if Troy had been fortunate, 541*b* Hecuba to him, what's, 293*a* Hedge, a low, is easily leapt over,
724*b*
between keeps friendship green, 723*a*
it is good sheltering under an old hedge, 795*b* love your neighbour yet pull not down your hedge, 723*a* where the hedge is lowest men leap over, 873*a* Hedges have ears, 761*a* Hedgehog has one resource, which is sufficient, 492*b* dressed in lace, 167*b* lodge among thorns, 784*b* rolled up the wrong way, 173*a* Hedgerow, set him before a, 37*b* Heed, take, doth surely speed, 838*b* Heel, a shaft i' the, 59*a* always upon the, but never well, 171*b*
Heels, a fair pair of, better than a halter, 741*b* fortune may grow out at, 306*a* high, agreeable to our ancient constitution, 347*a* who has no heart should have,
778*a* Heifer dead, who finds the, 317*a* plowed with my, 410*a*

HEIGHT

from the depths of hell to the air of heaven, 630*b* I see but cannot reach, 199*a* makes Grantham's steeple awry, 795*b*
no man can see over his own height, 816*a*
of human happiness, 138*a* tall trees catch much wind, 839*a* when the hop grows high it must have a pole, 871*a*
See High Heights hazardous, great, 23*a* in other lives, 33*b* not attained by sudden flight, 200*a*
the giddy, 248*a*

HEIR and HEIRS always suspected and hated, 666*b* because he had no heir, 172*b* by right of representation, 541*a* follows heir as wave on wave, 619*b* God makes the heir, not man, 541*a* heirs of heirs without end, 541*a*

Heir and Heirs—contd.

he whom the marriage rites indicate as such, 541*a* of all the ages, 359*a* of more than royal race, 186*b* spouting through his heir, 251*b* the absent shall not be heir, 840*a* third heir never enjoys ill-got goods, 791*b*, 819*b* to heirs unknown, 251*a* weeping of his is laughter under a mask, 541*a* Heiresses, all, are beautiful, 129*a* Helicon, tea at, 83*b* Helen of Troy, 208*a* Helen's cheek, but not her heart,
289*a*
Helen's beauty in a brow of Egypt, 281*a*

HELL

and chancery always open, 784*b* and night must bring this monstrous birth, 301*a* all hell broke loose, 219*b* asking what they knew full well sent the messengers to hell, 725*a* beholding Heaven and feeling Hell, 323*b*
better to reign in hell, 216*a* by making earth a hell, 53*b* down, down to hell, 318*a* fear o' hell, 47*a* fear of hell or aiming to be blest, 377*b*
fiends with knotted whips, 261*a* for improving the prisons of hell, 336*a*
from beneath is moved for thee, 417*a*
has hell itself rights, 711*b* he's in danger of hell fire, 382*b* he that is in hell thinks there is no other heaven, 779*a* Hull, Halifax and, 356*a* ignorance only is maker of hell, 379*b* in the deepest pits of hell, 376*b* into the mouth of hell, 361*b* is full of the ungrateful, 784*b* it is in suing long to bide, 341*a* itself breathes out contagion, 295*a* loss of heaven the greatest pain in hell, 373*a* making a hell of heaven, 216*a* mocking laughter of hell, 710*b* more than hell to shun, 250*b* myself am hell, 218*b* never mentions hell to ears polite, 251*b*
no fans in hell, 854*a* no fiercer hell than failure, 184*b* nobody will go to hell for company, 856*a* oh threads of hell, 136*a* opens, when war begins, 872*a* paint gates of hell with Paradise, 360*b*
paved with good intentions, 784*b*,
note procress to the Lords of Hell, 362*b*
rather out of date, 346*b* rejoicing over the damned in hell, 635*b*, note
that bigots frame, 324*b* the gates of, 127*a* the man who has been in hell, 715*a* the way to hell more difficult than that to heaven, 852*b* there is a dreadful hell, 382*a* there is no redemption from hell,
855*b*

Hell—contd.

thou shalt have sorrow enough in hell, 856*a*, note though hell itself should gape, 290*b*
to want fame is a hell, 204*b* 'twas muttered in hell, 442*a* upon earth, 50*a* when a lackey comes to hell the devils lock the gates, 869*a* wicked people go to hell, 355*a* Hellespont, passed the, 62*b* Helm, even Palinurus nodded at
the, 254*a* Helmet of Orcus (Pluto), 614*a* Helmets barred, through the, 271*b* Helmsman's art, the faithful, 226*b* HELP
a kindly action to help the fallen, 644*a*
a renderer of help throughout the
world, 613*b*
after the battle, 622*b* assist him who is still carrying his burden, 671*a* come over into Macedonia and help us, 426*b* godlike for mortal to help mortal, 514*a*
God's help is nearer nor the fair even, 767*b*
God's help is nearer to the door, 767*b*
long on the road, is no help, 785*a*
many friends, few helpers, 807*b* mutual help is the law of nature, 813*a*
need the help of weaker hand, 340*a*
of one we have helped, 30*a* oft has he helped me at pinch of need, 272*a* once in ten years one man hath need of another, 820*b* one grain fills not a sack, but it helps, 821*b* one often needs a lesser than one's self, 821*b*
one thing asks help of another, 488*b*
our special duty is to help others, 544*b*
past help should be past grief, 310*a*
past my help, past my care, 138*b* slow help is no help, 835*a* the lame dog over the stile, 785*a* the least grain of meal would serve me better than this pearl, 699*b*
there is help for all, except the
dead, 854*b*
there was none to help, 418*a* three helping one another bear the burden of sex, 858*b* vain is the help of man, 412*b* we should help the part most in difficulty, 665*a* when a dog is drowning all offer him water, 869*a* when a friend asks, there is no tomorrow, 869*a*
where help of few things suffices do not use many, 530*a* who helps the wicked grieves for it, 632*a* Help it, we cannot, 210*b* Helped, over and can't be, 111*b* Helve, do not throw, after hatchet,
753*a*
Hen, a crowing, 729*b* a sad house where the hen crows loudest, 794*a*

Hen, bad hen, bad egg, 572*a* black, lays a white egg, 718*a* he that is born of a hen must scrape for a living, 779*a* if the hen moult before cock, hard weather, 463*a* our neighbour's hen seems a goose, 823*b* to-morrow, better than an egg today, 795*a*
Hens, fat, are aye ill layers, 760*b* Hence and avoid my sight, 305*b* Henpecked: under the sign of the cat's foot, 865*a* Hen-pecked you all, have they not,
61*b*
Henri Quatre est sur le Pont Neuf, 828*b*
Heraclitus, obscure saying of, 568*b*
note philosophical principle of, 477*a* the weeping philosopher, 654*b* Herald angels, 385*a*, note I wish no other, 320*b* Mercury, the, 295*b* only a, who that way doth pass, 162*b*
Herald's useless at a round table,
739*b*
Heraldry: a silly old man who did not understand his silly old trade, 460*b* our new heraldry, hands not hearts, 302*a*
the boast of, 153*b* Herb and other country messes, 224*a* every, reveals a God, 623*b* one knows, one should bind to one's finger, 839*b* Herbs, small, have grace, 319*a* the powerful grace that lies in,
279*a*
Hercules and Lichas, 282*b* be thy speed, 288*a* could not contend with two, 585*b* from his foot, 527*a* himself must yield to odds, 318*a* in vain against, 536*a* than I to, 290*b* to wrest his club from, 503*a* Herd, leads the, 88*b* the unreflecting, 398*a* Herds, he that has twa, is able to get the third, 778*a* Here and everywhere, 542*b* awa', there awa', 49*b* good for us to be, 423*a* he lies, ends in, 406*a* it is better than Here it was,
743*b*
nor there, neither, 302*b* or nowhere, 542*b* we are again, oh, 444*b* we're, because we're here, 444*b* Here's to thee and me and aw' on us, 461*b*
Hereafter, if e'er we meet, 2*a* Hereditary conflict, 110*a* HEREDITY children of heroes are causes of trouble, 468*a* few sons attain the praise of their great sires, 257*a* in steers and horses, 534*b* to repeat the peculiarities of their progenitors, 644*a* we may not expect good whelp from bad dog, 802*a* worth rarely hereditary, 74*b* Heresy, an opinion disliked, 166*b* and schism, 432*a* easier kept out than shook off, 785*a*

Heresy, no more than private opinion, 166b of doctrine, better than of heart, 387a the ancient saying is no heresy, 282b the school of pride, 785a Heresies, truths begin as, 176a Heretics, writ against convicted, 511a Hereticks, Infidels and, 432a Heritage of woe, that, 57b Heritage (song), to all, 191a HERMITS
 he will never get to heaven who desires to go alone, 783b hermit thinks the sun shines only in his cell, 846a man the hermit, 66b more grievous torment than a hermit's fast, 185a of Prague, 298a, note prayer all his business, 241b the fox has turned hermit, 871a young hermit, an old devil, 731a Hero, every man's, 128b, note HERO AND HEROES
 a hero perish or a sparrow fall, 248a all men possible heroes, 30a and the saint, 95b are much the same, 250a born in happier years, 570a can be a Poet, 73a chief heroes in the lists of fame, 348b chiefly made by chance, 795a descended from heroes, 69a every hero becomes a bore, 133a feats of heroes little known, 99b give honour to our fall'n heroes, 379b greatness in heroes and the wise, 250a hail ye, heroes, 174a have trod this spot, 55b if we will, 4b made of flesh and blood, 181b make the hero and the man, 2b no man is a hero to his valet, 816b, note none essential men, 30a one brave deed makes no hero, 387b see the conquering hero comes, 195b the mask falls, the hero disappears, 699b those who bravely die, 254b to believe in the heroic makes heroes, 117a to his very valet, 58a two heroes to begin with, 73a worship strongest where least regard for freedom, 338b your foot is on a hero, 662a HEROD, out-herods, 294a Heroic, deeds above, 222a Heroics: burn not your house to fright away mice, 746a Heroically hath finished, 224a Heroism made possible by faith, 385a never reasons, 132b Heron is a saint when there are no fish about, 842b Herring: "broil my back but not my weam," 829a every herring must hang by his own gill, 755a every sprat calls itself a herring, 758a good red herring, 814b

Herring, let every herring hang by his own tail, 800b wet hand will hold a dead herring, 729a you may take spoilt herrings of bad debtors, 819b Herring-pond is wide, 34a Herring Pond, neighbours o'er the, 437b Hertfordshire kindness, 785a Herz, das, und nicht die Meinung, 710b HESITATION
 Ares (God of War) hates those who hesitate, 468b those dreadful urs, 167b woman that deliberates, 1b Heterogeneous thing, that, 108a Hewreka, I have found it, 472a Hexameter, the Homeric, 87b Hey-day in the blood, 295b Hiatus maxime (valde) defendus, 542b Hiawatha, the song of, 199a Hic est, dicitur, 665a Hic et ubique, 542b
Hic jacet, it's forlorn, 395b Hic jacet, these two narrow words, 262a Hic niger est, 483a Hidden: nothing comes fairer to light than the long hidden, 818a Hide fire, you can, but not smoke, 158a show the form it seemed to, 273b Hideous, more, than the sea-monster, 306a Hides treasure, he that, 214b Hiding, your better art of, 45a Hiems, solvitur acris, 660b Hier stehe ich! ich kann nicht anders, 713a High and humble, it is hard to be, 795b and low mate ill, 386b and low, odds for alike, 310b and palmy state of Rome, 290a err in things too, 220b Heaven is for thee too, 220b if this be, what is it to be low, 365b life, from, high characters are drawn, 250b look not too, 805a one cannot take true aim at things, 821a place, men in, 9b things, mind not, 427a, 595b who hews over, chips will fall into his eye, 779a Higher, friend, go up, 424b hearts of men may lift themselves up, 341a higher, will we climb, 229b raised, to fall lower, 471b than the sphyre chime, 225b things, love of, 66a Highest creature, had I but loved Thy, 366a he that climbs, has greatest fall, 372b it was my duty to have loved the, 366a seat will not hold two, 665b seize what is, 468a to the, she did still aspyre, 339b towers fall with heavier fall, 647b Highland sang, in, 45a the heart is, 441a Highlands, heart's in the, 48a speak well of, but dwell in the low, 837a Highlanders in hell, 129a

Highly, what thou would'st would'st thou nobly, 303b Highway, allowable to pluck what is on, 534b he that sows in, loses his corn, 781a is never about, 728a Highwaymen: gentlemen of the shade, 313a if here at night you roam, 177b Hile, cada puta, 716a HILL and HILLS a distant dearthness in the hill, 362b a heaven-kissing hill, 295b dearest which our childish feet climbed, 386a every hill has its valley, 755b grow dark, 271b Nature's heart beats strong amid the hills, 215b nursed upon the self-same hill, 226a of heavenly truth, 226b over hill, over dale, 280b over the hills and far away, 134b, 143a peep o'er hills, 246b praise the hill but keep below, 827a the breezy hill, 19b the vale best discovereth the hill, 852b whose heads touch heaven, 300b yon high eastern hill, 290a Himself has said it, 469a Hinc ille lachrymæ, 543b Hind that would be mated by the lion, 299a Hinder not the humour of his design, 299a Hindmost chariot-wheels, 127a plague seize the, 608b Hindoo, or turns, 327a Hindostan, he came from, 367a pepper into, 860a Hindrance: after delay comes a let, 731b Hint, everything's a, 34a upon this, I spake, 301a with shadowed, confuse, 362a Hints, gentle, amorous complaints, 537b Hip, I have thee on the, 283b Hip, if I can catch him once upon the, 282a Hippocrates, 475a, 492b, note Hippocrene, the true, the blushful, 185a Hire a cheap man, 84b Hired him, the wretch that, 435b Hirelings, a pack of, 539a two-and-twenty, 275a Hiss, a dismal universal, 221b Historian, poet the truest, 141a Historians, gentle, 42a HISTORY
 a distillation of Rumour, 72a a most unprofitable trade, 391a a picture of crimes and misfortunes, 449b, 696b a pageant, 22b a prophet with face turned backwards, 711a a record of crimes, 696a an inarticulate Bible, 73b ancient history is but fables accepted, 709a, note and what's her history, 297b antiquities are remnants of history, 7b arts and arms and history, 22a Cæsar's Commentary the best history, 7b

History—cont'd.

call the rant a history, 99b do not read history that must be false, 377b essence of biographies, 72a fame a notable wag at history, 20a first law of history not to shrink from truth, 638b great dust-heap called history, 23b happy the nation which has no history, 771b, note however written, delights man, 544a I will tell the manners, pursuits, peoples, and battles, 614a little more than a history of crimes, 449b (histories) make men wise, 11b makes one shudder and laugh, 377b must be false, 377b, note nothing more interesting than the differences of different ages, 591b of England, history of progress, 205b of Europe a tissue of crimes, 150b philosophy derived from examples, 473a philosophy teaching by examples, 268a poets inexact in history, 128a that is how history is written, 692b the chart and compass, 160b the chief office of, 623b the greatest man in history, 132a the love of history, 268a the more I consider, the more I see the mockery of human affairs, 630a the register of crimes, 144a the true poetry, 72a the witness of the times, the light of truth, 444a the use of history, 132a this strange eventful history, 289a to abridge the history, 421b to be ignorant of is to be ever a child, 590b to be silent on matters of public importance and notoriety is inexcusable, 704b
to write and act great deeds, 122b true office of history, 7b upon the stock of history, 397b with the supernatural element, 34a Hit a man when he's down, never, 814b a very palpable, 297b aim is not enough, we must hit, 859b hard, never think I, unless it rebounds, 179a what he, is history, 174a Hits, vulgar keep no account of your, 852b Hitched, if you mean getting, 27a live, murmurings of this great, 94b Hoard, 'midst his pilfered, 14b our, is little, our hearts are great, 364b Hoarding, a man cannot tell for whom he is, 724b Hoarseness caused by swallowing gold and silver, 452a Hobbes, Swift on, 348a
Hobbes' voyage, 457a
Hobbies: hobby-horses cost more than Arab steeds, 785b Hobble-de-hoy, a, 16b stage, 527b Hobby, everyone to his, 757b Hobby-horse is forgot, 294b Hobson's choice, 785b, note Hoc age, the great rule, 544a, note Hoc est vivere bis, vita posse priore frui, 490a Hoc genus omne, 525a, 544a "Hoc," how many quarrels produced by the word, 691a Hoc opus, hoc labor est, 529b Hodge, more men than, 854a Hodge's Grace, 441b

Hodie mihi, 544b Hoe, call a, a hoe, 746b tickle her with a, 177a Hog, fattest, in Epicurus' sty, 209b never lose a hog for a ha'porth of tar, 815a, note going the whole, 455a Hogarth, Johnson on, 179b Hoggish mind, have his, 340a Höfingelächter der Hölle, 710b Hoi polloi, the multitude, 475b Hoist with his own petard, 296a Hold, enough, damned be he that first cries, 305b Hold fast, first point in hawking, 785b, 844b he that holds let him hold fast, 779a is a better dog, 745b, 863b is the only dog, 316a Hold (haud) as good, as draw, 738a Hold, makes nice of no vile, 311b Hole, mend one, and make three, 802a square person in round, 332a stop a, to keep the wind away, 297a to make one, to stop up another, 861a where the tail came through, 87a, 336a

HOLIDAYS

a nation busily employed in idleness, 672a always holiday with the slothful, 548a dies sollemnes, 515b if all the year were playing holiday, 313a Latin Holiday rhyme, 610b leisure nourishes body and mind, 614b making more a business of leisure than business itself, 614b many dejected after holidays, 582a necessity has no holidays, 531b on a sunshine holiday, 224a Saturnalia will not last for ever, 600b the holiday-rejoicing spirit, 191b to fly from town to country as from chains, 526b to make a Roman holiday, 55b Holiest thing that lives is here, 354b Hollaing and singing of anthems, 315a Holland, children in, take pleasure in making, 446a embosomed in the deep, 147b mines in, 574a, note only saved by being dammed, 170b waterland of Dutchmen, 64b See Dutch
Holland, Philemon, 253b, note Holly, every post with, 390b Holy and good thought, 421b Holy-dome, so help me God and, 436b Holy ground, call it, 161b man, before the, 66b men, nor wrong those, 53a no heaven for the fool though holy, 23b of holies, 648a strife of disputatious men, 103a writ, odd old ends stol'n forth from, 318b Homage, do proper, 54a of thoughts unspoken, 260a HOME

a day's march nearer, 229b a savage at home; mild-man-nered abroad, 558b a spot of earth supremely blest, 229a and a pleasing wife, 518b and household hearth, 245b art gone and ta'en thy wages, 399b beñts those happy at home to remain there, 518a behold our home, 57a dreamt not of a perishable home, 399a earth is all the home I have, 7a east and west, home is best, 785b every bird thinks its own nest charming, 755b everywhere, to a resolved mind, 138b evil examples in the household corrupt us more rapidly, 657a far from home is near to harm, 760a for rest; home is best, 375a forced from home, 102a had she none, 169a
hath no fellow, 375a
he speaks home, madam, 301a he that doth live at home, 158b he who dwells everywhere dwells nowhere, 639a his footsteps he hath twined, 272b his pure home preserves what is decent, 558a is home, 91b is home, though never so homely, 785b, note it is easier to build two chimneys than to maintain one, 795a kindred points of heaven and home, 393b let them learn to show piety at home, 747b lights of home and lights of love, 375a
man goeth to his long home, 416a may you and your home be happy, 659a my harvest and my home, 172a
my home, city, and familiar places pass before my eyes, 491a my house to me the Escorial, 813a next way home farthest about, 261a none love their country but who love their home, 88a of youth and home, 233a only one (makes) the home, 203a our home is not here, 160a our wishes recur to home, 150b safest place of refuge, 518b shall never more go home, 206b she will stay at home, perhaps, if her leg be broke, 833b straitened circumstances at home, 541b strike home, 69a sweet home, 519a sweet is the smile of home, 186a that dear cot, our home, 94a Home—contd.

the bird loves her nest, 785b the dream of home, 233b the hearthstone of home, 235a
 the wise man is at home, 131b there should be peace at home, 382b there's no place like home, 241b to men's business and bosoms, 11a well-ordered home, 369b wherever a man dwells there will be a thornbush near his door, 874a white walls of their long-left home, 235b
 who would be well needs not go from his own house, 782b woe to the house where there is no chiding, 877a your home will never again receive you, 493a your own house is the best, 626a

HOMES

forced from their homes, 147b of England, 161b those who have no homes at all, 172a women make homes, 810a Home Comforts: the Mahogany Tree, 358a

Home-keeping hearts happiest, 200a Home-keeping youth, 281a
 Home-made dishes that drive us from home, 173b Homeless near a thousand homes, 402b Homely scenes and simple views, 186a Home Rule, a state's freedom dependent on, 503a

HOMER

Homer 56b, note, 87b, 125b, note Achilles fortunate in, 606b birthplace of: the seven cities, 166a, 437b, 471b, 659b commentators of, 348a dumb to Homer, 33b
 Envy disparages Homer, 555b human sympathy of, 187a nor is it Homer nods, 246b our Homer of the war in heaven, 241a read Homer once and you can read no more, 324b rule, Homer's, the best, 252b seven cities warred for, 166a seven wealthy towns contend for, 437b sometimes grows drowsy, 630a the great Homeric time, 89b the Mæonian star, 247b (Homer's) theme was but a dream, 274a variety of, 637a what had Achilles been without, 391a

Homeward, each step hath its value, 397b

Homily, worm-cankered, 357a

Hominem quæro, 545a

Homines, quot, tot sententiæ, 642a

Homo novus (an upstart), 545b

HONEST AND HONESTY

a downright, upright, honest man, 444b a health to all honest men, 461a a man never surfeits of honesty, 725a a thread will tie an honest man, 729a a truly honest man, 104a all the honesty is in the parting, 733b

Honest and Honesty—contd.

an honest and a perfect man, 137a an honest man and a soldier, 284a an honest man the noblest work of God, 44b, 250a an honest man's aboon his might, 49a an honest man should fear getting more than he deserves, 344b an honest man's word as good as his bond, 735b an honest mind and plain, 306a an honest woman, but given to lie, 307b as honest as any man living, 284b as this world goes, 292b generous honesty, 29a guilelessness the first of virtues, 467b he'd starve before he stole, 189b he is honest who is not discovered, 75a he is wiser than most who is honest, 774b he that loseth his honesty, 203a, 805a honest folk are cowards, 709a honesty is the cat when the meat is on the hook, 785b honest meaning gilded want of sense, 328a honest men and bonnie lassies, 461b honest men better than numbers, 104b
 honest men fear neither light nor dark, 785b honest men, soft easy cushions, 240a honest minds pleased with honest things, 138b honesty and truth, black swans, 856a honesty can stay a fair measure, 751a honesty endures longest, 785b honesty gives wings to strength, 499b I am armed so strong in honesty, 286b I am myself indifferent honest, 294a I hold it not honesty to have it thus set down, 292b I pray the gods make me honest, 289b I would you were so honest a man, 292b in a general honest thought, 287a is his fault, 308b isna pride, 785b is the best policy, 140b, 785b is the best policy, but an honest man does not act on that principle, 385b like an icicle; it melts and there's an end of it, 785b make money honestly, if you can, 644b may be dear bought, but can ne'er be an ill pennyworth, 785b no honest man ever repented of honesty, 816a no honesty, manhood, nor good-fellowship in thee, 312a not naturally honest, but sometimes by chance, 310b nought greater than an honest humble heart, 407b one honest man, and he's a steward, 308b party honesty is party expediency, 84b

Honest and Honesty—contd.

plain rule, honesty's, 97a poor but honest, 299a praised and starved, 625a pure daylight of honest speech, 213a the first article a young trader offers for sale is honesty, 844a the honest man, the worse luck, 848b the poor man's pork, the rich man's pudding, 785b the world's grown honest, 292b there is always less honesty than people imagine, 855a things honest, most advantageous, 512a though I be poor, I'm honest, 299a, note to appear an honest man you must be one, 705b to be honest is to be one man picked out of ten thousand, 292b to no purpose honest, 538b truth and honesty keep the crown o' the causey, 863b we are bound to be honest but not rich, 866b what a fool honesty is, 310b whatsoever things are honest, 429b whip me such honest knaves, 300b who resolves to deal with only honest men must leave off dealing, 780b who will distinguish between knave and honest man, 670b you are an honest man and I am your uncle, and that's two lies, 878b Honestam quam splendida, 546a Honesty is safely, 499b

HONEY

a drop of, catches flies, 719b a little gall spoils much honey, 724a and wax, sweetness and light, 348b catches more flies than vinegar, 786a daub yourself with, and you will be covered with flies, 750b flies easier caught with honey, 761b from silkworms who can gather, 325a gather honey all the day, 382a gather honey from the weed, 316b he buys dear that licks it off thorns, 772a he manages the honey ill who does not taste it, 717a he must have honey in his mouth, 379a is sweet, but the bee stings, 786a is too good for a bear, 786a mouth of honey, heart of gall, 812b not for the ass's mouth, 786a of his music vows, 294a upon sugar, 192a when was honey made with one bee, 172a where honey is there are bees, 674a who deals with honey will sometimes lick his fingers, 874b who has none in his pot let him have it in his mouth, 778b who shares honey with a bear has the least part, 875b

Honeyed speech, poison and gall under, 723a Honey-moon: the moon—so-called—of honey, 173b

Honores contemnere, 639a

Honores mutant mores, 786a, note

HONOUR

a medieval inheritance, 93a a mistress all mankind pursue, 386a a throne, where honour may be crowned, 279b adds to ancestral honour, 512a amongst thieves, 786a, 855a and ease seldom bedfellows, 786a and glory as goads, 13a and profit not in one sack, 786a and reputation, flowery plains of, 183b and shame from no condition rise, 249a as great a share of hazard as of honour, 217b better be without food than without honour, 743a but a word, 51b

but there is honour too, 7a but an empty bubble, 126a comes, a pilgrim grey, 90a concerned in honour's cause, 335a deathless honour waits on genius, 555b faith must be kept, 532b far more precious-dear than life, 308a father of honour, 161b

fewer men, the greater share of honour, 316b

follows him who flies from it, 762a follows the unwilling, 559a fountain of honour, 11b from the book of honour, razed quite, 321b gilded baits of honour, 106b given to the living, 686a glory, and popular praise, 222b helps the hurt that honour feels, 358b hiding mine honour in my necessity, 289b his honour rooted in dishonour stood, 365b

I do honour the very flea of his dog, 183a if I lose honour, I lose myself, 307b if it be a sin to covet honour, 316b in a box unseen, 299a in his right hand doth lead her, 336b in whose cold blood no spark of honour, 317b interest not opposed to honour, 519a is a baby's rattle, 263a is a mere scutcheon, 314b is in him who honours, 546b is like a widow won, 51a is my life, 312a is the subject of my story, 285a it is worthier to deserve than to possess, 794b leave not a stain in thine honour, 420b let honour be spotless, 659a life is ended when our honour ends, 149b long life with honour at the close, 202b loss of, is loss of life, 805a lost, more lost, 716b

(honour) love, obedience, 305b loved I not honour more, 200b

Honour—contd.

loved true honour more than fame, 345b man being in honour abideth not, 412b man worthy of honour the muses forbid to die, 516a men keep engagements when it is an advantage to both parties, 450b myself the guardian of my honour, 266b neither to seek nor to despise honour, 587b no honour shall make thee worthy of Caesar's wrath, 516a no honour which is not difficult, 492a no profit to honour, no honour to religion, 817a nourishes the arts, 546b our own heart forms our honour, 89a outward honour for an inward toil, 318b pluck bright honour from the pale-faced moon, 313b pluck up drowned honour by the locks, 313b post of honour, 2a, 144a, note posterity pays honour, 183b pricks me on, 314b public honour is security, 184a

Purity feminine of Honour, Truth masculine, 157b seek Honour first, 76b

sodger's wealth is honour, 49b soonest found with painful toil, 340a that chastity of honour, 41a that same bed of honour, 134b that strife was not inglorious, 216b the darling but of one short day, 262b the honour of my house, 240a the reward of virtue, 546b the true and the false, 386a their brave ends will ever be an honour, 445a they honour thee best who honour what is best in thee, 379b this fatal quest of honour, 364b though drubbed can lose no honour, 51b thy honour and name shall endure, 652b to few is good faith dearer than money, 617a to prefer life to honour, the highest impiety, 665b to sacrifice honour to party, 106a to the unworthy, a gold ring in a swine's snout, 636a travels in a strait so narrow, 298b unstained Faith sister of Justice, 627a use them after your own honour and dignity, 293a vanity tells a man what is honour, 192b virtue draws men to honour, 671b virtue the fount of honour, 208b when honour's at the stake, 296a when honour's lost, 142a where no honour's to be gained, 51b where there is no honour there is no grief, 873b where ye feel your honour grip, 47a

Honour—contd.

which they do not understand, 397a whom does false honour help, 530b whose honour knows not rust, 354a why should honour outlive honesty, 303a without deserving, 75b without profit is a ring on the finger, 786a wounds of honour never close, 230a ye should be a king of your word, 878b

HONOURS

a studious decliner of honours and titles, 133b another carried off the honours, 546b are from God, 546b bears his blushing honours, 320a blind longing for honours, 546b change manners, 546b, 786a, note cost money, 812a

fading honours of the dead, 272a

few escape that distinction, 84a folly to decline honours, 181b fortune changes uncertain honours, 535b fortune gives honours, 510a great burthens, 182b, 210b his honours to the world again, 320b lie in wait for wealth or honours, 399b

man being in honour abideth not, 412b

modesty sets off one come to honour, 811a much worship, much cost, 812a numerous honours made him seem old, 519b of no advantage without thee (the Muse), 594a

Patricius stains the honours he sells—and bears, 617a property gives honours, 553a purchase silence, 210a reward of virtue (or valour), 623b the Honours List, 21a

the more cost the more honour, 848a

to despise honours, 639a to seek honour for disgraceful conduct, 620a virtue brings honour, and honour vanity, 866a we cannot come to honour under coverlet, 866b

Honourable, his designs were strictly, 135a men, all, 286a

must be praiseworthy, 546a

Honoured in their generations, 421a

Hood, with him that wears a, 345a

Hoof, four-footed reverberation of, 627b

Hook or crook, by, 340a, note to hide the sharpness of the, 355b too cunning for the, 103a

Hooks, he's popped off the, 110b

Hookas, divine in, 58b

Hooky Walker, 464a

Hoop, a jump at a gilded, 173b

HOPE

a convenient deity but deceitful, 662a a dying man living by hope, 661b a good and sure hope, 661a a good breakfast, a poor supper, 12a, 786a a good hope better than a bad possession, 742a

Hope—contd.

a lover's staff, 281b a man of hope and forward-
 looking mind, 402a
 a poor salad, 139a a waking man's dream, 786a Abbé of St. Hope, 689a admiration, hope and love, 401b against hope, believed in hope, 427a airy hopes, my children, 401b all guests at Hope's feast, 142b all hope abandon ye who enter here, 74a, 715a all hope falls, 608b alternate hope and fear, 488b and Fortune farewell, 558b and patience, sovereign remedies, 50a as cheap as despair, 786a bearer of dreams, 25b beyond this you have no hope, 536a brightest when it dawns from
 fears, 271a called by Aristotle a waking dream, 471b
 Cape of Good Hope, 12b charity will hope the best, 50a cozening hope, 312b
 credulous hope is kind, 507a deferred maketh the heart sick, 414a doubtful of the future, 662a dying but not dead, 127b earthly hope fluctuates, 160a elevates, 221a enchanted smiled, 90a entertaining hope, 35b equal hope and hazard, 216a every man's hope in himself, 662a excite fallacious hope, 217b extravagant hopes, 39b faint glimmering of a doubtful hope, 1b
 fallen from what a height of hope, 678b farewell, and with hope farewell fear, 218b
 for a season, bade the world farewell, 66a for e'en the Brahmin, 368a for every woe, 147a foundation of all our hopes, 50b from hope and fear set free, 352a from what high hope to what relapse, 222b frustrate, severer than despair, 95a gay hope is theirs, 154b gives strength, 661b
 good hope strengthens the resolution, 661b great hopes make great men, 769b grief's best music, 786a he counterfeits hope, 661a he gains enough that loses a vain hope, 772b
 he has no hope that never had a fear, 96a
 he that raises false hopes, 180a he that would not be frustrate of his hope, 228b heart that hopes but vainly, 145a helmet of salvation, 537a hope and reserve yourselves for better times, 661a hope, ye wretched, 661b hoped for better things because I thought I had deserved them, 661b hopes go to hell, 784b

Hope—contd.

hopeless hope to flee from certainty, 235b
 how deceitful the hope of men, 606a
 I cultivated hope, and see it wither day by day, 694b I do not buy hope at a price, 521b, 661a
 I hope, I fear, resolved and yet I doubt, 345b if it were not for hope, the heart would break, 789a if thou dar'st not hope, 15a in valour, 662a increase of hope kindled their passion, 661b
 is but the dream of those that wake, 259b is that which you have not, 636b,
 note
 is there no hope, the sick man said, 143b is worth any money, 786a I've seen my hopes decay, 322b knows not if fear speak truth, 353b let not hope prevail, 403b let the fearful be allowed to hope, 659a let us hope for what we will, and fear what happens, 661b like the glimmering taper, 149b like the short-lived ray, 95a love can hope where reason would despair, 204a maintain'st most of mankind, 472a makes even the fettered miner
 live, 540b
 makes the shipwrecked sailor strike out, 661b makes us willing to live, 789b maketh not ashamed, 427a more plentiful than hope, 163b mortal hopes defeated and o'erthrown, 396a my flesh shall rest in hope, 426a never comes, that comes to all, 215b
 never leaves a wretched man, 138a never to hope again, 320a no hap so hard but may in fine amend, 338a no hope, no endeavour, 180b no other medicine but only hope, 299b none without hope e'er loved, 204a
 not desperate of all hope on high, 58a not without hope, we suffer and we mourn, 400b nurse of young desire, 22a of all passions, most befriends us, 407a of future days, 217a of the flock (spes gregis), 661b (hopes) of thy house centred in thee, 553b
 once believed, lasts long, 662a other hopes and other fears, 335b our hopes belied our fears, 171b our hopes, our prayers, our tears, 198b patience is the art of hoping, 698a perpetual breath of hope, 397a propitious to me, though the fact is not, 525b put aside trifling hopes, 578b put away remote hope, 648b putrid eggs of hope, 141a quis est spes? magna res, 636b,
 note

Hope—contd.

restless hope for ever on the wing, 407a rules a land for ever green, 402b shall brighten days to come, 230b shortness of life forbids us to spin out hope, 685b so lives inveterate hope, 380b sows what Love shall never reap, 266b springs eternal in the human
 breast, 248a
 sustains the husbandmen, 661b tells a flattering tale, 403a and 403b, note
 that with honey blends the cup of pain, 182a the calends of hope, 79a the charmer Hope, 66a the crop has belied our hope, 661a the dream of a man awaking, 661b the last thing to abandon the unfortunate, 786a, note the last thing we lose, 786a the light of hope, 66b the most hopeless thing, 94b the only universal cure, 94b the paramount duty, 397b the poor man's bread, 786a the tender leaves of hope, 320a the well-prepared heart hopes in worst fortune, 661a the worldly hope, 135b this pleasing hope, 2a those fed on hope do not live, 634b thou hovering angel, 225a thus Hope me deceived, 273b till Hope creates from its own wreck, 326a
 to all, 89b to corrupt (voters) with hope, 106a to feed on hope, 341a to hope for sun after clouds, 623a to men they give, 366b to the end, 431a told a flattering tale, 263b triumph of hope over experience, 181a true, is swift, 319a undimmed (hopes) for mankind, 234b vain hopes vain aims, 219b we hoped while fortune lasted, 661b well, and have well, 786a what is not hoped for happens more often, 557b what reinforcement we may gain from hope, 216a what was dead was Hope, 389b what you fear happens sooner than what you hope, 641b where hope is coldest, 299a where is no hope left is left no fear, 223a
 where there is life there is hope, 143b, 873a
 while I breathe I hope, 520a white-handed Hope, 225a who lives in hope dances without music, 780a who lives on hope has a slender diet, 780a who wants hope is the poorest man alive, 782a wise should possess their life in hope, 471a wishing without hope, 87b withering died, 57a without hope we live in desire, 715b you feed vain hopes, 662a

Hope—contd.

youth lives on hope, 880b youth, whose hope is high, 25a Hopeless word of never to return, 312a Hopelessness, he desires more on account of, 680b Hops and women, 117b Reformation, Bays and Beer, 458a
when the hop grows high it must
have a pole, 871a
you may have hops till James's day be come and gone, 859a Flora, fugit, 536b, 686a Horace, harmonious, 115b his odes smell more of wine than of oil, 452a what Horace says, 17a Horas non nisi serenas, 546b Horatius Cocles, 647a Horatius kept the bridge, how well, 206b Horn, corn, wool, and yarn, 461a hay on his, 534a he that blows best bears away the,
776a
O for a blast of that dread, 270b one blast upon his bugle-horn, 271b the echoing, 153b Horns in his pocket, he had better put his, than blow them, 772b of others, cautiously by the, 531b who hath horns in his bosom let him not put them on his head, 778b Hornets, you will stir up, 560a Hornets' nest, to stir up the, 862a horrible and awful', 46a O, most horrible, 292a Horn, brow of bragging, 312a gorge your souls with, 38a of his folded tail, 227b the nodding, 225a Horns, congenial, hail, 370a hail horrors, hail, 216a supped full with, 305b swift to encounter, 535a Horn's head, on, horrors accumulate, 302a
HORSES
a brewer's horse, a peppercorn, 314a a canter the cure for every evil, 116a a cough will stand longer by a horse than a peck of oats, 719a a fine-pacing horse, 49a a good horse after good wine, 732a a good horse cannot be of a bad colour, 722a, 768b, 855b a horse stumbles that hath four legs, 723b a jade will eat as much as a good horse, 723b
a little dearer than his horse, 358b a racehorse is an open sepulchre, 727a a sorry mare, 170b a vain thing to save a man, 433b all lay loads on a willing horse, 733a an inch of a nag is worth a span of an aver, 735b and dorgs, wittles and drink to
me, 114a
and poets to be fed, not fattened, 522b another's horse and your own spur, 712b better a lean jade than an empty halter, 742a

Horses—contd.

better an ass that carries than a horse that throws, 743b better lose saddle than horse, 743a Burston horse gives way to nobody, 718b Castor delights in horses, 501a corn him weel, he'll work the better, 749a
(horse) cut out of a diamond, 137a delights in horses, dogs, and the turf, 540b (horse) desires the work of the ox, 613b
do not spur a willing horse, 752b ear of a horse is in his mouth, 522b eaten up by expense of horses, 623b either win the horse or lose the saddle, 754b England hell for horses, 755a every horse thinks his pack heaviest, 755b
folks that ride a bit of blood, 170b for want of a shoe the horse is lost, 763a galled horse will not endure the comb, 721a
gentle horse would not be over-spurred, 753a give me another horse, 319b golden bit does not make the horse better, 721b good horses make short mules, 768b grunting horse seldom fails, 723a hang not all your bells on one horse, 771a
he could not control those horses, 559b he ever sang of horses, 652b he made him turn and stop and bound, 121a he may well go on foot that has to lead his horse, 775b headstrong horse that throws his rider, 437b heredity in horses and steers, 534b hired horse tires never, 723a horses he loved, and laughter and the sun, 446b horse grown fat kicks, 723b horse neither better nor worse for his trapping, 723b horse that draws his halter is not quite escaped, 846b horse that was foaled of an acorn, 880a horse thinks one thing, he that saddles him another, 846b horse which draws gets the whip, 733a hungry horse makes a clean manger, 723b
iron-sinewed and satin-skinned,
151b it is a proud horse that will not carry his provender, 794a it is a good horse that never stumbles, 794a Italy a paradise for horses, 755a kindly aver never makes good horse, 723b
lend thy horse for a long journey ; he may return with his skin, 800a let the best horse leap the hedge first, 801a
little may an old horse do if he may not neigh, 804a loves you best of all things—but his horse, 255b
mare that is shod slips, 723b

Horses—contd.

master's eye fattens the horse, 476b, 848a, note
may at least rank second (to man), 151b mettle dangerous in a blind horse, 810b my bonny white steed, 272a my gallant grey, 270b my kingdom for a horse, 319b never look a gift horse in the mouth, 814b
never swap horses while crossing the stream, 815a no horse so blind as the blind mare, 816a nothing fattens like the master's eye, 476b
nothing like blood in horses, dogs and men, 366b (horse) of Sejus (an unlucky horse), 522b
one man can lead a horse to the water, 822a
one man may steal a horse, 822a one saddle enough for one horse, 822b
Philip, a lover of horses, 26b racehorses never last long, 764b release the aged horse, 660b resty horse must have a sharp spur, 727a scabbied horse cannot abide the
comb, 721a
scabbit horse is good enough for scalt squire, 727b sensitive neck of docile horse, 533a set a colt in ambling rings, 832b short horse is soon curried, 728a short horse is soon whipped, 720a some glory in their whipse, 322a stables the real centre of the household, 324a stumbling the excuse of a lame
horse, 838a
take a horse by his bridle, 838b taught to endure the bit, 670a (horse) that throws the rider, 261b that will not go, 714a the abilities of the horse cause his slavery, 796b
the biggest horses are not the best travellers, 841a the blind horse is hardest, 875b the fault of the horse is put on the saddle, 844a the flight-performing horse, 101a the foremost horse in the team, 139b the grey mare is the better horse, 845b, note
the losing horse blames the saddle, 838a the man that rides on the white
horse, 831a
thou knowest a horse, a man thou dost not, 364a to bridle a horse by its tail, 861b to shut the stable-door when the horse is stolen, 796b to such wondrous doings brought
his horse, 296b
touch a gallant horse on the back, 862b travellers on horseback know not the toil of travellers on foot, 863a trust not the horse, Trojans, 522b 'twere long to tell what steeds gave o'er, 270b two men ride a, one must ride
behind, 284b

Horses—contd.

twinned as horse's ear and eye, 360a Virgil's description of a horse, 492a water trotted is as good as oats, 866b what a horse should have, he did not lack, 320b when one is on horseback he knoweth all things, 870b when the horse is starved you bring him oats, 871a when the mare bath a bald face, 871b while the grass grows the steed starves, 874a white wild horses, 5a who has not an adventure has no horse or mule, 815a who lets his horse drink at every water shall not have a good horse, 875a who would have luck on horses must kiss the parson's wife, 782b who would travel far spares his steed, 706b would you treat your horse with a peck of oysters, 878a you cannot judge horses by the harness, 879a you cannot shoe a running horse, 879a Horseleach hath two daughters, 415a HORSEMAN and HORSEMANSHIP a good horseman needs a spur, 722a a horseman better than Bellerophon, 522b a man well mounted is ever choleric, 725b
 a rider must know how to fall, 796a a rider on his back, 65b he grew into his seat, 296b
 he rides sicker that fell never, 776a seldom rides loses the spurs, 832a witch the world with noble horsemanship, 314b Horseplay is fools' play, 786b Horse-race, winning, one of Philip's three fearful felicities, 320b Horseshoe which clatters wants a nail, 716b Hortensius, lent his lady to his friend, 64a Hortus siccus, 546b Hose, his youthful, well saved, 289a Hospitable thoughts intent, on, 220a Hospital, learnt social comfort in a, 29b Hospitals, lend gratis and build, 137a HOSPITALITY
 a lover of, 430b given to hospitality, 427a good cheer and good cheap garres more haunt the house, 768a more disgrace to eject a guest than to refuse him, 673b the will is the chief thing, 473a HOSTS (lunkeeps, etc.) a good host, 498b accidents bring to light the resource of a host, 506a all hosts of an evil kind, 126b courteous host, 57b he that reckons without his host, 780b mine host of the Garter, 287a

HOSTS (Armies)

a host innumerable as the stars, 220a the spangled host, 227b Lord God of Hosts, 189b
 I worship the Lord of Hosts, 117a
 Hostages to fortune, 9b
 Hostess, fairer the, the fouler the reckoning, 843b handsome, a dear reckoning, 723a Hot, cold, moist, and dry, 218a if you say you are, he perspires, 654b love soon, soon cold, 375b ye may say I am, 349b Hotels, I prefer temperance, 27b Hound, better hand wi', than hunt wi' hare, 743a runs with, and holds with hare, 776a the fawning, salutes thee, 334b Hounds stout, horses healthy, 461b HOURLY and HOURS a transient hour, 68a abode his destined hour, 136a all hours are not ripe, 733a an hour may lay it in the dust, 54a are passing slow, 193b an hour in each man's life appointed, 287a, note an hour that sweetened life, 337b at e'en, a canny hour, 47b darkest hour is nearest dawn, 842a flies while I speak, 519b I do not reckon hours unless bright, 546b I have had my hour, 127b I prized every hour that passed by, 438a in love have wings, 83a let each employ, as likes him best, his hours, 371a lived too much in their large hours, 381a love reckons hours for months, 129a matched us with this hour, 26a now's the hour, 49a oft many things do happen in one hour, 793b oh for a single hour of that Dundee, 395b one crowded hour of glorious life, 274a, note one hour to-day worth two to-morrow, 823a one self-approving hour, 250a seven hours to law, 182a some undimmed hour, 4b the hour flies, 536b
 the hour when daylight dies, 231a the hour when lovers' vows, 58a the inevitable hour, 153b, note the passing hour scarcely obtains our confidence, 568b the wingless, crawling hours, 325b there is an hour wherein a man might be happy all his life, 855a they (the hours) perish and are imputed to us, 619a to chase the glowing hours, 54b two hours in dressing, 96b unheeded flow the hours, 339a what peaceful hours I once enjoyed, 95b Hourglass, the sand in the, 244b HOUSES
 a house but not a dwelling, 256a a house but under some prodigious ban, 171a

Houses—contd.

a fair house built on another's ground, 287b a friendly, the best house, 518b a house of clay, 376a a handsome house to lodge a friend, 255b a house and a woman suit excellently, 723b a man's house is his castle, 725b, note a plague o' both your, 279b a skeleton in every house, 854b after the house is finished leave it, 732a all things soon prepared in a well-ordered house, 734a an old man in a house is a good sign, 736a and large garden, 94b appointed for all living, 411b as a castle and fortress, 85b (houses) as though some heart in their stones, 121b better an empty house than an ill tenant, 742a built to live in, 11a buy a house ready made and a wife to make, 762b choose not a house near an inn or in a corner, 748a comfortable house a great source of happiness, 333a devout widows' houses, 424a divided against itself, 424a eaten out of house and harbour, 315a, note every man king in his own house, 725b every man's house the safest place, 518b fer asonder, 77a feud between us was but of the house, 337b first year let your house to your enemy; second, to your friend; third, live in it, 844b fools build houses, wise men buy, 762b God often hath great share in little house, 767a
 he that burns his house warms himself for once, 776b he that buys a house hath many a pin and nail for nought, 762b, 776b house a-building looks not as the house built, 846b house of God, gate of heaven, 518b house of prayer, 423a house of six feet by two, 135a house pulled down is half rebuilt, 723b house should be respectable by reason of its master, 586b house to lodge a friend, 349b is a prison, 155b is fine when folks are good within, 846b is his castle, 85a
 it is easier to build two chimneys than to maintain one, 795a kept an old house at a bountiful rate, 438a laws favour the privacy of a house, 725b little house well filled, 724a made and man to make, 723b man may love his house, yet not ride on the ridge, 725a men make houses, women make homes, 810a

houses—contd.

men, not houses, make the city, 796b more to my taste than a tree, 235a my house is my castle, 735a my house, to me the Escorial, 813a my whinstone house my castle, 72b nae luck about the house, 214b
no house but has its cross, 816a no house without mouse, 816a nothing so crouse as a new washen house, 836a of one mind in an house, 433b one that ruleth well his own
house, 430a
park takes away from dwellings of the poor, 483b patch and long sit; built and soon flit, 824a set thine house in order, 417b slippery is the stone at the great house door, 834b smoke, rain, and a bad wife drive a man from his house, 858b stei fortuna domus, 662b Sweetheart and Honeybird keeps no house, 838a that join house to house, 417a the house shows its owner, 846b the more women look in the glass, the less they look to their house, 848b
the smoke of a man's own house better than fire of another's, 851a the passion for seeking new abodes, 548a
the very houses seem asleep, 395a there is a fault in the house, but would you have it without any,
854b they house best who house for secrecy, 157a this house is to be let for life or years, 261a to sell his house, carried a brick in his pocket, 349b to throw the house out of the windows, 862a when thy neighbour's burns be careful of thine own, 872a wherever God erects a house of prayer, 107b you take my house, 283b your own the best of houses, 626a Housed, worse, than your hacks,
188b
Household gods, 516a Household gods (lares et penates),
564a Household good, to study, 221a the many make the, 203a woeful the, that wants a woman, 379a, note
words, 316b
Households' rancour, your, 279a Households, to keep many, the way to poverty, 478b Housekeepers, fat, makes lean executors, 720b, 760b noble housekeepers need no doors, 817b
HOUSEKEEPING
everyone can keep house better than her mother, 758a everything is of use to a housekeeper, 759a housekeeping is hard, 809a indications of housekeeping, 38a Housetops, preach ye upon the, 422b

HOUSEWIVES

a carless hussy makes money thieves, 718b
a good housewife necessarily a humbug, 366b housewife that's thrifty, 328b housewives' affairs have never an end, 375a
such husband and housewife, such houses, 374b Housing: nulli certa domus, 603b Hover a moment yet, 92b How and when and where, 435a Howards, not all the blood of all
the, 250a
Howl at best, an imitative, 193b Howling, when thou liest, 297a "Howsoever" (Utcunque) a speaker's refuge, 242b Hub of the Solar System, 168b Hug it in my arms, 299b Hugs his kixsy-wixsy, 299a Huge, too, for mortal tongue, 185a Hull, Halifax and Hell, 356a Hum, the, of mighty workings, 184b HUMAN
a friend of the human race, 489a a naked human heart, 405b affairs (human) and heavenly things, 611b
build on the human heart, 31a divine power plays with human affairs, 568b
firm friend of human kind, 397a (human) face divine, 218a, 257b note (human) form divine, 257b frailty, human, 2a from Three all human action, 24b generous trust in human-kind, 386b how rich and strange the human lot, 381a human sympathy of Homer, 187a infinite pathos of human life, 329a in the thread of human life, 273b Mill and Spencer had not said the last word about human life, 378b
(human) mind in ruins, 107b nothing human foreign was to
him, 371b
the Human Spirit, 380b to step aside is human, 45a two races of human species, 191b was ever heart more human, 168a

HUMAN NATURE

difficult to root out, 515b free to slaves, 493a highest type, non-existent, 339a more folly than wisdom in, 10a runs to herbs, 11a self-love and reason two principles of, 248b
the divinity or Genius of our human nature, 650a weaknesses of, 144a you've conquered human nature, 112b

HUMANENESS

never to blend our pleasure or our pride, 393b
See Humanity

HUMANITIES

Humaniores, litteræ, 567b the fair humanities, 88b the humanities live for ever, 390b

HUMANITY

always becomes a conqueror, 328b blossoms of, 23b can be hated, 81a catholic, 398b Duty's basis, 24a he has no religion who has no humanity, 773a

Humanity—contd.

he was whatever thou nast been,
229a imitated humanity so abominably, 294b law of humanity, 43a let humanity ever be our goal, 713a libels on humanity, 71a love and pity for the race, 329a man must rise above humanity, 105b, note
mankind not be reasoned out of
humanity, 23a
popular humanity is treason, 10b remember that you are a man, 669a stains of our humanity, 156a suffering, sad humanity, 198b tastes of men, 3a the traitor to humanity, 201b the still, sad music of humanity, 394a there is but one race, 230b wearisome condition of, 156a with all its fears, 798b See Mankind

Humanized my soul, 400b

Humanum est errare, 508b, note

HUMBLE, HUMBLENESS,

HUMILITY

a humble and a contrite heart, 189b a lowly man cannot have a grievous fall, 547a a star to guide the humble, 207b absence of humility in critics, 160b at once humbles and exalts, 408a be lowly wise, 220b because of knowledge, humble, 190b great in his humility, 325a heavy heart bears a humble tongue, 277b he that shall humble himself, 423b humble hearts have humble desires, 786b humble love keeps the door of Heaven, 408a
humble, meek, merciful, pious souls, 242a humble thyself in all things, 547a humble, tranquil spirit, 108b humblest of herte, hyst of reverence, 79b humility breeds Peace, 434b humility may clothe an English dean, 96a humility, the altar on which God wishes us to sacrifice, 696b humility, the foundation of all virtues, 786b humility, the highest virtue, 365b humility, the thing so many Christians want, 170a
I thank my God for my humility,
319a it is hard to be high and humble, 795b life a long lesson in humility, 17b lowly heart doth win love of all, 374a much humble wealth, 175b not too humbly or she will despise, 54a pride borrows humility's cloak, 828a served with humbleness and fear, 264b she should be humble who would please, 260a
speak nothing humbly, 183a

Humble, Humbleness, Humility—
contd.

the more noble the more humble, 848b to God be humble, 129a too much humility is pride, 862b true cure for many a needless heartache (humility), 160b we should be low and lowly, 194b whispering humbleness, 282a wisdom is oft-times nearer when we stoop, 401b

See Uriah Heep, 114a

HUMBLE STATION

a place on the ground is safer than on lofty towers, 673b fruit ripens not well in the shade, 764b lowly sit, richly warm, 806a wisdom often found under a shabby cloak, 647a, 647b

Humborg or Hundrum, Government of, 117a

Humbug, the Ogre, 367b

Humdrum country, 65a

HUMOUR and HUMOURS

a man learns more easily what he laughs at, 516b a writing not for too serious readers, 632a diversity of humours breedeth tumours, 752a excommunication of clerks or monks for jesting, 656a

hinder not the humour of his design, 299a

in all thy humours, 2b is odd, grotesque and wild, 349a men have it when they know it not, 349a motley's the only wear, 288b never dare to write as funny as I can, 167b nothing that's plain but may be witty, 163a often of great utility, 664a there's the humour of it, 287a

Humphrey, to dine with Duke, 752a

Hunc tu, Romane, caveto, 483a

Huncamunca's eyes, in, 134b

Hundred, in moderate haste might tell a, 290b what they lose in it, they gain in the County, 868b

Hundredth, old, psalm, 437a

HUNGER

admonition from the hunger-pinch, 33a and cold betray a man to his enemies, 786b and delay stir up bile, 530b as hungry as a church mouse, 738b broke stone wall, 308a do not run up against a hungry man, 524b drives out force, 873a drives the wolf from the woods, 786b end of hunger, cold and crime, 193b even Fuji is without beauty to one hungry and cold, 755b every hungry mouth, 36b hang hunger and drown drouth, 771a he whose belly is full believes not him who is empty, 783b hungry as the grave, 370a hungry bellies have no ears, 787a hungry, lean-faced villain, 276a hungry man is an angry man, 723b hungry man sees far, 723b

Hunger—contd.

hungry men think the cook lazy, 787a hungry rooster don't cackle when he fin' a wum, 158a hungry stomach does not listen willingly, 561b hungry stomach rarely despises common food, 561b hungry wretch is half mad, 723b instructor of many, 474a is bitter, 93b

is insolent, 257b is the best cook, 786b

it's ill taking between a full man and a fasting, 797b look lean and hungry, 285b make hunger thy sauce, 374a makes dinners; pastime makes suppers, 786b no one so laughable as when hungry, 646b nothing amiss to a hungry man, 818a

sharp stomach makes short devotion, 727b, 833a

sharpens understanding, 526a sweetens beans, 528b teacher of many things, 478a, 581a

the belly hath no ears, 840b, note

the best appetiser, 502b the best sauce, 786b was my mother, 530b

we ate when we were not hungry, 347b well-filled body does not believe in hunger, 729a what comedy better than disappointed hunger, 627b will break through stone walls, 308a, 787a

HUNTING and HUNTSMEN a cackoed huntsman, 95b a mere fox-follower, 98a a mighty hunter, 254a a passion for hunting something, 112b all are not hunters that blow the horn, 732b as full of trouble as of pleasure, 787a, 866a barking dogs no good at hunting, 740a by hawk and hound small profit is found, 746b delusiveness of hunting, 679b dialect of hunting, 242b extravagant passion for, 128a field kept getting more select, 170b he hunts in dreams, 358b he loved hunting, 320b huntsman rest, thy chase is done, 271a

I myself must hunt this deer, 317b image of war, 271a, 334b life a hunting-run, 387b may break a bit of bone, 170b may rue the hunting of that day, 435a, note man the hunter, woman his game, 360b melancholy that hunting should be called a pleasure, 181a mimicry of noble war, 271a most important business, 128a most of their discourse was about hunting, 242b once efface the joys of the chase, 151b our ancestors grew not great by hunting, 823b Hunting and Huntsmen—contd.

the hunter home from the hill, 344b the people who hunt are the right people, 324a the sport of kings, 334b their sport, plundering their trade, 127a toast (hunting), 461b to hunt and vote, 61a *twere long to tell what steeds gave o'er, 270b what pleasure is there when a dog follows a hare, 234a where the M.F.H. dines he sleeps, 442a

See Chase

Hurle-Burle-Swire, 804a, note

Hurlyburly's done, when the, 303a

Hurricane, blow not against the, 745a

Hurry, sows, reaps indigestion, 344a to slaves, leave, 38b, note

Hurt, a little I'm, but yet not slain, 435a not right to, 42b to cry out before you are, 860b

HUSBANDS

a bad husband cannot be a good man, 717a a good husband makes a good wife, 722a a good husband, who is not irritable about servants, 498b a saint abroad, a devil at home, 727b

a savage at home; mild-mannered abroad, 518b

a whole-time job to be a husband, 21b and wife and lover, 213a are in heaven whose wives chide not, 787a as the husband, the wife is, 358b believe, husband, what I tell you, not what you see, 787a dependent on their wives, 240a frae the wife despises, 46a good works in her husband to promote, 221a husband desiring to surprise, often much surprised, 703a husbands laugh till their hearts ache, 866a

I am thine husband, not a smaller soul, 366a

I will not be given away to my wife, 678b if the husband be not at home, no one is, 789b if the wife sins, the husband is not innocent, 789b in second husband let me be accourt, 295a kind husband of my heart, 186b love your wives, 430a lover in the husband may be lost, 204a

maids want nothing but husbands, 806b married man must turn his staff into a stake, 726a, 848a married men viler than bachelors, 244b ne'er answers till a husband cools, 251a no woman should marry tee-totaler or non-smoker, 343b one wife too much for most husbands, 143a reformed rake makes the best husband, 727a Husbands—contd.

safest and seemliest by her husband, 221a serve your husband as a master, beware of him as a traitor, 707b she that hath an ill husband shows it in her dress, 833a she wad na hae the walkers and the riders gaed by, 833b some respite to husbands weather may send, 375a sorrow for husbands sharp and short, 836a so sways she level in her husband's heart, 297b such as he is, he's my prize-packet, 244b such duty woman oweth, 276b the better workman the worst husband, 841a the good man's last to know what's amiss at home, 845a to save her poor husband, 37b twice as old as wife, 145b under the sign of the cat's foot (henpecked), 865a under the slipper, 865a when the Goodman's from home the table is soon spread, 871a who shall be the maiden's mate, 272a worst husbands should agree with worst wives, 678b your husband is in his old lunes again, 287b Husbandry, being so, 285b Husbandry, good, is good divinity, 768b in heaven, 304a Hush thee, my baby, 273b was so profound, 136a Husks that the swine did eat, 424b Hussar, the young, 60b Husterón pröterón (Greek), the cart before the horse, 480a Hyde, here lies Tom, 445b Hyde Park, beyond, all is a desert, 133b Hydra, more prodigious than, 28b to crop the, 174a you are wounding a, 480a Hylas, je ne vous aime pas, 27a, note Hyperbole, speaking in perpetual, 9b Hyperboles, three-piled, 277b Hyperbolic fiend, 298b Hyperion to a satyr, 290b Hypkens, some need, in their names, 460b HYPOCHONDRIA
 doctors and imagination, 81b evils that never arrived, 131b I eat, drink, sleep well, but that is all, 236b la maladie sans maladie, 697b some men employ their health, 98a HYPOCRISY AND HYPOCRITES a bad man is worst when he pretends to be good, 573a a stale device, 1b a statesman and canst not be a, 127b an organised hypocrisy, 118a an ill man is worst when he appeareth good, 735b and nonsense, 51a
 at length the fox turns monk, 739b cant of, 343a crows bewail the sheep and eat them, 747a, 750a, 842a
 devotion's visage and pious action, 293b falsehood under saintly show, 218b Hypocrisy and Hypocrites—contd.

hypocrites, creatures God never made, 787a inwardly base, but with outward show of virtue, 652a men pretending to austerity, but living life of Bacchanals, 631b neither man nor angel can discern hypocrisy, 218b no rogue like the godly rogue, 817a no wrong more grievous than hypocritical deceit, 671b nothing so absurd or vain, 52b now step I forth to whip hypocrisy, 277a pretending to be wicked and being good, 389a the homage vice pays to virtue, 666b the real atheists (hypocrites), 13a to chant thy praise, hypocrisy, 64b vice deceives under the appearance of virtue, 530a HYPOTHESES
 I do not manufacture, 547b the lullabies of teachers, 713a the buke of May-be's is very braid, 809b prudence is not satisfied with May-be's, 828a possibilities are infinite, 826a not many things cheaper, 349b

I

I am that I am, 322a Iambic, bitter but wholesome, 329b Iambics march from short to long, 87b Iambus, Latin definition of, 667a ICE be thou as chaste as ice, 294a (ice)-ferns on January panes, 359b fortune's ice, 123a and note if the ice bear before Christmas, 789b in June, 60a mast-high, 86b on summer seas, 364a three children sliding on the ice, 446a thick-ribbed ice, 300a to starve in ice, 217b trust not one night's, 863b
 what a sea of melting ice I walk on, 211b when it cracks it bears, when it bends, breaks, 870a Iceland the best land on which the sun shines, 787b Icicle that hangs on Dian's temple, 308a Id genus omne, 547b IDEAS bad form to have an idea, 346b early ideas not usually true, 338b everyone knows this but it has not occurred to everyone, 650b he could not help having ideas, 384b Mr. Britling had ideas about everything, 384b ten thousand great ideas, 371a the idea of her life, 285b to teach the young idea how to shoot, 369a IDEALS
 get an ideal, life becomes real, 765a ideal government not lasting, 644b Ideals—contd.

men do not live by the same ideal, 577a the ideal man, 388b to nurse a blind ideal, 360b Identification: it is well to look at whatever you may lose, 493a Identity: si ce n'est toi, c'est donc votre frère, 707b the real Simon Pure, 75b the true Amphitryon, 129a Ides of March, beware the, 285a IDLE, IDLENESS, IDLERS
 a nation busily engaged in idleness, 672a an idle brain the devil's workshop, 735b an idle day one of the three things to be repented of, 454b an idler is a watch that wants both hands, 98b as good be an addled egg as an idle bird, 738a banish idleness, 483a being ever idle, never rest, 76a better be idle than do wrong, 624a better be idle than ill-employed, 742b better wear out than rust out, 744a blame is the lazy man's wages, 745a by doing nothing we learn to do ill, 746a cares and woes of sloth, 325a cause of melancholy, 49b devil will soon set an idle man to work, 788a does nothing at all, faith, 134a doing nothing is doing ill, 753b
dolce far niente, 714b drowsiness shall clothe a man with rags, 414b eschew the idle life, 374a every man is or hopes to be an idler, 180b evil thoughts bred in idleness, 657b for sluggard's brow the laurel never grows, 371b great idleness in heaven, 570a happiest when I am idle, 28a he is idle that might be better employed, 774a, 784a he sleeps enough who does nothing, 776a he that is idle is tempted by a legion, 779a I have a bone in my arm (or leg) of, 87a idle as a painted ship, 86b idle brain breeds idle thought, 374a idle bodies generally busybodies, 787b
 idle folks need no excuses, 787b idle men are dead all their life, 787b idle men tempt the devil, 842b idle people have least leisure, 787b idle people take most pains, 787b idleness married to Envy, 755a idleness overthrows all, 50a idleness produces all vices, 788a idleness, refuge of weak minds, 80b idleness, the key of beggary, 788a if idle, be not solitary, 179b if any will not work, let him not eat, 656a
 in the evening the idle man begins to be busy, 793a indolence called wisdom, 677b

Idle, Idleness, Idlers—contd.

indolence is often taken for patience, 793a indolent ability rarely raises itself, 620b ipsius inertia dulcedo, 714b it is always holiday with the slothful, 548a it is more pain to do nothing than something, 796a joy in, 25a labour dire it is and heavy woe, 371a labour of doing nothing, 342a laws cannot make, industrious, 330b lazy as Ludlam's dog, 738b lazy people take most pains, 799b lazy sheep thinks its wool heavy, 723b let the devil never find thee unemployed, 513a let us do nothing sluggishly, 585b life of Going-to-do, 3b men who make money, 205a mischief for idle hands to do, 382a never have an idle hour or idle pound, 814b no Deity stands by the idle, 614b non-working man the ghastliest of unrealities, 324a now and then be completely idle, 332b only the dead shall do nothing, 842a pains and penalties of idleness, 254a pound of idleness weighs twenty ounces, 726b remove idleness and Cupid's artillery perishes, 614b she hath broken her elbow, 833a she hath broken her leg above the knee, 833a (idle) singer of an empty day, 236a Sloth, shameful Siren, is to be shunned, 685b sloth makes all things difficult, 834b sloth, mother of poverty, 788a sloth never attained a good wish, 449a slothful man never has time, 728a slothful man saith, There is a lion in the way, 414b slothful youth produces old age of beggary, 653a sluggish wise in his own conceit, 415a strenuous sloth urges us on, 663a sweetness of being idle, 555a the bone in the leg, 867b the devil's bolster, 787b the idle mind knows not what it wants, 614b the laws do not assist sleepers, 682b the nurse of sin, 330b the shipwreck of chastity, 614b the sleeping fox catches no poultry, 851a the slothful is the beggar's brother, 851a the slothful is the servant of the counters, 851a their chief desire is to do nothing, 212a their only labour was to kill the time, 371a they laboriously do nothing, 613a to enjoy idling thoroughly, 177a tongue of idle people is never idle, 852a

Idle, Idleness, Idlers—contd.

turns the edge of wit, 788a
 we cannot come to honour under coverlet, 866b why stand ye here all the day idle, 423a who does nothing finds helpers, 777a who does nothing with a better grace? 404b who more busy than they that have least to do, 875b whom the world calls idle, 100a woe to the idle shepherd, 419b work breaks an idle fellow's legs, arms, and back, 878a you cannot do anything by doing nothing, 878b young idler, an old beggar, 731a Idiosyncrasy, I have no, 28b Idol, Oh spare your, 99b the world's chief, 345b worship oft the, for the saint, 386a Idols not made gods by the fashioners, but by the worshipper, 632a Idolatries, bowed to its, 55a Idolatry, mad, 298b Idiot, a tale told by an, 305b Idiots, embryos and, 218b IF and IFS
 a selection of ifs, 788b I hate your ifs, 342b if its ands, 788b
 "If" is the only peacemaker, 289b man who invented if must have changed chopped straw into gold, 711a igne levatur hiems, 622a IGNORANCE
 a feeble remedy for our ills, 555a an advantage in misfortunes, 795a an ignorant, unweighing fellow, 300a argument addressed to, 492a art hath an enemy (ignorance), 737b blind and naked, 365a boasting of knowledge proclaims ignorance, 776b boldness a child of ignorance, 104 confound the ignorant, 293b discreditable as to daily employments, 673a drink to heavy ignorance, 359b dull sneer of self-loved ignorance, 326a explain as if I did not know it, 692b faults of, excusable, where ignorance is, 760b fool is happy that he knows no more, 249a foolhardiness proceeds of ignorance, 762a from ignorance our comfort flows, 259b good for mankind as regards many things, 581b Gothic ignorance, 135a happiest life is to know nothing, 592b he that heareth and understandeth not, 738a he that voluntarily continues ignorance, 178b highly fed and lowly taught, 299a hinders much, 641a
 I always own I dinna ken, 262b I am not ashamed to confess, 599a I ignore the ignorant, 474a

Ignorance—contd.

I pity his ignorance, 113a I would rather be ignorant of evils than wise, 795a ignorantly in unbelief, 430a is lavish of her shades, 407a is not an excuse, 548b, note is not innocence, 35b let me not burst in ignorance, 291b many mortals uninstructed and uncultured, 582a many wise men ignorant about themselves, 582a men once ignorant are slaves, 254b men put more faith in things they do not understand, 571b miraculously ignorant, 83b mother of admiration, 75b mother of admiration—a false statement, 373a mother of devotion, 791b mother of impudence, 791b names to hide ignorance, 325a never makes smallest allowance for, 176a never settles a question, 118a no darkness but ignorance, 298b no one should make gain of another's ignorance, 588b nothing more unjust than the ignorant man, 545a nothing so dangerous as an ignorant friend, 707a of fact is an excuse, 548a of good and bad a great drawback in life, 548b of law is no excuse, 548b of what is called the word, 66a only is maker of hell, 379b our lives universally shortened by, 338b people persuaded by what they cannot understand, 707a right of ignorant to be guided, 71a that must be fine, I do not understand a word, 690b that unlettered, small-knowing soul, 277a the Blisse of ignorance, 171a the curse of God, 317b the ignorant hath eagle's wings and owl's eyes, 846b the ignorant imagines that he knows, 775a the sweetest life is in knowing nothing, 471b there is no desire for the unknown, 640b (ignorance) thy choice, 19b to be conscious that you are ignorant, 116b understand a writer's ignorance, 89a what darkness of night in mortal minds, 625b where ignorance is bliss, 155a why prefer to be ignorant, 509b what you do not know relate as if you did, 628a who knows nothing doubts nothing, 779b Ignotum per ignotius, 548b Ignotum pro magnifico, 609b Iliad and the Odyssey, the, 87b in a nutshell, 552b of woes, 110a, 473a, 668a Ilium, burnt the topless towers of, 208a Ilium, fuit (Troy was), 536b Illium shall be no more, 472a

ILL

captive good attending captain
ill, 322a
comes from ill, 236a ever to do ill our sole delight, 216a fears no ill because she means none, 240b
for every ill beneath the sun, 443a he cannot cure, the ill, 5a he was always for ill and never for good, 272a if thou do ill the joy fades, 163b may pass unheeded, 68a men will speak well of him that does ill, 104b nothing becomes him ill, 277a nought shall go ill, 280b power of doing ill, 82a speak ill of no man to his face, 183a these things bode very ill, 242b thinks no ill where no ill seems,
218b when I did ill I heard it never,
870a willeth no man ill, 194a

ILLS

nae real, 45a rather bear those ills we have,
293b shuns fancied, 177b

ILL DEEDS

often return to their author, 647a the sight of means to do ill deeds, 312a

Ill-favoured thing, an, but mine
own, 289b

Ill-fed better than ill-bred, 743a

Ill got, ill spent, 791b

Ill got, things, had ever bad success, 318a

Ill got goods, third heir enjoyeth
not, 819b

Ill-luck, no, but what lights on my shoulders, 282b

Ill manners, best courtesy to him, 74b

ILL-NATURE

an ill turn is soon done, 735b because I do not wish to perish alone, I wish you to perish with me, 634b

Horace's sketch of ill-natured
man, 483a

I observe something of ill-nature in myself, 243a ill-natured person feeds on his own disposition, 572b ill natures never want a tutor, 792a the more you ask them the more they stick, 792a who has bitter in his mouth spits not all sweet, 875a

you do bear a poison in your mind, 384a

Ill-news swallow-winged, 211b

ILL-WILL

I bear you no ill-will (for good advice), 6b may there be no ill-will, 483a men perish when meditating death to others, 647a never said well, 792a rumour begun by ill-will, 647a

Illiteracy: he can make his mark, 129b

that unlettered, small-knowing soul, 277a

ILLEGITIMACY

begot of love, 169b filius nullius or filius populi, 533a Illegitimacy—contd.

she hath broken her elbow (or her leg above the knee), 833a,
note

the illegitimate not reckoned among a person's children, 632a See Terminus a quo, 670b

Illicit love: I have never laid claim to lawful wedlock, 586b she calls it wedlock, 504b

ILLNESS

a political illness, 40a chamber of sickness is the temple of devotion, 841b

(illnesses) come on horseback, go away on foot, 732a from great illness one comes to great health, 735a he is in great danger who, being sick, thinks himself well, 774a health and sickness men's double enemies, 784a

I desire religion when I am sick, 843a

ill comes in by ills and goes out by inches, 791b

lang ill, soon weel, 799b makes a man a scoundrel, 179b sick of the mulligrubs, 834a sickness is better than sadness, 834a sickness is felt but health not at

all, 784b

sickness tells us what we are,
834a

study sickness when you are well, 838a the devil was sick, a monk would

be, 842b

to know the complaint is a step to health, 485b who was never sick dies the first fit, 783b willingness to be cured a sign of health, 615b

your body is an almanac, 880b

Illogical opinion, an, 22b

ILLUSION AND ILLUSIONS

nothing but illusion true, 168a only one left, the Archbishop of Canterbury, 333b

the drug of illusion, 141b the illusions of his Youth were fled, 265a

the illusions of youth, 329a

Image and superscription, 423b of God, cut in ebony, 141b undefaced, his Maker's, 88a Imaginary evils, don't let us make,

150a

IMAGINATION

and memory, 166b

bare imagination of a feast, 312a bodies forth the forms of things unknown, 281a children the most imaginative

people, 205a

civet to sweeten my imagination, 306b

cleared from vain imaginings, 398a

coinage of your brain, 296a

doctors and imagination, 81b

droops her pinion, 63a

evils that never arrived, 131b

fancy kills and fancy cures, 760a

fear of imaginary evils, 657b horrible imaginings, 303b

I am imaginative, idle was I never, 194b imagination tires, in mid-way flight, 408a

Imagination—contd.

imaginations as foul as Vulcan's stithy, 294b

indebted to his imagination for his facts, 328b

into the study of his imagination, 285a of a boy is healthy, 184b of imagination all compact, 281a more imaginary evils than real,

621a

produces the event, 534b rules the world, 450b

so fair to fond imagination, 396a the faculty of degrading God's works, 267a

the mightiest lever, 398a time wipes out fancies of, 613b weening is not measure, 867a which never were and no man ever saw, 276a

IMITATION

a needy man is lost who imitates a powerful, 557a

endless imitation, 401a

I have heard the nightingale itself, 452a

imitated humanity so abominably,
294b imitative strokes, 99a imitatores, servum pecus, 606b imitators, servile herd, 606b it brings praise to me that you copy my words, 576b no man ever great by imitation, 178b

man an imitative creature, 88b poor man who imitates a rich is lost, 674a

the poorest of imitations, to imitate oneself, 263a the sincerest of flattery, 91a the skilful imitator, 645b we are quick to copy what is base or depraved, 517b

Immediately, if not sooner, 792a,
note

Immoderate things are of short duration, 549b

Immodest words, 115b

Immoral, I'm going to be, 65a or corrupted thought, not one, 204a

IMMORALITY

blemished by, 597a

he is a father to the town, 676a misery not the cause of immorality, 71a

no immoral woman who is not bad, 599a out-paramoured the Turk, 306a

IMMORTAL AND IMMORTALITY being a thing immortal, 291b converse with immortality, 397a he ne'er is crowned with immortality, 184b

I do not wish my belief wrested from me, 654b quaff immortality and joy, 220a signs of an immortal man, 169b the immortal part of myself, 301b the immortals never appear alone, 86a

their immortality they gave, 26a this longing after immortality, 2a this must be his immortality, 157b though no more immortal, 54a thoughts born for immortality, 399a

till his work is done, man is immortal, 441a

whatever has knowledge, will, power of growth, must be eternal, 635a

Immutator mirabilis, 664a

Imo pectore, 550a

Imparided in one another's arms, 219a

IMPARTIALITY

who governs should examine both sides, 678b without anger or partiality, 658a

Impatience never gets preferment, 792a

Impeachment, I own the soft, 328a

Impenitency: he hath left his purse in his other hose, 773a Impediment, cause or just, 433a

Impenitent absolve, no power can the, 74b

IMPERFECTION

all my imperfections on my head, 292a

I am not what I should be, 169a the imperfections of all Christians, 212b

where imperfection ceaseth, 14a

Imperial principles, enslaves you on, 323a

Imperium et Libertas, 118b, note, 550a, note

IMPETURBABILITY

no more moved than a piece of hard stone, 586b quite English, imperturbable, 65a unmoved by hate and violence, 675b

Impetuosity: like a flap of a whirlwind, 274b the youthful knight could not for ought be staid, 339b

Impiety, devout (superstition), 156b

Impious because they did it, 51b men bear sway, 2a

Implication, the puff by, 328b

Important, not, as dear-bought, 101b

Important, rashly, 169a

Importunity: a written bond will be asked in default of money, 655b you slay me with asking, 608b

Impos animi (weak in mind), 550b

Imposed on, wish to be, 95b

IMPOSSIBLE AND IMPOSSIBILITY

(impossible) a word I never say, 694a, note believes the impossible, 30a certain, because impossible, 502b consider nothing impossible, 591a faith requires impossibilities, 28b false impossible shore, 5a impossible great thing, 34a impossible, ne me dites jamais ce bête de mot, 694a, note

Impossibilities in Religion, 28a no obligation of impossibilities, 550b no one is held to the impossible, 484b, 589b not a lucky word, 71a nothing impossible to a willing mind, 818b nothing impossible to perseverance, 591b

(impossibilities) recede before experience, 161a that not impossible she, 104a that which is not, never has been, nor ever shall be, 548a think on things impossible, 127b this might happen to Hercules but not to us, 544a to believe a business impossible is the way to make it so, 860a to the timid and hesitating everything is impossible, 274a to wash a negro white, 487a Impossible and Impossibility—contd.

what's impossible can't be, 90b wise man never attempts impossibilities, 210b

Impotence of fancied power, 356b

Impotence: to beat goads with your fists, 656a

Impressionability: if you say "I am hot," he perspires, 654b youth and white paper take any impression, 880b

Impressions, first, 681b, 761b the last taste of things gives them their name, 847a Improbable fiction, an, 298a

Impromptu the touchstone of wit, 696b

IMPROVEMENT

mieux sera, 854b

spero meliora, 661b

Vespasian the only emperor who improved, 660a

Improve, indecent hearts, 29b Improvisio, ex, 527a

IMPUDENCE

in a bad cause regarded as integrity, 584a is a goddess, 472b starve for want of impudence, 126a the gift of impudence, 138a

IMPULSE

a thing of, 64a manages all things badly, 572a noble impulse is rare, 381b slave of circumstance and impulse, 59b the pupil of impulse, 149a thy impulse is the life of Fame, 396a

Impulses of deeper birth, 400a

Impulsiveness: all ill-considered undertakings languish, 611a

In articulo mortis, 551a

In camera, 551a

In commendam (in trust), 551a

In diem vivere (to live for the day), 551b

In Domino confido, 551b

In limine, 552a

In manus tuas, 552a

In medias res, 552a

In, one is, the other out, 82a

In pari materia, 552b

In partibus infidelium, 552b

Inveni portum, 558b

Inability suspends the law, 550b

Inaccessibility: not easy to be seen, nor to converse with, 588a Inaction, disciplined, 207b vis inertia, 685a

Inactivity, masterly, 455b most indomitably sitting still, 379b wise and masterful, 207b

Incapable of doing aught, 273a Incense, a little, puts a lot of things right, 709b an abomination to me, 416b from darkening, freed, 381a of the court, 670b of God of Wine, 28a

smoke, stupefying, 33a

Incensed, being, he's flint, 315b

Uncertainties, see Uncertainties, 17a

Inch breaks no squares, 735b, note give him an, and he'll take an ell, 765b thick, knee-deep, o'er head and ears, 309b Incidents well linked, 97b

Incitement: he inflames their valour, 604b to send round the fiery peat, 861b

INCLINATION

a fool will be slave to his, 490b all inclinations to be subdued by discipline, 603b each man his own, 577a he begins to die who quits his desires, 772a mortals come to grief through misdirected inclination, 644a our will determines not our intellect, 377a rejoice if you have vanquished inclination, 672b rule your mind or it will rule you, 490b they see nothing but what pleases them, 575b to sin entails penalties, 616b what we desire and believe we imagine others do likewise, 628b where there is inclination there is a way, 873b wise man will master his inclination, 490b Inclusion of one means exclusion of the others, 554b

INCOHERENCE

a story without a head, 467b

that must be fine, I do not understand a word, 690b wants beginning and ending, 500b

Income, a moderate, 268a annual, twenty pounds, 114a tax return, I made a false, 146b let not expenditure exceed, 665b seven hundred pounds and possibilities, 287a three hundred pounds a year, 287b

INCOMPLETE

Artistry's curse, 35a

better never begin than never make end, 743b

think nothing done while aught remains to do, 264b

INCONGRUITY

a gold ring in a swine's snout, 636a all the incongruous things, 85a an eel in a sandbag, 773b do not offer a sow to Minerva, 586a handsome women fall to lot of ugly men, 771a he paints a dolphin in the woods, a boar in the waves, 513a lead sword in ivory scabbard, 551b pack saddle on an ox, 499a the camel is dancing, 499b to fish in the air; to hunt in the sea, 550b to sing Magnificat at matins, 861b what has a blind man to do with a mirror, 479a when Dover and Calais meet, 869b Inconceivable to the minutest Ariadne, 328b

INCONSTANT AND INCONSTANCY

(inconstant) as the seas, 20b careless man inconstant, 138b change of opinion not inconstancy, 588b

constant in inconstancy, 17a

did your fancy never stray, 143a

I am no inconstant person in love, 599a in Nature, 94b lightly from fair to fair he flew, 270a man by nature false, 240a mused on mutability, 65b

Nature's law, 48a nothing constant but inconstancy 350a Inconstant and Inconstancy—const. this inconstancy is such, 200b

 to one thing constant never, 284b Inconvenience, a light, is to be borne, 565b Inconveniences, each man should bear his own, 666b Inconvenient, nothing, is allowable (in law), 592b Inconvenients, ab, 482b Incorporated and demi-natured, as he had been, 296b Incorruptible, the sea-green, 72b Increase, he must, but I must decrease, 425b of appetite had grown, 290b INCREDULITY
 a vulgar, 274b mind not moved by what it does not believe, 696a the wit of fools, 76a Incredulus odi, 642a Ind to Ind, from, 357a Indecent hearts, 29b Indefatigable, old, 161b INDEPENDENCE
 a crust of bread and liberty, 255b Britons prize too high, 147b of this ain't to be independent,
 202b
 he flies with his own wings, 488a I have sold my independence (argentum accepi), 492a I'll spit in my parlour, 738b in awe of such a thing as I myself, 285a let not a man serve another, who can be his own master, 488b lord of himself, though not of lands, 403a
 lord of myself, accountable to none, 239b
 of principle, 90b thy spirit let me share, 334a you may love your neighbour, yet not hold his stirrup, 879b Indescribable: I cannot describe, but only feel it, 590b
 "not if I had ten tongues and ten mouths," 476b Index, a daub at an, 150a the soul's, 94a thunders in the, 295b Indexes to perfection, he writes,
 150b Indexing, English do not understand, 385a
 the root of all good organisation, 385a
INDIA
 dominions of the Sun, 66b coral strand, India's, 160a knelt at her feet, 353b only good Indians I ever saw, were dead, 459b to the poor Indian, 248a Indirect way often better than the direct, 647b
Indus to the Pole, from, 255a INDIFFERENCE
 a sweet, 37b Gallio cared for none of these things, 426b
 half infidelity, 42a
 the morn and cold indifference,
 266b Indifferent children of the earth, 292b Indifferentism, mild, 32a Indigestion, 17a
Indigestion, reaps, 344a Indignation can no longer tear my
 heart, 674b

Indignation makes verses, 529b my liver is in a ferment, 532a Indignatio versum, facit, 529b Indignities lead to dignities, 9b Indignity, digest this harsh, 277b Indirections, by, find directions out, 292a
INDISPENSABILITY
 Government's, 21a
 I cannot exist without you, 657a no man is indispensable, 816b sine q' a non, 658b they love, they hate, but cannot do without him, 451b, note Individual is foolish, 42b injustice to an, 184a Individuals may form communities,
 118b Individualism, progress dependent
 on, 215a
Individuality: don't suppose there ever was a chap quite like me, 384b whatever crushes individuality is despotism, 215a Indocilis pauperiem pati, 568b INDULGENCE
 destroys vigour of mind and body, 579a he that over-feeds his senses feasteth his enemies, 780b indulge the body as much as is enough for health, 506b not that you were worthy, but that I was indulgent, 600b this indulgence we both ask and
 give, 541a
 weak indulgence first will accuse, 221b
Industria, ex (intentionally), 527a INDUSTRY
 a loadstone, 49b always at it wins the day, 734b avarice the spur of, 175a believing nothing done while anything remained to do, 593a better wear out shoon than sheets, 744a every land fosters its own art, 479b every land fosters some art, 492b evident youth makes easy age, 754b Fortune's right hand, 793a genius fostered by, 555b God gives all things to, 766a idle industry, 614b
 makes all things easy, 834b much industry and little conscience make a man rich, 812b no true industry without fear of God, 188b
 nothing impossible to, 555a omnipotence of English industry, 193a parent of success, 793a parent of virtue, 793a the ant an example of, 616a Inebriate, cheer but not, 22a, 100a INEQUALITY
 everything goes to him who wants
 nothing, 758b
 fortune gives too much to many, enough to more, 763b how unequally fortune divides rewards, 606b how unequally things are arranged, 629a life's inequalities, 83b nothing down, nothing up, 818a nothing was ever so unequal to itself, 593b
 we give to the rich and take from
 the poor, 866b
Inertia, strenua nos exercet, 663a

INEVITABLE bear, do not blame, what cannot be changed, 531b
 foolish to fear the inevitable, 663b happy he who forgets what cannot be altered, 867b ineluctabile tempus, 680a two things never to be angry at—what one can help and what one can't, 865a what cannot be altered must be borne, not blamed, 867b Inexactitude, terminological, 460a Inexperienced men think all things easy, 793a Infallibility: think it possible you are mistaken, 104b
Infallible, none of us, 442a Infamy, death a retreat from, 142a never incurred for nothing, 43a what is, as long as money is safe, 636a INFANTS and INFANCY an infant crying in the night, 362b heaven lies about us in our infancy, 401a infant phenomenon, 113a quickly tod, soon with God, 829a quickly toothed and quickly go, 829a regular as infant's breath, 87b shadow-peopled infancy, 326a the hisping infant, 44a the mewling and puking infant, 288b Infatuation precedes destruction,
 793a
Infected, all that the infected spy, 247b
INFERIORITY conscious of an inferiority, 179a
 inferior, who is free, 221a live with your inferiors, 367a no shame to be less than foe, 340a one often needs someone less than one's self, 704a, 821b so live with an inferior as you would have a superior live with you, 657a
 things below us are nothing to us, 628a to be superior a man must begin with being inferior, 332a to contend with inferiors is vulgar, 509a Inferno, l'uom ch'è stato all', 715a INFLUENCE a happy, genial, 392b one word of yours more weighty than a hundred of mine, 539a shed their selectest, 220b unawed by, 345b Influenza, you can call it, 21b Infidel, I have thee on the hip, 283b Infinitum, so proceed ad, 348a INFINITY
 Epicurus has searched out infinity,
 686b how can finite grasp infinity, 124a infirm of purpose, 304a infirmities and faults of others, 398b should bear his friend's, 286b infirmity, it is mine own, 433b last, of noble mind, 226a, note Information flow, let, 82b Information, non- and mal-, 90b only ask for, 114a thy office is to give, 478a Informers is the worse rogue of the two, 846b
Informers, invented for public ruin,
 512b

Infra dignitatem, 555a Ingenuas pectus coluisse per artes, 586b Ingle, a bleezing, 262b his wee bit, 44a Inglorious to the silent grave, 181b INGRATITUDE
 all things are ungrateful, 612a as soon as you have drunk you turn your back on the spring, 739a barbs the dart of injury, 328b child of pride, 793a English "gratitude," 108a gifts of prodigal and fool produce ingratitude, 625b he who thanks when all witnesses have departed, 556a hell is full of the ungrateful, 784b I hate ingratitude more than lying, 298a it is evil to serve the ungrateful, 556a marble-hearted fiend, 306a more strong than traitors' arms, 286b not so unkind as man's ingratitude, 289a oblige her and she'll hate you, 251a one ungrateful man injures all the unfortunate, 556a returning kind deeds with coldness, 399b say ungrateful and you say all, 556a the public pays with ingratitude, 850a the worst of vices, 760b to do good to the ungrateful is like throwing rose-water into the sea, 860b we find many ungrateful; we make more, 582b what you do for an ungrateful man is lost, 618b Inhabitant below, the poor, 45b Inheritance, a ruinous, 510b never ascends, 541a of each generation increases, 571a property acquired by, 645a Inhumanity: needlessly sets foot upon a worm, 101a no greater shame to man, 340b Iniquity, draw, with cords of vanity, 417a I lack, to do me service, 300b in the bond of, 426a reaped, 418b Initio, ab, 482b
 Injin's flesh and bone, an, 38b INJURIES
 an injury not done to a consenting party, 687a are writ in brass, 210a bearing an old injury you invite a new, 681b better to injury than to do injury, 483b come from those with upper hand, 556b ears can endure them better than the eyes, 556b first function of law to prevent unprovoked injury, 651a forbidden by law of nature and of nations, 601a good man cannot do an injury, 684a great minds despise, 570b greatest punishment is the fact of doing injuries, 574a Injuries—contd.

he threatens many who is injurious to one, 582a, 783a if you had not injured him you would have died, 525b injuries to reputation are inestimable, 530b injury by one of whom you dare not complain, 542b injury intended is as done, 556b injury without loss, 556b it costs more to revenge than to bear, 793b it is easy to hurt, hard to cure, 795a it is impiety to hurt even a bad brother, 588a it is no injury that is not intended, 796a let not the commonwealth suffer injury, 585b made light of, disappear, 556b men hate those they have hurt, 810a natural to hate one you have injured, 626a neglect will kill injuries sooner than revenge, 814a no one injures me with impunity, 589a no one is injured but by himself, 589a no one may do to his property what will injure another's, 625b no one should be injured, 603b no one should derive benefit from his own injury, 504a oblivion the remedy for injuries, 556b (injury) produces injury, 567a serves as a lesson, 595a we may hinder one injury by another, 556b we write injuries on marble, 793b what a fool an injury may make, 185b what worthy man does not keep them in mind, 367a who does an injury to one threatens many, 582a, 783a worse to do, than to revenge, an injury, 797a worthy man not mindful of injuries, 475a wrought by fraud or by force, 520a Injurious: nothing advantageous which may not be, 594a INJUSTICE doing evil to men does not differ from injustice, 448a drove Astræa from the earth, 397b I would rather suffer unjustly than act unjustly, 448a malice and injustice, 40b national, road to national downfall, 147a sweeps the wide earth, 256b the injustice of the Just, 159a to a well-deserving man you are evil, 496b to entreat from the just is wrong, 556b to an individual, of service to public, 184a unjust rule never endures, 556a you are guilty of injustice, when you do not punish, 781b Ink, a small drop of, 63a gall enough in thy, 298a if all the sea were, 446b INNS
 a capital tavern, 179a

Inns—contd.

all hosts evil, 126b an inn, where travellers bait, 176b driven from all towns, 20b find in an inn a place of rest, 91b from an inn not from my home, 109b good cheer and good cheap, 768a good novels full of inns, 22b he goes not out of his way that goes to a good inn, 772b his warmest welcome at an inn, 327b I'm for toleration and for drinking at an inn, 209a life at best is but an inn, 175a take mine ease in mine, 314b, note the inn's worst room, 251b world's an, 126b INNOCENCE
 all are presumed good till found at fault, 732b always within thy power, 135b and ease, bowers of, 147b and Folly alike, 95b and health, 148a and water-colour painting, 343b better than eloquence, 651a better than repentance, 829b God regards pure hands, 627b harmless as doves or as lambs, 382b has a friend in Heaven, 712a is strong, 402a la vraie innocence n'a honte de rien, 706b modesty does not survive innocence, 42b only an innocent man hopes for good in evil, 552a requires little eloquence, 634a should be unsuspicious, 192b who knows no guilt knows no fear, 211a who swerves from innocence, 399a without wisdom, is folly, 876b INNOCENT
 as a new-laid egg, 147a heart a brittle thing, 204b he's armed that's innocent, 253a innocent-arch, 356b man needs no weapons, 557b minds innocent and quiet, 200b sweet innocent, the mother cried, 355b Innovate not to reform, to, 42a Innovations, follow time's example in, 10b Innovator, conservator and, 72a Time the greatest, 10b Innuendo, convey a libel in a frown, 347b Inoculations and operations, 324a Imprimatur, 550b
 Inquest of the Nation, 42b Inquests: Crown's-quest law, 296b Inquiry, too much, is bad, 862b Inquisition, with the, hush, 877a Inquisitor, a chief, 33a INQUISITIVENESS
 who gropes in the dark finds that he would not, 777b who looks for evil finds it, 771b See Curiosity
 Insane, he would appear, to only a few, 594b Insanity, a sort of, in abstruse philosophy, 187b fancy a degree of, 178b the human mind in ruins, 107b inscription bigger than the bag, 474a

Inscriptions, lapidary, man not on his oath in, 179a INSCRUTABILITY high and inscrutable, 63b never could divine his thought, 63a not a thought to be seen, 35b roll back the scrutiny, 57a Insect, so impotent and grovelling an, 347a Insects have made the lion mad, 59a of the hour, 41b
 summer in the hum of, 193a Insecurity: he lives unsafely that looks too near on things, 775b Inside, get, and pull the blinds down, 464b Insight, a moment's, 168b Insignificance and an earldom, 80b INSINCERITY eloquent in proportion to, 691b
 greetings where no kindness is, 394a guilt of deceitful friendship, 673b he that speaks me fair and loves me not, 781b
 it is vile to say one thing and think another, 673a man who hides one thing in his mind and speaks another, 472a many kiss the hand they wish cut off, 808a many lick before they bite, 808a
 mouth of honey, heart of gall, 812b native language of insincerity, 346b to cut a stick when the fight is over, 797a Insinuations the rhetoric of the devil, 712a Insipid things, like sandwiches of veal, 169b INSOLENCE
 does Diana heed the barking dog, 564a flown with insolence and wine, 216a is pride with her mask off, 793b of office, 293b precursor of destruction, 478b swollen with insolence and pride, 53b the more foolish a man is, the more insolent, 639b Insolvent innocence, 97a Insomnia: sleep stole on me un-awares, 188a INSPIRATION
 attired with brightness as a man inspired, 399b contemplation of heavenly things refines words and actions, 611b diversities of gifts, but the same Spirit, 428a heart, not brain, attains to the highest, 198b Minerva being unwilling (to bestow), 559a, 672b night the mother of thoughts, 815b no great man without, 589b poets filled with a divine sort of, 622a the fire of God fills him, 365a there is a God in us and intercourse with heaven, 523b
 there is a God within us, 523a without the inspiration, 43a Instar omnium, 557b INSTINCT AND INSTINCTS a blind sense, 392b a few strong instincts, 397a

Instinct and Instincts—contd.
 a sparkle of original purity, 8b by divine instinct men mistrust danger, 319a (instinct) is a great matter, 314a is important O! 145b leaden instincts, 338b meaner things whom instinct leads, 101b (instinct) leaps; Reason slowly climbs, 407a let him use instinct who cannot use reason, 678a preceded wisdom, 196b the better guide, 196b the old instinct, 88b Institutions create a nation, 118b before established, should be long considered, 512b INSTRUCTION
 I never come to you but I go away wiser, 630a I will better the, 282b if you love instruction you will be well instructed, 470b it is seldom safe to instruct, 91a not wholesome as instruction, 41a you must spoil before you spin well, 880a Instrument you will, call me what, 295a let him who knows the, play, 800b thy most dreaded, 397b INSULT AND INSULTS
 a blockhead's insult points the dart, 177b if you speak, you will hear insults, 506a like bad coins; we need not take them, 793b noble-mindedness does not receive insult, 556a poor people ready to imagine insult, 610b remembered longer than an injury, 80a INTEGRITY
 do all as though someone were watching, 657a God regards pure hands, 627b is praised and starves, 625a preserve me, integrity, for I have preserved you, 620b so that anyone might inspect his innermost heart, 657a
 to appear an honest man you must be one, 705b whatever is worthy of a good and wise man, 635a whose means are pure and spotless as his ends, 400a will never deceive, 104b INTELLECT
 an intellectual All-in-all, 399b chock-full of intellect, 347a conceit of intellect, 373b greatest intellects often lie unseen, 647b health and intellect, the two blessings, 480a limitations of human intellect, 206a march of intellect, 338a may rule (Florence), 31b numbring good intellects, 226b obscure more than it illumines, 408b our wayward intellect, 100a pleasures of intellect, 628b pleasures (intellectual), 181a power (intellectual) went sounding on, 401b

Intellect—contd.
 subtlety of intellect, coexistent with simplicity, 235a the mind makes a man noble, 490b Intelligible, better aim at being, 159a confounding what was, 7a to be, is to be found out, 388b INTELLIGENCE dependent on the senses, 591b he is from Châteaudun, 775a he knows how many beans make five, 775a he knows which way the wind blows, 775a some wits can digest before others can chew, 836a we are not intelligent, 145b INTEMPERANCE
 drunken, but not with wine, 417b in nature, 305a intemperate youth brings worn-out age, 557b See Drunkenness, Drink INTENTION AND INTENTIONS and crime are equal, 615b can alone add confidence to what we say, 548b consciousness of good intention, 504b crime absent from our inclination, 530a deeds to be judged by intention, 609b
 God regards pure hands, 627b God punishes the intention, 807a good intentions push men into vicious results, 693a good will should be taken in part of payment, 769a heaven favours good intentions, 784b hell is paved with good intentions, 784b, note "means well" is useless unless a man does well, 589b none can compass more than they intend, 246b nor think the intention sanctifies the deed, 179b put aside that intention, 560b the act does not make a crime, unless the mind is criminal, 484b what man would do, 366b what we do determine oft we break, 295a Intent, in working out a pure, 397b hath thwarted our, 280a our true, is all for your delight, 281a wicked or charitable, be thy, 291b Inter strepit anser olores, 492a Intercourse, speed the soft, 255a Inter-dependence: all for each and each for all, 132a one thing asks help of another, 488b Interest (on money), five per cent the natural, 205a a breed of barren money, 282a See Three per cents Interest and fear, levers to move men, 450a but oh, I do in, 202a can never be opposed to honour, 519a few men will be better than their interest bids, 761a I know on which side my bread is buttered, 787a men are blind in their own cause, 810a Interest: virtue has few Platonic lovers, 866a Interests, divided by, 692a great, collide, 553b Interesting, aim at being, rather than exact, 698a people who do not amuse, 117b

INTERFERENCE

I would rather my cake burn than you turn it, 784a let-a-be for let-a-be, 804b men's proneness to meddle with others' affairs, 561a never burn your fingers to snuff another man's candle, 814b scald not your lips in another man's pottage, 831b Interim, all the, is like a phantasma, 285b

INTERPRETATION

an ill man will turn it ill, 800a contemporary interpretation, weighty in law, 505b may no false interpretation be placed on my jests, 483a private interpretation, 431a quite interpreted away, 244b Interpreter, an ill-natured, 483a at the House Beautiful, 191b hardest to be understood, 328b of life, a great, 234b Interregnum, not recognised in England, 551a Interruption, the work is suspended through, 618a

Intervention: let not a God intervene unless the difficulty is worthy of him, 586b on behalf of the unworthy injures the honourable, 781b

Intestata senectus, 543b

INTOLERANCE

benevolent people one-sided, 160b
 he will never get to heaven who desires to go alone, 783b in support of toleration, 89a Religion harsh, intolerant, 96b

INTOXICATION

life is but, 62b pavement, faithless to the fuddled foot, 369b till sense and sorrow both are drowned, 273a

Introduced, they had not been, 145a

Introduction, the unfortunate need no, 334b

Intrude, hope I don't, 246a Intuition, a passionate, 401b known the world by, 258a

Invasions, gilding unjust, 211a

INVENT AND INVENTION

a thing vainly invented, 433b beggars invention, and makes fancy tame, 98b (inventions) by men of humbler class, 161a fear is a great inventor, 814a genius invents, wit only discovers, 711a invention breeds invention, 132a, 793b invention flags, 93a

It is easy to add to inventions, 520a it is my own invention, 120a man invents nothing in the arts of life, 323b nothing more inventive than suffering, 476b nothing invented and perfected at the same time, 592b

only truth can be invented, 267b

Invent and Invention—contd.

poverty discoverer of all the arts, 617b some, the rest enlarge, 347b the most expensive thing in the world, 323b they have sought out many inventions, 415b universe full of magical things waiting for our wits, 244a when did woman ever yet invent, 360a

Inventis addere, 529a

Inventus, non est, 598a

Inverness, I will arise now and go to, 444a Investigation: further than witte may streeche, 167a nose not given to all, 596b

Invidia gloria comes, 523b

Invisible as a nose on a man's face, 281a most wonderful things are, 188b the only evil that walks, 218b

Invisibility: the helmet of Orcus, 614a

INVITATION

a host's invitation is expensive, 723a some offended at being asked, some at not being asked, 549a to displease none, invite none, 604a whistle and he'll come to you, 874a

Iona, among the ruins of, 180a

Iphigenia, sacrifice of, 668b

Ipse dixit, 559b

Ipsissima verba, 559b

Ipso facto: Ipso jure, 559b

Ira, tantene animis caelestibus, 668a

IRELAND

"a slave he doth remain," 438a all too late they love Ireland, 238a applying abstract political economy to Ireland, 147a

daughter of all the implacable ages, 379b

England and Ireland, 40b

Erin go bread and cheese, 332a

Erin's honour and pride, 231a fightin' like divils for conciliation, 196b gives England her soldiers, 214a glorious Ireland, 353b green and sad, 238a

he that will England win must with Ireland begin, 782a, 782b many lies in praise of, 242b none may wrong, save thy sons alone, 353b north loves fight, south falseness, 360b, note romantic Ireland's dead and gone, 404a

Ulster in 1912, 191a
 whom we have wedded but have never won, 380a

See Erin

IRISH AND IRISHMEN

a servile race in folly nurst, 348a God takes care of boys and Irishmen, 767a heart of Irishman nothing but imagination, 323a

Irish bulls, horns tipped with brass, 130a

Irish Giant, surnamed of Despair, 73b land legislation, 1881, 459a more Irish than the Irish, 542b never speak well of one another, 179a Irish and Irishmen—contd.

northern stalwart, southern traitorous, 360b, note now the Irish are ashamed, 2085 like Teague's cocks that fought one another, though on the same side, 803a the Irishman sleeps, 843a

Iron, beat, while it is hot, 128a entered into his soul, 433b hand in velvet glove, 453a like iron through your blood, 285a meddles with cold iron, 51a sharpeneth iron, 415a the soul of every manufacture, 330b the best metal, 840b touching cold iron, 862b, note used to fashion iron, 751b

Irons, many, in the fire, 778b

Iron-sleet of arrowy shower, 155a Irony, foundation of Providence, 696b some meaning beneath all this terrible irony, 323a

Irreconcilable, attempting to reconcile the, 679a

IRRELEVANCE

Artemus Ward on, 27b digressions the soul of reading, 343b gratis dictum, 538b he sendeth to the East Indies for Kentish pippins, 776a

I seldom go to place I set out for, 343b they wander from the matter, 482a

See Digressions

Irreligion, principle of their, 42b

Irresolution: a large part of mankind drift between good and evil, 615b

IRRETRIEVABLE

do not tie what you cannot untie, 752a done and cannot be undone, 530a soon it will have been and will be irretrievable, 561a the wave which has passed will not be recalled, 587b

what ought not to have been done holds good when done, 640b word spoken, arrow discharged, divine decree, and time, 730b

IRRITATION

caused by iteration, 130b curiosity a cause of, 601b gall not to be restrained, 532a une mouche l'a piqué, 709b

Is, it, but it hadn't ought to be, 158b

Is, that that, is, 298a Isabella of Spain, 12a

Iser, rolling rapidly, 68a

Isis and Cam, to patient science dear, 398b

ISLAND AND ISLANDS

Albion severed from the world, 243b fickleness attributed to us as islanders, 228b live on yon beautiful island, 1111a or some secreted island, 393b our rough island-story, 361b snug little island, 1111a that island queen, 357a tight little island, 1111a

ISLE AND ISLES

a sweet isle, of isles the queen, 394a beautiful isle of the sea, 443b enchanted isles, 225b her hundred isles, 55a

Isle and Isles—contd.
 many a green isle needs must be,
 325b some bright isle of rest, 231a this sceptred isle, 312b Islington, a village less than, 94a Norfolk, 435b, note Israelite indeed, behold an, 425b Issue, wait the, sleeping underground, 5b Issues, great, good or bad, for human kind, 399b
 Isthmus, this, of a middle state, 248b this narrow, 232b Ita Dis placitum, 560b
Ita lex scripta est, 520b Italia, l' farà da sé, 715a Italia, oh Italia, 55a Italian characteristics, 265a language, 58b
 trills are tame, 44b Italians, wise before the deed, 846b ITALY, 2a a man who has not been in, 179a after seeing Italy, 43b graved inside of it Italy, 36a Home of the Arts, 161a land of Saturn, 648a made from designs by Michael Angelo, 83b
 Oh woman country, 36b paradise for horses, hell for women, 755a paradise of the earth, 138b parent of fruits and of men, 648a thy sabbaths, 95b Itch is worse than a smart, 736a of disputing, 430a, note of scribbling, 144b Itching palm, an, 286b Iteration, a languid, leaden, 405b likely to generate heat, 130b thou hast damnable, 313a Ithuriel with his spear, 219b Itys, Itys, cry of nightingale, 245b Ivory does not come from a rat's mouth, 879a
 Ivy green, a dainty plant, 111b Ivy-green jacket, in an, 173b Ivy leaves, each room with, is drest,
 390b
 Izzards and Xes, 16b

J

Jabberwock, hast thou slain the,
 119b Jack, a good, makes a good Jill, 722a as good as his master, 798a bad, may have as bad a Jill, 717a if Jack were better, Jill would not be so bad, 789a
 Is as good as Jill, 797b keep watch for the life of poor, 110a Ketch will claim you, 465a many a gentle person made a, 318b
 of all trades, master of none, 797b Robinson, before one can say, 741a shall have Jill, 280b, 733b Sprat would teach his grandame, 839a they all love, 383b they call for their, 213b Jack's the king of all, 383b Jackdaw calls the crow nigger, 850a ever found near a jackdaw, 467a has nothing to do with music, 591a no more entrusted gold to you than to a, 599b

Jackdaw, not reckoned a religious bird, 170a
 the Welshman's, 831a, 858a with jackdaw, 744b Jacket was red, his, 87a Jacob, O canny sons of, 267a Jacobite Song, The wee German Lairdie, 440a
 Jade, the galled, 295a Jades for a' that, I like the, 44b Jack better than a ship, 178b Jam, now for the strawberry, 146a Jam satis, ohe! 561a Jam to-day, never, 120a James II: with dejected air, 2a, James, St., reservation of, 664b, note James's day, till, you may have hops, 859a Jangled, out of tune, and harsh, 294a
JANUARY excellence of a pullet in Janiveer, 789a hot sun in January a bad sign, 789b
 If grass grow in, 789b March in Janiveer a bad sign, 808b who sows oats in, gets gold and groats, 875a
 Janus, by two-headed, 281b Japan to Rome, 177b, note J'appelle un chat un chat, 694a Jar, a strange quick, 63b Jardin, il faut cultiver notre, 690b Jargon, murders with, 142a of the schools, 96a, 246a Jasmine pure, climbing, 400b Jaundice, the king's evil, 644a Jaw, elongation of, 16a Jaws, gently smiling, 119a Jay-bird don't rob his own nest, 158a JEALOUSY AND JEALOUSY a city passion, 375b affection's sentinel, 321a an angry lover tells himself lies, 488b artist's jealousy, 23b believes, what frenzy dictates, 143a beware, my lord, of, 301b carry-tale, dissentious jealousy, 321a cruel as the grave, 416b gives false alarms, suggesting mutiny, 321a green-eyed, 283a guilt is always jealous, 770b hydra of calamities, 408b jealous head is soon broken, 723b jealous o' a' the young fellows, 48b love and jealousy seldom separated, 805b love being jealous makes a good eye squint, 805b love's curse, 365b love's enemy, 212a man jealous and mistaking, 257b more self-love than love in jealousy, 694a narrow jealousies are silent, 364a not easily jealous, but being wrought, 303a our jealousy turns on him that will not share, 213b she has given them green stockings, 833a
 the green-eyed monster, 301b the injured lover's hell, 220a the reward of love, 850b the sevenfold death, 408b the jealous are the wise, 92a thou tyrant of the mind, 125b

Jealous and Jealousy—contd.
 trifles confirmation strong to the jealous, 302a whiles they behold a greater than themselves, 285b
 woman (jealous) believes everything, 143a
 women (jealous) are mad, 244a See Horns, 778b
 Jean, the breast o' bonnie, 49a Jeanie do, what could artless, 49a Jeerers must be content to taste their own broth, 798a Jeering, English habit of, 242b Jeers, gibes, flouts and, 118b Jehovah hath triumphed, 232a Jove, or Lord, 250a Jelly, meaty, 115a
 Jericho, tarry at, 410a Jerkin, wear it on both sides like a leather, 298b
 Jerusalem, if I forget thee, O, 413b not a great thing to have been to,
 599a the golden, 237b till we have built, 23b Jessamine faint, 326a JESTS and JESTING a bitter word or jest, 210b a fellow of infinite jest, 297a a good jest for ever, 313b a scornful jest, 177b a true jest is an evil jest, 851b a jest unseen, inscrutable, 281a all things are a jest, 611b all things are big with jest, 163a amused with rough jests, 493a at lords, over-worn trade of, 139b bitter jests whereof the memory lasts, 484a
 bound not with bawty lest he bite, 745b brings serious sorrows, 798a difficult to jest with a sad mind, 515b do not lose your friend for your jest, 752b
 he makes a foe who makes a jest, 143b he's at a loss for jests that rakes hell for them, 784a his jests are coarse, 255b I love my jest, an' the ship were sinking, 835b ill jesting with edge-tools, 360a indebted to his memory for his jests, 328b jest and youthful jollity, 224a jest with an ass and he'll flip you in the face, 798a jest's prosperity lies in the ear, 277b jests spare no one, 798a jests from obsolete farces, 180b joke at your leisure; ye kenna wha may jibe yoursel, 798a leave a jest when it pleases you best 800a
 let the jests be without vileness, 658b life is a jest, 143b long jesting never was good, 800a many a true word said in jest, 856b no jesting with edged tools, 752b none of my writings corrupted by a malignant jest, 603a paltry, humbug jest, 91b poison in jest, 295a put his whole wit in a jest, 20a some had rather lose friend than
 jest, 835b
 the jester and the jestee, 342b

Jests and Jesting—contd.

the jest and riddle of the world, 248b the jests of the rich ever successful, 151a the wise make jests, fools repeat them, 853a they do but jest, 295a though Nestor swear the jest be laughable, 281b threadbare jest, 82a true jests breed bad blood, 863a truest jests sound worst in guilty ears, 851b turns to a mirth-moving jest, 277a what is to prevent a laughter from speaking truth, 646a when thou dost tell another's jest, 162b when true jests leave bitter remembrance, 493a where you see a jester, a fool is not far off, 874a which hurts is not welcome, 605b wise men make jests, fools repeat them, 762b with earnest, 11a without bitterness, 483b without the smile, 87a See Joking

Jesu, lover of my soul, 385a

Jesus Hominum Salvator (I.H.S.),

Jesus, how sweet the name of, 238b that they had been with, 426a

Jesuits, motto of, 485a

Jeune j'étais trop sage, 694b

Jeunesse dorée, 695b

JEWES

a hopeless faith, a homeless race, 186a a Jew cannot help feeling superior, 21a a people mixed with every race, 103a a race prone to superstition, 537b Anti-Semites and Jews, 21a few but have heard of a Jew, 16a hath not a Jew eyes, hands, organs, dimensions, 282b I am a Jew else; an Ebrew Jew, 313b Israel shall be a proverb and a byword, 410b (Jews) Turks, Infidels and Heretics, 432a let Apella, the Jew, believe that, 507a like pale ghosts, 186a O canny sons of Jacob, 267a persecution of Jews, 564a salvation is from the Jews, 648a superiority of Jews, 130b the Jew that Shakespeare drew, 439a the race that loved not Thee, 176a the unbelieving Jews, 426b which Jews might kiss, 247b who would cheat a Jew must be a Jew, 782b

JEWEL and JEWELS

a rich jewel in an Ethiop's ear, 278a a jewel in a ten times barred up chest, 312a a jewel that we find we stoop and take it, 299b a little trifling stone, 234a dumb jewels, more quick than words, 281b from his jasey, 15b have I caught my heavenly jewel, 329b life's jewels, 236a

Jewel and Jewels—contd.

madness to carry one's fortune on one's body, 638b (jewels) make women fat or thin, 18a (jewels) of God, 38a (jewel) of their souls, 301b orators of Love, 105b rich in having such a jewel, 281a unvalued jewels, 318b wears yet a precious jewel, 288a Jig-maker, your only, 294b Jigs, all my merry, are quite forgot, 322b

Jilted, better than never courted, 69a

Jim along Josey, 464a

Jim Crow, jump, 464a

Jingo, by, if we do, 458a

Joan as good as my lady, in the dark, 798a

Job was effected by a, 146a

Job, as poor as, but not so patient, 315a less miserable in suffering, then happy in patience, 798a poor as, 288a

the patience of, 431a was no schoolmaster, 798a

Job's turkey, 738b

Job's wife, wicked as, 288a

Jockey, more men than, 854a

Jockeyship, we boast superior, 99b

Jocular manner, in his, 16a

Joe, not for, 464b

Joe, sing old, 464a

Jog on the footpath-way, 310a

John Baptist, greediness beheaded, 539a

John Bull, greatest of all is, 61b

John Bull in his very worst of moods, 273b

Johnson, Dr. S., and Boswell, 71b

Dr. Johnson's freedom in condemnation, 43b

Dr. Johnson on music, 440a regarded in his own age as a classic, 205b imitation of, 43a

the Great Cham, 334b

Johnsonese, a sort of broken, 206a

Joint, the time is out of, 292a

Jollity and game, turned to, 222a

Jolly, I'm a, 190a

Jolly place in times of old, 393b

JOKES and JOKING

a joke often settles things better than acrimony, 646b a rich man's joke, 27a a very serious thing, 82a cruelty of joking, 561b disposes of disagreeable matters by, 609a dulness ever loves a joke, 254a even the gods love jokes, 561b getting a joke into a Scotch understanding, 332a horseplay's fool's play, 786b many a joke had he, 148b mild and severe jokes, 84a moderation to be observed in joking, 485b my way of joking is to tell the truth, 323a
 often of great utility, 664a price of a joke, laugh too great if it involves impropriety, 594b set aside (joking apart), 609b simple joke that takes the shepherd's heart, 370a some will rather lose their best friend than their worst joke, 835b Jokes and Joking—contd.

the American joke, 83b to give and to take a good joke, 111a two sorts of joking, low and elegant, 520a what seems a joke is often the truth, 856b

Jonathan, Brother, 379a

Jonathan, David had his, 163a

Jonson knew the critic's part, 90a

Jonson came, then, 178a

Joseph I, motto, 684a

Joseph, another king arose, which knew not, 409b, 426a

Jostle, seem to, but never jar, 6b

Jouk an' let the jaups gae by, 798a

JOURNALISTS and JOURNALISM and repetition, 21b governs in America, 389b great is journalism, 72b knights of the pen, 367b smiling upon thee will get out thy secrets, 420a the Fourth Estate, 456a with much communication will he tempt thee, 420a

See Newspapers, Pressmen

Journals of the night, 103a

JOURNEY and JOURNEYS

a journey of 1,000 miles begins with one step, 723b a journey will seem long if you tell every step, 790b

I journeyed far, I journeyed fas', 158a

I, on my journey, all alone proceed, 83a journeys end in lovers meeting, 297b

Journeyman, nature's, 294b

Jove, all things are full of, 561b far from, far from his thunder, 625b himself cannot please all, 476b like a painted, 122a the irrevocable doom of, 255b

Jove's planet, 36a

JOVIALITY

good to be merry at meat, 768b there is no jollity but hath a smack of folly, 855b vivat, fiat, pipat, ibat, 686a

JOY and JOYS a cheel's full joys, 244a all my joys to this are folly, 49b and fear, 69b and grief first cousins, 713a and Temperance and Repose, 200a asks if this be joy, 148b bathes in worldly joys, 140a beware all joys, but joys that never can expire, 405a brightens his crest, 221a but disguised woe, 121b

Corin was her only joy, 436a cruel to defer a joy, 275a crystallised for ever, 36b delicious springs of joy, 53b doth joy enhance, 207b doubtful joys the father move, 362a dwell in doubtful joy, 304b every inch of joy has an ell of annoy, 755b fairest joys give most unrest, 184b followed thee up to joy and bliss, 227a for a moment lingers, 68b great joys are silent, 208b grief on the confines of joy, 528b headlong joy is ever on the wing, 227b

Joy and Joys—contd.

hence vain deluding joys, 224b how can we win joy, 26a how fading are the joys, 238b imaginary joys, 3b
 it is difficult to pretend joy, 541b joy, joy for ever, 232b joys take wing, 537b let joy be unconfined, 54b man made for joy and woe, 23b mingle shades of joy and woe, 273b mixed with crime, 607a must be shared to be won, 62b my joy behind, 321b ne'er knew joy but friendship might divide, 255b no joy but runneth to an end, 338a no joy without alloy, 816a not a joy the world can give, 61a of life sweeter as death approaches, 230b of sight, smell, taste, 405b of the whole earth, 412b of this world, 77b oil of joy for mourning, 418a past compare, 75a Phyllis is my only joy, 275a remembered joys never past, 229b rises in me, 86a scene of savage joys, 98a shall come with early light, 37b shared is made double, 728b shuts up all the passages of joy, 178a silence herald of joy, 284a snatch a fearful joy, 154b so seldom weaves a chain, 230b solemn is joy, 381a stern joy which warriors feel, 271b still laughs the bubble joy, 249a that faded, 66b that fleets away, 235b that lasteth evermo, 77b the deep power of joy, 393b the first joy of our heart, 147a the heart-felt joy, 249a the joy fades, not the pains, 163b the joy remains, the pain doth flee, 163b the land of joy, 50b the power of imparting, 324b their joy so lately found, 222b this world's joy, how it go'th all to nought, 434a those who feared nothing less hearty in rejoicing, 577b thou hast finished joy and moan, 309b too exquisite to last, 229b troubled joy was in his eye, 272b true joy a serious matter, 645b
 we should publish our joys, 867a wear a face of joy, 400a whose hand is ever at his lips, 185b Joy-bells ring in Heaven's street, 209a Joyful as a drum at a wedding, 738b Joyously, so sung he, 235b Jucunda et idonea dicere, 495a Judas to a tittle, 33a
 Judae, they didn't know everythin' down in, 201b JUDGES, JUDGING, JUDGMENT a corrupt judge weighs truth badly, 572b a good judge conceives quickly, judges slowly, 722a a judge amongst fools, 98a a judge like Melchisedech, without pedigree, 460a a matter adjudged is received as true, 562a

Judges, Judging, Judgment—contd.

a railing judgment, 431a a right judgment in all things, 432a according to what is right and good, 526b affection bends the judgment, 75a an argument addressed to good judgment, 492a and the litter of the law, 13b as He pronounces lastly on each deed, 226a as sober as a judge, 738b be wary how you judge, 75a blood and judgment are so well commingled, 294b but reserve thy judgment, 291a cannot be witness in his own cases, 561b differing judgments, 97a do not seek to judge beyond yourself, 587b dread thou to speak presumptuous doom, 270b equally divided judges, 485b ermined knaves, 386b everyone has judgment to sell, 714b everyone should measure himself by his own standard, 576b for fault of wise men fools sit on benches, 762b fortune helps those who are of good judgment, 763b, note forbear to judge for we are sinners all, 317b God shall bring every work into judgment, 416b good judge prefers equity to law, 498b good judge prefers right to utility, 498b hasty judgment leads to repentance, 485a he cannot be strict in judgment who does not wish others to be strict, 600a he has good judgment that relies not entirely on his own, 773a he is trying a matter already tried, 561a he loses money well who gives it to the judge, 496b he only judges right who weighs, compares, 398a he who prejudices may be correct, but is not just, 634b I disallow thee to be a competent judge, 378a if you are a judge, give my cause a hearing, 655a ignorance delivers brawling judgments, 365a indifferent judge between high and low, 330a judge all from one, 527a judge is condemned when the criminal is absolved, 779a judge just judgment, 563a judge not, 595b judge not according to appearance, 425b judge not that ye be not judged, 421b judges interpreters of the laws, 505a judges, love righteousness, 419a judgment according to law, not precedent, 562a judgment and conscience the same thing, 166b judgment and reason, qualities of a leader, 643a

Judges, Judging, Judgment—contd.

judgment drops her damning plummet, 32a judgment must be by the properly-appointed judge, 562a judgment of men is fallible, 545a leaves of the Judgment Book, 355b let every man speak as he finds, 836b looked for judgment, and behold oppression, 417a
 man jealous and mistaking, 257b man of passions cannot judge, 107a men of judgment creep, 97b (judgment) mercy and faith, 423b no man a faithful judge in his own cause, 212b none complain of want of judgment, 732b none judge so wrong as those who think amiss, 255b none must be judge in his own cause, 488a, 588b objection taken to the judge, 643b (judgment) of our equals or the laws of the land, 562a of the King of kings, 364b on eminent men to be pronounced with diffidence, 579a only one way of seeing things rightly, 267b
 out of thine own mouth will I judge thee, 423a reigns at forty, 153a robe, judge's, 299b should administer law, not make it, 562a should be obedient to the laws, 562a should enquire into the circumstances of the matter, 562a should judge according to things alleged and proved, 562a should make justice wide, 498a
 the censure of the judicious, 294b the hungry judges, 248a the Judge of all the earth, 409a the judges are ranged, 143a the judges of a-size, 172a this man proclaims what sort of judge, 522a thou (judgment) art fled to brutish beasts, 286a 'tis with our judgments, as our watches, 246a to avoid hatred, friendship, anger, and soft-heartedness, 610a to ripe years judgment mature, 222b unjust to be judge in one's own cause, 556b waits upon the judgment, 295b we are fond of estimating others, but do not like it ourselves, 704a weak, prejudice strong, 239a weigh the matter with keen judgment, 560b what judgment shall I dread, 283a when I was green in judgment, 307a when time and God give judgment, 353b where opinions are equally divided the accused is acquitted, 615b
 who flees judgment confesses, 531a

Judges, Judging, Judgment—contd.
 who judges others condemns himself, 875a
 who made thee a prince and a judge, 409b who made thee a ruler and a judge, 426a
 who obeys a judge's order is not to be blamed for it, 632b wholesale judgments are loose
 and imperfect, 709a
 would not give his judgment rashly, 2b you know how to weigh what is right, 650a you measure everyone's corn by your own bushel, 879b you must use your own judgment, 673a

Judgment Day: that day of wrath,
 272b

Judge, me (in my judgment), 574b

Judice, sub, 664b

Judicious grieve, make the, 294b

Judy O'Grady, 190b

Juggler's sleight, 51b

Julius, ye towers of, 155a

JULY

a shower in, worth a plough of oxen, 728a

as many frosts in July as mists in March, 738b

July 1, if wet, presages four weeks of rain, 789b

makes July's day short as December, 309b

swarm o' bees in, 728b

the warmth of its July, 258b winter ending in July, 65a Jump, till Prov'dunce pinte how to, 202b

JUNE

a dripping June, 719b a dry June and a leaky May, 723b calm weather in, 719b, 746b corn in June, 804b leafy month of, 86b

November in the lap of, 169b one field in June weather, 375a such a joy in June, 207a

swarm o' bees in, 728b

the husband (June), 379a what is so rare as a day in, 201b Junius, his coat of darkness, 180a stat nominis umbra, 662b

Juno, ox-eyed, awful, 469a chattered to Jove, what, 633b

Juno's eyes, the lids of, 310a

JUPITER

all things are full of, 561b appeased by offerings, 583a best sacrifice to, 50a cannot please all men, 772b

Juno pleases Jupiter, 664a

Jupiter est quodcumque vides, 524b

Jupiter is whatever you see, wherever you go, 562a

Jupiter tonans, 562b the very Jupiter of Homer, 452b thunderbolt of, wrested from him,

660b

what is your opinion about

Jupiter, 542b

See Jove

Jurare in verba magistris, 604a

Jurisdiction offers most scope, 654a

Jurisprudence, gladsome light of,

85a

JURY AND JURIES

a thief or two in the jury, 299b

Brougham on the jury system,

26b filled up casually, 667b

Jury and Juries—contd.

hard as a prejudiced jury, 172b intelligent jury one point of the

law, 460b

Kentish jury, hang half, save

half, 723b

on questions of fact the jury

answer, 485a

that jurymen may dine, 248a thou that goest upon Middlesex

Juries, 214b

twelve good honest men, 260b venire facias, 680a

Juvat usque morari, 588a

Juventus mundi, 7b

Jus gentium, 640b

Jus in re, 562b

Jus postliminii, 562b

J'y suis et j'y reste, 694b, note

JUST

a just cause is strong, 214b abhorrently just, 30a actions of the just smell sweet,

329a

be just and fear not, 320a get it into your heads that my cause is just, 574b just of thy word, 256a men (just) made perfect, 430b pursue what is just, in present,

8a

shall flourish as a palm-tree, 563a shall shine as stars, 563a shall live by faith, 426b sweet remembrance of the just,

329a, note

the heavens are just, 318a the sleep of the just, 453b, 692a thou art e'en as just a man, 294b

JUSTICE

a desire to render all their due,

563a

a Justice and his clerk, a blind man and his dog, 327b

a pillar of government, 10a

be just before you are generous,

740b

blind, he knows nobody, 128b compliance with the written laws,

563a conscience tells what is justice,

192b

crimes against justice, 42b delay of, 192b

entangle justice in her net of law,

249b

even criminals cannot live without, 563a

extreme justice is often extreme injustice, 759a extreme law is extreme injustice,

665b

firm be your justice, but be friends to man, 193b fountains of, in nature, 8b good faith the foundation of, 537a hath a nose of wax, 798a

I have loved justice, 516a is simple, 468b is to come, 68a

knows not father or mother,

563a

lame as well as blind, 240a learn justice, and not to despise

the gods, 516b

let justice be done, and let the heaven fall, 532a, note liberty plucks justice by the nose, 299b

love of justice is generally fear of suffering injustice, 605b must tame whom mercy cannot

win, 269a

Justice—contd.

nothing so much becomes a king, 451a

now returns, 561a on offenders, when not done, 109b one hour doing justice worth a hundred in prayer, 821b part of, not to injure men, 563a pleasant even when she destroys, pleaseth few in their own house,

332b

798a

poetic justice, with her lifted scale, 253b prepared at a price, is sold at a price, 776b

put up at a price, 624a queen of virtues, 563a rightful sovereign of the world,

451b

should be close-eared and open mouthed, 215a

sometimes produces mischief,

468a

strong lance of justice hurtless, breaks, 307a

strong sword-arm of, 155b tardy, will o'take the crime,

126b

the end of government, 108a the Justice in fair round belly,

280a

the place of justice, 11b the sword of, 108a though she's painted blind, 52a

Thwackum was for doing justice,

135a

to combine justice with law, 485b to give to each his due, 667a to none will we deny or delay,

603b

to prophesy of justice armed, 398a to seek justice from unjust is folly, unstained Faith, sister of Justice,

556b

627a

when mercy seasons justice, 283b where Justice reigns, 229b where mystery begins, justice ends, 39a

without justice kingdoms are robberies, 483a

Justicia, mas no por mí casa, 716b

Justitia, fiat, ruat cælum, 532a, note

Justitiæ tenax, factis dictisque, 648a

Justum et tenacem propositis, 563a

K

K's, the three accursed, Cretans,

Cappadocians, Cilicians, 480a

Kaiser, German, 275a

Kalends, Greek, 485a

Kalon, to (the noble, or beautiful),

479b

Kame sindle, kame sair, 798a

Kant on the moral law, 14b

Katerfelto with his hair on end, 100a

Keats, dumb to, 33b epitaph, 445a

out-glittering, 204b what porridge had John, 36a

Keen, when exquisitely, 404a

Keep a thing, its use will come, 358a a thing seven years, 798a some till more come, 798b they should, who can, 395b well is as great as winning, 798b

Keeper, my grave Lord, 155b

Keepers, hired poachers, 188b, note who shall keep the, 622b

Kendal green, in, 313b

Kens, what a man, he cans, 72b

Keramker, a bric-à-bracker and,
84a

KENT

a yeoman of Kent, 274a everybody knows Kent, 111b he sendeth to the East Indies for Kentish pippins, 776a Kentish jury; hang half, save
half, 723b
the civillest place in all this isle, 317b

Kettle and the earthen pot, 420a Key, lay their just hands on that golden, 224b of the fields, 453b, 860b, note of the street, 453b, 860b, note of it, you yourself shall keep the,
291a

Keys, all, hang not on one girdle, 733a lives to clutch the golden, 362b she wears the, 833b

Kibe, galls his, 297a Kick against the pricks, 426a, note against the spur, folly to, 557a a fallen man, nature of mortals to, 469a
me downstairs, why did you, 187b that scarce would move a horse, 102a

Kick-shaws, any pretty little tiny,
315b

Kicking a man when he's down, 444a Kicksy-wicksy, bugs his, 299a

Kid, a piece of a, worth two of a cat, 726b

dies as soon as the goat, 739a in his mother's milk see the, a, 409b Kidney, a man of my, 287b

KILL and KILLING

crash of systems could only kill you once, 72b do all men kill the thing they do not love, 283a

he that kills himself, 211b he that slays shall be slain, 781a I will kill thee a hundred and fifty ways, 289b

I will kill thee and love thee after,
302b

man that will all others kill, 137b nine years a-killing, 302a pardoning those that kill, 279b pity it is to slay, 169b those who do not wish to kill would like to be able to, 525b thou shalt not kill, 85a to kill him honestly, 137b whether he kill Cassio or Cassio
him, 302b

who killed the first, 295a Killibeate taste, 112b

Killing, would'st thou be less, 92b Kiin calls the oven burnt-house, 850a

Kilt, walk about in damned loud,
444a

Kin, a little more than, 290a

KIND and KINDNESS

a cup o' kindness, 48a a forced kindness deserveth no thanks, 720b
a life full of kindness and bliss, 232a

a little more kindness, a little less creed, 443b all beholden to him who is kind to the good, 733a any kindness, let me do it now, 443a

be less killing, soft and kind, 92b begets kindness, 480b, 799a breaks no bone, 760a

Kind and Kindness—contd.

cannot be bought for geir, 799a Christ took the kindness, 35a coarsely kind, 178a conquers the evil disposed, 683a destroys vigour of mind and body, 579a

easily forgotten, 307a give him all kindness, 287a godlike crime was to be kind, 61b he was kind and she was kind, 336b

He went about, He was so kind,
355a

if you can, by kind means, 655b in another's trouble, 151b is not to be repented of, 480b is produced by kindness, 497a is she kind as she is fair, 281b kind and affable, 17a kind deeds with coldness still returning, 399b

kind hearts are more than coronets, 357b kindness nobler ever than revenge, 289b kindnesses we write in dust, 793b less than kind, 290a let the bestower be silent, the recipient tell it abroad, 631b little deeds of kindness, 74a, 246a man is the slave of beneficence, 807a none so near the gods as he who shows kindness, 589b not aye in ane side of the house, 799a

nothing so popular as kindness, 592a o'ercomes dislike, 799a one kindness requires another 821b to her virtues very kind, 259b unremembered acts of kindness, 393b

very indigestible kindness, 367b we cannot be kind to each other, 363b

we love people for the good we
have done them, 438a

whether kindness or knavery, I cannot tell, 243a

will creep where it may not gang, 799a

worth more than beauty, 741a your kindness has enriched me more than enough, 649a

Kindler gentleman treads not the
earth, 282b

Kindest words, he speaks the, 195b Kindles, the hand that, 57b

Kindlier nature, a man of, 401a Kindly feelings, no man but has had,
368a

Kindly, use them, they rebel, 166a Kindred drop, not a, 67a

Kine, home-bred, 395b

KINGS
a king and his subjects, 42a a king's a king, 120b a kingly action to help the fallen, 644a

a pattern for a king, 109a alone, no more than single men, 799a

and bears worry their keepers, 799a

another king arose which knew not Joseph, 426a

are like stars, 326b are little in their grandeur, 325a are out of play, 799a as fits a king's remembrance, 292b

Kings—contd.

as poor as the king, 305b authority forgets a dying king, 366a

aye, every inch a king, 306b best king of good fellows, 317a better to sit still and rest, 269b by blood a king, at heart a clown, 363a can do nothing except what he can do by law, 592b cannot have things as cheap as other men, 242b cannot make a gentleman, 42a cares awake a king, 266b cat may look at a king, 718b catch the conscience of the king, 293b community ordered by the king's example, 644a cultivate kings, 547b curse not the king, 416a customs curvey to kings, 317a daubed with undiscerning praise, 100b death lays his icy hand on kings, 329a

descended from ancient kings, 569b

devoid of friends, 493b dissimulation the science of kings, 707a divine right of kings, 117b divine right, right of who can get uppermost, 338b do not trouble about all trifles, 511b, note

dreadful is the wrath of kings, 256b

English (kings), 287b even kings learned justice, 249b every subject's duty is the king's,

316b

fall of many kings, 305a few kings die by natural death, 484b

first broke laws, 20b first king a fortunate soldier, 449b follow the king, 364a folly in a mean man, wisdom in a

king, 211b

fortune which made you a king, 184a

gifts persuade kings, 470b given by heaven in its vengeance, 449b

(kings) go mad, the Greeks suffer,
513a

God gave kings in his wrath, 228a god of subjects the end of kings, 108a grasping more than they could

hold, 109a

greater than individuals, less than men collectively, 646a guardian of His Majesty's conscience, 460b hae long lugs, 799a have long arms, 799a have long hands, 490a he shall stand before kings, 414b he that eats the king's goose shall be choked, 777a

he that is drunk is as great as a
king, 483b

he that steals land is made a
king, 781b

he too was a king, 646a her kings barbaric, 217a here lies our sovereign lord the king, the, 264a his own queen pleases a king, 664a

Kings—contd.

honour the king, 431a
 I mean the faith's defender, 52b I pity kings, 96a
 I trust not kings again, 256b if you are a king, command, 655a imperial works and worthy kings, 251b keep even kings in awe, 106b is a name of dignity, 228a it is enthroned in the hearts of kings, 283b (kings) it makes gods, 319a judgment of the King of kings, 364b Jupiter lord over kings, 644a kind as kings, 124a king being safe there is unity, 644a kings' caff is better than other folks' corn, 799a king can do no wrong, 646a king's cheese goes half away in parings, 723b, 847a king's evil, 644a king exists for the sake of the kingdom, 646a king's favour is no inheritance, 847a king goes as far as he dares, not as far as he desires, 847a kings have their good points now and then, 690b king is not king by reigning, 596a king's leavings better than the lord's bounty, 799a king must lose his right where nothing is to be had, 873a kings no kings, without justice, 108a king's right to be preferred to a subject's, 630a king that is wilful, 434a king's word should be his bond, 735b laws go as kings wish, 716a lessened my esteem of the king, that he could not command the rain, 242b let kings and their triumphs yield to song, 502a let there be one king only, 476b liberty never more pleasing than under a righteous king, 530a limit of subjects' obligation to kings, 166b
 like king, like law, 802b longest kingly line traceable to a successful soldier, 274b lovers of low company, 40b loyal passion for our temperate kings, 361b
 mad world ! mad kings ! 859b made for men, 69a
 "man in the street" knows the greatest secrets of kings, 132b, 701e mostly rapscallions, 84b monarchy the form of rule natural to mankind, 712a name of king is a tower of strength, 319a nation exists complete in the king's person, 697b nearest the king, nearest the widdle, 813b necessary for a prince to please the many, 470a neither for king, nor for people, but for both, 587b never subject longed to be a
 king, 317b
 no more acceptable victim than an unjust king, 682a

Kings—contd.

no time runs against the king's rights, 604b none loves his king and country
 better, 349a
 not within the prospect of belief, 303a nothing becomes a king so much as justice, 451a
 O who would wish to be thy king, 271b of Arums, 15b of France went up the hill, 446b of intimate delights, 100a of Rome, and therefore above grammar, 521b
 of shreds and patches, 295b of terrors, 411b of thousands that had struck anointed kings, 309b (king), people, and law, 625a poor magnificence of kings, 370b power of kings a grant of doing good, 334b
 princes seem to command, whatever they do, 638a province of kings to bring war
 about, 618a
 punctuality the politeness of kings, 330b, 696a
 realm ordered by example of king, 504b reverence, as their conscience, 366a riches' of, the hearts of their subjects, 613b right divine of kings to govern
 wrong, 254a
 rule founded on subjects' love, 259b ruthless king, 155a sad stories of the death of kings, 312b save the king, 648a servant of a king is a king, 851a setter-up and puller-down of kings, 318a
 should prefer his country to his children, 623b silence about poverty more effective with kings, 506a sprung from ancient kings, 493b stamped with the image of the
 king, 365b
 strength of guilty kings, 5b subject to grammar, 697a such a king, such a people, 802b such divinity doth hedge a king, 296b suffer not the old king, 190a suspect good men, 644a the breath of kings, 44b the fall of, 24b the fountain of honour, 11b the king and the king's highway, 238a the king can do no wrong, 847a the king cannot deceive or be deceived, 646a
 the king himself has followed her,
 149b
 the king loves no cripples, 814a the king never dies, 646a, 847a the king reigns and does not govern, 646b, 700b the king's portion—well-doing, ill report, 469a the king's stamp cannot make the metal better, 403b the last argument of kings, 674b the more regal king of kings, 644b the prince is the first servant of the State, 711a

Kings—contd.

the pride of kings, 248a the sun has set; no night has followed, 659b their happiness mixed with evils, 644b therein stands the office of a king,
 a, 222b
 they abuse kings that flatter, 308b things that kings cannot buy, 9a think the king sees thee, 162b this royal throne of kings, 312b those who reign not free men, 644a till the king enjoys his own again, 438b Time's glory to calm contending
 kings, 321b
 to-day a king, to-morrow nothing, 860b to govern according to law, 452a to steer an equal course, 128a too weak, minions too great, 105b two kings of Brentford, 99a tyrants from policy, 41a under which king, Bezonian, 316a unrecorded counsels to kings, 467a wash the balm from an anointed
 king, 312b
 well to be born a king or a fool, 495a what care these roarers for the name of king, 310b what is a king, 259b what is a king without law, 152b what the king whispered in the queen's ear, 633b what the king wishes the law wills, 868b who fights his people, 366a who is hated of his subjects cannot be counted a king, 779a
 who knows not to dissemble knows not how to reign, 633a who loves the law, 100b with half the zeal I served my king, 320a
 with the King and the Inquisition, hush, 877a would have brooked the devil as easily as a king, 285b would not play at kings, 100b would shake hands with a king, 156b wrath of kings always heavy, 539a See Monarchs
 Kingdom for a horse, 319b for a man, 319b, note for it was too small a bound, 314b friends the real safeguard of a kingdom, 598a insecure without modesty, religion, good faith, etc., 674a my mind to me a, 129b you are in your own, 553b Kingdoms robberies without justice,
 483a Kingly, his state is, 227a Kingship a transparent swindle, 84b giver of, 161b Kipling, poet o' the cuss-word, 376b where the Ruddyards cease from,
 442a
KISS and KISSES
 a kiss, a sigh, and so away, 104a a kiss from my lips to the cover of your foot, 211a a kiss too long, 207a a long, long kiss, 62b ae fond kisses, 48b but for the street, a clinging kiss
 364b gin a body kiss a body, 440a

Kiss and Kisses—contd.

goes by favour, 799a he drew with one long kiss, 357a his Maker kissed his soul away, 383b I do not care for kiss unless snatched, 495b I kissed thee ere I killed thee, 303a if you'll blow to me a kiss, 331a kiss again with tears, 360a kiss and be friends, 799a kiss me and be quiet, 229a kiss the place to make it well, 355b kiss we and part, 7a kissed into smiles again, 158b kisses ilka thing it meets, 48b leave but a kiss within the cup, 182b let us kiss and part, 121a like Dian's kiss, 198a lips made for kissing, not for such contempt, 318b lispng lass is good to kiss, 724a long as my exile, sweet as my revenge, 308a many kiss the child for the nurse's sake, 808a many kiss the hand they wish cut off, 808a melts like kisses, 58b never to kiss the girls, 33a not half a kiss to choose, 310a now, young couple, come kiss together, 447a of the lips of God, 237a one fond kiss, 120a one kiss more, 48b, note remembered after death, 360b seals of love but sealed in vain, 300a she had rather kiss than spin, 833a sisterly salutes, 169b snatched hasty from the sidelong maid, 370a splendid kissing mouth, 352b stolen kisses are sweet, 837b the book's outside, 96b the coward does it with a kiss, 389b the ground her feet did kiss, 107a the hand which oppresses them, 549a the inventor of kissing, 441b the kiss of peace, 614b they kissed each other's cheek, 146a to kiss them all at once, 64a to waste his whole heart in a kiss, 359a unborn, unknissed, 865a we can but kiss it, 351b we vulgar seal with our lips, 342b will kind looks and kisses keep off hunger, 446b wind that kisseth everything, 7a with trait'rous kiss, 17b woman that cries hush, bids kiss, 354a you've forgotten my kisses, 352a Kitchen, caught by the savour of his, 500a communities began by establishing their kitchen, 748b bred, in the, 60b fat, a lean legacy, 720a fires, two, burn not on one hearth, 864b little, makes a large house, 724a make a fire in the, 446a possessed with thoughts of, 663a taste of is better than the smell, 851b

Kite, carrion will never make good hawk, 718b wisheth his paper, may fly, 327b Kitten, rather be a, and cry mew, 314a Knacks, those pretty, 109a KNAVES
 a knave, on honesty's plain rule, 97a a subtle slippery knave, 301a an old knave is no babe, 736a and fools divide the world, 799a and fools, if there were no, all the world would be alike, 790a as honest man as any in the cards when the kings are out, 738b avoid him who boasts of his knavery, 798b better be a fool than a knave, 742a feed the titled knave, 46b if you would know a knave, give him a staff, 790a in such repute that honest folk are thought fools, 799a necessity makes a knave, 108b once a knave, always a knave, 820b repose and fatten on honest men, 240a starve not in the land of fools, 82a the more knave, the better luck, 848b these kind of knaves I know, 306a three misbegotten knaves, 313b two cunning knaves need no broker, 864b we are arrant knaves all, 294a you are little better than false knaves, 285a Knavery and change, 20a Knavish speech, a, 296a Knee, hat, and hand, civility of, 28a crook the pregnant hinges of the, 294b fat foot, and slim, 331a fought on his, 435a strike below the, 272a Knees, bow, stubborn, 295b down on your, 289b of the Gods, on the, 468a Kneeling ne'er spoiled silk stocking, 163a Knell, all-softening, over-powering, 63b is rung, their, 23a, 90a it is a, 304a the shroud, the mattock, and the grave, 406a Knife under the cloke, 77a KNIGHT, KNIGHTS, KNIGHTHOOD a friendly man, a worthy knight, 403b a knight of no bad repute, 587a a more deserving knight, 126b a parfit gentil knight, 76b can make a belted knight, 49a doth but usurp the sacred name of knight, 317a every chance brought out a noble knight, 366a flower of knighthood and chivalry, 434a gentle knight was pricking on the plain, 339a he died a gallant knight, 270b he was a gentyll knight, 434a her own true knight, 69a
 knights of the pen, 367b like the Red-Cross knight, 398a my own ideal knight, 364a

Knight, Knights, Knighthood

—contd.
 never was knight like the young Lochinvar, 270a no carpet knight, 269a of the Mournful Countenance, 716a the arms make not the knight, 846a the knight's bones are dust, 87a thou art a noble knight, 273b thy sire was a knight, 273b ye curious carpet, 144b Knitting and withal singing, 329b Knock and it shall be opened unto you, 422a Knocker, tie up the, 252a Knot, he hath tied a, with his tongue, 773b Gordian, of it he will unloose, 316a who hath not a knot on his thread loseth his stitch, 782a Knotty logs must have hard beetles, 799a Know-All, Ole man, died las' year, 157b Know-all, 633b a godlike attribute to, 259a a torture kept for those who, 233a KNOW, To
 'ardly know where I are, 384b by causes, 13b
 God and himself, learns to, 158b I speak to those that, 474a it is not safe to, 106b that which I, I speak, 400b me when we meet again, 283b me, not to, argues yourselves unknown, 219b saying you want to, 115a the thirst to know and understand, 381b to know, to esteem, to love, 87b to know her, was to love her, 264b (know) to know no more, 219b to know that which before us lies, 220b to speak what I do know, 286a to know this only, that he nothing knew, 223a then thyself, 248b thyself, 447a, 469b thyself, a precept from heaven, 520b thyself, the wisdom of earth, 373b we know better than we do, 132b we know him now, 364a we know what we are, 296a what can we know, 107a what I do not know does not make me hot, 868b what we are, how little do we, 65b
 who knows most, doubts most, 35b Knowable, about everything, 511b Knowing, ever be more than you seem, 345a mastered all not worth, 201b KNOWLEDGE a headstrong horse that throws the rider, 261b a man without, 176a a pleasure which carries no reproach, 332b a rich storehouse, 7b a steep few may climb, 235b a treasure, but practice the key of it, 799a a wonderful sweetness and delight in, 577b all our knowledge is ourselves to know, 250a

Knowledge—contd.

all wish to know, but none to pay the fee, 602a almost everyone knows this, but it has not occurred to all, 650b antidote to fear, 132a apart from justice is cunning, 649b avails nothing; what you do not know hinders much, 641a better than great valour, 473b books which are not literature communicate knowledge, 110a bought in the market, 85a by suffering, 30b comes, wisdom lingers, 358b desire of, increases with acquisition, 342b diffused knowledge, 207b duly weighed, what is knowledge, 266a generalities to the prejudice of knowledge, 8a half our knowledge we must snatch, 250b has its value, 698b he knows most who knows he knows little, 775a he knows most who speaks least, 775a he that increaseth knowledge increaseth sorrow, 415b higher knowledge in her presence falls, 220b if a little knowledge is dangerous, 175b if nothing can be known how can we know it, 594a if you are wise you will not know what you know, 672b in the making, 228b in the mines of knowledge, 229b is as the waters, 7b is but sorrow's spy, 106b is folly except grace guide it, 799a is itself a power, 583b is madness if sense does not direct it, 799a is of two kinds, 179a is power, 14a, 799a is sympathy charity, kindness, 379b it is not allowed us to know everything, 587b let in knowledge by another sense, 129a let knowledge grow from more to more, 362a makes one laugh; wealth makes one dance, 799a man's knowledge not in order, 339a man's sovereignty hid in knowledge, 9a many have known many things, no one all things, 582a no knowledge not valuable, 39b no utility in hidden knowledge, 649b not knowledge, but action, the end of life, 176a our knowledge, compared with Thine, is ignorance, 649b out-topping knowledge, 4b power of knowledge and learning, 7b practice, not knowledge, 476a proud that he has learned, 101a province of knowledge to speak, 168b puffeth up, 428a so vast, 45b that deepens pain, 237a that sour tree of knowledge, 171b

Knowledge—contd.

the highest perfection of knowledge, 108a the intellectual power went sounding on, 401b the wing whereby we fly to heaven, 317b thinking is not knowing, 857b to know is not to know, unless it be imparted, 650a
 to seek to know is to seek to doubt, 779b too much knowledge for the sceptic side, 248b took knowledge of them, that they had been with Jesus, 426a tree of, 59a under difficulties, 26b we ask not, 121b we have all forgot more than we remember, 866b we never knew how to be ignorant of what we cannot know, 698b what a man knows must he must use most, 839b what we know we speak, 641a when wisdom is too weak to guide her, 437b where knowledge leads to woe, 19b where there is no knowledge there is no sin, 873b which is falsely so called, 430b who knows, knows, 634a wit may be bought too dear, 877a without experience does not bring confidence, 707a without practice makes but half an artist, 799a ye have taken away the key of knowledge, 424b See Know, Knows, Known Known too late, 278b so much of this, wish I had not, 343a Knows you not, he, ye Heavenly Powers, 200b most, doubts most, 35b Köln, 87b
 Koran, 465a and b carnage and the, 232b Kosciusko, 66a
 Kynde wit (common sense), 194a Kyrie eleison, 473b

L

La Bruyère, 98b, note Label bigger than the bag, 474a Labels, don't rely too much on, 753a Labitur et labetur, 648b Labor omnia vincit, 563b Labor omnibus idem, 612b Laborare est orare, 827a Laboriously doing nothing, 487a LABOUR AND LABOURS
 a dignity in labour, 347a a little labour, much health, 724a a youth of, with an age of ease, 148a accomplished are pleasant, 484a, 561b all that labour and are heavy laden, 422b all things are full of labour, 415a all labour wasted, 547b an animal born to endure, 490b an untiring god which rejuvenates nature, 697b and intense study, 228b and pleasure, an affinity between them, 563b and temperance the true physicians, 698b

Labour and Labours—contd.

as though long lived, 799a bad workmen in favour of equal wages, 215a beguiling labour by his eagerness, 579a bodily effort less tiring than thought, 577b bodily labour earns not much, 745a change of toil, 235b daring the labour, lordly the reward, 713a deemest thou labour only is earnest, 381a end of labour, entry into rest, 345a endless labour to be wrong, 181b for that which satisfieth not, 418a freedom hand-in-hand with, 387a gods sell all things for, 480a, 516a habit teacheth to endure, 570a had my labour for my travail, 298b hands made for honest labour, 383a has a bitter root but a sweet taste, 799a he has sweated and endured cold, 581b he that labours and thrives spins gold, 779b he toiled and toiled, 335a he who labours, prays, 632b, note his labour and his toil, 44a honest labour bears a lovely face, 108b honest labour hideth his sharp ribs, 373b I have lost my time and, 694b if little, little are our gains, 165a ill effects of unremitting, 41b immoderate labour exhausts body and mind, 614b in all labour there is profit, 414a in no way disgraceful, 471b in vain, 429a (labours) in vein (mining toast), 461a is there any good obtainable without, 490a itself a delight, 563b itself a pleasure, 563b labour warms; sloth harms, 799b labour we delight in, physics pain, 304a labour's done, 103b labours of the poor make the pride of the rich, 849b learn to labour with londe, 194b lessened by zeal for information, 548b life gives nothing but labour, 594a lo, the end of my labour, 533a makes her hand hard with, 240b makes us insensible to sorrow, 563b man is born to, 545b mortal man, who liveth here by toil, 370b music the sweet solace of, 563b must labour for the one, 57a net of unrejoicing labour, 236a
 no gains without pains, 816a no labours tire, 178a no rest relieves me from, 604a no sin to labour in his vocation, 313a no sweet without some sweat, 817a no work without sweat and toil, 483b not of much avail without talent, 585a

Labour and Labours—contd.

not the imperative labour, 26b nothing got without pains except dirt and long nails, 813b nothing valuable without, 3a nothing with labour, 162b
 of love, 430a
 of the changing ages, 581a often father of pleasure, 701a one of the three physicians, 656b,
note overcomes all things, 563b praise follows where labour leads,
 660a refreshment from repose, 229b remembrance of past, is agreeable,
 664a reputation not commensurate with your labour, 540b robbed out of the poor, 384b ruined by Chinese cheap labour, 158a
 (sleep) labour's bath, 304a some do the sowing, some the reaping, 487b that proceedeth of love, 432b the labours of that fatal day, 127a the nobility of, 198a the same amount to all, 612b they rest from their labours, 433a they wear out day and night, 595a they who always labour, 41b things not produced by, 645b to labour and heaven, 35b to labour and to wait, 197b to labour is to pray, 563b to live laborious days, 226a up the hill, 226b we labour soon, 46b what profit hath a man of all his labour, 415a
 what region is not full of our
 labour, 628a
 where shall the ox go, but he must
 labour, 873a
 while strength and years permit, 520a who prays and labours lifts his heart to God, 633b, note without these cannot a city be inhabited, 420b See To (also Labourer, etc., infra) Labourer more abundantly, 428b Labourers are few, 422b Labourer is worthy of his hire, 424b Labourer's task is o'er, 131a Labouring for others, fame only acquired by, 193a man has often spoken to the purpose, 477b
 men count the clock, 384a people, why poor, 42a Labourer anni, 521b Labyrinth, the bellowing of the, 580b Lace, daubed in gold, 348a Lacedæmon go, stranger, to, 445a the laws of, 481a Lachrymæ voluntur inanes, 576a Lack of many a thing I sought, 321b Lacrymæ rerum, sunt, 666a Lad, a dear-loved, 45a of mettle, a good boy, 313b unhappy, may make a good man, 727a
 Lads and girls, golden, 309b two, that thought there was no more behind, 309b Ladder, of our vices, 200a turns his back, unto the, 285b you cannot climb up by pushing others down, 878b Ladle, born with a wooden, 860a

LADY and LADIES

an insult to call her a young lady, 344a beloved and lovely lady, 196a doth protest too much, 295a faint heart fair lady ne'er could win, 341b fine lady is angry without cause, 134a gentle lady married to the Moor, 394a
 head-dress (lady's), 2b hearts (ladies') he did trepan, 44b if ladies be but young and fair, 288b lords of ladies intellectual, 61b my lady sweet, arise, 309a (lady) of incisive features, 214a of ladies most delect, 294a (ladies) of St. James's, 119a rhyme themselves into ladies' favours, 316b
 riddle of a lady, 51a some men must love my lady, 277a still did on the lady think, 203b (lady's) suit and minstrel's strain, 269a the Colonel's lady, 190b the lady shall say her mind freely, 293a there is a lady in the case, 147a when a lady's in the case, 143b whose bright eyes rain influence, 224a whose smile embroiled the world, 380a
LADY-KILLERS
 a dragon among the chambermaids, 334a formed for the ruin of our sex, 334a he has been a dragon, 138a of love devourer and dragoun, 334a, note
puellis nuper idoneus, 627a Ladyship, her humorous, 311b Lady-smocks all silver white, 277b Laissez faire, laissez passer, 698b Lake (stars) reflected on the, 160a the breeze just kissed the, 271a Lamb of God, behold the, 521a Lamb, Chas., 139b

LAMBS

a pet lamb makes a cross ram, 726b goes to butcher as soon as the sheep, 739a
 he who made the lamb, 23b lambs could not forgive, 113b lamb's skin comes to market as soon as sheep's, 739a like a gentle, that is led to the slaughter, 413b
 Mary had a little lamb, 446b one dead lamb is there, 199a or an ox, brought to the slaughter, 418b to see the young lambs, 382b to the slaughter, 418a who hath but one, makes it fat, 874b with her milk-white lamb, 394a Lambent and not forked, his art is,
 161a

LAME and LAMENESS

a lame and impotent conclusion, 301a each (lame) step will remind you of your valour, 642b feet was I to the lame, 411b foremost in a retreat, 792b help the lame dog over the stile,
 785a

Lame and Lameness—contd.

if you live with a lame person you will learn to limp, 654b it is ill to limp before the lame, 816a justice is lame, 240a the lame goeth as far as the staggerer, 847a who reproves the, 105b LAMENT and LAMENTATION a relief of sufferings, 475b everywhere lamentation, 507b he was left lamenting, 69a no lamentation can loose, 5b put away excessive lamentation, 622a to be lamented rather than defended, 512b weaker to lament, 327a Lammas, after, corn ripens as much by night as by day, 732a Lamp, it smells of the, 474a of the world, 355a slaves of the, 4b the unlit, 35b the, that burneth and shineth, 425b to light the bridal, 220b to smell of the lamp, 452a, 609a unto my feet, 413a Lamps in noisome air, 87a in old sepulchral urns, 98a in sepulchres, 254b not frosty, 213b numberless, the, 38a those glorious, 266b when all our lamps are burned,
 107a
Lana, veste de, tien la pele sana, 715b Lancashire law; no stakes, no draw, 463b what, thinks to-day, 459a Lancaster, Joseph, 332b, note Lancaster, time-honoured, 312a Lance, couched his quivering, 155a Lancelot, flower of knighthood, 434a not even, brave, 365a not, nor another, 366a LAND and LANDS (Territories) a splendid and a happy land, 148b adorned the happy land, 2b
 all lands open to brave men, 642a an ancient land, powerful in arms, 670b every land a native land to a brave man, 468b every land does not produce everything, 599b every land fosters its own art (or some kind of), 479b every land shall produce all it requires, 612b
 fiery love for their own land, 380b
 God and your native land, 156b God bless the dear old land, 210a good night, my native land, 53b I hear thee speak of the better
 land, 161b
 I would not change my native land, 382a
 into the silent land, 266a itself makes the Celt, 230b lands beyond the sea, 392a lands warmed by another sun, 635b living he was the land, 190a love their land because it is their
 own, 156b
 my own, my native land, 272b of drowsy-head, 370b of lost gods, 54a of meanness (Scotland), 60b of my sires, 272b

Land and Lands—contd.

of no laughter, 263*b* of settled government, 357*b* other lands beneath another sun 370*a*
 reap in the land of our birth, 196*a* ring out the darkness of the land, 363*a*
 that gave you birth, 237*b* the indignant land, 336*a* the land where-I belong, 209*a* the land to hastening ills a prey, 148*a*
 to a lucky man every land is a father-land, 535*b* to fight for such a land, 270*a* to that loved land, 43*b* thus far into the bowels of the
 land, 319*a*
 we from our fathers had in trust, 397*a*
 where sorrow is unknown, 102*a* without law, 434*a* See Native Land

LAND (the Soil)

as a man is worth, such is his
 land, 802*b*
 attached to the soil, 538*a* being on land, settle, 741*b* every rood of ground maintained its man, 148*a* fishes will sooner die on the land, 172*a*
 join field to field till there be no room, 417*a* gives one position, 389*a* good land, bad travelling, 853*b* he that buys land buys many stones, 776*b*
 he that steals land is made a king, 781*b*
 help hands, I have no lands, 785*a* I see land, 460*b*
 like master like land, 802*b* little land well tilled, 724*a* make haste in buying a field, 809*a* many acres will not make a wise-acre, 807*b*
 many a one for land takes a fool by the hand, 807*b* Nature has not made anyone lord of this land, 626*a* never lost for want of an heir, 799*b* one who loved her for her land, 269*b*
 reputation is commonly measured by the acre, 829*b* rich in lands and invested money, 517*a*
 the best compost for the lands, 165*a*
 the three F's—Fair rent, Fixity of tenure, Freedom of sale, 459*a* the worse for the rider the better for the bider, 853*b* there shall be no more land, 26*a* 'tis good when the man loves the
 land, 376*b*
 'tis money buys lands, 878*a* trade of owning land, 73*b* very rich in lands, 517*a* who buys land buys war, 779*a* who has gold may buy land, 778*a* who has land must have labour, 779*a*
 who has lands has quarrels, 779*a* with small resources makes me happy, 549*a*
 Land's End, old Belerium, 254*a* Landing-place, at length he gained
 the, 272*a*
 Landlady after him hurried, 15*b* and Tam grew gracious, 46*a* Landlord, quick, makes careful tenant, 727*a* Landlord's laugh, 46*a* Landlords: quick landlords make careful tenants, 829*a* Landmark, remove not the ancient,

 414*b*
 Landmarks in the State, 40*a* who remove, bruise their fingers,
 875*b*
 Landscape and landscape, difference between, 133*a* fades the glimmering, 153*b* tire, when will the, 129*b* Lane, a long, that has no turning,
 794*a*
LANGUAGE and LANGUAGES a great feast of languages, 277*b* a poor bull's-eye lantern (language), 344*a* amber in which precious thoughts are preserved, 373*a* and my language is plain, 158*a* bad language or abuse, 145*a* Chatham's language, 99*b* command of, grave and majestic, 206*a*
 dead without a hearer, 344*b* especially the dead languages, 61*b* foreign nations of their language boast, 164*a* fossil poetry, 133*a* from long disuse the Latin words do not come to me, 561*a* heart doth need a language, 88*b* his language was painful and free, 158*a*
 I am a barbarian here because I am not understood, 495*b* I like our language, 164*a* is but Metaphors, 72*b* (Italian) I love the language, 58*b* keep yourself from licence in language, 630*b*
 knowledge of ancient languages a luxury, 25*b* learned his great language, 36*a* many different languages, 687*b* many on earth, one in heaven, 581*b*
 mortals have many; the immortals one, 477*b* not good, that all understand not,
 839*b*
 of truth is simple, 681*a* quaint and olden, 197*a* speaks a various language, 37*a* the best language my true tongue could tell me, 212*a* the dress of thought, 180*a* the language of the heart, 252*b* the language plain, 97*b* the lodesterrre of our language, 203*a*
 the tongue that Shakespeare spake, 397*a* to conceal the mind, 404*a* used in trafficking in fish, 332*a* you are worth as many men as you know languages, 642*a* Language (Bad): English rather foul-mouthed, 159*b* Languid, art thou, 237*b* Languor is not in your heart, 5*a* Lank and long, days seem, 145*b* Laodiceans, 431*b* Lapithæ, feast of the, 452*b* Lards the lean earth as he walks,
 313*b*
 Large as life and twice as natural,
 120*a* thing to do, the, 460*b* Largesse, 39*a*, note

LARK, THE

at heaven's gate sings, 309*a* bright gem, instinct with music, 392*b*
 ethereal minstrel, pilgrim of the
 sky, 393*b*
 if the sky fall we shall catch larks, 780*b*
 is so brimful of gladness, 86*a* Larikie, Larikie lee, 754*a* leg of lark better than the body of a kite, 723*b* loftiest bard shall not chant a note so pure, 380*a* love of earth he instills, 213*a* messenger of morn, 369*a* nest of, not to be harried, 850*b* no lark more blithe, 22*a*
 now at heaven's gates, 110*a* now leaves his watery nest, 106*b* rose with the lark, 766*a* singing still dost soar, 326*a* that tirra-tirra chants, 310*a* the holy lark, 29*b* the shrill sweet lark, 169*b* type of the wise who soar but never roam, 393*b* with the unmusical even the lark is melodious, 471*a* Lars Porsena, 206*b* Lasciate ogni speranza, voi ch' entrate, 715*a* LASS and LASSES a' lasses are guid, 717*a* dearly loved the lasses, 47*b* honest man may like a lass, 47*a* honest men and bonnie lasses, 461*b*
 kiss a bonny lass, 47*b* lass that has acres, 49*b* that loves a sailor, 111*a* then she made the lasses, 47*b* what can a young lassie, 48*b* wi' a tocher, 49*b*
LAST come (last) worst served, 799*b* he that comes last makes all things fast, 777*a* of all the Romans, 287*a* of the Greeks, 452*b* the last best like to gude wives' daughters, 847*a*
 the last drop makes the cup run over, 847*a*
 the last shall be first, 423*a* the last state of that man is worse than the first, 422*b* the last straw, 847*a* the last suitor wins the maid, 847*a* the last taste of things gives them their name of sweet or sour, 847*a*
 the last to arrive are the best loved, 847*a* there is no last nor first, 31*a* though last, not least, 341*a* though last, not least in love, 286*a* (last) to come where thou art wanted most, 394*b*
 to know the dishonour of his
 house, 512*a*
 to the last corner, the bones, 799*b* Last, what is it that will, 357*b* Lastly and finally, 287*a* Lasts ever, all that is, 34*b* Latchkey franchise, 459*b* LATE and LATENESS always late on principle, 388*a* better late than never, 743*a* better never late, 743*a* come late, come right, 743*a* I think it lucky I was born so
 late, 332*a*

Late and Lateness—contd.

late fruit keeps well, 796b long choosing and beginning late 221a
never too late for delight, 231b never too late to mend, 796a never too late to turn, 815a the bones to those who arrive late, 669a to draw out the matter to a late hour, 553b
what comes, often seems to have accomplished the matter, 652b who comes late is lodged ill, 799b

See Too Late

Latet anguis in herba, 632b

Lathered, well, is half shaved, 717b, 867b

LATIN

au bout de son Latin, 689b do not speak Latin before Franciscan friars, 753a for a candle, 135a, note from long disuse the words scarcely recur to me, 561a Greek and Latin, 25b her very speech is dead, 398a lies and Latin go round the world, 801a matter, not words, sought in Latin, 12b most Latin among the Latins, 557b not one able to translate into Latin, 676a
Romans to be ignorant of Latin,
611a
small Latin and less Greek, 183a small skill in Latin, 101b soft bastard Latin, 58b taught me Latin in pure waste, 33a the dull Getan fools laugh at Latin, 525b to learn well Greek and Latin, 586b wisdom does not always speak Greek and Latin, 876b
Laudant quod non intelligunt, 564a Laudanum, some fell by, 142a Laudator temporis acti, 515b Laudatur et alget, 625a Lauds to their Maker, sing, 158b

LAUGH, LAUGHTER, LAUGHING, etc.

a little more laugh, a little less cry, 444a a man learns more easily what he laughs at, 516b a melancholy crack in his laugh, 167a a sight to shake the midriff of despair with laughter, 360a all things are cause for laughing or weeping, 495a an injury to one who has lost laughter, 551a audible laughter ill-bred, 80b better write of laughter than of tears, 703a better you laugh than I greet,
744a (laughter) but an art, 85b can you withhold laughter, 646b cannot be angry for laughing, 390b cannot make him laugh; he drinks no wine, 315b constrained laughter, 76a counterfeited glee, laughed with,
148b Democritus (laughing philosopher) would laugh, 654b

Laugh, Laughter, Laughing, etc.

—contd.
does not prove a mind at ease,
775b English race worst at laughing, 456b folly, laughter of, 130b fool, laughter of, 415b fools would be on the laughing
side, 246b (laughter) for a month, 313b for the love of laughter, 299a frequent in the mouth of fools, 646b from a dunce, 65b he corrects manners by laughter, 501a he is always laughing, 3a he is not laughed at who laughs at himself first, 774a he laughs best who laughs last,
775a he laughs ill that laughs himself to death, 775a he says that you laugh and sneer, 646b holding both his sides, 224a I am stabbed with laughter, 277b I hasten to laugh at everything, 695a if I laugh at any mortal thing, 63b if you are wise, laugh, 646a ill-timed laughter dangerous, 469b innumerable laughter of sea, 478a
jeerers must be content to taste
their own broth, 798a laugh and be well, 156b laugh and grow fat, 799b laugh and the world laughs with
you, 387b
laugh not too much, 163a laughing and jeering at everything that looks strange, 242b laughing and weeping first cousins, 713a laughing and weeping in one bag, 830b laughs are hearty, jests coarse,
255b laughs with cast-down eyes, 646b let people laugh as long as I am warm, 800b let those laugh that win, 801a (laugh), lie, flatter, 66b like parrots, at a bagpiper, 281b little jest, laughter theirs at, 269b lordly laughter in her eye, 354a maid that laughs is half taken, 724b make 'em laugh; make 'em cry, 263a make her laugh at that, 297a makes good blood, laughter, 799b men go not laughing to heaven, 810a nobody laughs and nobody cries, 445b not at another's loss, laugh, 129b not many things cheaper than laughter, 349b
nothing more foolish than foolish laughter, 646b
nothing pleasant without love and laughter, 658a our sincerest laughter with some pain is fraught, 326a peasants' laughter more genuine,
532b
price of laughter too great, if it involves impropriety, 594b ries donc, beau rieur, 707a sardonic laugh, 452b sometimes she would laugh and sometimes cry, 371a

Laugh, Laughter, Laughing, etc.

—contd.
the case dismissed with laughter,
660b the giggler is a milkmaid, 163a the land of no laughter, 263b the long loud laugh sincere, 370a the loud laugh that spoke the vacant mind, 148a the mocking laughter of Hell, 710b the spleen makes one laugh, 662a th' exploded laugh, 26b though it make the unskilful laugh, 294b to crow like chanticleer, 288b to make the weeper laugh, 322b too much laughter foolish, none, indicates an old cat, 783b tragic subject of laughter, 533b unbecoming in a man of quality, 92a under a mask, laughter, 541a unextinguishable laughter, 469a unseasonable laughter turns to sorrow, 449a vast and inextinguishable laughter, 326a we had more laughing, 151a where we must laugh, 248a who but must laugh if such a man there be, 252b who laughs on Friday will weep on Sunday, 779b who laughs too much may have an aching heart, 775a you may know a fool by his much laughing, 618b
See Mirth and Merry Laughing-stock, a lamentable, 645b I present you this individual to be made fun of, 547b Laureate pension, earned his, 63a Laurel, immortal meed of verse, 97a never grows for sluggard's brow, 371b not all the, but a sprig, 391a Laurels, yet once more, O ye, 225b Lave in it, drink of it, 169a

LAW AND LAWS
a bottomless Pit, law, 4a a hazardous thing to go to law, 591a a law should be short, so as to be understood, 565a a majestic edifice (law), 141b a silent magistrate, 569b a small thing to be good according to law, 528a a sort of hocus-pocus science, 207b a sumptuary law, 560a a thousand annoyances and a thousand delays, 673a (law) a tyrant, compels much contrary to nature, 448a acts not by partial but by general laws, 248b
agree for the law is costly, 732a agreement makes law, 505a aims at perfection, 566a all things presumed in legal form, 611b alone can give freedom, 710b an unprincipled orator subverts the laws, 614a (law) and arbitrary power, 42b and then destroyed the laws, 127b are above princes, 598a are for the safety of citizens and preservation of states, 565a (law) arises from fact, 526b as a man is friend the law is ended, 25b, 737b as adversaries do in law, 276b

Law and Laws—contd.

(law) as full of trouble as of pleasure, 866a author of law obedient to it himself, 608a bad laws, 40b be you never so high the law is above you, 740b beauty of a mazy law process, 161a best and most blameless interpreter of laws, 614a born under one law, to another bound, 156a breaking of laws, 234a by whom impartial laws were given, 372a can take an open purse, 52b cannot be contrary to natural equity, 166b cannot make drunken sober, 330b cannot make idle industrious, 330b cannot persuade where it cannot punish, 799b construction of law does no injury, 505a crowning good, repressing ill, 182a crushed by law, 42a curse on all laws, but those which love has made, 255a delay, law's, 293b delays in law are hateful, 516a derived from nature, 8b doctor of both laws, 518a does not allow what is opposed to reason, 640b does not concern itself with trifles, 511b, note dumb in the midst of arms, 658a, note each country hath its laws, 835a effects no injurious and no injury, 566a eight points of law, 460b entangle justice in her net of law, 249b equity and law, 475a eternal laws of justice, 42b every law has a loophole, 756b every law the invention and gift of the gods, 477b fear the beadle of the law, 760b fight for ourselves and laws, 421b first function to prevent unprovoked injury, 651a follows gold, 494b for lawyers to turn and wind, 52b forces no one to the impossible, 566a Forensic war, 96b foundations of law, 42a founded not on theory but on nature, 590a framed to speak always with one and same voice, 565a given that the stronger may not have all power, 554b (laws) go as kings wish, 716a glorious uncertainty of law, 207b, 460a good laws from bad customs, 527a good laws produced by evil manners, 498a, 565a, 792a grind the poor, 147b (laws) have not been suffered to be pointed, 52b he denies that the laws were formed for him, 562b he eked out wⁱ law, 47b he gives laws to the peoples, 618b he is good who keeps the laws, 683b he that goes to law, 49b

Law and Laws—contd.

here we lie, obedient to her laws, 481a highest law often the greatest roguery, 562b honourable to combine justice with law, 485b I know not whether laws be right, 389b in a thousand pounds' worth, not a shillingworth of pleasure, 792b in law what plea, so tainted and corrupt, 283a inability suspends the law, 550b intention should be subservient to the laws, 557b is a bottomless pit, 799b is a lottery, 799b is blind, 213a is costly; tak' a pint and 'gree, 799b is law for man's sake made? 354a is good, if a man use it lawfully, 430a is king, 799b is laid down for you, 515a is mighty, necessity is mightier, 712b is not the same at morning and evening, 847a is open, 426b is so written, 520b is the law of our side, 277b is thus written, 560b justice lame as well as blind, 240a kept the law by transgressing, 228b kings breakers of laws, 20b king is king by ruling according to law, 596a kings to govern according to law, 452a king who loves the law, 100b (laws) laid down by conquerors, accepted by conquered, 565a land without law, 434a later laws repeal former which are inconsistent, 565a law-breakers and law-makers, 19b Law of England, nation's greatest grievance, 460a Law of England, the reason of parliament, 228a laws undo us; with customs we live well, 877a laws have a nose of wax, 798a laws lean on one another, 42a lawsuits consume time, money, rest, friends, 799b let them re-learn the law, 191a liberty under the laws, 566b licks up a', 799b like cobwebs, 12a like law, like people, 802b like spider-webs, 25a, 450b made to take care of raskills, 130b make a scarecrow of the law, 299b make of law a labourer, 194a man of, who seeks to rise by merchandise, 234a, 461a many laws are a bad sign, 808a Mede overmaistrieth Law, 194a men make the laws, 702a men would be great criminals if they needed all the laws, 106a moral laws like the starry heavens, 14b more decisive and powerful than men, 534b moved to punish by justice, not anger, 613b much law but little justice, 812b

Law and Laws—contd.

natural law, 562b new laws, new frauds, 815b new lords, new laws, 815b nice sharp quillets of law, 317a no departure from words of law, 482b no law to make thee rich, 280a no law where the law is uncertain, 674a no man felt halter with good opinion of law, 373a no one can change his course of action to injury of another, 589a no one ought to be twice troubled with the same action, 588b no power should be above law, 603a no power to equalise men in defiance of nature, 697b no written laws so plain but wit may gloss, 124b none can bring an action on his own fraud, 589a not an ounce of love in a thousand pounds of law, 792b not derived from the practice, 644b not exact on the subject, but left open, 566a not judges of laws, 260b not to be interpreted to do an injury, 565a obey custom, 580b, note of every mortal lot, 6a of nations, how ordained, 610b of nations, that which natural reason has established among all men, 641a of nature, law of nations, 223b of the Medes and Persians, 418b of the Persians and Medes, 411a of the place where you are, 690a of retaliation (lex talionis), 566a offend not the Prince nor his laws, 374a old father antic, the law, 313a on questions of law the judges; on fact, the jury, 485a one may drive a coach-and-four through an Act of Parliament, 756b pennyweight of love worth a pound of law, 726b people can be strong where laws are, 547b place the safety of all before that of individuals, 565a precedents become law, 184a preservation of laws the bond of men, 479a prospective, not retrospective, 566a purer laws, 363a reason alone can make laws lasting, 698a right reason under divine command, 523b scorner of his Maker's laws, 101a
 seven hours to law, 182a show me the man and I shall show you the law, 834a shows her teeth but dare not bite, 404a six hours to law, 182a, note, 654a (laws) sleep sometimes but never die, 518b sometimes follows equity, 566a, note sounds like nonsense, but very good law for all that, 274a

Law and Laws—contd.

sovereign law, that State's collected will, 182a subjects to defend crown according to law, 452a subservient to custom, 565a summum jus, summa injuria, 665b summum jus, summum crux, 665b take you each a shell, 256a that litigious pettifogger, 403b that parchment scribbled o'er should undo a man, 317b that very law which moulds a tear, 265a the act of the law does no injury, 484a the atrocity of laws prevents their execution, 696a the best laws produced from crimes of bad men for benefit of the good, 565a the breaking up of laws, 366a the courts are open, 426b the gods above have their laws, 666a the hazard of law, 487a the last result of human wisdom, 181a the law is a ass, 112b the law, so lordlich and loth to maken ende, 194a the lawless science of our law, 359b the more by law the less by right, 808a the more laws the more offenders, 808a the only road to highest stations is the Law, 182a the perfection of reason, 851 the rigid law pursues poverty, 177b the rigid paths of law, 193b the unwritten law; the common law, 566a the weightier matters of the law, 423b the windy side of the law, 298a their joy is to obey the laws, 381b there is no law for just men, 855b things established by law are done away with by an opposite law, 506a things which restrict common law, 628a to torture the laws, 13b toast at legal dinners, 460a to-day's law is none to-morrow, 49b tolerates private injury sooner than public evil, 566a too much subtlety in law is condemned, 594b traps for money, 166b true law the very reason of all-ruling Jove, 566a unequal laws, 397b universal law that we are to be born and die, 566a unnecessary laws not good laws, 166b (laws) useful to those who possess, vexatious to non-possessors, 702a very numerous in a very corrupt state, 506b we are all servants of law that we may all be free, 565a we are pressed by heavy laws, 400a we rashly sanction a law unfair to ourselves, 629b

Law and Laws—contd.

well to obey one's country's laws, 475a were made to be broken, 390a what is a king, law away, 152b what is a law, 19b what use are laws without morals, 636b when a law is made the way of craftiness is discovered, 879b where law ends, tyranny begins, 245a where mystery begins law ends, 39a which governs all law, 43a who breaks no law, 75b who ever knew an honest brute at law, 349a who studies ancient laws and rites, 22a whoso loves laws dies mad or poor, 214b windward of the law, 82a without these (laws) the republic cannot stand, 544a world not thy friend nor the world's laws, 280a wrest once the law, 283b See Coke, Sir E., 85a Law-courts, place of justice, 11b Lawful for me to do what I will with mine own, 423a is not always honourable, 546a nothing, better than all things, 12b nothing to me, everything lawful to you, 593b to me, all things are, 428a Lawless, flame, through the void, 249a Lawmakers, judges not to be, 13b Lawrence, St., more like the devil than, 812b LAWYERS
 a good lawyer is a bad neighbour, 722a a lawyer killing a viper, 87a a lawyer's etcetera, 784b an old physician and a young lawyer, 736a and their pleading, 461b bluster, sputter, question, cavil, 404a bribed the lawyer's tongue, 127b can twist meanings, 144a fair and softly, as lawyers go to heaven, 759b fat contentions, flowing fees, 228a foolish and obstinate men make rich lawyers, 762a go not for every quarrel to the lawyer, 766a he covers me with his wings and bites me with his bill, 772a he eked out wi' law, 47b hide nothing from thy lawyer, 785a his cases, his tenures, and his tricks, 296b I am afraid he is an attorney, 181a jurists are bad Christians, 798a lawyers' houses built on fools' heads, 799b lawyers the battledores, 111b let's kill all the lawyers, 317b more ready to get a man into troubles, 150a native cheek brought him serenely through, 790b, note no lawyers if no bad people, 113a Parliament without lawyers, 615b pleads for money, 17a reason for desiring a seat in Parliament, 265b

Lawyers—contd.

rescues your estate, and keeps it, 26b shifting his side as a lawyer, 101b the Cantilena of the lawyers, 109b the king can make a Serjeant but not a Lawyer, 847a the lawyers are met, 143a the lawyer has spoiled the statesman, 116a the mountebanks of State, 108b to be a lawyer and live by men's quarrels, 159a who is his own lawyer has a fool for client, 783b woe unto you, lawyers, 424b ye took away the key of knowledge, 424b Lay, build the imperishable, 338a Lay on, Macduff, 305b Lay, the unpredetermined, 271b Lays, by heavenly, 394a Layin' low a spell, I wuz for, 202b Lazy and luxurious, spleen seizes, 347b
 Lazy people take most pains, 799b Lead, kindly light, 238a neither, nor drive, 814b they, not drive, 487a when we think we, 59b me, whither wilt thou, 291b LEADERS
 a leader of leaders, 520b a leader once hated, all his deeds tell against him, 559a a virtue in a chief to have known his followers, 624b a woman the leader, 520b accidents reveal a leader's resource, 506a foremost still leads, 88b, 714a greatest leaders behave extravagantly in prosperity, 643b he that rides behind another must not think to guide, 781a in a calm sea everyone is pilot, 792a in camps a leader sage, 269a in more danger than small folk, 631a me duce tutus eris, 659a monuments do not make the immortality of leaders, 598b Moses comes when the tale of bricks is doubled, 508b, 871b no need to despair with Teucer as our leader, 593a O for a living man to lead, 244a
 one dog can drive a flock of sheep, 821a reason and judgment, qualities of, 643a safety of leaders a strong shield, 534b spare the spurs and hold the reins tightly, 615a stags led by lion more formidable than lions led by a stag, 534a such a steersmate at the helm, 223b the deeds and glory of the leader shall live, 529b the time needs a leader, 519a there lives no greater, 365a when a blind man flourishes the Antient, woe to those that follow, 862a with me as leader restrain your anxieties, 574b wretched madness of the leader, 607b Leaf also shall not wither, 412a to the grave, bring the, 791a Leaf, the sear, the yellow, 305a turn over a new, 864a Leagues offensive and defensive, 355a Leak, a little will sink a great ship, 147b, 724a one will sink a ship, 39a Leal, the land o' the, 237a Lean and hungry look, 285b and sad, 462a, 759b body and visage, of a, 141a man has a stony heart, 462a rent, and beggared, 282b Leander, Mr. Ekenhead and I did, 62b swam the Hellespont, 168a Leap in with me, dar'st thou, 285a Leap in the dark, 457a LEAP YEAR

 "bissexus," 437a lady's privilege in, 75b, note proverb (and note) regarding, 830b LEARN AND LEARNING
 a good man is always a learner, 498b a little learning is a dangerous thing, 246b a man learns laughable things more easily than what he approves and reveres, 516b a prodigy in learning, 334a a progeny of learning, 328a and other branches of learning, 282b by study (learning) must be won, 144a cast in the mire, learning, 41a diligent to learn, 399b (learning) dieth with him, 85a even from our enemies, 91a ever learning, I grow old, 469b Fashion rules in learning, 103a gladly would he learn, 76b hated not learning worse than toad, 227a have to learning no pretence, 46b hell paved with skulls of great scholars, 785a I counsel creatures no clerk to despise, 194b (learning) is happy nature to explore, 249a Jack has studied in order to be a fool, 800a knowledge and learning, 7b learn but from the learned, 516b learn or depart, 516b learn to unlearn, 116a learn weeping and laugh gaining, 799b learn young, learn fair; learn auld, learn mair, 799b learned and conned by rote, 288b learning a sceptre to some, a bauble to others, 800a learning and folly often dwell on same person, 762a learning, faith and pure intent, 227b learning more easily stamped out than recalled, 506b learning, power, and time, 86a let the unlearned learn, 555a light, liberty and learning, 118b
 little heads may contain much learning, 803b live and learn, 804a live and learn, and learn to live, 804b (learning) long by rules, short by examples, 568a

Learn and Learning—contd.

love he bore to learning was in fault, 148b love of money and learning seldom meet, 847b loveseldom haunts (learning), 255b mad delusions of learning, 513a makes a good man better, an ill man worse, 800a makes a man fit company for himself, 800a makes the wise wiser, the fool more foolish, 800a much learned dust, 100a much learning doth make thee mad, 426b much learning shows how little mortal's know, 407a my foolish parents taught me to read and write, 574b natural food of the mind, 518a never too old to learn, 815a no age given to learning thoroughly, 602b no man wiser for his learning, 275b no royal road to learning, 856a (learning) nothing to men if they could not make themselves heard, 704b not bred so dull, but she can learn, 283a not yet so old but she may learn, 283a of the schoolmen, 7a once man's exclusive pride (learning), 96a quick to learn, 45b quickly learned, soon forgotten, 754b scraps of learning, 404a should continue as long as you live, 667b solid learning never outside college walls, 82a something new every day, 642b (learning) spoils a nation, 260a (learn) teach, love, 516 teacheth more than experience, 6b that cobweb learning, 51b that loyal body wanted learning, 372b the high and peaceful temples of the wise, 651c the learned and dull moral fool, 20b the learned eye, 35b the wise learn by fools, 12a they are too old to learn, 211b this is the highest learning, 207a to learn what has to be unlearned, 528b useless without mother-wit, 736b vain without intelligence, 481b value of virtue and learning, 80a vivendo s'impara, 804a want of learning kept the layman low, 124a we learn so little, 107a we learn not in school, but in life, 600b we live and learn, but not the wiser grow, 246a wearing all that weight of learning 363a well dressed and moderately learned, 496b with pale faces and sad expressions, 544a wonder the beginning of learning, 448b LEARNED, THE
 a learned man always has wealth, 545b Learned, The—contd.

I hate a learned woman, 478a learned fools the greatest fools, 799b never seem more learned than your company, 80b make the learned smile, 246b men hated learned women, 360a no man is born learned, 816b the learned reflect on what before they knew, 247b the greatest clerks be not the wisest men, 845b the learned understand theory of art, 517b virgins, learned, 61b when a learned man dieth, 85a world would perish if all were learned, 853b write with the learned, 878a Least, what you have done unto the, you have done to Me, 640a Leather, as ever trod upon neat's, 285a broad things cut from another man's, 526b, 750a cobbler keep to your, 555b, note liberal with another's leather, 511a nothing like, 856b or prunella, rest is all but, 249b, note their feet through faithless, 408b Leave behind, true of most we, 85a better, than lack, 743a off first for manner's sake, 420b Leaven, a little, leaveneth the whole lump, 427b, 429a Earth's bitter, 395b to work, wait for the, 6a Leaver, the Arkymedian, 27b Leaves, close up those barren, 399b enough, but few grapes, 800a getteth short of, 171a have their time to fall, 161b shatter your, 225b that day, in its, 74a thick as autumnal, 216a Leech, a skilful, 51a that will not quit unless gorged, 555a Leeches, murderers are many, 194b Leered like a love-sick pigeon, 87b Left, if you keep to the, you are sure to be right, 439b better to be, than never loved, 92a hand, the use of my, 228b what we, we lost, 444a LEGS
 all legs and wings, 16b bestrid the ocean, 307b erect upon two, 112a
 he has given leg-bail, 773a here I leave my second leg, 172b if you could see my legs, 115a one leg suspicious of his brother, 81a people who stand on legs of gold, 173a stretch your legs according to your coverlet, 837b use legs and have legs, 865b walk under his huge legs, 285b when his legs were hewn in two, 435a who has not courage should have legs, 875a LEGALITY
 he who does all he may doth not do well, 777a kills us, 877a lost by indulgence in things not unlawful, 619b

Legality—contd.

the more by law the less by right, 808*a*, 848*a*
what is allowed us is disagreeable 640*b*
what is lawful to Jupiter is not lawful to the ox, 640*b* Legate or Cardinal never did good in England, 458*b*
LEGEND and LEGENDS all ancient histories are fables, 709*a*, note
half-legend, half-historic, 360*a* old credulities to nature dear, 397*b*
some lying legend at the least, 269*a*
they are wise who study old stories, 634*b*

Leges sine moribus, 636*b*

Legion, my name is, 424*a* Legions, give me back my, 679*a*

LEGISLATION

power (legislative) nominated by the executive, 144*a* statesmen's kindnesses, 174*b* the people the true legislator, 42*a* to inscribe laws upon tablets, 536*b*

Legislature, running for the, 27*b*

LEICESTER and LEICESTER-SHIRE beans and bacon, Leicester, 188*b* shake a Leicestershire man and you shall hear the beans, 833*a*

LEISURE

given to the sacred Muses, 654*a* he hath no leisure that useth it
not, 773*b*
how has he leisure to be sick, 314*b* idle people have least leisure, 787*b* making more a business of leisure than business itself, 614*b* more occupation from our leisure, 527*a* mother of Philosophy, 166*b* never less at leisure than when at leisure, 605*a* nourishes the body and mind, 614*b* retired leisure, 224*b* retired leisure (otium umbratile), 614*b*
strikes him as wonderful pleasure, 32*b*
the needs of hearts at leisure, 392*b* to grow wise, 5*a* tranquillity difficult in, 515*b* vices of leisure, 592*b* with dignity, 614*b* without books is death, 614*b* Lely, Cromwell and, 105*a* Lemonade, black eyes and, 232*a*

LENDING and LOANS

a good man is merciful end lendeth, 433*b* a good world in which to lend, spend, or give, 438*b*, 439*a* a loan should come laughing home, 724*b*
a small sum makes a debtor, a large sum an enemy, 486*b* best way to keep friends is never to lend to them, 699*b* better give a shilling than lend half-a-crown, 742*b* gladly lend and borrow, 129*a* he that doth lend doth lose his friend, 777*a*
he that lends gives, 779*b* I have naething to lend, 48*a* it is a godlike thing to lend, 691*a* lend less than thou owest, 306*a* lead money to a city, but not to a man, 800*a*

Lending and Loans—contd.

loan oft loses both itself and
friend, 291*a*
lend only what you can afford to lose, 800*a*
loans and debts make worries and frets, 804*b* long lent is not given, 804*b* man only created to lend and borrow, 703*b* may the loan torment him, 671*a* neither a borrower nor a lender be, 291*a* not so good to borrow as to be able to lend, 818*a* one only lends to the rich, 811*b* sad fate of books lent, 708*a* the men who lend, 191*b* Length, his listless, 154*a* Lency: Mercy but murders, 279*b* promiscuous and general, to be avoided, 626*a* LENT (Season of) after Christmas, 731*b* he has a short Lent that has to pay money at Easter, 773*a* marry in Lent and you'll repent, 809*a* rejoice Shrovetide, to-morrow you will be ashes, 829*b* salmon and sermon have their season in Lent, 830*b* that's to keep thy Lent, 165*b* welcome as the first day in Lent, 773*b*
who has money and capers is well prepared for, 783*b* Leopard change his spots, can the,
418*b*
in a, spots not observed, 792*a* shall lie down with the kid, 417*a* Leper, shunned like a, 173*a* Lèse-majesté, 563*b* Less, rather than be, cared not to be at all, 217*a* beautifullly, 259*a* nicely-calculated less or more, 399*a*
the little less, 36*b* whether we have less or more,
436*a*
Lesson, 'tis an old, 54*a* Lessons as high as we could set them, 104*b*
because they lessen, 119*b* best of, to respect thyself, 336*a* Let, must be dearly, or let alone,
261*a*
Let to end, the, 6*a* Let, to, on sharing terms, 616*a* Lethargy in mighty woe, 124*a* Lethe's gloom, 'tis, 68*b* LETTERS and LETTER-WRITING a letter does not blush, 522*b* a she epistle, 65*b* a well-lettered man, 545*b* a wordy and grandiloquent letter, 680*b*
delightful way of wasting time (letter-writing), 234*b* fatal letters of Bellerophon, 567*b* first taught for some wretch's aid (letters), 255*a* his letters are weighty and
powerful, 429*a*
I have made this letter long for want of time to make it shorter,
685*a*
intercourse of letters a chief link, 175*a*
let the letter answer itself, 815*b* letters invented by Phœnicians, 620*a*

Letters and Letter-Writing—contd.

letters are the life of love, 175*a* man of letters and of manners, 99*b* man of letters not exempt from saying a foolish thing, 343*a* man of letters, manners, morals, 101*b*
man of three ("fur") letters, 546*a* (letters) of recommendation, 12*a* (letters) open breasts, 175*a* postscript in letter, 10*b* republic of letters, 698*a* speed the soft intercourse, 255*a* the canine letter (R.), 661*a* the elixir of love (letters), 175*a* the letter killeth, 428*b*, 567*a* the soul of trade, 175*a* Levellers wish to level down, 178*b* Levelling, yet only down to oneself,
178*b*, note
Lever à cinq, à six, à neuf, 702*b* Lever, the mightiest, Imagination,
398*a*
Levers to move men, interest and
fear, 450*a*
Levi did, to jump as Mister, 16*b* Levity and versatility, 40*b* of mind, barren, 381*b* of tongue, sarcastic, 57*b* Lewd fellows of the baser sort, 426*b* Lex Rex, 799*b*, note Lex scripta, 560*b* Lex talionis, 566*a* Lexicography, not yet so lost in,
181*b*
Lexicon, two men wrote a, 442*a* Leyes, allá van, do quieren reyes 716*a*
LIARS
all men are, 413*a* cannot adhere mathematically to truth, 450*a* Cretans are always liars, 473*b* doubt truth to be a liar, 292*b* every man is a liar, 612*b* have short wings, 801*a* he is a liar and the father of it, 425*b*
he never lies but when the holly's green, 775*b*
if there were no listeners there would be no liars, 790*a* known deceivers not believed when they speak truth, 635*a* liar is always prodigal of oaths, 709*a* measureless liar, 308*a* more lying than the Parthians, 616*a* my name is Mendax, 775*a* not believed when they tell truth, 576*a*
of the first magnitude, 92*a* playing the Cretan with the Cretans, 448*b*, 507*b* quite picturesque liar, 84*b* should have a good memory, 575*b*
show me a liar, I will show you a thief, 834*a*
splendide mendax, 662*a*, note the liar is sooner caught than the cripple, 847*a* to a liar, a liar and a half, 859*b* unless you are an exceptionally good liar, 177*a* we can never trust, 382*b* LIBEL
convey a libel in a frown, 347*b* greater the truth the worse the libel, 233*b*, 845*b*, note on humanity, 71*a* Liber, hic, est meus, 465*b*

Liberal and heroic deeds, 97a as the light of day, 97a deviseth liberal things, 417b either a little Liberal, 146b not enough to be, 29a Liberality has no limits, 564a of heart, 101b the name of liberality sounds Liberty, 700a
Libertas et natale solum, 348b Libertas optima rerum, 515a Libertas, reditura nunquam, 644a Libertate Decembris ulere, 487a Liberté, égalité, fraternité, 702b Liberté, que de crimes on commet dans ton nom, 704a Libertine life not a life of liberty, 723b puffed and reckless, 291a the air, a chartered libertine, 316a LIBERTY
 a plant of rapid growth, 379a above all liberty, 477b abstract, not to be found, 40a an immense regard due to, 388a and order, 41b
 and Union, now and for ever, 383b angels alone enjoy such liberty, 200b Athenians will not sell their liberties, 451a bean in liberty better than comfit in prison, 717b begets desire of more liberty, 24b best beloved of men, 353a calls them (chains) liberty, 38a came after a long period, 568a cannot exist among a corrupt people, 40b corruption a symptom of liberty, 144a country is dear, but liberty dearer, 616b Democracy tends to liberty, 622b don't agree with niggers, 202a empty praise of liberty, 554a enforcement of restraints on others, 215a
 first garden of liberty's tree, 69a fools call licence liberty, 522a for love and liberty, 322b give me liberty or give me death, 162a
 God who gave us life, gave us liberty, 176b Goulard's notion of,—money and nothing to do, 691b he that roars for liberty, 359a hour of virtuous liberty, 1b I must have liberty withal, 288b in amplitude of liberty, 381b in every blow, 49a in some liberty, in others licence, 628a in thine eyes, liberty, shines that high light, 159a is ancient, despotism is new,
 697b lean liberty better than fat
 slavery, 799b
 let each as likes him best his hours employ, 371a life insipid without, 1b love of, is a love of others, 159b makes an old man brave, 534b must be limited, 40b natural liberty of man, 104a never again to return, 644a notion of, 73a O sweet name of, 607a of speech inviteth liberty, 8b
 or death, 1b
 or health, or possessions, 379a

Liberty—contd.
 our liberties and lives are in danger, 599b pardon something to the spirit of,
 40a peaceful repose under a rule of freedom, 573b play not with my liberty, 147a pledged to Liberty and Law, 345b plucks justice by the nose, 299b power of doing what is allowed by law, 566b, note puts both elbows on the table, 697b sister of Truth, 3a so loving-jealous of his liberty, 279a spirit of divinest liberty, 85b sweet land of liberty, 331b that treacherous phantom, 267b the best of things, 515a the footsteps of dying Liberty, 573b the idol of the English, 75a the love of liberty, 126b they rushed on the sword in liberty's cause, 551b they wish to be free and do not know how to be just, 694a this (freedom of speech) is true, 227b thy chosen music, 396b to enjoy delight with liberty, 341b to set free mankind, 335a Transatlantic liberty, 67a tree of, must be refreshed, 176b tree of, watered by blood of tyrants, 696a ultimate liberty of the world to be struck down, 566b unclouded rays of, 342a under the laws, 566b under popular restraints perishes through liberty, 566b was all his cry, 348a weight of too much, 394b when kings give, 109a when they cry Liberty, 227a who gives up, for money, shall carry his master, 633b who loves liberty must be wise and good, 227a
 which, though late, regarded me, 566b winnowed by the wings of, 68a wisdom the only liberty, 648b Libitina (death) a great part of me will escape, 599b Libito è licito, 715b LIBRARIES and LIBRARY are shrines, 7b Inscription at Berne, 474b "medicine chest of the soul," 473a my library was dukedom large enough, 310b
 "Nutrimentum spiritus," 605b tombs of such as cannot die, 103a Librorum copia, 659a Licence, between, and slavish order, 398b love not freedom, but, 228a my pages are full of, 564a outrageous, will become disaster, 594b they mean, 227a unbridled wantonness caused unbridled desire, 566b we are all made worse by, 513b Lick yet loathe the hand, 53b Licks the hand just raised to shed his blood, 248a Licuit, semperque licebit, 566b

Liddell and Scott, 442a Lieb, so lang du lieben kannst, 713b LIES and LYING
 a good head cannot lie, 722a a lie has no legs, but scandal has wings, 723b a lie travels round the world while truth is putting on her boots, 442b, 801b a lie with a latchet, 723b a lie with a lid on, 723b a real good lie, 27a a real love of a lie, 34a a warm lie is the best, 499b all men are a lie, 413a and be a living lie, 59a and debts generally mixed, 691b and told a wicked, wicked lie, 275a as easy as lying, 295a becomes none but tradesmen, 310b better speak truth rudely than lie covertly, 743b circumstantial (lie), and the lie direct, 289b
 couldn't lie if you paid him, 189b cruellest, told in silence, 344a die of swallowing their own lies, 459b different shapes, sizes, and colours of, 348b dumbie winna lee, 753b fittest for to forge true-seeming lies, 339b
 full heart lied never, 721a gain gotten by a lie will burn one's fingers, 764b
 good blood cannot lie, 768a he shall not prosper who deviseth lies, 465b
 how subject we old men are to this vice, 315b how the world is given to lying,
 315a
 I never told a lie yet, 211a innocent truth never in need of,
 211b (lying) is thy sustenance, 222b it is a low thing to lie, 549b it is the nature of scoundrel to deceive by lying, 550b jesting lies bring serious sorrows, 798a
 lies and Latin go round the world, 801a lies hunt in packs, 801b lies like truth, 305b lies may be acted as well as spoken, 801b lies take a deal of killing, 801b like a tall bully lifts the head and lies, 251b lying and stealing are next-door neighbours, 834a
 lying is weakness; truth is health, 806b
 lying like a dentist, 806b lying like gas-meters, 455b lying pays r' r' tax, 806b lying rides on debt's back, 751a lying skilfully, part of speaking well, 497b
 man the enemy of lies, 73a mixture of a lie adds pleasure, 9a 'most out o' lyin', 202b new minted an old lie, 97b no lie so reckless as to have no voucher, 604b nonsense and a lie, 52a nothing can need a lie, 162b nothing stands in need of lying but a lie, 818b nuts to the Father of Lies, 233b and Lying—contd.

lie makes many, 822a lie needs seven to wait on it, 822a may tell lies without danger of the law, 845b proportions of a lie grow, 576a and sight for seeing lies, 348b ear and lie, as a woman can, 77b ing pains and telling lies, 122b ent of lying, 73b rs cheap as lies, 308a a lie and find the truth, 839b a lie and stick to it, 839b sinketh in, 9a
) the more, 35a mouth that lies slays the soul, 848b ough a lie be swift truth over-akes it, 864a credit his own lie, 310b lie magnificently, 576a th in masquerade, 64b th never indebted to 407b y honest, but something given to lie, 307b at can I do at Rome? I do not know how to lie, 633a at is a lie, 64b at need of further lies, 191a at use in lies about things everybody knows, 190a o can speak well can lie well, 874b o lies deceives as much as in his power, 632b o lies to hide a fault makes it worse, 382b o lies to his father will more daringly deceive others, 632b o trusts in a lie shall perish in ruth, 782a osoever loveth and maketh a lie, 432b h such a fervour, lied, 63a Liars
 undles of little things, 168b ally beauty in his life, 302b ark and stormy night, 162a espiser of life, 523a atal complaint, 168b ort committed to my trust, 211b entle waiting to immortal life, 22a alling load, 45a ood life lived in obscurity, 496b ood life the only religion, 722a eat interpreter of life, 234b mper filled by fate, 23a arp of thousand strings, 383a ourney to death, 636b oyful man who can say, "I have lived," 549a life beyond life, 228a fe that leads melodious days, 62a on lesson in humility, 17b oving little life, 353b eevish April day, 386a uiet life, 29b short blossoming, a long withering, 711b hort summer, 179b age and a play, 478a ousand doors to let out life, 10b, 212b ragedy of Errors, 380a ranquil life or a happy death, 72b arfare, 577a eil-written life, 71b

Life—contd.

a word may be recalled, a life never, 712a absurd to increase provision for, when little is left, 490a abundant feast of, 104b after death, by honourable fame, 616b after life's fitful fever, 304b all beer and skittles, 66a all lost except a little, 60b all must life resign, 181b all that a man hath will he give for his life, 411a an ill life, an ill end, 717a and Death and that For Ever, 189a and death indifferent things, 345a and good living, 701a and its longings, 1a and love are all a dream, 45a anger at living and scorn of Fate, 330a answer was a blameless life, 97a art the secret of life, 389a as a man lives so shall he die, 737b as children with their play, 97a as is a tale, so is life, 642a as the life is, so it's end, 737b as the life so the speech, 475b as the wind is, 4a as 'twere a careless trifle, 303b as we journey through, let us live, 379b at the door of, 351a before the fire of, 192b best of, flies quickly, 613b bewildered way of, 66b Book of, ends with Revelations, 388b brief life is here our portion, 237b brief, love is long, 360b busy scenes of crowded life, 177b but a span, 301b but a vapour, 438a but a walking shadow, 305b but an inn, 175a cast your life upon the deep, 346a chance, not wisdom, rules life, 685b changes and chances of this mortal life, 433a cool evening of, 252b cool, sequestered away of, 154a Conduct three-fourths of, 6a death is the veil which those who live call life, 326a death the only cure of life, 260a declines from thirty-five, 179b deliver up our fort of life, 212a dim light of life, 254b do not postpone comforts of life, 672b do not set my life at a pin's fee, 291b do you wish to live well? who dares not? 685a dost thou love life, 140b dreary intercourse of daily life, 394a enchanted cup of, 54b easier to ensure good life than long life, 589b easy to despise life in adversity, 643b either learn to trifle, or to endure life, 478a entombs the soul, 406a ere life hath lost its brightness, 158b every form of, is good, 178b every life a tragedy, 6b every man holds dear, 308a

Life—contd.

expatiates in a life to come, 248a experience ever teaches some-thing new, 605a facts of human life, 187b faults in the life, 96a feels its life in every limb, 392a fellowship is life, 236b first hour of, plucks it, 624a fool is always beginning to live, 663b found that life was Duty, 174a friendship sweetener of, 23a given for use, 685a given thee back to life, 92b given up to bodily indulgence, 582a given us by nature, at interest, 584b gives nothing to mortals but great labour, 594a glides and will glide on, 648b had he not played his part well in the comedy of life, 605b half-dead, a living death, 223b handful of good life better than a bushel of learning, 723a happy is he who has employed his time well, 531a has passed but roughly, 102a hastens on with increased speed, 626a hath quicksands, 198a he alone lives who seeks fame honourably, 560a he but usurped his life, 307a he fills his life with deeds, not years, 484a he has lived to posterity, 637a he has lived well who has died when he desired, 496b
 he hath not lived that lives not after death, 773b he is wise who lived yesterday, 549a he lived his life, 369a he lives long who lives till all are weary of him, 775b he lives longest that is awake most hours, 775b he lives unworthily through whom no other person lives, 555a he regulated his life wisely, 648b he sins against this life who slights the next, 406a he that lives well is learned enough, 723a heavy wheel of, which draws up nothing new, 405b his life a watch or a vision, 353a his life was gentle, 287a how pleasant is thy morning, 47a how long matters not, but how well, 630b how warm the tints of life, 381a how well you live, not how long, 620a hope alone makes us willing to live, 789b hope of life returns with the sun, 662a human affairs a lamentable laughing-stock, 645b I bear a charmed life, 305b I depart from, as from an inn, 527b I have lived enough, for I die unconquered, 649a I have run my allotted course, 687a I know not what of second life, 6a

Life—contd.

I live and I reign, discarding the things which you extol, 686b I was thinking jest what a Rum Go everything is, 384b if a man's life is despicable, his preaching is despised, 508b if life was bitter to thee, pardon, 352a if you know not how to live aright, make way for those who do, 686b imperfect without dissimulation, 633a in the midst of, we are in death, 433a in the old dog yet, 855a inequalities of, 83b is a dream, 716b is a jest, 143b is a shuttle, 287b is a vigil, 685b a waste of wearisome hours, 231a is a wheel, 473b is Act, 235b is all a variorum, 44b is all chequered, 231b is all the sweeter that he lived, 209b is as tedious as a twice-told tale, 311b is but a day, 45b is but a span, 167b is but a spark, 107a is but an empty dream, 197b is but the chain of many deaths, 408b is dying, 173b is earnest; art is lofty, 712a is energy of love, 402a is good and joy runs high, 162a is half spent before we know what it is, 801b is long if it is full, 567b is long if you know how to use it, 685b is long which answers life's great end, 406b is much flattered, Death traduced, 406a is nearer every day to death, 584b is never the same again, 207a is not life without health, 480b is not to be alive but to be well, 598a is not to breathe but to act, 709b is probation, 35a is read all backward, 30b is real, 197b is short, art is long, 685a is short, but made too long by misfortune, 499a is short, but memory of a good life is eternal, 499a is short, the art of healing is long, 475a is the desert, life the solitude, 408b is thorny, 87a is very sweet, 24b it is a pain to live, 584b it is not life unless you are at ease, 801b itself the inferior gift of Heaven, 126b jewels of, not all on one string, 236a just gave what life required, 148a knowledge of life, 181a
 late may you return to the skies, 653b lay down his life for his friends, 426a leading a double life, 389a

Life—contd.

learn thou to measure life, 227a (life), learning, faith, and pure intent, 227b leaves of, 135b let all live as they would die, 800a let Jove give life and means, 651b let life burn down, 351a let us cherish, 441b let us weigh life's laws without complaining, 658b lieth not in living, but in liking, 801b like a cup of tea, 18a like a dome of many-coloured glass, 326b like dice-play, 560b like its way of life, 33b little ironies of, 157a
 live and learn, 804a
 live his life, all Nature falters there, 406b live mindful that your time is short, 519b live out thy life as the light, 354b live righteously; you shall die righteously, 686a live rightly and not as it pleases us, 601b live to learn and learn to live, 804b lives of those dead remembered by the living, 685a living thing distinguished from dead by changes, 338a living well is the best revenge, 804b long enough for nature or for glory, 649a long, with honour at the close, 202b long to the wretched, short to the fortunate, 608a
 look to the end of a long life, 476a love of, increased with years, 244b love of the beautiful the charm of life, 704b low vale of, 19a mad from life's history, 169a make life a heroic poem, 71b make the most of, 239b makes calamity of so long life, 293b man can have but one life, 33a man's life like unto a summer's day, 446b man's life is a winter's day and winter's way, 847a many-coloured life, 178a
 many ways to let out life, 210a may you live all the days of your life, 461b means strife, 801b mine honour is my life, 312a mirth prolongeth life, 375b mixed factors of, 187b more like wrestling than dancing, 472a morning march of, 68b most enjoyed when courted least, 406a most men employ first part of life in making the other part wretched, 698a mostly froth and bubble, 151b must be coaxed and played with, 356b
 must have life for a blow, 363b must linger on, 58a must once have end, 104b my life and soul, 472a my life days ben gan, 435a my life matters not to you; lead your own, 638b

Life—contd.

nae man has a lease of his life, 813b needs reasoning and calculation, 475a no life has truly longed for death, 357a no life lives for ever, 352a no life without pain, 816a no necessity to live in necessity, 573a no one anxious about how well he may live, 589b no one dies miserably who has lived well, 587a none can lose two lives, 442b, note none to be despaired of while he breathes, 603b nor love thy life, nor hate, 221b not a disposable property, but to all for use, 685b not a kindlier, or sweeter, 352b not length but goodness of life matters, 642a to live, not the whole of life, 229b nothing but a journey to death, 671b nothing in life became him like the leaving, 303b O happy life (the husbandman's), 165a of man a Poem, 71a of philosophers a preparation for death, 671b on entre, on crie, et c'est la vie, 704a one crowded hour of glorious life, 274a, note one's real life, the life one does not lead, 388a our little life is but a gust, 199a our little life is rounded by a sleep, 311a our lives shortened by ignorance, 388b our short day of, 660a our whole life a childhood, 823b passions the elements of, 248b pathway of secret life, 530a philosophy, guide of, 685b pleasure which there is in life, 392b poor play (life's) is o'er, 249a praise life at the end, 827a protracted life is protracted woe, 178a push ajar the gates of, 331a race well run, 241a remember how short life is, 677a rough waves of, 5b satiated with, 509b sech is life, 113b she was his life, 60b short and irrecoverable, 662b short, but long measured by his glory, 629b short life sufficient for living honourably, 499a slits the thin-spun life, 226a so careless of the single life, 362b so fast doth fly, 107a so his life has flowed, 355a so short, the craft so long, 79b some come, some go, 374b steal myself from life, 258a study life and manners, 645b sweat under a weary life, 293b sweet fable, life's, 104a tedium vitae, 667b tell not Misery's son that life is fair, 385b that best portion of a good man's life, 393b
 that insane dream, 32b

Life—contd.

that which has once lived is immortal, 714a that which maintains me I esteem as a god, 479b the changing scenes of, 437a the completer life of one, 31b the discordant concord of affairs, 637b
 the end praises the life, 843b the general pulse of life stood still, 404b the great business of, 234b the harp of, 358b the idea of her life, 285a the longer a poor man's, the greater his wretchedness, 557a the music of men's lives, 313a the quiet life, 455b the short span of, 685b the simple life, 103a the statue of his life, 386b the sun of, is overcast, 230b the varying road of, 91b the wave of, kept heaving, 171b the wine of, 135b their life a clear united stream, 369b Thelemites' rule, Fais ce que voudras, 692b there is always life for the living, 855a there is life in a mussel, 855a they live ill who think they will live for ever, 572b they may rail at this life, 232a they seldom live well who think they shall live long, 857a they will not live, and know not how to die, 686a this crowd and rabble of life, 607a this is alone life, 326a this life dies, 136a this load of death called life, 227a this long disease, my life, 252a this speck of life, 232b this system of life does not suit me, 541a though ill, excels death, 391a through all the drama love gilds the scene, 328a thy pieces, imitating life, 125a till death all is life, 859a to come, I sleep out the thought of it, 310a to enjoy memory of past, is to live twice, 490a to everyone his own life is dark, 664a to let in life and let out Death, 330a to live I find it deadly dolorous, 341b to live is my business and my art, 703b to live is to think, 686a to outdo the life, 82b
 to prefer life to honour, the highest impiety, 665b to shift from side to side, from sorrow to sorrow, 343a to spin out line of life, 12b to the last enjoyed, 182b too short for distant aim, 229a travel on life's common way, 396b treads on life, 30b
 'twas his to lend a life, 383b universal law, birth and death, 566a utere sorte tua, 678a vast ocean of, 249a vigour of our days passes, 682b utite precepta beata, 685b

Life—contd.

vivere militare est, 686a was in the right, 94a wastin' all her life, 240a we are all on our last cruise, 344a we begin not to live till we are fit to die, 866b we have lost all, but life is left, 611b we have loved life, 236b we learn in life, not in school, 600b we live not as we wish but as we can, 472a we must not look for golden life in an iron age, 866b we never live, but we hope to live, 703b we see into the life of things, 393b we should care for a sufficient, not a long life, 601a we should leave, as a theatre, 520b weariest and most loathed worldly life, 300a wears on so wearily, 171b web of, a mingled yarn, 299a we've been long together, 15a what a trifle is a moment's breath, 109b what is your life, 431a what you and other men think of his life, 285a where is the life that late I led, 316a while there is life there is hope, 873a whimpers of the higher life, 196a white flower of a blameless life, 364a who e'er has travelled life's dull round, 327b
 who live longest see most, 857a who lives longest sees much evil, 857a who lives long knows what pain is, 780a who live longest must fetch fire furthest, 857a who lives medically lives miserably, 632b who lives most dies most, 780a who puts off the hour for living rightly, 648b who saw life steadily, 4b who spill life's sacred stream, 172b whose life is in the right, 249b whose life was like the violet sweet, 400b why do wretched men so much desire life, 340b why this craving for life, 628a with all it yields, 34b with perplexing thoughts to interrupt the sweet of life, 220b without letters is dead, 685b without love is load, 92b woman's the only useless life, 117a word out of season may mar a life, 478a would not be smooth without rubs, 801b wretched the bliss of mortal affairs, 580b you have played, eaten, and drunk enough, 569a you never know what life means till you die, 35a you take my life when you do take the means, 283b Life-blood of our enterprise, 314b Life-like but lifeless, 235b Life-time, here I could spend with thee, a, 543a

LIGHT

a burning and a shining light, 425b a despiser of light, 523a a light for after times, 336a a little profit from light, 527a a remnant of uneasy light, 396a after light's term, 5b all gone into the world of light, 376a an infant crying for the light, 362b and not heat needed, 460b and the day free to all, 642a and the sacred vessels, 543b as I watch the line of light, 231a as if they feared the light, 346a at best thou'rt but a glimmering light, 437b blasted with excess of, 154b blind with too much, 210b by her own radiant light, 225a candle before lights better than candle behind, 841a children of, 424b come forth into the light of things, 399a common as light is love, 326a daylight will peep through a small hole, 750b dim religious light, 224b do not trust to lamp-light, 530a enable with perpetual light, 433a, 437a enough light for those who wish to see, 693b enough to guide your steps is given, 337a every light has its shadow, 756b every light is not the sun, 756b faithful to the light within, 168a from smoke, 526b giving light from your lamp does not diminish your own, 546a God's first creature, 9a has arisen, 569a he who receives light from above, 223a holy Light, offspring of Heaven first-born, 218a honest men fear nor light nor dark, 785b how few are warmed or cheered, 402a I desire to live in the light of day, 686a in darkness, 569a is given, 336a is nought for sore eyes, 847a is sweet, 416a leaving a track of, 23b lending light to the sun, 568b lets in new light through chinks, 377b light your lamp before it becomes dark, 802a lived and flourished in his light, 337b mehr Licht, 713b men of light and leading, 41b, and note more soft than shadow, 354b no light, but darkness visible, 215b no light but Thine, 186a of other days, 38b, 233a
 of the world, 569a
 on the paths of men, 200a our light is flown, 161b out of hell leads up to light, 217b out of obscurity into light, 527a prayer of Ajax was for light, 198b passing through pollution is unpolluted, 569a public man of light and leading, 116b

Light—contd.

pure severity of perfect light, 366a put out the light, 302b seek the light I cannot see, 88a seeking light, 276b servants of light, 4b solitary certitude of light, 244a sun can be seen only by its own light, 851b
 sweetness and light, 6a teach light to counterfeit a gloom, 224b that fierce light which beats upon a throne, 364a that haloes all, 37b that led astray, 44b that lies in woman's eyes, 231b that never was on sea or land, 400b that shineth more and more, 413b the armour of, 427b the dear dead light, 352a the great world of light, 198a the sons of light, 424b to others, destruction to themselves, 437a
 to produce light from smoke, 598a to see divine light, put out your own candle, 841a to them that sit in darkness, 424a unbarred the gates of, 220a unto my path, 413a walk while ye have the light, 425b whereby the world is saved, 159a why this craving for, 628a within his own clean breast, 225a ye are the light of the world, 421a Light gains, heavy purses, 11b purse makes heavy heart, 724a Lights are growing dim, the, 151b are out, his, his feast is done, 266a burning, your, 424b I dread the boasted, 398b meeting of, without a name, 346b of life, dim, 254b small, are soon blown out, 321a Lighthouse, sitivation at the, 112b without any light atop, 173a Lighting, a philosophy like, 71b Lightly as it cometh, so wol we spende, 78b come, lightly go, 802a on my ashes, he, 183b they'll talk of the spirit that's gone, 391b LIGHTNING
 and thunder I break asunder, 466a clipped the lightning's wings, 373b he snatched, from heaven, 522b innumerable fires, 622b of his terrible swift sword, 174b strikes the highest peaks, 647b vain to seek a remedy against,
 644b which doth cease to be, 278b Ligna super foco large reponens, 517a Like associates with like, 615b again, I shall not look upon his,
 290b cures like, 802a draws to like, 802a to like, God brings, 487b Like-to-die, lang or, fills the kirk-yard, 858b
 Like again, to look upon their, 96b will to like, 803a Liked, looking, and liking loved,
 270a Likeliest, do the, God will do the
 best, 753a
 Likely lies in the mire, 803a Liking, everyone to their, 441a

Likings and dislikings, 192a our timid, kill, 397b

LILIES

as the lily among thorns, 416b consider the lilies of the field, 421b contending with the roses, 211a it trembles to a lily, 119a like those cool lilies, 193b lilies and languors of virtue, 351b lily and rose seem to have souls, 688b
 lilled fields of France, 67a perfect and pure, 193b roses and white lilies, 3b, 69b to paint the lily, 63a, 311b towers to a lily, 380a unstained and pure as is the lily, 369b

Limbo, a, large and broad, 218b

Limbs quivering, his, 62b his, were cast in manly mould, 270b hundreds and thousands of precious, 173a

LIMITATIONS

cobbler, keep to your leather, 555b
 no living man all things can, 816a
 no man can see over his own
 height, 816a
 none can climb beyond his, 234b one cannot please all the world, 816a super vires, 666a supra vires, 666b valour, like other virtues, has its limits, 698b

Limits of the world, beyond the, 104a

Lincoln was and London is, 803a

Linden time, in 354a

Linden, on, when the sun was low,
 68a

Line of beauty, curved is the, 443b dragging the lazy, languid, 371a each, shall stop, 349a

I hesitate to draw a, 443a lives along the, 248b marred the lofty, 269a no day without a, 602b one, which dying he would wish to blot, 204a

stretch out to the crack of doom, 305a

the challenge of the mighty, 121b the thin red, 457b the, too labours, 247a upon line, 417b

we carved not a, 391b

Lines, a vast extent of flimsy, 252a are fallen unto me in pleasant places, 412a

are weak, the, 252b how he throws his baited, 168a of thought, 58a

Lineage prove, might we all our,
 186b

Linen, choose not by candle-light, 748a

his, was not very clean, 371a not, you're wearing out, 171a old, wash whitest, 384a wash your dirty, at home, 866b

Liner, she's a lady, 190a

Lingering, something humorous but,
 146b

Linnaeus, motto of, 530b

LINNETS

lay of love (linnet's), 19b

nest of, not to be harried, 850b pipe but as the linnets do, 362a the lowly linnet, 83a

Linsey-woolsey brother, 51b brothers, 254a

LION and LIONS

a dewdrop from the lion's mane, 298b a ramping and a roaring lion, 433b among ladies, 280b and stoat have isled together, 364a asses that carry are better than a lion, 735a attack bulls, not butterflies, 553b better fits a lion than a man, 299a blood more stirs to rouse a lion, 313b
 by his claw, 527a do not pluck a dead lion's beard, 595b do not provoke lions, 595b finds you hares, where he should find you lions, 307b I girded up my lions, 27b I have the chief share because I am called lion, 521b if you were turned into a lion, 514b in peace, in battle stags, 552b in thy house as a lion, 420b lion's mark is always there, 241a lion's skin to be eked out with the fox's, 457b
 mated by the lion, 299a not a more fearful wild-fowl than your lion, 280b not frightened by cats, 803a one, but that one a lion, 471b our lion, now will foreign foes assail, 122a partnership with a lion, 565b the devil, as a roaring lion, 431a the first lion thought the last a bore, 263b the lion is not so fierce as painted, 847b the lion's skin is never cheap, 724a, 847b
 there is a lion in the way, 414b thou wear a lion's hide, 311b thy hand is on a lion's mane, 271a to attempt to shave a lion, 475a to beard the lion in his den, 270a to beat the dog before the lion, 860a to judge the lion by his claws, 471a wake not a sleeping lion, 801a when you rule a lion beware of his claw, 872b who nourisheth a lion, 183b Lion-hoar and eagle-eye, 334a LIPS
 a coral lip, 70a a man of unclean lips, 417a a vermeil-tinctured lip, 225b at the touching of the lips, 358b contempt and anger of his lip, 298a crimson in thy lips, 280a gives a pretty form to the lips, 115b have we not lips to kiss with, 388a heart on her lips, 58b her lips were red, and one was thin, 346a
 I ne'er saw nectar on a lip, 328a if you your lips would keep from slips, 435a like lips, like lettuce, 802b lips to sing, 121b loveliest loving lips, 353a my lips shall not speak wickedness, 411b
 oh that those lips had language, 102a
 other lips and other hearts, 38b seal up their lips for shame's sake,
 351a

Lips—contd.

seemed to kiss the soul, 67a such marmalade lips, 211b take, oh, take those lips away, 300a teach not thy lips such scorn, 318b that are dead, sang me that song, 443b that are for others, 360b the lips of Julia, 164b upon her perfect lips, 359a when I ope my lips let no dog bark, 282a whispering with white lips, 54b Liquid Madness, 71a Liquor, a bumper of good, 328a concealed about my person, 27b talks mighty loud, 158a Liquors, hot and rebellious, 288b Lisp of leaves and ripple of rain, 352b
Lisping lass is good to kiss, 724a

LISTEN and LISTENERS

a bon entendeur salut, 721b a good listener, one that has four ears, 467b
give us grace to listen well, 186b he listens to good purpose, 74a in listening mood, 270b listen to a good listener, 526b listen to one who has four ears, 467b listeners never hear good of themselves, 803a
(listening) to be demanded as a favour and not as a due, 551a little pitchers have long ears, 804a more pleasing (listening) than talking, 91a one pair of ears draws dry a hundred tongues, 822b swift to hear and slow to speak, 806b to conciliate the listener, 484b to listen well is a second inheritance, 496a
though the speaker be a fool, let the hearer be wise, 858a who listens once, 58b
who will not hear must be made
to feel, 875b

Litera scripta manet, 567a, 687b

LITERATURE

a good card to play, 21b a Life beyond Life, 228a age does not prevent pursuit of,
653a and fiction, 81a bears the ages; by writings you know Agamemnon, 650b English Classics, 25b flourishes best when half a trade, 176a La république des lettres, 608a life without letters is dead, 685b literary fame the only lasting fame, 338a
Martial on neglect of, 535b most dangerous of professions, 234b must not suppose I never tried to earn an honest living, 323b national, begins with fables and ends with novels, 697b Nature's chief masterpiece is writing well, 324b
on a little oatmeal, 333a polite literature, 567b, note Republic of letters, 135a, note, 454b, 698a
seeks to communicate power, 110a the black militia of the pen, 408b the Great Cham of, 334b the itch of, 201a

Literature—contd.

those literary cooks, 234a unhealthy literature, 592b wisdom the foundation of good writing, 650b

LITIGATION

laws grow by litigation, 567b lis item general, 567a litigious terms, fat contentious, 228a men are never wise but returning from law, 810a one lawsuit breeds twenty, 822a right is acquired by litigation, 567b

LITTLE and LITTLENES

a little house well filled, 724a a thousand peering littlenesses, 364a a lot of little things behind him, 190a added to little will become much, 470b all the world and Little Billing, 734a
and good, 803a
and loud, 462a, 759b and often fills the purse, 803b be kind to those dear little folks, 16b
boats must keep the shore, 140b, 803b (little) body often harbours a great soul, 724a (little) but to the purpose, 64b by little the bird builds its nest, 803b (little) cannot be great unless he
devour many, 847b
do thy diligence gladly to give of that little, 432b
every little helps, 756b (little) good is soon spent, 724a great fish eat up little, 308b here a little, there a little, 417b if thou hast but a little, 419a infinite riches in a little room, 208a is better than none, 724a life a bundle of little things, 168b love me little, love me long, 208a man and his littleness, 380b man wants but little here below, 149b
many littles make a mickle, 808a men, little, 462a nature content with little, 164b nature requires little, 528a of a little thing a little displeaseth, 819a she gives but little, nor that little long, 408a
so little as to be nothing, 653a,
note
the little more, 36b (little) things affect little minds, 116b things great to little men, 147b things on little wings, 133b things please little minds, 804a (little) to do and plenty to get,
112a to little, will make a great heap, 485b we take up little room in death, 329a
which is good, fills the trencher, 847b
Little John, many talk of, 808a Littus ama, 567b
Liturgy, a Popish, 245a LIVE, To (See also LIFE) and die, but which is best, 64a

Live, To—contd.

and learn, 804a and let live, 804a and move and have our being,
426b anything but live for religion, 91a bid me to live, 164b but I have lived, 55b (by light of futurity) or else we have no life, 402a cannot live with you, or without
you, 515b
clearly as a nobleman should,
315a come live with me and be my
love, 208a desire not to live long, 379a die of having lived too much, 381a everything that lives lives not alone, 23a he lives at ease that freely lives, 15a
he lives greatly who greatly dies, 407b he lives long that lives well, 141b he lives most who thinks most, 14a he that begins to live begins to die, 261b he that lives more lives than one, 389b
how good it is to live, 243b I have lived long enough, 305a I must live,—“I do not see the necessity,” 454b
I would not live alway, 411a how he lived and toiled and suffered, 199a
I'd give a pot of beer to live again,
263b if we live we die not, 353b let me live well, though I live but one day, 438a let me not live after my flame lacks oil, 299a let me not live in vain, 2a may you live all the days of your life, 461b
must live each other's lives, 388a must please to live, 178a naked souls that never lived, 166a
needs five thousand pound to live, 162b taught us how to live, 372a till like ripe fruit thou drop, 221b to live in hearts unborn, 68b to live in hearts we leave behind, 68b to live more nearly as we pray, 186a to live is Christ, 429b to live long, almost everyone's wish, 175a to live too long, 106a to live well the ambition of few, 175a to live with them less sweet than to remember thee, 231b to still live on, 387a too fast we live, 5a tried to live without him, 403a we live and learn, 246a what thou livest live well, 221b what was shall live, 34b where I can, sir (live), 66a while you live, 119a whilst we live let us live, 520a who cannot live on twenty pound, 162b who in the after-days shall live, 335a within our means, 28a you are panting to live, 195b

Live, To—contd.

you still shall live, such virtue hath my pen, 322a See Life, Lives, Living LIVES (pl. of Life) ca' them lives o' men, 237b fair in their gathering, 191a human creatures' lives, 171a lovely and pleasant in their lives, 410a that the slave had forty thousand lives, 302a obscurely great, 238a
of great men, 197b
of men, as a mirror, 557b other lives have twined themselves with mine, 107a out of the lives ye cast away, 174b something in the lives of those who ceased to live, 157b take example from lives of men, 557b the little lives of men, 359b two lives bound fast in one, 357a wreck of noble lives, 198b Livelihood: good men make me poor; bad give me a living, 498a Livelihood is sweet, 194b Lively to severe, 250a Liver, good for the liver may be bad for the spleen, 768a and lungs, Got pless my, 334a compels one to love, 662a masters spring up in us from a diseased, 558b my, is in a ferment, 532a wash milk from your, 791a Livers out of Britain, 309a Liverpool, the slum of Europe, 21b Livery, in her sober, all things clad,
219a of the burnished sun, 282b of the court of Heaven, stole the,
246a
Living dead man, a, 276a creatures, not to be treated like old shoes, 448b (Homer) had no roof, 166a man, blamed the, 4b no living with thee, or without
thee, 2b
one owes regard to the living, truth only to the dead, 704a there is hope in the, 471a think more of the living and less of the dead, 375a think of living, 454a too much love of, 352a well, all are capable of, 101b why seek ye the, among the dead, 425a
Livy, sups with, 137b Lizard, better be head of, than tail of dragon, 742b Load, didst resign this earthly, 227a each man's peculiar, 222b Loads on each, proportioned, 147b on thee, he laid many heavy, 445b Loadstone to draw all good things,
49b
Loaf, shave out of a cut loaf, 276a, 728a
who makes the quartern, rise, 331a
Leaves put in awry come out awry,
804b Loam, gilded, or painted clay, 312a Loan. See Lending Loathing, better go away longing than, 743a loving not, 160a Lobster boiled, like a, 51b

LOCALITY and LOCALISM

a dearer, sweeter spot, 229a be useful where thou livest, 163a fixed like a plant on his peculiar spot, 249a local scandal worse than London scandal, 21a spirit of localism, 24a spot that is sacred, 131b that corner of the world smiles for me, 549b the Divinity of the locality, 537b,
note
the North, the South, 93b Lochinvar the young, 27c Locks, his golden, hath time to silver turned, 242a hyacinthine, 219a never shake thy gory, 304b shaking her invincible, 228a thy knotted and combined, 291b Locks, no, had they to their doors, 198a open, whoever knocks, 305a Loco citato, 567b Locum tenens, 567b
Locus classicus, 567b
Locus in quo, 567b
Locus standi, 567b Locust eaten, hath the, 418b Locusts, luscious as, 301a Lodge, in heaven there's a, 439b in some vast wilderness, 99a here, you don't, Mr. Fergusson, 464a Lodger in my own house, 150a Lodging, hard was their, 142b is on the cold ground, 106b my, is my castle, 725b Lodging-place of wayfaring men, 418a Lodgings in a head, 51a Lofty and sour to them that loved him not, 320b
LOGIC and rhetoric, 11b human logic in vain against the devil's, 131b impassioned logic, 363a logical consequences, 176a of the heart, 387a
push the logic of a fact, 190b Logs, crooked, make straight fires,
749b
Loin, the ungirt, 35b Loins be girded, let your, 424b Loller (lollard) in the wind, 78b Lonond, Ben, leave where it stands, 800a
LONDON
a broken arch of London Bridge, 206a
a London particular, 114b
a London pride, 170a a modern Babylon, 117b a monstrous tuberosity, 72b a man tired of London is tired of life, 179a
a nation, 117b a roost for every bird, 117b a ruinous place, 455a a stony-hearted stepmother (Oxford Street), 488a, note and all that mighty heart is lying still, 395a (London) Bridge made for wise men to pass over and fools to pass under, 804b centre of a thousand trades, 97a common sewer of Paris and Rome, 177b
dining-room of Christendom, 215a echo of London coffee-house, 349a London—contd.

Fire of London, 122b
gondola of London, 117b
good manners always to, except my Lord Mayor of London, 455b, 827a
huger day by day, 7a is a fine town, 90b is, Lincoln was, 803a London's column pointing to the skies, 251b
London lickpenny, 804b
London-over-the-Border, 456b London scandal less deleterious,
21a
London's voice, "Get money," 253a merry London, my most kindly nurse, 347b
Mr. Veller's knowledge of, 111b motto of City, 158a no society out of London, 159b Paul's will not always stand, 824b people-pestered London, 156a resort and mart of all the earth, 100a shall be an habitation of bitterns, 206a, note
still-increasing London, 99a stupidest of London men, 72a sure as London is built of bricks, 173a
that great sea, 327a that mysterious forest below London Bridge, 267b
the loggerheads of London, 235a,
note
the love of my whole life, 195b the lungs of, 111a, 455a the monster London, 94a the needy villain's general home, 177b
the noble spirit of the metropolis, 184a the only place where the child grows up, 159b (London) theatres not for people's welfare, 324a there is in London all that life can afford, 179a
they agree like London clocks, 856b thou art in London, 65a Tory brick-built London streets,
386a
Tower of London, 155a where men wither and choke, 385b worth living in, to enjoy the
country, 368a
Lone lon creetur, a, 114a sheep is in danger of the wolf, 847b wayfaring men, 67a Loneliness in loneliness, 214b Lonely, so, that God scarce seemed there, 86b
LONG and lank and brown, 402b and lazy, 462a, 759b did I love this lady, 212a how long or short permit, 221b in coming to the light, 345b it shan't be, 80b long, long ago, 19a now we shan't be long, 464b speeches suit long ears, 202b that ever thought the travail long, 267a
was my travail, 212a Longer, he would have lived much,
263b
Longest, the finest and, 16b Longings of immortal pain, 368b

Longitude, Board of, 330b Look above you and then about you, 804b as ye were na lookin', 49a before you leap, 804b, note ere thou leap, 375a he cannot choose but, 394a not a, not a sigh, 149b one longing, lingering, 154a only a look and a voice, 199b peace pictured in her look, 67a shall not look upon his like again, 290b silent rhetoric of a look, 106a that calm look which seemed to all assent, 103a where I look I like, 873a where it is not as well as where it is, 880a
 with erected look, 124a with reach of past ages is wise, 175b
 Looks commercing with the skies,
 224b his, were always downward bent, 216b interpretation will misquote our,
 314b no trust to be placed in, 536a that know no art, 20b were fond, when, 105a Looked, no sooner, but they loved,
 280b unutterable things, 360b Looker-on here in Vienna, 300a none was more a, 109a Loquacity. See Talk
 Lord Chief Justice, a certain, 82a LORDS
 Lord, a certain, neat and trimly dressed, 313a a fine life to be Lord Mayor, 108b a lord without riches, a soldier without arms, 724b a lord among wits, 178b an insolent lord is not a gentleman, 736a
 drunk as a lord, 738a eagle he was lord above, and Rob was lord below, 395b food for satire, 404a footman cannot swear like a lord, 350a
 God save the House of Lords,
 354b great lord of all things (man), 248b great lords' stories, 90b hailed and wooed as a lord, 172b he loves a lord, 404a honeying at the whisper of a lord, 360a
 House of Lords, style, 116a how mighty and how great a lord is he, 77a jesting at lords and courtiers, 130b keep at a distance from lords, 556a let a lord once own the happy lines, 247a Lords, Commons and King, 42a lords lordliest in their wine, 223b makes lords of mechanics, 108a my-lorded him as only a free-born Briton can, 366b nod from a lord a breakfast for a fool, 726a oh the unworthy lord, 395b of himself, 57b of himself, though not of lands, 403a
 of myself, accountable to none, 230b of the ascendant, 40a of the unerring bow, 56a

Lords--cont'd.
 lords of the world besides, 215b (lord) of thy presence and no land beside, 311a of yourself, 125a princes and lords, 44b serve a lord and you will know what sorrow is, 832b tell not your vices to a lord, 78a the Lord No Zoo, 113b the lords of human kind, 147b thy lord and master, see, 153a when they will have their will, 78a Lord amende us alle, 194b Lord aright, that sought the, 44a Lord, I cannot love my, and not his name, 364a
 Lord it o'er the rest, yet would,
 122b Lord knows where, Zembla or the,
 249a Lord knows who, parents were, 108a Lord, to my, heartily, 200a Lords, as women wish to be who love their, 168b Lord's Prayer, short in words, long in wit, 141b, note Lordly more than man, 68a Lordlings and wtlings, not a few,
 273a
 Lordship of the soul, 353a Lorenzos of our age, 405a Lore, gives me mystical, 67b rich and varied, 273a volume of forgotten, 245b LOSS AND LOSSES
 a fellow that hath had losses, 285a after losing one loses well, 811a after loss the merchant repairs his broken ships, 568b all is not lost, 216a all's lost that's put in a riven dish, 734b an hour that recompensed all losses, 337b
 and more hopelessly are lost, 390a as year by year we lose friends,
 187a at times gain (loss is), 31b better a little loss than a long sorrow, 104a, 742a better go back than lose yourself, 743a better lose saddle than horse, 743a better sometimes than gain, 523b better to have fought and lost, 85a better two losses than one sorrow, 744a blessings brighten as they take their flight, 405b beware of one who has nothing to lose, 744b cow (or ass) knows not value of her tail till it is lost, 842a cut your loss, 750b discreditable if due to negligence, 673b easier to lose than to resign, 204a entirely won and lost, 20b every old woman bewails her own loss, 757b feeling of my loss will ne'er be old, 400b for a lost thing care not, 762b for ever to deplore her loss, 220b found himself in losing fortune, 330b give losers leave to talk (or speak), 765b give me back my legions, 679a God bless all our losses, 30a

Loss and Losses--cont'd. good fortune never good till it is lost, 768a
 good more perceived when it is lost, 498b
 grievous to confess, "I had, but now have nothing," 578b have you lost your judgment as well as your property, 658a he has not lost all who has one cast left, 773a he loseth indeed that loseth at last, 775b he loseth nothing that loseth not God, 775b
 he tint never a cow that grat for a needle, 783a honourable loss better than base
 gain, 619a
 "I have had" is a poor man, 744b
 I have lost, you have won, 353b I laugh not at another's loss, 436a I reely b'lieve it'll prove a savin' in the end, 348b I should have been lost if I had not gone through it, 619b if not known, is no loss, 489b is no shame, 340a lacked and lost, we rack the value, 284b
 laugh not at another's loss, 129b laughter an injury to one who has sustained loss, 551a lesser losses wont to be an advantage, 523a let me know that all is lost, 32b little losses amaze, great tame, 804a live by the loss, 746a lose myself in other men's minds, 192a losing money is begotten of winning, 802a loss of wealth deplored more than loss of friends, 571b loss without (legal) injury, 510b lost and won (or won), 297b, note lost in a thorny wood, 318a lost to sight, to memory dear, 443b lost money mourned with genuine
 tears, 621a
 loved long since and lost awhile, 238b madness after losing all, to lose your passage money, 537a Mark Antony lost the world, 240b measure thy life by loss, 188a men may recover loss of good, 152a men take more pains to lose themselves, 115b
 merchant who loses cannot laugh, 801a mind desires what it has lost, 290b money is only lost through want of money, 811b more than he can lose with pleasure, 162b
 my loss may shine yet goodlier, 353b my senses awake (in sleep) to my
 losses, 660b
 no one knoweth the loss or gain, 151b not lost, but gone before, 455b of wealth a tribulation, 517b of wealth is loss of dirt, 165b of time most grieves, 74b one loss brings another, 811a only the shamefaced lose, 811a praising what is lost, 299a

Loss and Losses—contd.

secure of nothing but to lose the race, 96a shadow of his loss drew like eclipse, 364a shouted, lost, lost, lost, 272a so abruptly gone, 222b sometimes the best gain is to lose, 836a
that which we lose we mourn, 384a
the gambler continues to lose, lest he should lose, 657a the loser pays, 847b there shall never be one lost good, 34b those who have nothing to lose, 42a though we lose fortune we should not lose patience, 858a (losses) to which we are accustomed, 510b
we have lost all, but life is left, 611b we know the value of a thing when lost, 853b we lose by same means we acquire,
489b we must rejoice that we ever had what we lost, 384a well to look at whatever you may lose, 493a
what loss feels he, 26b what is gotten is somewhere lost, 10a whatsoever thing is lost, 102b when we have lost possessions we know their value, 672b while a man gets he never can
lose, 874a
who loses, sins, 875a who may lose, 36a who strive to sit out losing hands, 162b who sustains a loss by his own fault, 508b
who would lose this intellectual being, 217a wise man's loss is his secret, 730a wretched to lose what few possess, 629b
you have lost your money; perhaps it would have lost you, 618a you lose and have no thanks in your loss, 619a you lose it in the moment you detect it, 250b Lot, each thinks his own worst, instead of himself the worst of the lot, 758b enjoy your, 678a how much better your, than mine, 542b
is cast into the urn, 610a who fancies another's, dislikes his own, 508a
Lots, different, our stars accord,
172b drawing (sortes Sanctorum), 661a,
note
Lot's wife, remember, 425a Lothario, that haughty, gallant, gay, 266b Loud, aim of each, to sing, 187a what act that roars so, 295b Louis XIV, le grand monarque, 699b Louis XIV, l'état c'est moi, 696a LOVE
a breach of Reason's Law, 379a a crime to love too well, 254b a duty where I cannot love, 20a a familiar beast, 287a

Love—contd.

a greater law to itself, 638b a heaven, a hell, 17a, 108b a kind of warfare, 577a a little season of love and laughter, 151b a loving heart the beginning of knowledge, 72a
a malady against a cure, 126a a man of war, 164a a mighty pain to love, 94b a miser, friendship a prodigal, 695b a pleasing but various clime, 327b a testament of noble-ending, 316b a thing of anxious fear, 645b a thousand ways of meeting love, 577a
absence puts out little love, kindles the great, 695b absence sharpens, presence strengthens, 731a
acts of kindness and of love, 393b alas for love if (earth) were all, 161b
alas the love of women, 62b all are but ministers of love, 85b all for love and a little for the bottle, 111a all for love, nothing for reward, 340a
all is small save love, 266a all love is sweet, given or returned, 326a
all love lost, but upon God, 129a all must love, 153a all she loves is love, 62b all's fair in love and war, 734a allured by gentle eyes, 504a alternate joy and woe (love's), 61a ambition the only power against
love, 83a
amour fait moult, argent fait tout, 741a analysis kills love, 27a and conversation, 134a and duty clash, 360a and I were well acquainted, 146a and jealousy seldom separated, 805b and lordship like no fellowship, 805b, note
and pots of ale, 263b and scandal, best sweeteners of tea, 134b and sorrow twins, 23a April fools, Love's, 91b are we aught enriched in love and meekness, 395a
artillery, Love's, 104a as many pangs as shells on the shore, 567b
as she walked, let us walk in love, 266a as those we love decay, we die in
part, 371b
as though you would have to hate, 451a, 488b asks faith and faith firmness, 805b at first sight they loved, 76a (loved) at home, revered abroad,
44b because a lady fell in love, 63b begets love, 489b beggary in love that can be reckoned, 307a begins to sicken and decay, 286b begins with deceiving oneself, 389a
begot of love, 169b
below the girdle, 817b best to be off wi' the old love, 439a

Love—contd.

best with a dash of gall, 165b better left than never loved, 92a better to have loved and lost, 362a betters what is best, 394b, 805b between them was mutual love, 543b breaks through all locks, 321a brief as woman's, 295a built on beauty, 120a but a frailty of the mind, 92a by which heaven is ruled, 606a calf-love, half love; old love, cold love, 746b came with pity, 80a can hope, 204a can vanquish Death, 357b cannot perish, 713b caught at love, filled his arms with bays, 376b change all except your loves, 691a cheat of love, 257a chi ama, teme, 805b choose your love and love your choice, 748a clandestine love is sheer ruin, 573a cold pudding settles love, 748b cold, without food and wine, 658a comes in at windows and out by doors, 870b comes one knows not how, and goes in like manner, 695b comforteth like sunshine, 321a commenced at mind's bidding, but not thrown off by it, 489b
common as light is love, 326a conciliated by pleasing manners and form, 580a confessed a mutual love, 255b confounds sense of right and wrong, 126b conquers all, 127a, 489b, 612a cupboard (or cream-pot) love, 609a, 750a
curable by no herbs, 542b dearer than life, 340b deep as first love, 360b delights to place incongruous forms and minds under the yoke, 657b Destiny or Fate fashions love or hate, 200b difficult to love those we do not esteem, 693a disgraceful attachments, 673b disgraceful in an old man, 673a dissembled love, 137b ditties (love) passing rare, 269a doth to her eyes repair, 281b dreams of, seldom true, 88a each man kills the thing he loves, 389a easily satisfied and insatiable, 713b embraces the whole of woman's
life, 711b
endures no tie, 126a enters by gradual familiarisation, 558b exactly like war, 343a extinguished, heaven and earth fail, 182a eyes that seemed to love, 67a fable is love's world, 88b faithful in love and dauntless in war, 270a
false love turns to hate, 365a filial love, 66a fills up all in women's minds, 105a finds admission where science fails, 408b
finds an altar for forbidden fires, 255a

Love—contd.

finds equality or makes fit, 127b first love a little foolishness and a lot of curiosity, 323a first links, love's, 68b first sign of love the last of
 wisdom, 700b
 flies at sight of human ties, 255a flowery path of, 38a follow love it will flee, 762a food seasoned by love will please anyone, 674a forced love does not last, 763a, 836a forced love ne'er did weel, 760a for ever wilt thou love, 185b fostered by despair, endures, 533b found, gained and kept, 34a free as air, 255a French more reasonable than to reason in their loves, 700b friendship constant in all but love, 284a from seeing comes loving, 471a from the moment one loves one becomes so sweet, 692a gather the rose of love, 340a gay love, soon hot, soon cold, 375b gilds the scene, 328a gives way to business, 632a God gives us love, 357b God lends us something to love,
 357b
 God that loves His creatures so,
 340a
 God will not love thee less because men love thee, 374a goes lowly, 169b goes out at the postern, 175a good sanely, bad insantly, 498b grant me thy love, I crave no other fee, 395a greater love hath no man, 426a habit (custom) causes love, 505a had he found in huts, 393b hadst thou loved him half so well as I, 317b had we never loved sae blindly, 48b hail wedded love, 219b happy human race, if love ruled you, 606a
 has a thousand notes, 103b has a thousand ways, 129a has bidden me write, 650b has na luck, 805b has never known a law, 386b he cannot be fervent in love who is not a little cold in friendship, 772a he does not glow with the torch of Venus, 588b he does little who loves by rule, 690b he is in love who protests that he is not, 633a he laughed to scorn, 320b he (Ovid) betrayed the art of loving, 492b he shall be loved, though dead, 528b he would love, and she would not,
 25a hearts in love use their own tongues, 284a
 hide thy love, 192b hind mated to lion, must die for
 love, 299a
 his love was great, though his wit was small, 172a hot love, soon cold, 786b how hot are Love and Hate, 381a

Love—contd.

how many loves worn out in twenty years, 5a how wretched is the man in love, 677a human love needs human merit-
 ing, 369a
 hyperbole comely in nothing but
 love, 9b
 I confess I love, and if that is a sin I confess that, 521b I could not love thee, dear, so much, 200b
 I desire all good men's love, 319a
 I do love, I know not what, 165a
 I do not love the man, 379a I do not love thee, Sabidius, 596a I do receive your offered love,
 297b
 I have not loved wisely, 514b I know all the ways of love, 489b I know not if I know what true love is, 365a
 I love my love, 86a
 I love thee, whatever thou art,
 231b
 I love thee, I love thee, 170b I love you well enough to wring your neck, 695a
 I loved her that she did pity them, 301a
 I loved him too, as woman loves,
 192b
 I loved thee once, 7a
 I may not, must not sing of love,
 272a I will love, write, sigh, pray, sue and groan, 277a
 I will requite your loves, 290b
 I'll love no more, 7a
 I would my love could kill thee,
 351a if I cannot hate I will unwillingly
 love, 608b
 if my love still had influence you would not have denied me, 655a if there be no great love in the beginning, 287a if thou hast any love or mercy, 14b if ye have love one to another, 426a if you shuts him out o' the door, 245a Illicit Love: our bond is not the bond of man and wife, 365b Illicit Love: she was so hungry she would not stay for the parson to say grace, 833b in a hut, with water and a crust, 185a in extremes not enduring, 165a in idleness, 276b in love's wars who fleeth is conqueror, 792b in loving, thou dost well, in passion not, 221a in sin and fear, 59a in truest love it is better to be joined by death than separated in life, 674a in vain, 94b is a boy, 51b is a fiend, 17a is a present for a mighty king, 163a is a sour delight, 379a is a spirit all compact of fire, 320b is all in all, 266a is blind and lovers cannot see, 282b
 is blind but sees afar, 805b

Love—contd.

is credulous, 507a is flower-like, 87a is he that alle thing may binde, 79a is his own avenger, 63b is indestructible, 337a is leche of lyfe, 194a is like the measles, 177a is love for evermore, 358b is love, in beggars as in kings, 436b is maister where he will, 152a is more than great riches, 203a is not bought, 198a is not love, which alters, 322a is not what it used to be, 805b is not where most it is profest, 340a is perfidious, 619a is procured by gold, 494a is so different with us men, 36a is strong as death, 416b is swift of foot, 164a is the fulfilling of the law, 427b is the price of love, 711b is the salt of life, 324b is the true price of love, 805b is too young to know what conscience is, 322a it might be full of love, 210a its charm gone when it is satisfied, 689a
 its familiar voice wearies not ever, 326a jealousy the reward of love, 850b knows no mean, 140a knows no rule, 489b learn thou to love, 194b let brotherly love continue, 430b let in Love and to let out Hate, 330a let our love as endless prove, 164b let those love now, 50a, note, 237a let us live and love, 686a levels all, 127b life is energy of love, 402a life without loving is not really
 life, 709b
 lightly turn to thoughts of love, 358b lights more fire, 387b like a shadow flies, 287b like life, not blessed till the end, 208b like linen, often changed, 139b like mine, must have return, 31b little in our love, 298a lives in cottages as well as courts, 805b looks not with the eyes, 280b lord of folded arms, 277a lost the world for love, 126b lost to love and truth, 44a love all, trust a few, 299a love and a cough cannot be hid,
 805a
 love and business teach eloquence, 805b love and murder will out, 805a love and poverty are hard to hide, 805a
 love and a red nose cannot be hid,
 805a
 love and pride stock Bedlam, 805b love does much, money more, 805b love if you wish to be loved, 656b love me little, love me long, 805b love me, love my dog, 806a love no one and be beloved of none, 586a love not, ye hapless sons of clay, 239a love them for what they are, 87a

Love—contd.

love them that love those that love us, 461*a* love thyself last, 320*a* love while you are able to love, 713*b*
loves and doves, 34*a* loves him with that excellence, 319*b*
love's fire, once out, is hard to kindle, 806*a* love's law is out of rule, 152*a* lukewarmness a sin in love, 94*b* made the world, 489*b* madrigals of love, 145*a* magic of first love, 117*a* majesty and love do not agree, 596*a*
make music of my loves, 607*a* maker of suspicions, 805*b* makes a beast a man; a man a beast, 288*a* makes a cottage a palace of gold, 711*b*
makes a good eye squint, 805*b* makes all equal, 805*b* makes all hearts gentle, 805*b* makes all old but true, 68*b* makes all pains light, 15*a* makes clever hands, 805*b* makes eloquent, 208*a* makes men's manners foolish and captious, 596*b* makes one fit for any work, 805*b* makes people inventive, 695*b* makes time pass, 695*b*, note man loves only once, 807*a* man's love, 62*a* man's, once gone, never returns, 364*b*
many waters cannot quench love, 416*b*
master of all arts, 805*b* may be expelled by other love, 128*b*
may our loves remain like lilies, 193*b*
me less or love me more, 147*a* me little, love me long, 208*a* me little so you love me long, 164*b* medicines to make me love him, 313*b*
meditation or the thoughts of
love, 291*b*
men have not died for love, 289*b* men love us, or they need our love, 186*b*
money the sinews of love, 811*b* most concealed, most obvious, 107*b*
most loving mere folly, 289*a* much that I love, 100*a* much to be loved, 57*b* music an incitement to love, 554*b* mutual love, 93*b* my love as deep (as the sea), 278*b* my love, he loves another love, 435*a* my love, my life, my heart, 165*a* my love of thee, 351*b* my only love sprung from my only hate, 278*b* natural in a young man, a crime in an old man, 488*b* never doubt I love, 292*b* new love bonny a little while, 439*a* (is) nexte oure lorde selve, 194*a* no folly to being in love, 816*a* no heaven like mutual love, 152*b* no lapse of moons can canker
love, 362*a*
no love is foul, 816*a* no man can be wise and love, 164*a*

Love—contd.

no man can temper the measures of love, 152*a*
no man dies for, but on the stage, 126*a*
no man ever truly loved who was not generous, 20*b* no one is loved unless fortune favours him, 516*a* no passages of love, 365*a* no pleasure (in love) when not secret, 20*b*
none knew thee but to love thee, 156*b*
none without hope, 15*a* not curable by any herbs, 574*b* not found in the market, 805*b* not in our power to love or hate, 208*a*
not lost in ambition, 1*a* not safe to despise love's ordinances, 638*a* not that I loved Caesar less, 286*a* not to be reasoned down, 1*a* not wisely but too well, loved, 303*a*
nothing grows again more easily, 591*a*
nothing in life like making love, 173*a*
nothing pleasant without love
and laughter, 658*a*
now I know what love is, 605*a* O Love, on thy sowle God have mercy, 436*a* O lyric love, 35*a* O unexampled love, 218*a* occupation for a man who does not want to be slothful, 633*a* o'er head and ears, a forked one, of a woman and a bottle of wine not lasting, 847*b* of gold, meanest of amours, 406*a* of life's young day, 237*a* of love, 356*b*
309*b*
of soup and love the first is best,
819*b*
Oh, if thou lovest, 192*b* old love does not rust, 863*a* old, little worth, when new is preferred, 341*a* old love renewed again, 748*b* old loves kindle at all seasons, 820*a* once extinguished, 160*a* once fled never returns, 20*b* once gone, goes for ever, 23*b* once more aroused, rages in her breast, 555*b* one hour of right-down love, 274*a*, note
one jot of former love, 121*a* one loves people for honest fondness, 244*b*
one maiden only, 366*a* one should always be in love, 389*a* only a wise man knows how to
love, 660*b*
over-hot soon cools, 836*a* pain and pleasure always at strife, 554*a* pangs of despised love, 293*b* parents' love, 31*a* partly with love, 44*b* passing the love of women, 410*a* penance for continuing love, 281*a* pennyweight of love worth a pound of law, 726*b*
people love and hate without
reason, 704*a*
perfect love casteth out fear, 431*a* pick much oakum for love, 29*b*

Love—contd.

place and the loved one, 365 pleasurable feeling of blind love 392*b*
Pleasure calls for Love, 3*b* prays devoutly, 172*b* pretence of is worse than hatred, 618*a* pretending to be in love, 512*a* prize of learning love, 34*b* purple light of love, 154*a* quarrels off in pleasing concord end, 223*b*
queen of love doth never punish perjuries, 210*b* rather let me love than be in love, 240*b*
reason and love keep little company, 280*b*
reason of all unreasonable actions, 127*b*
reckons hours for months, 129*a* refines the thoughts, 221*a* regent of love-rhymes, 277*a* remove idleness and Cupid's artillery perishes, 614*b* repented of his love, 15*a* right is with the strongest in love, 699*b*
robs us of our ease, 129*a* rocks (or spots) in your love-
feasts, 431*a*
rules the court, 272*a* rules without law, 806*a* rules without sword, binds without cord, 806*a* said a love-match was the only thing, 130*a*
say not you love a roasted fowl, 402*b*
scarce love, without forgiving, 387*a* scorn no man's love, 163*a* second life, 1*a* seldom haunts the breast where learning lies, 255*b* service, love's, is in vain, 338*a* shackles of an old love, 365*b* she enters other realms of love, 362*a*
she ne'er loved who durst not venture all, 128*a* she never told her love, 297*b* she who has never loved, 143*a*
should not be all on one side, 764*a* shut our eyes, 32*a* side-long looks of love, 147*b* sighs such as folk draw in love, 346*b*
silence in love, 262*b* smiles the food of love, 221*a* so cruel in your love, 636*b* so lightly plighted, 351*b* so loving and lovely, 62*b* so loving-jealous, 279*a* so loving to my mother, 290*b* soft captivity of love, 1*b* soft eyes looked love, 54*b* some stuff to make me love him, 334*a*
some we loved, the loveliest, 136*a* sometimes hurtful, 489*a* sorry her lot who loves too well, 145*a* sought is good, 298*a* speaks nae ill, 806*a* spīrat adhuc amor, 662*a* still is Nature's truth, 383*a* stops at nothing but possession, 335*a*
strong as death, 254*b* such love as spirits feel, 396*a* sweet is true love, 365*b*

Love—contd.

sweetness, goodness, love, 227b sweets and bitters of, 59b, 639a take love from life and you take away its pleasures, 704b talking of love is making it, 839a tangled in amorous nets, 222b tell love it is but lust, 262a tell me, my heart, if this be love, 204a
 thank heaven, fasting for a good
 man's love, 289b
 that dies untold, 168b that I had loved a smaller man, 365a that is hidden, 415a that lives a day, 351b that method in love, 68a that scorns the lapse of time, 69a that took an early root, 165b that was a god, and is a lawyer's clerk, 358a that you may be loved be amiable, 659a that's linked with gold, 173b the ambassador of loss, 368b the bloomless bower, 351b the course of true love, 280b the end of my loves, 576b the god of love, 77a the history of a woman's life; an episode in man's, 695b the important business of your life, 204a
 the jolly touch of love, 281b the jolly wo, 152b the ladder of two steps, 203b the leaves live for love, 686b the less hope there is, the more I love, 630b
 the light of love, 56b the little God of Love, turn the spit, 446a
 the liver compels one to love, 662a the love that you're so rich in, 446a the marrow of friendship, 175a the most serious thing, 343a the only present love demands is
 love, 143b
 the pain of being loved, 258b the pest of love, 184b the secret sympathy, 272a the same in all, 489b, 551b
 the slave of Love and Hate, 265a the truth of truths, 14a the very ecstasy of love, 292b the weightier business of mankind, 83b there is more pleasure in loving than in being loved, 855a there is no creature loves me, 319b there is none other I can love, 365a these evils in love, warfare and then peace again, 551a these evils in love, affronts, suspicions, enmities, truces, war, 551a they love too much that die for
 love, 857a
 they only conquer love, 70a they sang of love, and not of fame, 355b
 they who inspire it are most fortunate, 326a they who love most are least set
 by, 857a
 this bud of love, 278b those who feel it most are happier still, 326a
 those who love deeply cannot age, 244b those who never loved, 50a

Love—contd.

those whom he loved so long and sees no more, 265a thou doubtful pleasure, 153a thou hast left thy first love, 431b through all ills, 233a thy, is better than high birth to
 me, 322a
 thy master now, or once or in the future (Love), 706b time makes love pass, 695b, note 'tis the hour of love, 63a to be able to say how much is to love little, 714b to be loved, needs only to be known, 125a to be wise and eke to love, 341a to be wise and love, 298b to be wise and, hardly granted to
 gods, 126b
 to change old for new, 242a to enjoy her love, or to dominate, 121b to hatred turned, 92b to her ear was but a name, 269b to live with thee and be thy love, 262a to love and be beloved, 345b to love amiss better than to love
 nothing, 102b
 to love the wise scarcely given to a
 god, 488b
 to love and to cherish, 433a to love her a liberal education, 342a to love is human, and to forgive, 547a to reason about love is to lose reason, 706b
 to see her was to love her, 48b to rise it stoops (love's way), 34b to what do you not compel mortal hearts, 550b
 tongue (love's) in the eyes, 140a too divine to love, 215b took up the harp of Life, 358b topmost peak, love's, 7a trembling at the brim, 32a true love and friendship are the same, 371b true love appears in time of need, 721a true, the gift of God to man alone, 272a true love never grows cold, 863a truly loves on to the close, 231a turns to sourest hate, 312b two fond hearts, in equal love, 15a two human loves, 31a type of true love kept under, 147a tyrant of the soul, 195b unconquered in battle, 471b unimpaired by disputes, 531a unless we also learn to love, 393a unrewarded, sickens, 230a us now and then, love, 121a us that trade in love, 307b use him as though you loved him, 378a ut ameris, ama, 676b Venus, cruel mother of the desires,
 574a very few to love, 392a very fruitful of honey and gall, 489b was not this love indeed, 298a we are easily duped by what we
 love, 704a
 we freely love him whom it was our duty to love, 538b we love being in love, 367a we loved in vain, 61a

Love—contd.

we must love as looking one day to hate, 866b we needs must love the highest,
 366a
 we remember love ourself, 360b we that had loved him so, 36a weak childish bow, love's, 277b well-timed love, not a fault, 1b what a recreation to be in love, 90b what bounds are there to love, 574b what does not love compel, 636b what does not shameless love dare, 595a what is the love of men, 243b what may we not hope when in
 love, 637a
 (love) what most deserves their
 love, 139b
 whatever she say, I should love her the more, 327b when a man talks of love, 240a when I love thee not, 301b when it is auld it waxeth could,
 439a when love cools our faults are seen, 870a
 when love once pleads admission, 1b when we love we live, 92b where I like I love, 873a where I love, I profess it, 212a where I'm beloved, I cannot love, 51b where love's in the case the doctor's an ass, 816a where love is, there is the eye, 843b where love shows but one shaft, 352a where scorn is bought with groans, 281a where there is much love there is much mistake, 873b who early loves, 95a who ever loved that loved not at first sight, 289b, note who has love in his heart has spurs in his side, 875a who let men know, love least,
 281a
 who love too much, hate, 257b who love most say least, 364b who loves his fellow men, 175b who loves me, must have a touch of earth, 365a who loveth nought is here as dede, 709b, note
 who plunges into love is lost, 632a who shall scape his bow? 164a whom we love best, to them we can say least, 876a whoso loves believes the impossible, 30a whoso loveth me loveth my bound, 234b will break my heart, 48b will creep where it cannot go, 806a will find its way, 56b will find out the way, 436a will hallow all work, 333b will make a dog howl, 138b will make an ass dance, 806a will not be constrained, 78a will not be drawn, but must be led, 341a will still be lord of all, 272b wine and love, 475b winning love, we run the risk of losing, 157a wisdom of fools in love, 93b

Love—contd.

with gall and hony doth abound, 340b
 with oaths of love, 283a with thee I would live and die, 669a without return, is like question without answer, 806a woman wakes to love, 365a woman's love writ in water, 7a would not love, though she saw heaven in flower, 351a would prove so hard a master, 25a wrath always a liar in love, 551a ye cannot fly from love, 151b you all did love him once, 286a you drink to your true love, 461b you must love him ere he will seem worthy of love, 400a (love's) young dream, 231a your manager is in love; yea he loveth, 277a (love's) zone unbuckled, 32a See Lovers

Love-locks flowing, 266a

LOVELINESS and LOVELY

a lovely and fearful thing, 62b as lovely as a Lapland night, 399b die of their own dear loveliness, 326a glory and the glow of the world's loveliness, 258b its loveliness increases, 184b loveliest of lovely things, 37a loveliness is enough, 37b lovely or divine, 49b made lovely to be loved again, 160a majesty of loveliness, 56b meek loveliness is round thee spread, 396a
 needs not foreign aid of ornament, 369b she's lovely, she's divine, 213a they were lovely in their lives, 67a things, always doing, 209a those lovely sweet innocent creatures, 382b whatso looks lovelily, 368b whatsoever things are lovely, 429b

LOVERS

a freeborn lover's mind, 239b a lover forsaken a new love may get, 274b, 377b a lover shuns business, 98b a lover without sighing, 4b a lover's feelings not understood by one who has not loved, 584a a man may woo where he will,
 725a a true lover a miracle, 92a all mankind love a lover, 132b anger of lovers soon over, 476a angry lover tells himself lies, 488b are given to poetry, 289a are madmen, 488b at lovers' perjuries Jove laughs, 619b bitin' and scratchin' is Scots folk's wooing, 745a blessed the wooing not long a-doing, 745a even if hungry (lovers) are not hungry at all, 631b every lover gives words, 680b every lover is engaged in war, 577a examine carefully what it is you
 love, 629a
 grow cold, 31a happy the wooing not long in doing, 771b hardest science to forget, 255a

Lovers—contd.

he is no lover who does not love for ever, 477a he that woos a maid, and he that woos a widow, 782b hope a lover's staff, 281b how silver-sweet sound lovers'
 tongues, 279a listlessness and silence denote lovers, 488b live by love, as larks by leeks, 806a loses a lover, 149b loved to plead, lament, and sue,
 270a lovers' quarrels are soon adjusted, 806a lovers' perjuries, 126a, 210b, 278b, 562a lovers' purses are tied with cobwebs, 806a make two lovers happy, 258a never lover who could speak what was for his own interest, 604b no hiding from lovers' eyes, 105a not becoming to a lover to love gain, 568a
 oft the words come forth awrie, 346b quarrels of, a renewal of love, 488b remembers all things, 575b some (women) are great lovers, 121b the four S's of a lover, 850a
 the last suitor wins the maid, 847a the lover, all as frantic, 281a the lover sighing like a furnace, 289a the Lovers' Alphabet, 850a, note the lunatic, the lover and the poet, 281a though she burns, she delights in tormenting her lover, 491b (lovers) to bed; 'tis almost fairy
 time, 281a
 to some newer lover, 143a true lovers run into strange capers, 288b Venus favours the well-moneyed suitor, 524b vows, lovers', 20a, 58a what a woman tells her lover should be written in the wind, 581a what can lovers wish for more, 275a which of her lovers ever found her true, 408a whispering lovers, 147b who can deceive a lover, 638b who can give laws to lovers, 638b who may woo without cost, 875b women love the lover in their first passions, 691b

LOW, LOWLY and LOWLINESS

be lowly wise, 220b condescend to things that are lowly, 427a
 dost thou lie so low, 286a feared the low, hated the stuck
 up, 384b
 flower of sweetest smell is shy and lowly, 394a
 lowliness is young ambition's ladder, 285b lowly heart doth win the love of all, 374a
 speak low if you speak love, 284a still to the lowly soul, 186b they build too low who build beneath the stars, 407b 'tis better to be lowly born, 319b
 we should be low and lowly, 194b weep when I am low, 61a

Low, Lowly, and Lowliness—contd.

when the theme is low, 244b you pitch the pipe too low, 358a Lowe, Robert, 527a, note here lie the bones of Robert, 458a Lowness: nothing can be lower than you, 596a
LOYAL and LOYALTY a loyal heart may be landed under Traitors' bridge, 724b each man to other, loyal, 194b half-loyal to command, 365b his loyalty he kept, 220a leal heart lied never, 799b loyalty but a word, 210b that learned body wanted loyalty, 372b the name of loyalty, 275a who can be loyal and neutral, 304a worth more than money, 806a Lubbers, lingering, lose many a penny, 374b
 Lubin, Frère, le fera bien, 705b Luce, ex, Lucellum, 527a, note Lucem et pocula sacra, 543b Lucerne, the towers of old, 397b Lucifer, falls like, 320a son of the morning, 417a

LUCK

against a lucky man even a god scarcely has power, 505b an ounce of, better than a pound of wisdom, 736b, 795a and extravagance, 43b bad, often brings good luck, 740a better be born lucky than wise, 742a diligence avails nothing where luck is wanting, 793a give a man luck and throw him into the sea, 765a good, comes by cuffing, 768b good courage breaks bad luck, 768a good, gets on by elbowing, 768b good, reaches further than long arms, 768b
 good things come to some when
 they are asleep, 768b
 hit or miss; luck is all, 785b if it be my luck, so, 287b ill luck is good for something, 792a in bad, hold out; in good, hold in, 792b in odd numbers, 201a is a lord, 806a love has na luck, 805b luck's all, 64b makes courage, 712b more by fortune than by merit, 308b
 more by luck than good guiding,
 812a
 nae luck about the house, 214b never knew the luck too good to share, 446b shallow men believe in luck, 132b son of a white hen (a lucky person), 487a the fortunate alone are the wise, 844b the more knave the better luck, 848b
 the unfortunate are counted fools, 852b who has no ill-luck gets tired of
 good, 778b
 with a lucky man all things are lucky, 551a you never know your luck, 880a See Ill-luck, 262b, Fortune Lucky day, a, 310a Lucky words, with, 226a

Lucre, greedy of filthy, 430a of renown, 230a rack their brains for, 60a Lucullus, feasts of, 452b Lucius a non lucendo, 568b, note Lucy light, shortest day, O.S., 463a Luddites rise, who makes the, 331a Ludgate, by the lord of, 108b Luitolfo, 31b
Luke, St., was a saint and physician, yet he is dead, 830b Lukewarmness I account a sin, 94b I would thou wert cold or hot,
431b
Lull of the treacherous sea, 173b Lumber, loads of learned, 247b Luminary, arose another, 40a Luminosity, grew one, 35b Lunacies, of all the, 26b Lunatic, the lover, and the poet, 281 Lunch, rest after, 623a Lunes, in his old, again, 287b Lungs began to crow like Chanti-cleer, 288b of London, 455a
the heaving of my, 277a Lurch, I will not leave thee in the,
51a
Lures, to flay alive, 63a Lust, a man abandoned to every,
485a and wine plead a pleasure, 162b cold commanded, 191a Lustful appetite, taste of, 222a Lustre, changed in outward, 216a I have lost much, 222b Lute, I blame not my, 403b I never learned to play on a, 447b player, some dead, 350b rift within the, 364b the lascivious pleasing of a, 318a Luther, Martin, 368a and Calvin, 25a, 449b and Mohammed, 120a destroyed the roof, 671b the monk that shook the world, 230a the words of, at Diet of Worms,
713a Luther's shoes do not fit every village priest, 753a Lutheran, a spleeny, 320a Lux, fiat, 532a LUXURY and LUXURIES
a luxury to be, 86a
a scene whose luxuries stole, 232b a vice of the times, 686a, note falsely luxurious, will not man awake, 369a
far-fetched and dear-bought is good for ladies, 760a luxury and riot, 222a luxury combined with public poverty, 539b
more cruel than warfare, 604b partial luxury began strife, 156b tears a luxury only to the happy, 232b the age corrupted with vile luxury, 624a the dainties of the great are the tears of the poor, 849b the luxury of doing good, 147a the superfluous, a very necessary
thing, 449b
thinks it luxury, 1b
what will not luxury taste, 142b Lycidas sunk low, so, 226b Lydford law, first hang and then hear the case, 806b, note Lydia, in heart a, 444a Lydian measures, in, 126a Lydius lapis (a touch-stone), 569a

Lying a kind of self-denying, 51b See Lies, Liars
Lyon (bon) pour avoir, 705a Lyre, Milton's golden, 3a waked to ecstasy the living, 153b Lysander, the principle of, 8b

M

M. W. (Machen wir), 819a Mab, Queen, hath been with you, 278a Macassar, thine incomparable oil, 61b Macaulay like a book in breeches,
333b
Macedonia, come over into, 426b Macedonia's madman, 250a Machiavel, Nick, 52a Machiavel, we are beholden to, 8a Machiavell on Fortune, 161a Machiavellians, fate of, 129a Machinery, Age of, 71b MacGregor shall flourish for ever,
273b
Macgregor, my name is, 274a Mackerel to catch a whale, 865b Macle virtute, 569a, 569b MAD, MADNESS, MADMEN a lovable madness, 488b a mad beast must have sober driver, 724b a pleasure sure in being mad, 128a all are, except the wise, 557a all men are mad, 517b Allah created the English mad,
190a as a hatter, 738b at some time we have all been mad, 547b
either mad or making poetry, 495a every insane person believes other people mad, 557a
fools accounted his life madness, 419a
for mad words deaf ears, 763a from life's history, 169a good to profit by madness of others, 487b, 613b greater madman, have mercy on a
less, 607a
half the nation mad, 334b he would only seem insane to a few, 594b heroically mad, 123b his madness was not of the head, 57b if men would be mad conformably, 13b in great ones, 294a in the judgment of the mob, 513a it is pleasant to go mad, 557a let me prove you all mad, 547a like madness in the brain, 87a Liquid Madness, 71a
mad dogs cannot live long, 806b madman and fool no great witnesses, 724b madman is as an absent person, 537a midsummer madness, 298a moon-struck madness, 221b ne'er put a sword in a madman's
hand, 814a
no genius without madness, 451b, 604a north-north-west, 293a not madness that I have uttered, 296a of one makes many mad, 675b one mad action does not prove a man mad, 822a

Mad, Madness, Madmen—contd.
parish (mad) must have a mad priest, 724b people think others mad, 806b punished by his own madness, 537a some believed him mad, 19a some did count him mad, 39a sorts of, innumerable, 573b that fine madness, 121a that he is mad 'tis true, 292b that way madness lies, 306a the one thet fust gits mad, 202a they are mad and have no shame, 352b though this be madness, yet there is method in it, 292b thrust, madman's, 97b to build a house for fools and
mad, 348a
what madness has possessed you, 628b when a divinity would work evil to a man, he deprives him of his senses, 476a who would hang his dog gives out that he is mad, 782b whom God will destroy he drives mad, 631a, 876a why, the man's mad, 33b with motive and method, 557a with the mad it is necessary to be mad, 588a
wits to, madness near allied 122b worst of madmen, a saint run
mad, 253a
you are mad, and almost all men are fools, 557a
you poison unsound minds if you feed them, 865a
Made and loveth all, He, 86b Madonna-wise, locks, on either side, 356b Mæcenas, descended from ancient
kings, 569b let there be Mæcenases, Virgils will not be wanting, 658b Mæonian star (Homer), 247b MAGIC and MAGICIANS raise no more spirits than you can conjure down, 829a the magic of his tongue, 370b the magician mutters and knows not what, 847b under the wand of the magician
245a universe full of magical things, 244a MAGISTRACY, MAGISTRATES
a justice and his clerk, a blind
man and his dog, 327b
a speaking law, 569b are to obey as well as execute laws, 806b
citizens obey magistrates; magistrates, the laws, 503a for want of good men they made my father justice of the peace, 762b he that buyeth magistracy must sell justice, 776b it's the clerk makes the Justice, 797b keep thyself out of the magistrate's claws, 374a ministers of the laws, 565a rural magistrates, 193b the office makes the man, 849a true and lawful magistrate, 317b weddings and magistracy arranged by heaven, 808b Magistratus indicat virum, 569b

MAGNANIMITY

heap coals of fire upon his head, 414b in politics, 40a the eagle suffers little birds to sing, 276a to be able to injure but to have no desire to, 595a Magnet, attracting all like a, 477a Magnificat at matins, 861b to correct the, 861b Magnificence, remains of rude, 269b Magnificent out of the dust, 381b Magnifique, mais ce n'est pas la guerre, 690a Magnum in parvo, 571a Magnum pauperies opprobrium, 571a Magpies: one unlucky, etc., 463a Mahogany Tree, the, 368a Mahomet and the mountain, 789b to Moses, 258b Mahometanism: a Persian's heaven, 232a to carnage and the Koran given, 232b

MAIDENS, MAIDS

a maiden fair to see, 200a a maiden never bold, 300b
 a maiden is a tender thing, 364b a maid whom there were few to praise, 392a a maid that paragons description, 301a a simple maiden in her flower, 357b chariest maid is prodigal enough, 291a hearts, maidens', 37b I sing to maids and boys, 683b, note let simple maid the lesson read, 49a like moths, 53a Maid of Athens, 61a maid that giveth yieldeth, 724b maiden meditation, 280b maidens withering on the stalk, 394a maids who love the moon, 230b meek as is a maid, 76b more maids than Maukin, 854a no maiden more worthy of the Muses, 516a of bashful fifteen, 328b rare and radiant maiden, 245b scater of your maiden presence, 291b that orb'd maiden, 326b the maiden herself will steal after it soon, 231a the maid who fancies every man, 263b when maidens sue, men give like gods, 299b women dying maids, lead apes in hell, 820a See Girls
 Maiden speech, which all men praise, 258b Maiden sword, fleshed thy, 315a Maiden, who invented the first, hannelled it, 779a Maidservants and the "ologies," 71a Mail, the wicked in their dazling, 397b, note Main (chance), an eye to the, 203a Main in his head, he's got a, 111b skims along the, 247a Maintenance: that which maintains me I esteem as a god, 479b Mair, will whiles do, 47a Majestas at amor, 596a
 Majestic though in ruin, 217a

Majestical, being so, 290a Majesty and love do not agree, 596a here's a health unto his, 461a that still appeared amid the wreck, 337b Majora canamus, 617a Majora viribus audes, 639a MAJORITY and MAJORITIES ain't that a big enough majority, 84b decision by majorities, an expedient, 147a safer with multitudes to stray, 239a the best repartee, a majority, 117a the great majority, 408b the majority are bad, 475b with good cause, a majority negligent, 349b Maker, more pure than his, 411a of them all, the Lord is the, 414b Maker's image undefaced, 88a Making things he doesn't want, 159a Malcontent, like a melancholy, 320b Malcontents, liege of all loiterers and, 277a the Mars of, 287b Male parium male disperit, 572a Malevolence, insult him with, 39b let our friends perish if our enemies perish with them, 619a MALICE and all uncharitableness, 432a and injustice, 40b assuage their malice, 432a blind, and can disparage only good qualities, 499a deep malice to conceal, 218b detraction and spite eagerly listened to, 608a feeds on the living only, 616a is cunning, 533b is mindful, 807a kinder to old things than to modern, 621b leaven of malice and wickedness, 432a making up in malice for want of age, 572b may darken truth, but cannot put it out, 858a may obscure (laws), 124b more malice than matter, 812b much malice mingled with a little wit, 124b never was his aim, 348a nor set down aught in malice, 303a of a good thing is the barb, 328b of one man, becomes the ill report of all, 572b of woman, 420b quotes text and not context, 558b she is pleased if thou lament, 436b
 'tis malice, 'tis revenge, 'tis pride, 326b who keeps malice harbours a viper in his breast, 779b Malignant, poverty makes men, 205a Malignity of apostates, 206b Mal-information hopeless, 90b Malis, tu ne cede, 672b Malt, slow fire makes sweet, 728a, 835a they may sit in the chair that have malt to sell, 857a Mammon, God and, 421b led me on, 90b led them on, 216b of unrighteousness, 425a pale, 251b wins his way, 53a Mammonism, Midas-eared, 73a

Management of myself, leaves me little to do as regards, 160b Manages the house, my sister, 160b Mangled matter, take up this, 301a Manna, his tongue dropped, 217a Manners, catch the, living, 248a evil communications corrupt good, 428b MAN, MEN, MANKIND a bear in most relations (man), 190b a beast when shame stands off from him, 352b a devil to man, 545b a friend of mankind, 489a a gaming animal (man), 192a a man after his own heart, 410a a man's a man for a' that, 49a a man's a man, though he hath but a hose on his head, 725b a man before thy mother, 102b, 139a a man beloved, a man elect of men, 354a a man we ken, 49b a miracle to man, 405a a new man (homo novus), 545b a poor thing (man) unless he can rise above himself, 105b a proper man, 280b a religious animal, 41b
 a secret world of wonders, 370a a thousand kinds of men, 577a a toad-eating animal, 159b a tool-making animal, 140b able to trust one another (men), 195a ah for a man to arise in me, 363b all divine save the spirit of man, 56b all mankind beholden to him that is kind to the good, 733a all mankind's epitome, 123a all men fools and scarcely different from each other, 708a all sorts and conditions of men, 432a all that may become a man, 304a all the windy ways of men, 359b all this scene of man, 248a all virtuous and vicious, 249a always happier for having been happy, 332b an embodied paradox, 91a and bird and beast, 86b (man) and his greatness survive, 380b and his littleness perish, 380b and his marvels pass away, 274a and men decay, 148a and men fell out, 50b as proper a man as ever trod neat's leather, 285a as the man beholds the woman, 260b as they ought to be, not as they are (men), 149a assurance of a man, 295b at some time are masters of their fates, 285b be a man, 5b be strong and quit yourselves like men, 410a being but mere man, 35a better than they seem, 133a bind together the whole family of Adam, 368a born a man, died a grocer, 6b breathes there the man with soul so dead, 272b brutes without woman (men), 240a by courtesy a man, 6b

Man, Men, Mankind—contd.

by keeping men off you keep them on, 143a by nature a civic animal, 68b by nature false, 240a can man be free if woman be a slave, 326b chief business of, is to speak, 344a children of a larger growth, 128b cognisance of men and things, 33a competes with man, 69a crossed with adversity, 281b daily in danger from man, 482b daring all things rushes through the forbidden, 493b dearer to the gods than to himself, 584a differ (men) as Heaven and Earth, 365a diffused infection of a man, 318a distrust mankind, 404b
 divinity in mankind, 29a do all things like a man, 162b do wi' au auld man, 48b dominion, man's, 44a equal, unclassed, tribeless, nationless, 326a every man is a little world, 757a every man is as God made him, 757a everyone as God has made him, and often much worse, 449a false man hath sworn, 274b fat, oily man of God, 371a felt as a man, 19b fickle man, 48a fie, there is no such man, 302b finer than his speech (man), 133a for the field, 360b frailties of mankind, 105a, 681a gently scan your brother man, 45a genuine offspring of revolt, 97a glory, jest, and riddle of the world, 248b God made man erect to contemplate the heavens, 614a God makes the man, 766b, 767a godlike men, 54a gods make wondrous sport with men, 578a gods treat us like balls, 514b good and bad, all stamped with king's image, 365b good men and true, 284b Good Lord, what is Man, 45b grand cure of miseries of mankind, 71a great Nature made us men, 203a greatest enemy to man, 49b hardness and dulness of the human heart, 606b he knew the manners of many men, 478a he strove to shun men, 103a he was a man, take him for all in all, 290b heaven-illuminated man, 44b here lies a truly honest man, 104a high-minded men, 182a his prey was man, 254a His wondrous works, but chiefly man, 218b how complicate, how wonderful, 404b how contemptible, unless he can raise himself, 607b how dull and how insensible is man, 122b how little do we know mankind, 65b how one man excels another, 514b how weak and yet how vain, 344b

Man, Men, Mankind—contd.

how wretched are the minds of men, 607a human affairs a laughing-stock, 645b I am a man, nothing human is foreign to me, 546a I am in search of a man, 545a
 I have known the manners of men, 602a
 I have seen cities, but have not studied men, 676a I have tried not to ridicule or lament, but to understand mankind, 652a I must also feel it as a man, 305a if there were no knives and fools all the world would be alike, 790a if man were constant, he were perfect, 281b if you despise mankind and mortal arms, 654b ignorant of fate (mankind), 590b in high place, men thrice servants, 9b in the catalogue ye go for men, 304b in the original perused mankind, 4a inconstant, careless man, 138b Injustice tramples o'er mankind, 256b invite their own ruin, 224a is a noble animal, 29a is a summer's day, 376a is a wolf, 545b is either god or wolf to man, 545b is God's image, 163a is Heaven's masterpiece, 261a is his own star, 137a is man and master of his fate, 364b is man's A.B.C., 261b is Nature's sole mistake, 145b is not man as yet, 31a is one world, 163b is the nobler growth, 15a is to man a deity, 468b is what he knoweth, 9a it is not fair to compare men with gods, 586b I've studied men from my topsy-turvy, 213b knew men and nations, 257a law of mankind (jus naturale), 562b lawless man, the anvil dares profane, 355a leave a man undone, 48b leave mankind unknown, 82a let him pass for a man, 282a lord of all things, yet a prey to all, 248b love, man's, 62a
 love and pity for the race, 329a made for joy and woe, 23b made for kings, 69a magnificent out of the dust we came, 381b makes a death which Nature never made, 406a man a social animal, 659b man-beast the cruellest foe, 18b man and wife the greatest monster, 92a man and wife, that moral centaur, 64a man delights not me, 293a man ever dearer to man than an angel, 711a man has his will, woman her way, 168b man in the street, 132b, note, 455a

Man, Men, Mankind—contd.

man in the street : wisdom crieth aloud in the street, 413b man in the street, wisdom uttereth her voice in the streets, 413b
 man is a bundle of habits, 807a man is fire and woman tow, 807a man of the world, a beast I hate, 181b man of the world, inglorious style, 407b man perennially interesting to man, 454b man proposes, God disposes, 807a, note man, proud man, 299b man would have been the incloser, 162a man's the gowd for a' that, 49a man the worst animal, 840b man to be a God to man, 13a mankind and humanity, 23a man's fate and woman's, continuing powers, 204b men may be read, as well as books, too much, 250b men may come and men may go, 359b men may say more, swear more, 298a men and women merely players, 288b men are men : the best sometimes forget, 301b men are not angels, 33b men are rare, 810a men are we and must grieve, 396b men's affairs hang by a slender thread, 612a men, much of a muchness, 130b Men who Understand, 26a men work and think, but women feel, 266a men would be false were women never so fair, 203b mere man, 35a, 458b might be a god to his brother man, 545b miracle of men, 315a (men) more godlike when gods were more human, 710b most a dash between the two, 213b most beware of man, 247b most men are bad, 447a most pernicious race of little odious vermin, 347a multitude of years taught wisdom to mankind, 335a must work, 189a my favourite study, man, 24a (men) never mount as high as women, 365a never transgressed by aspiring to similitude of God, 8b
 no living man, all things can, 816a no mortal is wise at all times, 589a no trust, no faith, no honesty in man, 279b not a man ungently made, 394b not a reasonable creature, 385a not God above gets all men's love, 818a not men, but manners, 135a not men, but measures, 30b not truly one (man), but truly two, 344b not worth a moment's pain, 152b nothing appertaining to mankind is foreign to me, 546a nothing difficult to mortals, 594a nothing else interesting but man, 454b nothing great but man, 156b

Man, Men, Mankind—contd.

nothing more proud and wretched than man, 660a now as a man, now as a woman, 579a
 O for a living man to lead, 244a
 O that I were a man for his sake, 285a of baser earth, man, didst make, 136b of like passions with you, 426b of man's first disobedience, 215b of straw worth a woman of gold, 725a oh for a man with head, heart, hand, 363b one man as good as another, 367b one man is no man, 471a one who loves his fellow-men, 175b only man is vile, 160a only, men, disagree, 217b origin of mankind unknown, 28b our page has reference to man, 545a outward semblance of a man, 112a Plato's definition of a man, 448a play the man, 163a precious to man, 72b preservation of laws the bond of mankind, 479a primitive man was more hardy in the fields, 537b proneness to meddle in others' affairs, 561a propensity of, to barter, 330b proper study of mankind is man, 248b purblind race of miserable men, 364b querulous creatures, 88a read books and men, 342b render to all their due, remembering thou art a man, 373b seeks his own good, 31b shortest of men, 16a smiling, destructive man, 195b so bravely played the man, 39a so great, so mean is man, 407a so much can one man do, 208b speak of a man as you find him, 836b spleen to mankind, 256b studied men, their manners and their ways, 255b survey mankind from China to Peru, 177b that heaven had made her such a man, 300b that is born of a woman, 411b, 433a that is not passion's slave, 294b that man resembled thee, 229a that man that hath a tongue, 281b that piebald miscellany, 360b that wild beast, 268b the cause of women not loving each other, 702a the enemy of lies, 73a the foremost man of all this world, 286b the hermit, man, 66b the little god of the world, the same as ever, 711a the majority of men are bad, 475b the man forget not, 3a the man recovered of that bite, 149b the measure of all things, 468b the mockery of human affairs, 630a the more I see of men the more I admire dogs, 705b

Man, Men, Mankind—contd.

the only growth that dwindles (man), 147b the smallest part of nothing, 408b the spice and salt that season a man, 298b the unwearied climber, 380b there lived a man, and who was he, 229a there too are men and women, 266a there's nought so queer as folk, 854a they say that man is mighty, 376b think their little set mankind, 234a this man, continue to adore him, 32a this was a man, 287a those that want and those that have, 358a thou art the man, 410a Thou madest man, he knows not why, 362a though men be of same metal, they are not cast in the same mould, 858a to be man with thy might, 354b to man the greatest curse, 15a to prescribe for, not to obstruct the cure of mankind, 486a to show all that might be in man, 120b to show forth life and manners of mankind, 590a two levers for,—interest and fear, 450a two strong men stand face to face, 189b unruly wills and affections of men, 432a valued for what they seem to be, 204a vana salus hominis, 679a vile man, that mourns, 248b vows (men's) are women's traitors, 309a wants but little here below, 149b wants but little, nor that little long, 406a we are men and know not how, 28b we estimate men by their virtues, not by their fortune, 571a we men are a little breed, 363b were born to lie, 143a were deceivers ever, 284b what a piece of work is man, 293a what a thoughtless animal is man, 115b what avails the soul if men go astray like beasts, 636b what darkness of night in mortal minds, 625b what dwarfs men are, 546a what each had done for man, 144a what emptiness in men's affairs, 606a what man has done, man can do, 868a what man has made of man, 399b what men daily do, 284b whatever men do—wishes, fears, etc., 635a whatever you are, be a man, 869a whatsoever ye would that men should do unto you, 422a when I am to man's estate grown, 344b when our gude man's awa', 214b when the man wants weight, 360b where can ambition find a higher style than man, 261a

Man, Men, Mankind—contd.

where there are men there are manners (customs), 674a who does not adapt himself to mankind meets with the penalty, 547a who man would be, 327a whose footfalls mark the music of mankind, 383b why do men strive for so many things, 635b why don't the men propose, 19a why men weak in government, 8b with hearts and men with souls, 266a with his burning soul, 209a with Splendid Hearts, 26a with wailing in your voices, 30b would that men's (hearts) were truer, 37b worthy in mass, rascals severally, 702a ye are men, 67b (man) yet mistakes his way, 101b you are not stones, but men, 286a you are the men, 31b you cannot stand still in the world of mankind, 878b Man, Isle of, motto, 662a Man of Ross, 251b
Manches, une autre paire de, 840a Manchester, train from, 32a Manchester, what, thinks to-day, 459a Mandate ran, the royal, 46b Mangle, an immense pecuniary, 115b has your mother sold her, 464a MANHOOD
 a manhood in his look, 172b breathes in every line, 168a dark and tossing waves of, 326a is a struggle, 117a is wary, 373b melted into courtesies, 285a soon come, soon gone, 171a unclouded reason of manhood, 5a Manichean god, the, 100b Manliness and meekness, 386b Manly spirit, drown my, 282b MANNERS are not idle, 366a better fed than nurtured, 773b better fed than taught, 742b better ill-fed than ill-bred, 743a birth is much; breeding is more, 745a blameless manners, 525b bred ere manners were in fashion, 122a caught as men take diseases, 316 change with fortunes, 250b clown insults the man who is polite to him, 675b come when you're called, 129b corrupt through evil manners of the age, 629b corrupted by admiration of wealth, 506b degenerate manners grow apace, 579b different manners to different pursuits, 379b dislike not the matter but the manner, 307a do in hall as you would do in hall, 752a everyone's manners make his fortune, 579b, 665a evil manners will grow up plentifully, 580a examples of bad manners last longer than of good, 517a Manners—contd.

for manners' sake, 420b foreign manners brought in by money, 624a fortune changes with manners, 535b gentle blood will breed gentle manners, 341a gentleness of manners, 664b good advice may be taken but not good manners, 768a good manners and soft words, 375b good-breeding blossom of good sense, 404b gude breeding and siller mak our sons gentlemen, 770b his manner flung hovering graces, 64b
I have known the manners of men, 602a ill manners produce good laws, 792a ill manners were best courtesy, 74b leave off first for manners' sake, 800a leave something for manners, 800a man bewrayed by nothing so well as by manners, 341a man of manners, morals, parts, 101b manners, justice, honour, have gone, 619b manners like herself (Religion) severe, 96b manners make the man, 807b manners makyth man, 807b meat is good, manners are better, 809b men, their manners and their ways, 255b men's evil manners live in brass, 793b
not men but manners, 135a noted their manners, 257a nothing further (vicious) to add to our manners, 593b of all nations equally bad, 390b of every age should be noted, 487a of letters and of manners, 99b of manners gentle, 256a often made fortunes, 807b old manners, 150a other times, other manners, 823b pursuits, peoples, and battles, 614a salon manners and society smile, 381a saw the manners of many men, 632b simple manners, 89b
study life and manners, 645b sweeter manners, purer laws, 363a take a tincture from our own manners, 250b the way to good manners is never too late, 653a to the manner born, 291b two sets of manners, 402a unruly manners or ill-timed applause, 257a what better school for manners, 175a women make manners, 702a you have good manners, but never carry them with you, 879b you have manners and conversation, 523a you must practise manners of the time, 210a Manors, eight and forty, 64b

Mansion, time was dumb within that, 171a Mansions, build thee more stately, 168b in my Father's house are many, 426a Mantle, in his, muffling up his face, 286b Mantua bore me, 573b Many things to say unto you, I have, 426a things, man who attempts to do, 467a what are they among so, 425b Many-headed, monster thing, 271b Mar, one that God hath made himself to, 279a Marathon looks on the sea, 63a spares grey, 54a upon the plain of, 180a Marathonian plain, 396a MARBLE and MARBLES and recording brass, 98a cold marble leapt to life, 215b left it a city of marble, 676a like a man who is sawing marble, 173a like stainless marble, 260b not marble, nor the gilded monuments, 321b some grave their wrongs on marble, 207b the mossy marbles, 167a the statue grows, the marble wastes, 453a to retain, 58b will never mark the marble with his name, 251b write an evil turn in marble, 234b Marcellus exiled, 250a MARCH (to Advance) a day's march nearer home, 229b of intellect, 338a of our existence, 55a of the human mind, 40a the March-of-Intellect Boys, 336a we shall march prospering, 36a MARCH (Month of) a dry March, 9a as many frosts in July as mists in March, 738b beware the Ides of, 285a birds (March) are best, 808b boisterous as March, yet fresh as May, 269b borrows three days of April, 808b comes in like a lion, 808b dust, 374b, 718b dust, worth a king's ransom, 726b grass, never did good, 808b in Janiveer, 808b many weathers, 808b, note search, April try, 808b slayer of the winter, 236a that comes roaring, 379b the winds of, 310a the wreath of, 361b thou madde March hare, 330a winds, 462b windy March forecasts a fine May, 808b windy March and rainy April, make a beautiful May, 729b Mare apertum (or clausum), 574a Mare, grey, is the better horse, 845b
note again, the man shall have his, 280b rode upon a sorry, 170b when the, hath a bald face, 871b Mare's nest, to find a, 860b you have found what was never lost, 879b

Mare's shoe and a horse's are alike, 725b Margate last July, in, 16b Margate beach, on, 172a Margin, a meadow of, 328a Maria Theresa, of Austria, 654a Maribus, propria quæ, 626a Mangold of cheerful hue, 327b MARINERS
he loves to talk with, 86b the mariner, worn and wan, 325b the relations of Mariners, 28b ye Mariners of England, 67b Marjoram, I am, and do not breathe for you, 601a Mark, a fellow of no, 314a Mark, fairest, easiest hit, 51b Mark is so fair, what, 54a Mark Antony the world, who lost, 240b Marked, quoted, and signed, 312a MARKET and MARKETS
a friend in the market, 721a as market goes, wives must sell, 739a buy at market, sell at home, 746a buy when it is market time, 746a good ware makes quick market, 769a grass does not grow in the market, 769b if fools went not to market, 788b is over when a fool hath bethought himself, 869a is the best garden, 848a men speak of the fair as things went with them there, 810a more than one ass goes to market, 788b play with a fool, and he will play with you in the market, 790b send a fool to market and a fool he'll return, 832a three women and a goose make a market, 858b to avail himself of the market, 650a who can see three days ahead may be rich, 777a you must sell as markets go, 880a Marksman, a good, may miss, 722a Marlowe, 121b
Marmalade lips, 211b Marpesia, the rugged rock, 586b Marred, all that is spoke is, 302a MARRIAGE
a clear united stream, 369b a friend married is a friend lost, 721a a kind of bilboes to be married, 138a a love match the only thing, 130a a man will wed where he is weard, 725a a plague, 50a
a rainy day, called the day of marriage, 831a
a vinculo matrimonii, 482b advise none to marry, 731b after a dream of a wedding comes a corpse, 731b age and wedlock we all desire and repent of, 732a age and wedlock tame man and beast, 732a agreement makes marriage, 505a all maids are to be wed, 733a all marriage in repentance ends, 128a always say no, and you will never be married, 734b an evil invoked by men, 469b

Marriage—contd.

angry both at once none ever did us see, 872a as easy to marry a rich woman as a poor, 367a as touching thrift, of doubtful
wisdom, 374b
as with cages, birds within cannot get out, birds without despair of getting in, 692b as your wedding ring wears so do your cares, 739b at leisure, 92a bacon of paradise for the married who repent not, 740a be careful to marry a woman who lives near you, 479a before you marry be sure of a house, 740b, 741a Benedict the married man, 284a better be half-hanged than ill-wed, 742b better to marry than to burn, 428a between promising and performing a man may marry his daughter, 744a blisse betwix hem two, 77b both are tied, 62b building and marrying are great wasters, 745b by what fury are you possessed to marry, 678b compared to public feasts, 107b complacency of newly-married, 192a day you marry, you kill or save yourself, 725b
December when they wed, 289b desired through blind impulse, 60rb devil contrives to have his part
in, 809a
did not think I should live till I were married, 284b dirge in marriage, 290a early marriage, long love, 771b every woman and no man should marry, 117b
every woman should marry, 117b for money—veniant a dote sagitta, 680a
forced wedlock a hell, 317a friendship recognised by the police, 343b furnish forth the marriage tables, 290b
"gettin' hitched," 27a good to marry late or never, 797b hanging and wooing go by destiny, 282b happy the bride the sun shines on,
771a has many pains, 178b hasty, seldom proveth well, 318a he is dreadfully married, 28a he who is about to marry is on his way to repentance, 469b her pulse beats matrimony, 785a high and low mate ill, 386b hind mated to lion dies for love, 299a honest men marry soon, 785b I follow as a captive not a bride,
682a
I missed my tip in town, 244b I will vouchsafe to marry you,
211a ideal, between a blind wife and deaf husband, 709a
If thou must marry a fool, 294a image of Heaven and Hell, 342b in haste, 92a

Marriage—contd.

in married life there's company, 389a in true marriage lies nor equal nor unequal, 361a is a serious thing, 263a is heaven and hell, 725b is honourable in all, 430b it is hard to wive and thrive in one year, 795b joyful as a drum at a wedding, 738b Juno, Hymen, and the Graces not present, 600a keep your eyes open before, halfshut after, 798b law in love, attracting greater to lesser, 358a learned virgins, 61b let everyone marry an equal, 809a like blood, good, and age make best marriage, 802a like a place besieged, those within wish to get out, those without to get in, 867a like birds in cages, those without despair to get in, 384a like blude, like gude, like age, 865a lost in the children of the present spouse, 257b love flies at sight of human ties, 255a makes term-day, 751a man's business to keep unmarried, 323b
many a one for land takes a fool
by the hand, 807b
many fair words in marriage-making; few in the portion-paying, 853b mariage de convenance, 703a marriages are made in heaven, 335a, 808b
married men viler than bachelors, 244b marry above your match and get a good master, 809a marry first and love will follow, 809a
marry for love and work for siller, 809a marry in haste, repent at leisure, 809a
marry in Lent and you'll repent, 809a marry in May, repent alway, 809a marry the daughter on knowing the mother, 809a
marry your equal, 654b marrying is easy, housekeeping is hard, 809a matrimony a friendship recognised by the police, 343b May the month to marry bad wives, 656a
may Venus ever be propitious, 499b men should wed after their estate, 77a mental qualities, not bodily, make lasting wedlock, 619a misfortune of marrying when poor, 481b Monday for health, etc. (marriage day folklore), 811a money makes marriage, 805b more the sparks, the worse the match, 173b mutual love in marriage, 93b nature did this match contrive, 376b needy when married, rich when buried, 771b

Marriage—contd.

neither marry nor buy an old beast, 814b
never have I seen a less marriage-like face, 605b
no goose but finds an honest
gander, 255b
nor wedded joys nor sorrows knew, 445a
"not time yet"—"no longer
time," 451a
nothing but a civil contract, 275b now you're married I wish you joy, 447a nuptial bed a place of disagreement, 652b
of true minds, 322a
one fool in every married couple,
135b one was never married, 50a one wedding brings on another, 823a one year of joy, one of comfort, the rest of content, 823a our bond not the bond of man and wife, 365b our new heraldry is hands not,
hearts, 302a
poor fools decoyed into our condition, 243a proper time to marry, 102a quite prepared to marry again, 146b rainy day called the day of marriage, 128b reason why one should never marry, 389a rice for good luck, old shoes for bonnie bairns, 830a
right time for marriage, 12a rob a lady by marriage, 135a set in for singleness, 169b settles debts, 751a she calls it wedlock and so covers her fault, 504b she married another, 27b she that marries ill never wants something to say for it, 833b she would not stay for the parson to say grace, 833b since first he called her his, 66b small circle of a wedding-ring, 83a sole propriety in Paradise, 219b sounds well but tastes ill, 809a splendid opportunity for self-sacrifice, 181b stretches his foolish head to the conjugal halter, 663a submits his neck unto a second
yoke, 164b
such longing to be mated, 387b sure a woman's born to wed, 240a tears at wedding, 161a that beggar pleases me as her king pleases a queen, 620b that moral centaur, man and wife, 64a
the arrows come from his wife's dowry, 588a
the butt of every railer, 142a the Furies strewed that wedding couch, 600a (marry) the girl first, ask his consent afterwards, 328a the happiest bond, 153a the married delight to see others decoyed, 243a
the noosing of very rich people, 173b they that marry ancient people, 141a this alliance may happy prove,
279a

Marriage—contd.

till holy church incorporate two in one, 279b time to marry when the woman woos, 796b to light the bridal lamp, 220b to match above one's rank is to sell liberty, 210a to ordain laws for the married, 536b to persons about to marry—Don't, 444b to please ourselves, 22b to tame the wolf you must marry him, 862a to wive it wealthily, 276b too soon and you'll repent too late, 263a triumph of hope over experience, 181a two heads better than one, or why do folks marry, 864b
two lives bound fast in one, 357a une des neuf joies de mariage, 691b unequal marriages are seldom happy, 865a union of hearts makes marriage, 166a unlucky between the sickle and the scythe, 875b upon better acquaintance, when we are married, 287a vow I made to her in marriage, 292a vows cannot change nature, 35a wealthy wife a ruler and not a wife, 477b wedded love, mysterious law, 219b wedded men live in sorrow, 78a wedding and ill-wintering tame man and beast, 732a wedding's destiny, and hanging likewise, 771a wedlock is a padlock, 867a
"wen you're a married man," 111b what God hath joined together, 423a when a man marries, dies, or turns Hindoo, 327a when a man marries his trouble begins, 446b, 814a when a man should marry, 9b when shall I marry me, 149b when the cat and weasel marry, 871b when the wife is May, the husband June, 379a where I love I must not marry, 230b whichever you do you will repent, 451a who marries for love lives with sorrow, 875b who marries for wealth sells his liberty, 780b who marries late marries ill, 780b who marries or he be wise, 780b who weds a sot to get his cot, 875b who weds ere he be wise, shall die ere he thrive, 875b why husbands fail, 21b
"wictim o' connubiality," 111b widows and second marriages, 135b wise men marry not at all, 785b without love, 17a woman's business is to get married, 323b wooded and married and a', 265b you will live more easily without wife to maintain, 478a

Marriage—contd.

young man married is a man that's married, 299a See Wedlock
Marrowbones, with the, 76b Mars gave the signs of war, 530a this seat of, 312b Marshal's truncheon, 299b Mart, dusky lane and wrangling, 187a of all the earth, 100a too close in church and, 30b Martha, the Sons of, 190b to the world a, and to heaven a Mary, 444b Martin, more than one ass at the fair called, 854a Martinmas and Yule, rain between, 463a Martins and swallows, God's scholars, 463a Martin's, St., summer, 317a MARTYRS and MARTYRDOM a martyr cannot be dishonoured, 132b all have not the gift of martyrdom, 124b groan of a martyr's woe, 23b he saw it no wisdom to be broiled, 455a I look on martyrs as mistakes, 209a no religion but can boast of martyrs, 817a noble army of, 432a not at all fond of martyrdom, 440b pale martyr, in his shirt of fire, 330b the blood of Christians is seed, 652a the cause, not the death, makes the martyr, 450a virgin-minded, studious martyr, 32a when the joyful crown is given, 342b who dies in needless danger is the devil's martyr, 875b Marvellous, trumped up for the sake of the, 504b we nothing know but what is, 407a Mary, and now of a Bloody, 173b
Mary had a little lamb, 446b
Mary, Queen of Scots, 436b Mary, the Sons of, 190b Mary-buds, winking, 309a Masculine, those things which appertain to males, 626a Mask and antique pageantry, 224a the fox and the, 607b Mason, he is not a, who refuses a stone, 774a Masonic Hymn, 439b
Mass, an unwrought, confused, 647a Mass, from the, to the table, 511b Mass, you cannot say, but at your own altar, 879a Massachusetts, motto, 573b Massacre, not so sudden as a, 84a Massage (medical friction), 16a Masses, butter their bread on both sides with the, 202a Masses, that new estate, the, 459b MASTER and MASTERS a man who can be his own master, 488b and lord who is worthier and wiser, 354b ashamed of my master, 518a countenance of, helps him more than the back of his head, 536a early master, soon knave, 754a

Master and Masters—contd.

everyone is a master and servant, 758b eye of master sees more than ten of the servants, 821a full of faults and wish their servants to be perfect, 702a give unto your servants that which is just, 430a God, parents, and master, never required, 766a good to good servants, bad to others, 677b had Zimri peace, who slew his master, 410b if I am master, and you master, who shall drive the asses, 788b in every art it is good to have a master, 792b in the presence of The Master, 367a Jack's as good as his master, 798a
like master, like land, 802b like master like man, 802b little is done when everyone is master, 804a master as long as master of my sword, 452a master of straw eats servant of steel, 726a masters two will not do, 809a no man can serve two, 421b no man is born a great master, 816b no master falls from heaven, 816b pledged to the words of no particular master, 604a should sometimes be blind and deaf, 809a such Master, such Man, 374b the mad dog bites his master, 847b the master absent, the house dead, 848a the Master has said it, 569b the master's eye fattens the horse, and his foot the ground, 848a, note the master's requiem, 131b the wise master's feet and hands, 165a to swear in the words of a master, 562b we cannot all be masters, 300b
who gives blows is master, 783a who is master must serve, 779a who serves two, has to lie to one, 781a who will not serve one, must serve many, 782b Master of Arts, women aspiring to be, 237b Master passion, one, 249a Master spirit, no, no determined road, 397a Master spirits of this age, 286a Master, one is your, even Christ, 423b Master, our famous, calm and dead, 32b
Masters of their fates, 285b Masterless man, the, 191a Mastery: report commemorates one work above all, 675b Mastery causes love to go, 78a mawes the meadows down, 809b there is bondage in, 533a Mastiff greyhound, mongrel grim, 306b Mastiffs on, tarre the, 298b Match tax, 527a, note Matchmakers often burn their fingers, 809b

Mate, choose not alone a proper,
102a no, no comrade Lucy knew, 392a the bold, of Harry Morgan, 209a who shall be the maiden's, 272a Mated, such longing to be, 387b Mathematics make men subtle, 11b Matière de bréviaire, 703a Matre pulchra, filia pulchrior, 607a Matrimony, friendship recognised by the police, 343b Matron's glance, the, 147b Matter, I am full of, 411b meane withall, 341a more moving, 49a more, with less art, 292b sun of, remains, 14a what he said, 'twas no, 64b Matters, many other, tedious to write, 509a Matthew, Mark, Luke, and John, bless the bed that I lay on, 463b Matthias, St. (Feb. 24) sends sap into the tree, 830b Mawkish, so sweetly, 254a Mawkishness, thence proceeds, 184b MAXIMS
a little hoard of, 358b a man of, 89b an old maxim in the schools, 347b nothing so useless as a general
maxim, 205b
of the mud, 364b reveal men's hearts, 702a that grounded, 223b the expression which strikes will have wisdom, 648b this is our maxim, this our piety, 397a this scoundrel maxim, 371a to alleviate this affliction, 666a MAY (Month of) a dry May, 9a a pious fraud of the almanac, 202b a shower in May, 718b amorous as the first of May, 360a April and May the key of the year 737b bathe in May, you'll lig in clay, 747a be sure of hay till end of May,
740b bring forth May flowers, 462b, 808b cast not a clout ere May be out, 747a chills the lap of May, 147b cold and windy, 374b, 710a the corn in May and in June, 804b early or late will make the cow to quake, 809b eat sage in May, 783a flood (May) never did good, 726a
809b flowers in May, fine cocks of hay, 761b fresh as is the month of May, 76b glides onward into June, 198a had peynted with his softe shoures, 78a hail bounteous May, 227b hard heart that does not love in May, 358b, note hot May makes a full churchyard, 723b
I'm to be Queen o' the May, 357b leaky May and dry June, 723b maids are May when they are maids, 289b
marry in May, repent alway, 809a merry month of, 17b mother of glad months, 79a oh that we two were Maying, 188b

MAY (Month of)—contd.
rain in, makes bread for the year, 809b shear sheep in May and shear them away, 833b swarm o' bees in May, 728b the darling buds of, 321b the month to marry bad wives, 656a the rose in May, 80a there was no month but May, 163b use May while that you may,
130a welcome as month of May, 76b welcome as the flowers in May,
207b who sows oats in May gets little 875a wife May, husband June, 379a will have no slogardye at night, 77a worship May, ye that lovers be,
176b
"May-be" is very well, but "Must" is master, 809b some remote it-may-be, 203b the buke of May-be's is very braid, 809b
Maying, oh, that we two were, 188b May-pole, give 'em but a, 343a in the Strand, 24b Mayor, between the King and the commonalty, 195a Dulness marked him for a mayor,
81b Mayor, Lord: "comes in at one year," 171b
I have dined as well as my Lord Mayor, 787a manners always to except my Lord Mayor of London, 827a Mayors and shrieves all hushed and satiate lay, 253b Maze, a mighty but not without a plan, 248a in fancy's, 252b love to wander in that golden, 127b of schools, 246b Mazes, in wandering, lost, 217b of metaphorical confusion, 184a MEADOWS
a painted meadow, 2b abroad in the meadows, 382b brown and sere, 37a his wide sun-flooded meadows, 383b lover of the meadows and the woods, 394a paint the meadows with delight, 277b thin meadow, soon mowed, 729a trim, meadows, 224a Meagre were his looks, 280a Meal, all that, is not from your own sack, 597b
Meal, each, a supper of the Lord,
199a
Meal, how will this bring you, 635b MEALS
after a meal stand or walk a mile, 732a better many meals than one too
merry, 742b
eat many, and you will grow fat, 819b
good to be merry at meat, 768b he that banquets every day never makes a good meal, 776a he will spend a year's rent at one meal, 784a
quick at meat, quick at work, 829a two hours daily to, 654a

Mean and mighty, rotting together, 309a or irksome, nothing, 333b MEAN (Moderation)
happy the golden mean, 210b in the golden mean their proper bliss, 379b the golden mean and quiet flow of truths, 398b
the mean is best, 447a whoso loves the golden mean, 494b
Meandering, let us have no, 114a Meanest thing that feels, 393b MEANING
a meaning suited to his mind, 359a blunders round about a meaning, 252a free from all meaning, 123b Hannafoord's utterances have no meaning, 346b honest meaning gilded want of sense, 328a
honest meaning is of itself a law, 461b how a good meaning may be corrupted, 214b is no great matter, 66a that he never had, 100a thou canst not mean so poorly as thou talkest, 92b to all majestic meanings blind, 381b to some faint meaning make pretence, 124b two meanings in one word, 319a understand a plain man in his plain meaning, 283a MEANNESS
a niggard spends as much as a generous man, 842a excess of meanness, 679b he can give his servant little who licks his knife, 772a many seek a farthing and consume a pound, 825a meanest of mankind, 250a never spoil the ship for a ha'porth of tar, 815a, note
penny wise, pound foolish, 825a some meannesses which only woman can venture on, 367b the sordid man calls himself thrifty, 671a
Means, end justifies the, 843a Means intensely, 33a Means, moderate, 94a place and, for every man, 299a proportioned to their end, 249b the, whereby I live, 283b to gratify the will, 92b use the, God will give the blessing, 865b
Meant, more is, than meets the ear,
224b Measles, did you ever have the, 27b love like the, 177a Measure, according to, 484b does it hold good, 32b good, is heaven's treasure, 769a he measures others by his own yard, 879b
in things, 523b is a merry mean, 809b is medecyne, 194a is treasure, 809b thrice before you cut once, 809b weight and, take away strife, 867a Measures not men, 39b, 150a, note MEAT and MEATS
after meat, mustard, 732a all meat to be eaten; all maids to be wed, 733a

Meat and Meats—cont'd.

and cloth make the man, 847b cheap buyer takes bad meat, 747b doth mock the meat it feeds on,
307b English great meat-eaters and therefore cruel, 701b funeral baked meats, 290b go early to fish market, late to the shambles, 766a he loves roast meat well that licks the spit, 775b he that buys flesh buys many bones, 776b
I cannot eat but little meat, 345a if meat make my brother to offend, 428a leave not meat to gnaw the bones, 800a much meat, much melody, 812b new meat, new appetite, 737b one man's meat another man's poison, 822a poor folk seek meat for their stomachs; rich, stomachs for their meat, 826a some hae meat, 47b sweet meat must have sour sauce, 758a, 838a
take heed of meat twice boiled, 838b there is much meat in God's store-
house, 855a
'tis meat, drink, washing, and lodging to 'em, 343a upon what meat doth this our Caesar feed, 285b was made for mouths, 308a wholesomest meat is at another's cost, 852b
Mecca saddens at the long delay,
360b to go from Ceca to, 824a Mechanic slaves, 307b Medal, every, has a reverse, 757b on James I's coronation, 655a, note Medals, French distribute, 230a Médard (St.) day of, 142b, note MEDDLING
dinna scald your mouth wi' ither folk's broth, 752a do men better understand the affairs of others? 561a do not quarrel about other people's business, 585b do not stir Lake Camarina, 474b everybody meddled, 20b every fool will be meddling, 414b government, meddling, 205a have you so much leisure that you care for others' business, 668b he had a finger in the pie when he burnt his nail off, 772b little intermeddling makes good friends, 804a
what have I to do with Brad-shaw's windmill, 867b you stir what should not be stirred, 467b Medea, let not, slaughter her children before the audience,
587a
Médecin Tant-pis et le Médecin Tantmieux, 699b
Medes and Persians, law of, 418b Medica, materia, 574a Medicable wounds, 4a Medical friction (massage), 16a MEDICINE and MEDICINES an unprogressive science, 8a art of medicine a question of time, 670a

Medicine and Medicines—cont'd.

cures the patient; his gold cures the doctor, 620a drugs of which the physician knows little, 450a for the dead, 575a he preferred to know the value of herbs and the quiet art of healing, 650a if severe, short; if long, light, 654b jargon where medicine fails, 142a life may be prolonged by medicine, 309b life preserved by ignorance of medicine, 453a
medicines to make me love him, 313b no medicine for a troubled mind, 137a
sleep is better than medicine, 834b sometimes takes away health, 522b time, not medicine, cures the sick, 859a MEDIOCRITY condemns all past its understanding, 701b
habit of telling stories a sign of,
696b is always praised, 703a mediocre and cringing, one gets everything, 703a
none are worst and none are best, 437a not below, nor above, 180a sometimes praised, 29b souhaiter donc médiocrité, 707b the moderation of the weak, 697b they have outlived this fear (of mediocrity), 445a thou priceless jewel, 138b who shines in the second rank will be eclipsed in first, 706b Medio tutissimus ibis, 575a Meditation in maiden, 280b let us all to, 317b Medium, to find the, 98a Medlars never good till rotten, 809b time and straw ripen, 859a MEEK and MEEKNESS a meek and quiet spirit, 431a are we aught enriched in love and
meekness, 395a
as is a mayde, 76b blessed are the meek, 421a the man Moses was very meek, 409b humblasse (meekness), 78a is not weakness, 809b of Moses better than strength of Samson, 848a
MEETING a song of meeting and parting, 244a alday meteth men at unset steven, 810a broke the good meeting, 304b doth not a meeting like this make amends, 232a if we do meet again, 287a journeys end in lovers meeting, 297b
know me when we meet again, 283b
never met, or ever parted, 48b no sooner met but they looked,
289b our meeting was all mirth and
laughter, 258b
perhaps if we had never met, 330a to mar the mirthful meeting, 57b to meet, to know, to love, 86a to meet to part again, 142b

Meeting—cont'd.

we met, 'twas in a crowd, 18b we met, we wooed, we made exchange of vow, 279a we shall meet at Philippi, 453a when shall we three meet again, 303a
MELANCHOLY
a green and yellow, 298a a hell upon earth, 50a a kind of demon, 3a all things are touched with, 170b great geniuses are generally, 451b hail, divinest, 224b he is a fool that is not melancholy once a day, 773b, 784a hence loathed melancholy, 224a idleness the cause of, 49b kindly mood of, 129b like all morals, melancholy, 63b marked him for her own, 154a midnight darker in melancholy dipt, 406b
money drives away melancholy, 811a moping melancholy, 221b my cue is villainous melancholy, 305b none delights in a sorrowful man, 740b nothing like a rattling ride for curing melancholy, 258b nothing melancholy in Nature, 86a nothing so dainty sweet as, 139b nought so sweet as, 49b oh sweetest Melancholy, 139b suck melancholy out of a song, 288b pastoral melancholy, 396a peculiar melancholy (of Englishmen), 160b
sit, melancholy, and pick your teeth, 183b such a charmin melancholy, 265a the melancholy days, 37a See Sadness, Sighing
Meliora sequamur, 579b
"Melioring to the organ," 115a Mellow like good wine, 244a MELODY and MELODIES a kind of blundering, 123b a thousand melodies unheard before, 264b crack the voice of melody, 167b fair Melody, kind Siren, 185a heard melodies are sweet, 185b musician whose melody is sweeter than he knows, 131b plenty corrupts the melody, 357b with whom the melodies abide,
186b wouldest thou hear the melodies of time, 169b Melon, after, wine is a felon, 732a whether knife fall on, or melon on the knife, 874a Melrose aright, if thou would'st view fair, 272a
Melt at others' woe, 153a that this too, too solid flesh would, 290b
Melting mood, unused to the, 303a Melts for ever, 46a Member, to lose a rotten, 18b Memoirs, every important person should write his, 334a Memorial, King Charles out of the,
114a more lasting than brass, 527b remains, 530a
MEMORY
a blessed memory to after time, 137b

Memory—contd.

a great man's memory, 294b
 a thousand fantasies of memory, 225a all complain of want of memory; none of want of judgment, 732b an artificial memory, 575b breakfast makes good memory, 699a breathes her vesper sigh, 231a brings the light of other days, 233a cancelled from Heaven and sacred memory, 220a dear son of memory, 227b domains of tender memory, 400a flocks of the memories of the days, 214b from our earthly memory fade away, 394b gild the past, 230b good fortune is remembered, bad should not be, 498a great wits have short memories, 770a her memory, the shrine of pleasant thoughts, 228b his memory is fresh in the land, 335b how sweet their memory, 95b I hate a boon-companion with a memory, 609a I hate a man with a memory, 474b I remember the things I do not wish to, 575b imagination and memory, one thing, 166b in the countless chambers of the brain, 264a it is a pleasure too to remember, 584b let my memory rest till other times, 335b lost to sight, to memory dear, 443b man of memory without learning, 725a memories, images, and precious thoughts, 402a Morning-star of memory, 56b my memory wakes, 48a my name and memory, 12b O, Memory, where is now my youth, 157b of a disaster is another disaster, 622b of Earth's bitter leaven, 395b
 of men, 29a
 of the just is blessed, 413b of the just is with praises, 575b of the past, 230b oft requires the bit, 345a plenty of memory and little judgment, 725a pluck from the memory a rooted sorrow, 305b protect his memory, 261b remembrance of past labours is agreeable, 664a sheds gladness, 192b slip of (lapsus memoriae), 564a strengthens, as you burden it, 110a the leaves of memory, 199b their very memory is fair and bright, 376a thou fond deceiver, 149b thou soul of joy and pain, 268b 'tis in my memory locked, 291a to enjoy memory of past life is to live twice, 490a vague memories, 236a vex itself with memories, 236a

Memory—contd.

vibrates in the memory, 326b wafted by thy gentle gale, 264a warder of the brain, 304a while memory holds a seat, 292a will diminish unless exercised, 575b Menace, not right or wise to, 42b Menagerie point of view, liberal, 130b Mend, lacks time to, 356a it, leave it if you cannot, 800a never made His work for man to, 125a never too late to, 796a or end us, 64b, and note Mendacia vatum, 699a Mendax, my name is, 775a Mended, nothing else but to be, 51a Mendings are honourable, rags abominable, 810a many readings need many, 808a Menial, a pampered, 237a, note Mens sana in corpore sano, 614a Mens sibi conscia recti, 576a Mensa et thoro, 482a, 576a Mensch, der, ist, was er isst, 711a Mensuram nominis fero, 655a Mental fight, will not cease from, 23b Mentem mortalia tangunt, 666a Mention her, we never, 19a Mentioned, better be d—d than not, 391a Mentis gratissimus error, 622a Mercenaries: no money, no Swiss, 816b Mercenary views, disdains all, 82a MERCHANTS and MERCHANDISE after loss the merchant repairs his ships, 568b artists and merchantry, 21b as gude merchant tynes as wins 738a empty purse makes a bleat merchant, 735a fortunate merchants, says the soldier, 606b good merchandise easily finds a buyer, 558b, 625a good merchant may meet with misfortune, 722a he is no merchant who always gains, 726a, 774a he is not a merchant bare that hath money, worth, or ware, 774a merchant that gains not, loseth, 726a merchant the best gentleman, 108b merchant who loses cannot laugh, 801a merchant's happiness depends on chance, winds, and waves, 726a no profit in buying bad merchandise, 592b pleasing ware is half sold, 769a quick returns make rich merchants, 835a wenyng to rise by merchandise, 234a where merchants most do congregate, 282a who could know what would be dear, need be merchant but one year, 777a who seeks to rise by merchandise, 461a whose merchants are princes, 417a Merciful. See Mercy.

Mercury, like feathered, 314b like the herald, 295b not carved out of every wood, 598a not made out of any block of wood, 527a MERCY and MERCIFUL a good man is merciful, 433b a vice of mercy in you, 299a and truth are met together, 413a becomes Kings, Judges, Marshals, 299b begets mercy, 810a blessed are the merciful, 495b but murders, pardoning those that kill, 279b emboldens sin, 308b empty from any dram of mercy, 283a found between bridge and stream, 578a God be merciful to us, 50a God gives His mercy without weight, 766a harsh towards herself, towards others full of truth, 266a he that spares the bad injures the good, 781a I (Caractacus) shall be an example of your clemency, 655a I temper so justice with mercy, 221b indeed the attribute of heaven, 240b is above this sceptred sway, 283b is become our crime, 123b it is a bad cause which asks for mercy, 572a leaving mercy to Heaven, 135a loosens the law, 517a marvellous mercies and infinite love, 351a merciful against his own interest, 503b merciful man remembers what (mercy) is due to himself, 546a merciful to the bad is cruel to the good, 262b mercy I asked, mercy I found, 445a Mercy sighed farewell, 57a mercy to forgive, 124a most tender mercy is neglect, 103a nobility's true badge, 276a promiscuous clemency wrong, 626a safer to err on the merciful side, 673b that mercy to others show, 250b the brave love mercy, 143b the quality of mercy is not strained, 283b to others gentle, to himself severe, 264b to others lenient, to himself sincere, 264a note to render the deeds of mercy, 283b voice of public for mercy, 179a we do pray for mercy, 283b we hand folks to God's mercy, and show none, 130b
 when mercy seasons justice, 283b who will not mercy unto others show, 340b will soon pardon the meanest, 419b Meror, si, in me, 655a, note Meridian of my glory, 320a MERIT and MERITS
 by merit raised to that bad eminence, 217a careless their merits or their faults to scan, 148a

Merit and Merits—contd.

first deserve and then desire, 761b force of his own merit makes his way, 319b great deservings grow intolerable presumers, 760b greatest man rises by his own mercy, 560a his merits to disclose, 154a honourable pride, acquired by merit, 665a hoped for better things which I had deserved, 661b in the army, 88b it is worthier to deserve honour than to possess it, 794b lies in use not in possession, 385b modest men dumb on their own merits, 90b not according to birth but according to life and intention, 571a obtain that which he merits, 87b patient merit, 293b the little merit man can plead, 82a the more merit in your bounty, 293a "the opinion one man entertains of another," 241a they were all worthy to prevail, 683a wins the soul, 248a worthier than fame, 12b Mermaid, things done at the, 20a Mermaids: she ends as a fish, 513b MERRIMENT, MERRY, etc. a merrier man, 277a a merry, dancing, drinking time, 126a a merry heart goes all the day, 310a alarms changed to merry meetings, 318a all my merry jigs quite forgot, 322b always merry and bright, 464b as a marriage bell, 54b as crickets, 313b as good company can make good people, 319b as long liveth the merry man as the sorry, 375b as the day is long, 284a be always merry as ever you can, 740b be merry, man, 129a be merry, think upon the lives of men, 235b forge a merry face, 76a guid to be merry and wise, 48b, note I am never merry when I hear sweet music, 283b I am not merry, 301a If I've been merry, 33a let us be merry, 113b look merrily then, 136b merry heart lives as long as sad, 738b merry heart maketh a cheerful countenance, 414a merry met and merry part, 461a nothing more hopeless than a scheme of merriment, 180b rather a fool to make me, than experience to make me sad, 289b some merry lay, 19a the merry hate the sad, 608b 'tis merry in hall when beads wag all, 374b to be merry though the ship were sinking, 75a your flashes of merriment, 297a

Merryman, the song of a, 145b Mesopotamia, that blessed word, 454a Mess of potash, 27b Mess of pottage, 454a
 Mess, you have hashed up this, you must swallow it, 673b Message, gently thou hast told thy, 221b the prime and heaven-sprung, 520b Messenger, my, before my face, 424a of good news, 332b Messengers: send the wise and say nothing, 730b Messiah's eulogy for Handel's sake, 101a Met. See Meeting
 Metal, a breed of barren, 282a more attractive, 294b of unimproved, hot and full, 290a shines with use, 486b METAPHOR a tired metaphor, 65a is poetry, 81a language is but metaphors, 72b metaphorical confusion, 184a no simile runs on all fours, 604b slang is metaphor, 81a See Trope
METAPHYSICS
 I detested metaphysics, 7a metaphysic wit, 51a study of metaphysics, 187b Voltaire's two definitions of, 706a, note Meteor, like a fast-flitting, 191b like a, streaming to the wind, 216b streamed like a, to the troubled air, 155a Meteor-like, flame lawless, 249a METHOD and METHODS either I will find a way or make one, 754b gentle in method, 664b good in all things (method), 350b indirect methods, 14a, note pomp of method, 44b yet there is method in it, 292b Methoosalem, I may not be, 115a Metre and rhyme, accidental instance of, 385b stretched, of an antique song, 321b Metres that writhe, 381a Mettle, he was so full of, 121a Meum and tuum, pedantic distinctions, 191b Micawber, Mr., I will never desert, 114a Mice. See Mouse
 Michael Angelo for breakfast, 83b Michael, more men than, 854a Miching Mallecho, this is, 294b Microcosm of a public school, 116a woman a, 140a Microscopes, magnifyin' gas, 112a Microscopic for defect, 241b Midas, hard food for, 283a rocked the cradle, 173a Midday sweat, our, 261a MIDDLE AGE
 a "certain" age, 58a a lady of a "certain age," 64a autumn of the beautiful is beautiful, 627a had slightly pressed its signet sage, 270b middle age of man, 65a middle-aged woman's paradise (Paris), 244b sun of life overcast before noon, 230b the noon of life, 92a

Middle Age—contd.

vigor atatis fluit, 682b wives companions for middle age, 9b Middle ages, 13b, note MIDDLE CLASS
 best part of English nation, 456b grant me, Heaven, a middle state, 208a I desire not the lowest, and am not capable of the highest, 550b life's middle state, 101b to the middle class we must look for England's safety, 367b Middle course, cannot steer a, 211a Middle course, you will go most safely by, 552a Middle times of the world, 13b Middlesex, an acre in, 205b
 juries, 214b
 Middling pace, it is a, 91b MIDNIGHT
 a budding morrow in, 185b and yet no eye, 337a brought on the dusky hour, 220a dead vast and middle of the night, 290b gravity out of his bed at midnight, 314a hags, midnight, 305a hour o' night's black arch the keystone, 46a is mine, 90a
 it was midnight, what does not love dare, 595a mournful midnight hours, 200a not to be abed before midnight, 297b of blackest midnight born, 224a on her starry throne, 325a on the bridge at midnight, 198a our midnight oil, 261a shout and revelry, midnight, 225a so much midnight oil destroyed, 230b the iron tongue of, 281a the midnight chime, 169b this dead of midnight, 15a thy dark pencil, 406b we have heard the chimes at, 315b when it was grown to dark, 435b who goes to bed before midnight is a scoundrel, 181a yet not a nose, 331a
 Midsummer madness, 298a
MIGHT
 and right and sovran Zeus, 245b do it with thy might, 415b if I can't by might, I'll do it by sleight, 788b is not always right, 810b is right, 810b makes a title, 105b mighty men shall be mightily tormented, 419b unawed by lawless might, 19a was the measure of right, 576a where might is, right is, 354b MIGHT-HAVE-BEEN
 it might have been, 158b, 386b
 my name is Might-have-been, 266b we might have been, 192b what thou might'st have been, 270b Mightiest in the mightiest, 283b Mignonette, the Frenchman's darling, 100b Mikado's palace, every road leads to, 733b MILD and MILDNESS as thou wert mild, 66b he that was of mildest mood, 435b

Mild and Mildness—contd.

in methods, 534*b* mildness and self-renouncement, 6*a*
 nothing more valuable to a man than mildness and courtesy, 643*a*
 the mildest-mannered man, 63*a* Mildewed ear, like a, 295*b* Mile, one Scottish, 356*a* Miles, make short the, with talk and smiles, 768*a* of shopping women, 209*a* Miles, horridus, amatur, 661*b* Mile, sed, sed pro patria, 631*b* Militia est potior, 606*b*

MILITARISM

apt to rouse men with the trumpet, 639*b*
 camps please many, 582*b* let arms give way to civic authority, 502*a* martial music, 43*b* military fame, procured by blood, 595*b*
 military service, religion and love of banners, 624*b* oppression and sword-law, 222*a* we hate the hawk because he lives in arms, 609*a*

Military gent, a, I see, 367*a* stupidity, 478*b*

Milk, as like as milk to, 590*a* and honey blest, with, 237*b* and honey, flowing with, 409*b* no use crying over spilt, 796*a* of human kindness, 42*a*, 303*b* of kindness into curds, turn the,
 168*a*

oh, milk and water, 58*b* on wine is poison, 791*a* says to wine "Welcome, friend," 810*b*

streams of milk and of nectar, 534*a*

to milk a he-goat, 580*b* when you find a trout in the milk, 372*a*

who would keep a cow, when he can have a quart of milk for a penny, 876*a*

Milksop heroes, mothers' darlings make, 812*b*

Milky way, a meeting of gentle lights, 346*b*

Mill and Spencer had not said the last word, 378*b*

Mill, in for a, in for a million, 792*b*

MILLS and MILLERS

as good water goes by the mill as drives it, 738*a*

cannot grind with water past, 120*b*, 848*a*

every honest miller has a golden thumb, 755*b*, note every miller draws water to his own mill, 757*b*

God's mill goes slowly but grinds fine, 767*b*

God's mill grinds slow but sure,
 767*b*

he's my friend that grindeth at my mill, 784*a*

his mill will go with all winds, 785*b* in vain is the mill-clack, if the miller hearing lack, 793*a* miller is honest who has hair on his teeth, 755*b* miller's thumb of gold, 77*a*, and

note

millers, tailors, and weavers, thieves, 755*b*

mills and wives ever want, 810*b*

Mills and Millers—contd.

more water glideth by the mill, 276*a*

much water goeth by the mill that the miller knoweth not,
 813*a*

no mill, no meal, 816*b* of God grind slowly, 200*a* safe as a thief in a mill, 738*b* shall a miller call him (thief), 138*b* the mill gets by going, 848*a* the miller's waistcoat, that takes a thief every day, 739*a* the miller he hecht her a heart, 49*a* there was a jolly miller, 22*a* turn the mill while there is sugarcane, 807*a* two grindings out of one sack, 755*b*

who avoids the mill gets no flour, 632*a*

who cometh first to the mill, 761*b* would deave a miller, 48*b*

Millinery, jewelled mass of, 363*b* Millionaires, and—er—chumps, 21*b*

Millions died, what, 66*b* Millstone does not become moss-grown, 727*a* hanged about his neck, 425*a* hard as a piece of the, 412*a* the lower, grinds as well as the upper, 847*b*

who shuns the, shuns the meal, 475*b*

Milo's end remember, 115*b* MILTON, 125*b*, 154*b*, note a Milton with his Death and Sin, 408*b*

faith and morals hold which Milton held, 397*a* faith of, 353*b* golden lyre, Milton's, 3*a* kindred, 379*b* our Homer of the war in Heaven, 241*a*

some mute, inglorious Milton, 154*a*

that mighty orb of song, 401*a* the prince of poets, 63*a* thou should'st be living, 396*b* Miniature, a, a lock of hair, 258*b*

Mince this matter, honesty and love,
 301*b*

Mince-piety, pious thy, 175*b*

MIND

a good mind possesses a kingdom, 576*a*

a mind, conscious of right, 504*b* a mind, not to be changed, 216*a* a miracle of mind, 91*a* a poison in your mind, 384*a* a rich guerdon waits on minds that dare, 394*b* a wise man will be master of his mind, 490*b*

age carries even the mind away, 611*a*

ages with the body, 538*a* agitated minds are terrified by hope and fear, 660*a*

all things can corrupt perverted
 minds, 611*b*

always the dupe of the heart, 696*a* as her mind grew worse and worse, 392*a*

bad mind, bad disposition, 572*a* banquet of the mind, 257*b* be ye all of one mind, 431*a* beauty of the mind, 93*b* bliss which only centres in the

 mind, 147*b*

bodies without mind are as statues, 467*b*

Mind—contd.

by nature great (minds), 266*b* canst thou not minister to a mind diseased, 305*b*

concord can never join minds so divided, 138*a* culture of mind a kind of food to

 him, 490*b*

dearer is thy mind, 48*b* destroyed by Mr. Hume in 1737, 332*a*

devil first perverts the mind, 876*a* diseases of, more hateful and numerous than bodily diseases, 579*b*

each man has his own peculiarity
 of, 664*a*

each man's mind is himself, 576*a* ever powerful in working evil, 576*a*

ever yearns to be doing something, 490*b*

excursions in my own mind, 89*a* face the index of mind, 688*b* fair skin may cover crooked mind, 720*a*

feeds his mind with an empty painting, 490*b*

force of mind has broken all barriers, 686*b* gems of noble minds, 29*a* great minds think together, 770*a* grows with the body, 538*a* he who seeks the mind's improvement, 347*a*

hidden in the recesses of the mind, 600*b*

his mind remains unshaken, 576*a* his vigorous and active mind, 104*a* his wavering mind, 490*b*

 human mind in ruins, 107*b*

I fear I am not in my perfect mind, 307*a*

ill-disposed, conceals its teeth, 572*b*

in my mind's eye, 290*b* innermost recesses of mind, 576*b* is its own place, 216*a* is free, 120*b*

is the man, 9*a* just suited to our mind, 68*a* last infirmity of noble mind, 226*a* look to the mind, not the outward, appearance, 469*a* magic of the mind, 57*a* make the wheels of mind conform to Fortune, 8*b* maketh good or ill, 341*a* man's barren levity of, 381*b* man's unconquerable, 396*b* many minds, one heart, 808*a* march of the human mind, 40*a* marriage of true minds, 322*a* may lose its force, 55*b* men's capacious minds, 105*a* mental power not got ill-fed brains, 339*a* mighty in a stunted body, 555*b* mind cannot follow it, 75*a* mind does not know what mind is, 629*a*

mind moves the man, 576*a* mind your till and till your mind, 798*b*

minds are many, truth is one, 238*a* minds not always craving for food, 103*b*

minds that have nothing to confer, 392*a* my mind to me a kingdom, 129*b*, 436*a*

my mind to me an empire, 338*a* my mind's my kingdom, 436*a*, note

Mind—contd.

Nature's first great title, mind,
104b
no credence due to mind in pain, 490b never to ransack any mind but his own, 263a
no medicine for a troubled mind,
137a noble minds keep ever with their likes, 285b
nothing great in man but mind, 156b nothing remained but mind, 332a nourished by silence and darkness, 658a of desultory man, 99a opinion, vagrant leader of the
mind, 349a
outbreak of a fiery mind, 292a pain of mind worse than bodily, 518a quite vacant, 98b recreation should be given to the
mind, 568b
reflects on itself in sickness, 552b relax your mind, 643b relaxation breaks the mind, 491b requires cultivation like a field, 676b restrain your mind, 504a riches of the mind make a man rich and happy, 796b rule your mind or it will rule you, 490b, 559b
ruler of the universe, 448b rust of mind is blight of the abilities, 486b set your mind on the things that are above, 430a sick mind cannot endure hard treatment, 576a slow to unlearn, 512a so various is the human mind, 105a sound mind in a sound body, 614a speech a physician to a sick mind, 490b stored in recesses of her mind, 573b storehouse of the mind, 373b sword always beaten by mind, 450b talking with my mind, 32a that builds for aye, 394b that cannot yield, 257a that fixed mind, 216a that museth on many things, 419b
the banquet of the mind, 126b the bettering of my mind, 310b the book and volume of my brain, 292a the clothing of our minds, 342a the great prerogative of mind, 355b
the lady shall say her mind freely, 293a the mighty minds of old, 336a the mind ennobles, not the blood, 848a the mind is the man, 848a the mind loves free space, 848a the mind sins, not the body, 576a the mind, that very fiery particle, 65a
the philosophic mind, 401a the standard of the man, 383a the true standard of quality, 22b the most perfect mind is a dry light, 568b, note two powers, the sword and the
mind, 450b undisturbed mind the best sauce for affliction, 490b

Mind—contd.

unsound minds, you poison if you feed, 865a vain ague of the mind, 273a we strive to improve the heart and mind, 506a wealth of mind is the only wealth, 477b wedlock of minds, 569b what a noble mind is here o'er-thrown, 294a what darkness of night in mortal minds, 625b
what man's mind commands it obtains, 490b what the mind has ordained it has achieved, 635a where there is most mind there is least fortune, 674a which has received a grievous wound, 615a whose untutored mind, 248a with love o'erflowing, 396a
worldly wisdom to conceal the
mind, 583a
would we were all of one mind, 309b
youth of the mind, 90a Mine, I will say, they are, 524b is yours, what's, 300a
'tis, and I will have it, 283a what's yours is, 868b Miners: may all your labours be in vein, 461a Minerva being unfavourable, 672b Minerva, do not offer a sow to, 586a Minerva invita, 559a Mines, one yard below their, 296a Mingle, all things into one another's being, 327a
you that mingle may, 305a Mining: riches are dug out of earth,
521a Minister, an upright, 91a is this the wisdom of a great, 184a my friend, to call a, 252b they hae hangit he, 439b to be, and live by men's sins, 159a to free and make mirth with the,
242b Ministers and stewards of Thy mysteries, 432a great, are mortal men, 125a lovers and, are seldom true, 204a of Christ, 427b of good things, like a torch, 437a Ministering angel, a, 237b, 297a Ministry, to judge merit of, observe condition of people, 184a Minlon, curled, 4b Minions too great, 105b Minnows, this Triton of the, 308a Minor, brisk, pants for twenty-one,
252b
Minor fuit ipsa infamia vero, 567b Minors protected in almost everything by law, 552b MINORITY
boldly speak ten millions wrong, 239a during minority, 520a is always right, 174b, note is no disproof, 174b Minotaur, bellowing of, 580b MINSTRELS AND MINSTRELSY for him no minstrel raptures swell, 272b lover of wine and minstrelsy, 269b merry minstrels of the morn, 370b minstrel's strain by knight should ne'er be heard in vain, 269a the minstrel was infirm and old,
271b

Minstrels and Minstrelsy—contd.

this minstrel lead, his sins forgiven, 395a
Minute, divide a, into a thousand parts, 289b every, dies a man, 359a, note Minutes, but yet what, 58b the little, humble though they be,
74a 240a
what damned, 302a Mirabile dictu, 577b MIRACLES
a miracle of mind, 91a
a miracle of symmetry, 358a a miracle to-day, a lover true, 92a accept a miracle instead of art, 408b
are to those who believe in them, 810b he has dismissed from our minds the fear of, 660b no longer any more miracles, 710a no miracle to convert an atheist, 7b
O miracle of men, 315a saint who works no miracles has no pilgrims, 850b so the miracle be wrought, what matter if the devil did it, 835b the age of miracles is past and is ever here, 710a, note
the Mother of God appears to
fools, 810b
what a miracle to man is man, 405a
Mire, death hath washed the, 352b Mirror faced a mirror, 214b holds its warped, 342a how few themselves in that just, see, 406b
in time it will vex you to look in your, 670a now we see in a, darkly, 428b of all curteisy, 77b the heart is the, 70a thou glorious, 56a up to nature, 294b what has a blind man to do with a, 479a, 635b what you see in the, is not in the mirror, 869a
MIRTH
all are not merry that dance lightly, 732b and fun grew fast, 46a and Innocence, 58b and mischief are two things, 80b and spleen, 2b but pleasing madness, 261a can into folly glide, 273a difficult to simulate, 541b her humblest mirth and tears, 394a
I'll use you for my mirth, 286b land of mirth and social ease, 147b limits of becoming mirth, 277a losing some hue of his mirth, 213a makes the banquet sweet, 76a no heart for mirth, 104b prolongeth life, 375b that after no repenting draws,
227a that does not make friends ashamed after, 378a that harmless mirth, 75a the mirth ye mar, 53b unseasonable, turns to sorrow, 449a very tragical mirth, 281a wicked mirth never true pleasure brings, 138b
you have displaced the mirth, 304b

MISANTHROPY

he is of no account who loves nothing, 593a he is unhappy whom no man pleases, 578b I can understand a misanthrope, 389a love no one and be beloved of none, 586a misanthropy of English poetry, 264a, note misanthropy one of the immortal lies, 81a misanthropy, spleen to mankind, 256b
 who loves his country, 82b Misappily whatever he shall write, 211b Mischance between us twain, never come, 295a

MISCHIEF and MISCHIEFS

a hand to execute any, 176a (mischiefs) come by the pound, 810b he hath done mischiefs, 99a he that sows thorns should not go barefoot, 781a in every deed of mischief, 144a it means mischief, 294b men's reason deceitful in working mischief, 523b mirth and mischief are two things, 810b mischief in front, 843a mother of mischief is na mair nor a gnat wing, 848b religion hides many mischiefs, 208a Satan finds some mischief, 382a silly dogs are more angry with the stone than the thrower, 834b the fat's in the fire, 844a thou art afoot, mischief, 286b what mischief the very virtuous do, 367a when children stand quiet, they have done some ill, 869b when to mischief mortals bend their will, 248a who hinders not, is guilty of it, 779a who is disposed for, will not want occasion, 779a

MISERS

a miser does nothing well except when he dies, 495a a miser's existence a prolonged death, 495a in want of what he has, 667b puts his belly in his purse, 843b the covetous man always wants, 661b this noble miser of his time, 398a ununsuned heaps of miser's treasure, 225a Miserable me, which way shall I fly, 218b no medicine but hope, 299b objectionable when no longer, 21a who must have been most, 29b Miserimus! and neither name nor date, 395a

MISERY

a consolation to have companions in woe, 659b a wretched man is a sacred thing, 645b acquaints a man with strange bed-fellows, 311a and happiness go to those who have too much, 698b and man, twins from birth, 257a can alter kind, 121a

Misery—contd.

cheers e'en the face of, 95a delights to trace its semblance, 102b force myself from contemplation of woe, 657a gave to misery all he had, a tear, 154a had worn him to the bone, 280a in misery's darkest cavern, 178a it is hard to be wretched, worse to be known so, 795b mother of miseries (poverty), 335b never feeling misery, never thought, 335a not inexperienced in wretchedness, 598b not the cause of Immorality, 71a nothing, unless our weakness apprehend it so, 139b pompous misery, 26b public misery never rose of itself, 156a renown grown out of misery, 105b steeped to the lips in misery, 198b sympathy cold to distant misery, 144b tell not misery's son that life is fair, 385b the child of misery, 193b the deep wide sea of misery, 325b vow an eternal misery together, 141a, note, 240b we are not so miserable as vile, 703b voked to guilt, 37a

MISFORTUNE and MISFORTUNES a good heart helps in, 553a a life o'erflourishing in ills, 245b a quelque chose malheur est bonne, 794b all due to our not being able to be alone, 708b (misfortunes) avoid the light, 81b best remedy, a good heart, 841a better ill kenne'd than good unkenne'd, 743b better learn of your neighbour's skaiht than your own, 743a come by forties, 810b come on wings, depart on foot, 810b consciousness of good intention a solace, 504b could bear other people's misfortunes, 258a eastern blast of, 46b even ill-luck is good for something, 755b ever claimed the pity of the brave, 111a good spirit in, reduces the evil, 498b good to learn from others' misfortune, 498b good watch prevents misfortune, 769a

 great minds despise, 570b harder hap did never two kind hearts disover, 434b if fortune thunders, do not be overwhelmed, 654b is friendless, 469a it is a good ill that comes alone, 794a it is easy to bear the misfortunes of others, 795a make haste to an ill way, that you may get out of it, 807a mishap hath thrown me in the dust, 436b misfortunes never come singly, 810b, 811a

Misfortune and Misfortunes—contd.

misfortunes of others, consolation of the damned, 449b no friend left in misfortune, 670a pleasant from land to watch others' straits at sea, 664a predicting misfortune, 347b prepare resolutely and bravely against misfortune, 643b rich men feel misfortunes that fly over poor men's heads, 830a set hard heart against hard hap, 833a sour misfortune's book, 280a there is none whom ills cannot reach, 473a we must make a stand against, 662a when a man is going downhill everyone gives him a push, 869a you have endured worse trouble, 619a you should not make others' misfortune your pleasure, 573a Misgivings, blank, 401a Misogyny: a woman-thrope, 389a Misquote, enough of learning to, 60a MISREPRESENTATION
 how a good meaning may be corrupted, 214b interpretation will misquote our looks, 314b let a man say what he will, an ill man will turn it ill, 800a meanings that he never had, 100a nothing which cannot be perverted, 591b so turns she every man the wrong way out, 284b the reward is to those who make right appear wrong, 544a their censures who delight to misapply, 211b there were no ill language if it were not ill taken, 817a to be mis-spoken and mis-seen of men, 353a Miss is as good as a mile, 726a the good we never, 98b thee everywhere, all day we, 228b Missed me with a fair amount of skill, 376b what he, is mystery, 174a Mission, never have a, 114b Missionary, I would eat a, 443b Mist, a grey, on the sea's face, 209b MISTAKE and MISTAKES a man is not good or bad for one action, 725a don't you go and make mistakes, 38b fools may learn by their own mistakes, 876b greatest general who makes fewest, 243b, note he struck at Tib, but down fell Tim, 776a honourable on way to knowledge, 373a if a wise man never miscarried, fools would burst, 788a if you don't say it you won't have to unsay it, 709b life very dull without mistakes, 388b makes him but mistake and fall, 162a man who makes no mistakes, 243b never overlooks a mistake, 176a not allowable twice in war, 449a one false move may lose the game, 821a Mistake and Mistakes—contd.

pride at the bottom of all great mistakes, 267b silence does not make mistakes, 834b the wisest make mistakes, 553a the wrong sow by the ear, 853b think it possible you may be mistaken, 104b vulgar keep no account of your hits, but of your misses, 852b where there is much love there is much mistake, 873b who never made mistake never made discovery, 330b wise men may learn by others' mistakes, 876b Mistier (mystiloker) it (theology) seemeth, 194b Mistress of herself, though china fall, 251a such, such Nan, 374b the mistress's eye keeps all clean, 848a

Misunderstanding, Battle is, 72b brings lies to town, 811a

Mitre, divided above, united below, 349b

Mitred dulness learns to feel, 209b

Mitres, shower down thy, 343b

Mixed, all things are, 261a everywhere good and bad, 208b inexplicably, 57b

Mizpah, 409a

Moan for rest, 4a

we cast away, 296b

Moaning of the bar, no, 306b

Moat defensive to a house, 312b

MOB, MOBS

a usurping crowd, worst of tyrants, 256b better rule than be ruled by the mob, 744a clamour of the mob, 622b has many heads, few brains, 848a

I hate the uncultivated mob, 609a mob of gentlemen who wrote with ease, 253a mob-violence: breaking of wind-dows, 234a nothing so uncertain or worthless as the mob's judgments, 594a our supreme governors, 377b shout with the largest mob, 111b

Mobile lignum (a puppet), 590b

MOCK, MOCKERY, etc.

a mockery and a snare, 109b all things are a mockery, 301b as if he mocked himself, 285b easy to mock the wretched, 529a he who seems to applaud is really mocking, 708a mockery, often poverty of wit, 697b mockery of the tomb, 58a mockery the fume of little hearts, 366a mocking is catching, 831b unreal mockery, hence, 304b

Mode, die, ist weiblichen Geschlechts, 711b Models for the mass, 31b

MODERATION

a few things suffice for the moderate, 617a a sort of treason, 40a and dignity, 672a conciliates the people, 602b displeasing to the crowd, 13b even in excess, 116a excess in nothing the highest principle, 547b Moderation—contd.

great minds prefer moderation to excess, 570b he lives well on little, 686b he that eats but one dish seldom needs the doctor, 777a

I desire not the lowest; I am not capable of the highest, 550b in all things, 811a, note in diseases less of everything, 552b in mean estate live moderate, 222a in moderation placing all my glory, 252b

in prosperity, 590b

is best, 474a

it is better to live temperately and within bounds, 579a

live within your harvest, 576b measure is a merry mean, 809b measure is treasure, 809b medio iustissimus ibis, 576b men live better on little, 686b men's wants mostly imaginary, 268a measure is medecyne, 194a moderate diet a physician, 656b moderate things are best, 809b moderate things last, 578b

Nature prescribes moderation in all things, 539b neither venture on open sea nor hug too much the shore, 643b of a man, 5b

of the weak is mediocrity, 607b reason lies between spur and bridle, 829a should be observed in joking, 485b sow with the hand, not with the sack, 479a

temperate rule endures, 683b

the best rule, 579a the dominion of reason, 669b

the mean is best, 447a

the middle course is the best, 468b the modesty of nature, 294b there is a measure in things, 523b things moderate are sure, 575a to moderate anger a sign of no ordinary nature, 578b via media, 682a virtue lies in moderation, 552a virtue of living on little, 628b

who would travel far spares his steed, 706b

MODERN, MODERNITY

abuse of a thing because it is modern, 555a audacity of modernity, 637a careless of modern things, 681b counsel of modern time, 10a he that comes after sees with more eyes than his own, 777a it is vain to dislike the current fashion, 795b kings of modern thought, 5a modern times unheroic to moderns, 30a to catch a modern brain, 96b

MODESTY

a good thing, but you may get on without it, 458b a very unassuming man, 582b a young man that blushes, 448b an ornament, yet people get on better without it, 811a ancient Modesty and neglected Virtue, 561a and beauty rarely agree, 642b and Faith unstained, 627a becomes a young man, 486a, 512a blurs the grace and blush of modesty, 295b Modesty—contd.

by deference you shall prevail, 608a cannot be taught, it may be born, 627a citadel of beauty, 467b does not survive innocence, 42b forbids what the law does not, 641a has died out, 467b

he rather had too much, 95a

I am modesty personified, 146a is the beauty of women, 811a knows no return when it has once gone, 619b makes the old wife trot, 814a

modest dogs miss much meat, 811a

modest doubt, the beacon of the wise, 298b

modest, kindly, all-accomplished, 364a modest man gets character of being reserved, 621a modest men are dumb, 90b modesty mixed with greatness, 7b modesty (shame) is poor, 523a

O modesty, O piety, 607a of nature, 294b

once banished never returns, 627a once injured, cannot be repaired, 603a reputation for modesty honourable, 579a ruins all that bring it to court, 811a sets off one newly come to honour, 811a the bounds of modesty, 280a this modesty will ruin you, 618b thy modesty a candle to thy merit, 134b too much, was his (fault), 150a true modesty and valour, 145b useless to a man in want, 681a valuable in conversation, 700b whose blameless wishes never aimed to rise, 264a women commend a modest man but like him not, 877b wore enough for modesty, 38a

Modus in rebus, 523b

Moi, moi dis-je, et c'est assez, 703b

Mole projected, the, 251b wants no lantern, 726a

Moles, comfortable, 4b to the, and the bats, 417a

Moles, rudis indigestaque, 647a

Moloch, horrid King, 216a

Moment as it flies, improve each, 179b every, dies a man, 359a may with bliss repay, 68a one, may contain a world, 161a parted from eternity, 234a to face some awful, 399b

Moments big as years, 185a

God works in, 767b like immortality, 58b make the year, 404b which he calls his own, 265a worth purchasing, 135b

Momento fit cinis; diu sylva, 676a

MONARCHS, MONARCHY

a merry monarch, scandalous and poor, 264a a monarch's rule founded on subjects' love, 259b

Britain's monarch once uncovered sat, 24b

I am monarch of all I survey, 102a if monarchy consist of such base things, 96a Monarchs, Monarchy—contd.

it becomes the throned monarch, 283b monarchs, could ye taste the mirth, 53b monarchs seldom sigh in vain, 270a monarchies end through poverty, 702b the trappings of a monarchy, 180a, 438b weight of mightiest monarchies, 217a with fear of change perplexes (monarchs), 216b Monastery, near the, last at mass, 849a

MONDAY

born of a Monday fair in face, etc., 463a, 463b for wealth (marriage day superstitions), 811a of a Monday I drive the coach, 134a parson's holiday, 350b religion better than Sunday profession, 811a the key of the week, 811a Monde où l'on s'ennuie, 700a

MONEY

a breed of barren metal, 282a a deception and disappointment, 384b a fool and his money soon parted, 720b a good servant, a bad master, 811b a merry fellow, 811b a written bond will be asked for, 655b all complain o' want o' siller, 719a all is not won that is put in the purse, 733a all things obedient to money, 618a always less than people imagine, 855a answereth all things, 416a ask thy purse what thou shouldst buy, 739b be ruled by him who bears the purse, 740b beggarly last doit, 100b begone! (money) I will drown you lest you drown me, 483a blood and life to mortals, 479a bonnie silver is soon spent, 745b breeds money, 811b buys lands, 878a cannot buy health, 378a chokes many, 651b clean out o' money, and 'most out o' lyin', 202b count siller after a' your kin, 749a cures melancholy, 811a dally not with money, 750b desire for, is to be shunned, 618a does not go as far as it did, 811b dumb trafficker, 345b easier to get than to keep, 795a effects of accursed hunger for gold, 637a either commands or obeys us, 550a ell and tell (ready-money) is good merchandise, 754b endless money the sinews of war, 590b few more innocent employments than getting money, 179a fight thou with shafts of silver, 164a finds friends, 645a finishes the man, 679a

Money—contd.

fool may make money, it takes a wise man to spend, 720b for lack of money I could not speed, 203a for that which is not bread, 418a full purse makes the mouth speak, 721a get money, still get money, 183a, 253a
 give money to a grateful man, 859b gives position and beauty, 524b God giveth good to spend, 341a God send us siller, they're little thought of that want it, 766a goddess of mortal affairs, 508a gold is an unseen tyrant, 480b gold put to use, 321a
 good is the smell of gain, 568a got wi' pain, kept wi' care, tint wi' grief, 830a has been slave to thousands, 301b he (French communist) wants money and nothing to do, 691b he has lost his money (son am perdidiit), 688b he that plays, ought not to value money, 780b heads to get money and hearts to spend, 134a health and money go far, 784a heavy purse makes light heart, 724a I hate gold, a persuader to evil, 608b if a little cash does not go out, much cash will not come in, 811b if money be not thy servant, it will be master, 789a if money go before, all ways lie open, 287b if you would know the value of money, 140b immoral money brought in foreign manners, 624a in the Three-per-cents, 34a is a beautiful gift, 627a is blood and life to mortals, 525b is flat, and meant to be piled up, 811b is honey, 27a is omnipotent, 741a is round, and meant to roll, 811b is the measure of all things, 811b is their plough, 78b it is pretty to see what money will do, 243a lack of money trouble without equal, 692b l'argent est une bonne passe-partout, 767b like muck, 10a
 like muck, stinks in a heap but is fruitful when spread, 830a, note little money, soon spendeth, 800a lost, mourned with genuine tears, 621a
 love does much, money more, 805b
 love of money and learning seldom meet, 847b love of money grows with money, 507a love of, roof of all evil, 430a love of: this girls learn before their alphabet, 544a make honestly if you can; if not, by any other means, 644b make money like horses, spend like asses, 334a makes marriage, 805b, 811b

Money—contd.

makes the man, 811b
 makes the mare to go, 811b man without money is a bow without arrow, 725b man without, is no man, 725b man without, is worthless indeed, 744b masters all things, 769b manners and money make a gentleman, 807b men make money, women save it, 725a men who make, rarely saunter, 205a money in purse will be always in fashion, 811b money lost, nothing lost, 716b money, means, and content, three good friends, 289a money-mongering pitiable brood, 184b money, patience, and time bring all things to pass, 824b muck and money go together, 813a must be set flying, 11a nae friend like the penny, 813b never have an idle pound, 814b no money in pocket, honey in mouth, 379a none of us have any idea of time or money, 114b not the sinews of war, 11a nothing comes amiss so money comes, 276b nothing more eloquent than ready money, 829a nothing so fortified that it may not be taken by, 592b of very uncertain value, 73b old women's gold is not ugly, 820a only lost through want of money, 811b pains to get, care to keep, fear to lose, 830a penny in pocket is a merry companion, 825a Philip's gold took the cities of Greece, 451b public money like holy water—everyone helps himself, 828a purse is empty that is only full of other's money, 839b put not your trust in money; put your money in trust, 828b put money in thy purse, 301a rather have a guinea than a one-pound note, 441a ready money is Aladdin's lamp, 65a ready money is ready medicine, 829a ready money will away, 829a refused loath its brightness, 812a respect shown in proportion to a man's money, 630b rich men's faults are covered with money, 844b ruins many, 812a
 rules the world, 767b
 ruling spirit of all things, 618a Samson was strong but could not pay money before he had it, 830b see what money can do, 682b sillerless man gangs fast through the market, 728b sinews of love as well as of war, 811b Sir Condy could never ask a gentleman for money, 130a Sovereign Queen, 17a

Money—contd.

sparing of his own, miserly with that of the public, 618a take a farthing from £1,000, 838b taken, freedom forsaken, 812a tell money after your father, 839b tester I'll have in pouch, 287b that eternal want of pence, 359a the best foundation in the world, 716a
 the best friends are in the purse, 840b the first thing, virtue afterwards, 606a the most important thing in the world, 323b the only monarch, 767b the picklock that never fails, 210a the sinews of the war, 139a the wise are swayed by chink, 741b thou bane of bliss, 163b to despise, is sometimes a great gain, 618a
 to few is good faith dearer than money, 617a to know its value try to borrow it, 791a to reap money, sow money, 790a to throw good money after bad, 862a trade the mother of money, 862b use alone makes money not contemptible, 162b usually less than men estimate, 714b wanting, in the midst of wealth, 551b wants no followers, 850b
 we have taught them to accept money, 618a we've got the money too, 458a what beauty in piled-up money, 636b what is infamy as long as our money is safe, 636a when Gold speaks you may hold your tongue, 870a when money's taken freedom's forsaken, 870a when was not money scarce, 132a who has money cannot want a head, 778b who has none in purse must have it in his mouth, 778b will do more than my lord's letter, 812a will make the pot boil, 812a without money all things are vain, 483a without money and without price, 418a you have lost your money; perhaps it would have lost you, 618a See Gold and Golden, Interest on money, Treasure Mongrel, puppy, whelp, and hound, 149b

MONKS a cloistered drone, 204a a town of monks and bones, 87b Crown that doth the Cowl obey, 398a despair makes the monk, 513b exhausted all the Church's prayers, 270b monk responds as the abbot sings, 802b monasticism: here Man more purely lives, 398a proverb as to gluttony of, 511b

Monks—contd.

take heed of a monk on all sides, 858b the habit does not make the monk, 846a the monk that shook the world, 230a the tonsure does not make the monk, 846a turned the cowls adrift, 358a Monkeys: "Probably Arboreal," the common ancestor, 344a Monopolists: Bone and Skin, 53a

MONOTONY day after day the same, 336b like a cuckoo, you have only one song, 878b neither all things nor always, nor by all persons, 587a

MONSTER and MONSTERS a faultless monster which the world ne'er saw, 324b a monster frightful, formless, 570b creatures in the seas entral, 340a every monster hath its multitudes, 757b monster, many-headed, multitude, 211b monster redeemed by no virtue, 579b monsters of the deep, 677b monstra maris, 677b show the monster as she is, 196a this many-headed monster, 210b what monsters you make of them, 294a Monstrous now, grown so, 172a Mont Blanc, 59a
 Montagne, la, est passée, 697b Montes, parturient, 616a Montgomery division, all on one side, 733b

MONTH and MONTHS a little month, 290b month without an R in it has no right in the year, 824a mother of months (April), 352b Snowy, Flowy, Blowy, 131a the months had spent their prime, 160b the Twelve Months that have passed, 172b there is no month which does not return, 855b thirtieth daies hath November, 436b

MONUMENT and MONUMENTS a lasting monument of his glory, 261b a monument of woe, 257b a monument without a tomb, 183a death comes even to monuments, 580a from off the Monument, 16b gilded monuments of princes, 321b hast built thyself a livelong monument, 228a her monuments shall last when Egypt's fall, 407a his grandsire cut in alabaster, 282a if you seek his monument, look around, 655a inscribed marbles not the immortality of noble leaders, 598b Monument of London: like a tall bully, 251b monuments that have forgotten, 59b monumentum are perennius, 527b mortal monuments, 273a most lasting are the paper monuments, 848b no trophy, sword, or hatchment, 296b Monument and Monuments—contd.

not a stone tell where I lie, 254b o'er his monument when dead, 273a peaceful rests without a stone, 254b then the bust and temple rise, 251a this grave shall have a living monument, 297a to earn a monumental pile, 99a weak witness of thy fame, 227b

MOON
 a song with the moon in it, 244a and the stars, 120b as the moon among the lesser lights, 576b be a dog and bay the moon, 286b blow them to the moon, 296a close by the moon, 218a curving on a sky, 33b danger of going to sea at New Moon, 434a does not trouble about the dogs, 767a each new moon hastens to its death, 672a Friday's moon comes too soon, 462b full moon brings fair weather, 845a God saves the moon from the wolves, 767a grapes do not ripen in rays of moon, 568b her silver mantle, 219a it will be a wet month that has two full moons, 797a light (moon) at Christmas, light wheat sheaf, 801b like the dead moon she still shines on, 382a like the moon confounds our sight, 437b like the moon wax ye and wane, 78a looks on many brooks, 231a looks on many night-flowers 231a, note made of green cheese, 234b maiden moon that sparkles on a sty, 360b maids who love the moon, 230b maker of sweet poets, 184b man in the moon, 456b man in the moon drinks, 847b may draw the sea, 361a minions of the moon, 313a moon of moons, 114b new moon on Saturday always unlucky, 831a new moon with the auld moon in her arm, 434a no lapse of moons can canker Love, 362a O, swear not by the moon, 278b philosophers dwell in the moon, 140a ripens the corn, 848a rising in clouded majesty, 219a Saturday new and Sunday full was never fine, 462b Saturday's new and Sunday's full was always rough, 831a slept beneath the moon, 3b sweet regent of the sky, 214b takes up the wondrous tale, 3a that orb'd maiden with whit fire laden, 326b the cold o' the moon, 34b the glimpses of the moon, 291b the moon in my pocket, 36a the moon returns, 23b

Moon—cont'd.

the moon sits arbitress, 217*a* the moon—so-called—of honey, 173*b*
 the pale-faced moon, 313*b* the very error of the moon, 303*a* the wat'ry star, 303*b* threatens the moon, 164*a* to keep the moon from the wolves, 860*b*
 turn your money when you see the new moon, 864*a* unclouded grandeur of, 325*a* unmask her beauty to the moon, 291*a*
 what is there in thee, moon, 184*b* when round the moon there is a brugh (halo), 871*b* when the moon is on her back, 871*b*
 with how sad steps, O moon, 329*b*, 394*b*
 you gazed at the moon and fell in the gutter, 879*b* Moonbeam dwells, the, 49*a*

MOONLIGHT

ineffectual glow of, 325*a* meet me by moonlight, 443*b* on the troubled sea, 233*a* steeped in the moonlight, 381*a* visit it by the pale moonlight, 272*a*
 Moonshine, he sits up by, 776*a* of an autumn night, 228*b* Moonshine's watery beams, 278*a* Moor, batten on this, 295*b* Mope for heaven, prudish clods who,
 188*b*

Mora dat vires, 583*b*

MORAL (Lesson or Meaning) a moral (like all morals) melancholy, 63*b*

 everything's got a moral, 119*b* make a moral of the devil, 316*b* moralized his song, 252*b* the moral's true, 126*a* to point a moral, 178*a*

MORALS and MORALITY absolute morality, 339*a* British public in one of its fits of morality, 205*b* custodian of morals, 510*a* deficient in morals, but proficient in learning, 634*a* Englishman thinks he is moral,

 323*b*
 let us be moral, 113*b* morality a standing jest, 82*b* morality made for man, 408*b* no distinctions of race in morality, 338*b*
 no geographical boundaries, 338*b* no man's religion survives his morals, 816*b*
 no one can be perfectly moral till all are, 338*b* no sterner moralist than Pleasure, 63*a*
 politics and morality, 234*b* not to be compelled to take your moral potions, 210*a* the canting moralist, 106*b* the last question will be as to his morals, 626*b*
 the morals of inhabitants fortify a place, 654*b* unawares morality expires, 254*a* veracity the heart of morality, 176*a*
 Morbid, all bile and verjuice and nerves, 173*a* Mordaunt, Major, 274*a*, note More, Hannah, and Johnson, 181*a*

More, Sir Thos., 12*a*, 398*a* More, as much as there is of the, so much there is of the less, 835*b* More majorum, in, 544*a* More, has asked for, 112*b* I dare not say, 321*a* no, of that, Hal, 314*a* O the little, 366*b* the more he cast away, 39*a* the more the merrier, 848*b* the more you do the more you may do, 848*b*
 the more you have the more you
 want, 848*b*
 the more you heap the worse you cheap, 848*b* they thought they might get, 337*a*

MORNING

air (morning) refreshing after losing money, 117*b* almost at odds with morning, 304*b* always morning somewhere, 199*b* as morning shows the day, 223*a* beloved, it is morn, 166*a* best of the sons of the morning, 160*a*
 bit in the morning better than a thump with a stone, 718*a* bringing back work and toil, 494*b* cheats boys of sleep, 672*b* chea lessens grief, 515*a* dreams come true, 263*b* each morn we are born anew, 405*a* each morning sees some task begun, 197*b*
 every morning brought a noble chance, 366*a* fair (morning) came forth with pilgrim steps, 223*a* fair laughs the morn, 155*a* from morn to noon he fell, 216*b* full many a glorious morning, 321*b* genial morn, 66*b* has gold in its mouth, 848*b* her rosy steps in th' eastern clime, 219*b*
 I scent the morning air, 292*a* in russet mantle clad, 290*a* incense-breathing morn, 153*b* is favourable to the Muses, 494*b* like a lobster boiled, the morn, 51*b* morn not waking till she sings, 110*a*
 morning sun never lasts a day, 756*a*, 848*b*
 mornings are mysteries, 376*a* never morning wore to evening, 362*a*
 of the times, 359*a* opening eyelids of the morn, 214*b*, 226*a*, note
 rosy-fingered morn, 257*b*, note rosy-fingered is the morn, 385*a* stars of morning, 220*a* sweet is the breath of morn, 219*a* the morn and cold indifference,
 266*b*
 the babbling eastern scout, 225*a* the dewy morn, 55*a* the Infinite Morning, 1*a* the meek-eyed morn, 369*a* the morn will never rise, 106*b* waked by the circling hours, 220*a* where the morn of life was spent,
 152*b*
 wings of the morning, 413*b* with rising morn arise, 185*b* with the dawning of morn, 68*b* with the morning cool repentance came, 274*a* with the morning cool reflection came, 274*b*
Moriturus te saluant, 495*a*

Morrow, a budding, in midnight,
 185*b*
 bitterly thought of the, 391*b* his to make, not share the, 383*b* take no thought for the, 421*b* Mors atris circumvolat alis, 654*a* Mors, pallida, 615*a* Morsel, a sweet, 162*a* from a, a morsel will give, 167*a* upbraided, never killed any, 737*a* Mort, la, sans phrase, 697*b* Mortalia tangunt, mentem, 666*a* MORTAL and MORTALITY all bodies subject to change, therefore all are mortal, 609*b* all men think all men mortal but themselves, 405*a* all we long for mortal, 368*b* he raised a mortal to the skies, 126*a*
 her last disorder mortal, 149*b* how gladly would I meet mortality, 227*b*
 law of every mortal lot, 6*a* man is known to be mortal by sleep and lust, 724*b*
 nothing difficult to mortals, 594*a* sad mortality may hide, 104*a* singly, mortals; collectively, immortals, 658*b* strong hand (mortality's), 311*b* this mortal coil, 293*b* too weak to bear them long (mortality), 238*b*
 what fools these mortals be,
 280*b*
 wronged by a mere mortal touch 101*a*
 your lot is mortal; you wish for what is not, 661*a* Mortar, no more, no more brick,
 816*b*
 Moses, a modern, who sits on Pisgah, 177*a* comes when the tale of bricks is doubled, 508*b*, 871*b* merciful, but a cut-throat, 108*b* Mote may choke a man, 726*a* Motes in the sonne-beem, 77*b* the gay, that people the sunbeams, 224*b*
 th' unnumbered, 355*a* Moth and rust, 421*b* for the star, desire of, 327*a* how like a, the simple maid, 143*a* not a, shrivelled in a fruitless fire, 362*b*
 thus hath the candle singed the,
 282*b*
 Moths, maidens like, 53*a* MOTHERS
 a child may have too much of his mother's blessing, 718*b* a diligent mother, a lazy daughter, 750*b*
 a man before your mother, 102*b* a mother in Israel, 410*a* a mother mourning for her only child, 535*a* a timid man's mother does not weep, 671*a* all my mother came into mine eyes, 316*b* all the mother's from the top to toe, 319*a* all women become like their mothers, 389*a* at length abandon your mother, 668*a* better child should cry than the mother sigh, 742*a* child dear for the mother's sake, 86*a*

Mothers—contd.

child of a mother's tears, 533*a*,
note child's destiny always the work of the mother, 450*a*
 despiseth to obey his mother, 382*b*, note
 does your mother know you're out, 464*a*, 490*a*
 everyone can keep house better
 than her mother, 758*a* happy he with such a mother, 361*a*
 how's your mother, 464*a* infant's smile for mother, 554*b* it is not as thy mother says, but as thy neighbours say, 796*a* lay me down as in my mother's lap, 221*b* light-heeled mothers make heavy heeled daughters, 724*a* mothers' darlings make milksop heroes, 812*b* mother's heart is always with her children, 848*b*
 mothers, wives, and maids, 35*a* my mother, 355*b* my mother didna speak, 17*a* never had none, 346*a* no man becomes like his mother, 389*a*
 no mother's care shielded my infant innocence, 268*b* no term of love so devotional as mother, 245*b*
 of all living, 409*a* oft mouseth the cat after her mother, 810*b*
 on any mother's knee, 354*b* peep and botanize upon his mother's grave, 399*b* pitiful mother makes a scald head, 724*a* she spins well that breeds her children, 833*a*
 so loving to my mother, 290*b* so to be loved, so to be wooed, 375*a* stabat Mater dolorosa, 662*a* tears are on the mother's face, 362*a*
 that can so astonish a mother, 295*a*
 the good mother saith not "Will you?" but gives, 845*a* the great sweet mother, 351*a* the holiest thing alive, 86*a* the love of a mother, which none can forget, 703*b* the young bride's mother, 435*b* their mother hearts beset with fears, 265*b*
 there is no mother like mine, 855*b* there was no mother, 263*a* thou art thy mother's glass, 321*b* thou drop into thy mother's lap, 221*b*
 thou sole and only mother, 353*a* thy mother a lady both lovely and bright, 273*b*
 what if she fail or fall behind, 375*a* when a mother meets on high the babe, 337*a*
 when the mare hath a bald face, the filly will have a blaze, 871*b* where the dam leaps over, the kid follows, 873*a* while thy babes around thee cling,
 399*b*
 who boasts two boys, 36*b* who will not hear motherhead shall hear step-motherhead, 782*a*

Mothers—contd.

who'd give her booby for another, 143*b*
 who would win daughter must begin with the mother, 783*a* will a mother give her children principles different from her
 own, 649*b*
 with her needle, 44*a* years to a mother bring distress, 392*a*
 young mother, one of the sweetest sights, 367*a* MOTHERHOOD
 as women wish to be who love their lords, 168*b* the pleasing punishment that women bear, 276*a* womanliness means motherhood, 35*b*
MOTHERS-IN-LAW
 none good but she that weareth a green gown, 855*b* the husband's mother is the wife's devil, 846*b*
 the mother-in-law forgets she was a daughter-in-law, 846*b* then up and spak' the young bride's mother, 435*b* while thy wife's mother lives, 144*b* Motherly, beer will grow, 172*b* MOTIVES never ascribe motives meaner than your own, 17*b* nothing done from a single motive, 89*a* take away the motive and the sin is taken away, 873*b* Motive power, the first, 624*b* Motley's the only wear, 288*b* Motu, ex mero, 527*a* Mould, all minted in the self-same, 266*a*
 broke the, in making Sheridan, 60*b*
 in so soft a, 128*a* is lost, the, 60*b*, note men not cast in the same, 858*a* Nature hath lost the, 436*a* nature made him and broke the,
 715*b*
 Moulds, tenpenny, 16*a* Mounser, only a darned, 146*a* MOUNTAINS
 a mountain and river are good
 neighbours, 726*a*
 and streams, 380*b* are a feeling, 55*a* are in labour, 616*a* are our sponsors, 193*a* beautiful upon the mountains, 177*b*
 divide us and a waste of seas, 441*a* each cloud-capped mountain, 170*b* even Fuji is without beauty to one hungry and cold, 755*b* freedom is on the mountains, 710*a* go, madman, and traverse the Alps, 547*b* great churches my form of mountain scenery, 344*a* greater shadows fall from the lofty mountains, 571*b* I come o'er the mountains, 161*a* if the mountain will not go to Mahomet, 789*b* in the morning mountains, in the evening fountains, 793*a* interposed, make enemies, 99*a* land of the mountain and the flood, 272*b*
 lover of the woods and mountains, 394*a*

Mountains—contd.

men may meet sooner than mountains, 810*a* never greet, 764*a* on this fair mountain, 295*b* robes the mountain in its azure hue, 66*a* seek in the morning, 573*b* shadows from the tall mountains, 525*a*
 sing upon your mountains, 667*b* the dew on the mountain, 271*a* the mountain and the deep and gloomy wood, 393*b* the misty mountains' tops, 279*b* the monarch of mountains, 59*a* the wooded (unshorn) mountains, 558*a*
 they see mountains, he but atoms sees, 407*b*
 Voice of the Mountains, 396*b* will not mingle with mountain, 476*a*, 579*b*
 Mountaineer, freedom of the, 395*b* Mountebank, an impudent, 3*a* Mounting in hot haste, 54*b*
MOURN and MOURNING a crime to mourn for any over-
 much, 362*b*
 cease wailing and dispense with funeral pomp, 504*a* don't mourn for me now, don't mourn for me never, 445*b* forbidding us to mourn or to forget, 446*b*
 he that lacks time to mourn, 356*a* he laments truly who laments when none is by, 549*a* her memory is the shrine, 228*b* how wretched the man who never mourned, 406*b* laughter under a mask, 541*a* man made to mourn, 44*a* mourn sore like doves, 418*a* mourned by man, and not by man alone, 396*a* mourned in silence and was Dido dumb, 258*a* mourned with thousands, I, 395*a* none mourn more ostentatiously than those who rejoice, 603*b* O ye Venuses and Cupids, mourn,
 568*b*
 the house of mourning, 415*b* the mourners go about the streets, 416*a*
 'tis not alone my inky cloak, 290*a* to weep excessively for the dead is to affront the living, 862*a* we lament by Nature's ordinance, 585*a*
 when cat mourns mouse you need not take her seriously, 871*a* wherefore should we mourn, 400*b* who thinks must mourn, 259*b* MOUSE and MICE a dead mouse feels no cold, 719*b* a mouse cannot cast a shadow like an elephant, 726*a* an absurd mouse, 616*a* cat sees not every mouse, 841*b* dun's the mouse, 754*a* escaped mouse ever feels the taste of the bait, 843*b* fishermen on the beach appear like mice, 306*b* hungry as a church mouse, 738*b* I gave the mouse a hole and she is become my heir, 787*a* it is a bold mouse that nestles in the cat's ear, 794*a* like little mice stole in and out, 346*a*

Mouse and Mice—contd.

like mice we eat the food of others, 631*a* mice and men, 44*a* mice and rats and such small deer, 306*b* most magnanimous mouse, 315*b* mouse in pot better than no flesh, 742*a*, 743*a* mouse in tar, 583*a* no house without mouse, 242*a*, note, 861*b* perishes by his own token, 661*a* poor as a church mouse, 738*b* pour not water on a drowning mouse, 826*a* quiet as a mouse, 1*a* silence catches a mouse, 834*b* that trusts to one poor hole, 255*b* the mice do not play with the cat's son, 848*a* the mouse wots well the cat's out of the house, 870*b* to a mouse, 44*a* to-day a man, to-morrow a mouse, 860*b* to speak like a mouse in a cheese, 861*b* wily mouse builds in cat's eare, 330*a*

MOUTH and MOUTHS and a rose her mouth, 363*b* blind mouths, 226*b* even in the mouths of men, 322*a* flies fly not into mouth shut, 793*b* for a ripe cherry, 878*b* God giveth mouth and meat, 374*a* God never sends mouths but He sends meat, 767*a* had I as many mouths as Hydra, 301*b*

 he has a hole under his nose, 773*a* he must have meal enough who would stop every man's mouth, 772*a* he opened not his mouth, 418*a* his pretty pouting mouth, 169*b* keep your mouth shut and your eyes open, 798*b* living in the mouths of men, 687*a* one mouth and two ears, 117*a* one mouth does nothing without another, 822*a* purple-stained mouth, 185*a* red splendid kissing mouth, 352*b* slave is the open mouth, 213*a* Mouth-honour, 305*b*

MOUTH (verb)

first mouthed to be last swallowed, 296*a* he mouths a sentence, 81*a* if you mouth it, 294*a* nay, an thou'll mouth, 297*a* Moutons, retourneons à nos, 707*a* Moutons, reverneons à nos, 707*a* Moved, motionless, I am, 580*b* on with difficulty and labour, 218*a* we see him as he, 364*a* Moving accident, the, 393*b* Mox reficit rates quassas, 568*b* Much in little, 582*b* Much, not many things, 599*a* Much of this, something too, 294*b* Muck, where there is, there is luck, 873*b* Mucky, out of the, into the pucksy, 823*b* Mud chokes no eels, 813*a* mountain-stream that ends in, 201*b* often seen is disesteemed, 724*b* though trodden down like, 266*a* Muddled oafs at the goals, 190*b*

Muddle: you have hashed up this mess, it is for you to swallow it, 673*b* Mulberries, not good at all, as the fox said, 845*b* Mule of politics, 117*a* that flings and kicks, 51*a* when a clown is on a, 832*b* Mules boast that their ancestors were horses, 813*a* Mulier, fatua (a foolish, or bad, woman), 531*a* Mulligans, a party all, 368*a* Mulligrubs, sick of the, with eating chopped hay, 834*a* Multis utile bellum, 543*b* MULTITUDE and MULTITUDES follows Fortune and hates the condemned, 673*a* foolish sometimes, 42*b* grasp at gain more than honour, 475*b* hot polloi, 475*b* I may be oppressed with multitudes, 183*a* is always in the wrong, 115*b* multitudes in the valley of decision, 419*a* numerous piece of Monstrosity, 28*b* oppressed by multitudes, 257*a* speak in fashion of the multitude, think as men of learning, 568*a* the cry is still, They come, 305*b* the many-headed monster, 211*b*, 496*a* the suffrages of the inconstant, 597*a* the unstable multitude is cleft between opposite courses, 650*a* the venal herd, 679*b* views of, neither good nor bad, 590*a* was ever feather so lightly blown to and fro, 317*b* we two form a multitude, 601*b* which no man could number, 431*b* wiser because just as wise as it need be, 621*b* with multitudes to stray, 239*a* Mummings, grave, 254*a* Mum's the word, 813*a* Munditis, simplex, 658*a* Munera nondum intellecta, 607*a* Munificence, remember his, 88*b* Munificent, not enough to be Liberal, but, 29*a* MURDER and MURDERS a brother's murder, 295*a* black stage for murders, 321*b* may pass unpunished, 126*b* millions made a hero, 258*a* most foul, 291*b* one murder made a villain, 258*a* out of tune, 303*a* that murder could not kill, 172*b* the noble art of murdering, 368*a* to destroy one is by the law murder, 404*b* to do no contrived murder, 300*b* to murder thousands takes a specious name, 404*b* we call it murder, 5*b* will out, 78*b*, 813*a* will speak, 293*b* Murmur as the ocean murmurs, 193*a* not a word of, 58*a* of the ocean-tide, 19*b* the unsleeping, like a shell, 344*b* Murmurings of a sea-shell, 401*b* of the crowd, 650*b* to mutter openly as bad as a crime in a plebeian, 615*a* Murus aeneus (a wall of brass), 543*a* Mus, ridiculus, 616*a* Musas colimus severiores, 595*a* MUSE and MUSES break off all commerce with the Muse, 402*b* forsake the useless Muses, 536*a* give leisure to the sacred Muses, 654*a* happy henchmen of the Muses, 268*b* meditate the thankless Muse, 226*a* my Muse, though hamely in attire, 46*b* no maiden more worthy of the Muses, 516*a* the worst-natured Muse, 149*a*, note, 264*a* the Muse be loved, 252*a*, note the Muses love a cheerful life, 394*b* those old-maid tabbies the Muses, 177*a* we cultivate the stricter Muses, 595*a* who weds the sacred Muse, 82*a* Mused on mutability, 65*b* Museums: antiquity enshrined in sumptuous buildings, 397*b* things curious and unfamiliar, 165*a* MUSIC

 a jackdaw has nothing to do with music, 591*a* a reasonable good ear in music, 281*a* a sympathy with sounds, 101*a* all that mote delight a daintie eare, 340*a* allays each grief, 4*a* an ancient ditty, long since mute, 185*a* an ass before the harp, 476*a* an incentive to love, 554*b* and sweet Poetry, 17*b* and women should never be dated, 150*a* any words good enough for music, 245*a* apothecary's mortar spoils the lute's music, 840*a* arose with its voluptuous swell, 54*b* as music on the wind, 91*a* bells are music's laughter, 173*b* breast that music cannot tame, 14*b* breathing from her face, 56*b* bright as the soul of light, 353*b* by and by will make the music mute, 364*b* can soften pain to ease, 254*b* care and grief of heart fall asleep, 320*a* charms the sense, 217*b* cordial of a troubled breast, 239*b* crack the voice of Melody, 167*b* Dancing child of Music, 107*b* die with all their music in them, 168*a* discord in music oft makes sweeter lay, 340*a* does all our joys refine, 239*b* doubly sweet the lays, 257*a* dwells lingering, 399*a* effect of music's power, 101*a* emotion the sphere of, 158*b* even in Beauty, 28*b* exalts each joy, 4*a*
 fading in music, 283*a* feeds the disposition it finds, 8*b*

Music—contd.

fled is that music, 185b for the time doth change his
nature, 283b
golden tongue of, 185a greatest strokes make not the best music, 770a hath charms, 92b heart that music cannot melt, 19b heavenly maid, 90a hell full of musical amateurs, 323b her voice comforted her hands to work, 329b
how sour, when time is broke,
313a
I am capable of a tune, 192a I am never merry when I hear sweet music, 283b
I shall hate sweet music, 351a I struck one chord of music, 260a if beginning life again, would devote it to music, 333a if music be the food of love, 297b, 438a in all things, 65b in their heart, 187a inconsolable to the minuet in Ariadne, 328b inspires devotion, 29a instinct with music, 392b instrumental music enervates the
mind, 522a
lap me in soft Lydian airs, 224a let him who knows the instrument play on it, 800b let me die to delicious, 453a let me have music dying, 184b let the sounds of, creep in our
ears, 283b
light quirks of music, 251b like music, to the heart it went,
264b light sweetness long drawn out, 224b lyre welcome at Jupiter's feasts, 510b made of divers voices, 74b makes a healthful music, 296a man that hath no music in himself, 284a may make one music, 362a medicine of a troubled mind, 583b melting airs or martial music, 101a moody food of us that trade in
love, 307b
most eloquent music, 295a most high to tears and memory, 388a murmurs through the wail of woe, 383b music's melting fall, 154b no dinner goes well without, 116a no music more for him, 266a no music where woman is in the concert, 109a no passion but finds its food in music, 196b no truer truth than by music, 36b nonsense set to music, 2b notes of saddest woe, 227b of all noises the least disagreeable, 440a of humanity, 394a of men's lives, 313a
of the heart, 397a
of the "spears," 233a of those village bells, 101a organs, 254b peoples solitude, 35a philosophy the highest, 448a pianoforte keyboard, 379b seduction of martial music, 43b

Music—contd.

sings and so o'ercomes its rage,
94b so sweet that joy is almost pain, 325b soft is the music that would charm for ever, 394b soft is the note and sad the lay, 272b softest music to attending ears, 279a some repair to church for music, 246b soul of music slumbers in the shell, 264b
still sweet fall of music, 66b strains that might create a soul, 225b such art in sweet music, 320a such notes as, warbled to the string, 224b such sweet compulsion doth in music lie, 224b sweeter for tuning, 8b sweeter than their own, 400a take the prisoned soul and lap it in Elysium, 225a that gentlier on the spirit lies, 357b the brandy of the damned, 323b the ceasing of exquisite music, 198a the city is built to music, 364a the creation of man, 158b the greatest good, 2b the medicine of the mind, 197a the melting voice, 224b the mosaic of the Air, 209a the music and perfume that die
not, 352b
the music in my heart I bore, 395b the music melted in the throat, 126b
the oars kept time with the notes, 208b, note
the only cheap and unpunished rapture, 333a the only sensual pleasure without vice, 181a
the only universal tongue, 265a the real universal speech, 713b the rich stream of music, 154a the soul of music shed, 230b the sweet solace of labour, 563b their discords sting, 167b there is music in Nature, 158b they (the winds) repay a melody for their liberty, 543b thou honour'st verse, 227a thy chosen music, Liberty, 396b till angels wake thee, 178b tone makes music, 862a uninformed by art, 124b wandering on as loth to die, 399a waste their music on the savage race, 153b, note what passion cannot music raise and quell, 125b when soft voices die, 326b where there is music there can be nothing bad, 873b whether voice or lute were most divine, 233a with her silver sound, 280a will not cure toothache, 813a words for music invariably trash, 193b Musical as bright Apollo's lute, 277b as is Apollo's lute, 225a as the chime of bells, 95b and low, seemed, 201a glasses, the, 151a most, most melancholy, 224b

Musicians, common disease of, 182b best of all, 199b have no gold for sounding, 280a know, we, 34b sound of, whilst tuning, 8b Musician's cunning, 32b Mushroom kind, he is of the, 537a he grew suddenly like, 664b he is of the race of the, 537a men, of puff-ball fame, 195b Mushrooms, feast not made of, 720a men born of, 520b Mussel, there is life in a, 855a Must be done, if I say it, 69a is a hard nut, but has a sweet kernel, 813a
we must do the things we must,
207a Mustard and cress, the, 146a after the meal, 732a a good sauce, but mirth is better, 813a more meat and less, 812b without beef, 838b Mutability: consider nothing your own which can be changed, 594a Mutability, mused on, 65b nought may endure but, 325a Mutantur, omnia, 611a Mutatis mutandis, 583b Mute and magnificent, 124a have a care of natures that are,
213a so near to, the zephyrus flute, 213b Mutiny, move the very stones of Rome to, 286b
Muttering: patenostre du singe, 705a MUTTON
he loves mutton well that eats the wool, 775b
love o' mutton beat their love o' sheep, 202b mutton, and any pretty little tiny kick-shaws, 315b mutton old and claret good, 237b of all birds give me mutton, 819a one shoulder of mutton drives down another, 737a with the usual trimmings, 112b Myriads, ever moving, 186b Myrtle among thorns is a myrtle still, 726a
cypress and, 56b Myrtles brown, ye, 225b Myself, I live not in, 35a little grace my cause by speaking of, 300b
MYSTERY AND MYSTERIOUS a main mystery, an' a man knew where, 183b
a sense of mystery, 171a for each mystery could find a key, 331a
God moves in a mysterious way, 95b heavenly mysteries, 491b I love not mystery or doubt, 273a leads millions by the nose, 268a lucrative business of mystery, 39a men put more faith in things they
do not understand, 571b mysteries of empire, 491b mystifying what was clear, 7a sacred mysteries (arcana sacra), 491b stewards of Thy mysteries, 432a the mystery of mysteries, 274a the true mystery is the visible, 388a the unknown is taken for magnificent, 609b things not understood are admired, 857b

Mystery and Mysterious—contd.

we are more frightened by the unseen and unknown, 504*a* where mystery begins, 39*a* worshipping mystery, 373*b* you would pluck out the heart of my mystery, 295*a* Myth, a rank growth of, 90*a* Mythology, preach a respectable, 378*b*

N

Naebody care for me if, 48*a* Nævia laughs with cast-down eyes,
64*b*
Nail, for want of, a shoe was lost, 763*a*
one, drives out another, 503*a*, 822*b*
to our coffin adds a, 391*a* Nails, from your tender little fingers, 651*b*
Naked every day he clad, 149*b*
human heart, 405*b*
no one can strip the, 589*a*, 879*a* to strip the, 602*b* Nakedness of indigent world, 151*a* Nambly-pamby madrigals, 145*a*

NAME AND NAMES

a commodity of good names, 313*a* a distinguished and venerable name, 503*a* a far babbled name, 235*b* a few names which have not defiled their garments, 431*b* a good name and a trade to your son, 866*a* a good name better than precious ointment, 415*b*
—endureth for ever, 420*b* —rather to be chosen than great riches, 414*b* a local habitation and a name, 281*a*
a main mystery in names, 183*b* a name and an omen, 595*b* a name the distinguishing mark of a thing, 595*b* a wounded name, 297*b* a woundly luck in names, 183*b* am nothing but a name, 94*b* an ill name is not cured, 843*b* and twenty more such names and
men, 276*a*
as for my name and memory, 12*b* awful, unpronounceable names,
158*b*
Ben Adhem's name led all the rest, 175*b* bequeathed to his son a good
name, 239*a*
'bove any Greek or name, 122*a* by any other name would smell as sweet, 278*b* by whom their name decays, 156*b* called after him and preserves his
name, 482*b*
called them by names, 33*b* cannot love my lord and not his name, 364*a*
cannot tell what the dickens his name is, 287*b* conspicuous and sublime, 397*b* crack't name in the church glass, 162*b*
dies to win a lasting name, 121*b* do not give confidence, but things give confidence to names, 476*a* each heart recalled a different
name, 355*b*
every sacred name in one—my friend, 258*a* fair, and famous names, 352*b*

Name and Names—contd.

fascination of a name, 101*a* flowers lovelier than their name, 359*b*
foolish whistlings of a name, 94*a*
from whence came Smith, 437*a* get a good name and go to sleep, 765*a*
give a dog an ill name and hang
him, 765*a*
giving a name is a poetic art, 72*b* glory and the nothing of a name, 61*b*
good name better than a golden girdle, 722*a* good name better than riches, 722*a*
good name in man or woman, 301*b* good name lost, you will be as though you did not exist, 612*a* good name sooner lost than won,
722*a*
great name shall never pass, 21*a* hath sunk beneath that withering
name, 232*b*
he should have a hail pow that calls his neighbour nikkienow, 776*a*
he spreads his name through the
world, 595*b*
he that fishes from me my good
name, 301*b*
hell trembled at the hideous name, 217*b*
her name is never heard, 19*a* her name passed into a proverb,
713*a*, note
his name a great example, 122*a* his name in my ear was ever ringing, 325*b* how cursed is his name, 382*b* how loved, how honoured once, 254*b*
I claim the measure of my name, 655*a*
I have a name which shall fill all lands, 655*a*
I've forgotten your name, 352*a* I will give them an everlasting
name, 418*a*
if I can preserve my name, 521*b* if his name be George I'll call him Peter, 311*a* ill-starred name, 273*a* it is not fair to tell names, 796*a* learned their names and all their secrets, 199*b*
learned would give it a clumsy
name, 363*b*
left a name behind them, 421*a* left her a name unstained, 373*b* lent honourable names to disgraceful things, 546*a* let be my name until I make my name, 364*a*
let me not name it to you, 302*b* let my name wither, so long as France is free, 706*a* lost good name ne'er retrieved, 143*b*
loud with names that men forget, 353*b*
louder year by year his empty
name, 236*a*
love hangs the light about your
name, 34*b*
lovely name of Edith, 198*b* magic of a name, 66*b* mark the marble with his name, 251*b*
men who lived and died without a name, 348*b*

Name and Names—contd.

my good name, white as a tulip,
403*b*
my name unstained, 530*b* name graved in the white stone, 24*b*
name obnoxious to no pun, 327*b* Name of Jesus, 238*b* name of the Lord a strong tower, 673*b*
name of names, 353*a* name of Scotsmen, 17*b* name to be washed out with tears, 353*a* name unmusical to 'Volsicians' ears, 308*a* name without an echo, 238*a* names are objectionable, 596*a* names canonised in Fames 'Eternal Calendar, 340*b*, note names he loved to hear, 167*a* names of illustrious fame, 556*a* names of things beloved are dear, 25*b*
names that men remember, 353*b* names that must not wither, 55*a* nations unborn your mighty names shall sound, 246*b* new made honour doth forget names, 311*a* no blot on his name, 67*b* no name, nor date, graven upon the stone, 395*a* no profit but the name, 296*a* no stone without its name, 604*a* not scrupulous about names, 105*a* one of the few, the immortal names, 156*b* one whose name was written in
water, 445*a*
our names familiar in his mouth, 316*b*
perchance our names may be mingled with theirs, 534*b* Phœbus! what a name, 60*a* pledge of a deathless name, 200*a* remember to preserve your good
name, 612*a*
serious names to hide ignorance, 325*a*
Smith's no name, 256*a* some need hyphens in their names, 460*b*
stained his name, 45*b* strange names our rustics give, tender of her own good name, 97*a* terror of the Roman name, 670*b* terror of your name, 683*b* that my book may not want so great a name, 609*b* that our names may live, 229*b* that serene companion, a good
103*a*
name, 399*a*
that would have made Quintilian stare, 227*a*
the beauty would be the same, 363*b*
the fortune of our name perishes,
608*b*
the name at which the world grew pale, 178*a* the old names, 88*b* the shadow of a great name, 570*b*, 600*b*
the shadow of a name, 662*b* their name liveth for evermore, 421*a*
their names, unsung, unwept, 349*b*
their very names shine still and
bright, 398*b*

Name and Names—contd.

Thomas and William and such pretty names, 382b thou hast forgot their names, 121a through superstition of a name, 666b thy name expanded flies, 250a thy name shall endure, 652b to leave our names to after-time, 210b to such a name preserve a broad approach of fame, 361a victorious names, 126b villas with resounding names, 195b we will not ask her name, 69a what mortal would be a Bugg 173a what's in a name, 278b when Fate writ my name, she made a blot, 376a when that he is best of name, 77a which keeps country's name respectable, 39b (names) which no one can speak and no one can spell, 337a with a terrible name, 337a would be unlawful' to name, 46a your name is great, 301b Named, better never to be, 75a Nameless here for evermore, 245b Nancy, I would I were with, 464b lang-tochered, 48a Naples, paradise of Italy, 138b see Naples and die, 831b NAPOLEON
 bad among the worst, 337b be a Napoleon and yet disbelieve, 33b could not dine twice, 703a death of, 690a sayings of, 450a, 450b Narcissi, fairest among them all, 326a Narrative old man, 257a Narrower, gets the, by going farther, 170a Nascimur ad hoc, sed sine hoc, 585a Nasty ideas, a man of, 350a NATION and NATIONS a nation yet, the rulers and the ruled, 361a
 a noble and puissant nation, 228a agony and sport of nations, 191a an old and haughty nation, 225a are as a drop in the bucket, 417b better a brutal, starving nation, 209a better one suffer than a nation grieve, 123a boast themselves an ancient nation, 122a busily engaged in idleness, 672a certitude of light in a nation's might, 244a degraded into a mob, 117b dewfall of a nation's tears, 231a England teacher of nations, 228a every nation and of all tribes and peoples, 431b experience the true wisdom of nations, 450b fierce contending nations, 2a give back the little nation leave to live, 196a happy the nation which has no history, 771b, note have their infancy, 268a holds it no sin to tarre them to controversy, 293a institutions create a nation, 118b institutions determined by its character, 338b

Nation and Nations—contd.

la grande Nation, 697b
 law of nations, 43a, 223b, 562b, 641a law of, prohibits injury, 601a made and preserved us a nation, 188a, 235a manners of all nations equally bad, 390b march of nations, 66b men and nations knew, 257a moulded with blood and iron, 354b mountains make enemies of nations, 90a nation half mad, 334b nation is like a comedy, 584b nation not a corporate body in France, 697b nation swoln with insolence, 53b nation without sentiment is nothing, 141a nations enlarged schoolboys, 141a nations, slowly wise and meanly just, 178a no nation wanted it so much, 348a of amateurs, 265b of shopkeepers, 454b, 709b, note once to every man and nation, 201a one nation evermore, 168b outlive lives of nations, 352b peace of nations not secured without arms, 590a queen of nations, absolutely great, 345b sense of greatness keeps a nation great, 379b she that was great among the nations, 418b temptations to belong to other nations, 145b the courtesy of nations, 288a the gods of the greater nations, 571b the law of nations, how ordained, 610b the most advanced navigators, 131b
 the original friends o' the nation, 202a there is not a nation in Europe, 16a thou hast multiplied the nation, 417a two nations, the good, the bad, 208b well gagged and well drilled, 354b what makes a nation happy, 223a why do the nations rage, 630b woe to that nation, 434a National Debating Club, 72b debt a National blessing, 383b literature begins with fables, ends with novels, 697b Palaver, the, 73a prejudices, 390a
 Nationalism: who seeks for truth should be of no country, 450a Nationless, tribeless and, 326a Native shore, adieu, my, 53b air, content to breathe his, 254b here and to the manner born, 291b heath, my foot is on my, 274a mountains, bind him to his, 147b place, wish to appear considerable in, 178b soil, thus leave thee, 221b NATIVE LAND
 adieu, my native land, 197a all men's affections bound up in their native land, 500b dear and pleasing to us all, 660a

Native Land—contd.

died a soldier, for his native land, 631b dispraise of, 24a every land a native land to a brave man, 609b I would not change my native land, 382a is dear, 616b
 my own, my native land, 272b no one can discard his native land, 589a not afraid to die for, 598b shameful to be ignorant of one's native land, 593a smoke of, brighter than fire in a foreign land, 616b soil of, dear to us all, 617a the charm which captivates us, 590b we leave the boundaries of our native land, 601b Nativity, chance, or death (odd numbers in), 287b Natura naturans, 585a Nature, lusus, 569a NATURAL and NATURALNESS but I do it more natural, 297b I must be natural or unnatural, 150b naturalness hindered by desire of appearing natural, 707a natural philosophy, 11b, 13b nothing leads to good which is not natural, 713b something in this more than natural, 293a what is natural is never disgraceful, 477a what is natural best becomes a man, 547b Naturam expellat furca, 585a NATURE
 a book only read, perhaps, by me, 392b a mere copier of, 263a a' thy shows and forms (Nature), 46b abhors a vacuum, 813b, 584b able to bear any labours, 534b above all art, 106a accuse not nature, 220b admits no lie, 73b all false religion conflicts with nature, 708b all nature is but art, 248b all-sufficing, 324b almost lost in Art, 90a alone knows what she wants, 712a and nature's laws lay hid in night, 256a any man that walks the mead, 359a argument vanishes before one touch of nature, 90b Art is the child of Nature, 198b Art the perfection of Nature, 28b as fresh and sweet as ever, 106b Auld Nature, 47b brings forth none but she provides for them, 767a but a name for an effect, 101a can chastise those who transgress her law, 324b cannot miss, 126b careful of the life, careless of the single life, 362b charms of, 46b chasses le naturel, il revient au galop, 813b commonplace of, 392b compunctious visitings of, 303b

Nature—contd.

consult nature about nature, 14a course of, is the art of God, 408a custom can never conquer, 605a death is nature's lie, 383a delights in cross-breeds, 697b designed by nature wise, 101b discarded in pursuit of fortune, 668b does not make leaps, 585a does nothing in vain, 583a draw a charm from rocks or woods, or weeds, 260b draws more than ten oxen, 813b drive out nature and it returns at a gallop, 813b every art an imitation of nature, 612b every bush rings with nature's music, 177b everything unnatural is imperfect, 450a evidence of nature worth more than learning, 679a exists in smallest things, 671b extremes in nature, 251b eye nature's walks, 248a faultless proprieties of nature, 228a first and fundamental law of, 166b first great title of, 104b force of, could no further go, 125b free to all, 156b from nature's chain, whatever link you strike, 248b gave signs of woe, 221a gave us Nature's teaching, 386b governed by obeying her, 13b great Nature's plan, 46b had little clay like that of which she moulded him, 241b Handmaid of God, 175a hangs her mantle green, 46b happy nature to explore, 249a has cast me in so soft a mould, 128a hath framed strange fellows, 281b hath lost the mould, 436a hath need of what she asks, 222b having felt the power of nature, 392b her custom holds, 296b hides her treasures less and less, 395a I have learned to look on nature, 394a I loved (Nature), and next to Nature, Art, 192b if Nature built by rule, 6b if thou hast nature in thee, 292a in a state of nature, 553a in her better part, 76b in Nature see the God of Love, 335b in the eye of nature he has lived, 400b inconstancy in nature, 94b informed by the light of nature, 7b insufficient to the greedy, 495b is beyond all teaching, 813b is but the varied God, 370a is Christian, preaches to mankind, 406a is frugal, and her wants are few, 404b is inexhaustible, 697b it is difficult to change, 585a It is the nature of the beast, 796b kind Nature's charities, 391b knows a thing or two, 275a laid all nature under tribute, 156b law of nature, 223b

Nature—contd.

law of nature prohibits injury, 607a let nature be your teacher, 399a light of, for wit's false mirror, 250a light of, shows God, 7b like nature's bastards, not her sons, 225b list to nature's teachings, 37a live as nature bids, you will never be poor, 654a looked through nature at one glance, 258a looks prettily in rhyme, 98b looks through nature up to nature's God, 250a love is nature's truth, 383a love not man the less, but nature more, 56a made fields, human art built cities, 587a made her what she is, 48b made him and then broke the mould, 715b may teach you more of man, 399a meditate the Book of, 370a more powerful than education, 116a mould their tender nature, 528a movements violent in nature, 10a muse on nature, 66b mute Nature mourns her worshipping, 272a nature, fate, fortune—all names of God, 585b nature's chief darling, 169b nature's darling (Shakespeare), 154b nature's elemental din, 67b nature's fault alone, 81b nature's fault, not thine, 61a nature's heart amid the hills, 215b nature's journeymen, 294b nature's mighty law is change, 48a nature's minstrels, 120b nature's rules have no exceptions, 338b nature's social union, 44a nature's system of divinity, 408a never deceives us, 694a never did betray the heart that loved her, 394a never opposed to Wisdom, 42a never says one thing, and wisdom another, 605a never seen with her hair in papers, 390a nigardness of, 379b no tears in, 197a nothing difficult to, 591a nothing melancholy in, 86a o'erstep not the modesty of, 294b one spark of nature's fire, 46b one touch of nature, 298b one, the least of nature's works, 391b order of nature not accidental, 627a paints the best part of the picture, 131b passes nurture, 813b pens her laws in man's heart, 107a prodigality of nature, 318b productions of nature, materials of art, 144a progress a part of, 338b read nature; a friend to truth, 406a repeats herself, 697b requires little food, 516b requires very little, 528a rest in Nature, not the God of Nature, 164a

Nature—contd.

revolves; man advances, 407a sang of man or nature, 187a Scripture authentic, uncorrupt by man, 408a seeds of virtues implanted by nature, 665b seemed to have done with her resentments, 343b seems to sit alone, 378b seldom extinguished, 11a she hath done her part, do thou but thine, 220b simple Nature, trained by careful Art, 395a so nature ordains, 657a speech of, can never lie, 107a spoils of, 28b state of nature was the reign of God, 249b still is fair, 54a subdued to what it works in, 322a sullenness against nature, 228a take God from Nature, 408a the Art of God, 28b the faultless proprieties of, 605a, note the general smile of, 369a the kindest mother, 54a the law of Nature, 43a the love of, 37a the master-stroke is still her part, 131b the more we learn of Nature, 100a
 the slender debt to nature, 261a the solid ground of, 394b the strong propensity of nature, 228b them which is of other natures, 113b things done according to nature are to be accounted good, 611b things finished by, better than finished by art, 575b things natural not a cause of disgrace, 585a things rank and gross in nature, 290b threatens ere she springs, 38a time strengthens judgments of, 613b 'tis their nature too, 382a to be lord of all the works of nature, 341b to force nature, 20b to hide the sparks of nature, 399a to him are opening paradise, 155b to hold the mirror up to nature, 294b to live according to nature, 651a to me an appetite, a feeling and a love, 393b to nature and yourself appeal, 439a to nature not untrue, 24b to see all nature gay, 269b to win the secret of a weed's plain heart, 201a truth and nature, 18b truth of nature lieth hid, 7b unchanging harmony of, 324b unchanging, reverts to its evil courses, 667b universal Nature did lament, 226a various is the nature of things, 577a vicar of the Almighty, 79b, note volume of nature, 14a volume of, the book of knowledge, 150a we think according to nature, 13a we worship Nature, even against our wills, 585a

Nature—contd.

what we call the laws of nature, 176a when Love owes to Nature his charms, 331a where nature does least, man does most, 874a who can paint like nature, 369a who e'er takes a view from nature, 91b who loves nature, 25a whom I have loved with such communion, 396a wisdom, power and love in, (nature) 186a with little is content, 164b with whom quick nature died, 446a womb of nature and perhaps her grave, 218a works on a method, 132a yet do I fear thy nature, 303b you cannot rob me of free Nature's grace, 371a you may drive out nature with a fork, but she will return, 585a Naught, it is, saith the buyer, 414b, note to us, nor we to thee, 186b people with, were naughty, 173a Nauseam, usque ad, 676b Nautilus, learn of the little, 249b NAVY
 all may be rulers of the Queen's, 145a British army a projectile to be fired by the, 460b Britain's wooden walls, 447b great expense involved in naval matters, 625b mistress of the seas, 451b Navy of Charles II, 207a Navy of England its greatest defence, 23a shall not England smite with Drake's strong stroke, 383a the nations' airy Navies, 358b the trident of Neptune the sceptre of the world, 701a who has possession of the sea commands the situation, 11a, 505a, 632b Navigation, the most advanced nations navigate, 131b Navigators, waves on side of the ablest, 144b Nay, a woman's, 322b past all saying, 283a Nayed him twice, 156a
 Nazareth, can any good thing come out of, 425b Ne plus ultra, 585b Ne sutor ultra crepidam, 586a, note Ne vile velis, 586a Neæra's hair, 226a
 Neapolitan biscuit, he hath fed on a, 773a Near, careless of things which are, 626b so, and yet so far, 362b, 596b too near, too far, for me to know, 381a us, things, we neglect, 521a Nearer day by day, draw we, 186b my God, to thee, 1a one, was there a, 169a yet, and yet more near, 160a Nearest but with a long interval, 568a do the thing nearest us, 189a is dearest, 813b NEAT and NEATNESS as neat as ninpence, 738a

Neat and Neatness—contd.

neat not gaudy, 192b still to be neat, 182b we are taken by neatness, 583a Necessary, no man is, 816b Necessitate rei, ex, 527a NECESSITY
 a tremendous weapon, 814a a violent schoolmistress, 690a any sort of weapon useful to, 588a argument of tyrants, 245a art weaker than necessity, 479a bestower of wit, 569b breaks iron, 814a cos ingeniorum, 506b creed of slaves, 245a dire necessity, 516a feigned necessities, 104b force of, is irresistible, 479b gives law and does not accept it, 588a gods do not fight against, 468a has no holidays, 531b has no law, 588a, 814a has the same law for high and low, 486b he must needs go that the devil drives, 755b he that may not as he would mon do as he may, 780b immense regard due to necessity, 588a is a stubborn thing, 759b is the law of time and place, 588a make a virtue of necessity, 77a, 78a, 806b, 861a makes an honest man a knave, 108b makes the timid brave, 814a mother of invention, 814a "Must" is master, 809b need makes the old wife trot, 814a need makes virtue, 814a never made good bargain, 140b no virtue like necessity, 312a pardon given to necessity, 680a plea for infringing freedom, 245a poverty the source of art, 230a praised as a virtue, 564b public necessity more important than private, 588a teacher of art, 569b, 814a the tyrant's plea, 219a thou mother of the world, 325a turns his necessity to glorious gain, 399b tyrant conscience of the great, 349a what cannot be eschewed, 288a what the law compels do as of freewill, 642a you can escape necessities, not conquer, 521a See Need.
 Neck, as lief thou didst break his, 288a break her—a politician did it, 437a or nothing, 814a that's once broken, 274b, 377b wished for a goose's neck to enjoy food longer, 695a, note Nectar, a common jar often holds, 682b NEED and NEEDY
 a needy, hollow-eyed, sharp-looking wretch, 276a and oppression starveth in thine eyes, 280a deserted at his utmost need, 125b good at need, 272a pity and need make all kin, 4b

Need and Needy—contd.

what you do not need is dear at a farthing, 522a will borrow in bitter need, 30b you are on the highway to Needham, 878b See Necessity, Poverty and Want, 878b Needful, one thing is, 424b, 622b Needle and thread are half clothing, 716b in a haystack, 861a like the, true, 156a might have heard a needle fall, 196a so shakes the needle, 62a to the Pole, the magnetic, 170a to argue on the point of a, 861b true as the, 24a you have touched the matter with a, 484b you may see heaven through a needle's eye, 879b Needles and pins, 446b, 814a NEGLECT
 drift as bad as unthrift, 753b entrusting the sheep to the wolf, 569a evils grown old not easily suppressed, 609b he injures a fair lady that beholds her not, 773b if men had not slept, the tares had not been sown, 789a kame sindle, kame sair, 798a let alone makes monkey a loon, 800a loss discreditable if due to negligence, 673b most tender mercy is neglect, 103a much rust needs a rough file, 813a poor people imagine they are being neglected, 610b sweet neglect more taketh me, 182b want of care makes the field bare, 859b who sleeps upon his watch, 39b wise and salutary neglect, 40a Neglecta solent incendia sumere vires, 584a NEGLEIGENCE fit for a fool to fall by, 320a negligences and ignorances, 432a nothing easy to the negligent, 818b the negligent admire celerity, 307b NEGOTIATION
 amicably if they can, 262a he who refuses justice to an armed man, gives all to him, 492a in long treaty lieth sometimes great falsehood, 792b words to be tried before resort to arms, 611b Negotius, par, 615a Negro, to wash a, white, 487a image of God in ebony, 141b Neiges d'antian, où sont les, 704b NEIGHBOURS
 a disaster to have a bad neighbour, 488a all is well with him beloved of his neighbours, 733a and enemies, 742b bad and good, 477b everyone thinks himself above his neighbour, 709b foolish to set your neighbour's house on fire, 663b hate your neighbour, 205b love your neighbour and God, 203b neighbour's house burning, 584a

Neighbours—contd.

our neighbour's crop seems greater than our own, 571b our neighbour's flock has more milk than ours, 532a presumed to know each other's acts, 682a to my neighbour, honestly, 200a we cannot live without our, 866b why should I deprive my neighbour, 383a you may love your neighbour, yet not hold his stirrup, 879b you must ask your neighbours if you shall live in peace, 880a Nell (Gwynne) pretty witty, 242b

NELSON

for he is England, 213b Nelson's hand, 353b Nelson's signal, 457a

NEMESIS

contrivers of death should perish by their own contrivance, 590a divine wrath slow but severe, 565b en peu d'heure Dieu labeure, 767b God stays long but strikes at last, 767a God's mills grind slow but sure, 767b punishment, with lame foot, tracks the criminal, 643a the avenging God follows the proud, 653a the feet of Nemesis, how sure, 380a the god of vengeance works in silence, 712a See Retribution

Nemine contradicente, 588b, note

Nemo me impune lacessit, 589a

Neptune, he wrongly accuses, who makes shipwreck twice, 550b the trident of, the sceptre of the world, 701a would not flatter Neptune for his trident, 308a

Nero, puffed up with relationship to, 555a

Nero's saying of Velim nescire literas, 679b Nerves, bile and verjuice and, 173a nobody feels for my poor, 6b when mind is troubled the eye is blind, 843b

who fears to suffer suffers from fear, 874b

Nescio quo vado, 687a

Nescit vox missa reverti, 512b

Nest, however deep you might embower the, 360a dirty bird that fouls its own, 794a ding down the nests, the rooks will flee awa', 752a little by little the bird builds its, 803b

Nests in order ranged, 224a

Net, he that fishes afore the, 777b is spread, in vain the, 413b spread for birds which do us no injury, 600b takes fish while fisher sleeps, 472a you dance in a, and think no one sees you, 879a

Nets, tangled in amorous, 222b Netherlands: Voltaire's farewell, 689a

Nettle, better be strung by, than pricked by rose, 742b out, in dock, 823b rose sweet near the, 316a, note stings when it is young, 676b tender-hearted stroke, a, 166a though you stroke ever so gently, it will sting you, 858a

Nettles, no use killing, to grow docks, 797b

NEUTRALITY

a faint neutrality the best we can hope for, 373a he that is not with me is against me, 422b, 424b I neither desire, nor demand, nor express an opinion, 590b kept themselves in mean neutrality, 166a thou art neither cold nor hot, 431b who can be loyal and neutral, 304a

NEVER

by the street of By-and-by one comes to the house of Never, 815a never is a long day, 814b never, never, comes to pass, 90b one of these days better than none, 822b quoth the Raven, never more, 245b zu Sanct-Nimmerstag, 797b

NEW

a nip for new, 726a added something new, 255a all ain't good thet's new, 202b all things are become new, 429a be not the first by whom the new are tried, 246b bounty of Providence new every day, 379b cloth (new) unto an old garment, 422a fate of new truths, 176a I will speak something notable and new, 514b new men, strange faces, 366a new opinions always suspected, 196b no new thing under the sun, 415a nothing is new, 818b rumble that is newe, 78a some things you have said are new, 441a the new looks always green, 398b what everybody knows, tell not as new, 97b what is new is always fine, 868a what is new is seldom true, 868a wheel which draws up nothing new, 405b

See Novelty

New-comer, blithe (cuckoo), 393a

New-comers crowd the fore, 157b

New World, I called the, 69b

New Year's gift, a, 287b

New Year, of all the glad, 357b

New Year: then when the world is born again, 236a

New Zealand, some traveller from, 206a

Newcastle, Coals to: Owls to Athens, etc., 469b

Newcastle, Duchess of, epitaph, 444b

Newland, Abraham, epitaph, 445b

Newton, Isaac, on himself, 238b God said, Let Newton be, 256a

Newton, that proverb of the mind, 64a

NEWS

are ye sure the news is true, 214b evil news rides post, 223b first bringer of unwelcome news, 315a friendship consists not in saying "What's the best news?" 764a go into the country to hear what news is in town, 766a good feet of him that bringeth good tidings, 417b

News—contd.

good news from a far country, 414b good news hath no legs, 792a good may be told at any time, but ill in the morning, 768b good news walks on crutches, 211b he knocks boldly who brings good news, 775a ill news are aye ower true, 792a ill news hath wings, 120b
 ill news, swallow-winged, 211b ill news travels apace, 792a ill news, winged with fate, 124a love of news a master-passion, 103a messenger of good news always an object of benevolence, 332b much older than their ale, 148b nature of bad news infects the teller, 307a newsmongers who pretend to know all secrets, 633b no news is good news, 817a nowadays truth is news, 819a sometimes true, sometimes false doth bring, 321a stay a little and news will find you, 837a the father of good news, 292b the hodge-podge of a day, 142a the lame post brings the truest news, 847a the manner of a day, 155b
 the nimblest footman is a false tale, 849a what more blissful than cares set at rest, 607b

NEWSPAPERS

always excite curiosity, 192a a reply to a newspaper attack, 174a can a person of education learn anything from a penny paper, 268b Editors the true preachers, 72a evening words not like to morning, 755b four hostile newspapers worse than a thousand bayonets, 450a humdrum country newspaper, 65a joys of every Englishman, 193b mingle wrong with right, 103a more a man reads the less he understands, 103a newspaper wits, 82a the Yellow Press, 456b this folio of four pages, 100a to give me information is thy office, 478a

Nice man, a man of nasty ideas, 350a Niche, from many a garnished, 272b

Nick, Old, 52a

NICKNAMES

hardest stone the devil can throw, 443b nicknames and whippings, 192b the most concise eloquence, 159b the most unanswerable argument, 159b

Niebuhr, 397b

Niggers, liberty don't agree with, 202a

NIGHT

a fearful night, 18b
 a naughty night to swim in, 306a all the world will be in love with night, 279b almost at odds with morning, 304b and day, both sweet, 24b black stage for tragedies and murders, 321b

Night—contd.

blessed candles of the night, 284a blustering night a fair day, 731b breathed the long night away,
 3b
 broods over the deep, 622b by night an atheist half believes,
 406b
 Christian, what of the night, 352a cometh when no man can work, 425b comfort-killing night, 321b Creation sleeps, 404b Day's elder-born, 408a dead waist and middle of the night, 290b, note (night), death, age, care, crime, and sorrow cease, 408a each night we die, 405a everlasting night of sleep, 660a falls from the wings of night, 198a forests of the night, 23b God makes sech nights, 202a hour, of night's black arch the keystone, 46a how beautiful is night, 336b how fast the night shuts in, 337b I have passed a miserable night, 318b
 if here at night you roam, 177b image of hell, 321b in Russia, 299b in the night-time I shall not forget, 351b is far spent, 427b is growing grey, 157b it is my vision in the night, 170b joint-labourer with the day, 290a making night hideous, 291b meaner beauties of the night, 403a mother of counsels, 834b mother of thoughts, 815b Nature's great ancestor, 408a night watches lessened where there is bread, 836a night's candles are burnt out, 279b night's cloak to hide me, 278b nights and banquets of the gods, 607a
Of in the stilly night, 233a
 one night awaits us all, 610b out-soared the shadow of our night, 326b robbers spring out of the night, 677a sadder because of loneliness, 672a sable goddess, 404b sable-vested, eldest of things, 218a silent night, with this her solemn bird, 219a
 sons of night, 230b steal a few hours from the night, 231b that had no morrow, 67a that makes me or fordoes me quite, 302b that no morn shall break, 266a the black bat night, 363b the derke night, 70b the mask of night is on my face, 278b the night has ears, 842a the night-time cometh, 166a the shades of night, 198a the wakey nights, 403b the witching time of night, 295a this night is but the daylight sick, 284a those gay-spent, festive nights, 370a to labour night and day, 604a trailing garments of the night, 197b

B.Q.

Night—contd.

turning the night to day, 371a unpleasant sort of a night, 15a vast sin-concealing chaos, 321b was our friend, 127a waters on a starry night, 400b we tire the night in thought, 261a we'll add night to the day, 231b,
note
 what hath night to do with sleep, 225a what is done by night appears by
 day, 868a
 when deep sleep falleth on men, 411a, 411b
 when night is nigh, 186a will soon be upon you, 685b with her hollow shade, 602a with her power to silence day, 207a you know not what the night may bring, 590b
 Night-dress, wife who lectures in a, 265b
 Nightmare: such dire repose, 272b NIGHTINGALES got no prize at the poultry show, 262b
 I have heard the nightingale
 itself, 452a
 I will roar you as any nightingale,
 280b
 Itys, Itys cry of nightingale, 245b leaning on a thorn, 137a nightingale cannot sing in a cage, 815b nightingales applauded, 33b no music in the nightingale, 281b Philomel becometh dumb, 262a sing their own song best, 815b sweet bird that shunn't the noise of folly, 224b the bird forlorn, 169b the nightingale and cuckoo sing in one month, 849a the nightingale sings round it, 232b the nightingale sits alone in sorrow, 137b the sober-suited songstress, 369b the wakeful nightingale, 219a thy liquid notes, 226b vox et præterea nihil, 687b Nihil est ab omni parte beatum, 563b Nihil est nisi pontus et aer, 639b Nihil promittere parvum, 593b Nikkienow, calls his neighbour, 776a Nil admirari, 474b (Greek), 593a Nil Admirari, happiness of the, 63b Nil conscire sibi, 543a Nil desperandum, 593a Nil ortum tale, 594a Nil ultra, here I fix, 138a Nil ultra, I write, to my proudest hopes, 212a
 Nile, easier to discover source of,
 529b mouths of the wealthy, 643a outvenoms all the worms of, 309a ut canis e Nilo, 676b Niminy associations, 344a Nimshi, the driving of Jehu the son
 of, 410b
 Nine days' feast, 79b, note Ninencep a day for killin' folks,
 201b
 Nines, up to the, 865a Ninety-eight, who fears to speak of,
 176a
 Ninon de Lenclos, 696a Niobe, like, all tears, 290b of nations, 55b Nipping, a, and an eager air, 291b

Nisi prius, 595a, note

No man's land, 3b

NO

always say No, and you will never be married, 734b he gangs early to steal that canna say Na, 772b
 he is no man that cannot say No, 772b is no negative in woman's mouth, 329b
 little may an old horse do if he may not neye, 804a maids in modesty say No, 281a my No as good as your Yes, 813a say nay, and take it, 831a shameless pray must have shameless nay, 833a
 the spirit which ever says No, 711a this morning, sir, I say No, 30a wisest Fate says No, 227b woman's nay is no denial, 730b
 Yes and No are quickly said, 878b Yes and No, the cause of all
 disputes, 878b
 Noah's ark, mouldy rolls of, 123a Nob, balls in his, 112b my being made a, 146a NOBLE, NOBILITY, NOBLEMEN a graceful ornament (nobility), 41b
 a noble man, filled with inborn worth, 126b all noble save nobility, 53b be noble-minded, 89a better not be than not be noble, 360a betwixt the wind and his nobility, 313a bon sang ne peut mentir, 768a by heritage, 70b degenerate nobleman proud of his birth, 437a everything is becoming to the noble, 468b he is noble who does nobly, 774a if you have noble blood, you will esteem him as dirt, 655b it becomes noblemen to do nothing well, 76a live cleanly as a nobleman should,
 315a
 never noble man but made ignoble talk, 365b new and old nobility, 10a nobility of birth abateth industry, 10a
 Nobility should be free from vice, and an example, 560a nobleman a caittiff, 434a nobleman: a person of blameless repute, 648b noblemen, gentlemen, gigmen,
 men, 72b
 noble minds keep ever with their
 likes, 285b
 nobler modes of life, 363a nobles by right of an earlier creation, 205a nobilitas simplex, 639b noblesse oblige, 817b noblest mind the best contentment has, 339b noblest things find vilest using,
 186b nose of nice nobility, 99b O simple nobility, 639b only noble to be good, 357b Pious, Prudent, Wise and Gentle, good watchwords, 712b ruins of the noblest man, 286a spurn not the nobly born, 146b
 the mind makes a man noble, 490b

N N

Noble, Nobility, Noblemen—contd.

the more noble the more humble, 848b
 the noblest Roman of them all, 287a the nobler of us two, 36a too noble for this place, 310a too noble for the world, 308a transmissible nobility, 84b virtue alone is true nobility, 144b virtue, not birth, makes noble, 138a virtue the only nobility, 595a what is a noble? One who has given himself the trouble to be born, 705b what may a nobleman find to do, 16a who have noble thoughts never alone, 329b Nobis meminisse relictum, 509a

Nobody, I care for, 22a knows and no one cares, 445b

Noct esse locutum, 505b

Noctes atque dies patet janua, 529b

Noctes, conaue Deum, 607a

Nod as good as a wink to a blind horse, 726a for a wise man, rod for a fool, 730b

Olympus trembled at his, 671b

Nods and Becks, and wreathed Smiles, 224a he makes signs to her by, 541a Noddin', nid nid noddin', 237b

NOISE

as quiet as a wasp in one's ear, 832a blast that blows loudest, 333b booming, clanging, whistling, trumpeting, buzzing, 497b dreadful yelling cry, 340a dreary noises, 30b

I do not like noise unless I make it, 787a is greater than the nuts, 812b noisy man always in the right, 97b shallow waters make most din, 832a the noisy drum hath nothing but air in it, 849a the noisy fowler catches no birds, 849a

Noiseless foot of time, 299a

Nolens volens, 595a

Noli me tangere, 595b

Nolle prosequi, 595b

Nolo, to say, 595b, note

Nomen atque omen, 595b

Nomination of this gentleman, what imports the, 297a

Non-commissioned man, the, 191a

Non compos, 596b

Non constat, 596b

Non nobis, Domine, 599a

Non omnes ab eadem parte feriuntur, 549a

Non sapienter amavi, 514b

Nonconformist conscience, 388b who would be a man must be a, 132a

Nonconformists, arrests of, 242b

NONENTITIES

an old nought will never be ought, 736a are despised, 505b

Captain Aresby, 43b

he's a silly body that's never missed, 784a like a hog he does no good till he dies, 802a only in the world I fill up a place, 288a

Nonentities—contd.

say, do, know, and have nothing, 299a

NONSENSE

daring nonsense, 52b no one is exempt from talking nonsense, 705a nothing too absurd to have been said by the philosophers, 592b of laborious fools, 246a ropy drivel, 145a set to music, 2b

sound without mind, 511a

sounds like nonsense, but very good law for all that, 274a

swallows nonsense and a lie, 52a

Nook, not a, but were an apt confessional, 402a

Noon, from, to dewy eve, 216b of life, rugged ways attend the, 92a the shameless, 359a

Noosing of very rich people, 173b

Norman blood, farewell to the, 151b blood, simple faith more than, 357b

NORTH

all good comes from the north, 458b all ill comes from the north, 748b beauties of the north, 1b

Cock of the North, 456b cold weather and knaves come from the north, 748b dark and true and tender is the north, 360b in triumph from the north, 206b northern men loveth fyght, 360b, note northern religions harsh and bitter, 329a plaided warriors of the north, 271b ripened in our northern sky, 15a the North, the South, the West, the East, 93b what answer from the north, 191a where's the north, 249a

Northampton, trample on the trade of, 461a

Northamptonshire motto: "Love below the girdle," 817b

Norval, my name is, 169a

Norway, to carry fir trees to, 860a

NOSE and NOSES

a custom hateful to the nose, 176b an aldermanic nose, 15a and chin they threaten ither, 48b any nose may ravage, 31a do not cut off your nose to spite your face, 752b entuned in hir nose, 76b every man has his own style, like his own nose, 453b every man's nose will not make a shoeing horn, 819a final cause of human nose (snuff), 89a folks with long noses aye tak' till themselves, 761b for head-work choose a man with a long nose, 450a he gave his nose and took 't away again, 313a her slender nose tip-tilted, 364a how haughtily he cocks his nose, 349a

invisible as a nose on a man's face, 281a

jolly red nose, 138b love and a red nose cannot be hid, 805a not given to all, 596b

Nose and Noses—contd.

nothing pay for wearing our own noses, 309a of nice nobility, 99b pleasure for a nose divine, 28a puts his thumb unto his nose, 16a speaks through his nose, 32b superfine long nose, 381a that wakeful nightingale, 134a the hook-nosed fellow of Rome, 315b the nose upon his face, 97b was as sharp as a pen, 316a who hath a great nose thinks everyone speaks of it, 778a

Nostril, through the pressed, 99b

Not 'alf, 464b

Not hate, but glory made these chiefs contend, 256b

to be, better, 61a

Note, from my lowest, 295a of mine worth the noting, not a, 284a so sweet a, 126b

the n' pun note, 111b when found make a note of, 115a who takes note, 74a

Notes, a chield among you taking, 46a are necessary evils, 180a by distance made more sweet, 90a note this before my, 284a of saddest woe, 227b such, as warbled to the string, 224b such sweet soft, 32b thy liquid, 226b trills her thick-warbled, 223a twin, inseparably paired, 395a with many a winding bout, 224b

Note-book, set in a, 286b

NOTHING

all things are nothing, 611b an infinite deal of nothing, 282a as good play for nothing as work for nothing, 738a began of nothing and ends in, 525b believing nothing done while anything remained to do, 593a can be born of nothing, 538a can be made out of nothing, 593b can be resolved into nothing, 538a caravan has reached the nothing, 136a comes out of what is not, 476b did nothing in particular, 146b died with nothing done, 3b

does nothing at all, faith, 134a doing nothing never do amiss, 379b doing nothing with a deal of skill, 96a doing nothing with an air, 381a elder brother even to shade, 264a from nothing nothing can proceed, 517b having nothing and yet possessing all things, 429a having nothing yet hath all, 403a he hath done nothing that hath not done all, 105b he that does nothing finds helpers, 777a he that has nothing can do nothing, 778a he that hath nothing is not contented, 778b

I come from nothing, 214a if you say nothing nobody will repeat it, 790b

I'm going to do nothing for ever and ever, 445b

Nothing—contd.

is it nothing to you, all ye that pass by, 418b knew that he knew nothing, 91b laboriously doing nothing, 487a, 613a
labour of doing nothing, 342a laboured nothings, 246b nothing comes of nothing, 818a nothing for nothing, and very little for a halfpenny, 818a nothing have, nothing crave, 803b nothing in itself good or evil, 336b nothing is but what is not, 303b nothing is had for nothing, 85a nothing new, nothing true, nothing matters, 819a nothing to the purpose, 476b nice new nothing to hang on my sleeve, 726a nought is never in danger, 778a one can live on little but not on
nothing, 821a
out of nothing nothing is made, 527a people who make nothing of anything are good for nothing, 701b say nothing, but think the more, 831a the Dawn of Nothing, 136a the camp of those who desire
nothing, 593a
their chief desire is to do nothing, 212a this does not spring from nothing, 598b to do nothing and get something, 116b to do nothing the way to be
nothing, 174b
to say, do, know, and have
nothing, 299a
to whom nothing is given of him nothing required, 135a undertake nothing, nothing achieve, 79a we brought nothing into the
world, 432b
we have known these things to be
nothing, 601b
what costs nothing is worth
nothing, 867b
when you have nothing to say, say nothing, 91a where nothing is to be had the king must lose his right, 873a which returns to nothing, 541b who does nothing with a better grace, 404b
who has nothing is frightened at nothing, 778a
who knows nothing doubts
nothing, 779b
you cannot do anything by doing nothing, 878b
See Nought
Noticeable man, 392a Notions in Garrison, 141a

NOTORIETY bad fame brings shame, 732b damned to everlasting fame, 250a dare to do something worthy of banishment, 493b evil to die too well known to all
men, 549b
Pontius Pilate and Tom Thumb, 25a some would fain be the worst of
men, 236b
take heed of a marked person, 838b you will be the object of observation, 635

Nought, an old, will never be ought,
736a
is everything, 331a
may we ne'er want, 461b Nourished him, as I did with my
blood, 317b
Nourisher in life's feast, chief, 304a

NOVELS and opium, 6a are sweets, 367b cannot be too bad for publishing, 322b raw lumps of novels, 21b recipe for writing novels, 263a scrofulous novels, 38a should be kept "moving on," 22b too good to be worth publishing, 322b

NOVELTY

a new and hitherto unheard-of
thing, 602a
all that is new is fine, 815b, 868a best loved of things (novelty), 524a capture your minds with novelty, 519a everyone hath a penny for the new alehouse, 758a everything new is fine, 759a leaning on the arm of novelty, 99b malice kinder to old things than to modern, 621b man pleased with novelty, 99a man's nature greedy of novelty, 524a, 585a
more people admire rising than setting sun, 621a new broom is good for three days, 815b new brooms sweep clean, 815a
new lords, new laws, 815b
nothing is new, 818b
nothing's new, nothing's true,
nothing matters, 819a
novelty, novelty, novelty, 170b sets people gaping, 819a the one thing the public dislike, 389b

NOVEMBER

in the lap of June, 169b no leaves, no birds, No-venber, 171a November's sky is chill and drear, 269a thirty days hath November, 436b Novitas carissima rerum, 524a Novus homo (a risen man), 602a

NOW

an eternal Now, 95a an everlasting Now of solitude, 336b as we are now, so you must be,
446b do it now, 752a I am not now that which I have been, 56a is the watchword of the wise, 752a, 819a leave Now for dogs and apes, 33a now is now, Yule's in winter, 819a or never, 138a, 604b this important Now, 128a what alone is ours, the living Now, 397b

Nox, iam te premet, 685b

Nunc dimittis, 604b

Nunc dimittis, the sweetest canticle, 9b

Nuda simplicitas, 525b

Nude and antique, 351b

Nulla pallescere culpa, 543a Nullius filius, aut filius populi (a bastard), 495b

NUMBER and NUMBERS

a few honest men better than numbers, 104b
by magic numbers, 92b divinity in odd numbers, 287b golden numbers, 108b happiness of the greatest number, 22a, 175b, note
I lisped in numbers, 252a luck in odd numbers, 856a more for numbers than for account, 299b mournful numbers, 197b number is their defence, 512b number makes long disputes, 109b number three is always fortunate, 819a
oppressed by multitudes, 257a pleasure of the greatest number, 204b small in numbers, but quick in valour, 528a the third is always critical, 134a there's safety in numbers, 856b unequal numbers please the gods, 127a what can a few brave men do against thousands, 636b Numberless as the gay notes, 224b Nun, quiet as a, 394b Nuns: bounded within the cloister wall, 269b self-loving, 321a unhappy, 394b Nunnery, get thee to a, 294a

NURSES

meet nurse for a poetic child, 272b mewling and puking in the nurse's arms, 288b
much is she worth, 161b one year a nurse, and seven the
worse, 823a
the nurse tells child of Rawhead and Bloodybones, 275b the nurse's tongue is privileged to talk, 849a
wives old men's nurses, 9b Nurseries of Heaven, look for me in
the, 368b
Nursery-faiths, the people's, 88b Nurture and admonition of the Lord, 429b Nut, must be cracked to have the
kernel, 631a
who is won with a, may be lost with an apple, 779b Nuts are given us, but we must crack them, 819a devil goes nutting on Holy Rood
day, 842a
like an ape does nuts, 296a spoil the voice, 737b the noise is greater than the nuts, 812b to return to the nuts, 644a you are a sweet nut, if you were well cracked, 878b your nut is ready cracked for you, 880b

Nut-shell, I could be bounded in a, 293a

Nutmeg-graters, be rough as, 166a

Nymph, a, a Naiad, or a Grace, 270b a, with long dishevelled hair, 320b Nympholepsy of some fond despair, 55b

O

O.K., "Ori Korreet," 819a

OAKS

at fall of an oak every man gathers wood, 470b

Oaks—contd.

heart of oak (corason de encina), 716a hearts made of English oak, 273b hearts of oak, 454b little strokes fell great oaks, 804a, note may fall when reeds stand, 819a nodosities of the oak, 43a not oaks alone are trees, 175b one stroke fells not an oak, 822b shake some other oak, 487b storms make oaks take deeper root, 837b tall, branch-charmed oaks, 185a the British oak, 41b the builder oak, 79b, 339b the hollow oak our palace is, 105a when the oak's before the ash, 870b you must look for grass on the top of an oak tree, 880a Oakum, they pick much, 29b Oar, drip of the suspended, 55a one in water, one on shore, 488b spread the thin, 249b wearied at that, 98a Oars, he feathered his, 110b and wind, with, 645a with falling, they kept the time, 208b Oatcakes and sulphur, 333a OATHS
 a good mouth-filling oath, 314a a liar always prodigal of oaths, 709a an oath not to be made is not to be kept, 736a are but words, 51b are straw, 316a breaking of an oath, 51b eggs and oaths are easily broken, 754b false as dicers' oaths, 295b flew up to Heaven's chancery with the oath, 343a forgive the oath, 510a he will rather believe me unsworn than you sworn, 556b in the exhilaration of that oath, 322b kisses the book's outside, 96b like a parson's damn, 157a men to be deceived with oaths, 8b
 of love, 283a
 of no moment, not taken before a magistrate, 317b omit the oaths, 162b perjury and impiety produced by oaths, 480b seeing would have led to D—ing, 171b some fresh new oath, 6b terminate all strife, 97b the cheap swearer, 162b the more oath-taking the more lying, 89b they fear not to swear anything, 593b tongue has sworn it, but not the mind, 472a too hard-a-keeping oath, 276b unlawful oath better broke than kept, 737a used as playthings, 96b wise men to be cheated with oaths, 451b woman's oaths are wafers, 138a would have their tale believed for oaths, 162b write a woman's oaths in water, 476a Oatmeal, literature on a little, 333a

OATS

a slow man needed to sow oats, 692b evening oats is good morning fodder, 755b famine in England begins at horse-manger, 720a sow in January, not May, 875a sow on St. David's Day, 865a wild oats in tame verse, 29b Oban, Charing Cross of the Highlands, 841b OBEDIENCE approve first thy obedience, 221a govern by obeying, 550a has her humour most when she obeys, 251a he commands enough that obeys a wise man, 772a he that does bidding deserves na dinging, 777a here, obedient to her words we fell, 445a makes government, 40a makes slaves of men, 325a more seen in little things than great, 819a mother of success, wife of safety, 477b produces success, 472a the shortest answer is doing, 851a though she bends him, she obeys him, 199b through obedience learn to command, 859a till we can and do obey, 207a 'tis freedom to obey, 229b to love, cherish, and to obey, 433a who loves well obeys well, 783b yielded more readily to one who commands gently, 855a

Obiter dicta, 608a

Oblations, what no more vain, 416b
 Oblige her and she'll hate you, 251a Obliging, so, that he ne'er obliged, 252b

Obligingness, thy sweet, 239b

Oblivie, all is, 308b

OBLIVION

death unknown to fame, 257a dumb Forgetfulness, 154a dust and silence of the upper shelf, 205a forgotten of all men altogether, 351a husks and formless ruin of oblivion, 209a inequity of oblivion, 29a nameless in dark oblivion, 220a oblivion, dust, and endless darkness, 139b razor of oblivion, 300a remedy for injuries, 556b remembrance impossible without oblivion, 73b softly lays her shadowy veil, 230a they had no poet and they died, 256b unwept, unhonoured, and unsung, 272b unwept, unnoted, and for ever dead, 257a Obloquy defaming and defacing, 365a Obscure, through the palpable, 217b OBSCURITY (of Life)
 a private station, 144a cool, sequestered vale of life, 154a fixed like a plant on his peculiar spot, 249a forgotten of all men altogether, 351a

Obscurity (of Life)—contd.

grant me, Heaven, a middle state, 208a greatest geniuses often hidden, 677b greatest intellects often lie unseen, 647b he has not lived badly who has lived unnoticed, 584a he who has lived in obscurity has lived well, 507a he who has lived well in obscurity, 496b his life private, unactive, 222b homely joys and destiny obscure, 153b infamy to die and not be missed, 387b
 inglorious to the silent grave, 181b in modesty of fortune fewer dangers, 527a live unseen, unknown, 254b lives obscurely great, 238a many a pearl hidden in the sea, 156b
 men hidden by an obscure fame, 582a obscurely wise and coarsely kind, 178a obscurity of life, 19b
 only in the world I fill up a place, 288a possible to excel kings under a poor roof, 536b remain hidden in life, 474a sweet the days when I was all unknown, 365a the chief heroes, men without a name, 348b their names unsung, unwept, 349b those who living filled the smallest space, 193a
 to fall forgotten, 137b
 to fortune and to fame unknown, 154a
 unnoted and for ever dead, 257a unrecorded left through many an age, 222a world knows nothing of its greatest men, 356a would live forgetful and forgotten, 668a OBSCURITY (of Style) compared to scuttle-fish, 3a entangling truths with obscurity, 608a explaining the obscure by the more obscure, 608a logic which outran the hearer, 363a
 obscure things more easily believed, 509b obscurity illustrated by obscurity, 43a something useful and profound underneath, 348b you banter me by discoursing obscurely, 568b Observation, the bearings of this, 115a OBSERVATION and OBSERVERS a heart that watches and receives, 399b all things wisdom's looking-glass, 266a Bernard did not see everything, 741b brings wisdom, 653a by my penny of observation, 277a crammed with observation, 288b doth not smack of observation, 311a find little to perceive, 392a Observation and Observers—contd.

 God has waited 6,000 years for an observer, 457a great difference between beholders, 133a human life and nature, 187b I do love to note and observe, 183b I have not lost to love, 222b I have seen cities but have not studied men, 676a
 it is not well to see and hear
 everything, 593a
 knew the manners of many men, 478a lack of observation in mankind, 72b let observation with extensive view, 177b more keen-sighted than Lynceus or Argus, 545b most enduring pleasure of life, 214a observed of all observers, 294a observed with no incurious eye, 401b
 saw the manners in the face, 179b seeing many things, but thou observest not, 417b
 the harvest of a quiet eye, 400a the hearing ear and the seeing
 eye, 414b
 the manners of every age should be noted, 487a the observer's purpose to espy, 57a
 their manners noted, 257a things breed thoughts, 374a Ulysses an observer of cities and
 men, 582b
 who does not mix with the crowd
 knows nothing, 874b
 who saw the manners of many men and their cities, 632b wise man sees as much as he ought, 730a youth and observation, 292a

OBSTACLES
 art of war consists in getting at other side of hill, 384a virtue undeterred by, 528b See Difficulty

OBSTINACY
 a fool is better than an obstinate
 man, 720b
 a sharp goad for a stubborn ass, 727b cursed thee with a mind that cannot yield, 257a he hath swallowed a stake; he cannot bow, 773b he that will to Cupar, maun to Cupar, 782b
 I will still say what I said, 180b in a bad cause, 28b known as perseverance in a good cause, 342b
 marvellously obstinate, 664a ne'er so stiff, 52a
 no force can bend me, 255b obstinate men make rich lawyers, 762a obstinacy takes his sturdy stand, 96b
 proof of stupidity, 696b too blind to have desire to see, 365b

Obtains, merit that which he, 87b

OBVIOUS
 an obvious cause has its own decision in it, 573b even to the blind, 679b never try to prove what nobody doubts, 815a

Obvious—contd.
 what need of books these truths to tell, 259a what you seek is here, it is in Ulubrae, 641a

Occasion bald behind, 95a courage moutheth with, 311a no time ever suitable in all respects, 817b
 to take occasion by the hand, 356b

Occasionem rapinamus, 642b Occisissimus sum, 608b

OCCUPATION and OCCUPATIONS absence of occupation, 98b for lack of occupation, 167a I tell you we're in a blessed drainpipe, 384b let us love our occupations, 114a loathing of all pursuits causes loathing of life, 612b man's mind ever yearns to be doing something, 490b to blow and swallow at same time is not easy, 658a vices of leisure dispersed by occupation, 592b

OCEAN a painted ocean, 86b bedstrid the ocean, 307b deep and dark blue ocean, 56a drinking oceans dry, 312b far-spooming ocean, 184b has her ebblings, 67b heart of the great ocean, 198b into main ocean, 398a is this the mighty ocean, 193a knows some respite to its turbulence, 325a leans against the land, 147b make the mighty ocean, 240a many-twinkling smile of ocean, 186b melancholy waste of, 37a murmur of the ocean-tide, 19b ocean for my grave, 128b others may use the ocean as their
 road, 377b
 ploughed in a fragile bark, 601b smiling to betray, 326a the centre of that drear circumference, 336b the round ocean, girdled with the
 sky, 336b
 the ocean's mane, 246a thou sit'st between thy oceans, 381b time and the ocean, 380a to number the waves of ocean, 608b unfathomed caves of ocean, 153b will all ocean wash this blood, 304a

Ociro Euro, 649b

OCTOBER
 hail old, 93a heard in October (cuckoo), 463b Odd numbers, luck in, 201a, 856a Odd numbers, there is divinity in,
 287b
 Odd volumes, creators of, 191b Odds for high and low's alike, 310b Hercules himself must yield to,
 318a with whom my soul is any jot at,
 319a

Oderint dum metuant, 608b Odes, and jewels five-words-long, 360a

ODOUR and ODOURS crushed are sweeter still, 264b from the spicy shore, 218b odours, when sweet violets sicken, 327a

Odour and Odours—contd. precious odours when most fragrant, 9b stealing and giving odour, 297b Ocean rears his reverend head, 124a Œdipus, reason man's best, 28a O'ercome, not to be, 122b O'ershot myself, I have, to tell you, 286a

OFFENCE, OFFEND, OFFENDERS a most notorious offender, 334b at every trifle scorn to take offence, 247a
 head and front of my offending, 300b him have I offended, 286a if you do ill to a good man, it lasts, 573a
 I'll not willingly offend, 383a let a second offence bear its penalty, 514a love the offender, yet detest the offence, 255a
 magnified the offence, 126b multitude of offenders is their protection, 848b
 my offence is rank, 295a no offence i' the world, 295a no offence taken where none is meant, 817a offence not extirpated by the penalty, 637b offences outweigh merits, with
 great men, 819b
 offend her and she knows not to forgive, 251a
 perish all who like him offend, 102b poor folks are apt to think everybody flouts them, 826a stone not in your way need not offend you, 851b that every nice offence should bear his comment, 286b the offender never pardons, 849a we are annoyed in different ways, 549a where the offence is, 296b who fears to offend, 83a with or without offence, 64a

OFFERS and OFFERING
 I do receive your offered love,
 297b
 never refuse a good offer, 815a offering too little, 69b their offers should not charm us, 265b to offer much is one way of denying, 861a when the pig's proffered hold up the poke, 871b

OFFICE
 a dog's obeyed in office, 306b
 all offices are greasy, 716a every gift of office makes a hundred discontented and one ungrateful, 708b god-like office, 335a great employments and honours, 210b hath but a losing office, 315a he will play a small game rather than stand out, 784a his office let another take, 426a impatience never gets preferment, 792a insolence of office, 293b it is the place that shows the
 man, 796b
 makes the man, 849a
 man who has no office to go to,
 324a reveals the man, 569b

Office—contd.

so clear in his great office, 303b Tarpeian rock is near the Capitol, 668a teaches the man, 849a the highest seat will not hold two, 665b they that buy an office must sell something, 857a unpaid office makes thieves, 865a

OFFICERS

art thou officer or base, 316b British Officer would rather be shot than do up his boot-laces criss-cross, 385a never more be officer of mine, 301b officers, at whom the common soldiers mutter, 599b

Officio, ex, 527a

Officious in contriving, 92b innocent, sincere, 178a Offspring, for we also are his, 480a for we are thy, 471a true source of human, 219b

OIL

after my flame lacks, 299a boiling oil in it, 146b consumed the midnight oil, 143b his words were softer than oil, 412b neither mollified with oil, 416b old oil preferable, 820a thine incomparable oil, 61b wasted oil unprofitably burns, 98a without the oil and the twopence, 333b you cannot draw oil from a wall, 879a

Ointment of the apothecary, 416a mollified with, 416b

OLD

a crook is in his back, 167a a good old man, sir, he will be talking, 284b a sight to make an old man young, 358a a very foolish fond old man, 207a advice to an old man, futile, 475a all things which grow, grow old, 506b an old man, broken with the storms of state, 320b an old man is full of words, 234b an old mind with a youthful body, 469b as old as the story of Adam, 36b best to be off wi' the old love, 439a call him not old, 168a cold age cannot quench or allay, 94b difficult to discard old passion, 515b drafts upon our old age, 91a ere I was old, 87a for death mature, this is old age, 221b for me the Gone-by, 195b fresh and fair old man, 68a from death of the old, new proceeds, 387a grown old in courts, 179b he seemed the oldest man, 393b he's seldom old that will not be a child, 377a his golden locks hath Time to silver turned, 242a how subject we old men are to this vice of lying, 315b I confess that I am old, 306a I grow old, ever learning, 469b I love everything that's old, 150a I love the good old ways, 374a in the brave days of old, 206b

Old—contd.

infirm, weak and despised old man, 306a keeps his watch in every old man's eye, 279a last to lay the old aside, 246b Life protracted, 178a love foolish in old age, 95a man grows old, and woman jealous, 259a more beautiful for being old and gone, 202b never man so old but hoped one more winter, 109b no fool like the old one, 361b no Greek ever an old man, 469b not old, but mellow, 244a
not yet so old but she may learn, 283a O good old man, 288b
O, sir, you are old, 306a
Old Age and Experience, hand-in-hand, 264a Old Age comes on apace, 19a Old Age is a regret, 117a old age is creeping on apace, 63a old age is more suspicious, 5a old age must not regret to drop behind, 157b old age serene and bright, 399b old age slow in giving affronts, 1b old-established ways (stare super vias antiquas), 662b, note old-fashioned poetry, but choicely good, 378a old-fashioned virtue and faith, 545b old fashions please me, 276b old folks stricken with palsy mus' speck to be luffed at, 158a old gentleman waggles his head, 344a old heads on young shoulders, 880a old ladies of both sexes, 115b old like the "New" bridge, 828b old maids lead apes in hell, 820a old man just beginning to live, 636a old man lecherous, 434a old man to humour, better than a young rake to break your heart, 742a old man's darling better than a young man's warling, 742a Old Man's Wish, 258a old men are testy, 327a old men fear all things, 13a old men have grey beards, 292b old men know young men fools, 75b old men sometimes out of their senses, 625b Old, Old, very Old Man, 356b old thanks, old thoughts, old aspirations, 352b old things always in favour, 681b old things, all are over old, 395b old things are passed away, 429a old times were changed, 271b old truth and new, 35b old wine, old pippins, old wood, old linen, 384a prudence often the only virtue of old age, 150b reverence due to things old, 491a so young a body with so old a head, 283a some sorts when old continue brisk, 109b sweet wise death of old men, 353a the old is better, 681b the old order changeth, 364a

Old—contd.

the true old times are dead, 366a these tedious old fools, 292b they shall not grow old, 22b to become old through fear, 521b to me, fair friend, you never call be old, 322a too old to learn, 211b twigs sooner bent than an old tree, 203a unperceived decay, 178a what can an old man do but die 171a why wasn't I born old and ugly 113a
See Age
Olet, lucernam, 568a
Olive, call me not an, till you see me gathered, 827a plants round about thy table, 413a Oliver Twist has asked for more, 112b "Ologies," instructed in the, 71a O'Looney, Lady, epitaph, 445a Olympus, to pile Pelion upon, 618a trembled at his nod, 671b Omelettes, you cannot make, without breaking eggs, 879a

OMENS
a name and an omen, 595b absit omen, 483a birds as omens, 498a everything ominous to the superstitious, 818a malis avibus (birds of ill omen), 572b mean something, 609a release the mind from such portents, 660b the ox has spoken, 498b, note

OMISSION
Ignoratio elenchi, 548b things not expressed cannot be prejudicial, 528b to supply omissions, 366b omnes, non omnia possumus, 599b Omnia nil sunt, 611b Omnia, O si sic, 607b Omnia orta occidunt, 506b Omnibuses, if he had only ridden more in, 161a Omniscience: it is not allowed us to know everything, 587b no one has known all things, 582a "On dit" est souvent un grand menteur, 830b One and none is all one, 820b One-eyed, blessed, in the country of the blind, 495b One-eyed, blinking sort of place, 157a One thing at once, do only, 330b from, judge all, 527a is too few, three to many, 823a man does not see everything, 471a man is no man, 471a, 676a, 820b man picked out of ten thousand, 292b man's speech is no man's speech, 712a, note Number One, 804b where one but goes abreast, 298b

ONE-SIDEDNESS
all on one side like Bridgnorth election, 733b all on one side like Takeley Street, 733b Montgomery division; all on one side; nothing on the other, 733b only his own side of the case, 215a Onion atoms lurk within the bowl, 332a Onion, tears live in an, 307a

Onlookers: players make blunders the onlooker none, 442*b* Onomatopœia, 627*b*, note Onward, press bravely, 386*b* Onward, upward, 50*b* Open locks, whoever knocks, 305*a* spaces, public money well spent on, 160*b*
Opening day, it is our, 14*b* Operandi, modus, 579*a* Operations, no one's inside was safe, 324*a*
Operose nihil agendo, 487*a* Ophirs of fabulous ore, 380*b* Opie, John, 454*b*
OPINION a mighty matter in war, 350*b* a plague of opinion, 298*b* all fails that fools think, 732*b* all slaves of opinion, 159*a* an illogical opinion, 22*b* attachment to any opinion, 329*a* authentic mark of th' elect, 348*b* centring in having none at all,
97*b* coquetry of public opinion, 42*a* dark and blind, 349*a* determined by feelings, not intellect, 338*b* each man's opinion freely is his
own, 211*b*
Englishmen slaves of Public Opinion, 323*b* error of opinion, 176*b* everyone has judgment to sell, 714*b*
fools' opinions change like the moon, 626*b* gains infinitely when adopted by a second mind, 454*a* golden opinions from all sorts of
people, 303*b*
governs all mankind, 52*b*, 823*a* greater than truth, 613*b* happiness of times when opinion was free, 642*b* heart and not opinion honour a
man, 710*b*
heat of opinion a proof of stupidity, 696*b*
his own opinion was his law, 320*b* hold such absolute opinions, 170*a* if you cannot make a man think as you do, 790*a* if you were here you would think otherwise, 672*b* in love with their own new opinions, 166*b*
is that high and mighty Dame, 175*a*
is of his own opinion still, 52*a* it will go near to be thought so presently, 285*a* knowledge in the making, 228*b* man's conceit the mother of most false opinions, 693*b*
many minds, one heart, 808*a* may difference of opinion never alter friendship, 809*b* men not so good or bad as their opinions, 207*b*
men's infallible judgment, 545*a* mislaked opinion called heresy, 166*b*
natural for wise man to change his opinion, 626*b* new opinions always suspected, 196*b*
nine parts in ten in war, 350*b* no folly to change opinion, 748*a* not other men's opinions, 89*a*
nothing good or bad, but thinking
makes it so, 293*a*

Opinion—contd.
nothing more captious than man's judgments, 592*a* nothing so uncertain or worthless as popular opinion, 594*a* opinions, like fashions, beautiful new, ugly when discarded, 823*a* our opinions conflict with our opinions, 645*b*
our own opinion is never wrong, 823*b*
our views far removed from the vulgar, 637*a* popular opinion is the greatest lie in the world, 826*a* public opinion a tyrant, 204*b* public opinion has its flux and reflux, 205*b* public opinion wisest, because just as wise as it need be, 627*b* queen of the world, 823*a* result of temperament and chance, 329*a*
so many men, so many opinions, 642*a*, 835*a*
some plant an opinion they seem to eradicate, 836*a* stiff in opinions, 123*a* take each man's censure, 291*a* the absurd man is he who never changes, 696*b* the mistress of fools, 823*a* think the last opinion right, 247*a*
to be careless of what anyone thinks is worse than presumption, 588*b*
two sides to every question, the wrong side and our side, 854*a* vain opinion all doth sway, 69*b*, 437*a* we are endeavouring to stifle opinion, 215*a* we find our tenets just the same, 251*a*
we scarcely ever find people of good sense except those of our own opinion, 703*b* weigh thy opinion against Providence, 248*b* when general, opinion usually correct, 6*b* where opinions are equally divided, the accused is acquitted, 615*b* who never alters his opinion, 23*a* why halt ye between two opinions, 410*b*
wise man changes his mind sometimes, a fool never, 729*b*

OPIUM

just, subtle, and mighty opium, 110*a*
the insane root, 303*b* thou hast the keys of Paradise, 110*a* world of novels and of opium, 6*a*

OPPORTUNISM

all things to all men, 428*a* be sople, Davie, 344*b* better hauld wi' hound than hunt wi' hare, 743*a* get the faculty of the polypus, 622*a*
Gipsy Politics, 24*a*
he is a fool that thinks not what others think, 773*b* he never used his arms against the stream, 549*a*
he that will use all winds, 137*b* his mill will go with all winds, 785*b*
not a weathercock, 40*b*

Opportunism—contd.

let us follow Fortune and turn our course as she bids, 587*a* principles turn with times, 250*b* smile as the wind sits, 306*a* Tempori parentum, 670*a* the vicar of Bray, 455*a*, 852*b* to swim between two streams,
744*b*
too fond of the right to pursue the expedient, 149*a* truckings to the transient hour, 366*a*
turn your overcoat according to the wind, 864*a* turning cat-in-pan, 864*a* views of multitude neither good nor bad, 590*a* weathercocks turn more easily when high placed, 867*a*

OPPORTUNITY

all may be happy if they know how to use their opportunity, 686*b*
always worth expecting, 501*a* dust of servile opportunity, 397*b* Fortune knocks, but fools do not answer, 763*b*, note God never shuts one door but He opens another, 767*a* he that will not when he may,
782*b*
he who can seize the moment is the man, 711*a* hell roofed with lost opportunities, 785*a*
Jupiter cannot restore opportunity, 522*a* keep from opportunities and God will keep you from sin, 823*b* know your opportunity (Pittacus), 473*a*
let us seize it from each day, 642*b* milk the cow which is near, 479*a* never had mortal man such opportunity, 64*a* often lost by pausing, 512*b* opportunity has locks before, but is bald behind, 644*b* opportunity makes the thief, 823*a* opportunity, thou strong seducer, 128*b*
opportunity, thy guilt is great, 321*b* pluck the grapes from well-stocked vines, 500*b* recognise your opportunity, 608*b* seize when offered, 608*a* squandered opportunity, 367*a* there is a tide in the affairs of
men, 287*a*
to me the hour may give what it denied to you, 576*b* use the means, God will give the blessing, 865*b*
we must take the current as it serves, 287*a* Wealth (with Virtue) brings opportunity, 230*a*
what we do not see we tread
upon, 299*b*
when fortune smiles, take advantage, 869*b*
while the shoe is on thy foot, tread upon the thorns, 874*a* who lets slip Fortune, shall never find, 95*a* wise man makes more opportunities than he finds, 730*a* wise men will make opportunities, 117*b*
OPPOSITION
bear't that the opposed may beware of thee, 291*a*

Opposition—contd.

duty of Opposition to oppose, 459*b* His Majesty's Opposition, 459*a* I strive against opposition, 595*a* no Government secure without a formidable opposition, 117*a* oppose everything; propose nothing, 460*a*

OPPRESSION

a right to be his own oppressor, 202*b* and sword-law, 222*a* draw the sword against oppression, 335*a* looked for judgment, and behold oppression, 417*a* makes the wise man mad, 31*b* Oppression's tall, 169*b* the oppressed, who wanted strength, had thine, 395*b* the oppressor's wrong, 293*b* to make oppression bitter, 293*b* when the tale of bricks is doubled, 508*b* who allows oppression, shares, 106*b*

OPTIMISM

a good general talks of success, not failure, 447*b* a mania for declaring all is well when things are going badly, 450*a* all is for the best in the best of all possible worlds, 708*b* hopes undimmed for mankind, 234*b* le médecin Tant-mieux, 699*b* optimistic sophistries, 4*b* pessimism preferable to optimism, 21*b* tout va bien ici; le pain manque, 708*b*

Opus, fervet, 532*a*

Opus, hoc, hic labor est, 544*b*

Ora et labora, 614*a*

ORACLES

ambiguous utterance of Oracle, 450*a* are dumb, 227*b* do not make me certain, but death, 574*b* I am Sir Oracle, 282*a* no truth at all in the oracle, 310*a* oracular utterance, 547*b* thou art my great Apollo, 672*a*

ORATORS AND ORATORY

a good orator the worst man, 498*b* a slow and chilling orator, 565*b* an unprincipled orator subverts the laws, 614*a* begin low, speak slow, 439*a* Chadband style of oratory, 114*b* clearness the chief virtue of oratory, 614*a* defied his fluent voice with sin, 614*a* delivery is management of voice, countenance, and gesture, 620*a* despise not a rustic orator, 467*a* devoted his rounded periods, 356*b* entwined himself perforce, 57*b* few speeches bear the colourless photography of print, 265*b* he can talk but is no speaker, 451*b* his last refuge is to begin with an Utouque, 242*b* I am no orator, as Brutus is, 286*b* I'll play the orator, 319*a* like a rough orator, 211*a* like winds on the waters, 8*a* lines on Public Speaking, 439*a* Orators and Oratory—contd.

listening still, they seemed to hear, 257*b* make no long orations, 235*a* men and asses must be held by the ears, 810*a* mild heat of holy oratory, 364*b* Nature speaks the best part, 131*b* never failed to disperse an audience, 242*a* orators are made, poets are born, 584*b* orators make up in length for want of depth, 690*b* ore rotundo, 614*a* rhetoric the art of ruling men's minds, 448*a* sae saft a voice and slid a tongue, 262*b* temeravit crimine vocem, 614*a* the orator, despised; the soldier loved, 661*b* the orator too green, 321*a* the two-legged gab-machine, 202*b* thence to the famous orators, 223*a*
 those dreadful "urs," 167*b* three qualities of an orator, 672*a* took all ears captive, 299*a* under the wand of the magician, 245*a* what action is to the actor, 13*b* Orb which thou behold'st, not the smallest, 283*b* Orchard, easy to rob, when none keeps it, 795*a*

ORDER

a party of order or stability, 215*a* beauty springs from order, 188*b* clear arrangement, 568*a* foundation of all good things, 41*b* gave each thing view, 319*b* governs the world, 350*b* in variety, 254*a* is Heaven's first law, 249*b* let us follow the settled order, 651*a* liberty with order and virtue, 41*b*
 the old order changeth, 358*a* when many strike on an anvil they must observe order, 870*a*

Orders, give, and do it, 791*a* Ordo, lucidus, 568*a*

Ore rotundo, 614*a*

ORGANS (Musical instruments) deep, majestic, solemn organs, 254*b* Latin inscription for, 543*b* the pealing organ, 224*b* the silent organ, 131*b* Organ, mellowing to the, 115*a* Organ, with most miraculous, 293*b* Organisation, indexing the root of, 385*a* Origen, criticism of his style, 674*a* Origin, our, what matters it, 401*b* Original and end, 180*a* their great, 3*a* Originality: a genius forces the mind from the rut of custom, 570*b* all good things fruit of originality, 215*a* everyone knows this, but it has not occurred to everyone's mind, 650*b* Orion, loose the bands of, 412*a* Orisons, in thy, 294*a* Orlando, many talk of, that have not seen his sword, 808*a* Ormus, wealth of, 217*a*

ORNAMENT

beauty is the purgation of superfluities, 453*a* Ornament—contd.

each ornament seemed placed as of necessity, 707*b* foreign aid of ornament, 369*b* lop off pretentious ornament, 489*a* seemly lies each ornament, 133*b* we are captivated by ornament, 494*a* without much gold and ornament, 13*a* world is still deceived with ornament, 283*a* Ornateness goes with greatness, 380*a* Ornator propriis industria donis, 543*a*

ORPHANS

barber practises on the orphan's head, 551*a*, 717*b* I'm a Norfan, both sides, 384*b* son of parents passed into the skies, 102*b* wronged orphans' tears, 212*a* Orta occident, omnia, 611*a* Orthodoxy kept alive by indifference and hypocrisy, 408*b* Orthographer, he is turned, 284*a* Ossa upon Pelion, 550*a* Ostent, well studied in a sad, 282*b*

OSTENTATION

a common vice, 543*a* alms before men, 421*b* honourable things rather than splendid, 546*a* live to obtain men's report, you will never be rich, 654*a* make not thy tail broader than thy wings, 807*a* no formal ostentation, 296*b* paraded all he said and did with a certain art, 613*a* purple patches to make a show, 554*a* splendour of appearance beyond their means, 675*a* the rage of shining, 345*a* Othello's occupation's gone, 302*a* Othello's visage in his mind, 301*a* Others, the affairs of, 487*b* who does nothing for, does nothing for himself, 714*b* Otium cum dignitate, 614*b*, note Otter's house, to look for yesterday's fish in the, 795*b* Ought, we do not what we, 5*b* Oughts, nothings without strokes, 823*b* Ourselves, the not, 6*a* 'tis in, that we are thus, 301*a* Out, get some put, and some put in, 107*b* of my sight, and never see me more, 312*a* Outs and Ins, their aim to stick in good places, 880*a* Outalissi's soul, 67*a* Outbid another, be not too hasty to, 740*b* Outrage, wrong and, 99*a* Outshine, didst, myriads, though bright, 216*a* Outside, O, what a goodly, 282*a*

OUTSPOKENNESS

a good conscience speaks out, 478*b* apt to be wrested to its destruction, 678*a* do not be ashamed to say what you are not ashamed to think, 500*a* men whose clothes are in holes dare not say much, 621*a* plain-dealing is kicked out of doors, 761*b*

Outspokenness—contd.

que j'aime les gens qui disent ce qu'ils pensent, 706a unless in moderation leads to ruin, 555a what I think I must speak, 289a Oven comes to the dough, when the, 796b Ovens, old, are soon hot, 820a Overcome us, can such things be and, 304b what is else not to be, 216a Overdoing it, you never do it without, 880a Overdone is worse than underdone, 824a Overpayment of delight, 337a Overs, all ill, but over the water, 733b Overthrow, his, supplied our chorus, 241b Ovo, ab, 482b Owe you one, I, 90b no man anything, 427b Owes not man, 197b

OWLS

he's in great want of a bird that will give a groat for an owl, 784a misfortunes like the owl, 81b not accounted wiser for living retiredly, 849a owls to Athens, 469b the gravest bird is an owl, 845b the moping owl, 153b the wailing owl, 153b, note thinks all her young beauties, 842a to be scarred by an owl, 787b when owls do cry, 311a wise old owl lived in an oak, 442b you may love a screaming owl, 402b Own, all men would have their, 465b he came unto his, 425a to do what I will with mine, 423a

OX and OXEN

a young ox learns to plough from older, 482a an old ox makes a straight furrow, 736a
 an ox has trodden on my tongue, 469a as an ox goeth to the slaughter, 413b beauty draws more than oxen, 175a, note black ox never yet trod on your feet, 841a born to endure labour, 490b cultivates the fields with oxen, 496a no use leading an ox to the water if not thirsty, 822a old oxen have stiff horns, 820a short horns given to the savage ox, 510b take heed of an ox before, 838b the ox desires the trappings of the horse, 613b
 the ox has spoken, 498b, note the ox is stricken down, 662b the ox taken by horns, man by the tongue, 737a the oxen taught in time to endure the plough, 670a the ox knoweth his owner, 416b the ox lies still while geese are hissing, 848a the ox that treadeth out the corn, 428a the ploughman speaks of oxen, 585b

Ox and Oxen—contd.

the tired ox sets his foot firmly, 498b the tired ox treads surest, 852a thou shalt not muzzle the ox when he treadeth out the corn, 410a to put a pack-saddle on an ox, 499a where no oxen are the crib is clean, 873a where shall the ox go, but he must labour, 873a who drives fat oxen, 179b Oxonian, very impertinent, being an, 134b OXFORD
 All Souls College, 496b Oxenford (Oxford), 76b troop of horse to Oxford University, 29a, 372b, note University, motto, 518a unwritten law of, to back the weaker side, 275a ye spires of Oxford, 395a Ox-lips and the nodding violet, 280b

OYSTERS

a too-long opened oyster, 32b an ungody meat, 350a four young oysters hurried up, 119b he had often eaten oysters, 145a he was a bold man that first ate an oyster, 350a, 783a how do you after your oysters, 786b how should we do for oysters, 446b like Colchester native, 173a love was the pearl of his oyster, 352a no end in natur to eatin' of oysters, 390a oyster may be crossed in love, 328b oysters not good in a month without an "r," 824a oysters and poverty go together, 111b solitary as an oyster, 114a the gravest fish is an oyster, 845b the world's mine oyster, 287b
 'twas a fat oyster; live in peace, 256a would you treat your horse with a peck of oysters, 878a you'd ha' made an uncommon fine oyster, 111b Oystermongers' Dinner, 367b

P

P, as if going to pronounce the letter, 115b, note, 151a P's and Q's, mind your, 810b Pace, the palfrey, 37b too similar that of the son of Nimshi, 332a Pacem, si vis, para bellum, 791a Pacem le poscimus, 603a Paciencia y barajar, 716b Pacifism: of thy slaying nowise are we fain, 235b Pacifism, only one vice, 324a Pacis amica Ceres, 605b Pactum, nudum, 602b Padlock, bad, mortos a picklock, 717a Pagan suckled in a creed outworn, 394b Paganini, 35b
 Page, every, having an ample marge, 365a

PAGEANT and PAGEENTRY antique pageantry, 224a history is a pageant, 22b like this insubstantial pageant, 311a ordered all the pageants, 95a play their pageants everywhere, 69b, 437a Paid, fools and knaves are better, 124b him again, what he layeth out shall be, 432b well, that is well-satisfied, 283b PAIN and PAINS adding folly to our pain, 91b after pain, 85b all pains are nothing in respect of this, 341b an hour of pain as long as a day of pleasure, 735b apathy when out of pain, 82b by pains come to greater pains, 9b can feel of pain, 61b capacity for pain, 390a compels all things, 518a cruel to prolong a pain, 275a death more willingly faced than pain, 634a delights which inherit pain, 276a doomed to go in company with pain, 399b double pains, double praise, 340a easily borne if slight; brief if severe, 612b everlasting pains, 382a fellowship in pain, 222b forces even the innocent to lie, 526a forgotten pains when follow gains, 763a grudge not at another's pain, 129b if severe, short; if long, light, 654b intense device and superflux of pain, 351a is no evil, 189a is perfect misery, 220a loves to make parade of pain, 362a music can soften pain, 254b

 no life without pain, 816a no pains, no gains, 817a no pain, no palm, 242a nothing valuable without pains and labour, 3a one pain lessened by another's anguish, 278a our Lady of Pain, 351b pain that pain to miss, 94b pain narrows not his cares, 398a pains are real things, 52a pleasure in poetic pains, 99b pleasure of the pain, 90b pleasure out of extreme pain, 350b relief from pain, 127b taking pains and telling lies, 122b the guilt of giving pain, 234a the tender for another's pain, 154b the worst of evils, 220a the years of pain, 38a
 to learn by the pain of another, 531b to lose pain is a gain, 568a to resist pain, 518a unnumbered hours of pain, 68a when pain and anguish wring the brow, 270a where a man feels pain he lays his hand, 852a where there is pain, there will the finger be, 674a with no fiery throbbing pain, 178a with the thousand teeth, 380a wondrous waste of pains, 81b

PAINTING

art that can immortalize, 102*a* does he paint, 33*b*
 feeds his mind with an empty
 painting, 490*b*
 he best can paint 'em, 255*a* I have heard of your paintings,
 294*a*
 is she not more than painting can express, 266*b* let her paint an inch thick, 297*a* like a painted Jove, 122*a* mind the paint, 464*b* mute and motionless (painting), 68*a*
 only two styles of portrait, 112*b* on painting and fighting look afar off, 820*b* paint me as I am, 105*a* painted pictures are dead speakers, 824*a* painted to the eyes, 119*a* painting in water-colour, 343*b* the worth of Titian or of Angelo, 124*b*
 there is craft in daubing, 855*a* those who paint them truest, 2*b* thy pieces imitating life, 123*a* to draw true beauty, 124*b* when you see a woman paint, your heart need not faint, 872*b* who can paint like nature, 369*a*

PAINTERS

a flattering painter, 149*a* he displays in a portrait the countenance and the mind, 666*b* love of their profession, 367*b* painters allowed a lengthened bow, 60*a* painters and poets dare anything, 620*a* painters and poets have leave to lie, 824*a* when some great painter dips his pencil in the gloom, 326*b* Pair of brothers, a noble, 615*a* a, well matched, 615*a* are they not a bonny, as the devil said to his hoofs, 737*b* blest, 219*b* every couple is not a, 756*a* so well matched a, 499*b* youthful, loving, modest, 44*a*

PALACE and PALACES

a palace and a prison, 55*a* in his own palace forced to ask his breed, 256*a* in such a gorgeous palace, 279*b* love in a palace, 185*a* palaces in Kingdom-come, 209*a* prosperity within thy palaces, 413*a*
 the gorgeous palaces, 311*a* the kingly pile will leave little land to plough, 561*a*

PALE and PALENESS

and leaden-eyed, 172*b* and pettish, 462*a*, 759*b* as any clout, 279*b* at a pale man draw thy knife, 462*a* fair, not pale, 86*b* is peevish, 462*a* is this what turns you pale, 544*a* pale spectre of a murdered man, 126*a* saintly paleness, 335*a* turn not pale, beloved snail, 119*b* why so pale and wan, 346*a* Palinodiam canere (to recant), 615*a* Pall Mall, the sweet shady side of,
 235*a*
 Palm alone, and bear the, 285*a* an itching, 286*b*

Palm, do not dull thy, 291*a* is won, and by all Nations shall be worn, 397*a* let him bear, who has deserved, 615*a*
 to palm, on his tranquil breast, 399*a*
 Palms of my hands, oozing out at
 the, 328*a* Palmer-worm hath left, that which
 the, 418*b*
 Palmistry, in, he deals, 259*a* Palmy state of Rome, 290*a* Paltered with Eternal God for power, 361*b*
 Pamphlets, 275*b*, note Pan, sheephook of, 14*a*, note Pancakes, would you thatch your house with, 878*a* Pancakes, see Shrove Tuesday Pane, over each, like a fairy crept, 152*a*
 Panes of quaint device, 185*a* Pangloss, Dr., 90*b* Pangs and fears, more, than wars or women have, 320*a* of despised love, 293*b* pleasing, 371*b*
 Panjandrum, the great, 440*b* Pansies, that's for thoughts, 296*b* Pansy freaked with jet, 226*b* Pantaloon, the lean and slippared, 289*a*
 Pantry, toom, makes thriftless guidwife, 729*a*

PAPER

a scrap of paper, 460*a* blest paper-credit, 251*a* endures anything, 880*b* if all the world were paper, 446*b*
 paper bullets of the brain, 284*b* paper credit, 241*b*
 paper government, 40*a* paper monuments most lasting,
 848*b*
 portion of uncertain paper, 62*a* Repeal of Paper Duties, 268*b*, note speak from your folded papers, 168*a*
 takes any impression, 880*b* Paper-blurrers, company of, 329*b* Parables, dark sentences and, 419*b* Parade of pain, 362*a* Parade: one who paraded all he said and did, 613*a* Parade, sic, 45*a*

PARADISE

hopes of paradise, 136*a* how beautiful beyond compare, 229*b*
 how grows in paradise our store, 187*a*
 if we meet in paradise, 33*b*
 must I thus leave thee, paradise,
 221*b*
 Paradise of Fools, joyous, 104*b* Paradise of Fools, to few unknown, 218*b* retired in mind and spirit, 139*b* thought they had reached the gate of, 236*a* thought would destroy their paradise, 155*a*
 to him are opening paradise, 155*b* walked in paradise, 3*b* who would enter must have a good key, 782*a* wilderness were paradise enow, 135*b*
 women a whole paradise better than men, 103*b*

Paradise—contd.

you were in paradise the while,
 267*a* Paradox, man a, 91*a* which comforts, 34*b* Paragon of animals, 293*a* Paragraphs, passing, of praise, 335*b* Parallel, but herself, admits no, 210*a* none but himself can be his, 368*b* Paramours, for one joy a hundred displeasures, 866*a*
 Parasites or sub-parasites, world all,
 183*b*
Parcere personis, dicere de vitiis, 566*b*, 615*a*
Parcere subjectis et debellare superbis, 540*a*
 Parchment, skin of an innocent lamb, 317*b*
 virtue of wax and, 40*a* wings, on, 177*a* Pard-like spirit, 326*b*

PARDON

may one be pardoned and retain th' offence, 295*b* nae penny, nae pardon, 817*a* Par don on a pardon, 705*a* pardons and pleasantness great revengers, 824*a*
 pardoning those that kill, 279*b* pardon rather than praise, 526*a* pardon the choicest flower of victory, 824*a* pardon's the word to all, 309*b* the women pardoned all except her face, 64*a* they ne'er pardon who have done the wrong, 128*b* to forgive everyone's cruelty, 626*a* Pardonnez-mois, these, 279*a*

PARENTS

a parent who could see his boy as he is, 195*a* are patterns, 824*a* errors of parents undo their children, 478*b*
 everything is dear to its parent, 450*a*
 fond parents tell such tedious stories, 127*b*
 God, parents, and master, never required, 766*a* honour your parents, 450*b* in the place of a parent, 552*a* justice to parents called piety, 563*a* kind parents to watch over me, 355*b*
 let children support their parents, 566*b* love of parents the first law of nature, 516*a*
 only parents' love can last, 31*a* owl (or crow) thinks all her young ones beauties, 842*a* parent of his country, 615*b* parent of things, 615*b* parents passed into the skies, 102*b* Raven and Ape think their young fairest, 234*a* trot mother, trot father, how can the foal amble, 863*a* virtue of parents a great dowry, 518*b*
 whose parents were the Lord knows who, 108*a* Parentesses, full thoughts cause
 long, 764*b*
Pari passu, 615*b*
 Paris, the judgments of, 573*b*
PARIS at Paris no one wonders at anything, 646*b*

Paris—contd.

c'est vieux comme le Pont Neuf, 828b every wife a right to see Paris, 332b fantastic Paris, 30a fashions, Paris, 456b good Americans, when they die, go to Paris, 388b, 443b half Angel, half Grisette, 195b London the common sewer of Paris, 177b middle-aged woman's paradise, 244b
Paris au Prou, du Japon jusqu'à Rome, 691b
Paris est bon pour voir, 705a secrets travel fast in Paris, 450a was not made in one day, 830a with an "if" we might put Paris in a bottle, 788b Parisian gondolas, 117b, note Parish makes the Constable, 275b O what a parish, 439b parish pay is hush money, 338b wide was his parish, 77a Pariterque in bella ruebant, 543b

PARKS

former delights of the lord, now the delights of the people, 513a over park, over pale, 280b public money well spent on parks, 160b takes away from dwellings of the
poor, 483b
the lungs of London, 111a, 455a

PARLIAMENT

and some (lie) before the Speaker, 258b an old Parliamentary hand, 147a an old Parliament stager, 147a,
note
bag of Parliamentary eloquence,
73a bald her demi-gods in senate met, 370a ciphers as members of, 195a, note duty of Opposition to oppose,
459b England mother of Parliaments, 25b forgotten like a maiden speech, 258b
His Majesty's Opposition, 459a
I like a Parliamentary debate, 58b law of England the reason of Parliament, 228a lawyers' reason for desiring seat in, 265b
make a shambles of Parliament
house, 317b
National Debating Club, 72b or be a member of Parliament, 447b
Parliament of man, 358b Parliament of the unlearned, 615b serious modern cultural equipment a disqualification, 324a speaking through reporters, 73b talk in Parliament, 73b the National Palaver, 73a votes of some men in a room at Westminster, 338b without lawyers, 615b worthlessness of what is said in,
268b Parlour-twilight, 100b will you walk into my, 447b Parlous state, in a, 289a Parmaceti for an inward bruise, 313b Parnassus, a step to, 538a has no gold mines, 824a the number of elect of, made up, 700a

Parr, Thos., 356b

Parrot, like the, he says nothing, but thinks the more, 858a may rehearse, a, 97b Pars mei nulla superstes erit, 616a Parsimonious, age is, 109b Parsimony the worst profusion, 205b Parson, O illustrious spark, 95b who knows a Duke, 101b Parson's nose, tickling a, 278a Parsons are souls' waggoners, 824a

PART and PARTS

I am part of all that I have met,
358b Mary hath chosen that good part,
424b part nor lot in this matter, 426a plays many parts, 288b she (nature) hath done her part,
220b the part is contained in the whole, 553b we are but parts of one stupendous whole, 248b where the greater part is, there is the whole, 674a you have assumed this part; it must be acted, 541a

PARTING

a song of meeting and parting, 244a
dearest friends must part, 404a
endless parting, 139b
I remember the way we parted, 352a
If e'er we meet hereafter, 2a image of death in parting, 130b kiss and part, 121a our parting was all sob and sigh, 258b part when we are friends, 128a parting is such sweet sorrow, 279a parting with a long embrace, 362a
shake hands for ever, 121a sna' sorrow at parting, as the mare said to the broken cart, 856b speed the parting guest, 252b, 257b the usual vows and then we
parted, 258b
this parting was well made, 287a 'tis hard to part, 15a to love and then to part, 86a, 87b when we two parted, 61a when you go there's loneliness in loneliness, 214b

Parta, male, male dilabuntur, 572a

Parta tueri, 587a

Parthenon, Earth proudly wears the,
131a Parthians, liars and untrustworthy,
616a

Partiality, misdirected, 624a we grow more partial for the observer's sake, 250b

Particle, fiery, 65a

Partington, Dame, and the storm of Sidmouth, 331b

Partisan, no fiery, 387a

Partitions, thin, 46a, 122b, 248b

PARTNERS

he that has partners has masters, 778a
I have a partner, Mr. Jorkins, 114a love never desires a partner, 805b my partner made that bargain, 120b shall my little bark attendant sail, 250a
the partner of my soul, 266b

Partners—contd.

what is common property ceases to be one's own, 640a who has a wolf for his mate need a dog for his man, 875a Partridge-breeders, these, 359b Partridge, if it had the woodcock's thigh would be the best of all birds, 789b in the puttock's nest, 317a Parts, why should I disparage my,
92a
Party, Hans Breitmann's, 196a a party all Mulligans, 368a PARTY and PARTIES (Political) a man of no colour, 545b all parties work together, 359a always voted at my party's call, 145a ancient forms of party strife, 363a asked me whether I was whig or
tory, 347a
attachment to any party, 329a being of no party, 64b both parties nobly are subdued, 315b civil rage and rancour, 334a factious they grow, 222a hateful names of parties, 122a he'd been true to one party, 201b he serves his party who serves his
country, 159a
high heels and low heels, 347a how nature always does contrive, 146b
I ain't a Wig, I ain't a Tory, 202a let Whig and Tory stir their blood, 359a
Mill (J. S.) on Parties, 215a most against the party he forsook, 123b not my ambition to increase number of parties, 342b Parliamentary Government impossible without party, 118b party divisions, 39b party honesty, 84b party: madness of many for gain of a few, 258a, 350a party newspapers of either side, 193b political parties die at last of swallowing their own lies, 459b qualifications of a party writer, 258a that party conquers in the strife, 271a the only difference between, 82a the puzzling sons of Party, 371a the two great Parties, 133a then none was for a party, 206b this party of two, 25b to party gave up what was meant for mankind, 149a
to sacrifice honour to party, 106a
to unite with a party, 71b Tory and Whig in turn shall be my host, 332b
Tory and Whig will agree, 179b true patriotism of no party, 334b two parties necessary in political life, 215a
two parties still divide the world, 358
what Faction has set wrong, 96b where the soul sours and gradual rancour grows, 370b wise men and gods upon the strongest side, 275a Parva componere magnis, 655b Pasquils, utter, 71a Pass, all things, 193b but let that, 287b

Pass, nor turn my face, I will, 33b oh, let him, 307a peaceably let him, 317a this way again, I shall not, 442b through this world but once, 442b Passage perillus, a, 437a Passages of love, now no, 365a that lead to nothing, 155a that strike your mind, 53a Passe, tout, tout casse, tout lasse, 708b Passed by on the other side, 424b forth patiently to perpetual bliss, 194b Passenger, stay, why goest thou by so fast, 446a Passenjare, in the presence of the,
 83b Passibus aquis, haud, 541b Passim, sic, 657b Passing as doth a shadow, 78b PASSION and PASSIONS a passion so confused, 282b a purer passion a lordlier leisure, 353b all extinguished with old age except self-love, 709a anxious to conceal one's best passions, 193a by passion driven, 44b curb and restrain, 622a each man's passion his God, 664a give me the man that is not passion's slave, 294b govern my passion with absolute sway, 258a grande passion, 65a in her first passion, 62b in wayward passions lost, 369b let the appetites be subject to reason, 491a
 like winds at sea, 377b love of news a master-passion, 103a
 make and unmake everything, 690b man of passions cannot judge aright, 107a man only great when he acts from the passions, 117a men of like passions, 426b my destiny to inspire hopeless passion, 367a never let your angry passions rise, 382a not over-elated nor over-depressed, 512a one master passion in the breast, 249a one pulse of passion, 388a our own affections the worst tyrants, 345a
 passion and prejudice govern the
 world, 385a
 passion cast a mist before his sense, 126b
 passion depraves but also elevates, 697b passion is the gale, 249a passion undoes what Reason weaves, 248b passions are the elements of life, 248b passions in excess are female, 59b passions so potent, 45b patroned by passion, 28a ruffled passions of the mind, 239b serving one's passions is slavery, 832b the most unbecoming thing (passion), 375b
 the only orators which always persuade, 702a the passions flourish, 193a

Passion and Passions—contd.
 the passions oft, to hear her shell,
 90a the ruling passion, 250b the shallow murmur but the deep are dumb, 262a the voice of the body, 696b the whirlwind of your passion, 294a their human passions now no more, 154b
 time the physician of our passions, 859a true love consists not in passion, 221a two master-passions, 67b vanquish your feelings, 683a vows with such passion, 195b when one was in a passion the other would forbear, 872a Passive Resistance, 459b Passive thing, that, 88a PAST
 a great while ago the world began, 298b a heaviness that's gone, 311a a woman with a past, 454b alas! that steel might have remained ever hidden, 486b all our past proclaims our future, 353b all the faultful past, 361a all the richness, splendour and grace of world in the past, 700b blended with present, 187b consider the past with a lingering gaze, 172b consult the dead as to the past, 199a danger well past remembered, 346b dark backward and abysm of time, 310b
 days passed cannot be called back, 608a every man has all the centuries in him, 235a good fortune is remembered, bad should be forgotten, 498a greatly wise to talk with our past hours, 405a
 I summon up remembrance of things past, 321b ils se sont passés, ces jours de fête, 694a is in its grave, 31a it is not now as it hath been of yore, 400b joys more exquisite when past, 229b learn future by the past, 66a leave thy low-vaulted past, 168b let by-gones be by-gones, 800b let the dead past bury its dead, 197b let the past be past, 713a let us moderately lament past sorrows, 384a live to-day, forgetting past anxieties, 544b memory gild the, 230b memory of the past, 43b mindful of the valour of former days, 624b
 not Heaven itself has power upon the past, 127b O that Jupiter would give back the years, 607a
 old things always in favour, 681b past and to come seem best, 315a past and what's to come is strewn with husks, 299a portions and parcels of the dreadful past, 357b

Past—contd.
 praiser of the past, 515b, note progressive iniquity of each generation (Horace), 487a record of past remains to the
 good, 265b
 remembered joys are never past, 229b remembrance of past labours is agreeable, 664a say not, what is the cause that former days were better, 415b selfish sorrow ponders on the past, 54a study the past if you would divine the future, 838a summon from the shadowy past, 198b the days that are no more, 335b the former things are passed away, 432a
 the hour gone by will not return, 587b the memory of the past, 230b the mill cannot grind with the water that is past, 843a the past and future, two eternities, 232b the past at least is secure, 383b the past unsighed for and the future sure, 396a the thought of our past years, 401a
 Time itself cannot undo the, 230a time past never returns, 546b to be ignorant of the past is to be ever a child, 590b to enjoy remembrance of, is to live twice over, 544a up the stream of Time, 264a we praise the olden time, but make the most of our own, 564a what has happened even the fool knows, 478a what we have been makes us what we are, 130b where are the snows of last year, 872b where is the fable of thy former years, 406b
 where is the life that late I led,
 316a
 who ever saw old age which did not praise the past, 706b who would tread again the scene?
 229b Pastime, use so as not to lose past
 time, 865b
 Pastors, all alike to wandering sheep, 101a
 do, as some ungracious, 291a Pastry that aggravates a man, 113a Pasture, to break a, will make a
 man, 462b
 Pastures new, 226b
 I have sung of pastures, fields, and chieftains, 573b to lie down in green, 412a Patch was worn, while the, 358a Patches, purple, one or two, 554a Pate, beat your, and fancy wit will come, 256a
 learned, ducks to the golden fool, 308b Patenostre du singe, 705a Pater familias, 616b Pater noster, 616b Paternoster built churches, Our Father pulls them down, 824a he knows it as well as his, 775a no penny, no, 817a Path, every, hath a puddle, 757b into the heaven of glory, 23b

Path, now made a high road, 525a rule of the, 439b take the gentle, 164a that promised to cut short the
way, 394a
the primrose, 291a Pathos and sublime, the true, 47a infinite, of human life, 329a infinite, of human trust, 381b

PATIENCE

a drop of patience, 302b a flatterer and an ass, 20a a great part of justice, 616b a patient man, a pattern, 109a a plaster for all sores, 824b a poor man's remedy, 824b a stout horse, but tires last, 824b a tired mare, but will plod, 316a abused, becomes madness, 616b abused too often becomes fury, 537a all men's office to speak patience, 285a an old abusing of God's patience, 287b
an ounce of, worth a pound of brains, 736b (patience) and shuffle the cards, 716b, 824a
arm th' obdured breast with patience, 217b conquers the world, 824a endurance with moderation the last resource, 526b everything comes to those who wait, 758b
fury wasteth as patience lasteth, 764b gently to bear with and endure all men, 657b God takes a text and preaches patience, 163a
good for many things beside gout, 824b grows not in every garden, 824b hardship lightened by, 520b hope and patience, 50a how far will you abuse our patience, 642b
how poor who have not patience
301b
I waited patiently, 528a I worked with patience, 29b in your patience possess ye your souls, 425a
in your patience ye shall win your souls, 425a indolence is often taken for patience, 793a
is bitter, but its fruit is sweet, 697b is pale cold cowardice in noble breasts, 312a Job was less miserable in suffering than happy in his patience, 798a key of content, 824b key of Paradise, 824b like Patience on a monument, 298a may do much in desperate matters, 792b pain, excessive, overturns all patience, 220a
patience and sorrow strove, 306b patience, money, and time bring all things to pass, 824b patience must be the hen, 213b patience now a thing of which he hath no need, 400b patience of Job, 431a patience passes science, 824b

Patience—contd.

patience perforce is medicine for a mad dog, 824b Patience passe science, 705a patient as pilgrims, 194b patient as the female dove, 297a patient inattention, 213b patient search and vigil long, 58b patient though sorely tried, 198b patient waiters are no losers, 824b principal part of faith, 824b, note remedy for every suffering, 508b surpasses learning, 824b the art of hoping, 698a the beggar's virtue, 212a the greatest prayer, 824b the patient conquer, 616b though God take the sun out of heaven we must have patience, 857b
though we lose fortune we should
not lose patience, 858a virtue of an ass, 153a we must be patient, 296a wears out stones, 824b what is the use of patience if not found when wanted, 868a who has patience has fat thrushes for a farthing, 778b will achieve more than force, 41b worn out by your faults, 581a young and rose-lipped cherubim, 302b

PATIENTS

despatched the patient in a day, 142a
God help the patient, 482a, note kill the patient, 10b unruly patient makes harsh physician, 507b Patines of pure gold, thick inlaid with, 283b
Patmos strand, 34b
Patrick, St., motto of Order, 638b Patrick, St., you know, he was St.
George's boy, 438a Patrimony utterly demolished, 617a

PATRIOTISM AND PATRIOTS

a fatherland focuses a people, 408b a patriot is a fool in every age, 253b all-atonement name of patriot, 122b blood of patriots and tyrants, 176b brave men and worthy patriots, 228a country patriots, 61a cowards mock the patriot's fate, 176a Englishmen fight on patriotic principles, 323a faithful to an unfortunate country, 616b
God and your native land, 156b having had the name of a great patriot, 130a
I have everywhere remembered
my country, 674b
Iceland the best land on which the sun shines, 787b knock the patriotism out of the human race, 324b love their land because their own, 156b never patriot but was a fool, 123b one patriot even in a village of eight, 755b patriotism, last refuge of a scoundrel, 179a patriotism, of no party, 334b patriotism should gain force on Marathon, 180a patriots are grown too shrewd, 100b

Patriotism and Patriots—contd.

patriots in Madrid, 232a patriots in peace assert the people's right, 125a patriots who risked a cause, 30a stood for his country's glory fast, 269a such is the patriot's boast, 147b the flaming patriot, 184b the patriot's blood, 68a thinking my native county better than other people's, 324a true patriots we, 18a
what bosom beats not in his
country's cause, 255a
See Native Land
Patroclus is dead, who was better than you, 473b PATRONAGE, PATRONS above a patron, 252b a patron, a wretch who supports with insolence, 181b favour is not to men of skill, 416a getting patronage the whole art of life, 323a he has enough patrons who does what is right, 649a, 684b let there be Macenas, Virgils
will not be wanting, 658b my protection and sweet source of honour, 569b mud of English patronage, 37b none can rise without grit and a patron, 590a support from virtue, not from patrons, 684b
the patron and the gaol, 178a Pattenmakers, motto of, 643b Patter, rapid, unintelligible, 146b Pattern, made him our, 36a not a, but an example, 184a of excellent nature, cunning'st, 302b
of sound words, 430b
Paul fought with beasts, 93b has served us with a text, 99b in high esteem with, 227b Paul Pry, 246a
Paul Pry, caught by, 342a Pauliad, less a Christiad than a, 157a
Paul's holy pen, 81b
Paul, St., proverbs as to day of, 789a Paul's, St., London, the cross of gold, 361a
the ruinous Portico of, 206a, note to sketch the ruins of, 206a Paul's will not always stand, 824b Pauper sum; fateor, patior, 617a Pauper whom nobody owns, 238b Paupers, three million, 73a Pauperism, clamorous, feedeth, 373b Pause, an awful, 404b how dull it is to, 358b must give us, 293b Paure homme le, 700a Pavement, faithless to the fuddled foot, 369b
the riches of heaven's, 216b Pavements fanged with murderous stones, 87b
PAY, PAYMENT
an almost invincible repugnance to paying, 366b bad pay poisons trust, 863a base is the slave that pays, 316a for the dear delight another pays, 257a from a bad paymaster get what you can, 764a good payer master of another's purse, 722b

Pay, Payment—contd.

he has a short Lent that has to pay money at Easter, 773a he that cannot pay in purse must pay in person, 776b he that pays and he that takes, 102a he that pays last never pays twice, 780b how deeply painful is all payment, 64b I pray God make me able to pay it, 242b I scents which pays the best, 202a if I can't pay, why I can owe, 165b it is a pain to pay and pray, 794a my dame fed her hens on thanks, but they laid no eggs, 813a never grumble till they come to pay, 108a no pay, no Swiss, 816b once pay it, never crave it, 820b pay beforehand and your work will be behindhand, 824b Pay-before-hand's never well served, 824b pay me that thou owest, 423a pay, pay, pay, 190a pay well when you are served well, 824b pay what you owe and be cured of your complaint, 824b peace, pleasure, and good pay, 96a Samson was strong, but could not pay money before he had it, 830b slow to pay, 374b the devil to pay, 233b
 the loser pays, 847b
 to go in without paying, 27a to guarantee that he can pay, 115b when wages are paid work's over, 872a who best can pay, 81a who cannot pay let him pray, 776b wrong count is no payment, 878a you may pay without going in, 27a you owed me a sheep but paid me a lamb, 880a Paymin voice, each, 68a

PEACE

a calm world and long peace, 314b a crowd dangerous to peace and restful quiet, 673a a peace-loving man, 387a a disarmed peace is weak, 719b a moth of peace, 301a a peace above all earthly dignities, 320a a peace more happy than lives on land, 353b a wretched peace well exchanged for war, 578a agreement has bound together by peace, 517a all her paths are peace, 413b always the final aim of war, 711a and bid me hold my peace, 290b and bring out good qualities, 553b and health, 155b and Honour return, 561a arm thee in peace, 748b arms the props of peace, 492a arts and conditions of peace, 540a bâton porte paix, 791a be to this house, 617b be with you, 617b be within thy walls, 413a becomes men, anger wild beasts, 490b begins where ambition ends, 406b

Peace—contd.

bid fair peace be to my destined urn, 226a bleeds, and hope expires, 405b breaker of God's own peace, 275a breeds Plenty, 434b broken into pieces, 172b by the help of the sword, 573b certain peace better than hoped-for victory, 575b de mortelle guerre j'ai on bien paix, 780a ef you want peace, show you're up to fightin', 202a fight for peace, 110a for men so old as we to keep the peace, 277b for peace we have striven, 381b God blesses peace, 766a God gave her peace, 356b hangs thieves, war makes them, 866b hath her victories, 227a hear, see, and hold your peace if you would live in peace, 783a her perfect peace, 266a Honour in his right hand doth lead her, 336b how can we win peace, 26a I labour for peace, 433b I shall not hold my little peace, 214a if you wish for peace prepare for war, 656b, 791a in thy breast, 279a in thy right hand carry gentle peace, 320a inglorious arts of peace, 208b into the way of peace, 424a is of the nature of a conquest, 315b is produced by war, 615b is what I seek, 5a maintains Ceres (agriculture), 605b make a desert and call it peace, 660a man of peace and war, 51b more powerful than war, 617b more sweet than music, 354b most profitable of things, 473b never a bad peace, 140b never grow fond of cheerful peace, 240b no peace but one, 214a no peace unto the wicked, 417b not being accomplished, 555a not our health, but a disease, 211a not thus doth peace return, 336b nothing can bring peace but yourself, 132b now testest thou thy servant depart in peace, 424b of God, 429b of nations not to be secured without arms, 590a on earth and mercy mild, 385a on earth; good will towards men, 424b our peace, our fearful innocence, 396b patched-up peace, 516b peace, and be wise, 353a peace, peace, when there is no peace, 418a peace, pleasure, and good pay, 96a
 peace, rest, and sleep, 354a Peace, Retrenchment, and Reform, 459a prate of the blessings of peace, 363b produced by victory, not by negotiation, 682a

Peace—contd.

rather a cessation of war than beginning of peace, 496a that peace, O happy shade, be ever thine, 124a that publisheth peace, 417b the cudgel brings peace, 791a the ills of a long peace, 604b the most unfair peace preferable to most righteous war, 556a the nurse of drones, 211a the soft phrase of peace, 300b the thousand years of peace, 363a the veriest school of peace, 27a the world cannot give peace, 432a though peace be made, it is interest keeps peace, 858a 'tis better to sit still and rest, 269b to corrupt, 222a to prefer victory to peace, 682a to rust in peace and rot in hospitals, 334b to seek peace the first law of Nature, 166b translated into Thy peace, 670b universal peace lie like a shaft of light, 358a unjust peace better than just war, 140b, note war concealed beneath peace, 574a war in masquerade, 123a was the prize, 122a weak piping time of peace, 318a when armed he loved peace, 624a
 where there is peace, God is, 873b which follows painful duty, 337b who desires peace let him make ready for war, 631b who will not have peace, God gives him war, 782a wise, in peace, to look for what will be helpful in war, 626b with a cudgel is war, 824b with honour, 459a with men, war with vices, 615a Peaceably if we can, 262a, note live, with all men, 427a Peaceful services, titles not conferred for, 114b Peace-makers, blessed are the, 421a, 495b Peach, a ripe, 37b PEACOCKS
 a peacock's quill, its feathers all eyes, 787b a peacock whose eyes are inclined to his tail, 172b "look at his legs, and what a voice," 869a stately peacocks, 169b the peacock's bawling denotes rain and squalls, 871b Pear, after a wine or the priest, 824b offer not the, to him who gave the apple, 819b such as are on a Catherine pear, 346a year, a dear year, 726a Pears, apples, and nuts spoil the voice, 737b PEARLS
 a pearl from the dunghill, 574a before swine, 422a he rises with his pearl, 31a he who would search for pearls, 126a heaps of pearl, 318b if all their sand were pearl, 281b ignoring the pearl, 548b love the pearl of his oyster, 352a many a fair pearl laid up in bosom of the sea, 156b no such pearl in any gulf, 354b Pearls—contd.

of great price, 422b pearls at random strung, 182a pelted them with pearl, with mud, 381a
sowed the earth with orient pearl, 219b
threw a pearl away, 303a too rich a pearl for carnal swine, 51b

Peas with a knife, eats, 146a

PEASANTS, PEASANTRY

a bold peasantry, 148a a peasant sleeps, 26b in fine breeches became insolent, 832b may believe as much as a great clerk, 163b
peasants' laughter more genuine,
532b toe of peasant comes so near the heel of the courtier, 297a what a rogue and peasant slave, 293a wid charming pisintry, 196b

Peat, to send round the fiery, 861b Pebble in brook secretly thinks itself a precious stone, 849a

Pebbles, gathering, on the shore, 223a smoother, 238b
the unnumbered idle, 306b

Piccadilloes of all Piccadilly, 170a

Pectora cæca, 607a

Peculiar people, a, 431a

Peculiarities, men of power have,
90a

Peculiarity of mind and expression,
664a

Pedantic laws, shall scorn, 270a

Pedantical, figures, 277b

Pedantry of cold mechanic battle, 395b pedants most affect, learned, 51a shall not tie my strains, 391a

Pede parna claudo, 643a

PEDIGREE

a successive title, long and dark, 123a ancient but ignoble blood, 250a

came-over-with-the-Conqueror type of mind, 381a can Bourbon or Nassau claim higher, 259b

grandsires of grandsires, 537b if any can boast pedigree higher, 444a

like Melchisedech, without pedigree, 460a penniless lass wi' a long pedigree, 237b

Philosophy pays no attention to pedigree, 662b

"Probably Arboreal," the common ancestor, 344a

search not for a good man's pedigree, 831b

talents distributed without regard to pedigree, 702b transplantable an' thrifty femlytree, 202b

we are all descended from the Gods, 662b
what can ennoble sots, 250a what do pedigrees avail, 662b

PEERS and PEERAGE

impudence and money makes a peer, 108a insignificancy and an earldom, 80b judgment of their peers, 594b juggle out peerage, 123b peers not always generous, 98b

Peers and Peerage—contd.

let peers with ponds make free, 237b, note
the Peerage, the best thing in fiction, 389a

Peevish and jealous, 48b he is something, 287b

Pegasus, a rocking-horse and thought it, 184b Bellerophon and, 522b to turn and wind a fiery, 314b

Pelting each other, 97b

Pelion upon Olympus, 618a

PEN and PENS

a moist pen slick through everything, 113b
black militia of the pen, 408b break, boy, your pens, 536a break the pens and tear the books, 535b devise wit, write pen, 277a fail to guide the pen, 103a glorious by my pen, 230a

Hermit of Prague, that never saw pen and ink, 298a made from an angel's wing, 93a more sharp than swords, 356a my pen governs me, 343a nothing can cure it but the scratching of a pen, 201a of a ready writer, 412b poor wretch, break your pens, 535b quirks of blazoning pens, 301a slip of the pen (lapsus calami), 564a

such virtue hath my pen, 322a the pen is mightier than the sword, 204b

the pen proclaims the man, 663a the quill hath a good tongue, 852a thy pen as harmless as thy sword, 274b wear my pen as others their sword, 230a

ye knights of the pen, 367b

Penalty, under name of, 596a Penance for condemning love, 281a for, or for gold, 273a

Pence, see Penny

Pendente, lite, 567a

Pendulum betwixt smile and tear,
55b

vibration of a, 184a

Penelope, unravelling the web of,
618a

Penetrable stuff, made of, 295b

Penitence and prayer, lowliest garb
of, 345b

Penitent, makes but a, 149b

Penlake, Richard, was a cheerful
man, 336b

Penniless lass wi' a long pedigree,
237b

Penknife, when they saw me take out my, 347a

PENNY and PENCE

a penny in the urn of poverty, 246a

a penny more buys the whistle, 726b

and penny laid up will be many,
825a

back again, like a bad penny, 740a be not pennywise, 11a in for a penny in for a pound, 792b never grudge a penny for a pennyworth, 814b

no companion like the penny, 856a not one penny piece he had, 266a one penny the worse, 15b penny can do no more than it may, 203a

Penny and Pence—contd.

penny for your thought, 726b penny goes after penny till Peter hasn't any, 825a penny is penny's brother, 825a penny saved, a penny got, 371a, 726b

penny saved is twopence got, 726b

penny wise, pound foolish, 825a penny with right better than a thousand without, 742a take care of the pence, 80a, 838b,

note

that eternal want of pence, 359a who heeds not penny shall never have any, 875a

Pense ce que tu veux, 705a

Pension, an allowance without equivalent, 181b never enriched a young man, 825a

Pensimeter, the, 87b

Penury, chill, 153b wholesome air of ragged, 155b

PEOPLE

a peculiar people, 431a a starving populace knows nothing of fear, 591a

a wronged people, yearning to be free, 379b

all people that on earth do dwell, 437a bludgeoning the people by the

people, 389b

broad based upon the people's will, 356b

by the people, for the people, 196b common people speak more truly, 13a

dregs of the people, 530a fantastic, fickle, fierce, and vain, 271b flattered the people, 308a good servants, ill masters, 156a he looked upon his people, 206b health (or safety) of the people the supreme law, 275b, 648a

I have never desired to please the
people, 605b

I love the people, 299a

I strive for the suffrages of the
people, 581a

is but the attempt of many, 31b makes the people's wrongs his

own, 123a

my people love to have it so, 418a

neither for king, nor for people,
but for both, 587b

new-caught, sullen peoples, 190a no doubt but ye are the people, 411b

not right to treat with people when Jove is thundering, 561b

O stormy people, 78a observe the condition of the

people, 184a

other people quite dreadful, 389a people's judgment not always

true, 123a

people's right remains, 127a people's wrath heavy as lead, 655b sacred is the speech of the people, 687b, note

sagacity to have known the foolish desires and notions of the crowd, 498a supremacy of people tends to liberty, 622b

that he might advance the people, 199a

the common people sometimes see correctly, 558a the Cry of the Little Peoples, 196a the fickle populace, 583b

People—contd.

the one voice of the people, 687b the people are the masters, 40b the people can be strong where laws are, 547b the people found jints and their frien's done the carvin', 202b the people, by-and-by, will be the stronger, 64a the People's Voice, 175a that's wut the people likes, 202a there are people and people, 854a thou many-headed monster thing, 271b thy people shall be my people, 410a to serve the people worse than serving two masters, 861b to the people as slick as molasses, 202a to worship the people, 13b veneration and the people's love, 402a voice of the people, 13a what the people but a herd confused, 222b when the people's eye abuse hath cleared, 398a why so docile to the yoke, 485a See Multitude
 Pepper when he pleases, can enjoy, 119a Peppered, I am, for this world, 279b the highest, who, 149a Perch, their, and not their terror, 299b Percy and Douglas, the old song, 329b Perdium non redit tempus, 575b Perdrix, loupjouis, 708a, note Pereant qui ante nos nostra dixerunt, 619a Peremptory tone, with a, 97b Perfection, to keep in sight, 380a PERFECT and PERFECTION a dream of perfect bliss, 18b a perfect character appears, 82a counsels of perfection, 454a highest perfection cannot be attained, 665b his perfections were so rare, 52b no perfect thing too small for eternal recollection, 355a perfection requires the hand of time, 698a rejoice that thou art not perfect, 392a so hard to attain, 99a the very pink of perfection, 150a thou art no such perfect thing, 392a trifles make perfection; perfection is no trifle, 448a Perfer et obdura, 619a Perfice, propositum, 626a Perfida tela cave, 639b Perform, weak to, 95b Performance, pigmies in their, 210b silent, 74b PERFUME and PERFUMES all Arabia breathes from yonder box, 247b ointment of the perfumer, 416a perfume and supplicance of a minute, 201a perfumed like a milliner, 313a perfumes and sounds, 76a perfumes of Arabia, 305a that's all perfume, 98a to throw perfume on a violet, 311b Perhaps, a great, 71b, note, 694b, note some forlorn, 203b

Peri, a, at the gate, 232b Peril, every hour (has) its, 160a Perils, how many, enfold the righteous man, 339b do environ, what, 51a past, look back and smile at, 273a Periods, devolved his rounded, 356b Perish all who shall like him offend, 102b Perishable home, they dreamt not of a, 399a Perishes, nothing, 14a PERJURY
 a gentleman may swear it for his friend, 310b a virtue when the oath was a crime, 700a all perjured, all forsworn, 279b hired witnesses sell their perjury, 596a human and divine punishment of perjury, 619b if he swears he'll certainly deceive, 240a Jupiter laughs at perjuries of lovers, 278b, 562a smile at lovers' perjuries, 210b
 they fear not to swear anything, 593b Perked up in a glist'ring grief, 319b Permanent institutions should be long considered before established, 512b PERMISSION
 I speak this by permission, 428a it does not follow that a thing not opposed is permitted, 587b what is allowed us is disagreeable, 640b what is lawful to Jupiter is not lawful to the ox, 640b Pernicketty about what they eat, 390a Perplexed in the extreme, 303a Perplexing thoughts to interrupt the sweet of life, 220b PERSECUTION belief, if bad, not improved by burning, 258b destruction of one unfortunate wretch, 525b found them a sect, made them a faction, 206b gibbets, halters were their arguments, 239b persecute living saints, 174b persecuting zeal, 370b persecution dragged them into fame, 101a persecution only can make clergy popular, 349b punishment of men of ability spreads their authority, 627b religious persecution, 42b the contagion spreads abroad still further, 564a your cruelty is our glory, 508a PERSEVERANCE
 endure and persist, 619a filled their purses by perseverance, 173b God is with those who persevere, 465b he goes far that never turns, 772b he that stays does the business, 781b motto on: "Per-se-vera," 620a nothing which persevering effort cannot overcome, 591b persevere and never fear, 825a perseverance, in a good cause; obstinacy in a bad, 342b Perseverance—contd.

snail reached the ark by perseverance, 746b step by step the ladder is ascended, 837b Persia's eyes, 232b Persian saying, 678b Persians and Medes, laws of the, 411a Persian's heaven, 232a PERSISTENCE
 always at it wins the day, 734b he runs far that never turns, 794a no tree falls at the first stroke, 817b shooting often hits the mark, 815a Person, don't believe there's no such a, 113b like a well-conducted, 368a Persons, God is no respecter of, 426b no regard for, 603b no respect of, 420b no respect of, with God, 427a to spare, but to proclaim faults, 566b Personal talk, season my fireside with, 394a PERSONALITIES
 condemn the fault and not the actor of it, 299b he lashed the vice, but spared the man, 348a not my wish to find fault with individuals, 590a to spare the persons but publish the crimes, 615a Perspiration, genius three parts, 765a Persuaded in his own mind, 427b PERSUASION and belief had ripened into faith, 401b and Force, two gods, 447b because persuasion fails, 35b better than force, 825a his gentle reason so persuasive stole, 371b hung upon his lips, 342b make persuasion do the work of fear, 222a no persuasion can move, 255b of the fortunate sways the doubtful, 849a people persuaded by what they cannot understand, 707a persuading others we convince ourselves, 184a persuasive, enchanting tongues, 222b ratio suaviora, 643a Suadela, goddess of Persuasion, 524b though I would persuade I'll not constrain, 211b who has no honey in pot must have it in mouth, 778b who has no money in purse must have it in mouth, 778b who has truth does not want, 267b with but a little, thou wouldst fain make me a Christian, 426b Perturbation, O polished, 315b PERVERSENESS and PERVERSITY
 all things can corrupt perverted minds, 611b I approve the better but follow the worse, 682b makes one squint-eyed, 825a never satisfied with anything done by others, 432a Perverseness and Perversity—contd.

there is nothing which cannot be perverted, 591*b* where you wish them not to do a thing, they are set on it, 674*b* who will not be ruled by rudder, must be ruled by the rock, 852*b* will not serve God if the devil bid,
300*b*

Perversions, not versions but, 601*b* Peschiera, 85*a*

PESIMISM

Affliction may one day smile again, 277*a* as agreeable as optimism, 17*b* fancy clouds, where no clouds be,
170*b*
he alone is blessed who ne'er was born, 259*b*
I was not always a man of woe, 272*a*
lay aside this gloomy fearfulness, 646*a*
le médecin Tani-pis, 699*b* my cue is villainous melancholy,
305*b*
never so happy as when told they
are ruined, 237*a*
nothing is right, nothing is just,
330*a* pessimist, a man who thinks everybody as nasty as himself, 323*b*
sad fancies do we then affect, 400*a* sovereign of sighs and groans, 277*a*
there's such a charm in melancholy, 265*a* vow an eternal misery together, 240*b*
welcome, kindred glooms, 370*a* See Melancholy

Pestered with a popinjay, 313*b* Pestilence, the destruction of a people, 530*b*
Petal lies, streak that on a, 37*a* of a flower, tip-tilted like the, 364*a* Petard, hoist with his own, 296*a* Peter and Peter, a difference between, 176*a*
do not rob, to pay Paul, 752*b* in and Paul out, 825*a* in scorn of Peter's pence, 358*a* is princeps apostolorum, 436*a* is so godly that God does not make him thrive, 825*a* of the Clair, feast of, 510*b* praise, but don't find fault with Paul, 827*a* St., keeps the door, 439*b* sat by the celestial gate, 60*b* the Peter of Norway, 392*b* Peter's keys some christened Jove adorn, 254*a* Peter's successor, 32*a*

PETITION AND PETITIONS

by laboursome petition, 290*a* long petitions spoil the cause, 69*a* petition me no petitions, 134*b* petition of an empty hand is hazardous, 877*a* petitions, but such as could not be refused, 604*a* save me most from my petitioners, 123*b*
Petrification, an eternal, 36*b* Petrifications of a flooding brain,
60*a*
Petticoat government, 455*a* her feet beneath her, 346*a* near is my, nearer my smock, 748*a* venerate a, 65*b* Pettifogger, litigious, 403*b*

Peut-être, un grand, 694*b* Phæton, Apollo's question to, 533*a* who fell in a greatly daring attempt, 543*a*
would shun the skies, if alive, 685*b*
Phantasm of a man, 70*b* Phantasma, like a, 285*b* Phantasmagorical world, the, 6*a* Phantom of delight, 393*a* Phantoms fled, the conquered, 104*a* pass away, the, 24*b* Pharaoh, by the foot of, 183*a* Pharisee, I lived a, 426*b* Pheasant-lords, these old, 359*b* Pheasants are fools if they invite the hawk to dinner, 825*a* Phidias carves wisdom, 132*a* brought, his awful Jove young, 131*a*
Jupiter of, 452*b*

PHILANTHROPY

doing good, one of the professions that are full, 372*a* he that loves but half of earth,
262*a*
it is godlike for mortal to help mortal, 514*a* none so near the gods as one who shows kindness to men, 589*b* not at all in my line, 695*b* self-interest gilt over with philanthropy, 338*b* ut proxim, 677*b*
Philip—a lover of horses, 26*b* and Mary on a shilling, 52*a* drunk and Philip sober, 451*b* fought men, 195*b* Philippi, we shall meet at, 453*a* Philistines be upon thee, 410*a* Philistinism: you massacre a million dreams, 121*b*

PHILOSOPHERS and PHILOSOPHY

a good horse in the stable (philosophy), 150*a*
a little philosophy inclines to atheism, 10*a* a philosopher should not be cast
down, 512*a*
a rustic, one of nature's philosophers, 647*a* abstruse philosophy, 187*b* all cannot be philosophers, 89*a* banishes trouble, 605*a* bladders of philosophy, 264*a* deep occult philosopher, 51*a* divine philosophy, 145*a* every great poet a philosopher, 89*a*
false philosophy, 217*b* for fear philosophy should push beyond her mark, 362*b* foundations of philosophy, 14*a*,
note
guide of life, expeller of vice, 685*b* handmaid to religion, 8*b* hang up philosophy, 279*b* has given social enjoyment to life, 608*a*
has produced cities, 608*a* hast any philosophy, shepherd, 289*a*
how charming is divine philosophy, 225*a*
I am safe now he is philosophising,
648*a*
I ask not proud philosophy, 67*b* I won't philosophise, 64*b* if philosophy could find it out, 293*a*
is doubt, 705*b* learned in raving philosophy, 615*b*

Philosophers and Philosophy—contd. life of philosophers a preparation for death, 671*b* life's guide (philosophy), 608*a* lights of mild philosophy, 1*a* lumber of the schools, 348*b* made Plato noble, 620*b* makes us wiser, 135*a* many talk like philosophers and live like fools, 808*a* may be pretended, 620*a* never to be praised worthily, 605*a* never yet philosopher could bear the toothache, 285*a* not Faith but mere Philosophy, 28*b*
nothing so absurd but it might have been said by philosophers, 592*b*
path of passions has led me to philosophy, 690*a* philosopher should not be cast
down, 512*a*
philosopher who is not wise for himself, 474*b*
philosophers dwell in the moon, 140*a* philosophy, adversity's sweet milk, 279*b* philosophy, teaching by examples, 268*a* philosophy will clip an angel's wings, 185*a*
than are dreamt of in your philosophy, 292*a*
the highest music, 448*a* the laughing and weeping philosophers, 654*b* the philosophers' stone, 564*a*
the philosophic mind, 25*a*
the science of sciences, 649*b* the sweets of sweet philosophy, 276*a*
the top of high philosophy, 104*b* to ridicule philosophy is to be a philosopher, 707*b* touch of cold philosophy, 185*a* track of sage philosophy, 75*a* vex not thy soul with dead philosophy, 388*a* Phœbus, post maxima nubila, 623*a* sayings worthy of, 620*a* Phœnicians complaining of guile,
448*b*
inventors of letters, 620*a* Phosphor, bring us back the day, 620*a*
sweet, bring the day, 261*a* Photography: the sun is a faithful artist, 262*b*
Phrase, a fico for the, 287*b* Phrase, a grand-sire, 278*a* an ill, a vile phrase, 292*b* more german to the matter, 297*a* tormenting, fantastic chorus, 381*a* that portentous, 65*b* that Time has thrown away, 181*b* of peace, the soft, 300*b* Phrases, a torturer of, 274*b* homely, 199*a* sech ez strikes, 202*a* taffeta phrases, silken terms, 277*b* to cull fit phrases, 82*b* words, phrases, fashions pass, 18*b* Phrygians wise too late, 653*b* Phylacteries, make broad their, 423*b* Phyllis is my only joy, 275*a* the neat-handed, 224*a* Physic and war governed by the eye, 866*a* home-made, 173*b* that sickens the sick, 173*b* to the dogs, throw, 305*b*

PHYSICIANS

a young physician makes a lumpy churchyard, 601*b* all idiots, Jews, barbers, old women fancy themselves, 533*a* an old physician and a young barber, 736*a* Aphorism of Physicians, 72*a* art of healing is long, 475*a* behold God or a guardian angel, 261*b*, note better no medicine than an unskilful physician, 743*a* cannot always cure, 597*b* cultivate their profession, 640*b* do not dwell in a city whose governor is a physician, 752*b* epitaph on a man who died of too much physic, 715*b* every man a fool or physician after thirty, 757*a* every physician hath his favourite disease, 135*a* fear kills more than the physician, 760*b* fever the reproach of the physicians, 228*b* friend to my life, 252*a* go not for every grief to the physician, 766*a* God heals, the physician hath the thanks, 766*a* had suffered many things of many physicians, 424*a* happy the physician called in at the end of the illness, 771*b* hide nothing from thy physician, 785*a* honour a physician, 420*b*, 786*a* I am better known to myself than to a physician, 586*b* if the doctor cures, the sun sees it; if he kills, the earth hides it, 789*b* is there no physician there, 418*a* killed by physicians, 453*a* killed by the visits of many physicians, 478*a* Luke, the beloved physician, 430*a* mend or end us, 64*b* more old drunkards than old physicians, 694*a* more physicians in health than drunkards, 854*a* motto of physician, 482*a*, note multiplicity of laws and physicians is a bad sign, 808*a* murderers are many leeches, 194*b* no man is a good physician who has never been sick, 816*b* Physician, heal thyself, 424*b*, 473*a*, 575*a* physician of others, he abounds in ulcers, 468*a* physicians superfluous among the healthy, 666*b* pours drugs of which he knows little into body of which he knows less, 450*a* ridiculous to apply to a physician when a man is over sixty, 757*a* St. Luke was a saint and a physician, yet he is dead, 830*b* the best, Diet, Quiet, and Merryman, 840*b* the best physicians, a cheerful mind, rest, moderate diet, 656*b* the "crux" of the physicians, 508*a* the patient's gold is medicine for the doctor, 620*a* the physician cures, nature makes well, 575*a*

Physicians—contd.

the physician may parry Time's scythe, 244*b* the physician owes all to the patient, 849*a* the physician takes the fee, but God sends the cure, 766*a* the quiet art of healing, 650*a* the reproach of physicians, 613*b* they that are whole need not a physician, 422*a* three physicians, two atheists, 674*b* time cures more than the doctor, 859*a* when the cause of disease is discovered, the cure is, 575*a* while doctors consult the patient dies, 874*a* who pays the physician does the cure, 875*b* See Leech

PHYSIOGNOMY

knowledge of human nature from, 527*b* some can judge ability by the face, 637*b*
See Face
 Pianoforte key board: five-and-thirty black slaves, 370*b* Piccadilly, peccadilloes of all, 170*a* Pick-axe and a spade, 376*a* Pick of the basket, 849*b* Picking and stealing, 433*a* Pickle thou hast left us, in what a, 45*b* well, it is not everyone can, 796*a* Picklock that never fails, the, 210*a* Pickwickian sense, in its, 111*a* Pickpockets, sure traders, for they take ready money, 825*a* Picninnies, the Joblillies, and the Garyulies, 440*b* Pict, a naked, 23*a*

PICTURE and PICTURES

a face worthy of what a picture, 607*a* a picture a dumb poem, 583*b* a picture in every wave, 233*b* are dead speakers, 824*a* as is a picture so is a poem, 677*a* at best, she is a handsome picture, 211*a* look here upon this picture, 295*b* pictures for the page atone, 253*b* pictures, good furniture, 267*a* pictures, taste, Shakespeare, etc., 151*a* pictures unworthy of praise, undeserving of blame, 267*a* pleasure from pictures, 205*b* savage pictures fill their gaps, 348*a* these the formidable picture drew, 407*a* what a picture cannot express, 12*b* Pie, he had a finger in the, when he burnt his nail off, 772*b* Piece of him, a, 290*a* Pier, I walked upon the, 160*b* Pierian spring, the, 246*b*

PIETY

a man full of piety, 683*b* alas for piety, 542*b* and valour, 122*a* bound each to each by natural piety, 392*b* foundation of all virtues, 620*a*, 685*a* least pretence to piety, 52*b* over-zealous piety, 42*b*

Piety—contd.

weaker sex more prone to piety, 345*b* See Pious

PIGS

a pig in a poke, 374*b*, 860*a*, note a pig is beautiful to a pig, 492*b* a pig teaching Minerva, 666*b* a pig with vast celebrity, 87*a* an alewife's sow always well fed, 719*a* as naturally as pigs squeak, 50*b* better my hog dirty than no hog, 743*a* every sow to its own trough, 758*a* fat sow little knows what the lean one means, 844*a* feed a pig and you'll have a hog, 760*b* grow fat where lambs would starve, 825*a* grunt about everything and nothing, 825*a* he does not lose his alms who gives it to his pig, 772*a* little pigs eat great potatoes, 804*a* might fly, 825*a* never buy a pig in a poke, 814*b* of a pig's tail you will not make a good shaft (or a good hunting horn), 819*a* old pigs have hard snouts, 820*a* parlour boarder of a pig, 171*b* pig used to dirt turns up its nose at boiled rice, 726*b* pigs love that lie together, 825*a* play on the organ at Hogs Norton, 825*a* pretty pig makes an ugly old sow, 726*b* some men there are love not a gaping pig, 283*a* swine, women, and bees cannot be turned, 838*b* the first pig of a litter is the best, 844*b* the sow loves bran better than roses, 851*a* the still sow eats up the draught, 851*b* to turn the pigs into the clover, 862*a* when the pig's proffered, hold up the poke, 871*b* who has only one pig fattens it easily, 778*b* why they killed the pig, 114*b* young pig grunts like the old sow, 739*a* Pigging together, 39*b*

PIGEONS

he is a pigeon, he has no gall, 293*b*, note leered like a love-sick pigeon, 87*b*, 336*a* roasted, do not fly in the air, 744*b* shoot at the pigeon and kill the crow, 446*a*, 776*a* to catch two with one pea (or bean), 798*b*, 861*a* Pigeon-livered, I am, 293*b* Pike and gun, text of, 51*a* Pilate and Tom Thumb, 25*a* Pilate, jesting, 9*a*, note Pile, a, that ne'er decays, 396*b* face of this tall, 92*b*

PILGRIMAGE and PILGRIMS

God knows who are the best pilgrims, 766*b* he that on pilgrimage goeth ever, becometh holy late or never, 780*b*

Pilgrimage and Pilgrims—contd.

man hath a weary pilgrimage, 335*b*
Pilgrim Fathers, 161*b* pilgrims are we all, 194*b* Pilgrim's Progress (praise of), 181*a* then longen folk to goon on pilgrimages, 76*b* they talk about their pilgrim blood, 201*b*
tired pilgrim's limbs, 69*b* Pillar of a people's hope, 362*b* to post, 764*a* Pillars massy proof, antique, 224*b* Pillow, a dreamy, 22*b* of thorns for thy slumberless head, 325*b*

PILLS

are to be swallowed, not chewed, 825*b*
death in ambush lay in every pill, 142*a*
for earthquake, 3*a* for maladies of Society, 73*a* would not be sugared unless bitter, 737*a*

PILOT and PILOTS

a daring pilot in extremity, 122*b* O pilot, 'tis a fearful night, 18*b* the pilot of the Galilean lake, 226*a*
the pilot that weathered the storm, 69*b* thou desperate pilot, 280*a* to see my pilot face to face, 366*b* what pilot so expert, 223*b* Pilotate, spend our lives in learning,
213*b*
Pin a day, a groat a year, 188*b*, 726*b* Pin, forst her not a, 436*a* see a, and let it lie, 831*b* stay not for th' other, 163*a* who will not stoop for a, 782*b* who will steal a, 782*b* Pin's fee, at a, 291*b* Pin-pricks, policy of, 459*a* Pinch, a lover's, which hurts and is desired, 307*b* in death more sharp, cannot be
a, 309*a*
yourself and know how others feel, 825*b*

Pindar, Keble on, 187*b*

Pine, the saying, 339*b*

Pine, we, for what is not, 326*a* Pined, long she, 67*b* in thought, she, 298*a* Pines, silent sea of, 86*a* thunder-harp of, 330*b*

Pining at our state, 46*b*

Pinion, he nursed the, 60*a* Pink of courtesy, 279*a* of perfection, 150*a*

Pioneers, allowance to be made for,
478*b*

PIOUS

pious, not austere, 264*a*, note pious uses, 553*a* the pious frauds of friendship, 135*b*
the pious are the care of the Gods, 509*b*
think I'm pious when I'm only bilious, 170*a* who on earth can say I am not pious, 170*a* with pious action, 293*b* See Piety

Pip, pip, 464*b*

PIPE (musical instrument) a man cannot pipe without his upper lip, 724*b* a, for Fortune's finger, 294*b*

Pipe (musical instrument)—contd.

every reed will not make a, 757*b* he will dance to nothing but his own pipe, 783*b* no longer pipe, no longer dance, 816*a*
scrannel pipes of wretched straw, 226*b*

PIPES (tobacco)

glorious in a pipe, 58*b* hire a man to break in the pipe, 84*b*
in my mouth and a summer house in the back garden, 111*b* over a pipe, 162*a* when the pipe is foul within, 438*b* Piped unto you, and ye have not danced, 422*b* Piper wants meikle that wants his nether chaps, 849*b*

Pipers playing, they hear the, 238*a*

Piracies not to be sullied by stealing,
84*a*

Pirate, enemy of human race, 620*b*

Pirates: when the pirate prays there is great danger, 871*b*

Piron's epitaph, 691*a* Pistol, highlandman's, with new stock, lock, and barrel, 443*b* that cocking of a, 63*b*

Pit, digged a, for my soul, 418*b* he that diggeth a, 416*a* they'll fill a, 314*b* whoso diggeth a, shall fall therein, 415*a*

Pit, foolish influence rules our, 125*a* many-headed monster of the,

253*a*

the ears of the groundlings, 294*a* Pitch, a bumping, 238*a* and toss, a game of dreary, 172*b* he that toucheth, 420*a* Pitcher broken at the fountain, 416*a* goes so often to the water that it is broken, 849*b*

just hand the, 16*a* whether the pitcher strike stone, or stone the pitcher, 874*a*

Pitchers, little, have long ears,
804*a*

Pith and moment, 294*a*

Pitt, William, 69*b* on his youth, 181*a* last words of, 245*a*, note

PITY and PITIFUL

a heart to pity, 81*b* a pitiful look asks enough, 726*b* a soul that pity touched, 67*a* a thing of pity, 309*b* akin to love, 335*a*, 825*b* and love are twins, 128*a* and need make all kin, 4*b* and ruth, 226*b*

as pitiful as she is fair, 155*b* crown of all virtues, 79*b* cureth envy, 825*b* enters at an iron gate, 321*a* drops from pity's fountain, 193*b* foolish pity spoils a city, 762*a* gently pity whom ye can't persuade, 349*b*

have neither pity, love, nor fear, 318*a*

have pity on others, that others may not have to pity you, 623*b* he hath a tear for, 315*b* he that pities another remembers himself, 780*b*

his pity gave ere charity began, 148*a*

I learn to pity them, 149*b* infinite pity, that is all my need,

238*b*

Pity and Pitiful—contd.

is love when grown into excess,
174*b*
Love's pale sister, 182*a* makes a Deity, 20*b* no beast so fierce but knows pity, 318*a*

no soul shall pity me, 319*b* nor pity thine own life too much, 236*a*

only at their best when they are to be pitied, 21*a* pity me then and wish I were renewed, 322*a* pity melts the mind to love, 126*a* pity most doth show herself, 74*a* pity never leaves the gentle breast, 328*a*

pity the sorrows of a poor old man, 236*b*

pity swells the tide of love, 405*b* pity sworn servant unto love, 106*a* shuns the walks of War, 106*b* the Infinite Pity, 329*a* the pity of it, Iago, 302*a* the straightest path to woman's

love, 138*b*

they that han't pity, 111*a* they who never melt with pity, 232*a*

thing I pity most in men, 35*b*

'tis true, 'tis pity, 292*b*

'twas pitiful, 'twas wondrous pitiful, 300*b*

unable of pity, 283*a* when pity opens the door, 204*b* with pity came in love, 80*a* you feel the dint of pity, 286*b*

PLACE and PLACES

a jolly place in times of old, 393*b* a place for everything, 726*b* all places to a wise man, ports, 312*a*

and means for every man, 299*a* change the place, but keep the pain, 383*a*

end is come of pleasant places, 351*b*

get place and wealth, 253*a*

I fill up a place, in the world,
288*a*

I seldom go to the place I set out
for, 343*b*

let each keep to its allotted place, 658*b*

nor wished to change his place, 148*a*

not making his high place the lawless perch, 364*a*

our place in the sun, 456*a*

place and power, 232*a*

the spirit of the place, 395*a* their ends are to stick in good places, 880*a*

the place thereof shall know it no more, 413*a*

this is the place, 198*b* to each man there is his own place, 593*b*

we hope he's in a better place, 348*a*

wen dey puts another hoss in his place, 158*a*

Whigs not getting into Place, 65*a*

Placeant ante omnia silva, 595*a*

PLAGIARISM

all that meal is not from your own sack, 597*b*

borrowed extracts become a work all his own, 701*a* defacing first, then claiming for

his own, 81*b*

Plagiarism—contd.

disfigure them to make them pass for their own, 328b fine words, I wonder where he stole 'em, 348b most writers steal a good thing, 260b reaping where thou hast not sown, 423b they strip others' books to stuff their own, 501a Plague in London, Pepys on, 243a Plague o' both your houses, 279b Plaided warriors, 271b Plain and coloured, the two kinds of women, 388a, 389a as way to parish church, 288b blunt man, 286b man live and think no harm, 318b man, understand a, 283a tale, how a, shall put you down, 314a

PLAIN DEALING

astonishes men, 133a plain-dealing fellows, 436a plain-dealing is a jewel, 258a, 403b, 825b is dead and died without issue, 825b the best when all is done, 260b Plain living and high thinking, 396b Plainness, generous, proves the better way, 345b

PLAIN SPEAKING

he was wont to speak plain, 284a Machiavel, 8a
 willing to endure plain speaking, 616b See Outspokenness
 Plan, protested, but joined in the, 102a

Plans, pifers wretched, 81b

Planco, consule, 597a

PLANET and PLANETS

a new planet swims into his ken, 184b every man has his own planet, 757a he that was born under a three-halfpenny planet, 782a instruct the planets, 248b made him for some other planet, 88a of the pale populace of heaven, 35a other planets circle other suns, 248a, 254a planet-like music of poetry, 329b planets filled with Stagiritis, 232a planets, 29a, note show me some happier planet, 232a the planet itself splits his stick, 131b whilst I can crawl upon this planet, 443a

Plant, good for, is ill for the peat, 864b no, that grows on mortal soil, 226a noble, suits not stubborn soil, 726a often removed cannot thrive, 726b Plants: hortus siccus, 546b

Plants, stones, and their true qualities, 279a

Plantagenet, Fitz, 65a

Planted, I have, Apollos watered, 427b

Plaster thick, some will stick, 825b

Plastic circumstance, 34b

Plastic of creatures, man most, 72a

PLATO

and Socrates friends, but truth a greater friend, 489b

Plato—contd.

ennobled by philosophy, 620b his definition of a man, 448a, 490a his door inscription, 467a his retirement, 223a I would rather err with Plato, 523a on suicide, 359b on the beauty of Virtue, 8a Plato, Epictetus, Tully, 99b Plato, thou reasonest well, 2a sayings of, 448a
 Plausible reasoners, not justest thinkers, 159b

PLAY (recreation)

all play and no work makes Jack a mere toy, 734a an hour to play and the last man in, 238a
 gie o'er when the play is gude, 765a his play is always fair and just and patient, 176a it is na play where one greets and another laughs, 796a nature never meant us for play and pleasure, 813b play and joking, undesirable if over-done, 585a play has produced serious contention, 568b play may be good, folly can never be of use, 825b play not for gain, 162b play to live, not live to play, 867a play up and play the game, 238a
 play, women and wine undo men, 825b
 play with your peers, 825b
 the less play the better, 847a the time for play is come, 610b two pleasures in play, 65b when the play is best, it is best to leave, 871b work and play, 107a you cannot play upon me, 295a you would play upon me, 295a

PLAY and PLAYS (theatrical) a good play needs no epilogue, 280b a mode in plays, 126a, 127b as good as a play, 738a better than a play, 453b last scene of such a senseless play, 98a life's poor play, 249a nothing but heathenism from plays, 135a play out the play, 314a plays make mankind no better, 60b reasons for going to the play, 43a the dénouement of plays, 677a the last (act) commends (or crowns) the play, 164b, 261a the old plays begin to disgust, 133b the play is played out, 366b the play pleased not the million, 293a the purpose of playing, 294b the play's the thing, 293b the world is but a play, 437a what are the plays of to-day, 347a Player, a poor, 305b Players, men and women merely, 288b do, mouth it as many of your, 294a

Pleadings, in law, 645b

Pleas, their, were different, 255a

PLEASURE, PLEASE,PLEASANT

a brief and not a true pleasure, 499a (please) and be instructed too, 345a a drop of pleasure, 182a a little pleasure, fate metes us, 351b a lordly pleasure-house, 357b a man devoted to pleasure, 546a a new religion, "Enjoy thyself," 408b a vantage-ground for pleasure, 364a affinity between labour and pleasure, 563b age hard to be pleased, 109b all seemed well pleased, 220a because it gave pleasure to the spectators, 206b bought with pain is hurtful, 661b busily employed in idleness, 672a change pleasures but not friends, 691a charmed cup of pleasure, 265a compassed round by pleasure, 401b death treads in pleasure's footsteps, 406b dejection after pleasures, 582a delight flies because they give her chase, 380a desire not to please overmuch, 509b devious way of pleasure, 44b difficult to be moderate in transient pleasure, 515b diligent to serve and please, 77b diseases the tax on pleasures, 752a doubling his pleasures, 264b during our pleasure, 520a empty pleasures of the eye, 576b English take their pleasures sadly, 456a enjoyments do not belong to the wealthy alone, 584a few can serve, yet all can please, 234a first step to please, 83a fly pleasure and it will follow, 762a fly the pleasure that bites tomorrow, 761b for the sake of giving pleasure, 538b great lords have pleasures; the people have joy, 702a great source of pleasure, variety, 180a greatest catastrophes traceable to love of pleasure, 267b greatest incentive to evil (pleasure), 448a greatest pleasure of the greatest number, 204b grief, companion of pleasure, 560b he more had pleased us, 2a he that loves pleasure must for pleasure fall, 208b he that would please all and himself too, 772b he who must have pleasure, 97a he's a man of pleasure, 162b his only pleasure to be displeased, 98a how to vex and how to please, 349a I live in pleasure, 119a I that please some, 310a if thou wouldst be happy learn to please, 259a I'm pleased, and yet I'm sad, 385b

Pleasure, Please, Pleasant—contd.
in him 'twas natural to please,
122*b*
in midst of pleasure always something to choke us, 557*b* in vain to try to please all, 536*b* intellectual and other pleasures, 181*a* knowledge a pleasure without reproach, 332*b* life most enjoyed when courted least, 406*a* life of pleasure most unpleasing, 150*b* life's pleasure hath he lost, 445*a* look not on pleasures as they come, 163*a*
man of pleasure is a man of pains, 407*b*
man more prone to pleasure than to virtue, 545*a* men caught by pleasure as fish with a hook, 687*b*, note men seldom give unless pleased, 180*b*
mid pleasures and palaces, 241*b* mingle your cares with pleasure, 558*a*
modern customs have regard to enjoyment, not right, 584*a* mortals given up to bodily indulgence, 582*a* nature never meant us for play and pleasure, 813*b* never pleasure without repentance, 815*a*
never to blend our pleasure or our
pride, 393*b*
no more deadly pest than sensual
pleasure, 602*b*
no pleasure like the pain of being loved, 258*b*
no profit grows where no pleasure, 276*a*
no sterner Moralist than pleasure, 63*a*
no pleasure after death, 623*a* no unalloyed pleasure, 602*b* not e'en pleasure to excess is good, 371*a*
not shameful to have amused oneself, but shameful not to have left off, 586*b* nothing long which gives endless
pleasure, 594*b*
one moment unamused, a misery, 405*a*
our pleasures but fantastical, 52*a*
patrons of pleasure posting into pain, 407*a* paucity of pleasures, 181*a* pleasantness of employment, 66 please by whatever gift you are able, 627*b* pleased to the last, he crops the flowery food, 248*a* pleased too little or too much, 247*a*
pleased with thyself, 147*b* pleased you by not studying to please, 204*a* pleasure a siren, 63*a* pleasure after pain, 125*b* pleasure an inciter to vileness, 687*a* pleasure and action make hours seem short, 301*b* pleasure at the helm, 155*a* pleasure brings Remorse, 95*b* pleasure calls for Love, 3*b* pleasure departed from the ear to the deceitful eye, 576*b*

Pleasure, Please, Pleasant—contd.
pleasure, ease, content, what'e'r thy name, 249*b* pleasure falls, where Tyranny prevails, 391*b* pleasure has no commerce with virtue, 598*a*
pleasure increases among the uninstructed with danger, 613*a* pleasure is forgotten, 508*a* pleasure is labour too, 96*b* pleasure is no pleasure if joined to evil conscience, 687*b* pleasure is the aim of all, 337*b* Pleasure (Plee) maketh Poverty,
434*b*
pleasure leads and peace attends,
400*a* pleasure lies behind, 766 pleasure lost by coveting more, 849*b*
pleasure of having it over, 173*a* pleasure of the sense, 107*a* pleasure oft eludes our grasp, 170*b* pleasure our greatest evil or good, 249*a*
pleasure out of extreme pain, 350*b* pleasure seldom found where sought, 180*b* pleasure tasteth well after service, 825*b*
pleasure the bait of evil, 687*b*, note pleasure to a select few, 574*b* pleasure was his business, 129*b* pleasure which is safe is less valued, 628*b* pleasure which there is in life, 392*b*
pleasure's a sin, 62*a* pleasures are like poppies, 46*a* pleasures of feasts, games, and
women, 628*b*
pleasures of the mighty are the tears of the poor, 849*b*
pleasures of youth, flowers but of
May, 438*a*
pleasures the sex pursue, 251*a* rarity enhances pleasures, 687*b* Remorse fatal egg of Pleasure, 95*b* rien ne chatouille qui ne pince, 707*a* savage dispositions softened by
pleasure, 497*b*
schooling in the pleasures, 213*b* scorn delights, 661*b* shall steal our pleasures, 230*b*
she is pleased if thou lament, 436*b* she's pleasant to think on, 346*b* short pleasure, long lament, 833*b* short pleasure parent of sorrow, 499*a*
some pleasures live a month, 98*b* something of bitterness arises from pleasure, 575*a* sorrow follows pleasure, 687*b* such pleasure as leaves no sting behind, 264*b*
superiority of intellectual pleasure, 628*b*
sweet taste of pleasure unpursued, 400*b*
that charm, the certainty to please, 264*b*
that life of pleasure, 251*b* that unrest which men miscall delight, 326*b*
that which pleases many is guarded with great danger, 570*b* the bubble joy, 249*a* the ease which marks security to please, 271*b*
the most delicious pleasure to cause that of others, 700*a* the pleasure is as great, 51*b*

Pleasure, Please, Pleasant—contd.
the pleasure of the pain, 90*b*
the pleasure passes, the disgrace
remains, 655*b*
the pleasing way is not the right, 261*a*
the reeling goddess Pleasure, 99*b* the world's stock of harmless
pleasure, 179*b*
their business but to waste each other's time, 383*b* they see nothing but what pleases them, 575*b*
they who are pleased themselves must always please, 370*b* though on pleasure she was bent, 98*b*
thoughts (pleasant) bring sad, 399*b*
to displease is my pleasure, 691*b* to every man his own pleasure, 664*a*
to overcome pleasure is the greatest pleasure, 861*a* too much desire to please, 76*a* turn to pleasure, all they find,
155*b*
ungraceful and inelegant pleasures, 513*a* unseduced by pleasure, 19*a* use present pleasures so as not to mar future, 657*b* very pleasure hast thou been unto me, 410*a* virtues sink where pleasure is lord, 574*b*
ways of pleasantness, 413*b* we that live to please, 178*a* what is a gentleman but his
pleasure, 868*b*
when all things pleased, 264*a* when we are pleased we begin to please others, 872*a* while time permits enjoy pleasure, 519*b*
who gives pleasure requires
pleasure, 821*b*
who would be always pleasing, 143*a*
who would please all and himself too, 876*a* whoever would be pleased and
please, 239*a*
with remembrance of danger pleasure is wretched, 578*a* with youth pleasures pass away, 335*b*
without one pleasure and without one pain, 359*b* yet she never fails to please, 275*a* Pleiades, sweet influences of the, 412*a*
PLENTY abundance is no fault, 731*a* begets Pride, 434*b* corrupts the melody, 357*b* has made me poor, 556*b* is na dainty, 825*b* is no fault, 825*b* let not plenty make you dainty, 800*b*
makes dainty, 825*b* our disease, 123*b* returns with full horn, 561*a* the child of peace, 260*b* to scatter plenty o'er a smiling land, 154*a*
where plenty is there is swelling, 674*b*
whose plenty made him poor, 339*b*
Plodders ever won, small have continual, 276*b*

Plot signify, what the devil does the, 376a

Plot, this blessed, 312b

LOTS

God the best layer of plots, 465a men perish when meditating death to others, 647a plot me no plots, 138b plots, necessary things, 122b

PLOUGH and PLOUGHING

a man must plough with such oxen as he hath, 725a bring not thy plough, 163a following his plough, 393b Good speed the Plough, 461a if I had no plough, you would have no corn, 788b let your oxen plough the rich soil, 670b men who guide the plough, 103a one plough going better than two cradles, 743a one ploughs, another sows, 822b plough deep and you will have plenty of corn, 825b plough deep while sluggards sleep, 140b, 825b plough-horse don't squeal when another is put in his place, 158a plough not the seas, 338a plough or not, you must pay me your rent, 825b plough the light sand, 144b ploughing the sands, 329b putting plough before the horse, 861b there belongs more than whistling to a ploughman, 854a well worth aw that gars the plough draw, 867b who counts all costs will never plough, 777a ye have ploughed wickedness, 418b

PLOUGHMAN

mair than an honest ploughman, 45b on his legs higher than a gentleman on his knees, 726b Ploughman, Gardener and Grazier, 844b the ploughman homeward plods, 153a

Ploughshare, Ruin's, 45a

Pluck it from my bosom, I will, 358b out the heart of my mystery, 295a

PLUMS

a plum year, a dumb year, 718b, note black plum as sweet as a white, 718a one plum gets colour from another, 678b the higher the plum-tree the richer the plum, 846b thick amber and plum-tree gum, 202b

Plumage, strip him of his, 184b

Plumes, not on downy, 74a

Plummet, her damning, 32a

Plump Jack, banish, 314a

Plunder, he shared in the, 102a not to, or to steal, 383a

Plunder, was für, 714a

Plundering and blundering, 118a was their trade, 127a

Plunge, Festus, I, 31a

Plunged in, I, 285a

Plurima mortis imago, 507b

Plutarch, quotations from, 448b, 449a

Pluto the grisly god, 256b

Plutus, as sponsor, stood at her font, 173a

Plutus, timidus, 671a

Po, the river, 85b, note

POACHERS

Diana's foresters, 313a

old poacher makes a good game-keeper, 78a, 736b poacher turned inside out, 188b

Pocket, keep your hand out of his breeches, 64b

Pocket-handkerchiefs, moral, 111b

Pocket, law smiles in yer face while it picks yer, 207b

Pockets empty as their pate, 331a

Pocula Castalia, 682b

Podsnappery, 115a

Pœnitentia, locus, 567b

Poetaster, hunt a, 60a

POETRY, POESY, POEMS

a gift worthy of Apollo, 583a a kind of medicine (poetry), 187a a poetical tempest arises, 622a

(a good writer) should be himself a poem, 228b ah me, that my verses have not greater power 541b always fallacy in poetry, 274a an unworthy poem debasing noble deeds, 531b beating high with the pulse of poesy, 186a best words in best order, 86b (Browning's) a medium for prose, 388b children the living poems, 200a comic matter not to be expressed in tragic form, 681a companion of camps (poetry), 399b could a man live by it, poetry not an unpleasant employment, 151a cradled into poetry by wrong, 326b

danned to poesy, 369a divineness of poetry, 7b enjoyment of, requires a certain unsoundness of mind, 205a essence of poetry, 187b fain would write a poem, 33b

God gives song to the few, 333b

God, not we, the poem makes, 260a he is a blockhead who cannot make two verses, and a fool that makes four, 784a he is no writer whose poems no one reads, 600b he that works and does some poem, 73b he who would write heroic poems, 71b

I can always make the first verse well, 694b

I will not take exception to a few spots, 681b

I would the gods had made thee poetical, 289a immortality conferred by poetry, 535b is a noble song produced by nature or art, 585a is it (poetry) a true thing, 289a learned and unlearned write poems, 640b let greater men make greater poems, 571b let us sing of somewhat greater matters, 671a life of man a poem, 71a mincing poetry, 314a

Poetry, Poesy, Poems—contd.

muse a consolation, a respite from care, 538b

Music and sweet Poetry, 17b no mediocrity in poetry, 575a no second-rate in, 239b not born under a rhyming planet, 285a not enough that poems be pretty, 600b not poetry, but prose run mad, 252a nothing poetical about the Romans, 193a nothing so difficult as a beginning in poesy, 63a nought but idle poetry, 183a odes and jewels five-words-long, 360a oh, why did he write poetry, 256a

old-fashioned poetry, but choicely good, 378a

Parnassus has no gold mines, 824a

planet-like music of poetry, 329b poem, round and perfect as a star, 330b poems in prose, 109a poetic licence (licentia poetica), 566b poetic pains, 99b

poetic trappings, 101a

poetical lies about the country, 333a poetry, a product of smaller intestines, 71b poetry declines with civilisation, 205a poetry destined to foreshadow Revealed Truth, 187b poetry does not die, 715a poetry, good unto none, but least to the professors, 183a poetry is but a giving of names, 72b poetry, more simple, sensuous, and passionate, 228a poetry, Musical Thought, 73a poetry, next best to prose, 12a poetry of a true life, 601b poetry, queen of arts, 342a poetry the devil's wine, 8a, 621b poetry's unnatural, 112a

Politics or Poetry, amusements for fools of eminence, 342a

Pope on poetry, 247a poverty urges me on to write poetry, 67b scraps of thundrous Epic, 360a (sensuous poetry) words suited to Latin lutes, 601b so sacred is every ancient poem, 485b some love obscurity, some desire the light of day, 540a source of all my bliss and all my woe (poetry), 148b Sternhold out-Sternholded, 143a swate Poe-thry, 16a

the fame which song brings will last for ever, 650a the full resounding line, 253a the god of poesy, 56a the imperishable lay, 338a the poetry of earth is never dead, 184b the poet's innermost feeling, 187b the spell that still enchants, 107a the tender charm of Poetry and Love, 402b the truest is the most feigning, 289a the wine of devils, 8a, 621b

Poetry, Poesy, Poems—cont'd.

these things do not accord with humorous poetry, 598b those oft are stratagems which errors seem, 246b to put on the rack with a biting poem, 597a to see clearly is poetry, 267a truth the truest poesy, 95a union of man with nature, 72a ut pictura poesis, 677a verse a measured speech, 8a verse comes from Heaven, 260a verses should be sung, not read, 702b we should drop into poetry, 115a what others feel more fully can express, 167b wild oats in poetry, 29b world is full of poetry, 243a writing verses does not now please me, 592a your poem must eternal be, 87b zeal of fools in rhyme, 253a See Poets, Verse, 187a

POETS

a poet does not work by square, 98a a poet is born, not made, 621b a poet's best reward, praise, 273a a poet with power of a magician, 549a a thousand poets pried at life, 32a all that poets feign of bliss and joy, 317b amatory poets, 63b an excellent poet, without being a chronologer, 128a and painters dare anything, 620a and tobacco, 28a are allowed to lie, 668a are all who love, 14a are mad, 49b are to us, as we to the brutes, 214a avoid a raging poet, 681b bard sublime if bard may e'er be so, 327b bitter word or jest dropped from a poet's pen, 120b brave men lost, unwept, through want of a poetic chronicler, 687a creatures most absurd, 253a daisy, the poet's darling, 392b damned to poesy, 369a either wish to profit or please, 495a elect of Parnassus are made up, 700a Euge, poeta, 526a every critic a minor poet, 237a every great poet a philosopher, 89a every poet bit by him that comes behind, 348a fate (poet's) is here in emblem shown, 385b fear verses and hate poets, 610a few enjoy honour after death, 686a few know even good poets, 575a few poets regarded and rewarded, 183a fictions of poets, 679a flattery ne'er lost on poet's ear, 272a formerly the care of leaders and kings, 509b freer sort of poet's licence, 622a God the best poet, 31a God the perfect poet, 31a God's most candid critics, 262b

Poets—cont'd.

great poets hold the reader captive, 599b have left us nothing unattempted, 593b have morals and manners of their own, 157a have no need of a gentle reader, 599b have no sure refuge, 126a having clever bards for friends, 391a he came when poets had forgot, 381a he is either mad or making poetry, 495a homely, slighted trade, 226a honour and reputation to poets, 536b I am nae poet, 46b
I have honoured and cherished poets, 670a in our youth begin in gladness, 393b licence of poets and painters, 60a lose half the praise that they have got, 377b made, as well as born, 183a (madness) which should possess a poet's brain, 121a maker of sweet poets (the Moon), 184b many a would-be poet, 25b many versifiers not poets, 329a me also the shepherds call a poet, 666a medieval poets, 703b
meditate the thankless muse, 226a Milton on prose, 228b most absurd and wrong-headed, 177a Nature mourns when a poet dies, 272a needs must be poets, 29b never poet but had heart in the right place, 132a not popular or hackneyed or commonplace, 652a of all artificers the poet fondest of his works, 849b of diviner mind, 508a Oh, the bards of olden days, 268b opinion concerning poets, 12a painful vigils keep, 253b passionate heart of the poet, 363b poet a world in miniature, 454a poet envious of poet, 473a poet, historian, now nothing, 694b poet kindles poet, 187a Poet of the dawn (Chaucer), 199b poetic frenzy, 537a poet-like he spoke, 358a poets give lasting existence to mortals, 607b poets scant of gold, 30a poets the guardians of the State, 115b poet's sacred name, 60a poet's touch make words phosphorescent, 702a possess force by their nature, 621b profaned the God-given strength, 269a prosy in their common talk, 168a rare in Britain's chilling climate, 348a right of poets to coin words, 239b sacred and great achievements of, 607b sacred matters held in common by, 666a spare the poet, 97b

Poets—cont'd.

still whole-democrats, poets, 30a sublime poetry in a cramped attic, 536a such sights as youthful poets dream, 224a tear him for his bad verses, 286b that never versified, 329a the consecration and the poet's dream, 400b the flower of poets, 533b the lunatic, the lover, and the poet, 281a the poet breathes in his works, 91b the poet's eye, in a fine frenzy rolling, 281a the poet sees not deep, but wide, 5a the poet, soaring in the high region of his fancies, 228b the remains of the dismembered poet, 516b the truest historian, 141a the waspish race of poets, 581a the wastepaper of mankind, 140b
they had no poet, and they died, 256b third-rate poets no one knows, 575a those brave translunary things, 121b three poets, in three distant ages, 125b to be fed not fattened, 522b to know the poet from the man of rhymes, 253a to whom the name of Poet is due, 555b true poet is all-knowing, 454a Truth inspired the Bards of old, 397b unbecoming in poets to rail at one another, 474a unsoundness of mind necessary to a poet, 205a ut solent poetae (i.e. poor), 678a vex not thou the poet's mind, 357a was ever poet so trusted, 179a water-drinkers' verses cannot please long, 603a we are born poets, 584b what the sage poets taught, 225b where go the poet's lines, 168a whilome that good poet said, 340b who can write more verses than I, or more quickly, 584a who discerns no character, 30a who on earth have made us heirs, 394a who does not hate Bavius loves Mavius' poems, 631b whose insight makes others dim, 32a with a poet's eye, 66b work of poet endures, 520a youthful poets fancy when they love, 266b Point abandoned is not lost if not known, 516a upon it, not to put too fine a, 114b Pointed aisles and shafted stalk, 269b POISON bitter conduct, unsavoury guide, 280a coward's weapon, 139b drives out poison, 751b drunk out of gold, 679b expelled by poisons, 128b food for some is poison to others, 640a for the age's tooth, 311a Poison—contd.

in jest, 295a in the sweet honey, 533a of the honey-bee, 23b one man's meat another's poison, 822a richest juice in poison-flowers, 185b what's one man's poison, 139a you do bear a poison in your mind, 384a

See Venom

Poisoned air and tortured soil, 191a Poisonous dregs that lurk beneath, 379a words, have eaten, 352b

Poland, 68b, note Pole, thrice to th' utmost, 215b to pole, truth from, 3a true as the needle to the, 24a Police force to prevent war, 129b Police: some staid guardian of the public peace, 402a Policeman A, Mrs. Grundy and, 368b Policeman's lot is not a happy one, 146b Policemen, soldiers who act alone, 338b

POLICY

base and rotten, 313b busy in setting (Faction) right, 96b feminine policy has a mysterious method, 698a may be virtuous as well as vicious, 826a often hath prevailed, 82a puts on religious cloak, 345b refined policy, 40a regained what arms had lost, 53b rugged brow of careful policy, 339a sits above conscience, 308b turn him to any cause of policy, 316a Polished brass, 80a Polishing, the labour and delay of, 567a

POLITE, POLITENESS

benevolence in small things, 205b comedy of the polite world, 334a fashionable politeness skin-deep, 324a politeness is excellent, but does not pay the bill, 760a wit set by politeness, 404a you're exceedingly polite, 145a Politic, devil knew not what he did when he made man, 308b world, snail emblem of our, 200b Political illness, a, 40a changes, only after resistance, 339a discussion, heat in inverse ratio to knowledge, 228b life, behind the scenes of, 114b

POLITICS, POLITICIANS

age of virtuous politics is past, 100b Artemus Ward on politics, 27b conscience nothing to do with politics, 328a Defoe on "outs" and "ins," 107b England unvalued for politics, 117a from politics to puns, 258b Gipsy politics, 24a
hard to be a true politician, 8b I am not a politician, 27b I don't believe in principle, 202a magnanimity in politics, 40a maxim to ruin some for others' benefit, 349b Politics, Politicians—contd.

my politics like my religion, 27a no politics disturb their mind, 149b
no politics in boiled and roast, 332b no preparation thought necessary, 344a politician, one that could circumvent God, 296b politicians neither love nor hate, 123a
politics and morality, 234b politics and the pulpit, 41a politics and theology the only great subjects, 442a politics fill me with doubt, 37b politics in a nutshell, 21b politics in the East, 116a politics of people at whose table I sit, 24a Politics or Poetry, amusements for fools, 342a politics we bar, 145b politician who screams, 22b practical worker preferable to whole race of, 347a statesmen degraded into politicians, 117b statesmen's kindnesses, 174b the ancient politicians, 8a the mule of politics, 117a
the original friends o' the nation, 202a the softer, saner politics, 157a they politics like ours profess, 155b to partly gave up what was meant for mankind, 149a two parties necessary in politics, 213a we all are politicians, 177a what begins in fear in politics, 89b Poll early and often, 459a Pollution, light passing through, 560a Pollutions, sun passeth through, 7b Poluphloisoto thalasses, 478a Polygamy, before, was made a sin, 122b Polypus, the faculty of the, 622a Pomegranate, a rotten pip in every, 610b

POMP amazing pomp, 407a and feast and revelry, 224a and glory of the world, 320a, 433a lick absurd pomp, 294b make not my path offensive to the Gods, 245b one may be wise without pomp, 566b pomp of power, 153b pomp, the slave of, 268b pumps and vanity of this wicked world, 433a sic pomp an' art, 45a without his force, 43a Pompa mortis, 622a, note Pompey, insincerity of, 673a, note Pompey, knew you not, 285a Pompey's death; proof of his power of endurance, 548a Pomposo (S. Johnson), 82a, note
Pompous in the grave, 29a Pons Asinorum, 622b, note Pontificalibus, in, 553a Pool, the green mantle of the standing, 306a water's wine in every, 463a Pools, standing, gather filth, 837a

POOR

a father to the poor, 411b a poor man is Christ's stamp, 163a a tongue given to the poor, 480a a wise man poor, 108b always adding to possessions of the wealthy, 629a annals of the poor, 153b backward steward for the poor, 251b being poor I have only my dreams, 404a bestows his goods upon the poor, 39a better to love and be poor, 235a blessed are the poor, 495b blessed is he that considereth the poor, 412b decent means poor, 242a differ as coins and counters, 683b even great men have poor relations, 114b everywhere down-trodden, 553a few save the poor feel for the poor, 192b few would be poor with frugality, 180b fool (poor) a very scandalous thing, 75a forgot their vices in their woe, 148a fortune less severe against men of lesser degree, 577b friend of the unfriended poor, 326b greatest man in history the poorest, 132a grind the faces of the poor, 417a he died a poor man, 436b he that hath pity upon the poor, 414a heedeth more the murmurs of the poor, 386b how many poor I see, 382a in gear, poor, 49a inconvenient to be poor, 97a infamous to be poor, 333b inured to drudgery, 96b less in danger than leaders and rulers, 631a live wretchedly, especially those without a trade, 612b more mercy among poor men, 194b more ready to take things as insults, 610b must the rich man hate the poor, 236b neither turn thy face from any poor man, 419a, 432b no piety but amongst the poor, 263a none so poor to do him reverence, 286a only change name of master in a change of government, 553a plenty made him poor, 339b poor and content is rich, 302a poor and independent, 85a poor and liberal, 826a poor and weak entangled by the laws, 450b poor are, for some reason, always suspicious, 610b poor as Job, 288a poor as the king, 305b poor become purse proud, 96b poor but honest, 299a
poor even in thanks, 293a poor man's wealth (sleep), 330a rich may borrow something of the poor, 69b sensitivity of poor people, 180b

Poor—contd.

she was rich and he was poor, 269a still the poor man's stay, 395b tell not vices to the poor, 78a the great man helped the poor, 206b the humble suffer when the powerful disagree, 547a the poor dance as the rich pipe, 849b
the poor man that knows him, 168b the poorest lived in abundance, 198a virtuous poor, one can pity them, 389b
what better gift than to the poor, 375a
when he hears the poor moan, 167a when that the poor have cried, 286a words of the poor are in vain, 480a ye have the poor with you always,
424a, 425b

See Poverty

Poor Law: parish pay is hush money, 338b Poorness of spirit, 70b Pope, Alexander, 22b Pope's ringing line, pure silver of, 204b

POPE, The

caring not for Pope, 396b condemned, but imitated by Luther and Calvin, 449b
no dispensation from the Pope against death, 589a, note no priestling but wishes to be Pope, 817a
Peter's successor, 32a some christened Jove, 254a "Take, have, and keep," words pleasing to a pope, 483b the triple tyrant, 227a to drink like a Pope, 497a what village parson would not be pope, 449b when England calls, Pope's men after, 383a where the Pope is, Rome is, 873a who eats what is from the Pope, dies, 777b
ye may not sit in Rome and strive with the Pope, 869b Popery on the one hand, 108b skill in antiquity inclines to, 141a Poplar, the, never dry, 339b Poppies grow, in Flanders field, 207a show their scarlet coats, 185b Poppy, not, nor mandragora, 302a of oblivion, 29a Populace, a cowardly, 688a

POPULAR and POPULARITY art should never try to be popular, 389b base, common and popular, 316b bidding of some popular breeze, 684b cattle, popular, 37b he had need rise betimes that would please everybody, 772b he pleases all the world and cannot please himself, 693b his darling popularity, 41a humanity (popular) is treason, 1b I have never desired to please the

people, 605b
it is better to be beloved than honoured, 794b it is enough for me that my book is often read, 571b itch of vulgar praise, 250b

Popular and Popularity—contd.

labour not for the crowd's admiration, 647b no inclination for mere popularity, 652a nor do I think the man of safe discretion that does affect it, 299a pity the artist who is favourite of his time, 453b popularity often less a blessing than a snare, 404b popularis aures arbitrio, 684b Popularité, la gloire en gros sous, 698a report (popular), of great power, 480a sickly food of popular applause, 402b sway (popular) in excess, 109a that empty and ugly thing, popularity, 344b the loud applause and aves vehement, 299a the popular breeze, 494a they loved the praise of men, 425b to captivate the rabble, 484b to Jack and Tom my rhyme shall be directed, 203b we give ourselves to the people, 602a who would please all, and himself too, 876a will any one disown a wish for popularity, 490a worship of the people, 13b Populi contemere voces, 622b Populo gratior it dies, 568a Porcelain of human clay, 63b Porcupine, quills upon the fretful,
291b Pored on, now seldom, 226b Porridge (parritch) the halesome,
44a give me barley meal and water and I will rival Jove, 510a keep your breath to cool your,
836b like cold, 311a old sooner warmed than new-made, 820a
poor folks are glad of, 826a she will as soon part with the cook as the, 833b tripe-broth better than no, 863a Porson, a dictum of, 241b Porson, Professor, 336a PORTS (harbours) after stormie seas, 339b any, in a storm, 737a I've found the, 214a port pleasant, passage perilous makyth a, 437a ports and happy havens, 312a some port, he knows not where, 5a PORT (wine) hymns to his conservatism, 213b more port than portable, 170b poisoned her with port, 237b port the liquor for men, 179a Port (deportment), such a graceful, 2b
the lofty, 57a Portentous birth, of sudden and,
270a Portents: heavens themselves blaze forth the death of princes, 285b release the mind from such portents, 660b Porter, an old, to relieve the poor at his gate, 438a there they found a proud, 435b

Portion of that around me, I become, 55a he wales a, 44a Porto, omnia mea, 611a

PORTRAITS

he displays in a painting the countenance and the mind, 666b I beheld at first with blank surprise, 395a more fond of a likeness than of beauty, 594b portraits of ancestors, 662b this representation is not greatly unlike you, 540a two styles of portrait-painting, 112b

Portum, post tot naufragia, 623a

POSITION

an honour to his, 535b land gives position and prevents one keeping it up, 389a meanest reptiles found on highest pillars, 809b painful pre-eminence, 250a penalties of high position, 26b the more we are exalted the more humbly let us bear ourselves, 630b this is my position, 594b

POSITIVENESS

an evidence of poor judgment, 826a asseveration, 97b heat of opinion a proof of stupidity, 696b
if I said so, it was so, 150b positive men err most, 826a positive men most credulous, 350a the positive pronounce without dismay, 97b two Sir Positives cannot meet without a skirmish, 865a what more positive than the ass, 696b when I have positively said, 'Tis so, 292b wranglers are never in the wrong, 878a

Positivist, Man and a, 89b

Positivists, with the, 89b

Posse ad esse, a, 482a

POSSESSION

a possession for ever, 473b a third heir rarely enjoys ill-gotten possessions, 511b as you have now, 678a better Here it is than Here it was,
743b
blessed are those who possess, 495b bliss in possession will not last, 229b fie on possession, 78a he that has most is wisest, 476a he that holds let him hold fast, 779a he that keeps his own makes war, 779b how did you get it, by right or wrong, 642a
I carry all my possessions, 611a in case of equal right possession gives the better position, 550b it takes possession of your earth, 127b less pleasing when possessed, 154b love of possession has grown with
time, 669b
merit not in possession, but in use, 385b nine-tenths of the law, 826a no good without a comrade, 604a Possession—contd.

no matter how obtained as long as I possess, 575a of wealth a great terror, 517b possessed, thing, not the thing it seems, 105b possession is as good as a title, 826a possession is intolerable, 375b possession is worth an ill charter, 826a possession means to sit astride the world, 188b possessions good to those who know how to use them, 540b possessions, large, and satiety, 117b right commenced in possession, 518a small possession makes me happy, 548b strong in possession, 88b these things are according to the mind of the possessor 540b they deserve to have that know the way to get, 313a upon attainment droops, 105a we despise what belongs to us, 602a what is thine own hold as thine own, 641b what we have we prize not, 284b what you have not, more important than what you have, 636a where neither party has right, the possessor has better position, 575a who holds an eel by the tail, 878b

POSSIBILITIES

every may-be hath a may-not-be, 757b in possibility, 553a man can do no more than he can, 724b possibilities are infinite, 826a
 seven hundred pounds and possibilities, 287a to believe only possibilities, 28b
 what man has done, man can do, 868a

Possunt quia posse videntur, 127a, note, 546b, 622b

Post hoc; ergo propter hoc, 623a

Post-boy, never see a dead, 112b

Posteriori, a, 482a

Posteriori, in the, of this day, 277b

POSTERITY

an example to, 184a ancestral glory a lamp to posterity, 571b children of our children and their descendants, 525a credite posteri, 507a gives each man his due, 666b
 he has lived to posterity, 637a he thinks posterity a packhorse, 118a I would fain see posterity do something for us, 342b inheritance of posterity increases with each generation, 571a let futurity shift for itself, 334a name and memory left to posterity, 12b pays every man his honour, 183b she (Madame d'Arblay) overheard the judgment of posterity, 206a trustees of posterity, 116b virtue will endure to posterity, 485a what has posterity done for us, 373a, 457a

Postern door makes a thief and a whore, 726a

POSTPONEMENT

do not postpone your comforts, 672b postponed is not abandoned, 826a postponed is not lost, 733a postponement ever injurious, 671a what is put off is half abandoned, 691b what is put off is not removed, 640a Postscript, most material in the, 10b the pith is in the, 159b

Posy of a ring, 295a

POT and POTS

calls the kettle black, 850a earthen pot must keep clear of brass kettle, 843a

God's blessing makes the pot boil, 795b he has ate up the pot and asks for the pipkin, 773a

I can tell by my pot how the others boil, 822b one pot sets another boiling, 822b such a pot, such a lid, 838a

the pot boils badly, 609a

the pot boils, friendship lives, 532a

the pot that belongs to many is ill-stirred, 862b to a boiling pot flies fly not, 859b touch pot, touch penny, 790b, 862b watched pot never boils, 866b when the pot boils over it cools itself, 871b will help to boil thy pot, 391b your pot broken, better than mine whole, 823b

Pot-boilers, 391b, note

Potations, banish long, 235a foreswear thin, 315b pottle deep, 301a

Potato, like a, the only good part underground, 437a

Potatoes, great, 804a grow by the pot-side, would you have, 878a let the sky rain, 287b no good planting boiled, 796a

Potomac, all quiet along the, 457b

Potsdamers, blustering crew of loud, 275a

Pottage, blow thine own, 745a mess of, 454a

one ill weed mars a whole pot of, 821b scald not your lips in another man's, 831b some pottage so to gain, 345b very free of another man's, 878b

Potter envious of potter, 532b every, praises his own pot, 757b is at enmity with potter, 864b who is the potter, 136b

Potting, most potent in, 301b

Poultry never have enough, 877b

Pouncet-box, he held a, 313a

POVERTY

a hateful blessing, 617b

a man guilty of, 180b

a penny in the urn of, 246a

a poor fool, 75a

a poor man is all plans, 826b

a thorough instructress in all the arts, 617b all crimes safe but poverty, 177b ambitious poverty, 543b

an evil counsellor, 826a and Despair, two gods on our side, 447b

a hateful blessing, 617b

a man guilty of, 180b

a penny in the urn of, 246a

a poor fool, 75a

a poor man is all plans, 826b

a thorough instructress in all the arts, 617b

all crimes safe but poverty, 177b

ambitious poverty, 543b

an evil counsellor, 826a

and Despair, two gods on our side, 447b

Poverty—contd.

and oysters, 111b

and praise, 239b

and wealth scatter their withering curses, 325a as poor as Job's turkey, 738b bashfulness an enemy to poverty, 740a bear patiently the burden of poverty, 617b beautiful beneath his touch, 69a begets Care, 434b begets Effort, 434b

beware of one who has nothing to lose, 744b born of plenty is bad, 572a breaks covenants, 826a breeds strife, 826b

by poverty depressed, 177b cause of half the poverty we feel, 101a causes me to be ridiculous, 617b confidence in poverty as good as prosperity, 651a consists in feeling poor, 132a consists in non-possession of many things, 617b convicted of hunger, wretchedness, and want, 334b

cos ingeniorum, 506b

cruel poverty, 647b discoverer of all the arts, 617b dishonour makes poverty intolerable, 579a empty purse fills face with wrinkles, 735a

Famine and hateful Want, 615a feels no loss, 26b for one poor person there are a hundred indigent, 763a fortune takes least from those to whom she has given least, 577b friends scarce in poverty, 17b from poverty to wealth a troublesome journey, but the way back is easy, 764a give me neither poverty nor riches, 415a

God help the poor; the rich can help themselves, 766a hard to ride, 805a

has no greater foe than bashfulness, 826a has no relations, 850b he bears poverty ill who is ashamed of it, 771b he is not poor who has enough for his needs, 617a

he is poor that God hates, 774b

he that eats the poor will find a bone to choke him, 777b he that is born of a hen must scrape for a living, 779a his guard, poverty, 82b honest, undowered poverty, 564b

I am poor; I confess and endure it, 617a

I confess my poverty, 665a if once poor you will always be, 652b if thou be poure, 97b impatient to endure poverty, 568b indigent clothed out of trimmings of the vain, 150a inelegance of poverty, 23b inspiser of the poet, 230a is an enemy to virtue, 826b is better than pride, 826a is no crime and no credit, 826a is no sin, but is a branch of knavery, 826a is no sin, but twice as bad, 826a is not happiness, 826a

Poverty—contd.

is querulous, 826b is safe, 673b is the sixth sense, 826b let not poverty part good company, 800b makes men poor-spirited, 826b makes men ridiculous, 826b makes some malignant, 205a may foul poverty be far from your home, 617b men dare not say all, when their clothes are in holes, 621a merry poverty, 17a moneyless man goes fast through the market, 726a mother of all arts, 826b mother of crime, 826b mother of health, 826b mother of miseries, 335b my poverty, but not my will, consents, 280a nakedness of the indigent world, 151a need hath no law, 814a no crime so shameful as poverty, 134a no disgrace, but confoundedly inconvenient, 333b
 no necessity to live in necessity, 573a no one claims kindred with the poor, 817a no one should commend poverty except one who is poor, 589a no one lives so poor as he is born, 589b no society flourishing, if majority are poor, 330b none so poor but one may borrow of him, 693b not a penny left to buy a rope, 587a not a shame, but being ashamed of it is, 826b
 not one penny-piece he had, 266a nothing but poverty got without pains, 818b nothing worse in poverty than to be a laughing-stock, 593b one can live on little but not on nothing, 821a parteth fellowship, 826b parth company, 826b penniless amid great plenty, 570b people with naught were naughty, 173a
 poor as a church mouse, 738b
 poor as a sheep new shorn, 738b poor folks apt to think everybody flouts them, 826a poor folks are glad of porridge, 826a poor man is fain of little, 726b poor man's table is soon spread, 726b, 826a poor man's reasons are not heard, 826a poor men have no souls, 826a poverty's catching, 20a prayer of want, 19b
 prayer and poverty are ill met but often dwell together, 827b religion always sides with poverty, 164a res angusta domi, 541b reward of honest fools, 83a rising from affluence to poverty, 84a shame and ostracism of poverty, 617b shame of, almost as bad as pride of wealth, 826b

Poverty—contd.

so shall thy poverty come, 413b source of human art, 230a splendid poverty, 404a spurring us on, 563b steeped me in poverty, 302b sticks by us when all our friends forsake us, 461a terrible is he who has nothing to lose, 712b that great reproach, 571a the greatest vice, 260a the muses' patrimony, 49b the poor dance as the rich pipe, 849b the poor man counts his flock, 617b the poor man is everywhere despised, 617b the poor man is never free, 700a the poor man pays for all, 849b the poor man turns his cake and another eats it, 849b the poor man's shilling is but a penny, 850a the purse is sick, 506b the traveller with empty pockets sings before the robber, 500a there are none poor but such as God hates, 854a there is God's poor and the devil's poor, 855a to be poor and seem poor is the very devil, 860a to be unlucky is poverty, 468b to feed many and keep several households, the way to poverty, 478b to laugh at poverty, 82b to live in, in order to die rich, 573b treated everywhere as a crime, 617b unconquerable bar (poverty's), 12a urges me on to write poetry, 617b want makes strife, 771b want makes wit, 814a
 we give to the rich and take from the poor, 866b when poverty comes in at the door, love flies by the window, 870b which keeps down a great people, is a heavy evil, 539a who can sing so merry a note as he that cannot change a groat, 874b who has nothing is frightened at nothing, 778a wholesome air of poverty, 401a will bear itself, 740b wretched to confess, "I had, but now have nothing," 578b you are on the highway to Needham, 878b
 See Penury, Poor
 Powder, food for, 314b Powdered, still to be, 182b POWER and POWERFUL a forty-parson power, 64b a greater power than we can contradict, 280a a power dangerous to all, 5b a power is passing from the earth, 400b all enjoy the power which suits them best, 249a and its abuse, 42b arbitrary power, 42b by what foul paths men crawl to power, 201a believes any praise of itself, 591b

Power and Powerful—contd.

betrays the author, 625b bought by virtue alone, 522a conferred by revolution, 42b (critics) when in power, 160b delegated power, 513b depository of, always unpopular, 117a discord waits upon divided power, 255b do not attempt to rival the powerful, 623a everything servilely for the sake of power, 612a example of Sisyphus to those seeking supreme power, 658b extirpates, virtue, 39a given only to the rich, 510b God helps the strongest, 766b he is most powerful who controls himself, 623a her power to charm, 241b human power and failure, 37b increase of power, 100b it is difficult to be strong and not rash, 795a it's hardly in a body's power, 46b laws given to restrict undue power, 554b like a desolating pestilence, 325a love of, is the love of ourselves, 159b loved power most of all, 201a man now presides in power, 395a men of unusual power, 90a murmur at possessors of power, 39b neither assumes nor resigns power at popular bidding, 587b no one ever made good use of power obtained by guilt, 589a no power equal to knowledge, 7b nor paltered with Eternal God for Power, 361b Oh was some power, 45a on an ancient throne, 88b only given for good purposes, 646a patience means almost power, 29b
 place and power, 232a
 power advances power, 177b powers that be are ordained of God, 427b powers that will work for thee, 396b quiet power accomplishes what violent power cannot, 618b retained by the arts by which it was acquired, 550a safer with counsel than with severity, 623a seeds of godlike power, 4b seemed to scorn power, 201a she sighs for power, 259a should be always distrusted, 182a take freely up for love of power, 356a the best sort of eloquence, 712b the strongest has right, 810b the sweetest, holiest draught of power, 271b to defy power, which seems omnipotent, 326a to seek power and to lose liberty, 9b twelve-parson power, 64b, note two powers in world, the sword and the mind, 450b we must submit to him whose power is greater, 616b what are power, empire, 92b when the powerful disagree, the humble suffer, 547a

Power and Powerful—contd.

when was power beneficent in vain, 179b why attempt things beyond your power, 639a will draw wealth, 40b with all one's power (manibus pedibusque), 573b wretch condemned to power, 82b

PRACTICE

an ounce of practice worth a pound of preaching, 736b better than precept, 826b can do all things, 826b is everything, 447a, 474a is the best master, 826b key of knowledge, 799a makes man ready, 676b makes perfect, 826b makes the master, 826b makes the workman, 826b not knowledge, but practice, 476a old practices worth more than new theories, 450b that excellent master (practice), 581a theory and practice, 43a

Practise if you please with men, 35a

Præclara rara, 611b

Præfulgebant, magis, quod non videbantur, 522a

Præteritos referat si Jupiter annos, 607a

Prague, hermit of, 298a, note

PRAISE

a mind greedy of, easily elated or dejected, 657a admiration praises, love is dumb, 711b all his pleasure praise, 241b all praise is foreign, 209b and blame fall on his ear alike, 265a and blame, they heed it not, 236b and fame, ceaseless seeker after, 235b art is lost of knowing how to praise, 324b art of praising began the art of pleasing, 696a at morning what they blame at night, 247a be sparing of praise, 616a beauty's elixir vitae, 241b blind guide with siren voice, 186b cannot wound his generous spirit now, 264b cram us with praise, 309b damn with faint praise, 252a daubed with undiscerning praise, 100b deeper than the lips, 35b discreditable from the undeserving, 673a do not believe those who praise you, 585b double be his praise, 340a duty of not praising where praise is not due, 332a everyone is wont to praise him who is no more, 479b excess of, fatal to fame, 255a excruciating with praise, 58b faint, is disparagement, 759b false praise wounds an honest mind, 708a follows where labour leads, 660a forbear to mention what thou canst not praise, 260a game of interchanging praise, 168a garment of praise, 418a

Praise—contd.

greatest efforts traceable to love of praise, 267b greatest praise had been to live unknown, 81b hearts that once beat high for praise, 230b heirs of universal praise, 246b however we do praise ourselves, 297b I am deaf with praises, 243b I will make a fair addition to the general praise, 673a I will praise any man that will praise me, 307b I would both sing their praise, 167a in excess, hurtful, 239b in silence slept, 25a in thy condign praise, 277a is always pleasant, 827a is satire in these sinful days, 386a it is more difficult to praise rightly than to blame, 796a itch of vulgar praise, 250b learn to condemn all praise, 143b let not the praise be before the victory, 474b let us now praise famous men, 421a lived without praise or blame, 74a
 love of, its own reward, 489b love of, reigns in every heart, 404a love to be advised, not praised, 708a makes bad people worse, 475b makes good men better and bad men worse, 827a modesty of, wears gradually away, 180a mutual "scratch-my-baek," 831b neither blame nor praise yourself, 590a none ever gives the lie to him that praises him, 817b none to praise, 392a not deserving praise, but merely free from blame, 655b not to praise him, 286a nothing left but poverty and praise, 239b of praise a mere glutton, 149a old praise dies unless you feed it, 820a overmuch, an encumbrance, 469a praise a fool and you water his folly, 826a praise dead saints, 174b praise enough for a private man, 99b praise none too much, for all are fickle, 827a praise of fools, 36b praise Peter, but don't find fault with Paul, 827a praised, alone, and starve right merrily, 371a praised equal to the Gods, 591b, note praised, unenvied, by the muse he loved, 252a praises all centuries but this, 146b praises from men all praise, 94b praises are our wages, 309b praises of the unworthy, 89a praising all is praising none, 143b praising what is lost, 299a
 plaster thick, some will stick, 825b posthumous praise, 2b, 4b rebuke to man whose conscience disallows it, 373b refusal of praise is a wish to be praised twice, 700b

Praise—contd.

ruling passion the lust of praise, 250b scarcely part of a critic's duty, 355a self-praise is no recommendation, 832a sickens at another's praise, 82a small praise disparaging the high gods, 353a solid pudding against empty praise, 253b some praises which condemn, 694a study whom you praise again and again, 629a swell with the love of praise, 564b that was laid on with a trowel, 288a that wretched lust of praise, 255a the best diet for us all, 333b the delight of a critic to praise, 355a the fine diet, 239b the light of praise shall shine for ever, 399a the poet's best reward, 273a the sweetest sound, 472b their noisy praise, 59b their passing paragraphs of praise, 335b they loved the praise of men, 425b they praise them most, 2b this comes too near the praising of myself, 283a those who durst not censure scarce could praise, 178a those who praise the worst class of enemies, 620a thou hast perfected praise, 423a to be praised by a man so praised, 563b to enhance good deeds by words, 486a to stir a little dust of praise, 362b to utter all Thy praise, 3a too much is a burden, 862b true, roots and spreads, 863a undeserved, scandal in disguise, 253a undeserved, satire in disguise, 253a, note, 438a unless new praise arises, the old is lost, 564b we are praised as men recognise themselves in us, 403a we usually praise that we may be praised, 704b what cannot praise effect, 123a what they do not understand, 564a what woman can resist praise, 142b when all the world conspires to praise, 256a when we commend good actions, we make them partly our own, 872a who dares not praise a foe, 128b who lavishly commends, 81b with faint praises one another damn, 403b without envy, 605a women and girls must be praised, 877b would not be praised yet loved to, 347b
 you cannot err on flattery's side, 348a (praise) your friends rather than yourself, 489a (praise) yourself daringly, something always sticks, 493b Franks have been too broad, 295b Prate is prate, 827a

Prattle, thinking his, to be tedious, 313a without practice, 300a PRAYER and PRAYING a cry of hope, 698a a short prayer finds its way to heaven, 499a amen to a bishop's prayer, 29b an empty hand, an empty prayer, 817a (prayer) and practice is good rhyme, 827a ardent prayer opens Heaven, 407b ask of God and not of the rich, 739b battering the gates of heaven with storms of prayer, 358a believe, and say my prayers, 252b beseeching or besieging, 220a called each Paynim voice to prayer, 68a cease to hope to change the gods' decrees, 513b dare not trust sleep without prayers, 29a destiny comes to those who pray, 245b do not lose the time in praying, 586a enough to pray for what Jupiter gives and takes, 651b even silence has its prayers and language, 715a exhausted all the Church's prayers, 270b few and short were the prayers, 391b fewer the words the better the prayer, 761a fighting with their hands, and praying with their hearts, 766b for a pretence make long prayers, 424a forced prayers are no gude for the soul, 763a four hours to prayer, 182a, note, 654a generous prayer, never in vain, 344b he knows it as well as his Lord's Prayer, 775a
 he who labours, prays, 632b, note hear God and God will hear you, 784b his worst fault, that he is given to prayer, 287b how he prayed and how he fasted, 199a I am immersed in prayer, 553a I make mention of you always in my prayers, 426b ill-tasted, home-brewed prayer, 155b imperfect offices of prayer and praise, 401a is this the end of prayer, 386b it is a pain both to pray and pay, 794a let him who knows not how to pray, go to sea, 800b live more nearly as we pray, 186a look you, I'll go pray, 292a making their lives a prayer, 386b men ought always to pray, 425a mickle prayer but little devotion, 773a more things are wrought by prayer, 366a much praying but no pity, 813a necessity teaches to pray, 750b no penny, no Paternoster, 817a no prayers heard unless righteous, 589b

Prayer and Praying—contd.
 none can pray well but he that lives well, 827a one hour doing justice worth a hundred in prayer, 821b our prayers are at variance with our prayers, 645b past all comforts here but prayers, 320b patience the greatest prayer, 824b Pluto hears no prayers, 256b pray and work, 614a pray as ever dying, 799a pray as though all work were vain, 368b pray devoutly but hammer stoutly, 827a pray for us, 614a pray to God, but row to shore, 766b, 827a pray without ceasing, 430a
 prayer all his business, 241b prayer is good, work is better, 827a prayer is the soul's sincere desire, 229b prayer knocks till the door open, 827a prayer of faith shall save the sick, 431a prayer, repentance and obedience due, 218a prayers and provender hinder no journey, 809b prayers backed by arms, 624a prayers lag behind Injustice, 256b prayers of Abel, 58b prayeth well, who loveth well, 86b praying's the end of preaching, 163a prays and whimpers, 196a public prayer hath more promises, 163a repetition of ten thousand prayers, 347a, note set some limit to your prayers, 661b short prayers reach heaven, 833b should be key of day and lock of night, 827a swears a prayer or two, 278a that prayer will not profit me, for I have no faith in it, 692a the Campsie wife's prayer, 878b the really sublime—the Lord's Prayer, 450a the sure relief of prayer, 394b the weakest saint upon his knees, 95b they never sought in vain, 44a thy sister when she prays, 362a 'tis the hour of prayer, 63a to desire with infantile prayers, 663a to have prayed well is to have well endeavoured, 496b
 to labour is to pray, 563b to say prayers backward, 795b try everything—even prayer, 244b vigilate et orate, 682b watch to-night, pray to-morrow, 314a we did not dare to breathe a prayer, 389b what an asylum has the soul in prayer, 408a when prayers are done, my lady is ready, 870b when the pirate prays there is great danger, 871b while you are fighting I will pray, like Captain Moses, 705a

Prayer and Praying—contd.
 who ceases to pray ceases to prosper, 783a who prays and labours lifts his heart to God, 633b, note whoso will, 78a who would learn to pray let him go to sea, 783a words without thoughts never to heaven go, 295b would not exchange the prayer, 66a your beauty incompatible with your prayer, 652a Prayer-book: a Popish liturgy, 245a an armoury of light, 103b the State's mellowier forms, 155b PREACHING and PREACHERS against avarice, 78b
 an ounce of practice worth a pound of preaching, 736b because you have something to say, 385b do as the friar saith, not as he doth, 752a do not, as some ungracious pastors do, 291a for ever preach but in vain, 103a God calleth preaching folly, 163a he preaches best who lives best, 776a he that preacheth giveth aims, 780b he that will not be saved needs no preacher, 782a is this the end of preaching, 386b judge not the preacher, 163a language forms the preacher, 93b Luther preaches wisdom, 132a Nature preaches to mankind, 406a one may as well preach a respectable mythology, 378b parson exceeds not an hour, 164a
 praying's the end of preaching, 163a preach long, loud, and Damnation, 275b preached as never sure to preach again, 18b preacher speaks through his nose, 32b preachers say, Do as I say, 275b preaching man's immense stupidity, 31b preaching the people for profit, 194a pride of preachers, 195a private advantage of the preacher, 39b the cushion and soft dean, 251b the foolishness of preaching, 427b the preacher's merit or demerit, 32b time is the great preacher, 859b to prophesy or to preach, 96b to the storm, 385b Tully preached, 99b when a man's life is despicable his preaching is despised, 508b
 when the fox preaches, take care of the geese, 871a who reasons wisely is not therefore wise, 250b See Sermons
 Preamble of a tale, 77b PRECAUTION better than cure, 623b, 827b
 good watch prevents misfortune, 769a who looks not before finds himself behind, 780a See Caution

PRECEDENT

a king of men, 354b an argument based on authority of great weight in law, 492a create good precedents, 10a embalms a principle, 118a one precedent creates another, 184a precedent to precedent, 357b precedents, how formed, 611b that codeless myriad of precedent, 350b to follow foolish precedents, 101b 'twill be recorded for a precedent, 283b

PRECEPTS

actors applauded for wise sayings, but not wise in practice, 661a do as I say, not as I do, 752a instil this precept into his ears, 623b keep this precept, 544b love the precepts for the teacher's sake, 134a, 167b precept—begins, example accomplishes, 826b precept must be upon precept, 417b precepts lead; examples draw, 623b road is long by precept, 454a these few precepts in thy memory, 291a

Precious things are not found in heaps, 827a

Precisian, the devil turned, 211b

Precision: we must speak by the card, 297a

PRECOCITY

a man at sixteen will prove a child at sixty, 724b a sign of premature death, 653a better late ripe than early blossom and blast, 743a early ripe, soon rotten, 754a
 he's seldom old that will not be a child, 377a wise before his time will die prematurely, 560a Prediction, his, prove a lie, 348a Predictions, dreams and, 11a

PRE-EMINENCE

by pre-eminence, 473a nothing equal to you has arisen, 594a painful pre-eminence, 250a primus inter pares, 624b when shall his equal be found, 630a

Preface: a false tale needs a long preamble, 777b

Prefaces, presumption and meanness found in, 103b

Preferment goes by letter and affection, 300a through each, 88a

PREJUDICE AND PREJUDICES

a bundle of prejudices, 192a all decay prejudice, all are prejudiced, 338b full of vulgar prejudice, 38b he who pre-judges may prove correct, but is not just, 634b here let prejudice depart, 269a passion and prejudice govern the world, 385a the prejudice is strong, 239a to be prejudiced is to be weak, 180a to everybody's prejudice, 145b Preliminary, the puff, 328b Prelude of our fate, 198b

PREMATURENESS

better late ripe than early blossom and blast, 743a chickens are slow in coming from unlaied eggs, 752b count not four unless you have them in a wallet, 752b do not boil the pap before the child is born, 752b don't cry Herrings before they are in the net, 752b draw not thy bow before thy arrow be fixed, 753b let not the praise precede the victory, 474b make not your sauce before you have caught the fish, 752b putting in my sickle ere 'tis ripe, 169a soon ripe, soon rotten, 836a See Reckonings

Prentice han', her, 47b

PREPARATION

a man prepared has half fought the battle, 721b, 763a great deeds need great preparation, 478b I put together and arrange what I shall produce, 504b prepared against all things, 552b
 set thine house in order, 417b stronger, being better prepared, 533a to his last minute a preparative, 52b

Prepon, to (Greek: "the becoming"), 479b

Presage, sad, of his future years, 193b baby figure of the giant mass of things to come, 298b Presbyter, new, but Old Priest writ large, 227b

Prescription, all titles terminate in, 42b most solid of all titles, 42b

Presence, good, a letter of recommendation, 722b and fashion, good, 12a his bodily, is weak, 429a

I sigh with pleasure, 145b of mind and courage, 128a scatter of your maiden, 291b want and wish thy pleasing, 163a your presence lessens your report, 683b

PRESENT (of time and place) act in the living present, 197b big with the future, 700b company (present) always accepted, 455b, 827a complaint of present days, 61b consult the living about the present, 199a hardness of the human heart, which only regards the present, 606b I have known this age and its customs, 602a I rejoice that I am born in modern days, 624b interests me more than past, 117b losing present time we lose all, 746b mind happy in the present, 563b no time like the present, 856a no value except as eve of to-morrow, 454a Now is the watchword of the wise, 819a of present things he praises none, 515b, note old age blames the present, 706b pay the present debt 50b

Present (of time and place)—contd.

present in spirit, 427b present joys more than distant prospect, 124b present joys sweeter for first pain, 153a present things always in disfavour, 681b pursue what is just in present, 8a sensible man judges present by the past, 47b spread like a pillow of thorns, 325b the fashion of these times, 288b the morning of the times, 359a the present age is the oldest, 166b the present moment is our aim, 19b the present is dry and dreary, 706b the same to all, 442b, note their own age is distasteful to all, 609b things present seem worst, 315a to read the present, 50b what alone is ours, the living Now, 397b you always despise present things 652b

PRESENTS (Gifts)

endear Absents, 192a love is a present for a mighty king, 163a the only present love demands, 143b what a present thou to God hast sent, 227b Presentiments: my right eye twitches, 608b

PRESS, The

correctors of the press, no faith or honour in, 602b, note in old days the rack, now the press, 389b liberty of the press, the palladium, 184a shall the press the People's right maintain, 345b the Arkymedean Leaver, 27b the fourth estate, 205b then hail to the Press, 155b Yellow Press, 456b

Press too close, we, 30b

Press-men, Slaves of the Lamp, 4b

PRESUMPTION

little fishes should not spout at whales, 803b nothing is to be presumed on, 818b to correct the Magnificat, 861b who knows least presumes most, 779b

PRETENDE

imaginary necessities, 104b
 it is difficult to pretend joy, 541b mighty to pretend, 95b no pretence can be enduring, 680b of friendly ends, 225a people pretend to grieve, 350b Pretender, Young, motto of, 668a and dissembler, 508b
 'no harm in blessing the, 52b Pretentiousness: ambitious poverty, 543b splendour of appearance beyond their means, 675a when a poor man imitates a rich, he is lost, 674a

PRETTINESS AND PRETTY

all the maidens present, 90b criticism of prettiness out of season, 344a elegance not a manly ornament, 598a everything that pretty is, 309a it is pretty to observe, 243a

- Prettiness and Pretty—*contd.
 prettiness dies first, 827b prettiness makes no pottage, 827b pretty to walk with, 346b pretty woman a welcome guest, 58a puts on his pretty looks, 311b Preussen über alles, 711b Prevarication, the last dyke of, 43a to speak false things as true, 473a Preventive grace, 221b Prevention is better than cure, 827b sorrows to come seek wisely to prevent, 384a who does not prevent when he can, assents, 633a Priam's advice unheeded by Troy, 687a Priam's curtain, drew, 315a Priapus, Death and, 352a PRICE
 all men have their price, 377b all things at Rome have their price, 611b cheat me in price, but not in the goods, 747b delicacies please the more the more they cost, 558a every man has his price, 458b, 757a he that could know what would be dear, 777a long standing and little offering makes a good price, 804b much never cost little, 812a poor (villains) may make what price they will, 300a things delight more, being more costly, 569b Prickles, tormenting himself with his, 173a Pricks, hard to kick against the, 478a PRIDE
 a host of prides, 170a a proud comrade who despises small means, 666a abate their pride, 432a accompanies beauty, 530b age pulls down pride, 17a alas, I have loved pride and praise, 374a all our pride is but a jest, 437a an ill horse to ride, 828a and grace never in one place, 827b and poverty often dwell together, 827b appropriate to prosperity, 651a as full of worth as void of pride, 255b as loud a beggar as want, and more saucy, 827b as proud come behind as before, 738b at the bottom of all great mistakes, 267b avarice and pride in clergy, 345b begets Envy, 434b begets Strife, 434b borrows humility's cloak, 828a breakfasted with Plenty, dined with Poverty, supped with Infamy, 827b burning pride and high disdain, 271b cleric pride no contradiction bears, 370b contaminates best manners, 557a curs'd pride that creeps securely in, 382a daughter of riches, 347b deep interminable pride, 57b Pride—contd.
 deil stick pride for my dog deed o't, 751a devil wipes his tail with the poor man's pride, 827b did pride to pride oppose, 377a false pride in place and blood, 363a feels no cold, 827b goeth before destruction, 414a grows by the reflection in the mirror, 649b hated stands, 345b he hath swallowed a stake; he cannot bow, 773b he that is above, him that's below despiseth, 436b he that is low, no pride, 39a honourable pride acquired by merit, 665a how blind is pride, 75b howe'er disguised, is littleness, 391b human pride skilful to invent most serious names, 325a I despise the credit out of excess of pride, 350b in reasoning pride our error lies, 248b in their port, 147b is but a jest, 69b is scarce ever cured, 827b joined with virtues, chokes them, 827b lives with all, 103a
 love and pride stock Bedlam, 805b maketh Plee (pleasure), 434b may lurk under threadbare cloak, 827b minds lifted up must be humbled, 522a must have a fall, 313a, 827b my high-blown pride, 320a never falling vice of fools, 246b no barbarousness so barbarous, 52a no mean factor in a State, 379b none greater than that of poor man grown rich, 855b nothing done nobly in pride, 267b of rank, birth, learning, 170a on the saddle, shame is on the crupper, 870b our pride misleads, 397b perished in his pride, 393a preachers dwell with princes of Pride, 195a pride of the rich makes the labours of the poor, 849b pride's chickens have bonny feathers but bony bodies, 828a pride, vainglory, and hypocrisy, 432a proud most provoked by pride, 97b pulls the country down, 301b reduced to the whimsical terms, 26b save me alike from foolish pride, 250b scoff of pride, 19a scorning the base degrees by which he did ascend, 285b self-adoring pride, 66b some spark of such self-pleasing pride, 341b still is aiming at the blest abodes, 248b sworn enemy to content, 827b taking offence shows pride, 247a that apes humility, 87a, 336a that licks the dust, 252b Pride—contd.
 that puts this country downe, 434b that solemn vice of greatness, 182a that wild lie men call pride, 236b
 the avenging God follows the proud, 653a the cause of alle wo, 152a the fient a pride had he, 45b the life of a woman, 134a the older the blood the less the pride, 849a to be laid low, 398a to pampered priesthood dear, 54a too proud to own your pride, 355a two proud men cannot ride on one ass, 865a was pride ever contented, 192b what argues pride and ambition, 110b when pride cometh, 413b will spit in pride's face, 828a with pride will not abide, 828a See Arrogance, Proud PRIEST and PRIESTS a fiddling priest, 95b a piece of mere church-furniture, 101b among the priests dissension springs, 222a are only men (priests), 35a black earthly spirit of the priest, 140a by imposition of a mightier hand, 205a churchly priest, 297a delicate-handed priest, 363b forgets he was a clerk, 850a God's true priest always free, 386a like priest, like people, 802b never have enough, 877b no war with women nor with priests, 336b none but priests authorised to know, 124a priest that is wild, 434a priests, altars, victims, 255a, note priests bear rule by their means, 418a priests hated him, 325b priests of the bloody faith, 325b priests, tapers, temples, 255a the priest continues what the nurse began, 124b tools wherewith priests manage, 35a wealthy priest, rich without a fault, 256b will allow of a broken vow, 273a Priest-ridden, you need not fear to be, 229a Priestcraft did begin, ere, 122b no better than witchcraft, 828a Priesthood, pampered, 54a Priestly ad not disdaining, 58a Priestley, D., 330b Prigs what isn't his'n, he that, 442a Prime, April of her, 321b Prime, the golden, 356b Primitive race of mortals, 496a man more hardy in the fields, 537b Primness: Jane Austen, 6b Primogeniture: the courtesy of nations, 288a PRIMROSE
 a primrose by a river's brim, 394a first-born child of Ver, 139a primrose path of dalliance, 291a primroses make a capital salad, 117b sweet as the primrose, 148b the primrose stars, 161b the rathe primrose, 226b

PRINCE and PRINCES

a prince born for the good of other men, 335*a* a prince can make a belted knight, 49*a* a prince's secrets, 210*a* ambition, the virtue in a prince, 212*b* blaze forth the death of princes, 285*b* fattest and best-fitted prince, 232*a* gilded monuments of princes, 321*b* go and cultivate princes, 547*b* Good night, sweet prince, 277*b* handsomest prince in the whole world, 367*b* hangs on princes' favours, 320*a* necessary for a prince to please the many, 470*a* prince exists for State, not the State for the prince, 624*b* prince not above the laws, 598*a* prince of cats, 279*a*
 prince of darkness is a gentleman, 306*b*, 346*b* prince's example makes vice a custom, 686*a* princes have much veneration but no rest, 10*b* princes and lords, 44*b* princes and lords may flourish, 148*a* princes are the glass, the school, the book, 321*a* princes have long hands and many eyes, 799*a* princes must trust somebody, 275*b* princes seem to command, whatever they do, 638*a* princes have no way, 828*a* princes privileged to kill, 258*a* put not your trust in princes, 413*b* should cherish goodness, 210*b* that sweet aspect of princes, 320*a* the prince the first servant of the State, 711*a* to my prince faithfully, 200*a* Princes, copy the, 134*b* Princes, facile, 529*a* Principatus et libertas, 550*a*, note PRINCIPLE and PRINCIPLES as to principles, I glory in heaven! nothin' o' the sort, 202*a* first principles prove and are not proved, 624*b* no principle on which to depend, 90*b* oftener changed their principles than shirt, 408*b* our principles swaller, 201*b* principle contains the germ of prophecy, 89*a* religious and moral principles, 6*a* sensibility of principle, 41*a* turn with times, 250*b* use these unless you know of any better, 656*a* PRINT, PRINTING, etc. colourless photography of a printed record, 265*b* faith he'll prent (print) it, 46*a* gunpowder and printing, 71*b* if it is in print it is true, 788*b* I love a ballad in print, 310*b* no honour in men who follow the printing-press, 602*b*, note print it and shame the fools, 252*a* some said, John, print it, 38*b* the art which is conservator of all the arts, 492*b* to see one's name in print, 60*a* Prior's epitaph on himself, 259*b* Priori, a, 482*a*

PRIORITY

dust goes before the broom, 843*a* first come, first served, 761*b* first in point of time is strongest in right, 761*b* he that comes first to the hill, 777*a* les premiers vont devant, 761*b* mischief in front, 843*a*
 that is the upper end where the chief person sits, 839*b* the reverend are ever before, 850*b* who cometh first to the mill, 761*b* Prisca fides, 542*b* Prisca gens mortalium, 496*a* Priscian a little scratched, 277*b* to break the head of, 624*b*

PRISON and PRISONS earth one wide prison, 59*b* even savage animals shut up forget their courage, 526*a* no prison is fair, 816*a* prisons of flesh, 120*a* prisons of Hell, improving the, 87*b*, 336*a* secrets of my prison-house, 291*b* stone walls do not a prison make, 200*b* the coaches won't run over him, 841*b* to be in prison and not able to escape, 714*a* vilest deeds bloom in prison air, 389*b* when he's cotched he'll go to, 442*a* (prison) which his soul looked through, 168*a*

PRISONERS

being taken by the insolent foe, 300*b* disgraceful to abuse a man on his trial, 673*b* hope makes even the fettered miner live, 540*b* prisoners of hope, 419*b* sorrowful sighing of prisoners, 433*b* Private advantage yields to public, 625*a* his life, unactive, 222*b* right, who can be secure of, 123*a* station, a, 2*a*, 144*a* thing that would be private, 194*b* Privilege as it were a private law, 625*a* not of avail against the common-wealth 625*a* Privileged, the, and the People, 116*b*

PRIZE and PRIZES

a doubtful prize, 246*a* in the struggle, not the prize, 215*b* judge the prize of wit or arms, 224*a* let all be present and expect the rewards, 509*a* love the game above the prize, 237*b* men prize the thing ungained, 298*b* not without dust, 615*a* prize is hardly worth the cost, 54*a* proud of his prize, 127*a* the goal, not the prize, 380*b* the good we rarely prize, 98*b* we prize not to the worth, 284*b* Prize-packet, he's my, 244*b* PROBABILITIES almost all life depends on, 450*a* arguments derived from, are idle, 448*a* fate laughs at, 205*a* keep probability in view, 143*b* probability the guide of life, 50*b* Probationer, while yet a young, 125*a*

PROBLEMS

clearing the world of difficult problems, 115*a* first of all problems, 71*a* shall be unridable by and by, 357*a* See Question

Procession, you cannot ring the bells and go in the, 879*a* Proclamations, to whisper, is ridiculous, 862*a*

PROCRASTINATION

brings loss, 516*a* business to-morrow, 450*b* by-and-by never comes, 579*a*
 by the street of By-and-by one comes to the house of Never, 815*a* ever struggling with ruin, 467*b* folly is always beginning to live, 557*b* he who defers, 94*a* late in one thing, late in all, 645*b* life put off till to-morrow is too late, 597*b* like the rustic who waits for the stream to flow by, 648*b* never leave that till to-morrow, 140*b* never put off till to-morrow, 80*b* the morrow never comes to completion, 474*a* the sluggard's convenient season never comes, 851*a* the thief of time, 405*a* two anons and a by-and-by, 864*b* what may be done at any time will be done at nae time, 868*b* who hath time and looketh for a better, loseth time, 779*a* you saddle to-day and ride out to-morrow, 880*a* Procul negotiis, 496*a* Procure to the Lords of Hell, 362*b* Prodesse non ledere, 486*a* Prodigious enough, chariest maid is, 291*a* how like a younger or a, 282*b* like a, she doth return, 282*b* Prodigious, corrupt influence and, 40*b* he that needs five thousand pounds to live, 162*b*

 of nature, 318*b*

Prodigious, signs and, 321*a* stories of, 677*b* Pro-di-gious! 274*a* Profane, hence ye, 625*b* let no profane person enter, 474*b* Profane, erroneous, and vain, 51*b* Profaned the God-given strength, 269*a*

Profanely, not to speak it, 294*b* Profanity: vulgarity of bad language, 630*b* Profanum vulgus, 609*a* Profession, every man a debtor to his, 12*b* love of, in painters and actors, 367*b*

Professionalism in Sport: two-and-twenty hirelings hack a ball about, 275*a* Professo, ex, 527*a* Professor, high-cheek-boned, 32*a* Profit, that most learn'd, 258*a* PROFIT and PROFITS ere her cause bring fame and profit, 201*a* great profits, great risks, 770*a* I speak against my present profit, 309*b* light gains make heavy purses 801*b*

Profit and Profits—contd.

none, if the cost exceed it, 597a no one ever ruined by taking a profit, 817a no profit where no pleasure, 276a small profit and small loss, 235b small profits and quick returns, 835a what's nane o' my profit will be nane o' my peril, 868b Profited, what is a man, 423a Profrigacy: what maintains one vice, 140b Profound, something very useful and, 348b Profundity in clear language, 693a
logic which outran the hearer, 363a Profusion apes liberality, 107b sow with hand and not with the sack, 479a Progenitors, your great, 126b Progeny of learning, 328a

PROGRESS

a necessity, 338b a single breaker may recede, 205a calls each fresh link progress, 38a dependent on individuality, 215a history of England the history of progress, 205b keystone of human progress, 117b Nature revolves; man advances, 407a not to advance is to go back, 600a party of progress and reform, 215a realisation of Utopias, 389b springs from discontent, 387b the law of life, 31a where the vanguard camps to-day, 210a you can stand still in a flowing stream, but not in the world of mankind, 878b

Progression, nothing in, 40b rather in circle than, 8a

PROHIBITION

forbid a fool to do a thing, and he will do it, 763a forbidden fruit is sweetest, 763a forbidden wares, 109a in a pet of temperance, 225b so great a hunger for forbidden food, 675a the way to make a person want to do a thing, 84a unforeseen result of the War, 195a we desire the things that are denied, 595a what is denied us causes intense desire, 640b when anything is forbidden, all that leads to same result is forbidden, 629b

Project, now does my, gather to a head, 311a

Projects, her brain a perfect mill for, 334b

Prolixity: why then a final note prolong, 270b

Prologue, a foolish thing to make a long prologue, 421b a, or the posy of a ring, 295a happy prologues to the swelling act, 303b

Promethean heat, that, 302b

Prometheus, warning of, 187b

PROMISE AND PROMISES

a bare promise (nudum pactum), 602b a good man's promise is an obligation, 626a a promise is a promise, 158a Promise and Promises—contd.

all promises broken or kept, 733b anyone can be rich in promises, 626a are like Adonis' gardens, 317a begin to supplement them with deeds, 554b boldness an ill keeper of promises, 10a broke no promise, served no private end, 252a comfort for a fool, 861b corruption of promised reforms, 106a do not promise twice over, 641a engage more effectually their presents, 828a expectation fails where most it promises, 299a faith once plighted hold dearer than life, 340b first commandment with promise, 429b great men giants in promises, 210b he is ever precise in promise-keeping, 299a he is poor who can promise nothing, 774b heavenly promises that lapse, 203b keep the word of promise to our ear, 305b kept when it is advantageous to both parties, 450b let us keep our promise, 32b make a point of promising promises, 626a many promises impair confidence, 581a men apt to promise are apt to forget, 810a no greater promisers than those who have nothing to give, 816a of ill debtors men take promises, 819b present joys more to flesh and blood, 124b promise attended to is a debt settled, 727a promise delayed is justice deferred, 727a promise is debt, 828a promise neglected is an untruth told, 727a promise, the soul of advertisement, 180b promised sea and mountains, 574a promises like piecrust, 828a promises please fools, 760a promising is the eve of giving, 828a promising mountains of gold, 579b slowest in promises is most faithful in performing, 700a Sunday words and Saturday cheer, 838a they spare not to promise, 593b to promise not to do a thing, 84a, verba de presenti, 680b want for no promising, 76a what we do determine off we break, 295a who promises too much means nothing, 780b who trusts, is often-deceived, 633b

PROMOTION

cometh neither from the east, 412b from the ranks upwards, 88a impatience never gets preferment, 792a none will sweat but for, 288b Prompter's cue, not oft misheard the, 380a

PROMPTITUDE

be first that you may be of service, 623b
expedition is the soul of business, 759a Prudence useless unless prompt, 13a spurs are the first part of armour 837a well done, soon done, 867b
See Celerity

PRONUNCIATION

bad pronunciation, 80b prunes and prism, 115b through the pressed nostril, 99b verba togæ, 680b

PROOF AND PROOFS

burden of (onus probandi), 613a four proofs as valid as a dozen, 259a give me the ocular proof, 302a proof of a pudding is in the eating, 850a proofs of holy writ, 302a unconvinced by proof, 407b what proves too much proves nothing, 840a witnesses needless in a matter not doubtful, 678a Prooshans, others may be, 113b Proper, he is, that proper doth, 771a men as ever trod upon neat's leather, 285a young men, 44b

PROPERTY

a machine for securing property, 71b a man may do what he likes with his own, 725a a man worth what he possesses, 725b all came from and will go to others, 732b an ill-favoured thing, but mine own, 289b chi ha, è, 811b common property ceases to be one's own, 640a curse on ill-gotten property, 137a eagerness for property the vice of old age, 660b endeavour to increase property, 644b estate in two parishes is bread in two wallets, 755b everyone should make good use of property, 558a give me a little snug property, 129b gives honours, 553a goods are theirs that enjoy them, 769a has duties, even if people forget its rights, 182a has its duties, 116b, note, 244a, note he is a good man who is a man of goods, 811b he sits above that deals alkers, 776a he that gets gear before he gets wit, 777b if property totters friends waver, 656a is theft, 698a, note it's a rank courtesy when a man has to give thanks for his own, 797b lawful for me to do what I will with mine own, 423a little gear, less care, 803b magic of property, 404a

O O

Property—contd.

naething is a man's truly but what he cometh by duly, 813*b* no man ever thought his own too much, 816*a*
 no one may do to his property what will injure another's, 625*b*
 not less a virtue to take care of, than to obtain, 587*a* nothing is your own which can be changed, 594*a* perpetuity given to no one, 619*b* rail because other folks have property, 135*a* saw from his windows nothing but his own property, 359*b* so much is mine as I enjoy and give away, 835*b* so use as not to injure another, 657*b*
 that we may admire you and not merely your belongings, 677*a* that which is mine is dear to me, 576*b*
 the art of managing property, 615*b*
 the Haves and the Have-nots, 853*b*
 the holy bounds of property, 88*b*
 well has that well is, 867*b* what belongs to everybody belongs to nobody, 867*b* what's yours is mine, and what's mine my ain, 868*b* when all men have what belongs to them it cannot be much, 869*a*
 whence matters not, but you must have it, 675*a* who gives away his goods before he is dead, 874*b* who gives his property to his children, 781*b*
 who is far from his gear is near
 his skaith, 779*a*
 who owns soil owns up to the
 sky, 508*b*
 woe unto them that join house to house, 477*a*
 woods and glens from the towers which we see, 273*b*

PROPHECY Apollo has given me the art of divination, 635*a* contains the germ of prophecy, 89*a*
 don't never prophesy unless ye know, 202*a*
 eat exceedingly and prophesy,
 183*b*
 I prophesied that, though I never told anybody, 331*a* mean you to prophesy, 96*b* predictions follow those who look to them, 763*b* rather I should die than his prediction fail, 348*a* reason is my interpretation of the future, 494*a* take heed of a prophetess, 838*b* the harp of prophecy, 101*a* these the event verified, 541*a* to see clearly is prophecy, 267*a* what I state will either come to pass or not, 635*a* your sons and daughters shall prophesy, 419*a*, 426*a* Prophetic spirits, arrive to the height of, 224*b* ray, with, 56*b* soul, O my, 291*b* strain, something like, 224*b*

PROPHETS

alas, for the ignorant minds of the Seers, 542*b* all prophets lovers of gain, 448*a* augur who could not ward off
 death, 646*a*
 beware of false prophets, 422*a* every people has its prophet, 757*b* he is best diviner who conjectures well, 474*a*
 make me a prophet, I will make you rich, 777*a* perverts the prophets, 60*a* prophet not without honour, 422*b* prophet still, if bird or devil, 245*b* prophets prophesy falsely, 418*a* Saul also among the prophets,
 410*a*
 the best prophet, he who guesses
 well, 496*b*
 who would know what shall be must consider what has been,
 783*a*
 Propinquity does it, 378*b* Proportion, I have received my,
 281*a*
 Proportion in all things, 811*a* in reading, 6*a* no, kept, 313*a* make not thy tail broader than thy wings, 807*a* stretch your legs according to your coverlet, 837*b* Propose, why don't the men, 19*a* Propose, wise men, 12*a*
 a man's heart deviseth his way, but the Lord directeth his steps, 414*a*
 Proposes, man, God disposes, 545*b* Proposium perfice, 525*a* Propria persona, in, 553*a* Proprieties, faultless, of nature, 228*a* Propriety, an argument addressed to, 492*a*
 does not always evince its, 6*b*

PROSE
 a kind of hobbling prose, 125*a* florid prose, 53*a* Milton on prose-writing, 228*b* not to be expressed in prose, 115*b* prose run mad, 252*a* things unattempted yet in prose or rhyme, 215*b* warbler of poetic prose, 100*b* words in best order, 89*b* Proselytism, spirit of, 41*b* Prosiu tibi, 626*a* Prosody, the hammering of, 32*b* Prospect pleases, every, 160*a* Prospects, all his, brightening to the last, 148*a* shining, 2*a* Prospering, not through his presence, 36*a*

PROSPERITY
 at height of, consider how to endure disaster, 610*a* avoid pride, disdain haughtiness, 553*a* brave in prosperity, a deserter in doubtful fortune, 643*b* caution in prosperity, 792*b* destroys fools and endangers the wise, 828*a* discovers vice, 9*b* draw in your sails swollen with prosperity, 643*b* everyone basteth the fat hog, 758*a* gives friends, 721*a*
 good fortune forgets father and
 mother, 716*b*
 great fortune befores the mind, 570*a*

Prosperity—contd.

greatest commanders extravagant
 in prosperity, 643*b*
 has damned more souls than all the devils, 828*a* has many friends, 531*a* if fortune favours beware of exultation, 654*b* in day of prosperity be joyful, 415*b*
 in prosperity resolve nothing arrogantly or vindictively, 553*b* in smooth waters, God help me, 792*b*
 in time of, friends will be plenty, 721*a*
 is overbearing, 499*b* keep yourselves ready for prosperity, 520*b*
 knows not the worth of patience, 828*a*
 lets go the bridle, 828*a* makes few friends, 698*a* man to have been in prosperity, 79*a*
 man's greatest enemy, 106*a* many friends in prosperity, 670*a* never in my life were things better, 605*a*
 never made a man wise, 734*b*, note not easy to bear with well-balanced mind, 569*a* not to be trusted, 553*b* nurse to ill-temper, 531*a* our dispositions run riot in prosperity, 569*a* prosperous to be just, 201*a* proud bearing appropriate to,
 651*a*
 studies enhance prosperity, 541*a* takes no counsel, fears no calamity, 828*a* these pury times, 296*a* to give the sails to propitious winds, 529*a* to preserve a mind free from insolent joy, 486*b* undue elation followed by extreme alarm, 631*a* unmoved in prosperity or in doubt, 523*a* we are corrupted by prosperity, 531*a*
 we shall esteem you as you bear prosperity, 678*a* welcome the sour cup of prosperity, 277*a* well prepared heart fears a change in prosperity, 661*a* when the cup is fullest bear it evenest, 871*a*
 who swells in prosperity will shrink in adversity, 781*b* wont to conceal genius, 555*b* your prosperity mocks my poverty, 498*a*

Protection in society, 8*b* involves dependence, 626*b* Protest too much, the lady doth, 295*a*

PROTESTANTISM a sort of dissent, 40*a* in Protestant dominions, 170*a* one is of Martin's religion, another of Luther's, 822*a* proverbial expression regarding (French) Protestants, 814*b* thy Protestant to be, 164*b* Proteus (old man of the sea), 469*b* who changes his shapes, 639*b*

PROUD
 all that the proud can feel of pain, 61*b*

Proud—contd.

all the proud and mighty have, 129b be exceeding proud, 183a done yourselves proud, 84a he that is proud eats up himself, 298b he's proud and yet his pride becomes him, 289b how little are the proud, 155a I shall be very proud and great, 344b mighty proud to have a spare bed, 243a my proud heart sues, 318b the proud are most provoked by pride, 97b proud man's contumely, 293b proud of being proud, 407b proud of port, 6a the great are proud, 59a the proud will sooner lose than ask their way, 82b
 'tis all the proud shall be, 254b
 too proud to fight, 460b too proud to importune, 155b too proud to serve, 334a why should the spirit of mortal be proud, 191b See Pride
 Prouder than rustling in unpaid-for silk, 309a Prove all things, 430a, 610b Proved, what was, is now disproved, 595b Proven, it is not, 599a PROVERBS acquaint thyself with, 420a, 717a become like an ordinance, 650b
 717a farm folk delight in proverbs, 187b flowing-bearded and patriarchal proverb, 113b full of wise saws and modern instances, 289a hoarded proverbs of the age, 388a Israel shall be a proverb and a byword, 410b man of fashion never uses proverbs, 80b much matter in few words, 141b never yet a breaker of proverbs, 313a no proverbial sayings which are not true, 449a patch grief with proverbs, 285a proverbied with a grand-sire phrase, 278a proverbs of the three S's, 850a proverbs, proofs of bad company, 80b short sentences drawn from long experience, 449a si le proverbium tangunt, 656a sighed forth proverbs, 308a sought out and set in order many proverbs, 416b that proverb of the mind, 64a the daughters of daily experience, 828a the expression which strikes will have wisdom, 648b the oldest proverb on record, 876a the proverb is something musty, 295a
 the People's Voice, 175a
 the wisdom of the streets, 455a, 828a the wit of one man, the wisdom of many, 268a there is no proverb which is not true, 855b serve to be recited, 11b

PROVIDENCE

almost a doubt within me springs of Providence, 397a assert eternal Providence, 215b behind a frowning Providence, 95b cares for every hungry mouth, 36b even God's Providence, 169a every drunken skipper trusts to Providence, 324a fashioned us holler, 201b in the fall of a sparrow, 297a is better than a rent, 828a kept it from being worse, 157a like Bolingbroke, patronize Providence, 71b Providence, fore-knowledge, will, and fate, 217b provides for the provident, 828a sits up aloft, 110a the Lord will provide, 518a the power of the heavenly beings ordains it, 503a their guide, 222a under a favourable Providence, 497a Provinces, princess among the, 418b reluctant obedience of distant, 205b PROVINCIALISM a little one-eyed place, 157a of temperament, 388a
 rustic cackle of your bourg, 364b PROVOCATION
 do not add fire to fire, 474b no one provokes me with impunity, 589a you will stir up hornets, 560a PRUDENCE
 a quality of old age, 669b always in season, 698a better leave than lack, 743a chance ever on the side of the prudent, 477b do not thrust your hand into flame, 626b good nature a great misfortune without prudence, 768b is not satisfied with May-be's, 828a keep your gab stecket when ye kenna your company, 798b no divinity absent if Prudence is present, 604a no hearing on the prudent side, 96a not eloquent, better than talkative folly, 572b nullum nomen abest si sit Prudentia, 604a often the only virtue left at 72, 150b prudent man may direct a State, 204b prudent pauses, 828a
 prudent pauses forward business, 747a quickly enough if safely enough, 649a sleep before you fight, 4a the first thing to desert the wretched, 578a useless unless prompt, 13a PRUDERY
 Camilla, 43b
 hence, ye prudes, 625b prudes for proctors, 360a what is prudery, 'tis a beldam, 256a Prunes and prism, 115b
 Prussia, he has worked for the King of, 773a

Prussic acid without any water, 15b Pry, Paul, 246a
 Pry, Paul, is on the spy, 824b Psalm, hundredth, to the tune of Green Sleeves, 287b Psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, 429b purloins the, 60a Psalmist's music, the, 30b Psalter, the full heart's a, 170b Psychological moment, the precise, 388a PUBLIC, PUBLIC AFFAIRS condemned to bear the public burden, 259b convartin' public trusts, 202a exempt from public haunt, 288a for the public all this weight he bears, 222b found the private in the public good, 249b he husbands best his life who gives it to public service, 261b he that serves the public serves no one, 781a how many fools make a public, 700b lidless watcher of the public weal, 360b loudest complainers for the public, 39b none forbidden to go by public path, 589a pelting each other for the public good, 97b private respects must yield to public good, 223b public credit, 85a
 public full of nerves, 29b public good to be preferred to private, 627a public inconvenience, not allowable in law, 592b public money and open spaces, 160b public taste a mongrel product, 343b the noblest motive, the public good, 342a the Public an old woman, 70b the Public nothing but a great baby, 75b, note
 the Public pays with ingratitude, 850a the public soul, 68b to distinguish between public and private interests, 536b voice of the public for mercy, 179a want of pence which vexes public men, 359a unfit for public rule, 256b who does anything for the public is accounted to do it for nobody, 777a who serves the public serves a fickle master, 781a words dealing with public affairs, 525a PUBLIC OPINION
 coquetry of, 42a
 the people wish to be deceived, 622b
 wiser, because just as wise as it need be, 621b Publican, an Heathen and a, 433b Publicans and sinners, 81a PUBLICITY
 all things should be laid bare, 611b enmities proclaimed less to be feared, 667a no wisdom like frankness, 116b what my hand has dared to do it dares not write, 640b Publicly, spread yourself on his bosom, 183a Publish, right or wrong, 60a throw hit never, 194b Publisher, no author a genius to his, 816b Pudding and beef make Britons fight, 259a better some of a, than none of a pie, 743b cold, settles love, 748b solid, against empty praise, 253b, 835b you cannot have your pudding unless you eat it, 878b Pudor, O, O pietas, 607a Pudsey man and Noah's ark, 739a Pueris minuscula parvis, 598b Puff preliminary, 328b Pugnacity: no fray shall be without him, 143b there was only one virtue, 324a Pulchre! bene! recte! 627a Pullet in Janiveer, 789a Pulling down, here, 208b Pulpit, down with, 386b drum ecclesiastic, 50b politics and the, 41a

 Pulse as yours doth temperately keep time, 296a Pulse, feed on, 225b Pulse, worse occupations than feeling a woman's, 343b Pump, let princes revel at the, 237b, note PUNS AND PUNNING
 a bad pun goes further, 193a a pun is a noble thing per se, 192a a pun perfect as a sonnet, 192a he that will make a pun will pick a pocket, 439a how every fool can play upon the word, 283a I do detest a pun, 91b my name is obnoxious to no pun, 327b puns in very bad repute, 332b seeds of punning, 2b that very foolish thing indeed, a pun, 174a Punch, Brothers, Punch, 83b PUNCTUALITY break but a thousandth part of a minute, 289b he never broke his hour that kept his day, 775b hours made for man, not man for hours, 702a politeness of kings, 330b, 696a the duty of gentlemen, 330b
 the soul of business, 828b
 the thief of time, 388a PUNCTUATION
 not suffered in laws, 52b too many stops stop the way, 193a utterance of Oracle dependent on, 456a, 547b Punic faith (treachery), 627a Punica, fides, 532b PUNISHMENT
 a man may not be punished for another's actions, 589b, 623a a Phrygian improved by blows, 620a absence of, encourages worse offences, 550b anger to be specially avoided in, 625b back to thy punishment, 217b I trench twigs break no ribs, 744b bodily, even the slightest, greater than monetary, even the heaviest, 612b Punishment—contd.

 bringing about my own punishment, 597b brute-like punishment, 31b close attendant on guilt, 508b contrivers of death should perish by their own contrivance, 590a crime the shame of punishment, 108b deserved, should be borne patiently, 565b disgrace in the crime not the punishment, 449b divine wrath slow but severe, 565b do not pursue with frightful scourge what only deserves a whipping, 586a each has his own punishment in the lower world, 639a eternal, the most frightful idea, 234b every sin brings its punishment, 757b fining us again with a heavier fine, 561a Fortune spares many for future punishment, 535a God gives his wrath by weight, 766a greater than I can bear, 409a greatest punishment of doing injuries is the fact of doing them, 574a harsh strokes for schoolboys, 672b has something unequal in it, 539b he looking as cheerful as any man could in that condition (capital punishment), 242b he that chastens one chastens twenty, 777a
 he threatens the innocent who spares the guilty, 577a hope of avoiding punishment is the incitement to sin, 574b how justly to proportion punishment, 324b I chastise thee because I love thee, 501a I will get it from his purse or his skin, 787b I will give you a shirt full of sore bones, 787b impossible to enumerate all the punishments of crime, 599a is evil, 21b is lame, but it comes, 828b is mischief, 21b Jupiter hurls chance thunderbolts, 562b law cannot persuade where it cannot punish, 799b let the punishment equal the offence, 602a make the punishment fit the crime, 746b man punishes the action, God the intention, 807a many without punishment, none without sin, 808a never hang a man twice for one offence, 814b no delay long concerning (capital punishment), 511b not for slips of the tongue, 568a of crime is in the crime, 649b of men of ability spreads their authority, 627b of tyrants, to realize the beauty of virtue, 570b one day brings the punishment of many, 676a pleasing punishment that women bear, 776a

Punishment—contd.
 qui aime bien châtie bien, 836b racks, gibbets, halters, 239b rulers should be slow in punishment, 651b should be prompted by justice, not anger, 613b should reach the few, that fear may reach all, 677a sought, and pardon feared, 650a take care lest punishment exceeds the guilt, 501b that punishment which none but a cherub can escape, 366b
 the more laws the more offenders, 808a thunderbolt strikes one, but terrifies all, 508b to impose penalties to suit crimes, 486a to put off is not to let off, 826a to whom it is a punishment to inflict punishment, 631b undeserved, is a matter for bewailing, 565b unpunished delinquencies, effect of, 339a what a man has deserved is alone a disgrace, 547b who spares the bad injures the good, 781a with lame foot, tracks the criminal, 643a words for one man, blows for another, 670b Pup, such a dear little cock-tailed, 16a Pupilage, in, 553b Puppets, a bit of wood moved by strings, 590b best and worst, 31a of a hollow age, 86a shut up the box and the, 366b we are, 363b Purlind race of miserable men, 364b Purchase, all like the; few the price, 405a PURE, PURITY
 a purer soul and one more like yourselves, 267a always pure, even while it errs, 233a blessed are the pure in heart, 421a blest are the pure in heart, 186b chooseth the pure in heart, 186b from a pure fountain pure water, 482a God regards pure hands, 627b live pure, speak true, right wrong, 364a longing to be pure, without the power, 237a make all sure and keep all pure, 806b more pure as tempted more, 399b none can enter in but those who are pure, 439b our hands are pure, 381b pure as snow, 294a purest soul that e'er was sent, 70a purest soul that ever dwelt, 333b purity, feminine of Honour, 157b purity, modesty and quiet desire, a dowry, 597a to doubt her pureness were to want a heart, 365b unless the vessel is clean the contents turn sour, 658a unto the pure all things are pure, 430b, 477a, 611a whatsoever things are pure, 429b whose means are pure and spotless, 400a

Q

Pure, the real Simon, 75b Purely lives, here Man more, 398a Purgatory, a wiseacre's, 90a fame a, 204b PURITANISM
 at Banbury, 458a puritanic stays, 358a puritans hated bear-baiting, 206b the bigots of the iron time, 271b Purple peaks, on, a deeper shade descending, 271b you that have fouled the, 244a Purpose, better a bad, than none, 74a held he still, his, 78a is but a slave to memory, 295a man without a, 74a ought, when thou dost, 162b shake my fell, 303b upright man not to be shaken from, 563a
Purpureusque pudor, 525b Purr at every stranger's praise, 168a Purse, be ruled by him who bears
 the, 740b
 competent whose purse was so, 99b empty, 25a empty, makes a bleat merchant, 735a he hath left his, in his other hose, 773a in si ken or in leathern, 243b inside of, to outside of his hand, 310b keep purse and mouth close, 798b make my fool my, 301a my, my person, my extremest means, 282a not poorness of, 70b pride of, 170a purses, long, make strong swords, 354b when two friends have a common,
 872a who has lost his, will go wherever you wish, 547b who steals my, steals trash, 301b PURSUIT, PURSUING
 delusiveness of pursuit, 670b pursuing that that flies, 287b the pursuer could pursue no more, 366a things chased with more spirit than enjoyed, 282b what flees I ever pursue, 641b with head, hands, wings or feet pursues his way, 218a PURSUITS
 by honourable, 663a
 vain, 369b
 Push on, keep moving, 236b this, will cheer me ever, 305a Pushing, you think you are, you are being pushed, 712a Pusillanimity and fear, a law of, 9a counsels of, 42a Puss gentleman, a fine, 98a Putney, go to, on a pig, 464a Puzzle, every woman a, 367b me quite, they, 37b Pygmies are pygmies still, 407a Pyramid, inverted, can never stand, 408a are pyramids in vales, 407a doting with age, 141a set off his memories, no, 137b Pyrrhones, il n'y a plus de, 693b Pyrrhotechnical displays, 376b Pyrrhic victory, 452a Pythagoras, a student of wisdom,
 627b
 Pythagoreans, golden verses of, 477a

Quackery gives birth to nothing, 73a Quacks: all idiots, barbers, etc., fancy themselves physicians,
 533a Cato wondered one soothsayer did not laugh at another, 501a not physicians, in the cure of souls, 170a
 of government, 52a
 Quaffing long, maketh a short lyfe, 203a
 Quails, God gave, 228a
 Quakers sedate, sober, silent, 170b QUALITIES and QUALITY a taste of your quality, 293a defects of his qualities, 453b men of quality above wit, 105a raciness of his good qualities, 453b true standard of quality, 22b Quam dulce est meminisse, 487a Quantum est in rebus inane, 606a Quantum mutatus ab illo, 541b Quarles saved by beauties not his
 own, 253b
QUARRELS, QUARRELLING
 a woman generally the cause, 602b about a piece of goat's hair, 488b agreement made more precious by disagreement, 516b all her dishes are chafing dishes, 733a be not first to quarrel nor last to make it up, 740b better old debts than old sores, 743b
 beware of entrance to a quarrel, 291a blessings on the falling-out, 360a caused by wine, 562b dispute about an ass's shadow, 511a dissension between hearts that
 love, 233a
 do not quarrel about other
 people's business, 585b doubly friends after quarrelling, 497b fall not out with a friend for a trifle, 760a
 God curses quarrels, 766a he that can make a fire well can end a quarrel, 776b if frog and mouse quarrel, the kite will see them agreed, 789b in a false quarrel, no true valour, 285a
 (quarrel) in a straw, 296a in latter part of life, 327b it takes two to make a quarrel, 797a let this end stop all quarrel, 527b lo, when two dogs are fighting, 134b love-quarrels in pleasing concord
 end, 223b
 lovers' quarrels are soon adjusted, 806a may my days be without quarrels, 659a prone to bitter quarrels, 488b quarrel and strife make short life, 828b quarrelling dogs come limping
 home, 828b
 quarrelling wth the equator, 390b quarrelous as the weasel, 309a quarrels of lovers, 488b quick in quarrel, 265a sharpest amongst kinsfolk, 484a strife produces strife, 477b Quarrels, Quarrelling—contd. the Countercheck quarrelsome, 289b the quarrel is a very pretty quarrel, 328a they quarrel about an egg and let the hen fly, 798b those who in quarrels interpose, 143b thy head is as full of quarrels, 279b thrice is armed that hath his quarrel just, 317a to dispute about smoke, 511a to quarrel with a man that hath a hair more, 279b when two quarrel both are in the wrong, 872a

 while the dogs snarl at each other the wolf devours the sheep, 874a
 who has lands has quarrels, 779a who is first silent in a quarrel comes of a good family, 875a with one who is exhausted, 482a won his laurel in an ill quarrel, 174b would be short if fault were on one side, 702b Quarry, sagacious of his, 221b Quarter, one, makes the other sell, 737a Quarto page, on a beautiful, 328a Quean, haunting, extravagant, 328b QUEENS
 every lady would be, 251a I would not be a queen, 319b Queen Anne is dead, 828b queens generally prosperous, 64b she looks a queen, 256b the bright-eyed queen (Hope), 402b Queensberry, cautious, 47a Quem perdere vult Deus, 151a Querelle d'Allemand, 706b Querulous creatures, we are, 88a QUESTION and QUESTIONS a vexed question, 629a, 681b animals ask no questions, 130b ask no questions I'll tell no fibs, 150a
 avoid a person who asks questions, 618b begging the question (petitio principii), 620a fool may ask a question which forty wise men cannot answer, 720b greatest men may ask a foolish question, 391a hard those questions; answer harder still, 408a ill brooks a subject's questioning 88a my too much questioning, 74b no question settled till settled
 right, 387b
 others abide our question, 4b puzzling questions, 29a question beyond question, 85a question not, but hoe and labour, 151b questions never indiscreet, 389a those obstinate questionings of
 sense, 401a
 too much inquiry is bad, 862b who asks many questions gets many answers, 862b Questionable shape, in such a, 291b Qui colere columbar, 509b Qui primus in hostem? 521a Qui pro quo, 634a
 Quick at meat, quick at work, 829a the, hate the slow, 608b

Quick, to touch the, 475a Quickly, 'twere well it were done, 303b Quickness, too much, to be taught, 251a
 See Celerity
Quid pro quo, 637a Quiddits, where be his, his quillets, 296b Quies, securo, 651a QUIET
 a fool cannot be still, 720b a quiet calf sucks its dam and another cow too, 727a a quiet mind is richer than a crown, 155b anything for a quiet life, 112b, 737a I keep quiet, 550b is sometimes an unquiet thing, 558a most doth bathe in bliss that hath a quiet mind, 376a
 most profitable of things, 473b of spirit so still and quiet, 300b quiet persons are welcome every-where, 829a quietness and confidence, 417b quietness is best, 829a sit in your place and none can make you rise, 834b study to be quiet, 430a study to be quiet (secum habita), 669a
 the quiet life, 455b
 the mother of quietness and repose, 85a the still sow eats all the draff, 851b to quick bosoms is a hell, 54b violent desire for quiet, 487a who would live at peace and rest, 783a wise men are fond of sitting, 762a Quieta, non movere, 662b, 801a, note Quietus make, might his, 293b Quills upon the fretful porcupine, 291b Quinapalus, 297b, note Quinsy, silver, 468b Quintilian, would have made, stare, 227a lamented by Virgil, 582a Quip, the, modest, 289b Quips and Cranks and wanton Wiles, 224a and sentences and these paper bullets, 284b Quire, the full-voiced, 224b Quiver, his, full of them, 413a let Fortune empty her whole, 127b Quivering, save his limbs, 62b Quixote, Don, 65a, note, 716a Quod vide (q.v.), 641b QUOTATION AND QUOTATIONS art of quotation requires delicacy, 118b classical quotation, parole of literary men, 179b easy to hate but easier to quote, 22b experience of ages preserved by quotations, 118b he read nothing without making extracts, 591a It brings praise to me that you copy my words in your books, 576b jewels five words long, 360a one may quote till one compiles, 118b quotations of quotations, unreliable, 197a

Quotation and Quotations—contd.
 think they grow immortal as they quote, 404a to be quoted delights an author, 140b verify your quotations, 441a words which deserve quotation, 632a

R

R (the canine letter), 661a Rabbi, to be called of men, 423b Rabble, the ill-conditioned, 572b RACE (Racial)
 a homeless race, 186a a servile race, 348a an idiot race, 47b an immortal race, 537b mixed with every race, 103a race distinctions unknown to morality, 338b race of other days, 342a
 the Race that loved not Thee, 176a unhappy race, reserved to destruction, 606b RACE, RACING
 a racehorse is an open sepulchre, 727a he that runs well, 94a the race is not to the swift, 416a the race is run by one and one, 189b the race is won, 103b to lose the race, 96a winning a horse-race, one of the fearful felicities, 329b Rachel weeping for her children, 471a Racine passera comme le café, 706b Rack, in old days the, now the press, 389b behind, leave not a, 311a of a too easy chair, 254a of this tough world, 307a
 Racks, gibbets, halters, 239b Rackrent, Sir Condry, 130a, 206a Radical, and very rich, be very, 7a every man sometimes a, 133a Radicalism endeavours to realise more ideal state, 338b Radish, like a forked, 315b Radix malorum, 78b Rag, a, but my rag is dear to me, 692b moth-eaten, on a worm-eaten pole, 442b the bloomin' old, 189b Rags, better go to heaven in, 743a he lies, though in, 3a no scandal like, 134a RAGE
 being stopped impatiently doth rage, 281b no rage like love to hatred turned, 92b nought so stockish, hard, and full of rage, 283b supplies arms, 537a swell the soul to rage, 126a unextinguishable rage, 220a See Anger
 Ragged coat may cover an honest man, 727a Rail, one sure refuge left, and that's to, 126a Railers, society of the wits and, 142a Railing word, when others speak a, 382b RAILWAYS
 by the Heaster Counties railway, 368a Railways—contd.

 going by railway not travelling at all, 267a Motions and Means at war with old poetic feeling, 402b railroad only a device for making the world smaller, 267b railway station: the very temple of discomfort, 267b the rail is unconstitutional, 113a RAIN
 a naughty night to swim in, 306a a poor man's rain, 726b after rain fair weather, 731b as the mist resembles the rain, 198a before seven, fine before eleven, 829a came down in slanting lines, 330b continual dropping in a rainy day, 415a deformed with dripping rains, 99a drives a man from his house, 858b each raindrop makes some floweret grow, 207b first it rained and then it snowed, 443b for a morning rain leave not your journey, 762b heavens shut up and there is no rain, 411a in February as good as manure, 760b in winter everywhere; in summer where God wills, 870a is over and gone, 416b it never rains but it pours, 797a it rains and the wind is never weary, 197b "It is bound to clear up," as the devil said to Noah, 739a Jupiter pluvius, 562b keep something for a rainy day, 128b, 798b, 831a king could not command the rain, 242b on Good Friday and Easter, 829a on June 8, foretells wet harvest, 789a rain or no rain, 'Jove cannot please all, 476b, 559b rainy days will surely come, 443b ripple of rain, 352b small rain allays great wind, 835a some rain, some rest, 836a the gentle rain from heaven, 283b the meadows have drunk enough, 503a the rain it raineth every day, 298 though it rain throw not away the water-pots, 734b when God will, no wind but brings rain, 869b when it rains it rains on all alike, 870a when it's not too rainy, 58b when you are all agreed, quoth the vicar, I'll make it rain, 872b will pack when it begins to rain, 306a RAINBOW
 at morning (or night), 727a comes and goes, 400b in the morning, 462b in the sky, 392b rich as a rainbow, 228b to add another hue to the rainbow, 311b to the storms of life, 56b to thy sight, 67a triumphal arch, 67b Raise me up, I trust, my God shall, 262b

Rake among scholars, 206a every woman is at heart a, 251a reformed, makes the best husband, 727a Rake, he comes oftener with, than shovel, 772a keep the, near the scythe, 798b little for the rake to get after the bissome, 855a the fork is commonly the rake's heir, 844a
Raleigh, brave, 253b Ramblers, I love such holy, 269a Rams speed not, 322b Ran, we, and they ran, 440a RANCOUR grows, gradual, 370b malice is mindful, 807a rancour of thy tongue, 239a
 such rancour in the hearts of
 mighty men, 341b
 theological rancour, 609a will out, 317a
 your households' rancour, 279a Range, wanting the mental, 365a RANK
 a great beautifier, 204b a heavy burden (rank) presses him down, 539a a pride there is of rank, 170a and valour worthless without wealth, 524b
 common sense rare in men of rank, 643a
 dignity grows more easily than it begins, 529b great people only great because we are on our knees, 701b greatness is to me a curse, 210b has its bores, 116b he himself is subject to his birth, 291a is but the guinea stamp, 49a is good, and gold is fair, 386b mark of rank in nature, 390a men of quality, 105a men of rank deprived of common sense, 634b
 saint in crape is twice a saint in lawn, 250b sin greater in proportion to rank, 630b the higher our position the more humbly let us bear ourselves, 630b to match above his rank, 210a Ransom, death hath paid his, 224a RANT and RANTING
 I'll rant as well as thou, 297a in King Cambyse's vein, 314a this is Eracles' vein, 280b this might be endurable if you did not rave, 668a to tear and rant, 52a Raphael paints wisdom, 132a Raphaels, Correggios, and stuff, 149a Rapture, first fine, 36a Raptures and roses of vice, 351b Rarer spirit, a, never did steer humanity, 307b
RARENESS, RARITY
 all that is rare is dear, 609b
 all things that excel are rare, 611b how wretched to lose what few possess, 629b
rara avis in terris, 642b rare things please us, 642b rarer than a white raven, 506b Raree-show of Peter's successor, 32a Rascal, a dull and muddy-mettled,
 293b Rascals, to lash the, naked through
 the world, 302b

RASH, RASHNESS
 childish valorous, 208b do not thrust your hand into flame, 626b foolhardiness proceeds of ignorance, 762a
 it is difficult to be strong and not rash, 795a lucky rashness in place of valour, 625a neither rashly nor timidly, 587b rash censure, 398a rashness a better fault than fear, 128b rashness a quality of youth, 669b rashness counts as judgment in doubtful matters, 660a rashness proves good to few, bad to many, 617a reckless and most insane rashness, 620b splenetic and rash, 297a the precept "Nothing rashly," 479b there is hope in rashness, 536a those who have feared nothing are less hearty in their joy, 577b too rash, too unadvised, too sudden, 278b we sanction a law unfair to ourselves, 629b
 who perishes in needless danger is the devil's martyr, 875b Rast' ich, so rost' ich, 713b Rat, anything like the sound of a, 32b how, now, a, 295b Rats, let's sing of, 152b there be land-, and water-rats, 282a very, instinctively had quit it, 310b Ratiocination, pay by, 50b Rationalists like spiders, 12b Ratons and myse and soche smale dere, 306b, note Raven, looks were like the, 48a RAVENS
 and ape think their young fairest, 234a bird or devil, 245b bring up a raven and it will peck out your eyes, 745b like raven and rook, 129a of the House of Commons, 206a pardons ravens, but storms at doves, 511a raven said to the rook, "Stand away, black-coat," 850a ravens of the valley, 382b, note shall pick out his eyes, 382b the raven will seek the carrion, 850a who will not change a raven for a dove, 280b
 Rawhead and Bloodybones, 275b Ray of rays, the, 114b
 Rays, hide your diminished, 251b Razor best is whet, in smooth oil, 404a
 satire like a polished, 229a Razors, cried, up and down, 391a Razor's edge, on the, 471b Reach, a man's, 33a
READERS, READING a reading-machine, always wound up, 201b
 as you read it begins to grow your own, 519b curst hard reading, 328b he a god who could but read and spell, 124a

Readers, Reading—contd.
 he that reareth may run, 419a,
note
 I won't philosophize and will be read, 64b learn to read slow, 376b much had he read, 4a preserve proportion in reading, 6a read first and despise afterwards, 564b
 read in secret, abuse in public, 24a read in the temper that he wrote, 264b read it for restoratives, 308b read, mark, learn, and inwardly digest, 432a read much, not many things, 582b read not to contradict, 110 read somewhat seldom, 33b read the whole if you wish to understand, 564b
 read to doubt, or read to scorn, 274a reader, how liketh thou me, 713b reading impossible without engine-power, 21b reading maketh a full man, 11b reading not a duty, 22b reading, seeing by proxy, 339a reading to the mind, what exercise is to the body, 342a reading what they never wrote, 99b reading without thinking, 239a sometimes a device for avoiding thought, 160b such reading as was never read, 254a
 to love working and reading, 382b to wait a century for a reader, 457a
 to write and read comes by nature, 284b too serious reader, you may begone, 632a twice read, better remembered, 180b we read lest they should be read, 565a when the last reader reads no
 more, 167b
 whilst I read I assent, 519b who is ruled may read, 190a who often reads will wish to write, 103b you, reader, are the cause that I write things meant to please, 653a
READINESS
 a man of all hours, 613a always have your hook ready for the fish, 501a assail who will, the valiant attends, 739b set not your loaf in till the oven's hot, 833a being ready, hope for the battle, 627a they that are booted are not always ready, 857a Real is His song, the, 31a is narrow; the possible immense, 700b
 Realities of fate, 67a Realm, the three estates of the, 456a Realms of love, she enters, 362a of gold, travelled in the, 184b yet unborn, 341b Reap: as you sow you shall reap, 677b we shall, if we faint not, 429b where I, thou shouldst but glean,
 172a

Reaper, whose name is Death, 197b Reaps, another, 327a above the rest, whoso, 262b Reaping where thou hast not sown, 423b
 Rear of your affection, in the, 291a REASON
 a beam of sober reason, 264b a glimmering light at best, 437b acting justly, 643a an ignis fatuus of the mind, 264a and authority, the lights of the world, 643a and judgment, qualities of leaders, 643a and love keep little company, 280b and speech the bond of society, 659b and speech unite men and distinguish them from beasts, 643a at which Reason stands aghast, 175b blest with plain reason, 255b buckles and bows the mind, 7b by reason I have practised divination, 494a by reason swayed, 280b capability and godlike reason, 296a endued with sanctity of reason, 220b feast of reason, 252b few have reason, 82a finer webs shall draw, 249b follow reason for a guide, 179a he is nearest gods whom reason, not passion, guides, 516a he that dare not reason, a slave, 121b hearken to reason, or she will be heard, 784b
 his gentle reason so persuasive stole, 371b his reasons like two grains of wheat, 282a his will stands for a thousand reasons, 210b how noble in reason, 293a if against reason of no force in law, 85a if reasons were plenty as blackberries, 314a if you will not hear reason she will rap your knuckles, 791a is my augury, 494a is not deceived and does not deceive, 590a it is vain to speak, where it will never be heard, 795b keeps not the door of Heaven, 408b leadeth folk into felicitie, 166b lies between spur and bridle, 829a make worse appear the better reason, 217a man without, is a beast in season, 725b man's best Œdipus, 28a men have lost their reason, 286a mixed reason with pleasure, 149a no other but a woman's reason, 281a nothing to be done without reason, 592b of more avail than blind force, 621b overpowers the soberness of reason, 395a persuasive reason, 643a pride in reasoning, 250b reason for my rhyme, 347b

Reason—contd.
 reason, leave my love and me alone, 437b reason of unreason, 387a reason refuses homage to a God fully understood, 373b reason the card, passion the gale, 249a reason themselves out again, 316b reason, thou vain impertinence, 437b reason with despair, 385b reasonings of the mind turned inward, 401a rhyme nor reason, 12a seven men that can render a reason, 415a shall know the reason why, 457a shall reign and govern realms, 194a subdues youth, not force, 643a subject yourself to reason, 656b takes the reason prisoner, 303b that noble and most sovereign reason, 294a the confidence of reason, 400a the heart has reasons of which reason has no knowledge, 699a the image of God, 228a the light and lamp of life, 655a the twinkling lamp, 92b theirs not to reason why, 361b to contradict reason, 71b to reason about love is to lose reason, 706b to restrain reason, 248b to rule reason, 124a tout par raison, 708b we reason call, 82a we live not according to reason, but after fashion of others, 548a what can we reason but from what we know, 248a what is now reason was formerly impulse, 641a what is opposed to reason is not allowed by law, 640b what Reason weaves by Passion is undone, 248b Reasonable creature, man not a, 385a Reasonableness, sweet, 6a REBELS devil the first rebel, 52b from principle, 41a rebels in Cork, 322a REBELLION
 a little rebellion a good thing 176b foul, dishonouring word, 232b insurrection of the citizens is the enemy's opportunity, 652a the secret murmurings of the crowd, 650b who draws sword against his prince must throw away scabbard, 874b Rebuild, to, will a whole age employ, 92a Rebuke in disaster, worse than the disaster, 608a of one, one thousand flee at, 417b open, better than secret love, 415a See Reproof.
Rebus servate secundis, 520b Receive and not give, base to, 133a Receiver is a thief, as well as the stealer, 468a is as bad as the thief, 850a Receivers, if there were no, there would be no thieves, 789b Receives, who much, but nothing gives, 144b

Recessional Hymn, 180b
Recherche de la paternité est interdite, 698a Reciprocity: what you do not wish done to you, do not to another, 641b Reciprocity: whatsoever ye would that men should do unto you, 422a, 432b Recitation, become a subject for, 547b if you speak badly what is assigned to you, 572b when you recite badly the work becomes your own, 631a Recite them too, they'll, 62a Reciter of his own works, 555a Reckless of sorrow, sin, or scorn, 192b what I do to spite the world, 304b RECKONING after reckoning one must drink, 732a correct accounts keep good friends, 749a count siller after a' your kin, 749a do not reckon without your host, 752b do not reckon your chickens before hatched, 752b double-charging will break even a cannon, 753b ell and tell (ready-money) is good merchandise, 754b fairer the hostess, fouler the reckoning, 843b God loves good accounts, 766b
 he has a short Lent that has to pay money at Easter, 773a I am ill at reckoning, 277a if you tell every step, you will make a long journey of it, 790b it's a poor man that always counts his sheep, 797b merry the feast till we come to the reckoning, 810b no reckoning made, 292a oft counting makes good friends, 819b over narrow counting culzies na kindness, 824a reckoners without their host must reckon twice, 780b short reckonings are soon cleared, 834a short reckonings make long friends, 833b small sum will pay short reckoning, 728a spoils the relish, 810b
 tell money after your father, 839b the dreadful reckoning, 143b the feast is good until the reckoning, 261b
 the poor man counts his flock, 617b to review one's store is to review twice, 861b when sheep are counted the wolf eats them, 870b who lives without account lives to shame, 780a wrong count is no payment, 878a Recluse, betwixt good fellow and, 387a is a law to himself, 567b Recognition: a virtue in a chief to have known his followers, 624b nor if you suddenly saw me could you recognise me, 587b Recoil a little, to leap the better, 866b Recommends a man, what, 91a RECONCILIATION

a reconciled friend a double enemy, 722a attempting to, the irreconcilable, 619a safer to reconcile an enemy than to conquer, 796b Record, weep to, 66b Records: they had no poet and they died, 256b Records that defy the tooth of time, 408b Recorder, good, sits all in order, 722b Recreation, God never made a more calm innocent, 378a should be given the mind, 568b Rede vive, 685a
 Rectitude, a mind conscious of, 576a Recluer pour mieux sauter, 693a, 867a

RED

and bad, 462a, 759b as a rose is she, 86b bird with red stomacher, 120a celestial rosy red, love's proper hue, 221a dirty red will dye again, 863a is brazen, 462a is wise, 462a means ardent love, 462b of his own thoughts he waxed red, 78b red spirits and grey, 305a Red, White, and Blue, 457b with a red man rede thy rede, 462a Rede, eines Mannes, ist keines Mannes Rede, 712a, n1e Rede, reck the, 47a recks not his own, 291a Redeemer liveth, my, 411b Reduction on taking a quantity, 146a Redundancy does not invalidate deeds, 606b Reed, a broken, at best, 405b bruised, shall he not break, 417b shaken by the wind, 422b the staffs of this bruised, 410b this broken, Egypt, 417b this bruised, 417b Reeds become darts, 829b whimper of querulous, 380b Reelings, such drunken, 98a References, verify your, 441a Referens, horresco, 546b Refined, nothing more, 593a Refinements, on vain, 82b Refining, still went on, 149a

REFORM

every reform will be carried to excess, 89a except moral, unavailing, 72a innovation not reform, 42a moderate reformers hate those who go beyond, 141a party of progress and reform, 215a presume not that I am the thing I was, 316a reform it altogether, 294b reform and retrenchment, 459a reforms less to be dreaded than revolutions, 106a Reformation, Bays, and Beer, 458a reformed that indifferently, 294b reformers, all are bachelors, 230a remorse begets reform, 100b Refresh and pay, 440a

Refuge, sacred, of mankind, 377a

REFUSAL

almost like a favour, 93a avaricious man never wants a reason for refusing, 588a Refusal—contd.

better a friendly refusal than an unwilling promise, 780b better be denied than deceived, 742b better deny at once than promise long, 742b civil denial better than a rude grant, 719a gives what's oft refused, 104a hard when a superior entreats, 520b he is less disappointed who is promptly denied, 577b he who holds out a doubtful chance, gives a denial, 519a let him who has rejected things mistakenly revoke his error, 634a nayed him twice, 156a
 never refuse a good offer, 815a no language so difficult as language of refusal, 327b refused the gold, but not so rudely as before, 337a say nay, and take it, 831a shameless pray must have shameless nay, 833a take not the first refusal ill, 438a the great Refusal, 715a
 the spirit which ever says No, 711a to offer much is one way of denying, 861a wilt thou refuse, Nay, not for Paradise, 188a you would not have denied me if my love retained its influence, 655a Refuse, Nature's, and the dregs of men, 408b Regard, some leaf of your, 401b we rejoice in freely loving him whom it was our duty to love, 538b Rege, grage, et lege, 625a Regiment, led his, from behind, 146b Register, register, register, 459a Reg'lar, brought, and drawn mild, 113b Regno, ne exeat, 585b REGRET
 a woman's natural food, 244b congratulatory regrets, 118b regretted by all, nobody knows why, 379b spared this vain regret, 330a wild with all regret, 360b wild regrets and bloody sweats, 389b Regulate the sun, 248b
Regum, ultima ratio, 674b Reign, he can best, who hath well obeyed, 223a in hell, better to, 216a to, is worth ambition, 216a Reine d'un jour, 706b Reins, he does not know how to turn the, 559b vainly pulling at the, 536b REJECTION fired that the house reject him, 252a his own received him not, 425a though his suit was rejected, 274b though now she won't, anon she will, 438a See No, Refusal
 Rejoice, with them that do rejoice, 427a Rejoices, it is a poor heart that never, 794a Relapse unlooked for, 222b

Relation of past trouble possesses delight, 539b

RELATIONS

a good friend is my nearest relation, 722a a man dies each time his relatives die, 546a chance makes relations; choice makes friends, 701a despise not a poor relation, 751b do no business with a kinsman, 764a even great men have poor relations, 114b feuds amongst kinsfolk are sharpest, 484a folk cannot help a' their kin, 761b forgive even one's own relations, 388b friends better than relations, 764a friendship excels relationship, 623b help thy kin, for there beginneth charity, 747a I am my own next-of-kin, 626b
 is it not right to prefer friends to relatives, 629a links of relationship make a certain kind of law, 562b many kinsfolk, few friends, 808a never had a relative thet done a stroke o' work, 202a nor relative nor blood, 67a one is never betrayed but by kindred, 764a poor high-related guest, 87a poverty has no relations, 850b put away the weapon, you who are my own flesh and blood, 625b relationship compels, 479b relationship leads to ill-feeling, 503b similarity of manners a greater bond than relationship, 621b the rich never want kindred, 850b too forgetful of your own kin, 607a Relaxation: when God sends a cheerful hour, 227a Relent, not to, beastly, savage, devilish, 319a 'tis cowardly and womanish, 319a Relenting fool, 319a
 Relics of the day, 95a
 of the saints in libraries, 7b Relief, for this, much thanks, 290a give, and Heaven will bless, 236b Religio potuit suadere malorum, 668b RELIGION
 a crime to examine the laws of heat, 234b a dim religious light, 224b a good life the very religion, 722a
 a new religion, "Enjoy thyself," 408b
 a pillar of government, 10a
 a saint run mad, 253a a stalking horse to shoot other fowl, 829b
 all false religion conflicts with nature, 708b all of same religion without knowing it, 242a, note always sides with poverty, 164a an infrequent worshipper, I now return to my faith, 615b and legislation, 215b and love of banners, 624b as a mere sentiment, 238b as far as religion permits, 676b as if religion were intended, 51a becomes all ages, 603b

Religion—contd.

best armour, but the worst cloak, 829b built on the rock, 117b
 but as the fashion of his hat, 284a by religion we have subdued all nations, 620b cherish religion (cole sacra), 686a cloaked crimes with wild religion, 194a competition in religion, 193a dangerous to be of no church, 180a defends her truths, 103a depth in philosophy induces religion, 10a devotion has mastered the hard way, 682a dogma fundamental in religion, 238b education without it makes clever devils, 384a elder sister of Philosophy, 192b enough religion to make us hate one another, 350a for modes of faith let graceless zealots fight, 249b friends of, worse than foes, 103a go different ways on Sundays, 134b harsh, intolerant, austere, 96b has too often produced criminal actions, 647b hath looked on no religion scornfully, 5a hath no landmarks, 373b hereditary religion, 334a heat of religious faction, 144a he has no religion who has no humanity, 773a hides many mischiefs, 208a his can't be wrong whose life is in the right, 249b how poor religion's pride, 44b how to make people of one religion, 350a humanities of old religion, 88b humble, meek, etc., everywhere of one religion, 242a I believe all that I can understand, 699b I desire religion when I am sick, 843a I took it as the vulgar do, 325b indifference fatal to, 42a in the heart, not knee, 177b it matters not what religion an ill man is of, 797a jealous of learning, is adverse to knowledge, 9a jest not with religion, 798a justice to God, 563a kingdom insecure without it, 674a lies more in the walk than the talk, 829b luxury of false religion to be unhappy, 332b man a religious animal, 417b man without religion, 157b man without religion like a horse without bridle, 546a men will do anything but live for it, 91a men will wrangle for it, 91a men's extravagances on account of it, 695b much religion but no goodness, 813a multitude the enemy of religion, 28b must have a spice of devil, 84b no disagreement greater than religious, 602b

Religion—contd.

no honour to (compare with) religion, 817a
 no man was ever scared into heaven, 816b no man's religion survives his morals, 816b no need to trouble himself with such thoughts yet, 316a
 no religion but can boast of martyrs, 817a no violence in religion, 465a northern religions, harsh and bitter, 329a not impossibilities enough in religion, 28a of an exceedin' accommodatin' character, 27a once an angel, now a fury, 349a one curb in the mouth of the wild beast man, 268b one is of Martin's, another of Luther's, 822a only one religion, though a hundred versions of it, 323a opposite views reconcilable in religious controversy, 263b Peter is so godly that God does not make him thrive, 825a pledged to Religion, Liberty, and Law, 345b poetry precursor of revealed religion, 187b policy puts on religion's cloak, 345b pure religion and undefiled, 430b pure religion breathing household laws, 396b religion, knavery, and change, 20a religion the product of smaller intestines, 71b religion's tyranny did domineer, 104a religious eloquence, 397b
 religious factions, 42b religious freedom in England, 449b rum and true religion, 62b sets the world at odds, 20b shaken by prospect of guilty ever flourishing, 651b should extinguish strife, 101b sober standard of feeling in, 185b the friend of the friendless, 229b the gods of the greater nations (or lesser nations), 571b the pious worship of the gods, 666b the religion of all men of sense, 457b the weaker sex, to piety more prone, 345b thirty religions in England, 449b
 'tis religion to be true, 328a to conform to any religion, 42b to see clearly is religion, 267a to such a pitch of evil could religion prompt, 668b Tom Bowling's opinion, 334a trust in a God whom no one knows, 381b unbelief a belief, a very exacting religion, 696b undying hatred and a wound not to be cured, 550a unselfishness the only real religion, 408b veils her sacred fires, 254a views of, in ancient Rome, 144a voices to be weighed in religion, 12b what excellent fools religion makes, 183b

Religion—contd.

what is grey with age becomes religion, 88b where mystery begins religion ends, 39a whoso fighteth for religion, we will give him a great reward, 465a without piety, has done more mischief than all other things, 829b Relish of salvation, no, 295b Reluctant, stalked off, 23a Rem judicalem judicat, 561a Remains, be kind to my, 125a Remains to do, think nothing done while aught, 264b of thee, this is all, 56a REMEDIES and REMEDY after bale cometh boote, 731b desperate diseases, desperate remedies, 528b, 751b different sores, different salves, 752a doubtful remedy, better than none, 490a efficacious remedies cause most pain, 603a (remedy) exceeds the disease, 527b for every ill beneath the sun, some remedy, 443a for everything but death, 449a God, who sends the wound, sends the medicine, 767b he becomes worse through remedies, 486a he that bewails himself hath the cure in his own hands, 776a he that will not apply new remedies, 10b
 he who holds out a doubtful chance, gives a denial, 519a herb one knows one should bind to one's finger, 839b if none, submit, and never mind it, 443a in his sleeve (labour), 699b
 it is easy to hurt, hard to cure, 795a more grievous than the offences, 539a off in ourselves do lie, 299a one is not so soon healed as hurt, 822a pills are to be swallowed, not chewed, 825b remedy and wound from same hand, 675a seek your salve where you got your sore, 832a sighing of no avail where remedies are required, 796a slower than illnesses, 669a some remedies are worse than the dangers, 539a there is a remedy for everything, except death, 854b there is a salve for every sore, 856a things without remedy should be without regard, 304b
 time cures more than the doctor, 859a to know the disease is half the cure, 861a too late when the diseases are rooted, 624b where there is right (or law) there is remedy, 674a worse than the disease, 10a, 850b REMEMBER, REMEMBRANCE age lives on remembrance, 880b and if thou wilt remember, 266a

Remember, Remembrance—contd.

bitter to endure may be sweet to remember, 840a forget that I remember, 351b good things look best from the back, 768a how sweet a thing to have remembered, 487a I remember, I remember, 171b I shall remember while the light lives, 351b I will make you remember this place, this day, and me, 529a in continual remembrance, 552b in strong remembrance set, 45a
 it is a pleasure too to remember, 584b it shall never vex me to remember Elisa, 587a less pleasing to live than to remember thee, 542b less sweet than to remember thee, 231b makes the remembrance dear, 299a
 my heart is idly stirred, 400a perhaps it will be a pleasure to remember even these things, 534a pray, love, remember, 296b remember me when I am gone away, 266a remember me when out of sight, 443a remember me when this you see, 443a remember me when Thou comest into Thy kingdom, 575b remember such things were, 305a remembering happier things, 358b remembrance, in misery, of time when we were happy, 715b remembrance of past labours is agreeable, 664a remembrance of past prosperity, 79a remembrance of past troubles is pleasing, 561b remembrance of things past, 321b remembrance of troubles is sweet, 472b rosemary, that's for remembrance, 296b say something to remember, 31b still remember me, 230b the dear remembrance of his dying Lord, 339a to remember and regret, 192b to remember days of joy, 74a vive memor nostri, 686a we will remember them, 22b what was grievous to endure is sweet to remember, 628a who loves well is slow to forget, 706b with remembrance of ourselves, 290a See Memory, Reminiscence Reminiscence: to enjoy memory of past life is to live twice, 544a Reminiscences make one feel delight fully aged and sad, 324a Remnant of uneasy light, 396a REMOSE and Sorrow, 95b begets reform, 100b farewell, remorse, 218b fatal egg, by Pleasure laid, 95b haply with remorse, 399a high minds most deeply feel remorse, 269b without penitence, 160a Remote from man, 241b unfriended, melancholy, 147a

REMOVAL

a plant often removed cannot thrive, 726b fools are aye fond o' flittin', 762a fortune, to overwhelm me, has taken him away, 697a oft-moved stone gathers no moss, 727a, note quick removals are slow prosperings, 829a remove an old tree and it will wither, 829b three removes as bad as a fire, 140b, 858b tree often removed will not bear good fruit, 829b who often removeth is sure of a loss, 374a

Renegades ne'er turn by halves, 123b

Renewed, wish I were, 322a

RENOWN

examples of, grown out of distress, 105b living, shall forfeit fair renown, 272b lure of renown, 230a melancholy ghosts of dead renown, 408a on earth, 222a renown's all hit and miss, 64a speak no more of his renown, 361b

RENT

an end of rent, an end of rank, 193b fair rents, fixity of tenure, 459a her rent is sorrow, 261a king loses his rent where there is nothing to take, 873a light rent, the agrarian alchemy, 61a plough or not, you must pay me your rent, 825b providence is better than a rent, 828a the murdering rent, 38a up with rent, 61a voted millions for rent, 61a where the devil are the rents, 65a

REPAIR

he that repairs not part builds all, 780b neck, legs, and part of body have been repaired, 443b what cannot be repaired, 180b Repast, a new, 1b what neat, 227a

Repeateth, he that, a matter, 414a

REPENT, REPENTANCE

cool repentance came, 274a costs very dear, 829b, note death-bed repentance, 184a disdains not to repent, 257a fierce repentance rears her snaky crest, 369a follows hasty counsel, 679b forethought better than repentance, 473b I ne'er repented anything, 138b is good, innocence is better, 829b is just and easy, 375b neither to change, nor falter, nor repent, 326a never did repent for doing good, 283a never too late to repent, 796a
 never too late to turn, 815a no repentance in the grave, 382a repent what's past, 296a repentance, but want of power to sin, 126b repentance to her lover, 149b

Repent, Repentance—contd.

snivelling signs of repentance, 203b sorrowed to repentance, 429a the May of the virtues, 829b the three things to be repented of, 454b the weak alone repent, 57a try what repentance can, 295b unsinning sin, 35a virtue of weak minds, 127b when one cannot repent, 295b who repents is almost innocent, 631a

REPETITION

a languid, leaden iteration, 405b a law of cycles in all things, 643b behold this Crispinus again, 521a cabbage twice served up is death, 470a crambe repetita, 507a damnable iteration, 313a diner réchauffé ne vaut jamais rien, 709a
 do not promise twice over, 641a do not what is already done, 484a for ever begging for the same things, 525b good things are worth repetition, 470a I record what has been told, 644b in Journalism, 21b it should be a good tale that is twice told, 797a
 like a cuckoo, you have only one song, 878b no wit will bear repetition, 332a oft repeating they believe them, 259a same persons telling the same things to the same people, 475b sickening to hear the same thing a thousand times, 667b sweet often repeated is no longer sweet, 479a take heed of meat twice boiled, 838b ten times repeated it will please, 512a that is never said too often which is never learnt sufficiently, 605a toujours perdrâtes, 708a, note use not vain repetitions, 421b who knows little soon repeats it, 779b Repine, don't, my friends, 113b Replacement: primo avulso, non deficit alter, 624a

REPLIES and REPLY

ambiguous and with double sense deluding, 222b as usual, in few words, 646a for reply too mad, 256a he that replies multiplies, 634a I pause for a reply, 286a theirs not to make reply, 361b

REPORT

an honourable report, a second patrimony, 546b brand him who will with base report, 273a by evil and good report, 429a despise none, and believe none, 594a founded on report, 515a gains strength and speed as it goes, 530b good report, 518b, note good report retains its brightness, 497b If my gossip Report be an honest woman, 282b killed with report, 226b

Report—contd.

let me speak what I have heard, 659a popular report, of great power, 480a report me and my cause aright, 297b report obscured through age, 530b that report is in circulation, 520b the crowd values things according to report, 688a the ill report was less than the truth, 568a their ill report while you lived, 293a whatsoever things are of good report, 429b who hath believed our report, 418a who knows how he may report thy words, 223b

Reporters' gallery, the, 205b

REPOSE

a genius for repose, 381b best of men have ever loved repose, 370b brother to boredom, 700b courtship of repose, 57b fame fatal to repose, 449b foster-nurse of Nature, 306b God has made this repose for us, 514a has earned a night's repose, 197b I long for a repose, 400a statue-like repose, 3b sweet and deep repose, 519b Temperance and Repose, 200a the worship of the world, but no repose, 326b undeserving, undeserved repose, 204a what is virtue but repose of mind, 370b

Representative government, danger of, 160b

Repression: repress the mischief forthwith, with cold steel, 505b the more the fire is covered up the more it burns, 642a

REPROACH

cuts deeper than the sword, 92b her silent looks loudly reproached, 652a sting of, is in its truth, 851b undeserved reproach goes no farther than the ears, 479b universal reproach, 220a

REPROOF

an action without reward, 583b he that sharply chides is most ready to pardon, 781a never does a wise man harm, 829b on her lips, 201a public reproof hardens shame, 828a rebuke should have a grain more of salt than of sugar, 829a reproofs should be grave, not taunting, 102a the reproof valiant, 289b unless you admonish, you hate him whom you love, 631a who merit praise, those best can bear reproof, 247b whom the Lord loveth he reproveth, 413b Reptiles, meanest, found on highest pillars, 809b of the mind, 23a

REPUBLICS

an acrimonious and surly republican, 180a end through luxury, 702b

Republics—contd.

envy, vice of, 198a it is all over with the republic, 484a Republic of Letters, 135a, note, 434b republican form of government the highest, 339a trappings of a monarchy would set up a republic, 438b

REPUTATION

a good name better than precious ointment, 415b a good name rather to be chosen than great riches, 414b a great charge, 722b a reputation dies, 247b an honourable report is a second patrimony, 546b be what thou wouldst be called, 740b better never to be named, 75a commonly measured by the acre, 829b due to your neighbour, 518b, note funeral of his own reputation, 12b get a good name and go to sleep, 765a he that hath an ill-name is half hanged, 765a I have lost my reputation, 301b if one's name be up he may lie in bed, 789a injuries to reputation inestimable, 530b jewel of the soul, 301b men's good opinion safer than money, 497b not commensurate with your labour, 540b nothing so delicate as woman's reputation, 43a often got without merit and lost without crime, 829b
 once fled, never returns, 20b seeking the bubble reputation, 289a serves to virtue as light to a picture, 829b spotless, the purest treasure, 312a take some course for your reputation, 212a that serene companion, a good name, 399a the greatest inheritance, 625a wink a reputation down, 347b wish to be well spoken of, 473a worlds of reputation, but no money in it, 84b wretched to lean on reputation of others, 578b written out of reputation, 22a

REQUESTS

a fool demands much; a greater fool gives it, 720b a good archer needs a good listener, 721b ask much to get little, 739b gracious, sweet requests, 88a prayers into ears stopped up, 637a that ancient and patient request, 8b who asks faint-heartedly teaches how to refuse, 634b Res angusta domi, 541b
Res est ingeniosa dare, 507a Rescue: he who rescues a man against his will, 559a

RESEARCH

an age more curious than devout, 408a I sucked not this out of my fingers' ends, 787b Research—contd.

love it in the moment you detect, 250b nothing but may be found out by research, 594a
 too much inquiry is bad, 862b Researchers, Original, 18a Resemblance: features not different but not the same, 529a similarity the mother of friendship, 475b these hands are not more like, 290b Resentment: cherishing an ever-enduring wound, 487a Germans do not dream of the, this war will arouse, 385a Resentments, nature done with her, 343b Reservedly, he speaks, 257b Reservation: it is an ill counsel that has no escape, 794b Reservation of St. James, 664b, note Reservoir, to keep and spare, 251b Residence, a fortified, 300a Resign, easier to lose than to, 204a Resignation: as God granted it, 262a bow before the Awful Will, 368a let him resign his place like a well-filled guest, 502a over and can't be helped, 111b Resistance, Passive, 450b Resisted, know not what's, 45a Resolute in action, gentle (or mild) in method, 534b, 535a RESOLUTION be of resolute mind, 672a put your foot down where you mean to stand, 828b resolves, and re-resolves, 405a the native hue of resolution, 293b Resort, from all rude, 121a Resource, last: tabula in naufragio, 667a mouse that trusts to one poor hole, 255b RESPECT
 best of lessons to respect thyself, 336a he that respects not is not respected, 781a respect a man, he will do the more, 829b was mingled with surprise, 271b Respectable family, her, 43b means rich, 242a most devilish when, 30a Respected, for once that Peter was, 394a Respicere finem, 533a RESPONSIBILITY
 cure for mischievous boy—make him a monitor, 332b different thing to act and to talk, 160b greater events spring up before me, 571b respect the burden, 450a would have been thought more capable if he had not governed, 571b REST
 above all heights is rest, 714a all things have rest, 357b and a life without deceit, 651a and life innocent of guile, 543a and success are fellows, 829b brave who sink to rest, 232a breeds rust, 829b comes at length, 133b comes from unrest, 714a crept silently to rest, 136a

Rest—contd.

day of sunny rest, 37b fates will give us a long rest, 663a flee away and be at rest, 433b for rest he sighs, 187a from labours, 645a give rest to your body, 643b give them eternal rest, 518b, 645a good rest from sorrow, 351b here rests a man who never rested here, 445a
 I would not break thy rest, 5b if all is darkness, silence, yet 'tis rest, 445a
 in heaven is rest, 551a in the haven, 553a it is well to lie fallow, 373b moan for rest, 4a
 nothing lasting without rest, 640a now cometh rest, 241a now that I am satisfied I rest (in death), 585b
 one of the three physicians, 656b post tot naufragia portum, 623a reluctant, hardest penal toil, 380a repose a good thing but boredom is its brother, 700b rest alone in striving, 787a rest, gentle shade, 445a rest in peace, 645a rest, rest, perturbed spirit, 292a she's at rest, and so am I, 129a so may he rest; his faults lie gently on him, 320b
 some bright isle of rest, 231a springs from strife, 235a the gift of rest for weary feet, 381b the reward of toil, 19b there is rest in virtue, 684b there should I rest and sleep secure, 221b think not of rest, 186a to all the same rest, and to all the same amount of labour, 612b to sink so peacefully to rest, 53b with dignity, 614b
Restless throbblings and burnings,
 751b Restlessness : he builds, pulls down, and changes square to round, 516a he is nowhere who is everywhere, 605b in vain from side to side, 57b mind ever yearns to be doing something, 490b See Unrest, 17a
Restorative, sleep a, 52a RESTRAINT
 cabined, cribbed, confined, 304b for one restraint, 215b is freedom to the wise, 108a oxen and horses taught to endure restraint, 670a remove restraint, and what virtue will remain, 550a restraints upon actions of others, 215a
 she will not brook restraint, 221b RESULTS
 a little fruit a little while is ours, 353a as you sow you shall reap, 677b if better were within, better would come out, 788a it will soon be seen which trees are fruitful, 626b leaves enough, but few grapes, 800a
 little wood much fruit, 804a result proves the action, 528a sowing trees of which the sower will not see the fruit, 491b

Results—contd.

the effect speaks, the tongue need
 not, 731b
 the fields are not all fruitful, 487a the outcome gives deeds their title, 711a
 we shall reap if we faint not, 429b who will reap no one knows, 822b
 who would have the fruit must
 climb the tree, 782b
Resurgens savit amor, 553b Resurrection, in sure and certain hope of the, 433a man's, shrouded in birth of
 morning, 376a
 Retain th' offence, be pardoned and,
 295b
Retaliation : tit for tat is fair play, 859b what you have done to another, you may expect, 482b RETICENCE could think and ne'er disclose her
 mind, 301a
 ever be more knowing than you seem, 345a
 he could not utter his unfettered thoughts, 549a
 he knows most who speaks
 least, 775a
 he that hath knowledge spareth his words, 414a keep your gab steeket when ye kenna your company, 798b little said is soonest mended, 391a silent about more things than he tells, 597b tell no one what you do not wish repeated, 588b
 who knows most says least, 875a Retired as noontide dew, 400a gentle though, 103a in mind and spirit, 139b RETIREMENT
 a few paternal acres, 254b a piece of ground with garden and a stream and woodland, 544a
 a private station, 144a a handsome house to lodge a friend, 255b
 all earth forgot, 231b
 an age of ease, 148a far from the sweet society of men, 258a life innocent of guile, 543a lodge in some vast wilderness, 99a otium cum dignitate, 614b, note retirement, rural quiet, friendship,
 books, 369a
 short retirement urges sweet return, 221a we must recoil to leap the better, 866b weel-bred dog goes oot when they are preparing to kick him oot, 729a would live forgetful and forgotten, 668a
Retort courteous, 289b Retrace one's steps, to, 529b RETREAT
 a brave retreat, 51a better go (or run) back than go wrong, 649a, 743a blessings on the man who said "Right about face," 745a brave retreat is a brave exploit, 718a in a retreat the lame are foremost,
 792b may be success, 31b the loopholes of retreat, 100a well fight that well flight, 866b Retreat—contd.

who retires does not fly, 875b Retrenchment and Reform, 459a RETRIBUTION God cometh with leaden feet, but strieth with iron hands, 767a God strikes with his finger and not with all his arm, 767a God's mill grinds slowly but grinds fine, 767b misdeeds often return to their author, 647a never was wave more just, 682b the god of vengeance works in silence, 712a
 who invented the Maiden first hanselled it, 779a who lives not well one year sorrows seven years after, 780a RETROGRADE
 all things tend to retrograde, 657b growing backward like a cow's tail, 770a
 must retrograde if it does not advance, 144b
 not to advance is to go back, 600a, 818a
RETURN
 back again like a bad penny, 740a from wandering on a foreign strand, 272b he shall return no more to his house, 411a
 hopeless word of never to return, 312a
 I thought that she bade me return, 327b not one returns to tell us, 136a thanks unto the Gods that brought me back, 245b Revealed, contented that thus far hath been, 220b Reveals, while she hides, 230a Revelation, Book of Life ends with,
 388b inspired by divine, 7b Revellers, dissonance of Bacchus and his, 220a Revelry by night, 54b Revels now are ended, 311a REVENGE
 a brave revenge ne'er too late, 240a a confession of pain, 675a a kind of wild justice, 9b a mouthful for a god, 829b ambition and revenge, 221a and malice pause, 47a animal revenge, 31b bitter ere long, 221a call it not revenge . . . 'tis duty, 337b foolish to set your neighbour's house on fire, 663b fought for revenge, not hoping victory, 335a
 I love a dire revenge, 137b if not victory, is yet revenge, 217a is profitable, 144a it costs more to revenge injuries than to bear them, 390b, 793b it will feed my revenge, 282b its own executioner, 140a kindness ever nobler than revenge, 289b living well is the best revenge, 804b meditates revenge, who least complains, 123a my great revenge had stomach for them all, 302b neglect wil kill an injury sooner than revenge, 814a

Revenge—contd.

never repairs an injury, 838a no satisfaction but revenge, 282b on a tyrant, 231b on an enemy is a second life, 556a pardons and pleasantnesses great
 revengers, 824a
 pride waiting revenge, 216b private revenge wild justice, 13b ranging for revenge, 286a study of revenge, 216a study of, keeps wounds green, 9b sweet is revenge, 62a sweet revenge grows harsh, 303a sweeter than flowing honey, 476a sweeter than life, 493b that thirsty dropsy, 212a the delight of a petty, feeble mind, 577b there is no revenge on the rich, 855b time brings in his revengers, 298b to forget a wrong is the best, 849a, 860b too poor, too weak for my revenge, 302a vengeance lies open to patient craft, 629b will beget revenge, 336b women do most delight in revenge, 683a, note
 (women's) as the tiger-spring, 62b Revenue hast, no, but thy good spirits, 294b

REVERENCE

a manner somewhat fallen from reverence, 356b
 a thousand claims to, 356b and the fear that makes men whole, 353a by reverence and religion we have subdued all nations, 620b by the general reverence God is praised, 395a English have false ideas about reverence, 267a he is a good man who keeps the decrees of the Fathers, 683b kingdom insecure without reverence, 674a more of reverence in us dwell, 362a none so poor to do him reverence, 286a reverence sacred things (cole sacra), 686a that angel of the world, (reverence)
 309b

Reverend are ever before, 850b

Reveries so airy, 100a

Reversion in the sky, bright, 254b

Reviewers, to calumniate, 89a Revision: rub out often with your pen, 647b

Revolt, genuine offspring of, 97a not a revolt, a revolution, 690a

REVOLUTION

a crank, a little thing that makes revolutions, 441b contains something of evil, 41b experiments mean revolutions, 116b
 first step to empire, 42b in tumults the worst man has most power, 553b longing not so much to change as to overturn, 601a nothing safer than speed in civil, discords, 592a reforms less to be dreaded than revolutions, 106a revolutions not made with rose-
 water, 205a
 revolutions not to be evaded, 117a Revolution—contd.

the low-born crowd rage in their minds, 648a

REWARD and REWARDS

all for love and nothing for reward, 340a

as teachers give little cakes to their boys, 630a

buffets and rewards, 294b desert and reward seldom keep company, 751b

due rewards for industry, 543a farewell, Rewards and Fairies, 440b

for duty, not for meed, 288b garlands not for every brow, 764b

I will recompense, saith the Lord,
 427a

I will requite your loves, 290b is the reward of virtue bread?

 249b

no work, no recompense, 817b none without work, 605b of a thing well done, 133a of right action is to have done it, 643b

regarded and rewarded, 183a reward of merit in war, 496a rewards after battles, 623a rulers should be swift in rewards, 651b sweet rewards 'tis folly to decline, 181b

there is a reward for what is done, 613a

though a late, a sure reward, 93a to follow up two matters for one

 reward, 861a

virtue requires no reward, 562a who would embrace virtue if its rewards were removed, 668b worthy of my ability, 510a

See Prize

Rhasis, 40b

RHETORIC

art of ruling the minds of men, 448a

dear wit and gay rhetoric, 225b flowers of rhetoric, 350a for rhetoric he could not ope, 50b insinuations, the rhetoric of the devil, 712a

more truth than rhetoric, 211a rhetoric of a look, 106a rhetoric of a silver fee, 142b rhetoric of thine eye, 277b

Rhetorica verba colorat, 538a spare your rhetoric and speak logic, 836b

truth needs not rhetoric, 214b whole streams of pure rhetoric, 133b

Rhetorician, a sophistical, 118b

Rhetoricians are vanquished, 502a

Rheum, how now, foolish, 311b

Rhine, castled, 197a lordly, lovely, 69a majestic, 54b wash the river, 88a wide and winding, 54b

Rhinoceros, the armed, 304b

Rhodes, C. J., 190a

Rhone, the arrowy, 55a

Rhubarb up, is your, 464a

Rhubarbe, passez moi la, 705a

RHYME

a sort of Runic rhyme, 245b and build the lofty rhyme, 226a beauty making beautiful old rhyme, 322a

began to enervate poetry, 125a debased the majesty of verse to,

 124b

Rhyme—contd.

ding-dong chime of sing-song
 rhyme, 336a

dock the tail of rhyme, 167b fine-tinkling rhyme, 182b fools in rhyme, 253a hanged for very honest rhymes, 252b

honied lies of rhyme, 53a

I received nor rhyme nor reason
 341b

I've written rhymes, 62a invention of a barbarous age, 223a is the rock, 123b

just a rhymers, 46b man of rhymes, 253a master of unmeaning rhyme, 60a modern bondage of rhyming, 223

Nature looks prettily in rhyme,
 98b

no necessary adjunct to a poem, 223a

not born under a rhyming planet, 285a

pair their rhymes, 63b

Pope on rhymes, 247a rhyme directed to Jack and Tom, 203b

rhyme nor reason, 12a

rhyme themselves into ladies'
 favours, 316b

rhyming and the devil, 256a shall outlive this powerful rhyme, 321b

some extemporal god of rhyme, 277a

the rudder of verses, 51a

to be hitched into a rhyme, 270a uncouth rhymes and shapeless sculpture, 154a

Rhythms that sprawl, 381a

Rialto, five fathom under the, 58a Riband bound, give me but what this, 377a

in the cap of youth, 296b to stick in his coat, 36a

Ribs, with over-weathered, 282b

Rice, for good luck, old shoes for
 bonnie bairns, 830a

handful of riches to a starving man, 723a

RICH and RICHES

a rich man either a villain or a villain's heir, 517a

a rich man will carry nothing to the other world, 593b

a rich man's joke, 27a

a rich man's superfluities, 90b all things done magnificently by the rich, 482a

as long as rich a barbarian is delightful, 520a

best riches, ignorance of wealth, 148a

beyond the dreams of avarice, 230a, note

change generally pleasing to the rich, 621a

curse not the rich, 416a dare to despise riches, 493b desiring to become rich quickly 583b enervating riches, 624a enlarge rather than satisfy appetites, 830a expectation of riches the cause of poverty, 517b

for richer, for poorer, 433a get riches if at great things thou wouldst arrive, 222b

God help the rich; the poor can beg, 766b

he heapeth up riches, 412b

Rich and Riches—contd.

he may love riches that wanteth them, 18b he that maketh haste to be rich, 415a he's only rich who cannot tell his store, 346a how hardly shall they that have riches enter into kingdom of God, 425a I holde him riche, al hadde he not a sherte, 78a if you are rich you will have many friends, 470b if riches increase, 29a, 412b infinite riches in a little room, 208a inordinate love of, 432b jests of the rich ever successful, 151a let the rich deride, 148b love of riches the sign of a little mind, 618a Man's rich with little, 404b men's minds and cares not lightened by riches, 590b mind maketh rich or poor, 341a neither rich nor rare, 252a no good man suddenly becomes rich, 645a no just man ever became rich all at once, 476b no sin but to be rich, 311b power given only to the rich, 510b put aside strife for riches, 578b rich and poor meet together, 414b rich from want of wealth, 135b
 rich gifts wax poor, 294a rich grow poor, 96b
 rich in having such a jewel, 281a
 rich men have no faults, 830a rich men have seldom good counsel, 570b rich men rule the law, 147b rich, not gaudy, 291a rich to yourself, poor to your friends, 524b rich with an empty heart, 235a rich with forty pounds a year, 148a rich without a fault, 256b richer than millions who want nothing, 135b riches akin to fear, change, cowardice, death, 397a riches are dug out of earth, 521a riches are exposed to danger, 673b riches are for spending, 11a riches certainly make themselves wings, 414b riches desired for enjoyment of pleasures, 528b riches have wings, 11a, 830a riches increase but there is always something wanting, 550b riches of Nature, 228a riches grow in hell, 216b riches not to men of understanding, 416a riches that the world bestows, 383a ring out the feud of rich and poor, 363a Satan tempts by making rich, 251b
 she was rich and he was poor, 269a slaves of the rich are slaves indeed, 517b spleen seizes the rich, 347b the divinity of being rich, 263a the potentiality of growing rich, 179b

Rich and Riches—contd.

the rich knows not who is his friend, 850b
 the rich man hate the poor, 236b there the richest was poor, 198a those who have wealth will be distinguished, brave, upright, 612b unsearchable riches of Christ, 429b very radical and very rich, 7a
 we give to the rich and take from the poor, 866b what are riches, 92b when rich villains have need of poor ones, 300a who would be rich in a year will be hanged in half a year, 830a world affords no law to make thee rich, 280a See Wealth
 Richard's himself again, 83a Richelieu, Cardinal, story of, 691a Richmonds, six, in the field, 319b Ruhncken, Professor, 258a Ricordarsi del tempo felice nella miseria, 715b Riddle of the world, 248b ye had not found out my, 410a Riddles: I am Davus, not (Edipus, 511a Ridden, saddled and bridled to be, 457b Ride and fall, better go on foot than, 214b a bit of blood, folks that, 170b abroad, when he next doth, 98b booted and spurred to, 457b nothing like a rattling, 258b Rider, a proud, on so proud a back, 320b and horse,—friend, foe, 54b on his back he had a, 65b unequalled, 387b worse for thee, the better for the bider, 853b Rides seldom, loses the spurs, 832a See Horsemanship, 796a RIDICULE
 a truly good action beyond ridicule, 135a better you laugh than I greet, 744a crow, stripped of stolen colours, moves our ridicule, 580b he is laughed at who blunders always with the same string, 646b he that mocks a cripple ought to be whole, 780b I hasten to laugh at all things, 695a I'll use you for my mirth, 286b it is easier to, than to command, 795a Lord, make my enemies very ridiculous, 449a mockery is often poverty of wit, 697b mockery is the fume of little hearts, 366a most would rather be hated than laughed at, 332b one half the world laughs at the other half, 821b ries donc, beau rieur, 707a the test of truth, 80b, 830a the world prevailed and its dread laugh, 369b what is viler? 637b Ridiculous, the sublime and the, 241a, 692a Rifuto, il gran, 715a Rift, the little, within the lute, 364b

RIGHT (correct or rightful) afraid of being in the right, 40b all are right and all are wrong, 214a all is right as right can be, 146b and wrong: virtue's path, and error's, 636a aye maintain the right, 19a aye uphold the right, 206b be sure you are right; then go ahead, 457b better a penny with right than a thousand without, 742a both right, both wrong, 344a by any sort of right or wrong, 639a choose what is right, 587b, 613b differs utterly from the expedient, 531a do that which is right, come what come may, 753a fool thinks nothing right unless done by him, 663b forgetful of right and wrong, 635b God will give right the upper hand, 144b gods are mindful of right and wrong, 654b good man not to be deterred from doing right, 482b have regard to what is right, not to what is allowable, 636a he that hath right, fears, 778b heaven still guards the right, 312b I care and pray for what is right, 637b if inwardly right, do not vex yourself, 558b in the right with two or three, 201a is wrong and wrong is right, 337a left'st the right path for the wrong, 270b let right be done, and the world perish, 532a live as it is right for us, not as it pleases us, 601b long time is overborne of wrong, 340b makes Might, 196b mashing up right and wrong, 73a might and right and sovran Zeus, 245b my right there is none to dispute, 102a never shall right kiss wrong and die not, 354a never valued right or wrong, 127b noisy man always in the right, 97b not always right in all men's eyes, 168a nothing right they do, 438b nothing right but what pleases themselves, 594a nothing is right, nothing is just, 330a now right is wrong, 340b now and then right by chance, 97b ordering right, forbidding the opposite, 648a passionate love of right, 235b praiseworthy to do what is right, not what is lawful, 564b spake much of right and wrong, 222a stalwart for the right, 648b swift-footed to uphold the right, 266a that ever I was born to set it right, 292a

 the reward is to those who make right appear wrong, 544a to do a great right, do a little wrong, 283b

Right (correct or rightful)—contd.

too fond of the right, 149a
 what is right inseparable from what is glorious, 512a whatever is, is right, 248b where there is right there is remedy, 674a wrongs no man, 830a you're more right than wrong, 38a

RIGHTS (legal or lawful) a right may sleep, but never dies, 518b greater right should include the

 less, 508a
 it's a rank courtesy where a man has to give thanks for his own, 797b know their rights and knowing dare maintain, 182a lost by disuse, 526b men's inalienable rights, 176b neither bribe nor lose thy right, 814b no right where the right is uncertain, 674a popular rights, 106a right of all to all things, 562b rights of a property to be enjoyed by a successor, 632z rights of property, 182a submitted rights, 177b what rights are his that dare not strike for them, 365b who loathes his due getteth no thanks, 875a
 who exercises his own right injures no one, 632b wrenched their rights, 358a

RIGHTEOUS andRIGHTEOUSNESS

be not righteous over much, 415b have I not seen the righteous, forsaken 412b, 433b
 I looked for righteousness, but beheld a cry, 417a makes for righteousness, 6a rigid righteous, 45a righteous are bold as a lion, 415a righteous in his own eyes, 411b righteous tormented, guilty flourishing, 651b righteousness and peace have kissed each other, 413a righteousness as filthy rags, 418a righteousness exalteth a nation, 414a the righteous shall live by faith, 426b what is all righteousness, 96a

Rigour relents, my, 40a oppressors and, 43a

Riled, no sense in gittin', 158a

Rill, the sun-loved, 213a

Rills, chime of tinkling, 95b

Rinascè più gloriosa, 715b

Rind, sweet as the, the core is, 351b

RINGS

a bright gold ring, 231a
 a gold ring in a swine's snout, 636a better nae ring than ring of a rush, 743b
 do not put your finger in too tight a ring, 752b do not wear God's image in a ring, 551a ring posies, 164b, 740b ring that looked like a ruby, 146a ruby well set in the ring, 79a the posy of a ring, 295a the small circle of a wedding-ring, 83a with this ring I thee wed, 433a worn out by constant use, 531b

Ring like that feat in the, 173b

Ring out the old, ring in the new,
 363a

Rings, of which all Europe, 227b

Ringers, all that prize your health, 466b

Ringin', his name in my ear was ever, 325b

Ringlets are in taste, her, 197a

Riot shuts the door against reason, 406b

Riotous living, 424b

RIPE and RIPENESS

best fruits slowest in ripening, 841a

better late ripe than early blossom and blast, 743a early ripe, soon rotten, 754a, 836a from hour to hour we ripe and ripe, 288b

he that eats the hard shall eat the ripe, 777a

no fruit worse than that which never ripens, 856a putting in my sickle ere 'tis ripe, 169a ripeness is all, 307a ripest fruit first falls, 312b till we be rotten can we not be rype, 809b

what shelter to grow ripe, 5a Ripples on the sea, thy works and mine as, 352b

Rise, all things that, fall, 506b created half to, 248b hope to, or fear to fall, 403a perchance to fall, 269b

the higher up the greater fall, 846b

to rise by another's disaster, 560a whose blameless wishes never aimed to, 264a

Risen, all things, will fall, 611a nothing poorer than a low-bred man who has risen, 493a

Risen man (novus homo), 602a Risibility, what provokes you to,

 181a

Risk, boundless, for boundless gain, 236a

if we must fail let us face the hazard, 654a

sometimes risk a fall, 334a

Risu cognoscere matrem, 554b

Risu, solventur tabulae, 660b

Risus, sub persona, 541a

Rite, no noble, 296b the outworn, 386b

Rites unholy, 68a

Ritualist, a poor, 70b

RIVALRY

an two men ride a horse, 284b difficult to preserve justice when trying to excel others, 619a do not attempt to rival the powerful, 623a

dwellers on river-banks (rivals), 373a

each upon his rival glared, 271a endure a rival with patience, 646b good for mortals, 467a

I taught you to swim and you drown me, 787b love and worship like no rivals, 805b nothing beautiful done in rival-ship, 267b

one may hope to do what another does, but may labour vainly, 656b potter is at enmity with potter, 864b priole alone must tarre the mastiffs

 on, 298b

Rivalry—contd.

rivalship of power, 386a

so doth the greater glory dim the
 less, 284a

tempting, dangerous rivals, 105a to love yourself without a rival 650b, 658b

two of a trade seldom agree, 864b two proud men cannot ride on one ass, 865a

two stars keep not their motion in one sphere, 314b

valour spurred him on, 663a victory does not like rivalry, 646b

RIVER and RIVERS

a river contending with the sea, 534a

a sea-green river, 397b a thousand years hence the river will run as it did, 729a all do what they can for the sea, 733b

all run into the sea, 415a at my garden's end, 255b, 349b by shallow rivers, 208a deepest river flows with smallest noise, 833a

do not cross the river if you cannot see the bottom, 790b down the river did glide, 87a follow the river and you will find

 the sea, 762a

fountains mingle with river, 327a like thee, noble river, 191a mountain and river are good

 neighbours, 726a

rivers are roads which move, 702b river past and God forgotten, 750b rivers mingle with ocean, 327a rivers need a spring, 830a sea refuses no river, 850b shallow waters make most din, 833a the great street paved with water, 209a the river glideth at his own sweet will, 395a

the rivers Tweed and Till, 864b the thronged river, 85b, note they stand on the brink of that mighty river, 325b to see unknown rivers, 548b water rights a source of contention, 373a

weariest river winds to sea, 352a

Rivulet of text through a meadow of margin, 328a

ROAD and ROADS

below me, the road, 344b had you seen this road before it was made, 439a

here is the place where the way divides, 543a

keep the common road, 798b long, forlorn, uncomfortable way, 256b

man may speer the gate he kens fu' weel, 725a not passable, not even jackassable, 442b

on a lonesome road, 86b rule of the road, 439b the beaten road is the best, 840b the way is an ill ne ghhour, 852b the white road westwards, 209a we must not change our road, 186b you cannot be lost on a straight road, 878b

you must be content sometimes with rough roads, 880a

Roam, where'er I, 147a who have been induced to, 63a

Roaming, we own the right of, 267a

Roar, a hungry lion give a grievous, 263b all like bears, 418a to set the table on a, 297a you as gently as any sucking-dove, 280b
Roars so loud, what act that, 295b
Roast beef of Old England, 134b
Rob Roy's name, 395b Rob a neighbour whom he had promised to defend, 206a Robbed, he that is, not wanting what is stolen, 302a if it wasn't we been, 384b Robber, Barabbas was a, 426a Robbers spring from the night, 677a Robbery, neither begging, borrowing, nor, 212a retrenching the superfluities of mankind, 143a
we all love to appropriate the belongings of others, 708a Robs himself, who, 94a Roberto, experto crede, 528a Robes and furred gowns hide all,
307a ye weave, another bears, 327a Robespierre, 72b
Robin, all men call their brother, 392b ROBIN, The nest of robin not to be harried, 850b pious bird with the scarlet breast, 392b robin redbreast and the wren, 463a Robin Redbreast in a cage, 23b the household bird, 120a the redbreast sacred to the household gods, 370a Robin Hood, a famous man is, 395b many talk of, 808a tales of, good enough for fools, 839a Robinson Crusoe (Johnson's praise
of), 181a
the greatest educational treatise, 692b
Robinson, John P., 201b Robust but not Herculean, 57a ROCK AND ROCKS
draw a charm from rocks, 260b hard rocks are hollowed by soft water, 636b like a rock unmoved by violence and threats, 675b no rock so hard but wave may beat admission, 360b reply by heaving rocks, 158b rifted rocks, 225b Rock of Ages, 372b, note Rock of offence, 417a rocks that are steepest, 436a rocky summits, split and rent, 270b the Rock of Ages, there, from whence they flow, 337b the rock stood the sea's shock, 209b
the rocks pure gold, 281b the tall rock, 393b this rock shall fly, 271a what is harder than rock, 636b whereon greatest men have wrecked, 222b
Rocked in the cradle of the deep,
390a Rocking-horse, swayed about upon
a, 184b
Rod, he that spareth his, 414a man makes for himself, 79a never spares the, 171b

Rod of iron, rule them with a, 431b on his child, who will not use, 141b spare the, 51b, 836b throw away thy, 164a thy and thy staff comfort me, 412a who spares the, 633b Rods, the sceptres of schoolmasters,
532a
Roger, just like, 464b Roger de Coverly, Sir, 2b, 3a ROGUES
a more praternotorious rogue, 139a a round-about fool, 89a every inch not fool is rogue, 123b is often only a fool, 680b
no rogue like the godly rogue, 817a nobody calls himself a rogue, 817b nothing more like an honest man than a rascal, 818b one rogue suspects another, 82a one rogue usher to another, 257b to a rogue a rogue and a half, 859b what a rogue and peasant slave, 293a when rogues fall out, 870b See Knaves
Roi est mort, vive le roi, 700b Roi le veut, 700b Roi s'avisera, 700b
Roland, Child, 306b
Roland for his Oliver, 787b Roll of common men, 314a Roller, doesn't strike the bloke that 'as to push the, 376b Rolling stone does not produce seaweed, 727a gathers no moss, 727a, note ROMANCE AND ROMANTIC a romance leaves one so un-romantic, 388a fierce wars and faithful loves shall moralize my song, 339a filming them over with romances, 121b if folly grow romantic, 251a if this were played upon a stage now, 298a
is always young, 387a life still hath one romance, 383a to make our love romantic, 59b ROMAN AND ROMANS
a blunt flat people (Romans), 193a after the high Roman fashion,
307b buttons of a Roman's breeches, 391a gens togata, 537b
I'm a Roman for that, 134a last of all the Romans, 287a last of the, 646b, 675a more an antique Roman, 297b nature of a Roman to do and suffer bravely, 524b nothing romantic co-exists with Roman, 193a
Roman mob follows fortune as ever, and hates the condemned, 673a Roman people ruined by treats and doles, 448b so great a labour to found the Roman race, 668a so rude that would not be a Roman, 286a
terror of Roman name, 670b the noblest Roman of them all, 287a we have vanquished the Romans; we are beaten by Horatius, 647a Roman Catholic Church, 74b, 206a Roman Catholic religion, why players embraced, 349b

ROME
a man may speir the gate to, 725a a thousand roads lead men to,
733b all roads lead to, 733b all things at Rome have their price, 611b
all things saleable at Rome, 612a and its antiquities, 85a, note and lay thou on for Rome, 206b at Rome no one wonders at anything, 646b
at Rome you long for the country, 646b
big with the fate of Rome, 240a broke the keys of Rome, 269b but that I loved Rome more, 286a caput mundi, 500a Cato and of Rome, 1a could never make this island all her own, 377a enervated by good fortune, 536a eternal, 646b everyone soon or late comes round by Rome, 35a folly to live in Rome and strive with the Pope, 795a fortunate Rome, born when I was consul, 606b France, Britain, and Rome, 703b girls of Rome as numerous as the stars, 642a
gross yoke of Rome, 32a has spoken; the case is ended, 646b hates those not worth devouring, 646b her own sad sepulchre, 252a I cannot bear to see Rome made Grecian, 600a
I imagined Rome like our own town, 676a liberty and Rome, 1a London the common sewer of
Rome, 177b
men will doubt of Rome, 63b
palmy state of Rome, 290a queen of nations, 345b raised not art, 125a Romæ Tibur amem, 646b Rome only might to Rome compared be, 341b smoke wealth and hubbub of Rome, 536b
spurns those who do not give,
646b stands by its ancient customs, 580a
step by step one gets to Rome, 837b the Church of Rome, 74b the grandeur that was Rome, 245b the hook-nosed fellow of Rome, 315b the Paradise, the grave, the city, and the wilderness, 326b was not built in a day, 830a was where Camillus dwelt, 679b when at Rome do as Rome does,
869b when Rome falls, falls the world, 55b where now the mighty Empire?
398a
where the Pope is, Rome is, 873a who goes to Rome a beast returns a beast, 832a who has a tongue can go to Rome, 778a yet perished fated Rome, 239a
you cruel men of Rome, 285a Romeo, wherefore art thou, 278b Romulus and Remus, those that Rome did found, 438*a* Roof, arched and ponderous, 92*b* no, to shroud his head, 166*a* Roof-tree, my wide, 7*a* Room and verge enough, ample,

 155*a*
 sad soul retires into her inmost, 124*a*
 Rooms, empty, make ladies foolish, 740*a*
 Rooshans, some people may be, 113*b* Roosian, he might have been a,
 145*b*
 Root is ever in the grave, 163*b* the insane, 303*b* they shake the tree at the, 353*a* though my heart be at the, 358*b* Rope (poet) capable of walking on a stretched rope, 549*b* do not throw, after bucket, 753*a* give a fool, and he'll hang himself, 765*a*
 name not a, in the house of him that hanged himself, 813*b* not a penny left to buy a, 587*a* take a thick, and hang yourself, 646*a*
 that hangs my dear, on the, 143*a* this, has dragged in nothing, 543*b* to break by overstraining, 537*a* Rosa, sub, 524*a* Rosabelle, the lovely, 272*b*
ROSES
 a rose between two thorns, 727*b* a rose by any other name, 28*b* a wreath of roses, 19*a* and without thorn the rose, 218*b* as though a rose should shut, 185*a* bind the roses whilst they and you are young, 503*b* bloom of the rose passes, 105*a* blown from its parent stem, 330*a* cropt this fair rose, 240*b* die of a rose in aromatic pain, 248*b* earthly happier is the rose distilled, 280*a* fair as rose in May, 80*a* fair flower, untimely plucked, 322*b* fairest when 'tis budding new,
 271*a*
 Flower o' the Rose, 33*a* fresher than the morning, 369*b* from thy dead leaves let fragrance rise, 385*b*
 full of sweet days and roses, 163*b* gather the rose of love, 340*a* gather therefore the roses whilst yet in prime, 164*b*, note, 340*a* go, lovely rose, 377*a* he wears the rose of youth, 307*b*
 I cared not for glory's rose, 352*a*
 I lost love's rose, 352*a* I will woo the dainty rose 171*b* in winter command a high price,
 642*b*
 like a neglected rose, 225*b* like a red, red rose, 49*a* lilies contending with roses in her cheeks, 211*a* lovely is the rose, 400*b* make the world so sweet, 207*a* never a rose without a thorn, 814*b*, 817*a*
 never be friends again with roses, 351*a*
 not roses alone are flowers, 175*b* often close to the nettle, 670*b* one day ends its life, 75*a* ravage with impunity a rose, 31*a* rears the new-born roses, 352*b* red as a rose, 86*b* reddens to a rose, 380*a*

Roses—cont'd.
 rich and purposeless as the rose,
 243*b*
 rod of criticism wreathed with roses, 118*b*
 rose and lily seem to have souls, 668*b*
 rose of the fair state, 294*a* rose that all are praising, 18*b* roses all that's fair adorn, 385*a* roses and white lilies, 3*b*, 69*b* roses are her cheeks, 363*b* roses fade and shadows shift, 131*a* roses in December, 60*a* roses, roses, all the way, 32*b* scent of the roses, 231*b* sweet musk-roses, 280*b* sweet rose whose hue, angry and brave, 163*b* sweetest flower for scent that blows, 326*a*
 sweetest washed with morning dew, 271*a* that lives its little hour, 37*a* the canker to the rose, 226*a* the flower dedicated to Silence, 524*a*
 the flower of Venus, 524*a*, 664*b*,
 note
 the last rose of summer, 231*b* the rose is red, the violet's blue, 462*b*
 the rose of enjoyment, 231*a* the sow loves bran better than roses, 851*a* there's a bower of roses, 232*b* time brings roses, 859*a* under the rose (sub rosa), 664*b*,
 note
 voted the rose the Queen of Flowers, 164*a* what though the rose have prickles, 320*b*
 Rosebud set with little wilful thorns, 360*a*
 Rosebuds, gather ye, 164*b* let us crown ourselves with, 164*b*, note, 419*a*
 Rosemary, that's for remembrance,
 296*b*
 Rot and rot, from hour to hour we,
 288*b*
 Rot, to lie in cold obstruction and
 to, 300*a* Rotten at the heart, 282*a* in the state of Denmark, something is, 291*b* Rough and ready man, 33*b* exterior, genius under a, 493*a* how them how we will, 297*a* to common men, 360*a* Roughness breedeth hate, 10*a* Round, in the heaven a perfect, 34*b* and round, or else goes, 75*b* the trivial, 185*b* this weary mortal, 44*a* Roundabout, this great, 102*b* Roundelay, my merry, 242*a* Rousseau, last words, 695*a* Rout, one of the pleasures of having
 a, 173*a*
 Roving, we'll go no more a-, 61*b* Row, one way, and look another,
 861*b*
 Rowed along, as he, 110*b* Royal Academy, London, 341*a* Royal Society, the, 130*a* Rub, ay, there's the, 293*b* Rubicon: Iacta alea esto, 561*a* Rubicon, passing the, 453*a* Rubies grew, some asked me where
 the, 164*b*
 Rubric letters, in, 204

Ruby well set in the ring, 79*a* Rude am I in my speech, 300*b* and scant of courtesy, 272*b* who so, that would not be a Roman, 286*a*
 Rudeness, a sauce to his good wit,
 285*b*
 Rudiments, weak and beggarly, 429*a* Rue and thyme grow in one garden,
 830*a*
 Rue, nought shall make us, 312*a* Rue, wear your, with a difference,
 296*b*
 Rue, they are blest that have not much to, 380*a* Ruffles, sending them, when wanting a shirt, 149*a* Rug's twofold use, the, 148*b* note RUIN and RUINS a fairer sight perchance than when it frowned in power, 337*b* final ruin fiercely drives her ploughshare, 408*a* folly leads mortals to destruction, 663*b*
 Fortune, when she would ruin, makes a man a fool, 663*b* gathers ruin as it rolls along, 370*a* going to ruin is silent work, 767*b* havoc, and spoil, and ruin, 218*a* he bears the seed of ruin, 5*b* he has made his way by ruin, 537*b* infatuation precedes destruction, 793*a*
 never so happy as when told they
 are ruined, 237*a*
 one day the ruin of us both, 549*a* red ruin and the breaking-up of laws, 366*a* road to ruin is in good repair, 850*b* ruin seize thee, ruthless king, 155*a* ruin upon ruin, rout on rout, 218*a* ruins beauteous in decay, 46*a* ruins of the noblest man, 286*a* ruin's ploughshare, 45*a* sink on the wild waves of ruin, 326*a*
 some should be ruined for good
 of others, 349*b*
 success has brought many to ruin, 665*a*
 the new years ruin and rend, 351*a* their own ruin on themselves to invite, 224*a* to what ruin are you impelled, 639*b*
 lovely in death the beauteous ruin, 405*b*
 majestic though in ruin, 217*a* men moralise among ruins, 117*b* new life blossoms from the ruins, 710*b*
 remains of rude magnificence, 269*b*
 the falling ruins will strike him undismayed, 550*a* time adornor of the ruin, 55*b* when a man is ruined, 134*b* yet what ruin, 55*b* Ruiner, turn and combat the, 149*b* RULE and RULES (regulations) a few plain rules, 397*a* a little rule, 129*b* false rules pranked in reason's garb, 225*b* fetter reason with perplexing rules, 246*a* good old rule, the simple plan, 395*b*
 long the way to learning by rules, 568*a* no use in hard and fast rules, 141*b* old and empty rules, 348*b*

Rule and Rules (regulations)—contd.
 rule of not too much, 221*b* rule of rules to observe laws of place where you are, 690*a* rules and models destroy genius and art, 159*b* there is no rule which does not fail, 843*b* to live by rule, 20*b* RULERS and RULE (government) a rarer spirit never did steer humanity, 307*b*
 a virtue in a chief to have known his followers, 624*b* better to rule than be ruled by the rout, 744*a* chiefs are mortal; the Commonwealth is immortal, 624*b* Commonwealth cannot be well administered under many, 600*a* desire of rule most vehement of passions, 509*b*
 evil example does more harm than actual sin, 621*b* hate to tyrants' rule, 5*a* he that only rules by terror, 359*a*
 he that stands high should not steer too quickly, 781*b* he that would command must serve, 782*b*
 he who commands should have obeyed, 631*b*
 he who fears odium does not
 know how to rule, 609*a*
 if she rules him never shows she
 rules, 251*a*
 if you reign, command, 655*a* let there be one only ruler, 476*b* moderation and abstinence their best methods, 602*b* no one can rule except one who can be ruled, 588*b* no ruler sins as long as he is a ruler, 469*a* one who can rule and dare not lie, 363*b*
 Prince exists for State, not the State for the Prince, 624*b* resolved to ruin or to rule, 122*b* restore thy light to thy country, 568*a*
 rule will prove the man, 469*a* rulers should be moved by justice, not anger, 613*b* should examine both sides, 678*b* such as the leading men such is the State, 629*a*, note talents of soldier and ruler differ, 590*a*
 the demi-Atlas of this earth, 307*a* the good seaman is known in bad weather, 845*a*
 the highest seat will not hold two,
 665*b*
 the sweets of sovereign rule, 255*b* the world is ruled by asses, 741*b* to be slow in punishing, swift in rewarding, 651*b* who heed the murmurs of the
 poor, 386*b*
 who knows not how to dissemble knows not how to reign, 633*a*
 who made thee a ruler and a judge, 426*a*
 wise governor not trained in battles, 396*b* wise, upright, valiant, not a servile band, 397*a* wretched (rulers) who prefer to be feared rather than loved, 559*a* RULING PASSION
 conquers reason still, 251*b*

Ruling Passion—contd.
 search then the ruling passion, 250*b*
 strong in death, 251*a* Rum and true religion, 62*b* Rumbel, delighting ever in, 78*a* RUMOUR
 a great traveller, 830*b* a noisy rumour, 530*b* all who heard it made enlargements, 255*a* any rumour worth listening to in calamity, 484*b* baseless rumours, 679*a* begun by ill-will, fostered by credulity, 647*a* common fame hath a blister on its tongue, 748*b* common fame is mostly to blame, 748*b*
 common fame is seldom to blame, 748*b*
 echo of a London coffee-house, 349*a*
 every man's fear gives strength to rumour, 657*b* flies through the small town, 530*b* foul whisperings are abroad, 305*a* gains strength and speed as it flies, 530*b*
 has a hundred tongues, a voice of iron, 567*a*
 hearsay is half lies, 784*b*
 he behoves to have mel enow, that sal stop ilka man's mou', 772*a*
 he did esteem public rumour above safety, 676*a* History a distillation of rumour,
 72*a*
 increases as carried, each teller adding something, 542*b* innate desire of men to foment rumours, 557*a* is a liar, 830*b* laughs at falsehoods of rumour, 504*b*
 nothing swifter than rumour, 603*b* popular report is of great power, 480*a*
 report can never be made to state things with precision, 605*a* rumour founded on rumour, 515*a* the slight rumour of fame, 485*a* the unhappy report circulates throughout the city, 543*b*
 'They say so' is half a lie, 857*a* to despise popular talk, 622*b* to scatter doubtful rumours, 488*b*, 661*a*
 what everyone says must be true, 867*b*
 who knows little soon repeats it, 779*b*
 Run on, for ever will, 94*a* away, not wit enough to, 52*a* him in, 464*b* ill, he can, that canna gang, 772*a* Runneth away, man that, may fight again, 435*b* Running slow he standeth fast, 172*a* what is the use of, on the wrong road, 868*a* you look like a runner, said the devil to the crab, 790*b* Runs away, he that fights and, 435*b* away, who fights and, 150*a* may read, he that, 101*b*, 186*a*, 419*a* twice his race, 94*a* Rupert of debate, 118*a*, 204*b* RURAL LIFE and RUSTICITY a country life, 125*a*

Rural Life and Rusticity—contd.
 a countryman, one of nature's philosophers, 647*a* a refined rusticity, 398*b* a rustic roughness awkward and loutish, 493*a* all country people hate each other, 159*b*
 country-folk best weeping, worst rejoicing, 647*a*
 exempt from public haunt, 288*a* far from gay cities and the ways of men, 257*b* feigned Arcadian scenes, 96*b* happy he who has known the divinities of the country, 535*b* he that would trick a peasant must bring one with him, 716*b* pure pleasures of the rural life, 370*a* Rustic life and poverty, 69*a* sweet forgetfulness (of rural life), 607*b*
 there is more harm in the village than is dreamt of, 716*b* they will lay aside their rustic
 mind, 528*b*
 virtue allures the more rustic minds, 684*a* week's rural employments described, 134*a* Ruse contre ruse, 751*b* Ruskin on railroads, 267*a* Ruskin, people talked of, now they talk of drains, 378*b* Russell, Lord John, self-confidence
 of, 332*a* Russell's milder blood the scaffold wet, 398*b*
RUSSIA
 a night in Russia, 290*b* despotism tempered by assassination, 699*b*, note that o'ergrown Barbarian, 357*a* Rust and moth doth corrupt, 432*b* critics in, 2*a* foul cankering, 321*a* his good sword, 87*a* much rust needs a rough file, 813*a* of the whole week, 2*b* the sacred, 252*a* to rust unburnished, 358*b* wastes more than use, 830*b* Rusty, for want of fighting, 51*a* Ruth, in zeal a, 444*a* Ruth, towards others full of, 266*a* Rye, sow in dust, 836*b* coming thro' the, 440*a*

S

SABBATH a Sabbath profaned, 440*a* a Sabbath well spent, 440*a* backs his rigid Sabbath, 170*a* hallow thus the sabbath day, 86*a* he who ordained the sabbath, 167*b* holy reverence for, 60*a* of eternal rest, 345*b* of the year (autumn), 197*a* once a week, upon our Sabbath
 day, 341*a*
 Sabbath-drawler of old saws, 357*a* Sabbathless Satan, 191*b* the poor man's day, 152*b* the Sabbath was made for man, 424*a*
 thy Sabbaths (Italy's) will be soon our own, 95*b*
 See Sunday
 Sable silvered, 290*b*
 Sables, I'll have a suit of, 294*b*

Sabrina fair, 225^b Sack, an old, asketh much patching, 736^b before it is full, it is good tying the, 795^b bind the, before it is full, 744^b broken, will hold no corn, 718^b full sack raises its ear, 721^a full sack takes a clout in the side, 721^a it is a bad, which cannot be patched, 793^b meikle crack fills nae, 808^b nothing came out of, that was not there, 854^b one grain fills not a, but helps, 821^b Sack and sugar, 314^a purge and leave sack, 315^a this intolerable deal of, 314^a Sacks, broken, hold no corn, 745^b Sacred by ancient awe, 494^a matters, to play with, 568^b things and things common, 536^b SACRIFICE high sacrifice and labour without pause, 397^a holding death in scorn, 174^b is no vain sacrifice, 382^b mighty by sacrifice, 190^b of time the greatest sacrifice, 449^a still stands Thine ancient sacrifice, 189^b was anything real ever gained without sacrifice, 160^b Sacrilege, we have consecrated, 118^b Sacristan, he says no word, 16^a SAD and SADNESS a most humorous sadness, 289^b hated nought but to be sad, 44^b I know not why I am so sad, 281^b impious in a good man to be sad, 406^a musing full sadly in his sullen mind, 339^b no dog so sad but he will wag his tail, 855^b no wonder that his soul was sad, 266^a nobody should be sad but I, 311^b of all sad words of tongue or pen, 158^b sad and mad and bad, 344^a sad by fits, 90^a sad (heart) tires in a mile—a, 310^a sad shadows after things not sad, 292^b sadness and gladness succeed one another, 830^b sadness and longing, 198^a sadness echoes in the voice of mirth, 383^b srdness of her sadness, 18^a so sad, so tender, and so true, 327^a the dewy sadness of the time, 160^b the sad hate the merry man, 608^b too solemn sad, 339^a Sad-voiced as the turtle, 30^b Sadder and a wiser man, 86^b Saddle, fair in the cradle, foul in the, 759^b great in the, 50^b on the wrong horse, 752^b Saddled and bridled to be ridden, 207^a, 457^b Sadducee, marked as a, 16^a the doctrine of the, 53^b SAFETY
 it is good sleeping in a whole skin, 795^b keep the common road and thou'rt safe, 798^b let others seek what is safe, 673^b Safety—contd.

 mother of fear, 42^b obedience wife of safety, 477^b oh, are they safe, 57^a safe sleeping in a whole skin, 20^b safe, though all safety's lost, 26^a safety never, men may sin, 182^a safety and the health of the whole state, 291^a safety from the Deity, 482^a safety in numbers, 856^b safety in solitude, 856^b safety springs from victory, 662^a seek, sailor, the safe harbours, 673^b
 to safeguard the citizens, 653^b to the conquered the one safety is to hope for none, 675^a to the interest of all that the Commonwealth be safe, 612^a we pluck this flower safety, 313^b what is safe is distasteful, 556^a when you sit safe at home, 236^a who goes softly goes safely, 759^b Sage, eat, in May, 783^a taken to obviate amputation, 783^a Sage he looks, for a 'sae, 14^b just less than, 230^b thought as a, 19^b without hardness, 5^a Sage, le, entend à demi-mot, 730^b Sages would have died to learn, 187^a Said it that knew it best, He, 10^a
 if I said so, it was so, 150^b least said, soonest mended, 800^a little said is soonest mended, 391^a so much and done so little, 211^b SAIL and SAILS
 add sails to your oars, 645^a all sail and no ballast, 134^a and ragged sails, 282^b draw in your sails and keep close to shore, 556^a gales that stretch a thousand thousand sails, 396^a He that hath the steerage of my course, direct my sail, 278^a learn of the little nautilus to sail, 249^b never weather-beaten sail, 69^b out fly the nimble sail, 257^b ripped sails, 102^b sail where'er the surge may sweep, 54^a set every threadbare sail, 167^a set thy sails warily, 338^a shall my little bark attendant sail, 250^a the white and rustling sail, 105^a this quiet sail, 55^a top and maintop crowds the sail, 47^a with full-spread sails, 122^a SAILORS
 a sweetheart in every port, 334^b all sunk beneath the wave, 102^a and rainbow in the morning, 727^a good sailor may mistake in a dark night, 722^b good seaman is known in bad weather, 845^a greatest pleasure is to see land afar, 603^a
 his heart is like the sea, 383^b home is the sailor, home from the sea, 344^b I pity them unhappy folks on shore, 245^a Jack's the king of all, 383^b joys and sorrows sailors find, 54^a like a drunken sailor on the mast, 319^a make money like horses, spend like asses, 334^a

Sailors—contd.

 man thinks meanly of himself for not having been at sea, 179^a no one will ever be a sailor, 178^b oak and triple brass round the breast of the first sailor, 549^b only four inches from death, 479^a sailors are but men, 282^a sailors don't care, 464^b sailor's fame, 17^a sailors in every port a mistress find, 142^b sailor-men wear those things so loose, 166^b sailors' sheet anchor is grog, 110^b sea fatal to sailors, 528^a seamen are nearest to death and farthest from God, 831^b seek, sailor, the safe harbours, 673^b should never be shy, 145^a should steer clear of a wife, 334^b sign of a true-hearted sailor, 111^a tempestuous like their element, 134^b the sailor speaks of winds, 585^b what have sailors to do with military arms, 637^b white complexion a disgrace to a sailor, 499^b who will not sail till all dangers be past must never put to sea, 782^a whom God steers sails safely, 783^b See Dibdin, 110^a, Sea, Seamen SAINT and SAINTS
 a saint run mad, 253^a a self-elected saint, 170^a able to corrupt a saint, 313^a better trust in God than His saints, 744^a designed a saint above, 105^b despising the saints and their relics, 705^a don't grow into plaster saints, 180^a earth's fanatics make saints, 29^b ensky'd and sainted, 299^b gloomy, sullen saints, 123^b grey-haired saint may fail at last, 186^b he weren't no saint, 159^a his soul is with the saints, 87^a his lot is among the saints, 419^b it frets the saints in heaven, 29^b last accents of an expiring saint, 343^a like saint, like offering, 802^b lives of many divers saint, 79^b many canonised shall never be saints, 28^b many worshipped at altar are burning in the fire, 581^b neither saint nor sophist led, 5^b relics of saints in libraries, 7^b saint abroad, devil at home, 727^a saints and tortured martyrs, 272^b Saint's Bell, let him alone with the, 765^a saint in crape twice a saint in lawn, 250^b saint, savage, sage, 32^a saints must be in heaven, 35^a saint sustained it, but the woman died, 256^a saint upon his knees, 95^b saint who works no miracles has no pilgrims, 850^b saints will aid if men will call, 86^b seek ye Saint Truth, 194^b seem a saint when most I play the devil, 318^b self-constituted saints, 170^a Saint and Saints—contd.

she'll not appear a saint, 404b the soberest most stiff-necked, 52b the stock of halos would give out, 244a to an expiring saint, 733a to every saint his own candle, 860b we are men, not pure saints, 210a ye fearful saints, 95b young saint, an old devil, 731a St. James's, ladies of, 119a St. Matthee (Sept. 21), shut up the bee, 830b St. Matthias (Feb. 24), all the year goes by, 830b St. Matthias, take thy hopper and sow, 830b Salad and eggs and lighter fare, 259a days, my, 307a good, prologue to bad supper, 722b Salary does not give salt, 648a, note Sale-room, babble of the, 73b Salis, plus, quam sumptus, 596a Sally, none like pretty, 70a Sally Lun, the gay, 146a Salmon and sermon have their season in Lent, 830b dear as, 751a it is not for everyone to catch, 796a it was the, 111b lose a hook to catch a, 865b not more than three times a week, 333a SALT
 after the rice is eaten, 732a Attic, 648a eat a peck with a man before trusting him, 741a, note give not salt till you are asked, 545a, 588b, 765b he is not worth his salt, 648a, note help me to salt, help me to sorrow, 785a is the best savour, 841a more of salt than of expense (or profusion), 596a, 621b no salt in him, 468a nothing more useful than the sun and salt, 594a on a bird's tail, 794a on a woman's tail, 51b pale spectrum of the salt, 30b rebukes should not have more salt than sugar, 829a seasoned with salt, 430a split, is never gathered, 837a, note spilt, is seldom clean taken up, 830b to add a grain of, 485b, 509a to many salary does not give salt, 648a ye are the salt of the earth, 421a Salt-cellar, the family, 686b Salt-water girdle, in our, 309a Saltpetre, this villainous, 313b Salum, per, 618b
 Salus inempta, 623b
 Salus populi suprema lex, no sentence more abused, 275b SALUTATIONS gentle salutations and soft responses, 343a in the market-places, 423b they that know one another salute afar off, 857a SALVATION depends on my own belief, 123b fearless man his own salvation, 25a no relish of salvation, 295b

Salvation—contd.

no salvation outside the church, 528b save men by the barrel-load, 369a Salve for every sore, 856a seek your, where you get your sore, 832a Samaritan, to do the, without the oil and the twopence, 333b SAME and SAMENESS all things are always the same, 521a always the same, 652b same persons, same things, to same people, 475b things that seem the same are not the same, 242a to all men the same, 612a when two do the same it is not the same, 520a Samite, clothed in white, 364a Samminiato, lamping, 33b Samphire, one that gathers, 306b Samson hath quit himself like Samson, 224a was strong but could not pay money before he had it, 830b Sanctorum, sortes, 661a, note SAND and SANDS a rope of, 526b built his house upon sand, 422a come unto these yellow sands, 310b Dame Patience upon a hill of sand, 298a, note dance on the sands, 320b dangerous harbour bar only grains of sand, 373b he waters, ploughs, and soweth on sand, 320b little grains of sand, 74a, 240a numbering sands, 312b small sands make the mountain, 404b sow not the sands, 338a the ribbed sea-sand, 402b to plant seed in sand, 635b to plough the sands, 861a we write in sand, 377a when the sand doth feed the clay, 871b, note without lime, 492a you are building on sand, 551a you commit seeds to the sand, 492a Sandwiches of veal, 196b Sane spot somewhere, every man has a, 344a than mad, fitter being, 34a Sang the tears into his eyes, 265b Sanitas, O beata, 605b Sapere aude, 648b
 Sapias, si sapias, 656a Sapiens, sibi qui imperiosus, 638b Sapienti sat, 648b Sapphires, with living, 219a Sappho, burning, 63a warmth of her song still lives, 662a SARCASM is it necessary to add acid to the lemon? 703b sarcastic levity of tongue, 57b the language of the devil, 72b this is wrote sarcastikal, 27b Sardonic laugh, 452b
 Sarse, of all the, that I can call to mind, 202a Sartor resartus, 649a Sai prata biberunt, 503a Satan finds some mischief still, 382a trembles when he sees, 95b Satana, vade, 678b
 Satanic school, 338a

SATIETY

as the sow fills, the draff sours, 739a better go away longing than loathing, 743a cherries bitter to surfeited bird, 747b enough is enough, too much spoils, 755a excess of delight palls appetite, 759a giveth occasion of satiety, 111b inseparable from large possessions, 117b of the beautiful induces a taste for the singular, 696a the life of joy would kill, 372b they never taste who always drink, 259b

SATIRE

a biting poem, 597a a glass in which we see others' faces, 348b difficult not to write satire, 515b for pointed satire I would Buck-hurst choose, 264a has always shone, 122b he that hath a satirical vein, 11a like a polished razor, 22a pointed satire runs him through and through, 239a satirical upon a thing so very small, 349a satire's my weapon, 252b the flash of that satiric rage, 96b the satirical rogue says, 292b the satiric thong, 99b
 'tis called a satire, 97b to show by one satiric touch, 348a virtue's friend (satire), 82a when satire flies abroad, 82b

Satis, jam, 609a

SATISFACTION

he is well paid that is well satisfied, 283b
 no satisfaction but revenge, 282b
 none says his garner is full, 818a nothing can satisfy but what confounds, 408a one cannot satisfy all the world and his father, 704b the word is satisfaction, 239a Saturn or Jupiter, to legislate for, 147a

Saturn whirls while 357b Saturnalia of December, 487a will not last for ever, 600b Satyr, Hyperion to a, 290b Sauce, a most sharp, 279a for the goose, 868a the sauce is better than the fish, 850b to his good wit, 285b

Saul and Jonathan, 470a

SAVAGE

civilised, the worst, 711a joys, scene of, 98a the noble, 128b mood, though of, 63a Savageness begets savageness, 339a in unreclaimed blood, 292a out of a bear, sing the, 302a Save, love mercy and delight to, 143b men by the barrel-load, 369a Saved, and we are not, 418a Savil, Sir Henry, 12a SAVING
 a little saving is no sin, 724a is getting, 831a more art in, than in gaining, 855a no alchemy to, 815b of saving comes having, 819b to save is to have, 860b

Saviour stung, her, 17*b* Saviour and deliverer, 509*b* Saviour, if the salt have lost his, 421*a* something hath some, 835*b* Saw the air, 294*a* Saws of books, all, 292*a* wise, and modern instances, 289*a* Saxa cavanitur aqua, 636*b* Saxon strength, in, that abbey frowned, 266*b* phrase, that ancient, 198*a* Say well, a kind of good deed to, do as I, not as I do, 752*a* fate of say-all-you-know, 236*a* hedn't no gret things to say, 202*b* nothing to what I could say, 119*b* nothing good they say, 438*b* preach not because you have to say something, 385*b* say nothing, do, know, and have nothing, 299*a*
 320*a*
 say nothin' thet you can be held tu, 202*b* say-nought-at-all is beaten, 236*a*
 says his say with a difference, 36*a*
 they say so, is half a lie, 857*a* though I say it myself, 194*b*, 858*a*

SAYING and SAYINGS a faithful saying, 430*a* an old man's saying is rarely untrue, 736*a* an old saying becomes like an ordinance, 650*b* fates and destinies and such odd sayings, 282*b*
 foolish sayings of the rich pass for wise saws, 844*b* golden saying (of Epicurus), 533*b* none which has not been said before, 604*a* pointed, axioms and acute replies, 180*a* power of saying things, 241*b* reputed wise for saying nothing, 282*a*
 saying gangs cheap, 831*a* saying is one thing, doing another, 831*a* saying something, when there's nothing to be said, 178*b* sayings worthy of Phobus, 620*a* stories and sayings they will remember, 164*a* the ancient saying is no heresy, 282*b*
 the expression which strikes will
 have wisdom, 648*b*
 these sayings very fine in a book, 690*b*
 time passes, sayings endure, 859*b*
 what everyone says must be true,
 867*b*
 wise sayings, 419*b* worthy of endless life, 533*b*

Scab of error, 379*a* Scabbed, he calls me, because I will not call him scade, 772*a* Scaffold high, on the, 18*b*

SCANDAL about Queen Elizabeth, 328*b* and spite, 363*b* assailed by scandal, 97*a* at every word a reputation dies, 247*b*
 best sweetener of tea, 134*b* careless of her sister's fame, 97*a* church must avoid scandal, 21*a* dead scandals, 61*b* each tale of laughter, shame, or
 folly, 342*a* fierce to invent scandal, 628*b*

Scandal—contd.
 greatest scandal waits on greatest state, 321*b* has new minted an old lie, 97*b* has wings, 723*b* is the greatest part of the offence, 851*a* never scandalous tale without some foundation, 328*b* no scandal while you dine, 361*b* scandal of the age, 239*b* sweetener of a female feast, 404*b* sweetens tea, 265*a* the receiver (of scandal) as bad as the thief, 80*b* whispering tongues, 86*b* will rub out like dirt when dry, 831*b*
Scandalum magnatum, 649*b* Scanderbeg's sword must have Scanderbeg's arm, 831*b* Scar, leaves behind a, 239*b* remains when wound is healed, 526*a*
 Scars, honourable, 229*b* jests at, that never felt a wound, 278*b*
 Scarcity, what shall I take out of all this, 636*a* Scarecrow of the law, make a, 299*b* for superstitious terrors, 109*b* their perch and not their terror, 299*b*
 Scarlet, though clothed in, 182*b* Scarlet coat, love that loves a,
 172*b*
 Scarlet coats, that pester humankind, 185*b*
Scelus, semper timidum, 605*b* Scene, that memorable, 208*b* Scenes, gay gilded, 2*a* it has had its, 36*b* never to return, 45*a* Scenery, flat, 81*a* Scent, sweetest flower for, 326*a* Sceptic side, too much knowledge for the, 248*b*

SCEPTRE and SCEPTRES a barren sceptre, 304*b* a sceptre is one thing, lute-playing another, 487*b*
 a sceptre one thing, a ladie
 another, 727*b*
 a sceptre or an earthly sepulchre, 317*b*
 and a crown must tumble down, 329*a* held his sceptre like a pedant's wand, 360*a* sceptre shows the force of temporal power, 283*b* sceptres crooked atop, 14*a*, note

SCHEMES and SCHEMING
 a poor man is all plans, 826*b* best concerted schemes, 23*a* her brain a mill for projects, 334*b* so many schemes thou breedest, 4*b*
 the best-laid schemes, 44*a* whose diggett a pit, 415*a* Scherzando! ma non troppo, 145*a* Schismatics, long-winded, 349*a* and Popery, 108*b*

SCHOLARS
 a scholar and a ripe and good one, 320*b*
 a scholar among rakes, 206*a* a scholar at court, an ass among apes, 726*a* a walking dictionary, 76*a* great scholars not specially wise, 569*b*
 land of scholars, 147*b*

Scholars—contd.
 more in the soldier than scholar, 301*a*
 what kills the scholar's life assail, 178*a*
 who robs a scholar robs the public, 875*b*
 who robs a scholar robs twenty
 men, 875*b*

Scholarship, his, prattle without practice, 300*a*

SCHOOLS, SCHOOLROOMS at school a boy learns from what is taught to others, 518*a* better build schoolrooms, 93*b* bewildered in the maze of schools, 246*b*
 fiend hath much to do that keeps a school, 184*a* in my joyful school days, 191*b* lumber of the schools, 348*b*
 microcosm of a public school, 116*a* public schools nurseries of vice,
 135*a*
 public schools, a mob of boys, 101*b* school inscription, 470*b*, note school mottoes, 506*a*, 516*b* school rhyme (Latin), 610*b* stale memorandums of the schools 348*b*
 tell schools they want profound-ness, 262*a* traitorously corrupted youth by erecting a grammar school, 317*b*
 we learn not in school but in life, 600*b*
 you pay more for your school than your learning's worth, 880*a*

SCHOOLBOYS
 cruel as a schoolboy, 358*a* delivered to their masters to undergo strokes, 672*b* every schoolboy knows it, 356*a* Macaulay's schoolboy, 455*b* schoolboy's eleventh commandment, 839*b* schoolboy's tip, 367*a* tale which every schoolboy knows, 386*a*
 the schoolboy with his satchel, 23*a*, 289*a*
 the schoolboy spot, 62*a* what every schoolboy knows, 349*a*, 456*a*

Schoolman's subtle art, he knew no, 252*b*

Schoolmen, learning of the, 7*a* subtle, 249*a*

SCHOOLMSTERS
 a man severe he was and stern to view, 148*b* every good scholar not a good schoolmaster, 755*a* he is either dead or teaching a school, 472*b*, 495*a* injuries must be their schoolmasters, 306*a* Job was no schoolmaster, 798*a*
 one father more than a hundred
 schoolmasters, 821*a* rods, the sceptres of schoolmasters, 532*a*
 sameness of occupation, 475*b* the schoolmaster is abroad, 26*b*

SCIENCE
 a crime to examine the laws of heat, 234*b* a first-rate piece of furniture, 168*b* advances with gigantic strides, 395*a*
 and most of all the abstruse sciences, 61*b*

Science—contd.

antidote to poison of enthusiasm and superstition, 330b bright-eyed science, 154b enough of science and of art, 399b ever-brightening science, 366b falsely so called, 430b frowned not on his humble birth, 154a genius married to science, 339a glare of false science, 19b holds the eel of science, 253b human science is uncertain guess, 259a love finds admission where science fails, 408b middle ages poor in sciences, 13b moves but slowly, slowly, 358b no true science without religion, 188b one only science will one genius fit, 246b organised knowledge, 239a science is madness, if good sense does not cure it, 736b Science sans expérience, 707a Science self destroyed her favourite son, 60a science nothing but perception, 448b sciences not to follow books, 12b sport went hand-in-hand with science, 360a star-eyed science, 66b the Dismal Science, 71a the only science of mankind, 248b, note the science of sciences (Philosophy), 649b the seven sciences, 251b this new science that men here, 79b truths of, waiting to be caught, 358a whom science never taught to stray, 248a Scientific faith's absurd, 32b Scio's rocky isle, 56b Scoff, fools who came to, 148a intending to, and not to look on, 513b Scoffer's pen, dull product of a, 401b Scoffing cometh not of wisdom, 329b Scold, she will, the Devil out of a haunted house, 833b SCORN, SCORNING, SCORNERS did scorn to scorn oppose, 377a I can scorn and let her go, 390b is bought with groans, 281a maid repented of her scorn, 15a
 not scorned in heaven, 102a quiet and intolerant scorn, 86a scorn of scorn, 356b scorn tempering wrath, 336b scorn, to point his slow, unmoving finger, 302b scorner of his Maker's laws, 101a scornful and malignant, 169b
 scorning is catching, 831b seat of the scornful, 412a the scorner's words, 59a the sound of public scorn, 221b to be hanged and scorn ye, 139a to be scorned by one I scorn, 363b we scorn them, but they sting, 365a what a deal of scorn looks beautiful, 298a Scorpions, I will chastise you with, 410b SCOTLAND, SCOTSMEN
 Caledonia, stern and wild, 272b
 Curse of Scotland, 750a

Scotland, Scotsmen—contd.

devilish disposition of the Scottish, 24a Englishmen little inferior to Scots, 390a grave livers in Scotland, 393b greatest moral attribute of a Scotsman, 18a he that will England win must with Scotland begin, 782a knuckle-end of England, 333a land of brown heath and shaggy wood, 272b land of sophistry, 60b mourn, hapless Caledonia, 334a much to be made of a Scotchman, if caught young, 179a mutton old and claret good, 237b old Scotia's grandeur, 44b Scotch servants and salmon, 333a Scotch terrier, reminds me of the, 25b Scotch are a nation of gentlemen, 441b Scotchman's noblest prospect, 178b Scotchmen, men of sense, 197a Scots are steadfast, 69a Scots wha hae, 49a Scotsman let loose on the world, 18a Scotsmen aye reckon frae an ill hour, 831b Scotsmen, the very wind of whose name, 17b Scottish man aye wise behind the hand, 727b Scottish mist may wet an Englishman to the skin, 727c Scottish rule, 356a sensible Scots leave Scotland, 197a stands Scotland where it did? 305a Switzerland an inferior Scotland, 332b Tartan plaid, 7a the ardent disposition of the Scottish, 619a the Scotsman gangs till he gets it, 843a the Scot will not fight till he sees his own blood, 850b to answer like a Scot, 859b to get a joke into Scotch understanding, 333a treacherous Scotland, 122a trust you no Scot, 24a trying all my life to like Scotsmen, 192a Scotched the snake, we have, 304b Scott, Sir Walter, 55a, note Scoundrel, lowest, of the scoundrel kind, 329a Scoundrels, hatred of, 73b Scourge, an iron, 396a avert such a, from the earth, 514b Scout, the babbling eastern, 225a Scowl of Heaven, the, 69a Scramble at the shearers' feast, 226b Scrap of paper, 460a Scraper, never was, brave man, 162b Scratch my back and I will scratch yours, 831b Scratch my breech and I'll claw your elbow, 831b Screams, a politician who, 22b Screw in money transactions, as arrant a, 16a Scribbler, who shames a, 252a Scribbles, accustomed to be, 180b Scribbling, itch of, 144b Scribendi cacoethes, 670a Scribere fussit amor, 514b

Scribes and Pharisees, 81a

Scribimus indocti doctique poemata, 640b Scripti, quod scripsi, 641b SCRIPTURE and SCRIPTURES devil can cite Scripture, 282a elder Scripture writ by God's own hand, 408a grounded upon no warranty of Scripture, 433b lard with Scripture my familiar talk, 170a like an open town in time of war, 350a mighty in the Scriptures, 426b no prophecy of private interpretation, 431a search the Scriptures, 275a, 425b, 650b study of scriptures, 14a warped from its intent, 96a was his jest-book, 96a you rule the Scripture, 124b Scrutamine Scripturas, 275a Scrutinous, age is, 109b Scrutiny, roll back the, 57a SCULPTORS, SCULPTURE
 a sculptor need not be made of marble, 855b ne'er did Grecian chisel trace, 270b the cold marble leapt to life, 215b Scum, base, 51b
 Scuttle-fish, put me in mind of the, 3a Scylla and Charybdis, 514a, 639b Scylla, you fall on, desiring to avoid Charybdis, 554b Scythe feeds the meadows, 850b SEA
 a flowing sea, 105a a game of dreary pitch and toss, 172b a glorious tomb, 203b a lane of beams athwart the sea, 358a a sea-change into something rich and strange, 317a a tomb proper for the brave, 122b a weary waste of waters, 336b all are embarked on a sea of troubles, 610a alone on a wide, wide sea, 86b back to his bounds command the sea, 251b behold a smiling sea, 400b being on sea, sail, 741b bound in with the triumphant sea, 312b by sea and land (per mare, per terras), 618b common to all, 574a complains for want of water, 850b creatures in the seas, 340a crept into the bosom of the sea, 317b danger on the deep, 18b dangers of the sea; greater dangers on land, 607b drop by drop the sea is drained, 753b empire of the sea, 701a empty tigers or the roaring sea, 280a fatal to greedy seafarers, 528a forbid the sea to obey the moon, 310a fret their way at last to sea, 174b gave up its dead, 431b girdled with life by the sea, 353b God bless the narrow sea, 361a hands across the sea, 383b hath no king but God, 266b

Sea—cont'd.

hath sundered not, but bound us, 353b he goes a long voyage that goes to the bottom of the sea, 772b, 794a he looks to land too late whose keel is in the deep, 653b he that commands the sea, 11a, 505a he would not flatter Neptune, 308a heaven as near by sea as by land, 784b
 his vast and wandering grave, 362a
 I love the sea, she is my fellow creature, 261a I must go down to the seas again, 209b I'm on the sea, 260b if all the seas were beans and pease, 446b image of Eternity, 56a inblown seas, and storming showers, 361b in the flat sea sunk, 225a innumerable laughter of the sea-waves, 478a into a shoreless sea, 326a into that silent sea, 86b is not full, 415a journey by sea, one of three things to be repented of, 454b
 let him who knows not how to pray, go to sea, 800b let others take to the deep sea, 567b light that never was on sea or land, 400b like the sea, ever open, brave, and free, 383b loved the great sea more and more, 260b mistress of the seas, 451b music in its roar, 56a never journey by sea if the journey can be made by land, 630a, note not all the water in the rough, rude sea, 312b nothing but sea with threatening waves, 640a nothing but sky and sea, 503b now the salt tides seaward flow, 5a old man of the sea (Proteus), 469b on the sea be terrible, untamed, 370a on the sea sail; on land, settle, 820b open or closed (to commerce), 574a our heritage, the sea, 105a our salt-water girdle, 309a our souls have sight of that immortal sea, 401a plough n t the seas, 338a poluphloisio thalasses, 478a praise the sea but keep on land, 827a precious stone set in the silver sea, 312b queen of the wide seas, 96b quiet (seas) when the wind gives o'er, 377b savoured of the bitter sea, 235b sea, fire, woman, three evils, 472b
 sea refuses no river, 850b
 sea of upturned faces, 274a sea, universities and the court (three ways to a living), 854a seas have their source, 436b

Sea—cont'd.

seas join the regions they divide, 254a shedding seas of gore, 64a sing the dangers of the sea, 343b sowing seed in the sea, 474b sunless sea, 86a tales of monsters of the sea, 677b tastes sharp of the sea, 352b that sea beauty man has ceased to build, 209b that breakest and art not broken, 380b that great fishpond, 190a that has made us strong and free, 383b the dangers of the seas, 241a the foam of perilous seas, 185b
 the girdle of England, 397b the great embraces of the sea, 237a
 the great sweet mother, 351a the howling waste of mighty waters, 370a the inviolate sea, 356b the King's Highway, 238a the loud resounding sea, 478a the lull of the treacherous sea, 173b the multitudinous seas, 304a the old sea welcome, 444b the open sea, 260b the populous deep, 325a the rolling forties, 455b the sea hath bounds, 320b the sea-king's sceptre, 238a the secret of the sea, 198b the voice of the sea, 396b the voiceful sea, 87b the wavy waste, 170a
 the world of waters wild, 370a there was no more sea, 431b Thetis, bright image of eternity, 326a they can see nothing but sea, 8a they that go down to the sea, 413a Time's right-hand man, 161b to find the sea, follow the river, 682a to pour water into the sea, 551b to-morrow we will journey on the vast sea, 606b treachery of sea and winds, 20b uttermost parts of the sea, 413b was made his tomb, 17a washes away all woes of men, 473b wealth of sea and land, 261a wearisome constantly to watch the sky, 667b what have you to do with the sea, 637b what thing of sea or land, 223b when men come to like a sea life, 179a when the seas were roaring, 143b which serves it in the office of a wall, 312b who go to sea are only four inches from death, 479a who has possession of the sea commands the situation, 632b who would learn to pray let him go to sea, 783a why walk into the sea when it rages, 876a would be calm but for the winds, 8a See Navy, Ocean, Sail, Sailors, Seamen Seagulls dipping, 209a Sea-jelly, weak on Patmos strand, 34b Seal, where every god did seem to set his, 295b

Seals and maces danced before him,

155b
 Seals of love, but sealed in vain, 300a Sea-mark, very, of my utmost sail, 303a SEAMEN like your element, tempestuous, 134b the seamen were not gentlemen, 207a Sea-monster, more hideous than the, 306a SEA-SICKNESS
 beefsteak against seasickness, 62a to tell what wood the ship was made of, 862a we all like to see people sea-sick, 83b SEARCH
 nothing but may be found out by search, 594a Peter in and Paul out, 825a search will find it out, 165a seek till ye find and ye'll not lose your labour, 832a take heed you find not that you do not seek, 838b they are not worth the search, 282a who gropes in the dark finds what he would not, 838b you must look where it is not as well as where it is, 880a SEASON AND SEASONS
 a few more seasons, 24a a season for saying nothing, or something, but not for saying all, 524a changeless change of seasons, 236b Clement brings winter, etc., 510b everything is good in its season, 759a know the proper season, 447a know the proper time (Pittacus), 469b many things by season seasoned are, 284a seasons may roll, 231b the season priketh every gentile herte, 77a the soote (sweet) season, 346b to everything there is a season, 415b, 854b when I have a convenient season, 426b Seated, who is well, let him not stir, 834b Seats beneath the shade, 147b Seaweed, 7a more worthless than, 524b Sic itur ad astra, 569a Seclusion: our life exempt from public haunt, 288a Second yoke, a, 164b
 Second, each, stood heir to the first, 300a Second-eleven sort of chap, 18a Second to none (nulli secundus), 603b place, those allowed, entitled to first, 348b rank, who shines in, will be eclipsed in first, 706b stroke, no, intend, 217b thoughts are best, 831b SECRECY, SECRETS
 a prince's secrets, poison if discovered, 210a a secret is your blood, 727b a secret your slave if you keep it, your master if you lose it, 727b an understanding but no tongue 290b

Secret, Secrets—contd.

bestow what you will, but not your secrets, 741b betrayed by outward actions, 484a celerity the best secrecy, 100b come not thou into their secret, 409b counsel you would have another keep, keep yourself, 842a every secret thing, 416b family secrets, 650a he that tells a secret is another's servant, 782a
I am full of leaks and let out secrets, 620b
I have saved the bird in my bosom, 787a if one knows, it is a secret; if two, it is public, 858b in all families (secrets), 134a keep secrets entrusted to you, 491b known through a woman (a secret), 126b
known to three is known to everybody, 858b
love no pleasure unless secret, 20b never pry into secrets, 491b not in the habit of telling secrets, 555a nothing weighs so heavily as a secret, 707a of greatest part of life hidden,
581b
of my prison-house, 291b rose, the emblem of secrecy, 664b secret actions may be covered over, 704b
secret and self-contained, 114a secret apocalyptique (Rabelais), 686a secret between two a secret of God; between three of everybody, 858b
secret love, 48b secret of secrets (in alchemy), 548b secret of success, 89b secreto á voces, 715a, 716a secreto, il pubblico, 715a secret path marks secret foe, 271a secrets travel fast in Paris, 450a smiling upon thee will get out thy secrets, 420a
tell no one what you do not wish
repeated, 588b
the poor dead secrets of his heart, 354b they tell the secret first, 259a those who do not mean to keep,
91a three may keep counsel if two be
away, 858b
to know secrets, look for them in grief or pleasure, 791a very excellent at telling secrets, 212b vice nourished by secrecy, 488a what you wish kept quiet tell to none, 641b
will not utter what thou dost not know, 313b women conceal all that they know not, 877b

SECTS

a paradise for a sect, 185a after the most straitest sect, 426b England the land of sects, 449b every sect a check on its neighbour, 193a persecution found them a sect, 206b slave to no sect, 250a

Sects—contd.

the diverse liveries they wore,
242a the sad-coloured sect, 170b
to reach heaven their own strange
way, 104b
when religious sects ran mad, 258b

SECURITY fast bind, fast find, 760b, 830b fools are too secure, 92a is mortals' chiefest enemy, 304b lock your door and keep your neighbours honest, 804b make all sure and keep all pure, 806b nothing so sure that it may not be in danger, 592b of the commonwealth, 612a safe bind, safe find, 830b stronge lockes maken trewe, 760b tie it well, and let it go, 859a to possessors, 89b who is too secure is not safe, 779b Sedan, there is no going to heaven in a, 855b Seditious, surest way to prevent, 10a Seditious orators like winds, 8a Seduced, who so firm that cannot be,
285b Seducer, no, is happy, 589a

SEE AND SEEING
canst not see because not yet in sight, 328b
everything, one man does not,
471a fireworks inferior for seeing with,
70b for he had much to, 221b
from seeing comes loving, 471a her was to love her, to, 48b most wonderful things are invisible, 188b much more had seen, 4a not hear, a thing, 58a only one way of seeing things rightly, 267b
part seen, imagined part, 402a see ourselves as others see us, 45a seeing is believing, 832a
seeing many things, but thou
observest not, 417b
seeing only what is fair, 131b something we may see, 33b them going to see it, 173a things I have seen I now can see no more, 400b think others see as well as you, 214a to see and to be seen (visum visu), 77b, 685a
to see what I have seen, 294a to see what is not to be seen, 373a we shall see, as the blind man said, 867a what the eye don't see the heart don't grieve for, 868b what you see, yet cannot see over, 72b

Seed, all have got the, 361b if aught be in them of immortal, 394b no good, can come of evil grain, 819b richest, royalest, 20a ye sow, another reaps, 327a Seeds of time, look into the, 303a Seek and ye shall find, 422a

SEEM AND SEEMING are things what they seem, 185b be what thou wouldst seem, 740b be what you seem to be, 524b seems, madam, nay it is, 290a things are as they seem, 857a

Seem and Seeming—contd.

things are seldom what they seem, 145b things are not what they seem,
197b things that seem the same are not the same, 242a
to seem and not to be, 861b to be rather than to seem, 523a

Seer, the truest, 50b Seges mentita, 661a
Seipsum Constantia, Europam Exemplo, 245a, note Sejanus, equus, 522b Selbst ist der Mann, 757a, 832a Selden, motto of, 477b must drudge like, 22a Seldom seen, by being, 314a

SELF, SELFISHNESS
a lover of himself, without a rival, 650b, note, 658b a man's aye crouset in his own
cause, 725b
a sacred duty to remember to whom you owe yourself, 648a all men love themselves, 654a another self, 468a be a friend to thyself and others will be, 740a be what you are, 524b because I would not perish alone I wish you to perish with me, 634b bent on self-sanctifying, 37b beware of none more than thyself, 744b (self) can cloud the brightest cause, 232a
concentred all in self, 272b deceiving mirror of self-love, 210b deliver me from the evil man, even myself, 566a do not believe anyone about yourself more than yourself, 586b, 621b
dwell with yourself (secum habita), 669a easier to be wise for others than for one's self, 693a every animal loses itself, 609b every man for himself, 756b every man is his own enemy, 757a,
note
every man son of his own works, 757a every man's blind in his ain
cause, 757b
everyone eloquent in his own
cause, 626a
everyone should measure himself by his own standard, 576b examine yourself often, 623b fol est qui s'oublie, 773b forgive yourself nothing, 763a free from self-seeking, 191b from self to keep still turning,
207a glory built on selfishness, 96a God defend me from myself, 716a, 766a golden calf of self-love, 71b greatest curse of human race (selfishness), 147a happy is he who chastens himself, 771a
happy occasions forfeited by self-mistrust, 397b hard thing to write of self, 94a he conquers who conquers himself, 683a
he is a fool that will forget himself, 773b

Self, Selfishness—contd.

he is most powerful who controls himself, 623a he is sairest dung when his own wand dings him, 774b he is slave of greatest slave who serves but himself, 773b he looks not well to himself that looks not ever, 775b he never errs who sacrifices self, 204b
 he owes his fortune to himself, 656b
 he sings of himself, 559b he that is full of himself is very empty, 779a he who has safeguarded others neglects himself, 638a he's a wise man who can take care of himself, 784a he's so full of himself that he's empty, 784a heaven doth with us as we with torches do, 299a himself unto himself he sold, 356b his opinion of self at "set fair," 21b I am dearest to myself, 626b
 I am my own commander, 521b
 I am my own next-of-kin, 626b
 I can easily regain favour with myself, 575a I can't abide to disappoint myself, 150a
 I love my friends well but myself better, 787b it is against himself that everybody sins, 656b joys flow from ourselves, 94a look after Number One, 804b love of history inseparable from self-love, 268a love of power is love of ourselves, 159b man is a lion in his own cause, 725b man must rule the empire of himself, 327a man whose eye is ever on himself, 391b many will hate you if you love yourself, 582a more a man denies himself the more he will obtain of the gods, 630b my own-alone self, 158a my other self, 488a nature of self-lovers, 10b
 neither blame nor praise yourself, 590a never preferring self to others, 605a no man born to himself alone, 261b no one has ever mastered knowledge of himself, 714a no one is born for himself, 589b no one is second to himself, 804b no one is wise by himself, 589b
 nobody's enemy but his own, 817b nothing lives for self, 23a often nothing is a man's enemy but himself, 647b one often needs a lesser than one's self, 704a, 821b oneself the only possible society, 389a quoth he, I must mind most myself, 337a reasoning self-sufficing thing, 399b sel, sel, has half filled hell, 832a self-approving glow, 49a

Self, Selfishness—contd.

self-contemplation, symptom of disease, 72a self-delusion: what your glass tells you will not be told by Counsel, 869a self do, self have, 832a selfish heart deserves the pains it feels, 405a selfishness, Love's cousin, 185b selfishness the only real atheism, 408b selfishness, twin-sister of religion, 325a self-love makes the eyes blind, 832a self-love makes more libertines than love, 695b self-love never dies, 695b, 709a self-love not so vile a sin as self-neglect, 316b self-love the greatest of flatterers, 695b self-love to urge, 248b self's allers at home, 832a self the spring of all, 337b self-tormentor, 470b self should be no more, 322b smote the chord of self, 358b some delight in pleasing one's self, 523b sublime repression of himself, 364a swear by thy gracious self, 278b the laddie's dear self, 48a the ruling tyrant, self, 82a the wise man who is lord over himself, 639a
 this comes too near the praising of myself, 283a through self-forgetfulness divine, 213a to himself sincere, 264a, note to his own self not always just, 241a to please, be forgetful of yourself, 677b to realise selfishness take a voyage, 324a to say nothing of myself, 651a to thine own self be true, 291a true self-love, and social, are the same, 250a true to one party, and that is himself, 201b virtues lose themselves in self-interest, 702b we are not born for ourselves, 599b we never valued right or wrong, 127b we should speak less of ourselves, 704b we wish things to go better with ourselves than with others, 616b we would rather speak ill of ourselves than not at all, 704a who for himself will take no care at all, 393a who loves himself too much loves an ill man, 780a wise to no purpose if not wise for himself, 590b you cannot say mass but at your own altar, 799a

SELF-ACCUSATION, SELF-DISPRaise a luxury in self-dispraise, 401b harsh towards herself, 266a I exceed all fools and blockheads in want of sense, 635b men who can hear the decalogue and feel no self-reproach, 400b

Self-Accusation, Self-Dispraise

—contd.

neither praise nor blame yourself, 590a no one is bound to accuse himself, 589b no one testifying to his own baseness should be listened to, 588b
 nobody calls himself a rogue, 817b
 out of thine own mouth will I judge thee, 425a pangs of the self-condemned, 59a

SELF-CONFIDENCE
 devil's work to break a man's spirit, 323a easy to shake self-confidence, 323a he that of himself is most secure, 341a he will dance to nothing but his own pipe, 783b while his own heart approves, 264b

SELF-CONTROL
 he has wit at will that with angry heart can hold him still, 773a in vain he seeketh others to suppress, 340b prudent, cautious self-control, 45b the greatest mastery, 550a we are mastered by diseased livers, 558b

SELF-DECEPTION easiest person to deceive is one's self, 204b it is always we who deceive ourselves, 694a to deceive one's self is very easy, 860b to observations which ourselves we make, 250b

SELF-DEFENCE
 a virtue, 59b he kills a man that saves not his own life, 775a is nature's eldest law, 123a second law of Nature, 166b self-preservation, nature's greatest law, 208b, 832a who guards himself God will guard him, 766b

SELF-DENYING, lying a kind of, 51b

SELF-DESTRUCTION
 effect of cowardice, 108a His canon 'gainst self-slaughter, 290b prohibition against self-slaughter, 309a the strong shall be as tow and his work a spark, and they shall both burn together, 416b

SELF-ESTEEM
 a man would have little pleasure if he never flattered himself, 774a Campsie wife's prayer, that she might aye think enough of herself, 878b oblique self-commendation, 29a oft-times nothing profits more than self-esteem, 221a who does not esteem himself will gain esteem, 829b

See Self

SELF-HELP
 business done with eyes of others does not proceed well, 600b do not expect friends to do what you can do for yourself, 585b every man maker of his own fortune (or genius), 528b ex sese (by his own exertions), 527a fly with your own wings, 761b

Self-Help—contd.

God helps those who help themselves, 766b he is stronger who can lift himself, 774b help yourself and your friends will help you, 785a if you wish for anything good, seek it from yourself, 471a suo Marte, 666a trust me, but look to yourself, 863b
 you must scratch your head with your own nails, 880a See Self-Reliance

SELF-INTEREST

argumentum ad crumenam, 492a every man remembers his own interest, 664a gilt over with philanthropy, 338b

SELF-KNOWLEDGE

he died known to all but himself, 693b he that measures not himself is measured, 780b ken yourself and your neebours winna misken you, 798b
 many wise men ignorant about themselves, 582a more skilful in self-knowledge, 399b no man is worse for knowing the worst of himself, 816b to die without self-knowledge, 549b will preserve thee against vanity, 449a wisdom of, 78b
 See Self

SELF-NEGLECT

occupied with others' affairs I neglect my own, 487b who loses his due gets not thanked, 780a who makes himself dirt the swine will tread on him, 780a worse than self-love, 316b you water the fields of others, 487b Self-possessed when most impressed, 439a

SELF-PRAISE

a deed of honour becomes nothing if the doer relates it, 640b a hard thing, 94a absurd as self-dispraise, 448b disgraces, 832a is no recommendation, 832a is offensive, 564b neither praise nor dispraise thyself, 814b self-praise in praising that which one loves, 637a will soon find a derider, 634a

SELF-RELIANCE

every man's hope in himself, 662a he is only bright who shines by himself, 774b
 I am better known to myself than to a physician, 586b
 I am my own commander, 521b if you want a thing done do it yourself, 790b in rough water I will help myself, 792b most happy he who is entirely self-reliant, 496a secret of success, 132a self-dependence the only sure dependence, 144a trust thyself only and another shall not betray thee, 863b where is truth if there be no self-trust, 321a See Self-Help

Self-reproach, sneers better than, 110a

SELF-RESPECT

most of all reverence thyself, 477a, 574b rarely anyone reverences himself enough, 643a respect yourself or no one will, 829b reverence of self, 9a who venerate themselves the world despise, 405a

SELF-SACRIFICE

awful beauty of, 386b give unto me the spirit of, 400a self-renouncement, 6a self-renouncement for public advantage, 538a the luxury of, 181b

SELF-TORMENT

evils that never arrived, 131b tormenting himself with his prickles, 173a Selfless man and stainless gentleman, 365a Selkirk Grace, 47b, note Sell him at his own price, 233b

SELLING

all things saleable at Rome, 612a as the market goes wives must sell, 739a doubtful agreement interpreted against seller, 489a ethics of selling and buying, 611b everyone lives by selling something, 344a good ware sells itself, 769a pleasing ware is half sold, 825b rather sell than be poor, 743b sellers want no eyes, 746a
 they may sit in the chair that have malt to sell, 857a venditiones exponas, 670b weigh justly, sell dearly, 867a when folk's ready to buy, ye can want to sell, 869b when ware is liked it is half sold, 872a while the dust is on your feet sell what you have bought, 874a who has nothing to sell loses his market, 778a who sells hath enough with one eye, 874b who will sell the cow must say the word, 876a you must sell as markets go, 880a

Semper avarus eget, 661b Semper eadem, 652b Sempronius, we'll do more, 1a Senate, a, at his heels, 250a Senate-house closed to the poor, 510a

Senate laws, give his little, 252b Senate met, her demi-gods in, 370a Senates, courts and kings, 67a listening, hang upon thy tongue, 369b Senator born, a, 188b Senators, those green-robed, 185a Senatus Populusque Romanus (S.P.Q.R.), 653a, note Send the wise and say nothing, 730b Seneca, sups with, 83b Seniores priores, 653a Seniority: I said an elder soldier, not a better, 286b

SENSATION, SENSATIONALISM

the power of feeling exists in all, 596b nothing written to excite wonder, 592b Sensation, Sensationalism—contd.

to freeze the blood I have no ready arts, 393b trumped up for the sake of the marvellous, 504b

SENSE and SENSES

all complain o' want o' siller; nane o' want o' sense, 719a better short of pence than of sense, 743b custom doth eat all sense, 296a devoid of sense and motion, 217a God send you mair sense and me mair siller, 767a good sense the standard of good writing, 239b he that over-feeds the senses feasteth his enemies, 780b never deviates into sense, 124b plain sense but rarely leads us far astray, 407a science madness, if good sense does not cure it, 736b sense is our helmet, 407b sense kills the soul, 394b take care of the sense, 119b the exulting sense, 57a the gift of Heaven, good sense, 251b thin partitions sense from thought divide, 248b Vanity the sixth sense, 72a want of wit worse than want of silver, 866a who has no sense at thirty will never have any, 779b

Senseless and breathless, 69b and fit man, the most, 284b obstinate, you are too, 319a

Sensible and well-bred man, 97b

Sensus inest cunctis, 596b Sentences, dark, 419b

SENTIMENT, SENTIMENTALISM

barrenness of the sentimentalist, 72a nation cannot exist without sentiment, 141a opinion determined by feelings, 338b reek of sentiment, 347a religion as a sentiment, 238b sentimental people fiddle harmonies, 214a sentimentalism twin-sister to Cant, 72a to pluck the eyes of sentiment, 167b

Separat et impera, 517b, note

Separabit, quis, 638b

Separation, law bitter the pains of, 714b

SEPTEMBER

blow soft till the fruit's in the loft, 832b

Septennial, the sacrifice, 335a

Sepulchre, he hath a fair, 192a

Sepulchred, so, in such pomp, 228a

Sepulchres, as lamps in, 254b like unto whited, 423b

Sequitur, non, 600b

Seraph, the rapt, 248b

Serbian bog, profound as that, 217b

Serene, all, 464a

I speak with mind, 400b that unhoped, 26a

yet strong, 260a

Sergeant to a colonel, may make a, 211a that fatal, Death, 345b this fell, 297b

SERIOUS, SERIOUSNESS

French are too serious, 343b

Serious, Seriousness—contd.

let us give attention to serious matters, 652a to turn serious matters into sport, 560b we are growing serious, 2a, 91b why so serious, 136b Sermonem deficiente die, 660a

SERMONS

a good, honest, and painful sermon, 242b a lazy, poor sermon, 242a a pudding sermon, 840b a sermon which will suit any text, 343a a very good and seraphic kind of sermon, 243a all sermons contrabands, 170a and soda-water, 62b coughing drowns the parson's saw, 277b fresh eggs, but why fresh sermons, 131a funeral sermon, lying sermon, 764b good example the best sermon, 722a him who a sermon flies, 162a his weekly drawl, 97a in flowers, 330b in stones, 288a less read than tales, 260a long, loud, and Damnation, 275b mild heat of holy oratory, 364b ni sermon sin Agostino, 716b no Sabbath-drawler of old saws, 357a no sermon without St. Augustine, 716b, 817a Paul has served us with a text, 99b perhaps turn out a sermon, 47a reading what they never wrote, 99b resort to sermons, 163a says just nothing for an hour, 244b shook the sermon out of my mind, 39a the belly hates a long sermon, 840b the parson exceeds not an hour, 164a the worst speaks something good, 163a

See Preaching

SERPENT AND SERPENTS

be the serpent under it, 303b biteth like a serpent, 414b no league with the brood of the serpent, 713a the trail of the serpent, 232b will not become dragon, unless it eat a serpent, 653b wise as serpents, 422b wouldst thou have a serpent sting thee twice, 283a

SERVANTS

a good man pardons their faults, 498b a serving man should have eyes, hands and speech in subjection, 545a all report of us emanates from servants, 612b an ill servant will never be a good master, 735b as good may hold stirrup as he who leaps on, 738a ben servir' e non gradire, 714a choose not one who has served thy betters, 748a dirty hands of, 570a do not have too pretty a maid-servant, 587a

Servants—contd.

do not let your servant excel you, 501b do not rashly credit a wife's complaints about servants, 594a England a purgatory for servants, 755a every great house full of proud servants, 574a everyone is a master and servant, 758b few men have been admired by their servants, 705a, 816b, note for master and servant oft changing is loss, 375a frantick among thy servants, 420b
give unto your servants that which is just, 430a good and faithful servant, 423b good servant doth not all commands, 309b good servants have good masters; bad servants otherwise, 677b grandfather's servants are never good, 769b great folks' servants are aye mair saucy than themselves, 769b great men's, think themselves great, 770a grumble when a guest has stayed ten days, 547a hackney mistress, hackney maid, 770b happy is he who serveth the happy, 771a he can give little to his servant that licks his knife, 772a he must serve himself that has no servant, 775b he that serves well need not ask his wages, 781a he will be your servant for all time, 625a he will not have good servant who does not treat him well, 802b I have many servants, 276b I mistress, and you the young lady, who will sweep? 788b if all get into the palanquin who will be bearers? 788b if I am master and you, who shall drive the asses? 788b if you would be well served, serve yourself, 790b it does not become a servant to be haughty, 596b Jack's as good as his master, 798a let not the love of a servant-maid be counted a disgrace, 586a like master, like man; like mistress, like Nan, 802b livered servant, 2371, note makes drudgery divine, 164a master of straw eats a servant of steel, 726a masters are full of faults and wish their servants to be perfect, 702a master's eye sees more than ten of the servants, 821a neither eyes on letters, nor hands in coffers, 814b never better servant nor worse master, 587b no equality in servants' hall, 18a no man is a hero to his valet, 816b, note not a greater plague than servants, 83b not to command, but to serve, 654a

Servants—contd.

qualifications of a good servant, 677b, note servant and a cock to be kept only one year, 727b servant of a king is a king, 851a servant of God, well done, 220a she lived in a house where help is not hired, 445a should put on patience with their livery, 832b smiling boy seldom a good servant, 728a so many servants, so many enemies, 642a, 671b, 778a talkative servants of wealthy, 606a the master who fears his servants is less than a servant, 577b the trusty servant (of Winchester), 677b, note thy sad servant, evermore, 185a to be ill served keep plenty of servants, 791a to servants kind, 70a tongue of a bad servant is his worst part, 567a truer report comes from a man's servants, 681a we are unprofitable servants, 425a what will not the masters do, when the rascals dare such things, 636a when a lackey comes to hell, the devils lock the gates, 869a
when you have done a fault be pert and insolent, 350b who has many, has many thieves, 778a who will not serve one master must serve many, 782b wisdom for a servant to know more than he speaks, 621b young serving-man, an old beggar, 731a See Serve and Service, infra

SERVE
he that serves everybody is paid by nobody, 781a how wretched to serve where you have been master, 542b I served hym to paye, 194b served men nobly, 5b serves and seeks for gain, 306a they also serve who only stand and wait, 227a they serve who fain would sway, 59a
too proud to serve, 334a with all the duty of my soul I served her, 212a whose talent is to serve, 121b

SERVICE
a trade is better than service, 729a all service ranks the same, 31a
be first that you may be of service, 623b better be of service to the bad, than to fail the good because of the bad, 649a constant service of the antique world, 288b faithful service thus repaid, 204a good service is a great enchantment, 768b good service makes friends, 768b he that doth anything for the public is accounted to do it for nobody, 777a, 781a I have done the State some service, 303a in service high, 224b

Service—contd.

in suing for employment luck is everything, 716*b* ingratitute is the world's reward, 850*a* is no inheritance, 832*b* is wretched where the law is unsettled, 578*a*
 it is evil to serve the ungrateful, 556*a* loss of services (law term), 618*b* my country has had the best of my days, 715*a* no silver, no service, 816*b* not slavery to serve a distinguished chief, 530*a* of a lord is no inheritance, 832*b* proffered service stinketh, 828*a* small service is true service, 402*a* the curse of service, 300*a* there is mastery in service, 533*a* to serve the people is worse than serving two masters, 861*b* true and laudable service, 432*b* weary and old with service, 320*a* what service I was to the world, 43*b*
 when service sweat for duty, 288*b*
 who serves the public serves a fickle master, 781*a* who would command must serve, 782*b* without reward is punishment, 832*b*
 you can only govern men by serving them, 704*b*

SERVICE (divine)

the service greater than the god, 298*b* well she song the service divyne, 76*b*

SERVILITY

great people are only great because we are on our knees, 701*b* mediocre and cringing, one gets everything, 703*a* O servile herd, 606*a* supple knees feel arrogance, 838*a* See Slavery, Subservience Servitor, works like nimble and airy, 228*b*

Servitude that hugs her chain, 154*b* Sessions of sweet silent thought, 321*b* Set, sank from sight before it, 387*a* Set, think their little, mankind, 234*a* Setting sun, clouds that gather round, 401*a*

Settled, not to disturb things, 662*b* them all, I have, 610*a* Settle's numbers, in, one day more, 253*b*

Seven ages, his acts being, 288*b* Dials, the lowly air of, 146*b* hundred pounds and possibilities, 287*a* may be company, but nine are confusion, 833*a* shepherds spoil a flock, 833*a* Seventy years, victory o'er the weight of, 309*a*

SEVERE, SEVERITY

a severe, sour-complexioned man, 378*a* counsel retains power better than severity, 623*a* deals out the year with stern severity, 96*a* mingle severity with goodfellowship, 677*a* severe he was and stern to view, 148*b* severity breedeth fear, 10*a* Severe, Severity—contd.

that every nice offence should bear his comment, 286*b* the tender are the most severe, 371*b* to himself severe, 264*b* to nothing but herself severe, 70*a* virtuous and wise, but not severe, 4*a* when she (pity) is dead, 74*a* Severn and Wye, the eye between, 745*a* Severn, Avon into, 141*b* Seville: who has not seen Seville has seen nothing, 832*a* Sewers annoy the air, 221*a* and sinks, 87*b*

SEX

either sex alone is half itself, 361*a* formed for the ruin of our sex, 334*a* here's the sex, 44*b* mare's shoe and horse's are alike, 725*b* old ladies of both sexes, 115*b* old women of both sexes, 343*a* sex still strikes an awe, 134*a* that wondrous charm of sex, 260*b* the soft unhappy sex, 20*b*
 the weaker sex to piety more prone, 345*b* think you I am no stronger than my sex, 285*b* three sexes: men, women, and clergymen, 333*b* what all your sex desire, 126*b* Sexton, that bald, Time, 311*b* they went and told the, 172*a* Shade, a pillared, 221*a* and shining, betwixt, 92*b* contiguity of, 99*a* fleeting image of a, 327*a* none more notable in the Stygian abode, 597*b* on a fine day, 6*b* softening into shade, 370*a* the unpierced, 218*b* Shades where peace and rest can never dwell, 215*b*

SHADOWS

a little man may cast a great shadow, 724*a* a shadow proves the substance true, 247*a* a shadow and a fear, 171*a* best in this kind are but shadows, 281*a* cast their shadows before, 67*b* catch not at shadow and lose the substance, 747*a* every light has its shadow, 756*b* hence, horrible shadow, 304*b* if the staff be crooked the shadow cannot be straight, 789*b* in shadow-land, 3*b* individuals pass like shadows, 40*b* may your shadow never grow less, 809*b* no sunshine but hath some shadow, 817*a* our fatal shadows, 137*a* our wishes lengthen, like shadows, 406*b* out-soared the shadow of our night, 326*b* shadow of a shade, 404*a* shadow's shadow, 293*a* shadows have their shadows, 81*a* shadows long and terrible at sunset, 195*b* shadows, not substantial things, 329*a* Shadows—contd.

shadows to-night have struck more terror, 319*b* sins, like shadows, appear more towards evening, 346*a* sun casts least shadows when highest, 871*b* the shadow cloaked from head to foot, 362*a* the shadow stayed not, but the splendour stays, 352*a* thinking in shadow, 267*b* towers are measured by their shadows, 862*b* upon a wall, 78*a*, 78*b* what shadows we are, 41*a* Shaft, many a, at random sent, 273*b* when I had lost one, 282*a* Shaftesbury, Lord, 43*a*, 80*b* Shaken, to be well, 90*b* SHAKESPEARE, 4*b* a savage, with sparks of genius, 707*b* all but Shakespeare's name, 66*b* and the musical glasses, 151*a* Barnfield on Shakespeare, 17*a* Corneille compared with, 180*b* epitaphs, 446*a*, 446*b*

 looked through nature at one glance, 258*a* Milton on, 227*b*, 228*a* myriad-minded, 89*a* nature's chief darling, 169*b* Nature's darling, 154*b* no man ever spake as he, 353*b* O eyes sublime, 30*a* on mankind, 72*b* one wild Shakespeare, 232*a* rose to be Shakespeare, 32*a* Shakespeare's fame, 387*a* Shakespeare's heirs, 370*b* Shakespeare's magic, 126*a* Shakespeare's rich and varied lore, 273*a* Shakespeare's voice, 353*b* Soul of the age, 183*a* subtract Shakespeare and trash will remain, 91*a* sweetest Shakespeare, Fancy's child, 224*a* the tongue that Shakespeare spake, 397*a* to make room for Shakespeare, 18*b* to Shakespeare gave as much, 125*a* try to be Shakespeare, 33*b* unlocked his heart, 394*b* what needs my Shakespeare, 227*b* works built out of music, 388*b* Shall, his absolute, 308*a* Shallow waters make most din, 833*a* Shallows, in, and in miseries, 287*a* Sham, avoid, but do not seek glory, 333*a* Shambles of the parliament-house, 317*b*

SHAME

a shame, which is glory and grace, 420*a* a thousand innocent shames, 284*b* and dishonour sit by his grave ever, 260*b* and righteous governance of blood, 353*a* disown from shame what they from folly crave, 405*b* endures, 156*a* false shame, 467*b* false shame of fools, 663*b* Fear answers as Shame saith, 350*b* flexible in shame, 331*b* he is lost who has lost shame, 583*b*

Shame—contd.

he that shames shall be spent,
781*a*
he was not born for shame, 270*b* in the secret House of Shame, 389*b* is in the crime not in the punishment, 449*b* is worse than death, 833*a* lacqueys pride, 870*b* leaves us by degrees, 105*b* man a beast when shame stands off from him, 352*b* marked to do a deed of shame, 312*a*
nothing smelleth so sour as shame, 833*a* ornament to young; disgrace to old, 452*a* overwhelming shame boils in his
heart, 486*b*
pour the shame which it would pour on thee, 162*a* sense of, the second of virtues, 467*b*
shall sorrow light or shame, 63*b* shame followed shame, 397*a* shame soiled thy song, 352*b* shameful to be ashamed, 52*b* stings sharpest of worms in hell, 354*a*
time was I did not shame thee, 353*a*
to say of shame, what is it, 351*b* we are ashamed of not being shameless, 627*a* what generous heart can surmount shame, 694*a* what is shameful is more easily borne than what vexes us, 594*b* where is thy blush, 295*b* where there is no shame there is no honour, 873*b* where there is shame there is hope
of a man, 661*b*
who hangs his head for shame, 176*a*
who has no shame has no con-
science, 778*a*
whose glory is in their shame, 429*b* without sense of shame or glory, 349*a*
yet start at shame, 82*b* Shape but that, take any, 304*b* execrable, 217*b* it, had not force to, 366*a* in such a questionable, 291*b* it might be called, if, 217*b* to assume a pleasing, 293*b* Shapes, horrid, and shrieks, 224*a* knew all his, and scorned them
all, 272*b*
terrible, strange, sublime and beauteous, 325*b*
that come not at an earthly call,
400*a*
Share and share alike, 833*a*, note it, when most you, most enjoyed,
386*a*
the Lion and his, 521*b* Shares honey with a bear, who, 875*b* Shared, a thing is better for being,
729*a*
how things are, 46*b* Sharper than a serpent's tooth, 306*a* Sharpest showers, after, 195*a* Sharpness: he comes from Sheffield (or Tunbridge, or Spoleto), 774*b*,
note
people who are too sharp cut their fingers, 825*a* Sharps, harsh discords and unpleasing, 280*a* Shatter all his bulk, seemed to, 292*a*

Shaves, he, to the very skin, 642*b* Shaving, men for their sins have, 65*b* Shaw, Oh Captain, 147*a* "She" is the cat's mother, 833*b* She, that not impossible, 104*a* She, the fair, the chaste, and un-expressive, 289*a* Shearers' feast, the, 226*b* Shears, th' abhorred, 226*a* Sheath, sword outwears its, 61*b* SHEEP

a shepherdess of sheep, 214*a* and oxen, under his feet, 612*a* as sheep that have not a shepherd, 410*b* as well be hanged for sheep as a lamb, 739*b*
before her shearers, 418*a* entrusted to wolf, 614*b* every time the sheep bleats it loses a mouthful, 758*a* good pastures make fat sheep,
768*b*
in sheep's clothing, 422*a* it's a poor man that always counts his sheep, 797*b* mountain sheep are sweeter, 241*b* never lose a sheep for a ha'p'orth
of tar, 815*a*, note
not a question of feeding, but of wool, 597*b*
one follows another, 822*b* one sickly sheep infects the flock, 382*b*, 822*b*
other sheep I have, not of this fold, 425*b*
poor as a sheep new shorn, 738*b* scabbit sheep files all the flock, 727*b*
shear in May, and shear them away, 833*b*
should be shorn, not flayed, 833*b* the crow bewails the sheep and then eats it, 842*a* the hungry sheep look up, 226*b* the lone sheep is in danger of the wolf, 847*b*
their sely sheep to feed, 330*a* there is a black sheep in every flock, 854*b* when sheep are counted the wolf eats them, 870*b* who makes himself a, shall be eaten by the wolf, 780*a* without a sheep, a wolf within,
51*b*
you owed me a sheep, but paid me a lamb, 880*a* Sheep-hook, scarce themselves know how to hold a, 226*b* Sheffield, he comes from, 774*b*, note steel, swords of, 273*b* Shell, as moans the ocean-, 161*a* leaving thine outgrown, 168*b* like a rose-lipped, 169*b* of sin, broke the outward, 70*a* soul of music slumbers in the, 264*b* take you each a, 256*a* the convolutions of a smoothlipped, 401*b* unsleeping murmur, like a, 344*b* Shells: remember their august abodes, 193*a*
Shelley, 6*a* Shelley, did you once see, 36*a* the hectic, flamelike rose of verse, 381*a*
Shelter to grow ripe, 5*a* Shepherd, a good, shears sheep and does not flay them, 498*a* every, tells his tale, 224*a* gentle, tell me where, 174*b* repented of his love, 15*a*

Shepherd's trade, homely, slighted, 226*a*
fear of sun on Candlemas Day, 733*b*
Shepherds, seven, spoil a flock, 833*a* Shepherds wrangle, if, when the wolf is nigh, 274*b* Sheridan, 60*b*
Sheridan, Moore on, 233*b* Sheriff-Muir, battle at, 440*a* Sheriff's feast, at a, 92*b*, note Shier's (shriever), mayors and, 253*b* Shield, return with this, or on this,
472*b*
Shieling, from the lone, 441*a* Shift, bad, better than none, 717*a* good, will not last for ever, 722*b* our sails, 62*a* Shilling, a splendid, 243*b* known as a hog, 455*a* weather, 350*b*, note Shimei was always in the midst of
them, 123*a*
Shine in company, few qualified to,
350*a* restless eagerness to, 75*a* singing as they, 3*a* they, by giving back thy rays,
186*b*
Shining, the rage of, 345*a* SHIP and SHIPS a dear ship stands longer in haven, 719*b* a jail, with chance of being drowned, 178*b* a little ship needs but a little sail, 724*a*
a prison, 50*a* a thousand thousand sails, 396*a* a wooden wall, 583*a* all I ask is a tall ship, 209*b* are but boards, 282*a* as a painted ship, 86*b* bridge of ships, 451*a* commit thy ship unto the wind, 438*b*
dim-discovered ships, dropping from the clouds, 369*b* do not embark your all in one vessel, 752*b*
dreaming head and the steering
hand, 353*b*
ever (in need of) repairing, 436*a*, 726*b*, note
fear fire more than water, 833*b* go down to the sea in ships 413*a*
great ships require deep waters 722*b*, 770*a*
guarded with ships, 377*a* ill vessels seldom miscarry, 792*a* like two doomed ships that pass in storm, 389*b* little journeys and good cost bring safe home, 804*a* little ships must keep the shore, large may venture more, 803*b* love their ships and their wives, 111*a*
never bears merchandise for me, 121*b*
never spoil the ship for a ha'p'orth of tar, 815*a* O Ship of State, 198*b* old vessels must leak, 820*a* ploughing the ocean in a fragile bark, 601*b*
sailing like a stately ship, 223*b* seagirt citadel, 54*a* should not be judged from the
land, 727*b*
skill, not strength, governs a ship,
834*b*

Ship and Ships—cont'd.

sooner rigged than a gentle-
woman, 436a
slant littore puppes, 662b that ever scuttled ship, 63a that fatal and perfidious bark, 226a that have gone down at sea, 233a that mysterious forest below
 London Bridge, 267b
 that pass in the night, 199b that sailed for sunny isles, 165b that sea beauty man has ceased to build, 209b the carcasses of many a tall ship, 282b the Liner she's a lady, 190a the minister of the ship, 242b to a crazy ship all winds are contrary, 859b ventis secundis, 680a vessel that will not obey her helm must obey the rocks, 852b we are continually two inches from death, 691b we've got the ships, 458a were drifting from the dead, 68a wherries must not put out to sea, 874a wooden walls, 447b you carry Cæsar and Cæsar's fortunes, 499b SHIPWRECK and SHIPWRECKS a plank in a shipwreck, 667a common shipwreck, a consolation to all, 504a each man makes his own shipwreck, 585b
 he complains wrongfully of the sea who twice suffers shipwreck, 772a
 he wrongly accuses Neptune who makes shipwreck twice, 550b I saw the shipwreck, 682b in port, 585b pleasant from dry land to watch distress of others at sea, 664a the harbour after shipwrecks, 623a too late to cast anchor when the ship's on the rocks, 797b picking: let George do it, 800b never shirk the hardest work, 815a art, al hadde he not a, 78a and a half, a, in all my company, 314b close my, closer my skin, 748a merits of a spotless, 363a ruffles to a man that has never a, 149a, note
 rock, better to sink beneath the,
 56b rocks me, pleases and yet, 100a that flesh is heir to, 203b and in the cradle, barefoot in the stubble, 833b SHOES
 another pair of, 840a anxious about the shoes, careless about the feet, 511a, 880a better cut the shoe than pinch the foot, 742b
 better wear out shoes than sheets, 744a black shoe maketh blithe heart, 718a breaking shoes are not paid for,
 749b every shoe fits not every foot, 757b if your shoe pinch, give it your
 man, 791a
 (kiss) the cover of your foot, 211a let not the shoe be larger than the foot, 474b

Shoes—cont'd.

must be made devoutly, 70b none so well shod but they may
 slip, 817b
 old shoes are easiest, 820a old shoes (at weddings) for
 "bonnie bairns," 830a
 one shoe off and one on, 822b sheepskin shoe lasts not long, 727b shoes and ships and sealing-wax, 120a the shadow of your shoe-tie, 51b the shoe will hold with the sole,
 851a their feet through faithless
 leather, 408b
 to each foot its own shoe, 758b too large, and too small, 508a waiting for dead men's shoes, 795b were on their feet, 119b, 331a where the shoe pinches, 78a, 452b, 654a, 758b, 817a while the shoe is on thy foot tread upon the thorns, 874a whose shoe's latchet I am not worthy to unloose, 425a

SHOEMAKERS

are worst shod, 834a gentlemen of the gentle craft, 108b may all the world trample on their trade, 461a six awls make a shoemaker, 834b shoemakers' wives are worst shod, 833b

SHOOTING

archer who over-shoots misses,
 840a far shooting never killed a bird, 760a good shooting and first-rate claret, 117b he shoots higher that threatens the moon, 164a he that shoots always right forfeits his arrow, 781a never shoot, never hit, 815a shoot at the pigeon and kill the crow, 446a
 shooting often hits the mark, 815a short shooting loses the game, 834a the wounded coveys, 45b to teach the young idea how to shoot, 369a what he missed is mystery, 174a what things we see when we don't have a gun, 868b who is always shooting must sometimes hit, 783a who shoots at the midday sun, 329b
See Shot

SHOPS and SHOPKEEPERS

a nation of shopkeepers, 454b a shop easy to open, hard to keep open, 795a
 a shop-keeping nation, 709b, note abuse the shopocracy, 390b keep your shop and it will keep
 you, 798b
 shopping women served by men, 209a to set up shop on Goodwin Sands, 800b

SHORE and SHORES

a safer shore, 2a bring him safe to shore, 206b fast by their native shore, 102a knew no shores beyond their own, 603b love the shore, 567b on the dull, tame shore, 260b

Shore and Shores—cont'd.

shore where no man will steer,
 352a
 shores never to return to their
 sight, 567b
 shores where all was dumb, 68a some false impossible shore, 5a some silent shore, 142a that unknown and silent shore, 191b the after-silence on the shore, 60b the lovely shore, 56a the pebbled shore, 321b them unhappy folks on shore, 245a thy wild and willowed shore, 272a to plough the sea-shore, 635b undreamed shores, 310b what shore is without our blood, 627b where is that radiant shore, 161b with you now, from shore to shore, 397a

Shorn, went home, 34a

SHORT and SHORTNESS

a short man needs no stool to box a lubber's ear, 728a a short cut is a loss of time, 504a if you find it wondrous short, 149b it will take a long time to make it short, 372a life perfect in short measures, 183a short and sweet, 833b short the date of all, 98b the short and the long of it, 287b the shortest ladies love longest
 men, 139a
 the shortest way commonly the foulest, 8b

Shot at for sixpence a day, 110b every shot has its commission, 755b
 I shot his fellow of the self-same flight, 282a
 the shot heard round the world, 131b to keep out of, 471b without paying his, 15b Shoulder to the wheel, put your
 own, 828b

SHOUT and SHOUTING

a shout that tore hell's concave, 216b midnight shout and revelry, 225a shout not, be still, 102b shout with the largest mob, 111b the inhuman shout, 55b the shouting dies, 189b they send their shout to the stars, 503a
 who do nothing take to shouting,
 857b

Show, all a fleeting, 232a that within that passeth, 290a the form it seemed to hide, 273b what we feel to, 95a

Shows, admire fair seeming, 341a outward, 283a

Showest, have more than thou, 306a Showing the worst first, 298b

SHOWER and SHOWERS

a momentary shower, 19b fragrance after showers, 219a presaged by shooting corns, 348a sun brightest after sharpest showers, 195a
 the fertile earth after soft showers, 219a
 Shreds and patches, 295b Shrew, a terrible, was she, 336b better be, than sheep, 742a every man can tame, except he that hath her, 756b

Shrewsbury, he that takes a wife at, 781*b* Shriek, a solitary, 62*b* Shrieks and sights unholy, 224*a* Shrine and the stone, between, 744*a* of the mighty, 56*a* Shroud, a, as well as a shirt, 171*a* has no pockets, 728*a* his heavy-shotted hammock-, 362*a* Shrove Tuesday: the best fritters (pancakes) I ever ate, 242*b* Shrovetide, rejoice, to-morrow you will be ashes, 829*b* Shrunk, how much art thou, 314*b* to this little measure, 286*a* Shut, to, excelled her power, 218*a* Shuts out, whom the heart of man, 203*a* Shutters fast, close the, 100*a* Shuttle flies, how swift the, 406*b* life is a, 287*b* swifter than a weaver's, 411*a* Shylock, 16*a*, 439*a* Si Peu que Rien, 653*a*, note Si valet ille venit, 559*b* Sibyl, contortions of the, 43*a* Sic vos non vobis, 657*b* SICK and SICKNESS a sick body the soul's prison, 13*a* as sick, that surfeit, as they that starve, 282*a* easy when in health to advise the sick, 529*a* how oft they have been sick, 98*a* if sickness be thy lot, 240*a* mind reflects on itself in sickness, 552*b* provideth for the sick and needy, 432*b* say I'm sick, I'm dead, 252*a* sickly but sassy, 158*a* sickness and sorrows, 50*a* that the gate of my tomb should have been knocked at so often, 542*b* to the sick man health, 85*b* Sicken and decay, when love begins to, 286*b* Sickled o'er with the pale cast, 294*a* Sickness in my heart, warms the very, 296*b* Side, always on the buttered, 232*b*, note for the good or evil, 201*a* he who knows only his own, 215*a* justice inclined to the weaker, 52*a* nobody is on my, 6*b* saw but a single, 386*b* shifting his, 101*b* Sides, a man may wear it on both, 298*b* man who sees both, sees nothing, 388*b* much might be said on both, 2*b* there has been much to do on both, 293*a* two, to every question,—the wrong side and our side, 854*a* Side-saddle, a bonnie, 49*a* Sidney bowed his head, 398*b* lord of the stainless sword, 353*a* warbler of poetic prose, 100*b* Sidney's sister, 128*b* Siegel, a league with Famine, 335*a* Siege to scorn, will laugh a, 305*b* Sieves, who deals in the world wants four, 777*a* SIGHS and SIGHING a long, long sigh, 102*a*
 a lover without sighing, 4*b* a sigh is the sword of an angel-kings, 23*b*

Sighs and Sighing—contd. a sigh like Tom o' Bedlam, 305*b* a sigh, a tear, so sweet, 19*a* a sigh so piteous and profound, 292*a* a sigh too deep, 207*a* beadle to a humorous sigh, 277*a* easy sighs, such as been to like, 79*a* easy sighs, such as folk draw in love, 346*b* for her he sighs, he longs, he desires, 541*a* gave me for my pains a world of sighs, 300*b* had sighed to many, 53*a* heart-sore sighs, 281*a* here's a sigh to those who love me, 61*b* how vain is my sighing, 160*a* hushed be that sigh, 328*b* I sigh the lack of many a thing I sought, 321*b*
 I sigh with pleasure, 145*b* never sigh, but send, 815*a* no sighs but of my breathing, 282*b* no sooner sighed but they asked one another the reason, 289*b* not a sigh, nor a tear, my pain discloses, 149*b*, note not such sorrowful sighs, 79*a*, 346*b*, note of no avail where remedies are required, 796*a* perhaps 'twill cost a sigh, 15*a* sigh and do not love, 26*a* sigh in thanking God, 29*b* sigh no more, ladies, 284*b* sighed and looked and sighed again, 126*a* sighed for the love of a ladye, 145*b* sighed and wept, 79*b* some perhaps may sigh, 233*a* sorrowful sighing of the prisoners, 433*b* sovereign of sighs and groans, 277*a* the natural language of the heart, 276*a* the passing tribute of a sigh, 154*a* the sighing of a contrite heart, 432*a* where's the use of sighing, 162*a* wherefore should we sigh and whine, 59*b* who thinks that wanton thing is won by sighs, 54*a* will amorous sighs supply the want of fire, 446*b* SIGHT and SIGHTS a sight for sair een, 728*a* a sight so touching in its majesty, 395*a*
 a sight to dream of, 86*b*
 a sight to make an old man young, 358*a* a sight to shake the midriff of despair, 360*a* a splendid sight to see, 53*b* dulness of our blinded sight, 433*a* if you have hitherto concealed this sight, 101*b* out of my sight, 312*a* out of sight out of mind, 85*a*, 823*b*, note the finest sight beneath the sky, 38*a* the keenest of our senses, 484*a* the present time does not require such sights, 598*b* the sight of a man hath the strength of a lion, 851*a* Sight and Sights—contd.

 there is a time to wink as well as to see, 854*b* things out of sight forgotten die, 345*b*
 you may see heaven through a needle's eye, 879*b* Sigilli, locus (L.S.), 567*b* Sigismund above grammar, 521*b* Sign nothing without reading it, 753*b* SIGN and SIGNS behold the sign, 521*a* by these signs secrets are conveyed over land and sea, 544*a*
 he dies and makes no sign, 317*a* in this sign thou shalt conquer, 551*b* outward and visible sign, 433*a* shall show signs and wonders, 424*a* signs of the times, 423*a* sure signs precede sure events, 502*b* the future sign, 50*b* the sign that Shakespeare knew 353*b* we made no sign, 389*b* Sign-post dauber, any, 124*b* Signal shown, only a, 199*b* Signalling: By these signs secrets are conveyed, 544*a* Signet sage, slightly pressed its, 270*b* Signifying nothing, 305*b* Signore, tu, e tu maestro, 715*b* Signiors, most potent, grave, and reverend, 300*b* SILENCE
 a dumb man holds all, 720*a*, note a fine jewel for a woman, but little worn, 834*b* a friend that will never betray 834*b* a lame tongue gets nothing, 753*b* a man not converted because silenced, 235*a* a wise man is sometimes silent, 626*b* Adam, while he spake not, had Paradise, 194*b* after grievous things is good, 353*a* all were with one accord silent, 505*b* and sufferance, 228*b* answers much, 834*b* be silent that ye may hear, 286*a* be silent when you doubt your sense, 247*b* best ornament of women, 469*b*, 834*b* but it was pain and grief to me, 433*b* catches a mouse, 834*b* close mouth catcheth no flies, 719*a* criticism of silence, 160*b* crow would have had a better feast if it could have fed in silence, 667*b*
 "Daughter, hold thy tongue;" 647*a* deep as death, 67*b* dumb dogs are dangerous, 753*b* dumb folks get no lands, 753*b* Dumb's a sly dog, 83*b* each silent, each upon his guard, 271*a* enforced is wretched, 578*b* English talent for silence, 73*a* eternal silence be their doom, 220*a* expressive silence, 370*a* fool when silent is accounted wise, 720*b* foster-child of silence, 185*b*

Silence—contd.

from a man that says nothing withdraw for ever, 764a froze into silence, 308b gives consent, 834b gratitude of true affection, 328b great is their passion for silence, 643a harmful to none to have been silent, 584a harms no one, 647a has been the loss of many friendships, 581b has its prayers and language, 715a have a care of natures that are mute, 213a he is nearest God who knows how to be silent, 685a he that is silent gathers stones, 779b his silence will sit drooping, 297a homage (silent) of thoughts unspoken, 200a how dead (night), 404b how silently, and with how wan a face, 394b
if you had been silent, you would have remained a philosopher, 607b impossible to be silent, 43a in love bewrays more woe, 262b in woman like speech in man, 182b is golden, 837a is most noble till the end, 353a is of eternity, 72b is wisdom, but few practise it, 834b kindly silence when they bawl, 363a
let it be tenable in your silence, 290b like a poultice comes, 167b majestic silence, 160a may be eloquent in love, 91b may violate truth, 681a merit of silence is slight, 528a mother of Truth, 117a never hurts; speech is the hurtful
thing, 505b
no gods love idle speech, 353a no speech comparable to silence, 705 no wisdom to silence, 817b not the greatest vice of woman, 834b occasional flashes of silence, 333b psychological moment for, 388a rose dedicated to, 524a rose the emblem of, 664b say nothing, but think the more, 831a seldom doth harm, 834b silence all and pleasing expectation, 369a
silence, even from good words, 433b silence his mother-tongue, 150a silence of pure innocence persuades, 310a silence stands for wisdom in a fool, 667a
silence that spoke, 257a silence uttering love, 354b silence was pleased, 219a silent and aware, 36b
silent are the good, 193a silent men are deep and dangerous, 837b silent men get the character of being disagreeable, 621a silently steal away, 198a silently we seemed to speak, 171b take pity on us and be silent, 578a

Silence—contd.

talents of the silent class, 64a
the after-silence on the shore, 60b the art of, one of the arts of
pleasing, 710b
the silence that is in the starry
sky, 393b
the less he spoke the more he heard, 442b the perfected herald of joy, 284a the rest is silence, 297b the reward of silence is sure, 673b the soul of war, 259b the very stillness is terrifying, 546b the wit of fools and a virtue of the wise, 700b there is nothing else to be told,
567a they wonder in silence, 578a thirsty drink in silence, 475b throughout the city, 676a to break the deep silence, 636b to make another silent, be silent, 488a to-night and silence, 66b tree of silence bears fruit of peace, 834b
valuable in conversation, 700b virtue of fools, 13b was never written down, 834b well-timed silence more eloquent than speech, 373b when they are silent they call out, 509a which was almost pain, 387a while silent they call out, 520a who holds his tongue is strong, 634b
who knows most says least, 875a wise head makes close mouth, 729b without danger of offence, 160b Xenocrates had never repented of silence, 517b you cannot conceal folly except by silence, 663b Silhouettes: the best in this kind are but shadows, 281a Silk, a halter made of, 83a fairest, is soonest stained, 843b in unpaid-for, 309a Silks and satins put out the kitchen fire, 834b, note Silken, sly, insinuating Jacks, 318b Silkworm, so spins the, 254a Siller, God send us, 766a
Silly bairn is eith to learn, 728b Silly trade, thy own, 43a

SILVER

an untold quantity of silver and
gold, 548b
and gold have I none, 426a bonnie silver is soon spent, 745b born with a silver spoon, 860a cloud's silver lining, 225a fight thou with shafts of silver, 164a
for a handful of, 36a music with the silver sound, 280a sable silvered, 290b silver bullets, 164a, note silver in his tongue, 778b silver key can open iron lock, 728b silver quinsy, 452a silver shafts, 164a, note

SIMILARITY

as like as milk to milk, 590a birds of a feather, 744b birds of prey do not flock together, 744b every sheep with its fellow, 744b great minds think alike, 770a Similarity—contd.

if you have known one you have known all, 675b like as chalk to cheese, 738b like as two peas, 738b like cures like, 802a like draws to like, 802a like will to like, 803a nothing similar is the same, 592b of manners more important in friendship than relationship, 621b of studies and disposition, 650b one egg not more like another, 601a there is never cake but there is another of same make, 855b they are so like that both are the worse for it, 856b worst husbands and worst wives should agree, 678b

SIMILES

I sit and play with similes, 393a most unsavoury similes, 313a none runs on all fours, 604b one simile that solitary shines, 253a
they much describe, they nothing prove, 259a Simpers, she, like a frumenty-kettle, 833a

SIMPLE AND SIMPLICITY

blessed is simplicity, 495b congenial to man's nature, 641b
credula simplicitas, 507a felicity comes of simplicity, 380a holy simplicity, 607b how blessed are we that are not simple men, 310b in his simplicity sublime, 361a in simplicity a child, 256a prudens simplicitas, 567a no hindrance to subtlety of intellect, 235a of the Three per Cents, 118a, 274b prudently simple, 444b sancita simplicitas, 607b seal of truth is simple, 658a simple in her elegance, 658a simple, plain Clarence, 318a simple song for thinking hearts, 393b simple truth, miscalled simplicity, 322a simpleness and merit, 284b simplest things put on a sombre cast, 185b simplicity of mind sacred in the eye of Heaven, 402a tasteful simplicity, 522a the seal of truth, 711a the simple life that Nature yields, 103a these simple-hearted men are moved, 395a those simple souls might teach,
104b
too simple and too sweet for
words, 241b
truth victim of its own simplicity, 839b unadorned, 525b very rare in our age, 487a when simpleness and duty tender
it, 281a
whose hearts are fresh and simple,
190a (Wisdom) resigns her charge to Simplicity, 218b

SIN, SINFULNESS, SINNERS

a habit or some darling sin, 239b an old sin, a new shame, 736b, 820a and folly into sin, 273a

Sin, Sinfulness, Sinners—contd.

be all my sins remembered, 294a being by nature born in sin, 433a better beware of sin than flee from death, 575b commit oldest sins the newest kind of ways, 315b difference between being unwilling to sin and not knowing how, 582b draw sin as it were with a cart-ropes, 417a each man shall bear his own sin, 236a ere sin could blight, 85b every man carries the bundle of his sins, 137b everyone has more than he knows, 763b every sin brings its punishment, 757b fear nothing but sin, 760b few love to hear sins they love to act, 308b fools make a mock at sin, 414a forsake sin ere it forsake you, 78b fresh sin, fresh penance, 757b God be merciful to me, a sinner, 514a greater in proportion to high rank, 630b greatest punishment the fact of having sinned, 624a greatest virtues only splendid sins, 453b had I not sinned what had there been for you to pardon, 651a he does not purge who denies sins, 600a he does not win who plays with sin, 389b he that boasteth of sin is a devil, 141b he that is without sin, 425b hence, whoso is sinful, 471a her sins to her Saviour, 160a I find so much of sin and blot, 443a if committed by many is unpunished, 635a imaginary and scarcecrow sins, 228a in the blossoms of my sin, 292a incitement to sin is the hope of not being punished, 574b inclination to sin entails penalties, 616b it is sin not to be angry with sin, 796b Jupiter would be soon armless if he discharged thunderbolts for every sin, 656a keep from opportunities, 823b knowledge of sin the beginning of salvation, 556b lay not this sin to their charge, 426a let me sin once with impunity, 514a like shadows, sins seem monstrous towards our evening, 346a little sins make room for great, 130a lose the sin, yet keep the sense, 255a men do not confess because they are yet in them, 630b mercy emboldens sin, 308b miserable sinners, 432a more sinned against than sinning, 306a my sin, my grievous sin, 575a

Sin, Sinfulness, Sinners—contd.

no man wicked without loss and punishment, 476b no sin without motive, 873b none without sin, 808a of sin, we can but kiss it, 351b one sin will destroy a sinner, 39a one slough and crust of sin, 358a our compelled sins, 299b plate sin with gold, 307a poor do penance for sins of the rich, 849b put not another sin upon my head, 280a quantum o' the sin, 47a she who does not sin because it is not safe, 655b sin, but in secret, 81b sin excusable; to be taken is a crime, 138a sin grows up by degrees, 137a sin is sin, whether seen or no, 834b sin lawful to no one, 617b sin makes ugly, 834b Sin-no-more's a task too hard for mortals, 375b sin not in the sinning, but being found out, 851a sin securely, but never safely, 182a sinful heart makes feeble hand, 270a sinless child of sin, 63b sins and debts always more than we think, 834b sins not known till acted, 834b sins of youth paid for in old age, 628a some are thinkin' on their sins, 45a sometimes sin's a pleasure, 62a the example does more harm than the sin, 621b the good hate to sin through love of virtue, 608b the less the temptation the greater the sin, 847a the sin wherewith the Face of Man is blackened, 136b the sins they are inclined to, 51a their sins were armed against them, 337b they that sin are enemies to their own life, 419a to sin is human, to persevere in sin is satanic, 617b 'twas but one little drop of sin, 186a unsinning sin, 35a
wages of sin is death, 427a way of sinners is made plain with stones, 785a we are sinners all, 317b we have more sins than each man knows, 855a when all sins grow old, covetousness is young, 869b where there is no sin, there is no knowledge, 873b whether the charmer sinner it or saint it, 251a who does not forbid sin encourages it, 633a who make compromise with sin, 201b you may sin less if you know what you are ignorant of, 577b you're the sinner oillers, 202a

SINCERE, SINCERITY
a little sincerity dangerous, a great deal, fatal, 388b in every thought sincere, 256a sincere, plain-hearted, hospitable, kind, 369b Sincere, Sincerity—contd.

sincerity and faithfulness the highest things, 760a sincerity congenial to man's nature, 641b the sincere alone can recognise sincerity, 73a too shrewd to be sincere, 100b whose heart knew no disguise, 264a without weakness knew to be sincere, 204a would blush at being thought sincere, 407b wrought in a sad sincerity, 131a Sine felle joci, 483b Sine prole (s.p.), 658b Sinews of war, 11a of the war, 130a of war, endless money, 590b

SING, SINGERS, SINGING a singing face, 134b, 138a alas for those that never sing, 168a anguish of the singer, 390a as a singist I am not a success, 27b bird that can and won't sing, 841a do him wrong to sing so wildly, 362b each bird loves to hear himself sing, 754a first of earthly singers, the sun-loved rill, 213a free to sing and play, 134b God sent his singers, 199a good singing is often wearisome, 768b he had no singing education, 63b he knew himself to sing, 226a he rives the church to tatch the choir, 776a he sighed in his singing, 436b he sings and he sings, 86a he sings of himself, 559b he that would sing but hath no song, 207b I can't sing, 27b
I do but sing because I must, 362a I will sing as I shall please, 391a I will sing to myself and to the Muses, 499b idle singer of an empty day, 236a live with a singer if you would learn to sing, 804b lulled by the singer of an empty day, 236a man was never meant to sing, 193b no song, no supper, 817a one man can speak, seven can sing 822a, note praise thy singing, 167a saddest when I sing, 27b silver waves of my sweet singing, 326a sing before breakfast, cry before night, 790b sing that I may seem valiant, 128b sing to the Lord with cheerful voice, 437a sing us now a tender song, 244a sing the savageness out of a bear, 302a singer keeps his shop in his throat, 851a singing as they shine, 3a singing at work, 22b, 240b, note, 329b singing, laughing, ogling, 247b singing on journey makes the way less tedious, 500a singing is an alluring art, 645b
singing still dost soar, 326a singing till his heaven fills, 213a

Sing, Singers, Singing—contd.

sings, and so o'ercomes its rage,
94*b*
sings so merry a note, 17*a* six little singing boys, 13*b* sweetest of all singers, 199*b* that they sing and that they love, 377*b*
the singing singers, 70*a* though I shall never hear thee sing, 391*b*
to sing by the way, 608*a* to sing that extremely lovely
thing, 145*a*
vice of singers, unwillingness to begin and to leave off, 612*a* when folks sing at work, 22*b* when the Spaniard sings he is either mad or has nothing, 874*b*
who sings worst will begin first,
634*a* Single blessedness, dies in, 280*a* men in barracks, 189*a* nothing in the world is, 327*a* when a man's, he lives at his ease, 869*a*
Singleness, set in for, 169*b* Singularity, love of, 75*a* seems to have a spice of arrogance, 834*b*
the trick of, 298*a* Sink, his ambition is to, 100*b* or soar, unfit to, 59*a* or swim, 834*b* Sinking, alacrity in, 268*a*, 287*b* Sire to son, bleeding, 56*a* and sons, this sympathy of, 399*a* to son it goes, from, 68*b* Sires renowned for virtue, to spring from, 391*a*
Siren Desidia, improba, 685*b* Sirens sing sweetest when they would betray, 121*a* sang, song the, 29*a* Sirmond, Father, 30, note SISTERS an erring sister's shame, 56*b* had it been his sister no one would have missed her, 445*b* his sisters and his cousins, 145*a* leave thou thy sister when she prays, 362*a* my sweet sister, 60*b* resemblance between sisters, 529*a*
she who can love a sister's charms, 251*a* sister-turned-mother, 31*b* there is no friend like a sister, 265*b*
the sisters three, 282*b*
the weird sisters, 305*a* under their skins, sisters, 190*b* untwine the sisters three, 315*a* Sisyphus, 495*a* Sisyphus, the example of, 658*b* Sitting still, most indomitably, 379*b* Situs, in, 553*b*
Six hundred pounds a year, 255*b*, 349*b*
Six Hundred, rode the, 361*b*
Six of one, half-a-dozen of the other,
834*a*
Sixes and sevens, at, 739*b* Sixpence, bang went, 455*a* a tester, 780*a*
I give thee, 69*b*
Sixteen, punchy concern of, 16*b* Sixty: a bachelor of three-score, 284*a*
SIZE extends from the infernal regions to the air of heaven, 630*b*

Size—contd.

greater or less do not alter kind, 572*a*
Skating over thin ice, 132*b* Skeleton, hiding the, 213*a* in every house, 854*b*
living, 111*b*
Skiff, to call a, a skiff, 478*b*
SKILL
a joy to any man, 209*a* but a barbarous skill, 94*b* comes of doing, 132*a* comes so slow, 107*a* favour is not to men of skill, 737*b*
some glory in their skill, 322*a* stronger than strength, 834*b* taken by my skill she must be retained by it, 492*b* the evil is renewed by skill, 596*b* work of human skill, 392*a* Skimpole, Mr., 114*b* Skin and Bone, be it known to, 53*a* for skin, 411*a* it is good sleeping in a heal skin, 795*b*
keep yourself in your, 555*b* of an innocent lamb, parchment made of, 317*b* of my teeth, 411*b* whiter than snow, 302*b* Skittles, beer and, 66*a* I'll loore him on to, 53*a* SKY and SKIES
admitted to that equal sky, 248*a* at night, a canopy, 325*a* blue ethereal sky, 3*a* blue rejoicing sky, 85*b* blue sky bends over all, 86*b* commencing with the skies, 523*b*,
note
curving on a sky, 33*b* flames in the forehead of the morning sky, 226*b*
if the sky fall we shall catch larks,
780*b*
is there no bright reversion in the
sky, 254*b*
let us sit and watch the sky, 170*b* like a diamond in the sky, 355*b* like some watcher of the skies, 184*b*
looks commercing with the skies,
224*b*
nothing but sky and sea, 503*b* pilgrim of the sky, 393*b* points her to the skies, 129*b* purest sky of undisturbed humanity, 399*a* raging of the skies, 69*a* rush into the skies, 248*b* shone where the sky now is black, 352*a* tears of the sky, 80*a* the cloudless sky, 120*b* the nursing of the sky (cloud), 326*b*
the sky and the ocean, 87*b* their slender tops were close against the sky, 171*b* they are of the sky, 394*b* they change their sky but not their disposition, 503*b* this majestic roof fretted with golden fire, 293*a* thy sullen skies, 99*b* treads the chambers of the sky, 341*b*
under the canopy, 308*a* under the open sky, 37*a* under the wide and starry sky, 344*b*
vain is the glory of the sky, 393*a*

Sky and Skies—contd.

wearisome to watch constantly
the arch of heaven, 667*b* witchery of the soft blue sky, 394*a* you are shooting into the sky, 551*a*
you cannot shut the windows of the sky, 371*a* you common people of the skies, 403*a* Skull, candle in a, 98*a* Slackness breeds worms, 163*a* Slain, grievous ways to have thee, 351*a*
he can never do that's, 52*a* he that is in battle, 435*b* thrice he slew the, 125*b* to stab the, 562*a* SLANDER
bestuck with slanderous darts, 222*a*
done to death by slanderous tongues, 285*a*
flings stones at itself, 834*b* foulest whelp of sin, 246*a* half the world delights in slander, the other half in believing it, 770*b* in the dark by guess, 258*a* leaves a score (or sore) behind it, 834*b*
meanest spawn of hell, 359*a* outvenoms all the worms of Nile, 309*a*
pardons and pleasantnesses great revengers of, 824*a* sharper than the sword, 309*a* slander stoutly, something will stick, 499*b* slanderous as Satan, 288*a* speak no slander, no, nor listened to it, 364*a* speak no slander, no, nor listen to
it, 366*a*
squint-eyed slander, 19*b* thee nor carketh care nor slander, 357*a*
whose sting is sharper than the sword's, 310*a* woman's, is the worst, 359*a* worst of poisons, 165*b* Slang is metaphor, 81*a* Slashing article, for a, 367*a* Slate, a clean, 667*a* wiping something off a, 190*a* Slattern, Lady, has been before me, 328*a* Slaughter by chemistry and machinery, 323*b* man arrayed for mutual, 397*b* Slaughterous thoughts, 305*b* SLAVE, SLAVES, SLAVERY a slave to till my ground, 99*a* a slave wreaking his madness on the backs of freemen, 586*a* a subject, not a slave, 392*a* (Abolition of): the blood-stained writing is for ever torn, 397*a* as the slave departs, 66*a* be wholly slaves, or wholly free, 124*b*
better the devil's slave than a woman's, 210*b* born slaves, bred slaves, 31*b* Britons never will be slaves, 371*b* five-and-thirty black slaves (piano notes), 379*b*
I was not born a little slave, 355*a* liberty don't agree with niggers, 202*a*
men made for slavery, 606*b* ne'er shall the sons of Columbia be slaves, 241*a*

Slave, Slaves, Slavery—contd.
 no man loveth his fetters, 816b no slavery more disgraceful than voluntary, 603a oh! to be a slave, 171a
 passion's slave, 294b
 slave of circumstance, 59b Slave Trade, sum of all villainies, 385a slavery, a bitter draught, 343b slavery bad in excess, good when moderate, 448b slavery dwells under roofs of gold and marble, 664b slavery enchains a few; more enchain themselves, 617a slavery grows in every soil, 40a slavery takes half man's worth
 away, 257b
 slaves cannot breathe in England, 99a slaves free to fear, lament, or rejoice, 493a so we are slaves, 59b taken by the insolent foe and sold to slavery, 300b the Chian buys himself a master, 502b
 the slaves of centuries are free, 210a they are slaves who dare not be in the right, 201a thou art my slave, 153a will you endure slavery with equanimity, 687b Slay the meanest thing, to, 169b us, though thou, we will trust to thee, 159a
Slaying, of thy, no wise are we fain, 235b the slain, what valour in, 448a SLEEP
 a death-like sleep, 222a a li'l sleepin', 244a
 a little sleep allowable in a long
 work, 681b
 a shorter death, 140a a third of life passed in sleep, 65b after toyle, 339b all the wild trash of sleep, without the rest, 407b balm of hurt minds, 304a balm of woe, 330a before you fight, 4a better than medicine, 834b between a sleep and a sleep, 353a blessed be the man who invented sleep, 343a, 449a blossoms of sleep, and of pleasure, 352a brings back the day's wishes, 611b brother of death (Homer), 471b brother to Death, 106a, 137b came at length, 272b Capten, art thou sleepin' there below, 238a care-charmer, sleep, 106a, 137b chief nourisher in life's feast, 304a counterfeited death, 258b covers a man all over like a cloak, 449a
 Death and his brother Sleep, 324b death's ally, 338a Death's brother, 52a disports with shadows, 68a do I sleep, do I dream, 158b dwell upon thine eyes, 279a full of sweet dreams, 184b gentlest of the divinities, 660b great Nature's second course, 304a great sleepers, 139a He giveth His beloved sleep, 30b,
 413a

Sleep—contd.
 he hath slept well that remembereth not that he hath slept ill, 773b he sleept never ane wink, 203b he sleeps as dogs do when wives talk, 776a
 he sleeps enough who does
 nothing, 776a
 he sleeps well who does not know he has slept badly, 496a his sleep was aery-light, 219b hour friendliest to sleep and
 silence, 220a
 how have I frighted thee, 315b I can get nane, 48b
 I do not sleep to all, 599b I sleep, but my heart waketh, 416b I will not give sleep to mine eyes, 413a if an endless sleep He wills, 'tis
 best, 445a
 if men had not slept the tares had not been sown, 789a indifferent host, 121b indifferent judge between high and low, 330a inviting sleep and soft forgetfulness, 401b
 it is awful, 62b it is a gentle thing, 86b kinsman to death and trance, 362b last to come where thou art
 wanted most, 394b
 light sleep of rustics, 660b like death, 29a little he'll reck if they let him, 391b Macbeth doth murder sleep, 304a man's mortality shown by sleep and lust, 724b medicine thee to that sweet sleep, 302a midday sleep short, or none at all, 658b, note Nature's soft nurse, 315b never sleep the sun up, 376a no fear or mean desire robs him of slumber, 686b not good a sleeping hound to wake, 79a not good after luncheon, 596b not medcynable in myddis of the day, 658b, note nurse of our life, 162a of a labouring man is sweet, 415b of the just, 453b, 692a on either ear, 554a one hour's, before midnight worth three after, 821b one slumber invites (or finds) another, 821b, 822b or let me sleep away, 86b place of shadows and sleep, 675a prologue to his sleep, 301b quiet sleep and a sweet dream, 209b reader's threatened, not in vain, with sleep, 247a rock thy brain, 295a seven hours enough for young man or old, 653a seven hours to sleep, 182a shall obey and visit thee never,
 337a six hours to sleep, 182a, note, 654a sleep day out of countenance, 307b sleep an act or two, 320b sleep and feed, 296a sleep high up and live long, 801b sleep no more, 304a
 sleep over it, 834b

Sleep—contd.
 sleep that is among the lonely hills, 393b sleep to wake, 36b sleeping enough in the grave, 856a, note
 sleeping in a whole skin, 20b sleeping when she died, 171b sleeps a sound and peaceful sleep, 203b some must sleep, 295a soother of hearts, 660b sore labour's bath, 304a stole on me unawares, 188a sweet and deep, resembling death, 519b sweet to the labouring man, 39a that dreamless sleep, 61a that knits up the ravelled sleeve of care, 304a that knows not breaking, 271a that makes strong for labour, 660b that no pain shall wake, 266a that sometimes shuts up sorrow's eye, 280b
 the blessedness of sleep, 86b the certain knot of peace, 330a the death of each day's life, 304a the doveote doors of sleep, 214b the flattering truth of sleep, 280a the likeness of death, 663a the poor man's wealth, 330a the popped sleep, 351b the prisoner's release, 330a the sooner to sleep, 189a think of them that sleep, 67b this downy sleep, death's counterfeit, 304a thou ape of death, 309a thou hast been called the friend of woe, 337a though lifeless, yet with life to lie, 391a timely dew of, 219a tired Nature's sweet restorer, 404b to curtain her sleeping world, 325a to sleep and not to know it, 173a to sleep, perchance to dream, 293b to sleep, to die, 293b to the soft long sleep, 352b unbecoming to a man of counsel to sleep all night, 476b awakened us from sleeping, 26a we must sleep, 307b we slept securely, 124a what blessed ignorance equals sleep, 173a
 whatever moves hath its appointed sleep, 325a when a man sleeps, his head's in his stomach, 869a when you sleep in your cloak, 387b where care lodges, sleep will never lie, 279a
 who can wrestle against sleep, 374a who sleeps well, thinks well, 438b which makes night short, 660b while the fisher sleeps, the net takes fish, 472a will not be commanded, 59a willingly we sink to sleep, 85b without dying, O how sweet to die, 391a
 yet a little sleep, a little slumber, 413b
SLEEPLESSNESS
 oft had he changed his weary side, 272b one of the ten pains of death, 714a sleepless themselves to give their readers sleep, 253b Sleepy Hollow, 454b

Sleeve, broken, keeps the arm back, 718b my heart upon my, 300b Sleeves, another pair of, 840a lawn, and rochets shall go down, 261b Sleight of hand, admire his, 57b Slenderly, fashioned so, 169a Slice out of cut loaf never missed, 728a Slide, let the world, 276a Slight, matter, but the glory not slight, 553b Slighted, if, slight the slight, 789a Slime, what is it proud, will not believe, 591b, note Slings and arrows of outrageous fortune, 293b Slip, many a, 'twixt the cup and lip, 856b Slipper, not fit to wear your, for a glove, 364b under the, 865a Slippery place, he who stands upon a, 311b Slips, he stands not surely that never, 776a Sloe-tree, when the, is white as a sheet, 871b Slogardye, May will have no, 77a Slopkettle, and other, 85a Sloth, cares and woes of, 325a foe to virtuous deeds, 237a ignoble ease and peaceful, 217a the shameful Siren, 685b Sloven, a female, 404b Slow and steady, 196b wins the race, 835a Slow and sure, like Pedley's mare, 835a SLOWNESS beaten the snail in slowness, 682a one that rode to his execution, 309a slowly but safely, 669a the slow hate the brisk and energetic, 608b unfriended, melancholy, slow, 147a wisely and slow, 279a you are none of the Hastings or Hotspurs, 878b
 you saddle to-day and ride out to-morrow, 880a Slow-bellies, evil beasts, 473b Sludge is of all-importance to himself, 34a SLUGGARD go to the ant, thou sluggard, 413b is wiser in his own conceit, 415a laurel never grows for sluggard's brow, 371b the sluggard's comfort, 71a
 the sluggard's convenient season never comes, 851a the sluggard's cradle, 76a 'tis the voice of the sluggard, 382b who lies long abed his estate feels it, 770b Slugs that come crawling out, 16b to despise the worms, 26b Slum of Europe, the, 21b Slums, see Alleys, 31b SLUMBER
 golden slumbers kiss your eyes, 108b I must slumber again, 382b infants' slumbers pure and light, 186a into dreadful slumber lulled, 357a lie still and slumber, 383a my slumbers are not sleep, 59a Slumber—contd.

 slumber more sweet than toil, 357b slumbers sweet Thy mercy send us, 385b Slut, of all tame beasts I hate a, 819b not a, though I thank the gods I am foul, 289b Sly, his was the subtle look and, 273a old fish, a, 103a tough and devilish, 115a SMALL and SMALLNESS beauties in small proportion, 183a between the small and great, 101b by not despising small things, 616a do it, though it be but small, 162b good things are wrapped in small parcels, 768b great men overthrown by small means, 165a he hath made small and great, 419b he that contemneth small things, 420a he that despiseth small things, 132b how very small the very great, 368a little and good, 803a little bantams are great at crowing, 803b little bodies have great souls, 803b
 little fish are sweet, 803b little folk are soon angry, 803b little pot is soon hot, 803b little things please little minds, 804a nature exists in small things, 671b
 small evil is a great good, 474b small fish better than empty dish, 743b small heart hath small desires, 804a small matters win commendation, 11b small pack becomes small pedlar, 728a small things are best, 133b small things become a small man, 616a small things captivate light minds, 616a small things have in them their own gracefulness, 555a small things make base men proud, 317b that I had loved a smaller man, 365a the gods do not regard small things, 570a the man was not so very small, 172a there is grace in small things, 803a
 very great in small matters, 574b when things are small the terms should be so too, 244b SMALL HOLDINGS
 land with small resources makes me happy, 549a praise the large farm, cultivate the small, 564b Smart all over, love had made him, 169b to live, too, 27b Smartest most that hides his smart, 262b SMATTERING
 better be proficient in one art than smatterer in a hundred, 742b Smattering—contd.

 Jack of all trades, master of none, 797b smattering of everything, 111a somebody in all things, nobody in any single matter, 488a SMELL
 a nose not given to all, 596b does it not betray itself by, 599b he does not smell well who has a nice scent on him, 596a how sweet the contents when the remains smell so delicious, 607b no smell is better than to smell well, 572b rankest compound of villainous smell, 287b smell'st so sweet that the sense aches, 302b the vessel will long retain the odour of the liquor, 639b very ancient and fishlike smell, 311a woman smells well when she smells of nothing, 581a SMILE and SMILES a kind of sickly smile, 158b a little more smile, a little less frown, 444a a smile in her eye, 201a a smile on her lips and a tear in her eye, 270a a smile that glowed celestial rosy red, 221a a smile to those who hate, 61b brightly smile and sweetly sing, 391b daggers in men's smiles, 304b eternal smiles his emptiness betray, 252b followed perhaps by a smile, 102b grinned horrible a ghastly smile, 217b his smile it was childlike and bland, 158a
 his wise, rare smile, 161b human beings smile in sympathy, 677b keep smiling, 464b one universal smile, 75a one vast substantial smile, 114a provokes me to ridiculous smiling, 277a seldom he smiles, 285b smile and smile and be a villain, 292a smile as the wind sets, 306a smile, d— you, smile, 464b smile from partial beauty, 66b smile in men's faces, 318b smile so when one's right, 62b smiler with the knife, 77a, 292a, note smiles from reason flow, 221a smiles of slow disparagement, 366a smiles that fade in tears, 325b smiling, damned villain, 292a
 smiling to betray, 326a
 smiling upon thee, will get out thy secrets, 420a society smile, 381a some may smile, 233a sparing of his smile, 97a spread the slow smile through all company, 365b sweetly smile, 2b that could be moved to smile at anything, 285b the robbed that smiles, 301a the vain tribute of a smile, 272a they'll not show their teeth in way of smile, 281b

Smile and Smiles—contd.

thou mayst smile, while all around thee weep, 182a thou smilest and art still, 4b to recognise your mother with a smile, 554b to share the good man's smile, 148a to smile when one would weep, 175b whilst all around thee smiled, 182a whose smile embroiled the world, 380a why we smile and sigh, 186b with his watery smile, 358a Smite, not in haste to, 75a once, and smite no more, 226b

SMITH and SMITHS

a smith and his penny are both black, 851a blow, smith, and you'll get money, 745a let the smith wear his shackles, 528b smith envious of smith, 532b smith, speaking beyond his hammer, 586a, note the first smith the first murderer's son, 100b the smith has always a spark in his throat, 851a

SMITH (surname)

Smith's no name at all, 256a tried to conceal him by naming him Smith, 168b the Smiths never had any arms, 333b whence came Smith, albe he knight or squire, 437a

Smith, Samuel Francis, 331b, note Smithy, the village, 197b

SMOKE and SMOKING

above the smoke and stir, 224b Bacchanalian song and smoke, 68b cannot be hid, 805a corrupted by this stinking smoke, 176b follows the fair, 851a from the smoke into the smother, 288a, 823b, 824a he is a poor smith that cannot bear smoke, 773b light from smoke, 526b out of the smoke into the fire, 471a smoke, rain, and a bad wife drive a man from his house, 858b Stygian smoke of the pit that is bottomless, 176b the smoke that so gracefully curled, 233b
 there is no smoke without fire, 855b to produce smoke from light, 598a to sell smoke, 536b what a blessing is smoking, 161a where there is smoke there is fire, 873b worse than a smoky house, 314a Smooth runs the water where the brook is deep, 317a Smoothness, the torrent's, 67a Snail, beaten the, in slowness, 682a emblem of our politic world, 200b reached the ark by perseverance, 746b replied, Too far, too far, 119b tramp on, and she'll shoot oot her horns, 863a Snails, like, did creep, 165a when black, cross your path, 863b SNAKE and SNAKES
 a snake bit a Cappadocian, 451a Snake and Snakes—contd.

even with Paradise devise the snake, 136b frozen water to a starved snake, 276a he nourished a snake in his breast, 503b snake in the grass, 564a, 632b, 854b snakes is snakes, 38b the worms of Nile, 309a we have scotched the snake, 304b when you see a snake, never mind where he came from, 872b words like a cloud of winged snakes, 325b

SNARES

birds avoid too conspicuous, 628a fowler caught in his own, 512a fowler's pipe sounds sweetly, 533a hug him into snares, 225a the wolf fears the pitfall, the fish the hook, 501b who fears all snares falls into none, 633b Snatch them straight away, 308b

SNEERS, SNEERING

better stand ten thousand sneers, 110a he says that you laugh and sneer, 646b laughing devil in his sneer, 57a sharp sneers of these men, 577b sneer of self-loved ignorance, 326a sneers are weakness, 213b snivel, snarl, and sneer, 354b teach the rest to sneer, 252a who can refute a sneer, 241a with solemn sneer, 55a

SNEEZE, SNEEZING

beat him when he sneezes, 119a custom of blessing those who sneeze, 703a, note he's a friend at a sneeze, 703a, note love and a sneeze cannot be hid, 805a Sneezey, Freezy, Breezy, 131a Snipe and woodcock, winter enough for, 856a

Snivelling and piping your eye, 110b

SNOB, SNOBBERY

gently damned beside a Duke, 233b impossible not be sometimes a snob, 367b Snore, snorer can't hear himself, 84b the tuneful serenade, 134a Snoring with universal nose, 368a

SNOW

architecture of the snow, 131a chaste as unsunned snow, 309a crops under snow, presage bread, 865a diadem of snow, 59a from the purest snow, 308a kindle fire with snow, 281b lies on a hot stone after Candlemas, 869b naked in December's snow, 83a, 312a pure as snow, 294a
 smothering snows, 44b snow year, a rich year, 728a the untrodden snow, 68a upon the desert's dusty face, 135b walk fast in snow, 463b welcome as snow in harvest, 773b where are the snows of last winter, 872b whether you boil or pound snow, you can only have water, 874a which lies, fattens the ground, 728a Snowdrop, venturous harbinger of spring, 394b

Snowfall in the river, 46a

Snuff or the fan, 247b to be the, of younger spirits, 299a you abuse, 89a

Snuff-box, of amber, justly vain, 248a

Snug as a bug in a rug, 140b

Soap and education, 84a

how are you off for, 464a what, no, 440b

with invisible, 173a

Soar, now we; and now we sink, 406b the wise who, but never roam, 393b

Soaring spirit, a, is their prime delight, 304b

Sober, appeal to Philip when, 431b as a judge, 738b be, and hope to the end, 431a be, be vigilant, 431a he that will to bed go, 138a honest man who is not quite, 2a

I can do nothing when, 622b laws cannot make, 330b

Soberness of reason, overpowers the, 395a

SOCIABILITY

a man sharpeneth the countenance of his friend, 415a a very clubbable man, 179b a very unclubbable man, 178b better be foolish with all than wise by yourself, 742b how to make people of one religion, 350a

man a social animal, 659b

mingle good fellowship with severity, 677a sociable as a basket of kittens, 157b

Social tie, breaks the, 147b intercourse depends on credit, 532a differences, no, till women come in, 384b friendly, honest man, 46b glee, of, and wit humane, 371a honest man, 45b hours, the, 44a

SOCIETY

became my glittering bride, 401b comfort, use, and protection in, 8b common advantage the greatest bond of, 504a

dreary intercourse of daily life, 394a

exists for benefit of its members, 339a (fashionable) their business but to waste each other's time, 383b feared the low and hated the stuck-up, 384b four classes of, 454a friendship, solder of, 23a genteel comedy of the polite

world, 334a

in all companies more fools than

wise, 792b

law of human society, 562b longed for she-society, 360a loves convention, 133a man formed for, 23a man's chief pleasure, 107b merely a bore, 389a never advances, 132b no comfort to one not sociable,

309a

no pill for maladies of, 73a no society flourishing if majority are poor and miserable, 330b

Society—contd.

one of the pleasures of having a rout, 173a
one polished horde, 65b other people are quite dreadful, 389a path of social advancement strewn with broken friendships, 384b polished society, 41b society, friendship, and love, 102a speech and reason the bond of society, 659b
sweet society of men, 258a the only society possible is oneself, 389a
to be out of it a tragedy, 389a to stand well with society, 173a two kinds of women, plain and coloured, 389a virtues of society, 132b we learn to live from society, 55a when quality meets, compliments pass, 870b where none intrudes, 56a worse than solitude, 15a you can pick society nowhere but in London, 159b Sociis, noscitur a, 602a Socinus destroyed the foundations,
671b
Socket, burn to the, 401a Socrates, a citizen of the whole world, 659b
last words of, 448a the first and wisest, 223a, note Soft and fair goes far, 835b as sinews of the new-born babe, 295b
is the note, and sad the lay, 272b

SOFT-HEARTEDNESS

I confess to, 659b one to whom it is punishment to inflict punishment, 631b one who is sad on having to make a sad decision, 631b Softly, softly, caught the monkey,
835b

Softness, for, she, and sweet attractive grace, 219a still and holy, 396a

SOIL

easy to cultivate a rich soil, 529a every soil to a valiant man, his country, 211b
God did not will that its cultivation should be easy, 616b high-cultured as her soil, 67a kindly strength is in the soil, 74b let your oxen plough the rich soil, 670b plants of every soil, 46a powerful in the richness of soil, 670b richest soil produces rankest weeds, 448b son of the soil, 533a sown in the soil becomes the property of the soil, 660a the soil where first they trod, 162b their soil was barren, 127a what is put into the soil belongs to it, 635a
who owns soil owns up to sky, 508b
Soiled with all ignoble use, 363a Sola voluptas, 520b Solace, his sole delight and, 520b whence comes, 157b

SOLDIERS

a good soldier-like word, 315b a man thinks meanly of himself

Soldiers—contd.

for not having been a soldier, 179a a soldier and afeared, 305a a soldier, but for these vile guns, 313b a soldier fights on his stomach, 728b a soldier without dying, 4b a soldier's cloak and winding sheet, 273a a swashing and martial outside,
288a Ah, quel plaisir d'être soldat, 712b ah, what a delight to be a soldier, 712b all are not soldiers that go to the wars, 732b ambition, the soldier's virtue, 307b an army goes on its belly, 735a an end to my fatigues in soldiering, 659a an old soldier, an old fool, 736b an old, deserving soldier, 88a army makes men extravagant, 449a as the soldier said, 112a (soldiers) believe that death ends
a man, 577a
boisterous as March, yet fresh as May, 269b
breaches, ambuscadoes, Spanish blades, 278a British soldier can stand up to anything except War Office, 323a counsel dwells not under the plumed hat, 736b cowards in scarlet, 153a cut each other's throats for pay, 349a desert may give or prevent promotion, 211a desirable for them not to know some things, 667b disgraceful for an old man to be a soldier, 673a drinking is the soldier's pleasure, 125b fights for money, 17a first king was a fortunate soldier, 449b full of strange oaths, 289a give an obolus to Belisarius, 511a glory is the soldier's prize, 49b good leader makes a good soldier, 498b he died a soldier for his native
land, 631b
he preferred arms to civil office, 624a healths five-fathom deep, 278a honour of a soldier, 71a I listed, for a soldier, 110b I never expect a soldier to think,
323a
I said an elder, not a better soldier, 286b
if I be not ashamed of my soldiers, 314b
in camps a leader sage, 269a in the soldier is flat blasphemy, 299b Ireland gives England her soldiers, 214a la soupe fait le soldat, 251b
let a soldier drink, 301b longest kingly line runs back to a successful soldier, 274b love that loves a scarlet coat, 172b mained in war should be maintained by public, 450b

Soldiers—contd.

merchant declares soldiering preferable to commerce, 606b military stupidity, 478b ninepence a day for killin' folks, 201b no faith or honour in men who follow camps, 602b no soldier can fight without beef and beer, 457b not evidence what the soldier said, 112a
O farewell, honest soldier, 290a our God and soldier, 261b our soldiers slighted, 261b out of credit in peace-time, 261b,
note preferment by letter and affection, 300a religious belief and love of banners, 624b relish him more in the soldier, 301a repents too late of having to fight, 537a right as a soldier, but very wrong as a man, 343a rust in peace and rot in hospitals, 334b salt-money of soldiers, 648a, note scarlet coats that pester human-
kind, 185b
should be fear-inspiring, 546b should not be decked with gold and silver, 546b showed how fields were won, 148a soldier and sailor, too, 190a soldier not exempt from saying a foolish thing, 343a soldier, rest! thy warfare o'er 271a soldier's a man, 301b soldier's fiery death, 57b soldier's hardy heart, the art to win the, 269b soldier's pole is fallen, 307b soldiers accustomed to plunder, 180b soldiers are policemen acting in unison, 338b soldiers bore dead bodies by, 313a soldiers in peace like chimneys in summer, 835b soldiers like an unreserved speaker, 187b soldiers, take heed from his untimely fall, 445b soldiers under me, 422a soldiers, we must never be beat,
457b soldiership and sense, 99b soldiery dull and slothful and corrupted by the circus, 652a sometimes she driveth o'er a soldier's neck, 278a subtly wanting in military genius, 507b
talents of soldier and ruler, different, 590a the Absent-minded Beggar, 190a the fear-inspiring soldier is loved, 661b the man-at-arms is the only man, 847b the non-commissioned man, 191a the only remedy against democrats, 712a the soldier tells his wounds, 585b the soldier who fights by my side, 231a the soldier who lives on his pay, 239a the soup makes the soldier, 728b

Soldiers—contd.

the substance of ten thousand soldiers, 319b the worse the man the better the soldier, 450b
theirs was the glee of martial breast, 269b
they fell like stars, 229b they sang of love and not of fame, 355b things have come to the third
rank, 645a
thou more than soldier, 230b to our greatly-suffering but unconquered soldiery, 563b to speak plain like a soldier, 284a to take ambition from a soldier is to take off his spurs, 862a "Tommy Atkins," 189a, 189b unapt to weep, 317a uniforms are often masks, 384a vainglorious soldier (miles gloriosus), 577a valour their adornment, 546b who would be a gentleman let him storm a town, 876a Sole holdeth with the upper leather 851a

SOLEMN, SOLEMNITY

bend such solemn brows, 311b in such a solemn way, 167b the gravest man is a fule, 845b the misfortune is to talk nonsense solemnly, 705a too solemn for the comic touches in them, 361a

Soli cantare peritis*, 667b*SOLITARY, SOLITUDE a great city a great solitude, 569b

all our misfortunes due to our not being able to be alone, 708b (solitude) audience-chamber of God, 192b
austerity companion of solitude, 448a best nurse of wisdom, 343b better be alone than with a fool, 742a better than bad company (solitude), 835b he only is alone who lives not for another, 264b
how passing sweet is solitude, 98b if he falle, helpe hath he none, 167a if solitary, be not idle, 179b impulses of deeper birth, 400a leads us into all manner of evil, 835b, note
learning makes a man fit company for himself, 800a makes a solitude and calls it peace, 56b, and note, 660a man who lives wholly detached,
39b mar sweet solitude, 120b music peoples solitude, 35a never alone who have noble thoughts, 329b never found companion so companionable as solitude, 372a never less alone than when alone, 265a, 605b
night sadder because of solitude, 672a no greater torment than to be alone in Paradise, 713b no place on earth can ever be a solitude, 396a
O beata solitudo, 605b O blessed solitude, *O sole blessed-
ness*, 605b

Solitary, Solitude—contd.

O Solitude, where are the charms,
102a often the best society, 835b, note Satan came to the Lord in the desert, 710b society worse than solitude, 15a solitary man either a god or a devil, 546a
Solitary, Sapient, Solicitous, Secret, (the lover's four S's), 850a solitude should teach us how to die, 55a
solitude sometimes best society, 221a the worst solitude, 13b there's safety in solitude, 856b took their solitary way, 222a ut soli, 678b what happiness in solitude, 220b when is man strong? 32b when we are least a one, 55a which is the bliss of solitude, 393a who think it solitude to be alone, 405b whosoever is delighted in solitude, 10b
you will be sad if alone, 672a Solomon in all his glory, 421b of saloons, 34a Sombre cast, simplest things put on
a, 185b
Something in it, quoth the fellow when he drank it, dish-clout and all, 856a too much of this, 294b SON and SONS
a wise son maketh a glad father, 413b
alas for the son whose father goes
to heaven, 771a
art thou a woman's son, 320b be proud of those strong sons of thine, 358a
bequeathed to his son a good
name, 239a complimented on such a clever son, 675b
dear filial humbugs, 367a fathers should be virtuous who desire their sons to be more so, 625a few attain the praise of their great sires, 257a full and tattered (sons), 851a giddy son of a gun, 347b God grant that this son be ours,
766a happy for the son when the dad gaes to the deil, 771a happy son whose father went to hell, 318a
he follows his father with unequal
steps, 653a
he is his father's son, 617a he that hath one son makes him a fool, 778b he was my son, 14b how seldom sons succeed their father's praise, 156b I was thy son; time was I did not shame thee, 353a like father like son, 802a like the prodigious son, 281a marry your son when you will,
809a most sons their sires disgrace, 257a my son is my son till he gets him a wife, 813a never gave his father grief but when he died, 255b no son of mine succeeding, 304b

Son and Sons—contd.

not the son of Achilles, but Achilles' self, 448b O wonderful son, 295a our sons, who have shown us 'God, 385a our sons will think us fools, 247a picture of filial duty, 617a prop of a house, 478b prove yourself their son, 126b
raw dads make fat lads, 829a shall the good man teach his son, 316b son of a white hen, 487a sons of the waves, the, 141b those that would have been their sons, 26a tu mihi solus eras, 672a who brings up his son to nothing breeds a thief, 776b who has sons or sheep will not want vexations, 747b
your tardy son to chide, 295b SONG and SONGS a child of song, 64a a monarchy tempered by ballads, 697a a new song for old wine, 643b a perpetual song, 500b a song that old was song, 308b alone killed in song, 667b an old song made by an old ancient pate, 438a as foam that the sea-winds fret, 352b Bacchanalian song, 68b best of all trades to make songs, 20b bright names will hallow song, 54b by song the gods are pleased, and the deities below, 500b by song virtue is given life, 500b deep vibrations of his witching song, 370b
do not entrust your songs to leaves, 534a doth not song to the whole world belong, 191a equal in the song, ready in the response, 491b fame which song brings will last for ever, 650a
full lasting is the song, 213b gloomy cares made less by song, 577b his redundant song of joy, 337a I do not sing unbidden, 598b I fashion laborious songs, 613a I too have my songs, 666a is sung in vain, 96b lean and flashy songs, 226b lengthen out a closing song, 270b let girls learn to sing, 645b lines with nothing in them, 681b lips that are dead sang me that song, 443b
made sublime with song, 351a many an idle song, 252a metre of an antique song, 321b must one swear to the truth of a song, 259b
my book of songs and sonnets, 287a my songs of no advantage to me, 500b my uncared-for songs, 25b my verses shall immortalize you, 535b
no sorrow in thy song, 37a nor any song so pure, so great,
241a nothing but songs is wanting here, 592a

Song and Songs—contd.

old songs, the precious music of the heart, 397*a* one grand sweet song, 189*a* others shall sing the song, 387*b* our tedious song, 227*b* perhaps it may turn out a sang, 47*a* phantom of a silent song, 357*a* prince of sweet songs, 352*b* read my own sweet songs, 17*b* record yourselves in Druids' songs, 437*b* short swallow-flights of song, 362*a* sings each song twice o'er, 362*a* soft words with nothing in them make a, 377*b* song assailed thy shame, 352*b* song charms the sense, 217*b* song, given to the few, 333*b* song passes not away, 381*b* song, romance, or lay, 269*a* songs have immunity from death, 500*b* songs of sadness and of mirth, 199*a* spiteful songs die out, 500*b* suck melancholy out of a song, 288*b* sweetest songs tell of saddest thought, 326*a* take no notice of spiteful songs, 500*b* the burden of his song, 22*a* the old song of Percy and Douglas, 329*b* the song too daring, and the theme too great, 260*a* their song, yea I am their byword, 417*b* those high songs of thine, 351*b* thy song shall learn, and bless it for their own, 341*b* to kindle war by song, 574*a* to kiss the soul in song, 67*a* to pipe a simple song, 393*b* to song a light, a benediction, 121*b* tout finit par des chansons, 708*b* triumphal song, 500*b* what is not worth saying is sung, 690*b*
 what shall I give in return for such a song, 628*b* what were wine without song, 244*a* what will a child learn sooner, 253*a* wine cup and song, 657*a* with the breeze of song, 362*b* words for music invariably trash, 193*b* words modulated to suit Latin lutes, 607*b* words of Elizabethan songs better than music, 193*b* would you have your songs endure, 31*a* your song as sleep to the weary, 667*b* your song tastes sharp of the sea, 352*b* See Ditty, Sing
 Songsmith, slight not the, 381*a* Songsters, the swarming, 370*b* Sonnet, I am sure I shall turn, 277*a* scorn not the, 394*b* Sonnets sweetly sauced, 165*b* torturer of phrases into, 274*b* Sonneteers, wits and, 82*a* Soon enough, if well enough, 836*a* Soothsayers, he (Cato) wondered one did not laugh at another, 501*a* Sophism of all sophisms, 8*a* Sophist, dark-browed, 357*a* Sophist led, neither saint nor, 5*b* Sophist's spleen, the, 185*a* Sophisters, economists and calculators, 41*a* Sophistries, optimistic, 4*b* re-furnished, 5*b* Sophistry, land of, 60*b* universities, incline to, 9*a* Sophocles, 4*b* Sophocles, sayings of, 447*b*, 448*a* Sophonisba, O, 371*b* Soporific on the listless ear, 95*b* Sorcery, a pleasing, 217*b* Sordello's story, 31*a* Sordid or servile, nothing there, 265*a* Sore, it's ill healing an old, 797*b* same old, breaks out from age to age, 358*a* small, wants not a great plaister, 728*a* to touch a, 668*a* Sores, different, different salves, 752*a*

SORROW and SORROWS

a little sorrow, a little pleasure, 351*b* a man of sorrows, 418*a* a rooted sorrow, 305*b* a solitary sorrow best befits thy lips, 185*a* a wretch whose sorrows matched my own, 273*a* all sorrows short that gain eternal bliss, 341*b* all less with bread, 733*b*, 836*a* an itch made worse by scratching, 728*b* ate his bread in sorrow, 200*a* breeds sorrow, 121*a* but sorrow returned, 68*b* comes unsent for, 836*a* company in distress makes sorrow less, 748*b* concealed, doth burn the heart, 276*a* down, thou climbing sorrow, 306*a* engulfs and swallows other sorrows, 300*b* fail not for sorrow, 50*b* give sorrow words, 305*a* gnarling sorrow, 312*a* good for nothing but sin, 836*a* hang sorrow, 390*b* hath killed many, 836*a* he's worthy of sorrow that buys it, 784*a* I did not imagine that I could have been so sorry, 327*b* I have a silent sorrow, 328*b* is cheered by being poured, 173*b* is knowledge, 59*a* is there any sorrow like unto my sorrow, 418*b* kills not, but it blights, 836*a* lessened when there is bread, 836*a* longest sorrow finds at last relief, 267*a* Lord Lovel he died out of sorrow, 435*b* love and sorrow, 23*a* make not two sorrows of one, 807*a* makes us wise, 363*a* melt into sorrow, 56*b* more in sorrow than in anger, 290*b* never comes too late, 154*b* never more shall sorrow light on her, 63*b* no joy to be reckoned against the least sorrow, 497*b*

Sorrow and Sorrows—contd.

no sorrow Heaven cannot heal, 232*a* no sorrow in thy song, 37*a* no sorrow rankles in her breast, 266*a* no wisdom in useless sorrow sorrow, 179*b* past sorrows let us moderately lament, 384*a* regions of sorrow, 215*b* sadness and gladness succeeded one another, 830*b* selfish sorrow, 54*a* some ease hid sorrows to declare, 107*b* some ease our sorrows to reveal, 106*a* sorrow and disease touch all mortals, 580*b* sorrow and sighing shall flee away, 417*b* sorrow and silence are strong, 198*b* sorrow of the meanest thing that feels, 393*b* sorrow of such days, 102*a* sorrow shared is but half a trouble, 728*b* sorrow that bides, 235*b* sorrow tracketh wrong, 208*b* sorrow's crown of sorrow, 358*b* sorrows are dry, 836*a* sorrows come not single spies, 296*a* sorrows remembered sweeten present joy, 246*a* sorrows show us truths, 14*a* sorrows of a poor old man, 236*b* suffocating sorrow, 325*a* the path of sorrow, 102*a* the years of sorrow, 38*a* there is no sorrow, 30*b* thy sorrow is in vain, 243*a* to shift from sorrow to sorrow, 343*a* to show an unfelt sorrow, 304*b* to sorrow must I tune my song, 227*b* until then, sit thee down, sorrow, 277*a* uplifted by force of sorrows, 399*a* void of sorrow, 49*b* we spoke not a word of sorrow, 391*b*
 wear a golden sorrow, 319*b* when sorrow is asleep wake it not, 870*b*
 where sorrow is unknown, 102*a* where sorrow is, there is holy ground, 389*b* while sorrows wait you, 35*a* why anticipate our sorrows, 109*b* will canker sorrow eat my bud, 311*b* will pay no debt, 836*a* with wisest sorrow think on him, 290*a* without the door let sorrow lie, 390*b* your sorrow only sorrow's shade, 357*a* See Grief, Tears
Sortes Virgilianæ (or Sanctorum), 661*a*, note Sorts, all, and conditions of men, 432*a* Sou had he got, not a, 15*b* SOULS
 a bliss on which the soul may rest, 74*b* a fiery soul, 122*b* a happy soul, 104*a* a land of souls beyond, 53*b*

Souls—contd.

a soul of fire, 178a
 a sweet and virtuous soul, 163b âme de boue, 689a corporations have no souls, 85b cure of things that hurt is delayed, 628a every subject's soul is his own, 316b fatte his soul, 78a food for the soul, 605b for my soul, what can it do to that, 291b for one short hour to see the souls we loved, 364a freed his soul, the nearest way, 178a God trusts everyone with care of his own soul, 767b grammarcy on his soul, 296b guest and companion of my body, 490b half reveal and half conceal the soul, 362a he shall not blind his soul with clay, 361a his blessed part to Heaven, 320b his pure soul unto his captain, Christ, 313a his soul shall be her soul, 190a I have not found a whiter soul, 191b I must be measured by my soul, 383a I wish there was winders to my soul, 27a if our bodies cost no more than our souls, 789a kissed his soul away, 383a little bodies have great souls, 803b little body often harbours a great soul, 724a little troubles the eye, but far less the soul, 804a lordship of the soul, 353a lover of my soul, 385a men prisons of flesh to soul, 120a might have stood with the souls that stand, 351a my soul is an enchanted boat, 326a my soul is up in arms, 92b my soul shall love thee still, 156b no stab the soul can kill, 262a not merely a body without soul, 601a O my prophetic soul, 291b of all men's souls the soul, 380b of all unsullied souls that live, 354a of the soul the body form doth take, 341a one must have a soul, 693a one soul outweighs them all, 407a
 poor men have no souls, 826a quacks in the cure of souls, 170a saw something in his soul, 38a she has her soul to keep, 214a sick soul must cure itself, 711b soul and body part like friends, 104a soul cannot exist separate from the body, 657a soul is not where it lives but where it loves, 851a Soul is the Man, 69b soul lost, all lost, 716b soul needs few things, the body many, 851a soul of little worth, 551a soul of my soul, 34b soul of the age (Shakespeare), 183a

Souls—contd.

soul on earth an immortal guest, 234a soul that rises with us, 401a soul's a sort of sentimental wife, 196a soul's calm sunshine, 249a souls can never die, 107a souls have no death, 580b souls not lent in usury, 213b souls of women are so small, 52b souls that infant-like beneath their burden bend, 186a souls, whose sudden visitations daze, 356a souls without a stain, 354a strip the stark-naked soul, 354b that mysterious instrument, 198b the body's guest, 262a the eye and prospect of his soul, 285a the flow of soul, 252b the flower of their souls, 352b the human soul take wing, 58a the land of souls, 67a the man of abject soul, 396a the naked souls that never lived, 166a the palace of the soul, 53b the passing of the sweetest soul, 362b the pure soul, 23b the purest soul, 70a the soul's dark cottage, 377b the true soul burns the same, 231b the unconquered soul of Cade, 317b then my soul awoke, 335a thrall in person may be free in soul, 364a thy rapt soul, 224b thy soul and God, 34b thy soul was like a star, 396b two several souls within his frame, 402a two soul-sides, 33b vital spark of heavenly flame, 254b void of heavenly things, 606a wears out the breast, 61b
 what avails the soul if men go astray like beasts, 636b whiteness of his soul, 54b who would face the soul, 398b with thy soul of flame, 265a

SOUND and SOUNDS a most melodious sound, 340a a sound, faint like the farewell of ghosts, 325b
 a sympathy with sounds, 101a
 booming, clanging, whistling, trumpeting, buzzing, 497b concord of sweet sounds, 284a dull, deep, unvaried sound, 81a full vessels give least sound, 764b more sound than value, 621b perfumes and sounds, 76a persuasive sound, 92b sounds gather beauty from their sense, 25b sounds, so sweet, that joy is almost pain, 325b the soul of happy sound, 394a the sound a picture of the sense, 244b the sound must seem an echo to the sense, 247a to heal the blows of sound, 167b we echo with a tear, 62b well-tuned sounds, 321b Sound, he who imagines himself, shall be, 558b

Soup and love, of, the first is best,

89b
 that's the ticket for, 464a souper à cinq, coucher à neuf, 702b Sour grapes, fathers have eaten, 418b to keep from being, 46b to them that loved him not, 320b Source, few men drinking at rivulet consider its, 374a

SOUTH
 breathe of the sweet south, 58b bright and fierce and fickle, 360b came o'er my ear like the sweet south, 297b south wind blows the bait in the fishes' mouth, 871b south wind is in the rain's mouth, 871b the south to the septentrion, 317b Southern men love falseness, 360b, note

Southron, the false, 454a Sovereign, obligation to the, 166b sway dissolved by might, 123a when I forget my, 372a Sovereignty, that is the top of, 185a
 what all your sex desire, 126b Sow fills, as the, the draft sours, 739a Sow, the wrong, by the ear, 853b Sow's ear, a silk purse out of a, 879a

SOW and SOWING beans, wheat, rye, vines, etc., 836b early sow, early mow, 754a forbear not to sow because of birds, 763a he that observeth the wind shall not sow, 416a he that sows in the highway loses his corn, 781a he that sows thistles shall reap prickles, 781a he that sows trusts in God, 781a he that soweth little shall reap little, 432b neither sowing nor reaping for me in this affair, 576b no good seed can come of evil grain, 819b oats to be sown in January, not May, 875a one sows, who will reap no one knows, 822b St. Mattheo, take thy hopper and sow, 830b some do the sowing, some the reaping, 487b sow barley when sloe-tree is white, 871b sow dry and set wet, 857b sow in the slop, sure of a crop, 836b sow in the sop, 'twill be heavy atop, 463a sow oats and barley on St. David's day, 865a sow thin and mow thin, 836b sow with the basket rather than the hand, 836b sow with the hand, not with the sack, 479a the early sower never borrows of the late, 843a, 850a to sow the waves, 861a weeds want no sowing, 867a whatsoever a man soweth, 429a, 432b

Space, a king of infinite, 293a and time, annihilate but, 258a and time, bounds of, 154b desolate, wind-swept, 3b into the mighty, 104a
 the mind loves free space, 848a Spaces, wide, 446b

Spacious times of great Elizabeth,
357*b*
Spade a spade, call a, 144*b*, 746*b*,
note

Spades the emblems of untimely graves, 100*b*

SPAIN, 68*a*, note all evil comes from Spain, 458*b* castles in Spain, 860*a* land of war and crimes, 53*b* renowned romantic land, 53*b* smiled Spain's chivalry away, 65*a* some are fond of Spanish wine, 209*a*

Spaniards seem wiser than they are, 10*b*

sun never sets on Spanish dominions, 457*a*

the Spanish fleet thou canst not see, 328*b*

when the Spaniard sings he is either mad or has nothing, 874*b*

Spake one thing but thought
another, 78*a*

Spaniel, to lead the hot-pursuing, far astray, 369*a*

Spaniels of the world, 403*b* well-bred, 252*b*

Spare all I have and take my life, 134*a*

me, I pray, 615*a*

Spark, a fire from a, 527*a* a little spark makes muckle wark, 724*a*

a small spark shines in the dark, 728*a*

brings about a great conflagration, 616*a*

by a little spark a town is set on fire, 724*a*

Sparks fly upward, as the, 411*a* that kindle war, 100*b*

Sparrer-grass, hit look like, 158*a* Sparrow, a providence in the fall of

a, 297*a*

in hand better than pheasant (or vulture) (or goose) on wing, 718*a* Sparrows fight for corn not their

own, 836*b*

two on one ear of corn, 865*a* Spartan saying "Return with this or on this," 472*b*

Spartans, epitaph on, 481*a*

Speak, see Speech

Spear, from the, a crown, 482*a* Spears are not made of bulrushes,

837*a*

into pruning-hooks, 416*b*

Species is wise, the, 42*b*

Specifying one implies exclusion of the other, 513*b*

Spectacle, chequered, of so much
glory, 205*b*

Spectacle unto the world and to angels, 427*b*

Spectacles are death's arquebuse, 837*a*

on nose, 289*a*

Spectator, baulked by a mere, 35*b*

Spectators, foolish advice by, 160*b* lookers-on see most of the game, 805*a*

to see them going to see it, 173*a* women come to see and to be seen, 661*a*

Spectre in a world of spectres, 70*b*

SPECULATION
even over famine, 704*b* fish that nibbles at every bait, 339*b*
many ventures make a full freight, 808*a*
no speculation in those eyes, 304*b*

Speculation—contd.

of all that the market holds forth, 233*b*

our thoughts break through heaven's defences, 503*b* stocks and subscriptions poured on every side, 251*b* venture a small fish and catch a great, 865*b*

SPEECH, SPEAKING

a dead language without a hearer, 344*a*

a good man skilled in speaking, 683*b*

a great mind speaks with more ease, 571*a*

a man may speak the thing he
will, 357*b*

a slow and chilling orator, 565*b* a stately speech, 393*b*

a tongue given to the poor, 480*a* adepts in the speaking trade, 82*a*

and some (lie) before the Speaker, 258*b*

as the life is so is the speech, 475*b* be propitious with your tongues, 626*b*

bees have honey in their mouths, stings in their tails, 741*a* better to deal by speech than letter, 11*b*

bless thee for that Christian speech, 337*b*

blossom into speech, 34*a* by his word he pacifies the waters, 657*a*

choose him whose manner of speech pleases you, 522*a* clearness the chief virtue of a speech, 614*a*

death and life in the hands of the tongue, 580*a* difficult to say much, and much to the purpose, 480*b* difficult to speak, 43*a* discretion of speech, 11*a* dislike not the matter but the manner of his speech, 307*a* ere Thought could wed itself with speech, 362*a*

evil speaker is like an evildoer, 572*b*

few speeches can bear the colourless photography of print, 265*b*

first duty of man is to speak, 344*a*
forgotten like a maiden speech, 258*b*

freeman's right to speak his
thought, 257*a*

get me out of danger and make your speech afterwards, 692*b*

God giveth speech to all, 333*b* good speaker must be something of a poet, 450*a* have me excused if I speak amiss, 78*a*

he cannot speak well who cannot hold his tongue, 775*a* he is not good who speaks well of everybody, 774*a*

he knew the right time for speaking, 633*a*

he lays aside bombast and long words, 626*a*

he must have leave to speak that cannot hold his tongue, 775*b*

he sowed doubtful speeches, 192*a* he speaks best who hath the skill when to hold his peace, 376*a* he that speaks sows, 781*b* he that strikes with his tongue must ward with his head, 781*b*

he was wont to speak plain, 284*a*

Speech, Speaking—contd.

his ready speech flowed fair and
free, 270*b*

his speech contemptible, 429*a* I only speak right on, 286*b*

I'll speak to it, 290*b* if you look for a good speech you undo me, 316*a*

if you want me to speak, be silent, 656*a*

keep well thy tongue and keep thy friend, 798*b*

keep your lips from over speech, 353*a*

knavish speech sleeps in a foolish ear, 296*a*

let him now speak, 433*a* let thy speech be short, 420*b* let your speech be always with grace, 430*a*

liberty of speech inviteth liberty, 8*b*

long speeches suit long ears, 202*b* made splendid once with speech, 351*a*

many have been harmed by speech, 376*a*

many have said much, all something, none enough, 511*a* many speak much that cannot speak well, 808*a*

men speak more honestly than they act, 8*a*

no gods love idle speech, 353*a* nor have I readiness in speaking, 587*a*

not able to speak nor to keep silence, 476*a*

nothing more useful than clearness of speech, 678*a*

now speak or be for ever silent, 210*a*

often speaks but never talks, 168*a* one man can speak, seven can sing, 822*a*, note pity 'tis one that can speak so well, 210*b*

poetry of speech, 55*b* power of speech, 286*b* province of knowledge to speak, 168*b*

pure daylight of honest speech, 213*a*

rare is their speech, 643*a* reservedly, but with force, 257*b*

rude am I in my speech, 300*b* rules and principles of speech, 654*a*

runs not this speech like iron through your blood, 285*a* russet yeas and honest kersey noes, 277*b*

Say well is good, Do well is better, 831*a*

say whatever the gods put in your
mind, 499*b*

saying things to be said and not to be said, 514*b*

six (or five, or four) things to be observed in speaking, 435*a* skilled in knowing what to say and what not to say, 514*b* slow to speak, 430*b* so silently we seemed to speak, 171*b*

softly speak, 2*b*, 243*b* sometimes a fool speaks well, 558*a* spare to speak and spare to speed, 836*b*

speak after fashion of the multitude, 568*a*

speak, and speak well, two things, 183*a*

Speech, Speaking—contd.

speak as to wise men, 284a speak clearly if you speak at all, 167b speak for yourself, John, 199b speak ill of none, 441b speak less than thou knowest, 306a speak little and to the purpose, 836b speak little, but speak the truth, 836b speak long enough, man will get believers, 344b speak low if you speak love, 284a
 speak me fair in death, 283b speak not what we mean, 299b speak of me as I am, 303a speak only when you have something to speak, 72a speak or die, 316a speak roughly to your little boy, 119a speak so well, and do so ill, 211b speak the speech as I pronounced it, 294a speak thy purpose out, 273a speak unto us smooth things, 417b speak when you're spoken to, 837a speak with the vulgar, 878a speaking of myself, 300b speaking of the absent, 79a speaking seldom and very few words, 514a speaking things which they ought not, 430a speaking-trump of future fame, 60a speaking well is lying skilfully, 497b speaking without thinking is shooting without aim, 837a speech, a physician to a sick mind, 490b speech and reason distinguish men from beasts, 643a speech and reason the bond of society, 659b speech created thought, 325b speech deceives us most of all, 536a speech given to all, wisdom to few, 506a speech given to wise men to conceal their mind, 334b speech is of time, 72b speech is silver, silence is golden, 837a speech is the picture of the mind, 837a speech of her alluring eyes, 107b speech often harmful, 584a, 647a speech, some mitigation of an evil, 523a speech which nothing meant, 103a spoken is spoken and cannot be wiped out, 730b strong men delight in forceful speech, 187b such man, such style of speech, 629a sweet music of speech, 102a tell us what we wish to hear, 578a that is well spoken that is well taken, 839b the impressionable time for speaking, 579a the law and rule of speech, 562b the living voice moves men, 686a there is no time when all things should be said, 524a this is true liberty (free speech), 227b

Speech, Speaking—contd.

thou sayst I speak too boldly, 233b thought him still speaking, 220b to hear him speak and sweetly smile, 267a
 to say harsh things soothingly, 478b to speak one's mind, more than a duty—a pleasure, 389a to speak what I do know, 286a trust the deed and not gay speeches, 203b use of speech to conceal thoughts, 150a we can say least to those we love best, 876a what a noble speech I thought of in the cab, 367b when all men shall speak well of you, 424b when all men speak, na man hears, 869a when thought is speech, 260b who never was heard to speak so free, 435b will speak more in a minute, 279a with horrid speech, 293a writing very helpful to speaking, 603a wrong the best speaker, 257a Xenocrates had often repented speaking, 517b you think what now you speak, 295a See Oratory, Say, Sayings Speechless, not dead, but, 334a SPEED
 add sails to your oars, 645a Caesar rapid in everything, 623b for swiftness did I sue, 368b headlong fury of his, 321a made of Atalanta's heels, 289a
 outfly the nimble sail, 257b quicker than asparagus is cooked, 679b quickly enough if well enough (or safely enough), 649a safety in speed, 132b speed all in the spurs, 733b speed is delay in desire, 526a spirit of the time shall teach speed, 311b that's the effest way, 285a to thy speed add wings, 217b velis et remis, 679b Spell better than they pronounce, 83b it with a V or a W, 112a Spell that still enchants, 107a Speller, task and fancy of the, 112a Spem longam reseces, 648b SPENDING cent wise, dollar foolish, 825a
 in spending lies the advantage, 793a ken when to spend and when to spare, 798b let your purse be your master, 801a little good is soon spendit, 803b penny goes after penny, 825a penny wise, pound foolish, 825a
 ready money will away, 829a spare to spend and only spend to spare, 836b spend and God will send, 837a spend little and pay cash, 836b spend, spend profusely, and spare (the three S's), 850a
 the covetous spends more than the liberal, 842a to a good spender God is treasure, 859b Spending—contd.

to gain teacheth how to spend, 860b what's fairly gathered is roundly spent, 868a
 who more than he is worth doth spend, 875b who spends more than he should, 875b See Buying, Selling Splenitive and rash, 297a Spenlow and Jorkins, 114a Spenser, renowned, 18b the English Virgil, 187a Spenser's magical song, 37b Speranza, lascia pur della vita, 715a, note Spernere vulgus, 572b Spes et Fortuna valeat, 558b Spes nulla ulterior, 535b Spes ulla fuga, nec, 587b Speude bradeos, 478b Sphere, all quit their, 248b Spheres, abject from the, 381b an echo of the, 65b harmony of, admired but not heard, 129a music of, 28b, 29a, note, 76a music of, in his motion like an angel sings, 283b seems to shake the, 125b the harmonious, 68b Spice and salt that season a man, 298b SPIDERS half-starved spiders, 82a her traces of the smallest spider's web, 278a if you wish to thrive let the spider live, 791a long-spinners' legs, 278a the Spider and the Fly, 447b the spider's touch, how exquisitely fine, 248b SPIES
 all things full of spies, 506b look through a key-hole and your eyes will be sore, 803a not so much a spy, 33a Paul Pry is on the spy, 824b spy, smirk, sniff, snap, 354b spying all, seems nought to spy, 273a the ears and eyes of princes, 837a your rat-hole spies, 275a Spigot, spare at the, 861b Spin and reel at same time, a man cannot, 724b Spinning let every girl attend to her, 716a Spinster, more than a, 300a Spinsters: single-blessedness, 280a SPIRES marked with little spire, 327a spire-steeples point to the sky, 89b spires, whose silent finger, 89b, note, 402a, note ye distant spires, 154b SPIRIT, SPIRIT
 a dangerous grieving of the spirit, 385b, note a fairer spirit or more welcome shade, 372a a soaring spirit, 394b black spirits and white, 305a Brutus will start a spirit, 285b easier to call up an evil spirit than to allay it, 625b hail to thee, blithe spirit, 326a hands of invisible spirits, 198b his merry spirit seems our comrade yet, 446b

Spirit, Spirits—contd.

I can call spirits from the vasty deep, 314a into thy hands I commend my spirit, 425a it is the spirit that quickeneth, 425b
 master spirits of this age, 286a millions of spiritual creatures, 219a our spirits rushed together, 358b perturbed spirit, 292a raise no more spirits than you can conjure down, 829a sister spirit, come away, 254b so still and quiet, of spirit, 300b spirit is willing, the flesh is weak, 424a spirit of the place, 395a spirit ready, but the flesh weak, 662a spirit shall return to God, 416a spirit walks of every day deceased, 405a spirit world around this world, 200a spirits can either sex assume, 216a spirits of great events, 89a spirits twain have crossed with me, 453a stories from the land of spirits, 87b that no revenue hast but thy good spirits, 294b the bursting of my spirit, 67a the delighted spirit, 300a the spirit giveth life, 428b the immense and brooding spirit, 190a the spirit of the good is und subdued, 337b
 the spirit that's gone, 391b the viewless forms of air, 271b think not my spirits are always as light, 231a thy unbound spirit, 102b undaunted spirit in a dying breast, 317a

SPIRITUALISM argument against it, belief for it, 179a converse with the Mighty Dead, 264b not one returns to tell us, 136a this trade of mine, 34a think they on their brethren more, 237b See Superstition

Spiritus, veri Creator, 679b Spiro, haud tibi, 683b Spiro, non tibi, 60a Spit him like a plover, 44b Spit in my parlour, I'll, 738b Spit, little God of Love, turn the, 446a Spite and sloth, we cast off, 322b Spite, O cursed, 292a
 Splendour of a sudden thought, 34b Spleen, 155b and pride, crammed with, 319b only seizes lazy, luxurious, and rich, 347b to mankind, 256b wit and mirth and spleen, 2b Splendid discontent, 229b Splendida facta lūmine, 531b Splendour and fame, children of, 381b stays, the, 352a to lose the, 322b Spoil, when they divide the, 417a Spoil, you must, before you spin well, 880a Spoiler came, a cruel, 240b

Spoils: spolia opima, 662a Spoils to the victors, 455a Spoken, that said, all is, 211a Spoleto, he is of, 774b Spondée, Cicero's description of, 565b, note Spontaneity, life shows, 89b Spoon, behoveth him a ful long, 78a born with a silver, 860a he will make a, or spoil a horn, 783b Spoons, let us count our, 178b

SPORT, SPORTSMEN
 a dialect I understand very little, 242b a good hunter takes much game, not all, 498a animals never kill for sport, 141a cares beguiled by sports like these, 147b danger and delight grows on one stock, 750b England unrivalled for sporting, 117a hardy sports or contest bold, 270b in sports and journeys men are known, 793a
 not hate but glory made these chiefs contend, 256b not shameful to have amused oneself, but shameful not to have left off, 586b our ancestors grew not great by hawking and hunting, 823b pith's gude at a' play but threadin' o' needles, 825b play and joking undesirable when over-done, 585a play has produced serious contention, 568b
 play may be good, folly can never be of use, 825b play not for gain, but sport, 162b sport, hand-in-hand with Science, 360a Sport that wrinkled Care derides, 224a sportsman complete, 387b
 'tis royal sport, 212a
 to turn serious matters into sport, 560b use pastime so as not to lose past time, 865b we should play to live, not live to play, 867a without danger the game grows cold, 658b, 877a Sporus tremble, let, 252b Spot, a dearer, sweeter, than all the rest, 229a bright suns without a, 392a holiest, on the face of the earth, 235a is cursed, the, 393b Spot most seen on finest cloth, 728b out damned spot, 305a Spot that is sacred to thought, 131b where love's first links, 68b Spout and spout, coolly, 232a Sprat, every, calls itself a herring, 758a to catch a mackerel, 865b weavers' beef of Colchester, 867a Spray, toss in the, 5a Sprig of bays in fifty years, 348a

SPRING
 a young man's fancies turn to thoughts of love, 358b beautiful Spring, 93b blooms, if health is present, 605b can spring be far behind, 325b cold becomes milder with spring, 536a

Spring—contd.

comes slowly up, 86b does not always flourish, 680b follows winter, 653a formosissimus annus, 534a gentle Spring, eternal mildness, 369a gleans no treasure, 244a has come when you can place your foot on three daisies, 837a hawthorn-time, 354a heat returns to the bones in Spring, 681a here is continual spring, 543a I come, I come, 161a if we had nothing else but Spring, 233b nearer to the Spring, 123b perpetual Spring, 680b returns, 23b slippery, drippy, nippy, 131a, note Spring-time's harbinger, 139a supplies flowers, 622a sweet Spring, full of sweet days and roses, 163b the hounds of Spring, 352b the infants of the Spring, 291a
 the soote (sweet) season, 346b the sweet o' the year, 310a the time of the singing birds, 416b the vernal sun new life bestows, 269a the white foam of the Spring, 380b the year in its greatest beauty, 604b the youth of primy nature, 291a vaded (faded) in the Spring, 322b venturous harbinger of Spring, 394b when Spring unlocks the flowers, 160a SPRINGS (water) an untasted spring, 1b muddy springs will have muddy streams, 813a must not pump spring-water, 29b shallow springs, 436b when you have drunk you turn your back on the spring, 739a Springes to catch woodcocks, 291b Spriting, do my, gently, 310b Spur in head worth two in the heel, 728b no spur to prick the sides of my intent, 303b to spur one who is running, 510a Spurs the first part of armour, 837a spare the, and hold the reins more tightly, 615a Spurring, bloody with, 312b Spurn against an awl, 80a Spurs that patient merit takes, 293b Spy, see Spies

 Squadron in the field, never set a, 300a Squalls, look out for, 805a Squandered my estate without honour, 180a Square man in a round hole, 332a, 728b my trial, 225a or line, work by, 98a to make a matter, 553a Squat, though somewhat, 6a Squeaking of the wry-necked fife, 282b Squire and his relations, bless the, 114a Squirrel, the joiner, 278a Stab, each line shall, 349a Stabs at a kingdom, 243b

Stables the real centre of the household, 324a Stael, Madame de, 56a, note Staff, if the, be crooked, the shadow cannot be straight, 789b old man's, a knocker at death's door, 849a Staffordshire, to carry a wife to, 781b Stag at eve had drunk his fill, 270b first catch, and then skin him, 761b Stags led by a lion, or lions led by a stage, 534a STAGE
 a stage where everyone must play his part, 282a after a well-graced actor leaves the stage, 313a all the world's a stage, 288b delight and wonder of the stage, 183a drown the stage with tears, 293a echoes back the public voice, 178a if this were played upon a stage now, 208a on the stage he was natural, 149a struts and frets his hour upon the stage, 305b the poor degraded stage, 342a the world is a stage, 716a to stage me to their eyes, 299a Stagirites, planets filled with, 232a Stagnation: standing pools gather filth, 837a still water breeds worms, 837b Stagyrite, staggered that stout, 191b Stain in thine honour, 420b incapable of, 217a like a wound, felt a, 41a Stains, as when a Grace sprinkles another, 193a Stake, a poor, that cannot stand one year, 794a an ill, standeth longest, 735b nothing stake, nothing draw, 819a you water a dead stake, 879b Stakes, low, stand long, 847b no, no draw, 463b Stale, flat, and unprofitable, 290b Stamp, king's cannot make the metal better, 403b Stand, how they with dignity may, 396b Standeth, let him that thinketh he, take heed, 428a Standing-place, give me, and I will move the earth, 470b Stanley, approbation from Sir Hubert, 236b Stanza, pens a, when he should engross, 252a STAR and STARS a bright particular star, 299a a star for every State, 390b a wise man will overrule the stars, 648b all the spangled host, 227b are not seen by sunshine, 837a began to blink, 392a
 blessed candles of the night, 284a blossomed the lovely stars, 198b build beneath the stars, 407b but the twinkling of a star, 51b constant as the northern star, 286a cut him out in little stars, 279b discourages like stars, too high to give light, 8b distance makes them stars, 210a doubt thou the stars are fire, 292b dream not of other worlds, 220b fair as a star, 392a

Star and Stars—contd.
 fairest of stars, last in the train of night, 219b fixed as a star, 397b
 follow but thy star, 74a free, because their joy is to obey, 381b give a name to every fixed star, 276b God in the star, 36b grapples with his evil star, 362b half-quenched in mists, 325b have most glory, no rest, 105b he reads the stars, 341b
 he that was born under a three-halfpenny planet, 782a heaven's ebon vault studded with stars, 325a hid their diminished heads, 218b hitch your wagon to a star, 131b I strike the stars with my sublime head, 664b in their courses fought against Siera, 410a like a falling star, 216b like a shooting star, 312b like the seven stars, seldom seen together, 877a look we for any kinship with the stars, 213a malignant star, 19a man is his own star, 137a man in the street does not know a star, 132b meaner beauties of the night, 403a might soil his star, 47a night brings out stars, 14a night's candles, 279b no easy way from the stars to earth, 597b nor sink those stars in empty night, 229b not in our stars, 285b nothing fixed except some stars, 349a now glowed the firmament, 219a order of stars not accidental, 627a Phosphor (morning star), 620a Princes like to stars, 10b reflected on the lake, 160a renouncing stars and skies, 383b round and perfect as a star, 330b rule men, God rules the stars, 493a, 669b, note
 singing as they shine, 3a so may we read, and little find them cold, 213b some fostering star, 380a some that have the stars surveyed, 266b star of stars, 114b star-pictured Nature's ceiling, 68b stars came otherwise, 34b
 stars of morning, 220a
 stars that of old shone, 352a such is the way to the stars, 569b, 657a that full star that ushers in the even, 322a the beauty of a thousand stars, 208b the evening star, love's harbinger, 222a the fire is in them whereof we are born, 213b the firmament showeth his handiwork, 412a the flower and the distant star, 70a the gems of Heaven, 219a the Julian star, 576b the lamps numberless, 38a the sentinel stars, 68b the stars are old, 355b

Star and Stars—contd.
 the stars of glory, 120b the wat'ry star (moon), 309b their candles are all out, 304a their stars were more in fault, 259b there are more stars than a pair, 854a
 they fell like stars, 229b though the heavens be glorious they are not all stars, 858a thus is the journey to the stars accomplished, 657a
 thy soul was like a star, 396b to guide the humble, 207b to heaven's high city I direct my way, 261a to lend stars to heaven, 660a twinkle, little star, 355b two stars keep not their motion in one sphere, 314b voice of the stars, 688a wandering stars, 431b what varied being peoples every star, 248a when the stars pitch the golden tents, 368b wisdom mounts her zenith with the stars, 15a ye chaste stars, 302b ye little stars, hide your diminished rays, 251b Star-Chamber matter of it, make a 287a Star-spangled banner, 188a Starlight, glittering, 219a Starry amorist, starward gone, 369a girdle of the year, 66b heavens, moral law like the, 14b Stare, a stony British, 363b returned the Chief his haughty, 271a was all I got in answer, 66a Stares and listens, simply, 35b Start afresh, 113b not so wildly, 205a straining upon the, 316b Started like a guilty thing, 290a Starting-point of man, 35a Startling, only that which is, makes a noise, 187a Starvation: a starving populace knows nothing of fear, 591a integrity is praised and starves, 625a starve right merrily, 371a starve thy sin, not bin, 165b upon the very verge of starving, 150b Siat fortuna domus, 537b STATE and STATES a golden prison, 262b a pillar of state, 217a a state hiring, 181b a thousand years scarce serve to form a state, 54a all were for the state, 206b arguments of state, 208a Atlas of the state, 98b broken with the storms of state, 320b corruption-gendered swarm of state, 335a defect of free states, 523b founding a firm state, 208b greatest scandal waits on greatest state, 321b I have done the State some service, 303a let me be no assistant to a state, 292b life-blood of the state, 184a man who meddles with a state, 82b

State and States—contd.

pride no mean factor in a state, 379b
 rose of the fair state, 294a sail on, O Ship of State, 198b save as he saves or serves the state, 361b some strange eruption to our state, 290a state and family ever at war, 230b state of life unto which it shall please God to call me, 433a states, find their welfare in their duty, 338a states move slowly, 8b the reeling state, 96b the State's mellow forms, 155b to mould a mighty state's decrees, 362b to ruin or to rule the state, 122b unregarded helm of state, 52a what constitutes a state, 182a worth of state the worth of individuals, 215b

Statesmen interesting but tough, 84b

STATESMEN

a lidless watcher of the public weal, 360b art thou a statesman and canst not be a hypocrite, 127b as the leading men, such is the State, 629a guard us, statesmen, 361b he gives laws to the people, and makes himself a way to Olympus, 618b more worthy of an attorney than a statesman, 268b O for a living man to lead, 244a renounce hatred, friendship, anger, and softheartedness, 610a riding in omnibuses, 161a statesman and buffoon, 123a statesman, scientific, therefore a seer, 89a statesman, yet friend to truth, 252a statesmen or clerks, 117a
 statesmen's kindnesses, 174b the chief who men and nations knew, 257a three ends of a statesman, 80b too nice for a statesman, 149a true friendships rare amongst statesmen, 680b unpopular, because he canted less, 206a who pulled ruin on the state, 30a world wearied of statesmen, 117b See Rulers, 609a
 Station, men with thoughts above their, 209a Stationers' Company, motto, 681a Stations, know our proper, 114a Statistics: arithmetician in the clouds, 43a inaccurate accountant, 43a use of, 71a Status quo, 553b
STATUES
 an ivy wreath and a wretched statue, 536a beautiful when incomprehensible, 132b notes on a gilded statue, 200c many statues must come down, 364a meal even from statues, 528a more the statue grows the marble wastes, 453a moulder into Worth, 439a Statues—contd.

rather it should be asked why I had not a statue, 448b statue of gold should be set up to this man, 547a the statue that enchants the world, 369b why he had no statue, 12a STATURE
 a six-foot column of fop, 173a a stature undepressed in size, 399a Alexander the Great small bodily, 571a cockloft empty in those built high, 141a each man makes his own stature, 407a God does not measure men by inches, 766a her stature tall, 62a long and lazy, little and loud, 759b men are not to be measured by inches, 810a of emperor of Lilliput, 347a she was a dumpy woman, 172a Status quo ante bellum, 662b Stay a little, Cordelia, 307a a little, that we may end sooner, 10b how little while we have to, 135b must you? Can't you go? 444b never continueth in one, 433a oh, oh stay, 230b which says I must not, 372a Stayed, too late I, forgive the crime, 339a Steady of heart and stout of hand, 272a Steadfastness, wed thy folk again to, 80a STEAL and STOLE
 he'd starve before he stole, 189b
 he that stole, 97a steal! a fico for the phrase, 287b steal from the world, 254b steal us from ourselves away, 128b, note, 253b steal us from ourselves, even, 128b stolen apples are sweet, 837b stolen waters are sweet, 413b the friar preached against stealing, 845a Stealth, do good by, 253b Steam is a tyrant, 390b thy arm, unconquered, 106a Steamboats, food on, 368a Wordsworth and, 402b Steamer, ocean, next worst thing to the Palace of Truth, 324a Steed, farewell the neighing, 302a my bonny white, 272a that knows its rider, 54a Steeds, you fiery footed, 279b Steel, as with triple, 217b good piece of, worth a penny, 722b in complete steel, 225a, 291b swords of Sheffield, 273b Steep and thorny way to heaven, 291a Steep, wild and stormy, 67b Steeple, dung down the, 439b carving from a, 170a Steer, all would, when winds are steady, 368b hand, reef and, 110b right onward, 227a thy course steadily, 338a where no man will, 352a Steerage of my course, He that hath the, 278a Steersmate, such a, at the helm, 223b Steersmen, grow good, when the vessel's crank, 213b

Stenches, two and seventy, 87b Step, first, is troublesome, 796b by step, one goes far, 759b, 837b greatest, is that out of doors, 845b mind the, 464b we miss thy small step, 228b Steps not equal, 541b with wandering, and slow, 222a STEPMOTHERS
 a stony-hearted stepmother, 488a, note false as stepdame to her son, 298b some hint of winter in step-mother's love, 368b step-dame buffetings, 68a take heed of a stepmother, 838b Stepping-stones, men may rise on, 362a Stern alarums changed to merry meetings, 318a look but a gentle heart, 311b Sterner stuff, made of, 286a Sternhold he out-Sternholded, 143a Stew in their own grease, 455a Steward, a backward, for the poor, 251b one honest man and he's a, 308b that old hereditary bore, 265a Stewards of the mysteries of God, 427b we are God's, 76b Stick, no argument like the, 810b press a, and it seems a youth, 827b the best end of the, 773a to cut a, when the fight is over, 797a Sticks, two dry, will kindle a green, 864b Stiff-necked people, 409b soberest saints more, 52b Stifling opinions, evil of, 215a Stile—a, merrily hent the, 310a Still, better sit, than rise and fall 743b he sits, that hath a riven breech, 776a waters run deep, 837b Stillness, a solemn, 153b, note is terrifying, 546b soft, and the night, 283b Stilpo, Greek philosopher, 611a, note STING
 a serpent sting thee twice, 283a nasty long stings, 16b
 the sting is in the tail, 851b, note the stinging of a heart, 57b
 we scorn them, but they sting, 365a Stinks, and several, 87b Stir, not to, without great argument, 296a unprofitable, the fretful, 393b Stirring, be, as the time, 312a Stirrup, between the, and the ground, 445a as good may hold, as he who leaps on, 738a Stitch in time saves nine, 728b Stitch, stitch, stitch, 171a
 Stock, lock, and barrel, 443b
 Stock Exchange, on it there is jobbery, 759a Stocks will fall or rise, how, 260a Stockings, green (emblem of jealousy), 833a Stoic of the woods, 67a severe, 223a Stoic's pride, too much weakness for the, 248b Stoles, nice white, 15b Stomach carries the feet, 716b, 851b is not good, 345a

Stomach, none bigger than another by a span, 703*a*, note supports the heart, 728*b* thought depends on the stomach, 450*a* your stomach will not hold more than mine, 577*a* Stomachs, lazy folks', don't get tired, 158*a* STONE and STONES
 a scorpion beneath every stone, 664*b* a stone cannot be found when the dog comes, 871*a* a stone flung into some sleeping tarn, 365*b* a stone frigate, 784*a* Blarney Stone, 441*b* blest be the man that spares these stones, 446*a* blossoming in stone, 190*b* bread and a stone, 488*b*, note break your teeth on worthless stones, 800*a* conscious stone to beauty grew, 131*a* constant dropping wears away stone, 748*b* doubtful glistening of a little trifling stone, 234*a* graved in the white stone, 24*b* if I had not lifted the stone, 788*b* labour of an age in piled stones, 227*b* let him first cast a stone, 425*b* move the stones of Rome to mutiny, 286*b* no man can stay a stone, 730*b*
 no more moved than a piece of hard stone, 586*b* no stone without a name, 604*a*
 not a stone tell where I lie, 254*b* not in your way, need not offend you, 851*b* peaceful rests without a stone, 254*b* raise thou the stone and find me there, 380*b* rugged stone grows smooth from hand to hand, 727*b* sermons in stones, 288*a* stone in a well is not lost, 728*b* stone in one hand, bread in the other, 488*b* stone of stumbling, 417*a* stone that is rolling can gather no moss, 374*a*, 375*a* stumbling-stone and rock of offence, 427*a* the drop hollows the stone, 539*b* the stones will immediately cry out, 425*a* this is the famous stone, 164*a* throw not stones at thine own window, 859*a* two things stand like stone, 151*b* water wears away stone, 663*a* we raised not a stone, 391*b* whether pitcher strikes stone, or stone pitcher, 874*a* which the builders refused, 413*a* who remove stones bruise their fingers, 875*b* you are not stones, 286*a* you cannot lay a stone, 879*a* See Rolling stone, 727*a* Stonehenge, 121*a*, note Stony limits cannot hold love out, 278*b* Stood, sufficient to have, 218*a* Stools, between two, 744*b* Stools to sit on two, 518*b*

Stoop, it is na time to, when the head is off, 796*a* she'll, when she has tired her wing, 269*a* to that there? dothest think I'd, 27*b* Stoops, to rise, it, 34*b* Stop, perwailed on him to, 112*b* Stop she please, to sound what, 294*b* Stops, too many, stop the way, 193*a* Stops, you would seem to know my, 295*a* Stopp'st thou me, wherefore, 86*a* Store, care was to increase his, 169*a* to review one's, is to mow twice, 861*b* Storehouse of the mind, 373*b* the wide earth's, 396*a* STORM and STORMS a storm in a teacup, 728*b* after a storm comes a calm, 731*b* any port in a storm, 737*a* blow not against the hurricane, 745*a* brightening the storm it cannot calm, 233*a* directs the storm, 2*b* heavens thundered and air shone with fire, 558*a*
 in darkness and in storm, 19*a* leave thee in the storm, 306*a* make oaks take deeper root, 837*b* mine enemy's dog should have stood by my fire, 307*a* nor have we power to strive against so great a storm, 587*a* preach to the storm, 385*b* rides upon the, 95*b* storm is up and all is on the hazard, 287*a* storm nor war lasts for ever, 731*b* storm that howls along the sky, 334*a* storms grow stronger as days grow longer, 739*a* the God of storms, 167*a* the stronger the shorter, 625*b* to see a storm is better than to feel it, 861*b* why such force should fight such strength, 209*b* STORY, STORIES, STORY-TELLING a gay lee-like story, 390*b* a story full of humour, 524*a* a story in every breeze, 233*b* a story is ruined if badly told, 572*a* antient godly stories, 419*b* each tongue best tells his own story, 240*b* first law of story-telling, 378*b* habit of telling stories a sign of mediocrity, 696*b* he stops his story in the midst of events, 652*b* how much to believe of my own stories, 176*b* it will take a long time to make it short, 372*a* je n'en enseigne point, je raconte, 695*a* leave a story better than he found it, 378*b* long are the labyrinths of the story, 567*b* must make his stories shorter, 347*b* nothing which cannot be perverted by being told badly, 591*b* sad stories of the death of kings, 312*b* still believe that story wrong that ought not to be true, 329*a* Story, Stories, Story-Telling—contd. stories and sayings they will remember, 164*a* stories he speaks, 564*a* stories to delight his ear, 322*b* stories which teach to sin, 617*b* story, God bless you! 69*b* story without a head, 467*b* the Incoherent Story, 440*b* the old, old story, 168*a* the story always old, 35*a* they are wise who study old stories, 634*b* this story shall the good man teach his son, 316*b* to rede ar delitabill, 15*a* to tell my story, 297*b* to understand a man, read his whole story, 783*a* told his queerest stories, 46*a* travellers' stories, 677*b* whate'er the story, the moral's true, 126*a* you tell the story prettily, 496*a* you tell to a deaf ear, 666*b* See Tale

Stories high, three, 90*b* Stout, am desperately, 345*b* a gentleman, so, 314*b* Stoutness, no objection to, 146*b* Strachan, is waiting for Sir Richard, 458*a* Strafford, Earl of, 109*a* Straight, absolutely, 385*b* as a die, 21*a* on, my way must be, 88*b* stick is crooked in the water, 728*b* to grow, in the strength of thy spirit, 354*b* STRAIGHTFORWARDNESS
 a crab cannot be made to walk straight, 477*a* be what thou wouldst seem to be, 740*b* less than it appears to be, 597*b* telling us all that they think, 436*a* 'tis manly to disdain disguise, 407*b* too much straightforwardness foolish against a shameless person, 506*a* you cannot be lost on a straight road, 878*b* Strain, fewer heed the, 96*b* a holy, repeat, 187*a* again, that, 297*b* his unpremeditated, 371*a* in a sadly-pleasing, 254*a* Strait-laced, but all too full in bud, 358*a* Strand, guardian Naiad of the, 270*b* Strand, Maypole in the, 24*b* Strange, all is, yet nothing new, 181*b* and wayward wight, 19*a* fellows, Nature hath framed, 281*b* it seems, how, 36*a* matters, where one may read, 303*b* so, outrageous, and so variable, 282*b* things, I (Dr. Johnson) say, 181*a* this is wondrous, 292*a* 'twas, 'twas passing strange, 300*b* STRANGERS and pilgrims, 430*b* and sojourners, 410*b* be not afraid of every stranger, 242*a* by strangers honoured, 254*b* gracious and courteous to strangers, 10*a* I am a stranger grown, 46*b*

Strangers—contd.

I do desire we may be better strangers, 289a
I was a stranger and ye took me in, 424a
keeping out strangers a law of pusillanimity, 9a send them both naked among
strangers, 578b
stranger in a strange land, 409b stranger in this breathing world, 57b

Strategy: lion's skin to be eked out with fox's, 451b

STRATAGEMS

God the best deviser of, 465a which errors seem, 246b Stratford attc Bowe, school of, 76b Strauss, Yawcob, 1a Straw, he that hath one foot in the 778b is corn in bad years, 749a, 792b let an ill man lie in thy, 800b

quarrel in a straw, 296a tilts with a straw, 398b to change straw into gold, 711a will show which way the wind blows, 728b

Straws, many, may bind an elephant, 808a
to split, 861b

STRAWBERRIES

best at mouth of pot, 11b God could have made a better berry, but never did, 378a grows underneath the nettle, 316a Stray, when with grief you see your brother, 349b what wonder if they, 95b with multitudes to, 239a

STREAM and STREAMS

a little stream drives a light mill, 724a a little stream will quench great thirst, 724a a purling stream, 2b a sacred stream, in whose calm depth, 355a
a secret sweetness in the stream, 362b cannot rise above the spring, 851b defile the pleasant streams, 121b drink the clear stream, 225b I would rather help myself from the great stream, 570b in stream or grove, 186a in the bosom of the stream, 49a is brightest at its spring, 386b mellifluous streams that watered all the schools, 223a more pellucid streams, 396a no beverage but the flowing stream, 371a
shallow streams run dimpling, 252b streams most sweet, 386a streams which fettered be, 174b the silent stream, 667a to swim between two streams, 744b with a favouring stream, 651a Streamers waving, sails fixed and,
223b

STREETS

are paved with gold, 90b good old Tory brick-built streets, 386a key of the street, 860b, note longest street, the nearest home, 728a
man in the street, 455a mothered by the street, 23b

Streets—contd.

much in the street, light of repute, 730a street cries all about, 441a street sayings, 464a, b uttereth her voice in the streets, 413b
when night darkens the streets, 216a wisdom of the street, 455a

STRENGTH

all below is strength, 125a draw strength from weakness, 716b, 753b
excellent to have a giant's, 299b from strength to strength, 413a he is strong who can knock a man down, but stronger who can lift himself, 774b is in the soil, 74b judged him by his strength or weakness, 386b
my strength is made perfect in weakness, 429a
of a chain is its weakest link, 851b pith's good at all play, 825b shall renew their strength, 417b strengthens with his strength, 249a united strength, 684a why attempt things beyond your strength, 639a
See Strong

Stratched, there was things he, 84b

STRIFE

a wife's dowry, 518b all subsists by elemental strife, 248b
and friendship allow of no excuse, 467a begets strife, 567a beginning of, 414a holy strife of disputatious men, 103a life means strife, 801b none was worth my strife, 192b of little natures, 38a produces strife, 477b ring with the unremitting strife, 344b that strife was not inglorious, 216b the holiest law of life, 106b to fast from strife and old debate, 165b to set the heather on fire, 861b what is begun in strife lasts indefinitely, 640a why such turmoil and strife, 12b

STRIKE

afraid to strike, 252a below the knee, 272a dare not strike for them, 365b delayed to strike though oft invoked, 221b do it and strike, 655a for your altars and your fires, 156b mint (offer) ere ye strike, 810b now or never, 138a passages that strike your mind, 53a strike, but hear, the ancient request, 8b strike, but hear, 447b, 680b while the iron's hot, 837b String after string is severed, 371b harp on the frayed, 236a Strings that had better not be vibrated, 113a Stripes, forty, save one, 429a Stroke, dealt the godlike, 239a ere well we feel the friendly, 142a no second, intend, 217b Strokes, many, fell the oak, 318a

STRONG

and very courageous, 410a one still strong man, 363b only to destroy, 100b shall be as tow, 416b thoughts too strong to be suppressed, 390b upon the stronger side, 311b when is a man strong, 32b with a strong and yet a gentle hand, 376b
without rage, 109a
See Strength

Strongest wander furthest, 390a side, wise men and gods upon the, 275a

STRUGGLE

life more like wrestling than dancing, 472a one sharp, stern struggle, 210a the struggle not the prize, 215b Strumpet, never was, fair, 815a Strut, look big, and stare, because I dare, 376a

Stuarts' throne, a stranger filled the,
271b

Stuarts not a' sib to the King, 728b their own most fatal enemies, 367a Stubbornness, noble, 125a

Students, unruly, make pious preachers, 727a

Studio minuent laborem, 548b

Studiorum ac naturæ similitudo, 650a

STUDY

an over-filled belly will not study, 550a craggy paths of, 183b despair succeeds brown study, 93a eager in studies and labours, 486b endless labour, 22a had made him very lean, 172b leave study and books, 155b life rich in a variety of opulence, 543a like the heaven's glorious sun, 276b loathing of all studies causes loathing of life, 612b make the night joint-labourer with the day, 290a mingle a little folly with your studies, 578a much study a weariness of the flesh, 416b much study weakens the brain, 746a no satiety in study, 598a pleasing, useful studies, 246a studies nourish youth, are a recreation to age, 541a studies serve for delight, 11b study what you most affect, 26a the proper study of mankind, 248b too much time in studies is sloth, 11b
Stuff in my thoughts, no such, 293a skimble-shamble, 314a Stuffing, asked him for, 15b is good for geese, 838a Stultus stultorum, 436a Stumble, do not, 207b may prevent a fall, 728b they, that run fast, 279a twice, is disgraceful, 470a Stumbles, he that, and falls not,
781b
least in rugged way, 163a Stumbling, the excuse of a lame
horse, 838a
Stumbling-block in his brother's
way, 427b
Stumps, he fought upon his, 435a

Stunned, like one who had been,
86b

STUPIDITY

Bæotian stupidity, 497b clever men never come of stupid
people, 71a

I have a great admiration for stupidity, 389a

no sin but stupidity, 388b preaching man's immense stupidity, 31b

the Gods struggle in vain with stupidity, 713b

the world is no longer stupid, 853b

Stupor mundi, 663b, 664a

Sturdy, Bob, 180b

Stygian cave forlorn, 224a

STYLE

a sort of broken Johnsonese, 206a base is the style, 341a careful happiness of style, 510a cunning juxtaposition of words, 517b

dressing old words new, 322a elegance of, to be sought, 485b elegancies expelled this offensive style, 539a

every man has his own, 453b is the man, 453b le style est l'homme même, 701a ornateness and simplicity, 380a

poetic trappings, 101a
proclaims the man, 663a proper words in proper places, 348b

put your discourse into some frame, 295a

some the style infatuates, 101a smoothly dull, 254a subtlest temper has smoothest style, 121a

swollen with inflated nothings, 597b

the dress of thoughts, 80b the labour and delay of polishing, 567a

true ease in writing, 247a where good, none better; where bad, none worse, 674a whoever wishes to attain an English style, 180a

Styx: irreverentibus unda, 560a

Suaviter in modo, 664b, note

Suaviter, si possis, 655b

Subdue, learned himself first to, 340b

Subject to be chosen according to one's power, 508a

a, not a slave, 392a

I do wish and long to be a, 317b

Subjects, good of, the end of kings, 108a

(give) love, 109a on her subjects' love, 259b rather through fear, 576b to defend crown according to law, 452a

wise, were their, 100b

Subjection, but required with gentle sway, 219a

Sublime and ridiculous, 241a from the awful there is a gradual descent to the contemptible, 471a

the really—the Lord's Prayer, 450a to the ridiculous, 692a

Submarines: "The Trade," 190b

SUBMISSION
a harder lesson than to command, 370b dishonourable, vile, 279b it is a good blade that bends well, 794a

Submission—contd.

we must bear what the gods choose, 470a

we must endure what he does whose power is greater, 616b yielded with coy submission, 219a

Subsequent proceedings interested him no more, 158b

SUBSERVIENCE
it needs skill to play the second fiddle well, 797a learned pate ducks to the golden fool, 308b

pluck a gown o' gold and you may
get a sleeve o't, 825b

Substance of a deed more important than trivial detail, 665a

Subtle, draw their designs so, 129a contriving head, 5b man easier to understand, 81a

Subtlety may deceive you, 104b

Subtleties, unlearned in the world's false, 322a

Suburbs: country on the outskirts of the city is sweet, 647a

SUCCESS
a day's, an hour's, 232b a good general talks of, 447b a successful man loses no reputation, 728b

all succeeds with cheerful people, 708b

all things subservient to, even grammar, 708b

but, Lord! to see what success do, 243a courage and presence of mind procure success, 128a dream that they shall still succeed, 99b

easy to give the sails to propitious winds, 529a

God will estimate success, 35b harder to find a man who bears good fortune well, 470a

he plays well that wins, 776a

I have succeeded, 65a if a good man thrive all thrive with him, 788a

if at first you don't succeed, 166a not in mortals to command success, 1a

nothing so impudent as, 245a nothing succeeds like, 818b nothing successful without trouble, 448a

obedience mother of, 477b obedience produces, 472a rest and success are fellows, 829b ruins a fool, 788a secret of, 89b success begets wealth, 434b success dismaller than failure, 30a success encourages, 546b success has brought many to destruction, 665a success is from above, 153a success much befriended, 472a success never blamed, 818b successful beyond hope, 221b the many fail; the one succeeds, 359a

the mark, 51a

the merits all his own, 81b the only criterion, 41b to be fortunate is God and more than God, 479b

to succeed in the world one must appear a fool and be wise, 694a touchstone of desert, 59a we ask not of success, 57a who best can pay succeed best, 81a

Success—contd.

will not attend on all, 334a with a fortunate man all things are fortunate, 471a

Successors gone before him, all his,
287a

Suckin', a little, 244a

Sucking-dove, 418a, note

Suction, good power o', 111b

Sudden things terrify even brave
men, 526a

too unadvised, too, 278b

Sue, less used to, than to command, 270b

we were not born to, 312a

Sued and served, I, 212a never, to friend or enemy, 318b my proud heart, 318b

Suez, ship me somewhere east of,
189b

Successance, in corporal, 299b is the badge of all our tribe, 282a

SUFFERING
by sufferings learn to prize bliss, 122a

deserved, should be borne patiently, 565b

even the fool knows when he has suffered, 477a

he suffers, but he will not suffer
long, 361b

he who suffers conquers, 633b

he's truly valiant that can suffer wisely, 308b

her suffering ended with the day, 3b

hope the paramount duty, 397b human sufferings touch the heart, 666a

knowledge by suffering, 30b learn in suffering what they teach in song, 326b learn to suffer, 516b nothing body suffers but soul may profit by, 214a nothing more inventive, 476b one must suffer for a cause, 21a rather suffer unjustly than act unjustly, 448a

she must suffer who can love, 260a suffer and expect, 838a suffer as they may, they triumph

still, 337b

suffer, that you may be wise, 838a

suffering brings experience, 759a suffering common to all, 473b suffering is teaching, 477a sufferings which have no tongue, 327a

tears to human suffering are due, 396a the best of men a sufferer, 108b the holiest suffer most, 390a the hope of all who suffer, 386b those who inflict suffering must suffer, 326b

to each his sufferings, 154b to suffer and be strong, 197b when another man suffers, a piece of wood suffers, 795a who best can suffer best can do, 223a

who breathes must suffer, 259b who fears to suffer suffers from fear, 874b

SUFFICIENCY
an elegant, 369a enough and more than enough, 649a

he is not poor who has enough for his needs, 617a

he is rich enough who does not want bread, 649a

Sufficiency—contd.

what suffices is enough, 649a who has sufficient let him desire no more, 641a

Suffolk, Earl of, 40b

Suffolk cheese, hunger will break through all but, 787a

Suffrage, universal, government of house by its nursery, 450a

Sugar, honey upon, 192a may spoil a good dish, 838a o'er the devil himself, 293b

Sack and, 314aSuggestio falsi, 666b*SUICIDE against self-slaughter and prohibition so divine, 309a

Britain infamous for suicide, 406b cowardly that longer fears to live,

140a
effect of cowardice, 108a

felo de se, 351b

His canon 'gainst self-slaughter,

290b
manlike end myself, 359b men, like soldiers, may not quit the post, 359b

shows but a bastard valour, 211b that refuge of despair, 107a the rôle of cowardice, 690a the worst form of murder, 89b we should not deliver up our fort

of life, 212a

what beast has heart to do it

359b Suing long, what held it is to bide

in, 341a

Suit lightly won, and short-lived

pain, 270a

of black, serviceable, 33a was rejected, though his, 274b

Suits of solemn black, 290a

Suitable, all things not equally, 611a

Suitors following, see, 301a

Sullen brow, smile not at my, 53b

Sultan after Sultan, 136a

Sum total of all sums is eternal, 665b

SUMMER

all the way a summer day, 104a come, summer, the sweet season,

176b comely with crops, 622a eternal summer gilds them, 63a eternal, in his soul, 168a fantastic summer's heat, 312a has set in with his usual severity,

89a here is summer in months foreign to summer, 543a in the hum of insects, 193a in winter ends, 196b is ended and we are not saved,

418a is gone on swallow's wings, 171b is y-cumen in, 434a it will not always be summer, 600b kindly warms, 46b kisses spring's tired eyes, 244a large fires, as behoveth summers

in England, 332b

like a summer's morn, 86a linden-time, 354a man is a summer's day, 376a months had spent their prime,

169b on summer eves, by haunted

stream, 224a

pride of, passing by, 354a remembrance of the summer's heat, 83a

St. Martin's summer, 317a showery, flowery, bowery, 131a,

note

Summer—contd.

strong summer, dumb with rapture, 354a summer in England: proverb as to wet and dry, 871b, note summer season, when soft was the sun, 194a summer's lease hath all too short a date, 321b

sweet as summer to those who sought him, 320b

thank heaven the summer's done,

93a

the last rose of, 231b the old summer rears the newborn roses, 352b

the wanton summer air, 279b thy eternal summer shall not fade,

321b to warm the air in raw inclement summers, 347b

Summer Time: dies artificialis, 515a

Summons thee to heaven or to hell,

304a

Summons, upon a fearful, 290a comes, when thy, 37a

Summum bonum, 498b

Summum nec metuas diem, nec optes,

641b

SUN, SUNSHINE, etc.

a little sun, a little rain, 386a a morning sun seldom ends well,

726a

a sunless land, 402b a sunless sea, 86a

a world without a sun, 66b adore the rising sun, 48b all except their sun, 63a and death not be looked at without finching, 700b and meadow not concerned about the coming winter, 323b as sunlight drinketh dew, 357a at the going down of the sun, 22b basked beneath the sun, 3b behold the sun, 406a bred o' the sun, 34b can be seen only by its own light,

851b
casts least shadow when highest,

871b

clothed with the light of, 351a does not shine on disappointed ambition, 39b dominions of, 66b

doubt that the sun doth move,

292b eclipsed at noon, 47b eternal sunshine, 148b fear no more the heat o' the sun.

309b from the rising of, 482a had gone down fiery red, 15b has set; no night has followed,

659b

hath Britain all the sun that shines, 309a

he lies abed in sunshine, 776a

he hath been in the sun to-day,

773a

he was the sunshine of my soul,

337b

hooting at the glorious sun in Heaven, 85b

hope not sunshine, 45a hope of life returns with the sun.

662a
if the sun would ever shine, 24b in all his state, 3b

in every country the sun rises in the morning, 792b

insultin' the sun, 390b is a faithful artist, 262b

Sun, Sunshine, etc.—contd.

is from the Dial gone, 437b is not all spots, 22b

Lamp of the world, 355a let not the sun go down upon your wrath, 429b

let others hail the rising sun, 142a made a sunshine, 339b makes the shadows twice as great at sunset, 650b may do its duty though your grapes are not ripe, 851b men shut their doors against a setting, sun, 308b more people admire rising sun than setting, 621a

morning sun never lasts a day,

756a

never sets on British dominions,

390a

never sets on Spanish dominions,

457a nothing more useful than sun and salt, 594a

of all the days has not set, 601b of my soul, 186a

one cloud may hide all the sun,

821a

our place in the sun, 456a

outlive the sun, eleven moons and a half, 347b owes no homage to the sun, 29a passeth through pollutions, 7b pay no worship to the garish sun

279b

pleasant the sun, 219a pleasant to behold the sun, 416a puts out the stars, 537b reflecting on mud, is unpolluted,

356a

regulate the sun, 248b

rising sun on this delightful land,

219a

seems always to have just set,

116b shadowed livery of the burnished sun, 282b

shineth upon the dunghill, 203a smiled with unaccustomed light,

509a

so sinks the day-star, 226b sunbeams melt along the silent sea, 231a

sunbeams out of cucumbers, 347b sunlight and rain, 23b sunlight and shadow waver to and fro, 383b sunshine after rain, 321a sunshine, broken in a rill, 233a sunshine is a glorious birth, 400b sunshine, stand a little out of my, sons can set and return; not so with our short day, 660a

451b

sunny days more frequent than
cloudy, 655b

that will not be deep-searched,

276b

the lamp of day, 120b the powerful King of Day, 369b the side that's next the sun, 346a the soul's calm sunshine, 249b

the sun of other days, 186b

the sunshine seemed to bless, 387a the worshipped sun, 277b

though God take the sun out of
heaven, 857b

though the sun shine, leave not thy cloak at home, 734b, 858a thought the sun rose to hear him crow, 130b

thy sun sits weeping, 312b

Sun, Sunshine, etc.—contd.

till the sun grows cold, 355b to lend light to the sun, 660a to see the sun for the last time, 695a up rose the sun, 77a unpolluted by sewers, 13b unsolable sunbeam, 228a, note upon an Easter day, 346a vernal, new life bestows, 269a weary of the sun, 305b what are you when the sun shall rise, 403a what would you do with the chariot of the sun, 533a when it shines, and when it is eclipsed, 871b where it is a duty to worship the sun, 234b where they behold a sun he spies a Deity, 407b while the sun shines it is day, 874a who can gaze upon the sun, 365a
who would dare to call the sun false, 660a will blind you if you persist in looking at it, 659b with ardent frown, 270b Sun of Righteousness, 419b Sundial inscription, 546b, 619a motto: vivite, ait, fugio, 686b what's the good of a sundial in the shade, 868b

SUNDAY
a day of mirth, 163b a week of Sundays, 797a alike every day makes a clout on Sunday, 732a amusements, 215a ad you baulk a Sunday walk, 170a clears away the rust, 2b divide the Sunday from the week, 290a for killing of a mouse on Sunday, 458a golf on Sunday, 195a heaven's gate stands ope, 163b if you have done no ill the six days, you may play the seventh, 790b not a day in law, 515a shines no Sabbath day to me, 252a Sunday words and Saturday cheer, 838a Sundays observe, 163a Sundays of man's life, 163b the day that comes between, 70a they go different ways on Sundays, 134b when two Sundays come together, 797b See Sabbath
Sunday-school words, 84a Sung, some merry lay he, 19a Sunflower turns on her god, as the, 231a

SUNRISE
sweet is the breath of Morn, her rising sweet, 219a Titan commands the hours to yoke the horses, 562a

SUNSET and evening star, 366b is crept into the bosom of the sea, 317b
of life, 67b
Ophirs of fabulous ore, 380b red forecasts wet; grey, rain, 462b shadows long and terrible at sunset, 195b

Sunset—contd.

sunsets are quite old-fashioned, 388a we felt the while we should forget them, 394b See Sun
Sup and blow, nae man can at once, 813b Superficial, ignorant, unweighing fellow, 300a

SUPERFLUOUS
more than we use is more than we want, 812b rich man's superfluities, 90b superfluities do not hurt, 666a the superfluous, a very necessary thing, 449b to do a thing which is already done, 663b to lend light to the sun, etc., 660a we retrench superfluities of mankind, 143a you complain of your superfluity, 670b

SUPERIOR, SUPERIORITY always to excel others, 467b
an two men ride a horse, 284b as the sun puts out the stars, 537b difficult to love our superiors, 693a I yield to a superior, 571b
it never hurts me that this man is richer or more learned, 593b
nothing equal to you has arisen, 594a superior stations, superior woes, 26b surest way to be cheated is to think ourselves cleverer, 701a who despises all displeases all, 633b you turn up your nose at men unknown, 677b

Supernatural element, 34a

SUPERSTITION
a race prone to, 537b a senseless fear of the gods, 666b all people have superstitions, 192a apparitions, signs, and prodigies, 321a better dumb than superstitious, 183a credulities to nature dear, 397b devil divides the world between superstition and atheism, 842a fools afraid of what knaves invent, 275a Giant Error, darkly grand, 265a greatest burden in the world, 228a guide confident, though blind, 260b I believe it because incredible (or absurd), 507a in avoiding superstition, 10a is godless religion, 156b it is wrong to be superstitious, 644b led folk from superstition, 25a
men put more faith in things they do not understand, 571b most pestilent of all pests, 613a mystery leads millions by the nose, 268a natural philosophy medicine for, 13b no itch more contagious, 603a not love, but superstition, 93b nothing more deceitful than, 592a obeys vanity like a father, 472a obscure things more easily believed, 509b of a name, 666b of imaginary sins, 228a

Superstition—contd.

people persuaded by what they cannot understand, 707a readers, superstitious, they deceive, 81b religion of feeble minds, 41b science antidote to, 330b superstition of a chaperone for women, 181b superstitions the kings of the nations, 693a superstitious soul hath no rest, 50a superstitious terrors, 109b the authority of a god used to cover crimes, 592a the fear of wonders, 660b the poetry of life, 711a thirteenth man brings death, 852a this vain age of the mind, 273a to the superstitious everything is ominous, 818a touching cold iron, 862b, note touching wood, 862b, note trumpety of vulgar faith, 69a truths end as superstitions, 176a "turning your money," 864a unlucky to refuse fire, 511a unlucky to save men drowning or half-hanged, 806a we are more frightened by the unseen and unknown, 504a will survive, 20b women miserably superstitious, 678a ye are too superstitious, 426b

Supine amidst our flowing store, 124a

SUPPER after supper walk a mile, 732a at five, 702b before and after supper walk a little, 664b better go to bed supperless than rise in debt, 743a dine lightly and sup more plentifully, 808b he wrongs not an old man who steals his supper, 801b if ever I ate a good supper, 4a light supper makes long life, 801b more slain by suppers than by the sword, 812a no song, no supper, 817a pastime makes suppers, 786b supped full with horrors, 305b swearing and supperless, 253b that nourishment that is called supper, 276b to sleep lightly, sup lightly, 802a walk after supper, 623a who goes to bed supperless tumbles and tosses, 874b who sups well, sleeps well, 802a

SUPPOSITION
greater than truth, 613b
I do not manufacture hypotheses, 547b not many things cheaper than supposing, 349b thinking is not knowing, 857b Suppressed, was immediately, 119b Suppressio veri, 666b Sure as a gun, 739a that is, which can be made sure, 502b

Surety, be, and danger (or ruin) is at hand, 447a, 662a for a stranger, he that is, 413b your, wants a surety, 880b Suretyship, he that hateth, is sure, 447a

- Surfet, as sick they that, as they that starve, 282a
- Surge, the murmuring, 306b
- SURGEONS, SURGERY
an old physician and a young surgeon, 736a honour hath no skill in surgery, 314b past all surgery, 301b surgeon, must have eagle's eye, lion's heart, lady's hand, 722b Surgeons' Company, motto, 628a surgeons cut that they may cure, 838a
- Surgical operation to get joke well into Scotch understanding, 333a
- Surgit amari aliquid, 575a
- Surmise, looked at each other with a wild, 184b
- Surname liable to no pun, 327b, note
- Surpasses or subdues, he who, 54b
- Surprise question, the, 32a
- Surplices: whether a parson ought to wear a black dress, 265b
- SURPRISE
a fool says "I shouldn't have thought it," 557a an essential ingredient in art, 332a Est-il possible? 557a, note life a series of surprises, 133a man surprised is half beaten, 725b Millions of surprises, 163b
- Surrender of goods (cessio bonorum), 502b
- Sursum caudas, 666b
- Sursum corda, 666b
- Survival of the fittest, 338b
- Survive, we that, perchance may end our days, 445a
- Suum cuique, 666b, 667a
- Suus cuique est carus, 576b
- Susanna, in wedlock a, 444a
- Suspensatur per collum, 666b
- Suspense, the only insupportable misfortune, 268b
- SUSPICION
a rogue always suspects deceit, 727a always suspect everybody, 11-a Caesar's wife must be above suspicion, 453a do well and doubt nae man; do ill and doubt a' men, 753a first suspicions dimly stole, 67b haunts the guilty mind, 318a he that has suspicion is rarely at fault, 778a love, maker of suspicions, 805b makes a man suspect much, 11a may be no fault but to show it is, 838a men are suspicious, 165a
men do not suspect faults which they do not commit, 178b nothing secure unless suspected, 818b raises hobgoblins, 838a sleeps, though Wisdom wakes, 118b so suspicious is this tragedy, 317a strong on the part of the distressed, 485b superabundance of, 13b suspects, yet fondly loves, 302a suspicion absolves faith, 13b suspicion a coward's virtue, 240a, 852b suspicion's coward fear, 204a suspicions like bats, 11a teach them to suspect the deeds of others, 282a the bane of friendship, 838a what a ready tongue suspicion hath, 315a
- Suwaroff, 64a, note
- Swag, nicely stowed the, 165b
- Swagger, men who save money, rarely, 205a
- Swain, the uncouth, 226b
- Swains, all our, commend her, 281b as be, few such, 29a
- Swaller myself, an effort to, 28a
- Swallow suddenly, I had to, 84a
- SWALLOW
a summer friend, 543b come before the swallow dares, 310a flies with swallow's wings, 319a nature's licensed vagabond, 366b one makes not a spring (or summer), 822b swallow-flights of song, 362a swallow, thou that knowest both, 360b the chaffering swallow, 29b twittering swallow, 153b types of false friendship, 543b
- SWANS
a rare bird, like a black swan, 642b a swan-like end, 283a float double swan and shadow, 395b make thee think thy swan a crow, 278a swan swam in a silver lake, 7a swans are geese, 4b sweet Swan of Avon, 183a whenever a swan swims on a lake, 173b
- Swarry, a friendly, 112b
- Swashing and martial outside, 288a
- SWEAR, SWEARING
a gentleman may swear it on behalf of his friend, 310b do not swear at all, 278b enough to make a deacon swear, 202a frequent swearing produces perjury and implety, 480b he that sweareth to his own hurt, 412a if he swears he'll certainly deceive thee, 240a if you swear you will catch no fish, 790b man cannot swear and lie as woman, 77b our armies swore terribly, 342b
swear by thy gracious self, 278b swear for me, page, for a short half-hour, 705a swear not by the moon, 278b swearing till the very roof was dry, 283a swearing with delicacy, propriety, and judgment, 350a swears with so much grace, 195b swore by all was swearing worth, 44b
the cheap swearer, 162b they may swear anything, 210b we men may swear more, 298a
- Sweat of thy face, in the, 409a
- Sweating-sickness, the English, 665a
- Sweep before your own door, 838a
- Sweeps a room, who, as for thy laws, 164a
- SWEET and SWEETNESS a wilderness of sweets, 219b all her task to be sweet, 381b all is not sweet, 182b an interminable tedious sweetness, 192a every sweet hath its sour, 758a flee what is sweet if it can turn bitter, 519a for sweet things my soul has ceased to care, 238b
- Sweet and Sweetness—contd.
he deserves not the sweet that will not taste the sour, 772a her infinite sweetness, 75a how it was sweet, 34a linked sweetness long drawn out, 224b look thou but sweet, 278b more sweet by distance, 90a no longer sweet if repeated often, 479a nothing half so sweet in life, 231a riffled all its sweetness, 240b so sweet, so soft, so faint, 273a so sweet that joy is almost pain, 325b sweet Anne Page, 287b sweet as summer to those who sought him, 320b sweet is sour to him who has lost his taste, 860b sweet meat must have sour sauce, 838a sweet, not lasting, 291a sweet o' the year, 310a sweet to think upon, 236a sweets compacted lie, 163b sweets to the sweet, 297a sweetest thing that ever grew, 392a sweetest things soonest cloy, 372b sweetness and light, 6a sweetness and light, the two noblest things, 348b sweetness, goodness, in her person shined, 227b sweetness of disposition charms the soul, 666b that are so wondrous sweet and fair, 377a the little sweet doth kill much bitterness, 185b waste its sweetness on the desert air, 153b waste their sweetness in the desert air, 82b you prove sweet to me, 25a
- Sweetheart and Honeybird keeps no house, 838a
- Swelling wisely, 112a
- Swift, Dean, Latin epitaph, 674b expires a driv'ler, 178a
- Swift as meditation, 291b
- race is not to the, 416a without violence, 260a
- Swiftness, for, did I sue, 368b never ceasing, 242a
- SWIM and SWIMMING but said I could not swim, 119b good swimmers are oftenest drowned, 768b good swimmers at length are drowned, 768b I will swim this here, 168a not to swim i' th' lead o' th' current, 139a seen here and there swimming in the vast flood, 491a some must swim when others sink, 151b some strong swimmer in his agony, 62b swim to yonder point, 285a swim without cork, 583b swimming with bladders, 8a taught you to swim and you drown me, 787b
- Swine, too rich a pearl for, 51b
- Swing, a kind of a bully, 84a youth will have its, 880b
- Swings, this and that way, 5b
- Swinish multitude, 41a, note

Swithin's feast, 142*b*, note Swiss, no money, no Swiss, 816*b* SWITZERLAND an inferior sort of Scotland, 332*b* que la Suisse soit libre, et que nos noms perissent, 706*a* Swoop, at one fell, 305*a* SWORD AND SWORDS
 a young buzzard's sword, 736*b* against the encased crocodile, 184*b*
 always beaten by the mind, 450*b* another's sword hath laid him low, 67*a* between sword and throat, 557*b* bravely hast thou fleshed thy maiden, 315*a* children born of thee are sword and fire, 366*a* do not give a sword to a child, 474*b*, 585*b*
 famous by my sword, 230*a* good sword has often been in poor scabbard, 768*b* great the licence of the sword, 570*a*
 hasten with the sword, 531*b* he that strikes with sword shall be beaten with scabbard, 781*b* his good sword rust, 87*a* his terrible swift sword, 174*b* his sword bequeathing to his son, 110*a*
 I have despised Catiline's and shall not fear yours, 505*b* I slay him with his own sword,
 666*a*
 I with my sword will open, 287*b* in choosing a sword trust not another, 792*b*
 it steels my sword, 271*b* leaden sword in ivory scabbard, 551*b*
 lord of the stainless sword, 353*a* man beats out deadly sword on the anvil, 555*a* more eloquent than words, 232*b* ne'er put a sword in a madman's
 hand, 814*a*
 nor shall my sword sleep, 23*b* not the longest sword, but the longest purse, conquers, 796*a* one sword keeps another in its sheath, 822*b* Orlando's sword, 808*a* our swords shall play the orator, 208*b*
 peaceful repose by help of sword, 573*b*
 pen is mightier than the sword, 204*b*
 remove sword from her who is not in her senses, 522*b* Scanderbeg's sword, 831*b* some for outrage, others for defence, 525*a* song of the sword, 161*b* stir not the fire with a sword, 478*a*, 548*a*
 sword in hand for England's
 right, 270*b*
 sword was servaunt unto right, 340*a*
 sword of heaven not in haste, 75*a* swords into ploughshares, 316*b* swords of Sheffield steel, 273*b* take away the sword, 204*b* the deputed sword, 299*b* the love of the sword rages, 647*b* the right of the sword, 562*b* the sword, 186 thy sword shall wield, 37*a*

Sword and Swords—contd. to harps preferring swords, 398*a* to paint with a sword, 620*b* true be thy sword, 271*a* two powers, the sword and the
 mind, 450*b*
 what has a sailor to do with a sword, 637*b*
 while I am master of my sword, 452*a*
 who carries sword carries peace, 791*a*
 who first produced the fear-inspiring sword, 638*b* who has a sword, and goes home for a better, never returns, 778*a* who has the sharpest sword, 452*a* Swordsman, good, not a quarreller, 722*b*
 Swordsmanship, skill in, 97*b* Sydneian showers, 104*a* Syllable, chase a panting, 98*b* for no man's pleasure change a, 391*a*
 last, of recorded time, 305*b* Syllables govern the world, 275*b* lives on, 252*a* Syllogisms hang not on my tongue,
 97*b* Syloson, the vesture of, 667*a* Sylvia, except I look on, 281*b* Sylvia, who is, 281*b* Symmetry, a certain miracle of, 358*a* Symmetry, suggesting the more perfect, 59*a*
SYMPATHY
 company in distress makes sorrow less, 748*b*
 experience in wretchedness has taught me to help the wretched, 598*b*
 feel for others—in your pocket, 838*b*
 grief is best pleased with grief's society, 321*b*
 I seek no sympathies, 55*a* it is the secret sympathy, 72*a* just to teach us sympathy, 35*b* never feeling misery, never thought, 335*a*
 one plum gets colour from another, 678*b*, note pinch yourself and know how others feel, 825*b* smiles and tears in sympathy, 677*b*
 some ease to reveal our sorrows, 106*a*
 sympathy of mind, 166*a* sympathy that heeds the common life, 392*b*
 teach me to feel another's woe,
 250*b*
 to melt at others' woe, 257*b* to soothe and sympathise, 378*b* we can ailments, 350*b* without relief, 838*b* women have no instinct for sympathy, 701*b* Synagogues, chief seats in, 423*b* Synods, mystical Bear-gardens, 51*b* Syntax, prosody and, 32*b* System into system runs, 248*a* Systems, our little, have their day, 362*a*

T

Tabitha, Aunt, 1685 Table Bay, going to, 190*a* TABLE AND TABLES a luxurious table (Sybaritica mensa) 667*a*

Table and Tables—contd. at a round table, no dispute of places, 739*b* at rich men's tables, 30*b* poor men's tables are soon spread, 826*a*
 robs more than the thief, 851*b*
 spread the table and contention
 will cease, 837*a*
 table friendship soon changes, 838*b*
 table of my memory, 292*a* that is the upper end where the chief person sits, 839*b* what's a table richly spread, 379*a* when one has a good table one is
 always right, 706*a*
 when the gudeman's awa' the boardcloth's tint, 871*a* without subtle refinements, 658*a* wont to set the table on a roar, 297*a*
 Table-companion friend, 523*a* Table talk, let it serve for, 283*a* Tables, my, meet it is I set it down, 292*a*
Tabula rasa, 667*a* Tace, Latin for a candle, 135*a* Tacendi, magna libido, 643*a* Tacitis senescimus annis, 669*b* Tacuisse, nulli nocet, 647*a* Tadpole and Taper, 117*a* Taffetas silk, "gummed Taffety,"
 772*a*
 Taffety, he frets like a gummed, 772*a* TAIL AND TAILS Chittabob's tail, 16*b* her tail came out, 15*b* horror of his folded tail, 227*b* keep your tails up (sursum caudas), 666*b* lash of his own stubborn tail, 122*a*
 make not thy tail broader than
 thy wings, 807*a* nasty long tails, 16*b* switched his long tail, 87*a* tail that wagged contempt at Fate, 380*a*
 tails of both hung down behind, 331*a*
 that last triumph, his distinguished tail, 381*a* the poison is in the tail, 551*a* what a monstrous tail, 70*b* where the tail came through, 336*a* where his tail joins on, 15*b* TAILORS
 I pray God make me able to pay,
 242*b*
 let each tailor mend his own coat, 800*b*
 let every tailor keep to his goose, 800*b*
 must mind the fashions, 838*b* nine and ninety, ought to weigh a pound, 815*b* nine make a man, 815*b* ninth part even of a tailor, 71*a* tailors' shreds are worth cutting, 728*b*
 tailors, weavers, millers, and bakers classed as thieves, 755*b* the patched-up tailor, 649*a* the tailor makes the man, 841*b* Teke and break us, 161*b* let, everything is as you, 758*b* let him, who can, 500*a* let him, who take can, 692*a* one "Take this" better than two "Will give," 718*a*, 822*b* they should, who have the power, 395*b*
 things as you find them, 838*b*

Takeley Street, all on one side like, 733b
TALE and TALES
a fragment from life of dreams, 87a a round unvarnished tale, 300b a tale in everything, 399b a tale should be judicious, 97b a tale told by an idiot, 305b all who told it added something new, 255a an old tale and often told, 269b as a tale that is told, 413a as it were a tale that is told, 433b believe not every tale, 420b breathe out the tender tale, 44a Christmas told the merriest tale, 270a come listen to my mournful tale, 327a difference in an oft-told tale, 124a every tale condemns me for a villain, 319b fresh interest to a twice-told tale, 60a
half a tale enough for a wise man, 730b half-forgotten tales of old, 235b honest tale speeds best, 319a how a plain tale shall put you
down, 314a
I can tell you a moral tale, 78b I cannot find you both tales and
ears, 787a
I could a tale unfold, 291b
I shudder as I tell it, 546b I tell the tale as 'twas said to me, 272a if ancient tales say true, 53a it is in all the tales, 33a it is natural to a greyhound to have a long tail, 796a it should be a good tale that is twice told, 797a let every fellow telle his tale, 77a lo, my tale is this, 78a long-winded tale, 19b makes up life's tale, 87b mariners' relations, 28b no tale so good but may be spoiled in telling, 817a not children merely are put off with tales, 713b one tale good till another is told,
823a old women's tales, 537b or adorn a tale, 178a
preamble of a tale, 77b sad tale best for winter, 310a seemed to them as idle tales, 425a sey forth thy tale, 77b
so sad, so tender, and so true, 327a some jovial tale or glee or jest, 269a such wondrous tales as childhood loves, 335a tale believed for their oaths, 162b tale is worth the hearing, 212b tale of laughter, shame, or folly, 342a tale never loses in telling, 728b tale of many a human heart, 86a tale which holdeth children from play, 329b
tales of Robin Hood, 839a tales that were to me so dear, 19a tedious as a twice-told tale, 311b tell a tale after a man, 77a the nimblest footman is a false tale, 849a the saddest tales, of all, 65a the tale runs as pleases the teller, 851b

Tale and Tales—contd. thereby hangs a tale, 276b, 288b told his soft tale, 83a yet the tale's true, 34a your tale would cure deafness, 310b
See Story
TALE-BEARING
do not tell tales out of school, 753a he that is a blab is a scab, 779a TALENT and TALENTS are distributed equally, 702b favour is not to men of skill, 416a fortune ill-natured to talent, 606b her talents were of the more silent class, 64a let the path be open to talent, 450a please with whatever gift you have to please, 627b talent alone cannot make a writer, 133a talent convinces, genius but excites, 205a talent does what it can, 205a talent, not of much avail without cultivation, 585a talent overcomes all things, 610b talent works, genius creates, 839a that one talent, which is death to hide, 227a
the single talent well employed, 178a towering talents and terrestrial aims, 407a
whose talent is to serve, 121b
TALK a cowardly people which will dare nothing beyond talk, 688a a different thing to act and to talk, 160b
a gentleman that loves to hear himself talk, 279a a good woman is not talkative, 667a a hotch-potch of talk, 648b a lease of common talk, 25a a rage for talking, 537a a red-tape talking-machine, 73a
a table-talker rich in sense, 212b a talkative tongue caused this punishment, 541a a twenty-thousandth part of a talker, 73a ah, no use of talking, 240a an end here of talking, 542b beautiful talk, 73b calamities make talkers, 467b charm and playfulness of his talk 565b cowards very talkative and fierce with their tongues, 548a everyone talks of what he loves, 758b excellent with his tongue but remiss in battle, 567a folks with little business are great talkers, 701b foolish to talk against Hercules, 536a foolish tongues talk by the dozen, 762a fools to talking ever prone, 143b fore-talk spares after-talk, 763a generous in talk, 637b good gods, how he will talk, 195a great talker, a great liar, 723a, 770a great talkers are like leaky pitchers, 770a great talkers are little doers, 770a great talkers, little walkers, 770a

Talk—contd.
great talkers never great doers,
214b guilt of undue talk is great, 528a he can talk, but is no speaker, 451b
he (Coleridge) talked on for ever, 159b
he that speaks lavishly shall hear as knavishly, 781b he will be talking, 284b he's satisfied if they sound clever, 346b his discourse sounds big, 240b his talk like a stream which runs, 258b his tedious talk is but vain boast, 223a honest talk and wholesome wine, 361b
I believe they talked of me, 134a I could talk like that for ever,
145b if they should cease to talk of me, 179b inquisitive people are talkers, 618b least said, soonest mended, 800a let every man talk, of what he understands, 800b let it serve for table-talk, 283a
let people talk and dogs bite, 800b let your talk be worthy of belief, 659a long talk makes short work, 804b
many talk like philosophers and
live like fools, 808a
many talk of Orlando, 808a many talk of Robin Hood that never shot in his bow, 808a meikle crack fills nae sack, 808b mind what and to whom you speak concerning another, 635b more talkative than a turtle-dove, 673b most fluent talkers not always the justest thinkers, 159b much talk and suitable talk not found together, 597b never nobleman but made ignoble
talk, 365b
no liberty of talk, to be regretted next day, 483b plenty of talk but little wisdom, 649a, note
prate is prate, but it is the duck lays the egg, 827a prudence not eloquent better than talkative folly, 572b said so much and so little done, 211b
Say-all-you-know and Say-nought-at-all, 236a she vibrates her eternal tongue, 404b
slave is the open mouth, 213a so much they talked, 81a so poorly as thou talkst, 92b speak of a person and he'll appear, 839a strange the difference of men's
talk, 242a
take pity on us and hold your peace, 578a talk is but talk; money buys lands, 878a
talk much and err much, 839a talk of the whole town, 529a talk out thine heart, 353a talk that does not end in action, 71a talk to conceal the mind, 404a talk to every man as if he bored you, 389a

Talk—contd.

talk without thinking is to shoot without aim, 862a talk, women's exercise, 137a talkers are no good doers, 318b talkers who pretend to know everything, 633b talking and eloquence not the same, 183a talking comes by nature, silence by wisdom, 839a talking not always to converse, 97b talking pays no toll, 839a talks much and says just nothing, 244b that talkative fellow will inflict punishment, 621b the day not sufficing for our talk, 660a the eternal talker neither hears nor learns, 843b the less people think the more they talk, 847a the mair they talk, 45b the narrative old man, 257a the talk, and not the intrigue, is the crime, 153a these fellows of infinite tongue, 316b they always talk who never think, 259b they talk most who have the least to say, 259a to babble and talk, 284b
 to despise popular talk, 622b to talk of many things, 120a tongues the treasure of fools, 560b turn your tongue seven times before talking, 864a two great talkers will not travel far together, 864b who chatters to you will chatter of you, 874b who digs out malicious talk about himself, 601b who speaks what he should not hears what he would not, 781b who talk too much, 123a who talks much errs much, 782a who talks to himself talks to a fool, 782a wisdom for a servant to know more than he speaks, 621b wit talks most when least she has to say, 407b with personal talk, 394a women should talk an hour after supper, 137a you interrupt with your talking, 653b Tall man is a fool, 468b divinely, 357b
 men, 462a
 men have stony hearts, 759b were I so, to reach the pole, 383a Tally, by the breadth of my nail, 347a Tam prope, tam procul nobis, 596b Tam Samson, 45b
 Tamarinds, only strangers eat, 84a Tame neither, be not too, 294b Tamed (the Irish), in one year, 208b Tandem triumphans, 668a Tang, let thy tongue, 208a Tantalus clutches at the streams of water, 668a his sufferings due to a talkative tongue, 541a, note no water obtainable to thee, 671a seeks water in the midst of water, 629a Tanto, pro, 625a

Tantos volvis sub pectore fluctus, 560a

Taper, exulting in their, 406a light, with, to garnish heaven, 311b my little, 65a Tapers to the sun, glimmering, 103a Tapis, sur le, 708a Tapsalteerie, gae, 47b Tapster, it fitteth the spirit of a, 277a Taradiddles, for telling, 196a I will tell, 146a Ta-ra-ra-boom-de-ay, 464b Tarda sit illa dies, 668b Tardy son to chide, your, 295b Tares, to live on, when wheat is cheap, 578a Tarlton's song, 446b
 Tarpeian rock is near the Capitol, 698a Tars are Fortune's sport, 111a love their ships and their wives, 111a Tartan plaid, beneath the, 7a Tartar's bow, words like a, 8a Tartness, revenge partakes of, 212a Tar-water, 22a

TASKS

consider long what your shoulders can bear, 665a complete the task, 525a I undertake a more difficult task, 571b long day's task is done, 307b my task is done, 232b now my task is smoothly done, 225b one task for all, 190b plying their daily task, 187a sees some task begin, 197b super vires (beyond one's strength), 666a tasks of real life, 399b the common task, 185b this indeed is a task, 520b this is the task of greatness, 662b thy worldly task hast done, 309b Task-master's eye, my great, 226b Tassel-gentle, to lure this, 278b

TASTE and TASTES

a bond of union between kindred dispositions, 649b a fine judgment in art, 562a
 a taste of your quality, 293a all do not admire and love the same things, 599b arbitrer elegantiarum, arbiter in matters of taste, 491b as many thousand tastes as men living, 642a differing tastes ask for differing things, 622b eager we taste, 379a every man to his own taste, 757b
 food for some is poison to others, 640a
 let every eye negotiate for itself, 284a man of taste, not of display, 522a more of salt than of profusion, 621b no dish to please all palates, 816a no disputing about tastes, 511a
 public taste, a mongrel product, 343b sad and bitter to some may seem sweet to others, 487b strange to live on tares when wheat is cheap, 578a such and so various are the tastes of men, 3a taste (had done) not much, 63b taste here were sacrilege, 209b

Taste and Tastes—contd.

the eye is harder to please than the stomach, 843b
 the same things not sweet to all men, 599b the taste of mobs, 253a to have taste one must have soul, 705b to him who has lost taste sweet is sour, 860b ugliness deforms taste, 160b
 wild vicissitudes of taste, 178a without taste genius is sublime folly, 707a Tatters, tear a passion to, 294a Tattler is worse than a thief, 728b Tattlers also and busybodies, 430a Taught as if you taught them not, men must be, 247b but first followed it, 77a saints who, and led the way, 372a too much quickness to be, 251a Taunts he casten forth most bitterly, 371b TAVERNS
 a capital tavern, 179a
 books my tavern, 195b he knew the taverns well, 76b to die in a tavern, 576b See Inns
TAXES
 all fall on agriculture, 144a and gruel grow thicker, 839a armies not paid without taxes, 590a Government a taxing-machine, 71b if taxes rise or fall, 81b levied upon commodities, 181b lying pays no tax, 806b make love and pay our taxes, 62a men prefer any load of infamy, 332a no question now of taxes, 599b nothing certain but death and taxes, 818b paid unwillingly, 133a result of being too fond of glory, 333a sinews of the commonwealth, 679a taxes milks dry, 202b the wretched tax-paying people, 578a to tax and to please, 40a true as taxes, 114a what shall I take out of this scarcity, 636a what the church leaves the exchequer takes, 868b See Tribute
 Taxed, women to be, according to beauty, 347b Te Deum laudamus, 669a Te intus et in cute novi, 485a TEA and scandal, 92a (tay) and stuff fit only for a wench, 209a best sweeteners of tea, 134b cups that cheer, 100a glad I was not born before tea, 333b how did world exist without tea, 333b life like a cup of tea, 18a now for the tea of our host, 146a she sweetens, as she sips, with scandal, 265a slavery of tea and coffee, 85a soft, sober, safe liquid, 83a sometimes counsel take and sometimes tea, 247b tasting of boiled boots, 368a

Tea—contd.
 tea-cup times of hood and hoop,
 358a
TEACH, TEACHERS, TEACHING a light to others (teachers), destruction to themselves, 437a better untaught than ill-taught,
 744a could I but teach the hundredth part, 392a difficulty made by teaching, 515b for the teacher's sake, 108a gladly would he teach, 76b he teacheth ill who teacheth all, 776a let such teach who themselves excel, 246a
 many learn more than their teachers, 478a one is your Teacher, 423b taught already profits by the teaching, 32a teach my teacher that he may teach me, 839b teach your grandmother to suck, 839a teacher, sparing of his smile, 97a teaching as if you taught them
 not, 247b
 teaching others teacheth yourself, 839b the bold teacher's doctrine, 398a time is the great teacher, 859b we learn by teaching, 517b who chooses to be his own teacher has a fool for pupil, 783b whom God teaches not, man
 cannot, 876a
 See Taught
 A tear a luxury to tatters, 294a TEARS
 a luxury only to the happy, 232b a main in his head, 111b a nation's tears, 231a a tear is an intellectual thing, 23b a tear was in his eye, 206b are on the mother's face, 362a art thou a child of tears, 186a as great pity to see a woman weep as goose go barefoot, 738a as soon as born I wept, 739a at wedding, 161a baptised in tears, 193b Beauty's tears, 66a better bairns greet than bearded
 men, 742a
 better write of laughter than of
 tears, 703a
 cheap as lies, 308a child of those tears, 533a, note claimed their course, 271a crocodiles that shed tears, 10b drops of women's rheum, 308a
 drown the stage with tears, 293a dry be that tear, 328b false tears of brides, 524b fast as the Arabian trees drop medicinal gum, 303a fell not a tear, 30b few, but friendly, 246a filled my eyes with tears, 198a flattered to tears, 185a flow impassioned as she gives command, 674a, note flow in vain, 576a forbade the rising tear to flow, 271b friends' painless tears, 202b funeral tears from different causes rise, 406b
 gave us readier tears, 386a gift of tears, God's best gift, 187a

Tears—contd.
 go like a stream through the heart, 533b
 God shall wipe away all tears,
 431b grief is appeased by, 524a (have) no bitterness, 203b have weight of words, 558a hence rage and tears, 554b hence those tears, 543b her tears, her mirth, 394a holy and pure are the drops, 161a how lovely in her tears, 264b how now, foolish rheum, 311b human beings weep in sympathy, 677b if you have tears prepare to shed
 them, 286a
 if you wish me to weep you must feel grief yourself, 656b in the affairs of life, 666a iron tears down Pluto's cheek, 224b it is na play where one greets and another laughs, 796a it is our trick; nature her custom holds, 296b
 let none honour me with tears, 687a, note
 like Niobe, all tears, 290b live in an onion, that should water this sorrow, 307a love loveliest when embalmed in
 tears, 271a
 man without a tear, 67a many shed for show, 621a men given to tears are good, 467a moistens my eyes, 128b moral brings a tear, 68a music nigh to tears and memory, 388a my eyes are dim with childish
 tears, 400a
 my mother came into mine eyes, 316b my tears must stop, 171b nature gave us tears, the best part of our nature, 579a never a tear bedims the eye, 158b never be a tear-drop shed, 26b no caste in tears, 4b no tears but of my shedding, 282b nor need you blush to shed a tear, 327a not a tear must o'er her fall, 30b nothing dries sooner than a tear, 591a, 818a, note nothing is here for tears, 224a of bearded men, 270a of warlike men, 161a one small pretended tear, 675a only human eyes can weep, 209a our bitter tears o'erflow, 215b pardon these tears, 510b persuasive language of a tear, 82b play the woman with mine eyes, 305a plentiful and ready at command, 674a Quintilian's death causing many
 tears, 582a
 Recording Angel dropped a tear,
 343a rivals all but Beauty's tear, 271a she sang the tears into his eyes, 205b silent orators, 139a skilled in moving to tears, 683b smiling in her tears, 66b some natural tears they dropped, 222a
 stand congealed, 124a

Tears—contd.
 sublime with tears and laughter,
 30a such as angels weep, 216b sympathetic tears, 154b tear comes in my ee, 48b tear in Cleopatra's eye, 57a tear of pity, 19a tearless tears, 470a tearless, yet so tender, 58a tears are blessings, let them flow, 443b tears, idle tears, 360b tears, perchance, for blood, 295b tears that speak, 94b that very law which moulds a tear, 265a
 the big lip and watery eye, 259b the big round tears, 369b the drying up a single tear, 64a the holy water from her heavenly eyes, 306b
 the homage of a tear, 54a the meed of some melodious tear, 226a the noble language of the eye, 164b the only tears, 67a the small orb of one particular tear, 322b
 the tear thou could'st not hide, 357a the unanswerable tear, 57a therefore I forbid my tears, 296b there's no seeing one's way through, 856b these foolish drops, 282b thoughts too deep for, 401a to drop thy foolish tears upon my grave, 359a to human suffering are due,
 396a to make the laughter weep, 322b to weep for joy is a kind of manna, 862a tribute of a tear, 257b troubles are light if merely matters for weeping, 565b vale of tears and misery, 136b Venus smiles not in a house of
 tears, 280a
 weep thy girlish tears, 381b what argues snivelling, 110b what tragic tears, 197a when a cheek is to be dried, 258b wherever tears can fall, 191a who can refrain from tears, 638b who hath none to still him must weep out his eyes, 728b why let a tear escape, 35a wiped with a little address, 102b witchcraft of tears, 322b women weep when they will, 877b women, when they list, can cry, 255b women's weapons, water-drops, 306a world of tears, 47b you cannot cleanse your heart with tears, 372b Teasing others, always, 98a they that tease each other love each other, 857a Technica, memoria, 575b Tedious as a tired horse, 314a as a twice-told tale, 311b old fools, these, 292b thinking his prattle to be, 313a TEETH and TOOTH alchemy with the teeth, 879a an aching tooth, 18b best of friends fall out, 172a children's teeth set on edge, 418b

Teeth and Tooth—contd.

dental (pain) is transcendental, 172a he that has bread has not teeth, 778a he that sleeps feels not toothache, 309b never yet philosopher could bear toothache, 285a pick your teeth when you cannot speak, 183b quickly tod, soon with God, 829a sans teeth, sans eyes, 289a sharp tooth of cankering eld, 327b tell him to his teeth, 296b the grinders cease because they are few, 416a they sharpened my teeth, 84a to lose pain, by losing something, is a gain, 568a tongue ever turns to the aching tooth, 852a whetted their teeth against the stones, 336b who hath aching teeth hath ill tenants, 875a you dig your grave with your teeth, 879a Teetotaller, no woman should marry, 343b Telegraphy: by these signs secrets are conveyed over land and sea, 544a

Tell, I canna, you, that which you yourselves do know, 286b

Telum ira facit,

Temeravit crimine vocem, 614a

Temere, nec, nec timide,

TEMPER.
 a man of such a feeble temper, 285a an unambitious temper, 234b bad tempers, mankind's worst curse, 105a nine-tenths of Christianity, 160b of a temper was so absolute, 120b passion in disputes, 28b tart temper never mellows with age, 176b we boil at different degrees, 132a

TEMPERAMENT

a solid base of, 360b opinions the result of, 329a

TEMPERANCE

a bride, 50a acquire and beget a temperance, 294a and exercise preserve strength, 623a and labour the true physicians, 698b and Repose, 200a by temperance taught, 221b dominion of reason over passion, 669b health consists with temperance, 249b
 in a pet of temperance, 225b never did apply hot and rebellious liquors, 288b nurse of chastity, 403b Temperance hotels, 27b

TEMPERANCE

TEMPEST and showers deceiveth a many, 374b glasses itself in tempests, 56a rages wild and high, 260a she should not have meddled with a tempest, 331b still it shall be tempest-tossed, 303a

Tempest—contd.

threatens before it rises, 669b would follow so favourable a gale, 452b

Templar, drink like a,

694b

TEMPLE and TEMPLES

bring nothing vile to the temple, 586a for the temples of his gods, 206b God's first temples, 37a how amiable are thy temples, 669b nothing ill can dwell in such a temple, 311a of silence and reconciliation, 206a temple half as old as Time, 39a,
note

temple that's not made with hands, 170a temples, worther of the God, 251b where's the need of temple, 34b ye are the temple of God, 427b

Tempo, à la tempo,

714b

Tempora, O, O mores,

607b

TEMPORATION

aiblins nae temptation, 45a an open door may tempt a saint, 736b
 one of the tempted, not one of the strong, 244b one thing to be tempted, another to fall, 299b only way to get rid of, yield to it, 388a so glozed the tempter, 221a tempt not a desperate man, 280a tempter or the tempted, 299b the strong temptation and the need, 193b theless the temptation the greater the sin, 847a the subtlest tempter, 121a the tempter saw his time, 251b vade retro, 678b who tempts asperses the tempted, 221a

Tempora mutantur,

669b, note

Tempus anima ret,

828b

Tempus, breve et irreparabile,

662b

Tempus est ludendi,

610b

Tempus, fugit irreparabile,

536b

Tempus, prateritum,

546b

TENANTS

ill, like aching teeth, 875a it is a good tenant that pays once a quarter, 704a quick landlords make careful tenants, 829a tenantless, save to the crannyng wind, 54b Tend him, nurse him, mend him, 146a Tender and true, Dowglas, 167a Tender, the, are the most severe, 371b Tenderly, take her up, 169a Tenderness, more alive to, 399b a crime in overcast times, 533b Teneriff or Atlas, like, 219b Tenour, noiseless, of their way, 154a Tent, nightly pitch my moving, 229b Tented field, the, 300b Tenters, ne'er was set so on the, 51b Tents, fold their, like the Arabs, 198a

Tenui musam meditamus avena, 333a Terewth, the light of, 114b Termagants bent to chatter, 129a Terminus a quo, 670b

Terms, fair, and a villain's mind, 282a in good set, 288b

Terra incognita, 670b

Terminus a quo, 670b

Terminus a quo, 670b

Terminus a quo, 670b

Terminus a quo, 670b

Terminus a quo, 670b

Terminus a quo, 670b

Terminus a quo, 670b

Terminus a quo, 670b

Terrible man with a terrible name,

337a

TERROR

epidemic, peculiar to England, 150b full of dismal terror, 318b haunts the guilty mind, 195b he that only rules by terror, 359a more terror to the soul of Richard, 319b no terror Cassius in your throat, 286b superstitious terrors, 190b terrors of the living, not the dead, 406a
 the grisly terror, 217b

Tertium quid,

670b

Tertullian's rejoicing over the damned in hell, 635b, note

Test, bring me to the, 296a valour delights in the, 537b

Testament, the Old and New, blessings of, 9b Tester I'll have in pouch, 287b

Tetrachordon,

226b

Teuton madness,

537a

Text, God takes a,

163a

Text, God takes a,

163a

Text, God takes a,

163a

Text, God takes a,

163a

Text, God takes a,

163a

Text, God takes a,

163a

Text, God takes a,

163a

Text, God takes a,

163a

Text, God takes a,

163a

Text, God takes a,

163a

Text, God takes a,

163a

Text, God takes a,

163a

Text, God takes a,

163a

Text, God takes a,

163a

Text, God takes a,

163a

Text, God takes a,

163a

Text, God takes a,

163a

Text, God takes a,

163a

Text, God takes a,

163a

Text, God takes a,

163a

Text, God takes a,

163a

Text, God takes a,

163a

Text, God takes a,

163a

Text, God takes a,

163a

Text, God takes a,

163a

Text, God takes a,

163a

Text, God takes a,

163a

Text, God takes a,

163a

Text, God takes a,

163a

Text, God takes a,

163a

Text, God takes a,

163a

Text, God takes a,

163a

Text, God takes a,

163a

THAMES

ducks are well in the Thames, 753b he came safe from East Indies and was drowned in the Thames, 772a he will never set the Thames on fire, 783b like thee, noble river, 191a no allaying Thames, 200b no boats on the Thames, 243a swift without violence, 260a that mysterious forest below London Bridge, 267b the great street paved with water, 209a this little wet ditch here, 384b though deep yet clear, 109a

THANKS and THANKSGIVING accept my thoughts for, 234a always thank we God therefor, 436a

I am poor even in thanks, 293a I'll flow in thanks, 356a I must take time to thank you, 211b in everything give thanks, 471b late thanks ever best, 12b my dame fed her hens on thanks, 813a not given for delayed service, 538b sigh in thanking God, 29b such thanks as fits a king's remembrance, 292b thanked enough when not thanked at all, 134b thanks due for things unbought, 538b thanks, the exchequer of the poor, 312b thanks of a boy, the, 20a thanksgiving over slaughtered men, 102b to give thanks is good, 352a to return worthy thanks, 625a ungrateful, if given when all witnesses have gone, 556a

ungrateful, if given when all witnesses have gone, 556a

ungrateful, if given when all witnesses have gone, 556a

ungrateful, if given when all witnesses have gone, 556a

ungrateful, if given when all witnesses have gone, 556a

ungrateful, if given when all witnesses have gone, 556a

ungrateful, if given when all witnesses have gone, 556a

ungrateful, if given when all witnesses have gone, 556a

ungrateful, if given when all witnesses have gone, 556a

ungrateful, if given when all witnesses have gone, 556a

anks and Thanksgiving—contd.
 what things may be of thanks, 121b with proud thanksgiving, 22b that, die, ist alles, nichts der Ruhm, 712a HEATRE
 acting, the lowest of the arts, 230a and sleep an act or two, 320b as in a theatre, the eyes of men, 313a corrupted by theatres, 652a devoid of art, 649b faces from the floor to the roof, 100b foolish influence rules our pit, 125a inscription on Globe Theatre, Southwark, 671b
 many-headed monster of the pit, 253a none in London for the welfare of the people, 324a o'erweigh a whole theatre of others, 294b
 reasons for going to the play, 43a some come to take their ease, 320b theatres springing from debauched manners, 670b theatrical arts, 485b why did Cato come to the theatre, 509b See Drama, Plays
 rebes, gates of, 643a seme, spread the interests of our,
 398b, note
 swelling act of the imperial, 303b semistocles ruined by too high an opinion of himself, 547a sayings of, 447a
THEOLOGY Board of Longitude objected to his theology, 330b
 every wind of doctrine, 429b great argument about it, 136a hath teened me, 194b men better than their theology, 132b no greater disagreement greater than religious, 602b ndium theologicum, 609a politics and theology, the only great subjects, 442a woman unfitted for theology, 701b THEORY
 bookish theoretic, 300a crammed with theories out of
 books, 361a
 frigid theories, 117a further than his witte may stretch, 167a
 I do not manufacture hypotheses, 547b
 law not founded on theory, 590a old practices worth more than new theories, 450b specious in theory, 43a that golden maze, 127b time wipes out theories, 613b ere, not, my child, 161b uester's body as good as Ajax, 309b etis, bright image of eternity" 326a etis' lap beneath the seas, 15b ick and fast they came at last,
 119b and thin, through, 340a as motes, 77b THIEF, THIEVES, THEFT a den of thieves, 423a a thief makes an opportunity,
 823b

Thief, Thieves, Theft—contd. a thief of venison, 78a as safe as a thief in a mill, 738b all are not thieves that dogs bark at, 732b break through and steal, 421b every true man's apparel fits your thief, 300a
 fell among thieves, 424b forgave the theft, 35a great thieves hang little ones, 770a great, punish little, 845b hang a thief when he is young,
 771a he is a good thief who robs a thief, 859b he that steals can hide, 781b
 he that steals for others will be
 hanged for himself, 781b
 he that stole, 97a honour amongst thieves, 786a, 855a how great his theft, 94a if there were no receivers there would be no thieves, 789b little thieves we hang, great ones we let go, 804a more thieves to be found than gibbets, 854a no thief without a receiver, 850b once a thief always a thief, 820b
 one man may steal a horse, 822a picking, downright thievery, 59b save a thief from the gallows and he'll cut your throat, 831a set a thief to catch a thief, 832b show me a liar and I will show thee a thief, 834a so clomb this first grand thief, 218b steals something from the thief, 301a sweeter for the theft, 62a the thief is sorry he is to be hanged, not that he is a thief, 831b theft of one bean a small loss, but not a small crime, 583b they are both thieves, he who steals and he who receives,
 850b thief doth fear each bush an officer, 318a thief knows a thief, 729a thief passes for gentleman when
 rich, 729a
 thief said the last kind word, 35a thieves and rogues have the best luck, 848b thieves should not be soft-hearted, 829b unpaid officer makes thieves, 865a war makes thieves, peace hangs
 them, 866b
 we all love to appropriate the
 belongings of others, 708a when thieves fall out, 870b who knows what may be gained
 in a day never steals, 779b Thin red line, 457b Thin red line of heroes, 189a Thing I should be, I'm no, 46b I was, presume not that I am the,
 316a
 Things are the sons of heaven, 181b, 751a, note
 as they really are, 65a THINK, THINKING a moment's thinking, 172b bad form to think, 346b easier than to think, 101b fatal tendency to leave off thinking, 215a

Think, Thinking—contd.
 few or none harmed by thinking, 376a
 freedom to think, 201b God lets loose a new thinker, 132b he paid it off with thinking, 95a how many never think, 355b how the dickens do you think of such things, 323a
 I don't think, 464b
 I'm a fool for thinking, 258b I think, therefore I am, 503b I would it were not as I think,
 403b none but dull rogues think, 92a none judge so wrong as those who think amiss, 255b not thinking of all they should tell us, 430a plain living and high thinking, 396b
 reading without thinking, 239a think and ne'er disclose her mind, 301a
 think and thank God, 837b think even less, 33b think of many things, do one, 857b
 think of one who thinks of thee, 443a
 think too little, talk too much, 123a think what now you speak, 295a thinks too much, such men are dangerous, 285b
 thinking, an idle waste of thought, 331a thinking makes it so, 293a thinking of nothing at all, 110b thinking of the old un, 114a thinking right and meaning well, 249b those who greatly think, 254b those who think nobly, 22b those who think must govern, 147b too much thinking to have common thought, 251a See Thought
 Thinner, if you wish to grow, 196a Third cup, stay at the, 162b always critical, 134a with never a, 36b THIRST and THIRSTY a man may raise a thirst, 189b at a little fountain one drinks thirst, 724a
 comes with drinking, 737b departs with drinking, 737a drank without provocation of
 thirst, 347b
 go not for every thirst to the pot, 766a go to bed thirsty, 801b, 802a hang hunger and drown drouth, 771a he is not thirsty who will not drink water, 774a
 he that can master thirst is master of his health, 776b Ho, every one that thirsteth, 418a if you are thirsty it matters not whether the cup be gold or glass, 656a many words, muckle drouth, 808b
 more men die of drink than of
 thirst, 812b
 nor want but when he thirsted, 44b that panting thirst, 57b the best appetiser of drink, 502b the more they drink the more they thirst, 657d

Thirst and Thirsty—contd.

the smith hath always a spark in his throat, 851*a* the thirsty ox walks, 852*a* the thirsty drink in silence, 475*b* when you are thirsty, to cure it, 241*b* worst of human pangs, 93*b* Thirteenth man brings death, 852*a* Thirty, at, man suspects himself a fool, 405*a* daies hath November, 436*b* every man after, is a fool or physician, 757*a* who is not strong at, never will be, 779*b* Thirty-five, life declines from, 179*b* Thistles, he that sows, shall reap prickles, 781*a* and thorns prick sore, 857*b* Thomas's day: if it freezes, price of corn will fall, 463*a* Thomas, St., grey, shortest day, 463*a* Thomson, O, Jemmy, 371*b*, note Thorn comes forth with point forwards, 852*a* her breast against a, 169*b* in the editorial cushion, 367*b* in the flesh, 429*a* one, out of many, plucked out, 637*b* the milk-white, 44*a* Thorns, crackling of, 415*b* crown but a wreath of, 222*b* he spares (the thorns) when the rose is taken, 354*b* he that sows thorns should not go barefoot, 781*a* no, no throne, 242*a* that I have reaped, 55*a* that in her bosom lodge, 292*a* whiten, yet do nothing, 857*b* who sows, will not gather grapes, 422*a*

THOROUGHNESS

finish thoroughly the work, 626*a*
 let us do nothing sluggishly, 585*b* nothing achieved till thoroughly attempted, 329*b* never do things by halves, 814*b* one keep-clean better than ten make-cleans, 822*a*
 only one way of seeing things rightly, 267*b* time spares nothing done without him, 701*a* what is worth doing is worth doing well, 868*a*

THOUGHT AND THOUGHTS

a beautiful thought, 55*b* a dark soul and foul thoughts, 225*a* a flood of thought, 198*a* affects the senses more than bodily fatigue, 577*b* an holy and good thought, 421*b* an ingenious device for avoiding thought, 160*b* and aspiration almost an act, 266*b* and faith, mightier than time can wrong, 351*a* bright thoughts, 29*a* by effort strong to banish thought, 272*b* calm thoughts, 87*b* chaos of thought and passion, 248*b* chastening thoughts, 391*b* deeper than speech, 103*b* depends on the stomach, 450*a* difficult to think nobly when one thinks for a living, 693*a*

Thought and Thoughts—contd.

due to patient thought, 238*b* evil thoughts which may assault, 432*a* evil wrought by want of thought, 171*b* fear maketh not thought to cease, 376*a* further than his witte may streeche, 167*a* gather up our thoughts, 398*b* give thy thoughts no tongue, 291*a* good thoughts do not perish, 496*a* great thoughts, 14*a* great thought, great feelings, 215*b* her best thoughts weak fortifications, 137*b* her flocks are thoughts, 214*a* her thought went forth to meet him, 406*b* how many noble thoughts, 5*a* hushed be every thought that springs, 400*b* I could never find a man who could think for two minutes, 332*b* if thought and love desert us, 402*b* if we fix our thoughts elsewhere, 107*a* is destroyed by thought, 83*a* it will go near to be thought so presently, 285*a* intersected lines of thought, 58*a* je pense, donc je suis, 695*a*
 kings of modern thought, 5*a* like a passing thought, 44*b* long, long thoughts, 200*a* meditating what is worthy of a good and wise man, 667*a* mock the grasp of thought, 74*b* most men undone for want of thinking, 795*a* my thoughts are not your thoughts, 418*a* never alone that have noble thoughts, 329*b* never could divine his real thought, 63*a* no one is punished for his thought, 503*b* no such stuff in my thoughts, 293*a* noon of thought, 15*a*
 not a thought to be seen, 35*b* not from a vain or shallow thought, 131*a* not my talent to conceal my thoughts, 1*b* not one immortal or corrupted thought, 204*a* not responsible for evil thoughts, 89*b* nought is worth a thought, 258*b* nurture your mind with great thoughts, 117*a* one thought of thee puts all the pomp to flight, 255*a* power of thought, 57*a* river of his thoughts, 60*b* second thoughts are best, 831*b*
 sessions of sweet silent thought 321*b* she holds her little thoughts in sight, 214*a* sinking from thought to thought, 253*b* some happy thought, 239*b* speaking without thinking is shooting without aim, 837*a* splendour of a sudden thought, 34*b* stark-naked thought, 33*a* such stores as silent thought can bring, 399*b*

Thought and Thoughts—contd.

talent for packing thought close, 205*b* that which makes thousands think, 63*a* the apt thoughts of men, 287*a* the brain sows either corn or thistles, 789*a* the dome of thought, 53*b*
 the less people think the more they talk, 847*a* the measure of the universe, 325*b* the pale cast of thought, 294*a* the undying thoughts I bear, 214*a* then feed on thoughts, 218*a* these things I revolve by myself, 540*b* things breed thoughts, 374*a* think much, speak little, write less, 857*b* thinking does not matter, but doing, 715*a* thinking is not knowing, 857*b* those whose thought can pierce beyond an hour, 405*a* though he says little he pays it with thinking, 858*a* thought built up on thought, 31*a* thought hath good legs, 852*a* Thought leapt out to wed with Thought, 362*a* thought often bolder than speech, 116*b* thought on thought shoots out, 74*b* thought secreted in brain, 71*b* thought, speech, and action, 13*a* Thought the child of Action, 116*a* thought the seed of action, 131*b* thought the soul of act, 31*a* thought too busy for my peace, 405*a* thought which saddens, 33*a* thought would destroy their Paradise, 155*a* thoughts are free, 566*b*, 858*a* thoughts and plans and schemes, 346*a* thoughts beyond the reaches of our souls, 291*b* thoughts born for immortality, 399*a* thoughts break through heaven's defences, 503*b* thoughts glance quick as lightning, 272*b* thoughts of youth, 200*a* thoughts of men are widened, 358*b* thoughts shut up want air and spoil, 405*a* thoughts so all unlike, 87*a* thoughts that breathe, 154*b* thoughts that do often lie too deep for tears, 401*a* thoughts that have tarried in my mind, 373*a* thoughts that wander through eternity, 217*a* thoughts toll-free, not hell-free, 858*a* to have bloody thoughts, 311*a* to prison wandering thought, 120*b* to range the thoughts, 82*b* to talk without thought is to shoot without aim, 862*a* too deep to be expressed, 390*b* unutterable thoughts, 60*b* vivere est cogitare, 686*a* waxed red of his own thought, 78*b* we live in thoughts not breaths, 14*a* what better thought than think on God, 375*a*

Thought and Thoughts—contd.
when pleasant thoughts bring sad, 399b with but a single thought, 200b words without thoughts, 295b your thoughts close, your countenance loose, 880b

See Think
Thoughtless animal is man, 115b Thousand flee at rebuke of one, 417b Thousands at his bidding speed,
227a equally were meant, 348a Thrall disobedient, 434a Threadbare jest, 82a

THREATS and THREATENING Englishman threatened is a lion,
75b he threatens many that hath injured one, 183b idle thunder (threats), 122a if you cannot bite, never show your teeth, 790a lifetime short to endure what you threaten me with, 526a many a one threatens while he quakes, 807b no terror, Cassius, in your threats, 286b threaten the threatener, 312a threatened folk live long, 858b threatened men eat bread, 858b threatening many and excellent things, 493b
to threaten and command, 295b See Menace

THREE
all good things go in threes, 819a known to three is known to everybody, 858b
number three is always fortunate, 819a the actors are, it seems, the usual three, 213a the principal number, 819a three gentlemen at once, 328a three is too many, 823a three merry boys, 138a three's company in married life, 389a
when shall we three meet again, 303a
See Third, Thrice
Three hundred pounds a year, 287b Three-legged stool, comb your noodle with a, 276b Three-per-cents, money in the, 34a elegant simplicity of, 274b simplicity of the, 118a Thrice, all things thrive but, 734a he assayed, 216b

THRIFT
a great revenue, 598b
a little saving is no sin, 724a be a good husband and have a penny to spend, to lend, and for a friend, 740a better spare at the brim than at the bottom, 743b consider what is dear as of little value, 641b
frae savin' comes havin', 763b frugality is an estate, 764b frugality is fortune's left hand, 793a good is the farthing which saves the penny, 825a great riches to live sparingly, 517b if youth knew what age would have, 791b keep some till more come, 798b laws cannot make thriftless provident, 330b

Thrift, contd.
may follow fawning, 294b men who save rarely swagger, 205a more art in saving than in gaining, 855a
no alchemy to saving, 815b no such gain as to be sparing, 604b of saving cometh having, 819b penny and penny laid up, 825a practise thrift or else you'll drift, 826a save something against a rainy
day, 831a
saving is getting, 831a take a farthing from £1,000, 150b, 838b take care of the pence, 838b, note the groat is ill-saved that shames the master, 846a
to save is to have, 860b too late at the bottom of the purse, 653a who cannot live on twenty pound, 162b
who eats and puts something by,
spreads the table twice, 726b youth should be a savings bank, 697b

Thrilling voice, 30a Throat, his, they cut from ear to ear, 441b
it cuts its own, 87a Throats, cutting foreign, 278a washed their, before their eyes, 823b

THRONE and THRONES ancient, consecrated throne, 88b doubtful throne, ice on summer seas, 364a established in mercy, 417a except the throne of grace, 97a fierce light which beats upon a throne, 364a
foundations of, veneration and the people's love, 402a his throne's safety, 232b majestic on a craggy throne, 378b Misfortune made the throne her seat, 266b no brother near the throne, 522a no thorns no throne, 242a no throne without a thorn, 242a, note, 816a
on a throne of royal state, 217a one throne, one law, one land, 191a shape the whisper of the throne, 362b there is something behind the
throne, 245a
throned on its equal throne, 353b Thrones, Dominations, Prince-doms, 220a thrones, or dominions, or principalities, 429b whose stakes were thrones, 61a Throng, nor mingled with the, 53b Throw, the greater, from the weaker hand, 282b

THRUSH
blithe and indefatigable bird, 337a fat thrushes for a farthing, 778b if wishes were thrushes beggars would eat birds, 790a that's the wise thrush, 36a Thule, not the extremity of the
world, 587b remotest (ultima Thule), 587b, 674b, note
Thumb, do you bite the, 277b of gold, a, 77a, note

Thumb, she has a most observing, 328a
to his wrist, a, 89b turned (verso pollice), 681b turned up (meaning death), 506a Thumbs, by the pricking of my, 305a Smiths sealed letters with, 333b Thumbs up, 464b
Thumps upon your back, 102a

THUNDER escaped thunder and fell into lightning, 824a heard remote, 217b idle thunder, 122a in April, 869b, note in March makes one say, "alas," 729b in thunder, lightning or in rain, 303a it never thunders but it rains, 797a Jove for's power to thunder, 308a like the bursting thunder-cloud, 272a man so crowned with thunder, 381a the thunder of his power, 411b they steal my thunder, 439a thundercloud moves against the wind, 852a
thunder-storm against the wind, 55b when it thunders the thief becomes honest, 870a winter's, never boded good, 876b winter's, a summer's wonder, 729b Thunderbolt, a harmless, 499a he has wrested Jove's, 660b strikes one, but terrifies all, 508b Thursday come, and the week gone, 859a the week of three Thursdays, 797b Thus, why is this, 28a Thusness, reason of this, 28a Thyme blows, the wild, 280b pun-provoking, 327b Tib, he struck at, down fell Tim, 776a Tickle and entertain as, 98b Tickle me, Bobby, and I'll tickle
you, 831b

TIDE and TIDES a flow will have an ebb, 720a after high floods low ebbs, 720a coming in, 205a in the affairs of men, 287a in the affairs of women, 64a in this loud stunning tide, 186b no motion but the moving tide, 400b people can't die till the tide's out, 114a such a tide as moving seems asleep, 366b tides seaward flow, 5a time and tide wait for no man, 859a will fetch away what the ebb brings, 852a Tidings, He comes with, and a song, 214b
times are big with, 337b Tie, do not, what you cannot untie, 752a of blood, the, 186b Tied, both, till one shall have expired, 62b up together, the twain have been,
366b
Tient, qui, se tienne, 779a Ties that stretch beyond the deep,
69a

TIGER and TIGERS keeps peace with tiger, 554b more inexorable than empty, 280a

Tiger and Tigers—contd.

skin companionship of tiger, 671*a* the Hyrcan tiger, 304*b* tiger, tiger, burning bright, 23*b* with tiger, bear with bear, 355*a* Tiger Tim, come tell me true, 16*a* Till and Tweed, rivers, 864*b* Tillage, half a, 148*a* Tilt at all I meet, 252*b* Timber, like seasoned, never gives,
 163*b*
 wedged in that, 115*b* Timbertoes, then you can call me, 202*a* Timbrel, sound the loud, 232*a*

TIME and TIMES a gentle deity (Sophocles), 480*b* a glance of time, 68*a* a noiseless file, 859*a* accusing the times is exusing ourselves, 731*a* after long lapse of time things are presumed in due form, 526*b* all hours are not ripe, 733*a* all things have time, and time has all, 611*a*

 all things produced and judged by time, 480*b* all time right for saying what is just, 475*b* an anachronism, 106*b* an engine to keep back all clocks, 183*b* an incurable disease, 95*a* and chance happeneth to all, 416*a* and my intents are savage-wild, 280*a*
 and the hour runs through, 303*b* and the ocean and some fostering star, 380*a* and tide wait for no man, 859*a* annihilate but space and time, 258*a*
 any time means no time, 737*a* as young as ever now, 106*b* at last sets all things even, 58*b* backward and abyss of time, 310*b*
 beautifier of the dead, 55*b* bid time return, 312*b* break the legs of time, 167*b* brings roses, 859*a* brisk and giddy-paced times, 297*b* by discipline of time made wise,
 398*b*
 by losing present time we lose all,
 746*b*
 by time and counsel, 165*a* cannot impair my love, 36*a* cannot make things valid which are not so from the beginning, 640*a*
 cannot wrong thought and faith, 351*a*
 changes and new life blossoms forth, 710*b* conquers all, 254*a* consecrates, 88*b* cormorant devouring time, 276*b* correct old Time, 248*b* could not chill him, 168*b* counsel changes as times change, 823*b*
 covers and uncovers, 850*b* crutch of time more powerful than club of Hercules, 842*a* cures more than the doctor, 859*a* cures what reason cannot, 641*a* dark is the abyss of, 337*a* destroys all things, 859*a* devourer of things, 670*a* different times, different folks, 823*b*

Time and Times—contd.

dissolves all things, 473*a* do not squander time, 140*b* do thy worst, old Time, 321*b* elaborately thrown away, 408*b* envious time has fled while we speak, 519*b* essence of the contract, 670*a* ever teaches something new about life, 605*a*
 every hour bad for someone as well as good, 497*b* every time serves for the matter born in it, 307*a* everyone puts his faults on the times, 758*b* files, Death urges, 405*a* files, never to be regained, 651*a* flight of time, 17*a* for all things, 854*b* for him merged into eternity, 72*a* for long is not for ever, 763*a* forward-flowing tide of time, 356*b* fools ask what's o'clock, 762*b* foot of time noiseless on flowers, 339*a*
 friends, thieves of time, 489*a* friends unto the times, 108*b* fugit hora, 686*a* gallop apace! 279*b* glides by, 669*b* glides by not unlike a stream, 493*a* glides secretly on, 563*b* God never imposes a duty without
 giving time to do it, 267*b* goes by turns, 338*a* had made the best of time, 58*a* half as old as time, 39*a*, and note has made this beyond question, 85*a*
 has stolen away the slighted good, 101*a*
 hath a taming hand, 238*b* hath laid his hand, 199*a* he said, What's time, 33*a* he that hath time and looketh for a better, loseth time, 779*a* hours made for man, not man for the hours, 702*a*
 how goes the enemy, 263*a* how little while we have to stay, 135*b*
 I grieve that I prized them (the hours) no more, 438*a* I have lost my time and my labour, 694*b*
 I that please some, try all, 310*a* if he have lost no time, 11*a* inseparable propriety of time, 8*b* in such a justling time, 314*b* in the foremost files of time, 359*a* in the tide of times, 286*a* inaudible and noiseless foot of
 time, 299*a*
 irrecoverable time, 536*b* irreparabile tempus, 651*a* is a lenient god, 448*a*, 480*b* is always flying, 162*a* is God's and ours, 859*a* is man's angel, 711*b* is money, 859*a* is not here, 336*b* is out of joint, 292*a* is still a-flying, 164*b* is the soul of the business, 828*b* it glides and will glide on for all time, 648*b* it will last my time, 71*a* keeping time, time, time, 245*b* know your time, 602*a* let slip time like a neglected rose, 225*b*
 like an ever-rolling stream, 382*a*

Time and Times—contd.

loss of time spendeth us, 77*b* lost time does not return, 575*b* lost time is never found, 805*a* made for slaves, 38*b* makes all but true love old, 68*b* men would be angry if time stopped, 350*b* modern times are the ancient, 7*b* mollifies many things, 640*b* mild Heaven a time ordains, 227*b* never lost that is devoted to work, 132*a* never the time and the place, 36*b* no glory in his times, 30*a* no period runs against the king, 604*b*
 no time ever suitable in all
 respects, 817*b*
 noble miser of his time, 398*a* noiseless foot of time, 144*b* none may recover time lost, 152*a* nor place did then adhere, 304*a* not too strictly bound to time and place, 255*b*
 nothing is ours but time, 818*b* nothing more precious, 856*a* now is the accepted time, 429*a* nurse and breeder of all good, 281*b* O aching time, 183*a* O times, O manners, 607*b* on the stretched forefinger of all time, 360*a*
 other times, other manners, 823*b* our bourn of Time and Place, 366*b*
 our To-days and Yesterdays, 199*a* out of time's dominion, 4*a* panting Time toiled after him, 178*a* part of eternity, 670*a* passes, sayings endure, 859*b* perfection requires the hand of
 time, 698*a*
 physician has no power over
 time's hour glass, 244*b*
 pleasure and action make hours
 seem short, 301*b*
 practise the manners of the time, 210*a*
 quaffing and unthinking time, 126*a* redeem time past, 121*b* redeeming the time, 429*b* rich with the spoils of time, 153*b* ripens grapes, and turns green blades to corn, 583*b* rolls his ceaseless course, 271*a* sacrifice of time the greatest of all sacrifices, 449*a* shall teach thee all things, 373*b* shall turn those amber locks, 121*a* silent touches of time, 41*b* seize the instant time, 120*b*, note shall throw a dart at thee, 182*b* shall tire Torture and Time, 55*b* shall unfold, 305*b* shipwreck of, 7*b* short in proportion to its happiness, 668*b*
 Sire of all things, 230*a* slander we the times, 20*a* so complained of (Time), 4*b* so oft enjoyed, so oft misused, 274*a* softens all griefs, 859*a* some relish of the saltness of
 time, 315*a*
 spares nothing done without him, 701*a* stays; we go, 119*a* stirring as the time, 312*a* suppresseth wrongs, 318*a*

Time and Times—contd.

surely there was a time I might have trod, 389b take time enough, 53a take time in time, ere time be lost, 839a takes all and pays with age or dust, 262b takes them home that we loved, 352b tell time, it is but motion, 262a tempus anima rei, 676a that bald sexton, 311b that lights and quenches men, 352b that time and patience will not dry, 158b the author of authors, 7a the avenger, 55b the best counsellor, 850a the chief box of health, 841b the clock goeth as pleaseth the clerk, 841b the clock-setter, 311b the corrector, 55b the course of the ages is born anew, 571a the eternal surge of time and tide, 65b the good old times, 61a the great discoverer, 859b the grand instructor, 42a the great preacher, 859b the great teacher, 859b the greatest innovator, 10b, 574b the holy time is quiet as a nun, 394b the hours are passing slow, 193b the impression firmer makes, 48a the lazy foot of, 289a the lullaby time is singing, 193b the melodies of time, 169b the mild Instructor, 398b the only healer, 55b the rider that breaks in youth, 859b the surest poison, 132a the shifting hour flies, 687a the spirit of the time, 311b the times pass slowly and disagreeably, 577a the tooth of, 300a the year and hour warn you not to hope for immortality, 550a their only labour was to kill the time, 371a those who have most to do, find most time, 330b Time returned the compliment, 58a time's devouring hand, 24b time's noblest offspring, 22a times are big with tidings, 337b times change and we with them, 669b, note times not bad, but man, 20a times that try men's souls, 241a to choose time is to save, 10b to lose good time on a bad matter, 862a to the last syllable of recorded time, 305b touch us gently, gentle time, 260b transported with envy, 93b trieth truth, 374a, 859b true yoke-fellow of, 397a thus the days flee away, 669b, note undermines us, 859b unimaginable touch of time, 398b up the stream of, 264a waste of all-devouring years, 252a

Time and Times—contd.

wasted is existence; used is life, 405a we play the fool with the time, 315a we push time from us, and wish him back, 405a we should make use of time, 678a we take no note of, but from its loss, 404b what a foolish thing is time, 350b what greater crime than loss of, 374b what its worth ask deathbeds, 405a what noble havocs he had made, 169b what will not time subdue, 243b whatsoever time does it undoes, 869a when were the times not hard, 132a while we have time let us do good, 432b while we speak, hateful time has passed, 648b whips and scorns of time, 293b who has most has none to lose, 778a who has time let him not wait for time, 856a who make best use of, have none to spare, 857b who steals our years away, 230b
who would dare to call the sun false, 660a will come when you will hear me, 118a will develop everything, 116a will not abide, 77b will run back, 227b wrongs antiquity, 859b y-lost, may not recovered be, 79b Time-servers: hangin' roun' an' settin' on a fence, 202b "Times" newspaper, an open forum, 73b TIMID and TIMIDITY
dun's the mouse, 754a everything impossible to the timid and hesitating, 274a fearing all things which are safe, 612a fortune repulses the timid, 763b
he that observeth the wind shall not sow, 416a the timid see dangers which do not exist, 619a timid man calls himself cautious, 671a timid never set up a trophy, 671a Timon will to the woods, 308b Tinker die, don't let, 17b Tip, a schoolboy's, 367a Tippenny, wi', 46a
Tired, here lies a poor woman who always was, 445a limbs and over-busy thoughts, 401b ox treads surest, 852a woman's epitaph, 445a Tires betimes that spurs too fast, 312a
pleasure, 96b
Tiro, bonus homo semper, 652b
'Tis so, when I have positively said, 292b Tit for tat is fair play, 859b Titan, the weary, 5b TITHE, TITHES, TITHING go not for thy tithing thyself to the Devil, 374b Tithe, Tithes, Tithing—contd.

his talk was of tithes and dues 348b pay justly thy tithes, 374b the sorrow of such (tithing) days, 102a tithe and be rich, 859b tithe of mint and anise, 423b tithe-pig's tail, 278a Titan, the worth of, 124b Title-page, excels at a, 150a Title-pages, no further than their, 52b TITLES
a mind which did that title love 327b American love of, 367b be ye not called Rabbi, 423b birth and title, 88b conferred for wealth, 114b ennobled by himself, 252a Esquire, of which I was not a little proud, 242a high though his titles, 272b highest honour comes by means of gold, 494a his delicate ears rejoice in a prænomen, 537b I resign title and profit, 144a I weigh the man, not his title, 403b "Man" the highest title, 261a never yet (title) so mean could prove, 327b proud o' the title, 111b scarfs, garters, gold, 249a the titled knave, 90b title of A double S, 90b title of T.K., the honery, 27a titles are shadows, 108a titles manifold, 397a titles, power, and pelf, 272b who gained no title, 252a Tittle-tattle, abominable, 65a Toad, squat like a, 219b or asp, worse than, 227a the, ugly and venomous, 288a the unwieldy, 402b Toady itself and humbug its neighbours, 16a Toast, I never had a piece of, 232b, note Toasts, 461a, and b
healths five-fathom deep, 278a healths give our friends a title, 376b in their flowing cups freshly remembered, 316b let the toast pass, 328b toast that pleased the most, 111a TOBACCO
a branch of drunkenness, 176b
a plague, 50a
and beer, 28a divine, 340b divine, rare, 50a for thy sake, tobacco, 191b I love thee well, in learned doctor's spite, 342a no woman should marry man who does not smoke, 343b pernicious weed, 97b smoking a blessing, 161a sublime, 58b that tawny weed, 183b the Elizabethan age and tobacco, 18a the tomb of love, 116b thus think, and drink tobacco, 438b thy clouds all other clouds dispel, 342a To-Come, for you the, 195b Tocsin of the soul, the, 63b

TO-DAY

better an egg to-day than a hen to-morrow, 742a give me to-day; take to-morrow, 470a, 510a I have lived to-day, 127a is yesterday's pupil, 860b it is my turn to-day, 544b live in to-day, not for to-day, 804b live to-day, forgetting past anxiety, 544b must borrow nothing of to-morrow, 815a never jam to-day, 120a one to-day worth two (or ten) to-morrows, 140b, 823a
 our to-days and yesterdays, 199a
 the double of to-morrow, 104b when God says To-day the devil says To-morrow, 869b
 you saddle to-day and ride out to-morrow, 880a Toe of libertine excess, 99a on the light fantastic, 224a Toes are turned up to the daisies, 16b TOIL and TOILS and trouble, double, double, 304b change of, toil's sufficient cure, 235b deeper, deeper let us toil, 229b endless toil, 335a fat with feeding on other's toil, 210b grows cheaper, 69a heavier toil, superior pain, 154b he that will not live by toil, 188b in toil or fray, 189b men may faint with toil, 325a men robust for toil, 67a mortal man, who livest here by toil, 370b must govern those who toil, 147b nor toil with all its burdens tire, 168b profuse of toil, 106b rest the reward of toil, 19b that is oft in vain, 237a the long pedigree of toil, 198a tired millions toil unblest, 380a to toil for what untoiling you may obtain, 370b toil, envy, want, 178a toil not, neither do they spin, 421b toiled and toiled, of toil no end to know, 335a toiling dog comes halting home, 729a toiling man, intent on worldly gains, 335a toiling, rejoicing, sorrowing, 197b toiling upward in the night, 200a verse sweetens toil, 144b virtue proceeds through toil, 467a what toil do I undergo to please you, 458b who seeks with toil shall Honour soonest find, 340a why all this toil and trouble, 399a why are we fond of toil and care, 441b Tokens or marks, words are but, 8a Told me, I cannot tell who, 319a more things, than are true, 190b you so, I, 65b Toledo, three years and a day to match my, 211a trusty, 51a
Tolerable most and not to be endured, 284b

TOLERANCE, TOLERATION

bear with evil and expect good, 740b

Tolerance, Toleration—contd.

gently to bear with and endure all men, 657b good for all (toleration), 42b
 I'm for toleration and for drinking at an inn, 209a Laodicean cant of tolerance, 378b Toll for the brave, 102a when I, pray heart and soul, 466b Tollitur arte malum, 596b Tom Bowling, 110b
Tom Fool, more know, than Tom Fool knows, 812b Tom or Jack, hails you, 102a Tom the second, reigns like Tom the first, 125a Tom, loves me best that calls me, 166a Tom Thumb, Pilate and, 25a Tom's a-cold, 306a
 Tom's no more, 64b
 Tomata sauce, 112a TOMB and TOMBS
 a glorious tomb (at sea), 203b an upper chamber to a tomb, 408b asleep within the tomb, 24a beauty awakes from the tomb, 19b carved for many a year on the tomb, 167a hark, from the tombs, a doleful sound, 383a I'll take a turn among the tombs, 383a kings for such a tomb would wish to die, 228a that the gate of my tomb should have been so often knocked at, 542b these two narrow words, Hic jacet, 262a tombs of the Universe, 28b tombs of such as cannot die, 103a Tombstone, defacing a, 22b he had not twopence to juggle on a, 772b Tommy ain't a blooming fool, 189b Tommy Atkins, 457b
Tommy-rot, all, but so brilliant, 323a Tommy this, O! it's, 189a Tomnoddy, my Lord, 16a TO-MORROW
 a hen to-morrow is better than an egg to-day, 795a a power o' faith in gert to-morrows, 244a and evermore he said to-morrow, 152a avoid enquiring about, 637a boast not thyself of, 415a
 business to-morrow, 450b comes never, 861a confident to-morrows, 402a delays it nat til to-morrow, 443a eggs to-day better than chickens to-morrow, 485a give me to-day and take to-morrow, 470a, 510a he is wise who does not live for to-morrow, 549a hope ever tells us to-morrow will be better, 507a I found a horseshoe to-morrow, 861a I give trust to-morrow, 544b, note is a long day, 861a it is your turn to-morrow, 544b leave to-morrow till to-morrow, 800a let us do or die to-morrow, 67a life put off till the morrow is too late, 597b

To-Morrow—contd.

never put off till to-morrow, 80b, 140b, 815a no freedom of talk to cause apprehension to-morrow, 483b no one so favoured that he can promise himself a morrow, 589b not lawful for man to know what the morrow may bring, 635b one way to make to-morrow sing, 195b present day of no value except as eve of to-morrow, 454a put not off till to-morrow, 474a the devil says to-morrow, 869b the morrow shall take care of itself, 421b there is no to-morrow when a friend asks, 869a to-morrow, and to-morrow, 305b to-morrow follows to-morrow, 651b to-morrow 'ill be the happiest time, 357b to-morrow to be brave, 4a to-morrow walks in to-day, 89a to-morrow's wiser than to-day, 247a trust as little as possible to to-morrow, 648b we will believe to-morrow, not to-day, 507a when does that to-morrow come, 514b Tone makes music, 862a
Tones to Nature not untrue, 24b Tongs and the bones, 281a TONGUE
 a clapper-tongue, 48b a fool's tongue is long enough to cut his throat, 720b a gentle tongue is a tree of life, 567a a tame tongue is a rare bird, 728b all, not made of the same flesh, 734a always grows older, 852a an ill tongue may do much, 735b an unruly evil, 430b battles of the tongue, 524a better feet slip than the tongue, 743b ever turns to the aching tooth, 852a evil days and evil tongues, 220a evil tongues prick more than thistles, 857b fetters of an unknown tongue, 97a few tongues that are not cloven, 761a first of all virtues to restrain the tongue, 685a
 for a bad tongue the scissors, 762b from all sides innumerable tongues, 221b half wondering at its own melodious tongue, 381b he hath tied a knot with his tongue, 773b he that has a, can find his way anywhere, 778a head with a good tongue worth double, 723a his tongue dropped manna, 217a if I had a hundred tongues, 599a infinite graciousness of thy tongue, 80a is not steel, but it cuts, 852a (lawyers') sleight of tongue, 108b like a button-stick, 189b long tongue is sign of a short hand, 724b magic of the tongue, 205a

Tongue—contd.

many are the friends of the golden tongue, 807b men entangled by their tongues, 744b moderate the rancour of thy tongue, 239a music of the tongue, 107b my son, keep well thy tongue, 79a no tongue to wound us, 231b no venom like that of the tongue, 856a none, none, as yours could win me, 300b of idle people is never idle, 852a old maids' tongues sting, 711b one tongue enough for two women, 823a put chains on your tongue, 683a rank tongues of this vile herd, 59b rolled under the tongue, 162a see soft a voice and slid a tongue, 262b sharp tongue grows keener, 176b she vibrates her eternal tongue, 404b slanderous tongues, 285a slip of the tongue (lapsus linguae), 564a slips of, not a matter of punishment, 568a speaketh what the heart thinketh, 868b strife of tongues, 412a stroke of tongue will break bones, 420b, 852a talks at the head's cost, 852a
 that man that hath a tongue, 281b the confusion of tongues, 8a
 the only universal tongue, 265a the rank tongue, 34a
 these fellows of infinite tongue, 316b tongue can no man tame, 430b tongue-tied by Authority, 322a tongue to persuade, 176a tongue not understood of the people, 433b tongue with a tang, 311a tongue's bitter gall, 50a tongues, arts, and arms, 22a
 tongues of dying men, 312a
 tongues, the treasure of fools, 560b
 turn your tongue seven times before talking, 864a virtue dwells not in the tongue, 866a woman's tongue three inches long, 877a your 50,000th part of a tongue-fencer, 72b Tonsure, one who has received, 545b TOO LATE
 a little too late is much too late, 726a after death the doctor, 731b beware of "Had I wist," 744b bird cries out too late, when it is taken, 797a bones for those who arrive too late, 653b counsel of no avail after the deed, 623a counsel when the enemy is under the walls, 503b Farewell, also called Too-late, 266b five minutes too late, 95a gan them advise too late, 340a he looks back to the land, whose keel is already in the deep, 653b I grasp my shield after my wounds, 653b

Too Late—contd.

is a crime, 740b it is na time to stoop when the head is off, 796a just a day too late, 38a medicine for the dead, 575a mocking spectre of too late, 459b post bellum auxilium, 622b remedies too late, when the disease is rooted, 624b the advantage came too late, 271b the fool is wise after the evil, 572b the gladiator taking counsel in the arena, 538a the Phrygians became wise too late, 653b the wished-for comes too late, 853a they come, but they often come too late, 330a
 to arrive after the feast, 623a to cast anchor when the ship's on the rocks, 797b to cover the well when the child is drowned, 797a too late, ye cannot enter now, 366a undecieved too late, 348b what comes too late is as nothing, 867b
 when the horse is starved you bring him oats, 871a when the house is burnt you bring water too late, 871a Too-Much, glorious time of great, 175b in everything, to see, 81a of a good thing, can one desire, 289b the rule of not, 221b
 Too too will in two, 862b
 Tool-making animal, man a, 140b TOOL and TOOLS do not play with edged, 752b few lend (but fools) their working tools, 374b I abhor brains as I do tools, 191a ill jesting with edge-tools, 360a knaves work with fools as tools, 50b neither wise nor fools can work without tools, 814b what is a workman without tools, 868a Tooth and Toothache, see Teeth Toothpick, to chew a, 565b Top of my bent, 295a Torches to burn bright, doth teach thee, 278a heaven doth with us as we with, 299a those having, will pass them on, 474a TORY and TORIES stern and unbending Tories, 205b stronger Tory in country than in town, 2b Tories call me Whig, 252b Tories own no argument but Force, 29a
 Tory and Whig will agree, 170b Toryism an innate principle, 390a Whigs and Tories, 342b who need care a fig who's Tory or Whig, 461a Torment, a delicious, 132b Torments, our, may become our elements, 217a Torture's smoothness, 67a Torture, a continued, 212a I would find grievous ways to have thee slain, 351a Tossed about but not submerged, 618b

Totus teres atque rotundus, 639a

Touch me, better for you not to, 575b Touch him not, can, 326b dares not put it to the, 230a him further, nothing can, 304b me not, 595b not, taste not, handle not, 429b of a vanished hand, 359b of love, the only, 281b of nature, one, 298b wound with a, 229a Touched nothing he did not adorn, 604a Touchy, testy, pleasant fellow, 2b Tough and devilish sly, 115a statements, 84b Toulouse (bon) pour apprehendre, 705a Tour, happier for life for an agreeable, 332b Tow, let the, gang wi' the packet, 801a TOWN and TOWNS
 Cain first builder of, 694b civic independence of, 67a country in town (rus in urbe), 647a gloom and glare of towns, 193b
 he shall be the gossip of the town, 533b in town you long for the country, 646b it walked the town awhile, 226b likes country when studied in town, 98b little one-horse town, 83b man made the town, 99a, 766b more tricks in a town than are talked of, 449a patron saint of town or country, 537b, note roofed in, poor souls (in towns), 383b rumour flies through the town, 530b sink of the human race, 702b small town, great renown, 705a talk of the town, 529a tell us (women), you tell the town, 126b the devil made the little country town, 766b the follies of the town, 150a the town's bad blood, 31b the town's true master, 33a See Cities
 Town-crier had spoke my lines, as lief the, 294a TOWER and TOWERS be as a tower, 74b begirt with battlements, 401b clashed and hammered from a hundred towers, 359a in an ivy-green jacket, 173b that tower of strength, 361a the cloud-capped towers, 311a strong towers decay, 21a Tower of London, 155a tower, strongest, has not the highest wall, 236a ye antique towers, 154b Tower Hill to Piccadilly, 331a TOY and TOYS beads and prayer-books, toys of age, 249a cast their toys away, 97a fantastic toys, 3b
 I their toys to the great children leave, 371a not to meddle with my toys, 345a sells eternity to get a toy, 321a will toys amuse, when medicines cannot cure, 405a Track of light, leaving a, 23b

Trackless way, wanderer of that, 57a Tract behind, leaving no, 308a Tracts to the untractable, 172a Tracts, we distribute, 230a TRADE, TRADES, TRADESMEN a nation of shopkeepers, 709b, note a useful trade is a mine of gold, 729a
 abuse the shopocracy, 390b
 any country supports a skilled workman, 629a be not ashamed of your handicraft, 740b better good sale nor good ale, 743a buy and sell and live by the loss, 746a buying and selling is but winning and losing, 746a centre of a thousand trades, 97a citizen is at business before he rises, 841b did not understand his silly old trade, 460b dost not know thy own trade, 434 each trade's ending the same, 236b every man praises his own wares, 757b every man to his trade, said the Boy to the Bishop, 757b every potter boasts of his own pot, 757b everyone lives by selling something, 344a he that hath not the craft let him shut up the shop, 778b he that resolves to deal with only honest men must leave off dealing, 780b it is easy to open a shop, hard to keep it open, 795a kamesters are aye greasy, 798a keep your shop and it will keep you, 798b lying becomes none but tradesmen, 310b man of many trades begs on Sundays, 725a men who have learnt no handicraft, 612b mind your till, and till your mind, 798b mother of money (Trade), 862b no nation ever ruined by trade, 140b of all crafts to be an honest man is the master craft, 785b propensity to truck, barter, and exchange, 330b small shop may have a good trade, 728a the custom of the trade, 190b the old trade's plynin', 238a The Trade (the Book Trade), 290a there is a mystery in the meanest trade, 854b
 this trade of mine, 34a Trade hath a golden foundation, 862b trade should circularly flow, 122a trade, the greatest meliorator, 132a trade's proud empire, 178b two of a trade can ne'er agree, 143b
 two of a trade seldom agree, 864b virtue and a trade the best inheritance, 866a walking fast tolerable in a tradesman, 80b whatever art a man has learnt let him exercise it, 629b Trade, Trades, Tradesmen—contd. who hath a trade may go anywhere, 729a

 you must spoil before you spin well, 880a Tradition of the elders, 422b wears a snowy beard, 387a Traditional fame, a poor, 91b Traduce, man that dares, 96b Traduttori, traditori, 863a Trafficker, dumb, 345b TRAGEDY and TRAGEDIES
 black stage for tragedies and murders, 321b element of comedy in tragedy, 187b every life a tragedy, 6b gorgeous Tragedy, 224b let not Medea slaughter her children before the audience, 587a some things are of that nature, 39a the noblest production (tragedy), 2b Tragedy of Errors, 380a tragic subject of laughter, 533b tragical mirth, 281a world a tragedy to those who feel, 377b Trail of the Serpent, 232b Trails, they hunt old, 360a Train, shriek-shriek of the, 32a TRAINING throw the wand while it is green, 858a takes a deal of training, 146b train a tree when young, 862b training in our tender years, 485b Traitor's Bridge, a loyal heart may be landed under, 724b TRAITOR, TRAITORS
 a traitor is ill company, 729a a traitor to be regarded as an enemy, 625b betrayers hated even by those they benefit, 625b execut'ist the traitor's treason, 321b hate the traitor, love the treason, 106a he looked upon the traitors, 206b my heart detests him as the gates of hell, 256b our fears do make us traitors, 305a subtle traitor needs no sophister, 317b the traitor claims his price, 191a
 the traitor to Humanity, 201b
 See Treachery, Treason
 Trance, unimaginable, 88a Tranquil mind, farewell the, 302a Tranquillity, divine, 359b home for, 150b looking, 92b Transcription, twice reading better than, 180b Transgressing, by, kept the law, 228b Transgressors, way of, is hard, 414a TRANSIENCY
 a brief and not a true pleasure, 499a all things fade away, 386a an age builds cities; an hour destroys, 676a be less beautiful or be less brief, 379b catch the transient hour, 179b early, bright, transient, 406b
 everything passes away except what is well done, 759a false and fleeting as 'tis fair, 160a Transiency—contd.

 fled like some frail exhalation, 325a glory of wealth and beauty, 517b
 how fading are the joys, 238b how quickly passes the glory of the world, 607b joye of this world, 77b joys take wing, 537b
 man's bliss, 380a pluck at the fruit which passes, 627b pride of a Butterfly, 105a res unius cecitatis, 645b
 sweet, not lasting, 291a the bliss is fugitive, 127a the fleeting image of a shade, 327a the phantoms pass away, 24b things eternal better than things transitory, 623b 'tis all a transient hour, 68a tout passe, tout casse, tout lasse, 708b Troy has been and its renown, 536b varia sors rerum, 679a
 vigour of our days passes, 682b
 what is quickly accomplished quickly perishes, 640a Transit gloria mundi, 607b Translated, thou art, 280b Translation: no need to translate word for word, 588a Translation, only equal genius should attempt, 109b Translations increase faults and spoil beauties, 702b like wrong side of tapestry, 174b translators, traitors, 863a Translatory things, 121b Transmitter, tenth, of a foolish face, 268b Transplanting: bring the leaf to the grave, 791a Transport know, heart can ne'er a, 204a Transportation, as from a seven years', 98a Transubstantiation, controversies on, 691a Trappings and the suits of woe, 290a poetic, 101a
 Traps, kills some with arrows, some with, 284b Travail and are heavy laden, 432b of his soul, 418a Travail, du, toujours travail, 690a TRAVEL, TRAVELLERS
 a man who has not been in Italy, 179a a merry companion is music in a journey, 768a a prudent traveller never disparages his own land, 715b after travel, thanks to the Gods, 245b
 all lands open to brave men, 642a an end to my fatigues by sea and land, 659a change of soil and climate brings pleasure, 582b dunce sent to roam, 96a Englishman does not travel to see Englishmen, 343b from Dan to Beersheba, 343b glad I foun' de place at las', 158a go, madman, and traverse the Alps, 547b going by rail not travelling at all, 267a good company makes the journey shorter, 768a good road and wise traveller two different things, 722b

Travel, Travellers—contd.

he travels best that knows when to return, 215*a* he delighted to wander in unknown places, 548*b* he goes a long voyage that goes to the bottom of the sea, 772*b* he travelled here, he travelled there, 394*a*
if an ass goes travelling he will not come back a horse, 788*a* if you want to know a man, travel with him, 791*a* in a long journey weigh straws, 792*b*
in journeys men are known, 793*a*
inspiration of Marathon and Iona, 180*a* land, home, and pleasant wife left behind, 567*a* little journeys and good cost, 804*a* man is happier for life for an agreeable tour, 332*b*
meat and matins hinder no
journey, 809*b*
my heart, untravelled, 147*a* needless journey by sea, one of three things to be repented of,
454*b*
no traveller returns, 293*b* nothing fairly worth the travelling to, 344*b*
on a long journey a straw is heavy, 820*b*
refresh and pay and travel on,
440*a*
sauntered Europe round, 254*a* saw the cities of many men, 478*a* siste, viator, 658*b* some minds improve by travel, 170*a*
some travellers philosophers; some vagabonds, 150*b*
strange countries for to see, 435*b* superstition of travelling, 132*b* the country, companions, and the road will compensate your toil, 502*a*
the dream of home, 233*b*
the fool wanders, the wise man travels, 844*b*
the grand tour, 433*b, note* the more I saw of foreign countries, the more I admired my
own, 705*b*
the right of roaming, and the world is wide, 267*a* the ruin of happiness, 43*b* the traveller spends much more than the abider, 813*a* they who cross the seas, change sky but not disposition, 503*b* travel imparts vigour, 679*a* travel in lands beyond the sea, 392*a*
travel in pursuit of wisdom, 150*b* travel shows how selfish people are, 324*a*
travelled among unknown men, 392*a*
travellers have leave to lie, 863*a* travellers must be content, 288*b* travellers ne'er did lie, 311*a* travellers on horseback know not
the toil of travellers on foot, 863*a*
travellers' stories of prodigies, 677*b*
travelling a fool's paradise, 132*b* wandering from clime to clime, 257*a*
what urged our travels, 18*a*

Travel, Travellers—contd.

when my purse is heavier, I shall find the journey lighter, 870*a* who goeth far hath many encounters, 777*b* who travels far knows much, 782*a*
why do we change for lands warmed by another sun, 635*b* you have travelled far, 401*b* young men should travel, 62*a* Tray, Blanch and Sweetheart, 306*b* Tre, Pol, and Pen, 746*b* TREACHERY
as the wolf loves the sheep, 677*a*
betrayed, not conquered, 671*b*
daggers in men's smiles, 304*b* double-tongued treachery, 645*a* he is composed and framed of treachery, 285*a*
he who betrays his friend, 343*a* killed with my own treachery, 297*b*
Punic faith, 627*a* Punic honour, 532*b* the smiler with the knife under the cloak, 292*a, note* trust makes way for treachery, 863*b*
under pretence of duty or necessity, 603*b*
way of the treacherous is rugged, 414*a*
See Traitors, Treason Treachle, a patent, 73*a* the fly that sips, 143*a* Tread against the scene, who would,
229*b*
where'er we, 54*a* TREASON can but peep, 296*b* crimen læsæ majestatis, 507*b*, 563*b* doth never prosper, 157*b* fit for treasons, stratagems, and spoils, 284*a* has done his worst, 304*b* high treason, (læsæ majestatis), 563*b*
I love the treason but do not praise the traitor, 625*b* loved of many, the traitor hated of all, 155*b* not owned when descried, 123*b* pension a reward for treason, 181*b*
talk treason for his daily bread, 123*b*
the labyrinths of treason, 179*b* though they love the treason, 106*a* we have condoned treason, 118*b* TREASURE
he that hides treasure, 214*b* if for me no treasure, 190*b* in earthen vessels, 428*b* new treasures of countless price, 185*b*
not to understand a treasure's worth, 101*a* purest treasure mortal times afford, 312*a* treasure a pillar of government, 10*a* treasure upon the earth, 432*b* treasures from an earthen pot, 163*a*
when others pick it up it becomes a gem, 213*a* where your treasure is, 421*b* Treasures, sumless, 316*a* Treasury, the common, 40*b* Treat, eager for the, 119*b* he who gives a child a, 209*a* Treaties, away with all, 669*a* Treats and gratuities, ruin of Roman people, 448*b*

Treble, turning again towards childish, 289*a*
TREES and he spake of trees, 410*b* as a tree falls so shall it lie, 737*b* between tree and bark put not your finger, 744*a*, 828*b* branching elm, star-proof, 224*b* cypress towers above other trees, 681*b*
birch, most shy and ladylike, 201*b* brotherhood of venerable trees, 395*b*
bring the leaf to the grave, 791*a* burst into leaf, 23*b* do not delight all, 599*b* embowered in trees, 327*a* every happy tree loves in his season, 686*b*
give me again my hollow tree, 255*b*
great trees give more shade than fruit, 770*a* great trees are good for nothing but shade, 770*a* green-robed senators, 185*a* he that plants trees, loves others, 780*b*
he plants trees serviceable in
future ages, 653*b, note* husbandman sows trees of which he will not see the fruit, 491*b* if all the trees were bread and cheese, 446*b*
if they do these things in a green tree, 425*a* into the branches of the tree, 74*b* is known by his fruit, 422*b* it will soon be seen which are fruitful, 626*b* long in growing; rooted up in an
hour, 491*b*
no tree falls at first stroke, 817*b* oaks may fall when reeds stand, 819*a*
old trees will not bend, 741*b* people only throw stones at trees with fruit on them, 823*a* remove an old tree and it will wither, 829*b*
St. Matthias (Feb. 24) sends sap into the tree, 830*b*
set trees at Allhallowtide, 833*a*,
note shored tree stands long, 727*b* spare that tree, 235*a* spare the beechen tree, 235*a, note* stones are thrown only at fruitful trees, 837*b* straight trees have crooked roots, 837*b*
tall ancestral trees, 161*b* tall trees catch much wind, 839*a* that forbidden tree, 215*b* the sprout becomes a tree, 668*a* the tree will wither long before it
fall, 54*b*
tongues in trees, 288*a* train a tree when it is young,
862*b*
tree falls not at first stroke, 852*b* tree is no sooner down than everyone runs for his hatchet, 852*b*
thrifty family-tree, 202*b* tree must be bent while young,
858*a*
tree of deepest root, 244*b* tree of life (lignum vitæ), 567*a* tree that God plants no winds hurt, 852*b*

Trees—contd.

trees and stones will teach, 288a,
note
trees eat but once, 863a trees that a man might cut down, 173b under the greenwood tree, 288b wept odorous gums, 218b where the tree falleth, 416a
who loves the tree loves the
branch, 780a
who plants a tree is more than all, 387b you cannot judge trees by their
bark, 714b
you cannot see the wood for the trees, 879a

Trelawny die, shall, 547a Trembling, a sudden, 664b Tremor occupat artus, 664b Trencher-man, a very valiant, 284a Trepán, active in his own, 115b Triá juncta in uno, 672a Trial, square my, to my proportioned strength, 225a untaught by, 407b why should we fear thee, 212b Triangle, eternal: the usual three, Husband and Wife and Lover,
213a

Triangular person in the square hole, 332a

Tribe, the badge of all our, 282a Tribes that slumber, the, 37a Tribunal, a new, 35a Tributary, how is she become, 418b Tribute, overcharged with, 11a

TRICKS, TRICKERY

a thousand jadish tricks, 51a a trick worth two of that, 313b all tricks either knavish or foolish, 179b always more tricks in a town than are talked of, 449a
an old fox needs not to be taught
tricks, 736a
I know their tricks and their manners, 115a
I'll do it by sleight, 788b if I be served such another trick, 287b
no tricks in plain and simple faith, 286b one shrewd turn asks another, 821b one trick needs many to make it
good, 823a pleasing trickery that cheateth half the world, 374a something in it, tricks and all, 34a the fox may lose his hair but not his tricks, 844b the fox's wiles will never enter the lion's head, 845a their tricks and craft, 44b to play them such a trick, 120a tricks that are vain, 158a you cannot teach old dogs new
tricks, 879a

Trick, it is our; nature her custom holds, 296b

Trick's over, when the long, 209b Trident-bearing queen, 96b Tried, hath without consent been only, 240b

you never know till you've, 880a TRIFLES
a hair has its shadow, 679b a mote may choke a man, 726a a nice new nothing, 726a
at every trifle scorn to take
offence, 247a
by not despising small things

Trifles—contd.

our ancestors did this great
thing, 616a
dangerous harbour bar only grains of sand, 373b de lana caprina (about goats' wool), 511b
disgraceful to make difficulties about trifles, 673a Domitian and trifles, 493b don't bother me with trifles, 129b drop by drop the lake is drained, 753b
every little helps, 756b
fall not out with a friend for a
trifle, 760a
for want of a nail the shoe is lost, 763a greatness is nothing but many small littles, 591b having lived a trifier, 98a hawking for butterflies, 773a he dared to despise vain things, 593a he that shuns trifles, 76a he that takes not a pin slights his wife, 831b heath the oven twice for a custard, 769b
I have given myself up to trifles,
712b labour about trifles is foolish, 663b, 673a
little chips light great fires, 803b many drops of water will sink a
ship, 807b
many littles make a mickle, 808a many sands will sink a ship, 807b many straws may bind an elephant, 808a
men are led by trifles, 450b mother of mischief is na mair than a gnat wing, 848b musical trifles, 681b no circumstance too minute, 150b
one grain fills not a sack, but it
helps, 821b
painted trifles, 3b
poor men are fain of little things, 826a quarrels about trifles, 488b see a pin and let it lie, 831b she will set forth trifles with great effort, 570b slight means, great effect, 835a small things captivate light minds, 616a snapper up of unconsidered trifles, 310a these trifles will lead to serious
evils, 540a
things not of value singly are useful collectively, 628a think nought a trifle, 404b those who apply themselves too much to little things, 691a to lend weight to trifles, 602b
to sell smoke, 536b
to split figs (icos dividere), 532a triflers or low-minded cannot attempt anything exalted, 591a trifles I alike pursue, 259a trifles, light as air, 302a trifles make life, 404b trifles make perfection, 448a trifles make the sum of human things, 234a
very great in small matters, 574b vive la bagatelle, 709b what a trifle is a moment's breath, 109b who does not hate the light-minded and trifling, 638b

Trifles—contd.

who will not stoop for a pin, 782b win us with honest trifles, 303b won with a feather and lost with a straw, 784a Trimnings of the vain, 150a, 151a the usual, 112b, note Trinkets, returned to your, 190b Trip and fall, though he, 361a Tripas ilevan pies, 716b Tripe is good meat if well wiped,
863a Tripe-broth better than no porridge, 863a Trippingly on the tongue, 294a Triton of the minnows, 308a TRIUMPH, TRIUMPHANT a man triumphant is a monstrous
sight, 407b
blast of triumph o'er thy grave, 37a
do not triumph before you have conquered, 491a in triumph advances, 271a
in triumph from the north, 206b pursue the triumph and partake the gale, 250a roses all the way, 32b sickened at all triumphs, 81a
tandem triumphans, 668a their little triumphs o'er, 154b triumph, not simple conquest, his aim, 406b triumphs of an hour, 406a triumph, that insulting vanity, 223a Trivial fond records, all, 292a things, mighty contests rise from, 247b Trochee trips from long to short, 87b Trojan or Lyrian, matters not, 672a Troy the tongue to, 222a Troop cometh, a, 409a Troops, plumed, and the big wars, 302a Trooper, young, should have old
horse, 731a
Trobe, out there flew a, 50b Trophy, sword, or hatchment, no, 296b timid never set up a 671a Trophies: spolia optima, 662a from other men's dispraise, 109a with the enemies of Truth, 28a Trosachs, 402a
Troubadour touched his guitar, 19a TROUBLE, TROUBLES a light inconvenience is to be borne, 565b
a sea of troubles, 293b all are embarked on a sea of troubles, 610a better to ally troubled waters, 580b better to forget your troubles than to speak of them, 796a borrow trouble if that's your
nature, 190b
bring not a bagpipe to a man in trouble, 745b
do not buy trouble, 832b every heart has its own ache, 755a forge a lifelong trouble for ourselves, 364b
forgotten pains, when follow gains, 763a he that seeketh trouble never misses, 781a how easy to be brave in another's trouble, 542b
I'm the man w'at kin show you trouble, 158a
in trouble to be troubled, 108b

Trouble, Troubles—contd.

let each mind his own troubles,
485*a*
let not your heart be troubled, 426*a*
life crowded with troubles, 235*b* life would not be smooth without rubs, 801*b* light troubles speak; immense troubles are silent, 509*b* little troubles great to little people, 804*a*
look out for squalls, don't make
them, 805*a* man is born unto trouble, 411*a* never meet trouble half-way, 815*a* never trouble yourself with trouble till trouble troubles you, 815*a* relation of past trouble possesses delight, 539*b*
remembrance of past troubles is pleasing, 561*b*
send not to market for trouble, 832*b*
she is consumed by a hidden fire, 688*b*
sudden troubles are lighter than disasters produced designedly, 565*b*
sweet the remembrance of trouble when you are safe, 472*b* the black ox never yet trod on your feet, 841*a* to bear trouble is light, to endure to the end is heavy, 565*b* trouble never dead to such as
fear, 236*b*
trouble runs off him like water from a duck's back, 863*a* waes unite faes, 866*a* we can only feel our own troubles properly, 758*b* we have all sufficient strength to bear other people's troubles, 703*b*
we must seek some other cause than God, 448*b*
what is troublesome will come more speedily, 544*b* without trouble nothing successful, 448*a*
would soon be delivered from all his troubles, 451*a* you regard your friend's trouble as your own, 564*b* Trousers, a steam-engine in, 333*b* not in these, 464*b* up, hitched his, 16*b* Trout, a two-foot, 247*b*, note as anglers play their, 168*a* that must be caught with tickling, 298*a*
to pull it, a small, 65*b* you cannot catch, with dry breeches, 878*b*
Trouts tickled best in muddy water, 52*b*
Trowel, that was laid on with a, 288*a* Troy entered by trying, 471*b* doubted, and heard, 63*b* faults within and without, 548*b* fields now where Troy was, 561*a* fired another, 126*a* has been, 536*b* in ashes, laid at last old, 240*b* sacred Ilium shall be no more, 472*a*
was (Troja fuit), 672*a* was not took in a day, 830*a* where's Troy? 24*b* which never was, 34*a* wooden horse of, 518*b* Truce, farewell, now, 271*b*

Truckle most when treated worst,

348*a*
Truckie-bed, in the same, 39*b* Truckings to the transient hour, 366*a*
TRUE
a true man, pure as faith's own vow, 354*a* a true saying, and worthy of all men to be received, 432*b* and just in all my dealing, 433*a* as I am true to thee and thine, 272*a*
as taxes, 114*a* as the fairy tales, 151*a* battled for the true, 362*b* be so true to thyself, 10*b* be true to God, thy country, and thy friend, 376*a* by accident, 52*b* dare to be true, 162*b* every mortal man affirms for true, 107*b*
he said true things, 33*b* he that is true of his tongue, 194*a* hearty and true to the core, 110*b* in print, then we are sure they are true, 310*b* sae true his heart, 214*b* more strength in a true heart, 203*a*
more true than those that have more cunning, 278*b* more things true than are told,
190*b*
neither true nor trusty, 322*b* ring in the true, 363*a* some things that you have said are true, 441*a* taking true for false, 364*b*
'tis true, 'tis pity, 292*b*
to thine own self be true, 291*a* True and Faithful's sure to lose, true to man is true to God, 201*b* true with the tongue, 88*b* value still the true (wit), 247*a* what none can prove a forgery may be true, 100*b* whatsoever things are true, 429*b* See Truth
52*a*
Truepenny, art thou there, 292*a* Trumpet, blow your own, 146*a* brave actions never want, 745*b* gave him a trumpet and took it away again, 384*a* he shifted his, 149*a* Trumpets, braying of arrogant brass, 380*b* sound the, 125*b*, 195*b* Trumpet's loud clangour, 125*b* Trumpeter, his, is dead, 785*b* Trumpet-tongued, plead like angels,
303*b*
Trundling mop, like unto a, 98*b* TRUST
an error to believe all men or none, 678*b*
and distrust, 532*b* begets truth, 748*b* believe well and have well, 741*b* but not too much, 863*a* by trust I lost, by distrust I gained, 477*b* dies, because bad pay poisons him, 863*a*
eat a peck of salt with a man before trusting him, 741*a*, note follows his words, 515*a* fools let for trust, 762*b* from the top of all my trust, 436*b* from whom I trust may God guard me, 792*b*

Trust—contd.

fullest confidence in thy words and deeds, 603*a* generous, trust in human-kind, 386*b*
God provides for him that trusteth, 767*a*
God save me from him whom I trust, 831*a*
her not, 200*a* him no further than you can throw him, 863*a* hog upon trust grunts till paid for,
723*a*
I trust thee to the death, 364*a* if you trust before you try, 790*b* in all things high, 361*a* in God and do the Right, 207*b* in thee, O Lord, have I put my trust, 553*b* it is an equal failing to trust all or none, 794*b* let no such man be trusted, 284*a* lippen to me, but look to yourself', 803*a* living on trust is the way to pay double, 804*b*
love all, trust a few, 299*a*
makes way for treachery, 863*b* man's nature, not wealth, makes
him trustworthy, 472*a* me, but look to yourself, 863*b* me not at all, or all in all, 364*b* misplaced, brings ruin, 634*a* my word, though men may not like me, they, 346*b* no man, 183*a* no trust, no faith, no honesty in
man, 279*b*
none, for oaths are straw, 316*a* none is deceived but he who trusts, 863*a* none till you have consumed a peck of salt with him, 545*a* none unless you have eaten much salt with him, 588*b* not a horse's heel nor a dog's tooth, 863*b* not him that once hath broken faith, 318*a* not a man, 240*a* not before you try, 374*a* not yourself, 246*b* nothing to-day, to-morrow I give trust, 544*b*, note on whom I built an absolute trust, 303*b*
slayeth many a man, 236*b* so far I will trust thee, 313*b* Trust a good dog, Holdfast better, 863*b*
Trust, a very simple gentleman, 310*b*
trust (credit) to-morrow, not to-day, 507*a*
we live by trust in others, 686*b* we too wise to trust them, 100*b* what maked yow to men to trusten so, 80*a*
TRUTH
a citizen who did not devote himself to cause of truth, 549*a* a greater friend than Plato or Socrates, 489*b* a narrow lane, leading to abuse 391*a*
a short armistice with truth, 63*a* against revolted multitudes the cause of truth, 220*a* all truth is precious, 97*a* all truth not always to be told,
734*a* alone wounds, 450*a*

Truth—contd.

always strange, 65b and Honesty, black swans, 856a and honesty keep the crown o' the causey, 863b and honour, 76b
 and nature, 18b and oil are ever above, 863b artlessness of unadorned truth, 43b beareth away the victory, 419a becomes the well-born, 549b best policy to speak the truth, 177a
 better speak truth rudely than
 lie covertly, 743b
 better suffer for, than prosper by falsehood, 743b
 better thou perish than truth, 743b blunt truths do more mischief than nice falsehoods, 247b bitter to fools, 479b bright sunbeam of (the Press), 155b brings enemies, 761b brings forth hate, 681a brings hatred, 608a build a princely throne on humble, 395a but O the, the many eyes, the diverse things they see, 213b by its own sinews will prevail, 124a cannot adhere mathematically to,
 450a change lays not her hand on truth, 352b comes limping after, 348b congenial to man's nature, 641b conquereth for evermore, 419a conquers all things, 683a courage of truth the first philosophic study, 711b crushed to earth, 37a customary fate of new truths, 176a death takes toll of all but truth, 209a disclosed by time, 8b does not always seem true, 863b doest to truth aspire, 25a doubt truth's shadow, 14a endureth and is always strong, 419a eternal and son of heaven, 349a falsehood well disguised, 134a fears no colours, 863b fears nothing but being hidden,
 681a
 finds foes where it makes none, 863b first law of history not to shrink from truth, 638b for ever on the scaffold, 201a from his lips prevailed, 148a from pole to pole, 3a God knows the truth, so there let it rest, 766b great is truth and it prevails, 570a hard are the ways of truth, 222b has such a face and mien, 124a hath a good face, but bad clothes, 863b hath always a fast bottom, 863b he is eloquent enough for whom
 truth speaks, 649a
 he must speak truth, 306a greater the truth worse the libel, 233b high truth, the union of two contradictions, 263b his smiling eyes stored with truth, 341b

Truth—contd.

His truth is marching on, 174b history the light of truth, 544a humanity has need of truth, 694a I am conquered by truths, 683a I cannot tell how the truth may be, 272a
 I love truth and wish it told me, 521b
 I see its truth with reluctant eyes, 395a impossible to be soiled, 228a in every shepherd's tongue, 262a in falsehood, 31b in masquerade, 64b irrationally held truths, dangerous 176a is a daughter of Time, 863b is armed and can defend itself, 211b is easy, 468b is for ever truth, 175b is for other worlds, 168a is from God, 681a is God's daughter, 863b is green, 863b is health, 806b is news nowadays, 819a is precious and divine, 51b is the best, of all treasures, 194a is the highest thing, 78a is the strong thing, 33a is truth to the end of the reckoning, 300a
 is truth ever barren? 9a is within ourselves 31a it is my duty to prefer truth, 468a it is right to yield to truth, 566b it is truth which irritates a man, 714b language of simple truth, 681a let her and Falsehood grapple, 228b let there be truth between us, 714b lies at the bottom of a well, 863b,
note
 lies somewhere, 97a lies within a little and narrow compass, 268b life of truth, from rot of creeds, 387a love of, the first and last requisite of genius, 710b love truth and worthiness, 80a loves to go naked, 863b mainly he told the truth, 84b makes a man angry, 797a makes the devil blush, 839b malice may darken but cannot extinguish, 858a man is ice for truths; all on fire for falsehoods, 696a
 many a true word said in jest, 856b masculine of Honour, 157b may be blamed but shall not be shamed, 864a, note may be smothered but not extinguished, 864a may come out of the devil's mouth, 864a
 mighty above all things, 419a mighty power of, 606b most patient of the, 616b naked, 602b, 627a needs not foil of rhetoric, 214b needs not many words, 777b never grows old, 864a never in need of a guilty lie, 211b never hurts the letter, 35b never indebted to a lie, 407b never put to the worse, 228b

Truth—contd.

never saw any good that came of telling, 129a never sold the truth to serve the hour, 361b
 no one ever ruined by speaking the truth, 817a no victories of, without enthusiasm, 205a not always there when affection speaks, 215a nothing truer than truths, 681a now comes the pain of truth, 185a old and new, 35b on lips of dying men, 4b over-anxious for, 594b overcome by might, 682a passionate for ancient truths, 86a plain truth influences few, 268a protects her servants, 211a safe appeal of, to Time, 386b Saint Truth, 194b satire allied to truth, 82b
 seal of truth is simple, 658a seeks no corners, 864a severe by fairy Fiction drest, 155a shall be thy warrant, 262a shall make you free, 425b shall retire, 222a shines athwart the lies, 32a s'il est vrai, il peut être, 707b simple truth, his honest skill, 403c simple truth miscalled simplicity, 322a simplicity the seal of, 711a speaking truth makes enemies, 768b speaking truth only comes by practice, 267b stick to truth and don't be done.
 441b sting of a reproach is its truth 851b stings; falsehood salves over.
 864a stretches, but does not break, 864a stranger than fiction, 65b supplies persuasion, 267b suppression of what is true, 666b swears that she is made of, 322a takes this carp of truth, 292a taking counsel of unbending
 truth, 396b
 tell truth and shame the devil, 314a, 839b
 telling truth loses the game, 839b telling truth to people who misunderstand, 159a
 that is true which all men say, 867b that peeps, 33b that which a man troweth, 372a that which is true is mine, 641b the funniest joke in the world, 323a
 the great ocean of truth, 238b the lame messenger will bring
 truth, 837a
 the life of all things, 73b the most fortifying thing, 459b the only things that wounds, 864a their immortal Una, 398a they grope for truth, 19b thrives on delay, 681a to bear all naked truths, 185a to bring to light, 321b to build a ship of, 209a to favour truth, to further right, 403b to seek for truth in woods of Academus, 557b to seek the light of, 276b

Truth—cont'd.

to side with truth when we share her wretched crust, 201*a* to wish sincerely to be on the side of, 385*b*
the world, told truth, 35*a* true jests breed bad blood, 863*a*
true may be sometimes unlike truth, 701*a*
truth is truest poesy, 95*a* truth of truths is love, 14*a* truth-telling not compatible with defence of the realm, 324*a* truth's sacred fort, 26*b* truths that wake to perish never,
401*a* truths not to be picked till quite ripe, 702*b*
truths that soften hatred, 398*b* truths that the learned pursue,
101*b*
turn never from the way of truth, 337*a*
two to speak—one to speak and one to hear, 371*b* vantage ground of truth, 9*b* veracity the heart of morality,
176*a*
very fond of truth, but not of martyrdom, 449*b* victim of its own simplicity, 839*b* victory in truth, 554*a* wanting where art is too conspicuous, 674*b*
we must have disbelieved and disputed with a truth, 454*a* well paid when sung and heard, 93*b*, 240*b*
what is true is safe, 641*b* what is true is seldom new, 868*a* what is truth, 426*a* what is truth, said jesting Pilate, 9*a*
where truth deigns to come, 3*a* which but the semblance of a falsehood bears, 74*a* who seeks for truth should be of no country, 450*a* who speaks truth stabs Falsehood, 201*a*
will be uppermost, 863*b* will conquer; falsehood will kill, 864*a* will profit you, though it seem hurtful, 760*a* world averse to all truth, 52*a* would that I could easily discover truth, 678*a*
See Terewth, 114*b*, True
Try and Trust will move mountains,
864*a* Trying, by, the Greeks got into Troy, 471*b*
Try, try, try again, 166*a* Try him afterwards, 83*b* Tu autem (preachers' exordium), 672*a*
Tu quoque, 672*b* Tu quoque Brute, 526*a*, note Tub, every, must stand on its own bottom, 758*a* every, smells of the wine, 758*a* Tube of mighty power, 28*a* Tuberosa, the sweet, 326*a* Tuberosity, that monstrous (London), 72*b* Tudor-chimnied bulk, 358*a* Tug-of-war, the, 195*b* Tulip a flower without a soul, 698*b* white as a, 403*b* Tulit alter honores, 546*b* Tully, dines with, 83*b*, 137*b*

Tumble down, ready with every nod to, 319*a* Tumult and the shouting dies, 189*b* and wrath, far off be, 625*b* the remedy for another tumult, 645*a*
Tumults, in, the worst man has
most power, 553*b*
Tunbridge, I was born near, 775*a* TUNE and TUNES a tune was born in my head, 321*a* I shall loathe sweet tunes, 351*a* incapable of a tune, 192*a* marrying their sweet tunes, 355*a* should keep in tune, so long, 303*a* singeth a quiet tune, 86*b* Tuneful art, companions of my, 155*a* Tuneless fellow, a, 63*b* Tunic, my, nearer than my mantle,
673*a*
Turbulent, very, and very loud, 349*a* Turf above thee, green be the, 156*b* the honours of the, 99*b* Turk, base Phrygian, 287*b* bear like the, no brother near the throne, 252*a*
or the Persian, unknown to, 92*a* out-paramoured the, 306*a* the unspeakable, 459*b* Turkey, 56*b*, note as they always says in, 111*b* Turkey in summer, poor as a, 738*b* owing for, thrush paid for better than a, 729*a* poor as Job's, 738*b* Turkeys, Carpes, Hops, Piccarel and beere, 458*b* Turn, he will rather, than burn, 784*a* each has his, and time and place, 466*b*
to him the other cheek, 421*b* up, full of faith something would,
117*a*
up, something will, 116*b* Turned up, in case anything, 114*a* Turner was the last note in art, when, 388*a* Turning, trembles too, 156*a* Turnip, nobleman like a, 437*a* Turnips cries, man who, 180*b* Turns she every man the wrong way out, 284*b* he goes far that never, 772*b* Turret, dome, or battlement, 270*b* Turtle green and glutinous, 32*b* sad-voiced as the, 30*b* voice of the, 416*b* you must either eat it or not eat
it, 613*b*
Tuscany, even the ranks of, 206*b* Tusculum, I will lay on for, 206*b* Tweed and Till, rivers, 864*b* Tweedledum and Tweedledee, 53*a*,
256*a*
Twelve good men in a box, 26*b* great shocks of sound, 359*a* some wee short hour ayont the,
43*b* Twelvemonth (towmont) gane to
wreck, 45*b*
Twenty as good as nineteen, 738*a* pass, let, 34*b* who is not handsome at, never will be, 779*b* Twenty-one, in the confidence of,
178*b*
Twig is bent, as the, the tree's inclined, 250*b* Twigs, young, sooner bent, 203*a* Twilight and evening bell, 366*b* between dog and wolf, 744*a* blind man's holiday, 745*a* grey, her sober livery, 219*a*

Twin Brethren, the Great, 206*b* Twin, one of us was born a, 196*a* Twins from birth, misery and man, 257*a*
Twinkle, little star, 355*b* Twinkling of a bedstaff, 276*a* of an eye, 428*b* Twist ye, twine ye, 273*b* Twitcher, Jemmy, 143*a* Two and two together, he can put,
772*a*
become one, 28*b* do the same thing, it is not the same, 520*a* is company, three none, 864*b* lovely berries moulded on one stem, 280*b*
men suffice among good men, 734*b*
souls with but a single thought, 200*b*
stood there, we, 36*b* strings unto our bow, 82*a* the nobler of us, 36*a* what two will takes effect, 840*a* Twopence, he had not, to rub on a tombstone, 772*b* Twyford, my name is, 813*a* Twy-natured is no nature, 359*b* Type, rows of, 119*a* so careful of the, 362*b* TYRANTS and TYRANNY a tyrant the best sacrifice, 50*a* a tyrant to the weak, 325*b* a usurping crowd the worst of tyrants, 256*b* all men would be tyrants, 108*a* all who secure power where liberty has been enjoyed, 610*a* authority's cruel claws, 527*b* bad laws the worst tyranny, 40*b* beautiful tyrant, 279*b* being a cause of fear, (tyrants) should beware, 582*a* body-killing tyrants, 68*b* ecclesiastic tyranny, 108*a* fear not the tyrants shall rule for ever, 325*b*
fear that reigns with the tyrant,
198*a*
few die by natural death, 484*b* Habeas Corpus Act a stringent curb on tyranny, 207*a* hand at enmity with tyrants, 573*b* intemperance in nature is tyranny, 305*a*
is a man never a tyrant without a crown? 703*b*
necessity argument of tyrants, 245*a*
of all wild beasts preserve me from a tyrant, 183*b* one tyrant helps another, 480*a* public opinion a tyrant, 204*b* revenge on a tyrant, 231*b* revenged themselves on tyranny, 116*a*
snatched sceptres from tyrants, 522*b*
the little tyrant of his fields, 154*a* the ruling tyrant, 82*a* the Sicilian tyrants, 559*a*
the triple tyrant, 227*a* their punishment to realize the beauty of virtue, 570*b* time to fear when tyrants seem to kiss, 308*b* to live by one man's will, 174*a* to the tyrant no excuse, 222*a* trembles, tyrans, vous êtes immortels, 709*a* tyrannous to use it like a giant,
299*b*

Tyrants and Tyranny—contd.

tyranny begins where law ends, 245a tyranny must be, 222a tyrant's cruel glee, 359a tyrant most tyrant of himself, 729a tyrants make man good, 5a virtue languishes and pleasure
fails, 391b
what more furious than the ear of a tyrant, 637b
whatever crushes individualism,
215a whom many fear should fear many, 582b words which tyrants quake to hear, 206b worst tyranny under cover of
law, 693b
Tyrwley, Lord, 80b

U

Uber, ubi, ibi tuber, 674b Ubi fata vocant, 674a Ubiquities, blazing, 133b Ucalegon, house of, on fire, 626b UGLY, UGLINESS great ugly things, 16b ugliness, potent for evil, 160b ugly people the best, 534a ugly women, finely dressed, are
the uglier, 865a
why wasn't I born old and ugly,
113a

Ulcers cannot be cured that are concealed, 865a
Ulster in 1912, 191a Ulubra, what you seek is even in,
641a, note
Ultipomatum, my, 53a Ulva vires, 675a
Ulva posse nemo obligatur, 675a Ultracrepidarian critics, 586a, note Ulysses not beautiful but eloquent, 598a

the wise wanderer, 89b
'Umble, we are so very, 114a Umbra, magna nominis, 570b Umbrella, take your friend's, 443b Umpire regards equity; the judge, law, 475a Una, heavenly, with her milkwhite
lamb, 394a
Unaffected so, so composed a mind, 256a

UNANIMITY

ad unum omnes, 485b is wonderful, 328b
of one mind in an house, 433b victory where there is unanimity, 547b
would we were all of one mind, and one mind good, 309b Unbecoming, things that are, are unsafe, 558b Unbelief a very exacting religion, 696b blind, 95b he that believes nothing hits not,
776a Unblinded let me live, 255a
Unbribing and unbribed, 335a Unburied lies, he that, 28b is covered by the heavens, 503a

UNCERTAINTY

cause of variance, 85a fear as to doubtful fall of a thunderbolt, 578a glorious uncertainty of the law, 207b, 460a

Uncertainty—contd.

he goes furthest that knows not where he is going, 772b I am not sure whether the man was ever born or not, 638b
I do love I know not what, 165a my heart tells me neither Yes, nor No, 715b not to be made certain by reason (uncertainties), 554a nothing certain but uncertainty, 818b
nothing more certain, 17a Unchaste, beauty, beauty in disgrace, 257b
Uncis naribus indulges, 646b Uncle, mine, 291b you are an honest man and I am your uncle, 878b Unclubbable man, 178b, note

UNCO GUID, 45a

be not righteous over much, 415b
good and godly ones, 209a
he is too good who has nothing of
evil, 594b
Peter is so godly that God does not make him thrive, 825a the Outrageously Virtuous, 342b the over-virtuous foolish and unjust, 557a

Uncouth way, find out his, 217b Unction, lay not that flattering, 296a Unfiled in the way, blessed are
the, 495b

Underlings, that we are, 285b

UNDERSTAND, UNDERSTANDING an understanding but no tongue, 290b have I said anything you understand, 181a

if we no understand, 22a ignorant of his understanding, 89a instinct of understanding, 71b Men who Understand, 26a nothing in the comprehension which has not existed in the senses, 591b one may understand like an angel, yet be a devil, 822a thinks she understands, 34a the wealth of wealth, 865a with all thy getting get understanding, 413b
would all but stoop to what they understand, 246b

Undertake no more than you can perform, 865a

Undiscovered country, the, 293b Undismayed, if not unmoved, 59a Undisputed thing, thou sayst an,
167b

Undone but for our undoing, 447b left, those things we ought to have done, 432a

Uneathly, something, 55b Uneducated people are hypocrites, 150b

UNEXPECTED

a fool says "I shouldn't have thought it," 557a all things will be accomplished which I thought impossible, 611a

always happens, 852b
Est-il possible? 557a, note expectation hits where hope is coldest, 299a happens oftener than what is hoped for, 557b happiness unexpected will be more welcome, 558a the hare starts when a man least expects, 846a

Unexpected—contd.

where we least think there goeth the hare away, 874a Unfaith in aught, want of faith in
all, 364b
Unfamiliar, things curious and,
165a Unfeathered, two-legged thing, 122b Unforeseen is unprepared, 126a Unforgiving, unforgiven dies, 441b Unfortunate, greatly, 1a are counted fools, 852b have no relatives, 850b
he, that, 289a
one more, 169a the, need no introduction, 334b Ungrateful shall not prosper, 465b Unhappiness, luxury of false religion, 332b none could be unhappy but the
great, 266b
people never so unhappy as they suppose, 704a study to be unhappy, 240b Unhouselled, disappointed, un-aneled, 292a

UNIFORMS

a uniform must work its way with women, 112b
masks (to hide cowards), 384a should be more uniform, 172b the scarlet coats that pester humankind, 185b
though clothed in scarlet, 182b

UNION

a union in partition, 280b flare up, and join the union, 464a is strength, 865a of hearts, not hands, 166a of hearts, the union of lands, 235a one flag, one nation, 168b Sail on, O Union, 198b

Uniqueness: leave the world no copy, 297b

Nature broke the mould, 60b Unite and lead, the better motto in government, 712a

UNITED STATES

people of, 1a unity with Britain, 4a See America

Unities, preserved the, 113a

UNITY

be ye all of one mind, 431a by agreement small things grow, 504b concord makes lowly help powerful, 495a

in essentials, unity, 552b strength united is more powerful, 685a

things of small value singly,
useful collectively, 628a things united are helpful, 562a to dwell together in unity, 413a, 433b united thoughts and counsels, 216a

united we stand, 235a united yet divided, 99a

UNIVERSE

a tomb's the universe, 28b born for the universe, 149a full of magical things, 244a in a boundless universe, 357a mind has explored beyond this universe, 686b one commonwealth, 675b shows spontaneity, 89b the order of the universe, 107a the sum total of all sums, 665b we rearrange the universe, 162a

UNIVERSITY, UNIVERSITIES

a place of light, liberty, and learning, 118b a stony-hearted stepmother, 488a,
note
 incline to sophistry, 9a Isis and Cam, to patient science
 dear, 398b
 only teach error, 9a the universities, the sea, the court (three ways to a living), 854a to one (university) a regiment, to the other books, 372b Unjust, seek what is, to carry what is just, 556b

UNKIND, UNKINDNESS

a small unkindness is a great offence, 234a
 children be unkind, 436b destroys love, 865a has no remedy in law, 865a no cut to unkindness, 816a none deformed but the unkind, 298a
 she is pleased if thou lament, 46b the most unkindest cut of all, 286a unrelenting unkindness, 44b

UNKNOWN

taken for magnificent, 609b
terra incognita, 670b
 the mind fears an evil more which is unknown, 653a the unknown by what is still more unknown, 548b
 there is no desire for the unknown, 640b unconfined and unknown, 56a unoffited and unknown, 19a you turn up your nose at men unknown, 677b
 Unlamented let me die, 254b Unlearning : he does not right who unlearns what he has learnt, 541b mind slow in, 512a only by, Wisdom comes, 202b Unlearned seize heaven itself, 666b Unlearn't, to learn what has to be,
 582b Unlinal hand, wrenched with an,
 304b
 Unlocked, all, to your occasions,
 282a
 Unlucky, to be, is poverty, 468b Unminded, unmoaned, 865a Unnatural, cruel, not, 295a everything, is imperfect, 450a Unparticular man, 157a Unpitied, unreprieved, 217a

UNPOPULARITY

he is not safe whom all hate, 674a I love to be hated, 691b the people hiss at me, 622b when a man is not liked, whatever he does is amiss, 869a Unpremeditated lay, 271b Unprepared : he who is not prepared to-day will be less so tomorrow, 633a
 Unpunctuality, Nature's sweet, 6b Unreadable, always the, that occurs, 388a

UNREASONABLENESS

angry without a cause, 134a bad sort of eddication as makes folks unreasonable, 130b everything lawful to you ; nothing to me, 593b I hate and I love and do not know why, 608b so strange, outrageous, and so variable, 282b

Unreasonableness—contd.

that reason of unreasonable actions, 127b who is allowed more than is reasonable desires more, 508b Unrecorded left through many an age, 222a

Unrest comes from rest, 714a that which men miscall delight, 326b troubled with, 17a whate'er smacked of annoyance or,
 320b

Unsaid, all things are gude, 734a let it be, 555a Unseen, we are more frightened by
 the, 504a

UNSELFISHNESS

if men were unselfish as women, 89b thus you may find praise without envy, 605a
See Self-Sacrifice

Unsettled, havin' things, kills the cow, 202b

Unshaken, unseduced, unterrified,
 220a

Unsociability : dog in a kitchen desires no company, 738a

Unspeakable, The : ^a not if I had ten tongues and ten mouths, 476b Unthanked, th' All-giver would be,
 225b

Untried, all things are gude, 734a Untrue, telle his tale, 77a Untruthworthy man, character of,

 483a

Untruth only shielded by untruth,
 177b

Unused, to fast in us, 296a Unutterable things, looked, 369b

Unwashed, the great, 26b Unwep't, unhonoured, and unsung,
 272b

UNWILLINGNESS

folly to take unwilling dogs to hunt, 663b slowness in granting favours denotes unwillingness, 669a to go like a bear to a stake, 860b

See Indifference, Refusal

Unworldliness of thought, 67a Up go we, hey ! then, 261b

Up and doing, let us then be, 197b Up and down, mostly they goes, 75b

Up, now, now down, the world goth
 so, 152a

Up-hill, no slipping, 130b Up-hill, our course is rather slow, 91b

Uplifted beyond hope, 217a Upper end is where the chief person sits, 839b

Upright, God hath made man, 415b man needs no defence, 557b man not to be shaken from his purpose, 563a

most, of all the Trojans, 563a Upstairs, to be equal, 18a

Upstart (homo novus), 545b Urban, St., feast of, 510b

Urban, squat, and full of guile, 26a Urbi pater est, 676a

Urbs antiqua ruit, 676b Urn, my destined, 226a of all he was, scarce enough to fill a small, 561a

the (funeral), shakes up every
 name, 486b

Urs, those dreadful, 167b

USE
 almost can change nature, 295b
 how use doth breed a habit, 281b is second nature, 865a

Use—contd.

makes men ready, 676b makes things bearable, 640b metal shines with, 486b more than we use is more than we
 want, 812b

of a thing confirmed by abolishing its abuse, 504b only use makes a thing good or evil, 336b

rather use than fame, 365a ring worn out by constant use, 531b

to everything its use, 664a Used to it as eels to be flayed, 63b

USEFUL, USEFULNESS, UTILITY and baseness cannot co-exist, 551b

be useful where thou livest, 363a beauty consists in utility, 448b everything is good for something, 758b

fame is folly unless we do what is useful, 595a

Nature never makes excellent things without usefulness, 196b to mix the useful with what is pleasant, 609b

Uselessness, cut off head and tail and throw the rest away, 750b like a hog he does no good till he dies, 802a

making things he doesn't want,
 159a thorns whiten, yet do nothing, 857b

useless unseen as lamps in sepulchres, 254b

utility and equity, 42a Uses, base, 297a

Usquebae, wi, 46a Usurpers sway the rule, though,
 318a

Usury, voracious and greedy, 543b Usus, magister egregius, 581a

Utconque, his last refuge is to begin with an, 242b

Utere sorte tua, 678a
 Utica, no pent-up, 275b

Utique dulci, 609b
Utilis agris, 538b

Utmost that he can, wha does, 47a

UTOPIA better than a principality in, 205b

every land shall produce all it
 requires, 612b

I saw a new world in my dream,
 263a

not in Utopia, 393b progress the realization of Utopias, 389b

 Utopias often premature truths,
 702b

Utter, wilt not, what thou dost not
 know, 313b

Utterance, how divine is, 214a larger, of the early Gods, 185a

V

Vacant, a mind quite, 98b

VACILLATION

hither and thither he turns his wavering mind, 490b

I wish it ; I wish it not, 595b inform of purpose, 304a letting I dare not wait upon I would, 303b

vibration of a pendulum, 184a waverings of every vane, 366a

Vacuo, in, 554a
 Vacuum, nature abhors a, 584b, 813b

Vagabond, who travels for mere curiosity is a, 150b

VAGRANTS

all I ask, the heaven above, 344b Heaven's my wide roof-tree, 7a vagrant, gypsy life, 209b you shall comprehend all vagrom
 men, 284b

See Wanderers

Vague and uncertain import, 206a

Vainglory blossoms but never bears, 865b may flourish but will not bear seed, 716a much vainglory about contempt of vainglory, 647a

Vainness, ingratitude more hateful than, 298a

See Vanity

Vale of tears and misery, 136b
 of years, 302a

Vale, sed non aeternum, 500a

Valentine, St., set thy hopper by mine, 830b

Valentine's day will a good goose
 lay, 820b

Valerius loathed the wrong, 206b

Valet is a valet, 816b, note no man a hero to his, 816b the devil's, who does more than he is told, 774a

Valete et plaudite, 687b

VALETUDINARIANISM

doctors and imagination, 81b

madness to die lest you should die, 543a

much interested in her own health, 389a

who lives medically lives miserably, 632b

See Hypochondria

VALIANT

and I thought he had been valiant, 298a and yet impious, 128a as he was valiant I honour him, 286a

as the wrathful dove, 315b he's not valiant that dare die, 211b

he that is valiant, 51b makes e'en the valiant more
 brave, 110b

taste death but once, 285b that have lived in the Lord, 73b truly valiant that can wisely suffer, 308b

See Valour

Valley of Death, all in the, 361b he that stays in, shall not get over the hill, 781b of the shadow of death, 412a sheep are fatter, 241b

Valleys: the vale best discovereth the hills, 852b

Valley's playful windings, 88b

Vallombrosa, the brooks in, 216a

VALOUR

a mouse-trap, 51a

a sad wise valour, 163a adieu, valour, rust, rapier, 277a all honour to you in your valour, 569b as much by Mars as by Minerva, 667b cannot render a man worthy, 128a childish valorous, 208b

consists in bearing calamity
 boldly, 211b

deliberate valour, 216b delights in the test, 537b grows by daring, 494a has its limits, 698b in vain doth valour bleed, 227a is the soldier's adornment, 546b Valour—contd.

many of evil character are valorous, 448b melted into compliment, 285a my valour is certainly going, 328a now there is need of valour, 604b of former days, 624b of no service against chance, 592b piety and valour, 122a

shows but a bastard valour, 211b

there is hope in valour, 662a valour that parleys is near yielding, 719a

valour, virtue, and for noble
 blood, 126b

wherever valour true is found, 145b

wherever valour true is found, 145b

VALUE

crowd values few things according to truth, 688a

good cheap is dear, 741b goods are worth what they will sell for, 668b

never grudge a penny for a penny-worth, 814b

of a man his price, 166b valeat quantum valere potest, 679a what is aught but as 'tis valued, 298b

why, then we rack the value, 284b

See Price, Worth

Vamba, en tiempo del rey, 716a

Vanbrugh, Sir J., epitaph, 445b

Vane, changing as a, 78a

Vanguard camps to-day, where the,
 210a

Vanished from my sight, 56a

Vanished Day, this, 368b

VANITY (emptiness) and vexation of spirit, 415b every man altogether vanity, 412b

he dared to despise vain things, 593a

of vanites, most vain, 370b vain is the world, but only to the vain, 406a vanity of vanities, 415a, 679a when you too learn that all is

 vain, 266b

who hunts after Vanity shall take Vexation, 779a

VANITY (vainness)

an ounce of, spoils a hundred-weight of merit, 736b bids her daughters be chaste and courteous, 343b

bids her sons be generous and
 brave, 343b

dies hard; sometimes outlives the man, 344b

gift which makes woman charming, 117a

God made us, we admire ourselves, 716b

his too high opinion of himself was cause of his disaster, 547a ignobly vain, 255a

only one vanity, 84b pity no vanity is put into women's composition, 825b power believes any praise, 591b praise of fools—that's vanity, 36b self-knowledge will prevent vanity, 449a

that vain, ill-natured thing, 108a the inestimable blessing of vanity, 368a

the pride of Nature, 865b the sixth sense, 72a, 865b the vile are only vain, 59a vice of modern world, 230a virtue would not go far without vanity, 698b

Vanity (vainness)—contd.

we are more inclined to evil-speaking by vanity than by malice, 704a

what dotage will not vanity maintain, 96b

what your glass tells you will not be told by counsel, 869a

will out, 95a

Vanquished by so great a man, 570a have no friends, 335b though, he could argue still, 148b to the, shame, 204b

Vans, Sir Gammer, 440b

Vantage ground of truth, 9b

Vapour, life is even a, 431a

Vapours, congregation of, 293a

Vapouring, thy, base scum, 51b

Varia vita est, 484b

Variable as the shade, 270a

VARIETY

dear variety, 23b differing tastes ask for different things, 622b

forms a pleasure, 474a great source of pleasure, 180a in the garment but no seam, 554a is charming, 865b is pleasing, 865b, note nor custom stale her infinite variety, 307b

nothing pleasant except by
 variety, 561b

order in variety, 254a the mother of enjoyment, 116a the soul of pleasure, 865b the very spice of life, 99b weakest-minded love variety and change, 267a

which all the rest endears, 109a

Various, a man so, 123a

Varnishing hides a crack, 865b

Vary, how widely its agencies, 173b

Vase not fashioned unless the clay is well pounded, 569a the savour of, remains, 585a you may shatter the, 231b

Vases, when you fear to break, 536a

Vatum ignara mentes, 542b

Vault, the deep damp, 406a

Vaulted with such ease into his seat, 314b

Vaunter, greatest, seldom speeds, 338a

Vaunting aloud, 216a

Ve for we, Germans say, 170b

Vegetable, a kind of holy, 331b

Vegetate, one does but, 43b

Veil after veil will lift, 4b behind the, are past, 136a lights of the, 38a through which I might not see, 136a

Vein, one blue, 260b

Veins, her, are million, 380a

Vellum, some are, 251b

Velvet life, a, 108b sheath, sharp mind in, 130b you cannot make velvet out of a sow's ear, 879a

Venalum, grex (a venal pack), 539a

Vendanges sont faites, 689a

Venerate, nothing is left which I can, 397a

Veneration, much, but no rest, 10b

Veneris, mille modi, 577a

Venetian first, Christian afterwards, 729a

VENGEANCE

at his heels, 96a can vengeance be pursued further than death, 280a

deep-brooding o'er the slain, 271b

Vengeance—contd.

easy, but not worth while, 529b has a brood of eggs, 213b is behind, 68a
is mine, 427a
is wild justice, 865b it is enough to have commanded,
683b like a bloodhound on his heels, 348a no vengeance like a woman's, 153a on the ashes cold, 340a See Revenge
Veni, vidi, vici, 679b, 680a, note VENICE

at Venice no one wonders at anything, 646b
Esto perpetua, 524b
I stood in Venice, 55a sat in state, 55a Veniendi discere causas, 588a Venison, a thief of, 78a Venile exultemus, 680a Veniunt a dote sagitta, 588a Venom for-doeth venom, 194b Venter magister artis, 569b Ventis dare vela secundis, 529a Venture, I will, upon my poor gentlemanlike carcass, 183a more, vessels large may, 140b nothing, nothing have, 818b Ventures, long-lost, of the heart, 109b many, make a full freight, 808a Ventured, you have deeply, 59a

VENUS

as Venus yokes her doves, 63b cold without food and wine, 658a may Venus be propitious, 499b rose red out of wine, 352a sets ere Mercury can rise, 255b smiles not in a house of tears, 280a so it seems fit to Venus, 657b Venus of Medici statue, 369b Ver assiduum, 543a Verachung ist der wahre Tod, 714a Verb. sap., 681a
Verba et sedes, 666a Verbera voc audis, 8b Verbiage, bartea, curren? among men, 360a

VERBOSITY

a man of all men most wordy, 545b a sign of despicable and ridiculous
nature, 677b
a wordy and grandiloquent letter, 680b abstain from contending in words with the verbose, 506a an overwhelming rush of words, 680b do not be wordy, 641a draweth out the thread of his verbosity, 277b example of verbosity, 812a, note exuberance of his own verbosity, 118b flows from the charged mind, 638a like the cuttlefish, 263a ne sis verbosus, 641a o'erflowing though not full, 254a one halfpenny worth of bread, 314a

Verbs and nouns, whose, do more agree, 158b
Verbum sapienti, 515a, note Verdict, haste to give, not to lose dinner, 214b Verdure, to look upon, 6b Verge enough for more, 127b Verify your references, 441a Veritas temporis filia, 863b, note

Vermín, most pernicious race of little odious, 347a Vernal seasons of the year, 228a Vero, se non è, è mollo ben trovato, 715b

VERSATILITY

a man of all hours, 613a
a man so various, 123a Cato's, such that he seemed born for whatever particular thing he attempted, 547a intent on too many things, 621a of the hungry Greeking, 538a where every god did seem to set his seal, 295b

VERSE, VERSES

a Book of Verses, 135b a measured speech (verse), 8a ah me! that my verses have not greater power, 541b curst be the verse, 252b flowand verse, 182b guerdon of immortal deed, 97a how verse may build a princely throne, 395a
I wrote the verses, 546b in high immortal verse, 225b indignation makes verses, 529b mad, sad, glad, and bad verse, 352b, note
married to immortal verse, 224b may find him who a sermon flies, 162a my unpremeditated verse, 221a one was mad with making verses, 133b pleasures that to verse belong, 184b reads verse, 34a remember thine own verse, 76a
tear him for his bad verses, 286b the blank verse shall halt for it, 293a those who write in verse, 51b
thou honour'st verse, 227a to return verses to the anvil, 525a verse comes from Heaven, 260a verse has more power to soothe,
187a
verse sweetens toil, 144b verses should be sung, not read, 702b Voice and Verse, harmonious sisters, 227b wanting the accomplishment of verse, 401a
wild oats in tame verse, 29b wisdom married to immortal verse, 402a, note writing verses does not now please
me, 592a
Versifiers, many, not poets, 329a Verify in spite, I'll, 127a Veritas odium parit, 608a Vertere seria ludo, 560b Vespasian, the only emperor who changed for the better, 660a,
note
Vesper adest, tandem carmine, 630b Vessel, do not entrust your all to one, 675b goes, the gilded, 155a the earthen, 32b the weaker, 431a Vessels, blessing given even to empty, 510b when empty, give most sound, 177b, note
Vest, a painted, 23a Vestal's lot, the blameless, 255a Vestals, love-lacking, 321a Vestigia jamæ, 646a Vestigia nulla retrorsum, 681b

Vestigia morientis libertatis, 573b Vestigio, e (immediately), 520b Vesture of decay, 283b Veteran, superfluous lags the, 178a Veteris vestigia flammæ, 487a Vetustas nulla lenit, 640b Vex, her sole delight to, 349a how to, and how to please, 349a not his ghost, 307a Vexation, button up one cause of,
343a Viaducts, Wordsworth and, 402b Vials of wrath, 431b Vibrations, to deaden its, 199a Vicar of Bray will be vicar still, 852b VICE AND VICES
a common vice (extravagant ostentation), 543a a ladder of our vices, 200a, note a whirlpool of vices, 573a, note Alexander vanquished by vices, 492b
all things can corrupt perverted
minds, 611b
body weighed down with vices weighs down the soul, 638a branded the vices of the age, 269b disgrace of others deters from vice, 670a
every vice has reached its acme, 593b every vice hath a cloak, 758a first virtue is to be without vice,
624a fools avoiding vices run to opposite extremes, 520a forgot their vices in their woe, 148a former vices have become fashions, 627b from another man's vices correct
your own, 527b
gallantry atones for every vice,
100b gathered every vice on Christian ground, 254a
Gods make instruments of, to plague us, 307a good old-gentlemanly vice, 62a great men's, esteemed virtues, 208b habits blemished by vice, 597a hate him that my vices telleth me, 77b have war with vices, 615a ingrained, difficult to cut away, 515b its own punishment, and sometimes cure, 865b lashed the vices, but spared the
men, 348a
most of our evils come from our vices, 812b no vice but assumes some mask of virtue, 283a no vice but has its patron, 817b no vice goes alone, 817b none complete in itself, 604a one leads to another, 604a part of mankind glory in vices, 615b philosophy expeller of vices, 685b possess guilt according to the rank of the offender, 609b
raptures and roses of vice, 351b rudimentary beginnings of, 666a small vices appear through tattered clothes, 307a sometimes by action dignified, 279a the fool of vice, 762a the misery of all vice, 50b the poor through vice, 855a

Vice and Vices—contd.

the road to vices is steep as well as smooth, 609*b*, note to vice alone a foe, 47*b* unlearn vices, 684*b* vanquished by their vices, 541*b* vice, a monster of so frightful mien, 249*a* vice becomes a custom by a prince's example, 686*a* vice carries its own reward, 866*a* vice downward in tendency, 609*b* vice ever cowardly, 605*b* vice frightful, if it did not wear a mask, 865*b* vice hidden in cities, 99*a* vice, how soft, 53*b* vice in garb of virtue, 530*a* vice in triumph, 128*b* vice is summary, virtue is slow, 504*a* vice itself lost half its evil, 41*a* vice lies in proximity to what is good, 647*b* vice lives always displeased, 865*b* vice nourished by concealment, 488*a* vice often rides triumphant in virtue's chariot, 865*b* Vice ruthless where Gold reigneth, 865*b* vice which offends none is not vice, 693*b* vice wrapped up in virtuous words, 680*b* vices creep on us under name of virtues, 685*b* vices, hostile to nature and dangerous, 684*b* vices learned without a master, 865*b* vices less serious when open, as with diseases, 610*b* vices of the time; vices of an individual, 686*a*, note virtue and vice divide the world, 866*a* we bear with familiar vices, 505*a* what maintains one vice, 140*b* when our vices leave us we flatter ourselves we leave them, 706*a* when vice prevails, 2*a* Victim to delicate love, a, 263*b* Victims play, the little, 154*b* Vicious, every man, 249*a* Vicious, though, I can tell a moral tale, 78*b* VICISSITUDE
 a law of cycles in all things, 643*b* a peevish April day, 386*a* amused his soul, 19*a* anguish after rapture, 405*b* good and bad never unmixed, 477*a* good grows to better and better to bad, 768*b* grief and joy and hope and fear, 437*a* nothing more interesting than the vicissitudes of fortune, 591*b* sunlight and shadow waver to and fro, 383*b* the sad vicissitudes of things, 144*b* this life is all chequered, 231*b* Time goes by turns, 338*a* web of our life a mingled yarn, 299*a* world full of strange vicissitudes, 63*b* See Fortune
 Victor, guilt to the, 204*b* Victor victorum, 682*a* Victor's mind, the, 2*b*

Victors, spoils to the, 455*a* in defeat (Art has), 152*a* Victoria, Queen, Tennyson on, 356*b* Victorious, o'er a' the ills o' life, 46*a* VICTORY a Cadmean, 473*a* a conqueror gives laws to a willing people, 682*a* a conqueror of conquerors, 682*a* a Pyrrhic, 452*a* after a thousand victories once foiled, 321*b* always glorious, whether due to chance or skill, 715*a* another such victory and we are undone, 452*a* by victories undone, 125*a* does not like rivalry, 646*b* each of the two combatants was victor, 682*a* for victory, life, 682*a* great, which comes without blood, 794*a* great, which is obtained without blood, 716*a* Hannibal able to conquer, but ignorant how to use victory, 683*a* Hannibal can gain, but cannot use, 452*b* he suffers who conquers, 616*b* I will not steal a victory, 451*b* increases by concord, 682*a* man learns little from victory, 807*a* may they conquer whom you wish to, 683*a* moderation of a man in victory, 5*b* not hoping victory, 335*a* O vanquisher, a like fate also awaits thee, 599*a* or else a grave, 457*a* pardon, the choicest flower of victory, 824*a* peace produced by victory, 682*a* (victory) produced by unanimity, 547*b* rather bad luck than have cause to be ashamed of victory, 572*b* safety springs from 662*a* so great an object of desire, 668*b* strive that each man may regard himself as chief cause of, 477*a* the victory will be your own, 637*b* to conquer is honourable, to forgive is beautiful, 683*a* to conquer victory by privileges to vanquished, 682*b*
 to prefer victory to peace, 682*a*
 to spare those subdued and to conquer the proud, 540*a* 'twas a famous victory, 337*a* twice a conqueror who conquers himself, 497*b* veni, vidi, vici, 680*a*, note victory loves trouble, 488*b* victory or Westminster Abbey, 457*a* which spills the foremost foeman's life, 271*a* with conquering hand he protects the conquered, 627*b* Victuals, not difficult to please about, 66*a* Vida, las, es sueño, 716*b* Vie, ma, est un combat, 702*b* View, a long, last, lingering, 197*a* of men and things, 6*a* wide and luminous, 5*a* Views, differing in other matters but in this identical, 540*a*

VIGILANCE

he looks not well to himself that looks not ever, 775*b* look above you and then about you, 804*b* the laws help the watchful, 682*b* toujours en vedette, 708*a* Vigour, impair my, 75*a* Vile, intolérable, not to be endured, 276*b* naught so, but doth give some special good, 279*a* to the, wisdom seems vile, 306*b* we are not so miserable as, 703*b* who so, that will not love his country, 286*a* Vilior alga, 524*b* Villa, a small, rent there, 444*a* Villas with resounding names, 195*b*
VILLAGE and VILLAGES a village, a hive of glass, 729*a* bubbles o'er with gossip, 363*b* embosomed soft in trees, 369*a* every village marked with little spire, 327*a* how sweet the sound of village bells, 170*a*
 it's ill living where everybody knows everybody, 797*b* loveliest village of the plain, 147*b* the village maiden sings, 144*b*, note there is more harm in the village than is dreamt of, 716*b* vegetate in a village, 91*a* village statesmen, 148*b* villager, born humbly and bred hard, 82*b* villagers on bended knees, 398*b* VILLAIN, VILLAINS, VILLAINY every tale condemns me for a villain, 319*b* fair terms, and a villain's mind, 282*a* good service in thee, villainy in me, 307*b* let all villainy be dismissed, 659*a* let villainy forswear't, 310*a* smile and smile and be a villain, 292*a*
 smiling, damned villain, 292*a* some eternal villain, 302*b* that natural expression of villainy, 84*a* the villainy you teach me I will execute, 282*b* thus I clothe my naked villainy, 318*b* villain and he, many miles asunder, 280*a* villainous, and shows a most pitiful ambition, 294*b* villains, when rich, have need of poor, 300*a* villainy an object of wonder in that age, 550*b* would not be the villain that thou think'st, 305*a* Ville, petit, grand renom, 705*a* Villon, our sad bad glad mad brother, 352*b* Vinci, they spell it, 83*b* VINES, VINEYARDS
 every man under his vine, and under his fig tree, 410*a* his vines a richer bloom of promise wore, 383*b* sow vines in sand, 836*b* the gadding vine, 226*a* the mantling vine, 219*a* the secure shade of their own vines, 211*a* vineyard saying, 144*b*, note

Vinegar given, better than honey sought, 866a aspect, of such, 261b only, and pepper, 173a sweetest wine makes sharpest, 838a you drink, with wine at your elbow, 879b

Vino pellite curas, 606a

Vintage of Time, 136a trampling out the, 174b

Vintners buy, wonder what the,
136b

VIOLENCE, VIOLENT

blast that blows loudest, 333b come as the waves, when Navies are stranded, 273b is just where mildness is in vain, 698b nothing violent is permanent,

818b of this conflict, 219b over violent or over civil, 123a

reply by heaving rocks, 158b

so violence proceeded, 222a to offer it the show of violence, 290a violent delights have violent ends, 279b violent government does not last,

683b

what is violent is not lasting, 640b violent, whatever cause he took,

123b

VIOLETS

a violet, by a mossy stone, 392a a violet in the youth of primy

nature, 291a

breathes upon a bank of violets, 297b

dew that on the violet lies, 273b here and there a violet, 19b may violets spring, 297a meek violets, veiled noses, 169b pretty daughters of the Earth and the glowing violet, 226b the nodding violet, 280b the violet is a nun, 171b violets dim, 310a violets plucked, 138b, 243a whose life was like the violet, 400b

Sun, 262b

Violin : walling of the wire, 35b

Vires, produnt auctorem, 625b

Viresque acquiri eundo, 530b

VIRGIL, 125b, note loftier Mantuan, more divinely sweet, 382a the English Virgil (Spenser), 187a

Virgil's epitaph, 573b

Virgiliana, sortes, 661a, note

Virgin thorn, withering on the, 280a

Virgins are soft, where the, 56b

Virgo intacta, 684a

VIRTUE

a fig, 301a

a saint-like virtue, 51b a thousand shields, 684a a transcendent gem, 13a a very strong shield, 486a act up to, scorned delights, 685a additionally pleasing with beauty, 538b

alone ennobles, 684b alone is happiness below, 250a alone is true nobility, 144b alone necessary, 675b alone outbuilds the pyramids, 407a

all born equal, and only distinguished by virtue, 610a all virtues agree ; vices fight, 866a

Virtue—contd.

all that are lovers of virtue and go a-angling, 378a allures rustic minds, 684a always fearful to the wicked, 550b and a trade are the best inheritance, 866a

and beauty rarely found together, 643a

and happiness mother and daughter, 866a

and the faculties within, 397a and vice divide the world, 866a antique virtue, 491a assume a virtue if you have it not, be the fool of virtue, not of vice,

296a

762a

bread is the reward of virtue, 249b brings honour, honour vanity, 866a

but a word, 212b

but at secondhand, 347b calumny the whitest virtue strikes, 300a cannot exist without reason, 684b concealed (virtus celata), 617a conquer by means of, 683a conquers envy, 684b could see, by her own radiant light, 225a

crowns her worshippers, 506b curse on his justifies, 1b debases itself in justifying itself, 698b do not distrust thy virtues, 127b do you suppose virtue consists of words only, 684b draws by its own charms, 671b dreaded by kings, 644a dwells not in the tongue but in the heart, 866a

each virtue its own reward, 559b either an empty name or a glory and reward, 495a enemy of virtue, 28b every virtue lies between two vices, 386a

few believe that virtue is its own reward, 866b

firm land of, 123a, note first virtue is to be without vice,

624a

flourishes by a wound, 683b for which of his virtues he was whipped out of court, 310a forced into virtue, 249b friendly to virtue and its friends, 675b

gives herself light, 330b gold less valuable than, 682b greatest virtues are only splendid sins, 453b greatest offence against virtue is to speak ill of it, 159b grows under a burden, 507b hark awhile to virtue's counsels, 354b

has few Platonic lovers, 866a he forsakes exacting virtue, 685a his virtues will plead like angels, 303b how difficult is even a pretence of

virtue, 629b

humility the highest virtue, 365b

I take refuge in my own virtue,
564b

I wrap myself in my virtue, 575a if it (virtue) could be seen, 8a illustrious and eternal, 517b in distress, 128b is according to nature, 684b is alone free, 684a

Virtue—contd.

is bold, 300a

is it imparted by nature or by learning, 684b

is its own reward, 866a is the roughest way, 403a itself of vice must pardon beg, 296a itself 'scapes not calumnious strokes, 291a joins man to God, 684a knows not how to be in subjection, 591a

languishes under Tyranny, 391b learn from me virtue and true labour, 516b

learn virtues ; unlearn vices, 684b like precious odours, 9b

lilies and languors of virtue, 351b

linked with one virtue, 57b lives beyond the grave, 686b, note lives when Beauty dies, 385b lost to virtue, 405b love virtue, she alone is free, 225b made virtue of necessity, 77a makes the bliss, 90a may be assailed but never hurt, 225b

more virtue than doth live, 182b most men admire virtue, 222b nature does not bestow virtue, 585a

never grows old, 866a

never want of room for, 605a no distinction between virtue and vice, 178b

no virtue like necessity, 312a

no way impassable to virtue, 558b none can be happy without virtue, 589a

not birth but virtue makes us noble, 138a

not from nature but from will of God, 684a

not in action, is a vice, 211a now found only in herbs, stones, and words, 866a of necessity, 78a

of old-fashioned, and faith, 545b only makes our bliss below, 250a opening heaven to those undeserving of death, 684a outward appearance of, 652a requires no reward, 562a riches in virtue, 554a seldom followed gratis, 866a seldom walks forth without Vanity, 866a

serves as an anchor, 679a shines with untarnished honour, 684b

(virtues) so mingled with his
crimes, 128a

starves while vice is fed, 249b stronger than a battering-ram, 684a

that household virtue, 60b the first virtue, to keep thy tongue, 79a

the fount of honour, 208b the happiness of all, 50b the highest reward, and above all things, 684a

the mean between opposing vices, 684a

the only amaranthine flower, 100a the only nobility, 595a the only path to a tranquil life, 579b

the only reward of virtue, 132b the only thing not capable of abuse, 613a

Virtue—contd.

the over-virtuous, foolish and unjust, 557a the seeds of, implanted by nature, 665b their virtues we write in water, 320b
there is rest in virtue, 684b
to her virtues very kind, 259b too painful an endeavour, 251a true good consists in virtue, 680b value of virtue and learning, 80a virtue even for virtue's sake, 255a virtue, valour, wisdom sit in want, 222b virtues lose themselves in self-interest, 702b virtus est vitium fugere, 684a virtus in arduis, 684a virtute me involuo, 564b, 575a vixit post funera virtus, 686b, note was always in a minority, 698b we are born to virtue, but without it, 585a we hate virtue when it is with us, 684b we should seek support from virtue, 684b
what is virtue but repose of mind, 370b when anything is to be gained by virtue, 331b when the virtues died they made her heir, 202a which single virtue, 52b who dies for virtue does not perish, 633b who has virtue has all good things, 684a will last to posterity, 485a will only be followed for her own sake, 698b wisdom the source of virtue, 386a would not give a farthing for virtue, 80b would not go far without vanity, 698b youth knows no virtue, 880b

VIRTUOUS

a fool for he would be virtuous, 319b and wise he was, 4a be virtuous and you will be eccentric, 84a be virtuous and you'll be happy, 27b, 140a because thou art virtuous, 297b blessings wait on virtuous deeds, 93a every man virtuous and vicious, 249a the Outrageously Virtuous, 342b the very virtuous, what mischief they do, 367a virtuous ends by virtuous means, 179b who can find a virtuous woman, 415a

Virum volitare per ora, 670a

Virtutum extendere factis, 524b

Visa, sive ex metu credita, 677b

Visage, dejected 'haviour of the, 290a his, was so marred, 417b

in his mind, 301a

Visible, the, the true mystery, 389a

VISION AND VISIONS

baseless fabric of this vision, 311a divine visions and shadows, 480a fatal vision, 304a Heaven the vision sent, 95a is it a vision or a waking dream, 185b Vision and Visions—contd.

is visions about, 158b saw the vision of the world, 358b splendid vision, golden time, 193b the vision and the faculty divine, 401a the young men's vision, 123a to adore the vision, 380a visions of the night, 411a we have a vision of our own, 395b wise man sees as much as he ought, 730a write the vision, 419a your young men shall see visions, 419a, 426a VISIONARIES
ever looking for the never seen, 407b Fancy's fairy frost-work, 264b hunt half a day for a forgotten dream, 393b ten thousand great ideas filled his mind, 371a what is before one's feet no one looks at; they gaze at heaven, 640b whither is fled the visionary gleam, 400b

VISITS

angels' visits, short and bright, 238b like those of angels, 23a painful ceremony of visits, 334a the visit paid, with ecstasy we come, 68a Vita, nescere fallere, 651a Vita, qualis, finis ita, 737b Vita, quomodo fabula, 642a
Vital spark of heavenly flame, 254b Vivis patientia victa est, 581a Viva quien vence, 716b Vivat Rex, 686a
Vive hodie, 597b
Vive le vainqueur, 853b Vive memor quam sis avi brevis, 519b Vive, valeque, 686a Vivendi, modus, 579a, note Vivendo s' imparia, 804a Vivere parce, 577b Vivimus ambrosia paupertate, 543b Vivite fortes, 639b Vivre et le couvert, 701a Vix ea nostra voco, 583b Vix habet hora fidem, 568b Vixi (a joyful man who can say), 549a

Vizor, no, becomes villainy as flattery, 309a

Vocation, 'tis my, 313a

Voces, spargere ambiguas, 661a

Vociferance, abuse and, 36a

Vociferation, in sweet, 70a

Vogue la galère, 709b, note

VOICE AND VOICES

a dull, deep sound, 81a a still small voice, 410b a voice and nothing beyond, 687b an arrow like a sweet voice, 65b earth with her thousand voices, 86a give them voice and utterance, 100a having no voice I'll be clear of the singing, 445b her sad voice died away, 386a her voice was ever soft, 307a her voice, whate'er she said, enchanted, 264b his big manly voice, 289a his voice as the sound of many waters, 431b his voice left so charming on their ear, 257b

Voice and Voices—contd.

I am listening for the voices, 239a I hear a voice you cannot hear, 372a I thank you for your voices, 308a I will aggravate my voice, 280b in my dreaming ear (a voice), 68b inaudible to the vast multitude, 402a its familiar voice wearies not ever, 326a let me hear thy voice, 92b like the warble of a bird, 62b lost with hollaing and singing of anthems, 515a many different voices and languages, 687b music made of divers voices, 74b my voice stuck in my throat, 608a O for a falconer's voice, 278b proud, pathetic voice, 30a seasoned wit a gracious voice, 283a so charming left his voice, 220b soft as upper air, 127b sole daughter of his voice, 221a sound of a voice that is still, 359b sweet voice into silence went, 387a that rang ruin, 361a
the living voice moves men, 686a
the melting voice through mazes running, 224b the plaintive voice alone she hears, 270a the spoken voice perishes, 687b the voice is Jacob's voice, 409a the voice of one crying in the wilderness, 421a the voice of the people, 13a the voice of the people, voice of a god, 687b, note to follow where airy voices lead, 184b two voices of the sea and mountains, 395b vermin voices, 365a Voice and Verse, 227b voice of iron, 599a voices of birds and beasts, 31a what is the price of your voice, 642a whether the voice or lute were most divine, 233a ye have saft a voice, 262b Vold, beating in the, 6a left an aching, 95b the dreary, 56b Volcano, we are dancing on a, 703b Volcanoes, a range of exhausted
118b burnt out, 42b Volley o'er the grave, 110b Voltaire, 408b, note quotations from, 449a, b so witty, profligate and thin, 408b
the brilliant Frenchman, 96a Voluisse sat est, 641b Volume, no single, paramount, 397a the small rare, 134b within that awful, 274a Volumes turned, all the learned, 107a Voluptas, nocet emptia dolore, 661b Voluptas, trahit sua quemque, 672a Voluptuous ways, how soft are thy, 53b Vortigern, Prince, 23a Votress, the imperial, 280b Vote, is a, a coat, 354b early and often, 459a that shakes the turrets, 167b though we cannot out-, 179a to persuade Tommy Townshend to lend him a, 149a Voters, corruption by promises, 106a and bribery, 81a Votes for Everybody, these days of,

324a of veering crowds, 381b Vouloir c'est pouvoir, 873b VOW and VOWS better not vow than vow and not pay, 415b cancel all our vows, 121a cannot change nature, 35a ever brokers to defiling, 322b let us vow an eternal misery together, 240b made in storms are forgotten in calms, 866a men's vows are women's traitors, 309a much in our vows, 298a put me off with limber vows, 309b the honey of his music vows, 294a the vow I made to her in marriage, 292a the soul lends the tongue, 291b vow that binds too strictly snaps, 365b vows of lovers, 20a vows to the blackest devil, 296b vows with such passion, 195b we made exchange of vows, 279a Vox clamantis, 687b Vox faucibus hæsiti, 608a Vox omnibus una, 687b Vox populi, 687b, note Vox, viva, afficit, 686a Voyage, did you, all unspoken, 444b on, never thus could, 325b Vraiblesia, 116b
Vulcan's stithy, 294b VULGAR and VULGARITY a little vulgar boy, 16b a thing not vulgar because
common, 159b
a word unintelligible to men who stand high, 267a but by no means vulgar, 291a father is rather vulgar, 115b saved in vulgar company, 233b to take with the, a writer must be vulgar, 377a
vulgarity in concealment of truth, 267a who extol things vulgar, 222b walking fast a mark of vulgarity, 80b Vulgatur fama per urbem, 543b Vulgus, ignobile, 548a, 648a Vulture and a snake outspent, 326a rage of the, 56b to what, this carcase, 508b

W

Wacht am Rhein, 712a
Wade, bless General, 439a Wafer-cakes, men's faiths are, 316a Wägen, erst, dann wagen, 712b WAGERS

a wager is a fool's argument, 729a ducks lay eggs, geese lay wagers, 753b the virtue of a wager, 20a will back their own opinions with a wager, 58a

WAGES

bad workmen in favour of good wages, 215a
be content with your wages, 424b home art gone and ta'en thy wages, 309b of work lie in Heaven, 73a oppress the hireling in his wages, 419b

Wages—contd.

our praises are our wages, 309b scorn it as we do board-wages, 59b when wages are paid, work's over, 872a who serves well, may ask his wages, 781a
Waggons, creaking, long in passing,
749b empty, make most noise, 755a Waggon-spokes made of longspinnners' legs, 278a Wags, how the world, 288b Wahrheit, zwischen uns sei, 714b Wail, to, or knock the breast, 224a Waist and middle of the night, 290b,
note
her, is ampler than her life, 167b what a, for an arm, 197a with the zoneless, 99b Waists, most women have small,
372b

Waistcoats, flannel, 111b

WAIT and WAITING

all things come to those who wait, 330a, 758b
I wait for evermore, 162a
long expected comes at last, 804b make 'em wait, 263a only stand and wait, 227a to wait and not to arrive, 714a wait and see, 244b, 460a Waiter, half a crown if you look at
the, 111a
Waiting-gentlewoman, talk so like
a, 313b
Waiting-woman, business of a poor, 128b Wake or sleep, do I, 185b survived her own, 206a to agony, 175b to, when one would wish to sleep, 175b we should have shone at a, 83b Waked, I, she fled, 227b Wakin', a sudden, 244a

WALES

fiery love for their own land, 380b leaks and toasted cheese, 438a

WALK, WALKING

a succession of falls (walking), 725b enjoy such quiet walks, 317b great talkers, little walkers, 770a I nauseate walking, 92a never walk fast, 80b these happy walks and shades, 221b walk a mile after supper, 137a walk before and after supper, 664b whene'er I take my walks abroad, 382a

WALL and WALLS

bare walls make giddy housewives, 740a
Britain's wooden walls, 447b do not a prison make, 200b four walls and a ceiling, 443b have ears, 866a
he is a fool who writes his name upon a wall, 729b middle wall of partition, 429b my own four walls, 72b this be our wall of metal, 543a to lean against a falling wall, 551a unnecessary to brave men, 684a weakest must go to the wall, 852b white walls are fools' writing-paper, 663b, 729b, 874a wooden walls, 4a words build no walls, 45* Wallace bled, wi', 49a

Wallace, Sir Wm., 515a

Wallenstein's horse, 443b Waller was smooth, 253a Walleys, the two, 618b, note, 677a Walnut tree, woman, a dog, and a, 730a who plants, expects not to eat the fruit, 875b

Walnuts and the wine, 357a

Waltham's calf, as wise as, 739b

Walton, Izaak, 65b

Wait and war, votary of, 60b

Wand, throw the, while it is green, 858a

WANDERERS

a wanderer from the narrow way, 95b all the long years I've been wandering, 232a child their wanderings, but relieved their pain, 148a direct his wandering, 349b he who dwells everywhere dwells nowhere, 639a short way by a long wandering, 6b

the wise wanderer, 89b

wanderers o'er Eternity, 55a

wanderers of the street, 397a

Wanity, vich is your particular, 112b

WANT and WANTS a thousand wants gnarr at the heels of men, 363a as an armed man, 413b

born of plenty is bad, 572a government to provide for human wants, 41a
he wants least who desires least,
560a man wants but little, 406a not as we wanted, 262a our real wants, 83a our wants purely imaginary, 268a prayer of want, 19b
seem to want what you do not,
492b the less a man needs the nearer he approaches divinity, 470b
the more men have the more they
want, 545a
those that want and those that have, 358a makes strife, 771b mother (or mistress) of industry (or invention), 814a of a thing, perplexing; possession intolerable, 375b want passed for merit, 125b wants of Nature few, 404b wit's whetstone, 356a

WAR and WARS

a game kings would not play at,
100b a gospel of war and damnation, 354b a mistake not allowable twice in war, 449a
a narrative of wars, 99b a polis force to prevent war, 129b a war and a debt, and a flag, 202b abstract war is horrid, 202a advantageous to many, 543b after shout of war the darts begin to fly, 622b after the war, help, 474a an essential condition of war, 324a an hour of good fortune worth more than a letter of Venus to Mars, 621b and physis governed by the eye, 866a any sort of peace better than civil war, 556a, note

War and Wars—contd.

apparatus belli, the equipments of war, 491*a* Ares hates those who hesitate, 468*b* arms of little avail abroad, without good counsel at home, 616*a* art of, getting to other side of the hill, 384*a* art of, perfection of human knowledge, 108*a* at war twist will and will not, 299*b* begets Poverty, 434*b* British blockade won the war, 324*a* British blockhead nearly lost it, 324*a* Byron on war, 53*b* child of pride, 347*b* civil war, nothing safer than speed in, 592*a* civil war, let us keep from, 612*a* civil war, wretched to conquer in, 676*b* civil wars, all things wretched in, 612*a* civil wars, which leave no cause of triumph, 496*a* clothe thee in war, arm in peace, 748*b* commonplace against war, 39*b* cut each other's throats for pay, 149*b* dauntless in war, 270*a* delays dangerous in war, 128*b* diminishes love of truth, 180*b* drifting into war, 458*b* ease after war, 339*b*
 endless money the sinews of war, 590*b* enters where wealth allures, 124*b* epithets of war, 300*a* even to the knife, 53*b*, and note fear of war is worse than war, 618*a*, 844*a* fierce wars and faithful loves, 339*a* flinty and steel couch of war, 301*a* force and fraud, cardinal virtues of war, 166*b* fortune of, 455*b* give me a life of, 510*a* giving way stops all war, 766*a* glorious by proud war, 211*a* greater things than war, 117*a* grim-visaged war, 318*a* guilty madness of war, 647*b* he ever sang of wars, 652*b* heart of the citizen hissing in war, 363*b* I bear in my hand war and death, 496*a* if there were no fools there would be no war, 790*a* ill comes upon war's back, 791*b* in a state of war by nature, 348*a* in the trade of war, 300*b* is a tyrant, 451*a* is death's feast, 866*b* is it the clash of arms? 530*a* is the statesman's game, 325*a* it is not allowed to err twice in war, 599*a* its cause no mortal knew, 110*a* just to those to whom it is necessary, 563*a* kindled in war, 68*a* land of war and crimes, 53*b*
 lawless man the anvil dares profane, 355*a* laws dumb in midst of arms, 658*a*, note lays a burden, 96*b*

War and Wars—contd.

leniency in (pax in bello), 617*b* let slip the dogs of, 286*a* let war be now the judge, 669*a* long preparation, in order to conquer quickly, 517*a* mad, I take arms, 492*a* magnificent, but not war, 690*a* makes thieves, 866*b* man beats out the deadly sword, 555*a* Mars, unscrupulous, rages through the world, 648*a* millions (of murders) made a hero, 258*a* money the sinews of war, 811*b* more serious, concealed beneath peace, 574*a* my sentence is for open war, 217*a* my voice is still for war, 1*b* neither storm nor war lasts for ever, 731*b* never a good war, 140*b* no friends dearer than after war, 195*a*, note no safety in war, 603*a* no war, nor battle's sound, 227*b* no war, they cried out, 41*a*, note not done as long as my enemy lives, 852*b* not the longest sword conquers, but the longest purse, 796*a* nothing to be despised in war, 592*a* numbers sanctified the crime, 258*a* of all against all, 562*b* opinion nine parts in ten in war, 350*b* our swords shall play the orator, 208*b* peace always its final aim, 711*a* pedantic art of war, 31*b* persons maimed in, should be maintained by public, 450*b* pestilence and war, 530*b* Pity shuns the walks of war, 106*b* pride, pomp, and circumstance of war, 302*a* Prohibition a result of the war, 195*a* province of God to end war, 618*a* province of kings to bring about war, 618*a* purple testament of bleeding war, 312*b* resentment aroused by war, 385*a* results of, are uncertain, 554*b* reward of merit in war, 496*a* rolled back the tide of war, 271*b* scorched with the flames of, 211*a* should be neither feared nor provoked, 496*a* show the monster as she is, 196*a* silence the soul of war, 259*b* sinews of war, 11*a*, 130*a* slaughter by chemistry and machinery, 323*b* sow the pretexes of war, 516*b* spares the bad and takes the good, 368*b* sparks that kindle fiery war, 100*b* stant belli causæ, 662*a* sweet to those who have not tried, it, 519*a* talk of camps, but stay at home, 839*a* that monster that delights in war, 256*b* the brazen throat of war, 222*a* the hired assassin's trade, 325*a* the lawyer's jest, 325*a*

War and Wars—contd.

the love of deciding by warlike means, 657*b* the needy bankrupt's last resort, 266*b*
 the noble art of murdering, 368*a* the only study of a prince, 453*b* the priest's delight, 325*a* the right of, let him take who can, 692*a* the trade of kings, 129*a* the trade of war, 51*a* then was the tug of war, 195*b* thousand wars of old, 363*a* Thy most dreaded instrument, 397*b*, note to be conducted so that only peace is sought, 496*a* to be prepared for war, 379*a* to be undertaken for sake of peace, 496*a*
 to kindle war by song, 574*a*
 to the wars, my boy, 299*a* truth-telling incompatible with defence of realm, 324*a* violent war prelude to prosperous peace, 808*b* war, he sung, is toil and trouble, 126*a* war, hunting law, full of trouble, 866*a* war raging (flagrante bello), 533*b* war, war, is still the cry, 53*b* war of all against all, 496*a* war was in his heart, 412*b* war, who breaks the converse of the wise, 361*b* war's glorious art (murder), 404*b* war's great sacrifice, 106*b* wars and rumours of wars, 423*b* wars atone for people's luxury, 569*a* wars bring scars, 866*b* wars, frightful wars, 496*a* wars hateful to mothers, 582*b* what can war but endless war still breed, 227*a* when looked on as vulgar, 388*b* when war begins, hell opens, 872*a* where drums speak laws are dumb, 872*b*, note where mingles war's rattle, 269*b* where there's a war there's a way, 874*a* whilst regarded as wicked war will have fascinations, 388*b* who makes a good war makes a good peace, 780*a* who preaches up war is the devil's chaplain, 780*b* withered is the garland of the war, 307*b* See Sword
 War Office, British, 323*a* Warburton, Johnson on, 178*b* Ward, Artemus, 263*b*
 Ward in Chancery, pretty young, 146*b* Ware, the great bed at, 134*b* Wares, every man praises his own, 757*b* Wares, like merchants, show our foulest, 298*b* WARM and WARMTH he is wise enough who can keep himself warm, 774*b* he warms too near that burns, 783*a* I wanted warmth and colour, 366*a* lack of kindly warmth, 308*b* let people laugh as long as I am warm, 800*b* their soft ethereal warmth, 217*b*

Warm and Warmth—contd.

warm, as the subject on which I am got, 349*b* warm, when one's in bed, 350*b* warm yourself while the fire burns, 807*a* warmest clad sit nearest the fire, 852*b*
who is warm thinks all so, 779*b* Warm-hearted but of semblance cold, 266*a*

WARNING

a man warned is half-armed, 763*a* forewarned is forearmed, 763*a* his warning deed, 387*a* præmonitus, præmonitus, 623*b* take example from other people's danger, 619*b*
to warn, to comfort, and command, 393*a* Troy fell because Cassandra was disbelieved, 500*b* warning song sung in vain, 96*b* Warren's blacking, 112*a*

WARRIOR, WARRIORS

home they brought her warrior
dead, 360*b*
painful warrior, famed for fight, 321*b* plaided warriors of the North, 271*b*
warrior taking his rest, 391*b* who is the happy warrior, 399*b* with his shield of pride, 399*a* Warwickshire, the heart of England, 121*a*

Wary is the word, 866*b* then, be, best safety lies in fear, 291*a*

Washed against Unwashed, 266*b*,
note

Washerwoman, in mourning for his,
774*a*

Washing, always, and never getting finished, 157*a*
all will come out in the, 716*b*, 734*a* of dishes, there's no, 445*a* what worship is there not in mere,
632*b*, note

Washington, last words of, 379*a* where, hath left his awful memory, 336*a*

Wasp is most impertinent, 143*b* Wasps' nest, to put one's hand in a, 862*a*

Wasps haunt the honey-pot, 866*b* Waspish, when you are, 286*b*

Wasteful hand, blessings with a, 2*b*

WASTE

he may know how to waste, but will not know how to give, 618*b* I have lost my oil and labour, 609*a* I'm not grandeur, 209*b* makes want, 771*b*
the work perishes fruitlessly, 613*a* throw crumbs on the fire and you are feeding the devil, 790*b* to what purpose is this waste, 424*a* waste not, want not, 866*b* waste of mighty waters, 370*a* waste of waters, 62*b* wasted his substance, 424*b* wondrous waste of pains, 81*b* wilful waste makes woeful want,
876*a*

Waste-paper, make as much, as the rest, 127*a*
to spare, 619*b*

Watch and pray, 424*a* between me and thee, the Lord, 409*a*

goes to sleep upon his, 39*b* in the night, as a, 413*a*

Watch, some must, 295*a* to babble and talk, for the, 284*b* to-night, pray to-morrow, 314*a* Watch, a man like a, to be valued for his goings, 725*a* drew a dial from his poke, 288*b* none go just alike, 246*a* that wants both hands, 98*b* we conjecture it to be the god that he worships, 347*a* you may be a wise man though you can't make a, 879*b* Watch-dog's bark, honest, 62*a* Watched pot never boils, 866*b* Watchfires and stars that of old shone, 352*a* Watchman, what of the night, 417*a* Watchmen, seven, that sit in an high tower, 420*b* Watchword, the better, 88*a* a pleasure in, ungrudged, 523*b*

WATER AND WATERS

a weary waste of waters, 336*b* Adam's ale is the best brew, 731*b* Adam's crystal ale, 461*b* all the wicked are water-drinkers, 708*a*
as good water goes by the mill as drives it, 738*a* as the sound of many waters, 431*b* becomes corrupt unless kept in motion, 686*a* best fishing in deepest water, 793*a* beware of still water, 501*b*, 744*b* breaks out when not expected, 852*b*
brought when the house is burnt, 871*a* cast not forth the old, till the new be in, 747*a* come ye to the waters, 418*a* dirty water does not wash clean, 752*a*
do business in the great waters, 413*a*
do not throw away till you have obtained more water, 585*b* dreadful noise of water in mine ears, 318*b*
drink no longer water, 430*a* foul water will quench fire, 763*b* from a duck's back, 863*a* glory spreads like a circle in water, 37*a*
good fishing in drumbling waters, 795*b*
good servant, bad master, 761*a* he drinks even water by measure, 485*a*
he is not thirsty who will not
drink water, 774*a*
he paints the water, 775*b* he seeks water in the sea, 552*a* hell of waters, 55*b* here the water sticks, 543*a* here's to you in water, 461*b* I came like water, 136*a* I'm very fond of water, 237*b* in imperceptible water, 173*a* in triumph o'er the waters wide, 57*a*
in water you may see your own face, 793*a* trotted water is as good as oats, 866*b*
leadeth me beside the still waters, 412*a*
let none say I will not drink water, 800*b*
like standing water, 23*a* little drops of water, 74*a*
many drops of water will sink a
ship, 807*b*

Water and Waters—contd.

much water goeth by the mill, 813*a*
never drink water in month containing an "r," 824*a* none obtainable to thee, Tantalus, 671*a* o'er the glad waters, 57*a* once more upon the waters, 54*a*
one whose name was written in
water, 445*a*
over the waste of waters, 62*b* pure water is the best of gifts, 237*b*, note
seeking water in midst of water, 629*a*
sea complains for want of water, 850*b*
smile on the brow of the waters, 443*b*
smoothly the waters kist, 227*b* still waters run deep, 837*b* stolen waters are sweet, 413*b* Tantalus clutches at the water, 668*a*
the conscious water saw its God, 104*a*, 682*b*
the great street paved with water, 209*a*
the more the well is used, the more water it gives, 848*b* the noblest of elements, 468*b* the rising world of waters, 218*a* the waters wild, 69*a* they drank the water clear, 162*a* to search for water in mid-stream, 557*a*
too much of water hast thou, 296*b* under water, famine, 865*a* unpathed waters, 310*b* unstable as water, 409*a* water afar off quencheth not fire, 866*b*
water, air, cleanliness, 450*b* water of affliction, 410*b* water of the pump (aqua pumpaginis), 491*a* water, water, everywhere, 86*b* water-drinkers' verses cannot please long, 603*a*
waters on a starry night, 400*b* waters were his winding-sheet, 17*a* we never know worth of, till the well is dry, 867*a* who drink water will think water, 439*b*
world of waters, 370*a* written in the running water, 581*a* you are writing in water, 551*a* Waterbury, can get on without going to, 28*a* Water-colour, amateur painting in,
343*b*
she also painted in, 445*a* Waterloo, that world-earthquake,
361*a*
Waterman, a jolly young, 110*b* Water-rights, a fruitful source of contention, 373*a* Wattie, did you ever hear of Captain, 111*a*

WAVE AND WAVES

a picture in every wave, 233*b* a wave for her winding-sheet, 376*a* cool, translucent wave, 225*b* for a winding-sheet a wave, 128*b* great wave that echoes round the
world, 364*b*
Him that walked the waves, 226*b* I wish you a wave o' the sea, 310*a* salt waves dashing o'er him, 203*b* striving against adverse waves,
639*b*

Wave and Waves—contd.

sunk beneath the wave, 102a the sons of the waves, 141b the strong broken spirit of a wave, 351b
the wavy waste, 170a thy proud waves, 412a to number the waves, 608b
to sow the waves, 861a
undisturbed among fierce waves, 647b wave that reflects in its bosom, 70a waves bound beneath me, 54a waves lift up their voice, 260a waves make towards the pebbled
shore, 321b
waves that seem to jostle, 6b which has passed will not be recalled, 587b

Waves you to a more removed ground, 291b

Wax and parchment, 40a as a man fashions a face in, 528a to receive, 58b who has a head of, must not walk in the sun, 777b

WAY and WAYS

a long, forlorn, uncomfortable
way, 256b
a more excellent way, 428a all ways lie open to money, 287b

another way must be tried, 487b dim and perilous way, 401b, note everyone to go his own way, 676a furthest way about 's the nearest way home, 845a

he knows not the way, 559b he who shows the way to one who has missed it, 546a

I knew there was but one way, 316a

I see them on their winding way, 160a

I was the first to discover this
way, 544b

long is the way and hard, 217b longest way round, nearest about,
728a

man yet mistakes his way, 101b marshall'st me the way that I was going, 304a

more ways to the wood than one,
854a

old-established ways, 662b, note seeking a way and straying from the way, 318a

sooner lose than ask their way, 82b the indirect way often better than the direct, 647b

the shortest way the foulest, 8b the way is an ill neighbour, 852b the way was long, 271b these are parts of his ways, 411b this is the way, walk ye in it, 177b way of all the earth, 410a ways that are dark, 158a your ways not my ways, 418a

Wayfaring man, lone, 67a

"We," put it down a, 112a

WEAK, WEAKNESS

a feeble and ineffectual dart, 669a a feeble body makes a weak mind, 709a

a man of such a feeble temper, 285a

all wickedness comes of weakness, 708b amiable weaknesses, 144a conceit in weakest bodies, 295b concessions of the weak, 40a

Weak, Weakness—contd.

does them by the weakest minister, 299a

draws strength from weakness, 753b

envy is proud weakness, 9a
every man has his weak side, 757a

God strikes the weak with less power, 577b

if to be weak is to be wretched, 401b

if weakness may excuse, 223b justice inclined to the weaker side, 52a

let weakness learn meekness, 354b mighty weak, 243a

my strength is made perfect in
weakness, 429a

no weakness, no contempt, 224a of a poor and feeble mind in everything, 514a

owning her weakness, 169a sand without lime, 492a stronger by weakness, 377b the thread breaks where weakest, 851b

the weakest must go to the wall, 852b

to be weak is miserable, 216a weak men had need to be witty, 867a

weak minds led captive, 222b weak to do is weaker to lament, 327a weakest always has wrong, 852b weakest camp the strongest school, 81a weakest goes to the wall, 277b weakness is not in your word, 5a weakness that he never felt, 2a weakness that subdues the strong, 35a

when you know a man's failing, you can please him, 706a

wiles help weak folk, 876a willows are weak but bind other wood, 876a

Weal and woe, human, 19b or woe, shall not always be so, 740b

or wo, source of (Venus), 152a

WEALTH
a good servant, 13a

a rich man either a villain or a
villain's heir, 517a

a wealthy woman unbearable, 558a

acquired betimes must be saved betimes, 632a acquisition a toil, possession a terror, 517b

admiration of, corrupts manners, 506b

all ask if he is wealthy; none if he is good, 490a allurement of, cause of war, 124b an incarnation of fat dividends, 342a as the carle riches, he wretches, 739a

bags of cares, 261a bear wealth; poverty will bear
itself, 740b

beat a pathway out to wealth and
fame, 359b

beauty and wealth, 601a better after poverty than poverty after riches, 830a boundless his wealth, 272b by any means get wealth and

place, 253a

care follows increasing wealth, 507b

Wealth—contd.

contentment not in wealth, 107a contests for riches, 578b corpulence, if not disease, 407a crime enough to him that's poor, 109a

curse on ill-gotten wealth, 137a does not expel cares, 597a does not lie in wait for wealth, 399b enjoyment limited in spite of wealth 373b

everything goes to him who wants
nothing, 758b

evidence of great wealth, 645b excess of, cause of covetousness, 208a filled their purses by pury-verance, 173b

first, as to his fortune, 626b for one rich man content a hundred are not, 763a full of fear, 671a gathering gear is a pleasant pain, 764b

gear is easier gained than guided,
764b

glory of wealth transient, 517b great riches are exposed to danger, 673b grew suddenly to wealth, like a mushroom, 664b had done wonders, 63b has been over-valued, 878a he has wealth who knows how to use it, 634b

he is most loved that hath most bags, 787b

he is rich enough who does not
want bread, 649a

he is rich indeed whom God loves, 774b

he is richest that hath fewest wants, 774b

he most enjoys who least needs, 560a

honest man should fear getting more than he deserves, 344b how wealth may be increased,

98b

I applaud myself when I gaze at my coffers, 622b

I ask not (wealth), 344b I don't 'old with wealth, 384b if we command our wealth, 42a in individuals wealth, poverty as regards the public, 539b in the home, 645a is happiness produced by? 678b is power, 40b it costs no more to amass great wealth than little, 793b joined with Virtue, 230a judge not a man according to his wealth, 659b

labour robbed out of the poor, 384b let me be called worst as long as I am rich, 658a

let wealth prevail, 683a like rheum, falls on the weakest parts, 867a

little wealth, little care, 804a little wealth, little sorrow, 804a loss of, more deplored than loss of friends, 571b mad lust for wealth, 614a majesty of, is most sacred with us, 630a

makes lords of mechanics, 108a makes one dance, 799a makes wit waver, 867a makes worship, 867a

Wealth—contd.

man of wealth dubbed a man of worth, 253a many unhappy because of great riches, 582b many would have been worse if their estates had been better, 806b may seek us, 407b men get wealth, women keep it, 810a Midas rocked the cradle, 173a
 no just man ever became rich all at once, 476b no man was ever as rich as all men ought to be, 816b no pride greater than that of a poor man grown rich, 855b not always an end of distresses, 582a nothing appertaining to a wealthy man is secret, 606a O rich lord, thou livest not for all time, 606a opens but to golden keys, 358b pander to all sin, 144b power begets wealth, 100b prefer reputation to wealth, 473a proud by reason of, 566b rank and valour useless without, 524b rich in lands and invested money, 517a
 rich men have no faults, 830a riches are not disgrace, 826a riches breed care, poverty is safe, 830a riches corrupted the age with vile luxury, 624a riches do not come in a few hours, 830a riches given only to the wealthy, 652b riches have wings, 830a riches make more covetous men than covetousness makes rich, 830a riches needful for greatness, 222b riches often abused, never refused, 830a sanctions folly, 663b should be found everywhere, 40b some glory in their wealth, 322a the Chrematistic art, 135b the conjuror's devil, 162b the greatest wealth, poverty of desires, 665b the precious bane, 216b
 the rich knows not who is his friend, 850b the rich need not beg a welcome, 850b
 the rich never want kindred, 850b the sacred majesty of wealth, 558a the wealth ye find another keeps, 327a the world's chief idol, 345b there is no revenge on the rich, 855b they ask not wherefore or whence, but how much you have, 600a they well deserve to have wealth, 313a they whom I favour thrive in wealth, 222b though your threshing floor be vast, your stomach will not hold more than mine, 577a unknown weight of silver and gold, 548b viewed his modest wealth, 85b virtue, fame and honour all subject to wealth, 612b

Wealth—contd.

wallowing in well-saved wealth, 82a wealthiest man among us is the best, 396b wealthy curled darlings, 300b what you give away is the only lasting wealth, 631a when riches increase the body decreaseth, 870b where wealth accumulates, 148a who games is felon of his wealth, 94a who would be rich in a year will be hanged in half a year, 830a whose wealth was want, 339b worth without wealth is a good servant out of place, 878a See Fortune, Rich WEAPONS broken weapons, 301a he threw a feeble and ineffectual dart, 669a put away the weapon, 625b what weapons hath the lion, 185b Wear out, better, than rust out, 744a Weare, Mr. William, 442a WEARY, WEARINESS
 all things are full of weariness, 415a art thou weary, 237b be not weary in well-doing, 429b, 430a how weary, stale, flat, and unprofitable, 290b it wearies, me, you say it wearies you, 281b the weariness, the fever, and the fret, 185a the weary ox is more sure on his feet, 852a to the weary the ground is a bed, 531a weariness can snore upon the flint, 309a weariness may toss him to my breast, 164a weariness not on your brow, 5a weary and old with service, 320a weary be at rest, 411a Wearing, everything is the worse for, 759a Weasel sucks eggs, as a, 288b backed like a, 295a quarrelous as the, 309a Weave the warp, 155a WEATHER
 as the devil said to Noah, "It's bound to clear up," 739a beautiful, but we shall suffer for this by and by, 333a change of, the discourse of fools, 747a Englishmen talk of the weather, 180b first it rained and then it snow, 443b I like the weather, 58b it's pity fair weather should do harm, 797b it's very bad weather, 15a king could not command weather, 242b no weather ill if the wind be still, 817b none warmer than after watery clouds, 195a plaguy twelve-penny weather, 350b rain or no rain, Jove cannot please all, 476b talk about weather, 98a

Weather—contd.

usually fine when people are courting, 343b wait till night before saying it has been a fine day, 827a we will not woo foul weather, 169b what's good for the plant is ill for the peat, 864b Winter chills the lap of May, 147b See Climate, Climes, Winds WEATHER PROVERBS
 a bushel of March dust is worth a king's ransom, 718b a cherry year a merry year, 718b a cold April the barn will fill, 719a a pear year a dear year, 726a
 a plum year a dumb year, 718b, note a snow year a rich year, 728a all the months curse a fair Februeer, 733b all weather good to a child, 859b an April flood carries away frog and brood, 735a April borrows three days of March, 737b, 808b as many mists in March as frosts in July, 738b Bartholomew (Aug. 24) brings the cold dew, 830b bathe in May, you'll lig in clay, 747a beans should blow before May go, 740b button to chin till May be in, 747a calm weather in June, 719b, 746b cast not a clout till May be out, 747a cock-crow at evening indicates rain, 789b cold May and windy, 374b, 719a dripping June brings all in tune, 719b dry August and warm, 374b, 753b effects of the four winds on weather, 462b evening red and morning grey, 755b fair Candlemas, foul Lent, 788a fair day in winter, mother of a storm, 720a February fill dyke, 374b, 760b February which gives snow, promises a fine summer, 760b flowers in May, fine cocks of hay, 761b
 for a morning rain leave not your journey, 762b Friday's moon unlucky, 462b Friday's weather uncertain, 763b frost on St. Thomas' day lowers price of corn, 463a good winter brings good summer, 722b gossamer flying, the air is drying, 872b
 hail brings frost in the tail, 770b hops you may have till James's day, 859a hot May makes a full churchyard, 723b if August 24 be fair, hope for a prosperous autumn, 789b if Candlemas day be fair and bright, 788a if it rains, well; if it shine, well, 789a if July 1 be rainy, rain will follow for four weeks, 780b if St. Paul be fair and clear, 789a if the cock moult before the hen, 463a if the grass grow in Janiveer, 789b

Weather Proverbs—contd.

if the ice bear before Christmas, 789^b
 leaky May and dry June, 723^b light Christmas, light wheat-sheaf, 801^b mad dog better than a hot sun in January, 789^b March borrows three (ill) days of April, 808^b March comes in like a lion, 808^b March dust, 374^b
 March dust and a shower in May, 918^b March dust worth a king's ransom, 726^b March grass never did good, 808^b March in January a bad sign, 808^b March many weathers, 808^b, note March winds and April showers, 462^b May flood never did good, 726^a, 809^b May will make the cow quake, 809^b month with two full moons will be wet, 797^a morning sun seldom ends well, 726^a no weather ill if the wind be still, 817^b on St. David's day sow oats and barley, 865^a on Valentine's day will a good goose lay, 820^b rain before seven, fine before eleven, 829^a rain in February worth as much as manure, 760^b rain in May makes bread for the year, 809^b rain on Good Friday and Easter Day, good for grass, bad for hay, 829^a rain on June 8 foretells wet harvest, 789^a rain valuable between Martinmas and Yule, 463^a rainbow at morning (or at night), 462^b, 727^a rainy Easter a cheese year, 718^b St. Matthias (Feb. 24) sends sap into the tree, 830^b St. Mattheo (Feb. 24), take thy hopper and sow, 830^b St. Thomas' day, midday wind will remain three months, 463^a St. Valentine, set thy hopper by mine, 830^b Saturday new and Sunday full moon bring bad weather, 462^b September blow soft till the fruit's in the loft, 832^b shear sheep in May and shear them away, 833^b shepherd's fear of sunshine on Candlemas day, 733^b shower in July worth a plough of oxen, 728^a small rain lays a great wind, 835^a snow lies on a hot stone after Candlemas, 869^b sow barley when the sloe-tree is white, 817^b sow beans in Candlemas waddle, 836^b the full moon brings fair weather, 845^a the morning sun lasts never a day, 848^b thunder in March makes one say "alas," 729^b time to cock your hay and corn, when the old donkey brays, 796^b

Weather Proverbs—contd.

when April blows his horn it's good for hay and corn, 869^b, note when ash is before oak, we are sure of a soak, 870^b when black snails cross your path, 869^b when clouds appear like rocks and towers, 869^b when oak's before ash, only a splash, 870^b when the clouds are on the hills, 871^a when the moon is on her back, 871^b when the peacock bawls, rain and squalls are denoted, 871^b when the sand doth feed the clay, 871^b, note when there is a halo round the moon, 871^b windy March and rainy April make beautiful May, 729^b windy March forecasts a fine May, 808^b windy year an apple year, 718^b winter's thunder a summer's wonder, 729^b winter's thunder and summer's flood, 876^b Weathercock for every wind, 124^a not a, 40^b on a steeple, 281^a Weathercocks turn more easily when high-placed, 867^a Weavers' beef (sprats), 867^a Weavers, tailors and millers, 755^b Weaving, throwing the shuttle without weaving, 861^b Web, what a tangle, 270^a Webs of more than common size, 82^a to weave spiders', 491^b WED, WEDLOCK, WEDDING abstain wholly, or wed, 162^a bought her wedding clothes, 3^a forced wedlock a hell, 317^a had not on a wedding garment, 423^a hail wedded love, 219^b none wed the second but who killed the first, 295^a wedded men live in sorrow, 78^a wed (den) after hir estat, 77^a wedlock compared to public feasts, 107^b wedlock is a padlock, 867^a wedlock's a very awful thing, 173^b wedlock's the devil, 59^b whom we have wedded but have never won, 380^a woman's born to wed, 240^a Wedge, blunt, will do, where a sharp axe will not, 718^a thin end of, is to be feared, 851^b Wedges of gold, great anchors, 318^b Wee things, th' expectant, 44^a WEED AND WEEDS
 a weed that grows in every soil, 40^a call us not weeds, 7^a great weeds do grow apace, 319^a he that bites on every weed must light on poison, 776^a herbs or weeds, 11^a I am as a weed, 54^a ill weeds grow apace, 792^a ill weeds last longest, 792^a ill weeds not injured by frost, 792^a o'er a weed or a flower, 16^b pernicious weed (tobacco), 97^b secret of a weed's plain heart, 201^a Weed and Weeds—contd.

these remain weeds windshaken, 354^b thou weed, who art so lovely fair, 302^b weeds and tares of my own brain, 28^b weeds o'ergoes the corn, 852^b weeds want no sowing, 867^a Week, the burden of the, lies there, 163^b Week-days trail upon the ground, 163^b Weekly drawl, his, 97^a WEEP, WEeping
 a little weeping would ease my heart, 171^b a pleasure in weeping, 524^a all things are cause for laughter or weeping, 495^a bid me to weep, 165^a by weeping we disperse our wrath, 533^b English race best at weeping, 456^b I cannot choose but weep, 296^a I weep for you, the Walrus said, 120^a men will weep for him, 68^b mine is not a weeping Muse, 62^a O, now you weep, 286^b
 only human eyes can weep, 209^a scorn the proud man ashamed to weep, 405^b the bitterest weeping, 25^a to make the laugher weep, 322^b to weep for joy is a kind of manna, 862^a weep and you weep alone, 387^b weep no more, lady, 243^a weep no more, nor sigh nor groan, 138^b weep not, nor pity thine own life, 236^a weep not, O friend, we should not weep, 266^a weep not for her, 228^b weep with them that weep, 427^a weeping in the playtime of the others, 30^b weeping and gnashing of teeth, 423^a weeping of an heir, laughter under a mask, 541^a weeping, spinning, deceit, 77^b weeping the ease of woe, 104^a weeps, why these, 27^b wilt thou weep when I am low, 61^a ye waiting hearts that weep, 445^a WEIGHT and measure take away strife, 867^a good weight and measure is heaven's treasure, 769^a made steadfast by its own weight, 92^b take me on your back and you will know my weight, 838^b the enormous weight could raise, 256^b trust not a great weight to a slender thread, 863^b weigh justly, sell dearly, 867^a who is weighty is willing to be weighed, 783^b Wein, Weib, und Gesang, 714^b Weird may be her ain, 49^a WELCOME
 as snow in harvest, 773^b as the first day in Lent, 773^b as the flowers in May, 207^b as water in a riven ship, 773^b bay deep-mouthed welcome, 62^a

- Welcome—contd.
do not wear out your welcome, 753a ever smiles, 298b
leave a welcome behind you, 800a out-stayed his welcome, 87a such a welcome, such a farewell, 838a the best cheer, 867a the coming guest, 252b, 257b the oftener you come the more we'll adore you, 444a the rich need not beg, 850b they are welcome that bring, 857a you'll find thousands of welcomes, 444a
- Welcome, friend (Death), 104a Welfare, each for other's, 44a Welkin rings, hark how all the, 385a
- WELL
all shall be well, 280b all's well that ends well, 734b as well's I want ye, 47a do well and right, 164a I would do ever well, 76a if we do well here, 199b is worth doing, 80a it is well, 379a let well alone, 801a merit in doing well, 82a no man doth well but God hath part in him, 353a nothing but well and fair, 224a we never do anything well till we cease to think of manner of doing it, 159b well-doing is my wealth, 338a well, well, is a word of malice, 867b when I did well I heard it never, 870a
- Well-bred man, sensible and, 97b Well-connected, treat not with scorn the, 146b Well-favoured man, to be a, 284b
- WELLS
buckets into empty wells, 100a
no use pumping a dry well, 797b
not so deep as a well, 270b
the more the well is used, the more water it gives, 848b when the well is full it will run over, 871b - Weller, Mr., on railways, 113a Wellington, Duke of, motto, 622b, 684b
- Welshman, fear of a fair February, 733b Welshman's jackdaw, paid it with thinking, 831a Weltering in his blood, 125b
- WEST
going west, 456b
I've wandered west, 237a law comes from the west, 527a sinks temperately to the west, 184b the further he went west, 333b the west land, the fine land, 209a West is West, 189b westward the course of empire, 22a west wind, a warm wind, 209a when the wind is west the weather is best, 871b
- Western God, the shore of the, 456b Westminster Abbey, 20a, 41b and St. Paul's shapeless ruins, 206a, note friendly shade of, 5b not in the Abbey proudly laid, 383b
- Westminster Abbey, that temple of silence and reconciliation, 206a Victory, or Westminster Abbey, 457a
- Wet sheet and a flowing sea, 105a Whale, very like a, 295a Wharton, scorn and wonder of our days, 250b What, he knew what's, 51a What is what, he that knoweth, 403b What is what, woot I never, 167a Wheat, sow in dirt, 836b the best vegetable, 840b two grains of, hid in two bushels of chaff, 282a
- Wheeling arts, the, 143a Wheel about, ever goeth the, 152a broken at the cistern, 416a fly on the chariot-wheel, 117b giddy round of Fortune's, 321b giddy wheel of fortune, 240b has come full circle, 307a in the midst of a wheel, 418b make them like unto a, 433b, note misfortune's, 67b sitting at her merry, 240b worst, creaks most, 853b - Wheels, the hindmost, 127a within wheels, 869a, note who greases his, helps his oxen, 874b
- Wheelbarrow, drunk as a, 738a Whence and what art thou, 217b Where, echo answers, 56b gentle shepherd, tell me, 174b is it? cries out, 85b Wherefore, seek not the, 74b Wherries must not put out to sea, 874a
- Wherry, my trim-built, 110b Whet, a, is no let, 729a Whetstone of wits, 288a, 555b, note the office of a, 537a, note to cut the, with a razor, 507b you shall have the, 880a
- WHIGS
asked me whether I was whig or tory, 347a caught the whigs bathing, 118a he hated a whig, 181a let Whig and Tory stir their blood, 359a Tory and Whig will agree, 179b Whig, the name of a faction, 181b Whiggism, an evil habit, 390a whigs allow no force but argument, 29b
whigs and tories, 342b
whigs call me a tory, 252b whigs not getting into place, 65a whigs grow dumb, 232a
- Whim, that soul of, 251b Whimsey the female guide, 153a
- WHIP AND WHIPS
a hangman's, 47a maketh a mark in the flesh, 420b my father chastised you with whips, 410b pens cut more keen than whips, 356a put in every honest hand a whip, 302b whip me such honest knaves, 300b
whips and scorns of time, 293b whipping-horse, the horse foaled of an acorn, 880a who should 'scape whipping, 293a
- Whirled, world so called because, 107b Whirligig of time, 298b Whirlpool, he makes a, 88b
- Whirlwind, like a flap of a, 274b reap the, 244a, 418b rides in the, 2b
- Whirlwinds, travellers' tales of, 677b Whisker, educated, 358a Whiskey is a bad thing, especially bad whiskey, 874a if you get the best of, it will get the best of you, 874a or wine or even beer, 237b, note See Usquebae
- WHISPER AND WHISPERINGS a well-bred whisper, 99b foul whisperings are abroad, 305a hark, they whisper, 254b undermine the heart by whispering in the ear, 346b whisper and hint and chuckle, 363b whispering tongues can poison, 86b
- WHIST
if you play whist, 442b Sarah Battle on whist, 191b vous ne jouez pas? hélas! quelle triste vieillesse vous vous préparez, 710a
- Whist, the wild waves, 310b Whistle and drink at same time, a man cannot, 724b and he (or she) will come to you, 874a and I'll come to you, 49a her off, I'd, 302a paid very dear for his, 140b them back, he could, 149a wel y-wet, her loly, 77b
- Whistling, meaning worthlessness, 794a, note of a name, 94a, 250a to bear his courage up, 23a to keep myself from being afraid, 23a, note, 128b woman (whistling), 729b
- Whitbread, Mr., 89a
- WHITE, WHITENESS
angel whiteness, 284b every white hath its black, 758a had kept the whiteness of his soul, 54b to put in a white stone, 487a white in a single night, 58a white not so very white, 69b White Man's burden, 190a white is black and black is white, 337a white is love, 462a white means joy, 462b white or black mark, 507b whiteness not of years but of morals, 596a whiter than the driven snow, 327b
- Whitehall Court, grass grows in, 243a
- Whiting said, extremes meet, as the, 170b
- Whole is greater than the part, 452b parts of one stupendous, 248b Whole-hoggers, 455a Whooping, out of all, 289a Whore, once a, always a whore, 820b like a, unpack my heart with words, 293b
- Why and wherefore in all things, 316b never mind the, 145b Why, every, hath a wherefore, 51a, 284a, 758a not knowing, nor whence, 136a Why not? said the March Hare, 119b Why, the, is plain, 288b

WICKED and WICKEDNESS

all comes of weakness, 708b all, is weakness, 223b happiness of the wicked disperses like a stream, 698b hated wickedness, 33b he need not expect good that doth evil, 768a he that liveth wickedly can hardly die righteously, 737b heaven help the wicked, 314a how wicked we are, 168b little better than one of the wicked, 313a
 method in man's wickedness, 137a no man wicked without loss and punishment, 476b
 no peace unto the wicked, 417b pretending to be wicked and being
 good, 389a
 though wicked were their minds, 340b
 to see and listen to the wicked, 861b what rein can hold licentious wickedness, 316b who helps the wicked grieves for
 it, 632a
 who lives ill fear follows him, 780a wicked cease from troubling, 411a wicked expect benefits, 496b wicked flee when no man pursueth, 415a wicked in great power, 412b wicked men and fools, 94a wicked person is never amusing, 699b wickedness proceedeth from the
 wicked, 876a
 Wicliffe's ashes, 141b, 398a Wide will wear, tight will tear, 876a is the gate, 422a

WIDOWS

already Lalage seeks for a husband, 561a
 are always rich, 876a comes, like the ocean, to cast her weeds, 172a devour widows' houses, 424a good season for courting, on way home from funeral, 722b he that woos a widow must woo her day and night, 782b makes the widow's heart to sing, 411b marry a widow before she leaves off mourning, 809a most perverse creatures, 3a never a widow could say him nay, 274a some undone widow sits upon my arm, 212a sorrow for a husband is sharp and
 short, 836a
 take heed of a widow thrice married, 838b the rich widow cries with one eye and laughs with the other, 850b what creatures widows are, 243a who marries a widow and three children marries four thieves, 780a who marries a widow with two daughters, 875a
 widow of fifty, 328b widows and second marriages, 135b

WIFE and WIVES

a bad wife drives a man from his
 house, 858b
 a bad wife not worth a farthing, 678b

Wife and Wives—contd.

a barren wife makes a pleasant
 friend, 561b
 a cheerful wife is the joy of life, 718b a dead wife the best goods in a man's house, 719b a gentle housewife mars the household, 750b a little wife well willed, 724a a man must ask his wife's leave to thrive, 725a a railing wife, 314a a sweet sorrow to bury an outrageous wife, 794b a virtuous woman is a crown to her husband, 413b a wife o' my ain, 47b a wife who never caused me unhappiness except by her
 death, 699a
 almost damned in a fair wife, 300a as the good woman saith, so must it be, 739a as your wedding ring wears so do your cares, 739b bachelors' wives always well taught, 740a
 be at leisure to your wife, 643b be not bitter against them, 430a better a fortune in, than with, a wife, 741b, 742a blind man's wife needs no painting, 841a
 buy a house ready made, a wife to make, 762b Cæsar's wife must be above suspicion, 453a chief fault of women, their neglect of their husbands, 581b choose a wife by your ear rather than your eye, 747b choose a wife to make, 723b choose your wife as you wish your children to be, 748a complaints about servants, 594a correct your wife from the first
 day, 807a
 dearer than the Bride, 204a desiring sovereignty, 203b discord where the distaff rules, 794b doubling his pleasures, and his cares dividing, 264b epitaph on a Roman wife, 593a every man can tame a shrew except he that hath her, 756b every wife has right to insist on seeing Paris, 332b fair wife and frontier castle breed quarrels, 720a fair wife without fortune, 720a
 fellow-farer true through life, 344b few take wives for God's sake or for fair looks, 761a for weans and wife, 47a for whom does the blind man's wife paint herself, 763a give your wife a yard and she'll take an ell, 765b giving honour unto the wife, 431a go down the ladder to choose a wife, 809a
 good principles sufficient dowry, 520a good wife a good prize, 722b good wife and a hearth of your
 own, 722b
 good wife and health a man's best wealth, 722b groaning wife seldom fails its master, 723a had a wife and children, 62b

Wife and Wives—contd.

hanging and wiving go by destiny,
 771a he has great need of a wife that marries mamma's darling, 773a he makes a false, that suspects a true, 134b he that loves not wife and
 children, 356a
 he that takes a wife at Shrewsbury, 781b
 he that takes not a pin slights his
 wife, 831b
 here lies my wife, 129a his thrifty wife's smile, 44a husbands are in heaven whose wives chide not, 787a husbands can earn, wives only can save, 725a
 I cannot love my lord and not
 his name, 364a
 I do perceive here a divided duty,
 301a
 I have been a true and humble
 wife, 319b
 I have married a wife and therefore I cannot come, 424b
 I have sold myself for a dowry,
 678b
 if she rules him, never shows she
 rules, 251a
 if the wife sins, the husband is not innocent, 789b if your wife be crust, be crumb, 791b if your wife is short, stoop to her, 791b in choosing a wife trust not an enemy, 792b in every port a wife, 110b in election of wife, to err once is to be undone for ever, 215a it is a good wife that never grumbles, 794a it is a sad house where the hen crows loudest, 794a it's my old girl that advises, 114b
 knocked at his wife's head, 172a learn to hate their wives, 31a light wife doth make a heavy
 husband, 284a
 love your neighbour's wife, 205b maids want only husbands, but then want everything, 806b man and wife the greatest monster, 92a man's best fortune or his worst, 725b man's best possession, 50a man's fire and the wife's tow, 807a marry a woman who lives near
 you, 479a
 may my wife not be over-learned, 659a
 May, the month to marry bad
 wives, 656a
 mills and wives ever want, 810b money spent on a bad wife is lost, 552a my dear, my better half, 329b my own lawfully-begotten wife, 183b
 my true and honourable wife, 285b my wife governs me, her son governs her, 447b nice wife and a back door make a man poor, 726a no better possession than a good woman, nothing worse than a bad one, 470a nothing better than a well-disposed wife, 592a

Wife and Wives—contd.

nothing lovelier than to study household good, 221a now we are even, quoth Stephen, when he gave his wife six blows for one, 819a nuptial bed a place of disagreement, 652b obedient wife commands her husband, 736a old men's nurses, 9b one, too much for most husbands, 143a only comfort that I never yet had wife, 165b only for the wives of them, 240a perhaps his wife's too, 162b poor man, who takes wealthy wife, has a ruler, 477b rule their husbands in obeying them, 500b sailors should steer clear of a wife, 334b secrets revealed to wives, 454b separation from, for seven years, 106a she broke her elbow at the church door, 833a she for a little tried to live without him, 403a she wears the breeches (or the keys), 833b sorrow and evil life maketh soon an old wife, 836a strife 'twixt man and wife, 93b such a wife to soothe his years, 146a such duty woman oweth to her husband, 276b take an elder than herself, 297b teacher, tender comrade, wife, 344b that beggar pleases me as her king pleases a queen, 620b that galling load, a wife, 92a the cunning wife makes her husband her apron, 842a the kindest, dearest, and the truest, 266b
the partner of my soul, 266b the peculiar gift of heaven, 255a the sad form of your deceived wife, 504b the sky changes when they are wives, 289b the unwilling wife is her husband's enemy, 547a the well-choosing of a wife, 212a the wife is the key of the house, 852b there is one good wife and each man thinks he hath her, 856a thy lady constant, kind, and dear, 271a
to wive it wealthily, 276b tu mihi sola places, 672a two wives in a house never agree, 864b uncumbered with a wife, 123a we all know that we should rarely speak of our wives, 704b weeping bride makes laughing wife, 852b well dowered wives bring loss, 518b what wife? I have no wife, 303a when the gude wife's awa' the keys are tint, 871a where danger or dishonour lurks, 221a

Wife and Wives—contd.

where do a' the ill wives come frae, 717a
while thy wife's mother lives, 144b who has a bonny wife needs mair than twa een, 783b who has a wife has a master, 778a who has wife and children wants no business, 778b who hath not wife clothes her well, 740a who kisses his wife in the market-place, shall have enough to teach him, 779b who lets his wife go to every feast shall not have a good wife, 875a who loses his wife and a farthing hath great loss of his farthing, 780a who loses his wife and sixpence hath lost a tester, 780a who speaks ill of his wife dishonours himself, 781b who tells his wife news is newly married, 782a widowed wife and wedded maid, 274b wife and children bills of charges, 9b, 876a
—hostages to fortune, 9b
—thrill you with pleasure, 493a wife lets it go at that, 18a wife who preaches in a gown, 265b wife of every Englishman accounted blessed, 755a wife of thy bosom, 410a wife's share in man's advancement, 18a wifely patience, 78a wives and mithers, maist despairin', 237b wives cunning, and begin with their guardians, 622b worst of wives should agree with worst husbands, 678b would that law were the same for wives as for husbands, 678a you may beat the devil into your wife, but you'll never bang him out again, 879b
you will live more easily without wife to maintain, 478a Wig that flowed behind, 98b Wight, Isle of, hath no monks, lawyers, or foxes, 846b Wight, he was a most engaging, 371a strange and wayward, 19a Wild and whirling words, 292a by starts 'twas, 90a Wild beast man, that, 268b Wild-fowl, there is not a more fearful, 280b Wild in woods, 128b Wild, Jonathan, and the Count, 135a Wild, savage-, 280a Wild, the, that no man knows, 361a Wild waves whist, 310b Wilderness, a lodging-place in the, 418a in this bleak, 19b lodge in some vast, 99a makes the world the, 101a one crying in the, 421a were Paradise, 135b Wile, he saw and scorned the petty, 272b Wiles help weak folk, 876a more unexpert, of, I boast not, 217a WILFULNESS
a will most incorrect to heaven, 290b Wilfulness—contd.

he that doth what he will doth not what he ought, 777a he that is heady is ruled by a fool, 779a injuries must be schoolmasters to wilful men, 306a wilful error devilish, 508b, note wilful man must have his way, 729b wilful man needs be very wise, 729b wilful will do it, 92a will is the cause of woe, 876a WILL and WILLINGNESS all easy that are done willingly, 734a all lay loads on a willing horse, 734a be there a will wisdom finds a way, 103b beast that goes always never wants blows, 840b bow before the Awful Will, 368a by all ye will and whisper, 190a compel all creatures to my will, 364b complies against his will, 52a
do not spur a willing horse, 752b easy things seem difficult if done against our will, 602b fate leads the willing, but drives the stubborn, 519a, 760b goodwill is taken for the deed, 769a he that will not when he may, 782b his will is not his own, 291a if one won't, another will, 853b if she will she will, 166a, note if you subdue will, you will be glad, 654a ill will turns none to good, 374a in great matters it is enough to have had the will and desire, 552a left free the human will, 250b let my will stand for a reason, 544b my will is good, 78a no man can rob us of our will, 451a not my will, but thine, be done, 423a nothing impossible to a willing heart, 873b now she will and then she will not, 429b
our will determines, not our intellect, 377a serveth not another's will, 403a star of the unconquered will, 197b taken for the deed, 687a the more you do the more you may do, 848b the torrent of a woman's will, 166a, note the unconquerable will, 216a the will is the soul of the work, 818b the will—there lies our bitter need, 121b the will to do, the soul to dare, 270b they can, because they think they can, 622b to have willed is sufficient, 524a to have wished to achieve is enough in great matters, 641b to turn the current of a woman's, 373a this syllable, his will, 210b thy will be done, 29a unruly wills and affections, 432a vous l'avez voulu, George Dandin, 710a

Will and Willingness—contd.

war 'twixt will and will not, 299b we wollethe habbe our will, 194b well for him whose will is strong, 361b what is borne willingly is borne easily, 622b what one will not another will,
 868b what the mind has ordained it has achieved, 635a when a man says he's willing,
 114a where there's a will there's a way, 873b will, but have not the power, 687a
 will is the cause of woe, 876a will is the Man, 390b will not wanting, but the ability, 596b will of man by reason swayed, 280b will praiseworthy, though power is wanting, 677a
 will reigns at twenty, 153a will stands for reason, 662b will was his guide 339b will will have wilt 876a willing abandonment, 20b willing mind makes light foot, 729b

Will, dank, 90a

Will o' the Wisp, 90a, 548a

WILLS (testamentary) choose executors and talk of wills, 312b sign your will before you sup, 177b things unintelligible to be regarded as not written, 628a woman who makes her own will,

 237b

William I of Orange, motto, 647b

William was such a bashful youth,
 95a you are old Father, 119a, 335b

Willie is no good; I'll sell him, 195a wandering, 49b, and note

Willie's at home, while, 49b, note

Willow, ah, willow, 266b

sing, 302b
 the, that heard him complain, 266b

Willow-tree, grief and, 436b

Willow, willow, 436b

Willows are weak, but bind other
 wood, 876a

we hanged our harps upon the,
 413b

Wilson, Woodrow, 460b

WIN, WINNING

all I fail of win, 387b cannot win a woman, 281b he does not win who plays with sin, 389b
 he plays well that wins, 776a
 let those laugh that win, 801a no tongue so soon as yours could win me, 309b two pleasures, winning and losing,
 65b
 win her with gifts, 281b win or lose it all, 230a, note win who never near the goal, 152a winning, glory of the, 213a wouldst wrongly win, 303b you win easily, 529a

Winchester (bishopric) the higher manger, 746b

the Trusty Servant, 677b, note

WIND and WINDS

a feather for each wind, 310a

Wind and Winds—contd.

a little wind kindles fire; much puts out, 803b a strong nor'-wester's blowing, 245a a warm wind, the west wind, 209a all winds contrary to a crazy
 ship, 859b
 along the waste (the wind), 136a as large a charter as the wind, 288b as the veering wind shifts, 62a as the winds when forests are rended, 273b blow, blow, thou winter wind, 289a blow, blow, ye winds, 44b blow, wind, and crack your cheeks, 306a blow wind, come wrack, 305b bloweth where it listeth, 425b can any wind blow rough, 138a cease, rude Boreas, 343b change as ye list, ye winds, 142b east, neither good for man nor beast, 871b
 east wind is like a kite, 754a east wind like an old man, 754a effects of the four winds on weather, 462b England windy, and when not windy is pestilent, 490a (winds) fail, take to the oars, 513b follow to complain of wind's fickleness, 651b four-square to all the winds, 361a gentle wind feeds fire, strong puts it out, 605b God tempers the wind, 767a he did fly upon the wings of the wind, 412a
 he knows which way the wind
 blows, 775a
 he that observeth the wind shall not sow, 416a
 he that will use all winds, 137b hear a voice in every wind, 54b imprisoned in the viewless winds, 300a is chill, 270a is never weary, 197b it is an ill wind that blows nobody
 good, 794b
 it's hard sailing where there's no wind, 797b
 keeps not always in one quarter, 853a let her down the wind, 302a loosed from their surrounding prison, 543b melancholy conveyed in easterly
 wind, 3a
 more inconstant than the wind, 278a no weather ill if the wind be still,
 817b not a breathing of the common
 wind, 396b
 on Jan. 25 (St. Paul's day), presage battles, 789a (wind) on the heath, 24b passeth over it and it is gone, 413a puff not against the wind, 828b represses the struggling winds, 568b rough winds shake the darling buds of May, 321b Sail, quoth the king; Hold, saith the wind, 830b shoreward blow, 5a sits the wind in that corner, 284b
 small rain allays great wind, 835a soft sigh the winds, 67b

Wind and Winds—contd.

south and west winds, 871b sowed the wind, and shall reap whirlwind, 418b, 680a stimulates the mind, 683a stormy winds do blow, 67b straw will show which way the wind blows, 728b striving after wind, 415b swifter than wind, 649b swollen with wind, 226b take heed of wind that comes in
 at a hole, 838b
 that grand old harper (wind), 330b that kisseth everything, 7a that wonder whist, 227b the crannywind, 54b the felon winds, 226a
 the sailor speaks of winds, 585b the silly wind, 48b the south wind, 37a the Spring Zephyrus, 536a the stormy south-west, 568b the stormy winds do blow, 241b the strumpet wind, 282b the whistling mane of every wind, 368b the wind was cold, 271b the winds reconciled to sea, 223b they have sown the wind, 418b they pass by me as the idle wind, 286b thundercloud moves against the
 wind, 852a
 'tis the wind and nothing more,
 245b to strive with the winds, 509a too much wind in your sail, 138b treachery of winds, 20b 'twas but the wind, 54b voices of the wandering wind, 4a waverings of every vane with every wind, 366a welter to the parching wind, 226a when God will, no wind but brings rain, 869b when the wind is southerly, 293a wild as the winds, 370a will lower at the last, 745a will remain three months as at midday on St. Thomas (Dec.
 21), 463a
 wind blows cold in hurle burle swyre, 804a, note wind blows not always west, 853a wind in east, fishes bite least,
 462b wind in north, fishes come forth, 462b wind in south, blows bait in fish's mouth, 462b
 wind in the face makes a man wise, 731b, 853a wind in west, fishes bite best, 462b wind that blows, 111a wind's like a whetted knife, 209b winds and waves on side of ablest navigators, 144b winds like orators, 8a winds of heaven mix for ever, 327a winds of heaven visit her face too roughly, 290b winds so fierce I do disperse, 466a winnow while there is wind, 807a winter wind changes oft, 730b words only wind, 403b written in the wind, 581a you wish winds may waft him over, 259b
 Winders to my Sole, 27a Winding-sheet, waters were his, 17a

Windmill, Bradshaw's, 867b live with cheese and garlic in a, 314a you cannot make one go with a pair of bellows, 879a Windmills, to attack, 716a Window richly peint, 79b Windows, breaking of, 234a device of stains and splendid dyes, 185a
saw from his windows nothing but his own, 359b storied, richly dight, 224b that exclude the light, 155a) Window tax, 527a
Windsor, beasts at, 93b Windy side of the law, 298a ways of men, 359b

WINE

a crime to murder Falernian by mixing it, 649b a cunning wrestler, it first seizes the feet, 571a a Jug of, 135b a new friend is a new wine, 420a
a new song for old wine, 643b after a pear wine or the priest, 824b after good wine a good horse, 732a and wenches empty men's purses, 876a
and women, 62b and women cause wise men to fall, 203a
and women undo men, 825b ask the host if he has good wine, 739b ass that carries me drinks water, 840a Bacchus opens the gate of the heart, 491a baths, wine, and Venus, 495b be wise; clarify your wines, 648b body gets its sap, 33b
cannot make him laugh; he
drinks no wine, 315b
cares put to flight by wine, 683b constitutions o'er your wine, 68b counsels in wine seldom prosper, 749a dispel your cares in wine, 606b doth God's stamp deface, 162b drank the red wine through the helmet barred, 271b drink wine and have gout; drink none and have it too, 753b easy, o'er a glass of wine, 82b erred through wine, 417b ever pays for his lodging, 876b fills the veins, 376b flown with insolence and wine, 216a foaming grape of eastern France, 363a
four-year-old wine, 517a French wine, 209a friendships only made in wine, 364b gambling and wine, their sinfulness greater than their use, 465a gaming, women, and wine, 764b good at proper time, injurious at unfitting, 511a good wine, 3b good wine, good welcome, 319b good wine needs no brandy, 769a good wine needs no bush, 769a had sucked the fire of some forgotten sun, 359b has played the Infidel, 136b hate as much as business or bad wine, 142a, note

Wine—contd.

hath drowned more than the sea,
876b he cries wine and sells vinegar, 772a Homer proved a wine-bibber by his praises of wine, 564b honest talk and wholesome wine, 361b Horace's odes smell of wine, 452a I rather like bad wine, 116b if you are thirsty wine or water are equally good, 656a in wine you may see the face of
another, 793a
is a good familiar creature, 301b is a mocker, 414a is a turncoat, 876b is bright at the goblet's brim, 266b it wasn't the wine, it was the salmon, 111b kindles anger, 683b lettuce after wine, 563b look not upon the wine when it is red, 414b
lords lordliest in their wine, 223b love of a bottle of wine, 847b lover of wine and minstrelsy, 269b mad over broken seal of winecask, 498b makes all sorts of creatures at table, 876b maketh glad the life, 416a maketh merry, 416a man drinks wine at first cup, then wine drinks wine, then wine drinks man, 739b
mellow like good wine, 244a milk says welcome to wine, 810b
more port than portable, 170b music gives the relish to our wine, 239b neither keeps secrets nor fulfils promises, 876b new wine into old bottles, 422a new wine into old wine, 422b next my mouth when I die, 576b no good man will insist on another drinking wine, 179a nothing more hurtful to health, 592a (wine) of life is drawn, 304a of youth, 26a old is best, 820a old wine, 150a on milk is desirable; milk on wine is poison, 791a our nature not unlike our wine, 109b pass the night with wine cup and
song, 657a
poetry the wine of devils, 8a quarrels caused by wine, 562b racked by wine and anger, 683b so valuable a bottle has not deserved to die, 489b some are fond of Spanish wine, 209a songs that stung like sense of wine, 351b spilt wine is worse than water, 837a sweet makes sharpest vinegar, 838a taste my anno domini, 133b that costs nothing is digested before drunk, 876b that maketh glad the heart of
man, 413a
the Ass and the Wine-jar, 607b the best wine is someone else's, 852b the magnanimity of wine, 213b

Wine—contd.

the superiority of wine over Venus, 273b
the walnuts and the wine, 357a the wine poured forth, 188a there are more old wine-bibbers than old doctors, 854a there is no deceit in a brimmer, 855b there is truth in wine, 471a, 554a they are wise who use old wine, 634b those red and golden juices, 382a thou invisible spirit of wine, 301b turns a man inside out, 876b upon beer; not beer upon wine, 791a
use a little wine for thy stomach's sake, 430a Venus rose red out of wine, 352a washes off the daub, 876b we should have said even more, if we had had more wine, 452a
what were revel without wine, 244a when it is old thou shalt drink it with pleasure, 420a when the wine is in, the wit is out, 872a when wine sinks, words swim, 872a where no wine, there is no love, 475b where wine enters modesty goes out, 872a
whets the wit, 246a who loves not wine, woman, and
song, 368a
wholesome wine is not old, 384a will make glad, 683b wine-bred child seldom ends well, 726a wine in the bottle does not quench thirst, 853a wine one thing, drunkenness
another, 488a
wine, woman, and song, 714b wisdom is clouded by wine, 553a, 648b with the wine you will tell of many things, 549b you cannot know wine by the barrel, 879a
Wine-jar rolls, 518a Wine-press, I have trodden the, 418a Winged words, 471b
WINGS
as swift as meditation, 291b beating his luminous wings, 6a difficult to fly without wings, 784a fly with your own wings, 761b he covers me with his wings, and bites me with his bill, 772a
he flies with his own wings, 488a healing in his wings, 419b hover about me with your airy wings, 319a
lend, lend, your wings, 254b like a dove, 412b, 433b not on unaccustomed or feeble wing, 601a O, for a horse with wings, 309a of Liberty, 68a of the morning, 413b propheied gentlemen would call for their wings, 130a reprunes her wing to soar anew, 408a sail is as a noiseless wing, 55a sailing on obscene wings, 85b sooty wings of Discord, 334a, note spreads his light wings, 255a Wings—contd.

take 'old o' the wings o' the Mornin', 189b that which hath wings shall tell, 416a they shall mount up with wings as eagles, 417b though the fox run, the chicken hath wings, 858a till the little wings are stronger, 359b to fly without wings is not easy, 658b
to thy speed add wings, 217b white wings lessening up the skies, 209b
with head, hands, wings, or feet, 218a

Wink at human frailty, 2a
a reputation down, 347b hard, he must, that shuts his eye from heaven, 261b of his eye, with a, 16a there is a time to, 854b Winking, 18a

WINTER

a hard winter when one wolf eats
another, 794a
a lusty, frosty, but kindly, 288b alleviated by fire, 622a away, winter, away, 176b comes to rule the varied year, 370a crown old Winter's head, 104a dragon, long night of winter, 236a every mile is two in winter, 757b fair day in winter, mother of a storm, 720a furious winter's rages, 309b good winter brings a good summer, 722b
green winter, a fat churchyard, 723a he that passeth a winter's day escapes an enemy, 780b howls in gusty storms, 46b if Winter comes, can Spring be far behind, 325b is past, 416b is summer's heir, 876b lingering, chills the lap of May,
147b
never rots in the sky, 876b no winter in his bounty, 307b no winter in thy year, 37a of our discontent, 93a, 318a on the heel of limping winter, 278a one fair day in, makes not birds merry, 821a one good word can warm three winter months, 821b one woodcock makes not a winter, 822b praise of, 93a ruler of the inverted year, 100a sad tale's best for winter, 310a sharp winter is loosened, 660b slayer of the winter, 236a sluggish winter, 499a spring follows, 653a the English winter, 65a there is winter enough for the snipe and woodcock, 856a this isn't the time for grass to grow, 446a wakeneth all my care, 434a wheezy, sneezy, breezy, 131a, note winter talk, 11a winter thunder and summer flood, 876b
Wire, wailing of the, 35b Wireless telegraphy: His arcana notis terra pelagoque feruntur, 544a

WISE and WISDOM

a little group of wise hearts, 267b a wise man is a great wonder, 729b a wise man is out of reach of fortune, 730a
a wise man poor, 108b
all the wit in the world is not in one head, 733b all things wisdom's looking-glass, 266a all wisdom vain, 217b all wisdom's armoury, 213a alone is true ambition's aim, 386a an ounce of, worth a pound of wit, 737a and the laughter of folly, 130b apply our hearts unto wisdom, 413a Athenians object only to its being communicated, 448b attained by capacity, not by age, 596a be famous then by wisdom, 223a be not diffident of, 220b be not wise in your own conceits, 427a be wise if you are wise, 656a be wise to-day; 'tis madness to defer, 405a better than rubies, 413b bought by experience, 6b
bought wit is best, 745b by once or twice 'tis time to be wise, 375a
comes by cleverness, not by time, 555b comes by unlearning, 202b crieth without, 413b daily to grow wiser, 47a dare to be wise, 648b darkly wise and rudely great, 248b deemed him wondrous wise, 19a designed by Nature wise, 101b easier for others than for self, 693a enticing words of man's wisdom, 427b even a fool counted wise when he holdeth his peace, 414a everyone is wise after the event, 758a everything wise has been thought of already, 710a excess of wisdom, 133a first step to, is to recognise falsehood, 624b first teaches that which is right, 624a first wisdom is to eschew folly, 684a grow wiser and better, 258a half-wisdom given by half-experience, 400a has not left a wiser or better, 149a he is wise enough who can keep himself warm, 774b
he is wise who is not foolish for
long, 582b
he is wisest that recketh not who hath the world in hand, 774b he is wisest who is quick in apprehension, 648b
he that has most is wisest, 476a how great a thing to have wisdom, 630a how very weak the very wise, 368a I speak as to wise men, 428a I would refuse wisdom, if it were conditional I should not communicate it, 654b in much wisdom is much grief, 415b in vain unless you grow wise of
yourself, 595a

Wise and Wisdom—contd.

is oft-times nearer when we stoop, 401b is the principal thing, 413b it becomes wise men to confer and hold converse, 610b it is not good to be always wise, 816b it is time to be wise when you have a beard, 796b Jesus increased in wisdom and stature, 424b justified of her children, 422b least wise have governed the most wise, 192b
leisure to grow wise, 5a let us push forward the pursuit of wisdom, 544b loveless wisdom, 66b man of wisdom is man of years, 406b
man that hideth his wisdom, 421a men become wiser as they draw near death, 377b man may outrun the wise, 79b, 810a many means of acquiring wisdom, 545b most enjoyed when most shared,
386a must be made use of, 597a Nature never opposed to, 42a no man is always wise, except a fool, 816b
no man is born wise, 816b no man so wise but he has a little folly, 816b
no mortal is always wise, 589a no one could be so wise as Thurlow looks, 460b
no one is wise by himself, 589b no wisdom below the girdle, 817b none so wise but the fool over-takes him, 817b not altogether a wise man, 308b O folly of the wise, 398a
of this world, 427b
often under a shabby cloak, 647a, 647b one loves the wisest not for their wisdom, 244b outward wisdom yields to that within, 356a philosopher not wise for himself, 474b preserveth the life, 415b price of, above rubies, 417b privilege of wisdom to listen, 168b Pythagoras desired to be a student of wisdom, 627b reigion the only wisdom, 620b reputed wise for saying nothing, 282a rigid wise, 45a she entangles herself with overwiseness, 262a some are wise, some otherwise, 334a, 836a
sometimes walks in clouted shoes, 876b souls of all that men held wise, 106b spirits of the wise mock us, 315a strangely wise, 483a strides of human wisdom, 100a success making a man seem wise, 243a Thales, the wisest of the seven,
648b the best ends by the best means,
175b the eighth of the wise men, 648b

Wise and Wisdom—contd.

the first and wisest (Socrates), 223a the foundation of good writing, 650b the high and peaceful temples of the wise, 651a the highest wisdom is not to be always wise, 711b the least foolish is wise, 847a the only liberty (wisdom), 648b the only wretched are the wise, 259b the prime wisdom, 220b the wealth of the wise, 876b the wise hand doth not all that the foolish mouth speaks, 853a the world governed with little wisdom, 741b there is always less than people imagine, 855a think themselves wise, 229a through excess of wisdom a fool, 133a thy wisdom all can do but make thee wise, 408a timely happy, timely wise, 185b tired of being always wise, 151a to appear a fool and be wise, 694a to be wise and also to love, 341a, note to be wise and love hardly granted to gods, 126b to be wise and love exceeds man's might, 298b too much wisdom is folly, 853a travel in pursuit of wisdom, 150b unmuzzle your wisdom, 288a usually less than is estimated, 714b vanquisher of fortune, 682b venture to be wise, 94a vulgar criterion of wisdom, 41b we are wiser than we know, 132b wearing his wisdom lightly, 362a what better than wisdom, 78b where one is wise, two are happy, 873a who are a little wise the best fools, 120a who can be wise, amazed, temperate, and furious, 304a who in heat of blood was ever wise, 404b who is not wise at fifty, never will be, 779b who wish to appear wise to fools, appear fools to the wise, 634b wisdom and art and science, 132a wisdom and goodness vile to the vile, 306b wisdom and wit are little seen, 87a wisdom and wit not worth a curse, 194b wisdom at one entrance quite shut out, 218a wisdom cries, I know not anything, 203b wisdom excelleth folly as light darkness, 415b wisdom giveth life, 415b
wisdom hath one foot on land, one on sea, 876b wisdom, humble that he knows no more, 101a wisdom married to immortal verse, 402a wisdom must be sought, 407b wisdom neither inheritance nor legacy, 876b wisdom of the wise, 118b

Wise and Wisdom—contd.

wisdom, piety, delight, or use, 109b wisdom, power, and love, 186a wisdom shall die with you, 31b, 411b wisdom without innocence is knavery, 876b wise after the event, 572b, 876b wise and wary was that noble pere, 339b
wise as serpents, 422b
wise bearing or ignorant carriage is caught, 316a wise before his time dies before he is old, 560a wise by discipline of Time, 398b wise by rule, and by experience, 13a wise by the dangers of others, 531a wise enough to play the fool, 298a wise head makes close mouth, 729b wise in his own conceit, 414b wise in their own eyes, 417a wise is he that can know himself, 78b wise man alone is free, 475a wise man cares not for what he cannot have, 729b wise man carries wealth, 475b wise man gets learning frae them that hae none, 729b wise man his own best assistant, 274b wise man is wise in vain if not for his own advantage, 590b wise man not wise in everything, 709b wise man the true Sovereign, 73b wise men all of same religion, 458a, note wise men know well enough, 294a wise men learn more from fools, 448b wise men may think what hardly fools would say, 354a wise men propose, fools dispose, 12a Wise Men of Greece, sayings of, 447a wise men will make opportunities, 11b wise not in words only but in deeds, 599a wise sayings, come home to men, 11a wiser in their generation, 424b wiser than other people, be, 80a wiser than thou art ware of, 288b wisest, brightest, meanest of mankind, 250a wisest man who is not wise at all, 392b wisest man the warl' e'er saw, 47b wisest man does not think himself wise, 700a wisest men have erred, 223b wisest of the wise must be fooled, 762a wit and wisdom seldom seen together, 877a with how little wisdom the world is governed, 458b, 490a, 629b with the ancient is wisdom, 411b you look wise; correct that error, 192a you may be a wise man though you can't make a watch, 879b you read of but one wise man, 91b Wisecare's purgatory, 90a

WISHES

a man cannot often be what he wishes, 599a as weel's I want ye, 47a believe we what we wish, 128b better do it than wish it done, 742b, 743b better to have than wish, 743b boden gear stinks, 745a devoutly to be wished, 293b every wish made known, 491a evil wish is most evil to the wisher, 750a first deserve and then desire, 761b fools stay in idle wishes, 103b greatest wealth is poverty of desires, 665b
he gains enough that loses a vain hope, 772b he is richest that hath fewest wants, 774b heaven ever favours good wishes, 716b hell is full of good wishes, 785a his own desire leads every man, 672a his restless wishes tower, 177b I seem not to know my own wishes, 657a I wish it, and again I do not, 595b if he persists in telling his wishes he shall hear what he does not wish, 655a if wishes were horses, beggars would ride, 790a if wishes were true, peasants would be kings, 790a it is cheap enough to say "God help you," 795a knew no wish but what the world might hear, 256a may all the gods always give you all you desire, 514b
may they conquer whom you wish to, 683a may your celestial majesty outlive the sun, 347b men believe what they wish, 531b, 566a my wish hath a preferment in it, 309b my wish is quite as wide, 64a non est mortale quod optas, 661a not what we wish but what we want, 214a nothing can be wished without a preconception, 594b perhaps you would have cherries at Christmas? 825a pious wishes, 620a set some limit to your wishes, 661b since what you wish cannot be, wish what can be, 642a so many wishes feedest, 4b so they wished, and so it is done, 560b the wish father to the thought, 857a
the wished-for comes too late, 853a
their country's wishes, 23a their sober wishes, 154a thy wish was father to that thought, 315b to desire impossible things, 663a to need nothing is divine, 470b velim ut velles, 679b we are not permitted to do all we wish, 677b wert all that I wish thee, 232a what ardently we wish we soon believe, 407a Wishes—contd.

what is there we desire with reason, 636*a* what man wishes he thinks, 475*a* what men desire they think they rightly desire, 642*a* what most we wish we fancy near, 404*b* what the wretched wish for they believe, 641*a* what we wish we readily believe, 853*a* when what you wish does not happen, wish for what does, 872*a* who desires nothing is not in want, 596*b* whose wishes never learnt to stray, 154*a*, note wise man cares not for what he cannot have, 729*b* wish as we wish, 512*a* wish for what I faintly hope, 127*b* wish I knew the good of wishing, 196*a* wish me no worse than I wish unto thee, 375*a* wish my fellow creatures all the good I cannot do, 443*a* wished she had not heard it, 300*b* wished that heaven had made her such a man, 300*b* wishers and woulders be small householders, 877*a* wishers were ever fools, 307*b* wishes lengthen as our sun declines, 406*b* wishes never filled the bag, 877*a* wishes of the people, 672*b* wishing of all employments the worst, 406*a* wishing, that constant hectic of a fool, 406*a* with wishing comes grieving, 877*a* you are losing our good wishes, 636*b* you may wish, but cannot possess, 679*b*

WIT, WITTY

a plentiful lack of wit, 292*b* advise with wit (money sale), 579*b* affecting wit without their power, 163*a* after-wit is everybody's wit, 732*a* after-wit is fool's wit, 732*a* after-wit: the Phrygians are wise too late, 653*b* (wit) and wisdom born with a man, 275*b* as a wit in the very first line, 149*a* Attic salt, 648*a*
 bought wit is best, 745*b* brevity is the soul of wit, 292*b*, 745*b* can't say if we had more wit than usual, 151*a* cause that wit is in other men, 315*a* disdainful sharpness and wit, 174*a* do not put too fine a point to your wit, 449*a* everyone is witty for his own purpose, 758*b* false wit's worthless lees, 381*b* good wits jump, 769*a* great wits have short memories, 770*a* great wits to madness near allied, 122*b* hard to bridle wit, 345*a* he has an infinite deal of wit, 3*a* he hath some wit, but a fool guides it, 773*b*

Wit, Witty—contd.

her wit was more than man, 125*a* his whole wit in a jest, 20*a* his wit invites you, 98*a* his wit sparkles at the expense of his memory, 704*b* human wit so narrow, 246*b* I believe that (beef) does harm to my wit, 297*b* impromptu the touchstone of wit, 696*b* in wit a man, 256*a* is but the plume, 407*b* is common, wisdom rare, 877*a* it shan't be witty, 80*b* itching leprosy of wit, 183*b* let those perish who have said our good things before us, 619*a* little wit in government, 20*a* little wit in the head makes muckle travel to the feet, 804*a* love of wit makes no man rich, 806*a* man of wit would be at a loss without fools, 709*a*
 men of quality above wit, 105*a* men of wit will condescend to take (flattery), 347*b* necessity (hunger) bestower of wit, 569*b* neither wit, nor words, nor speech, 286*b* no fools so troublesome as those who have wit, 693*b* no wit will bear repetition, 332*a* not for wit one loves the wittiest, 244*b* not only witty in myself, 315*a* of words inferior to wit of ideas, 332*b* pass with some for wit, 52*b* pleasing when temperate, offensive when unbridled, 669*b* skirmish of wits between them, 284*a* so much wit and mirth, 2*b*
 so witty, profligate, and thin, 408*b*
 the whetstone of wits, 288*a*, 356*a*, 506*b* this keen encounter of our wits, 318*a* though he had much wit, 50*b* though he is a wit, he is no fool, 404*a* thy wit is a most sharp sauce, 279*a* want of wit worse than want of siller, 866*a* weak men had need to be witty, 867*a* what a wit-snapper art thou, 283*a* what oft was thought but ne'er so well expressed, 246*b* what silly people the wits are, 706*a* when wits meet, sparks fly out, 872*b* wilt thou show the whole wealth of thy wit, 283*a* wisdom and, not worth a curse, 194*b* wit among Lords, 178*b* wit humane though keen, 371*a* wit in the combat, gentle as bright, 233*b* wit is by politeness sharpest set, 404*a* wit is nature to advantage dressed, 246*b* wit its honey lent, without the sting, 371*b* wit may gloss (laws), 124*b* wit reigns at thirty, 153*a*

Wit, Witty—contd.

wit talks most when least she has to say, 407*b* wit that can creep, 252*b* wit that loved to play, not wound, 269*a* wit the bane of conversation, 260*a* wit to persuade, 107*b* wit with dunces, 254*a* wit with jealous eye surveys, 82*a* wit's false mirror, 250*a* witticisms which hurt are not welcome, 605*b* witty at his countrymen's expense, 368*b* witty fool, better than a foolish wit, 297*b* witty man laughs least, 163*a* witty to talk with, 346*b* witty without wit's pretence, 212*b* you have a nimble wit, 289*a* your dear wit and gay rhetoric, 225*b* your wit and the wool of a blue dog, a good medley, 853*a* your wit's too hot, 277*a* WITCHES and WITCHCRAFT
 belief in witches, 28*b*
 the only witchcraft I have used, 30*a* they that burn you for a witch lose coals, 857*a* witchcraft of a woman's eyes, 138*a* what a hell of witchcraft, 322*b* Witching time of night, 295*a* Withered, so, and so wild in their attire, 303*a* Witherington, for, needs must I wail, 435*a* Withers are unwrung, our, 295*a* WITNESSES hired witnesses sell their perjuries, 596*a* in the mouth of two or three witnesses, 429*a* needless witnesses in a matter not doubtful, 678*a* 'so great a cloud of witnesses, 430*b*
 See Evidence Wittles, I live on broken, 114*a* Wive, there will I, 78*a* Wives, see Wife Wizards that chirp, 417*a* that peep and that mutter, 417*a* Wo him that is alone, 79*a* WOE and WOES a fig for woe, 165*b* a monument of, 257*b* an Iliad of woes, 110*a*, 473*a* deep unutterable woe, 7*a* deepest note of, 46*a* end of one woe step to next, 533*a* fools of our own woes, 5*b* for a sea of woe, 182*a* her woe began to run afresh, 172*a* in her voiceless woe, 55*b* long exercised in woes, 257*a* man made for joy and woe, 23*b* melt at others' woe, 257*b* never-ending woe, 335*a* never saw a man so full of woe, 346*b* not always a man of woe, 272*a* O sodeyn wo, 77*b* one woe doth tread upon another's heel, 296*b* plaint of woe, 19*b* poetry a medicine for woe, 538*b* rare are solitary woes, 405*b* sad instrument of all our woe, 218*a* sad variety of woe, 145*a*

Woe and Woes—contd.

sleep called the friend of woe, 337a sleep the balm of, 330a so woe-begone, 315a song of woe an earthly song, 362b teach me to feel another's woe, 250b that can be merry and suffer woe, 770a the jolif wo (love), 152b the luxury of woe, 230b the trappings and the suits of woe, 290a thus woe succeeds a woe, 164b to languish in luxurious woe, 371b waes unite faes, 866a when our heads are bowed with woe, 215b woe succeeding woe, 85b woe supplanted woe, 397a woe, woe, unutterable woe, 172b woes tread each other's heel, 405b woes which Hope thinks infinite, 326a ye who have suffered greater woes, 607a
Woke and feared again to close his eyelids, 272b
Wolsey's arrogance, 521b Wotton, Sir H., 41b, note WOLF and WOLVES a wolf within, 51b
 as the wolf loves the sheep, 677a death of wolves is the safety of the sheep, 842a dust raised by sheep does not choke the wolf, 843a foolish sheep that makes the wolf its confessor, 794a he has seen a wolf, 773a hireling wolves, 227a I hold a wolf by the ears, 49b, 494b if you cut down the woods you'll catch the wolf, 790b ill herds make fat wolves, 792a inwardly they are ravening wolves, 422a it is a hard winter when one wolf eats another, 794a keep the dogs near when you sup with the wolf, 798b like a wolf on the fold, 60b lose teeth but not memory, 877a man not to be a wolf to man, 13a shall dwell with the lamb, 417a talk of the wolf and you'll see his tail, 839a
 the lone sheep is in danger of the wolf, 847b
 the wolf in the story, 569a the wolf knows what the ill beast thinks, 853a
 to keep the moon from wolves, 860b to keep the wolf from the door, 861a to tame the wolf you must marry
 him, 862a
 two wolves may worry one sheep, 865a wake not a sleeping wolf, 315a, 801a when sick the wolf wished he were as a lamb, 843a who has a wolf for his mate needs
 a dog for his man, 875a who lives with wolves learns to lowly, 780a
 wolf always proclaimed larger than he is, 842b wolf does not make war against
 another, 753a

Wolf and Wolves—contd.

wolf finds a reason for taking the lamb, 853a
 wolf knows a wolf, 729a wolf must die in his own skin, 853a wolf of Languedoc, 169b wolf on this side, a dog on that side, 540a
 wolf's head (an outlaw), 500a wolves like dogs, 75b WOMAN, WOMEN
 a bevy of fair women, 222a a contentious woman, 415a a good woman, God's rarest blessing, 213b
 a good woman, quiet, and not talkative, 667a a good woman without pretence, 255b a great lover of women, 571a a leader in the deed (woman), 520b a matrimonial adventurer, 324a a perfect woman, nobly planned, 393a a poor slight woman, 137b a spirit, yet a woman too, 393a a virtuous woman, 413b a woman and a hen always gadding, 730a a woman doth the mischief brew, 147a a woman has nine cats' lives, 718b a woman perfected, 201a a woman should stand by a
 woman, 470a
 a woman the cause of most quarrels, 602b a woman will or won't, 166a
 a woman with a past, 454b a woman-thrope, 389a aim not to be great, 204a Alexander fought women, 195b all good for something or nothing, 734a all the same when the light is taken away, 708a
 all wickedness little to wickedness of women, 420b all women alike in dark, 474a all women are ambitious, 208a always younger than a man, 29b an artful woman makes a modern saint, 260a an evil, but a necessary evil, 573a and bairns keep counsel of what they know not, 877b and girls must be praised, 877b and princes must trust somebody, 275b answer a woman according to her womanishness, 323b are angels, wooing, 298b
 art thou a woman's son, 320b as full of words as a woman, 234b as great pity to see woman weep
 as goose go barefoot, 738a as soon as they belong to us we no longer belong to them, 707b as the woman sees the man, 260f as wicked as the devil, 46a at best a contradiction, 251a average woman too crooked for business, 195a beat men in evil counsel, 572b become like their mothers, 389a believe not a woman even when she dies, 470a better the devil's than a woman's slave, 210b between a woman's Yes and No, 744a

Woman, Women—contd.

born to suffer, 616b born to wed, 240a break her neck—a politician did
 it, 437a
 bridal favours and raiment stowed
 away, 367a
 Britannia's daughters more fair than nice, 404b by nature extravagant, 470a can discover many contrivances, 477b can like a man in 67 different ways, 346b cannot be turned, 838b cannot keep counsel, 195a caught by valour, 51a cause of evil in the world, 572a change doth please a woman's
 mind, 403b
 change of women makes bald knives, 747a charm indispensable to woman, 18a choose not a woman by candlelight, 748a
 come to see and to be seen, 661a commend a modest man, but like him not, 877b companions to us men, 383b conceals what she knows not, 730a contradictoriness of, 602a courtesy wins woman, 365b created for the comfort of men, 175a dally not with money or women, 750b dares all things when she loves or hates, 493b
 dear deluding woman, 47a dear destructive woman, 47a,
 note deceit and weeping given to
 women, 77b
 deeper than men, 103b destructive, damnable, deceitful woman, 240b differ as Heaven and Hell, 365a differ only by education, 108a dignity of womanhood, 67b discreet women have neither eyes nor ears, 752a divine perfection of a woman, 318a divinely in the wrong, 404b
 drops of women's rheum, 308a each woman a brief of woman-
 kind, 240b
 earliest, latest care—to be fair, 204a
 earthly paradise and hell lie in the word Woman, 711a easy credulity of women, 529a either loves or hates ; there is no third course, 494b England hell and Italy paradise for women, 755a ever varying and changeable, 679a every woman at heart a rake, 250a every woman knows that, 18a every woman would rather be beautiful than good, 758a faith in womankind, 361a far-fetched and dear-bought is
 good for ladies, 760a
 feminine policy has a mysterious method, 698a find few real friends, 204a fine woman can do without fine
 clothes, 720a
 fool that willingly provokes
 woman, 139a

Woman, Women—contd.

fools are wise men in the affairs of women, 762b for the hearth, 360b for the use of man, 358a for thy more sweet understanding, a woman, 277a forbear to blame all women for the guilt of a few, 615b frailty thy name is woman, 290b framed to make women false, 301a from women's eyes this doctrine I derive, 277a gaming, women, and wine, 764b gentle voice an excellent thing in woman, 307a give Society its highest taste, 369b giving honour unto the woman, 431a good disposition the best adornment, 498a great ambition of, to inspire love, 697a grief the unhappy charter of our sex, 386a grown bad, are worse than men, 877b guide the plot, 328a had a woman ever less? 47b handsome women fall to ugly men, 771a hard to say what can win woman's love, 223b hardly fit for theology, 701b has her way, 168b has never a soul to save, 171a hath believed, repented and reproached, 274b have a delight in fools, 763b have always some arrière-pensée, 701b have an instinct for sympathy, 701b have but two faults, 438b have many faults and chiefly indifference to pleasing their husbands, 581b have no rank, 701b he that loves Glass without G, 780a he who can avoid women, let him do so, 634a heart of women argues, not the mind, 5b his muse was born of woman, 168a how divine a thing a woman may be made, 399b how hard it is for women to keep counsel, 285b I blot out women from my mind, 512b I can tell a woman's age, 145b I have known the disposition of women, 602a
 I hate a learned woman, 478a
 I love women (not angels), 111a I write a woman's oaths in water, 476a ideal man should talk to us as goddesses, 388b if a woman were little as she is good, 788a if men were unselfish as women, 86b if weak women went astray, 259b if wise as fair, 79a if with his tongue he cannot win a woman, 281b if woman be a slave, can man be free, 326b if women interfere friendship is in danger, 375b if women could be fair, 110a

Woman, Women—contd.

in her selfless mood (woman), 365a in sex a woman, in ability a man, 654a (woman) is ill when she chooses, 877b (woman) is made of glass, 716a, 730a is man's confusion, 581a, 580b it is not the most beautiful women whom men love most, 796b it is not What has she, but What is she, 797b jealousy of a woman sets the house on fire, 554a jewels make women fat or thin, 18a jewels move a woman's mind, 281b (women) know a point more than the devil, 877b last at Christ's cross, 17b last man on earth will be lost through a woman, 330a last of all the woman died also, 423b Latin-bred woman seldom ends well, 726a laugh when they can, weep when they will, 877b law unjust to women, 564b learning and women, 96a let the woman take an elder than herself, 297b let women spin, not preach, 801a let your women keep silence in the churches, 428b like all rogues, a calumniator of the sex, 274a like women's anger, 125a logic of the heart, 387a love embraces woman's life, 711b love fills women's minds, 105a (women) love great men, 33a love of a woman and a bottle of wine not lasting, 847b love, the history of a woman's life, 695b love their lover in first passion; afterwards only love, 691b loved (by children) more than mortal woman should, 375a (woman) loves her lover, 62b (woman) made from man's funnybone, 18a made to give our eyes delight, 404b made to temper man, 240a make earth very pleasant, 103b malice of woman, 420b
 man is fire and woman tow, 807a man that lays his hands upon a woman, 372a
 man the hunter, woman his game, 360b man to command, woman to obey, 360b mames joye and al his blisse, 581a man's greatest blessing or greatest plague, 470a meannesses of women, 367b meeker than men, 78a
 men hated learned women, 360a
 men make money, women save it, 725a men rule the world; women rule men, 810a men the cause of women not loving each other, 702a men's fancies more giddy and unfirm, 297b middle-aged woman's paradise, 244b

Woman, Women—contd.

miracle of noble womanhood, 360a miserably superstitious, 678a modesty is the beauty of women, 811a more compassionate than woman, 68a more joy in making fools than keeping lovers, 264a more powerful to persuade, 262b more than woman to be wise, 233b most women have no characters, 251a (woman) moved is like a fountain troubled, 276b much whim, and all a contradiction, 268b
 must of woman die, 172a
 never compare women to aught, 19a never fair woman but made mouths in a glass, 306a never goes by the worse in argument, 223b
 never have enough, 877b
 never so fair, men would be false, 203b never so false, men would be fond, 203b never was woman of ill fame fair, 815a no evil more terrible, 476b no fury like a woman scorned, 92b no immoral woman who is not bad, 599a no mischief done, but a woman is one, 855b no one rejoices in revenge more than woman, 683a no other purgatory but a woman, 137a no redemption knows, 230a no social differences without women, 384b no worse evil than a bad woman, 479a nonconformist conscience unbefitting to women, 388b not much he kens of woman's breast, 54a nothing dries sooner than women's tears, 818a, note nothing ever produced better than a good woman, 479a nothing more unbearable than a wealthy woman, 558a nothing so delicate as woman's reputation, 43a now is pure womanly, 169a nut tree, an ass, and a woman, 730a (woman) of no importance, 388b of rank buy things because they have not occasion for them, 375b
 old women of both sexes, 343a
 old women's gold is not ugly, 820a
 one hair of a woman, 175a one of Nature's blunders, 95a one should not venture to joke with women, 713b one that was a woman, 296b one to show a woman, 33b one tongue enough for a woman, 823a one woman reads another's character, 183b one woman will take another's part, 823a only cowards dare affront a woman, 134a only two kinds, plain and coloured, 388a, 389a

Woman, Women—contd.

part truth, part fiction, 268b perhaps a better woman after
all, 29b
pity that no vanity is put into their composition, 825b preparations of a woman as long as a goose's legs, 850a preserve wealth, men make it, 810a reader tears to shed, 386a receive supports (pattens) from us, 643b
reduces us all to the common denominator, 323b restraint she will not brook, 221b revenge sweet to women, 62a rightly considered very talkative, 583b rules us still, 233b rum cattle to deal with, 330a safe if another is pretending to look after her, 181b said once the devil would have him about women, 316a saints in churches; at home devils, 390a say nothing good, do nothing
right, 438b
sea, fire, woman,—three evils, 472b seduces all mankind, 143a seldom asks advice, 3a seldom errs who thinks the worst of womankind, 169a seldom fail to make men turn tail, 52a sely woman, ful of innocence, 80a seven women shall take hold of one man, 417a shallow, changing woman, 319a shameless woman, 434a she is a woman, therefore may be won (or wooed), 276a, 317a
she that is ashamed to eat at
table eats in private, 833a she who desires to please many desires guilt, 582a
she'll not appear a saint, 404b shine with borrowed light, 877b ship and a woman ever repairing, 727b, note
should talk after supper, 137a should think myself a very bad
woman, 2a sighed till woman smiled, 66b silence in woman, 182b silence not woman's greatest vice,
834b silence the best ornament of,
469b, 834b
slighted woman knows no bounds, 375b smells well when she smells of
nothing, 581a
so hard upon the woman, 361a so mere a woman in her ways, 266b so unto the man is woman, 199b some are great lovers, 121b souls of women are so small, 52b souvent femme varie, 707b still gentler sister woman, 45a surest way to charm a woman's tongue, 437a
take a woman's first advice and not the second, 831b take heed of a Latin-bred woman, 838b talk to every woman as if you loved her, 389a

Woman, Women—contd.

tell a woman she's a beauty and the devil will tell her so ten times, 849b
the female woman, 27b the female of the species, 190b the Mistress of Hearts, 237b the more women look in the glass the less they look to their house, 848b
the only rank that elevates woman, 244b
the sphere of woman's glories, 233b the tongue their chief weapon, 877b the weaker vessel, 431a the worst of plagues, 152b their crafts and tricks, 44b there is a woman in it, 137b these tell-tale women, 319a they would have all men bound and thrall, 269a this be the female dignity and
praise, 369b
this one a bad bargain, 572a though now she won't, anon she
will, 438a
three women make a market, 858b thrives on regret, 244b Thy perfect gift, 221b
tide in the affairs of women, 64a time to marry when the woman woos, 796b tired woman's epitaph, 445a 'tis woman's whole existence, 62a to be gained by flattery, 80b to cheat a woman requires fine parts, 43a
to guess women by appearances, 52a to no woman is her personal appearance displeasing, 603b to turn the current of a woman's will, 373a
to worth in women overtrusting, 221b troublesome cattle to deal with,
201a truer than men, 78a trust a woman, I'll trust the devil first, 138a
tu mihi sola places, 672a two are worse than one, 581a two women placed together make cold weather, 319b uncertain, coy, and hard to please, 270a
variable as a feather in the wind, 715a varium et mutabile semper, 679a very honest woman, but something given to lie, 307b virtuous woman's price is far above rubies, 415a waists, small, desires extensive,
372b wakeful woman's never weary,
15b wakes to love, 365a was ever woman in this humour won, 318b waves more trustworthy than woman's faith, 438b we may find wisdom in women, when an ass climbs a ladder, 860b we may live with, but cannot live without 'em, 263a we wage no war with women, 336b were there no women men might live like gods, 109a

Woman, Women—contd.

what a man may do, and yet a woman think him an angel, 367a what an enraged woman can do, 537a
what I think I must speak, 289a what is better than a good woman, 78b
what mighty ills done by woman, 240a what woman wills God wills, 739a when did woman ever yet invent, 360a when I say I know women, I mean I know that I don't, 367b when I trust a wild fool and a
woman, 137a
when injured women are generally implacable, 550a when lovely woman stoops to
folly, 149b
when man wants weight, woman takes it up, 360b when modesty is gone a woman will refuse nothing, 590a when openly wicked, then good, 491a
when wives desire na soveraintie, 203b when you see a woman paint, you need not faint, 872b where a woman is in the concert, 109a whether they give or refuse, delight to have been asked, 627b whistling woman and a crowing hen, 729b who can find a virtuous woman, 415a who cannot be forced on anyone, 520b
who is 't can read a woman, 309b whom thou mad'st to be my help, 221b
who to a woman trusts, 152b
whose talent is to serve, 121b will be the last thing civilised, 214a wine and wenches, 876a wine and women cause wise men to fall, 203a wine and women undo men, 825b wisdom in women, 26a wisest men deceived by women, 223b without a woman at its head, 379a without sense of honour, 93a without women life would be deprived of help, pleasure and consolation, 707a woman a microcosm, 140a woman and glass ever in danger, 730a woman better than wisdom, 78b woman born of delay, 581a woman, dog and walnut tree, 730a woman that cries hush, 354a
woman that deliberates, 2b woman that paints puts up a bill, to let, 730b woman to be from her house thrice, at christening, marriage, burial, 730a woman we love will be always in the right, 699b woman who loved him the best, 189a
woman who meditates alone, meditates evil, 581a woman who talks like a man is no good, 729b

Woman, Women—contd.

woman, woman, rules them still, 22b womanhood and childhood fleet, 198a womankind had but one rosy mouth, 64a womanliness means only motherhood, 35b woman's cause is man's, 361a woman's counsel is fatal, 730a woman's counsel is too dear or too cheap, 505a woman's hair long; her tongue longer, 730b woman's happiest knowledge and her praise, 219a woman's heart a mirror, which receives impressions without attaching itself to any object, 699a woman's heart was unbroken, 25a woman's life useless, 117a woman's locks long, but her wits short, 804b woman's love is writ in water, 7a woman's mind and winter wind change oft, 730b woman's nay doth stand for nought, 322b woman's nay is no denial, 730b woman's no never a negative, 329b woman's noblest station is retreat, 204a woman's oaths are wafers, 138a woman's reason, 281a, 458b woman's tongue three inches long, but it can kill a man six feet high, 877a woman's whole existence, 176b woman's word a bundle of water, 730b woman's work and washing of dishes, 730b woman's work is never done, 730b women acquaintances of great men, 234b women and care and trouble, 378b
 women and girls must be praised, 712b women and men, contending powers, 204b women are strongest, 419a women be forgetful, 436b women, giddy women, 212b
 women make manners, 702a women may fall, 279a women must weep, 189a women when they list can cry, 255b women who grieve least lament most, 561a women won by flattery, 196b women's bolt is soon shot, 720b women's company, school of manners, 175a women's counsel not worth much, but they are mad who do not take it, 730a woman's hell is old age, 696a women's jars, men's wars, 141b, 877b women's letters, the pith in the postscript, 159b women's revenge, 62b women's slander is the worst, 359a women's thoughts are after-thoughts, 877b women's weapons, water-drops, 306a words for women, actions for men, 878a

Woman, Women—contd.

wronged woman can cherish hate, 386a worse occupations than feeling a woman's pulse, 343b wyse in short avysement, 79b you may easily find a worse, but there is no better woman, 529a See Lasses, Sex, Wife Won and lost, entirely, 20b some say that we, 440a when all is, 54a would be wooed and not unsought be, 220b

WONDER and WONDERS

a great thing, hardly to be believed, 571a
 a secret world of wonders, 370a a wonder lasts but nine days (or nights), 79b, 730b all a wonder and a wild desire, 35a all the wonder that would be, 358b all the world wondered, 361b fools are aye seein' ferlies, 762a he has dismissed from our minds the fear of wonders, 660b his hair on end at his own wonders, 100a I do not envy but rather wonder, 597b most wonderful, wonderful, 289a no other beginning of learning (than wonder), 448b seen (wonders) or imagined through fear, 677b the wonder of earthly and heavenly things, 630a this might happen to Hercules, but not to us, 544a too wonderful for me, 412a universe full of magical things, 244a without our special wonder, 304b wonder at nothing, 474b, 591a, 593a Wonder, daughter of Ignorance, 877b wonder how the devil they got there, 252a wonder is he hath endured so long, 307a wonder is involuntary praise, 408b wonder of still-gazing eyes, 321a wonders in the deep, 413a wonderful to relate, 577b See Amaze, 74b
 Won't, if she, she won't, 166a, note Woo her, and that would, 301a April when they, 289b if she slight me when I, 390b over midden, better, than over moss, 744a who may, without cost, 875b Wooed and married and a', 265b beautiful and therefore to be, 317a was ever woman in this humour, 318b would be, and not unsought be won, 220b See Wooing
WOOD
 a little wood will heat a little oven, 724b a slender thing of wood, 232a cleave thou the wood and there am I, 380b green wood makes a hot fire, 770a half burnt is easily kindled, 877b heap on more wood, 270a of an ill wood take, though it be but one stick, 819b old wood burns brightest, 384a old wood is best, 820a

Wood—contd.

to carry wood to a forest, 553b touch wood, it's sure to come good, 862b, note uninforming piece of wood, 91b you are not wood, 286a

WOODS

a forest long in growing, but soon ashes, 676a a spirit in the woods, 393a a wood is long in making, 591a enter these enchanted woods, 213a farewell, ye woods, 559b fresh woods, and pastures new, 226b half a rood to plant a wood, 255b
 have ears, 761a
 his daily teachers woods and rills, 393b made sacred by religious mysteries, 494a more in woods than in books, 258a, note one impulse from a vernal wood, 399a please us above all things, 595a silent in the healthful woods, 667a the gods dwell in the woods, 540a the pathless woods, 56a Timon will to the woods, 308b you cannot see the wood for the trees, 879a Woodbine, luscious, 280b the well-attired, 226b Woodcock, as a, to my own springe, 297b one, makes not a winter, 822b winter enough for the snipe and, 856a Woodcocks, springes to catch, 291b Wooden legs, a person with two, 115b walls (ships), 447b, 583a Woodman, spare that tree, 235a Woodnotes wild, warble his native, 224a Wooer, a thriving, 83a Wooing and hanging go by destiny, 771a blessed the, not long a-doing, 745a happy the, not long in doing, 16a, 771b WOOL, WOOLLEN better give wool than the sheep, 743a came for wool, 34a great cry, but little wool, 812b it is ill wool that will take no dye, 745a many go out for wool and return shorn, 807b none so white but a dyer can make it black, 856a odious, in woollen 1250b pull the fleeces of their wool, 330a their (Fates') whitest wool, 182b wind up with the whitest wool, 164b wool-seller knows a wool-buyer, 730b woollen clothing keeps the skin healthy, 715b Worcester, motto of, 652b WORDS
 a common man has more thoughts than words, 323b a contentious man never lacks words, 177b a deluge of words and a drop of sense, 719b a dictatorial word, 145a a different sense will bear words, 124a

Words—contd.

a few of the unpleasant'st words, 283a a fitly spoken word, 414b a fond old man is full of words, 234b a foot-and-a-half long (words), 626a, 669a a glutton of words, 194a a man of words and not of deeds, 446b a new word in my dream, 263a a ready utterance, more fluent than Isæus, 555b a splitter of words, 545b a word and a stone cannot be recalled, 730b a word to the wise is enough, 515a, note, 730b above the reach of ordinary men, 303b abundance of words, 506a actions, not words, 51a actions to thy words, accord, 222b after word comes weird, 732a all words are faint, 234a allowable to coin words with modern meaning, 566b ambiguity of words, 8a an hour in words, 172b an overwhelming rush of words, 680b and feathers the wind carries away, 878a and maxims to alleviate this affliction, 666a and no performance, 210b and voice please, 680b
 any words good enough for music, 245a
 apt and gracious words, 277a are but sands; money buys lands, 878a are but wind, 17b, 51b are easy, 17b are fools' pence, 878a are for women; actions for men, 878a are like leaves, 246b are no deeds, 320a are things, 63a are wind, but blows are the devil, 878a are wise men's counters, 166b are women, deeds men, 751a barren superfluity of words, 142a beauty and beauteous words, 164a beauty and grace of, short-lived words, 580b bethumped with words, 311b better one living word than a hundred dead, 743b big words seldom accompany great deeds, 770a brave words in another's trouble, 542b breathed words would all be lost, 184b build no walls, 451a burning words (ardentia verba), 398a, 491b but direct, example must allure, 345b by his word he pacifies the waters, 657a by thy words thou shalt be condemned, 422b by winning words to conquer, 222a carve every word, 167b cause of most mischiefs, 42b changing of words is lighting of hearts, 747a

B.Q

Words—contd.

charm added to gifts by words, 496b children pick up words, 747b choice words and measured phrase, 393b clearness the important thing in use of words, 620a clothed in reason's garb, 217a coiner of sweet words, 4b cool words scald not the tongue, 749a come from you in a crowd, 311b comfortable words, 432b copiousness always false eloquence, 229a cost nothing and go a long way, 749a cunning juxtaposition of words, 517b current tokens or marks, 8a daughters of earth, 181b, 751a, note deceive you with vain words, 429b deception by words and countenance, 512a deeds, not words, 529b did follow the plain word, 341a distance between high words and deeds, 338a divide and rend, 353a do you suppose virtue consists of words, 684b dressing old words new, 322a each word-catcher, 252a employ words commonly used, 659a enough of words, 649a entangle and pervert, 8a enticing words of man's wisdom, 427b evening words not like to morning, 755b every word echoes in God's skies, 260a
 every lover gives words, 680b evil words cut worse than swords, 852a fair words break never bone, foul break many, 760a fair words cost right nought, 403b fair words enough a man shall find, 403b fair words make fools fain, 760a fair words make me look to my purse, 760a fear restraineth words sometimes, 376a few words and looks fond, 105a few words are best, 761a finde words newe, 77a fine words do not grease the cabbage, 835b fine words dress ill deeds, 761a fine words, I wonder where he stole 'em, 348b fool and his words soon parted, 327b foolish to try to undo deeds by words, 663b
 for mad words deaf ears, 763a for your punishment, words, 670b foul words and frowns must not repel a lover, 320b form of sound words, 430b from airy words, 396b from sharp words men pluck no fruit, 353a from words they almost came to blows, 214a give a sweet and gentle word, 165 good words and no deeds, 769a

Words—contd.

good words cool more than water, 769a good words were best, 312a good words without deeds are rushes and reeds, 769a govern men, 116a hard words break no bones, 771b harsh words uncouth appear, 142a have thy will of words, 353a he speaks stones, 564a he that hath knowledge spareth his words, 414a he that uses many words is like the cuttle-fish, 263a he utters empty words, 511a He was the Word that spake it, 120a high words that bore semblance of worth, 216b his words a very fantastical banquet, 284a his acid words, 168a his words like nimble and airy servitors, 228b his words were simple words, 202a honest man's word as good as his bond, 735b honour his own word as if his God's, 366a
 how every fool can play upon the word, 283a how feebly words essay, 56b how forcible are right words, 411a I thank thee, Roderick, for the word, 271b I understand a fury in your words, 302b imagine more than is expressed by my words, 652a immodest words admit of no defence, 115b in place of gifts, 515a in the captain but a choleric word, 299b instead of meal (words), 586a ipsissima verba, 559b
 is but wind, 203a learned by rote, words, 97b like cloud of winged snakes, 325b like fashions, 246b like Nature, half reveal, 362a little words of love, 74a, 240a love allured by words, 519a love fostered by sweet words, 524a loud words and longing, 353a low words please us, when the theme is low, 244b magic of the tongue, 205a man lives by catch-words, 343b man's word is God in man, 364a many a word at random spoken, 273b many things in few words, 420b many words go to one sack, 808b many words hurt more than swords, 808b many words wald have mickle drink, 808b many words will not fill the bushel, 808b may be false and full of art, 276a may my words be forgiven, 659a may pass, but blows fall heavy, 878a men's words bolder than deeds, 88a mingled herbs and words not harmless, 578a modulated to suit Latin lutes, 601b more generous construction preferred in law, 497a

R R

Words—contd.

most felt, least said, 812*b* move slow, 247*a* my word breathes flame, 33*b* never wants his own good word, 108*a* new and lately coined words, 525*b* no need to translate word for word, 588*a* no word is ill spoken if it be not ill taken, 817*a* no word that is profitable is bad, 476*b* nor can one word be changed, 257*b* nor words express, 75*a* not a word to throw at a dog, 288*a*, 818*a* not enough in all Shakespeare, 344*a* not scrupulous about words, or names, 105*a* not Sunday-school words, 84*a* of all words of tongue or pen, 386*b* of Cato few, but proceeding from a heart full of truth, 617*a* of glazing courtesy, 225*a* of his mouth smoother than butter, 412*b* of learned length, 148*b* (of Luther) were half battles, 453*b* of no use to a despairing friend, 591*a* of poor men are in vain, 480*a* of the wise as goads, 416*b* of truth and soberness, 426*b* oft the words come forth awrie, 346*b* old words that long have slept, 253*b* once familiar word, 19*a* one good word can warm three winter months, 821*b* one ill word asketh another, 821*b* one ill word meets another, 822*a* one word of yours more weighty than a hundred of mine, 539*a* our words 31*a* pay no debts, 298*b* plentiful when the subject has possession of the mind, 642*b* poets' right to coin words, 239*b* poet's touch makes words phosphorescent, 702*a* power of order and conjunction of words, 668*b* proper words in proper places, 348*b* reconciling words and courteous mien, 185*a* Say well is good, Do well is better, 831*a* saying gangs cheap, 831*a* saying is one thing, doing another, 831*a* seeds of evil words and factious deeds, 340*b* seek to quench the fire of love with words, 281*b* slang is metaphor, 81*a* smooth words make smooth ways, 835*a* so mumble, 20*a* soft words and hard arguments, 835*b* soft winds break no bones, 835*b* soft words hurt not the mouth, 835*b* soft words win hard hearts, 835*b* soft words with nothing in them, 377*b* sound without mind, 511*a* speaks the kindest words, 195*b* spoken in due season, 414*a*

Words—contd.

spoken word cannot be recalled, 512*b*, 525*b* steeped in honey; hearts in gall, 552*a* strangest words at your beck and call, 381*a* study of words, 373*a* suit the word to the action, 294*b* Sunday words and Saturday cheer, 838*a*
 syllables govern the world, 275*b* take a man by his word, 838*b* tempestuous winds of words, 211*a* ten low words oft creep in one dull line, 247*a* tender words and faces, 351*b* that may become alive, 191*a* that will solace him, 67*b* the censure of a bitter word, 210*b* the empty word perishes, 567*a* the last words of Marmion, 270*b* the magic of the necessary words, 191*a* the money of fools, 166*b* the most powerful drug, 190*b* the only things that last for ever, 159*b* the soul's ambassadors, 175*a* the word is well culled, 277*b* the word of Cæsar, 286*a* the words she spoke of Mrs. Harris, 113*b* therefore let thy words be few, 415*b* they have eaten poisonous words, 352*b* things first made, then words, 240*b* thorns to grief, 353*a* those old American words, 84*a* to be tried before resort to arms, 611*b*
 to enhance good deeds by words, 486*a* to hide one's meaning with words, 53*a* torture one poor word, 124*b* trust follows his words, 515*a* twist words and meanings, 144*a* uncouth words in disarray, 181*b* unmeaning torrent of words, 554*a* unpack my heart with words, 293*b* vent prowess in a storm of words, 332*b* vice wrapped up in virtuous words, 680*b* want wit, not words, 164*a* we throw our words in a perforated cask, 553*a* well-placed words, 76*a* were drawn swords, 412*b* what need is there for words, 637*a* what so wild as words, 36*a* when others speak a railing word, 382*b* when wine sinks, words swim, 872*a* which deserve to be quoted, 632*a* which tyrants quake to hear, 206*b* who in words are valiant, 88*b* whose words took all ears captive, 299*a* wild and whirling words, 292*a*
 winged words, 471*b*
 wit of words inferior to wit of ideas, 322*b* with lucky words, 226*a* without knowledge, 412*a* without thoughts, 293*b* word before is worth two behind, 730*b*

Words—contd.

word by word the book is made, 878*a* word is but wind, 878*a* word of onset gave, 395*b* word once out flies everywhere, 730*b* word only occurring once, 468*b* word out of season may mar a life, 478*a* words now in disuse will revive; now in use will become obsolete, 581*b* words, phrases, fashions, 18*b* words that burn, 154*b* words that weep, 94*b* words to the dead, 680*b* words will pass away, 751*a* words, words, or I shall burst, 134*a* words, words, words, 292*b* wordy war, 57*b*
 wranglers never want words, 878*a*
 ye should be a king of your word, 878*b* you pour out words to winds, 680*a* your reply, as usual, in few words, 646*a* you snatch words out of my mouth, 672*b* your words, they rob the Hybla bees, 287*a* Wordsworth and Lake District, 380*b* Jerrold criticises, 177*a* lines on, 241*a* not to be classified, 234*b* out-babbling, 204*b* true philosopher, 187*a* Wordsworth's sweet calm, 5*a* trust in this our chosen land, 353*b* WORK, WORKS, WORKERS a foul foot makes a full weam, 720*b* a good heart rids work, 818*a* a man may spit in his palm and do nothing, 725*a* a remedy in his sleeve, 699*b* a reward for work, 613*a* advice to youth, work, work, work, 450*a* all these his wondrous works, 218*b* all work and no play makes Jack a dull boy, 734*a* all work noble, 73*a* an ill labourer quarrels with his tools, 735*b* and labour of love, 430*b* and play, order of the universe, 107*a*
 any country supports a skilled workman, 629*a* arms are broken when wages are paid, 872*a*
 as good play for nothing as work for nothing, 738*a*
 be not ashamed of your handicraft, 740*b* bears witness who well does, 878*a* behold your work, 115*a* best work is done on the quiet, 841*a* better finger off nor ay warkin', 742*b* blessed he who has found his work, 73*a* breaks an idle fellow's legs, arms, and back, 878*a* changes of work a lightening of hearts, 747*a* day is short, the work is much, 842*a* do the work that's nearest, 189*a*

Work, Works, Workers—contd.

elbow-grease the best polish, 754b
every day brings it's work, 756a every man's work shall be made manifest, 427b faith apart from works is barren, 430b first problem for man to find his
work, 71a
God bless all true workers, 166a God doth not need man's work, 227a
God's own work to do on earth,
186b gods sell all things for hard work, 480a
good works make the man, 93b grows fair through starry dreaming, 250b
gude foresight furthers the work, 770b he has worked for the King of Prussia, 773a he is not the best wright that hews the maniast speals, 774a
he toiled and toiled, 335a he will not forget your works, 432b he worked and sung, 22a help hands, I have no lands, 785a his work as a spark, 416b I can't work for nothing and find thread, 787a
I have completed a lasting work, 561b
I like work ; it fascinates me, 177a if any will not work, let him not eat, 566a
if this counsel or work be of men, 426a
imperial works and worthy kings, 251b in working well, if travail you sustain, 156a is ever our best friend, 703b keep at work that the devil may find you employed, 529b labour is in no respect disgraceful, 471b languishes with the body, 485a life of sweet small works, 353b little wit in head makes much
work for feet, 804a
long talk makes short work, 804b love will hallow all work, 333b man goeth forth to his work, 413a man immortal till his work is done, 441a
man's work lasts till set of sun, 730b
many hands, light work, 807b men the workers, 358b men work and think, 266a morning bringing back work and toil, 494b neither wise nor fools can work without tools, 814b
never shirk the hardest work, 815a no work, no money, 815b
no work, no recompense, 817b non-working man, ghastliest of unrealities, 324a none without reward, 605b nothing done except in workman-like fashion, 592b nothing is mean or irksome, 333b
often father of pleasure, 701a our work is different, 517a proud work of human skill, 392a report commends one work above all his others, 675b rich in good works, 430a ripples on the sea (our works), 352b

Work, Works, Worker's—contd.

shortened by being shared (or divided), 517b something attempted, something done, 197b
superfluous works, 420a the dust of the workshop, 244a the end crowns (or praises) the
work, 843a
the grand cure, 71a the greatest part accomplished, 574a the more we work the more we shall be down-trodden, 848b
the more we work the more we
may, 848b
the work excelled the material, 574a the work goes bravely on, 83a the work goes on with a will, 532a the worky-day, 163b the younger men to work, 562a their works do follow them, 431b these are Thy glorious works, 219b these see the works of the Lord, 413a this is ours, to make our works righteous, 354a this is the work, this is the labour, 544b this working-day world, 288a time devoted to work never lost, 132a to have tow on one's distal, 860b to love working and reading, 382b to work is to pray, 563b to know the works of God, 218b wages of work, in Heaven, 73a well to work and make a fire, 867b what an endless work, 340b what better work than to keep from sin, 375a what the eye has seen, the hand may do, 868a
when folks sing at work, 22b
when I die, may I be taken in midst of my work, 642b who first invented work ?, 191b will is the soul of work, 818b willing to work finds it hard to wait, 783b
wisdom justified by her works, 422b work as though work alone thine end could gain, 368b work for ourself and a woman, 189b work for work's sake, 35b work heartily, as unto the Lord, 430a work in evidence, 35b work of the world must be done, 238a work which you follow is mortal, 580a working and making a fire require discretion, 878a working the best worship, 72b works and creatures of God, 14a works of God, our imperfect conjectures as to, 263a works, to be seen of men, 423b your work of faith, 430a Zeus hates those who do too much, 451a
See Toil, Workmen
Work, now let it, 286b Workings, the hum of mighty, 84b WORKMAN, WORKMEN
a little let lets an ill workman,
724a a workman is known by his work, 731a

Workman, Workmen—contd.

an ill shearer gat never a good hook, 735b at the end of the work judge of the workman, 739b bad workmen desire good wages, 215a better workman, the worst
husband, 841a
diligence makes an expert workman, 752a
glory of a workman, 71a good workman never overpaid, 722b good workmen are seldom rich, 769a he will make a spoon or spoil a horn, 783b practice makes the workman, 826a we become workmen by working,
528b what is a workman without his tools, 868a work proves the workman, 614a working makes a workman, 797a Work-Master, to glorify the great,
218b
WORLD, WORLDS, WORLDLY a citizen of the world, 10a a crocodilian world, 260b a fourra for the world, 316a a glass which shines, made by a breath, 706b a good deed in a naughty world, 284a
a great while ago the world began,
298b a jolly strange world, 21a a living statue of God, 583a a man may see without eyes how this world goes, 306b a most fictile world, 72a a perpetual see-saw, 700a a prophecy of worlds to come, 407a a scene of changes, 94b a stage, 583a a staircase ; some going up, some
down, 853a
a world of gammon and spinnage, 114a a world in anguish, 35b a worthless world to win or lose, 54b all a camera, 733b all the world and his father, 733b all the world and his wife, 454a, 733b
all the world and Little Billing, 734a all the world and Bingham, 734a,
note
all the world shaking hands, 390b all's right with the world, 31a allured to brighter worlds, 148a anywhere out of the world, 169a as bad before thou wert born, 136b as God has made it, 36a
as if some lesser god had made the
world, 366a
at eventide the world was drowned, 186a be wisely worldly, 261a boisterous seas of troublous world, 130b book-learned fools who miss the
world, 121a
born not for himself but for the
world, 587b
but a child, yet in the go-cart, 361a children of this world, 424a

World, Worlds, Worldly—contd.
 comedy to those who think, tragedy to those who feel, 377*b* crash of worlds, 2*a* dream not of other worlds, 220*b* enthusiasm moves the world, 1*ab*
 every man is a little world, 757*a* every world's thing is vain, 152*a* exhausted worlds, 178*a* rever of the world, 393*b* gain the whole world, 423*a* get the start of this majestic world, 285*a*
 give me a standing place and I will move the earth, 470*b* good-bye, proud world, 131*b* good in the lump, 90*b* good things of the world do not equal its ills, 497*b* good world to lend, spend, or give in, 438*b*, 439*a* God hath made this world so fair, 229*b*
 has been harsh, 35*b* has little to bestow, 15*a* has nothing to bestow, 94*a* hated the bad world, 37*b* he doth bestride the narrow world, 285*a*
 he that dies in the world wants four sieves, 777*a* here are we, in a bright and breathing world, 401*b* his interest in both worlds, 23*a* his reared arm crested the world, 307*b*
 hollow as an eggshell, 1*ad* how it whirled, 107*b* how the world wags, 288*b* how the world may deem of me, 317*a*
 I have not loved the world, 55*a* I hold the world, but as the
 world, 282*a*
 I sketch the world exactly as it goes, 64*a* if there's another world, 47*b* ignorance of the world, 66*a* in some bright world, 91*a* in the world who cannot swim goes to the bottom, 793*a* in this harsh world draw thy breath in pain, 297*b* into this breathing world, 318*a* is a bundle of hay, 61*b* is a net; the more we stir the more we are entangled, 853*a* is all a fleeting show, 232*a* is an old woman, 72*b* is but a play, 69*b*, 437*a* is full of beauty, 210*a*, is full of care, 378*b* is governed too much, 458*b* is my native land, 601*a* is not sweet in the end, 351*a* is not thy friend, 280*a* is runne quite out of square, 340*b* is too much with us, 394*b* is very old, 450*b* it is a wicked world and we make part of it, 794*b* it's a weary world, 17*b* know, not love the world, 408*a* large enough for us both, 40*b* let the great world spin for ever, 359*a*
 let the world slide, 165*b* let the world sink, 164*a* lie in wait for worldly state, 399*b* look round the habitable world, 127*a*
 looks the whole world in the face, 197*b*

World, Worlds, Worldly—contd.
 love made the world, 489*b* made for me, not me for the
 world, 334*a*
 made of good and bad men, 853*a* man of the world, inglorious style, 407*b*
 meets nobody half-way, 192*a* mind, the ruler of the world, 446*b* much the same everywhere, 853*a* must be getting old, 177*a* must turn upon its axis, 62*a* neglecting worldly ends, 310*b* no blot nor blank, 33*a* O souls, bent down to earth, 606*a* O who would trust this world, 261*a* of whom the world was not worthy, 430*b*
 one cannot please all the world and his father, 816*a* one half does not know how the other half lives, 821*b* one half laughs at the other, 821*b* our one out of all worlds, 34*a* our worldly hope turns Ashes, 135*b*
 poet, a world in miniature, 454*a* prevailed and its dread laugh, 360*b*
 purchase the next world with this, 828*b* redeems itself by war, 106*b* so goth the world, now wo, now wele, 152*b*
 so many worlds, so much to do, 362*b*
 so passes the glory of the world,
 657*b*, note
 so runs the world away, 295*a* somewhat in this world amiss, 357*a*
 souls that plague the gentle
 world, 106*b*
 stay, worldling, stay, 354*b* take the world as it is, not as it ought to be, 839*a* the centre of a world's desire, 362*b* the cooings of the world, 408*a* the flaming limits of the world, 104*a*
 the glory of the world, 607*b* the pendent world, 300*a* the temple of the gods, 671*b* the Troubler of the world, 381*b* the world and we, mere by-blows, 106*b*
 the world forgetting, by the world forgot, 255*a* the world full of religion, knavery and change, 20*a* the world is a prison, 712*a* the world is lovely, 37*b* the world is mine, 147*b* the world, the flesh, and the devil, 151*b*, 432*a*
 the world's a city, 139*b*
 the world's grown honest, 292*b*
 the world's mine oyster, 287*b*
 the world's slow stain, 326*b* the world's uncertain span, 273*a* the World's Whirligig, 434*b* the world's wicked, 210*a* there needs a long time to know the world's pulse, 856*a* these laid the world away, 26*a* this great roundabout, 102*b* this interminable wilderness of worlds, 324*b* this is the world; everyone thinks himself above his neighbour, 790*b*
 this little world (England), 312*b* this pendent world, 218*a*

World, Worlds, Worldly—contd.
 this sweet fleeting world, 235*b* this world nothing except it tend to another, 857*b* this wretched world of sorrow, 129*a* throughout the world dispersed, 398*a*
 Thule not the extremity of the
 world, 587*b*
 'tis a mad world, 859*b* to a world of death, 86*b* to frame a world of other stuff, 395*b*
 to peep at such a world, 100*a* vain only to the vain, 406*a* value the world not a button, 75*a* walls of the world, 34*b* wandering between two worlds, 5*a* was all before them, 222*a* was never made, 356*b* was sad, 66*b* we brought nothing into this world, 430*a*
 what lost a world, 57*a* what might I not have made of Thy world, 366*a* which is the world of all of us, 393*b* which of her lovers ever found her
 true, 408*a*
 who bathes in worldly joys, 140*a* wide enough for thee and me, 342*b* will give us to Heaven or make us demons, 407*b* wisdom of this world, 427*b* wise, because capable of wisdom, 452*b* wiser than it was, 853*b* world and I shall ne'er agree, 94*b* world wishes to be deceived, 583*a* worldly in this world, 33*b* would have made the world too glad and free, 165*b* you cannot stand still in the world of mankind, 878*b* you have too much respect upon
 the world, 282*a*
 you sought to grasp the world, 244*a*
WORMS
 a round little worm, 278*a* (worm) and ant have their wrath, 731*a* dieth not, 424*a* destroy this body, 411*b* ete worms and swich wretched-nesse, 79*a* in sweetest flowers, 101*a* in the bud of youth, 102*b* like a worm i' the bud, 298*a* needlessly sets foot upon a worm, 101*a*
 not a worm is cloven in vain, 362*b* swells a haughty worm, 382*a* the worm that never dies, 26*a* the worm, the canker, and the grief, 61*b*
 which worms could not forget, 116*b*
 worm will turn, 318*a*, 731*a*, 863*a* your only emperor for diet, 296*a* Worry will not pay debt, 726*b* themselves so, why will men, 372*a* Worries, ten die of little, 330*a* Worse and worse, grows daily, 340*b* make, appear the better reason, 217*a*
 Providence kept it from being,
 157*a*
 things are, the better they are,
 853*b*
 Worsening and worsening, 130*b* Worst, he that is, may still hold the candle, 779*b*

Worst, first, showing the, 298b imagined the, 20b none are, 69b none are, and none are best, 437a not, as long as we can say "This is the worst," 306b of all worst worsts, 182b of him, know the very, 32b of the best, making, 91b such as fain would be the worst, 236b suffer the, 308b to know not, worse than certi-tude, 354a
 to-morrow do thy, 127a

WORSHIP

a sparing and infrequent wor-shipper, 615b is transcendent wonder, 73a
 meat and matins hinder no
 journey, 809b
 of the world, but no repose, 326b the various modes of worship, 144a worship him in spirit and in truth, 425b worshipped as his fathers did, 387a
 See Church, Devotion, Prayer, Religion

Worte, gefüßelte, 712b

WORTH

a man's worth is as he esteems
 himself, 820b
 a man's worth is that of his lands, 75b according to what you have such is your value, 668a admired by worth, 268b concealed worth differs little from buried indolence, 617a every man is worth his price, 757a everything is good for something,
 758b give honest worth its honest
 praise, 171b
 goods are worth what they will
 sell for, 668b
 has been underrated; wealth overvalued, 878a how hast thou merited, 369a is what a man is worth, 553a I do find I am worth more than ever I was, 243a
 makes the man, 249b
 measure men round the heart, 809b men are not to be measured by inches, 810a men worth what they possess, 725b modest worth neglected lies, 327a
 much is she worth, 161b
 now worth this, and now worth
 nothing, 281b
 of a man, his price, 166b rarely hereditary, 74b slow rises worth by poverty depressed, 177b the conscience of her worth, 220b things dearest to us which have cost us most, 701b things worth only what one makes them worth, 701b we estimate men by virtues, not by fortune, 571a we prize not worth, whiles we enjoy, 284b
 what costs nothing is worth
 nothing, 867b
 what is aught but as 'tis valued,
 298b what is the worth of anything, 66a

Worth—contd.

what is worth in anything, 51b whatever is worth doing, 80a without wealth is a good servant out of place, 878a worth of a thing known by the
 want, 853b
 you will be worth as much to others as to yourself, 668a

WORTHLESSNESS

a worthless vessel does not get
 broken, 573a
 it is a poor dog that is not worth the whistling, 794a, note let the crowd delight in things worthless, 688b why does the vase turn out a worthless vessel, 489b your main fault is you are good for nothing, 880b

Worthy things happen to the worthy, 526b
 though that he were, 76b

Would do, what man, 36b

WOUNDS, WOUNDED, etc.

a little I am wounded, but am not slain, 435a a small wound may be mortal, 718a a wound does not pierce the soul, 688b a wound never heals so well but a scar can be seen, 731a a wounded spirit who can bear, 414a all honest wounds on the breast, 257a an incurable wound, 549b and bruises and putrefying sores, 416b cannot be cured without handling, 688a deepest wounds admit a cure, 230a despise not a small wound, 751b died of medicable wounds, 4a first did help to wound itself, 312a God who sends the wound sends the medicine, 767b green wound soon healed, 723a grievous, ghastly, gaping wounds, 315a heal, not not ill words, 808b inflicted by my own weapons, 645a little wounds not to be despised, 803b mind which has received a grievous wound, 615a no place left for any fresh wound, 598a old wounds soon bleed, 820a raw wounds shudder at a touch, 670a she cherishes the wound in her veins, 688b the evil wound is eured, but not the evil name, 843b the silent wound lives in the breast, 667a
 the wounds of honour never close,
 230a though cured leaves a scar, 239b to tear open a wound, 644a tolerable with length of time, 670a truth is the only thing that wounds, 864a virtue flourishes by a wound, 683b we wound where we never intended to strike, 367b wept o'er his wounds, 148a what wound did ever heal, but by degrees, 301b what wounds ever closed, 55a

Wounds, Wounded, etc.—contd.

willing to wound and yet afraid to strike, 252a wound and remedy from same
 hand, 675a
 wound that bleeds inwardly is most dangerous, 853b wounded in the house of my friends, 419b
 wounds by hearsay, 284b Wound up alternately, 19a Wrack, all the elements at least had gone to, 219b Wrangle, all now is, 36a ill fares it with the flock if shepherds, 274b Wrangler, Senior, who bowed from his box, 366b
 Wranglers never want words, 878a free, set the imprisoned, 100a Wrangling a joy to vulgar minds, 74b

WRATH

a vessel of wrath, 111b armed with wrath divine, 381a children of wrath, 433a even a fly has its wrath, 539b infinite wrath and infinite despair, 218b of Achilles, 474b that day of wrath, 272b vials of the wrath of God, 431b See Anger, Wrath
 Wreath of roses, 19a

WRECK and WRECKS

a thousand fearful wrecks, 318b friends after wreck, 195a, note majesty that still appeared amid the wreck, 337b sunken and sunless treasures, 316a
 wreck on shore is a beacon at sea, 731a wrecks of matter, 2a
 wreck of noble lives, 198b

WRENS

I bore this wren, 128a
 nest of, not to be harried, 850b
 "Our lady's hen," 463a
 robin redbreast and the wren,
 463a small is the wren, black is the rook 465a the wren is he, 33a
 to pounce upon a wren, 96b wrens make prey where eagles dare not perch, 318b Wren (Sir Christopher) builds
 wisdom, 132a

Wren's epitaph, 655a Wrestle, he that is thrown would ever, 779b

Wrestles with us, he that, 41b

WRETCH, WRETCHEDNESS

a very faithful wretch, 240b a villain, a wretch, 44a an inhuman wretch, 283a a live-broken wretch, 67b a wretched man is a sacred thing, 645b better things perhaps will attend the wretched, 534b convicted of wretchedness and
 want, 334b
 easy to mock the wretched, 529a energy and greater perseverance found among the wretched, 621b he is wretched that weens him so, 403b more bent to raise the wretched, 148a
 most deject and wretched, 294a

Wretch, Wretchedness—contd.
 nature of wretched to envy the
 good, 523*b*
 none completely wretched but the great, 26*b* not inexperienced in wretched-
 ness, 598*b*
 nothing wretched unless you think it so, 293*a*, note reverence due to the wretched, 523*b*

shun the wretched, 531*a* sum of human wretchedness, 61*b* the wretched have no friends, 128*a* Wright, he is not the best, that hews the maniest speals, 774*a* Wringing their hands, they will be,
 377*b*

WRINKLES

an old wrinkle never wears out, 736*b*
 if you leave out the wrinkles, 105*a* no wrinkle on thine azure brow, 56*a*
 old age wrinkles the mind more than the face, 698*b* religion cannot stay wrinkles, 521*b* right value of wrinkles, 570*a* smoothes away a wrinkle, 232*a* the d—d democrats, 64*b* we see Time's furrows on another's brow, 406*b*

WRITE, WRITING

an itch for writing, 499*a* burns with a passion for writing, 583*b*
 can't write nor rade, 129*b* desire for grows with writing, 507*b* does he write? 33*b* drinking asses' milk and writing, 123*b*
 ease in writing, 247*a* easy writing curst hard reading, 328*b*
 give me six lines in writing by an honest man, I will find something to hang him, 705*b* good sense the standard of writing well, 239*b*
 goose-quill more dangerous than lion's claw, 722*b*
 I amuse my leisure with writing,
 540*b*
 I will not believe it till I have read it, 596*b*
 I wish I knew not how to write,
 679*b*
 incurable itch of writing, 670*a* learn to write well, 122*b*, 324*b* leave something so written to after times, 228*b* look into thine heart and write, 197*b*
 love has bidden me write, 514*b*, 650*b*
 may I not write in such a style, 38*b*
 Milton on prose writing, 228*b* never write what you dare not sign, 815*a* not to go beyond the things which are written, 427*b* not to think of men above that which is written, 427*b* only a little more I have to write, 164*b*
 paper monuments most lasting,
 848*b*
 ploughmen fail to guide the pen, 103*a* quickly write, 665*a* regard the writer's end, 246*b* the blood-stained writing, 397*a* Write, Writing—contd.

 the written word remains, 687*b* though it be not written down, 285*a*

'tis my fate to write, 239*b*
 to spare waste-paper (to abstain from literary composition), 619*b* to write and read comes by nature, 284*b*
 to write the things I was ashamed to say, 514*b* to write too much, 106*a* very dust of whose writings, 22*a* what he wrote was all his own, 109*a*
 what I have written I have written, 426*a*, 641*b* what is writ is writ, 56*a* what is written is true, 788*b*, 789*a*,
note

who write apace, 33*b* wise above that which is written, 427*b*, note
 writ by a friend, and with his blood, 163*b*
 write about it, goddess, and about
 it, 254*a*
 write because all write, 256*a* write for glory or reward, 240*b* write something great, 650*b* write with the learned, 878*a* writer's cramp, 188*a* writers steal a good thing when they can, 260*b* writing comes by the grace of God, 133*a*
 writing helpful to speaking, 603*a* writing helpful in learning, 603*a*,
note

writing maketh an exact man, 11*b* writing or in judging ill, 246*a* writing well, nature's chief masterpiece, 324*b* written letter remains, 567*a* written out of reputation, 22*a* written words may be blotted out, 512*b*
 wrote and floundered on, 253*b*

WRONG

a private not a public wrong, 256*b* all his life he has been in the
 wrong, 264*a*
 all seem wrong, 37*b* at every preceding stage, wrong, 344*a*
 burning hate of wrong, 235*b* divinely in the wrong, 404*b* do wrong to none, 299*a* endless labour to be wrong, 181*b* every wrong is avenged on earth, 710*a*
 how easily things go wrong, 207*a* I canna wrang thee, 48*b* if I have done wrong to any man, 432*b*
 in working wrong the pleasure shall soon fade, 156*a* man should never be ashamed to own being wrong, 350*a* men do wrong when they have a chance, 471*b*
 none can take advantage of his own wrong-doing, 604*b* not surely always in the wrong, 97*b*
 on adamant we engrave wrongs, 188*b*
 one who treasures up a wrong, 58*b* others shall right the wrong, 387*b* public wrongs popular rights in embryo, 106*a* redressing human wrong, 364*a* report of wrong and outrage, 99*a* Wrong—contd.

revenge your country's wrongs, 437*b*
 something is wrong, 35*b* sorrow tracketh wrong, 208*b*
 the wrong that needs resistance, 14*b*
 to ride abroad redressing human wrongs, 366*a* two wrongs do not make a right, 864*b*
 Valerius loathed the wrong, 206*b* we are both in the wrong, 143*a* we do him wrong to sing so wildly, 362*b* we easily pardon a wrong in which we participate, 704*b* wherever wrong is done, 201*b* wrong and right, twain for ever, 354*a*
 wrong for ever on the throne, 201*a* wrong has no warrant, 878*a* wrong hears wrong answer given, 878*a*
 wrong the wronger till he render
 right, 321*b*
 wrong that was is right, 340*b* wrong way seems always more reasonable, 230*b* wrong would triumph, 36*b* wrongs beget more mischiefs, 105*b* wrongs which flesh and blood cannot endure, 137*b* you are in the wrong box, 878*b* See Unbecoming Wroth to be wroth, 364*b* with one we love, 87*a* Wrought, first, and afterward taught, 77*a*

X

Xenocrates and Plato, 448*a* never repented of silence, 517*b* Xerxes' bridge of ships, 451*a*

Y

Yarn, a mingled, good and ill, 299*a* all I ask is a merry, 299*b* Yawning: a good gaper makes two gapers, 722*a* when one yawns another yawns, 614*a*
 Yea be yea, let your, 431*a* Yea, yea; nay, nay, 421*a* Yeas, russet, and honest kersey
 noes, 277*b*
 Yearnings for the mystical better things, 151*b*
YEAR, YEARS a few more years, 24*a* a fresh dozen (the New Year), 172*b*
 a poor stake that cannot stand one year, 794*a* a thousand years in thy sight, 413*a*
 a year begun is reckoned as one finished, 491*a*
 ah, happy years, 53*b* as the year is your pot must seeth, 739*b* comes in at one year, 171*b* darkly forward flowed the stream of years, 325*b*
 days of our years are threescore years and ten, 413*a* declined into the vale of years, 302*a*
 deeds, not years, 14*a* Year, Years—contd.

everyone has more years than he knows, 763*b* gave up the years to be, 26*a* his blameless years rolled by, 104*b* it will be all the same a hundred years hence, 797*a* keep a thing seven years, ye'll find a use for it, 798*a* longer lives a good fellow than a dear year, 804*b* make your plans for the year at its beginning, 807*a* multitude of years should teach wisdom, 335*a*, note new years ruin and rend, 351*a* none so old but thinks he has one more year, 589*a* not whiteness of years but of morals, 596*a* nothing swifter than years, 591*b* O that Jupiter would give back the years, 607*a* once in ten years a man has need of another, 820*b* one year of joy, one of comfort, the rest of content, 823*a* our earliest years, 95*b* our mortal complement of years, 395*b* pensive monitor of fleeting years, 394*b* quench not thirst of glory, 222*b* saddened and dimmed descending years, 272*b* saddest of the year, 37*a* say no ill of the year till it be past, 831*a* so many changeful years, 46*b* speak no ill of the year till it has gone, 827*a* starry girdle of the year, 66*b* the gods give thee years, 514*b* the rolling year is full of Thee, 370*a* the sweet year before thee lies, 236*a* the touch of earthly years, 393*a* the year does nothing but open and shut, 853*b* the year is going, let him go, 363*a* the years glide, 17*a*, 521*b* the years steal fire from the mind, 54*b* twenty years wear out, 5*a* we all have more years than each man knows, 855*a* years bring many things and take many away, 581*a* years following years steal something every day, 253*b* years pass but never return, 546*b* years take something each from each of us, 658*b* years taught wisdom to mankind, 335*a* Yell, devil so deaved with their, 129*a* was there, such a, 270*a* Yellow leaf, days are in the, 61*b* is jealous, 462*a* means falsehood, 462*b* Press, 456*b*
 Yeoman of Kent, 274*a* Yeomen's service, 297*a* Verde (rod) maketh ofte a, 79*a* Yes, Crier cried O, 16*b* Yes, I answered you last night, 30*a*
 Yes and No are quickly said, 878*b* the cause of all disputes, 878*b* See Ay, Yea.
YESTERDAY and YESTERDAYS a man of cheerful yesterdays, 402*a* O, call back yesterday, 312*b*

Yesterday and Yesterdays—contd.

O for yesterdays to come, 405*a* our yesterdays have lighted fools to death, 305*b* to look for yesterday's fish in otter's house, 795*b* whose yesterdays look backward with a smile, 405*a* Yet another yet, 281*a* YIELD and YIELDING be soople in things immaterial, 344*b* brave man cannot yield, 534*b* by yielding you will depart victorious, 502*a* giving way stops all war, 766*a* he overcomes who yields to his friends, 601*b* in yielding their best victory found, 370*b* never to submit or yield, 216*a* sometimes the best way of succeeding, 878*b* stops all war, 878*b* the wiser one yields, 878*b* to have given way to a greater man, 502*a* valour that parleys is near yielding, 719*a* yield to our prayers, 513*b* yields with all her heart, 20*b* Yoke, in time the savage bull doth bear the, 284*a*, note, 397*b* submits his neck unto a second, 164*b* tear your necks from the, 522*b* too late in refusing to bear the, 653*b* who best bear his mild, 227*a* withdraw your neck from, 629*a* Yokefellow, true, 429*b* Yorick, alas, poor, 297*a* York, this sun of, 318*a* Yorkshire, he is, 774*b* more acres in Yorkshire than letters in Bible, 854*a* Yorkshire toast, 461*b*
 You and yours, here's a health to, 461*b* YOUNG a young man married, is married, 299*a* a young man's fancies, 358*b* both were young, 60*b* crime of being a young man, 181*a*, 245*a* for ever must be young, 94*b* grieve not that I die young, 158*b* I felt so young, 29*b* I have been young, and now am old, 433*b* if all the world and love were young, 262*a* if ladies be but young and fair, 288*b* maketh young men mad, 236*a* old in hours, young in years, 11*a* proper young men, 44*b* remembered that he once was young, 4*a* snatched away from life (when young), 535*a* so cunning and so young, 319*a* so fair, so young, 56*a* so wise, so young, 319*a* so young a body, with so old a head, 283*a* so young and so untender, 305*b* so young, so beautiful, 62*b* spurned by the young, 173*b* the cheek of the young person, 115*a* the flower of young men, 533*b*

Young—contd.

to be young was very heaven, 393*b* too young to give them counsel, 211*b* we did these things when young 531*a* what will it help you that once you were young, 441*a* when I was young and charming, 145*b* when my bosom was young, 68*b* whom the gods love die young, 63*b*, 476*a*, 631*a* world grows young, 23*b* yet—God guide them—young, 364*b* young and so fair, 169*a* young, and so unkind, 320*b* young fellows will be young fellows, 22*a* young folks are smart, 202*b* young man a liar, 434*a* young men nearly wept, 236*a* young men soon give affronts, 1*b* young men think old men fools, 75*b* young some forty years ago, 96*a* Yours is mine, what is, 300*a* YOUTH a dream of, 325*a* a very riband in the cap of, 296*b* a virtuous and well-governed youth, 278*a* a well-beloved youth, 435*b* a youth of frolics, 251*a* a youth to whom was given so much of earth, 393*a* abundance of money ruins youth, 812*a* advice to youth,—Work, work, work, 450*a* age and youth, 42*a* all fallible, even the youngest, 442*a* almost everything great done by youth, 117*a* and age, both right, both wrong, 344*a* and Age, they are not one, 121*a* and age will never agree, 880*b* and observation copied there, 292*a* and Pleasure meet, 54*b* and white paper take any impression, 880*b* as thy youth shall be thine age, 657*b* ask the young people, they know everything, 739*b* best to bend while it is a twig, 741*b* blunders of youth, 117*b* boasting youth, 255*a* branches may be straightened, but not an old tree, 862*b* calls for Pleasure, 3*b* can learn no good where old age is evil, 873*a* castles in the air, 187*b* caught our youth and wakened us, 26*a* crabbed age and youth, 322*b* cry down youth's heritage, 346*a* eident youth makes easy age, 754*b* English public never forgives youth, 389*a* excesses of our youth, 91*a* fairy tale read but in youth, 93*a* faults of youth cause decay of strength, 512*b* fiery vehemence of youth, 270*b* figure of blown youth, 294*a*

Youth—contd.

first part of life used in making the other part wretched, 698a flies, 536b
for you the To-Come, 195b fortunate youth celebrated by Homer, 606b gather flowers while the morning shines, 519b gilded youth, 695b give me a young man who can make a fool of himself, 344a glittering dreams of youth, 230b glory dropped from their youth,
35b growing youth has a wolf in his stomach, 723a
happy is he who knows his follies in his youth, 771a
home-keeping youth, 281a
I do adore thee (youth), 322b I have passed a barren youth, 542b if you knew what age would have,
791b if youth knew ! if old age could !
791b important are our earliest years, 95b impulsiveness of youth, 563b in flower of youth, 125b in my hot youth, 62a in my youth, when Plancus was consul, 597a in our sweet youth, 360b in the days of my youth I remembered my God, 335b in the lexicon of youth, 204b in the vaward of our youth, 315a in youth alone mortals live, 127a in youth it sheltered me, 235a intemperate youth brings worn-out age, 557b is a blunder, 117a is confident, 373b is full of pleasance, 322b is wholly experimental, 344b is youth, 193b it is safety to young men to know these things, 602a lads will be men, 799b less suspicious than age, 5a let age approve of youth, 34b let no man despise thy youth, 430a like wax to bend into vice, 502a lives in the light of youthful glee, 395b lives on hope, 880b loves the meat in his youth, 284b man whose youth has no follies, 90a many a youth and many a maid, 224a mirth and youth, 227b modesty becomes youth, 486a, 512a
morn and liquid dew of youth, 291a my early youth drank error, 239a
none can be good too soon, 817b not as in the hour of thoughtless youth, 394a
not clean past your youth, 315a once gone (youth) is gone, 31a over-occupied about the outward
man, 551b
playthings of youth, 249a pleasing illusions of youth, 329a pleasures of youth flowers but of
May, 438a

Youth—contd.

precocious youth a sign of premature death, 653a prolong the youth of the mind, 90a put a spirit of youth in every-
thing, 322a rail at the pleasures of youth, 75a rashness a quality of youth, 669b reckless youth makes rueful age, 829a red sweet wine of youth, 26a rejoice, O young man, in thy youth, 416a
remember thy Creator in days of thy youth, 416a subdued by reason, not force, 643a should be a savings bank, 697b should be unsuspicious, 192b should do, 368b stolthful youth produces old age of beggary, 653a some untutored youth, 322a the brief flower of youth, 325b the death of youth is a shipwreck, 843a the flower of youth, 533b the illusions of his youth, 265a the rose of youth, 307b the season of credulity, 245a the true nettle stings when young, 676b the wildest colts make best horses, 447b the wine is bright at the goblet's brim, 266b
the youth of primy nature, 291a the youth that fired the Ephesian dome, 83a thoughtless youth, 95b thoughts and plans and schemes of youth, 346a thoughts of youth, long, long thoughts, 200a
time steals on our youth, 165b time the rider that breaks in youth, 859b to be young old, be old when young, 820b to bear the yoke in his youth, 418b
train while minds are pliant, 682a tree must be bent when young, 858a valiant heart of youth, 5a wakeful youth a presage of death, 695b waneth by increasing, 242a
what youth deemed crystal, 36b
when all things pleased, 264a when youth is fallen, 103b
who dies in youth, 257a whose youth was full of foolish noise, 362b will have its swing, 880b with his face against the upland hill, 121a with swift feet, 50b worn in the bud of youth, 102b worse losses than loss of youth, 176a you must not expect old heads on young shoulders, 880a yours is the dawn of the morning, 174a young flesh and old fish, 880a young folk, silly folk ; old folk, cold folk, 880b

Youth—contd.

young men think old men fools,
880b young men's knocks old men feel,
880b young trooper should have old
horse, 731a
youth and elde often at debate, 77a
Youth at the prow, 155a youth, beauty, graceful action, 123a
youth means love, 35a youth of a Nation, trustees of Posterity, 116b youth of America its oldest tradition, 388b youth that means to be of note, begins betimes, 307b
youth, whose hope is high, 25a youth, why wilt thou not incline to reason, 166b youth's smooth ocean, smiling to betray, 326a
See Young
Yule. See Christmas

Z

Zamora was not conquered in one hour, 830a

ZEAL

a dreadful termagant, 52a a holy, mistaken zeal in politics, 184a blind zeal only does harm, 710b clothe thy feigned zeal, 1b fit only for wise men, but found mostly in fools, 880b like fire, wants feeding and watching, 880b of fools in rhyme, 253a of (for) God, but not according to knowledge, 427a
of thine house, 425b peaceful zeal, 386b persecuting zeal hell's fiercest fiend, 370b tell zeal it wants devotion, 262a thy zeal shall find repose, 397a too much zeal, 93b too much zeal spoils all, 862b true and false zeal, 699a weak and ignorant zeal, 349a when a virtue, is a dangerous one, 880b without knowledge a runaway
horse, 880b
without knowledge is fire without
light, 880b
Zealous, for nothing, I do not love
a man, 151a
Zealously affected in a good thing, 429a
Zealots, graceless, 249b Zed, thou unnecessary letter, 306a Zenith, dropt from the, 216b Zeus, as third, sovran, 245b hates busybodies, 451a Zig-zags in a book, continual, 98a Zoe kai psuche, 472a Zoilus remembered only as a pedantic critic of Homer, 555b Zonam perdidit, 688b Zone, Love's, 32a Zoroaster, blank to, 33b Zwei Seelen und ein Gedanke, 200b,
note

NOTES

NOTES

NOTES

NOTES

NOTES

NOTES

NOTES

NOTES

800

2896.

1646.

150 a.

950

